

The Great Mans Gratitude to his Friend,
Kings Promises, Whores Vowes, towards thee they
Flow swiftly into thee, and in thee end; &

(A Hymne to Godske Trasser.)

Wilt thou forgive that Sin where I begun,
Which was my Sin, though it were done before;
Wilt thou forgive that Sin through which I run,
And doe run still, though still I doe deplore;
When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
For I have more;

Wilt thou forgive that Sin which I have won
Others to Sin, and made my Sin their doer;
Wilt thou forgive that Sin which I did shun
A yeare or two, but wallowed in, a score;
When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
For I have more;

I have a Sin offeare, that when I have spurn
My last shred, I shall perishe on the Shore;
But I sweare by thy Self, that at my death thy Son
Shall shine as hee shines now, and heretofore;
And, having done that, thou hast done,
I feare no more; * * *
Downe Two

(Two went up into the Temple to Pray.

238
Two went to Pray; Crasher say
One went to pray, the other to Pray;
One stands up close, and reads on high,
Where the other dares not lend his Eye;
One nearer to Gods Altar stood,
The other to the Altars God; *

Luke. 10.

And a certain Priest coming that way Looked on him and passed by;

Why dost thou wound my Wounds, O thou that
Handling and turning them was an unwounded
The Calm that cooles thine eye, Does Shipwrack mee,
* Unmov'd to see one wretched, is to make him so;

(Sampson so his Dalilah;)

Could not Once blinding mee, Cruel, suffice;
When first I lookt on thee, I lost mine Eyes;
