 156.00a.006 loyne the two Indies in one Tombe, 'tis glas;
 156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vs her
 156.00a.105 And 'tis in heau'n part of spirituall mirth,
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)
 158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better prooue the law
 158.00A.338 'Tis greatest now, and to destruction
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 165.00A.011 'Tis late to aske abundance of thy grace,
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse
 181.00A.042 Your joy in crosses, else, 'tis double losse,
 187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we're not utterly
 187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;
 187.00A.301 9 Better by sword then famine 'tis to dye;

 109.00A.016 Downeward againe; and so when it did view
 109.00A.062 Seas into seas throwne, we suck in againe;
 116.00A.008 The body risen againe, the which was dead,
 125.00A.011 And then againe to your embracements goe:
 130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
 131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
 131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.
 131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.
 131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
 133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.
 133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,
 134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,
 135.B13.028 Did all St. Edith Nunns descend againe
 149.00A.012 We, after Gods Noe, drowne the world againe.
 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 155.00a.119 Two or three hundred yeares to see't againe,
 155.00a.212 Is crumbled out againe to his Atomis.
 157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;
 158.00A.092 And one by one we'are here slaine o'er againe
 158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire
 158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne
 160.00A.083 That wak't from both, I againe risen may
 171.00A.011 Divorce mee,'untie, or breake that knot againe,
 172.00A.010 His stolne stufte sold, must lose or buy'it againe:

173.00A.012 Revive againe what law and letter kill,
 174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
 176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe
 184.00A.015 And crucified againe,
 184.00A.102 Their bodies backe againe to thee,
 184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe
 184.00A.250 O let it not returne to us againe,
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexe them againe.
 189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?
 191.00B.013 That worke againe, and shed it, here, upon

AGAINST.....22

001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.
 002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they
 005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most
 021.00G.068 Though notagainst thy strokes, against thy harme%ls.
 034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could
 055.00A.041 Torture against thine owne end is,
 080.00E.002 And strives against it still,
 080.00E.004 For he loves against his will;
 109.00A.026 Asunder, meet against a third to warre,
 133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 158.00A.346 Conspir'd against him, and it might undoe
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.468 Her anger on himselfe. Sinnes against kinde
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 184.00A.182 Wee arme against thee, and they fight for sinne,
 187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,

AGAYNE.....1

014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.

AGE.....27

003.00A.007 As vertue was in the first blinded age?
 003.00A.083 Yet strive so, that before age, deaths twilight,
 005.00A.035 O Age of rusty iron! Some better wit
 005.00A.037 The iron Age that was, when justice was sold, now
 006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 008.00B.107 Want after plenty; poore and gouty age;
 033.00A.013 Till age snow white haire on thee,
 036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee

038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.
 050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,
 070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
 108.00A.180 May never age, or error overthwart
 114.00A.007 Like infancie or age to mans firme stay,
 130.00A.013 The noble Soule by age growes lustier,
 141.00A.017 If the worlds age, and death be argued well
 145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit
 150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye
 153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 157.00b.068 Where all sat harkning how her youthfull age
 157.00b.178 Of sicknesses, or their true mother, Age.
 157.00b.223 An Age in her; shee whose rich beauty lent
 165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,

AGED.....2

156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad 158.00A.005 And the great world to his aged evening;

AGEN.....1

157.00b.330 And for the word of God, vent them agen?

AGENTE.....1

198.LL1.014 Post multos annos, Agente spiritu S^{to}, suadente Rege

AGENTS.....1

139.00A.018 New spirit: for, strong agents with the same

AGES.....6

050.00A.032 Her youth with ages glory, Barrennesse.
 149.00A.021 As men of China,'after an ages stay
 155.00a.248 Feele this consuming wound, and ages darts.
 155.00a.254 Obseru'd in diuers ages doth enforce
 157.00b.264 For many ages, that our body'is wrought
 160.00A.055 He in his ages morning thus began

AGGRAVATE.....1

184.00A.228 Our vices often aggravate,

AGITATO.....1

201.20a.034 pulsuque agitato.

AGOE.....5

003.00A.046 That shee was there a thousand yeares agoe,
 043.00A.003 Though it be but an houre agoe,
 109.00A.058 As from one hang'd in chaines, a yeare agoe.
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 157.00b.062 As of old cloaths, cast of a yeare agoe.

AGONIE.....2

184.00A.163 And though that bitter agonie,
 184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,

AGREE.....3

077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:

AGREES.....1

141.00A.007 Whose motion with the firmament agrees,

AGUE.....5

014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;
 109.00A.054 Shak'd with this ague, and the Hold and Wast
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 157.00b.097 Anger thine Ague more, by calling it
 180.NY3.013 Like a fantastique Ague: Save that here

AGUES.....4

153.00A.126 Zeales agues; and hydroptique avarice,
 155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
 157.00b.428 Gods vnto them, so Agues bee, and war)
 165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,

AGUISH.....2

142.00A.034 Vertue'is but aguish, when 'tis severall,
 184.00A.209 This intermitting aguish Pietie,

AGUNT.....1

201.20a.039 Se posse, indicijs; 20 Id agunt;

AH.....3

029.00A.009 Ah, what a trifle is a heart,
 065.00A.023 Convey'd by this, Ah, what doth it availle,
 079.00B.021 Ah cannot wee,

157.00b.308 That aie the vertuous Actions they expresse,

AILES.....1

107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,

AIR.....1

020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man

AIRE.....18

013.00A.005 Nor couldst thou judge the difference of the aire

022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,

024.00A.042 Then fishes leave in streames, or Birds in aire.

045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,

045.00A.027 As is twixt Aire and Angells puritie,

083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,

107.00A.002 All the Aire is thy Diocis,

108.00A.006 In numerous fleets, saile through their Sea, the aire.

110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.

130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,

148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,

150.00A.017 He rounds the aire, and breakes the hymnique notes

153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.

158.00A.133 As aire from water, water fleets away

158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she

158.00A.215 The free inhabitants of the Plyant aire.

158.00A.265 And suck in aire, or finde it underneath,

158.00A.313 Then cannons voices, when the aire they teare:

AIRELIKE.....1

158.00A.267 To make the wether thinne, and airelike faith

AIRES.....1

139.00A.015 As spice doth bodies from corrupt aires touch.

ALACRITY.....1

157.00b.063 To be thus stupid is Alacrity;

ALAS.....43

002.00A.043 Hath made a Lawyer; which was alas of late

003.00A.009 Lusts, as earths honour was to them? Alas,

003.00A.106 To the streames tyrannous rage, alas are driven

005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know

005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest

006.00D.069 Pilfer alas a little wit from you;

008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,

013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas

018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!

021.00G.005 Alas the darkest Magick cannot do it,

024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,

027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.
 029.00A.023 More pittie unto mee: but Love, alas
 035.00A.022 Alas, true joyes at best are dreame enough;
 037.00A.023 And said, alas, Some two or three
 039.00A.010 Alas, alas, who's injur'd by my love?
 039.00A.010 Alas, alas, who's injur'd by my love?
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 048.00A.013 Alas, as well as other Princes, wee,
 051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
 055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
 062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre
 068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
 070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,
 107.00A.069 Alas, did not Antiquity assigne
 108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 114.00A.014 In Natures, and in fortunes gifts, (alas,
 149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complains! Alas,
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 155.00a.024 Well, when alas, thou'rt in a Letargee.
 155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie
 155.00a.141 A thing so equall to him: now alas,
 156.00a.003 Alas, what's Marble, leat, or Porphyry,
 156.00a.013 Sickly, alas, short-liu'd, aborted bee
 156.00a.049 What is't to vs, alas, if there haue beene
 157.00b.412 Alas, tis but a casuall happinesse.
 160.00A.062 Alas, and do, unto the immaculate,
 166.00A.004 Cannot be damn'd; Alas; why should I bee?
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 189.00B.031 Alas poore joyes, but poorer men, whose trust
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.

ALCHIMIE.....2

036.00A.024 All honor's mimique; All wealth alchimie;
 082.00A.013 In whom love wrought new Alchimie.

ALCHIMIST.....1

161.00A.013 You are that Alchemist which alwaies had

ALCHIMISTS.....1

181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchemists doe coyner prove,

ALCHIMY.....2

052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.
 155.00a.182 All, by a true religious Alchimy;

ALEXANDERS.....1

153.00A.252 Griefe in great Alexanders great excesse,

ALIA.....1

198.LL1.012 Ad alia, tam studia, quam negotia, et peregrinationes deflectens,

ALIENS.....2

137.00A.066 As strange attire aliens the men wee know.

187.00A.352 Is turn'd, our houses unto Aliens gone,

ALIKE.....9

024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?

032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.

036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,

052.00A.048 Love and their art alike it deadly wounds,

129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.

141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,

145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)

152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:

177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd

ALIO-.....1

201.20a.029 Obstreperae Campanae, alio-

ALIQVANTILLA.....1

195.010.024 FILIAE SVAE (EHEV, DEPERDITAE) ALIQVANTILLA PRAESENTIA,

ALIUE.....1

155.00a.066 Aliue to study this dissectione;

ALIVE.....7

022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;

042.00A.040 Alive, ne'r parted bee.

049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus

153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?

158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,

183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;

184.00A.098 Tentations martyr us alive; A man

ALL.....675

001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,

001.00A.014 (If thou which lov'st all, canst love any best)

001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee

001.00A.056 Name her child's right true father, 'mongst all those:

001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all

001.00A.098 Of all the Court, to have the best conceit;

002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state

002.00A.003 In all ill things so excellently best,
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee
 002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,
 002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;
 003.00A.006 As worthy of all our Soules devotion,
 003.00A.036 The worlds all parts wither away and passe,
 003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one
 003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one
 003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinkes that so
 003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazling, yet plaine to all eyes;
 004.00A.013 As prone to all ill, and of good as forget-
 004.00A.019 E'r bred, or all which into Noahs Arke came:
 004.00A.034 See it plaine Rashe awhile, then nought at all.
 004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
 004.00A.036 And only knoweth what to all States belongs,
 004.00A.037 Made of th'Accents, and best phrase of all these,
 004.00A.060 Yet a poore gentleman; All these may passe
 004.00A.077 Of all our Harries, and our Edwards talke,
 004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:
 004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.
 004.00A.107 Toll to some Courtier; And wiser then all us,
 004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since
 004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 004.00A.167 O Sunne, in all thy journey, Vanitie,
 004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.
 004.00A.175 'Tis ten a clock and past; All whom the Mues,
 004.00A.177 Had all the morning held, now the second
 004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r looks
 004.00A.194 And women buy all reds which scarlets die.
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 005.00A.005 Frees from the sting of jests all who in extreme
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 005.00A.010 As I thinke, since all, which were, are, and shall
 005.00A.019 The excrements, which they voyd; all men are dust,
 005.00A.039 All demands, fees, and duties; gamsters, anon
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
 005.00A.061 Powers, Cherubins, and all heavens Court, if wee
 005.00A.066 All his cloathes, Copes; Bookes, Primers; and all
 005.00A.066 All his cloathes, Copes; Bookes, Primers; and all
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper

005.00A.085 Enough to cloath all the great Carricks Pepper.
 006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.
 006.00D.046 They hatch all wares for which the buyer calls;
 006.00D.048 That they all kinde of matter comprehend.
 006.00D.056 Which casts at Portescues, and all the board
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 006.00D.066 All in one bottome, in one Librarie.
 006.00D.072 For every peece is as much worth as all.
 006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.
 008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;
 008.00B.039 Visit all Countries, and have silyly made
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
 008.00B.093 Gold being the heaviest metal amongst all,
 008.00B.105 May all the evils that gold ever wrought;
 008.00B.106 All mischiefes that all devils ever thought;
 008.00B.106 All mischiefes that all devils ever thought;
 009.00A.011 From parboild shooes, and bootes, and all the rest
 010.00A.002 All thy suppos'd escapes are laid on mee;
 010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
 010.00A.016 And watch thy entries, and returns all night,
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 010.00A.067 You're loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 010.00A.071 All my perfumes, I give most willingly
 013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 014.NY3.003 All other warrs are scrupulous; Only thou
 014.NY3.007 Only we know, that which all Ideots say
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to lue.
 014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
 015.00G.001 Come, Madam, come, all rest my powers defie,
 015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,
 015.00G.040 For lay-men are all women thus arrayed.
 015.00G.045 Thy self: cast all, yea, this white lynnence hence
 016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed come there,
 016.00A.030 To runne all countries, a wild roguery;
 017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautious bee,
 017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,
 017.00A.023 She's faire as any, if all be like her,
 017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be
 018.00B.002 By all desires which thereof did ensue,
 018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,
 018.00B.009 I conjure thee, and all the oathes which I
 018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face

020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon
 020.00G.055 For they seem all: there Syrens songs, and there
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 021.00G.042 And over all thy husbands towring eyes
 021.00G.050 Varied our language through all dialects,
 021.00G.053 Have we prov'd all the secrets of our Art,
 021.00G.055 And, after all this passed Purgatory,
 021.00G.086 Yet Phaebus equally lights all the Sphere.
 021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,
 022.00A.016 Sprinkled among, (all sweeter by our feares
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 022.00A.047 And after all selfe torment, when hee dyes,
 022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,
 022.00A.065 All which were such soft pastimes, as in these
 024.00A.036 In whose selfe, unmanur'd, all pleasure lies,
 024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;
 024.00A.044 All, all that Nature yields, or Art can adde.
 024.00A.044 All, all that Nature yields, or Art can adde.
 024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?
 024.00A.052 That touching my selfe, all seemes done to thee.
 024.00A.062 Envy'in all women, and in all men, love,
 024.00A.062 Envy'in all women, and in all men, love,
 026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.
 028.00A.003 From all solicitation from mee,
 029.00A.011 All other griefes allow a part
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.
 030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
 032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
 032.00A.010 For love, all love of other sights controules,
 033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
 033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,
 035.00A.010 Then Fantasie is Queene and Soule, and all;
 035.00A.014 For, all our joyes are but fantasticall.
 035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
 036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 036.00A.021 She'is all States, and all Princes, I,
 036.00A.021 She'is all States, and all Princes, I,
 036.00A.024 All honor's mimique; All wealth alchimie;
 036.00A.024 All honor's mimique; All wealth alchimie;
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 039.00A.035 And by these hymnes, all shall approve
 039.00A.043 That they did all to you epitomize,
 041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
 041.00A.002 Deare, I shall never have it all,
 041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,

041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
 041.00A.012 Or if then thou gavest mee all,
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
 041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
 041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 041.00A.033 Be one, and one anothers All.
 044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
 044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,
 044.00A.028 Of thee one houre, then all else ever.
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 048.00A.001 All Kings, and all their favorites,
 048.00A.001 All Kings, and all their favorites,
 048.00A.002 All glory of honors, beauties, wits,
 048.00A.006 All other things, to their destruction draw,
 048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 049.00A.008 As all confessing, and through-shine as I,
 049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,
 049.00A.016 So shall all times finde mee the same;
 049.00A.025 Then, as all my soules bee,
 049.00A.033 As all the vertuous powers which are
 050.00A.022 Where no voluptuousnesse ,, yet all delight.
 050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
 050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
 050.00A.039 Whose Eyes seeke light within, for all here's shade;
 051.00A.006 The spider love, which transubstantiates all,
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 052.00A.013 To all whom loves subliming fire invades,
 052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
 053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
 053.00A.015 And to all eyes it selfe betrayes,
 053.00A.021 And he that leaves all, doth as well,
 054.00A.005 Me thinks I lyed all winter, when I swore,
 054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
 054.00A.009 But mixt of all stuffes, paining soule, or sense,
 054.00A.013 But as all else, being elemented too,
 054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,
 057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.
 057.00A.025 'Tis not all spirit, pure, and brave,
 059.00A.006 Oh, 'tis imposture all:
 061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;
 061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,
 061.00A.025 The venom of all stepdames, gamsters gall,

061.00A.028 Can contribute, all ill, which all
 061.00A.028 Can contribute, all ill, which all
 061.00A.029 Prophets, or Poets spake; And all which shall
 062.00A.010 Was all the meanes to make us one,
 062.00A.012 Was all our propagation.
 062.00A.019 All day, the same our postures were,
 062.00A.020 And wee said nothing, all the day.
 062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
 062.00A.033 But as all severall soules containe
 062.00A.039 (All which before was poore, and scant,)
 063.00A.002 Then all the worthies did,
 063.00A.014 Hath found, all outward loathes,
 063.00A.026 Then all the Worthies did.
 064.00a.018 All is the purluwe of the God of Love.
 065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
 066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismaticks
 066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
 066.00A.042 All forrainers, mine English tongue.
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.
 067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 067.00A.022 To afford to it all that a Soule can doe,
 068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.
 069.00A.016 All thought of sexe, and thinke to move
 069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;
 070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
 070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
 071.00A.006 Will through all their senses move,
 072.00A.001 Shee'is dead; And all which die
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,
 080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,
 080.00E.010 For such by all are sought;
 081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but shows
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.008 Dead and enterr'd; yet all these seeme to laugh,
 082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
 082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
 082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,

082.00A.022 Of all, that's nothing. Oft a flood
 082.00A.034 And love, all, all some properties invest,
 082.00A.034 And love, all, all some properties invest,
 082.00A.041 Enjoy your summer all,
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
 096.00A.007 To beleeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 106.00A.043 All elder claimes, and all cold barrenesse,
 106.00A.043 All elder claimes, and all cold barrenesse,
 106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
 106.00A.046 Alwaies, all th'other may each one possesse;
 106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
 106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;
 107.00A.002 All the Aire is thy Diocis,
 107.00A.003 And all the chirping Choristers
 107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 107.00A.036 Thy selfe a constellation, of them All,
 107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
 107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
 107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,
 107.00A.087 Or each is both, and all, and so
 107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.
 108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip
 108.00A.011 Thy madnesse from thee; and all springs by frost
 108.00A.023 The Princes favour is defus'd o'r all,
 108.00A.024 From which all Fortunes, Names, and Natures fall;
 108.00A.032 And all is warmth, and light, and good desire;
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
 108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 108.00A.076 A Court, where all affections do assent
 108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 108.00A.084 To vertue, to the which they all pretend.
 108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew
 108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
 108.00A.113 To all our ships, could a Promethean art
 108.00A.134 All businesses, from thence to reinvest
 108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,

108.00A.179 Nature and grace doe all, and nothing Art,
108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.
108.00A.198 And doe all this daies dances o'r againe.
108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
108.00A.230 His only that presents it, but of all,
109.00A.036 All offices of death, except to kill.
109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all
109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
109.00A.055 With a salt dropsie clog'd, and all our tacklings
109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
109.00A.070 Since all formes, uniforme deformity
110.00A.013 And all our beauty, and our trimme, decayes,
110.00A.016 And all the tackling is a frippery.
110.00A.045 Stagge, dogge, and all which from, or towards flies,
110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay
110.00A.048 A scourge, 'gainst which wee all forget to pray,
111.00A.017 And to'have as many eares as all have tongues;
112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three
112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three
112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.
112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
112.00A.042 Are beasts in all, but white integritie.
112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
118.NY3.001 Zealously my Muse doth salute all thee.
118.NY3.003 Whereof thou'and all to whom heauens do infuse
120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
122.00A.027 But if (as All th'All must) hopes smoake away,
122.00A.031 All the worlds riches: And in good men, this
123.NY3.002 Built of all th'elements as our bodyes are:
123.NY3.004 Delicious garden where all Sweetes are sowne.
123.NY3.008 In skorne of all: for now I admyre thee.
124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;
130.00A.018 All libraries, which are Schools, Camps, & Courts;

131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 131.00B.053 As all discoverers whose first assay
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 131.00B.102 That gives to all, and yet hath infinite.
 131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,
 133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you're lov'd by all,
 134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunn serues all the rest,
 135.B13.006 Doe by that influence all your thoughts digest.
 135.B13.018 supplying all the Muses in you twoe.
 135.B13.028 Did all St. Edith Nunns descend againe
 136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,
 136.00A.007 So from low persons doth all honour flow;
 136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,
 136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
 136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 137.00A.035 In all Religions as much care hath bin
 137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
 137.00A.047 And after this survay, oppose to all
 137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.
 137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
 137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,
 138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
 138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 139.00A.026 When all (as truth commands assent) confesse
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 140.00A.014 And is not Asse himselfe to all the rest.
 140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow,'or reason chaw.
 140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow,'or reason chaw.
 140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
 140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all

140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,
 141.00A.030 'Tis not as woman, for all are not soe,
 141.00A.045 To whom, because from you all vertues flow,
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
 141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
 141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,
 142.00A.001 Here where by All All Saints invoked are,
 142.00A.001 Here where by All All Saints invoked are,
 142.00A.026 All contributions to this life forbear,
 142.00A.028 Spirituall Cholerique Crytiques, which in all
 142.00A.036 True vertue is Soule, Alwaies in all deeds All.
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,
 145.00A.010 All Vertues ebb'd out to a dead low tyde,
 145.00A.011 All the worlds frame being crumbled into sand,
 145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
 145.00A.019 All trying by a love of littlenesse
 145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;
 148.00A.017 And do all honour: and devotion due;
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,
 148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;
 148.00A.023 As of this all, though many parts decay,
 148.00A.026 Shall recollect, and in one All unite:
 148.00A.031 As perfect motions are all circular,
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metalls; so
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metalls; so
 149.00A.003 This Sea invirons all, and though as yet
 149.00A.010 Take all a brackish tast, and Funerall.
 149.00A.013 Nothing but man of all invenom'd things
 149.00A.028 Make and name then, th'Elixar of this All.
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:
 149.00A.056 How good in all her titles, and how meet,
 150.00A.024 All the foure Monarchies, and Antichrist.
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee

150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;
 151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
 151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,
 151.00A.026 Th'hast lost thy end, for in her perish all;
 151.00A.033 For of all morall vertues she was all,
 151.00A.033 For of all morall vertues she was all,
 151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 151.00A.062 Of grieve, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.
 152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;
 152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:
 152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:
 152.12a.019 For, All that Faith could credit Mankinde could,
 152.12a.049 As, for the Earth throw'n lowest downe of all,
 152.12a.067 For, as, if all the Substances were spent,
 152.12a.093 I coniure Thee by all the Charmes Hee spoke,
 152.12a.095 By all the Soules you sigh't; that if you see
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;
 153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes deuest
 153.00A.027 All the world growes transparent, and I see
 153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;
 153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,
 153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,
 153.00A.034 All, in these mirrors of thy wayes, and end;
 153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
 153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 153.00A.080 As all the long breath'd Chronicles can touch;
 153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.
 153.00A.099 For, they all vertues paths in that pace tread,
 153.00A.113 All the same roundnesse, evennesse, and all
 153.00A.113 All the same roundnesse, evennesse, and all
 153.00A.120 All, tending to thy endlesse happinesse,
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
 153.00A.154 And great Sun-dyall, to have set us All?
 153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.
 153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
 153.00A.170 They're all but Ants, carrying eggs, straw, and grain;
 153.00A.180 All that they will,'gainst the Triumpher say,
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 153.00A.190 All jealousies 'twixt Prince and subjects love,
 153.00A.225 No, we were all his charge, the Diocis
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 154.00A.010 But, by his losse grow all our orderslesse;

154.00A.018 Gangred all Orders here; all lost a limbe.
 154.00A.018 Gangred all Orders here; all lost a limbe.
 154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse
 154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.017 But goodnes, to see her, whom all would see,
 155.00a.018 All must endeouour to be good as shee,) 155.00a.040 Measures of times are all determined)
 155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,
 155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
 155.00a.081 (For all assum'd vnto this Dignitee,
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;
 155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.182 All, by a true religious Alchimy;
 155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,
 155.00a.195 It seis'd the Angels: and then first of all
 155.00a.205 And new Philosophy cal's all in doubt,
 155.00a.213 'Tis all in pieces, all cohaerence gone;
 155.00a.213 'Tis all in pieces, all cohaerence gone;
 155.00a.214 All iust supply, and all Relation:
 155.00a.214 All iust supply, and all Relation:
 155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,
 155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,
 155.00a.228 Of all faire copies; and the generall
 155.00a.252 Their round proportion embracing all.
 155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.
 155.00a.295 If vnder all, a Vault infernall be,
 155.00a.310 Examin'd, measure of all Symmetree,
 155.00a.322 In her, who caus'd all Ciuill warre to cease.
 155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.
 155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue
 155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
 155.00a.366 Being all color, all Diaphanous,
 155.00a.366 Being all color, all Diaphanous,
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 155.00a.400 Embarr'd, and all this trafique quite forgot,
 155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 155.00a.415 She from whose influence all Impressions came,
 155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet gilded euery state,
 155.00a.463 To Moses, to deliuer vnto all,
 156.00a.007 And so is all to her materials,

156.00a.058 Wisely bestow'd, and layd it all on one.
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 157.00b.005 The Lustre, and the vigor of this All,
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 157.00b.029 Forgetting her, the maine Reserue of all,
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.068 Where all sat harkning how her youthfull age
 157.00b.069 Should be emploid, because in all, shee did,
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
 157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
 157.00b.131 And as, though all doe know, that quantities
 157.00b.144 To bring mankind, all Fortunes it enioies,
 157.00b.171 Bedded and Bath'd in all his Ordures, dwels
 157.00b.188 Dispatches in a minute all the way,
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.295 And see all things despoild of fallacies:
 157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,
 157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had throughly red
 157.00b.306 Shee whose example they must all implore,
 157.00b.315 Shee, shee, not satisfied with all this waite,
 157.00b.335 The poyson'is gone through all, poysons affect
 157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.
 157.00b.360 All royalties which any state emploid,
 157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:
 157.00b.370 To all our actions all the worth they haue:
 157.00b.370 To all our actions all the worth they haue:
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.378 More Antidote, then all the world was ill,)
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.407 But since all honors from inferiors flow,
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.424 To erect true ioye, were all the meanes in one.
 157.00b.426 Of all Gods Benefits, and all his Rods,
 157.00b.426 Of all Gods Benefits, and all his Rods,
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
 157.00b.440 All will not serue; Onely who haue enjoyd
 157.00b.469 A heauen, and here, became vnto vs all,
 157.00b.485 All casuall ioye doth loud and plainly say,
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law

158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
158.00A.022 The Church, and all the Monarchies did floate;
158.00A.024 Of all mankinde, that cage and vivarie
158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow
158.00A.047 And all that calls from this, and to others whets,
158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,
158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,
158.00A.185 All downy a new mantle overspreads,
158.00A.233 Compare all whitenesse, but himselfe to none,
158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,
158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
158.00A.323 All suitors of all sorts themselves enthrall;
158.00A.323 All suitors of all sorts themselves enthrall;
158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,
158.00A.335 To all her limbes, distant as Provinces.
158.00A.347 The plot of all, that the plotters were two,
158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.
158.00A.360 And (his owne dole) feeds with himselfe all companies.
158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
158.00A.448 Himselfe by flight, and by all followed,
158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
160.00A.004 All changing unchang'd Antient of dayes,
160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,
160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,
160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
160.00A.038 Which fills all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
165.00A.005 All whom the flood did, and fire shall o'erthrow,
165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,
165.00A.010 For, if above all these, my sinnes abound,
169.00A.001 Why are wee by all creatures waited on?
170.00A.010 I said to all my profane mistresses,
173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,
178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:
181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
181.00A.023 All the Globes frame, and spheares, is nothing else

181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell
182.00A.011 Himselfe unto all stations, and fill all,
182.00A.011 Himselfe unto all stations, and fill all,
182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose
183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;
183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,
183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,
183.00A.042 Accepted, would have serv'd, he yet shed all;
183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;
184.00A.002 It, and us for it, and all else, for us
184.00A.008 All vicious tinctures, that new fashioned
184.00A.035 Of these let all mee elemented bee,
184.00A.074 Of twelve Apostles, which ingirt this All,
184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth
184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus
184.00A.172 Through thy submitting all, to blowes
184.00A.174 All waies, which rage, or Justice knowes,
185.00A.014 Sinne had eternally benighted all.
185.00A.022 And tune all spheares at once peirc'd with those holes?
185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
187.00A.006 Downe by her cheekes along, and none of all
187.00A.021 6 From Sions daughter is all beauty gone,
187.00A.037 10 Upon all things where her delight hath beene,
187.00A.041 11 And all her people groane, and seeke for bread;
187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:
187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
187.00A.071 O heare all people, and my sorrow see,
187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,
187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had
187.00A.094 All Jacobs dwellings, and demolished
187.00A.148 Joy of the earth, and perfectest of all?
187.00A.173 22 As to a solemne feast, all whom I fear'd
187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
187.00A.195 All the day long, a song and mockery.
187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,
187.00A.242 As refuse, and off-scouring to them all.
187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare
187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
187.00A.296 And all their polish'dnesse was Seraphine.
187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
187.00A.327 17 And wee as yet, for all these miseries
187.00A.354 As Orphans all, and without fathers be;

189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;
 190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;
 191.00B.029 This Quire hath all. The Organist is hee
 191.00B.048 (Though some have other Authors) Davids all:
 191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,

ALLOW.....28

002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,

003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow

003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;

005.00A.038 Injustice is sold deerer farre; allow
 014.NY3.004 O fayr free Citty, maist thy selfe allow
 016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
 029.00A.011 All other griefes allow a part
 038.00A.002 I will allow,
 045.00A.013 That it assume thy body, I allow,
 108.00A.141 Thou in first rising should'st allow for it,
 129.00A.017 Admit this honest paper, and allow
 135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.
 138.00A.048 And looke not back, to looke up doth allow.
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 147.00B.024 A last-sicke houre to syllables allow.
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow
 153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow
 155.00a.108 We doe delightfully our selues allow
 155.00a.172 Helpe, or at least some time to wast, allow
 155.00a.352 Himselfe his various Rainbow did allow.
 156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
 157.00b.183 And freely flies: This to thy soule allow,
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 158.00A.496 A spungie liver, that did richly allow,
 178.NY3.011 And dost not only feare least I allow
 182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow
 184.00A.160 And yet soone after riches didst allow,
 184.00A.246 Gaine to thy selfe, or us allow;

ALLOW'D.....2

131.00B.060 And findes it selfe allow'd, ere it desire.
 176.00B.012 Of comming ill. To (poore) me is allow'd

ALLOWES.....2

016.00A.018 And yet allows his ground more corne should beare;
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allows not this:

119.NY3.010 Although our bodyes wither & minds Languish.

ALLURE.....1

052.00A.007 Her who from Pindar could allure,

ALLURES.....1

001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,

ALLWAYES.....1

014.NY3.036 There we are allwayes vnder, here above.

ALMES.....3

002.00A.105 Where's th'old landlords troops, & almes, great hals?
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 184.00A.140 From bribing thee with Almes, to excuse

122.00A.028 Is not Almightie Vertue'an India?

ALMIGHTY.....3

008.00B.044 Almighty Chymiques from each minerall,
 009.00A.003 As the Almighty Balme of th'early East,
 018.00B.019 Thy (else Almighty) beautie cannot move

ALMOST.....12

003.00A.107 Through mills, & rockes, & woods, and at last, almost
 004.00A.166 Almost about the whole world, hast thou seene,
 008.00B.092 So, that I almost pitty thy estate:
 060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
 129.00A.004 And (how he may) makes you almost the same,
 133.00A.036 A nest almost as full of Good as shee.
 152.12a.016 Almost meetes Faith, and makes both Centres one:
 155.00a.192 Quite out of ioynt, almost created lame:
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.353 Vp to those Virgins, who thought that almost
 158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,
 183.00A.014 At almost fiftie, and at scarce fifteene.

ALONE.....30

004.00A.067 You would leave lonelinesse; I said, not alone
 008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:
 010.00A.067 You'are loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,
 021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 049.00A.026 Emparadis'd in you, (in whom alone
 070.00A.007 Will he not let'us alone,
 103.00A.002 Except himselfe alone his tricks would use,
 106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,
 106.00A.077 T'adorne the day, not thee; for thou, alone,
 129.00A.022 Honour alone will to your fortune fit;
 133.00A.040 Of favour, she alone, to them doth make.
 136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
 136.00A.049 If either ever wrought in you alone
 142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.
 153.00A.206 Must be enlarg'd, and not preserv'd alone;
 154.00A.007 A kind alone;) What ever order grow
 155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
 155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,

155.00a.307 Since euen grieffe it selfe, which now alone
 157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.
 157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,
 158.00A.518 Ther's nothing simply good, nor ill alone,
 160.00A.091 Nor doth hee by ascending, show alone,
 181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone
 182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose
 187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
 187.00A.212 And therefore in him will I hope alone.
 187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,

ALONG.....3

030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;
 158.00A.234 Glided along, and as he glided watch'd,
 187.00A.006 Downe by her cheekes along, and none of all

ALOUND.....2

131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
 187.00A.319 15 Would cry aloud, depart defiled men,

ALOWD.....1

158.00A.188 And chirps aloud for meat. Meat fit for men

ALPES.....1

018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,

ALPHABET.....1

013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet

ALPHABETS.....1

157.00b.284 To know but Catechismes and Alphabets

ALREADY.....5

021.00G.011 Such is already my self-want of sight
 108.00A.015 At Court the spring already advanced is,
 158.00A.193 Already this hot cocke in bush and tree
 164.00A.008 Whose feare already shakes my every joynt:
 191.00B.047 Already done; and as those Psalmes we call

ALREADY'IN.....1

149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,

ALSO.....3

063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe
 106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same

ALTAR.....3

- 181.00A.004 And dare the chosen Altar to despise?
 184.00A.027 Fire, Sacrifice, Priest, Altar be the same.
 187.00A.113 7 The Lord forsakes his Altar, and detests

ALTARS.....4

- 010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
 020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:
 110.00A.025 And on the hatches as on Altars lyes
 137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;

ALTER.....3

- 022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 189.00B.015 And as new crowned Kings alter the face,
 196.015.002 QVO VIX ALTER EIVS ORDINIS MAIORIBVS MAIORIBVS ORTVS

ALTERNIS.....1

- 135.B13.0HE A letter written by Sr. H: G: and I: D. alternis vicibus.

ALTERS.....1

- 108.00A.235 Such Alters, as prize your devotion.

ALTER].....1

- 106.00A.074 And in thy nuptiall bed [loves alter] lye

ALTHOUGH.....7

- 016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,
 020.00G.033 Although we see Celestial bodies move
 114.00A.027 'Twill be good prose, although the verse be evill.
 130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,
 134.00A.005 But as, although a squint lefthandednesse
 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuer keep the name)

ALWAIES.....3

- 106.00A.046 Alwaies, all th'other may each one possesse;
 142.00A.036 True vertue is Soule, Alwaies in all deeds All.
 161.00A.013 You are that Alchimist which alwaies had

ALWAYES.....4

- 136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
 158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
 160.00A.008 A crowne of Glory, which doth flower alwayes;
 160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,

AM.....62

- 004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,

004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,
 004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
 005.00A.032 By having leave to serve, am most richly
 006.00D.075 Thy Gyant-wit'orethrowes me, I am gone;
 008.00B.089 But, I am guilty of your sad decay;
 010.00A.005 So am I, (by this traiterous meanes surpriz'd)
 012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
 012.00A.045 Am the Recusant, in that resolute state,
 015.00G.030 How am I blest in thus discovering thee?
 015.00G.047 To teach thee I am naked first, why than
 018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
 021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
 024.00A.012 And I am rob'd of Picture, Heart, and Sense.
 024.00A.028 That I am such; but Griefe discolors me.
 028.00A.001 When by thy scorne, O murdesse, I am dead,
 040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,
 049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.
 055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 067.00A.018 For since I am
 071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
 072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
 076.00A.010 Am, by being dead, Immortall; Can ghosts die?
 077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 082.00A.009 Compar'd with mee, who am their Epitaph.
 082.00A.012 For I am every dead thing,
 082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot
 082.00A.021 I, by loves limbecke, am the grave
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 085.00A.001 By childrens births, and death, I am become
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,
 108.00A.039a Idios. No, I am there
 108.00A.055 I am not then from the Court.
 112.00A.006 To'a botle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.
 114.00A.016 A monster and a begger, am a foole.
 115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
 124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,
 131.00B.076 But am no porter for a tedious woe.
 138.00A.007 But 'tis not soe, nothing, as I am, may,
 141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 145.00A.067 So am I debtor unto them, whose worth,
 149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content
 153.00A.239 Yet I am farre from daring to dispute
 154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am

162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 171.00A.010 But am betroth'd unto youremie,
 175.00B.001 I am a little world made cunningly
 184.00A.020 Am, but of mudde walls, and condensed dust,
 185.00A.009 Hence is't, that I am carryed towards the West
 187.00A.077 20 Because I am in streights, lehova see
 187.00A.177 1 I am the man which have affliction seene,
 187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
 187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,
 190.00A.018 Art jealous, Lord, so I am jealous now,
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,

AMAS'D.....1

004.00A.129 I more amas'd then Circes prisoners, when

AMASING.....1

170.00A.005 Teares in his eyes quench the amazing light,

AMASS'D.....1

141.00A.024 But now amass'd, contracted in a few.

AMASSING.....1

153.00A.089 By quick amassing severall formes of things,

AMAZ'D.....1

072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)

AMAZING.....1

024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move

AMBASSA-.....1

AMBASSADOR.....1

184.00A.235 That learning, thine Ambassador,

AMBER.....3

017.00A.014 Be muske and amber in it, but not where.

108.00A.058 A little spice, or Amber in thy taste?

136.00A.025 This, as an Amber drop enwraps a Bee,

AMBIT.....1

186.00E.013 Qua sapiens, Dos est; Qua terram lambit et ambit,

AMBITION.....5

108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 108.00A.176 It must serve your ambition, to die;
 135.B13.034 For t'were in vs ambition to write
 157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,
 158.00A.044 Of steepe ambition, sleepe povertie,

AMBITIONS.....2

112.00A.060 Courts hot ambitions wholesome, do not take 153.00A.125 Of hot ambitions, irrelegions ice,

AMBITIOUS.....5

003.00A.056 Some Preachers, vile ambitious bauds, and lawes
 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,
 150.00A.056 Shortly ambitious, covetous, when old,
 155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;
 160.00A.059 For, what weake spirits admire, ambitious, hate;

AMBUSH'D.....1

021.00G.041 And those so ambush'd round with household spies,

AMBUSHES.....1

020.00G.041 The hair a Forest is of Ambushes,

AME.....2

115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.
 157.00b.527 Thou art the Proclamation; and I ame

AMEN.....1

194.00Z.002 Amen.

AMENDMENT.....1

184.00A.233 Us, to amendment, heare them; thee decline;

AMERICA.....1

015.00G.027 O my America! my new-found-land,

AMICISSIMOQUE.....1

AMISS.....1

021.00G.030 To vex my Dove-like friend for my amiss:

AMISSE.....1

157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amise,

AMONG.....5

003.00A.052 Contemptuous, yet unhansome. As among 004.00A.232 With the seaven deadly sinnes) being among 022.00A.016 Sprinkled among, (all sweeter by our feares
 066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among
 131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne

AMONGST.....6

008.00B.093 Gold being the heaviest metal amongst all,
 154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,
 158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 187.00A.068 Is as an uncleane woman amongst them.
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexe them againe.

AMOROUS.....9

001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,
 010.00A.059 By thee the seely Amorous sucks his death
 013.00A.023 As mine: who have with amorous delicacies
 081.HH5.015 nay more abhorr an amorous respect
 081.HH5.018 which takege heate from every amorous Eye
 106.00A.061 The amorous evening starre is rose,
 106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
 120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;
 179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove

AMOROUSLY.....3

012.00A.018 Amorously twinkling, beckens the giddie flie,
 024.00A.054 And amorously thanke my selfe for this.
 027.00A.011 Will amorously to thee swimme,

142.00A.011 I thought it some Apostleship in mee

APPARELL.....1

185.00A.028 By God, for his apparell, rag'd, and torne?

APPARENT.....1

177.00B.007 Apparent in us not immediately,

APPARRELLS.....2

004.00A.180 As fresh, and sweet their Apparrells be, as bee

108.00A.209 By a new fashion, or apparrells change,

APPEALE.....3

005.00A.045 Where wilt thou appeale? powre of the Courts below

081.HH5.036 & drinck in earth my selfe O I appeale

137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,

APPEAR.....1

006.00D.023 Mount now to Gallo-belgicus; appear

APPEAR'D.....1

187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,

APPEARE.....12

081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare

108.00A.007 What delicacie can in fields appeare,

108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare

131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,

134.00A.032 That ever did in womans shape appeare.

141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,

145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,

155.00a.163 And if in other Creatures they appeare,

157.00b.323 To earthly thoughts, till it to thee appeare,

179.NY3.008 On one, on Seauen, or on no hill appeare?

187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,

187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.

APPEARES.....3

032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 155.00a.377 Nor in ought more this worlds decay appeares,
 157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appeares,

APPEERE.....1

135.B13.017 Make you appeere to vs, & vs to you,

APPETITE.....5

050.00A.028 And appetite to other things, is past;
 130.00A.014 Her appetite, and her digestion mend,
 131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
 139.00A.040 And so increase your appetite and food;
 157.00b.517 Could any Saint prouoke that appetite,

APPLE.....3

158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
 158.00A.109 That Adam cropt, or knew the apple; yet
 158.00A.124 Life, and growth to this apple, fled away

APPLES.....1

158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.

APPLICATION.....1

020.00G.012 The ductilness, the application,

APPLY'D.....1

191.00B.019 Have both translated, and apply'd it too,

APPLYING.....3

079.00B.040 'Tis but applying worme-seed to the Taile.
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 184.00A.080 Th'old broad way in applying; O decline

APPOINT.....1

164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint

APPOINTED.....1

106.00A.089 Like an appointed lambe, when tenderly

APPOINTING.....1

066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee

APPREHEND.....1

062.00A.067 Which sense may reach and apprehend,

APPREHENSION.....1

140.00A.022 Our apprehension contributes the sting.

APPROACH.....1

106.00A.088 And at the Bridegroomes wish'd approach doth lye,

APPROACHED.....1

187.00A.332 To goe: our end is now approached neere,

APPROCHES.....2

157.00b.089 For such approches doth Heauen make in death.

157.00b.492 Approches in the resurrection;

APPROVE.....3

001.00A.037 Why should'st thou that dost not onely approve,

039.00A.008 Contemplate, what you will, approve,

039.00A.035 And by these hymnes, all shall approve

APRON.....1

158.00A.479 Her kidskinne apron without feare or awe

APT.....4

060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,

141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.

150.00A.052 Of beauty,'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?

184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe

APTER.....1

016.00A.014 Idly make them apter to'endure then men?

APUD.....1

199.C11.005 Annuat Deus Opt: Max: ut apud omnes, hanc inueniat

ARBORS.....1

056.00A.017 Or built faire houses, set trees, and arbors,

ARCH'D.....1

158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe

ARCHED.....1

158.00A.235 And with his arched necke this poore fish catch'd.

ARE.....424

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here

001.00A.042 At birth, and death, our bodies naked are;

001.00A.044 Of bodies, they from blisse are banished.

001.00A.055 As are black feathers, or musk-colour hose,

001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all

002.00A.019 Rammes, and slings now are seely battery,

002.00A.020 Pistolets are the best Artillerie.
002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?
002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne, 'tis true,
002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throwes
002.00A.090 Are Fathers of the Church for writing lesse.
002.00A.103 Where are those spred woods which cloth'd hertofore
003.00A.008 Are not heavens joyes as valiant to asswage
003.00A.067 In divers habits, yet are still one kinde;
003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazling, yet plaine to all eyes;
003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.
003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell
003.00A.106 To the streames tyrannous rage, alas are driven
003.00A.108 Consum'd in going, in the sea are lost:
004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.
004.00A.042 Are strong enough preparatives, to draw
004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.
004.00A.083 Are not your Frenchmen neate? Fine, as you see,
004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,
004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are
004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are
004.00A.173 Tast have in them, ours are, And naturall
004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.
004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found
004.00A.182 Those hose are, cry the flatterers; And bring
004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r lookes
004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
004.00A.237 I shooke like a spyed Spie; Preachers which are
005.00A.006 Are wreched or wicked: of these two a theame
005.00A.010 As I thinke, since all, which were, are, and shall
005.00A.014 Are the vast ravishing seas; and Suiters,
005.00A.018 Are the devouring stomacke, and Suiters
005.00A.019 The excrements, which they voyd; all men are dust,
005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust
005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
005.00A.076 Of men; so in law, nailes are extremities,
006.00D.053 Worst malefactors, to whom men are prize,
008.00B.028 Their Crownes are circumcis'd most lewishly;
008.00B.030 That are become as Catholique as their King,
008.00B.046 Are dirtely and desperately gull'd:
008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.
008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.

009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 009.00A.028 The wood-bine quivering, are her armes and hands,
 009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,
 009.00A.050 Are Priests in handling reverent sacrifice,
 009.00A.054 She, and comparisons are odious.
 010.00A.002 All thy suppos'd escapes are laid on mee;
 010.00A.048 Where cattell onely, 'and diverse dogs are bred,
 010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.
 012.00A.020 Scarce visiting them, who are intirely his.
 014.NY3.003 All other warrs are scrupulous; Only thou
 014.NY3.025 Long Voyages are long consumptions
 014.NY3.026 And Ships are carts for executions.
 014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
 014.NY3.036 There we are allwayes vnder, here above.
 014.NY3.039 There lyes are wrongs; here safe vprightly ly;
 015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,
 015.00G.036 Are like Atlanta's ball: cast in mens views,
 015.00G.040 For lay-men are all women thus arrayed.
 015.00G.041 Themselves are only mystick books, which we,
 016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 016.00A.032 And in the vast sea are more putrifi'd:
 016.00A.035 Then are they purest; Change'is the nursery
 017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these
 017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be
 018.00B.031 Richly cloath'd Apes, are call'd Apes, and as soone
 019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
 020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 021.00G.006 And that great Hell to boot are shadows to it.
 021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 022.00A.009 Are vowes so cheape with women, or the matter
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 024.00A.017 Are grac'd thereby; And to make blinde men see,
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they'are like to thee.
 024.00A.022 As Down., as Stars, Cedars, and Lillies are,
 024.00A.024 Are like thy other hand, and cheek, and eye.
 024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.
 024.00A.041 But of our dallyance no more signes there are,
 030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.
 031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 031.00A.026 As stiffe twin compasses are two,

033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
035.00A.014 For, all our joyes are but fantasticall.
035.00A.022 Alas, true joyes at best are dreame enough;
036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?
037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?
039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.
040.00A.019 Both are increased by such songs:
040.00A.020 For both their triumphs so are published,
040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
042.00A.038 Are but turn'd aside to sleepe;
044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,
044.00A.024 Are unchangeable firmament.
049.00A.014 Which are but accessaries to this name,
049.00A.033 As all the vertuous powers which are
049.00A.034 Fix'd in the starres, are said to flow,
050.00A.034 Which we are fifty yeares in compassing.
050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made
051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,
051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,
052.00A.060 Sun, or starres, are fitliest view'd
053.00A.003 But these are things indifferent,
053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,
054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,
055.00A.012 These are prerogatives, they inhere
056.00A.007 But are other creatures so?
056.00A.008 Are Sunne, Moone, or Starres by law forbidden,
056.00A.010 Are birds divorc'd, or are they chidden
056.00A.010 Are birds divorc'd, or are they chidden
056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
058.00A.007 Fruits of much grieffe they are, emblemes of more,
058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;
062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
062.00A.046 Of what we are compos'd, and made,
062.00A.048 Are soules, whom no change can invade.

062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 062.00A.056 Nor are drosse to us, but allay.
 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they'are con-dem'nd to die.
 069.00A.029 Numbers are odde, or even, and they fall
 070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,
 071.00A.019 Which are vast Constancy, and Secretnesse,
 073.00A.005 Marriage rings are not of this stuffe;
 078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
 079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
 080.00E.010 For such by all are sought;
 081.HH5.030 As Angells are how often to that end
 082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.
 106.00A.001 The Sun-beames in the East are spred,
 106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
 106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;
 106.00A.070 Are other labours, and more dainty feasts;
 106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maim,
 107.00A.004 And other birds are thy Parishioners,
 107.00A.024 Are unto one another mutuall nests,
 107.00A.048 Falls not on such things as are infinite,
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 107.00A.078 As Soules from bodies steale, and are not spy'd.
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delayes, For, where is he?
 107.00A.089 And yet they doe, but are
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
 108.00A.041 So are those Courts, whose Princes animate,
 108.00A.044 Kings (as their patterne, God) are liberall
 108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
 108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
 108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
 108.00A.145 Are meant for, Phoebus, would'st be Phaeton,
 108.00A.153 Are dust, and wormes, 'tis just
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
 109.00A.006 When by thy judgment they are dignifi'd,
 109.00A.007 My lines are such. 'Tis the preheminance
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 110.00A.019 Earths hollowneses, which the worlds lungs are,
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;

111.00A.024 Are but dull Moralls of a game at Chests.
 112.00A.008 Countries, Courts, Towns are Rockes, or Remoraes;
 112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three
 112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there
 112.00A.022 Are carcasses, as if no such they were.
 112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play
 112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
 112.00A.037 Men are sponges, which to poure out, receive,
 112.00A.042 Are beasts in all, but white integritie.
 113.00A.005 How love-song weeds, and Satyrique thornes are growne
 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 115.00A.008 Both of the place and paines of hell, are ended;
 118.NY3.004 Like fyre, are made; thy body, mind, & Muse.
 121.NY3.008 Our Theaters are filld with emptines.
 122.00A.016 Havens are Heavens, and Ships wing'd Angels be,
 123.NY3.002 Built of all th'elements as our bodyes are:
 123.NY3.004 Delicious garden where all Sweetes are sowne.
 123.NY3.007 Are Satirique fyres which vrg'd me to have writt
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad
 127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
 129.00A.026 To want, then governe greatnesse, for wee are
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.
 130.00A.012 Are sparkes, and short liv'd, claimes another right.
 130.00A.018 All libraries, which are Schools, Camps, & Courts;
 130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.
 130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.
 130.00A.048 You came with mee to Micham, and are here.
 131.00B.016 Who are at home but wits mere Atomi.
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,
 131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 131.00B.083 You are a perfectnesse, so curious hit,
 131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
 131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,
 131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
 131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
 131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:
 131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
 134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
 134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here
 134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 135.B13.014 as safe as spirits are from any wound,

136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
 137.00A.004 And such, as they are circumstanc'd, they bee.
 137.00A.014 You are the season (Madame) you the day,
 137.00A.033 These are Petitions, and not Hymnes; they sue
 137.00A.051 Of past and future stories, which are rare,
 137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.
 137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 138.00A.061 First seeds of every creature are in us,
 138.00A.064 That stones, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:
 138.00A.081 But these are riddles; Some aspersion
 139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 140.00A.049 Actions are authors, and of those in you
 141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
 141.00A.025 Shee guided us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 141.00A.030 'Tis not as woman, for all are not soe,
 141.00A.039 When single planets by the Gods are nam'd,
 141.00A.043 To some ye are reveal'd, as in a friend,
 141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
 142.00A.001 Here where by All All Saints invoked are,
 142.00A.009 Pardons are in this market cheaply sold.
 142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
 143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne
 145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,
 145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)
 145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
 145.00A.078 Not those, by which Angels are seene and see;
 145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,
 146.00A.023 His children are his pictures, Oh they bee
 146.00A.026 He, and about him, his, are turn'd to stone.
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 148.00A.031 As perfect motions are all circular,
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 149.00A.015 Teares are false Spectacles, we cannot see
 149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.

149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
 152.12a.009 But, for th'enormous Greatnesses, which are
 152.12a.038 As to touch Those of which they Emblems are?
 152.12a.056 When what wee are, his putrefaction
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee .
 152.12a.082 W'haue double Excuse; Hee is not dead, Wee are.
 153.00A.037 Yet are the trunkes which doe to us derive
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.068 Are much entirer then a million.
 153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,
 153.00A.103 Before by deeds they are diffus'd and spred,
 153.00A.171 And Church-yards are our cities, unto which
 153.00A.172 The most repaire, that are in goodnesse rich.
 153.00A.174 There are the holy suburbs, and from thence 153.00A.197 Thine armes'gainst forraine enemies, which are
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
 153.00A.202 For which to Triumph, none admitted are;
 153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
 154.00A.012 Of Subject and of Prince, in one are lame;
 154.00A.039 And seest such sinners as they are, with thee
 155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
 155.00a.040 Measures of times are all determined)
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;
 155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,
 155.00a.262 When new Townes rise, and olde demolish'd are.
 155.00a.280 Vpon the Heauens, and now they are his owne.
 155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,
 155.00a.300 Are these but warts, and pock-holes in the face
 155.00a.304 Reward and punishment are bent awrie.
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;

155.00a.404 But they, yea Ashes too, are medicinall,
 155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;
 156.00a.028 This Organ, are those peeces which beget
 156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad
 156.00a.103 For future vertuous deeds are Legacies,
 157.00b.018 Are but as Ice, which crackles at a thaw:
 157.00b.023 As some Daies are, at the Creation nam'd,
 157.00b.132 Are made of lines, and lines from Points arise,
 157.00b.217 As colours are, and objects, in a roome
 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
 157.00b.289 Are mysteries which none haue reach'd vnto.
 157.00b.309 Are but a new, and worse edition,
 157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
 157.00b.333 That wits and tongues of Libellars are weake,
 157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuer keep the name)
 157.00b.427 (For as the Wine, and Corne, and Onions are
 157.00b.488 And accidentall things are permanent.
 158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
 158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
 158.00A.097 Astray, from turning, to whence we are fled.
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:
 158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.
 158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
 158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
 158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd rooffe
 158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so
 158.00A.504 Are ravel'd out, and fast there by one end,
 158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;
 161.00A.013 You are that Alchymist which alwaies had
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 169.00A.001 Why are wee by all creatures waited on?
 170.00A.013 To wicked spirits are horrid shapes assign'd,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
 181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.078 That their bookes are divine;
 184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd

184.00A.181 When senses, which thy souldiers are,
 184.00A.188 When wee are mov'd to seeme religious
 185.00A.008 For their first mover, and are whirld by it.
 187.00A.008 Her friends have dealt, and now are enemie.
 187.00A.013 4 Emptie are the gates of Sion, and her waies
 187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.064 The foe prevailes, forlorne my children are.
 187.00A.088 Are very many, and my heart is sad.
 187.00A.111 And Sions feasts and sabbaths are forgot;
 187.00A.116 Are heard, as in the true solemnities.
 187.00A.121 9 Their gates are sunke into the ground, and hee
 187.00A.125 10 There Sions Elders on the ground are plac'd,
 187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes
 187.00A.130 Are faint with weeping: and my liver lies
 187.00A.244 With ruine, and with waste, upon us are.
 187.00A.276 Which are the worke of a poore Potters hand.
 187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
 187.00A.323 16 For this they are scattered by Jehovahs face
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they
 187.00A.350 See, and marke how we are reproached thus,
 187.00A.353 3 Our mothers are become as widowes, wee
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.373 13 Unto the mill our yong men carried are,
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay, 189.00B.034 Are, at the best, but of sublimed clay)
 189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can
 189.00B.049 These are thy titles and preheminences,
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that have least light:
 191.00B.006 (And thy gifts are as infinite as thou:)
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse
 191.00B.037 When I behold that these Psalmes are become
 192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,
 192.00B.016 Is the Pacifique Sea my home? Or are
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,

 067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 069.00A.020 She were by art, then Nature falsify'd.
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,
 082.00A.014 For his art did expresse
 096.00A.007 To beleeeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 106.00A.078 Like vertue'and truth, art best in nakednesse;
 106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
 108.00A.055b Dreamer, thou art,
 108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
 108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
 108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
 108.00A.108 Yet thou art rescu'd by a mightier fire,
 108.00A.113 To all our ships, could a Promethean art
 108.00A.124 Becomes a man. Should chance or envies Art
 108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
 108.00A.158 Still in that Picture thou intirely art,
 108.00A.168 Then, reverend Priest, who Gods Recorder art,
 108.00A.179 Nature and grace doe all, and nothing Art,
 108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
 109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
 113.00A.008 Betroth'd to no'one Art, be no'adulterie;
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 117.00A.003 I to the Nurse, they to the child of Art;
 118.NY3.007 Or art thou parted from the world & mee
 120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art
 121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.
 122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
 127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue
 128.LR1.019 dishonest cariage: or a seers Art
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see
 141.00A.012 For, Art and Nature this in them withstood.
 147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 152.12a.092 Which hast the noble Conscience, Thou art Shee.
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art

140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry

AYD.....1

003.00A.017 Dar'st thou ayd mutinous Dutch, and dar'st thou lay

AYE.....1

120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,

AYERY.....1

031.00A.024 Like gold to ayery thinnesse beate.

AYRE.....12

021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;

062.00A.058 But that it first imprints the ayre,

072.00A.009 My fire of Passion, sighes of ayre,

108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.

123.NY3.009 And as Ayre doth fullfill the hollownes

131.00B.040 Water declin'd with earth, the ayre did stay,

131.00B.119 But as ayre takes the Sunne-beames equall bright

141.00A.034 As, water being into ayre rarify'd,

147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.

155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,

157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staires not in the Ayre,

157.00b.265 Of Ayre, and Fire, and other Elements?

AYRES.....1

020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,

B

153.00A.096 And lay together every A, and B;

B'ENDANGER'D.....1

139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,

BABELLS.....1

004.00A.065 To Babells bricklayers, sure the Tower had stood.

BABELS.....1

157.00b.417 They who did labour Babels tower t' erect,

BABLERS.....1

137.00A.048 Bablers of Chappels, you th'Escuriall.

BACHANALLS.....1

002.00A.106 Carthusian fasts, and fulsome Bachanalls

BACK.....5

006.00D.025 Homely and familiarly, when thou com'st back,

022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames

025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,

158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.

187.00A.119 He draws not back his hand; which doth oreturue

BACKE.....16

016.00A.003 Yea though thou fall backe, that apostasie

016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,

018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,

019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,

108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon

131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.

131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.

134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,

155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we

155.00a.266 And fright him backe, who els to eyther Pole,

157.00b.014 As though he beckned, and cal'd backe his Soul,

157.00b.212 Strings fast the little bones of necke, and backe;

158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,

160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,

184.00A.102 Their bodies backe againe to thee,

185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive

BACKES.....1

156.00a.024 The Rich for stomachs, and for backes the Pore;

BACKS.....1

158.00A.353 The Thresher backs him, and to beate begins;

BACON.....1

196.015.026 ILLVSTRI FAMILIA BACON ORIVNDA,

BAD.....18

003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way

008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;

010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought

042.00A.021 But come bad chance,

043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,

053.00A.008 Made women either good or bad,

053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
 053.00A.017 Bad doth it selfe, and others wast,
 112.00A.062 Correctives, but as chymiques, purge the bad.
 114.00A.026 The Painters bad god made a good devill,
 126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad
 138.00A.062 What ere the world hath bad, or pretious,
 138.00A.084 The bad with bad, a spider with a toad:
 138.00A.084 The bad with bad, a spider with a toad:
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.

BAG.....1

157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.

BAIT.....1

027.00A.026 For thou thy selfe art thine owne bait,

BAITS.....1

157.00b.195 Shee baits not at the Moone, nor cares to trie,

BAK'D.....1

142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmelesenes we see,

BALADS.....1

136.00A.014 In labourers balads oft more piety

BALL.....3

009.00A.016 Like to the fatall Ball which fell on Ide,
 015.00G.036 Are like Atlanta's ball: cast in mens views,
 058.00A.010 On a round ball

BALLAST.....2

045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,

BALME.....7

009.00A.003 As the Almighty Balme of th'early East,
 062.00A.006 With a fast balme, which thence did spring,
 082.00A.006 The generall balme th'hydroptique earth hath drunk,
 134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
 153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 155.00a.057 Thy'ntrinsique Balme, and thy preseruative,
 158.00A.014 Suck'st early balme, and lland spices there,

BALME-BREATHING.....1

106.00A.007 Put forth, put forth that warme balme-breathing thigh,

BALMES.....1

051.00A.004 Receive such balmes, as else cure every thing,

BALMY.....1

155.00a.382 In the due birth-time, downe the balmy showre.

BALOUNE.....1

004.00A.176 Baloune, Tennis, Dyet, or the stewes,

BALSAMUM.....1

156.00a.073 But like a Lampe of Balsamum, desir'd

BANDS.....1

135.B13.011 wee make our's doe one Act, to seale the bands,

BANISH.....1

136.00A.039 Not banish it selfe, nor religion.

BANISHED.....1

001.00A.044 Of bodies, they from blisse are banished.

BANISHMENT.....2

113.00A.030 Such freedome doth a banishment become.

187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.

BANKE.....4

016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this

016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,

062.00A.002 A Pregnant banke swel'd up, to rest

149.00A.006 And breaks our banke, when ere it takes a friend.

BANKS.....2

012.00A.028 The traiterous banks to gape, and let her in,

027.00A.022 The bedded fish in banks out-wrest,

BANQUET.....4

108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,

116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,

155.00a.187 And that except thou feed (not banquet) on

158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it

BANQUETS.....1

108.00A.191 The masks and banquets will not yet impart

BAR'D.....1

122.00A.021 Him the rich land, but bar'd his entry in,

BARBAROUS.....1

112.00A.034 Falshood is denizon'd. Virtue is barbarous.

BARD.....1

157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;

BARE.....5

001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:

004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;

066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;

117.00A.012 Yet as a Picture, or bare Sacrament,

187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.

BARED.....1

005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?

BAREST.....1

005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee

BARGAINE.....1

041.00A.008 Then at the bargaine made was ment,

BARGAINE'S.....1

038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee

BARK'D.....1

009.00A.029 Like rough bark'd elmboughes, or the russet skin

BARKE.....3

158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-prooffe,

158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,

158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.

BARKINGS.....1

158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,

BARNES.....1

125.00A.009 View your fat Beasts, stretch'd Barnes, and labour'd fields,

BARRE.....7

002.00A.011 One, (like a wretch, which at Barre judg'd as dead,

002.00A.071 Like a wedge in a blocke, wring to the barre,

004.00A.234 Charing Crosse for a barre, men that doe know

010.00A.003 And as a thiefe at barre, is question'd there

010.00A.033 He that to barre the first gate, doth as wide

151.00A.006 (So guiltiest men stand mutest at the barre)
 187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee

BARRELLING.....1

002.00A.082 And barrelling the droppings, and the snuffe,

BARRELLS.....1

004.00A.236 Living barrells of beefe, flaggons of wine.

BARRELS.....2

006.00D.037 Voluminous barrels; if thy leaves do then
 106.00A.027 Ye painted courtiers, barrels of others wits,

BARREN.....6

017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say
 020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we
 118.NY3.012 for myne is barren thus deuorc'd from thyne.
 136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,
 155.00a.380 The father, or the mother barren is.

BARRENESSE.....2

001.00A.039 The nakednesse and barrennesse to enjoy,
 106.00A.043 All elder claimes, and all cold barrennesse,

BARRISTER.....1

002.00A.047 His title of Barrister, on every wench,

BASE.....6

004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,
 010.00A.057 Base excrement of earth, which dost confound
 021.00G.091 Declare your self base fortunes Enemy,
 139.00A.022 Reason and likelihood, the firmest Base,
 157.00b.422 Was far to little, to haue beene the Base;
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,

BASEST.....1

158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,

BASHFULL.....1

006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke

BASKET.....1

011.00A.022 Sits downe, and snorts, cag'd in his basket chaire,

BASTARD.....1

004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.

BASTARDLY.....1

138.00A.052 Into the body,'and bastardly they grow.

BASTARDY.....1

002.00B.074 Bastardy abounds not in Kings titles, nor

BATH.....3

027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,

110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,

155.00a.012 For in a common Bath of teares it bled,

BATH'D.....2

028.00A.012 Bath'd in a cold quicksilver sweat wilt lye

157.00b.171 Bedded and Bath'd in all his Ordures, dwels

BATTAILES.....1

153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win

BATTER.....2

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.

171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you

BATTER'D.....2

158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possest a new.

160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,

BATTERY.....1

002.00A.019 Rammes, and slings now are seely battery,

BATTRY.....1

049.00A.046 New battry to thy heart may frame,

BAUDS.....1

003.00A.056 Some Preachers, vile ambitious bauds, and lawes

BAWDIE.....2

099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.

099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.

BAYES.....1

160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,

BAYTING.....1

152.12a.085 (Our Soule's best Bayting and Mid-period

BE.....467

001.00A.004 In prison, and here be coffin'd, when I dye;
 001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:
 001.00A.043 And till our Soules be unapparrelled
 001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence
 001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truly I doe;
 001.00A.102 Which understand none, he doth seeme to be
 002.00A.005 Though Poetry indeed be such a sinne
 002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state
 002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 002.00A.055 I should be in remitter of your grace;
 003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare
 003.00A.035 Thee faine, his whole Realme to be quit; and as
 003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be intrall'd,
 003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one
 003.00A.074 Be busie to seeke her, beleeeve mee this,
 003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 003.00A.101 Those past, her nature, & name is chang'd to be,
 004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content
 004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.180 As fresh, and sweet their Apparrells be, as bee
 004.00A.225 He meant to crie; And though his face be as ill
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 005.00A.011 Bee, be made of the same elements:
 005.00A.043 If Law be in the Judges heart, and hee
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be
 005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,
 006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can
 006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 006.00D.020 To be far greater than the mother nose?
 006.00D.057 Provide whole books; each leafe enough will be
 006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:
 008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;
 008.00B.019 Shall they be damn'd, and in the furnace throwne,
 008.00B.027 And howsoe'r French Kings most Christian be,
 008.00B.051 Much hope which they should nourish will be dead.
 008.00B.055 And be content that some lowd squeaking Cryer
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 008.00B.070 Though it be chang'd, and put into a chaine,
 008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;

008.00B.097 Or be with forraine gold brib'd to betray
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 010.00A.062 Falls on us, to be call'd effeminate;
 010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,
 011.00A.012 As a slave, which to morrow should be free,
 013.00A.022 Inlaid thee, neither to be seene, nor see,
 014.NY3.019 And I should be in that hott parching clime
 015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.
 015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
 015.00G.019 In such white robes, heaven's Angels us'd to be
 015.00G.031 To enter in these bonds, is to be free;
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 015.00G.034 As souls unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,
 016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
 017.00A.012 Be in thy wench, ne'r aske where it doth lye.
 017.00A.014 Be muske and amber in it, but not where.
 017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,
 017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;
 017.00A.023 She's faire as any, if all be like her,
 017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be
 017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.
 017.00G.054 Would be as loath to touch as Joseph was.
 018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;
 018.00B.026 That absent Lovers one in th'other be.
 018.00B.036 Of Players, which upon the worlds stage be,
 019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
 020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
 020.00G.067 Though there the Current be the Pilot made,
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 020.00G.084 Now at the Papal foot delights to be:
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
 021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through
 021.00G.063 For Love it cannot be, whom hitherto
 021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?
 022.00A.023 O I prophane, though most of women be
 022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;

022.00A.044 Till hee be noysome as his infamie;
 022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;
 022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,
 022.00A.051 And let his carrion coarse be a longer feast
 022.00A.064 Of being officious, be impertinent;
 022.00A.069 And ought not be prophan'd on either part,
 024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 024.00A.026 As thou, wast, art, and, oh, maist be ever.
 024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;
 024.00A.063 And so be change, and sicknesse, farre from thee,
 025.00A.006 That they be
 025.00A.011 Which if it be taught by thine
 026.00A.011 That I can be endamag'd by that art;
 027.00A.013 If thou, to be so seene, beest loath,
 029.00A.026 Nor any place be empty quite,
 029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
 034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?
 035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
 036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
 037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.
 039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
 040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
 040.00A.010 Griefe brought to numbers cannot be so fierce,
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
 041.00A.033 Be one, and one anothers All.
 043.00A.003 Though it be but an houre agoe,
 043.00A.004 And Lovers houres be full eternity,
 043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
 043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
 043.00A.021 As good as could be made by art
 044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
 046.00A.001 'Tis true, 'tis day, what though it be?
 047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 048.00A.021 And then wee shall be throughly blest,
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 049.00A.020 This learning be, for a scratch'd name to teach,

050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 050.00A.036 Age must be lovelyest at the latest day.
 050.00A.044 For these, not Ancient, but Antique be;
 051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
 052.00A.018 To make, to keep, to use, to be these his Records.
 052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
 052.00A.036 Beauty a convenient type may be to figure it.
 053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
 054.00A.001 I scarce beleeeve my love to be so pure
 056.00A.001 Some man unworthy to be possessor
 056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 060.00A.005 Thou know'st that this cannot be said
 061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 061.00A.024 And at the last be circumcis'd for bread:
 061.00A.030 Be annex'd in schedules unto this by mee,
 061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
 064.00a.006 And that vice-nature, custome, lets it be;
 065.00A.024 To be the fortieth name in an entaile?
 066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
 069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
 069.00A.024 With this mysterious number be content;
 070.00A.004 To be to more then one a Bed)
 070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
 070.00A.017 Thou shalt be a Mary Magdalen, and I
 071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
 071.00A.012 And let th'enchantresse Honor, next be slaine,
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 074.00A.010 If that be simply perfectest
 074.00A.011 Which can by no way be exprest
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 076.00A.002 I scarce beleev'd, thou could'st be gone away,
 079.00B.022 As well as Cocks and Lyons jocund be,
 079.00B.029 And onely for a minute made to be
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 081.HH5.033 & must it now be an Iniurious lott
 081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
 081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show
 082.00A.036 As shadow, a light, and body must be here.
 086.00A.002 But drowning, could be rescued from the flame,
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though'it be true.
 096.00A.006 In this case, as thou wouldst be done unto,

097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
 098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be beleev'd.
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 106.00A.019 Conceitedly dresse her, and be assign'd,
 106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
 106.00A.083 No more be said, I may bee, but, I am,
 106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
 107.00A.040 Ends of much wonder; And be Thou those ends,
 107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
 107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,
 107.00A.064 And be to others spectacle, and talke?
 107.00A.076 A Bride, before a good night could be said,
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 107.00A.096 No such occasion to be liberall.
 107.00A.111 This will be tryed to morrow after nine,
 108.00A.039 And can'st thou be from thence?
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 108.00A.120 Be tryed by beauty, and than
 108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
 108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
 108.00A.145 Are meant for, Phoebus, would'st be Phaeton,
 108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;
 108.00A.155 Let every Jewell be a glorious starre,
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
 109.00A.009 England to whom we'owe, what we be, and have,
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 112.00A.016 Shall cities built of both extremes be chosen?
 112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
 112.00A.059 Onely'in this one thing, be no Galenist. To make
 113.00A.008 Betroth'd to no'one Art, be no'adulterie;
 113.00A.010 For though to us it seeme,'and be light and thinne,
 113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be
 114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,
 114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
 114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as
 114.00A.027 'Twill be good prose, although the verse be evill.
 114.00A.027 'Twill be good prose, although the verse be evill.
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
 116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,
 117.00A.006 Lyes safe, how e'r his king be in danger:
 117.00A.013 Accept these lines, and if in them there be

122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,
122.00A.016 Havens are Heavens, and Ships wing'd Angels be,
122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
125.00A.003 Whether in the English Provinces they be,
126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
126.00A.015 If thou unto thy Muse be married,
126.00A.017 Be far from me that strange Adulterie
126.00A.027 To be counted Children of Poetry
127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;
129.00A.021 To sweare much love, not to be chang'd before
129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)
130.00A.005 A Palace, when'tis that, which it should be,
130.00A.025 To be a stranger hath that benefit,
130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch
131.00B.015 Must either mist, or nothing seeme to be,
131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
131.00B.072 And cannot be remov'd, unlesse she will.
131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,
133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
134.00A.028 Keepees off, or cures what can be done or said.
136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne
136.00A.045 Be colleague to religion, but be it.
136.00A.045 Be colleague to religion, but be it.
137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,
139.00A.059 Be better, he shoves both, and to repress
140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.
141.00A.017 If the worlds age, and death be argued well
141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
142.00A.002 'Twere too much schisme to be singular,
142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,
142.00A.008 As not to tell it; If this be too bold,
142.00A.061 May therefore this be enough to testifie
143.00A.001 Though I be dead, and buried, yet I have
145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.

145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 145.00A.035 If in this sacrifice of mine, be showne
 145.00A.046 And not be chid for praising yesterday:
 145.00A.084 And though I burne my librarie, be learn'd.
 146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
 149.00A.059 How Morall, how Divine shall not be told,
 150.00A.052 Of beauty,'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,
 151.00A.058 Earth too, will be a Lemnia; and the tree
 151.00A.060 Shall be tooke up spruce, fill'd with diamond;
 152.12a.031 And Others studies, how Hee would be bent,
 152.12a.065 For, if our Reason be our Connexion
 152.12a.066 With Causes, now to vs there can be none.
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.040 Vertues, indeed remote, seeme to be nere;
 153.00A.043 For fluid vertue cannot be look'd on,
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 153.00A.075 And to be sure betimes to get a place,
 153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 153.00A.140 Or be not set, or set at every will;
 153.00A.152 Instructions, such as it could never be
 153.00A.155 O why wouldst thou be any instrument
 153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,
 153.00A.206 Must be enlarg'd, and not preserv'd alone;
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
 153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,
 154.00A.004 Or be a name it selfe, and order more
 154.00A.032 Thy station be, but with the Paenitents,
 155.00a.018 All must endeuour to be good as shee,
 155.00a.045 The present Prince, they're loth it should be said,
 155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,

155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be
 155.00a.079 And though to be thus Elemented, arme
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.128 Fit to be made Methusalem his page?
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
 155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.217 To be a Phoenix, and that there can bee
 155.00a.244 Of the whole substance, not to be contrould.
 155.00a.246 The worlds infection, to be none of it.
 155.00a.295 If vnder all, a Vault infernall be,
 155.00a.298 Millions into a strait hote roome be thrust)
 155.00a.305 And, Oh, it can no more be questioned,
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.333 Be not done fitly'nd in proportion,
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 155.00a.410 Except it be from the liue Serpent shot,
 155.00a.443 Here therefore be the end: And, blessed maid,
 155.00a.445 Or shall be spoken well by any tongue,
 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than
 156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
 156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
 156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
 156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
 156.00a.066 To which of them, it shall be consecrate.
 156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,
 156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
 157.00b.012 His soule be said, to her eternall bed,
 157.00b.034 The name of Mother, be vnto my Muse,
 157.00b.048 T'is th'onely Health, to be Hydropique so.
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;
 157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,
 157.00b.063 To be thus stupid is Alacrity;
 157.00b.069 Should be emploid, because in all, shee did,
 157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;
 157.00b.192 Whether th'Ayrs middle Region be intense,
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.

157.00b.348 Their Prophecies growen to be Historee.
 157.00b.386 A triall, must the principall be tride.
 157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,
 157.00b.438 Twice the circumference; and be thou such.
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
 158.00A.043 Except my legend be free from the letts
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?
 158.00A.149 A dealer bee, and be us'd well, or ill:
 158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
 158.00A.280 It's rais'd, to be the Raisers instrument and food.
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
 158.00A.380 Be slain, to gallant mischiefe doth herselfe addresse.
 158.00A.384 But to be just, and thankfull, loth to offend,
 158.00A.509 To be a woman. Themech she is now,
 158.00A.516 By cursed Cains race invented be,
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 160.00A.040 That would have need to be pittied by thee?
 160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
 160.00A.072 Shall (though she now be in extreme degree
 160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.
 161.00A.007 Seaven to be borne at once, I send as yet
 163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,
 163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;
 166.00A.004 Cannot be damn'd; Alas; why should I bee?
 167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,
 171.00A.009 Yet dearely'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,
 171.00A.013 Except you'enthrall mee, never shall be free,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 177.00B.006 By circumstances, and by signes that be
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?

181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
 181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
 184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 184.00A.023 Must with new stormes be weatherbeat;
 184.00A.027 Fire, Sacrifice, Priest, Altar be the same.
 184.00A.047 And wee in Wardship to thine Angels be,
 184.00A.049 Where we shall be but denizen'd by thee,
 184.00A.061 Be sanctified, and fructifie in mee;
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.090 Not to be martyrs, is a martyrdome.
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
 184.00A.123 (Since to be gracious
 184.00A.150 Which might be scandalous,
 184.00A.238 For physicke made, from poyson be exempt,
 184.00A.241 On Natures nothing, be not nothing too,
 184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 185.00A.015 Yet dare I almost be glad, I do not see
 185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
 187.00A.042 And they have given, only to be fed,
 187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
 187.00A.082 My foes have heard my griefe, and glad they be,
 187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 187.00A.168 Prophet and Priest be slaine in Sanctuary?
 187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 187.00A.354 As Orphans all, and without fathers be;
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we have sinned so.
 187.00A.390 22 And to be utterly enrag'd at us?
 189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;
 190.00A.004 Shall be to mee an embleme of thy blood;
 191.00B.041 This be reform'd; Would a whole State present
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come
 192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne
 192.00B.029 Be this my Text, my Sermon to mine owne,

BE'UNGRACIOUS.....1

134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,

BEACH.....1

149.00A.018 But as the tide doth wash the slimie beach,

BEADES.....2

157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades

157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,

BEADS.....2

002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,

130.00A.004 And makes his life, but like a paire of beads.

BEAKE.....1

158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,

BEAME.....1

129.00A.006 From his Originall, and a faire beame

BEAMES.....7

036.00A.011 Thy beames, so reverend, and strong

108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lusters rise,

113.00A.021 By gathering his beames with a christall glasse;

135.B13.008 on better matter then beames from aboue,

141.00A.015 By vertues beames by fame deriv'd from you,

145.00A.005 That his disshevel'd beames and scattered fires

190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;

BEAMIE.....1

012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye

BEAMS.....1

019.00A.006 Perhaps with rude oares torne, or Sun beams tann'd,

BEAR-WHELP.....1

020.00G.004 Love is a bear-whelp born, if we o're lick

BEARBAITINGS.....1

121.NY3.012 But bearbaitings or law exercise.

BEARE.....30

001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away

003.00A.026 Canst thou for gaine beare? and must every hee

004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content

004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre

008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?

014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.

016.00A.018 And yet allows his ground more corne should beare;

022.00A.028 The teeming earth, and that forget to beare,

038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee

044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,

058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,

120.00A.005 And let the love I beare to both sustaine

129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,

131.00B.010 And wanting the reward, yet beare the sinne.

151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part

153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare

157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.

157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,

158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;

158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;

160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,

160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;

181.00A.006 That it should beare the sinne of scorning it?

182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,

184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)

187.00A.190 Or Beare which lyes in wait, he was to mee,

187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;

187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.

189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,

189.00B.041 Maries prerogative was to beare Christ, so

BEARE-WHELPS.....1

008.00B.031 Those unlickt beare-whelps, unfill'd pistolets

BEARES.....4

130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;

BEARING.....4

002.00A.072 Bearing like Asses, and more shamelesse farre
 119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart
 184.00A.012 By bearing one, tryed'st with what stings

BEARS.....1

006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:

BEAST.....7

022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;
 022.00A.052 To the Kings dogges; then any other beast;
 082.00A.032 If I were any beast,
 108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.
 140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,
 158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently

BEASTS.....26

001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,
 004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 056.00A.012 Beasts doe no joyntures lose
 061.00A.027 What Plants, Myne, Beasts, Foule, Fish,
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
 107.00A.021 (Which was of foules, and beasts, the cage, and park,)
 112.00A.027 There men become beasts, and prone to more evils;
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee
 112.00A.042 Are beasts in all, but white integritie.
 125.00A.009 View your fat Beasts, stretch'd Barnes, and labour'd fields,
 127.00A.014 As suddenly as Lard, fat thy leane beasts;
 131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 140.00A.003 The foole, in whom these beasts do live at jarre,
 140.00A.007 And now his beasts on one another feed,
 140.00A.010 To his beasts, and disaforested his minde?
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 155.00a.200 Both beasts and plants, curst in the curse of man.
 158.00A.025 Of fowles, and beasts, in whose wombe, Destinie
 158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;

158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;

BEAT.....1

158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat

BEATE.....3

031.00A.024 Like gold to ayery thinnesse beate.
 158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
 158.00A.353 The Thresher backs him, and to beate begins;

BEATES.....2

153.00A.136 Either beates not, or beates unevenly,
 153.00A.136 Either beates not, or beates unevenly,

BEAUTEOUS.....2

127.00A.010 There sacrifice it to that beauteous Sun:
 170.00A.014 This beauteous forme assumes a pitious minde.

BEAUTIE.....3

010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,
 018.00B.019 Thy (else Almighty) beautie cannot move
 143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne

BEAUTIES.....15

004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
 010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,
 017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealthe: He that strays thus:
 020.00G.090 Then if at beauties enemies he stay.
 022.00A.005 Is it your beauties marke, or of your youth,
 048.00A.002 All glory of honors, beauties, wits,
 050.00A.049 Not panting after growing beauties, so,
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 155.00a.306 That beauties best, proportion, is dead,
 155.00a.339 But beauties other second Element,
 155.00a.362 (Beauties ingredients) voluntary grew,
 157.00b.224 Mintage to others beauties, for they went 158.00A.046 Distracting businesse, and from beauties nets,

BEAUTIOUS.....3

001.00A.024 A speech to Court his beautious sonne and heire?
 015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,
 017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautious bee,

BEAUTIOUSNESSE.....1

151.00A.055 For from lesse vertue, and lesse beautiousnesse,

BEAUTY.....39

004.00A.195 He call'd her beauty limetwigs, her haire net.

017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,

017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,

017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say

021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;

021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so

024.00A.030 My beauty, and make me'unworthy of thy love.

024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move

032.00A.006 If ever any beauty I did see,

044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,

050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,

052.00A.036 Beauty a convenient type may be to figure it.

108.00A.120 Be tryed by beauty, and than

110.00A.013 And all our beauty, and our trimme, decayes,

134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.

137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see

137.00A.013 So in the country'is beauty; to this place

137.00A.036 Of Temples frames, and beauty, 'as Rites within.

141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood

141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty, 'and birth outgrow.

142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.

142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,

142.00A.051 Vertue, and beauty of the same stuffe, as you?

145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne

150.00A.052 Of beauty, 'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?

154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,

155.00a.249 For the worlds beauty is decayd, or gone,

155.00a.250 Beauty, that's colour, and propotion.

157.00b.223 An Age in her; shee whose rich beauty lent

157.00b.364 That beauty and chastity together kisse:

157.00b.390 Beauty? (And Beauty worthyest is to moue)

157.00b.390 Beauty? (And Beauty worthyest is to moue)

158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.

158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.

170.00A.011 Beauty, of pittie, foulnesse onely is

184.00A.237 That beauty, paradises flower

187.00A.021 6 From Sions daughter is all beauty gone,

187.00A.091 To earth the beauty of Israel, and hath

189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,

BEAUTY'.....1

137.00A.070 The story of beauty', in Twicknam is, and you.

BEAUTY'AND.....1

133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.

BEAUTY-KEEPING.....1

009.00A.023 Like Proserpines white beauty-keeping chest,

BECALME.....1

153.00A.102 Sent hither, the worlds tempest to becalme,

BECALMS.....1

020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,

BECAME.....3

153.00A.254 Their walls and bullwarks which became them best:

157.00b.469 A heauen, and here, became vnto vs all,

158.00A.501 Another part became the well of sense,

BECAUSE.....68

002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still

003.00A.045 Seekes her at Rome, there, because hee doth know

003.00A.055 Graius stayes still at home here, and because

003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one

004.00A.122 He saith, our warres thrive ill, because delai'd;

006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can

008.00B.068 Because he is the mouth of destiny.

008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordiall, would twere at thy heart.

010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:

010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,

020.00G.015 But if I love it, 'tis because 'tis made

021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee

022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?

031.00A.015 Absence, because it doth remove

037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?

046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?

046.00A.004 Did we lie downe, because 'twas night?

047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;

050.00A.031 Or else because, being yong, nature did blesse

051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.

054.00A.003 Because it doth endure

055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;

062.00A.026 Because both meant, both spake the same)

062.00A.053 We owe them thanks, because they thus,

062.00A.063 Because such fingers need to knit

063.00A.010 Others (because no more

066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.

079.00B.028 Because that other curse of being short,

107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;

108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.057 In the Indian fleet, because thou hast
 108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
 108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
 108.00A.083 To them, in him, because his favours bend
 114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:
 126.00A.019 My nurse, (for I had one,) because I'am cold,
 133.00A.023 Or, because majesty doth never feare
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they'are rare; But a new starre
 141.00A.045 To whom, because from you all vertues flow,
 142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,
 150.00A.049 Because in her, her virtues did outgoe
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
 153.00A.056 Because God knowes where every Atome lyes;
 155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
 155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 156.00a.036 Because shee cannot such another show.
 156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.
 157.00b.069 Should be emloid, because in all, shee did,
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show
 183.00A.028 (Because it straves not farre) doth never stray;
 187.00A.014 Mourne, because none come to her solemne dayes.
 187.00A.018 Because when her transgressions did increase,
 187.00A.077 20 Because I am in streights, lehova see
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast
 187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we'have sinned so.
 187.00A.381 17 Because mount Sion desolate doth lye, 189.00B.019 Or, as we paint Angels with wings, because

BED.....33

001.00A.112 And constantly a while must keepe his bed. [CW: Satyre]
 010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,
 010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
 011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,
 011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.
 018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.
 028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy sphaere.
 060.00A.013 Our mariage bed, and mariage temple is;
 062.00A.001 Where, like a pillow on a bed,

BEE.....193

002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee
 003.00A.025 Whose countries limbeckes to our bodies bee,
 003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee
 004.00A.006 Poyson'd with love to see, or to bee seene,
 004.00A.180 As fresh, and sweet their Apparrells be, as bee
 004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
 005.00A.011 Bee, be made of the same elements:
 005.00A.053 Become great seas, o'r which, when thou shalt bee
 005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:
 008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly, 'and frolicke bee,
 012.00A.010 Favorite in Ordinary, or no favorite bee.
 013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
 013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,
 016.00A.015 They're our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautifulous bee,
 017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.
 017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee
 017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businesse, absent oft must bee,
 018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
 026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
 033.00A.026 Will bee
 036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee
 037.00A.024 Poore Heretiques in love there bee,
 038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;
 038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
 041.00A.015 New love created bee, by other men,
 042.00A.029 It cannot bee
 042.00A.040 Alive, ne'r parted bee.
 044.00A.021 These burning fits but meteors bee,
 044.00A.027 For I had rather owner bee
 045.00A.004 Angells affect us oft, and worship'd bee,
 045.00A.028 'Twixt womens love, and mens will ever bee.
 047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
 047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
 048.00A.014 (Who Prince enough in one another bee,)
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 049.00A.007 'Tis much that Glasse should bee
 049.00A.023 Or thinke this ragged bony name to bee

049.00A.025 Then, as all my soules bee,
 049.00A.035 Into such characters, as graved bee
 049.00A.061 But glasse, and lines must bee,
 051.00A.016 Some senselesse peece of this place bee;
 052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
 052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;
 052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?
 054.00A.008 With more, not onely bee no quintessence,
 054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee
 055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
 057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
 057.00A.027 Perchance as torches which must ready bee,
 058.00A.005 For thus they bee
 060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
 060.00A.017 Let not to that, selfe murder added bee,
 060.00A.021 Wherein could this flea guilty bee,
 060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;
 061.00A.012 Of conscience, but of fame, and bee
 061.00A.020 His sonnes, which none of his may bee,
 064.00a.013 Only his subject was; It cannot bee
 064.00a.020 To ungod this child againe, it could not bee
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
 065.00A.022 I said, if any title bee
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 068.00A.017 But thou which lov'st to bee
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
 072.00A.011 Which my materialls bee,
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
 106.00A.013 Daughters of London, you which bee
 106.00A.039 Till, mystically joyn'd, but one they bee;
 106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
 106.00A.057 His steeds will bee restrain'd,
 107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
 107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
 108.00A.070 That Angels, though on earth employd they bee,
 109.00A.073 So violent, yet long these furies bee,
 110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
 111.00A.015 Like Indians 'gainst Spanish hosts they bee.
 112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;
 113.00A.009 Omissions of good, ill, as ill deeds bee.
 113.00A.029 Giddily and bee every where, but at home,
 114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee

128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.007 As yet the newes could not arrived bee
 131.00B.067 It must bee sicknesse after one disdaine,
 135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke
 135.B13.036 our letter should as you, bee infinite.
 136.00A.025 This, as an Amber drop enwraps a Bee,
 137.00A.004 And such, as they are circumstanc'd, they bee.
 137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;
 137.00A.011 For, as darke texts need notes: there some must bee
 137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
 138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 138.00A.057 For, bodies shall from death redeemed bee,
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 141.00A.027 Soft dispositions which ductile bee,
 141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,
 142.00A.005 To other Sainct then you directed bee,
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,
 146.00A.010 If to a paradise that transplanted bee,
 146.00A.023 His children are his pictures, Oh they bee
 148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,
 149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.027 Our births and life, vices, and vertues, bee
 151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;
 152.12a.075 At a much deader Fault must Reason bee,
 152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
 152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;
 153.00A.077 So was it in this person, forc'd to bee
 153.00A.105 O Soule, O circle, why so quickly bee
 153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
 153.00A.183 By law, to Triumphs none admitted bee,
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
 153.00A.242 'Gainst natures lawes, which just impugners bee
 154.00A.006 Bee so? if every severall Angell bee
 154.00A.006 Bee so? if every severall Angell bee
 154.00A.040 Got thither by repentance, Let it bee
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.082 So many weedlesse Paradises bee,
 155.00a.204 Like sonnes of women after fifty bee.
 155.00a.217 To be a Phoenix, and that there can bee
 155.00a.309 Shee by whose lines proportion should bee
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.

155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
 155.00a.393 So as the influence of those starres may bee
 156.00a.013 Sickly, alas, short-liu'd, aborted bee
 156.00a.016 Being such a Tabernacle, stoope to bee
 156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needes decrepit bee.
 156.00a.034 Thus braue and confident may Nature bee,
 156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee
 157.00b.032 To bee hereafter prais'd, for praying thee,
 157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;
 157.00b.091 And thinke those broken and soft Notes to bee
 157.00b.102 Thinke Satans Sergeants round about thee bee,
 157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
 157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
 157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
 157.00b.322 And meditation of what thou shalt bee,
 157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 157.00b.428 Gods vnto them, so Agues bee, and war)
 157.00b.454 Better then when in Images they bee:
 157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,
 157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?
 157.00b.482 What eie was casuall, may euer bee.
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 157.00b.524 Thou shouldest for life, and death, a patterne bee,
 158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
 158.00A.149 A dealer bee, and be us'd well, or ill:
 160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee
 161.00A.006 Bee strong enough, and nature doe admit
 166.00A.004 Cannot be damn'd; Alas; why should I bee?
 167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
 181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,
 181.00A.039 And then as worst surfets, of best meates bee,
 184.00A.033 By power, love, knowledge bee,
 184.00A.035 Of these let all mee elemented bee,
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.136 From needing danger, to bee good,
 184.00A.201 Then spheares, or Angels praises bee,
 187.00A.030 Remov'd, as women in uncleannesse bee;
 187.00A.046 O see, and marke if any sorrow bee
 187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,
 187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee
 187.00A.137 13 Daughter Ierusalem, Oh what may bee
 187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
 187.00A.184 In darke, as they who dead for ever bee.

187.00A.209 23 For every morning they renewed bee,
 187.00A.227 34 That underfoot the prisoners stamped bee,
 187.00A.273 2 The pretious sonnes of Sion, which should bee
 187.00A.341 21 Rejoyce O Edoms daughter, joyfull bee
 189.00B.037 What function is so noble, as to bee
 190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee

 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 182.00A.019 Goe from a body,'at this sepulcher been,

BEENE.....39

001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene
 002.00A.049 A motion, Lady, Speake Coscus; I have beene
 004.00A.002 Indeed is great, but I have beene in
 004.00A.024 In the Danes Massacre had sure beene slaine,
 004.00A.031 Sleevelesse his jerkin was, and it had beene
 004.00A.064 Time enough to have beene Interpreter
 004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene
 008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
 010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
 010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we'have beene.
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.
 029.00A.002 That he hath beene in love an houre,
 049.00A.003 Which, ever since that charme, hath beene
 066.00A.014 My silence to'any, who abroad hath beene;
 098.00A.001 Philo, with twelve yeares study, hath beene griev'd,
 108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
 109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.

121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene
 130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
 138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
 155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,
 156.00a.049 What is't to vs, alas, if there haue beene
 156.00a.085 How faire and chast, humble and high shee'ad beene,
 156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.
 157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,
 157.00b.422 Was far to little, to haue beene the Base;
 158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement grieve hath beene
 187.00A.037 10 Upon all things where her delight hath beene,
 187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,

BEEST.....5

008.00B.113 But if from it thou beest loath to depart,
 027.00A.013 If thou, to be so seene, beest loath,
 033.00A.010 If thou beest borne to strange sights,
 150.00A.031 And though thou beest, O mighty bird of prey,
 158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,

BEFALL.....1

059.00A.009 If by the way to him befall

BEFELL.....1

033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,

BEFORE.....91

003.00A.083 Yet strive so, that before age, deaths twilight,
 004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 011.00A.024 Nor kisse and play in his house, as before.
 014.NY3.020 To dust and ashes turnd before my time.
 015.00G.026 Before, behind, between, above, below,
 018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,
 019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
 021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,
 022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,

045.00A.002 Before I knew thy face or name;
 055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;
 055.00A.035 Mynes in the earth, then Quarries were before.
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 060.00A.007 Yet this enjoyes before it wooe,
 061.00A.032 Nature before hand hath out-cursed mee.
 062.00A.039 (All which before was poore, and scant,)
 063.00A.012 Would love but as before:
 064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
 064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
 072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flowen before
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 081.HH5.009 But as ill Princes before they have obtaind
 107.00A.076 A Bride, before a good night could be said,
 107.00A.102 Ther's but one Phenix still, as was before.
 108.00A.022 Before the Sunne and Moone created were;
 108.00A.086 An earnest lover, wise then, and before.
 108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.
 109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
 110.00A.004 A blocke afflicts, now, then a storke before.
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
 114.00A.015 Before by thy grace got in th' Muses Schoole)
 128.LR1.012 who payes before his death doth scape arest.
 129.00A.021 To sweare much love, not to be chang'd before
 130.00A.040 And promis'd him, at morning prayer before.
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.
 133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.
 145.00A.058 The same things now, which I ador'd before,
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,
 151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
 153.00A.103 Before by deeds they are diffus'd and spred,
 153.00A.205 Before men triumph, the dominion
 153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?
 153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 154.00A.026 Unto the spheare of formes, and doth (before
 154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)

155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,
 156.00a.046 Her, greater, purer, firmer, then before?
 156.00a.078 Woman, shee went away, before sh'was one.
 156.00a.087 And measuring future things, by things before,
 157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,
 157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.100 But that, as Bels cal'd thee to Church before,
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
 157.00b.155 Though he had right, and power, and Place before,
 157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.
 157.00b.385 Still before Accessories doe abide
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law
 158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
 158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
 162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast
 182.00A.004 A better Sun rose before thee to day,
 184.00A.009 I may rise up from death, before I'am dead.
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
 184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,
 187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,
 187.00A.186 To my steele fetters, heavier then before,
 187.00A.285 5 They which before were delicately fed,
 187.00A.290 Then did the towne of Sodome sinne before;
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 189.00B.013 Thou art the same materials, as before,
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.
 193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?

BEG.....5

004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg
 018.00B.007 I calmely beg. But by thy fathers wrath,
 039.00A.044 Countries, Townes, Courts: Beg frow above
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 147.00B.006 Dying, of you doe beg a Legacie.

BEG'ST.....1

005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.

BEGAN.....5

004.00A.156 My precious soule began, the wretchednesse
 020.00G.082 Which at the face began, transplanted is,

158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
 158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
 160.00A.055 He in his ages morning thus began

BEGANNE.....2

112.00A.039 For in best understandings, sinne beganne,
 158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,

BEGAT.....1

160.00A.058 Hee faith in some, envie in some begat,

BEGET.....8

012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitterness beget
 041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
 062.00A.061 As our blood labours to beget
 146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
 156.00a.028 This Organ, are those peeces which beget
 158.00A.216 Man to beget, and woman to conceive
 185.00A.012 And by that setting endlesse day beget;
 189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,

BEGETS.....3

024.00A.051 Likenesse begets such strange selfe flatterie,
 138.00A.078 Begets in you unjust suspicion.
 161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles durty slime,

BEGETT.....2

081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound

BEGETTING.....1

172.00A.006 And still begetting, (for he ne'r begonne)

BEGG.....2

081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou

BEGGARLY.....1

002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw

BEGGE.....3

110.00A.050 Under the poles may begge cold, heat in hell.
 129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires
 184.00A.088 To begge for us, a discreet patience

BEGGER.....2

088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,

114.00A.016 A monster and a begger, am a foole.

BEGGERS.....1

116.00A.004 As in our streets sly beggars narrowly

BEGGING.....2

011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,

027.00A.008 Begging themselves they may betray.

BEGIN.....8

028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,

126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,

150.00A.022 And how without Creation didst begin?

152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:

153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,

153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow

157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.

158.00A.182 On whose raw armes stiffe feathers now begin,

BEGIN'ST.....1

049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,

BEGINNE.....1

091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still beginne a new.

BEGINNE.....6

005.00A.033 For service paid, authorized, now beginne

022.00A.055 I could beginne againe to court and praise,

151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;

158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into

160.00A.054 With the Sunne to beginne his businesse,

163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?

BEGINNING.....4

020.00G.072 Mispent by thy beginning at the face.

021.00G.078 How fresh our love was in the beginning;

155.00a.202 That euening was beginning of the day,

173.00A.006 Was from the worlds beginning slaine, and he

BEGINNINGS.....1

130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.

BEGINNS.....1

135.B13.001 Since eu'ry Tree beginns to blossome now

BEGINS.....7

125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,

153.00A.175 Begins Gods City, New Jerusalem,
 158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
 158.00A.353 The Thresher backs him, and to beate begins;
 158.00A.356 Begins to sinke; the Swordfish upward spins,
 160.00A.010 For, at our end begins our endlesse rest,
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;

BEGONNE.....1

172.00A.006 And still begetting, (for he ne'r begonne)

BEGOT.....9

018.00B.005 Begot in thee, and by the memory
 061.00A.016 Himselfe incestuously an heire begot:
 066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
 143.00A.005 That thankfullnesse your favours have begot
 157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
 158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
 158.00A.434 This wolfe begot himselfe, and finished
 172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,

BEGOTT.....1

180.NY3.002 Inconstancy vnnaturally hath begott

BEGUILE.....1

077.00A.012 It doth the sense beguile.

BEGUN.....1

126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun

BEGUNNE.....3

031.00A.036 And makes me end, where I begunne.
 155.00a.276 In Circle still, none ends where he begunne.
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,

BEHEADED.....1

157.00b.009 Or as sometimes in a beheaded man,

 120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast

BEHINDE.....8

018.00B.015 I'll goe, and, by thy kinde leave, leave behinde
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,

030.00B.017 Others; these which come behinde
 044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,
 077.00A.016 Leaves behinde, two houres after.
 079.00B.019 And that so lamely, as it leaves behinde
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,

BEHOLD.....13

012.00A.021 When I behold a streame, which, from the spring,
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold
 160.00A.089 Behold the Highest, parting hence away,
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,
 185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,
 185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is
 187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold
 187.00A.044 How cheape I'am growne, O Lord, behold and weigh.
 187.00A.165 20 Behold O Lord, consider unto whom
 191.00B.037 When I behold that these Psalmes are become

BEHOLDINGNESSE.....1

138.00A.006 In that, I seem'd to shunne beholdingnesse.

BEING.....96

003.00A.060 Tender to him, being tender, as Wards still 004.00A.232 With the seaven deadly sinnes) being among 005.00A.003 Rules to make Courtiers, (hee being understood
 006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,
 008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:
 008.00B.093 Gold being the heaviest metal amongst all,
 010.00A.067 You're loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 011.00A.019 Nor at his boord together being satt,
 013.00A.010 Of flowers, how they devisefully being set
 019.00A.008 With cares rash sodaine stormes, being o'rspread,
 020.00G.060 Being past the Straits of Hellespont between
 022.00A.064 Of being officious, be impertinent;
 022.00A.067 But being got it is a treasure sweet,
 024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.
 028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,
 039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.
 041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
 046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
 047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;
 047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,

048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 049.00A.029 Being still with you, the Muscle, Sinew, and Veine,
 050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,
 050.00A.031 Or else because, being yong, nature did blesse
 054.00A.013 But as all else, being elemented too,
 055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:
 056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
 067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
 068.00A.035 Mee fresher, and more fat, by being with men,
 072.00A.024 A latter bullet may o'rtake, the powder being more.
 075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 076.00A.010 Am, by being dead, Immortall; Can ghosts die?
 079.00B.016 Being had, enjoying it decayes:
 079.00B.028 Because that other curse of being short,
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drown'd.
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 108.00A.164 But that vaile being gone,
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 110.00A.041 Of being belov'd, and loving, or the thirst
 112.00A.031 So pride, lust, covetize, being severall
 122.00A.023 Perchance, these Spanish businesse being done,
 126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,
 141.00A.034 As, water being into ayre rarify'd,
 141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,
 145.00A.011 All the worlds frame being crumbled into sand,
 145.00A.014 (Ciments of greatnes) being vapor'd hence,
 145.00A.015 And narrow man being fill'd with little shares,
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 152.12a.069 So is't to looke for Reason, HEE being gone,
 153.00A.145 An error doth more harme, being generall,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my grieffe, great as thy worth, being cast
 155.00a.022 And th'Ague being spent, giue ouer care,
 155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
 155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.
 155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,
 155.00a.345 As gold fals sicke being stung with Mercury,
 155.00a.366 Being all color, all Diaphanous,
 156.00a.016 Being such a Tabernacle, stoope to bee

156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needs decrepit bee.
 156.00a.052 Being tastelesse growne, to ioy in ioyes they had,
 157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
 157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,
 157.00b.292 Of being taught by sense, and Fantasy?
 157.00b.342 Ioy in not being that, which men haue said.
 157.00b.343 Where shee'is exalted more for being good,
 157.00b.373 As these prerogatiues being met in one,
 157.00b.459 Who being solicited to any Act,
 157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quench'd, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 158.00A.443 For the field, being of two kindes made,
 160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 166.00A.007 And mercy being easie, and glorious
 168.00A.008 Crucifie him daily, being now glorified;
 169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
 184.00A.021 And being sacrilegiously
 184.00A.127 From being anxious, or secure,
 184.00A.152 From being spies, or to spies pervious,
 184.00A.156 Of midle kind; and thou being sent
 184.00A.251 But Patient and Physition being free,
 185.00A.003 And as the other Spheares, by being growne
 185.00A.005 And being by others hurried every day,
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine

BEST.....75

001.00A.013 First sweare by thy best love in earnest001.00A.014 (If thou which lov'st all, canst love any best)001.00A.098 Of all the Court, to have the best conceit;002.00A.003 In all ill things so excellently best,002.00A.020 Pistolets are the best Artillerie.003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.

004.00A.037 Made of th'Accents, and best phrase of all these,
 004.00A.053 For the best linguist? And I seelily
 009.00A.024 Or Joues best fortunes urne, is her faire brest.
 009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.
 017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 021.00G.049 Shadow'd with negligence our best respects?
 024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.
 035.00A.022 Alas, true joyes at best are dreame enough;
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
 042.00A.006 Must dye at last, 'tis best,
 042.00A.032 Thou art the best of mee.
 052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,
 057.00A.009 Enter these armes, for since thou thoughtst it best,
 059.00A.023 Hope not for minde in women; at their best,
 062.00A.004 Sat we two, one anothers best;
 066.00A.021 Of Amsterdam; my best civility
 074.00A.014 If any who deciphers best,
 078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 078.00D.014 And most desired, 'cause 'tis like thee best;
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,
 106.00A.078 Like vertue'and truth, art best in nakednesse;
 107.00A.086 She gives the best light to his Spheare,
 108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move
 112.00A.039 For in best understandings, sinne beganne,
 114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:
 116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
 128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
 128.LR1.011 Ere sicknesses attach yong death is best
 129.00A.032 To touch and test in any best degree.
 136.00A.021 But one,'tis best light to contemplate you.
 137.00A.038 Esteeme religions, and hold fast the best,
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 138.00A.075 Even in your vertues best paradise,
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 145.00A.030 A monster, or at best fantasticall:
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 150.00A.010 Eating the best first, well preserv'd to last.
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.

 157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
 157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,
 158.00A.294 Fat gluttonies best orator: at last
 158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-prooffe,
 158.00A.402 Till the best midwife, Nature, gave it helpe,
 167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
 177.00B.013 O pensive soule, to God, for he knowes best
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 181.00A.039 And then as worst surfets, of best meates bee,
 181.00A.048 Make them indifferent; call nothing best.
 188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;
 188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;
 189.00B.034 Are, at the best, but of sublimed clay)
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that haue least light:

BESTOW.....11

043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,
 092.NY3.003 A fitter Piller our Earle did bestow
 108.00A.047 And comprehend the blessings they bestow.
 117.00A.014 Merit of love bestow that love on mee.
 125.00A.012 Some houres on us your frends, and some bestow
 134.00A.035 Make your returne home gracious; and bestow
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 155.00a.231 Whose hauing breath'd in this world, did bestow
 157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
 160.00A.046 Which himselfe on the Doctors did bestow;

BESTOW'D.....1

156.00a.058 Wisely bestow'd, and layd it all on one.

190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.

BEWARE.....1

093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.

BEWITCH.....1

027.00A.024 Bewitch poore fishes wandring eyes.

BEWRAY.....1

108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;

BEYOND.....5

057.00A.016 And knew'st my thoughts, beyond an Angels art,

092.NY3.001 Beyond th' old Pillers many' haue trauailed

131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.

157.00b.166 My body, could, beyond escape, or helpe,

175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high

BEZA.....1

004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,

BIBLE.....1

052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.

BIBLIOTHECA.....1

BID.....12

002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,

019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;

043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,

045.00A.012 I bid Love aske, and now

073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say

111.00A.026 Therefore I end; and bid farewell a while,

133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;

138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnessse, plenty, bid it goe,

158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid

184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,

184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.

185.00A.038 Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave.

BIDDING.....2

075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.

075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.

BIDDS.....1

128.LR1.010 with bodies deale, as fate bidds or restreynes

BIDE.....1

016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,

BIDES.....1

158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;

BIDETH.....1

077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet

BIDS.....3

003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee

138.00A.038 And bids the passive earth about it runne,

158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire

BIG.....1

004.00A.233 Those Askaparts, men big enough to throw

BIGAMYE.....1

126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,

BIGGE.....2

002.00A.088 Assurances, bigge, as gloss'd civill lawes,

004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,

BIGGER.....1

158.00A.272 That she shoves them in bigger quantities

BILL.....3

002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke

039.00A.015 Adde one more, to the plaguie Bill?

190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,

BIN.....4

137.00A.035 In all Religions as much care hath bin

137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin

140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust come, where they have bin;

150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin

BIND.....1

022.00A.030 With ribs of Ice in June would bind his streames;

BINDE.....3

034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?

037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.

131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.

BIRD.....8

016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,

016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,

107.00A.008 The household Bird, with the red stomacher,

107.00A.009 Thou mak'st the black bird speed as soone,

150.00A.031 And though thou beest, O mighty bird of prey,

158.00A.179 Warme bird orespread, and sat still evermore,
 158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour
 187.00A.251 Like a bird chac'd me. 53 In a dungeon

BIRD-LIME.....1

158.00A.213 How to make bird-lime, nor how to deceive

BIRDS.....8

020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man
 056.00A.010 Are birds divorc'd, or are they chidden
 107.00A.004 And other birds are thy Parishioners,
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,
 150.00A.018 In birds, Heavens choristers, organique throats,
 158.00A.287 To spoile the nests industruous birds do make;
 181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;

BIRTH.....11

001.00A.042 At birth, and death, our bodies naked are;
 068.00A.003 And seene thy birth, and seene what every houre
 134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
 141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty, 'and birth outgrow.
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 148.00A.007 Twinnes, though their birth Cusco, and Musco take,
 153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?
 155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.
 155.00a.450 Will yearely celebrate thy second birth,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enjoyes this her third birth,
 184.00A.158 And through thy poore birth, where first thou

109.00A.067 Darknesse, lights eldest brother, his birth-right

BIRTH-TIME.....1

155.00a.382 In the due birth-time, downe the balmy showre.

BIRTHRIGHT.....1

136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence

BIRTHS.....2

085.00A.001 By childrens births, and death, I am become 150.00A.027 Our births and life, vices, and vertues, bee

BISHOP.....4

070.00A.015 Us, to the Bishop, and the King,
 107.00A.001 Haile Bishop Valentine, whose day this is,
 107.00A.051 Goe then to where the Bishop staies,

107.00A.056 Besides this Bishops knot, O Bishop Valentine.

BISHOPED.....1

126.00A.028 Except confirm'd and Bishoped by thee.

BISHOPS.....1

107.00A.056 Besides this Bishops knot, O Bishop Valentine.

BITCH.....3

158.00A.408 And yet his bitch, his sentinell attends

158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,

158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.

BITETH.....1

158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,

BITINGS.....1

158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him

BITTER.....3

008.00B.008 Nor for the luck sake; but the bitter cost.

010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid

184.00A.163 And though that bitter agonie,

BITTERNESSE.....3

012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitternesse beget

187.00A.016 And shee's unto her selfe a bitternesse.

187.00A.196 15 Hee hath fill'd mee with bitternesse, and he

BLACK.....9

001.00A.055 As are black feathers, or musk-colour hose,

004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;

022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word

073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,

107.00A.009 Thou mak'st the black bird speed as soone,

154.00A.013 Faire mirth is dampt, and conversation black,

154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)

175.00B.003 But black sinne hath betraid to endlesse night

187.00A.368 Black as an Ocean colour'd had our skinne:

BLACKE.....4

158.00A.389 Blacke dreames, like an unbent bow, carelesly

163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned

163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,

166.00A.012 And drowne in it my sinnes blacke memorie,

BLACKNES.....1

187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know

BLADDER.....1

004.00A.168 Such as swells the bladder of our court? I

BLADDERS.....1

157.00b.270 The bladders Caue, and neuer breake the skin?

BLAME.....1

053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.

BLAMERS.....1

138.00A.018 By blamers of the times they mard, hath sought

BLANCK-CHARTERS.....1

003.00A.091 Sign'd Kings blanck-charters to kill whom they hate,

BLANDIVNTR.....1

195.010.025 LVCTVOSISSIMAE SVAE ORBITATI BLANDIVNTR;

BLANKS.....1

156.00a.102 Of fate and her, for filling vp their blanks.

BLASPHEMOUS.....1

177.00B.010 And stile blasphemous Conjurers to call

BLASPHEMY.....2

155.00a.051 Thought it some blasphemy to say sh'was dead;

157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.

BLASTED.....1

051.00A.001 Blasted with sighs, and surrounded with teares,

BLASTS.....1

124.00A.014 With these Articulate blasts to blow the fire.

BLAZING.....1

107.00A.037 And by their blazing, signifie,

BLED.....2

001.00A.110 Hee quarrell'd, fought, bled; and turn'd out of dore

155.00a.012 For in a common Bath of teares it bled,

BLEED.....4

018.00B.054 Assail'd, fight, taken, stabb'd, bleed, fall, and die.

021.00G.062 Strain his eyes open, and yet make them bleed.

135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke

157.00b.351 Vp to those Martyrs, who did calmly bleed

BLEEDE.....1

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.

BLESSE.....6

002.00A.107 Equally I hate, meanes blesse; in rich mens homes

018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse

050.00A.031 Or else because, being yong, nature did blesse

121.NY3.019 Blesse vs w^t Suffolks Sweets; & as y^t is

189.00B.044 And blesse the poore beneath, the lame, the weake.

191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;

BLESSED.....5

155.00a.443 Here therefore be the end: And, blessed maid,

157.00b.341 Where thou shalt see the blessed Mother-maid

184.00A.028 O Blessed glorious Trinity,

184.00A.037 For that faire blessed Mother-maid,

191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon

BLESSINGS.....3

108.00A.047 And comprehend the blessings they bestow.

108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.

134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,

BLEST.....14

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne

003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell

009.00A.012 Which were with any soveraigne fatnes blest,

015.00G.030 How am I blest in thus discovering thee?

048.00A.021 And then wee shall be throughly blest,

108.00A.171 Blest payre of Swans, Oh may you interbring

127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time

131.00B.121 So able man, blest with a vertuous Love,

154.00A.017 Blest order that hath him, the losse of him

158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,

158.00A.517 And blest Seth vext us with Astronomie,

172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,

173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,

189.00B.054 And make thee now a blest Hermaphrodite.

BLEW.....5

001.00A.022 Great traine of blew coats, twelve, or fourteen strong,

019.00A.010 And powders blew staines scatter'd on my skinne;

076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,

109.00A.027 The South and West winds joyn'd, and, as they blew,

158.00A.178 Into a small blew shell, the which a poore

BLIND.....5

021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee
 030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray

BLIND-.....1

003.00A.068 So doth, so is Religion; and this blind-

BLINDE.....9

003.00A.012 Meete blinde Philosophers in heaven, whose merit
 024.00A.017 Are grac'd thereby; And to make blinde men see,
 030.00B.016 As the first were made to blinde
 055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,
 066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 155.00a.109 To that consumption; and profusely blinde,
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
 184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.
 184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.

BLINDED.....3

003.00A.007 As vertue was in the first blinded age?
 021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,
 036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,

BLINDER.....2

021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light

BLINDLY.....1

079.00B.015 Blindly admire, and with such worship woe;

BLIS-FULL.....1

013.00A.024 Refin'd thee'into a blis-full paradise.

BLISSE.....1

001.00A.044 Of bodies, they from blisse are banished.

BLISSES.....2

021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
 022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?

BLOCKE.....2

002.00A.071 Like a wedge in a blocke, wring to the barre,
 110.00A.004 A blocke afflicts, now, then a storke before.

BLOCKES.....1

112.00A.028 In cities blockes, and in a lewd court, devills.

BLOOD.....39

006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.

014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.

042.00A.028 My lifes blood doth decay.

047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,

050.00A.026 There he, as wine in lune, enrages blood,

060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,

060.00A.020 Purpled thy naile, in blood of innocence?

062.00A.061 As our blood labours to beget

141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood

142.00A.022 Soe is the Blood sometimes; who ever ran

153.00A.046 Those Spirits, humors, blood I did last yeare,

154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,

157.00b.106 And trust th'immaculate blood to wash thy score.

157.00b.148 The purest Blood, and Breath, that ere it eat.

157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood

157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;

157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,

158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.

158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her child's blood;

158.00A.209 He blood, and spirit, pith, and marrow spends,

158.00A.212 Of gummie blood, which doth in holly grow

158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.

160.00A.094 Mild lambe which with thy blood, hast mark'd the path;

160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,

162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,

163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might

165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.

166.00A.010 O God, Oh! of thine onely worthy blood,

170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell

183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,

184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.

184.00A.087 In thine, let their blood come

184.00A.138 From trusting so much to thy blood,

184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe

185.00A.025 Humbled below us? or that blood which is

187.00A.314 Blood in the streets, and the just murdered;

187.00A.317 With blood, the which impossible it was

190.00A.004 Shall be to mee an embleme of thy blood;

192.00B.025 May the last Adams blood my soule embrace.

BLOODS.....4

060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;

158.00A.493 Adam and Eve had mingled bloods, and now
 184.00A.093 Whose bloods betroth'd, not married were;
 191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;

BLOODY.....1

150.00A.008 Into his bloody, or plaguy, or sterv'd jawes.

BLOSSOME.....1

135.B13.001 Since eu'ry Tree beginns to blossome now

BLOSSOMES.....1

054.00A.019 Gentle love deeds, as blossomes on a bough,

BLOT.....1

181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument

BLOTT.....1

120.00A.006 No blott nor maime by this division,

BLOTTES.....1

081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse

BLOOD.....2

020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my blood

155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Blood: no thing

BLOODS.....1

021.00G.036 Inro our bloods, inflaming our desires,

BLOW.....7

021.00G.037 And made'st us sigh and blow, and pant, and burn,

029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.

124.00A.014 With these Articulate blasts to blow the fire.

150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.

155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,

156.00a.035 Death cannot giue her such another blow,

165.00A.001 At the round earths imagin'd corners, blow

BLOW-POINT.....1

004.00A.106 At span-counter, or blow-point, but shall pay

BLOWE.....1

171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.

BLOWES.....2

134.00A.023 If'twere not injur'd by extrinsique blowes;

184.00A.172 Through thy submitting all, to blowes

BLOWING.....3

113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne
 160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,
 160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,

BLOWNE.....4

022.00A.011 And blowne away with winde? Or doth their breath
 133.00A.045 Marke, if slight things be'objected, and o'r blowne,
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,

BLOWS.....1

014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.

BLUE.....1

155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue

BLUNT.....1

004.00A.089 Scratch'd into smart, and as blunt iron grown'd

BLUNTS.....1

158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-proofe,

BLUSH.....3

006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no grieffe nor shame,
 143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.

BLUSHING.....4

010.00A.022 And notes thy palenesse, blushing, sighs, and sweats;
 018.00B.030 A blushing womanly discovering grace;
 155.00a.357 Our blushing redde, which vs'd in cheekes to spred,
 163.00A.012 And red with blushing, as thou art with sinne;

BOARD.....2

004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 006.00D.056 Which casts at Portescues, and all the board

BOAST.....2

155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring

BOATE.....2

158.00A.021 Nor holy lanus in whose soveraigne boate
 158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.

BODIE.....2

001.00A.008 The sinewes of a cities mistique bodie;
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,

BODIE'S.....2

138.00A.040 Onely the bodie's busie, and pretends;
 154.00A.030 So, in the forme thereof his bodie's there;

BODIES.....47

001.00A.042 At birth, and death, our bodies naked are;
 001.00A.044 Of bodies, they from blisse are banished.
 003.00A.025 Whose countries limbeckes to our bodies bee,
 003.00A.086 Hard deeds, the bodies paines; hard knowledge to
 005.00A.075 With which she scracheth Suiters; In bodies
 015.00G.034 As soules unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,
 018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
 020.00G.033 Although we see Celestial bodies move
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our soules are ty'd,
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 059.00A.019 'Tis not the bodies marry, but the mindes,
 062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbear?
 062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
 062.00A.076 Small change, when we'are to bodies gone.
 106.00A.004 It nourseth sadnesse, and your bodies print,
 106.00A.041 Long time expect their bodies and their tombe,
 107.00A.078 As Soules from bodies steale, and are not spy'd.
 108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
 128.LR1.010 with bodies deale, as fate bidde or restreyne
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 138.00A.057 For, bodies shall from death redeemed bee,
 139.00A.015 As spice doth bodies from corrupt aires touch.
 139.00A.020 Kept hot with strong extracts, no bodies last:
 147.00B.018 Here bodies with lesse miracle enjoy
 150.00A.042 Bodies of Saints rest for their soules above.
 150.00A.043 Death gets 'twixt soules and bodies such a place
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 153.00A.045 As bodies change, and as I do not weare
 153.00A.055 Yet at the last two perfect bodies rise,
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 155.00a.315 And did from her into our bodies go,
 155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 155.00a.474 The graue keeps bodies, verse the same enrroules.
 156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,
 157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,
 157.00b.493 When earthly bodies more celestiall
 158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so

158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
 158.00A.207 And slackneth so the soules, and bodies knot,
 158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,
 158.00A.245 Fate not affording bodies of more worth
 158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,
 165.00A.004 Of soules, and to your scattred bodies goe,
 184.00A.102 Their bodies backe againe to thee,
 187.00A.295 As carbuncles did their pure bodies shine,

BODY.....51

011.00A.004 His body with a sere-barke covered,
 012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,
 024.00A.035 Thy body is a naturall Paradise ,
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.013 That it assume thy body, I allow,
 049.00A.028 The rafters of my body, bone
 049.00A.032 And recompact my scattered body so.
 062.00A.060 Though it to body first repaire.
 062.00A.072 But yet the body is his booke.
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 072.00A.005 My body then doth hers involve,
 082.00A.036 As shadow, a light, and body must be here.
 116.00A.008 The body risen againe, the which was dead,
 118.NY3.004 Like fyer, are made; thy body, mind, & Muse.
 119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:
 119.NY3.008 body & mind; the Muse beeing the Soules Soule
 131.00B.097 The soule with body, is a heaven combin'd
 136.00A.022 You, for whose body God made better clay,
 138.00A.042 The quick high Moone: so doth the body, Soules.
 138.00A.052 Into the body, 'and bastardly they grow.
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 149.00A.031 Usurpe the body, 'our soule, which subject is
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
 153.00A.054 Part of his body to another owe,
 153.00A.211 (Which is thy soule and body) as intire
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 155.00a.154 In minde and body both bedwarfed vs.
 155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.166 My body, could, beyond escape, or helpe,
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,

157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,
 157.00b.226 Shee, in whose body (if wee dare prefer
 157.00b.242 Her body was th'Electrum, and did hold
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee
 158.00A.205 The body so free of his kindnesses,
 158.00A.306 Or seas from Africks body had severed
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 182.00A.009 Whose body having walk'd on earth, and now
 182.00A.019 Goe from a body, 'at this sepulcher been,
 182.00A.020 And, issuing from the sheet, this body seen,
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 184.00A.085 Thou in thy scatter'd mystique body wouldst

006.00D.050 A Pandect mak'st, and universall book.

BOOKE.....29

004.00A.112 To say Gallo-Belgicus without booke

006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.

006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.

006.00D.028 Vpon the progresse of thy glorious booke,

006.00D.055 So will thy booke in peeces; for a Lord

006.00D.071 As Sibyls was, your booke is mysticall,

008.00B.034 Like many angled figures, in the booke

052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) Homer did finde, and name.

052.00A.019 This Booke, as long-liv'd as the elements,

052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,

052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,

062.00A.072 But yet the body is his booke.

108.00A.051 Is an epitome of Gods great booke

137.00A.053 Purge but the booke of Fate, that it admit

145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.

145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I

148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,

148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.

156.00a.084 Should come to reade the booke of destiny,

156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.

156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thanks

157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.

158.00A.037 And shew my story, in thy eternall booke.

158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,

158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into

158.00A.034 you shall finde in the end of this booke.

160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,

184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there

184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,

012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes

052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,

066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles

140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.

158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,

184.00A.078 That their bookes are divine;

184.00A.111 Both bookes of life to us (for love

BOOKS.....6

004.00A.186 (For themselves dare not goe) o'r Cheapside books,
 006.00D.057 Provide whole books; each leafe enough will be
 006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,
 015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,
 015.00G.041 Themselves are only mystick books, which we,
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;

BOORD.....2

 021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,

BORNE.....15

004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men
 033.00A.010 If thou beest borne to strange sights,
 064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
 112.00A.026 Gain'd, as habits, not borne, is understood.
 114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
 155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than 158.00A.082 Fenc'd with the law, and ripe as soone as borne
 161.00A.007 Seaven to be borne at once, I send as yet
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 166.00A.005 Why should intent or reason, borne in mee,

184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes

BORROW.....3

054.00A.010 And of the Sunne his working vigour borrow,
 138.00A.009 Such borrow in their payments, and owe more
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of

BOSOME.....3

012.00A.024 Her wedded channels bosome, and then chide
 106.00A.038 And these two in thy sacred bosome hold,
 137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;

BOTCHES.....1

002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,

BOTH.....113

003.00A.099 Equally strong cannot both sides say so?
 004.00A.048 Jovius, or Surius, or both together.
 004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
 004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,
 006.00D.029 To which both Indies sacrifices send;
 008.00B.098 Thy Countrey, and faile both of it and thy pay.
 019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
 020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
 021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 022.00A.012 (Both hot and cold) at once make life and death?
 022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsell, and wee both may rue,
 024.00A.014 Which, both to keepe, and lose, grieves equally.
 025.00A.014 And breake both
 027.00A.014 By Sunne, or Moone, thou darknest both,
 036.00A.017 Whether both the India's of spice and Myne
 037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
 039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.
 040.00A.019 Both are increased by such songs:
 040.00A.020 For both their triumphs so are published,
 052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,
 052.00A.050 In both they doe excell
 055.00A.016 Both ways, as thou and thine, in eies and minde;
 055.00A.033 And melt both Poles at once, and store
 062.00A.026 Because both meant, both spake the same)
 062.00A.026 Because both meant, both spake the same)
 062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
 066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
 069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 075.00A.002 Which sucks two soules, and vapors Both away,

081.HH5.032 did both in precepts & examples bend
 082.00A.045 Both the yeares, and the dayes deep midnight is.
 083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,
 083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.
 097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
 107.00A.087 Or each is both, and all, and so
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 112.00A.016 Shall cities built of both extremes be chosen?
 115.00A.008 Both of the place and paines of hell, are ended;
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 120.00A.005 And let the love I beare to both sustaine
 122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;
 125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,
 129.00A.025 But 'tis an easier load (though both oppresse)
 131.00B.049 Both sigh'd and enterchang'd a speaking eye,
 131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.
 131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.
 135.B13.010 As in deuotions men loyne both there hands
 136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 137.00A.020 And falsifies both computations so;
 137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
 137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 139.00A.059 Be better, he shoves both, and to repress
 142.00A.054 And revelation of you both I see,
 143.00A.008 Must both to growth and to confession bring
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 145.00A.056 The power and praise of both them, on the last;
 148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;
 149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.
 149.00A.035 So, unobnoxious now, she'hath buried both;
 150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.
 150.00A.045 Both worke a separation, no divorce.
 152.12a.002 For, both my Centres feel This Period.
 152.12a.016 Almost meetes Faith, and makes both Centres one:
 153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;
 153.00A.122 Both how to live well young, and how to die,
 153.00A.198 Both Envy, and acclamation popular,
 153.00A.199 (For, both these engines equally defeate,

155.00a.010 Shee's now a part both of the Quire, and Song,
 155.00a.154 In minde and body both bedwarfed vs.
 155.00a.200 Both beasts and plants, curst in the curse of man.
 155.00a.321 Both Elements, and Passions liu'd at peace
 157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,
 157.00b.161 Thou fedst vpon, And drewst into thee, both
 157.00b.236 The Tutelar Angels, and assigned one, both
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 157.00b.442 For it is both the obiect, and the wit.
 157.00b.466 Both where more grace, and more capacitee
 157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,
 158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
 158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her childs blood;
 158.00A.199 The next that calls; both liberty doe use;
 158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kindes may freely chuse.
 158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kindes may freely chuse.
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate
 158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay
 158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.
 160.00A.060 In both affections many to him ran,
 160.00A.083 That wak't from both, I againe risen may
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 181.00A.043 And crosse thy senses, else, both they, and thou
 183.00A.004 That of them both a circle embleme is,
 183.00A.032 Leade, and his Church, as cloud; to one end both:
 184.00A.111 Both bookes of life to us (for love
 184.00A.162 Deliver, and make us, to both waies free.
 184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
 187.00A.215 26 It is both good to trust, and to attend
 187.00A.233 38 Both good and evill from his mouth proceeds;
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,
 191.00B.019 Have both translated, and apply'd it too,
 191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.
 192.00B.023 Looke Lord, and finde both Adams met in me;

BOTLE'OF.....1

112.00A.006 To'a bottle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.

BOTTOM.....1

155.00a.291 Of their wish'd iourneys end, the bottom, dye.

BOTTOME.....1

006.00D.066 All in one bottome, in one Librarie.

BOUGH.....3

012.00A.025 And bend her browes, and swell if any bough
 054.00A.019 Gentle love deeds, as blossomes on a bough,
 068.00A.005 And now dost laugh and triumph on this bough,

BOUGHT.....5

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.
 004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
 005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 155.00a.376 Or with bought colors to illude mens sense.
 162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,

BOULSTRED.....1

150.00A.0HE Elegie on M^{rs} Boulstred.

BOUND.....5

010.00A.031 The grim- eight- foot- high- iron- bound serving- man,
 013.00A.011 And bound up, might with speechlesse secrecie
 016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
 135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,
 141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.

BOUNDLESS.....1

020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye

BOUNDS.....3

003.00A.100 That thou mayest rightly obey power, her bounds know;
 139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 149.00A.004 God hath set markes, and bounds, twixt us and it,

BOUNTIE.....1

131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,

BOUNTIFULLY.....1

116.00A.009 And thy poore starveling bountifully fed.

BOW.....5

068.00A.013 And hop'st her stiffenesse by long siege to bow:
 135.B13.002 Perfuminge and enameling each bow
 155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,
 158.00A.389 Blacke dreames, like an unbent bow, carelesly
 187.00A.101 4 Like to an enemie he bent his bow,

BOWE.....1

181.00A.044 Must perish soone, and to destruction bowe.

BOWELLS.....2

187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,

187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes

BOWELS.....2

022.00A.049 Swine eate his bowells, and his falsen tongue

108.00A.061 The earth doth in her inner bowells hold

BOWLE.....1

157.00b.046 And serue thy thirst, with Gods safe-sealing Bowle.

BOXES.....1

107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take

BOY.....3

001.00A.040 Of thy plumpe muddy whore, or prostitute boy

018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change

024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet

BOYES.....6

004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play

004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.

036.00A.006 Late schoole boyes, and sowre prentices,

101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.

158.00A.115 Of glassie bubbles, which the gamesome boyes

158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.

BRACELET.....1

070.00A.006 A bracelet of bright haire about the bone,

BRACKISH.....1

149.00A.010 Take all a brackish tast, and Funerall.

BRAGGART.....1

004.00A.164 To huffing, braggart, puft Nobility.

BRAINE.....10

006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:

008.00B.100 Poyson, whose nimble fume rot thy moist braine;

067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall

067.00A.013 Have from a better braine,

133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,

158.00A.049 Th'expense of braine and spirit; that my grave

158.00A.393 And to the braine, the soules bedchamber, went,

158.00A.502 The tender well arm'd feeling braine, from whence,

181.00A.055 And as the braine through bony walls doth vent

181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,

BRAINES.....4

126.00A.002 Yet satisfy'd? Is not thy braines rich hive
 155.00a.197 And turn'd her braines, and tooke a generall maim
 155.00a.330 Corruptions in our braines, or in our harts,
 156.00a.022 Princes for armes, and Counsailors for braines,

BRAINS.....1

021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:

BRASILL.....1

137.00A.018 As China, when the Sunne at Brasill dines.

BRASSE.....2

081.HH5.008 thy faith seemd bright & durable as brasse
 158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;

BRAUE.....1

156.00a.034 Thus braue and confident may Nature bee,

BRAUELY.....1

157.00b.349 Vp to th'Apostles, who did brauely runne,

BRAVE.....12

001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh't the ground.
 003.00A.001 Kinde pitty chokes my spleene; brave scorn forbids
 003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be inthrall'd,
 030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.
 057.00A.025 'Tis not all spirit, pure, and brave,
 071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
 074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
 087.00A.003 Whose brave misfortune, happiest men envi'd,
 091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew
 110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.
 140.00A.045 As brave as true, is that profession than
 189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can

BRAVELY.....1

138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe

BRAVER.....4

063.00A.001 I have done one braver thing
 063.00A.003 And yet a braver thence doth spring,
 063.00A.025 Then you have done a braver thing
 063.00A.027 And a braver thence will spring

BRAVERY.....2

067.00A.023 So, 'tis some bravery,
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.

BRAVES.....1

012.00A.031 And rores, and braves it, and in gallant scorne,

BRAVEST.....1

006.00D.051 The bravest Heroes for publike good,

BRAYNE.....1

128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.

BRAZEN.....2

066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live

158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take

BREACH.....4

031.00A.023 A breach, but an expansion,

149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,

184.00A.184 And worke despaire a breach to enter in,

187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?

BREAD.....8

005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be

061.00A.024 And at the last be circumcis'd for bread:

066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among

187.00A.041 11 And all her people groane, and seeke for bread;

187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there

187.00A.283 And when for bread the little children crye,

187.00A.360 To get us bread; and to the Assyrians .

187.00A.365 9 With danger of our life our bread wee gat;

BREAK.....3

021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,

131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break

151.00A.024 Who e'r saw Christall Ordinance but would break?

BREAKE.....26

013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force

022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forfet? signe to breake?

025.00A.014 And breake both

072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:

073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.

075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,

107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,

109.00A.060 Strive to breake loose, and scape away from thence.

112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,

131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,

131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.

136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,
 153.00A.222 Of imminent commotions to breake out.
 155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,
 157.00b.270 The bladders Caue, and neuer breake the skin?
 157.00b.478 A ioyfull casual violence may breake
 158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
 158.00A.183 As childrens teeth through gummes, to breake with paine,
 158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,
 158.00A.413 The counsels, or to breake the plots of foes,
 158.00A.466 With hoiting gambolls, his owne bones to breake
 171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
 171.00A.011 Divorce mee, 'untie, or breake that knot againe,
 187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath
 187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,

BREAKES.....3

131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.
 150.00A.017 He rounds the aire, and breakes the hymnique notes

BREAKS.....3

137.00A.019 Out from your chariot, morning breaks at night,
 149.00A.006 And breaks our banke, when ere it takes a friend.
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,

BREAST.....5

009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.
 022.00A.033 But O that treacherous breast to whom weake you
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
 177.00B.014 Thy grieffe, for he put it into my breast.

BREASTPLATE.....1

015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,

BREASTS.....3

020.00G.061 The Sestos and Abydos of her breasts,
 107.00A.023 Two Phoenixes, whose joynd breasts
 187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.

BREATH.....19

010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 010.00A.060 By drawing in a leprous harlots breath,
 011.00A.005 Drawing his breath, as thick and short, as can
 022.00A.011 And blowne away with winde? Or doth their breath
 031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.

041.00A.003 I cannot breath one other sigh, to move;
 044.00A.008 The whole world vapours with thy breath.
 047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,
 058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 150.00A.029 For, wee to live, our bellowes weare, and breath,
 151.00A.004 Griefe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
 157.00b.148 The purest Blood, and Breath, that ere it eat.
 158.00A.264 And whether she leape up sometimes to breath
 187.00A.337 20 The annoited Lord, breath of our nostrils, hee

BREATH'D.....5

012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 153.00A.080 As all the long breath'd Chronicles can touch;
 155.00a.231 Whose hauing breath'd in this world, did bestow
 156.00a.062 Or exhalation breath'd out from her soule.

BREATHD.....1

081.HH5.002 betrothd nor by my sighes breathd into thee

BREATHE.....1

171.00A.002 As yet but knocke, breathe, shine, and seeke to mend;

BREATHED.....1

022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,

BRED.....12

004.00A.019 E'r bred, or all which into Noahs Arke came:
 010.00A.048 Where cattell onely, 'and diverse dogs are bred,
 012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 100.00A.001 Compassion in the world againe is bred:
 121.NY3.002 The slimy rimes bred in our vale below,
 122.00A.010 Bred in thee by a wise melancholy,
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 150.00A.060 Abundant virtue'have bred a proud delight.
 157.00b.056 By it, but as a worme, that carcas bred;
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 164.00A.012 To where they'are bred, and would presse me, to hell.

BREED.....3

014.NY3.037 There Engines farr of breed a iust trew feare,

067.00A.019 Loves martyr, it might breed idolatrie,
 140.00A.008 Yet couple'in anger, and new monsters breed;

BREEDS.....3

002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pitty towards the rest;
 002.00A.040 Of Coscus onely breeds my just offence,
 003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou

BREST.....12

009.00A.024 Or Joues best fortunes urne, is her faire breest.
 019.00A.007 My face and breest of hairecloth, and my head
 024.00A.050 Why should they breest to brest, or thighs to thighs?
 024.00A.050 Why should they brest to breest, or thighs to thighs?
 108.00A.019 Burne in one breest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.089 Hee is admitted now into that breest
 108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes breest
 135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each breest
 155.00a.229 Steward to Fate; shee whose rich eyes, and breest,
 157.00b.371 Shee gaue protections; the thoughts of her breest
 157.00b.479 A dangerous Apostem in thy breest;
 172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy breest,

BREESTS.....1

187.00A.277 3 Even the Sea-calfes draw their breests, and give

BRETHREN.....1

010.00A.027 Thy little brethren, which like Faiery Sprights

BRIAR.....1

146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,

BRIB'D.....2

008.00B.097 Or be with forraine gold brib'd to betray
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.

BRIBING.....1

184.00A.140 From bribing thee with Almes, to excuse

BRICKE.....1

158.00A.009 A worke t'outweare Seths pillars, bricke and stone,

BRICKLAYERS.....1

004.00A.065 To Babels bricklayers, sure the Tower had stood.

BRIDE.....10

106.00A.002 Leave, leave, faire Bride, your solitary bed,
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,

107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,
 107.00A.033 Up, up, faire Bride, and call,
 107.00A.075 So nicely about the Bride;
 107.00A.076 A Bride, before a good night could be said,
 108.00A.123 Which scornes unjust opinion; then the bride
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?
 108.00A.201 Therefore thou maist, faire Bride, to bed depart,

BRIDEGROOM.....1

106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring

BRIDEGROOME.....3

108.00A.121 The bridegroome is a maid, and not a man,
 108.00A.130 First, cheerfull Bridegroome, and first let mee see,
 108.00A.206 So doth the Bridegroome hast as much,

BRIDEGROOMES.....2

059.00A.017 Endure the short scorne of a Bridegroomes play?
 106.00A.088 And at the Bridegroomes wish'd approach doth lye,

BRIDES.....1

108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,

BRIDGE.....1

156.00a.043 (Hauing first made a naturall bridge, to passe

BRIDGES.....1

005.00A.054 Forc'd to make golden bridges, thou shalt see

BRIGHT.....12

001.00A.018 Bright parcell gilt, with forty dead mens pay,
 018.00B.032 Ecclips'd as bright we call the Moone the Moone.
 045.00A.022 Extreme, and scattring bright, can love inhere;
 070.00A.006 A bracelet of bright haire about the bone,
 081.HH5.008 thy faith seemd bright & durable as brasse
 108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,
 124.00A.012 But seing in you bright sparkes of Poetry,
 131.00B.119 But as ayre takes the Sunne-beames equall bright
 145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,
 158.00A.156 Enchas'd with little fruits, so red and bright
 160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,
 179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.

BRIGHTEST.....1

052.00A.061 At their brightest, but to conclude

BRIMSTONE.....1

110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,

BRIN'D.....1

065.00A.013 If he wrong from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so

BRING.....22

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring

004.00A.182 Those hose are, cry the flatterers; And bring

008.00B.084 Good Angels, (for good messages you bring)

008.00B.102 Which negligently kept, thy ruine bring.

051.00A.005 But O, selfe traytor, I do bring

070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring

106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you

106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring

106.00A.049 Winter dayes bring much delight,

106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;

109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.

122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;

127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so

143.00A.008 Must both to growth and to confession bring

155.00a.084 Except some forraine Serpent bring it in)

155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we

155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring

157.00b.036 Yearely to bring forth such a child as this.

157.00b.144 To bring mankind, all Fortunes it enioies,

160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,

189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?

BRINGS.....10

002.00A.006 As I thinke that brings dearth, and Spaniards in,

031.00A.009 Moving of th'earth brings harmes and feares,

072.00A.017 Whose foraine conquest treasure brings,

106.00A.066 As much wearinesse as perfection brings;

107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.

137.00A.003 Rarenesse, or use, not nature value brings;

153.00A.090 Which he successively to order brings;

157.00b.086 Which brings a Taper to the outward romme,

157.00b.088 And after brings it nearer to thy sight:

189.00B.010 For Iron and Cloth brings home rich Indian ware,

BRINGST.....2

015.00G.020 Reveald to men: thou Angel bringst with thee

189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind

BRISKE.....1

001.00A.019 Not though a briske perfum'd piert Courtier

BRITTLE.....2

073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.

BROAD.....1

184.00A.080 Th'old broad way in applying; O decline

BROK'ST.....1

057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,

BROKE.....11

057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,
070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe
073.00A.004 Nothing more endlesse, nothing sooner broke?
073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
152.12a.094 By th'Oathes which only you Two neuer broke,
157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
158.00A.122 Broke the slight veines, and tender conduit-pipe,
187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke
187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee
187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,

BROKE-OFF.....1

152.12a.076 Death hauing broke-off such a Link as Hee.

BROKEN.....6

013.00A.019 In broken proverbs, and torne sentences.
019.00A.009 My body'a sack of bones, broken within,
029.00A.029 And now as broken glasses show
157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
157.00b.091 And thinke those broken and soft Notes to bee
158.00A.312 More circles in the broken sea they make

BROKER.....2

001.00A.030 Dost search, and like a needy broker prize
100.00A.002 Ralphius is sick, the broker keeps his bed.

BROOK'ST.....1

169.00A.005 Why brook'st thou, ignorant horse, subjection?

BROOKE.....2

004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
158.00A.223 T'a brooke; a female fishes sandie Roe

BROOKES.....2

- 027.00A.003 Of golden sands, and christall brookes:
 131.00B.012 Sees men at childrens shapes, Rivers at brookes,

BROTHER.....6

- 109.00A.067 Darknesse, lights eldest brother, his birth-right
 122.00A.003 Never did Morpheus nor his brother weare
 149.00A.030 If carnall Death (the yonger brother) doe
 158.00A.488 Her brother, entred, and a great stone threw
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
 191.00B.015 A Brother and a Sister, made by thee

BROUGHT.....12

- 002.00A.068 That onely suretiship hath brought them there,
 010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee
 029.00A.019 I brought a heart into the roome,
 040.00A.010 Griefe brought to numbers cannot be so fierce,
 046.00A.005 Love which in spight of darknesse brought us hether,
 051.00A.009 True Paradise, I have the serpent brought.
 108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,
 124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 158.00A.164 Her sinne had now brought in infirmitie,
 187.00A.176 Brought up, did perish by mineemie.

BROW.....7

- 009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,
 012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
 020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,
 045.00A.014 And fixe it selfe in thy lip, eye, and brow.
 158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow
 158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 158.00A.497 Like a free conduit, on a high hils brow,

BROWES.....1

- 012.00A.025 And bend her browes, and swell if any bough

BROWNE.....2

- 037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
 038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;

BUBBLES.....1

- 158.00A.115 Of glassie bubbles, which the gamesome boyes

BUBLES.....2

- 059.00A.014 Shall we, for this vaine Bubles shadow pay?

131.00B.114 But like swoln bubles, when they are high'st they break

BUD.....3

054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.

137.00A.016 Exhale them, and a thick close bud display.

143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;

BUDS.....1

135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.

BUFFET.....1

168.00A.002 Buffet, and scoffe, scourge, and crucifie mee,

BUFFONES.....1

066.00A.013 To Jesuites; to Buffones my pensiveness;

BUILD.....3

039.00A.032 We'll build in sonnets pretty roomes;

050.00A.018 He doth not digge a Grave, but build a Tombe.

148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;

BUILDING.....1

158.00A.514 Why plowing, building, ruling and the rest,

BUILDINGS.....1

158.00A.001 Others at the Porches and entries of their Buildings set their

BUILT.....10

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.

017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,

056.00A.017 Or built faire houses, set trees, and arbors,

112.00A.016 Shall cities built of both extremes be chosen?

123.NY3.002 Built of all th'elements as our bodyes are:

139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want

156.00a.065 As when a Temple's built, Saints emulate

157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,

158.00A.159 Did this soules second Inne, built by the guest

187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in

BULL.....1

169.00A.006 Why dost thou bull, and bore so seelily

BULLET.....2

072.00A.024 A latter bullet may o'rtake, the poudre being more.

157.00b.182 In peeces, and the bullet is his owne,

BULLETS.....2

014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.
 072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flown before

BULLWARKS.....1

153.00A.254 Their walls and bullwarks which became them best:

BUMBAST.....1

004.00A.040 But Pedants motley tongue, souldiers bumbast,

BUNCH.....1

009.00A.033 And like a bunch of ragged carrets stand

BURDEN.....1

008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?

BURDENOUS.....3

065.00A.002 And burdenous corpulence my love had growne,

072.00A.007 In me abundant grow, and burdenous,

184.00A.141 Some sinne more burdenous,

BURIED.....6

010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,

108.00A.101 But since I'am dead, and buried, I could frame

143.00A.001 Though I be dead, and buried, yet I have

149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;

149.00A.035 So, unobnoxious now, she'hath buried both;

158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.

BURN.....2

021.00G.037 And made'st us sigh and blow, and pant, and burn,

171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.

BURNE.....10

044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit

081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne

108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,

108.00A.227 A perfect sacrifice, I'll burne it too.

110.00A.032 Like parboyl'd wretches, on the coales to burne.

131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.

133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne

145.00A.084 And though I burne my librarie, be learn'd.

175.00B.013 And burne me o Lord, with a fiery zeale

185.00A.040 Burne off my rusts, and my deformity,

BURNES.....1

012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,

BURNING.....2

026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
 044.00A.021 These burning fits but meteors bee,

BURNT.....16

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.
 004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound
 008.00B.022 When in that hell they're burnt and tyed in chains:
 009.00A.042 Where round about the grasse is burnt away.
 010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drownd.
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drownd.
 108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,
 108.00A.229 For, in burnt incense, the perfume is not
 146.00A.011 Or fell'd, and burnt for holy sacrifice,
 158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she
 160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 175.00B.011 Of lust and envie burnt it heretofore,

BURST.....1

187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst

BURTHENS.....2

021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.

BURY.....3

067.00A.017 What ere shee meant by'it, bury it by me,
 067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
 157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite

BUSH.....2

151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 158.00A.193 Already this hot cocke in bush and tree

BUSIE.....11

003.00A.074 Be busie to seeke her, beleeve mee this,
 015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.
 036.00A.001 Busie old foole, unruly Sunne,
 070.00A.010 To make their soules, at the last busie day,
 137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,
 138.00A.040 Onely the bodie's busie, and pretends;
 152.12a.077 But, now, for vs with busie Proofs to come
 155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,

156.00a.079 And the worlds busie noyse to ouercome,
 158.00A.500 Whose busie furnaces lifes spirits do impart.
 183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;

BUSIED.....1

046.00A.016 Admit, but not the busied man.

BUSINES.....1

157.00b.054 Is far more business, then this world is worth.

BUSINESSE.....12

017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businessse, absent oft must bee,
 046.00A.013 Must businessse thee from hence remove?
 046.00A.017 He which hath businessse, and makes love, doth doe
 068.00A.020 Here lyes my businessse, and here I will stay:
 122.00A.023 Perchance, these Spanish businessse being done,
 129.00A.027 In that, our owne and onely businessse,
 140.00A.033 Since then our businessse is, to rectifie
 153.00A.017 To morrows businessse, when the labourers have 158.00A.046 Distracting businessse, and from beauties nets,
 158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businessse hee should still 160.00A.054 With the Sunne to beginne his businessse,
 185.00A.007 Pleasure or businessse, so, our Soules admit

BUSINESSES.....1

108.00A.134 All businessses, from thence to reinvest

BUSK.....1

015.00G.011 Off with that happy busk, which I envie,

BUT.....768

001.00A.038 But in ranke itchie lust, desire, and love
 001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 001.00A.049 But since thou like a contrite penitent,
 001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene
 001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence
 001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more
 001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side
 001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?
 001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me
 001.00A.104 So is the Poxe; He answered not, but spy'd
 002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms
 002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw
 002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use
 002.00A.039 But these punish themselves; the insolence
 002.00A.044 But scarce a Poet, jollier of this state,
 002.00A.062 Thou wast, and mad, I hop'd; but men which chuse

002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,
 002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaires
 002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 003.00A.050 But loves her onely, who at Geneva is call'd
 003.00A.054 No wenches wholsome, but course country drudges:
 003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou
 003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.
 003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given
 004.00A.002 Indeed is great, but I have beene in
 004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe
 004.00A.040 But Pedants motley tongue, souldiers bumbast,
 004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,
 004.00A.068 My lonelinesse is, but Spartanes fashion,
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.
 004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch
 004.00A.106 At span-counter, or blow-point, but shall pay
 004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,
 004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre
 004.00A.145 Gave it, as Ransome; But as fiders, still,
 004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,
 004.00A.202 Great staines and holes in them; but veniall
 004.00A.217 For saying of our Ladies psalter; But 'tis fit
 004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine
 004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
 005.00A.004 May make good Courtiers, but who Courtiers good?)
 005.00A.048 To fetters, halters; But if the injury
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
 006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.
 008.00B.008 Nor for the luck sake; but the bitter cost.
 008.00B.023 Were they but Crownes of France, I cared not,
 008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall
 008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
 008.00B.072 Wisdome and knowledge; but, 'tis turn'd to ill:
 008.00B.074 Necessities; but now must nurse thy pride,
 008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;
 008.00B.089 But, I am guilty of your sad decay;
 008.00B.091 But o thou wretched finder whom I hate
 008.00B.111 But, I forgive; repent thee honest man:

008.00B.113 But if from it thou beest loath to depart,
 009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets
 010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,
 010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee
 010.00A.047 But as wee in our Ile emprisoned,
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly,'and frolicke bee,
 011.00A.027 But if, as envious men, which would revile
 012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.
 014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.
 014.NY3.044 To warrs; but stay swords, armes, & shott
 015.00G.006 But a far fairer world incompassing.
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 016.00A.027 And soe not teach, but force my'opinion
 016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
 016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,
 017.00A.014 Be muske and amber in it, but not where.
 017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 017.00A.034 But, in long journeyes, cloth, and leather use.
 017.00A.050 Midwives would sweare, 'twere but a tympanie,
 018.00B.007 I calmely beg. But by thy fathers wrath,
 018.00B.041 As Lots faire guests were vext. But none of these
 019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
 019.00A.018 Was but the milke, which in loves childish state
 020.00G.003 To sea for nothing but to make him sick:
 020.00G.015 But if I love it, 'tis because 'tis made
 020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we
 020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:
 020.00G.036 And virtues; but we love the Centrique part.
 020.00G.039 But in attaining this desired place
 020.00G.046 Immortal stay, but wrinkled 'tis a grave.
 020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;
 020.00G.052 Not faint Canaries, but Ambrosiall.
 020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)
 020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye
 020.00G.076 Lovely enough to stop, but not stay at:
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 021.00G.082 But count it a lost season, so shall shee.
 021.00G.099 Nay, if I wax but cold in my desire,
 021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
 022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,
 022.00A.033 But O that treacherous breast to whom weake you
 022.00A.058 Delight, not in made worke, but whiles they make;

022.00A.067 But being got it is a treasure sweet,
 024.00A.008 But I, their maker; want their libertie.
 024.00A.010 But that is waxe, and fires environ it.
 024.00A.023 But thy right hand, and cheek, and eye, only
 024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 024.00A.028 That I am such; but Griefe discolors me.
 024.00A.041 But of our dallyance no more signes there are,
 024.00A.046 But so, as thine from one another doe;
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;
 029.00A.012 To other griefes, and aske themselves but some,
 029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,
 029.00A.020 But from the roome, I carried none with mee;
 029.00A.023 More pittie unto mee: but Love, alas
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just aboute our head,
 030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.
 030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
 030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
 031.00A.011 But trepidation of the speares,
 031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,
 031.00A.023 A breach, but an expansion,
 031.00A.028 To move, but doth, if the'other doe.
 032.00A.003 But suck'd on countrey pleasures, childishly?
 032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
 032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.
 034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?
 034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?
 035.00A.014 For, all our joyes are but fantasticall.
 035.00A.018 And, but the waking, nothing shall repent;
 035.00A.021 But dearest heart, and dearer image stay;
 036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
 036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
 040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
 040.00A.012 But when I have done so,
 040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
 041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
 041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,
 042.00A.005 But since that I
 042.00A.014 But beleve that I shall make
 042.00A.021 But come bad chance,
 042.00A.026 But sigh'st my soule away,
 042.00A.037 But thinke that wee

042.00A.038 Are but turn'd aside to sleepe;
 043.00A.003 Though it be but an houre agoe,
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 043.00A.018 But colours it, and corners had,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
 044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
 044.00A.010 It stay, tis but thy carkasse then,
 044.00A.011 The fairest woman, but thy ghost,
 044.00A.012 But corrupt wormes, the worthyest men.
 044.00A.021 These burning fits but meteors bee,
 045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 046.00A.016 Admit, but not the busied man.
 047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
 047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,
 048.00A.010 But truly keepes his first, last, everlasting day.
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we'are Kings, and none but wee
 049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,
 049.00A.014 Which are but accessories to this name,
 049.00A.061 But glasse, and lines must bee,
 050.00A.004 This doth but counsaille, yet you cannot scape.
 050.00A.008 But now they'are gold oft tried, and ever new.
 050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.018 He doth not digge a Grave, but build a Tombe.
 050.00A.037 But name not Winter-faces, whose skin's slacke;
 050.00A.038 Lanke, as an unthrifts purse; but a soules sacke;
 050.00A.044 For these, not Ancient, but Antique be;
 051.00A.005 But O, selfe traytor, I do bring
 051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace
 051.00A.026 O perverse sexe, where none is true but shee,
 052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;
 052.00A.061 At their brightest, but to conclude
 052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?
 053.00A.003 But these are things indifferent,
 053.00A.005 But one, and then another prove,
 053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,
 053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
 053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,
 053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
 054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
 054.00A.009 But mixt of all stufes, paining soule, or sense,
 054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,

054.00A.013 But as all else, being elemented too,
 054.00A.015 And yet no greater, but more eminent,
 054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,
 054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,
 055.00A.001 Love, any devill else but you,
 055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
 056.00A.007 But are other creatures so?
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 056.00A.021 But doth wast with greedinesse.
 057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,
 057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
 057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
 057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.
 057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.
 058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbear
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 059.00A.008 But glorifies his pregnant pot,
 059.00A.012 But get a winter-seeming summers night.
 059.00A.019 'Tis not the bodies marry, but the mindes,
 059.00A.024 Sweetnesse, and wit they'are, but, Mummy, possest.
 060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 061.00A.012 Of conscience, but of fame, and bee
 061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
 061.00A.021 Inherite nothing but his infamie:
 062.00A.033 But as all severall soules containe
 062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre
 062.00A.056 Nor are drosse to us, but allay.
 062.00A.058 But that it first imprints the ayre,
 062.00A.072 But yet the body is his booke.
 063.00A.005 It were but madnes now t'impart
 063.00A.012 Would love but as before:
 063.00A.013 But he who lovelinesse within
 063.00A.016 Loves but their oldest clothes.
 064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,
 064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
 064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend
 065.00A.003 But that I did, to make it lesse,
 065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
 065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
 066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undoe
 068.00A.017 But thou which lov'st to bee
 068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,

068.00A.028 Is to a woman, but a kinde of Ghost;
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales
 070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,
 071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
 071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,
 071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try
 072.00A.008 And nourish not, but smother.
 072.00A.012 But ne'r worne out by loves securitie,
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 073.00A.008 I'am cheap, & nought but fashion, fling me'away.
 074.00A.012 But Negatives, my love is so.
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 077.00A.004 That any loves but hee:
 077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 079.00B.011 But, from late faire
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 079.00B.040 'Tis but applying worme-seed to the Taile.
 080.00E.001 He that cannot chuse but love,
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but shows
 081.HH5.009 But as ill Princes before they have obtaind
 081.HH5.047 but in thy harte framd soe white & cleare
 081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandring doe but yet decline
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 086.00A.002 But drowning, could be rescued from the flame,
 096.00A.008 Mercury in stealing, but lyst like a Greeke.
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 106.00A.039 Till, mystically joyn'd, but one they bee;
 106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;
 106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;
 106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
 106.00A.058 But gallop lively downe the Westerne hill;
 106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
 106.00A.069 But in their beds commenced
 106.00A.080 A grave, but, to a better state, a cradle;
 106.00A.081 Till now thou wast but able
 106.00A.083 No more be said, I may bee, but, I am,
 107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.
 107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he stiaies,

107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,
 107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.
 107.00A.089 And yet they doe, but are
 107.00A.094 Take no acquittance, but pay again;
 107.00A.102 Ther's but one Phenix still, as was before.
 108.00A.035 Or but like Stoves, for lust and envy get
 108.00A.036 Continuall, but artificiall heat;
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.045 Not onely in fulnesse, but capacitie,
 108.00A.063 But never shall, except it chance to lye,
 108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 108.00A.101 But since I'am dead, and buried, I could frame
 108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 108.00A.164 But that vaile being gone,
 108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
 108.00A.213 But must forthwith surrender every part,
 108.00A.221 But ends in ashes, which these cannot doe,
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 108.00A.230 His only that presents it, but of all,
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,
 109.00A.023 But 'twas, but so kinde, as our countrimen,
 109.00A.023 But 'twas, but so kinde, as our countrimen,
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.042 Could none by his right name, but thunder call:
 109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,
 110.00A.002 A stupid calme, but nothing it, doth swage.
 110.00A.022 But meteorlike, save that wee move not, hover.
 110.00A.031 But from the sea, into the ship we turne,
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 111.00A.024 Are but dull Moralls of a game at Chests.
 111.00A.025 But now 'tis incongruity to smile,
 112.00A.003 The tediousnesse of my life: But for these
 112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
 112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
 112.00A.042 Are beasts in all, but white integritie.
 112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as
 112.00A.062 Correctives, but as chymiques, purge the bad.
 112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
 112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I have wonne
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 113.00A.029 Giddily and bee every where, but at home,

113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
 114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
 114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see
 115.00A.009 And 'tis decreed our hell is but privation
 119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.
 119.NY3.007 But as a Lay Mans Genius doth controule
 120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
 120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
 121.NY3.012 But bearbaitings or law exercise.
 121.NY3.016 Thy thighs with hony, but as plenteously
 122.00A.021 Him the rich land, but bar'd his entry in,
 122.00A.027 But if (as All th'All must) hopes smoake away,
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 124.00A.012 But seing in you bright sparkes of Poetry,
 126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.
 127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.
 129.00A.025 But 'tis an easier load (though both oppresse)
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,
 130.00A.004 And makes his life, but like a paire of beads.
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone
 130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
 131.00B.011 But, as from extreme hights who downward looks,
 131.00B.016 Who are at home but wits mere Atomi.
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 131.00B.041 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd,
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
 131.00B.054 Findes but the place, after, the nearest way:
 131.00B.058 Love either conquers, or but meets a friend.
 131.00B.063 A weather-beaten Lover but once knowne,
 131.00B.076 But am no porter for a tedious woe.
 131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,

131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
 131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.
 131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.
 131.00B.094 In you, but our dimme actions faintly shew.
 131.00B.098 With earth, and for mans ease, but nearer joyn'd.
 131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.
 131.00B.104 But soule we finde too earthly to ascend,
 131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
 131.00B.119 But as ayre takes the Sunne-beames equall bright
 131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
 133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
 133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,
 133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye
 133.00A.031 And since they're but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 134.00A.005 But as, although a squint lefthandednesse
 134.00A.007 So would I, not to encrease, but to expresse
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you're lov'd by all,
 134.00A.025 But, you of learning and religion,
 134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 136.00A.004 But as of the elements, these which wee tread,
 136.00A.009 And but direct our honour, not bestow.
 136.00A.021 But one, 'tis best light to contemplate you.
 136.00A.033 And vertues whole summe is but know and dare.
 136.00A.034 But as our Soules of growth and Soules of sense
 136.00A.045 Be colleague to religion, but be it.
 137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
 137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face
 137.00A.034 But that I may survay the edifice.
 137.00A.039 But serve discourse, and curiosity,
 137.00A.040 With that which doth religion but invest,
 137.00A.049 Yet not as consecrate, but merely'as faire;
 137.00A.053 Purge but the booke of Fate, that it admit
 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity
 138.00A.007 But 'tis not soe, nothing, as I am, may,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 138.00A.024 But whither, only knowing you, I know;
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
 138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,
 138.00A.055 These not ingrav'd, but inborne dignities
 138.00A.058 Soules but preserv'd, not naturally free;
 138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,

138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe
 138.00A.076 Vertue hath some, but wise degrees of vice.
 138.00A.081 But these are riddles; Some aspersion
 138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
 138.00A.087 But in your Commonwealth or world in you
 138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
 139.00A.017 Creates in them, but dissipates as fast,
 139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,
 139.00A.050 By using others, not vice, but weakenesse.
 139.00A.057 But for your fame, a discreet warinesse,
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
 140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they'are rare; But a new starre
 141.00A.010 A seldome comet is, but active good
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men
 141.00A.024 But now amass'd, contracted in a few.
 141.00A.025 She guided us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 141.00A.026 Us she inform'd, but transubstantiates you,
 141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 141.00A.054 But I remaine a poyson'd fountaine still;
 141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
 142.00A.018 But in their humours, and at seasons show.
 142.00A.021 'Tis but his flegme that's Vertuous, and not Hee:
 142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
 142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne
 142.00A.034 Vertue'is but aguish, when 'tis severall,
 142.00A.045 But as an influence, vertuous thoughts imparts.
 142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
 142.00A.060 From either, but by the other not to stray.
 143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne
 145.00A.006 Serve but for Ladies Periwigs and Tyres
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 147.00B.005 Others by Wills give Legacies, but I
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
 148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;

148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
 148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.
 149.00A.013 Nothing but man of all invenom'd things
 149.00A.018 But as the tide doth wash the slimie beach,
 149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
 150.00A.034 Reserve but few, and leaves the most to thee.
 150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
 151.00A.008 But extreme sense hath made them desperate;
 151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
 151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 151.00A.024 Who e'r saw Christall Ordinance but would break?
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 152.12a.009 But, for th'enormous Greatnesses, which are
 152.12a.041 That but from His aspect and Exercise,
 152.12a.043 But now This Faith is Heresie: wee must
 152.12a.054 As but so manie Mandrakes on his Grave.
 152.12a.077 But, now, for vs with busie Proofs to come
 152.12a.089 Oh! May I (since I liue) but see or hear
 153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare
 153.00A.041 But where can I affirme, or where arrest
 153.00A.059 His vertues into names, and ranks; but I
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;
 153.00A.098 Each severall vertue, but the compound good.
 153.00A.157 To this, not miracle, but Prodigie,
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
 153.00A.170 They're all but Ants, carrying eggs, straw, and grain;
 153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow
 153.00A.194 But with thine owne affections, with the heate
 153.00A.196 But till thou should'st successefully advance
 153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,
 153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,
 153.00A.229 But though this freedome to upbraid, and chide
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 154.00A.010 But, by his losse grow all our orderslesse;
 154.00A.024 Not to lesse houses, but, to heapes of stone;

154.00A.032 Thy station be, but with the Paenitents,
 155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)
 155.00a.014 But succour'd then with a perplexed doubt,
 155.00a.017 But goodnes, to see her, whom all would see,
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
 155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.043 But as in states doubtfull of future heyres,
 155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,
 155.00a.092 At best, enjoy, but a neutralitee.
 155.00a.104 But accessory, and principall in ill.
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;
 155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;
 155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,
 155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
 155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:
 155.00a.242 But, as thou sawest it rotten at the hart,
 155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
 155.00a.253 But yet their various and perplexed course,
 155.00a.270 One inche direct; but where he rose to day
 155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
 155.00a.285 But keeps the earth her round proportion still?
 155.00a.300 Are these but warts, and pock-holes in the face
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,
 155.00a.332 Endanger vs: but that if euery thing
 155.00a.339 But beauties other second Element,
 155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue
 155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 155.00a.368 And liueliest stones but drowsie, and pale to her,)
 155.00a.374 Tis now but wicked vanity to thinke,
 155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;
 155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
 155.00a.404 But they, yea Ashes too, are medicinall,
 155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
 155.00a.409 But as some Serpents poison hurteth not,
 155.00a.413 But she, in whom, to such maturity,
 155.00a.416 But, by Receiuers impotencies, lame,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
 155.00a.435 But as in cutting vp a man that's dead,
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than
 155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
 156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow

156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set
 156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
 156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,
 156.00a.067 But as when Heau'n lookes on vs with new eyes,
 156.00a.073 But like a Lampe of Balsamum, desir'd
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
 157.00b.018 Are but as Ice, which crackles at a thaw:
 157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.
 157.00b.055 The World is but a Carkas; thou art fed
 157.00b.056 By it, but as a worme, that carcas bred;
 157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.094 And thinke that but vnbinding of a packe,
 157.00b.100 But that, as Bels cal'd thee to Church before,
 157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.120 Laies thee to sleepe but a saint Lucies night.
 157.00b.127 But as in Mithridate, or iust perfumes,
 157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;
 157.00b.163 Thinke but how poore thou wast, how obnoxious,
 157.00b.174 After, enabled but to sucke, and crie.
 157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,
 157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,
 157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
 157.00b.269 Knowst thou but how the stone doth enter in
 157.00b.284 To know but Catechismes and Alphabets
 157.00b.294 Below; But vp vnto the watch-towre get,
 157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
 157.00b.309 Are but a new, and worse edition,
 157.00b.314 (In a far fairer print,) but read the same:
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,
 157.00b.336 Chiefly the cheefest parts, but some effect
 157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:

157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall
 157.00b.394 Next day repaires, (but ill) last daies decay.
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remains; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.407 But since all honors from inferiors flow,
 157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show
 157.00b.412 Alas, tis but a casuall happinesse.
 157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
 157.00b.425 But as the Heathen made them seuerall gods,
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
 157.00b.496 Degrees of growth, but none of loosing it.
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine
 158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.233 Compare all whitenesse, but himselfe to none,
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
 158.00A.250 Weaknesse invites, but silence feasts oppression.
 158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
 158.00A.268 Cares not, but safe the Place she's come unto
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 158.00A.278 Exalted she'is, but to the exalters good,
 158.00A.321 He hunts not fish, but as an officer,
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.
 158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
 158.00A.384 But to be just, and thankfull, loth to offend,
 158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 158.00A.432 But in the lives of Emperours you shall not
 158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
 158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councill forbids not bookes, but Authors, 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently

158.00A.025 no unreadinesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And
 160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 160.00A.018 Which cannot die, yet cannot chuse but die,
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
 160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,
 161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came
 161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
 163.00A.007 But damn'd and hal'd to execution,
 163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
 164.00A.007 But my'ever-waking part shall see that face,
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
 167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
 168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
 168.00A.007 They kill'd once an inglorious man, but I
 168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.
 168.00A.012 But to supplant, and with gainfull intent
 169.00A.011 But wonder at a greater wonder, for to us
 169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,
 170.00A.009 No, no; but as in my idolatrie
 171.00A.002 As yet but knocke, breathe, shine, and seeke to mend;
 171.00A.006 Labour to'admit you, but Oh, to no end,
 171.00A.008 But is captiv'd, and proves weake or untrue,
 171.00A.010 But am betroth'd unto youremie,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 175.00B.003 But black sinne hath betraid to endlesse night
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 178.NY3.013 But in thy tender ieaaloy dost doubt
 181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
 181.00A.024 But the Meridians crossing Parallels.
 181.00A.026 But yet spirituall have chiefe dignity.
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
 181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchimists doe coyners prove,
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse

181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 182.00A.015 Leaden and iron wills to good, but is
 183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,
 183.00A.038 With the last judgement, but one period,
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 184.00A.020 Am, but of mudde walls, and condensed dust,
 184.00A.029 Bones to Philosophy, but milke to faith,
 184.00A.049 Where we shall be but denizen'd by thee,
 184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;
 184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.
 184.00A.183 When want, sent but to tame, doth warre
 184.00A.251 But Patient and Physition being free,
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.073 19 I called for my lovers then, but they
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
 187.00A.100 But is towards Jacob, All-devouring fire.
 187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath strucke with sadnes, hee doth take
 187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?
 187.00A.293 7 But heretofore purer her Nazarite
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne
 189.00B.004 Not an impediment, but victory;
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine
 189.00B.014 Onely the stampe is changed; but no more.
 189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace
 189.00B.025 But if thy gainings doe surmount expression,
 189.00B.031 Alas poore joyes, but poorer men, whose trust
 189.00B.034 Are, at the best, but of sublimed clay)
 189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pittie their neglect.
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,
 193.00A.010 A yeare, or two: but wallowed in, a score?
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne

 004.00A.221 Call a rough carelesnesse, good fashion;
 005.00A.036 Call it some worse name, if ought equall it;
 005.00A.065 To see a Pursivant come in, and call
 010.00A.049 The pretious Vnicornes, strange monsters, call,
 013.00A.007 Nor by the'eyes water call a maladie
 018.00B.032 Ecclips'd as bright we call the Moone the Moone.
 018.00B.046 Our greatest King call thee to his presence.
 024.00A.019 For, if we justly call each silly man
 024.00A.020 A litle world, What shall we call thee than?
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 036.00A.003 Through windowes, and through curtaines call on us?
 036.00A.008 Call countrey ants to harvest offices,
 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 039.00A.020 Call her one, mee another flye,
 050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,
 055.00A.032 Can call vow'd men from cloisters, dead from tombes,
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 079.00B.005 Call, what they cannot name, an unknowne power,
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call

 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 107.00A.033 Up, up, faire Bride, and call,
 109.00A.042 Could none by his right name, but thunder call:
 131.00B.023 I come not to call pitty from your heart,
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
 145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
 145.00A.038 Of others; call not that Idolatrie.
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 153.00A.042 My thoughts on his deeds? which shall I call best?
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make
 157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subiects to call thee
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call
 177.00B.010 And stile blasphemous Conjurers to call
 181.00A.048 Make them indifferent; call nothing best.
 184.00A.108 And call chast widowhead Virginitie.
 184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill
 191.00B.047 Already done; and as those Psalmes we call

CALL'D.....10

003.00A.050 But loves her onely, who at Geneva is call'd

 010.00A.062 Falls on us, to be call'd effeminate;
 018.00B.031 Richly cloath'd Apes, are call'd Apes, and as soone
 109.00A.031 And what at first was call'd a gust, the same
 131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
 155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere

CALL'ST.....3

028.00A.009 Thou call'st for more,
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminate, for I love womens ioyes
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,

CALLED.....3

167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 187.00A.073 19 I called for my lovers then, but they
 187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name

CALLING.....3

157.00b.097 Anger thine Ague more, by calling it
 189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,

CALLS.....4

006.00D.046 They hatch all wares for which the buyer calls;
 158.00A.047 And all that calls from this, and to others whets,

 150.00A.021 O strong and long-liv'd death, how cam'st thou in?

CAMBRIDGE.....1

126.00A.006 From Cambridge thy old nurse, and, as the rest,

CAME.....27

001.00A.111 Directly came to mee hanging the head,
 004.00A.019 E'r bred, or all which into Noahs Arke came:
 004.00A.114 The Spaniards came, to the losse of Amyens.
 004.00A.189 That there came weak ships fraught with Cutchannel,
 010.00B.008 As though he came to kill a Cocatrice,
 037.00A.017 Must I, who came to travaile thorow you,
 045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
 062.00A.028 And part farre purer then he came.
 067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
 086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
 130.00A.048 You came with mee to Micham, and are here.
 133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 152.12a.017 And nothing euer came so neer to This,
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.415 She from whose influence all Impressions came,
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
 157.00b.528 The Trumpet, at whose voice the people came.
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,
 161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came
 168.00A.011 And Jacob came cloth'd in vile harsh attire
 172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,
 183.00A.006 Of feast or fast, Christ came, and went away;

 003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?
 003.00A.040 Flesh (it selfe death) and joyes which flesh can taste,
 003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,
 004.00A.039 Art can deceive, or hunger force my tast,
 004.00A.045 In which he can win widdowes, and pay scores,
 004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
 004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:
 004.00A.119 He like a priviledg'd spie, whom nothing can
 004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;
 004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I
 004.00A.238 Seas of Wits and Arts, you can, then dare,
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw
 005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 006.00D.010 That none can study it to any end.
 006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 010.00A.018 Doth search what rings, and armelets she can finde,
 011.00A.005 Drawing his breath, as thick and short, as can
 014.NY3.002 And when I haue peace, can I leaue thee then?
 015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
 015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
 017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;
 017.00A.031 Like to good Angels, nothing can impaire:
 020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
 020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.
 020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can
 021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
 021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,
 024.00A.044 All, all that Nature yields, or Art can adde.

026.00A.011 That I can be endamag'd by that art;
 029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;
 029.00A.025 Yet nothing can to nothing fall,
 029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 032.00A.017 Where can we finde two better hemispheares
 032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
 034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?
 035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;
 037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
 039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,
 041.00A.004 Nor can intreat one other teare to fall.
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 042.00A.003 Nor in hope the world can show
 043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
 045.00A.022 Extreme, and scattrring bright, can love inhere;
 046.00A.015 The poore, the foule, the false, love can
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
 049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,
 049.00A.015 The showers and tempests can outwash,
 051.00A.007 And can convert Manna to gall,
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
 052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.
 055.00A.032 Can call vow'd men from cloisters, dead from tombes,
 058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 061.00A.028 Can contribute, all ill, which all
 062.00A.048 Are soules, whom no change can invade.
 062.00A.062 Spirits, as like soules as it can,
 063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
 063.00A.008 To cut it can finde none.
 066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 067.00A.014 Can better do'it; Except she meant that I
 067.00A.022 To afford to it all that a Soule can doe,
 068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
 072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
 074.00A.002 Which on an eye, cheeke, lip, can prey,

074.00A.011 Which can by no way be exprest
 074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
 076.00A.010 Am, by being dead, Immortall; Can ghosts die?
 077.00A.002 Can judge a perfect Lover;
 077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
 079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 080.00E.011 Nor he that can for foul ones care,
 080.00E.016 He can neither [want] [nor] [craue]
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 081.HH5.042 of ill to thine; nor can falshood whett
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 108.00A.007 What delicacie can in fields appeare,
 108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.
 108.00A.150 Who can the Sun in water see.
 109.00A.011 (For, Fates, or Fortunes drifts none can Southsay,
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
 110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 112.00A.017 Can dung, and garlike be'a perfume? or can
 112.00A.017 Can dung, and garlike be'a perfume? or can
 113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay
 114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
 130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.
 131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move
 131.00B.111 Then earthly substance can unforc'd aspire,
 134.00A.028 Keepest off, or cures what can be done or said.
 134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,
 136.00A.054 Neither can reach you, great and innocent.
 137.00A.005 Two ills can nere perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;
 138.00A.029 And you can never know it; To admit
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,
 140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;
 140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,
 140.00A.018 For man can adde weight to heavens heaviest curse.
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow

140.00A.037 On him; for Man into himselfe can draw
 140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow,'or reason chaw.
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
 145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
 145.00A.027 (For who can judge, or witsnesse of those times
 146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
 146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
 150.00A.004 That any can thy Summons disobey.
 152.12a.066 With Causes, now to vs there can be none.
 152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him thus;
 153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,
 153.00A.012 Can unapparell and enlarge my minde,
 153.00A.013 And so can make by this soft extasie,
 153.00A.041 But where can I affirme, or where arrest
 153.00A.044 Nor can endure a contemplation;
 153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 153.00A.080 As all the long breath'd Chronicles can touch;
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
 153.00A.251 And though in no degree I can expresse,
 155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
 155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
 155.00a.208 Can well direct him, where to looke for it.
 155.00a.217 To be a Phoenix, and that there can bee
 155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
 155.00a.305 And, Oh, it can no more be questioned,
 155.00a.387 Th'Ayre shewes such Meteors, as none can see,
 155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
 156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue
 156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
 156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:

157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.133 None can these lines or quantities vnioynt,
 157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.441 The sight of God, in fulnesse, can thinke it;
 157.00b.444 Can suffer Diminution, nor wee;
 157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,
 157.00b.486 Onely by comming, that it can away.
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is
 158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
 158.00A.350 If wrech can on them the common anger wreake?
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.
 167.00A.011 And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
 168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
 170.00A.004 Whether his countenance can thee affright,
 170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
 173.00A.010 Whether a man those statutes can fulfill;
 174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
 174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
 175.00B.006 Have found new spears, and of new land can write,
 181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument
 181.00A.017 Who can deny mee power, and liberty
 181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can shee sue
 187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
 187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
 189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can

CAST.....17

015.00G.036 Are like Atlanta's ball: cast in mens views,
 015.00G.045 Thy self: cast all, yea, this white lynnence hence
 137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.
 140.00A.023 To us, as to his chickins, he doth cast
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
 153.00A.257 Who, by my grieffe, great as thy worth, being cast
 155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.
 157.00b.062 As of old cloaths, cast of a yeare agoe.
 174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast
 184.00A.151 And cast reproach on Christianitie,
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 187.00A.050 He hath cast from heaven on my bones, and spred
 187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke
 187.00A.109 6 Like to a garden hedge he hath cast downe
 187.00A.117 8 The Lord hath cast a line, so to confound
 187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
 187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.

CASTISSIMAEQUEQ.....1

CASTLE.....2

011.00A.026 His realme, his castle, and his diocesse.
 158.00A.374 So great a castle. And having for her house

CASTS.....3

006.00D.056 Which casts at Portescues, and all the board
 016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed corne there,
 187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh

CASUALL.....6

157.00b.412 Alas, tis but a casuall happinesse.
 157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?
 157.00b.478 A ioyfull casuall violence may breake
 157.00b.482 What eie was casuall, may euer bee.
 157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
 157.00b.485 All casuall ioye doth loud and plainly say,

CATCH.....4

002.00A.008 Ridlingly it catch men; and doth remove
 016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,
 027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
 158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought

CATCH'D.....4

004.00A.009 To Masse in jest, catch'd, was faine to disburse
 022.00A.066 Love was as subtilly catch'd, as a disease;

027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
 158.00A.235 And with his arched necke this poore fish catch'd.

CATCHE.....1

033.00A.001 Goe, and cathe a falling starre,

CATECHISMES.....1

157.00b.284 To know but Catechismes and Alphabets

CATECHISMUS.....1

CAUGHT.....2

016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,

CAUS'D.....2

155.00a.322 In her, who caus'd all Ciuill warre to cease.
 189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now

CAUSE.....8

004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,
 052.00A.044 And for the cause, honour, or conscience give,
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause

126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,
 155.00a.102 For mans reliefe, cause of his languishment.
 176.00B.014 Th'effect and cause, the punishment and sinne.
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allowes not this:
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou

CAUSES.....3

157.00b.389 Of transitory causes? Dost thou loue
 158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow
 187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.

CAUSETH.....1

108.00A.183 Injures; it causeth time to stay;

CAUSLES.....1

187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,

CAVE.....1

145.00A.072 In a darke Cave, yea in a Grave doe lie;

CEASE.....3

022.00A.027 Sooner I'll thinke the Sunne will cease to cheare
 108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
 155.00a.322 In her, who caus'd all Ciuill warre to cease.

CEASLESLY.....1

184.00A.122 Prayes ceaslesly, 'and thou hearken too

CEDAR.....1

183.00A.008 Shee sees a Cedar plant it selfe, and fall,

CELEBERRIMI.....1

198.LL1.002 Celeberrimi, in Vrbe, in Orbe

CELEBRATE.....6

044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.038 And thou forgetst to celebrate thy name.
 155.00a.450 Will yearely celebrate thy second birth,
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 191.00B.050 We thy Sydnean Psalmes shall celebrate,

CELEBRATES.....1

108.00A.231 What ever celebrates this Festivall

CELERI.....1

201.20a.033 Mortuus es, sonitu celeri,

CELESTIAL.....1

020.00G.033 Although we see Celestial bodies move

CELESTIALL.....1

157.00b.493 When earthly bodies more celestiall

CELLAR.....1

006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell

CELS.....1

157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.

CENSURE.....1

158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;

CENTER.....5

031.00A.029 And though it in the center sit,

036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.

108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.

157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place

157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch

CENTERS.....1

136.00A.047 Religions tipes, the peeclesse centers flow,

CENTRIQUE.....2

020.00G.036 And virtues; but we love the Centrique part.

059.00A.002 Say, where his centrique happinesse doth lie:

CEREMONIALL.....1

001.00A.028 Of refin'd manners, yet ceremoniall man,

CEREMONIES.....1

155.00a.035 The Ceremonies, thou vnam'd hadst laid,

CERTAINE.....2

155.00a.241 In any humour, or one certaine part;

157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casual, when it came?

CERTAINLY.....2

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly

187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee

CERTES.....1

004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,

CHAC'D.....1

187.00A.251 Like a bird chac'd me. 53 In a dungeon

CHACE.....2

020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace

127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;

CHAF'D.....1

009.00A.002 As that which from chaf'd muskats pores doth trill,

CHAFE.....3

013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force

081.HH5.034 to chafe & heate waxe for an others seale

110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;

CHAFES.....1

127.00A.006 Here rages chafes and threatens pestilence;

CHAFF'D.....1

004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch

CHAFT.....1

158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,

CHAIN'D.....2

016.00A.016 Chain'd to a galley, yet the galley'is free;

029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,

CHAIND.....1

008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaind to hellish paines;

CHaine.....4

008.00B.007 Mourn I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;

008.00B.070 Though it be chang'd, and put into a chaine,

150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.

157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies

CHAINES.....2

106.00A.076 Thee of these chaines and robes which were put on

109.00A.058 As from one hang'd in chaines, a yeare agoe.

CHAINS.....2

008.00B.022 When in that hell they're burnt and tyed in chains:

008.00B.095 Here fetter'd, manacled, and hang'd in chains,

CHAIRE.....2

011.00A.022 Sits downe, and snorts, cag'd in his basket chaire,

079.00B.012 His hignesse sitting in a golden Chaire,

CHAIRES.....1

005.00A.073 Rich, who poore, who in chaires, who in jayles:

CHALDEE.....1

158.00A.007 What the gold Chaldee, or silver Persian saw,

CHALLENGE.....1

137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;

CHALLENGED.....1

081.HH5.027 none could haue challenged the smallest parte

CHALLICES.....1

005.00A.067 His Plate, Challices; and mistake them away,

CHAMBER.....3

001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,

004.00A.231 Goe through the great chamber (why is it hung

010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,

CHAMBERS.....1

191.00B.039 So well in Chambers, in thy Church so ill,

CHAMPION.....1

163.00A.002 By sicknesse, deaths herald, and champion;

CHAMPIONS.....1

184.00A.195 Or wars, thy Champions, swaie,

CHANCE.....9

018.00B.055 Augure me better chance, except dread love

042.00A.021 But come bad chance,

108.00A.063 But never shall, except it chance to lye,

108.00A.124 Becomes a man. Should chance or envies Art

110.00A.054 Chance, or our selves still disproportion it.

146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us

157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;

165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,

167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,

CHANG'D.....14

003.00A.101 Those past, her nature, & name is chang'd to be,

008.00B.070 Though it be chang'd, and put into a chaine,

017.00A.021 By the same Gamut chang'd, to equall it.

017.00A.028 Chuse this face, chang'd by no deformities;

053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
 053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
 129.00A.021 To sweare much love, not to be chang'd before
 145.00A.059 The subject chang'd, and measure; the same thing
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?
 189.00B.017 Chang'd onely Gods old Image by Creation,

CHANGE.....33

016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?
 016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
 016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
 018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change
 020.00G.077 Least subject to disguise and change it is;
 020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.
 021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
 021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
 022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 024.00A.034 Doth threaten, and some daily change possesse.
 034.00A.012 For having purpos'd change, and falsehood; you
 055.00A.030 And change the Idolatrie of any land,
 062.00A.048 Are soules, whom no change can invade.
 062.00A.076 Small change, when we're to bodies gone.
 081.HH5.038 to change my happiest wishes to this curse
 081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
 096.00A.007 To beleeeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 108.00A.209 By a new fashion, or apparrells change,
 130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
 136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;
 153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
 153.00A.045 As bodies change, and as I do not weare
 157.00b.044 As till Gods great Venite change the song.
 157.00b.483 What should the Nature change? Or make the same
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.176 Thoughtlesse of change, when her firme destiny
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 158.00A.491 And whether by this change she lose or win,
 161.00A.012 Or as Elixar, to change them to gold;
 180.NY3.004 I change in vowes, & in devotione.
 184.00A.208 That wee may change to evennesse

CHANGE'IS.....1

016.00A.035 Then are they purest; Change'is the nursery

CHANGEABLE.....1

018.00B.033 Men of France, changeable Camelions,

CHANGED.....2

148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.

189.00B.014 Onely the stampe is changed; but no more.

CHANGELESSE.....1

158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow

CHANGES.....1

002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaires

CHANGING.....4

013.00A.008 Desperately hot, or changing feaverously.

041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall

157.00b.429 And as by changing that whole precious Gold

160.00A.004 All changing unchang'd Antient of dayes,

CHANGINGE.....1

081.HH5.039 That thou from changinge still mayst neuer pause

CHAS'D.....1

109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.

CHASETH.....1

158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,

CHAST.....7

004.00A.070 Now; Aretines pictures have made few chast;

113.00A.003 So'affects my muse now, a chast fallownesse.

151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,

156.00a.085 How faire and chast, humble and high shee'ad beene,

157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,

171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.

184.00A.108 And call chast widowhead Virginitie.

CHASTITY.....2

155.00a.424 Some Nunneries, some graines of chastity.

157.00b.364 That beauty and chastity together kisse:

CHAW.....2

002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw

140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow,'or reason chaw.

CHAWES.....1

029.00A.014 Hee swallows us, and never chawes:

CHEAP.....2

073.00A.008 I'am cheap, & nought but fashion, fling me'away.

128.LR1.005 Would loose your loue for Ireland: better cheap

CHEAPE.....4

157.00b.036 Yearely to bring forth such a child as this.
 158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes
 158.00A.180 Till her uncloth'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.
 160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,
 160.00A.050 A shallow seeming child, should deeply know?
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse
 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,

CHILDBEDS.....1

017.00A.049 And though in childbeds labour she did lie,

 153.00A.169 For children, house, Provision, taking paine,
 155.00a.096 That children come not right, nor orderly,
 155.00a.132 And for our children we reserue to morrow.
 158.00A.453 From tent to tent, and with the children play,
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
 187.00A.020 Doth drive her children to captivitie.
 187.00A.064 The foe prevailes, forlorne my children are.
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,
 187.00A.167 To eate their children of a spanne? shall thy
 187.00A.193 13 Hee made the children of his quiver passe
 187.00A.283 And when for bread the little children crye,
 187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.
 187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.

CHILDRENS.....3

085.00A.001 By childrens births, and death, I am become

CHURCH.....24

002.00A.090 Are Fathers of the Church for writing lesse.

108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,

108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.

108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,

110.00A.012 As lead, when a fir'd Church becomes one spout.

141.00A.003 Canons will not Church functions you invade,

145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,
 153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;
 157.00b.100 But that, as Bels cal'd thee to Church before,
 157.00b.101 So this, to the Triumphant Church, cal's thee.
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 158.00A.022 The Church, and all the Monarchies did floate;

 073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
 108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.
 153.00A.105 O Soule, O circle, why so quickly bee
 153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
 155.00a.269 Perfit a Circle, or maintaine his way
 155.00a.276 In Circle still, none ends where he begunne.
 157.00b.508 Peeces a Circle, and still keepes it so,
 183.00A.004 That of them both a circle embleme is,
 191.00B.002 Seeke new expressions, doe the Circle square,

CIRCLES.....8

004.00A.208 Perfect as circles, with such nicetie
 054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee
 136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so
 153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 157.00b.142 Cubes, th'are vnstable; Circles, Angulare;
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
 158.00A.312 More circles in the broken sea they make

CIRCUIT.....1

CITIE.....5

009.00A.031 Like Sun-parch'd quarters on the citie gate,

145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,

187.00A.001 1 How sits this citie, late most populous,

187.00A.075 Dead in the citie; for they sought for meat

187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call

CITIES.....11

001.00A.008 The sinewes of a cities mistique bodie;

038.00A.015 Or cities quelque choses, let report

055.00A.034 Deserts with cities, and make more

112.00A.016 Shall cities built of both extremes be chosen?

112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three

112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there

112.00A.028 In cities blockes, and in a lewd court, devills.

153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,

153.00A.171 And Church-yards are our cities, unto which

157.00b.237 To Nations, Cities, and to Companies,

187.00A.369 11 In Iudaes cities they the maids abus'd

CIVILL.....5

002.00A.088 Assurances, bigge, as gloss'd civill lawes,

108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move

138.00A.004 Then worst of civill vices, thanklesnesse.

141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.

153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,

CLAIM'D.....1

109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.

CLAIME.....2

166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,

184.00A.040 One claime for innocence, and disseiz'd sinne,

CLAIMES.....5

002.00A.051 Continually claimes I have made, injunctions got

106.00A.043 All elder claimes, and all cold barrenesse,

130.00A.012 Are sparkes, and short liv'd, claimes another right.

133.00A.014 Which equally claimes love and reverence.

146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us

CLAP.....1

187.00A.145 15 The passengers doe clap their hands, and hisse

CLASP.....1

021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear

CLAUSE.....1

002.00A.096 Addes to Christs prayer, the Power and glory clause.

CLAY.....11

009.00A.041 Into clay moulds, or like to that Aetna

112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.

136.00A.022 You, for whose body God made better clay,

145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 147.00B.012 To ripe and mellow there, w'are stubborne clay,
 148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;
 149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;
 151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;
 184.00A.005 My heart is by dejection, clay,
 189.00B.034 Are, at the best, but of sublimed clay)

CLAYM'D.....1

003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.

CLEANE.....5

141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.
 154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;
 158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,
 184.00A.103 As thou hadst lent them, cleane and innocent,
 187.00A.098 Hath cleane cut off, and lest the enemie

CLEAR.....1

021.00G.076 Waters suggest her clear, and the earth sure;

CLEAR'D.....1

184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,

CLEARE.....15

002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,
 024.00A.021 Thou art not soft, and cleare, and strait, and faire,
 049.00A.010 And cleare reflects thee to thine eye.
 081.HH5.031 to cleare my selfe of any foule intent
 081.HH5.047 but in thy harte framd soe white & cleare
 108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,
 135.B13.026 your mindes vnmingled, & as cleare as shee
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you, 'and shew you good,
 151.00A.021 She was too Saphirine, and cleare to thee;
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,
 158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
 179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.

CLEARNESSE.....2

030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.
 131.00B.106 Able immortall clearnesse to endure.

CLEAUE.....1

157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,

CLEAVE.....2

158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,

187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,

CLEAVES.....1

187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.

CLEAVING.....1

020.00G.058 The Rhemora her cleaving tongue doth dwell.

CLEFT.....2

033.00A.004 Or who cleft the Divels foot,

191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe

CLEMENCIE.....1

187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Usest no clemencie;

CLERGIE.....1

052.00A.022 Wee for loves clergie only'are instruments,

CLIMBE.....1

146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,

CLIME.....5

014.NY3.019 And I should be in that hott parching clime

108.00A.004 Natures instinct drawes to the warmer clime

127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;

131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime

137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,

CLIMING.....1

158.00A.084 Till the then climing serpent, that now creeps

CLOAK.....1

004.00A.222 Whose cloak his spurres teare; whom he spits on

CLOATH.....1

005.00A.085 Enough to cloath all the great Carricks Pepper.

CLOATH'D.....5

001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,

018.00B.031 Richly cloath'd Apes, are call'd Apes, and as soone

156.00a.075 Cloath'd in her Virgin white integrity;

184.00A.042 God cloath'd himselfe, and grew,

187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,

CLOATHES.....4

005.00A.066 All his cloathes, Copes; Bookes, Primers; and all
 107.00A.077 Should vanish from her cloathes, into her bed,
 133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,

CLOATHS.....1

157.00b.062 As of old cloaths, cast of a yeare agoe.

CLOCK.....3

004.00A.175 'Tis ten a clock and past; All whom the Mues,
 107.00A.074 They were to take a clock in peeces,) goe
 153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,

CLOCKE.....2

155.00a.130 Whether a new made clocke runne right, or lie.
 156.00a.038 That as a sundred Clocke is peece-meale laid,

CLOCKES.....1

153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,

CLOCKS.....2

153.00A.143 Yet, as in great clocks, which in steeples chime,
 153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.

CLODS.....1

184.00A.128 Dead clods of sadnesse, or light squibs of mirth,

CLOG'D.....1

109.00A.055 With a salt dropsie clog'd, and all our tacklings

CLOGGES.....1

016.00A.015 They'are our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee

CLOISTERS.....1

055.00A.032 Can call vow'd men from cloisters, dead from tombes,

CLOS'D.....1

153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?

CLOSE.....3

010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we'have beene.
 137.00A.016 Exhale them, and a thick close bud display.
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,

CLOSE-WEAUIING.....1

155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,

CLOSELY.....1

112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,

CLOTH.....3

017.00A.034 But, in long journeyes, cloth, and leather use.

113.00A.014 May cloth them with faith, and deare honestie,

189.00B.010 For Iron and Cloth brings home rich Indian ware,

CLOTH'D.....5

002.00A.103 Where are those spred woods which cloth'd hertofore

004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,

009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunks, cloth'd in seals skin,

168.00A.011 And Iacob came cloth'd in vile harsh attire

168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so

CLOTHES.....6

004.00A.127 Who wasts in meat, in clothes, in horse, he notes;

004.00A.200 His skirts and hose, and call his clothes to shrift,

004.00A.207 So in immaculate clothes, and Symetrie

063.00A.016 Loves but their oldest clothes.

108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.

184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,

CLOTHS.....1

004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;

CLOUD.....5

036.00A.013 I could eclipse and cloud them with a winke,

141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,

183.00A.032 Leade, and his Church, as cloud; to one end both:

184.00A.057 More in the cloud, then wee in fire,

187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.

CLOUDS.....10

017.00A.045 Shee, whose face, like clouds, turnes the day to night,

108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,

131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,

131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,

136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,

155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre

160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,

187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath

189.00B.043 As Angels out of clouds, from Pulpits speake;

190.00A.005 Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise

CLOUDST.....1

108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,

CLOUDY.....1

187.00A.380 Over our eyes a cloudy dimnesse is.

CLOVEN.....1

191.00B.009 These Psalmes first Author in a cloven tongue;

CLOYSTER.....2

014.NY3.023 Or in a Cloyster; save that ther men dwell158.00A.375 Got the streight cloyster of a wretched mouse

CLOYSTERALL.....1

142.00A.025 So cloysterall men, who, in pretence of feare

CLOYSTERD.....1

060.00A.015 And cloysterd in these living walls of Jet.

CLOYSTERS.....1

139.00A.042 One latitude in cloysters, and in Court,

CLOYSTR'D.....1

135.B13.029 to honor Polesworth with their Cloystr'd traine

CLYENT.....1

153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is

CLYMBE.....1

155.00a.008 And, as t'her standing house, to heauen did clymbe,

CLYME.....2

036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,149.00A.052 To clyme by teares, the common staires of men.

COALE.....1

138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?

COALES.....1

110.00A.032 Like parboyl'd wretches, on the coales to burne.

COARSE.....5

004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,022.00A.051 And let his carrion coarse be a longer feast027.00A.021 Let coarse bold hands, from slimy nest048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,

COLOUR.....7

008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,

010.00A.019 And kissing notes the colour of thy face,

062.00A.038 The strength, the colour, and the size,

063.00A.015 For he who colour loves, and skinne,

154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,

155.00a.250 Beauty, that's colour, and proportion.

155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.

COLOUR'D.....1

187.00A.368 Black as an Ocean colour'd had our skinne:

COLOURS.....4

043.00A.018 But colours it, and corners had,

155.00a.350 To mingle, and vary colours euery day.

157.00b.217 As colours are, and obiects, in a roome

158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and

COLTS.....1

013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force

COLUMBA.....1

201.20a.016 12 Spirante Columba,

COM'ST.....2

006.00D.025 Homely and familiarly, when thou com'st back,

133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye

COMBERSOME.....1

065.00A.001 To what a combersome unwieldinesse

COMBIN'D.....1

131.00B.097 The soule with body, is a heaven combin'd

COME.....78

001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way
 001.00A.021 Nor come a velvet Justice with a long
 001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,
 004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring
 004.00A.188 The Ladies come; As Pirats, which doe know
 005.00A.065 To see a Pursivant come in, and call
 008.00B.025 I think possesseth, they come here to us,
 014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.
 015.00G.001 Come, Madam, come, all rest my powers defie,
 015.00G.001 Come, Madam, come, all rest my powers defie,
 018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,
 019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,
 020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
 029.00A.010 If once into loves hands it come?
 029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,
 030.00B.017 Others; these which come behinde
 033.00A.027 False, ere I come, to two, or three.
 042.00A.021 But come bad chance,
 049.00A.030 Which tile this house, will come againe.
 050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 051.00A.002 Hither I come to seeke the spring,
 051.00A.019 Hither with christall vyals, lovers come,
 057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I
 073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame
 107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame
 107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,
 107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
 108.00A.072 That doth, abroad, to honest actions come.
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come

108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.
 131.00B.023 I come not to call pittie from your heart,
 133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,
 138.00A.060 Which learne it there, and come in innocent.
 145.00A.007 In lovers Sonnets: you come to repaire
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 145.00A.074 Illustrate them who come to study you.
 150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come
 152.12a.077 But, now, for vs with busie Proofs to come
 153.00A.008 Come to your knowledge, and affections too,
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,
 153.00A.138 Or idle,'as men, which to their last houres come,
 155.00a.034 A Prince, expected long, come to fulfill
 155.00a.096 That children come not right, nor orderly,
 155.00a.097 Except they headlong come, and fall vpon
 155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.
 155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
 156.00a.084 Should come to reade the booke of destiny,
 157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.268 Cares not, but safe the Place she's come unto
 158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.
 158.00A.423 If to the flocke he come, and Abell there,
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into 160.00A.032 Weake enough, now into our world to come;
 180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away
 181.00A.050 And move; To th'other th'objects must come home.
 183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
 184.00A.003 Thou madest, and govern'st ever, come
 184.00A.087 In thine, let their blood come
 187.00A.014 Mourne, because none come to her solemne dayes.
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 191.00B.051 And, till we come th'Extemporall song to sing,
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come

COMEDIANS.....1

001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;

COMELINESSE.....1

154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse

COMES.....24

004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!
 004.00A.076 And for his price doth with who ever comes,
 004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.
 031.00A.032 And growes erect, as that comes home.
 050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
 055.00A.031 This face, which wheresoe'r it comes,
 067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
 106.00A.090 The priest comes on his knees t'embowell her;
 107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Speare after Speare.
 108.00A.065 As, for divine things, faith comes from above,
 109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
 126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
 142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,
 154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
 155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
 156.00a.042 It selfe into the earth, and after comes,
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 160.00A.048 It sodenly speakes wonders, whence comes it,

COMET.....1

141.00A.010 A seldome comet is, but active good

COMETS.....1

141.00A.005 Who vagrant transitory Comets sees,

COMFITURES.....1

038.00A.014 From country grasse, to comfitures of Court,

COMFORT.....6

008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.
 074.00A.017 As yet my ease, and comfort is,
 131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.
 187.00A.007 Her lovers comfort her; Perfidiously
 187.00A.063 To comfort mee, is now departed farre,
 187.00A.066 To comfort her, it is the Lords command

COMFORTING.....1

187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold

COMFORTLESSE.....1

187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,

COMFORTS.....1

187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,

COMMAND.....7

001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;

055.00A.029 This face, by which he could command

070.00A.013 Where mis-devotion doth command,

129.00A.011 From which rich treasury you may command

131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.

173.00A.013 Thy lawes abridgement, and thy last command

187.00A.066 To comfort her, it is the Lords command

COMMAND'ST.....1

187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,

COMMANDED.....2

008.00B.013 Angels, which heaven commanded to provide

187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?

COMMANDEMENTS.....1

002.00A.038 In which Commandements large receipt they dwell.

COMMANDS.....3

004.00A.228 Jeasts like a licenc'd foole, commands like law.

135.B13.012 by which w' enthrall our selues to your Commands.

139.00A.026 When all (as truth commands assent) confesse

COMMENCED.....1

106.00A.069 But in their beds commenced

COMMEND.....4

006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,

022.00A.062 Commend the selfe same Actors, the same wayes;

064.00a.017 To rage, to lust, to write to, to commend,

133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.

COMMENT.....1

184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.

COMMENTER.....1

002.00A.099 As slily as any Commenter goes by,

COMMERCE.....1

155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not

COMMING.....9

005.00A.068 And lack a fee for comming; Oh, ne'r may
 024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.
 057.00A.021 Comming and staying show'd thee, thee,
 070.00A.027 Comming and going, wee,
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 157.00b.486 Onely by comming, that it can away.
 158.00A.174 Whom foure new comming, and foure parting Suns
 176.00B.012 Of comming ill. To (poore) me is allow'd
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,

COMMISSARY.....2

111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so thoroughly hate,
 158.00A.031 Great Destiny the Commissary of God,

COMMISSION.....1

153.00A.227 And he was joyned in commission

COMMIT.....1

017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit

COMMON.....12

010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee
 013.00A.021 That from the worlds Common having sever'd thee,
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 108.00A.098 Full of the common joy; I utter'd some,
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 126.00A.008 Th'immense vast volumes of our common law;
 149.00A.052 To clyme by teares, the common staires of men.
 155.00a.012 For in a common Bath of teares it bled,
 155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;
 155.00a.421 The common profite; and some people haue
 158.00A.350 If wreches can on them the common anger wreake?
 184.00A.070 In rythmique feet, in common pray for mee,

COMMONWEALE.....1

137.00A.069 The Mine, the Magazine, the Commonweale,

COMMONWEALTH.....1

138.00A.087 But in your Commonwealth or world in you

COMMOTIONS.....1

153.00A.222 Of imminent commotions to breake out.

COMMUNIONEM.....1

199.C11.006 Communionem Sanctorum, vir iste Ornatiss: Doctiss:que

COMPACT.....1

155.00a.049 The Cyment which did faithfully compact

COMPANIE.....4

108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?

131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)

153.00A.166 Good companie, his entry is a grave.

184.00A.146 By our connivence, or slack companie,

COMPANIES.....2

157.00b.237 To Nations, Cities, and to Companies,

158.00A.360 And (his owne dole) feeds with himselfe all companies.

COMPANION.....1

001.00A.016 Though some more spruce companion thou dost meet,

COMPANIONS.....1

001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee

COMPANY.....11

001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,

001.00A.036 Jointures, and marry thy deare company.

001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?

006.00D.058 For friends to passe time, and keep company.

010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,

018.00B.035 Loves fuellers, and the rightest company

066.00A.033 And to my company my wit;

138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.

153.00A.082 Our quick thought cannot keepe him company,

157.00b.377 To worse, by company; (for shee was still

187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite

COMPAR'D.....5

036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,

082.00A.009 Compar'd with mee, who am their Epitaph.

109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,

135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.

155.00a.116 Compar'd with man, dy'de in minoritee.

COMPARE.....3

024.00A.016 As, gods, when gods to thee I doe compare,

157.00b.141 To whose proportions if we would compare

158.00A.233 Compare all whitenesse, but himselfe to none,

COMPARING.....1

009.00A.053 Leave her, and I will leave comparing thus,

COMPARISON.....2

158.00A.519 Of every quality comparison,
 187.00A.138 A witnesse, or comparison for thee?

COMPARISONS.....1

009.00A.054 She, and comparisons are odious.

COMPASSE.....3

002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 155.00a.226 And needed a new compasse for their way;

COMPASSES.....1

031.00A.026 As stiffe twin compasses are two,

COMPASSING.....1

050.00A.034 Which we are fifty yeares in compassing.

COMPASSION.....3

100.00A.001 Compassion in the world againe is bred:
 138.00A.080 Quenching compassion of our wrechednesse.
 187.00A.225 Compassion, as his mercy'is infinite;

COMPASSIONATE.....1

155.00a.343 As a compassionate Turcoyse which doth tell

COMPASSIONS.....1

187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;

COMPLAIN'ST.....1

011.00A.002 And yet complain'st of his great jealousie;

COMPLAINE.....4

005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest
 005.00A.052 'Gainst whom thou should'st complaine, will in the way
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,

COMPLAINES.....1

149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complaines! Alas,

COMPLAINT.....1

158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.

COMPLEMENT.....2

004.00A.044 With his tongue: in his tongue, call'd complement:
 189.00B.030 In dressing, Mistressing and complement;

COMPLEMENTALL.....1

004.00A.148 With his long complementall thanks vexes me.

COMPLEXION.....5

138.00A.082 Of vice becomes well some complexion.

142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;

143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.

155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.

157.00b.123 Shee whose Complexion was so euen made,

COMPORT.....1

139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.

COMPOS'D.....2

062.00A.046 Of what we are compos'd, and made,

147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now

COMPOSITION.....1

155.00a.365 Whose composition was miraculous,

COMPOUND.....1

153.00A.098 Each severall vertue, but the compound good.

COMPREHEND.....6

006.00D.048 That they all kinde of matter comprehend.

108.00A.047 And comprehend the blessings they bestow.

141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,

152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;

153.00A.033 So, yet unglorified, I comprehend

157.00b.261 Thou art to narrow, wretch, to comprehend

COMPUTATIONS.....1

137.00A.020 And falsifies both computations so;

CON-DEM'ND.....1

067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they're con-dem'nd to die.

CONABERE.....1

104.C07.003 Quod iam conantur frustra, Conabere frustra;

CONANTUR.....1

104.C07.003 Quod iam conantur frustra, Conabere frustra;

CONCEAUE.....1

081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue

CONCEIT.....1

001.00A.098 Of all the Court, to have the best conceit;

CONCEITEDLY.....1

106.00A.019 Conceitedly dresse her, and be assign'd,

CONCEIUE.....1

155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre

CONCEIV'D.....1

160.00A.025 Whom thou conceiv'st, conceiv'd; yea thou art now

CONCEIV'ST.....1

160.00A.025 Whom thou conceiv'st, conceiv'd; yea thou art now

CONCEIVE.....2

116.00A.006 And evermore conceive some hope thereby.

158.00A.216 Man to beget, and woman to conceive

CONCEIVING.....1

184.00A.050 As th'earth conceiving by the Sunne,

CONCENTRIQUE.....1

054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,

CONCEPTION.....2

158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.

183.00A.034 Death and conception in mankinde is one.

CONCERN'D.....1

157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;

CONCERN'D.....1

157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee

CONCERNES.....1

187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,

CONCERNING.....2

153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,

157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,

CONCERNS.....1

157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.

CONCIONANDI.....1

198.LL1.016 Munere suo, frequenter et strenue hoc loco concionandi

CONCLUDE.....1

052.00A.061 At their brightest, but to conclude

CONCOCTION.....2

062.00A.027 Might thence a new concoction take,

155.00a.456 And haue your last, and best concoction

CONCOURSE.....1

153.00A.173 There is the best concourse, and confluence,

CONCUPISCENCE.....1

181.00A.058 Crosse and correct concupiscence of witt.

CONCURRE.....1

183.00A.005 Whose first and last concurrere; this doubtfull day

CONDEMNNE.....1

145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,

CONDEMNED.....2

153.00A.021 To morrow, sleeps, when the condemned man,

160.00A.065 Nay to an inch, loe, where condemned hee

CONDENSED.....1

184.00A.020 Am, but of mudde walls, and condensed dust,

CONDITION.....1

155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now

CONDUIT.....1

158.00A.497 Like a free conduit, on a high hills brow,

CONDUIT-PIPE.....1

158.00A.122 Broke the slight veines, and tender conduit-pipe,

CONDUITS.....1

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here

CONFERENCE.....1

021.00G.048 Of meetings, conference, embracements, kisses?

CONFERRE.....1

001.00A.048 With God, and with the Muses I conferre.

CONFESS'D.....2

141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,

155.00a.122 Mans growth confess'd, and recompenc'd the meat:

CONFESSE.....23

004.00A.201 Making them confesse not only mortall
 006.00D.073 Therefore mine impotency I confesse,
 010.00A.023 And politiquely will to thee confesse
 017.00A.052 Then witches, which impossibles confesse.
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
 061.00A.018 Meant to performe it, and confesse, and die,
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though'it be true.
 096.00A.003 Like Esops selfe, which nothing; I confesse
 133.00A.007 That's much, emboldens, pulls, thrusts I confesse,
 135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
 138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 139.00A.026 When all (as truth commands assent) confesse
 143.00A.011 First I confesse I have to others lent
 143.00A.017 Next I confesse this my confession,
 143.00A.021 Next I confesse my'impenitence, for I
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 157.00b.001 Nothing could make mee sooner to confesse
 157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amisse,
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse

CONFESSING.....1

049.00A.008 As all confessing, and through-shine as I,

CONFESSION.....4

143.00A.008 Must both to growth and to confession bring
 143.00A.017 Next I confesse this my confession,
 155.00a.053 In that confession; therefore spoke no more
 184.00A.167 And through thy free confession

CONFESSIONS.....1

143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;

CONFESSORS.....2

002.00A.035 As Confessors; and for whose sinfull sake
 184.00A.092 A Virgin Squadron of white Confessors,

CONFIDENCE.....3

145.00A.013 Integritie, friendship, and confidence,
 155.00a.086 And strength it selfe by confidence growes weake,
 157.00b.461 Who by a faithfull confidence, was here

CONFIDENT.....1

156.00a.034 Thus braue and confident may Nature bee,

CONFIN'D.....1

158.00A.177 Confin'd, and enjayld her, that seem'd so free,

CONFINE.....1

156.00a.002 Or to confine her in a Marble chest.

CONFINES.....1

158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,

CONFIRM.....1

152.12a.039 For, to confirm this iust Belief, that Now

CONFIRM'D.....1

126.00A.028 Except confirm'd and Bishoped by thee.

CONFIRME.....1

016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.

CONFLUENCE.....1

153.00A.173 There is the best concourse, and confluence,

CONFOUND.....3

010.00A.057 Base excrement of earth, which dost confound

184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;

187.00A.117 8 The Lord hath cast a line, so to confound

CONFUSEDLY.....1

112.00A.029 As in the first Chaos confusedly

CONFUSION.....1

131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,

CONGRATULATE.....1

157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.

CONGREGATION.....1

187.00A.110 The place where was his congregation,

CONGRUITY.....1

078.00D.011 Lac'd up together in congruity,

CONIUGI.....1

197.F01.007 Coniugi charissimae, castissimaequeQ;

CONIUGIO.....1

197.F01.009 xv annis in coniugio transactis,

CONIURE.....1

152.12a.093 I coniure Thee by all the Charmes Hee spoke,

CONJURE.....1

018.00B.009 I conjure thee, and all the oathes which I

CONJURER.....2

008.00B.035 Of some great Conjurer that would enforce

008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjurer,

CONJURERS.....1

177.00B.010 And stile blasphemous Conjurers to call

CONNIVENCE.....1

184.00A.146 By our connivence, or slack companie,

CONPREHEND.....1

135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.

CONQUER.....2

034.00A.015 Dispute, and conquer, if I would,

128.LR1.001 Went you to conquer? and haue so much lost

CONQUERED.....2

153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee

158.00A.154 And as that ground by him were conquered

CONQUEROUR.....1

047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,

CONQUERS.....1

131.00B.058 Love either conquers, or but meets a friend.

CONQUEST.....7

047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.

071.00A.010 And pleasure in your conquest have,

072.00A.017 Whose foraine conquest treasure brings,

081.HH5.013 soe after conquest thou doest me neglect

151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall

157.00b.151 And though he may pretend a conquest, since

173.00A.004 Hee keeps, and gives to me his deaths conquest.

CONSCIENCE.....6

001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.
 008.00B.058 And gall the finders conscience; if hee meet.
 052.00A.044 And for the cause, honour, or conscience give,
 061.00A.012 Of conscience, but of fame, and bee
 139.00A.056 For your owne conscience, he gives innocence,
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,

CONSECRATE.....2

137.00A.049 Yet not as consecrate, but merely'as faire;
 156.00a.066 To which of them, it shall be consecrate.

CONSENT.....1

153.00A.156 To this unnaturall course, or why consent

CONSIDER.....7

020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
 052.00A.049 If to consider what'tis, one proceed,
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 157.00b.003 Then to consider, that a yeare is runne,
 157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worne, consider more,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 187.00A.165 20 Behold O Lord, consider unto whom

CONSIDERD.....1

157.00b.418 Might haue considerd, that for that effect,

CONSIDERED.....1

131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.

CONSIDERS.....1

187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.

CONSIST.....2

072.00A.006 And those things whereof I consist, hereby
 158.00A.329 Consist? and is it of necessity

CONSISTS.....1

131.00B.059 Man's better part consists of purer fire,

CONSORT.....1

001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne

CONSORTED.....1

001.00A.003 Consorted with these few bookes, let me lye

CONSPIR'D.....1

158.00A.346 Conspir'd against him, and it might undoe

CONSPIRING.....1

021.00G.022 Or rather to conspiring destinie,

CONSTABLE.....1

145.00A.060 In a low constable, and in the King

CONSTANCIE.....4

012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.

021.00G.044 Yet went we not still on in Constancie?

037.00A.025 Which thinke to stablish dangerous constancie.

066.00A.010 My constancie I to the planets give,

CONSTANCY.....2

018.00B.010 And thou have sworne to seale joynt constancy,

081.HH5.020 with shame t'haue hopd for womans constancy

CONSTANT.....6

001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,

030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;

082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;

124.00A.005 Disdaine not in thy constant travailing

157.00b.400 Constant, you'are howrely in inconstancee.

180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not

CONSTANTIA.....1

196.015.016 ANIMA, SVMMA CONSTANTIA, EACQUE CHRISTIANA, DEO TRADITA

CONSTANTLY.....1

001.00A.112 And constantly a while must keepe his bed. [CW: Satyre]

CONSTELLATE.....1

155.00a.392 Heauen hither, or constellate any thing,

CONSTELLATION.....3

107.00A.036 Thy selfe a constellation, of them All,

108.00A.026 At every glance, a constellation flyes,

148.00A.008 As divers starres one Constellation make,

CONSTELLATIONS.....2

141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,

155.00a.259 And in those constellations there arise

CONSTITUTION.....1

157.00b.137 Whose euen constitution might haue wonne

CONSUM'D.....2

003.00A.108 Consum'd in going, in the sea are lost:
 187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;

CONSUME.....3

081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne
 151.00A.046 Religion, did not consume, but'inspire
 187.00A.328 Desiring our vaine helpe, consume our eyes:

CONSUMING.....1

155.00a.248 Feele this consuming wound, and ages darts.

CONSUMMATION.....1

157.00b.491 loy that their last great Consummation

CONSUMPTION.....3

151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;
 155.00a.019 This great consumption to a feuer turn'd,
 155.00a.109 To that consumption; and profusely blinde,

CONSUMPTIONS.....2

014.NY3.025 Long Voyages are long consumptions
 150.00A.028 Wastfull consumptions, and degrees of thee.

CONTAIN.....6

008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe
 062.00A.033 But as all severall soules containe
 107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
 158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.

CONTAINES.....2

107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 156.00a.021 For her death wounded it. The world containes

CONTEMPLATE.....7

020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
 039.00A.008 Contemplate, what you will, approve,
 054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
 108.00A.129 Let me here contemplate thee,
 136.00A.021 But one, 'tis best light to contemplate you.
 141.00A.046 And 'tis not none, to dare contemplate you,
 145.00A.032 Discerne, by daring to contemplate you,

CONTEMPLATION.....1

153.00A.044 Nor can endure a contemplation;

CONTEMPT.....1

021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:

CONTEMPTUOUS.....1

003.00A.052 Contemptuous, yet unhansome. As among

CONTEND.....1

131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;

CONTENT.....14

004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content

008.00B.055 And be content that some lowd squeaking Cryer

008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;

018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page

037.00A.010 Will no other vice content you?

068.00A.022 Various content

069.00A.024 With this mysterious number be content;

106.00A.085 Even like a faithfull man content,

138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content

149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content

155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.

157.00b.152 Heauen was content to suffer violence,

157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,

182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell

CONTINUALL.....2

002.00A.051 Continuall claimes I have made, injunctions got

108.00A.036 Continuall, but artificiall heat;

CONTINUANCE.....1

112.00A.048 Inne any where, continuance maketh hell.

CONTINUE.....1

153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare

CONTINUED'ST.....1

057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,

CONTRACT.....1

039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove

CONTRACTED.....5

036.00A.026 In that the world's contracted thus.

131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.

141.00A.024 But now amass'd, contracted in a few.

148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;

155.00a.136 Contracted to an inch, who was a span.

CONTRACTS.....1

034.00A.009 So lovers contracts, images of those,

CONTRARIES.....1

003.00A.098 Is not this excuse for mere contraries,

CONTRARY.....1

155.00a.320 A type of her in this, that contrary

CONTRARYES.....1

180.NY3.001 Oh, to vex me, contraryes meete in one:

CONTRIBUTE.....2

049.00A.002 Doth contribute my firmnesse to this glasse,

061.00A.028 Can contribute, all ill, which all

CONTRIBUTES.....1

140.00A.022 Our apprehension contributes the sting.

CONTRIBUTIONS.....1

142.00A.026 All contributions to this life forbear,

CONTRITE.....1

001.00A.049 But since thou like a contrite penitent,

CONTRITIONE.....1

180.NY3.005 As humorous is my contritione

CONTROLL.....1

157.00b.079 Star-light inough, t'haue made the South controll,

CONTROUERSIES.....1

157.00b.282 A hundred controuersies of an Ant.

CONTROULD.....1

155.00a.244 Of the whole substance, not to be contrould.

CONTROULE.....8

067.00A.007 Will leave this to controule,

119.NY3.007 But as a Lay Mans Genius doth controule

153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,

155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:

155.00a.265 To watch his steps; the Goat and Crabbe controule,

158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,

160.00A.075 And life, by this death abled, shall controule

190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,

CONTROULES.....4

- 032.00A.010 For love, all love of other sights controules,
 062.00A.044 Defects of lonelinesse controules.
 112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
 138.00A.041 As dead low earth eclipses and controules

CONTROVERTED.....1

- 005.00A.041 Into other hands: So controverted lands

CONTROVERTERS.....1

- 002.00A.101 As controverters, in vouch'd Texts, leave out

CONTUMELIES.....1

- 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.

CONUERSATION.....1

- 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.

CONUERSE.....1

- 157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station

CONUERTITE.....1

- 157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.

CONUEY.....1

- 152.12a.033 And activ'st spirit to conuey and tye

CONVAY.....1

- 062.00A.054 Did us, to us, at first convay,

CONVENIENT.....3

- 035.00A.012 Convenient, and more proportionall.
 052.00A.036 Beauty a convenient type may be to figure it.
 062.00A.024 Within convenient distance stood,

CONVERSATION.....1

- 154.00A.013 Faire mirth is dampt, and conversation black,

CONVERSE.....1

- 131.00B.112 And leave his nature to converse with fire:

CONVERT.....1

- 051.00A.007 And can convert Manna to gall,

CONVERTITE.....1

- 142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,

CONVEY.....2

006.00D.038 Convey these wares in parcels unto men;
189.00B.042 'Tis preachers to convey him, for they doe

CONVEY'D.....1

065.00A.023 Convey'd by this, Ah, what doth it availe,

COOL.....1

020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud

COOLD.....1

158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her childs blood;

COPEs.....1

005.00A.066 All his cloathes, Copes; Bookes, Primers; and all

COPIE.....1

129.00A.005 A Taper of his Torch, a copie writ

COPIES.....3

058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay
143.00A.025 By studying copies, not Originals,
155.00a.228 Of all faire copies; and the generall

COPIOUS.....1

078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,

COPPER.....1

CORALLS.....1

078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,

CORDIAL.....3

008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordiall, would twere at thy heart.
138.00A.090 With cordiall vertue, your knowne nourishment.
140.00A.042 Poysonous, or purgative, or cordiall,

CORDS.....1

158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life CORDS there; Like a whole towne

CORKE.....2

037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;

112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe

CORNE.....7

005.00A.030 Whose meades her armes drowne, or whose corne o'rflow.

016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed corne there,

016.00A.018 And yet allows his ground more corne should beare;

138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.

139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,

140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;

157.00b.427 (For as the Wine, and Corne, and Onions are

CORNERLESSE.....1

191.00B.004 Thee, who art cornerlesse and infinite)

CORNERS.....5

043.00A.018 But colours it, and corners had,

138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe

165.00A.001 At the round earths imagin'd corners, blow

187.00A.272 Scattered in corners of each street do lye.

191.00B.003 And thrust into strait corners of poore wit

CORONATION.....1

189.00B.018 To Chists new stampe, at this thy Coronation;

CORONET.....1

015.00G.015 Off with that wyerie Coronet and shew

CORONETS.....1

009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets

001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;002.00A.037 Whose strange sinnes, Canonists could hardly tell

010.00A.038 Could never witsse any touch or kisse;
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 013.00A.017 And since, an houres discourse could scarce have made
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?
 021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
 021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 022.00A.055 I could beginne againe to court and praise,
 022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw
 025.00A.010 Which no unworthy thought could staine,
 034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could
 036.00A.013 I could eclipse and cloud them with a winke,
 040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 043.00A.021 As good as could be made by art
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 045.00A.008 Takes limmes of flesh, and else could nothing doe,
 046.00A.008 If it could speake as well as spie,

 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
 157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.146 No Accident could threaten any linke,
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.
 157.00b.166 My body, could, beyond escape, or helpe,
 157.00b.372 Satans rude Officers could nere arrest.
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 157.00b.517 Could any Saint prouoke that appetite,
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.

158.00A.403 To issue. It could kill, as soone as goe,
 158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
 160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 184.00A.013 The other could thine heritage invade;
 184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
 184.00A.249 Which could not stick to thee,
 185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,
 185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is 187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.

COUNTRIMEN.....1

109.00A.023 But 'twas, but so kinde, as our countrimen,

COUNTRY.....8

003.00A.054 No wenches wholesome, but course country drudges:
 037.00A.004 Her whom the country form'd, & whom the town,
 038.00A.014 From country grasse, to comfitures of Court,
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,

112.00A.015 Parch'd in the Court, and in the country frozen?

112.00A.025 The Country is a desert, where no good,

137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.

COUNTRY'IS.....2

130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,

137.00A.013 So in the country'is beauty; to this place

COUPLE.....2

070.00A.008 And thinke that there a loving couple lies,

108.00A.117 In this new couple, dost thou prize,

COUPLE'IN.....1

140.00A.008 Yet couple'in anger, and new monsters breed;

COUPLEST.....1

107.00A.018 For thou this day couplest two Phoenixes,

COURAGE.....8

003.00A.016 This feare great courage, and high valour is;

003.00A.028 Or eate thy poysonous words, courage of straw!

107.00A.027 Whose love and courage never shall decline,

107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,

108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,

108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,

124.00A.003 Of knowledge, hast with courage and advise

127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;

COURAGIOUS.....1

003.00A.021 Hast thou couragious fire to thaw the ice

COURSE.....20

001.00A.047 And in this course attire, which I now weare

003.00A.054 No wenches wholsome, but course country drudges:

008.00B.036 Nature, as these doe justice, from her course.

012.00A.030 Her from her native, and her long-kept course,

019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,

022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;

039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,

112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,

153.00A.156 To this unnaturall course, or why consent

155.00a.253 But yet their various and perplexed course,

155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne

155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,

157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;

157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.

157.00b.416 Thinke him a foole for hauing tane that course?

158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
 158.00A.132 A place, where no place was; by natures course
 158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,
 183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,

COURT.....41

001.00A.024 A speech to Court his beautious sonne and heire?
 001.00A.098 Of all the Court, to have the best conceit;
 004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe
 004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.
 004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 004.00A.157 Of suiters at court to mourne, and a trance
 004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare
 004.00A.168 Such as swells the bladder of our court? I
 004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r looks
 005.00A.061 Powers, Cherubins, and all heavens Court, if wee
 015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:
 022.00A.055 I could beginne againe to court and praise,
 038.00A.014 From country grasse, to comfitures of Court,
 055.00A.003 At Court your fellowes every day,
 066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
 108.00A.015 At Court the spring already advanced is,
 108.00A.027 And sowes the Court with starres, and doth prevent
 108.00A.038 And make our Court an everlasting East.
 108.00A.055 I am not then from the Court.
 108.00A.076 A Court, where all affections do assent
 108.00A.100 Either the Court or mens hearts to invade,
 108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 111.00A.027 At Court, though from Court, were the better stile.
 112.00A.015 Parch'd in the Court, and in the country frozen?
 112.00A.028 In cities blockes, and in a lewd court, devills.
 137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
 137.00A.025 In this you'have made the Court the Antipodes,
 138.00A.026 It ransomes one sex, and one Court preserves;
 139.00A.042 One latitude in cloysters, and in Court,
 143.00A.002 (Living in you,) Court enough in my grave,
 145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 153.00A.124 His Torrid Zone at Court, and calentures
 153.00A.164 Death, else a desert, growne a Court by thee.
 158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
 179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove
 180.NY3.010 In prayers, & flattering Speeches I court God:

183.00A.023 How well the Church, Gods Court of faculties

138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts

COURTS.....23

004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few

005.00A.045 Where wilt thou appeale? powre of the Courts below

039.00A.044 Countries, Townes, Courts: Beg frow above

103.00A.003 As Katherine, for the Courts sake, put downe Stewes.

108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,

108.00A.041 So are those Courts, whose Princes animate,

108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,

110.00A.014 Like courts removing, or like ended playes.

111.00A.012 As in'the Courts Squadron to marshall their state

111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.

112.00A.008 Countries, Courts, Towns are Rockes, or Remoraes;

112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play

112.00A.060 Courts hot ambitions wholesome, do not take

128.LR1.015 In many schooles & courts, which quicken it,)

129.00A.031 Which fits them (Schooles and Courts and warres o'rpast)

130.00A.018 All libraries, which are Schools, Camps, & Courts;

137.00A.068 To higher Courts, senses decree is true,

145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,

157.00b.078 As Courts to Princes; shee whose eies enspeard

157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee

157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,

158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,

184.00A.129 From thinking, that great courts immure

COURTS'ARE.....1

111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.

COURTSHIP.....1

066.00A.022 And Courtship, to an Universitie;

COUSE'NED.....1

157.00b.391 Poore couse'ned cose'nor, that she, and that thou,

COUSENING.....1

155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,

COVER.....1

109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say

COVER'ST.....1

187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath

COVERED.....2

011.00A.004 His body with a sere-barke covered,

187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;

COVEREST.....1

187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,

COVERING.....2

015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.

136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we

COVERINGS.....1

015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,

COVET.....3

038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.

136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;

141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.

COVETED.....1

079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,

COVETIZE.....1

112.00A.031 So pride, lust, covetize, being severall

COVETOUS.....3

150.00A.056 Shortly ambitious, covetous, when old,

181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.

184.00A.132 Or that thou art covetous

COWARD.....3

003.00A.029 O desperate coward, wilt thou seeme bold, and

005.00A.064 A Stoicke, a coward, yea a Martyr,

110.00A.044 A desperate may live, and a coward die.

COYN'D.....1

155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:

COYND.....1

157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue

COYNE.....2

011.00A.028 Their Prince, or coyne his gold, themselves exile

107.00A.090 So just and rich in that coyne which they pay,

COYNERS.....1

181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchimists doe coyners prove,

COYNES.....2

035.00A.004 As Kings do coynes, to which their stamps impart

157.00b.430 To such small copper coynes, they lost the old,

COZEN.....1

043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.

CRAB.....1

158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate

CRABBE.....1

155.00a.265 To watch his steps; the Goat and Crabbe controule,

CRACK.....1

185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.

CRACKING.....1

157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.

CRACKLES.....1

157.00b.018 Are but as Ice, which crackles at a thaw:

CRACKS.....1

149.00A.042 How little poyson cracks a christall glasse?

CRADLE.....3

092.NY3.002 Towards the Suns cradle, & his throne, & bed.

106.00A.080 A grave, but, to a better state, a cradle;

155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,

CRADLED.....1

158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes

CRADLES.....1

155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;

CRAGG'D.....1

003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will

CRAMP.....1

061.00A.009 Madnesse his sorrow, gout his cramp, may hee

CRAMP'T.....1

155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:

CRAMPS.....1

184.00A.210 That snatching cramps of wickednesse

CRANTS.....1

003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be intrall'd,

CRAUE.....2

127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue

155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;

CRAVE.....3

074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,

079.00B.006 As ignorantly did I crave:

158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave

CRAWLE.....1

157.00b.248 And chides vs slow-pac'd snailles, who crawle vpon

CRAWLING.....1

110.00A.037 The crawling Gallies, Sea-goales, finny chips,

CREATE.....3

053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,

133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,

157.00b.117 Thinke the a Prince, who of themselues create

CREATED.....5

041.00A.015 New love created bee, by other men,

108.00A.022 Before the Sunne and Moone created were;

155.00a.192 Quite out of ioynt, almost created lame:

160.00A.023 Ere by the speares time was created, thou
 169.00A.012 Created nature doth these things subdue,

CREATES.....2

139.00A.017 Creates in them, but dissipates as fast,
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be

CREATION.....6

008.00B.012 From the first state of their Creation;
 150.00A.022 And how without Creation didst begin?
 157.00b.023 As some Daies are, at the Creation nam'd,
 157.00b.215 (Creation gaue her one, a second, grace,)
 183.00A.037 Or as creation he hath made, as God,
 189.00B.017 Chang'd onely Gods old Image by Creation,

CREATOR.....2

115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.
 169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,

CREATURE.....4

123.NY3.014 I recreated even by thy Creature live.
 133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.
 138.00A.061 First seeds of every creature are in us,
 160.00A.063 Whose creature Fate is, now prescribe a Fate,

CREATURELESSE.....1

136.00A.003 And creaturelesse at first, himselfe had none;

CREATURES.....17

013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 056.00A.007 But are other creatures so?
 108.00A.052 Of creatures, and man need no farther looke;
 137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new recknings goe.
 145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be
 155.00a.080 These Creatures, from hom-borne intrinsique harme,
 155.00a.163 And if in other Creatures they appeare,
 155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
 157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
 158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
 161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles durty slime,
 169.00A.001 Why are wee by all creatures waited on?
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,

CREDIBLE.....2

140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon155.00a.143 As credible; mankind decayes so soone,

CREDIBLY.....1

139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,

CREDIT.....4

017.00A.051 Whom, if shee accuse her selfe, I credit lesse096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,152.12a.019 For, All that Faith could credit Mankinde could,

CREDITOR.....1

139.00A.007 Debtor to th'old, nor Creditor to th'new,

CREDULOUS.....1

182.00A.017 Had one of those, whose credulous pietie

CREDUTO.....1

007.006.004 L'honra, de personne nestre creduto, tibi.

CREEK.....1

020.00G.057 Then in a Creek where chosen pearls do swell

CREEKES.....1

124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take

CREEPE.....2

008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjurer,109.00A.047 And as sin-burd'ned soules from grave will creepe,

CREEPES.....1

001.00A.068 Improvidently proud, creepes to the wall,

CREEPS.....1

158.00A.084 Till the then climbing serpent, that now creeps

CREPT.....1

184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,

CREW.....1

124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;

CRIE.....4

004.00A.225 He meant to crie; And though his face be as ill155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,

157.00b.174 After, enabled but to sucke, and crie.
 187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath

CRIES.....5

011.00A.009 Made deafe with his poore kindreds howling cries,
 037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;
 088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,
 158.00A.487 Now cries, and now repents; when Tethelemite
 187.00A.115 His Palace, and the walls, in which their cries

CRIMES.....1

145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)

CRIPPLE.....1

155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.

CRITICIS.....1

201.20a.023 14 Idque notant Criticis,

CRITICKS.....1

006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age

CROCHETING.....1

011.00A.006 The nimblest crocheting Musitian,

CROOKED.....2

040.00A.006 Then as th'earths inward narrow crooked lanes
 128.LR1.014 And since & thorough crooked lymbecks, stild

CROPT.....1

158.00A.109 That Adam cropt, or knew the apple; yet

CROSSE.....28

004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre
 004.00A.234 Charing Crosse for a barre, men that doe know
 131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieffe, where nails did tye
 158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by
 181.00A.001 Since Christ embrac'd the Crosse it selfe, dare I
 181.00A.002 His image, th'image of his Crosse deny?
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,
 181.00A.012 Of this Crosse, were to mee another Crosse.
 181.00A.012 Of this Crosse, were to mee another Crosse.
 181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
 181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?

181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,
 181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse
 181.00A.043 And crosse thy senses, else, both they, and thou
 181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.
 181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,
 181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone
 181.00A.053 Crosse those dejections, when it downward tends,
 181.00A.058 Crosse and correct concupiscence of witt.
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 181.00A.061 Then doth the Crosse of Christ worke faithfully
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 192.00B.022 Christs Crosse, & Adams tree, stood in one place;

CROSSE-ARM'D.....1

131.00B.022 A sighing Ode, nor crosse-arm'd Elegie.

CROSSED.....1

181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;

CROSSES.....9

181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
 181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,
 181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,
 181.00A.042 Your joy in crosses, else, 'tis double losse,
 181.00A.056 By sutures, which a Crosses forme present,
 181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.
 181.00A.063 The Crosses pictures much, and with more care
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.

CROSSING.....3

004.00A.091 Crossing hurt mee; To fit my sullennesse,
 181.00A.024 But the Meridians crossing Parallels.
 181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,

CROST.....1

150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost

CROW.....1

107.00A.068 Like Fairies, till the Cock crow them away.

CROWN'ST.....1

160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crow'n'st our ends,

CROWNE.....9

004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I
 004.00A.150 And the prerogative of my Crowne: Scant
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)
 160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.008 A crowne of Glory, which doth flower alwayes;
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

CROWNED.....1

189.00B.015 And as new crowned Kings alter the face,

CROWNES.....2

008.00B.023 Were they but Crownes of France, I cared not,
 008.00B.028 Their Crownes are circumcis'd most lewishly;

CROWNS.....1

067.00A.003 That subtle wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;

CRUCE.....1

186.00E.014 Pestis; At in nostra fit Medicina Cruce,

CRUCI.....1

186.00E.015 Serpens; fixa Cruci si sit Natura; Crucique

CRUCIQUE.....1

186.00E.015 Serpens; fixa Cruci si sit Natura; Crucique

CRUCIFIE.....2

168.00A.002 Buffet, and scoffe, scourge, and crucifie mee,
 168.00A.008 Crucifie him daily, being now glorified;

CRUCIFIED.....3

157.00b.365 Shee did high iustice; for shee crucified
 170.00A.003 The picture of Christ crucified, and tell
 184.00A.015 And crucified againe,

CRUCIFIXE.....1

181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.

CRUELL.....2

060.00A.019 Cruell and sodaine, hast thou since
 084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.

CRUELLEST.....1

058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.

CRUELNESSE.....1

187.00A.279 By reason of the foes great cruelnesse,

CRUMBLED.....2

145.00A.011 All the worlds frame being crumbled into sand,

155.00a.212 Is crumbled out againe to his Atomis.

CRUX.....6

186.00E.005 Hinc mihi Crux primo quae fronte impressa lavacro,

186.00E.007 Anchorae in effigiem, Crux tandem desinit ipsam,

186.00E.008 Anchora fit tandem Crux tolerata diu.

186.00E.010 Crux, et ab Affixo, est Anchora facta, Iesu.

CRVCIFYING.....1

160.00A.0HE Crvcifying.

CRY.....5

004.00A.028 One, to whom, the examining Justice sure would cry,

004.00A.182 Those hose are, cry the flatterers; And bring

184.00A.243 Heare us, weake ecchoes, O thou eare, and cry.

187.00A.161 19 Arise, cry in the night, poure, for thy sinnes,

187.00A.319 15 Would cry aloud, depart defiled men,

CRY'D.....1

004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,

CRYE.....2

187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.

187.00A.283 And when for bread the little children crye,

CRYED.....2

010.00A.041 A loud perfume, which at my entrance cryed

187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where

 052.00A.016 No schismaticque will dare to wound,
 063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
 071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
 081.HH5.012 full sway dare boldly then sow vicious seedes
 108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,
 131.00B.107 Who dare aspire this journey with a staine,
 133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.
 136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 141.00A.046 And 'tis not none, to dare contemplate you,
 146.00A.015 With whom more Venturers more boldly dare
 153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
 154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am

 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 157.00b.226 Shee, in whose body (if wee dare prefer
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
 174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,
 181.00A.001 Since Christ embrac'd the Crosse it selfe, dare I
 181.00A.004 And dare the chosen Altar to despise?
 185.00A.015 Yet dare I'almost be glad, I do not see
 191.00B.001 Eternall God, (for whom who ever dare

DARES.....9

003.00A.064 Knowing some women whores, dares marry none.
 052.00A.052 Whose weaknesse none doth, or dares tell;
 092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.
 140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;
 155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,

DARING.....3

145.00A.032 Discerne, by daring to contemplate you,
 150.00A.065 Or sinne, by tempting, or, not daring that,
 153.00A.239 Yet I am farre from daring to dispute

DARK.....2

021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.

021.00G.040 To paths in love so dark and dangerous:

DARKE.....14

052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?

108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:

126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.

137.00A.011 For, as darke texts need notes: there some must bee

145.00A.072 In a darke Cave, yea in a Grave doe lie;

155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,

158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.

158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw

158.00A.414 To Abels tent he stealeth in the darke,

160.00A.027 Thou' hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,

160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,

182.00A.007 And made the darke fires languish in that vale,

184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,

187.00A.184 In darke, as they who dead for ever bee.

DARKE'IS.....1

127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;

DARKER.....2

136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,

187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know

DARKEST.....1

021.00G.005 Alas the darkest Magick cannot do it,

DARKNESS.....3

021.00G.002 Environ me with darkness, whilst I write:

021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,

021.00G.085 The cold and darkness longer hang somewhere,

DARKNESSE.....6

012.00A.040 Death in thy cheekes, and darknesse in thine eye;

046.00A.005 Love which in spite of darknesse brought us hether,

082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.

109.00A.067 Darknesse, lights eldest brother, his birth-right

157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.

187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,

DARKNEST.....1

DAY.....104

002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,

003.00A.095 At the last day? Will it then boot thee

004.00A.125 As the last day; And that great officers,
 004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found
 008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 017.00A.045 Shee, whose face, like clouds, turnes the day to night,
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
 030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
 034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
 041.00A.025 And since my love doth every day admit
 041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
 042.00A.010 And yet is here to day,
 046.00A.001 'Tis true, 'tis day, what though it be?
 048.00A.010 But truly keepes his first, last, everlasting day.
 050.00A.036 Age must be loveliest at the latest day.
 050.00A.046 With Tombs, then Cradles, to weare out a day.
 055.00A.003 At Court your fellowes every day,
 059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
 062.00A.019 All day, the same our postures were,
 062.00A.020 And wee said nothing, all the day.
 065.00A.007 Above one sigh a day I'llow'd him not,
 070.00A.010 To make their soules, at the last busie day,
 075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,
 079.00B.025 Diminisheth the length of life a day)
 106.00A.077 T'adorne the day, not thee; for thou, alone,
 107.00A.001 Haile Bishop Valentine, whose day this is,
 107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
 107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
 107.00A.018 For thou this day couplest two Phoenixes,
 107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.
 107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
 107.00A.058 Longer to day, then other daies?
 107.00A.070 A night, as well as day, to thee, O Valentine?
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.
 107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
 107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,
 107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.
 108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
 108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
 108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
 109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
 109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.
 109.00A.048 At the last day, some forth their cabbins peepe:
 109.00A.072 Another Fiat, shall have no more day.
 110.00A.018 Feathers and dust, to day and yesterday.

112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 113.00A.033 Much, much deare treasure for the great rent day.
 125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
 126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
 127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
 131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.
 136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.
 137.00A.014 You are the season (Madame) you the day,
 137.00A.024 That suffer not an artificiall day.
 140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,
 153.00A.179 That at the Triumph day, the people may,
 155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
 155.00a.202 That euening was beginning of the day,
 155.00a.270 One inche direct; but where he rose to day
 155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,
 155.00a.350 To mingle, and vary colours euery day.
 157.00b.187 Twenty, perchance, or thirty mile a day,
 157.00b.394 Next day repaires, (but ill) last daies decay.
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 157.00b.495 This kind of ioy doth euery day admit
 158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
 158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
 158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,
 180.NY3.009 I durst not view heauen yesterday; & to day
 182.00A.004 A better Sun rose before thee to day,
 183.00A.001 Tamely fraile body'abstaine to day; to day
 183.00A.001 Tamely fraile body'abstaine to day; to day
 183.00A.005 Whose first and last concurre; this doubtfull day
 183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,
 183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;
 183.00A.046 And in my life retaile it every day.
 184.00A.137 From owing thee yesterdaies teares to day,
 184.00A.197 In th'houre of death, the'Eve of last judgement day,
 184.00A.206 O Thou who Satan heard'st in Jobs sicke day,
 185.00A.005 And being by others hurried every day,
 185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.
 185.00A.012 And by that setting endlesse day beget;
 187.00A.048 Done to mee in the day of his fierce wrath?
 187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
 187.00A.092 Forgot his foot-stoole in the day of wrath?

187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee
 187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.195 All the day long, a song and mockery.
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 187.00A.388 Returne, and as of old, renew our day.
 189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent

DAY-LIGHT.....1

010.00A.015 Takes this advantage to sleepe out day-light,

DAYES.....22

002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes
 022.00A.056 And in that pleasure lengthen the short dayes
 036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
 059.00A.022 In that dayes rude hoarse minstralsey, the spheares.
 068.00A.002 Whom I have watch'd sixe or seaven dayes,
 068.00A.034 Twenty dayes hence, and thou shalt see
 079.00B.013 Is not lesse cared for after three dayes
 082.00A.001 Tis the yeares midnight, and it is the dayes,
 082.00A.045 Both the yeares, and the dayes deep midnight is.
 106.00A.049 Winter dayes bring much delight,
 108.00A.020 The first doth governe dayes, the other nights.
 108.00A.107 And should'st within five dayes expire
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 111.00A.019 Beleewe mee Sir, in my youths giddiest dayes,
 131.00B.047 What pretty innocence in those dayes mov'd?
 141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 160.00A.004 All changing unchang'd Antient of dayes,
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 187.00A.014 Mourn, because none come to her solemne dayes.
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 190.00A.028 And to scape stormy dayes, I chuse An Everlasting night.

 071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
 072.00A.001 Shee'is dead; And all which die
 075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.
 076.00A.010 Am, by being dead, Immortall; Can ghosts die?
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 082.00A.008 Dead and enterr'd; yet all these seeme to laugh,
 082.00A.012 For I am every dead thing,

DEATH.....107

001.00A.042 At birth, and death, our bodies naked are;

003.00A.040 Flesh (it selfe death) and joyes which flesh can taste,

008.00B.088 Yea death, ere he would make your number lesse.

010.00A.059 By thee the seely Amorous sucks his death

011.00A.014 Swallow his owne death, hearts-bane jealousie.

012.00A.040 Death in thy cheekes, and darknesse in thine eye;

022.00A.012 (Both hot and cold) at once make life and death?

044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,

047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,

048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,

048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,

049.00A.063 Neere death inflicts this lethargie,

058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.

060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.

072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,

072.00A.020 This death, hath with my store

075.00A.006 Any, so cheape a death, as saying, Goe;

075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.

077.00A.008 Death kills with too much cold;

082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.

082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)

085.00A.001 By childrens births, and death, I am become

108.00A.106 Though thou upon thy death bed lye,

109.00A.036 All offices of death, except to kill.

109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,

110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,

 150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
 150.00A.043 Death gets 'twixt soules and bodies such a place
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 152.12a.0HE ELEGIE On the vntimely Death of the incomparable Prince, HENRY.
 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?
 153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.
 153.00A.164 Death, else a desert, growne a Court by thee.
 153.00A.192 Thou didst intrude on death, usurp'st a grave.
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than
 155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
 155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 155.00a.454 And as a mid-wife death directs it home.
 156.00a.021 For her death wounded it. The world containes
 156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,
 156.00a.035 Death cannot giue her such another blow,
 156.00a.080 Tooke so much death, as seru'd for opium.
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.089 For such approaches doth Heauen make in death.
 157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
 157.00b.156 Yet Death must vsher, and vnlocke the doore.
 157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.379 Shee, shee doth leaue it, and by Death, suruiue
 157.00b.524 Thou shouldest for life, and death, a patterne bee,
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
 158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 160.00A.069 And at thy death giving such liberall dole,
 160.00A.075 And life, by this death abled, shall controule
 160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
 160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
 160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 164.00A.005 And gluttonous death, will instantly unjoynt
 165.00A.003 From death, you numberlesse infinities
 165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,

166.00A.002 Whose fruit threw death on else immortall us,
 167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
 173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,
 174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,
 174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,
 174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast
 183.00A.034 Death and conception in mankinde is one.
 184.00A.009 I may rise up from death, before I'am dead.
 184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
 184.00A.089 Of death, or of worse life: for Oh, to some
 184.00A.177 Which thou in death did'st shew,
 184.00A.179 Deliver us from death, by dying so,
 184.00A.197 In th'houre of death, the'Eve of last judgement day,
 185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?
 187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.
 192.00B.015 So death doth touch the Resurrection.
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne

DEATHLESSE.....1

158.00A.001 I sing the progresse of a deathlesse soule,

120.00A.001 Thy friend, whom thy deserts to thee enchaine,

DESERVE.....3

022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pittie;

053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.

146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,

DESINIT.....1

186.00E.007 Anchorae in effigiem, Crux tandem desinit ipsam,

DESIR'D.....5

032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.

107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;

156.00a.064 And whom, who ere had worth enough, desir'd;

156.00a.073 But like a Lampe of Balsamum, desir'd

158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have

DESIRE.....17

001.00A.038 But in ranke itchie lust, desire, and love

002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire

008.00B.104 Itching desire, and no abilitie.
 021.00G.099 Nay, if I wax but cold in my desire,
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 042.00A.011 He hath no desire nor sense,
 079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 108.00A.032 And all is warmth, and light, and good desire;
 124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
 131.00B.060 And findes it selfe allow'd, ere it desire.
 152.12a.050 'Twere an Ambition to desire to fall:
 152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire
 157.00b.191 Shee carries no desire to know, nor sense,
 158.00A.247 T'another fish, to any new desire
 184.00A.055 And let thy Patriarches Desire
 187.00A.103 To kill what Sions daughter did desire,
 187.00A.330 We in desire and speculation have:

DESIRED.....2

020.00G.039 But in attaining this desired place
 078.00D.014 And most desired, 'cause 'tis like thee best;

DESIRE.....9

018.00B.002 By all desires which thereof did ensue,
 021.00G.036 Inro our blouds, inflaming our desires,
 079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so
 079.00B.030 Eager, desires to raise posterity.
 107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires
 131.00B.039 And severall desires led parts away,
 153.00A.195 Of youths desires, and colds of ignorance,
 157.00b.075 Shee that first tried indifferent desires

DESIRING.....1

187.00A.328 Desiring our vaine helpe, consume our eyes:

DESIROUSLY.....1

184.00A.082 And since thou so desirously

DESOLATE.....2

187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
 187.00A.381 17 Because mount Sion desolate doth lye,

DESPAIRE.....7

012.00A.036 Carelesse despaire in mee, for that will whet
 013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.
 072.00A.010 Water of teares, and earthly sad despaire,
 162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
 165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,

174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast
 184.00A.184 And worke despaire a breach to enter in,

DESPERATE.....4

003.00A.029 O desperate coward, wilt thou seeme bold, and
 110.00A.044 A desperate may live, and a coward die.
 151.00A.008 But extreme sense hath made them desperate;
 167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,

DESPERATELY.....2

008.00B.046 Are dirtely and desperately gull'd:
 013.00A.008 Desperately hot, or changing feaverously.

DESPIGHT.....1

046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.

DESPIS'D.....1

136.00A.012 By despis'd dung, then by the fire or Sunne.

DESPISE.....4

079.00B.026 This; as shee would man should despise
 181.00A.004 And dare the chosen Altar to despise?
 187.00A.389 21 For oughtest thou, O Lord, despise us thus
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.

DESPITE.....1

110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath

DESPOYLD.....1

157.00b.295 And see all things despoyld of fallacies:

DESTIN'D.....2

008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
 153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,

DESTINEE.....1

156.00a.096 Fellow-Commissioner with destinee,

DESTINIE.....6

004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie
 021.00G.022 Or rather to conspiring destinie,
 064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,
 153.00A.060 Should injure Nature, Vertue, and Destinie,
 158.00A.025 Of fowles, and beasts, in whose wombe, Destinie
 189.00B.038 Embassadour to God and destinie?

DESTINY.....10

005.00A.071 Recorder to Destiny, on earth, and shee
 008.00B.068 Because he is the mouth of destiny.
 042.00A.035 Destiny may take thy part,
 052.00A.002 To anger destiny, as she doth us,
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 156.00a.084 Should come to reade the booke of destiny,
 156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,
 156.00a.093 Her destiny to her selfe; which liberty
 158.00A.031 Great Destiny the Commissary of God,
 158.00A.176 Thoughtlesse of change, when her firme destiny

DESTROY.....4

108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.
 147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.
 157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;
 187.00A.268 Follow, and from under heaven destroy them quite.

DESTROY'D.....2

187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine

DESTROYES.....1

131.00B.034 That it destroyes it selfe with its owne shade.

DESTROYING.....1

187.00A.107 Destroying holds, giving additions

DESTRUCTION.....5

048.00A.006 All other things, to their destruction draw,
 153.00A.141 So, youth is easiest to destruction,
 158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.
 158.00A.338 'Tis greatest now, and to destruction
 181.00A.044 Must perish soone, and to destruction bowe.

DETERIORA.....1

104.C07.004 Si per te non sunt deteriora sat est.

DETERMINED.....2

155.00a.040 Measures of times are all determined)
 187.00A.154 Fulfill'd his word of old determined;

DETERRE.....1

155.00a.469 Nor could incomprehensiblenesse deterre

DETEST.....1

082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,

DETESTS.....1

187.00A.113 7 The Lord forsakes his Altar, and detests

DEUILL.....1

178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.

DEUORC'D.....1

118.NY3.012 for myne is barren thus deuorc'd from thyne.

DEUOTION.....1

157.00b.455 Who kept, by diligent deuotion,

DEUOTIONS.....1

135.B13.010 As in deuotions men loyne both there hands

DEUOURE.....1

157.00b.118 Wormes which insensibly deuoure their state.

DEUOUT.....1

180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away

DEUOUTLIER.....1

157.00b.464 Who dreamt deuoutlier, then most vse to pray;

DEUS.....3

186.00E.012 Non ita dat Deus, ut auferat ante data.

197.F01.016 Nouo matrimonio (annuat Deus) hoc loco sociandos

199.C11.005 Annuat Deus Opt: Max: ut apud omnes, hanc inueniat

DEVEST.....2

153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes devest

153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest

DEVICE.....2

001.00A.096 For his device, in hansoming a sute,

070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way

DEVIL.....1

020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.

DEVILL.....8

003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou

008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;

012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,

055.00A.001 Love, any devill else but you,

114.00A.026 The Painters bad god made a good devill,

140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.

162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?

164.00A.014 For thus I leave the world, the flesh the devill.

DEVILLS.....3

112.00A.028 In cities blockes, and in a lewd court, devills.

112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.

140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline

DEVILS.....1

008.00B.106 All mischief that all devils ever thought;

DEVISE.....1

106.00A.017 Help with your presence, and devise to praise

DEVISEFULLY.....1

013.00A.010 Of flowers, how they devisefully being set

DEVIZE.....1

134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devize.

DEVM.....1

195.010.019 DEVM DVCTOREM SEQVTA

DEVOTION.....8

003.00A.006 As worthy of all our Soules devotion,

108.00A.235 Such Alters, as prize your devotion.

142.00A.062 My true devotion, free from flattery;

148.00A.017 And do all honour: and devotion due;

150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion

159.52a.010 To their Devotion, add your Innocence;

177.00B.012 Dissemblers feigne devotion. Then turne

185.00A.002 The intelligence that moves, devotion is,

DEVOTIONE.....1

180.NY3.004 I change in vowes, & in devotione.

DEVOUR.....3

029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;

158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour

187.00A.308 To eate, and her foundations to devour.

DEVOUR'D.....1

158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there

DEVOURE.....1

187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,

DEVOURING.....2

005.00A.018 Are the devouring stomacke, and Suiters187.00A.106 Devouring Israel, and his Palaces,

DEW'D.....1

181.00A.016 Of God, dew'd on mee in the Sacrament?

DIADEM.....1

015.00G.016 The haiery Diadem which on your head doth grow:

DIALECTS.....1

021.00G.050 Varied our language through all dialects,

DIALOGUE.....1

062.00A.074 Have heard this dialogue of one,

DIALOGUES.....1

021.00G.052 Spok dialogues with our feet far from our words?

DIAMOND.....1

151.00A.060 Shall be tooke up spruce, fill'd with diamond;

DIAMONDS.....3

049.00A.006 The diamonds of either rock.

107.00A.035 Thy Rubies, Pearles, and Diamonds forth, and make
149.00A.024 The Diamonds, Rubies, Saphires, Pearles, & Mines,

DIAN'S.....1

138.00A.014 Here Peter loves, there Paul have Dian's Fane.

DID.....233

001.00A.087 Hee droopt, wee went, till one (which did excell
002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire
004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe
004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne
004.0A/B136 Guilty, and he free: Therefore I did shew
004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
004.00A.151 His thanks were ended, when I, (which did see
004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance
005.00A.002 Whom any pittie warmes; He which did lay
006.00D.022 Munster did Townes and Gesner Authors show;
008.00B.010 No leaven of vile soder did admit;
009.00A.010 Enforc'd, Sanserra's starved men did draw

010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 014.NY3.009 France in her Lunatique giddines did hate
 016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
 017.00A.049 And though in childbeds labour she did lie,
 018.00B.002 By all desires which thereof did ensue,
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forfet? signe to breake?
 022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsells, and wee both may rue,
 022.00A.063 Aske how you did, and often with intent
 029.00A.017 If 'twere not so, what did become
 029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.
 030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
 030.00B.010 Disguises did, and shadowes, flow,
 031.00A.010 Men reckon what it did and meant,
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 032.00A.006 If ever any beauty I did see,
 037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 039.00A.013 When did my colds a forward spring remove?
 039.00A.014 When did the heats which my veines fill
 039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove
 039.00A.043 That they did all to you epitomize,
 040.00A.016 Griefe, which verse did restraine.
 043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,
 046.00A.004 Did we lie downe, because 'twas night?
 050.00A.031 Or else because, being yong, nature did blesse
 051.00A.010 'Twere wholsomer for mee, that winter did
 051.00A.012 And that a grave frost did forbid
 052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) Homer did finde, and name.
 053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,
 056.00A.005 And thence a law did grow,
 062.00A.006 With a fast balme, which thence did spring,
 062.00A.007 Our eye-beames twisted, and did thred
 062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:
 062.00A.054 Did us, to us, at first convay,
 063.00A.002 Then all the worthies did,
 063.00A.026 Then all the Worthies did.
 064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
 064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
 065.00A.003 But that I did, to make it lesse,

066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
 070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,
 076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
 079.00B.003 So did I reverence, and gave
 079.00B.006 As ignorantly did I crave:
 081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mistery
 081.HH5.032 did both in precepts & examples bend
 082.00A.014 For his art did expresse
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show
 086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;
 092.NY3.003 A fitter Piller our Earle did bestow
 092.NY3.004 In that late lland; for he well did know
 107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 107.00A.069 Alas, did not Antiquity assigne
 107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
 108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare
 108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
 108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
 108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
 109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraine grave
 109.00A.014 Which at th'ayres middle marble roome did finde
 109.00A.016 Downward againe; and so when it did view
 109.00A.017 How in the port, our fleet deare time did leese,
 109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
 109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
 110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out
 122.00A.003 Never did Morpheus nor his brother weare
 122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show
 122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show
 123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quench'd by it
 123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,
 131.00B.040 Water declin'd with earth, the ayre did stay,
 131.00B.044 An unripe willingnesse which nothing did,
 133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,
 133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 134.00A.032 That ever did in womans shape appeare.
 135.B13.028 Did all St. Edith Nunns descend againe
 138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe

145.00A.062 So did I humbly reverence each degree
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
 148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.049 Because in her, her virtues did outgoe
 150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
 151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
 151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.046 Religion, did not consume, but'inspire
 151.00A.049 And did prefigure here, in devout tast,
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow
 153.00A.046 Those Spirits, humors, blood I did last yeare,
 153.00A.062 Vertue, which did in one intirenesse grow.
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 153.00A.250 As Saxon wives, and French soldarii did;
 155.00a.008 And, as t'her standing house, to heauen did clymbe,
 155.00a.015 Whether the world did loose or gaine in this,
 155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than
 155.00a.049 The Cyment which did faithfully compact
 155.00a.068 Though shee which did inanimate and fill
 155.00a.113 When as the Sunne, and man, did seeme to striue,
 155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:
 155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did wooe, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart
 155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,
 155.00a.201 So did the world from the first houre decay,
 155.00a.225 Did in their voyage in this worlds Sea stray,
 155.00a.231 Whose hauing breath'd in this world, did bestow
 155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
 155.00a.315 And did from her into our bodies go,
 155.00a.352 Himselfe his various Rainbow did allow.
 155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.

157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.
 157.00b.069 Should be emploid, because in all, shee did,
 157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.242 Her body was th'Electrum, and did hold
 157.00b.286 How others on our stage their parts did Act;
 157.00b.287 What Caesar did, yea, and what Cicero said.
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,
 157.00b.345 Vp to those Patriarckes, which did longer sit
 157.00b.349 Vp to th'Apostles, who did brauely runne,
 157.00b.351 Vp to those Martyrs, who did calmely bleed
 157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:
 157.00b.365 Shee did high iustice; for shee crucified
 157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute
 157.00b.417 They who did labour Babels tower t' erect,
 157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,
 158.00A.022 The Church, and all the Monarchies did floate;
 158.00A.026 Us, and our latest nephewes did install
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieffe, where nailes did tye
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
 158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive
 158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 158.00A.131 The plant thus abled, to it selfe did force
 158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest
 158.00A.159 Did this soules second Inne, built by the guest
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 158.00A.192 Things ripened sooner, and did longer last;
 158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
 158.00A.202 Their daughters, and their sisters did ingresse,
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.225 For they intertouched as they did passe,
 158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,
 158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
 158.00A.390 His sinewy Proboscis did remisly lie.
 158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,
 158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.
 158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave
 158.00A.495 Had stew'd and form'd it: and part did become
 158.00A.496 A spungie liver, that did richly allow,
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,

158.00A.510 Sister and wife to Caine, Caine that first did plow.
 160.00A.046 Which himselfe on the Doctors did bestow;
 160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
 165.00A.005 All whom the flood did, and fire shall o'erthrow,
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 176.00B.008 'Cause I did suffer I must suffer paine.
 178.NY3.005 Here the admyring her my Mind did whett
 179.NY3.007 Doth She,' and did She, & shall She evermore
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,
 184.00A.065 Which were thy Churches Organs, and did sound
 184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;
 184.00A.068 Those heavenly Poets which did see
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 187.00A.018 Because when her transgressions did increase,
 187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite
 187.00A.103 To kill what Sions daughter did desire,
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.
 187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
 187.00A.176 Brought up, did perish by mine enemie.
 187.00A.200 And my prosperity I did forget.
 187.00A.290 Then did the towne of Sodome sinne before;
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine
 187.00A.295 As carbuncles did their pure bodies shine,
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 187.00A.366 For in the wilderness, the sword did wait.
 187.00A.375 14 Elders, the gates; youth did their songs forbear,
 190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne

DID'ST.....8

021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?
 073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
 153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare
 153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
 158.00A.028 Did'st thou in that great stewardship embarke
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.177 Which thou in death did'st shew,

DIDST.....13

006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
 006.00D.030 The West sent gold, which thou didst freely spend,

013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand
 021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
 021.00G.039 Was't not enough, that thou didst hazard us
 150.00A.022 And how without Creation didst begin?
 153.00A.192 Thou didst intrude on death, usurp'st a grave.
 153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
 154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
 157.00b.173 Thinke in how poore a prison thou didst lie
 184.00A.160 And yet soone after riches didst allow,
 187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;

DIE.....60

004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne
 004.00A.194 And women buy all reds which scarlets die.
 009.00A.018 As, for the ravishing thereof we die.
 010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
 011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,
 018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,
 018.00B.054 Assail'd, fight, taken, stabb'd, bleed, fall, and die.
 032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
 039.00A.021 We're Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,
 044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
 044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
 047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
 049.00A.042 Since I die daily, daily mourne.
 057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.
 061.00A.018 Meant to performe it, and confesse, and die,
 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they're con-dem'nd to die.
 071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 072.00A.001 Shee's dead; And all which die
 076.00A.010 Am, by being dead, Immortall; Can ghosts die?
 077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
 107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
 108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
 108.00A.176 It must serve your ambition, to die;
 110.00A.044 A desperate may live, and a coward die.
 115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 153.00A.122 Both how to live well young, and how to die,
 153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,

155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,
 156.00a.081 For though she could not, nor could chuse to die,
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.
 157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
 157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,
 160.00A.018 Which cannot die, yet cannot chuse but die,
 160.00A.018 Which cannot die, yet cannot chuse but die,
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 169.00A.007 Dissemble weaknesse, and by'one mans stroke die,
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,
 184.00A.211 And Apoplexies of fast sin, may die;
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;
 192.00B.010 Per fretum febris, by these streights to die,
 200.021.013 VLTIMO DIE MARTII A° 1631.

DIEBUS.....1

201.20a.024 Medici, euenisse diebus.

DIES.....6

004.00A.025 If he had liv'd then; And without helpe dies,
 017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,
 066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.
 158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
 158.00A.396 With him the murtherer dies whom envy sent 197.F01.010 vii post xii^m Partum (quorum vii superstant) dies

DIEST.....1

133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,

DIET.....1

065.00A.005 Give it a diet, made it feed upon

DIFFER.....1

024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,

DIFFERENCE.....2

013.00A.005 Nor couldst thou judge the difference of the aire070.00A.025 Difference of sex no more wee knew,

DIFFERENT.....1

184.00A.034 Give mee a such selfe different instinct

DIFFUS'D.....2

148.00A.025 And though diffus'd, and spread in infinite,153.00A.103 Before by deeds they are diffus'd and spred,

DIGEST.....4

126.00A.007 Here toughly chew, and sturdily digest135.B13.006 Doe by that infuence all your thoughts digest.158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,

DIGESTED.....1

002.00A.027 Rankly digested, doth those things out-spue,

DIGESTION.....1

130.00A.014 Her appetite, and her digestion mend,

DIGESTIVE.....1

158.00A.243 Till melted with the Swans digestive fire,

DIGG'D.....2

059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but

DIGGE.....1

050.00A.018 He doth not digge a Grave, but build a Tombe.

DIGGED.....1

187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell

DIGGES.....1

070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring

DIGNIFI'D.....1

109.00A.006 When by thy judgment they are dignifi'd,

DIGNIFIE.....2

015.00G.042 (Whom their imputed grace will dignifie)147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie

020.00G.050 On either side, and then directs us where
 155.00a.454 And as a mid-wife death directs it home.

DIRTELY.....1

008.00B.046 Are dirtely and desperately gull'd:

DIRTH.....1

121.NY3.007 Now pleasures dirth our City doth posses

DIS-INROULE.....1

139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule

DIS-SOLVED.....1

058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.

DISABLES.....1

153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,

DISAFORESTED.....1

140.00A.010 To'his beasts, and disaforested his minde?

DISARM'D.....1

002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:

DISBURSE.....1

004.00A.009 To Masse in jest, catch'd, was faine to disburse

DISCERN'D.....1

145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,

DISCERNE.....4

145.00A.032 Discerne, by daring to contemplate you,

153.00A.029 And I discerne by favour of this light,

157.00b.298 By circuit, or collections to discerne.

182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discerne and see

DISCERNETH.....1

152.12a.072 Industrious Man discerneth, as he thinks,

DISCHARG'D.....1

157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen

DISCOLORS.....1

024.00A.028 That I am such; but Griefe discolors me.

DISCONTENT.....2

118.NY3.006 Or is thy Mind trauaild with discontent?

176.00B.003 That I might in this holy discontent

DISCONTINUE.....1

153.00A.061 Should I divide and discontinue so,

DISCONTINUED.....1

122.00A.026 Our discontinued hopes we shall retriue:

DISCORD.....3

130.00A.041 Let falshood like a discord anger you,

155.00a.324 Is discord, and rude incongruitee,

157.00b.340 Shall in the Angels songs no discord heare;

DISCORDS.....1

138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,

DISCOUERD.....1

152.12a.028 Till Hee discouerd what wayes Hee would take:

DISCOUERED.....2

155.00a.052 Or that our weakenes was discouered

155.00a.064 'Tis labour lost to haue discouered

DISCOUEREE.....1

157.00b.231 And when w'haue made this large Discoueree,

DISCOUERIES.....1

003.00A.022 Of frozen North discoueries, and thrise

DISCOURSE.....4

004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.

013.00A.017 And since, an houres discourse could scarce have made

133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?

137.00A.039 But serve discourse, and curiosity,

DISCOVERED.....1

006.00D.005 That in-land Sea, having discovered well,

DISCOVERERS.....1

131.00B.053 As all discoverers whose first assay

DISCOVERIE.....2

146.00A.014 Ere rigg'd a soule for heavens discoverie

192.00B.009 That this is my South-west discoverie

DISCOVERING.....2

015.00G.030 How am I blest in thus discovering thee?

018.00B.030 A blushing womanly discovering grace;

DISCOVERS.....1

136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we

DISCREDIT.....1

004.00A.120 Discredit, Libells now 'gainst each great man.

DISCREET.....2

139.00A.057 But for your fame, a discreet warinesse,

184.00A.088 To begge for us, a discreet patience

DISCRETION.....4

113.00A.018 Want, which want not Vice-covering discretion.

136.00A.037 Natures first lesson, so, discretion,

136.00A.040 Discretion is a wisemans Soule, and so

136.00A.051 Wrought your ends, and your wayes discretion.

DISDAINE.....4

012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdaine.

124.00A.005 Disdaine not in thy constant travailing

131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdaine.

131.00B.067 It must bee sicknesse after one disdaine,

DISEASE.....5

022.00A.066 Love was as subtilly catch'd, as a disease;

046.00A.014 Oh, that's the worst disease of love,

138.00A.050 The soyles disease, and into cockle straves.

155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.

157.00b.138 Any disease to venter on the Sunne,

DISEASES.....4

008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee

018.00B.034 Spittles of diseases, shops of fashions,

155.00a.088 The dangers and diseases of the old:

155.00a.159 With new diseases on our selues we warre,

DISFIGURED.....1

155.00a.302 The worlds proportion disfigured is,

DISGEST.....1

108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,

DISGRACE.....2

051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace

139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.

DISGUISE.....5

020.00G.077 Least subject to disguise and change it is;

030.00B.021 And I to thee mine actions shall disguise.

156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.

188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,
 190.00A.005 Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise

DISGUISES.....1

030.00B.010 Disguises did, and shadowes, flow,

DISHES.....1

150.00A.006 Plants, cattell, men, dishes for Death to eate.

DISHONEST.....1

128.LR1.019 dishonest cariage: or a seers Art

DISHONOR.....1

152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him thus;

DISOBEY.....1

150.00A.004 That any can thy Summons disobey.

DISORDERED.....2

131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,

153.00A.153 Disordered, stay here, as a generall

DISPARITIE.....1

045.00A.026 Just such disparitie

DISPARITY.....1

066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,

DISPATCHES.....1

157.00b.188 Dispatches in a minute all the way,

DISPENS'D.....1

153.00A.241 Prerogative hath thus dispens'd with thee,

DISPENSATION.....1

055.00A.008 I aske no dispensation now

DISPENSED.....1

106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;

DISPLAY.....1

137.00A.016 Exhale them, and a thick close bud display.

DISPLEASE.....2

004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,

018.00B.042 Nor spungy hydroptique Dutch shall thee displease,

DISPORT.....1

139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,

DISPORTS.....1

106.00A.052 Other disports then dancing jollities,

DISPOS'D.....4

108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
 155.00a.149 Their siluer; or dispos'd into lesse glas,

DISPOSE.....3

061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
 153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
 182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose

DISPOSITIONS.....1

141.00A.027 Soft dispositions which ductile bee,

DISPOSSESSE.....1

106.00A.075 A pleasing sacrifice; now dispossesse

DISPRAISE.....2

018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,

DISPROPORTION.....3

066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.
 110.00A.054 Chance, or our selves still disproportion it.
 155.00a.257 As disproportion that pure forme. It teares

DISPROPORTION'D.....1

152.12a.010 So disproportion'd and so angulare,

DISPUTATION.....1

139.00A.004 Whose what, and where, in disputation is,

DISPUTE.....5

034.00A.015 Dispute, and conquer, if I would,
 112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
 133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
 153.00A.239 Yet I am farre from daring to dispute
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?

DISPUTED.....1

049.00A.052 Disputed it, and tam'd thy rage,

DISPUTES.....1

158.00A.103 Would God (disputes the curious Rebell) make

DISPUTING.....2

158.00A.276 The seely fish where it disputing lay,184.00A.165 Disputing what distorted thee,

DISRESPECT.....1

189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,

DISSECT.....1

055.00A.040 Kill, and dissect me, Love; for this

DISSECTIONE.....1

155.00a.066 Aliue to study this dissectione;

DISSEIZ'D.....1

184.00A.040 One claime for innocence, and disseiz'd sinne,

DISSEMBLE.....2

018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change169.00A.007 Dissemble weaknesse, and by'one mans stroke die,

DISSEMBLERS.....1

177.00B.012 Dissemblers feigne devotion. Then turne

DISSEVER.....1

106.00A.045 Which might these two dissever,

DISSHEVEL'D.....1

145.00A.005 That his disshevel'd beames and scattered fires

DISSIPATES.....1

139.00A.017 Creates in them, but dissipates as fast,

DISSOLU-TION.....1

067.00A.008 And keepe these limbes, her Provinces, from dissolu-tion.

DISTANCE.....4

062.00A.024 Within convenient distance stood,131.00B.006 From Paradise so great a distance were,131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,131.00B.117 There is an equall distance from her eye,

DISTANCES.....1

153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,

DISTANT.....2

156.00a.026 By which remote and distant Countries meet.

158.00A.335 To all her limbes, distant as Provinces.

DISTEMPER.....1

153.00A.132 Doth each mismotion and distemper feele,

DISTEMPERD.....1

180.NY3.007 As ridlingly distemperd, cold & hott,

DISTEMPERED.....1

119.NY3.002 for by thy Mind, my Mind's distempered.

DISTILL.....1

069.00A.002 Where, if Heav'n would distill

DISTINCKLY.....1

157.00b.245 Spoke in her cheekes, and so distinckly wrought,

DISTINCTLY.....1

153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see

DISTINGUISH'D.....1

184.00A.032 As you distinguish'd undistinct

DISTINGUISHING.....1

010.00A.058 Sense, from distinguishing the sicke from sound;

DISTORTED.....1

184.00A.165 Disputing what distorted thee,

DISTRACT.....1

157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;

DISTRACTED.....1

152.12a.023 What must This doo; Centres distracted so,

DISTRACTING.....1

158.00A.046 Distracting businesse, and from beauties nets,

DISTREST.....1

158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine have slain

DISTURNE.....1

187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee

DISUNITE.....1

107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.

DISUNITING.....1

157.00b.140 That he to disuniting subject were.

DISUS'D.....1

019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tastes seemes tough.

DISUSE.....1

110.00A.040 Or, to disuse mee from the queasie paine

DIU.....1

186.00E.008 Anchora fit tandem Crux tolerata diu.

DIUERS.....2

155.00a.254 Obseru'd in diuers ages doth enforce155.00a.256 Such diuers downe-right lines, such ouerthwarts,

DIUERSLY.....1

155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.

DIUINE.....2

157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spungy slack Diuine178.NY3.012 My Love to Saints and Angels things diuine

DIUINES.....1

156.00a.023 Lawyers for tongues, Diuines for hearts, and more,

DIUISION.....1

157.00b.092 Diuision, and thy happiest Harmonee.

DIV'ST.....1

005.00A.091 And div'st, neare drowning, for what vanished.

DIVE.....1

003.00A.020 Dar'st thou dive seas, and dungeons of the earth?

DIVELS.....1

033.00A.004 Or who cleft the Divels foot,

DIVERS.....8

003.00A.066 As women do in divers countries goe003.00A.067 In divers habits, yet are still one kinde;006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore107.00A.052 To make you one, his way, which divers waies

148.00A.008 As divers starres one Constellation make,
 152.12a.071 If Faith haue such a chaine, whose divers Links
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)

DIVERSE.....4

010.00A.048 Where cattell onely, 'and diverse dogs are bred,
 106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
 150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.
 158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,

DIVERSIONS.....1

130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.

DIVERSITIE.....1

184.00A.051 Yeelds faire diversitie,

DIVERSLY.....1

184.00A.030 Which, as wise serpents diversly

DIVIDE.....5

006.00D.042 Divide to pounds, and ounces sub-divide;
 021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
 153.00A.061 Should I divide and discontinue so,

DIVIDED.....1

008.00B.061 Which hath divided heaven in tenements,

DIVINE.....9

003.00A.023 Colder then Salamanders? like divine
 022.00A.017 And the divine impression of stolne kisses,
 108.00A.065 As, for divine things, faith comes from above,
 108.00A.218 In warmth, light, lasting, equall the divine;
 149.00A.059 How Morall, how Divine shall not be told,
 162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
 184.00A.078 That their bookes are divine;
 184.00A.224 To'admit the like of majestie divine,
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;

DIVINELY.....1

001.00A.085 That dances so divinely; Oh, said I,

DIVINER.....1

189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now

DIVINES.....2

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here
 052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity

DIVINING.....1

042.00A.033 Let not thy divining heart

DIVINITY.....4

002.00A.100 Hard words, or sense; or in Divinity
 052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity
 134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity

DIVISION.....1

120.00A.006 No blott nor maim by this division,

DIVORC'D.....2

056.00A.010 Are birds divorc'd, or are they chidden
 126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,

DIVORCE.....8

012.00A.029 She rusheth violently, and doth divorce
 021.00G.056 Must sad divorce make us the vulgar story?
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
 150.00A.045 Both worke a separation, no divorce.
 171.00A.011 Divorce mee, 'untie, or breake that knot againe,
 184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,
 190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,

DIVORCEMENT.....1

018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,

DO.....125

001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way
 001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cries, Do you see
 002.00A.001 Sir; though (I thanke God for it) I do hate
 002.00A.016 And bellows pant below, which them do move.
 002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse
 003.00A.066 As women do in divers countries goe
 003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 006.00D.036 To neighbour wares, when Merchants do unhoope
 006.00D.037 Voluminous barrels; if thy leaves do then

006.00D.041 Thy leaves a better method do provide,
 006.00D.054 Do publike good, cut in Anatomies;
 011.00A.034 Do Londons Major, or Germans, the Popes pride.
 012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
 012.00A.042 As nations do from Rome, from thy love fall.
 014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 014.NY3.045 To make at home; And shall not I do then
 020.00G.001 Who ever loves, if he do not propose
 020.00G.056 Wise Delphick Oracles do fill the ear;
 020.00G.057 Then in a Creek where chosen pearls do swell
 020.00G.085 If Kings think that the nearer way, and do
 020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.
 021.00G.005 Alas the darkest Magick cannot do it,
 021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
 022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take
 035.00A.004 As Kings do coyne, to which their stamps impart
 035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;
 037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 039.00A.018 Though she and I do love.
 040.00A.007 Do purge sea waters fretfull salt away,
 040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
 042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,
 051.00A.005 But O, selfe traytor, I do bring
 051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
 052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,
 054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
 054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.
 055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
 067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew
 096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip
 108.00A.014 With just solemnity, do it in Lent;
 108.00A.031 And from their jewels torches do take fire,
 108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know
 108.00A.076 A Court, where all affections do assent
 110.00A.027 Who live, that miracle do multiply
 112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
 112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe
 112.00A.060 Courts hot ambitions wholesome, do not take
 112.00A.061 A dramme of Countries dulnesse; do not adde
 116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
 118.NY3.003 Whereof thou'and all to whom heauens do infuse
 121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee

128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
 134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,
 134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;
 137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 140.00A.003 The foole, in whom these beasts do live at jarre,
 140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
 141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
 142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 148.00A.017 And do all honour: and devotion due;
 148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper spheare,
 149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 152.12a.012 Where, How, When, What, Soules do departed hence:
 152.12a.013 These Things (Eccentrique else) on Faith do strike;
 153.00A.045 As bodies change, and as I do not weare
 155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,
 155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
 157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
 157.00b.154 (For they'are in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch
 157.00b.522 That gaue thee power to do, me to say this.
 158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake
 158.00A.287 To spoile the nests industruous birds do make;
 158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
 158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.
 158.00A.500 Whose busie furnaces lifes spirits do impart.
 158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 160.00A.062 Alas, and do, unto the immaculate,
 168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
 181.00A.020 The Mast and yard make one, where seas do tosse.
 181.00A.033 As perchance, Carvers do not faces make:
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)
 184.00A.075 From whom whosoever do not take 185.00A.015 Yet dare l'almost be glad, I do not see
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
 187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 187.00A.169 21 On ground in streets, the yong and old do lye,

187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;
 187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,
 187.00A.272 Scattered in corners of each street do lye.
 187.00A.274 Valued at purest gold, how do wee see
 187.00A.280 As do the Owles in the vast Wildernesse.
 187.00A.357 5 Our persecutors on our necks do sit,
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this
 187.00A.382 And foxes there do goe at libertie:
 189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit
 190.00A.005 Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?

 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.

062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbear?

062.00A.071 Loves mysteries in soules doe grow,

063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe

063.00A.024 Or, if they doe, deride:

064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?

066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;

067.00A.022 To afford to it all that a Soule can doe,

069.00A.007 As the small starres doe in the skie:

070.00A.026 Then our Guardian Angells doe,

071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try

075.00A.010 And a just office on a murderer doe.

076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.

079.00B.036 As men doe when the summers Sunne

081.HH5.010 free sovereignty doe guild their words & deeds

081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandring doe but yet decline

090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haire doe fall.

096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,

107.00A.061 And why doe you two walke,

107.00A.089 And yet they doe, but are

108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,

108.00A.162 The rising sun, doe thinke it two,

108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,

108.00A.169 Doe, from his Dictates, to these two impart

108.00A.179 Nature and grace doe all, and nothing Art,

108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.

108.00A.198 And doe all this daies dances o'r againe.

108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe

108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.

108.00A.221 But ends in ashes, which these cannot doe,

108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe

109.00A.049 And tremblingly'aske what newes, and doe heare so,

110.00A.028 Where walkers in hot Ovens, doe not dye.

112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe

114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:

117.00A.010 Therefore I envie them, and doe repent,

120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art

124.00A.006 To doe as other Voyagers, and make

125.00A.007 You doe not duties of Societies,

126.00A.012 And I, as Giddy Travellers, must doe,

129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:

130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch

131.00B.019 And now must pittie them; for, as they doe

131.00B.075 The honesties of love with ease I doe,

131.00B.084 That youngest flatteries doe scandall it.

131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move

133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,

133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,

133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,
 133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,
 135.B13.006 Doe by that influence all your thoughts digest.
 135.B13.011 wee make our's doe one Act, to seale the bands,
 135.B13.016 Admit our Magique then by which wee doe
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 135.B13.023 who soe doe make the whole yeare through a springe,
 135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.
 137.00A.027 To doe profane autumnall offices,
 137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
 138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe
 138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe
 138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.
 139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
 139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
 142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
 143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
 143.00A.024 May in lesse lessons finde enough to doe,
 145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 145.00A.057 No more doe I wrong any; I adore
 145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
 145.00A.072 In a darke Cave, yea in a Grave doe lie;
 145.00A.073 For as your fellow Angells, so you doe
 145.00A.075 The first whom we in Histories doe finde
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 147.00B.006 Dying, of you doe beg a Legacie.
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 149.00A.030 If carnall Death (the yonger brother) doe
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 149.00A.049 As Moses Cherubines, whose natures doe
 150.00A.052 Of beauty, and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?
 152.12a.005 For, into our Reason flowe, and there doe end,
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe
 153.00A.037 Yet are the trunkes which doe to us derive
 153.00A.130 And by thy doing tell us what to doe?
 153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
 153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,
 153.00A.256 That in thy grave I doe interre my Muse,
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 155.00a.108 We doe delightfully our selues allow
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:

155.00a.379 Or that the Elements doe not feele this,
 155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.458 In reuerence to her, doe thinke it due,
 155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set
 156.00a.076 For mariage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.
 157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.
 157.00b.059 Then those thy fellow-wormes doe thinke vpone
 157.00b.131 And as, though all doe know, that quantities
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.382 That accidentall ioyes in Heauen doe grow.
 157.00b.385 Still before Accessories doe abide
 157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show
 157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
 157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,
 158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.199 The next that calls; both liberty doe use;
 158.00A.269 Where fresh, with salt waves meet, and what to doe
 158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
 158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.
 158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;
 158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of
 160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,
 161.00A.006 Bee strong enough, and nature doe admit
 162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
 167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
 169.00A.002 Why doe the prodigall elements supply
 173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,
 181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchimists doe coyners prove,
 183.00A.025 As by the selfe-fix'd Pole wee never doe
 184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 184.00A.192 When Magistrates doe mis-apply
 184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then

184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.145 15 The passengers doe clap their hands, and hisse
 187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
 187.00A.164 Which, faint for hunger, in the streets doe lye.
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 189.00B.025 But if thy gainings doe surmount expression,
 189.00B.042 'Tis preachers to convey him, for they doe
 191.00B.002 Seeke new expressions, doe the Circle square,
 191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.
 191.00B.034 In formes of joy and art doe re-reveale
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.

065.00A.023 Convey'd by this, Ah, what doth it availe,
066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,
068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
069.00A.023 And women, whom this flower doth represent,
070.00A.013 Where mis-devotion doth command,
072.00A.005 My body then doth hers involve,
072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,
072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
077.00A.010 Hee that saith twice, doth lye:
077.00A.012 It doth the sense beguile.
081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still beginne a new.
106.00A.005 Like to a grave, the yielding downe doth dint;
106.00A.087 So, shee a mothers rich stile doth preferre,
106.00A.088 And at the Bridegroomes wish'd approach doth lye,
107.00A.010 As doth the Goldfinch, or the Halcyon;
107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
108.00A.008 Whil'st Flora'herselfe doth a freeze jerkin weare?
108.00A.020 The first doth governe dayes, the other nights.
108.00A.027 And sowes the Court with starres, and doth prevent
108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,
108.00A.061 The earth doth in her inner bowels hold
108.00A.072 That doth, abroad, to honest actions come.
108.00A.075 Hast thou a history, which doth present
108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.
108.00A.136 To shew to her, who doth the like impart,
108.00A.167 And now the Militant doth strive no more,
108.00A.206 So doth the Bridegroome hast as much,
108.00A.219 Fire ever doth aspire,
109.00A.035 Sleepe is paines easiest salue, and doth fullfill
109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say
110.00A.002 A stupid calme, but nothing it, doth swage.
110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay
111.00A.003 That vice doth here habitually dwell.

111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so throughly hate,
 112.00A.049 And seeing the snaile, which every where doth rome,
 113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,
 113.00A.024 The straw, which doth about our hearts sojourne.
 113.00A.030 Such freedome doth a banishment become.
 116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,
 117.00A.005 Perish, doth stand: as an Embassadour
 118.NY3.001 Zealously my Muse doth salute all thee.
 119.NY3.007 But as a Lay Mans Genius doth controule
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,
 121.NY3.007 Now pleasures dirth our City doth posses
 123.NY3.009 And as Ayre doth fullfill the hollownes
 123.NY3.012 Which as a lame Eccho of thyne doth rebound.
 126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.
 127.00A.007 Yet I, as long as shee from hence doth staie,
 128.LR1.012 who payes before his death doth scape arest.
 130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;
 131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 131.00B.103 Whose heat doth force us thither to intend,
 133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this
 133.00A.023 Or, because majesty doth never feare
 133.00A.040 Of favour, she alone, to them doth make.
 134.00A.016 And rest on what the Catholique faith doth teach;
 136.00A.007 So from low persons doth all honour flow;
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 137.00A.040 With that which doth religion but invest,
 138.00A.042 The quick high Moone: so doth the body, Soules.
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 138.00A.048 And looke not back, to looke up doth allow.
 139.00A.015 As spice doth bodies from corrupt aires touch.
 139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
 140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,
 140.00A.023 To us, as to his chickins, he doth cast
 140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
 141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,
 141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,
 142.00A.063 He that beleeves himselfe, doth never lie.
 145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatness doth appeare,
 145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast

145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 149.00A.005 Yet doth it rore, and gnaw, and still pretend,
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.014 Doth worke upon itselfe, with inborne stings.
 149.00A.018 But as the tide doth wash the slimie beach,
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 153.00A.024 Doth practice dying by a little sleepe,
 153.00A.081 As when an Angell down from heav'n doth flye,
 153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 153.00A.093 Just as a perfect reader doth not dwell,
 153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see
 153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,
 153.00A.132 Doth each mismotion and distemper feele,
 153.00A.137 Whose voice, the Bell, doth rattle, or grow dumbe,
 153.00A.145 An error doth more harme, being generall,
 153.00A.176 Which doth extend her utmost gates to them;
 153.00A.212 As he, who takes endeavours, doth require,
 154.00A.026 Unto the spheare of formes, and doth (before
 155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
 155.00a.046 The Prince doth languish, or the Prince is dead:
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.074 The twi-light of her memory doth stay;
 155.00a.233 And that rich Indie which doth gold interre,
 155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sicknesse doth not lie
 155.00a.254 Obseru'd in diuers ages doth enforce
 155.00a.286 Doth not a Tenarif, or higher Hill
 155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,
 155.00a.343 As a compassionate Turcoyse which doth tell
 155.00a.383 Th'Ayre doth not motherly sit on the earth,
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,
 156.00a.076 For mariage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.
 157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
 157.00b.089 For such approches doth Heauen make in death.
 157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit
 157.00b.193 For th'Element of fire, shee doth not know,
 157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.269 Knowst thou but how the stone doth enter in
 157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;
 157.00b.272 Doth from one ventricle to th'other go?
 157.00b.356 Vp, vp, for in that squadron there doth liue
 157.00b.379 Shee, shee doth leaue it, and by Death, suruiue

157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.485 All casuall ioye doth loud and plainly say,
 157.00b.495 This kind of ioy doth euery day admit
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
 158.00A.197 Nor doth she pule for his inconstancie
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 158.00A.212 Of gummie blood, which doth in holly grow
 158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,
 158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,
 158.00A.380 Be slain, to gallant mischiefe doth herselfe addresse.
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,
 158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
 158.00A.458 Doth gaze on her, and, where she passeth, passe,
 158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
 158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry
 160.00A.008 A crowne of Glory, which doth flower alwayes;
 160.00A.038 Which fills all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
 160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,
 160.00A.091 Nor doth hee by ascending, show alone,
 161.00A.010 Doth with her sister, your invention, hold,
 162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?
 162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?
 167.00A.010 And doth with poyson, warre, and sicknesse dwell.
 169.00A.012 Created nature doth these things subdue,
 172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
 172.00A.009 And as a robb'd man, which by search doth finde
 173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 174.00B.006 Despaire behind, and death before doth cast
 174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste
 174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;
 175.00B.014 Of thee and thy house, which doth in eating heale.
 177.00B.002 As Angels, then my fathers soule doth see,
 179.NY3.007 Doth She,' and did She, & shall She evermore
 181.00A.055 And as the braine through bony walls doth vent
 181.00A.061 Then doth the Crosse of Christ worke faithfully
 182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose
 183.00A.028 (Because it strayes not farre) doth never stray;
 183.00A.031 His Spirit, as his fiery Pillar doth
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.183 When want, sent but to tame, doth warre
 184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth

187.00A.020 Doth drive her children to captivitie.
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.
 187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,
 187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturne
 187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,
 187.00A.223 31 For, not for ever doth the Lord forsake,
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath strucke with sadnes, hee doth take
 187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,
 187.00A.228 35 That a mans right the Judge himselfe doth see
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.245 48 With water rivers doth mine eye oreflow
 187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,
 187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,
 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,
 187.00A.381 17 Because mount Sion desolate doth lye,
 189.00B.026 Why doth the foolish world scorne that profession,
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare
 190.00A.012 As the trees sap doth seeke the root below
 192.00B.015 So death doth touch the Resurrection.

DOUBLE.....11

062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,
 075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.
 138.00A.044 As hands of double office: For, the ground
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 152.12a.082 W'haue double Excuse; Hee is not dead, Wee are.
 157.00b.439 Double on Heauen, thy thoughts on Earth emloid;
 158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
 173.00A.001 Father, part of his double interest
 181.00A.042 Your joy in crosses, else, 'tis double losse,
 184.00A.024 Double in my heart thy flame,
 191.00B.010 (For 'twas a double power by which he sung

DOUBT.....16

002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,
 057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
 139.00A.038 He will perplex security with doubt,
 139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:

148.00A.041 Seeke not in seeking new, to seeme to doubt,
 153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see
 153.00A.221 Left safe from present warre, and likely doubt
 155.00a.014 But succour'd then with a perplexed doubt,
 155.00a.205 And new Philosophy cal's all in doubt,
 156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
 158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,
 178.NY3.013 But in thy tender iealosity dost doubt

DOUBTFULL.....4

012.00A.022 Doth with doubtfull melodious murmuring,
 155.00a.043 But as in states doubtfull of future heyres,
 158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
 183.00A.005 Whose first and last concurre; this doubtfull day

DOUBTFULNESSE.....1

066.00A.030 To Schoolemen I bequeath my doubtfulness;

DOUBTS.....3

137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you,'and shew you good,
 158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,

DOVE.....3

039.00A.022 And wee in us finde the'Eagle and the dove,
 107.00A.006 The Lirique Larke, and the grave whispering Dove,
 179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove

DOVE-LIKE.....1

021.00G.030 To vex my Dove-like friend for my amiss:

DOVER.....1

002.00A.078 From Scots, to Wight; from Mount, to Dover strand.

DOVES.....1

107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,

DOW.....1

142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmelessenes we see,

DOWN.....3

131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 153.00A.081 As when an Angell down from heav'n doth flye,
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

DOWNE.....31

011.00A.022 Sits downe, and snorts, cag'd in his basket chaire,

012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
 046.00A.004 Did we lie downe, because 'twas night?
 050.00A.048 My love descend, and journey downe the hill,
 103.00A.003 As Katherine, for the Courts sake, put downe Stewes.
 106.00A.005 Like to a grave, the yielding downe doth dint;
 106.00A.058 But gallop lively downe the Westerne hill;
 108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes brest
 108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,
 111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,
 131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 152.12a.049 As, for the Earth throw'n lowest downe of all,
 153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.382 In the due birth-time, downe the balmy showre.
 158.00A.355 And t'hide himselfe from shame and danger, downe
 158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
 158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,
 158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possest a new.
 172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,
 187.00A.006 Downe by her cheekes along, and none of all
 187.00A.109 6 Like to a garden hedge he hath cast downe
 187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe
 187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee
 187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,
 187.00A.248 50 Untill the Lord looke downe from heaven to see.

155.00a.256 Such diuers downe-right lines, such ouerthwarts,

DOWNEWARD.....2

109.00A.016 Downeward againe; and so when it did view
 181.00A.053 Crosse those dejections, when it downeward tends,

DOWNEWARDS.....1

181.00A.052 Pants downwards, and hath palpitation.

DOWNWARD.....1

131.00B.011 But, as from extreme hights who downward looks,

DOWNY.....1

158.00A.185 All downy a new mantle overspreads,

DRAMME.....2

112.00A.061 A dramme of Countries dulnesse; do not adde
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,

DRAW.....21

003.00A.027 Which cryes not, Goddesses, to thy Mistresse, draw,
 004.00A.042 Are strong enough preparatives, to draw
 009.00A.010 Enforc'd, Sanserra's starved men did draw
 022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forget? signe to breake?
 024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.
 040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
 048.00A.006 All other things, to their destruction draw,
 055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
 058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,
 066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
 124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
 140.00A.037 On him; for Man into himselfe can draw
 145.00A.020 To make abridgments, and to draw to lesse,
 155.00a.222 To draw, and fasten sundred parts in one;
 158.00A.006 From infant morne, through manly noone I draw.
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,
 174.00B.014 And thou like Adamant draw mine iron heart.
 187.00A.277 3 Even the Sea-calfes draw their brests, and give 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,

DRAWES.....7

002.00A.087 In parchment then, large as his fields, hee drawes
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 024.00A.003 Verse that drawes Natures workes, from Natures law,
 108.00A.004 Natures instinct drawes to the warmer clime
 110.00A.023 Onely the Calenture together drawes
 150.00A.007 In a rude hunger now hee millions drawes
 187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturue

DRAWING.....3

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly
 010.00A.060 By drawing in a leprous harlots breath,
 011.00A.005 Drawing his breath, as thick and short, as can

DRAWNE.....4

024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
 109.00A.004 By Hilliard drawne, is worth an history,
 127.00A.005 And hether by kinde nature drawne from thence,
 145.00A.018 And drawne their sound gold-ingot into wyre;

DRAWS.....1

029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,

DREAD.....4

008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?

008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjuror,

009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,

018.00B.055 Augure me better chance, except dread love

DREADFULL.....1

167.00A.002 Mighty and dreadfull, for, thou art not soe,

DREAM.....1

021.00G.028 And I left wealthy only in a dream.

DREAME.....11

018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,

032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.

035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,

057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,

057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,

057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.

057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.

057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.

059.00A.011 So, lovers dreame a rich and long delight,

061.00A.017 May he dreame Treason, and beleeve, that hee

122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,

DROP.....10

004.00A.095 A Sembriefe, 'twixt each drop, he nigardly,

021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,

060.00A.022 Except in that drop which it suckt from thee?

069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe

109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,

136.00A.025 This, as an Amber drop enwraps a Bee,

153.00A.048 That drop, which I looked on, is presently

160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,

183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,

187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,

DROPPINGS.....1

002.00A.082 And barrelling the droppings, and the snuffe,

DROPS.....3

009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.

009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets

135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.

DROPSIE.....1

109.00A.055 With a salt dropsie clog'd, and all our tacklings

DROPSY.....1

178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.

DROPT.....1

081.HH5.046 then inck dropt on mudd or raine on grasse

DROSSE.....1

062.00A.056 Nor are drosse to us, but allay.

DROSSIE.....2

 161.00A.011 As fire these drossie Rymes to purifie,

DROVE.....2

039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove
 158.00A.444 He, as his dam, from sheepe drove wolves away,

DROWN.....1

021.00G.083 And dearest Friend, since we must part, drown night

DROWN'D.....7

005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 026.00A.003 My picture drown'd in a transparent teare,
 039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drown'd.
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:
 184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.

DROWND.....2

082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.

DROWND'.....1

157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,

DROWNE.....9

004.00A.239 Drowne the sinnes of this place, for, for mee
 005.00A.030 Whose meades her armes drowne, or whose corne o'rflow.
 012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye
 017.00A.041 When Belgiaes citties, the round countries drowne,
 058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,
 123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quench'd by it
 149.00A.012 We, after Gods Noe, drowne the world againe.
 166.00A.012 And drowne in it my sinnes blacke memorie,
 175.00B.008 Drowne my world with my weeping earnestly,

DROWNES.....1

005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do

DROWNING.....2

005.00A.091 And div'st, neare drowning, for what vanished.
 086.00A.002 But drowning, could be rescued from the flame,

DROWSIE.....3

155.00a.368 And liueliest stones but drowsie, and pale to her,)

DRUNKE.....4

026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
 187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,

DRUNKENNESSE.....1

187.00A.343 This cup shall passe, and thou with drunkennesse

DRVRI.....2

DUCTILE.....1

141.00A.027 Soft dispositions which ductile bee,

DUCTILNESS.....1

020.00G.012 The ductilness, the application,

DUE.....17

015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,
 015.00G.046 There is no pennance due to innocence:
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
 148.00A.017 And do all honour: and devotion due;
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,
 155.00a.382 In the due birth-time, downe the balmy showre.
 155.00a.458 In reuerence to her, doe thinke it due,
 155.00a.467 Such an opinion (in due measure) made
 158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may have.
 158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne
 162.00A.001 As due by many titles I resigne
 171.00A.005 I, like an usurpt towne, to'another due,

DULL.....9

001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 031.00A.013 Dull sublunary lovers love
 035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 082.00A.016 From dull privations, and leane emptinesse
 111.00A.024 Are but dull Moralls of a game at Chests.
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 158.00A.045 Spirit-quenching sicknesse, dull captivitie,

DULL'D.....3

012.00A.037 My minde to scorne; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,

DULNESSE.....2

079.00B.020 A kinde of sorrowing dulnesse to the minde.
 112.00A.061 A dramme of Countries dulnesse; do not adde

DULY.....1

106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;

DUMBE.....4

010.00A.052 Even my opprest shoes, dumbe and speechlesse were,
 131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnesse that struck man dumbe,
 153.00A.137 Whose voice, the Bell, doth rattle, or grow dumbe,
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,

DUNG.....2

112.00A.017 Can dung, and garlike be'a perfume? or can 136.00A.012 By despis'd dung, then by the fire or Sunne.

DUNGEON.....1

187.00A.251 Like a bird chac'd me. 53 In a dungeon

DUNGEONS.....1

003.00A.020 Dar'st thou dive seas, and dungeons of the earth?

DUNGHILLS.....1

187.00A.288 Sit and embrace the dunghills which they loath'd.

DUNKIRKERS.....1

004.00A.126 Doe with the Pirates share, and Dunkirkers.

DURABLE.....1

081.HH5.008 thy faith seemd bright & durable as brasse

DURST.....9

 110.00A.036 Of Ants, durst th'Emperours lov'd snake invade,
 112.00A.044 Durst looke in themselves, and themselves retrive,
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 180.NY3.009 I durst not view heauen yesterday; & to day
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I

DURT.....1

185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne

DURTY.....2

017.00A.042 That durdy foulnesse guards, and armes the towne:
 161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles durdy slime,

DUSKIE.....1

155.00a.356 Duskie, and like an oft dyed garment showes.

DUST.....16

004.00A.203 Feathers and dust, wherewith they fornicate.

005.00A.019 The excrements, which they voyd; all men are dust,
 005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
 009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.
 014.NY3.020 To dust and ashes turnd before my time.
 108.00A.153 Are dust, and wormes, 'tis just
 108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;
 110.00A.018 Feathers and dust, to day and yesterday.
 139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,
 149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.
 184.00A.020 Am, but of mudde walls, and condensed dust,
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
 187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;
 187.00A.220 Deepe in the dust, yet then in hope he staves.
 189.00B.032 Seemes richly placed in sublimed dust;

DUTCH.....2

003.00A.017 Dar'st thou ayd mutinous Dutch, and dar'st thou lay
 018.00B.042 Nor spungy hydroptique Dutch shall thee displease,

DUTIES.....5

005.00A.039 All demands, fees, and duties; gamsters, anon
 013.00A.020 Thou art not by so many duties his,
 036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee
 125.00A.007 You doe not duties of Societies,
 184.00A.144 Our mutuall duties, Lord deliver us.

 003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell
 004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.
 008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee
 014.NY3.023 Or in a Cloyster; save that ther men dwell
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 020.00G.058 The Rhemora her cleaving tongue doth dwell.

108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 111.00A.003 That vice doth here habitually dwell.
 112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
 112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there
 112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
 148.00A.030 Returne to dwell with you, of whom they were;
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 153.00A.093 Just as a perfect reader doth not dwell,
 156.00a.018 In such a house, dwell in an Elegie?
 158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 167.00A.010 And doth with poyson, warre, and sicknesse dwell.
 170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,
 182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,

DWELLING.....2

109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 184.00A.240 By dwelling lazily

DWELLINGS.....2

151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 187.00A.094 All Jacobs dwellings, and demolished

DWELLS.....6

020.00G.030 With Pluto dwells, where gold and fire abound,
 024.00A.013 Dwells with me still mine irksome Memory,
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,

DWELS.....5

003.00A.058 Which dwels with us, is onely perfect, hee
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 137.00A.031 Yet to that Deity which dwels in you,
 157.00b.171 Bedded and Bath'd in all his Ordures, dwels

DWELT.....3

025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
 140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon
 192.00B.020 Whether where laphet dwelt, or Cham, or Sem.

DY.....2

014.NY3.028 Into an other World, as t'is to dy?

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.

DY'D.....2

148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;

154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,

DY'DE.....1

155.00a.116 Compar'd with man, dy'de in minoritee.

DYALL.....1

066.00A.051 Then a Sun dyall in a grave,

DYE.....31

001.00A.004 In prison, and here be coffin'd, when I dye;

005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.

010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,

024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,

029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,

039.00A.026 Wee dye and rise the same, and prove

039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,

042.00A.006 Must dye at last, 'tis best,

042.00A.008 Thus by fain'd deaths to dye;

043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye

043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,

077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,

077.00A.020 Love-slaine, loe, here I dye.

109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.

110.00A.028 Where walkers in hot Ovens, doe not dye.

117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.

128.LR1.003 Respectiue frendship should so quickly dye?

146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?

150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee

152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee

155.00a.291 Of their wish'd iourneys end, the bottom, dye.

156.00a.076 For mariage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.

181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?

184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,

184.00A.086 In Abel dye, and ever since

184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,

185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;

185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?

187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,

187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;

187.00A.301 9 Better by sword then famine 'tis to dye;

DYED.....6

043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye
 064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
 077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 155.00a.356 Duskie, and like an oft dyed garment showes.
 168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.

DYES.....5

022.00A.047 And after all selfe torment, when hee dyes,
 032.00A.019 What ever dyes, was not mixt equally;
 110.00A.046 Is paid with life, or pray, or doing dyes.
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.

DYEST.....1

150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,

DYET.....3

004.00A.176 Baloune, Tennis, Dyet, or the stewes,
 130.00A.017 Provide you manlyer dyet, you have seene
 134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here

DYETING.....1

095.NY3.004 A sallet, worse then Spanish dyeting.

DYING.....10

049.00A.066 For dying men talke often so.
 066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.
 079.00B.004 Worship, as Atheists at their dying houre
 147.00B.006 Dying, of you doe beg a Legacie.
 150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
 153.00A.024 Doth practice dying by a little sleepe,
 155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
 184.00A.179 Deliver us from death, by dying so,

 024.00A.019 For, if we justly call each silly man
 027.00A.010 Each fish, which every channell hath,
 032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 054.00A.025 And though each spring doe adde to love new heate,
 058.00A.014 So doth each teare,
 062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
 069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe
 069.00A.026 Belongs unto each woman, then
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,
 079.00B.024 Nature decreed (since each such Act, they say,
 079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 106.00A.046 Alwaies, all th'other may each one possesse;
 107.00A.087 Or each is both, and all, and so
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 110.00A.026 Each one, his owne Priest, and owne Sacrifice.
 112.00A.020 (O knottie riddle) each is worst equally.
 112.00A.030 Each elements qualities were in the'other three;
 131.00B.041 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd,
 131.00B.089 Each good in you's a light; so many a shade
 135.B13.002 Perfuminge and enamelinge each bow
 135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each brest
 135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,
 135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
 145.00A.062 So did I humbly reverence each degree
 153.00A.098 Each severall vertue, but the compound good.
 153.00A.132 Doth each mismotion and distemper feele,
 155.00a.198 Wronging each ioynt of th'vniuersall frame.
 157.00b.239 And to each seuerall man, to him, and him,
 187.00A.272 Scattered in corners of each street do lye.

 108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
 122.00A.024 Which as the Earth betweene the Moone and Sun
 123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire
 131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime
 131.00B.040 Water declin'd with earth, the ayre did stay,
 131.00B.098 With earth, and for mans ease, but nearer joyn'd.
 138.00A.038 And bids the passive earth about it runne,
 138.00A.041 As dead low earth eclipses and controules
 141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,
 145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
 145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,
 147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie
 148.00A.028 Her flesh rests in the earth, as in the bed;
 148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,

150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
 151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,
 151.00A.058 Earth too, will be a Lemnia; and the tree
 152.12a.049 As, for the Earth throw'n lowest downe of all,
 152.12a.057 Sustains in vs, Earth; which Griefs animate:
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe
 153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.
 155.00a.285 But keepes the earth her round proportion still?
 155.00a.348 Swadling the new-borne earth, God seemd to like,
 155.00a.383 Th'Ayre doth not motherly sit on the earth,
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,
 156.00a.042 It selfe into the earth, and after comes,
 156.00a.106 To see how well, the good play her, on earth.
 157.00b.154 (For they're in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 157.00b.312 Here vpon Earth, to such perfection,
 157.00b.388 Here vpon earth? what permanent effect
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.439 Double on Heauen, thy thoughts on Earth emloid;
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 182.00A.009 Whose body having walk'd on earth, and now
 184.00A.007 From this red earth, O Father, purge away
 184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth
 187.00A.091 To earth the beauty of Israel, and hath
 187.00A.148 Joy of the earth, and perfectest of all?
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;

EARTH-QUAKE.....1

 110.00A.019 Earths hollownesses, which the worlds lungs are,
 115.00A.010 Of him, at least in this earths habitation:
 120.00A.010 Heavens liberall and earths thrice-faire Sunne,
 165.00A.001 At the round earths imagin'd corners, blow
 182.00A.006 On the earths face, as thou, enlightned hell,

EASE.....22

006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 036.00A.027 Thine age asks ease, and since thy duties bee
 059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
 074.00A.017 As yet my ease, and comfort is,
 075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.
 108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part
 112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
 119.NY3.009 Of Poets, that methinks should ease our anguish,
 129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.
 131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
 131.00B.075 The honesties of love with ease I doe,
 131.00B.098 With earth, and for mans ease, but nearer joyn'd.
 138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnessse, plenty, bid it goe,
 146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
 151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement grieve hath beene
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,

EASELESSE.....1

078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;

EASIE.....5

003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare
 108.00A.112 And open wide their easie liquid jawe
 112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,

EAST.....13

006.00D.032 The East sends hither her deliciousnesse;
009.00A.003 As the Almighty Balme of th'early East,
020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;
106.00A.001 The Sun-beames in the East are spred,
108.00A.038 And make our Court an everlasting East.
108.00A.111 The passage of the West or East would thaw,
109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
155.00a.230 Guilt the West Indies, and perfum'd the East;
158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,
183.00A.021 (As in plaine Maps, the furthest West is East)
185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.
192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East

EASTER.....1

143.00A.007 This season as 'tis Easter, as 'tis spring,

EASTERNE.....1

192.00B.017 The Easterne riches? Is Ierusalem?

EASTS.....1

108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,

 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 022.00A.049 Swine eate his bowels, and his falsen tongue
 053.00A.023 And when hee hath the kernell eate,
 125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 150.00A.006 Plants, cattell, men, dishes for Death to eate.
 158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
 158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate

 045.00A.028 'Twixt womens love, and mens will ever bee.
 049.00A.003 Which, ever since that charme, hath beene
 050.00A.008 But now they're gold oft tried, and ever new.
 061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes
 065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
 067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
 086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came
 106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
 107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
 108.00A.219 Fire ever doth aspire,
 108.00A.231 What ever celebrates this Festivall
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was

 158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.
 184.00A.003 Thou madest, and govern'st ever, come
 184.00A.086 In Abel dye, and ever since
 187.00A.184 In darke, as they who dead for ever bee.
 187.00A.223 31 For, not for ever doth the Lord forsake,
 187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.
 187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,
 187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne

188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nere know cares,
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haies.
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,
 188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 188.00E.008 Nor thy word, ever mild, know quarrelling.
 188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,
 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:
 191.00B.001 Eternall God, (for whom who ever dare

EVERY.....77

001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,
 002.00A.047 His title of Barrister, on every wench,
 002.00B.069 And to every suitor lye in every thing,
 002.00B.069 And to every suitor lye in every thing,
 003.00A.026 Canst thou for gaine beare? and must every hee
 004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 006.00D.072 For every peece is as much worth as all.
 008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,
 008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 009.00A.015 Round as the world's her head, on every side,
 013.00A.014 To every suitor; I, if my friends agree .
 016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
 017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.
 020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every sphear
 027.00A.010 Each fish, which every channell hath,
 032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.
 036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;
 038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
 041.00A.025 And since my love doth every day admit
 041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
 050.00A.041 Whose every tooth to a severall place is gone,
 051.00A.004 Receive such balmes, as else cure every thing,
 055.00A.003 At Court your fellowes every day,

064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend
067.00A.010 Through every part,
068.00A.003 And seene thy birth, and seene what every houre
068.00A.023 To your eyes, eares, and tast, and every part.
081.HH5.018 which takinge heate from every amorous Eye
081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
082.00A.012 For I am every dead thing,
106.00A.020 By you, fit place for every flower and jewell,
107.00A.005 Thou marryest every yeare
108.00A.026 At every glance, a constellation flies,
108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,
108.00A.155 Let every Jewell be a glorious starre,
108.00A.188 For every part to dance and revell goes.
108.00A.213 But must forthwith surrender every part,
112.00A.049 And seeinge the snaile, which every where doth rome,
113.00A.029 Giddily and bee every where, but at home,
115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.
131.00B.064 Is sport for every girle to practise on.
131.00B.127 Love that imparts in every thing delight,
134.00A.021 In every thing there naturally growes
137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
138.00A.061 First seeds of every creature are in us,
140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,
140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,
150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.
153.00A.056 Because God knowes where every Atome lyes;
153.00A.094 On every syllable, nor stay to spell,
153.00A.096 And lay together every A, and B;
153.00A.109 In the most large extent, through every path,
153.00A.131 Though as small pocket-clocks, whose every wheele
153.00A.140 Or be not set, or set at every will;
153.00A.228 With Tutelar Angels, sent to every one.
154.00A.006 Bee so? if every severall Angell bee
158.00A.033 For every thing, who, where wee of-spring tooke,
158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing
158.00A.426 At last a trap, of which some every where
158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,
158.00A.507 Of every past shape, she knew treachery,
158.00A.519 Of every quality comparison,
160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,

164.00A.008 Whose feare already shakes my every joynt:
 181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,
 183.00A.046 And in my life retaile it every day.
 184.00A.096 In every Christian
 185.00A.005 And being by others hurried every day,
 187.00A.209 23 For every morning they renewed bee,

012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye
 012.00A.040 Death in thy cheekes, and darknesse in thine eye;
 013.00A.004 The mystique language of the eye nor hand:
 015.00G.037 That when a fools eye lighteth on a Jem,
 020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 024.00A.023 But thy right hand, and cheek, and eye, only
 024.00A.024 Are like thy other hand, and cheek, and eye.
 026.00A.001 I fixe mine eye on thine, and there
 026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
 032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 045.00A.014 And fixe it selfe in thy lip, eye, and brow.
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock
 049.00A.010 And cleare reflects thee to thine eye.
 074.00A.002 Which on an eye, cheeke, lip, can prey,
 081.HH5.018 which takinge heate from every amorous Eye
 107.00A.031 Takest warmth enough, and from thine eye
 108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;
 108.00A.118 When his eye as inflaming is
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 109.00A.003 Part of our passage; And, a hand, or eye
 116.00A.005 Watch motions of the givers hand or eye,
 131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,
 131.00B.049 Both sigh'd and enterchang'd a speaking eye,
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 131.00B.117 There is an equall distance from her eye,
 133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye
 137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.
 153.00A.047 And, as if on a streame I fixe mine eye,
 153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye
 156.00a.004 Priz'd with the Chrysolite of eyther eye,
 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 181.00A.007 Who from the picture would avert his eye,
 181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 187.00A.245 48 With water rivers doth mine eye oreflow

187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,
 187.00A.249 51 And for my city daughters sake, mine eye

EYE-LIDS.....1

003.00A.002 Those teares to issue which swell my eye-lids,

EYES.....83

001.00A.029 That when thou meet'st one, with enquiring eyes
 003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazling, yet plaine to all eyes;
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,
 012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee,'and spie
 015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 021.00G.042 And over all thy husbands trowing eyes
 021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through
 021.00G.062 Strain his eyes open, and yet make them bleed.
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,
 025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,
 027.00A.006 Warm'd by thy eyes, more then the Sunne.
 027.00A.024 Bewitch poore fishes wandring eyes.
 030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.
 031.00A.020 Care lesse, eyes, lips, hands to misse.
 036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,
 037.00A.006 Her who still weepes with spungie eyes,
 039.00A.041 Into the glasses of your eyes
 048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,
 050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 051.00A.003 And at mine eyes, and at mine eares,
 051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
 052.00A.041 Who though from heart, and eyes,
 053.00A.015 And to all eyes it selfe betrayes,
 057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
 062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,
 062.00A.011 And pictures in our eyes to get
 065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
 066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,
 066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,

068.00A.023 To your eyes, eares, and tast, and every part.
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;
 107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
 108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
 108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,
 108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
 108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.
 108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
 137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
 142.00A.057 So to present the roome twice to our eyes,
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes, 153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than 154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)
 155.00a.229 Steward to Fate; shee whose rich eyes, and brest,
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.316 As to our eyes, the formes from obiects flow:
 156.00a.067 But as when Heau'n lookes on vs with new eyes,
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
 158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes
 158.00A.477 He gazeth on her face with teare-shot eyes,
 160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he
 165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,
 170.00A.005 Teares in his eyes quench the amasing light,
 174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might
 176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes
 187.00A.328 Desiring our vaine helpe, consume our eyes:
 187.00A.380 Over our eyes a cloudy dimnesse is.
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,

EYTHER.....4

081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 155.00a.266 And fright him backe, who els to eyther Pole,
 156.00a.004 Priz'd with the Chrysolite of eyther eye,
 156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,

 055.00A.031 This face, which wheresoe'r it comes,
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,
 107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;
 109.00A.012 Honour and misery have one face and way.)
 112.00A.054 Upon the waters face; nor in the deepe
 135.B13.025 In Auchos calme face wee your smoothnes see,
 137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face

148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
 148.00A.012 And wee your rich Tombe in her face had seene;
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 155.00a.300 Are these but warts, and pock-holes in the face
 157.00b.216 Heauen is as neare, and present to her face,
 157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
 157.00b.453 His face, in any naturall Stone, or Tree,
 158.00A.477 He gazeth on her face with teare-shot eyes,
 164.00A.007 But my'ever-waking part shall see that face,
 168.00A.001 Spit in my face you Jewes, and pierce my side,
 182.00A.006 On the earths face, as thou, enlightned hell,
 184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,
 187.00A.323 16 For this they are scattered by Jehovahs face
 187.00A.372 Nor honours gave they to the Elders face.
 189.00B.015 And as new crowned Kings alter the face,
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 192.00B.024 As the first Adams sweat surrounds my face,

FACE'D.....1

020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?

FACES.....4

029.00A.030 A hundred lesser faces, so
 032.00A.016 And true plaine hearts doe in the faces rest,
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 181.00A.033 As perchance, Carvers do not faces make:

FACT.....1

157.00b.285 Of vnconcerning things, matters of fact;

FACTA.....3

186.00E.006 Finibus extensis, anchora facta patet.
 186.00E.010 Crux, et ab Affixo, est Anchora facta, Iesu.
 195.010.014 NEC ADEO SIBIMET COENOBIVM FACTA, VT SE SOCIETATI DENEGARET,

FACTOR.....1

134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,

FACTVM.....1

195.010.010 IDEOQUE CORPVS INTACTVM, QVA FACTVM EST INTEGRITATE,

FACULTIES.....5

062.00A.066 T'affections, and to faculties,
 155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;

158.00A.334 And like a Prince she sends her faculties
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,
 183.00A.023 How well the Church, Gods Court of faculties

FAEMINAE.....1

197.F01.006 Faeminae Lectissimae, dilectissimaeque;

FAIERY.....1

010.00A.027 Thy little brethren, which like Faiery Sprights

FAIGN'D.....1

018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;

FAILE.....5

008.00B.098 Thy Countrey, and faile both of it and thy pay.
 079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,
 158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,

FAIN'D.....2

028.00A.005 And thee fain'd vestall in worse armes shall see;
 042.00A.008 Thus by fain'd deaths to dye;

FAIND.....1

158.00A.214 With faind calls, his nets, or enwrapping snare

FAINE.....14

003.00A.035 Thee faine, his whole Realme to be quit; and as
 004.00A.009 To Masse in jest, catch'd, was faine to disburse
 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,
 155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
 158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine have slain
 171.00A.009 Yet dearely 'I love you', and would be lov'd faine,

FAINES.....1

158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,

FAINT.....8

005.00A.051 Heavy and most faint; and in these labours they,
 020.00G.052 Not faint Canaries, but Ambrosiall.
 030.00B.019 If our loves faint, and westwardly decline;
 131.00B.025 Else from his slipperie soule with a faint groane,
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 155.00a.071 A faint weake loue of vertue and of good
 187.00A.130 Are faint with weeping: and my liver lies
 187.00A.164 Which, faint for hunger, in the streets doe lye.

FAINTED.....1

187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there

FAINTER.....1

190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;

FAINTLY.....2

131.00B.094 In you, but our dimme actions faintly shew.
 153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,

FAIR.....1

020.00G.066 Shall at her fair Atlantick Naval stay;

FAIRE.....60

003.00A.005 Is not our Mistresse faire Religion,
 003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 009.00A.024 Or Joues best fortunes urne, is her faire brest.
 017.00A.023 She's faire as any, if all be like her,
 017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be
 017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.
 018.00B.013 Temper, o faire Love, loves impetuou rage,
 018.00B.023 Faire Orithea, whom he swore he lov'd.
 018.00B.041 As Lots faire guests were vext. But none of these
 019.00A.017 That which in him was faire and delicate,
 022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?
 024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
 024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
 024.00A.021 Thou art not soft, and cleare, and strait, and faire,
 033.00A.018 Lives a woman true, and faire.
 035.00A.002 Whose faire impression in my faithfull heart,
 037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
 050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 056.00A.015 Who e'r rigg'd faire ship to lie in harbors,
 056.00A.017 Or built faire houses, set trees, and arbors,
 079.00B.011 But, from late faire
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,

106.00A.002 Leave, leave, faire Bride, your solitary bed,
 106.00A.023 So may shee faire and rich, in nothing lame,
 106.00A.037 Thy two-leav'd gates faire Temple unfold,
 107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,
 107.00A.033 Up, up, faire Bride, and call,
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 108.00A.201 Therefore thou maist, faire Bride, to bed depart,
 110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,
 112.00A.066 Of France, and faire Italies faithlesnesse,
 123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire
 129.00A.006 From his Originall, and a faire beame
 130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
 137.00A.049 Yet not as consecrate, but merely'as faire;
 138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 145.00A.051 How faire a prooffe of this, in our soule growes?
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,
 154.00A.013 Faire mirth is damp't, and conversation black,
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 154.00A.031 And if, faire soule, not with first Innocents
 155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:
 155.00a.228 Of all faire copies; and the generall
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 156.00a.085 How faire and chaste, humble and high shee'ad beene,
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,
 158.00A.081 Prince of the orchard, faire as dawning morne,
 184.00A.037 For that faire blessed Mother-maid,
 184.00A.048 Native in heavens faire Palaces
 184.00A.051 Yeelds faire diversitie,

FAIRER.....3

015.00G.006 But a far fairer world encompassing.
 145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,
 157.00b.314 (In a far fairer print,) but read the same:

FAIRES.....1

006.00D.044 Home-manufactures to thicke popular Faires,

FAIREST.....2

005.00A.028 Greatest and fairest Empresse, know you this?

044.00A.011 The fairest woman, but thy ghost,

FAIRIES.....1

107.00A.068 Like Fairies, till the Cock crow them away.

FAIRONT.....1

007.006.001 Qvot, dos haec, Linguists perfecti, Disticha fairont,

FAITH.....32

003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare

012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall

016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,

052.00A.015 There, the faith of any ground

063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,

066.00A.019 My faith I give to Roman Catholiques;

073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.

081.HH5.008 thy faith seemd bright & durable as brasse

081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne

096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I

096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;

108.00A.065 As, for divine things, faith comes from above,

112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,

113.00A.014 May cloth them with faith, and deare honestie,

134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,

134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.

134.00A.008 My faith, as I beleeve, so understand.

134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,

134.00A.016 And rest on what the Catholique faith doth teach;

135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,

139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,

140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow, 'or reason chaw.

142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,

142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.

152.12a.004 And Reason is That Centre; Faith is This.

157.00b.150 Title to Heauen, and plead it by his Faith,

158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew

158.00A.267 To make the wether thinne, and airelike faith

158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.

160.00A.058 Hee faith in some, envie in some begat,

184.00A.029 Bones to Philosophy, but milke to faith,

184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.

FAITHFULL.....8

008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;

035.00A.002 Whose faire impression in my faithfull heart,

106.00A.085 Even like a faithfull man content,

113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in

148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
 157.00b.461 Who by a faithfull confidence, was here
 160.00A.019 Loe, faithfull Virgin, yeelds himselfe to lye
 177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd

FAITHFULLY.....4

070.00A.023 First, we lov'd well and faithfully,
 131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.
 155.00a.049 The Cyment which did faithfully compact
 181.00A.061 Then doth the Crosse of Christ worke faithfully

FAITHLESNESSE.....1

112.00A.066 Of France, and faire Itales faithlesnesse,

FAITHLESSE.....1

012.00A.013 Into my Purgatory, faithlesse thee,

FAITHS.....2

052.00A.033 Faiths infirmitie, they chuse
 160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he

FAL.....1

108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.

FALL.....53

008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:
 012.00A.042 As nations do from Rome, from thy love fall.
 014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.
 016.00A.003 Yea though thou fall backe, that apostasie
 017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 018.00B.024 Fall ill or good, 'tis madnesse to have prov'd
 018.00B.054 Assail'd, fight, taken, stabb'd, bleed, fall, and die.
 020.00G.051 Upon the Islands fortunate we fall,
 021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,
 029.00A.025 Yet nothing can to nothing fall,
 041.00A.004 Nor can intreat one other teare to fall.
 041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
 042.00A.018 That if good fortune fall,
 056.00A.018 Only to lock up, or else to let them fall?
 061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
 067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall
 069.00A.029 Numbers are odde, or even, and they fall
 070.00A.012 If this fall in a time, or land,
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 087.00A.002 A too-bold Captaine perish'd by the fall,
 090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haire doe fall.
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall

108.00A.024 From which all Fortunes, Names, and Natures fall;
 108.00A.204 As he that sees a starre fall, runs apace,
 134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,
 141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,
 142.00A.029 Religions find faults, and forgive no fall,
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 150.00A.041 As houses fall not, though the King remove,
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 152.12a.050 'Twere an Ambition to desire to fall:
 153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.
 155.00a.097 Except they headlong come, and fall vpon
 155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall
 157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,
 157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;
 158.00A.327 Flyer and follower, in this whirlepoole fall;
 158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.
 183.00A.008 Shee sees a Cedar plant it selfe, and fall,
 183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,
 184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall
 187.00A.158 Therefore, O walls of Sion, let teares fall
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part

FALLACIES.....1

157.00b.295 And see all things despoild of fallacies:

FALLEN.....1

187.00A.349 1 Remember, O Lord, what is fallen on us

FALLING.....2

033.00A.001 Goe, and catche a falling starre,
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:

FALLOWNESSE.....1

113.00A.003 So'affects my muse now, a chast fallownesse.

FALLS.....4

010.00A.062 Falls on us, to be call'd effeminate;

058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
 107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
 107.00A.048 Falls not on such things as are infinite,

FALNE.....6

008.00B.071 So in the first falne angels, resteth still
 068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.
 187.00A.237 42 Wee have rebell'd, and falne away from thee,
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe

FALS.....1

155.00a.345 As gold fals sicke being stung with Mercury,

FALSE.....20

004.00A.015 As vaine, as witlesse, and as false as they
 022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 025.00A.005 And false passions,
 025.00A.024 Or prove as false as thou art now.
 028.00A.010 And in false sleepe will from thee shrinke,
 033.00A.027 False, ere I come, to two, or three.
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.
 046.00A.015 The poore, the foule, the false, love can
 048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
 060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;
 112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
 149.00A.015 Teares are false Spectacles, we cannot see
 158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.
 187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.
 187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 190.00A.025 On Fame, Wit, Hopes (false mistresses) to thee.

FALSE-CONCEPTIONS.....1

155.00a.386 And false-conceptions fill the generall wombs.

FALSEHOOD.....2

034.00A.012 For having purpos'd change, and falsehood; you
 034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?

FALSER.....1

022.00A.049 Swine eate his bowels, and his falsere tongue

FALSHOOD.....8

003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
 069.00A.019 Falshood in woman, I could more abide,
 081.HH5.042 of ill to thine; nor can falshood whett
 081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare
 112.00A.034 Falshood is denizon'd. Virtue is barbarous.
 130.00A.041 Let falshood like a discord anger you,

FALSIFIE.....1

055.00A.009 To falsifie a teare, or sigh, or vow,

FALSIFIES.....1

137.00A.020 And falsifies both computations so;

FALSIFY'D.....1

069.00A.020 She were by art, then Nature falsify'd.

FALSLY.....1

030.00B.020 To me thou, falsly, thine,

FALST.....1

058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,

FALT.....1

021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,

FAME.....13

061.00A.012 Of conscience, but of fame, and bee
 066.00A.005 My tongue to Fame; to'Embassadours mine eares;
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,
 108.00A.102 No Epitaph, which might advance my fame
 139.00A.014 Preserve fraile transitory fame, as much
 139.00A.057 But for your fame, a discreet warinesse,
 141.00A.015 By vertues beames by fame deriv'd from you,
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 154.00A.029 For, as in his fame, now, his soule is here,
 184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,
 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.
 190.00A.025 On Fame, Wit, Hopes (false mistresses) to thee.

FAMILIA.....1

196.015.026 ILLVSTRI FAMILIA BACON ORIVNDA,

FAMILIAR.....2

002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee
 133.00A.050 Nor to make my selfe her familiar;

FAMILIARLY.....1

006.00D.025 Homely and familiarly, when thou com'st back,

FAMILIE.....1

146.00A.013 As wee for him dead: though no familie

FAMILIES.....1

189.00B.028 That Gentry should joyne families with it?

FAMINE.....2

187.00A.301 9 Better by sword then famine 'tis to dye;

187.00A.367 10 The tempests of this famine wee liv'd in,

FANCIES.....1

032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.

FANCY.....3

049.00A.058 Into thy fancy, from the pane.

053.00A.006 As wee shall finde our fancy bent.

080.00E.003 Never shall my fancy move,

FANE.....1

138.00A.014 Here Peter loves, there Paul have Dian's Fane.

FANTASIE.....1

158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie

FANTASTICALL.....2

035.00A.014 For, all our joyes are but fantasticall.

145.00A.030 A monster, or at best fantasticall:

FANTASTICK.....1

078.00D.006 To knit our loves in the fantastick straine

FANTASTIQUE.....3

001.00A.010 Giddie fantastique Poets of each land.

108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part

180.NY3.013 Like a fantastique Ague: Save that here

FANTASY.....1

157.00b.292 Of being taught by sense, and Fantasy?

FAR.....16

006.00D.009 Infinite worke, which doth so far extend,

006.00D.020 To be far greater than the mother nose?
 006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:
 015.00G.006 But a far fairer world incompassing.
 020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can
 021.00G.052 Spok dialogues with our feet far from our words?
 031.00A.030 Yet when the other far doth rome,
 064.00a.016 His vast prerogative, as far as Jove.
 106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
 126.00A.017 Be far from me that strange Adulterie
 131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.314 (In a far fairer print,) but read the same:
 157.00b.422 Was far to little, to haue beene the Base;

FARA.....1

007.006.002 Tot cuerdos States-men, hic liure fara tuus .

FARDEST.....1

091.NY3.001 If you from spoyle of th' old worlds fardest end

FARE.....1

011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare

FAREWEL.....1

129.00A.014 With glad grieffe, to your Sea-ward steps, farewel,

FAREWELL.....2

019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;

111.00A.026 Therefore I end; and bid farewell a while,

FARJ.....1

197.F01.012 (Quod hoc saxum farj iussit

FARR.....1

014.NY3.037 There Engines farr of breed a iust trew feare,

FARRE.....26

002.00A.072 Bearing like Asses, and more shamelesse farre
 004.00A.124 Perpetuities of them, lasting as farre
 005.00A.038 Injustice is sold deerer farre; allow
 024.00A.063 And so be change, and sicknesse, farre from thee,
 027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.
 031.00A.012 Though greater farre, is innocent.
 052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 062.00A.028 And part farre purer then he came.

062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre
 108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 110.00A.003 The fable is inverted, and farre more
 131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
 131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.
 141.00A.044 And as a vertuous Prince farre off, to mee.
 141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
 141.00A.052 As Counsels, and as farre th'endeavour raise.
 153.00A.239 Yet I am farre from daring to dispute
 155.00a.160 And with new phisicke, a worse Engin farre.
 156.00a.044 For many leagues,) farre greater then it was,
 158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 183.00A.028 (Because it straves not farre) doth never stray;
 187.00A.063 To comfort mee, is now departed farre,
 187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine

FARTHER.....3

092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.
 108.00A.052 Of creatures, and man need no farther looke;
 131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.

FARTHEST.....1

069.00A.025 Ten is the farthest number, if halfe ten

FARTHING.....1

004.00A.139 To the last farthing; Therefore to my power

FASCE.....1

186.00E.001 Qvi prius assuetus Serpentum fasce Tabellas

FASHION.....7

002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 004.00A.068 My lonelinesse is, but Spartanes fashion,
 004.00A.221 Call a rough carelesnesse, good fashion;
 017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.
 073.00A.008 I'am cheap, & nought but fashion, fling me'away.
 079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so
 108.00A.209 By a new fashion, or apparrells change,

FASHION'D.....1

002.00A.007 Though like the Pestilence and old fashion'd love,

FASHIONED.....2

001.00A.061 What fashioned hats, or ruffes, or suits next yeare

184.00A.008 All vicious tinctures, that new fashioned

FASHIONS.....3

003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 018.00B.034 Spittles of diseases, shops of fashions,
 025.00A.004 Such forc'd fashions,

FAST.....17

035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 062.00A.006 With a fast balme, which thence did spring,
 107.00A.054 And that you're one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure
 137.00A.038 Esteeme religions, and hold fast the best,
 139.00A.017 Creates in them, but dissipates as fast,
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.212 Strings fast the little bones of necke, and backe;
 158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
 158.00A.262 Once innocence scap'd, and left the oppressor fast;
 158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast
 158.00A.504 Are ravel'd out, and fast there by one end,
 174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,
 183.00A.006 Of feast or fast, Christ came, and went away;
 184.00A.211 And Apoplexies of fast sin, may die;
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast

FASTEN.....1

155.00a.222 To draw, and fasten sundred parts in one;

FASTER.....3

020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can
 152.12a.063 Is th'other Centre, Reason, faster, then?
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?

FASTS.....2

002.00A.106 Carthusian fasts, and fulsome Bachanalls
 158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.

FAT.....5

065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,
 068.00A.035 Mee fresher, and more fat, by being with men,
 125.00A.009 View your fat Beasts, stretch'd Barnes, and labour'd fields,
 127.00A.014 As suddenly as Lard, fat thy leane beasts;
 158.00A.294 Fat gluttonies best orator: at last

FATALL.....4

009.00A.016 Like to the fatall Ball which fell on Ide,

018.00B.001 BY our first strange and fatall interview
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.

FATE.....21

003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?
 062.00A.013 As 'twixt two equall Armies, Fate
 110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay
 111.00A.010 In this worlds warfare, they whom rugged Fate,
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 128.LR1.010 with bodies deale, as fate bids or restreynes
 137.00A.053 Purge but the booke of Fate, that it admit
 152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee
 153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,
 155.00a.229 Steward to Fate; shee whose rich eyes, and brest,
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.
 156.00a.102 Of fate and her, for filling vp their blanks.
 157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.245 Fate not affording bodies of more worth
 160.00A.063 Whose creature Fate is, now prescribe a Fate,
 160.00A.063 Whose creature Fate is, now prescribe a Fate,
 167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,

FATES.....3

005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 109.00A.011 (For, Fates, or Fortunes drifts none can Southsay,
 158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw

FATHER.....18

001.00A.056 Name her child's right true father, 'mongst all those:
 003.00A.071 And the right; aske thy father which is shee,
 010.00A.006 By thy Hydroptique father catechiz'd.
 010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country's heaven, & God her father,
 155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,
 155.00a.380 The father, or the mother barren is.
 157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,
 157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;
 158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
 158.00A.436 Sonne to himselfe, and father too, hee is
 172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,

173.00A.001 Father, part of his double interest
 184.00A.001 Father of Heaven, and him, by whom
 184.00A.007 From this red earth, O Father, purge away
 184.00A.HE3 The Father.

FATHERLY.....1

161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme

FATHERS.....11

002.00A.090 Are Fathers of the Church for writing lesse.
 003.00A.011 Us in the end, and shall thy fathers spirit
 010.00A.029 And kist, and ingled on thy fathers knee,
 010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.
 010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
 018.00B.007 I calmely beg. But by thy fathers wrath,
 155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.
 160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,
 177.00B.002 As Angels, then my fathers soule doth see,
 187.00A.354 As Orphans all, and without fathers be;
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,

FATNES.....1

009.00A.012 Which were with any soveraigne fatnes blest,

FATTEN.....2

012.00A.002 Whom honours smoakes at once fatten and sterve;
 106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;

FAULT.....6

131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 152.12a.075 At a much deader Fault must Reason bee,
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.

FAULTS.....9

065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
 108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament
 130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.
 133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,
 142.00A.029 Religions find faults, and forgive no fall,
 153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.
 153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye
 155.00a.329 And that, not onely faults in inward parts,
 158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betrayed

FAUSTUS.....2

102.SN3.001 Faustus keeps his sister and a whore,102.SN3.002 Faustus keeps his sister and no more,

FAVORITE.....3

002.00B.070 Like a Kings favorite, or like a King.012.00A.010 Favorite in Ordinary, or no favorite bee.012.00A.010 Favorite in Ordinary, or no favorite bee.

FAVORITES.....3

004.00A.047 Out-flatter favorites, or outlie either021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,048.00A.001 All Kings, and all their favorites,

FAVOUR.....4

065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,108.00A.023 The Princes favour is defus'd o'r all,133.00A.040 Of favour, she alone, to them doth make.153.00A.029 And I discern by favour of this light,

FAVOURED.....1

001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]

FAVOURITES.....1

021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.

FAVOURS.....4

076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all108.00A.083 To them, in him, because his favours bend143.00A.005 That thankfullnesse your favours have begot

FAWKERS.....1

065.00A.028 And now as other Fawknars use,

FAWNE.....1

001.00A.023 Wilt thou grin or fawne on him, or prepare

FAYR.....1

014.NY3.004 O fayr free City, maist thy selfe allow

FAYRIES.....1

155.00a.142 The Fayries, and the Pigmies well may passe

FEAR.....1

021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear

FEAR'D.....5

004.00A.003 A Purgatorie, such as fear'd hell is
 109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)
 187.00A.173 22 As to a solemne feast, all whom I fear'd

FEARE.....40

003.00A.015 To follow, damn'd? O if thou dar'st, feare this.
 003.00A.016 This feare great courage, and high valour is;
 004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare
 004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?
 014.NY3.037 There Engines farr of breed a iust trew feare,
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;
 034.00A.006 Or, that oathes made in reverentiall feare
 037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?
 042.00A.013 Then feare not mee,
 061.00A.008 With feare of missing, shame of getting torne;
 081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 109.00A.052 With hideous gazing to feare away feare.
 109.00A.052 With hideous gazing to feare away feare.
 116.00A.001 Pregnant again with th'old twins Hope, and Feare,
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 133.00A.023 Or, because majesty doth never feare
 135.B13.024 and saue vs from the feare of Autumns stinge.
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 142.00A.025 So cloysterall men, who, in pretence of feare
 157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
 157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare
 158.00A.316 Swimme in him swallowed Dolphins, without feare,
 158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
 158.00A.479 Her kidskinne apron without feare or awe
 160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,
 164.00A.008 Whose feare already shakes my every joynt:
 178.NY3.011 And dost not only feare least I allow
 180.NY3.011 To morrow I quake with true feare of his rod.
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne

193.00A.018 I feare no more.

FEARE'S.....1

057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;

FEAREFULL.....1

009.00A.045 Doth not thy fearefull hand in feeling quake,

FEAREFULNESSE.....1

131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnessse that struck man dumbe,

FEARES.....12

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

004.00A.154 Who feares more actions, doth hast from prison;

004.00A.196 She feares her drugs ill laid, her haire loose set;

009.00A.046 As one which gath'ring flowers, still feares a snake?

022.00A.016 Sprinkled among, (all sweeter by our feares

026.00A.010 My picture vanish'd, vanish feares,

031.00A.009 Moving of th'earth brings harmes and feares,

041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,

042.00A.036 And may thy feares fulfill,

048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,

060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;

158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,

FEARING.....2

010.00A.020 And fearing least thou'art swolne, doth thee embrace;

156.00a.056 Fearing the last fires hastning to subdue

FEAST.....9

022.00A.051 And let his carrion coarse be a longer feast

065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see

107.00A.065 The feast, with gluttonous delaies,

108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,

108.00A.184 The tables groane, as though this feast

151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,

155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,

183.00A.006 Of feast or fast, Christ came, and went away;

187.00A.173 22 As to a solemne feast, all whom I fear'd

FEASTS.....4

106.00A.070 Are other labours, and more dainty feasts;

127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,

158.00A.250 Weaknesse invites, but silence feasts oppression.

187.00A.111 And Sions feasts and sabbaths are forgot;

FEATHER'D.....1

189.00B.022 Art thou new feather'd with coelestiall love?

FEATHER-BED.....1

107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.

FEATHERS.....4

001.00A.055 As are black feathers, or musk-colour hose,

004.00A.203 Feathers and dust, wherewith they fornicate.

110.00A.018 Feathers and dust, to day and yesterday.

158.00A.182 On whose raw armes stiffe feathers now begin,

FEAVER.....2

044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?

044.00A.020 To fuell such a feaver long.

FEAVEROUSLY.....1

013.00A.008 Desperately hot, or changing feaverously.

FEBRE.....1

197.F01.011 Immani febze correptae,

FEBREM.....1

196.015.018 V, ANTE FEBREM, QVA CORREPTVS ANNIS (IDQUE PERENNITER) EROGAT

FED.....10

048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;

061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,

076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,

116.00A.009 And thy poore starveling bountifully fed.

136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,

157.00b.055 The World is but a Carkas; thou art fed

158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not throughly arm'd

178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, '& thou my thirst hast fed,

187.00A.042 And they have given, only to be fed,

187.00A.285 5 They which before were delicately fed,

FEDST.....1

157.00b.161 Thou fedst vpon, And drewst into thee, both

FEE.....2

005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,

005.00A.068 And lack a fee for comming; Oh, ne'r may

FEEBLE.....2

042.00A.017 O how feeble is mans power,

174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste

FEED.....10

018.00B.025 Dangers unurg'd; Feed on this flattery,
 019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tastes seemes tough.
 065.00A.005 Give it a diet, made it feed upon
 140.00A.007 And now his beasts on one another feed,
 155.00a.187 And that except thou feed (not banquet) on 155.00a.354 Yet sight hath onely color to feed on,
 156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpon
 158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 169.00A.008 Whose whole kinde, you might swallow & feed upon?

FEEDE.....1

119.NY3.006 We take new harts for it to feede vpon.

FEEDS.....3

153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
 158.00A.360 And (his owne dole) feeds with himselfe all companies.

FEEL.....2

021.00G.018 And view old Chaos in the Pains we feel?
 152.12a.002 For, both my Centres feel This Period.

FEELE.....11

061.00A.011 And may he feele no touch
 108.00A.046 Enlarging narrow men, to feele and see,
 108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
 110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
 131.00B.027 I cannot feele the tempest of a frowne,
 151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
 153.00A.132 Doth each mismotion and distemper feele,
 155.00a.248 Feele this consuming wound, and ages darts.
 155.00a.379 Or that the Elements doe not feele this,
 158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
 189.00B.008 Toucht with a Loadstone, dost new motions feele?

FEELING.....4

009.00A.045 Doth not thy fearefull hand in feeling quake,
 024.00A.032 A mutuall feeling which should sweeten it.
 155.00a.047 So mankind feeling now a generall thaw,
 158.00A.502 The tender well arm'd feeling braine, from whence,

FEES.....3

005.00A.039 All demands, fees, and duties; gamsters, anon
 005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be
 109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,

FEET.....10

008.00B.037 Which, as the soule quickens head, feet and heart,
 010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 021.00G.052 Spok dialogues with our feet far from our words?
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 156.00a.025 The Officers for hands, Merchants for feet
 157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
 158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;
 184.00A.070 In rythmique feet, in common pray for mee,
 187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,

FEETE.....1

115.00A.004 Feete and a reasoning soule and tongue to speake.

FEIGN'D.....1

011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,

FEIGNE.....1

177.00B.012 Dissemblers feigne devotion. Then turne

FELICITIE.....1

177.00B.003 And adds this even to full felicitie,

FELL.....11

009.00A.016 Like to the fatall Ball which fell on Ide,
 014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
 154.00A.023 So fell our Monasteries, in one instant growne
 170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell
 187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold
 187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell
 187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.
 191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon

001.00A.003 Consorted with these few bookes, let me lye
 004.00A.070 Now; Aretines pictures have made few chast;
 004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
 011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,
 043.00A.020 It was intire to none, and few had part.
 113.00A.004 Since shee to few, yet to too many'hath showne
 141.00A.024 But now amass'd, contracted in a few.
 150.00A.034 Reserve but few, and leaves the most to thee.
 150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne
 153.00A.079 So to exhibit in few yeares as much,
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,

FEW-FELLOWES.....1

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.

 052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) Homer did finde, and name.
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 052.00A.047 May of their occupation finde the grounds,
 052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.
 053.00A.006 As wee shall finde our fancy bent.
 058.00A.024 Example finde,
 059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;
 063.00A.008 To cut it can finde none.
 068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.
 068.00A.039 There, to another friend, whom wee shall finde
 069.00A.008 I walke to finde a true Love; and I see
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 071.00A.023 Your passive valor, and you shall finde than,
 079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall
 109.00A.014 Which at th'ayres middle marble roome did finde
 131.00B.062 And journeys not till it finde summer-way.
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 131.00B.104 But soule we finde too earthly to ascend,
 131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde
 137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.
 139.00A.006 I summe the yeares, and mee, and finde mee not
 140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 143.00A.024 May in lesse lessons finde enough to doe,
 145.00A.064 From having found their walkes, to finde their home.
 145.00A.075 The first whom we in Histories doe finde
 153.00A.006 Thou finde that any way is pervious,
 154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
 155.00a.255 Men to finde out so many Eccentrique parts,
 156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
 157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spungy slack Diuine
 158.00A.265 And suck in aire, or finde it underneath,
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,

158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same
 158.00A.034 you shall finde in the end of this booke.
 172.00A.009 And as a robb'd man, which by search doth finde
 187.00A.152 Expected, and which now we finde, and see.
 189.00B.006 Affected since the vintage? Dost thou finde
 192.00B.023 Looke Lord, and finde both Adams met in me;

FINDER.....1

008.00B.091 But o thou wretched finder whom I hate

FINDERS.....1

008.00B.058 And gall the finders conscience; if hee meet.

FINDES.....7

059.00A.020 Which he in her Angelique findes,
 108.00A.205 And findes a gellie in the place,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 131.00B.054 Findes but the place, after, the nearest way:
 131.00B.060 And findes it selfe allow'd, ere it desire.
 136.00A.015 God findes, then in Te Deums melodie.
 142.00A.050 Where it findes sympathie and matter too,

FINDING.....1

107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?

FINDS.....1

157.00b.203 Who finds in Mars his Campe, no corps of Guard;

FINDST.....1

033.00A.019 If thou findst one, let mee know,

FINE.....5

001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,
 004.00A.083 Are not your Frenchmen neate? Fine, as you see,
 004.00A.142 Me to pay a fine to scape his torturing,
 004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine
 156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set

FINEST.....1

187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?

FINFULL.....1

182.00A.016 Of power to make even finfull flesh like his.

FINGERS.....4

009.00A.034 The short swolne fingers of her gouty hand ;

062.00A.063 Because such fingers need to knit
 073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
 158.00A.143 Into ten lesser strings, these fingers were:

FINIBUS.....1

186.00E.006 Finibus extensis, anchora facta patet.

FINISHED.....1

158.00A.434 This wolfe begot himselfe, and finished

FINNES.....2

158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
 158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,

FINNIE.....1

158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,

FINNY.....1

110.00A.037 The crawling Gallies, Sea-goales, finny chips,

FIR'D.....1

110.00A.012 As lead, when a fir'd Church becomes one spout.

FIRE.....54

003.00A.021 Hast thou couragious fire to thaw the ice
 008.00B.045 Having by subtle fire a soule out-pull'd;
 008.00B.047 I would not spit to quench the fire they'are in,
 008.00B.082 Vnto the fire these Martyrs I betray.
 009.00A.035 Then like the Chymicks masculine equall fire,
 020.00G.014 From rust, from soil, from fire ever free:
 020.00G.030 With Pluto dwells, where gold and fire abound,
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
 021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 024.00A.001 VVhere is that holy fire, which Verse is said
 024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poetique fire;
 044.00A.013 O wrangling schooles, that search what fire
 052.00A.013 To all whom loves subliming fire invades,
 072.00A.009 My fire of Passion, sighes of ayre,
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
 077.00A.015 Or like the heat, which, fire in solid matter
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.
 108.00A.031 And from their jewels torches do take fire,
 108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 108.00A.108 Yet thou art rescu'd by a mightier fire,

108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
 108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
 108.00A.219 Fire ever doth aspire,
 108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 124.00A.014 With these Articulate blasts to blow the fire.
 131.00B.041 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd,
 131.00B.059 Man's better part consists of purer fire,
 131.00B.112 And leave his nature to converse with fire:
 136.00A.012 By despis'd dung, then by the fire or Sunne.
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
 148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stuffe, as God, when his last fire
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 155.00a.206 The Element of fire is quite put out;
 155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 157.00b.193 For th'Element of fire, shee doth not know,
 157.00b.265 Of Ayre, and Fire, and other Elements?
 158.00A.243 Till melted with the Swans digestive fire,
 161.00A.011 As fire these drossie Rymes to purifie,
 165.00A.005 All whom the flood did, and fire shall o'erthrow,
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 184.00A.027 Fire, Sacrifice, Priest, Altar be the same.
 184.00A.057 More in the cloud, then wee in fire,
 184.00A.120 Warm'd with one all-partaking fire
 187.00A.049 13 That fire, which by himselfe is governed
 187.00A.100 But is towards Iacob, All-devouring fire.
 187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
 187.00A.307 Kindled a fire in Sion, which hath power

FIRED.....2

009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,
 086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way

FIRES.....15

003.00A.024 Children in th'oven, fires of Spaine, and the line,
 021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
 024.00A.010 But that is waxe, and fires environ it.
 024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
 107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
 108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 136.00A.018 As fires from th'earths low vaults in Sicil Isle.
 145.00A.005 That his disshevel'd beames and scattered fires
 156.00a.056 Fearing the last fires hastning to subdue

157.00b.076 By vertue, and vertue by religious fires,
 158.00A.494 Like Chimiques equall fires, her temperate wombe
 182.00A.007 And made the darke fires languish in that vale,
 182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.
 184.00A.022 Halfe wasted with youths fires, of pride and lust,

FIRMAMENT.....12

020.00G.028 And firmament, our Cupid is not there:
 044.00A.024 Are unchangeable firmament.
 054.00A.017 As, in the firmament,
 108.00A.028 In light and power, the all-ey'd firmament;
 138.00A.068 Two new starres lately to the firmament;
 141.00A.007 Whose motion with the firmament agrees,
 142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament
 149.00A.008 Our waters, then, above our firmament.
 155.00a.210 When in the Planets, and the Firmament
 155.00a.258 The Firmament in eight and fortie sheeres,
 157.00b.206 At once is at, and through the Firmament.
 158.00A.320 To joyne our seas, with seas above the firmament.

FIRME.....6

049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;
 114.00A.007 Like infancie or age to mans firme stay,
 117.00A.004 Yet as a firme house, though the Carpenter
 158.00A.176 Thoughtlesse of change, when her firme destiny
 158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;

FIRMELY.....1

062.00A.005 Our hands were firmely cimented

FIRMER.....1

156.00a.046 Her, greater, purer, firmer, then before?

FIRMEST.....1

139.00A.022 Reason and likelihood, the firmest Base,

FIRMNES.....1

031.00A.035 Thy firmnes makes my circle just,

FIRMNESS.....1

020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.

FIRMNESSE.....1

049.00A.002 Doth contribute my firmnesse to this glasse,

FIRST.....139

001.00A.013 First swear by thy best love in earnest
 001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne
 001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all
 002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes
 003.00A.007 As vertue was in the first blinded age?
 004.00A.209 As a young Preacher at his first time goes
 005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw
 008.00B.012 From the first state of their Creation;
 008.00B.071 So in the first falne angels, resteth still
 008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;
 009.00A.021 Like the first Chaos, or flat seeming face
 010.00A.033 He that to barre the first gate, doth as wide
 015.00G.047 To teach thee I am naked first, why than
 018.00B.001 BY our first strange and fatall interview
 020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
 020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw
 029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
 029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.
 030.00B.016 As the first were made to blinde
 035.00A.024 For even at first lifes Taper is a snuffe.
 048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:
 048.00A.010 But truly keeps his first, last, everlasting day.
 050.00A.007 Were her first yeares the Golden Age; That's true,
 053.00A.007 If then at first wise Nature had,
 055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
 057.00A.014 (For thou lovest truth) an Angell, at first sight,
 060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
 062.00A.054 Did us, to us, at first convey,
 062.00A.058 But that it first imprints the ayre,
 062.00A.060 Though it to body first repaire.
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 070.00A.023 First, we lov'd well and faithfully,
 071.00A.011 First kill th'enormous Gyant, your Disdaine,
 072.00A.002 To their first Elements resolve;
 076.00A.001 For the first twenty yeares, since yesterday,
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand
 082.00A.029 Of the first nothing, the Elixer grown;
 107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,
 107.00A.110 That opens first a curtaine, hers or his;
 108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires
 108.00A.020 The first doth governe dayes, the other nights.
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 108.00A.130 First, cheerfull Bridegroome, and first let mee see,
 108.00A.130 First, cheerfull Bridegroome, and first let mee see,

108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 108.00A.141 Thou in first rising should'st allow for it,
 108.00A.212 Therefore at first shee modestly might start,
 109.00A.031 And what at first was call'd a gust, the same
 110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,
 112.00A.029 As in the first Chaos confusedly
 112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld
 130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
 131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.
 131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdaine.
 131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,
 131.00B.053 As all discoverers whose first assay
 131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 131.00B.120 From the first Rayes, to his last opposite:
 134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,
 134.00A.031 The first good Angell, since the worlds frame stood,
 135.B13.027 that keepe vntoucht her first virginite.
 136.00A.003 And creaturelesse at first, himselfe had none;
 136.00A.037 Natures first lesson, so, discretion,
 138.00A.061 First seeds of every creature are in us,
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 143.00A.011 First I confesse I have to others lent
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
 145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thanks, that they
 145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
 145.00A.075 The first whom we in Histories doe finde
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 150.00A.010 Eating the best first, well preserv'd to last.
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 154.00A.031 And if, faire soule, not with first Innocents
 155.00a.105 For that first mariage was our funerall:
 155.00a.137 For had a man at first, in Forrests stray'd,
 155.00a.195 It seis'd the Angels: and then first of all
 155.00a.199 The noblest part, man, felt it first; and than
 155.00a.201 So did the world from the first houre decay,
 155.00a.227 Shee that was best, and first originall

155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,
 155.00a.447 Accept this tribute, and his first yeares rent,
 156.00a.043 (Hauing first made a naturall bridge, to passe
 157.00b.075 Shee that first tried indifferent desires
 157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
 157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;
 157.00b.162 My second soule of sence, and first of growth.
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.257 Thou neither knowst, how thou at first camest in,
 157.00b.366 Euery first motion of rebellious pride:
 157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.
 158.00A.078 Where first grew the forbidden learned tree,
 158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive
 158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,
 158.00A.187 As his late house, and the first houre speaks plaine,
 158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught
 158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.
 158.00A.406 Was the first type) was still infested soe,
 158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.
 158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
 158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
 158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
 158.00A.510 Sister and wife to Caine, Caine that first did plow.
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 160.00A.011 The first last end, now zealously possest,
 160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,
 160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,
 160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,
 179.NY3.010 first trauaile we to seeke & then make Love?
 183.00A.005 Whose first and last conurre; this doubtfull day
 184.00A.106 Should keep, as they, our first integrity;
 184.00A.158 And through thy poore birth, where first thou
 185.00A.008 For their first mover, and are whirld by it.
 191.00B.009 These Psalmes first Author in a cloven tongue;
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,
 191.00B.052 (Learn'd the first hower, that we see the King,
 192.00B.024 As the first Adams sweat surrounds my face,

157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.

FISH.....21

027.00A.007 And there th'inamor'd fish will stay,
 027.00A.010 Each fish, which every channell hath,
 027.00A.019 Or treacherously poore fish beset,
 027.00A.022 The bedded fish in banks out-wrest,
 027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
 061.00A.027 What Plants, Myne, Beasts, Foule, Fish,
 150.00A.014 Where harmelesse fish monastique silence keepe.
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.235 And with his arched necke this poore fish catch'd.
 158.00A.244 She left her house the fish, and vapour'd forth;
 158.00A.247 T'another fish, to any new desire
 158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,
 158.00A.276 The seely fish where it disputing lay,
 158.00A.281 Is any kinde subject to rape like fish?
 158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,
 158.00A.299 The fish I follow, and keepe no calender
 158.00A.301 Into an embrion fish, our Soule is throwne
 158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
 158.00A.321 He hunts not fish, but as an officer,
 158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,
 158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,

FISHERS.....1

158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,

FISHES.....6

027.00A.024 Bewitch poore fishes wandring eyes.
 110.00A.024 Deare friends, which meet dead in great fishes jawes:
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 158.00A.223 T'a brooke; a female fishes sandie Roe
 158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,
 158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.

FIT.....43

004.00A.091 Crossing hurt mee; To fit my sullenesse,
 004.00A.118 Either my humour, or his owne to fit,
 004.00A.217 For saying of our Ladies psalter; But 'tis fit
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
 039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.
 039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
 050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
 064.00a.011 His office was indulgently to fit

066.00A.044 Who thinkes her friendship a fit portion
 106.00A.020 By you, fit place for every flower and jewell,
 106.00A.021 Make her for love fit fewell
 108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;
 129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:
 129.00A.022 Honour alone will to your fortune fit;
 129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here
 145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,
 146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content
 149.00A.055 How fit for us, how even and how sweet,
 151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 153.00A.038 Things, in proportion fit by perspective,
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 155.00a.128 Fit to be made Methusalem his page?
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.460 As matter fit for Chronicle, not verse,
 157.00b.098 Thy Physicke; chide the slacknesse of the fit.
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
 158.00A.188 And chirps alowd for meat. Meat fit for men
 158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
 181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
 186.00E.008 Anchora fit tandem Crux tolerata diu.
 186.00E.014 Pestis; At in nostra fit Medicina Cruce,
 187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit

FITLIEST.....1

052.00A.060 Sun, or starres, are fitliest view'd

FITLY.....1

158.00A.072 If (as devout and sharpe men fitly guesse)

FITLY'ND.....1

155.00a.333 Be not done fitly'nd in proportion,

FITNESSE.....1

138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnesse, plenty, bid it goe,

FITS.....4

044.00A.021 These burning fits but meteors bee,
 129.00A.031 Which fits them (Schooles and Courts and warres o'rpast)
 155.00a.020 And so the world had fits; it ioy'd, it mournd.
 184.00A.166 And interrupted evennesse, with fits,

FITTED.....1

158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,

FITTER.....3

042.00A.004 A fitter Love for mee,
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 092.NY3.003 A fitter Piller our Earle did bestow

FITTEST.....1

017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,

FITTS.....1

180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away

FIVE.....5

039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,
 069.00A.022 With thy true number five;
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 108.00A.107 And should'st within five dayes expire
 158.00A.446 Five yeares he liv'd, and cosened with his trade,

FIX'D.....1

049.00A.034 Fix'd in the starres, are said to flow,

FIXA.....2

186.00E.015 Serpens; fixa Cruci si sit Natura; Crucique
 186.00E.017 Omnia cum Crux sint, Crux Anchora fixa, sigillum

FIXE.....5

026.00A.001 I fixe mine eye on thine, and there
 045.00A.014 And fixe it selfe in thy lip, eye, and brow.
 139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 153.00A.047 And, as if on a streame I fixe mine eye,
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayes therefore on this one,

FIXO.....1

186.00E.016 A fixo, nobis, Gratia tota fluat.

FIXT.....4

021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?
 031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
 037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?

157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit

FLAGGONS.....1

004.00A.236 Living barrells of beefe, flaggons of wine.

FLAILE-FIND.....1

158.00A.351 The flaile-find Thresher, and steel-beak'd Sword-fish

FLAME.....8

022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;

045.00A.003 So in a voice, so in a shapelesse flame,

064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,

086.00A.002 But drowning, could be rescued from the flame,

107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame

161.00A.001 See Sir, how as the Suns hot Masculine flame

184.00A.024 Double in my heart thy flame,

184.00A.153 From thirst, or scorne of flame, deliver us.

FLAMES.....3

021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?

081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne

175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,

FLANDERS.....1

014.NY3.005 To any one: In Flanders, who tan tell

FLASKE.....1

029.00A.008 I saw a flaske of powder burne a day?

FLASKS.....1

082.00A.003 The Sunne is spent, and now his flasks

FLAT.....4

009.00A.021 Like the first Chaos, or flat seeming face

142.00A.019 For when through tastlesse flat humilitie

158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,

192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne

FLATNED.....1

158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.

FLATT.....1

192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,

FLATTER.....1

141.00A.057 And if I flatter any, 'tis not you

FLATTERERS.....2

004.00A.182 Those hose are, cry the flatterers; And bring
 012.00A.005 As those Idolatrous flatterers, which still

FLATTERIE.....1

024.00A.051 Likenesse begets such strange selfe flatterie,

FLATTERIES.....3

131.00B.084 That youngest flatteries doe scandall it.
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,

FLATTERING.....3

012.00A.032 In flattering eddies promising retorne,
 097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, Phryne, is like thee,
 180.NY3.010 In prayers, & flattering Speaches I court God:

FLATTERY.....4

018.00B.025 Dangers unurg'd; Feed on this flattery,
 137.00A.063 Tast of Poetique rage, or flattery,
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 142.00A.062 My true devotion, free from flattery;

FLAVO.....1

186.00E.022 Regia qui flavo Dona sigillat Equo.

FLEA.....5

060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
 060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
 060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,
 060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
 060.00A.021 Wherein could this flea guilty bee,

FLEA'S.....1

060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.

FLED.....12

003.00A.044 Thinking her unhous'd her, and fled from us,
 010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.
 121.NY3.014 Pleasure, now fled from London, to retrive.
 141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
 158.00A.097 Astray, from turning, to whence we are fled.
 158.00A.124 Life, and growth to this apple, fled away
 158.00A.222 The Soule from her too active organs fled
 158.00A.449 From dogges, a wolfe; from wolves, a dogge he fled;

163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 187.00A.321 They fled, and strayd, and with the Gentiles were,

FLEET.....2

108.00A.057 In the Indian fleet, because thou hast
 109.00A.017 How in the port, our fleet deare time did leese,

FLEETS.....3

108.00A.006 In numerous fleets, saile through their Sea, the aire.
 131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde
 158.00A.133 As aire from water, water fleets away

FLESH.....25

003.00A.040 Flesh (it selfe death) and joyes which flesh can taste,
 003.00A.040 Flesh (it selfe death) and joyes which flesh can taste,
 003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 045.00A.008 Takes limmes of flesh, and else could nothing doe,
 148.00A.028 Her flesh rests in the earth, as in the bed;
 149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.
 149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stuffe, as God, when his last fire
 153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.
 157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threds,
 158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
 160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
 160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
 164.00A.014 For thus I leave the world, the flesh the devill.
 168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so
 174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste
 182.00A.016 Of power to make even finfull flesh like his.
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)
 184.00A.038 Whose flesh redeem'd us; That she-Cherubin,
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,

FLESHE.....1

178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.

FLESHLY.....1

160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee

FLEW.....2

158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew

158.00A.489 After the Ape, who, thus prevented, flew,

FLIE.....4

004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch

012.00A.018 Amorously twinkling, beckens the giddie flie,

016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,

158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into

FLIES.....7

027.00A.023 Or curious traitors, sleevesicke flies

106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,

110.00A.045 Stagge, dogge, and all which from, or towards flies,

151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,

157.00b.183 And freely flies: This to thy soule allow,

158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she

158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,

FLIGHT.....2

158.00A.448 Himselfe by flight, and by all followed,

164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,

FLING.....3

053.00A.024 Who doth not fling away the shell?

073.00A.008 I'am cheap, & nought but fashion, fling me'away.

140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,

FLINGS.....2

001.00A.107 And like light dew exhal'd, he flings from mee

049.00A.044 Flings ope this casement, with my trembling name,

FLINT.....1

151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;

FLINTIE.....1

112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall

FLOAT.....1

158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,

FLOATE.....1

158.00A.022 The Church, and all the Monarchies did floate;

FLOATING.....2

155.00a.288 The floating Moone would shipwracke there, and sink?

158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,

FLOCKE.....2

158.00A.409 The flocke so neere, so well warnes and defends,
 158.00A.423 If to the flocke he come, and Abell there,

FLOCKS.....2

004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found
 158.00A.331 Now drinks he up seas, and he eates up flocks,

FLOOD.....8

082.00A.022 Of all, that's nothing. Oft a flood
 108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.
 153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 157.00b.027 Yet a new Deluge, and of Lethe flood,
 165.00A.005 All whom the flood did, and fire shall o'erthrow,
 166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,
 190.00A.003 What sea soever swallow mee, that flood

FLORA.....1

106.00A.022 As gay as Flora, and as rich as Inde;

FLORA'HERSELFE.....1

108.00A.008 Whil'st Flora'herselfe doth a freeze jerkin weare?

FLOUT.....2

011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,
 039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,

FLOUTS.....2

004.00A.171 With us, at London, flouts our Presence, for
 012.00A.033 She flouts the channell, who thenceforth is drie;

FLOW.....15

005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw
 016.00A.019 Though Danuby into the sea must flow,
 030.00B.010 Disguises did, and shadowes, flow,
 049.00A.034 Fix'd in the starres, are said to flow,
 049.00A.057 In superscribing, this name flow
 062.00A.043 That abler soule, which thence doth flow,
 062.00A.059 For soule into the soule may flow,
 136.00A.007 So from low persons doth all honour flow;
 136.00A.047 Religions tipes, the peelesse centers flow,
 141.00A.045 To whom, because from you all vertues flow,
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?
 155.00a.316 As to our eyes, the formes from obiects flow:
 157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;
 157.00b.407 But since all honors from inferiors flow,
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,

FLOW'D.....1

187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am

FLOWE.....1

152.12a.005 For, into our Reason flowe, and there doe end,

FLOWEN.....4

072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flowen before

157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen

158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast

158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast

FLOWER.....7

068.00A.001 Little think'st thou, poore flower,

069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower

069.00A.023 And women, whom this flower doth represent,

106.00A.020 By you, fit place for every flower and jewell,

135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,

160.00A.008 A crowne of Glory, which doth flower alwayes;

184.00A.237 That beauty, paradises flower

FLOWERS.....6

003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell

009.00A.046 As one which gath'ring flowers, still feares a snake?

012.00A.015 So, carelesse flowers strow'd on the waters face,

013.00A.010 Of flowers, how they devisefully being set

106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,

145.00A.040 The third daies fruits, and flowers, and various greene

FLOWERY.....1

127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,

FLOWES.....1

157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now

FLOWINGS.....1

153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,

FLOWRES.....1

095.NY3.003 Like Nabuchadnezar perchance with gras & flowres

FLOWRY.....1

015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.

FLUAT.....1

186.00E.016 A fixo, nobis, Gratia tota fluat.

FLUID.....2

153.00A.043 For fluid vertue cannot be look'd on,
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;

FLUNG.....2

022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,
 187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.

FLY.....3

014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
 121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.
 136.00A.036 They fly not from that, nor seeke presidence.

FLYE.....5

039.00A.020 Call her one, mee another flye,
 065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 153.00A.081 As when an Angell down from heav'n doth flye,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye

FLYER.....1

158.00A.327 Flyer and follower, in this whirlepoole fall;

FLYES.....1

108.00A.026 At every glance, a constellation flies,

FOE.....18

003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou
 003.00A.037 So the worlds selfe, thy other lov'd foe, is
 006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
 015.00G.003 The foe oft-times having the foe in sight,
 015.00G.003 The foe oft-times having the foe in sight,
 021.00G.046 Had correspondence whilst the foe stood by?
 158.00A.387 And foe to none, suspects no enemies,
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)
 187.00A.036 O Lord my affliction, for the Foe growes bold.
 187.00A.038 The foe hath stretch'd his hand, for shee hath seene
 187.00A.064 The foe prevailes, forlorne my children are.
 187.00A.102 His right hand was in posture of a foe,
 187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe
 187.00A.311 That any adversary, any foe
 187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,

FOES.....22

003.00A.030 To thy foes and his (who made thee to stand
 017.00A.040 Safe to thy foes; yea, to a Marmosit.
 061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;
 066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;
 086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 158.00A.413 The counsels, or to breake the plots of foes,
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgivenessse for his foes fierce spight?
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.
 187.00A.067 That lacobs foes girt him. Ierusalem
 187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
 187.00A.114 His Sanctuary, and in the foes hands rests
 187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
 187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare
 187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.
 187.00A.279 By reason of the foes great cruelnesse,

FOGGIE.....1

158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw

FOLDS.....1

188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.

FOLLOW.....15

001.00A.012 And follow headlong, wild uncertaine thee?
 003.00A.015 To follow, damn'd? O if thou dar'st, feare this.
 005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
 089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 115.00A.012 Infections follow, overtake, and meete:
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
 155.00a.004 It see, and ludge, and follow worthinesse,
 158.00A.299 The fish I follow, and keepe no calender
 158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
 187.00A.268 Follow, and from under heaven destroy them quite.
 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye

FOLLOW'D.....1

155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:

FOLLOWED.....1

158.00A.448 Himselfe by flight, and by all followed,

FOLLOWER.....1

158.00A.327 Flyer and follower, in this whirlepoole fall;

FOLLOWES.....2

001.00A.094 He followes, overtakes, goes on the way,004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.

FOME.....1

158.00A.053 It selfe; for I will through the wave, and fome,

FOMES.....1

201.20a.043 22 Sit Morbi Fomes tibi

FOMING.....1

108.00A.132 And his red foming horses dost outrunne,

FOND.....1

011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,

FONDLING.....1

001.00A.001 Away thou fondling motley humorist,

FONT.....1

155.00a.033 For as a child kept from the Font, vntill

FOOD.....10

008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,139.00A.040 And so increase your appetite and food;140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.155.00a.188 The supernaturall food, Religion,158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought158.00A.280 It's rais'd, to be the Raisers instrument and food.169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,

FOOL.....1

080.00E.015 Nor a fool for when others,

FOOLE.....12

001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 004.00A.090 Into an edge, hurts worse: So, I foole found,
 004.00A.228 Jeasts like a licenc'd foole, commands like law.
 005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee
 005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand
 036.00A.001 Busie old foole, unruly Sunne,
 108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
 114.00A.016 A monster and a begger, am a foole.
 140.00A.003 The foole, in whom these beasts do live at jarre,
 157.00b.416 Thinke him a foole for hauing tane that course?

FOOLES.....6

015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.
 019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,
 040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,
 040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
 137.00A.042 And make it wit, to thinke the wiser fooles:

FOOLISH.....2

187.00A.141 14 For, the vaine foolish things thy Prophets sought,
 189.00B.026 Why doth the foolish world scorne that profession,

FOOLS.....1

015.00G.037 That when a fools eye lighteth on a Jem,

FOOT.....8

006.00D.012 Nor poorely limited with head or foot.
 020.00G.074 Some Symetry the foot hath with that part
 020.00G.084 Now at the Papal foot delights to be:
 020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.
 031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
 031.00A.034 Like th'other foot, obliquely runne.
 033.00A.004 Or who cleft the Divels foot,
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd

FOOT-.....1

010.00A.031 The grim- eight- foot- high- iron- bound serving- man,

FOOT-STOOLE.....1

187.00A.092 Forgot his foot-stoole in the day of wrath?

FOOTSTOOLE.....1

185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.

FOR'IT.....2

116.00A.011 And praise thee for'it, and zealously imbrace
 157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,

FORTIS.....1

067.00A.005 For'tis my outward Soule,

FORAINE.....1

072.00A.017 Whose foraine conquest treasure brings,

FORBADE.....1

047.00A.002 At least remember, I forbade it thee;

FORBEAR.....1

081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear

FORBEARE.....7

010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbeare,
 058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbeare
 062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbeare?
 107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbeare, nor stay,
 142.00A.026 All contributions to this life forbeare,
 187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbeare,
 187.00A.375 14 Elders, the gates; youth did their songs forbeare,

FORBEARES.....1

155.00a.378 Then that her influence the heau'n forbeares,

FORBID.....2

051.00A.012 And that a grave frost did forbid
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him

FORBIDDEN.....7

003.00A.032 And for forbidden warres, leave th'appointed field?
 056.00A.008 Are Sunne, Moone, or Starres by law forbidden,
 068.00A.012 In a forbidden or forbidding tree,
 131.00B.008 Of Adams tasting the forbidden tree;
 158.00A.078 Where first grew the forbidden learned tree,
 158.00A.107 Who sinn'd? t'was not forbidden to the snake
 181.00A.054 And when it to forbidden heights pretends.

FORBIDDING.....1

068.00A.012 In a forbidden or forbidding tree,

FORBIDDINGS.....1

158.00A.087 (Whom and her race, only forbiddings drive)

FORBIDS.....2

003.00A.001 Kinde pittie chokes my spleene; brave scorn forbids
 158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,

FORC'D.....9

003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 005.00A.054 Forc'd to make golden bridges, thou shalt see
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,
 017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businesse, absent oft must bee,
 025.00A.004 Such forc'd fashions,
 148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,
 153.00A.077 So was it in this person, forc'd to bee
 158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour

FORCE.....28

003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 004.00A.039 Art can deceive, or hunger force my tast,
 013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force
 016.00A.027 And soe not teach, but force my'opinion
 018.00B.004 Which my words masculine perswasive force
 018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 024.00A.002 To have, is that enchanting force decai'd?
 050.00A.003 Yong Beauties force our love, and that's a Rape,
 062.00A.055 Yeelded their senses force to us,
 113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 131.00B.103 Whose heat doth force us thither to intend,
 131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
 139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,
 156.00a.057 Your force and vigor, ere it were neere gone,
 157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,
 157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
 158.00A.131 The plant thus abled, to it selfe did force
 158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.
 160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
 161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came
 171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
 187.00A.370 By force, and so women in Sions us'd.

FOREFATHERS.....1

004.00A.138 I must pay mine, and my forefathers sinne

FOREKNOWE.....1

152.12a.062 To rectifie Our Errors They foreknowe.

FOREST.....2

020.00G.041 The hair a Forest is of Ambushes,

020.00G.069 Thou shalt upon another Forest set,

FORET.....1

105.H10.002 Tutus qui impugnat sed foret Auxilio

FORETHINKE.....1

042.00A.034 Forethinke me any ill,

FORFET.....1

022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forfet? signe to breake?

FORGET.....14

022.00A.028 The teeming earth, and that forget to beare,

038.00A.006 Mee travell, sojourne, snatch, plot, have, forget,

063.00A.020 And forget the Hee and Shee;

110.00A.048 A scourge, 'gainst which wee all forget to pray,

114.00A.028 If thou forget the rime as thou dost passe,

125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,

130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;

157.00b.049 Forget this rotten world; And vnto thee,

157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,

157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.

158.00A.365 That they revenge, and obsequies forget,

166.00A.014 I thinke it mercy, if thou wilt forget,

187.00A.200 And my prosperity I did forget.

187.00A.385 19 Why should'st thou forget us eternally?

FORGET-.....1

004.00A.013 As prone to all ill, and of good as forget-

FORGETST.....1

155.00a.038 And thou forgetst to celebrate thy name.

FORGETTING.....3

049.00A.059 So, in forgetting thou remembrest right,

152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire

157.00b.029 Forgetting her, the maine Reserue of all,

FORGIVE.....6

008.00B.111 But, I forgive; repent thee honest man:

142.00A.029 Religions find faults, and forgive no fall,

193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne

FORGIVENESSE.....1

170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgivenessse for his foes fierce spight?

FORGOE.....1

155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,

FORGOT.....11

076.00A.008 Or in a thousand more, forgot that too.
 109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot
 139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thanks I have forgot,
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,
 155.00a.400 Embarr'd, and all this trafique quite forgot,
 157.00b.028 Hath drown'd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 158.00A.206 That selfe preserving it hath now forgot,
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 187.00A.092 Forgot his foot-stoole in the day of wrath?
 187.00A.111 And Sions feasts and sabbaths are forgot;

FORGOTT.....1

180.NY3.006 As my prophane love, & as soone forgott:

FORLORNE.....2

187.00A.064 The foe prevailes, forlorne my children are.
 187.00A.286 Now in the streets forlorne have perished,

FORM'D.....3

022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 037.00A.004 Her whom the country form'd, & whom the town,
 158.00A.495 Had stew'd and form'd it: and part did become

FORMALITIES.....1

107.00A.072 Formalities retarding thee.

FORMALL.....1

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:

FORME.....23

008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:
 008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:
 021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
 052.00A.020 Or as the worlds forme, this all-graved tome

069.00A.005 And where their forme, and their infinitie
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
 139.00A.003 Who Meteor-like, of stuffe and forme perplext,
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 154.00A.030 So, in the forme thereof his bodie's there;
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.
 155.00a.257 As disproportion that pure forme. It teares
 155.00a.323 Shee, after whom, what forme soe're we see,
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 170.00A.014 This beauteous forme assumes a pitious minde.
 181.00A.056 By sutures, which a Crosses forme present,
 185.00A.006 Scarce in a yeare their naturall forme obey:
 185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.
 191.00B.011 The highest matter in the noblest forme;))

FORMER.....2

154.00A.002 Fill any former ranke or make a new,
 154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse

FORMES.....7

109.00A.070 Since all formes, uniforme deformity
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,
 153.00A.089 By quick amassing severall formes of things,
 154.00A.026 Unto the spheare of formes, and doth (before
 155.00a.316 As to our eyes, the formes from obiects flow:
 191.00B.034 In formes of joy and art doe re-reveale

004.00A.203 Feathers and dust, wherewith they fornicate.

FORRAIGNE.....2

138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,
 185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,

FORRAINE.....4

008.00B.097 Or be with forraigne gold brib'd to betray
 109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraigne grave
 153.00A.197 Thine armes'gainst forraigne enemies, which are 155.00a.084 Except some forraigne Serpent bring it in)

FORRAINERS.....1

066.00A.042 All forrainers, mine English tongue.

FORRESTS.....1

155.00a.137 For had a man at first, in Forrests stray'd,

FORSAKE.....2

052.00A.043 Forsake him who on them relies

187.00A.223 31 For, not for ever doth the Lord forsake,

FORSAKES.....1

187.00A.113 7 The Lord forsakes his Altar, and detests

FORSWEARE.....3

034.00A.007 Of Love, and his wrath, any may forsweare?

055.00A.013 In thee and thine; none should forsweare

061.00A.007 Forsweare to others, what to her he'hath sworne,

FORT.....1

150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.

FORTH.....26

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly

001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet

058.00A.001 Let me powre forth

066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.

082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;

086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came

106.00A.007 Put forth, put forth that warme balme-breathing thigh,

106.00A.007 Put forth, put forth that warme balme-breathing thigh,

107.00A.035 Thy Rubies, Pearles, and Diamonds forth, and make

107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame

107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame

108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,

109.00A.048 At the last day, some forth their cabbins peepe:

112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,

120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art

127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so

135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.

145.00A.068 Enabled me to profit, and take forth

157.00b.016 And seemes to reach, and to step forth to meet

157.00b.036 Yearely to bring forth such a child as this.

157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,

157.00b.420 Nor furnish forth Materials enow;

158.00A.244 She left her house the fish, and vapour'd forth;

158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.

187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.

187.00A.306 His indignation, and powr'd forth his wrath,

FORTHWITH.....1

108.00A.213 But must forthwith surrender every part,

FORTIE.....1

155.00a.258 The Firmament in eight and fortie sheeres,

FORTIETH.....1

065.00A.024 To be the fortieth name in an entaile?

FORTS.....1

053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,

FORTUNATE.....1

020.00G.051 Upon the Islands fortunate we fall,

FORTUNE.....13

021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.

021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,

021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaime,

039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,

042.00A.018 That if good fortune fall,

065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;

129.00A.022 Honour alone will to your fortune fit;

129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more

129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)

130.00A.008 Strives to urge upward, and his fortune raise;

137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see

145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,

147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,

FORTUNES.....8

005.00A.088 O wretch that thy fortunes should moralize

009.00A.024 Or Joues best fortunes urne, is her faire brest.

021.00G.091 Declare your self base fortunes Enemy,

108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament

108.00A.024 From which all Fortunes, Names, and Natures fall;

109.00A.011 (For, Fates, or Fortunes drifts none can Southsay, 114.00A.014 In Natures, and in fortunes gifts, (alas,

157.00b.144 To bring mankind, all Fortunes it enioies,

FORTVNAEVE.....1

FORTY.....2

001.00A.018 Bright parcell gilt, with forty dead mens pay,

076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,

FORTY'ON.....1

076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.

FORWARD.....3

039.00A.013 When did my colds a forward spring remove?

108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art

149.00A.057 To have reform'd this forward heresie,

FORWARDNESSE.....1

002.00A.089 So huge, that men (in our times forwardnesse)

FOUGHT.....3

001.00A.110 Hee quarrell'd, fought, bled; and turn'd out of dore

005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they

153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet

FOUL.....1

080.00E.011 Nor he that can for foul ones care,

FOULE.....9

003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou

005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,

017.00A.032 'Tis lesse griefe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.

019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,

046.00A.015 The poore, the foule, the false, love can

061.00A.027 What Plants, Myne, Beasts, Foule, Fish,

081.HH5.031 to cleare my selfe of any foule intent

131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.

160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,

FOULENESSE.....1

017.00A.042 That durty foulenesse guards, and armes the towne:

FOULER.....2

016.00A.008 Another fouler using these meanes, as I,

175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,

FOULES.....2

107.00A.021 (Which was of foules, and beasts, the cage, and park,)

158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake

FOULEST.....1

FOUND.....23

003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 004.00A.090 Into an edge, hurts worse: So, I foole found,
 004.00A.133 To sucke me in, for hearing him. I found
 004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 052.00A.014 Rule and example found;
 063.00A.014 Hath found, all outward loathes,
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
 131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
 135.B13.015 soe free from impure thoughts they shalbe found.
 137.00A.030 We found your influence, and your Dictates say.
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 142.00A.038 To your soule, found there no infirmitie,
 145.00A.064 From having found their walkes, to finde their home.
 157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
 158.00A.175 Had found, and left the Mandrakes tenant, runnes
 175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, '& thou my thirst hast fed,

FOUND'ST.....2

006.00D.004 Some vaster thing, and found'st a Curtizan.
 150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?

FOUNDATIONE.....1

157.00b.423 No more affoord this world, foundatione

FOUNDATIONS.....1

187.00A.308 To eate, and her foundations to devour.

FOUNDST.....1

157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,

FOUNTAIN.....3

051.00A.018 Or a stone fontaine weeping out my yeare.
 131.00B.093 So that no fontaine good there is, doth grow
 141.00A.054 But I remaine a poyson'd fontaine still;

FOUNTAINES.....1

155.00a.331 Poysoning the fountaines, whence our actions spring,

FOURE.....5

069.00A.012 I wish; a sixe, or four;

108.00A.225 One fire of four inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.

150.00A.024 All the four Monarchies, and Antichrist.

158.00A.174 Whom four new comming, and four parting Suns

158.00A.174 Whom four new comming, and four parting Suns

FOURTEEN.....1

001.00A.022 Great traine of blew coats, twelve, or fourteen strong,

FOWLE.....1

108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.

FOWLES.....1

158.00A.025 Of fowles, and beasts, in whose wombe, Destinie

FOWLY.....1

157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.

FOXES.....2

016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,

187.00A.382 And foxes there do goe at libertie:

FOYLE.....1

157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubbidge this world is

FRAILE.....4

139.00A.014 Preserve fraile transitory fame, as much

158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.

160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,

183.00A.001 Tamely fraile body'abstaine to day; to day

FRAM'D.....6

141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,

151.00A.056 The Gentiles fram'd them Gods and Goddesses.

153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd

157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,

157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,

184.00A.131 Is only for our prison fram'd,

FRIENDS.....28

006.00D.058 For friends to passe time, and keep company.
 006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,
 008.00B.015 To gaine new friends, t'appease great enemies;
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 031.00A.003 Whilst some of their sad friends doe say,
 066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;
 068.00A.021 You goe to friends, whose love and meanes present
 071.00A.002 And my friends curiositie
 084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.
 108.00A.208 And as friends may looke strange,
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 110.00A.024 Deare friends, which meet dead in great fishes jawes:
 112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
 125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart
 129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send
 134.00A.010 Those friends, whom your election glorifies,
 140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
 142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.
 150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,
 158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends
 187.00A.008 Her friends have dealt, and now are enemie.
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;

FRIENDSHIP.....6

066.00A.044 Who thinkes her friendship a fit portion
 109.00A.008 Of friendship onely to'impute excellence.
 145.00A.013 Integritie, friendship, and confidence,
 148.00A.019 For, such a friendship who would not adore
 149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine

FRIENDSHIPS.....1

148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;

FRIGHT.....2

018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 155.00a.266 And fright him backe, who els to eyther Pole,

FRIND.....1

127.NY3.012 No ioyes addition, helpe thy frind to saue.

FRINDS.....1

157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay

FRIPPERY.....1

110.00A.016 And all the tackling is a frippery.

FROGGES.....1

138.00A.064 That stones, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:

FROLICKE.....1

011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly, and frolicke bee,

FROLIQUE.....1

106.00A.025 And you frolique Patricians

FRONT.....1

136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.

FRONTE.....1

186.00E.005 Hinc mihi Crux primo quae fronte impressa lavacro,

FROST.....2

051.00A.012 And that a grave frost did forbid

108.00A.011 Thy madnesse from thee; and all springs by frost

FROTH.....1

009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,

FROW.....1

039.00A.044 Countries, Townes, Courts: Beg frow above

FROWARD.....2

022.00A.025 My dearest Love, though froward jealousie,

130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch

FROWN'D.....1

004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what

FROWNE.....2

111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,

131.00B.027 I cannot feele the tempest of a frowne,

FROWNES.....3

004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee

158.00A.036 Ne'r smiles nor frownes, O vouch-safe thou to looke

170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell

FROZEN.....3

003.00A.022 Of frozen North discoueries, and thrise

108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?

112.00A.015 Parch'd in the Court, and in the country frozen?

FRST.....1

021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through

FRU-.....1

144.00B.HE2 aretur, Impresso, Domi a pueris fru-

FRUCTIFIE.....1

184.00A.061 Be sanctified, and fructifie in mee;

FRUIT.....5

006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.

021.00G.026 I saw the golden fruit, 'tis wrapt away.

038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,

166.00A.002 Whose fruit threw death on else immortall us,

176.00B.004 Mourne with some fruit, as I have mourn'd in vaine;

FRUIT-TRENCHERS.....1

130.00A.044 And Tables, or fruit-trenchers teach as much;

FRUITFULL.....1

151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;

FRUITION.....1

035.00A.017 After a such fruition I shall wake,

FRUITS.....10

002.00A.026 Others wits fruits, and in his ravenous maw

004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.

053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,

058.00A.007 Fruits of much grieffe they are, emblemes of more,

108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;

135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.

145.00A.040 The third daies fruits, and flowers, and various greene

158.00A.156 Enchas'd with little fruits, so red and bright

158.00A.459 Gathers her fruits, and tumbles on the grasse,

161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;

FRUSTRA.....2

104.C07.003 Quod iam conantur frustra, Conabere frustra;

FRUSTRATE.....3

047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
 107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,
 155.00a.100 Vpon mankinde? It labour'd to frustrate

FRYE.....1

029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.

FRYER.....1

002.00A.094 Short Pater nosters, saying as a Fryer

FUELL.....5

044.00A.020 To fuell such a feaver long.
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire

FUELLERS.....1

018.00B.035 Loves fuellers, and the rightest company

FULFIL'D.....1

126.00A.003 Fulfil'd with hony which thou dost derive

FULFILL.....5

012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill
 042.00A.036 And may thy feares fulfill,
 049.00A.017 You this intirenesse better may fulfill,
 155.00a.034 A Prince, expected long, come to fulfill
 173.00A.010 Whether a man those statutes can fulfill;

FULFILL'D.....2

141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
 187.00A.154 Fulfil'd his word of old determined;

FULL.....21

004.00A.014 full, as proud, as lustfull, and as much in debt,
 005.00A.015 Springs; now full, now shallow, now drye; which, to
 006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 008.00B.060 That with phantastique scenes fils full much paper;
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,
 030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;
 043.00A.004 And Lovers houres be full eternity,
 081.HH5.012 full sway dare boldly then sow vicious seedes
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,

108.00A.098 Full of the common joy; I utter'd some,
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 133.00A.036 A nest almost as full of Good as shee.
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 157.00b.302 Perchance, as learned, and as full, as shee,
 157.00b.445 Tis such a full, and such a filling good;
 157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,
 157.00b.507 Shee, who by making full perfection grow,
 158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,

GATHER.....2

004.00A.100 A subtle States-man may gather of that;
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,

GATHERING.....2

001.00A.009 Here gathering Chroniclers, and by them stand
 113.00A.021 By gathering his beames with a christall glasse;

GATHERS.....1

158.00A.459 Gathers her fruits, and tumbles on the grasse,

GAUE.....9

081.HH5.025 & in exchange I gaue the such a harte
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
 157.00b.147 Shee, shee embrac'd a sicknesse, gaue it meat,
 157.00b.215 (Creation gaue her one, a second, grace,)
 157.00b.367 And shee gaue pardons, and was liberall,
 157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue
 157.00b.371 Shee gaue protections; the thoughts of her brest
 157.00b.522 That gaue thee power to do, me to say this.

GAVE.....18

004.00A.145 Gave it, as Ransome; But as fidlers, still,
 016.00A.021 By nature, which gave it, this liberty
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 079.00B.003 So did I reverence, and gave
 094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
 126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
 153.00A.151 And daily hadst from him, who gave it thee,
 153.00A.210 Of which he gave thee the vicariate,
 153.00A.232 Unto the Senate, who this triumph gave;
 158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
 158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,
 158.00A.402 Till the best midwife, Nature, gave it helpe,
 187.00A.372 Nor honours gave they to the Elders face.

GAVEST.....2

041.00A.012 Or if then thou gavest mee all,
 041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:

GAY.....5

001.00A.076 Of some gay sport abroad, yet dare not goe.
 004.00A.172 Just such gay painted things, which no sappe, nor
 015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,
 106.00A.022 As gay as Flora, and as rich as Inde;
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,

 020.00G.070 Where many Shipwrack, and no further get.
 022.00A.068 Which to defend is harder then to get:
 033.00A.002 Get with child a mandrake roote,
 039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,
 054.00A.026 As princes doe in times of action get
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 059.00A.012 But get a winter-seeming summers night.
 062.00A.011 And pictures in our eyes to get
 068.00A.011 And think'st by hovering here to get a part
 069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
 107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?
 108.00A.035 Or but like Stoves, for lust and envy get
 130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
 133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,
 145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
 153.00A.075 And to be sure betimes to get a place,
 153.00A.133 Whose hands get shaking palsies, and whose string
 153.00A.184 Till they as Magistrates get victorie,
 153.00A.188 That there thy counsailes might get victorie,
 157.00b.294 Below; But vp vnto the watch-towre get,
 157.00b.318 As well t'enioy, as get perfectione.
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
 158.00A.364 Transported with the joy of what they get,
 181.00A.038 So may a selfe-dispising, get selfe-love.
 184.00A.221 That wee get not a slipperinesse,
 187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
 187.00A.360 To get us bread; and to the Assyrians .

 028.00A.013 A veryer ghost then I;
 044.00A.011 The fairest woman, but thy ghost,
 064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,
 068.00A.028 Is to a woman, but a kinde of Ghost;
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 157.00b.354 They made ioyntenants with the Holy Ghost,
 184.00A.019 O Holy Ghost, whose temple I

GIFT.....5

041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,
 041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
 122.00A.007 It is my deed of gift of mee to thee,

156.00a.104 Which from the gift of her example rise.
 191.00B.042 A lesser gift than some one man hath sent?

GIFTS.....7

021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,
 066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.
 066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.
 114.00A.014 In Natures, and in fortunes gifts, (alas,
 141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,
 184.00A.161 By accepting Kings gifts in the Epiphanie,
 191.00B.006 (And thy gifts are as infinite as thou:)

GILD.....1

108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;

GILT.....1

001.00A.018 Bright parcell gilt, with forty dead mens pay,

GIO.....1

092.NY3.0HE II Caualliere Gio: Wingef:

GIRDED.....1

112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,

GIRDLE.....2

015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,
 106.00A.073 Thy virgins girdle now untie,

GIRLE.....1

131.00B.064 Is sport for every girle to practise on.

GIRT.....3

187.00A.067 That Iacobs foes girt him. Ierusalem
 187.00A.127 In sackcloth have they girt themselves, and low
 187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in

GIUE.....13

014.NY3.017 And Midas ioyes our Spanish iourneys giue,
 155.00a.022 And th'Ague being spent, giue ouer care,
 155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
 156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue
 156.00a.035 Death cannot giue her such another blow,
 157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,

157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?

157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.

157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show

GIUEN.....2

157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euey limme;

157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,

GIUES.....3

119.NY3.005 And when it giues vs intermission

155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,

157.00b.510 Where shee receiues, and giues addition.

GIVE.....55

003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;

005.00A.007 Charity and liberty give me. What is hee

008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)

010.00A.071 All my perfumes, I give most willingly

011.00A.015 O give him many thanks, he'is courteous,

017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.

041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,

041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:

049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock

052.00A.044 And for the cause, honour, or conscience give,

055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.

055.00A.004 Give th'art of Riming, Huntsmanship, or play,

055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,

055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,

065.00A.005 Give it a diet, made it feed upon

066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;

066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.

066.00A.010 My constancie I to the planets give,

066.00A.018 Onely to give to such as have an incapacitie.

066.00A.019 My faith I give to Roman Catholiques;

066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;

066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.

066.00A.028 I give my reputation to those

066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles

066.00A.039 Of Morall counsels, I to Bedlam give;

066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undoe

068.00A.038 I will give you

079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so

082.00A.040 To fetch new lust, and give it you,

107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give

107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall

108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,

108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part

108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thankes, you, to give,
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 122.00A.025 Eclipse the light which Guyana would give,
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 142.00A.037 This Vertue thinking to give dignitie
 142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say
 145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 147.00B.005 Others by Wills give Legacies, but I
 153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
 184.00A.034 Give mee a such selfe different instinct
 184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
 187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit
 187.00A.277 3 Even the Sea-calfes draw their brests, and give
 189.00B.039 To open life, to give kingdomes to more
 189.00B.040 Than Kings give dignities; to keepe heavens doore?
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

GIVEN.....8

003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given
 049.00A.021 It, as a given deaths head keepe,
 055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)
 187.00A.042 And they have given, only to be fed,
 187.00A.056 Hath given mee, from whence I cannot rise.

GIVERS.....1

116.00A.005 Watch motions of the givers hand or eye,

GIVES.....18

002.00A.013 And saves his life) gives ideot actors meanes
 008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:
 020.00G.096 As who by glister gives the Stomack meat.
 074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
 107.00A.086 She gives the best light to his Spheare,
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 131.00B.102 That gives to all, and yet hath infinite.
 139.00A.056 For your owne conscience, he gives innocence,
 149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.

158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
 173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
 173.00A.004 Hee keepes, and gives to me his deaths conquest.
 183.00A.016 Gabriell gives Christ to her, He her to John;
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.
 187.00A.221 30 He gives his cheekes to whosoever will
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,

GIVING.....3

004.00B.135 By giving others their soares, I might grow
 160.00A.069 And at thy death giving such liberall dole,
 187.00A.107 Destroying holds, giving additions

GLAD.....10

068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 129.00A.014 With glad griefe, to your Sea-ward steps, farewell,
 135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad
 185.00A.015 Yet dare I'almost be glad, I do not see
 187.00A.082 My foes have heard my griefe, and glad they be,
 187.00A.156 Made glad above thee, and advanc'd him so.

GLADDER.....2

027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,

GLADLY.....2

073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 157.00b.347 Vp to those Prophets, which now gladly see

GLANCE.....1

108.00A.026 At every glance, a constellation flyes,

GLANCING.....1

106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;

GLAS.....2

155.00a.149 Their siluer; or dispos'd into lesse glas,
 156.00a.006 loyne the two Indies in one Tombe, 'tis glas;

GLASS.....2

017.00G.053 Whom Dildoes, Bedstaves, or a velvet Glass
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see

GLASSE.....14

013.00A.028 Frame and enamell Plate, and drinke in glasse?
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.
 049.00A.002 Doth contribute my firmnesse to this glasse,
 049.00A.007 'Tis much that Glasse should bee
 049.00A.061 But glasse, and lines must bee,
 081.HH5.006 thy hart as pictures through a Christall glasse
 081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse
 110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,
 113.00A.021 By gathering his beames with a christall glasse;
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 149.00A.042 How little poyson cracks a christall glasse?
 153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)

GLASSES.....3

029.00A.029 And now as broken glasses show
 039.00A.041 Into the glasses of your eyes
 142.00A.056 The Master at the end large glasses ties,

GLASSIE.....2

158.00A.115 Of glassie bubbles, which the gamesome boyes
 158.00A.252 And journeyes with her, towards the glassie deepe,

GLAZE.....1

004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe

GLAZED.....1

010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,

GLEANES.....1

128.LR1.007 yet gleanes hee many of our frends away)

GLIDE.....1

112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,

GLIDED.....2

158.00A.234 Glided along, and as he glided watch'd,
 158.00A.234 Glided along, and as he glided watch'd,

GLIMMERING.....2

155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,

GLISTER.....1

020.00G.096 As who by glister gives the Stomack meat.

GLITTERING.....1

015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,

GLOBE.....1

058.00A.016 A globe, yea world by that impression grow,

GLOBES.....1

181.00A.023 All the Globes frame, and spheares, is nothing else

GLORIFI'D.....1

177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd

GLORIFIED.....2

160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.

168.00A.008 Crucifie him daily, being now glorified;

GLORIFIEDST.....1

184.00A.159 Glorifiedst Povertie,

GLORIFIES.....2

059.00A.008 But glorifies his pregnant pot,

134.00A.010 Those friends, whom your election glorifies,

GLORIFY'D.....1

133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.

GLORIOUS.....8

006.00D.028 Vpon the progresse of thy glorious booke,

014.NY3.046 More glorious service staying to make men?

020.00G.059 These, and (the glorious Promontory) her Chin

045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,

107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame

108.00A.155 Let every Jewell be a glorious starre,

166.00A.007 And mercy being easie, and glorious

184.00A.028 O Blessed glorious Trinity,

GLORIUS.....1

004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,

GLORY.....11

002.00A.096 Addes to Christs prayer, the Power and glory clause.

048.00A.002 All glory of honors, beauties, wits,

050.00A.032 Her youth with ages glory, Barrennesse .

051.00A.011 Benight the glory of this place,

052.00A.006 Sybills glory, and obscure

107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
 108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.
 108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.
 160.00A.008 A crowne of Glorie, which doth flower alwayes;
 172.00A.008 Coheire to'his glory, 'and Sabbaths endlesse rest;
 172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,

GLOSS'D.....1

002.00A.088 Assurances, bigge, as gloss'd civill lawes,

GLUE.....1

155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,

GLUES.....1

016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,

GLUTTONIES.....1

158.00A.294 Fat gluttonies best orator: at last

GLUTTONOUS.....2

107.00A.065 The feast, with gluttonous delaies,
 164.00A.005 And gluttonous death, will instantly unjoynt

GLUTTONS.....1

116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,

GNASH.....1

187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,

GNAW.....1

149.00A.005 Yet doth it rore, and gnaw, and still pretend,

GNAW'D.....1

158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life cords there; Like a whole towne

GNAWING.....1

012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne

GO.....13

001.00A.064 Whither, why, when, or with whom thou wouldst go.
 006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
 006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
 006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,
 020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
 092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.

155.00a.315 And did from her into our bodies go,
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
 157.00b.272 Doth from one ventricle to th'other go?
 180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away
 187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.

GOALE.....1

112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;

GOAT.....2

082.00A.039 At this time to the Goat is runne
 155.00a.265 To watch his steps; the Goat and Crabbe controule,

GOATE.....2

140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,
 158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate

GOATS.....3

004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.
 016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 166.00A.003 If lecherous goats, if serpents envious

GOD.....109

001.00A.048 With God, and with the Muses I conferre.
 001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?
 002.00A.001 Sir; though (I thanke God for it) I do hate
 003.00A.090 In so ill case, that God hath with his hand
 003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.
 003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.
 004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!
 004.00A.179 In the Presence, and I, (God pardon mee.)
 005.00A.060 We send to God, to Dominations,
 009.00A.017 Or that whereof God had such jealousye,
 010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 014.NY3.010 Euer our men, yea and our God of late.
 020.00G.029 He's an infernal god and under ground,
 022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,
 038.00A.003 Usurious God of Love, twenty to thee,
 064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
 064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend
 064.00a.018 All is the purluwe of the God of Love.
 108.00A.044 Kings (as their patterne, God) are liberall
 108.00A.067 From higher powers; From God religion springs,
 109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say
 111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,

113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in
 113.00A.015 Which God imputes, as native puritie,
 114.00A.026 The Painters bad god made a good devill,
 122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show
 129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee,'I would not misse you there
 136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
 136.00A.015 God findes, then in Te Deums melodie.
 136.00A.022 You, for whose body God made better clay,
 136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,
 140.00A.027 For, God no such specifique poyson hath
 140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 141.00A.014 The manger-cradled infant, God below.
 141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
 141.00A.070 And now your Chaplaine, God in you to praise.
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.
 149.00A.004 God hath set markes, and bounds, twixt us and it,
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stuffe, as God, when his last fire
 149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 152.12a.001 Look to Me, Faith; and look to my Faith, GOD:
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.051 So God, in our desire to dye, dooth know
 152.12a.086 In her long Journey of Considering GOD)
 153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,
 153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.056 Because God knowes where every Atome lyes;
 153.00A.209 And to deliver up to God that state,
 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did wooe, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,
 155.00a.348 Swadling the new-borne earth, God seemd to like,
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make
 157.00b.112 Which they from God, and Angels couer not.
 157.00b.330 And for the word of God, vent them agen?
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute
 157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
 157.00b.441 The sight of God, in fulnesse, can thinke it;
 157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;

157.00b.462 Betrothed to God, and now is married there,
 157.00b.506 As strong Records for God, as mindes within,
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.031 Great Destiny the Commissary of God,
 158.00A.103 Would God (disputes the curious Rebell) make
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,
 166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?
 166.00A.010 O God, Oh! of thine onely worthy blood,
 168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so
 171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you
 172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
 172.00A.003 How God the Spirit, by Angels waited on
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 177.00B.013 O pensive soule, to God, for he knowes best
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
 180.NY3.010 In prayers, & flattering Speaches I court God:
 181.00A.016 Of God, dew'd on mee in the Sacrament?
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, neerest to him, wee know,
 183.00A.037 Or as creation he hath made, as God,
 184.00A.010 O Sonne of God, who seeing two things,
 184.00A.042 God cloath'd himselfe, and grew,
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne
 185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?
 185.00A.028 By God, for his apparell, rag'd, and torne?
 187.00A.089 1 How over Sions daughter hath God hung
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 188.00E.001 God grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.
 189.00B.038 Embassadour to God and destinie?
 190.00A.027 To see God only, I goe out of sight:
 191.00B.001 Eternall God, (for whom who ever dare
 191.00B.030 Who hath tun'd God and Man, the Organ we:

GODS.....35

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here
 005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
 010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
 020.00G.031 Men to such Gods, their sacrificing Coles
 068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
 108.00A.051 Is an epitome of Gods great booke
 108.00A.168 Then, reverend Priest, who Gods Recorder art,
 111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so throughly hate,
 134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 141.00A.001 Man to Gods image, Eve, to mans was made,
 145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.
 149.00A.012 We, after Gods Noe, drowne the world againe.
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,
 151.00A.056 The Gentiles fram'd them Gods and Goddesses.
 153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:
 153.00A.175 Begins Gods City, New Jerusalem,
 155.00a.101 Euen Gods purpose; and made woman, sent
 155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;
 157.00b.044 As till Gods great Venite change the song.
 157.00b.046 And serue thy thirst, with Gods safe-sealing Bowle.
 157.00b.425 But as the Heathen made them seuerall gods,
 157.00b.426 Of all Gods Benefits, and all his Rods,
 157.00b.428 Gods vnto them, so Agues bee, and war)
 157.00b.451 Who with Gods presence was acquainted so,
 157.00b.456 Gods Image, in such reparation,
 183.00A.023 How well the Church, Gods Court of faculties
 184.00A.185 When plenty, Gods image, and seale
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus
 187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,
 187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we're not utterly
 189.00B.017 Chang'd onely Gods old Image by Creation,
 189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,
 189.00B.050 In whom must meet Gods graces, mens offences,

GODSAKE.....1

039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,

GOE.....85

001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,
 001.00A.076 Of some gay sport abroad, yet dare not goe.
 001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,
 001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 003.00A.066 As women do in divers countries goe
 003.00A.081 Reach her, about must, and about must goe;
 004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe
 004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,
 004.00A.186 (For themselves dare not goe) o'r Cheapside books,
 004.00A.230 As men from gaoles to 'execution goe,
 004.00A.231 Goe through the great chamber (why is it hung
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 018.00B.015 I'll goe, and, by thy kinde leave, leave behinde
 018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
 031.00A.002 And whisper to their soules, to goe,
 031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
 033.00A.001 Goe, and catche a falling starre,
 033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
 035.00A.005 The value: goe, and take my heart from hence,
 036.00A.005 Sawcy pedantique wretch, goe chide
 036.00A.007 Goe tell Court-huntsmen, that the King will ride,
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,
 043.00A.002 As often as from thee I goe,
 044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 049.00A.055 And if this treason goe
 049.00A.065 Impute this idle talke, to that I goe,
 050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
 065.00A.030 And the game kill'd, or lost, goe talke, and sleepe.
 068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
 068.00A.021 You goe to friends, whose love and meanes present
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe
 075.00A.006 Any, so cheape a death, as saying, Goe;
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.
 075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 107.00A.046 To an unseparable union goe,
 107.00A.051 Goe then to where the Bishop staies,
 107.00A.074 They were to take a clock in peeces,) goe
 108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,

108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
 125.00A.011 And then againe to your embracements goe:
 127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;
 130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
 136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
 136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
 137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new recknings goe.
 137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
 138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnessse, plenty, bid it goe,
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
 153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe
 153.00A.100 As Angells goe, and know, and as men read.
 155.00a.281 Loth to goe vp the hill, or labor thus
 155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.
 157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.403 To issue. It could kill, as soone as goe,
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.452 Gamesome it was, that it might freely goe
 160.00A.041 Kisse him, and with him into Egypt goe,
 165.00A.004 Of soules, and to your scattred bodies goe,
 167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
 182.00A.019 Goe from a body,'at this sepulcher been,
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 187.00A.040 Into her holy Sanctuary goe.
 187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,
 187.00A.332 To goe: our end is now approached neere,
 187.00A.382 And foxes there do goe at libertie:
 189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pittie their neglect.
 190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,
 190.00A.027 To see God only, I goe out of sight:

GOES.....12

001.00A.094 He followes, overtakes, goes on the way,
 002.00A.046 Like nets, or lime-twigs, wheresoever he goes,
 002.00A.099 As slily as any Commenter goes by,
 004.00A.209 As a young Preacher at his first time goes
 020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes

020.00G.089 Which goes this empty and Aetherial way,
 031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.
 106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
 108.00A.188 For every part to dance and revell goes.
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 158.00A.417 Embracements of love; to loves worke he goes,
 179.NY3.003 Goes richly painted? Or which rob'd & tore

GOEST.....4

005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest
 044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
 057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her

GOING.....8

003.00A.108 Consum'd in going, in the sea are lost:
 004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me
 004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.
 015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,
 070.00A.027 Comming and going, wee,
 075.00A.012 Being double dead, going, and bidding, goe.
 120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,
 129.00A.HE1 To Sir H.W. at his going Ambassa-

GOLD.....39

001.00A.031 The silke, and gold he weares, and to that rate
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 006.00D.030 The West sent gold, which thou didst freely spend,
 008.00B.043 Or were it such gold as that wherewithall
 008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,
 008.00B.093 Gold being the heaviest metal amongst all,
 008.00B.097 Or be with forraine gold brib'd to betray
 008.00B.105 May all the evils that gold ever wrought;
 008.00B.112 Gold is Restorative, restore it then:
 009.00A.037 Into th'earths worthlesse part a soule of gold,
 011.00A.028 Their Prince, or coyne his gold, themselves exile
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.
 017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,
 020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon
 020.00G.030 With Pluto dwells, where gold and fire abound,
 031.00A.024 Like gold to ayery thinnesse beate.
 049.00A.050 Corrupted by thy Lover's gold, and page,
 066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 081.HH5.007 thy hart seemd soft & pure as liquid gold
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 108.00A.151 Soe dost thou, when in silke and gold,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?

138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.
 141.00A.025 Shee guiled us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 155.00a.233 And that rich Indie which doth gold interre,
 155.00a.345 As gold fals sicke being stung with Mercury,
 155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet guiled euery state,
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.429 And as by changing that whole precious Gold
 158.00A.007 What the gold Chaldee, or silver Persian saw,
 161.00A.012 Or as Elixar, to change them to gold;
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 187.00A.269 1 How Is the gold become so dimme? How is
 187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?
 187.00A.274 Valued at purest gold, how do wee see

GOLD-INGOT.....1

145.00A.018 And drawne their sound gold-ingot into wyre;

GOLDEN.....8

005.00A.054 Forc'd to make golden bridges, thou shalt see
 021.00G.026 I saw the golden fruit, 'tis wrapt away.
 021.00G.080 And Autumn, what our golden harvests were.
 027.00A.003 Of golden sands, and christall brookes:
 079.00B.012 His hignesse sitting in a golden Chaire,
 106.00A.014 Our Golden Mines, and furnish'd Treasurie,
 127.00A.016 A greene, and when thee list a golden haire;
 157.00b.070 Some Figure of the Golden times, was hid.

GOLDFINCH.....1

107.00A.010 As doth the Goldfinch, or the Halcyon;

GOLGOTHA.....1

183.00A.012 Reclus'd at home, Publique at Golgotha.

GON.....1

005.00A.040 The mony which you sweat, and swears for, is gon

GONE.....62

004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,
 006.00D.075 Thy Gyant-wit'orethrowes me, I am gone;
 008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:

018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
 021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
 029.00A.021 If it had gone to thee, I know
 032.00A.012 Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
 035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
 035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
 043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
 044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
 045.00A.016 And so more steddily to have gone,
 050.00A.041 Whose every tooth to a severall place is gone,
 062.00A.016 Were gone out,) hung 'twixt her, and mee.
 062.00A.076 Small change, when we're to bodies gone.
 067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
 076.00A.002 I scarce beleev'd, thou could'st be gone away,
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 108.00A.164 But that vaile being gone,
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.
 146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,
 150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 152.12a.069 So is't to looke for Reason, HEE being gone,
 153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,
 154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.042 Offers to tell vs who it is that's gone.
 155.00a.048 A strong example gone equall to law,
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.213 'Tis all in pieces, all cohaerence gone;
 155.00a.249 For the worlds beauty is decayd, or gone,
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.057 Your force and vigor, ere it were neere gone,
 157.00b.021 So struggles this dead world, now shee is gone;
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,
 157.00b.335 The poyson'is gone through all, poysons affect
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,
 157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,
 158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better prooffe the law

158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 187.00A.021 6 From Sions daughter is all beauty gone,
 187.00A.352 Is turn'd, our houses unto Aliens gone,
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.

GOOD.....145

002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one
 004.00A.013 As prone to all ill, and of good as forget-
 004.00A.059 Good pretty linguists, and so Panirge was;
 004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,
 004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.221 Call a rough carelesnesse, good fashion;
 005.00A.004 May make good Courtiers, but who Courtiers good?)
 005.00A.004 May make good Courtiers, but who Courtiers good?)
 006.00D.051 The bravest Heroes for publike good,
 006.00D.054 Do publike good, cut in Anatomies;
 008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:
 008.00B.073 As these should doe good works; and should provide
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 008.00B.084 Good Angels, (for good messages you bring)
 008.00B.084 Good Angels, (for good messages you bring)
 009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;
 010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;
 010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.
 013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
 016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,
 017.00A.011 If red and white and each good quality
 017.00A.016 She'hath yet an Anagram of a good face.
 017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;
 017.00A.031 Like to good Angels, nothing can impaire:
 018.00B.024 Fall ill or good, 'tis madnesse to have prov'd
 020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
 032.00A.008 And now good morrow to our waking soules,
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee

042.00A.018 That if good fortune fall,
043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,
043.00A.021 As good as could be made by art
053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,
053.00A.002 For ill is ill, and good good still,
053.00A.002 For ill is ill, and good good still,
053.00A.008 Made women either good or bad,
053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
053.00A.014 Good is as visible as greene,
056.00A.019 Good is not good, unlesse
056.00A.019 Good is not good, unlesse
062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismaticks
082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
107.00A.076 A Bride, before a good night could be said,
108.00A.032 And all is warmth, and light, and good desire;
108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
112.00A.025 The Country is a desert, where no good,
113.00A.009 Omissions of good, ill, as ill deeds bee.
114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see
114.00A.026 The Painters bad god made a good devill,
114.00A.027 'Twill be good prose, although the verse be evill.
118.NY3.008 In a good skorn of the worlds vanitee?
122.00A.031 All the worlds riches: And in good men, this
124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
129.00A.016 To heaven in troupes at'a good mans passing bell:
131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.
131.00B.089 Each good in you's a light; so many a shade
131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
133.00A.036 A nest almost as full of Good as shee.
134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
134.00A.031 The first good Angell, since the worlds frame stood,
134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
138.00A.049 Good seed degenerates, and oft obeyes
138.00A.074 Neither beleeve her good, nor others ill,
138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.
139.00A.035 To make it good, for, such a prayer prayes.
139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you,'and shew you good,
139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,

139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show
 140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
 141.00A.010 A seldome comet is, but active good
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 149.00A.056 How good in all her titles, and how meet,
 153.00A.009 See, and with joy, mee to that good degree
 153.00A.039 Deeds of good men, for by their living here,
 153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,
 153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is'not understood
 153.00A.098 Each severall vertue, but the compound good.
 153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,
 153.00A.166 Good companie, his entry is a grave.
 153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
 155.00a.018 All must endeuour to be good as shee,)
 155.00a.071 A faint weake loue of vertue and of good
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
 155.00a.334 To satisfie wise, and good lookers on,
 155.00a.337 For good, and well, must in our actions meete:
 155.00a.375 To color vitious deeds with good pretence,
 156.00a.098 Any shall liue, which dare true good prefer,
 156.00a.106 To see how well, the good play her, on earth.
 157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
 157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.343 Where shee'is exalted more for being good,
 157.00b.445 Tis such a full, and such a filling good;
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toys
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.278 Exalted she'is, but to the exalters good,
 158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
 158.00A.378 Then they, who good repos'd estates possesse)
 158.00A.518 Ther's nothing simply good, nor ill alone,
 158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 160.00A.003 Thou which of good, hast, yea art treasury,

160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 165.00A.013 Teach mee how to repent; for that's as good
 178.NY3.002 To Nature, and to hers, & my good is dead
 181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,
 181.00A.045 For if the'eye seeke good objects, and will take
 182.00A.015 Leaden and iron wills to good, but is
 184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.136 From needing danger, to bee good,
 184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
 184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,
 187.00A.215 26 It is both good to trust, and to attend
 187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;
 187.00A.233 38 Both good and evill from his mouth proceeds;

GOODLY.....2

003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,

GOODNES.....1

155.00a.017 But goodnes, to see her, whom all would see,

GOODNESSE.....4

145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,
 153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,
 153.00A.172 The most repaire, that are in goodnesse rich.
 157.00b.498 Shee, in whose goodnesse, he that names degree,

GOODS.....3

005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?
 010.00A.011 Hope of his goods, if I with thee were seene,
 189.00B.012 Of noble goods, and with lesse time and paine?

GORES.....1

158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,

GORGEOUS.....1

008.00B.040 Gorgeous France, ruin'd: ragged and decay'd

GOSPELL.....1

122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;

GOT.....21

002.00A.051 Continuall claimes I have made, injunctions got
 005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?
 022.00A.067 But being got it is a treasure sweet,

022.00A.070 For though 'tis got by chance, 'tis kept by art.
 032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.
 059.00A.003 I have lov'd, and got, and told,
 059.00A.007 And as no chymique yet th'Elixar got,
 065.00A.009 And if sometimes by stealth he got
 065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
 108.00A.228a No S^r. This paper I have justly got,
 114.00A.015 Before by thy grace got in th' Muses Schoole)
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 139.00A.043 Indifferent there the greatest space hath got,
 153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?
 153.00A.234 At that authoritie, by which he got
 154.00A.040 Got thither by repentance, Let it bee
 155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
 155.00a.243 Thou seest a Hectique feuer hath got hold
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than 158.00A.375 Got the streight cloyster of a wreched mouse

GOTH.....1

071.00A.013 And like a Goth and Vandall rize,

GOTHS.....1

052.00A.025 Vandals and the Goths invade us,

GOUERNE.....1

157.00b.129 To gouerne, or to triumph on the rest,

GOUERNES.....1

157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.

GOUT.....2

039.00A.002 Or chide my palsie, or my gout,
 061.00A.009 Madnesse his sorrow, gout his cramp, may hee

GOUTY.....2

008.00B.107 Want after plenty; poore and gouty age;
 009.00A.034 The short swolne fingers of her gouty hand ;

GOVERN'ST.....1

184.00A.003 Thou madest, and govern'st ever, come

GOVERNE.....3

052.00A.051 Who the present gouverne well,
 108.00A.020 The first doth gouverne dayes, the other nights.
 129.00A.026 To want, then gouverne greatnesse, for wee are

GOVERNED.....1

187.00A.049 13 That fire, which by himselfe is governed

GOWN.....1

015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,

GOWNES.....1

004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought

GRAC'D.....1

024.00A.017 Are grac'd thereby; And to make blinde men see,

GRACCUS.....1

003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinkes that so

GRACE.....30

002.00A.055 I should be in remitter of your grace;

015.00G.042 (Whom their imputed grace will dignifie)

018.00B.030 A blushing womanly discovering grace;

039.00A.006 Observe his honour, or his grace,

050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,

052.00A.017 That sees, how Love this grace to us affords,

055.00A.027 I may not article for grace,

108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,

108.00A.179 Nature and grace doe all, and nothing Art,

114.00A.015 Before by thy grace got in th' Muses Schoole)

116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,

133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.

139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.

149.00A.039 Grace was in her extremely diligent,

150.00A.044 As sinne insinuates 'twixt just men and grace,

151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;

157.00b.215 (Creation gaue her one, a second, grace.)

157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,

157.00b.466 Both where more grace, and more capacitee

163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;

163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?

165.00A.011 'Tis late to aske abundance of thy grace,

173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,

174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art

184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,

184.00A.157 To'ungratious us, staid'st at her full of grace,

185.00A.041 Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace,

187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace

187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace

189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace

GRACES.....5

013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld
 155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;
 189.00B.050 In whom must meet Gods graces, mens offences,

GRACETH.....1

106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,

GRACIOUS.....2

078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 134.00A.035 Make your returne home gracious; and bestow

GRAIN.....1

153.00A.170 They're all but Ants, carrying eggs, straw, and grain;

GRAINES.....1

155.00a.424 Some Nunneries, some graines of chastity.

GRAIUS.....1

003.00A.055 Graius stayes still at home here, and because

GRAND-CHILDREN.....1

157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.

GRANDFATHERS.....1

184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw

GRANDSIRE.....1

155.00a.131 Old Grandsires talke of yesterday with sorrow,

GRANT.....4

188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.

GRAS.....1

095.NY3.003 Like Nabuchadnezar perchance with gras & flowres

GRASPES.....1

157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,

GRASSE.....7

009.00A.042 Where round about the grasse is burnt away.
 038.00A.014 From country grasse, to comfitures of Court,

054.00A.004 Vicissitude, and season, as the grasse;
 081.HH5.046 then inck dropt on mudd or raine on grasse
 112.00A.006 To'a botle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,
 158.00A.459 Gathers her fruits, and tumbles on the grasse,

GRATIA.....1

186.00E.016 A fixo, nobis, Gratia tota fluat.

GRATIOUS.....1

184.00A.123 (Since to be gratious

GRAUE.....4

155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
 155.00a.474 The graue keeps bodies, verse the same enroules.
 156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
 157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit

GRAV'D.....1

049.00A.004 As hard, as that which grav'd it, was,

GRAVE.....27

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here
 001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more
 002.00A.073 Then carted whores, lye, to the grave Judge; for
 008.00B.081 The Mother in the hungry grave doth lay,
 009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.
 020.00G.046 Immortal stay, but wrinckled 'tis a grave.
 051.00A.012 And that a grave frost did forbid
 066.00A.051 Then a Sun dyall in a grave,
 070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe
 070.00A.011 Meet at this grave, and make a little stay?
 082.00A.021 I, by loves limbecke, am the grave
 106.00A.005 Like to a grave, the yielding downe doth dint;
 106.00A.080 A grave, but, to a better state, a cradle;
 107.00A.006 The Lirique Larke, and the grave whispering Dove,
 108.00A.094 Words to expresse it, makes a man a grave
 109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraine grave
 109.00A.047 And as sin-burd'ned soules from grave will creepe,
 137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face
 143.00A.002 (Living in you,) Court enough in my grave,
 145.00A.072 In a darke Cave, yea in a Grave doe lie;
 149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines
 152.12a.054 As but so manie Mandrakes on his Grave.
 153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,
 153.00A.166 Good companie, his entry is a grave.
 153.00A.192 Thou didst intrude on death, usurp'st a grave.

153.00A.256 That in thy grave I doe interre my Muse,
 158.00A.049 Th'expense of braine and spirit; that my grave

GRAVED.....1

049.00A.035 Into such characters, as graved bee

GRAVES.....7

048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 070.00A.003 (For graves have learn'd that woman-head
 147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,
 149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.
 153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,

GRAY.....3

038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;
 039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.

GREAT.....104

001.00A.022 Great traine of blew coats, twelve, or fourteen strong,
 002.00A.105 Where's th'old landlords troops, & almes, great hals?
 003.00A.016 This feare great courage, and high valour is;
 004.00A.002 Indeed is great, but I have beene in
 004.00A.120 Discredit, Libells now 'gainst each great man.
 004.00A.125 As the last day; And that great officers,
 004.00A.202 Great staines and holes in them; but veniall
 004.00A.231 Goe through the great chamber (why is it hung
 005.00A.053 Become great seas, o'r which, when thou shalt bee
 005.00A.085 Enough to cloath all the great Carricks Pepper.
 006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 008.00B.015 To gaine new friends, t'appease great enemies;
 008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?
 008.00B.035 Of some great Conjurer that would enforce
 010.00A.034 As the great Rhodian Colossus stride,
 011.00A.002 And yet complain'st of his great jealousie;
 011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,
 011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare
 012.00A.003 Poorely enrich't with great mens words or lookes;
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 020.00G.095 He which doth not, his error is as great,
 021.00G.006 And that great Hell to boot are shadows to it.
 021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;

052.00A.042 They exact great subsidies,
 052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,
 055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot
 062.00A.068 Else a great Prince in prison lies.
 066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
 079.00B.037 Growes great,
 106.00A.065 With these your pleasing labours, for great use
 107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
 107.00A.050 You'are twice inseparable, great, and one;
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.051 Is an epitome of Gods great booke
 108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,
 108.00A.175 That, new great heights to trie,
 110.00A.024 Deare friends, which meet dead in great fishes jawes:
 113.00A.033 Much, much deare treasure for the great rent day.
 127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 131.00B.006 From Paradise so great a distance were,
 133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,
 136.00A.054 Neither can reach you, great and innocent.
 141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 142.00A.047 Grow capable of this so great a light,
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;
 151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;
 152.12a.032 Was His great Father's greatest Instrument,
 153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.143 Yet, as in great clocks, which in steeples chime,
 153.00A.154 And great Sun-dyall, to have set us All?
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
 153.00A.240 With that great soveraigntie, whose absolute
 153.00A.252 Griefe in great Alexanders great excesse,
 153.00A.252 Griefe in great Alexanders great excesse,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my griefe, great as thy worth, being cast
 155.00a.011 This world, in that great earth-quake languished;
 155.00a.019 This great consumption to a feuer turn'd,
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truely said
 155.00a.468 Me this great Office boldly to inuade.

156.00a.033 Except the world it selfe, so great as shee.
 157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.
 157.00b.044 As till Gods great Venite change the song.
 157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,
 157.00b.329 Drinke and sucke in th'Instructions of Great men,
 157.00b.491 loy that their last great Consummation
 158.00A.005 And the great world to his aged evening;
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 158.00A.028 Did'st thou in that great stewardship embarke
 158.00A.031 Great Destiny the Commissary of God,
 158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
 158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught
 158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
 158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
 158.00A.309 A great ship overset, or without saile
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.374 So great a castle. And having for her house
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 158.00A.381 Natures great master-peece, an Elephant,
 158.00A.382 The onely harmlesse great thing; the giant
 158.00A.412 Great men have often taken, to espie
 158.00A.488 Her brother, entred, and a great stone threw
 184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw
 184.00A.129 From thinking, that great courts immure
 187.00A.009 3 Unto great bondage, and afflictions
 187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we'are not utterly
 187.00A.210 For great, O Lord, is thy fidelity.
 187.00A.279 By reason of the foes great cruelnesse,

GREATER.....10

006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.
 006.00D.020 To be far greater than the mother nose?
 031.00A.012 Though greater farre, is innocent.
 054.00A.015 And yet no greater, but more eminent,
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 156.00a.044 For many leagues,) farre greater then it was,
 156.00a.046 Her, greater, purer, firmer, then before?
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,
 169.00A.011 But wonder at a greater wonder, for to us

GREATEST.....9

005.00A.028 Greatest and fairest Empresse, know you this?
 010.00A.061 By thee, the greatest staine to mans estate

018.00B.046 Our greatest King call thee to his presence.
 039.00A.034 The greatest ashes, as halfe-acre tombes,
 139.00A.043 Indifferent there the greatest space hath got,
 151.00A.010 Tyrant, in the fift and greatest Monarchy,
 152.12a.032 Was His great Father's greatest Instrument,
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.338 'Tis greatest now, and to destruction

GREATNES.....1

145.00A.014 (Ciments of greatnes) being vapor'd hence,

GREATNESSE.....6

006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 129.00A.026 To want, then governe greatnesse, for wee are
 145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.

GREECE.....1

158.00A.304 From Greece, Morea were, and that by some

GREEDINESSE.....2

056.00A.021 But doth wast with greedinesse.
 158.00A.256 As now, with curious greedinesse to let

GREEKE.....1

158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;

GREENE.....4

053.00A.014 Good is as visible as greene,
 127.00A.016 A greene, and when thee list a golden haire;
 145.00A.040 The third daies fruits, and flowers, and various greene
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,

GREET.....3

001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then 135.B13.021 and as true Types of your, them humbly greet.

GREETINGS.....1

125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet

GREGORY.....1

003.00A.096 To say a Philip, or a Gregory,

GREW.....10

067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
 134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
 146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew
 155.00a.362 (Beauties ingredients) voluntary grew,
 158.00A.078 Where first grew the forbidden learned tree,
 158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
 158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 184.00A.042 God cloath'd himselfe, and grew,

GRIEF.....1

152.12a.061 (With grief to see him) Hee had staid belowe,

GRIEFE.....22

017.00A.032 'Tis lesse griefe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.
 040.00A.010 Griefe brought to numbers cannot be so fierce,
 040.00A.016 Griefe, which verse did restraine.
 040.00A.017 To Love, and Griefe tribute of Verse belongs,
 049.00A.038 When love and griefe their exaltation had,
 058.00A.007 Fruits of much griefe they are, emblemes of more,
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quench'd by it
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my griefe grieve thee too,
 129.00A.014 With glad griefe, to your Sea-ward steps, farewell,
 150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate griefe that she is gone.
 151.00A.004 Griefe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.
 151.00A.062 Of griefe, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.
 153.00A.182 My griefe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
 153.00A.252 Griefe in great Alexanders great excesse,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my griefe, great as thy worth, being cast
 155.00a.307 Since euen griefe it selfe, which now alone
 155.00a.432 Is worth our trauaile, griefe, or perishing,
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and griefe, where nailes did tye
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement griefe hath beene
 177.00B.014 Thy griefe, for he put it into my breast.
 187.00A.082 My foes have heard my griefe, and glad they be,

GRIEFES.....3

029.00A.011 All other griefes allow a part
 029.00A.012 To other griefes, and aske themselves but some,
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee

GRIEFS.....1

176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?

GRIEV'D.....3

098.00A.001 Philo, with twelve yeares study, hath beene griev'd,
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.

GRIEVE.....5

024.00A.029 And yet I grieve the lesse, least Griefe remove
 114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my griefe grieve thee too,
 131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,

GRIEVES.....3

024.00A.014 Which, both to keepe, and lose, grieves equally.
 133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,
 187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?

GRIM-.....1

010.00A.031 The grim- eight- foot- high- iron- bound serving- man,

GRIN.....1

001.00A.023 Wilt thou grin or fawne on him, or prepare

GRINDE.....1

005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are

GRINS.....1

001.00A.074 And grins, smacks, shrugs, and such an itch endures,

GRIPE.....1

158.00A.121 Just in that instant when the serpents gripe,

GRIPES.....1

158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,

GROANE.....5

108.00A.184 The tables groane, as though this feast
 131.00B.025 Else from his slipperie soule with a faint groane,
 187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.041 11 And all her people groane, and seeke for bread;

GROAT.....1

008.00B.056 Well-pleas'd with one leane thred-bare groat, for hire,

GROGARAM.....1

004.00A.086 Your only wearing is your Grogaram;

GROOME.....1

157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,

GROSSE.....4

136.00A.011 From grosse, by Stilling, this is better done
 155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 157.00b.030 Yet in this Deluge, grosse and generall,
 183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,

GROUND.....20

001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh't the ground.
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 009.00A.048 As where a Plough a stony ground doth rent?
 016.00A.018 And yet allowes his ground more corne should beare;
 020.00G.029 He's an infernal god and under ground,
 039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?
 041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
 052.00A.015 There, the faith of any ground
 083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,
 130.00A.022 A while from hence. Perchance outlandish ground
 138.00A.044 As hands of double office: For, the ground
 158.00A.154 And as that ground by him were conquered
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 187.00A.095 To ground the strengths of Iuda, and prohpan'd
 187.00A.118 And levell Sions walls unto the ground,
 187.00A.121 9 Their gates are sunke into the ground, and hee
 187.00A.125 10 There Sions Elders on the ground are plac'd,
 187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.
 187.00A.131 Pour'd out upon the ground, for miserie
 187.00A.169 21 On ground in streets, the yong and old do lye,

GROUNDS.....3

052.00A.047 May of their occupation finde the grounds,
 108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,

GROUTH.....3

155.00a.122 Mans grouth confess'd, and recompenc'd the meat:
 155.00a.189 Thy better Grouth growes withered, and scant;
 157.00b.496 Degrees of grouth, but none of loosing it.

GROW.....49

004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound
 004.00B.135 By giving others their soares, I might grow
 015.00G.016 The haiery Diadem which on your head doth grow:
 021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 021.00G.093 That I may grow enamoured on your mind,

030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
 030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
 037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?
 040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
 041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
 049.00A.027 I understand, and grow and see,)
 051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
 056.00A.005 And thence a law did grow,
 058.00A.016 A globe, yea world by that impression grow,
 062.00A.047 For, th'Atomies of which we grow,
 062.00A.071 Loves mysteries in soules doe grow,
 069.00A.004 To his owne primrose, and grow Manna so;
 072.00A.007 In me abundant grow, and burdenous,
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisedome grow so stale,
 108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 134.00A.014 Grow infinite, and so passe reasons reach,
 137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 138.00A.052 Into the body,'and bastardly they grow.
 138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
 142.00A.047 Grow capable of this so great a light,
 143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 153.00A.062 Vertue, which did in one intirenesse grow.
 153.00A.137 Whose voice, the Bell, doth rattle, or grow dumbe,
 153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have 154.00A.007 A kind alone;) What ever order grow
 154.00A.010 But, by his losse grow all our orderslesse;
 157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.382 That accidentall ioyes in Heauen doe grow.
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.507 Shee, who by making full perfection grow,
 158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
 158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,
 158.00A.212 Of gummie blood, which doth in holly grow
 182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.
 184.00A.097 Hourly tempestuous persecutions grow,

GROW'ST.....1

133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this

GROWEN.....6

062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was growen
 157.00b.348 Their Prophecies growen to be Historee.
 157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,

GROWES.....14

006.00D.019 A prosperous nose-borne wenne, which sometimes growes
 031.00A.032 And growes erect, as that comes home.
 079.00B.037 Growes great,
 107.00A.044 Meeting Another, growes the same,
 130.00A.013 The noble Soule by age growes lustier,
 134.00A.021 In every thing there naturally growes
 145.00A.051 How faire a prooffe of this, in our soule growes?
 153.00A.027 All the world growes transparent, and I see
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 154.00A.009 One of your orders growes by his accesse;
 155.00a.086 And strength it selfe by confidence growes weake,
 155.00a.189 Thy better Grouth growes withered, and scant;
 155.00a.355 And color is decayd: summers robe growes
 187.00A.036 O Lord my affliction, for the Foe growes bold.

GROWING.....3

030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;
 050.00A.049 Not panting after growing beauties, so,
 130.00A.006 Leaves growing, and stands such, or else decayes,

GROWN.....4

020.00G.007 Were not a Calf a monster that were grown
 035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
 082.00A.029 Of the first nothing, the Elixer grown;
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stoness speak,

GROWN'D.....1

004.00A.089 Scratch'd into smart, and as blunt iron grown'd

GROWNE.....29

019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 054.00A.016 Love by the spring is growne;
 065.00A.002 And burdenous corpulence my love had growne,
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 112.00A.046 Utopian youth, growne old Italian.
 113.00A.005 How love-song weeds, and Satyrique thornes are growne

142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
 142.00A.031 We're thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we're growne
 143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne
 145.00A.004 Growne stale, is to so low a value runne,
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,
 153.00A.164 Death, else a desert, growne a Court by thee.
 154.00A.023 So fell our Monasteries, in one instant growne
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 156.00a.052 Being tastlesse growne, to ioy in ioyes they had,
 157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,
 158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne
 158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
 184.00A.004 And re-create mee, now growne ruinous:
 185.00A.003 And as the other Spheares, by being growne
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.044 How cheape I'am growne, O Lord, behold and weigh.
 187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes
 187.00A.300 And withered, is like to dry wood growne.
 192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne

GROWTH.....10

041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 136.00A.034 But as our Soules of growth and Soules of sense
 137.00A.057 The Elements, the Parent, and the Growth
 143.00A.008 Must both to growth and to confession bring
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 157.00b.162 My second soule of sence, and first of growth.
 158.00A.124 Life, and growth to this apple, fled away
 184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,

GRUDGE.....6

060.00A.014 Though parents grudge, and you, w'are met,
 133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same

GRUDGES.....1

110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay

GUARD.....3

008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
 157.00b.203 Who finds in Mars his Campe, no corps of Guard;

GUARDIAN.....1

070.00A.026 Then our Guardian Angells doe,

GUARDIANS.....1

003.00A.061 Take such wives as their Guardians offer, or

GUARDS.....2

017.00A.042 That durty foulnesse guards, and armes the towne:
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?

GUESSE.....4

001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away
 131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.
 157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
 158.00A.072 If (as devout and sharpe men fitly guesse)

GUESSES.....1

061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes

GUEST.....2

130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone
 158.00A.159 Did this soules second Inne, built by the guest

GUESTS.....2

018.00B.041 As Lots faire guests were vext. But none of these 158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is

GUIANAES.....1

004.00A.022 Then Africks Monsters, Guianaes rarities,

GUIDE.....2

008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;
 122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show

GIFTS.....1

125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her gifts on you are spent

GUILD.....2

081.HH5.010 free soveraignty doe guild their words & deeds
 081.HH5.035 to enamell & to guild a precious pott

GUILDED.....2

141.00A.025 She gilded us: But you are gold, and Shee,

155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet guided euey state,

GUILT.....3

081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett

142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne

155.00a.230 Guilt the West Indies, and perfum'd the East;

GUILTIE.....2

004.00A.161 Becomes the guiltie, not the accuser; Then,

145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)

GUILTIEST.....1

151.00A.006 (So guiltiest men stand mutest at the barre)

GUILTLESSE.....1

158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?

GUILTY.....7

004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me

004.0A/B136 Guilty, and he free: Therefore I did shew

008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.

008.00B.089 But, I am guilty of your sad decay;

022.00A.036 That made me cast you guilty, and you me,

060.00A.021 Wherein could this flea guilty bee,

137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.

GULFE.....1

006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell

GULFE-LIKE.....1

158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing

GULL.....1

010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.

GULL'D.....1

008.00B.046 Are dirtely and desperately gull'd:

GULLING.....1

001.00A.059 And sooner may a gulling weather-Spie

GUMMES.....1

158.00A.183 As childrens teeth through gummes, to breake with paine,

GUMMIE.....1

158.00A.212 Of gummie blood, which doth in holly grow

GUNNE.....1

009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,

GUNPOWDER.....1

010.00A.044 Smelt gunpowder, the pale wretch shivered;

GUST.....1

109.00A.031 And what at first was call'd a gust, the same

GUYANA.....2

091.NY3.0HE Calez & Guyana.122.00A.025 Eclipse the light which Guyana would give,

GUYANAES.....1

122.00A.018 Guyanaes harvest is nip'd in the spring,

GYANT.....1

071.00A.011 First kill th'enormous Gyant, your Disdaine,

GYANT-WIT'ORETHROWES.....1

006.00D.075 Thy Gyant-wit'orethrowes me, I am gone;

GYANTS.....1

071.00A.018 My Gyants, and my Witches too,H

H.....2

128.LR1.HE1 I. D. H: W: in Hiber: belligeranti.135.B13.0HE A letter written by Sr. H: G: and I: D. alternis vicibus.

H'IS.....2

003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show

HABES.....1

195.010.001 QVO PERGAS, VIATOR, NON HABES:

HABIT.....1

180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not

HABITATION.....1

115.00A.010 Of him, at least in this earths habitation:

HABITE.....1

018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange

HABITS.....4

003.00A.067 In divers habits, yet are still one kinde;
 112.00A.026 Gain'd, as habits, not borne, is understood.
 130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.
 158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.

HABITUALLY.....1

111.00A.003 That vice doth here habitually dwell.

HAD.....126

004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,
 004.00A.024 In the Danes Massacre had sure beene slaine,
 004.00A.025 If he had liv'd then; And without helpe dies,
 004.00A.031 Sleevelesse his jerkin was, and it had beene
 004.00A.065 To Babels bricklayers, sure the Tower had stood.
 004.00A.177 Had all the morning held, now the second
 008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:
 009.00A.017 Or that whereof God had such jealousye,
 010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid
 013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet
 017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,
 018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to'have had thy love.
 020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,
 021.00G.046 Had correspondence whilst the foe stood by?
 022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,
 024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;
 029.00A.006 That I have had the plague a yeare?
 029.00A.021 If it had gone to thee, I know
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 043.00A.018 But colours it, and corners had,
 043.00A.020 It was intire to none, and few had part.
 044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
 044.00A.027 For I had rather owner bee
 045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,
 045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 049.00A.038 When love and grieffe their exaltation had,
 050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay
 053.00A.007 If then at first wise Nature had,
 054.00A.002 As I had thought it was,
 061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not
 061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not

065.00A.002 And burdenous corpulence my love had growne,
 065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
 065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
 079.00B.016 Being had, enjoying it decays:
 079.00B.034 To pursue things which had indammag'd me.
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.024 & had thy harte deliuered by thy hand
 081.HH5.026 as had it bene example vnto thine
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.029 They had bene pure they had bene innocent
 081.HH5.029 They had bene pure they had bene innocent
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.
 087.00A.004 That had a towne for tombe, his bones to hide.
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maime,
 108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
 108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
 109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.
 109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.
 109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
 112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
 124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
 126.00A.019 My nurse, (for I had one,) because I'am cold,
 126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
 130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,
 130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
 131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
 136.00A.003 And creaturelesse at first, himselfe had none;
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 143.00A.013 Your treasure, for since I had never knowne
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 148.00A.012 And wee your rich Tombe in her face had seene;
 150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
 151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 151.00A.044 Wee'had had a Saint, have now a holiday;
 151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
 152.12a.055 What had His growth and generation donne?
 152.12a.061 (With grief to see him) Hee had staid belowe,
 152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
 153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,

153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 155.00a.020 And so the world had fits; it ioy'd, it mournd.
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
 155.00a.137 For had a man at first, in Forrests stray'd,
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,
 155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,
 155.00a.223 She whom wise nature had inuented then
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.341 And had the world his iust proportion,
 155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
 156.00a.052 Being tastlesse growne, to ioy in ioyes they had,
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.064 And whom, who ere had worth enough, desir'd;
 157.00b.002 That this world had an euerlastingnesse,
 157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,
 157.00b.155 Though he had right, and power, and Place before,
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had throughly red
 157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.
 157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.
 157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.
 158.00A.164 Her sinne had now brought in infirmities,
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 158.00A.175 Had found, and left the Mandrakes tenant, runnes
 158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
 158.00A.306 Or seas from Africks body had severed
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
 158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;
 158.00A.493 Adam and Eve had mingled bloods, and now
 158.00A.495 Had stew'd and form'd it: and part did become
 160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,
 161.00A.013 You are that Alchemist which alwaies had
 182.00A.017 Had one of those, whose credulous pietie
 185.00A.014 Sinne had eternally benighted all.
 187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had
 187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where 187.00A.368 Black as an Ocean colour'd had our skinne:

HAD'ST.....3

005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,

HADST.....10

006.00D.003 Venice vast lake thou hadst seen, & would seek than,
 026.00A.005 Hadst thou the wicked skill
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.151 And daily hadst from him, who gave it thee,
 153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.035 The Ceremonies, thou vnnam'd hadst laid,
 184.00A.103 As thou hadst lent them, cleane and innocent,

HAEC.....3

186.00E.002 Signare, (haec nostrae symbola parva Domus)
 194.00Z.001 Corporis haec Animae sit Syndon, Syndon Iesu
 198.LL1.005 Haec Sex, in vniuersas Scripturas, Volumina,

HAIERY.....1

015.00G.016 The haiery Diadem which on your head doth grow:

HAILE.....2

107.00A.001 Haile Bishop Valentine, whose day this is,
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,

HAINOUS.....1

008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.

HAIR.....1

020.00G.041 The hair a Forest is of Ambushes,

HAIRE.....11

004.00A.195 He call'd her beauty limetwigs, her haire net.
 004.00A.196 She feares her drugs ill laid, her haire loose set;
 008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
 017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 045.00A.019 Ev'ry thy haire for love to worke upon
 067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;
 070.00A.006 A bracelet of bright haire about the bone,
 108.00A.142 Poudre thy Radiant haire,
 110.00A.034 Or like slacke sinew'd Sampson, his haire off,
 127.00A.016 A greene, and when thee list a golden haire;
 158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,

HAIRE'S.....1

017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,

HAIRECLOTH.....1

019.00A.007 My face and brest of hairecloth, and my head

HAIRES.....10

033.00A.013 Till age snow white haires on thee,
 038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haires equall bee;
 039.00A.003 My five gray haires, or ruin'd fortune flout,
 067.00A.012 Those haires which upward grew, and strength and art
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and haires may no man equall call,
 090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haires doe fall.
 157.00b.278 Of Naailes and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
 157.00b.337 In Naailes, and Haires, yea excrements, will show;
 158.00A.152 And to his shoulders dangle subtile haires;
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haires.

HAIRS.....1

015.00G.024 Those set our haires, but these our flesh upright.

HAIRY.....1

024.00A.033 His chinne, a thorny hairey unevennesse

HAL'D.....1

163.00A.007 But damn'd and hal'd to execution,

HALCYON.....1

107.00A.010 As doth the Goldfinch, or the Halcyon;

HALF.....3

006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,

HALF-PINT.....1

006.00D.060 Measures; and fill out for the half-pint wit:

HALFE.....20

006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.
 006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 036.00A.025 Thou sunne art halfe as happy'as wee,
 042.00A.012 Nor halfe so short a way:
 069.00A.025 Ten is the farthest number, if halfe ten
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;
 123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quenched by it
 133.00A.022 Her early child mispeake halfe uttered words,

138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
 148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth
 184.00A.022 Halfe wasted with youths fires, of pride and lust,
 185.00A.032 Halfe of that Sacrifice, which ransom'd us?

HALFE-ACRE.....1

039.00A.034 The greatest ashes, as halfe-acre tombes,

HALL.....1

010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,

HALLOW'D.....1

015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.

HALLOWED.....1

138.00A.016 In me you've hallowed a Pagan Muse,

HALLS.....1

004.00A.097 More then ten Hollensheads, or Halls, or Stowes,

HALS.....1

002.00A.105 Where's th'old landlords troops, & almes, great hals?

HALTERS.....1

005.00A.048 To fetters, halters; But if the injury

HAMAN.....1

005.00A.087 Then Haman, when he sold his Antiquities.

HAMMERS.....1

158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat

HANC.....1

199.C11.005 Annuat Deus Opt: Max: ut apud omnes, hanc inveniat

HAND.....47

002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke
 003.00A.090 In so ill case, that God hath with his hand
 004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staies
 008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,
 009.00A.034 The short swolne fingers of her gouty hand ;
 009.00A.045 Doth not thy fearefull hand in feeling quake,

010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
 013.00A.004 The mystique language of the eye nor hand:
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,
 019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,
 020.00G.083 Since to the hand, since to the imperial knee,
 024.00A.023 But thy right hand, and cheek, and eye, only
 024.00A.024 Are like thy other hand, and cheek, and eye.
 024.00A.049 Hand to strange hand, lippe to lippe none denies;
 024.00A.049 Hand to strange hand, lippe to lippe none denies;
 049.00A.043 When thy inconsiderate hand
 061.00A.032 Nature before hand hath out-cursed mee.
 081.HH5.024 & had thy harte deliuered by thy hand
 107.00A.109 And win by'observing, then, whose hand it is
 109.00A.003 Part of our passage; And, a hand, or eye
 116.00A.005 Watch motions of the givers hand or eye,
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,
 149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 187.00A.038 The foe hath stretch'd his hand, for shee hath seene
 187.00A.053 14 His hand hath of my sinnes framed a yoake
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
 187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,
 187.00A.102 His right hand was in posture of a foe,
 187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturue
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.276 Which are the worke of a poore Potters hand.
 187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,
 189.00B.002 To put thy hand unto the holy Plough,

HANDLED.....1

187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou

HANDLING.....1

009.00A.050 Are Priests in handling reverent sacrifice,

HANDS.....31

- 005.00A.041 Into other hands: So controverted lands
 005.00A.042 Scape, like Angelica, the strivers hands.
 009.00A.028 The wood-bine quivering, are her armes and hands,
 015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,
 024.00A.053 My selfe I embrace, and mine owne hands I kisse,
 027.00A.021 Let coarse bold hands, from slimy nest
 029.00A.010 If once into loves hands it come?
 031.00A.020 Care lesse, eyes, lips, hands to misse.
 062.00A.005 Our hands were firmly cimented
 062.00A.009 So to'entergraft our hands, as yet
 067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
 070.00A.029 Our hands ne'r toucht the seales,
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 107.00A.054 And that you'are one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 135.B13.010 As in deuotions men loyne both there hands
 137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
 138.00A.044 As hands of double office: For, the ground
 156.00a.010 In workes of hands, or of the wits of men?
 156.00a.025 The Officers for hands, Merchants for feet
 157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.
 185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,
 187.00A.114 His Sanctuary, and in the foes hands rests
 187.00A.145 15 The passengers doe clap their hands, and hisse
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,
 187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexe them againe.
 187.00A.359 6 We stretch our hands unto th' Egyptians
 187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
 187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace

HANG.....1

- 021.00G.085 The cold and darkness longer hang somewhere,

HANG'D.....2

- 008.00B.095 Here fetter'd, manacled, and hang'd in chains,
 109.00A.058 As from one hang'd in chaines, a yeare agoe.

HANG'ST.....1

- 185.00A.036 O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree;

HANGING.....1

- 001.00A.111 Directly came to mee hanging the head,

HANGINGS.....1

004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still

HANGMEN.....1

003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.

HANGS.....1

009.00A.014 Or warts, or wheales, it hangs upon her skinne.

HANSOMING.....1

001.00A.096 For his device, in hansoming a sute,

HAPPIEST.....5

075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,

081.HH5.038 to change my happiest wishes to this curse

087.00A.003 Whose brave misfortune, happiest men envi'd,

147.00B.003 Next to my soule provide the happiest roome,

157.00b.092 Diuision, and thy happiest Harmonee.

HAPPINESSE.....7

018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,

059.00A.002 Say, where his centrique happinesse doth lie:

153.00A.120 All, tending to thy endlesse happinesse,

157.00b.412 Alas, tis but a casuall happinesse.

157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,

157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;

184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth

HAPPY.....3

015.00G.011 Off with that happy busk, which I envie,

057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,

157.00b.065 Looke vpward; that's towards her, whose happy state

HAPPY'ARE.....1

117.00A.011 That from unhappy mee, things happy'are sent;

HAPPY'AS.....2

036.00A.025 Thou sunne art halfe as happy'as wee,

059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can

HAPPY'IS.....1

140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd

HARBORS.....1

056.00A.015 Who e'r rigg'd faire ship to lie in harbors,

HARBOUR.....1

133.00A.034 Perchance her Cabinet may harbour thee,

HARD.....8

002.00A.100 Hard words, or sense; or in Divinity

003.00A.086 Hard deeds, the bodies paines; hard knowledge to

003.00A.086 Hard deeds, the bodies paines; hard knowledge to

049.00A.004 As hard, as that which grav'd it, was,

049.00A.019 Or if too hard and deepe

160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee

160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,

181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,

HARDER.....1

022.00A.068 Which to defend is harder then to get:

HARDEST.....1

153.00A.030 My selfe, the hardest object of the sight.

HARDLY.....3

002.00A.037 Whose strange sinnes, Canonists could hardly tell

006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.

158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.

HARDNED.....1

158.00A.499 Part hardned it selfe to a thicker heart,

HARKNING.....2

157.00b.068 Where all sat harkning how her youthfull age

184.00A.219 That wee by harkning, not procure

HARLOTS.....1

010.00A.060 By drawing in a leprous harlots breath,

HARM'D.....1

158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,

HARME.....8

002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use

004.00A.223 He cares not, His ill words doe no harme

058.00A.025 To doe me more harme, then it purposeth,

067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme

108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?

150.00A.052 Of beauty,'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?

153.00A.145 An error doth more harme, being generall,

155.00a.080 These Creatures, from hom-borne intrinsique harme,

HARME%IS.....1

021.00G.068 Though not against thy strokes, against thy harmed.

HARMELESSE.....2

070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmed lovers wrought.

150.00A.014 Where harmed fish monastique silence keepe.

HARMELESSENES.....1

142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmedneses we see,

HARMES.....2

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

031.00A.009 Moving of th'earth brings harmes and feares,

HARMLESLY.....1

181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly

HARMLESSE.....3

008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall

025.00A.009 Send home my harmlesse heart againe,

158.00A.382 The onely harmlesse great thing; the giant

HARMONEE.....1

157.00b.092 Diuision, and thy happiest Harmonee.

HARMONIOUS.....2

015.00G.009 Unlace your self, for that harmonious chyme,

190.00A.016 The amorousnesse of an harmonious Soule,

HARMONY.....6

153.00A.002 Then when thou wast infused, harmony,

155.00a.312 Of Harmony, he would at next haue said

155.00a.313 That Harmony was shee, and thence infer,

184.00A.066 That harmony, which made of two

191.00B.016 The Organ, where thou art the Harmony.

191.00B.026 Their harmony is rather danc'd than sung;

HARRIES.....1

004.00A.077 Of all our Harries, and our Edwards talke,

HARRY.....1

003.00A.097 A Harry, or a Martin taught thee this?

HARSH.....9

009.00A.047 Is not your last act harsh, and violent,

017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;

024.00A.038 Admit the tillage of a harsh rough man?

115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure

124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 168.00A.011 And Iacob came cloth'd in vile harsh attire
 181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,
 191.00B.044 More hoarse, more harsh than any other, sing?

HARSHNESSE.....1

018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade

HART.....11

014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.
 081.HH5.006 thy hart as pictures through a Christall glasse
 081.HH5.007 thy hart seemd soft & pure as liquid gold
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart
 128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.
 155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
 155.00a.242 But, as thou sawest it rotten at the hart,
 155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
 157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;

HARTE.....6

081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
 081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
 081.HH5.024 & had thy harte deliuered by thy hand
 081.HH5.025 & in exchange I gaue the such a harte
 081.HH5.047 but in thy harte framd soe white & cleare

HARTES.....1

135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.

HARTS.....3

119.NY3.006 We take new harts for it to feede vpon.
 155.00a.330 Corruptions in our braines, or in our harts,
 187.00A.022 Like Harts, which seeke for Pasture, and find none,

HARVEST.....2

036.00A.008 Call countrey ants to harvest offices,
 122.00A.018 Guyanaes harvest is nip'd in the spring,

HARVESTS.....2

021.00G.080 And Autumn, what our golden harvests were.
 130.00A.020 In harvests, too indulgent to your sports.

HAST.....64

003.00A.021 Hast thou courageous fire to thaw the ice
 003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
 004.00A.154 Who feares more actions, doth hast from prison;
 004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene
 004.00A.166 Almost about the whole world, hast thou seene,
 005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper
 010.00A.054 Next mee, mee traiterously hast betraid,
 010.00A.055 And unsuspected hast invisibly
 018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade
 021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.
 034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
 060.00A.019 Cruell and sodaine, hast thou since
 066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore
 068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;
 078.00D.016 Within the Writings which thou hast address.
 094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
 108.00A.057 In the Indian fleet, because thou hast
 108.00A.075 Hast thou a history, which doth present
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.091 What hast thou lost, O ignorant man?
 108.00A.206 So doth the Bridegroome hast as much,
 115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure
 124.00A.003 Of knowledge, hast with courage and advise
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 149.00A.054 To speake, that death his vaine hast may repent.
 150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,
 150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne
 150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 152.12a.092 Which hast the noble Conscience, Thou art Shee.
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
 155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
 157.00b.180 Thou hast thy'expansion now and libertee;
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.032 That hast mark'd out a path and period
 158.00A.171 To an unfetterd soules quick nimble hast
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 160.00A.003 Thou which of good, hast, yea art treasury,
 160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,

160.00A.094 Mild lambe which with thy blood, hast mark'd the path;
 162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,
 174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
 187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine
 191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,

HASTE.....2

174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 193.00A.017 And, having done that, Thou haste done,

HASTILY.....1

155.00a.140 That met him, would not hastily assaile

HASTING.....1

182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow

HASTNING.....1

156.00a.056 Fearing the last fires hastning to subdue

HASTS.....2

004.00A.102 Hasts to an Offices reversion;
 058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.

HAT.....2

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:
 004.00A.198 From hat, to shooe, himselfe at doore refine,

HATCH.....2

006.00D.046 They hatch all wares for which the buyer calls;
 155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.

HATCH'D.....1

157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.

HATCHES.....2

109.00A.051 Some sitting on the hatches, would seeme there,
 110.00A.025 And on the hatches as on Altars lyes

HATE.....32

001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:
 002.00A.001 Sir; though (I thanke God for it) I do hate
 002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pittie towards the rest;
 002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:
 002.00A.107 Equally I hate, meanes blesse; in rich mens homes
 003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow
 003.00A.091 Sign'd Kings blanck-charters to kill whom they hate,
 008.00B.091 But o thou wretched finder whom I hate
 010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joyn'd, and hate each one?
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly
 014.NY3.009 France in her Lunatique giddines did hate
 016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee
 044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
 047.00A.012 And hate with hate againe retaliate;
 047.00A.012 And hate with hate againe retaliate;
 047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.
 047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.
 047.00A.017 Yet, love and hate mee too,
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
 050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay
 053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,
 053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
 053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
 053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
 111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so throughly hate,
 131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 160.00A.059 For, what weake spirits admire, ambitious, hate;

HATE'IT.....1

016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee

HATES.....1

162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.

HATH.....200

001.00A.034 What lands hee hath in hope, or of his owne,
 001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene
 001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me

002.00A.043 Hath made a Lawyer; which was alas of late
 002.00A.068 That onely suretiship hath brought them there,
 003.00A.090 In so ill case, that God hath with his hand
 004.00A.005 My minde, neither with prides itch, nor yet hath been
 004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
 004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee
 008.00B.061 Which hath divided heaven in tenements,
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed corne there,
 017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautious bee,
 017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.
 018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,
 020.00G.074 Some Symetry the foot hath with that part
 020.00G.079 It is the Emblem that hath figured
 020.00G.091 Rich Nature hath in women wisely made
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 022.00A.008 Or those it hath, smile at your perjuries?
 022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 027.00A.010 Each fish, which every channell hath,
 029.00A.002 That he hath beene in love an houre,
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 030.00B.012 That love hath not attain'd the high'st degree,
 032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 039.00A.023 The Phoenix ridle hath more wit
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 042.00A.011 He hath no desire nor sense,
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 046.00A.017 He which hath businesse, and makes love, doth doe
 048.00A.007 Only our love hath no decay;
 048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,
 049.00A.003 Which, ever since that charme, hath beene
 050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,
 053.00A.023 And when hee hath the kernell eate,
 058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 061.00A.032 Nature before hand hath out-cursed mee.
 063.00A.014 Hath found, all outward loathes,
 066.00A.014 My silence to'any, who abroad hath beene;
 072.00A.020 This death, hath with my store
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 082.00A.006 The generall balme th'hydroptique earth hath drunk,
 093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care
 098.00A.001 Philo, with twelve yeares study, hath beene griev'd,

099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 106.00A.056 Yet shadowes turne; Noone point he hath attain'd,
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.087 Our little Cupid hath sued Livery,
 109.00A.032 Hath now a stormes, anon a tempests name.
 109.00A.061 Pumping hath tir'd our men, and what's the gaine?
 109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our saylers; and if they
 109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.
 110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath
 114.00A.002 Then hath or shall enkindle any spirit,
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 122.00A.014 His Picture to his absent Love hath sent.
 129.00A.010 Hath stor'd with notes of use and pleasures too,
 129.00A.020 And hath for nature, what you have for taske.
 130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,
 130.00A.025 To be a stranger hath that benefit,
 131.00B.102 That gives to all, and yet hath infinite.
 131.00B.105 'Till slow accesse hath made it wholly pure,
 131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
 137.00A.035 In all Religions as much care hath bin
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 138.00A.018 By blamers of the times they mard, hath sought
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 138.00A.062 What ere the world hath bad, or pretious,
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 138.00A.073 Vertue hath some perversenesse; For she will 138.00A.076 Vertue hath some, but wise degrees of vice.
 138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.
 139.00A.043 Indifferent there the greatest space hath got,
 140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd
 140.00A.027 For, God no such specifique poyson hath
 140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
 145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 149.00A.004 God hath set markes, and bounds, twixt us and it,
 149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,
 149.00A.038 So hath she this, and that virginity.
 150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.
 151.00A.008 But extreme sense hath made them desperate;
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 153.00A.110 Which the whole world, or man, the abridgment hath.
 153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?

153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
 153.00A.241 Prerogative hath thus dispens'd with thee,
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 154.00A.017 Blest order that hath him, the losse of him
 155.00a.003 (For who is sure he hath a soule, vnlesse
 155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
 155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art
 155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,
 155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
 155.00a.243 Thou seest a Hectique feuer hath got hold
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 155.00a.354 Yet sight hath onely color to feed on,
 155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,
 155.00a.473 Verse hath a middle nature: heauen keepes soules,
 157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
 157.00b.028 Hath drownd' vs all, All haue forgot all good,
 157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
 157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
 157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.357 Shee, who hath carried thether, new degrees
 157.00b.413 Hath euer any man to'himselfe assigned
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
 158.00A.206 That selfe preserving it hath now forgot,
 158.00A.266 Or working parts like mills, or limbecks hath
 158.00A.295 So long hee hath floweren, and hath floweren so fast
 158.00A.295 So long hee hath floweren, and hath floweren so fast
 158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.
 158.00A.372 Hath yet a little indignation
 158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)
 158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 160.00A.031 There he hath made himselfe to his intent
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
 163.00A.003 Thou art like a pilgrim, which abroad hath done
 163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
 164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,
 165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,

168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 172.00A.007 Hath deign'd to chuse thee by adoption,
 173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,
 173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie
 175.00B.003 But black sinne hath betraid to endlesse night
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement griefe hath beene
 178.NY3.001 Since She whome I lovd, hath payd her last debt
 180.NY3.002 Inconstancy vnnaturally hath begott

001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne
 001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.
 001.00A.098 Of all the Court, to have the best conceit;
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.049 A motion, Lady, Speake Coscus; I have beene
 002.00A.051 Continuall claimes I have made, injunctions got
 004.00A.002 Indeed is great, but I have beene in
 004.00A.020 A thing, which would have pos'd Adam to name,
 004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,
 004.00A.061 By travaile. Then, as if he would have sold
 004.00A.064 Time enough to have beene Interpreter
 004.00A.070 Now; Aretines pictures have made few chast;
 004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.
 004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
 004.00A.173 Tast have in them, ours are, And naturall

004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne
004.00A.216 Pursevant would have ravish'd him away
005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,
005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
008.00B.007 Mourn I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;
008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone
008.00B.039 Visit all Countries, and have silyly made
008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:
010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,
012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
013.00A.017 And since, an houres discourse could scarce have made
013.00A.023 As mine: who have with amorous delicacies
015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,
016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,
017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!
018.00B.010 And thou have sworne to seale joynt constancy,
018.00B.024 Fall ill or good, 'tis madnesse to have prov'd
020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradice, where we would have
021.00G.019 Or have we left undone some mutual Right,
021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
021.00G.053 Have we prov'd all the secrets of our Art,
021.00G.064 I have accus'd, should such a mischief doe.
021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;
024.00A.002 To have, is that enchanting force decai'd?
024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poetique fire;
024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
027.00A.015 And if my self have leave to see,
029.00A.006 That I have had the plague a yeare?
029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show
030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,
032.00A.012 Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
032.00A.013 Let Maps to other, worlds on worlds have showne,
034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?
035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,

036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
 038.00A.006 Mee travell, sojourne, snatch, plot, have, forget,
 039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
 039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?
 040.00A.012 But when I have done so,
 041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
 041.00A.002 Deare, I shall never have it all,
 041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
 041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
 041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,
 041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
 041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
 041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,
 045.00A.016 And so more steddily to have gone,
 049.00A.018 Who have the patterne with you still.
 049.00A.036 When these starres have supremacie:
 050.00A.002 As I have seen in one Autumnall face,
 051.00A.009 True Paradise, I have the serpent brought.
 052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
 052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,
 054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,
 057.00A.026 If mixture it of Feare, Shame, Honor have;
 059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
 059.00A.003 I have lov'd, and got, and told,
 061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,
 062.00A.074 Have heard this dialogue of one,
 063.00A.001 I have done one braver thing
 063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
 063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe
 063.00A.025 Then you have done a braver thing
 066.00A.018 Onely to give to such as have an incapacie.
 066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 067.00A.013 Have from a better braine,
 067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
 068.00A.002 Whom I have watch'd sixe or seaven dayes,
 068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 070.00A.003 (For graves have learn'd that woman-head
 070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
 071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,
 071.00A.010 And pleasure in your conquest have,

073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 081.HH5.009 But as ill Princes before they have obtaind
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 082.00A.023 Have wee two wept, and so
 084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
 107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.
 108.00A.012 Have taken cold, and their sweet murmures lost;
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 108.00A.228a No S^r. This paper I have justly got,
 109.00A.009 England to whom we'owe, what we be, and have,
 109.00A.012 Honour and misery have one face and way.)
 109.00A.072 Another Fiat, shall have no more day.
 110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 111.00A.017 And to'have as many eares as all have tongues;
 112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
 112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art
 123.NY3.007 Are Satirique fyres which vrg'd me to have writt
 126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
 126.00A.024 Mother, want matter, an%ld they only have
 129.00A.020 And hath for nature, what you have for taske.
 129.00A.024 Then I have done your honour wanting it.
 130.00A.017 Provide you manlyer dyet, you have seene
 130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
 131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
 131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 133.00A.005 What though thou have enough unworthinesse
 133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
 134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,

134.00A.026 And vertue,'and such ingredients, have made
 136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,
 136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence
 137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthyest things
 138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
 138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
 138.00A.014 Here Peter loves, there Paul have Dian's Fane.
 138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thanks I have forgot,
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;
 140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon
 142.00A.027 Have Vertue in Melancholy, and only there.
 142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
 143.00A.001 Though I be dead, and buried, yet I have
 143.00A.005 That thankfullnesse your favours have begot
 143.00A.011 First I confesse I have to others lent
 143.00A.016 (So as I have) in any other Mine;
 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 145.00A.054 Were swallowed into it, and have no name.
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,
 146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
 146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 149.00A.057 To have reform'd this forward heresie,
 150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,
 150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion
 150.00A.058 Might once have stray'd to superstition.
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
 151.00A.015 Was't not enough to have that palace wonne,
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 151.00A.044 Wee'had had a Saint, have now a holiday;
 153.00A.017 To morrows businesse, when the labourers have
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;
 153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
 153.00A.154 And great Sun-dyall, to have set us All?

153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
 153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,
 153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have
 154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
 158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.
 158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may have.
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can
 158.00A.169 Unvirtuous weeds might long unvex'd have stood;
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine have slain
 158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,
 158.00A.412 Great men have often taken, to espie
 158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
 158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can

 160.00A.040 That would have need to be pittied by thee?
 160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;
 161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 168.00A.003 For I have sinn'd, and sinn'd, and onely hee,
 169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,
 175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,
 176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
 176.00B.004 Mourne with some fruit, as I have mourn'd in vaine;
 176.00B.011 Have the remembrance of past joyes, for reliefe
 181.00A.003 Would I have profit by the sacrifice,
 181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
 181.00A.026 But yet spirituall have chiefe dignity.
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 183.00A.042 Accepted, would have serv'd, he yet shed all;
 184.00A.104 Though they have not obtain'd of thee,
 184.00A.110 Of Doctors, whose paines have unclasp'd, and taught
 184.00A.114 That what they have misdome
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 187.00A.008 Her friends have dealt, and now are enemie.
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.042 And they have given, only to be fed,
 187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast

187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
 187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had
 187.00A.127 In sackcloth have they girt themselves, and low
 187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there
 187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,
 187.00A.177 1 I am the man which have affliction seene,
 187.00A.237 42 Wee have rebell'd, and falne away from thee,
 187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.
 187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
 187.00A.286 Now in the streets forlorne have perished,
 187.00A.289 6 The daughters of my people have sinned more,
 187.00A.303 10 Women by nature pitifull, have eate
 187.00A.313 13 For the Priests sins, and Prophets, which have shed
 187.00A.330 We in desire and speculation have:
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that have least light:
 191.00B.019 Have both translated, and apply'd it too,
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,
 191.00B.048 (Though some have other Authors) Davids all:
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 193.00A.006 For, I have more.
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.012 For I have more.
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne

HAVENS.....1

HAVING.....28

001.00A.092 A many-coloured Peacock having spide,
 002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,
 003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given
 005.00A.032 By having leave to serve, am most richly
 006.00D.005 That in-land Sea, having discovered well,
 008.00B.045 Having by subtle fire a soule out-pull'd;
 013.00A.021 That from the worlds Common having sever'd thee,
 015.00G.003 The foe oft-times having the foe in sight,
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
 034.00A.012 For having purpos'd change, and falsehood; you
 055.00A.028 Having put love at last to shew this face.
 068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
 108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,
 108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes brest

112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
 126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
 133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
 138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
 145.00A.064 From having found their walkes, to finde their home.
 154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
 158.00A.374 So great a castle. And having for her house
 172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,
 182.00A.009 Whose body having walk'd on earth, and now
 187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,
 193.00A.017 And, having done that, Thou haste done,

HE.....355

001.00A.031 The silke, and gold he weares, and to that rate
 001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all
 001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,
 001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more
 001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see
 001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side
 001.00A.094 He followes, overtakes, goes on the way,
 001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me
 001.00A.102 Which understand none, he doth seeme to be
 001.00A.104 So is the Poxe; He answered not, but spy'd
 001.00A.106 At last his Love he in a windowe spies,
 001.00A.107 And like light dew exhal'd, he flings from mee
 001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;
 002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throwes
 002.00A.046 Like nets, or lime-twigs, wheresoever he goes,
 002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 002.00A.085 Pecemeeale he gets lands, and spends as much time
 002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire
 002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaires
 003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey

004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie
 004.00A.025 If he had liv'd then; And without helpe dies,
 004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,
 004.00A.045 In which he can win widdowes, and pay scores,
 004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!
 004.00A.051 This fellow chuseth me? He saith, Sir,
 004.00A.058 He stopt mee, and said; Nay, your Apostles were
 004.00A.061 By travaile. Then, as if he would have sold
 004.00A.062 His tongue, he praised it, and such words told
 004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,
 004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,
 004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch
 004.00A.092 He to another key, his stile doth adresse.
 004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staires
 004.00A.095 A Sembriefe, 'twixt each drop, he nigardly,
 004.00A.098 Of triviall houshold trash; He knowes; He knowes
 004.00A.098 Of triviall houshold trash; He knowes; He knowes
 004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what
 004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 004.00A.109 He with home-meats tries me; I belch, spue, spit,
 004.00A.111 He thrusts on more; And as if he 'undertooke
 004.00A.111 He thrusts on more; And as if he 'undertooke
 004.00A.119 He like a priviledg'd spie, whom nothing can
 004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 004.00A.122 He saith, our warres thrive ill, because delai'd;
 004.00A.127 Who wasts in meat, in clothes, in horse, he notes;
 004.00A/B136 Guilty, and he free: Therefore I did shew
 004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring
 004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,
 004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance
 004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,
 004.00A.169 Thinke he which made your waxen garden, and
 004.00A.195 He call'd her beauty limetwigs, her haire net.
 004.00A.210 To preach, he enters, and a Lady which owes
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.222 Whose cloak his spurres teare; whom he spits on
 004.00A.223 He cares not, His ill words doe no harme
 004.00A.224 To him; he rusheth in, as if arme, arme,
 004.00A.225 He meant to crie; And though his face be as ill
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 005.00A.002 Whom any pittie warmes; He which did lay
 005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
 005.00A.087 Then Haman, when he sold his Antiquities.

006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can 008.00B.064 He leaves himsele no roome to enter in.
 008.00B.068 Because he is the mouth of destiny.
 008.00B.088 Yea death, ere he would make your number lesse.
 010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,
 010.00B.008 As though he came to kill a Cocatrice,
 010.00A.033 He that to barre the first gate, doth as wide
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare
 015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.
 018.00B.023 Faire Orithea, whom he swore he lov'd.
 018.00B.023 Faire Orithea, whom he swore he lov'd.
 020.00G.001 Who ever loves, if he do not propose
 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strayes thus:
 020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every sphear
 020.00G.090 Then if at beauties enemies he stay.
 020.00G.095 He which doth not, his error is as great,
 021.00G.HE E%9legie%0. XIII.
 022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word
 022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,
 028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,
 029.00A.001 He is starke mad, who ever sayes,
 029.00A.002 That he hath beene in love an houre,
 029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.
 040.00A.011 For, he tames it, that fetters it in verse.
 042.00A.011 He hath no desire nor sense,
 046.00A.017 He which hath businesse, and makes love, doth doe
 050.00A.012 He in a fever wishes pestilence.
 050.00A.014 They were %1Loves%2 %1graves%2; for else he is no where.
 050.00A.018 He doth not digge a %1Grave%2, but build a %1Tombe%2.
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,
 050.00A.026 There he, as wine in %1lune%2, enrages blood,
 052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,
 053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,
 053.00A.021 And he that leaves all, doth as well,
 055.00A.029 This face, by which he could command
 056.00A.004 If on womankind he might his anger wreake,
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 059.00A.020 Which he in her Angelique findes,
 059.00A.021 Would sweare as justly, that he heares,
 061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes
 061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,

061.00A.011 And may he feele no touch
 061.00A.014 In early and long scarcenesse may he rot,
 061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not
 061.00A.017 May he dreame Treason, and beleeve, that hee
 061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 062.00A.022 That he soules language understood,
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 062.00A.028 And part farre purer then he came.
 062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
 063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
 063.00A.013 But he who lovelinesse within
 063.00A.015 For he who colour loves, and skinne,
 064.00a.009 Nor he, in his young godhead practis'd it.
 065.00A.009 And if sometimes by stealth he got
 065.00A.013 If he wroung from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
 070.00A.005 And he that digs it, spies
 070.00A.007 Will he not let'us alone,
 070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring
 080.00E.001 He that cannot chuse but love,
 080.00E.004 For he loves against his will;
 080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 080.00E.008 And when he list refuse.
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 080.00E.011 Nor he that can for foul ones care,
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 080.00E.016 He can neither [want] [nor] [craue]
 080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot
 088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee %1lies%2.
 092.NY3.004 In that late lland; for he well did know
 093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care
 106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
 106.00A.056 Yet shadowes turne; Noone point he hath attain'd,
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
 107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delayes, For, where is he?
 107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Spheare after Spheare.

108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.
 108.00A.204 As he that sees a starre fall, runs apace,
 110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,
 122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show
 129.00A.003 By which to you he derives much of his,
 129.00A.004 And (how he may) makes you almost the same,
 130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdaine.
 131.00B.048 Man ignorantly walk'd by her he lov'd;
 131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
 131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, %1Plough%2
 139.00A.038 He will perplex security with doubt,
 139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
 139.00A.056 For your owne conscience, he gives innocence,
 139.00A.059 Be better, he shoves both, and to repress
 139.00A.061 From need of teares he will defend your soule,
 139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule
 140.00A.023 To us, as to his chickins, he doth cast
 140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
 142.00A.023 To danger unimportun'd, he was than
 142.00A.063 He that beleeves himselfe, doth never lie.
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 146.00A.024 Pictures of him dead, senselesse, cold as he,
 146.00A.026 He, and about him, his, are turn'd to stone.
 150.00A.011 Now wantonly he spoiles, and eates us not,
 150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
 150.00A.017 He rounds the aire, and breakes the hymnique notes
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is G%9od%0 prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 152.12a.072 Industrious Man discerneth, as he thinks,

153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
153.00A.090 Which he successively to order brings;
153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,
153.00A.210 Of which he gave thee the vicariate,
153.00A.212 As he, who takes endeavours, doth require,
153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
153.00A.227 And he was joyned in commission
153.00A.234 At that authoritie, by which he got
153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
155.00a.003 (For who is sure he hath a soule, vnlesse
155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
155.00a.118 From the obseruers marking, he might stay
155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,
155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!
155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart
155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
155.00a.270 One inche direct; but where he rose to day
155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.
155.00a.276 In Circle still, none ends where he begunne.
155.00a.312 Of Harmony, he would at next haue said
155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
155.00a.462 A last, and lastingst peece, a song. He spake
155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
156.00a.083 He which not knowing her sad History,
157.00b.014 As though he beckned, and cal'd backe his Soul,
157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
157.00b.084 He honors it too much that thinks it nought.
157.00b.140 That he to disuniting subiect were.
157.00b.151 And though he may pretend a conquest, since
157.00b.153 Yea though he plead a long possession too,
157.00b.155 Though he had right, and power, and Place before,
157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
157.00b.405 Honor on him; not that he needed it,
157.00b.498 Shee, in whose goodnesse, he that names degree,
158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
158.00A.110 The worme and she, and he, and wee endure for it.
158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,

158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
158.00A.155 A leafie garland weares he on his head
158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
158.00A.209 He blood, and spirit, pith, and marrow spends,
158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
158.00A.234 Glided along, and as he glided watch'd,
158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,
158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,
158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
158.00A.319 Hee spouted rivers up, as if he ment
158.00A.321 He hunts not fish, but as an officer,
158.00A.331 Now drinkes he up seas, and he eates up flocks,
158.00A.331 Now drinkes he up seas, and he eates up flocks,
158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.
158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.
158.00A.386 Himselfe he up-props, on himselfe relies
158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
158.00A.414 To Abels tent he stealeth in the darke,
158.00A.417 Embracements of love; to loves worke he goes,
158.00A.423 If to the flocke he come, and Abell there,
158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
158.00A.444 He, as his dam, from sheepe drove wolves away,
158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
158.00A.446 Five yeares he liv'd, and cosened with his trade,
158.00A.449 From dogges, a wolfe; from wolves, a dogge he fled;
158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.
158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,
158.00A.477 He gazeth on her face with teare-shot eyes,
158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there
160.00A.031 There he hath made himselfe to his intent
160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he

160.00A.055 He in his ages morning thus began
160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?
163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;
168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.
172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
172.00A.006 And still begetting, (for he ne'r begonne)
173.00A.006 Was from the worlds beginning slaine, and he
177.00B.013 O pensive soule, to God, for he knowes best
177.00B.014 Thy grieve, for he put it into my breast.
181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow
182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
183.00A.016 Gabriell gives Christ to her, He her to John;
183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
183.00A.037 Or as creation he hath made, as God,
183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
183.00A.042 Accepted, would have serv'd, he yet shed all;
184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prayes,
187.00A.050 He hath cast from heaven on my bones, and spred
187.00A.057 15 He underfoot hath troden in my sight
187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite
187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath
187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,
187.00A.101 4 Like to an enemie he bent his bow,
187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
187.00A.109 6 Like to a garden hedge he hath cast downe
187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturue
187.00A.153 17 The Lord hath done that which he purposed,
187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe
187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,
187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath
187.00A.190 Or Beare which lyes in wait, he was to mee,
187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
187.00A.192 12 And hee makes mee the marke he shooteth at.
187.00A.196 15 Hee hath fill'd mee with bitternesse, and he
187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst
187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,
187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes
187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes
187.00A.220 Deepe in the dust, yet then in hope he stayes.
187.00A.221 30 He gives his cheekes to whosoever will
187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.
187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,

187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is 191.00B.010 (For 'twas a double power by which he sung
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

HE'HAD.....1

172.00A.012 Us whom he'had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.

HE'HATH.....2

061.00A.007 Forswear to others, what to her he'hath sworne,
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath stricke with sadnes, hee doth take

HE'IMPAIRES.....1

002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaired

HE'IS.....1

011.00A.015 O give him many thanks, he'is courteous,

HE'S.....6

004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,
 020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes
 020.00G.029 He's an infernal god and under ground,
 140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:

HE'WILL.....1

160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'will weare

HEAD.....25

001.00A.111 Directly came to mee hanging the head,
 003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know
 005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw
 006.00D.012 Nor poorely limited with head or foot.
 008.00B.037 Which, as the soule quickens head, feet and heart,
 008.00B.052 Much of my able youth, and lusty head
 009.00A.015 Round as the world's her head, on every side,
 014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.
 015.00G.016 The haiery Diadem which on your head doth grow:
 019.00A.007 My face and brest of hairecloth, and my head
 030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just aboute our head,
 049.00A.021 It, as a given deaths head keepe,
 062.00A.003 The violets reclining head,
 136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 157.00b.011 One from the Trunke, another from the Head,
 158.00A.155 A leafie garland weares he on his head

158.00A.307 And torne the hopefull Promontories head,
 170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
 183.00A.009 Her Maker put to making, and the head
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
 187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe

HEADLONG.....4

001.00A.012 And follow headlong, wild uncertaine thee?
 131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
 140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
 155.00a.097 Except they headlong come, and fall vpon

HEADS.....2

187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
 187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.

HEALE.....1

175.00B.014 Of thee and thy house, which doth in eating heale.

HEALTH.....3

021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 157.00b.048 T'is th'onely Health, to be Hydropique so.

HEALTHS.....1

006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:

HEAPE.....1

131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,

HEAPES.....1

154.00A.024 Not to lesse houses, but, to heapes of stone;

HEAR.....1

152.12a.089 Oh! May I (since I liue) but see or hear

HEARD.....11

037.00A.019 Venus heard me sigh this song,
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
 062.00A.074 Have heard this dialogue of one,
 130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
 140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,
 157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;

184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
 187.00A.116 Are heard, as in the true solemnities.
 187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,

HEARD'ST.....1

184.00A.206 O Thou who Satan heard'st in Jobs sicke day,

HEARDST.....1

187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;

HEARE.....33

003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 004.00A.117 To heare this Makeron talke in vaine: For yet,
 033.00A.005 Teach me to heare Mermaides singing,
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 109.00A.049 And tremblingly'aske what newes, and doe heare so,
 109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
 133.00A.021 Then as a mother which delights to heare
 139.00A.064 Your name; and when with active joy we heare
 147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,
 157.00b.297 Nor heare through Laberinth of eares, nor learne
 157.00b.340 Shall in the Angels songs no discord heare;
 157.00b.465 Who being heare filld with grace, yet stroue to bee,
 158.00A.063 Which as the Moone the sea, moves us, to heare
 184.00A.125 Heare this prayer Lord, O Lord deliver us
 184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
 184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.233 Us, to amendment, heare them; thee decline;
 184.00A.243 Heare us, weake ecchoes, O thou eare, and cry.
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 187.00A.071 O heare all people, and my sorrow see,
 187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
 187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;
 191.00B.028 (For, Angels learne by what the Church does heare)

HEARERS.....2

050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell

HEARES.....3

001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side
059.00A.021 Would sweare as justly, that he heares,
191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,

HEARING.....5

004.00A.133 To sucke me in, for hearing him. I found
109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our saylers; and if they
153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is
157.00b.452 (Hearing, and speaking to him) as to know
184.00A.223 From hearing bold wits jeast at Kings excesse,

HEARKEN.....1

184.00A.122 Prayes ceaslesly, 'and thou hearken too

HEARKENS.....1

031.00A.031 It leanes, and hearkens after it,

HEARSE.....1

039.00A.029 And if unfit for tombes and hearse

HEARST.....1

157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,

HEART.....88

005.00A.043 If Law be in the Judges heart, and hee
005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,
008.00B.037 Which, as the soule quickens head, feet and heart,
008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordially, would twere at thy heart.
012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.
019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
021.00G.054 Yea, thy pale inwards, and thy panting heart?
021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
024.00A.009 Onely thine image, in my heart, doth sit,
025.00A.009 Send home my harmlesse heart againe,
025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,
026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.
029.00A.009 Ah, what a trifle is a heart,
029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
029.00A.019 I brought a heart into the roome,
029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show
029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,

035.00A.002 Whose faire impression in my faithfull heart,
 035.00A.005 The value: goe, and take my heart from hence,
 035.00A.021 But dearest heart, and dearer image stay;
 041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
 041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
 041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
 041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
 042.00A.033 Let not thy divining heart
 043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,
 046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,
 049.00A.046 New battry to thy heart may frame,
 052.00A.041 Who though from heart, and eyes,
 057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
 061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
 065.00A.010 A she sigh from my mistresse heart,
 068.00A.009 Little think'st thou poore heart
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
 068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
 108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,
 108.00A.119 As hers, and her heart loves as well as his?
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.
 108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.214 As freely, as each to each before, gave either eye or heart.
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart
 127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,
 131.00B.023 I come not to call pittie from your heart,

139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 151.00A.062 Of griefe, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.
 155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
 157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,
 158.00A.499 Part hardned it selfe to a thicker heart,
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,
 171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you
 174.00B.014 And thou like Adamant draw mine iron heart.
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone
 184.00A.005 My heart is by dejection, clay,
 184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,
 184.00A.024 Double in my heart thy flame,
 187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,
 187.00A.088 Are very many, and my heart is sad.
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;
 187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.
 187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,
 187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,
 187.00A.267 65 Sorrow of heart, thy curse. 66 And with thy might

HEARTS.....25

022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
 029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.
 032.00A.016 And true plaine hearts doe in the faces rest,
 041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
 064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
 107.00A.054 And that you'are one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 108.00A.100 Either the Court or mens hearts to invade,
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 113.00A.024 The straw, which doth about our hearts sojourne.
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,
 120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts
 142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,
 151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
 151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
 156.00a.023 Lawyers for tongues, Diuines for hearts, and more,
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,

187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this

HEARTS-BANE.....1

011.00A.014 Swallow his owne death, hearts-bane jealousy.

HEAT.....9

009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 077.00A.015 Or like the heat, which, fire in solid matter
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 108.00A.036 Continuall, but artificiall heat;
 110.00A.050 Under the poles may begge cold, heat in hell.
 131.00B.103 Whose heat doth force us thither to intend,
 140.00A.026 Corrosivenesse, or intense cold or heat.
 187.00A.097 3 In heat of wrath, the horne of Israel hee

HEATE.....5

050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 054.00A.025 And though each spring doe adde to love new heate,
 081.HH5.018 which takinge heate from every amorous Eye
 081.HH5.034 to chafe & heate waxe for an others seale
 153.00A.194 But with thine owne affections, with the heate

HEATHEN.....4

157.00b.425 But as the Heathen made them seuerall gods,
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there
 187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,

HEATS.....2

039.00A.014 When did the heats which my veines fill
 131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move

HEAU'N.....4

155.00a.261 As though heau'n suffred earth-quakes, peace or war,
 155.00a.378 Then that her influence the heau'n forbears,
 156.00a.067 But as when Heau'n lookes on vs with new eyes,
 156.00a.105 And 'tis in heau'n part of spirituall mirth,

HEAUEN.....33

014.NY3.024 In a calme heauen, here in a swaggering hell.
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.008 And, as t'her standing house, to heauen did clymbe,
 155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
 155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.

155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.
 155.00a.392 Heauen hither, or constellate any thing,
 155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 155.00a.473 Verse hath a middle nature: heauen keepes soules,
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 157.00b.089 For such approaches doth Heauen make in death.
 157.00b.150 Title to Heauen, and plead it by his Faith,
 157.00b.152 Heauen was content to suffer violence,
 157.00b.154 (For they're in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.216 Heauen is as neare, and present to her face,
 157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was growen
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.382 That accidentall ioyes in Heauen doe grow.
 157.00b.439 Double on Heauen, thy thoughts on Earth emloid;
 157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,
 157.00b.469 A heauen, and here, became vnto vs all,
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 178.NY3.003 And her Soule early into heauen rauished,
 180.NY3.009 I durst not view heauen yesterday; & to day

HEAUENLY.....1

178.NY3.004 Wholy in heauenly things my Mind is sett.

HEAUENS.....5

118.NY3.003 Whereof thou'and all to whom heauens do infuse
 155.00a.251 We thinke the heauens enjoy their Sphericall
 155.00a.280 Vpon the Heauens, and now they are his owne.
 157.00b.154 (For they're in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.472 Heauens accidentall ioyes would passe them much.

HAUUY.....1

155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,

HEAV'N.....12

069.00A.002 Where, if Heav'n would distill
 108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
 138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
 152.12a.059 And could Grief gett so high as Heav'n, that Quire
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe

153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.081 As when an Angell down from heav'n doth flye,
 153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.
 153.00A.108 In heav'n, the other might securely, 'have pac'd
 153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
 153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,
 184.00A.041 Whose wombe was a strange heav'n, for there

HEAVEN.....1

175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high

HEAVEN.....44

003.00A.012 Meete blinde Philosophers in heaven, whose merit
 008.00B.013 Angels, which heaven commanded to provide
 008.00B.061 Which hath divided heaven in tenements,
 015.00G.021 A heaven like Mahomets Paradice, and though
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
 054.00A.023 Those like so many speares, but one heaven make,
 058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
 067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
 106.00A.092 Of heaven, to morrow rise thou hot, and early;
 108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,
 108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;
 109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.
 110.00A.006 In calmes, Heaven laughs to see us languish thus.
 129.00A.016 To heaven in troupes at'a good mans passing bell:
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,
 131.00B.097 The soule with body, is a heaven combin'd
 133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity
 141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
 147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,
 172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
 182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow
 184.00A.001 Father of Heaven, and him, by whom
 184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee
 187.00A.050 He hath cast from heaven on my bones, and spred

187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.
 187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.
 187.00A.248 50 Untill the Lord looke downe from heaven to see.
 187.00A.268 Follow, and from under heaven destroy them quite.
 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they
 189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?
 189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,

HEAVEN'S.....1

015.00G.019 In such white robes, heaven's Angels us'd to be

HEAVENLY.....6

141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 150.00A.020 A tenth ranke in the heavenly hierarchie.
 158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.
 158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine
 166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,
 184.00A.068 Those heavenly Poets which did see

HEAVENS.....18

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly
 003.00A.008 Are not heavens joyes as valiant to asswage
 005.00A.061 Powers, Cherubins, and all heavens Court, if wee
 015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,
 062.00A.057 On man heavens influence workes not so,
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.
 120.00A.010 Heavens liberall and earths thrice-faire Sunne,
 122.00A.016 Havens are Heavens, and Ships wing'd Angels be,
 127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,
 140.00A.018 For man can adde weight to heavens heaviest curse.
 146.00A.014 Ere rigg'd a soule for heavens discoverie
 150.00A.018 In birds, Heavens choristers, organique throats,
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 184.00A.048 Native in heavens faire Palaces
 189.00B.040 Than Kings give dignities; to keepe heavens doore?
 189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse

HEAVIER.....1

187.00A.186 To my steele fetters, heavier then before,

HEAVIEST.....2

008.00B.093 Gold being the heaviest metal amongst all,
 140.00A.018 For man can adde weight to heavens heaviest curse.

HEAVY.....4

005.00A.051 Heavy and most faint; and in these labours they,
 008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:
 131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime
 158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.

HECATOMBS.....1

002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,

HECTIQUE.....1

155.00a.243 Thou seest a Hectique feuer hath got hold

HEDG'D.....1

187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more

HEDGE.....1

187.00A.109 6 Like to a garden hedge he hath cast downe

HEDGES.....1

108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip

HEE.....149

001.00A.034 What lands hee hath in hope, or of his owne,
 001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh'st the ground.
 001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]
 001.00A.087 Hee droopt, wee went, till one (which did excell
 001.00A.110 Hee quarrell'd, fought, bled; and turn'd out of dore
 002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw
 002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not
 002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke
 002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;
 002.00A.080 Satan will not joy at their sinnes, as hee.
 002.00A.087 In parchment then, large as his fields, hee drawes
 002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,
 003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare
 003.00A.026 Canst thou for gaine beare? and must every hee
 003.00A.045 Seekes her at Rome, there, because hee doth know
 003.00A.058 Which dwels with us, is onely perfect, hee
 003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will
 004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.
 004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 005.00A.003 Rules to make Courtiers, (hee being understood
 005.00A.007 Charity and liberty give me. What is hee

005.00A.043 If Law be in the Judges heart, and hee
 005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee
 008.00B.058 And gall the finders conscience; if hee meet.
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
 011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,
 018.00B.022 How roughly hee in peeces shivered
 019.00A.015 Or doe they reach his judging minde, that hee
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pittie;
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 022.00A.044 Till hee be noysome as his infamie;
 022.00A.047 And after all selfe torment, when hee dyes,
 029.00A.014 Hee swallows us, and never chawes:
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 042.00A.016 More wings and spurres then hee.
 053.00A.023 And when hee hath the kernell eate,
 055.00A.014 Except that hee Loves minion were.
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 061.00A.009 Madnesse his sorrow, gout his cramp, may hee
 061.00A.017 May he dreame Treason, and beleeve, that hee
 063.00A.020 And forget the Hee and Shee;
 064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
 065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
 077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 077.00A.004 That any loves but hee:
 077.00A.006 Hee was kill'd yesterday.
 077.00A.010 Hee that saith twice, doth lye:
 077.00A.011 For though hee seeme to move, and stirre a while,
 088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee lies.
 098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be belev'd.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
 107.00A.085 Here lyes a shee Sunne, and a hee Moone here,
 108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
 108.00A.089 Hee is admitted now into that brest
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
 128.LR1.007 yet gleanes hee many of our friends away)
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee

130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,
 139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show
 139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd
 141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,
 142.00A.021 'Tis but his flegme that's Vertuous, and not Hee:
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew
 146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
 150.00A.007 In a rude hunger now hee millions drawes
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 151.00A.041 And when wee teares, hee mercy shed in this,
 152.12a.084 Too-narrow, to think HIM, as Hee is HEE
 153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
 153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see
 153.00A.224 His territory was no more then Hee?
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
 155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
 157.00b.199 Hee that charm'd Argus eies, sweet Mercury,
 157.00b.443 This is essentiall ioye, where neither hee
 158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still
 158.00A.153 A young Colossus there hee stands upright,
 158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
 158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast
 158.00A.296 That leagues o'er-past at sea, now tir'd hee lyes,
 158.00A.318 Some Inland sea, and ever as hee went
 158.00A.319 Hee spouted rivers up, as if he ment
 158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,
 158.00A.397 To kill, not scape, for, only hee that ment
 158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,

158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so
 158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;
 158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
 158.00A.436 Sonne to himselfe, and father too, hee is
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.058 Hee faith in some, envie in some begat,
 160.00A.065 Nay to an inch, loe, where condemned hee
 160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,
 160.00A.091 Nor doth hee by ascending, show alone,
 160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,
 160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,
 163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?
 168.00A.003 For I have sinn'd, and sinn'd, and onely hee,
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 173.00A.004 Hee keepes, and gives to me his deaths conquest.
 181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 187.00A.097 3 In heat of wrath, the horne of Israel hee
 187.00A.121 9 Their gates are sunke into the ground, and hee
 187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,
 187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more
 187.00A.192 12 And hee makes mee the marke he shooteth at.
 187.00A.193 13 Hee made the children of his quiver passe
 187.00A.196 15 Hee hath fill'd mee with bitternesse, and he
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath strucke with sadnes, hee doth take
 187.00A.337 20 The annoited Lord, breath of our nostrils, hee
 187.00A.347 Thy sinnes O Edoms daughter, hee will see,
 191.00B.029 This Quire hath all. The Organist is hee

HEE'S.....3

003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.
 106.00A.029 Yee of those fellowships whereof hee's one,
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.

HEED.....4

047.00A.001 Take heed of loving mee,
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 047.00A.009 Take heed of hating mee,
 047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.

HEERE.....2

135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe
 135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe

HEIGHT.....4

006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 137.00A.008 (Where a transcendent height, (as, lownesse mee)
 185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is

HEIGHTS.....3

052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 108.00A.175 That, new great heights to trie,
 181.00A.054 And when it to forbidden heights pretends.

HEINOUS.....1

166.00A.006 Make sinnes, else equall, in mee, more heinous?

HEIRE.....4

001.00A.024 A speech to Court his beautious sonne and heire?
 001.00A.058 The infant of London, Heire to an India,
 061.00A.016 Himselfe incestuously an heire begot:
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.

HEIRES.....4

002.00A.079 And spying heires melting with luxurie,
 108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thankes, you, to give,
 158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so

HELD.....1

HELICONIAN.....1

124.00A.008 Fresh water at the Heliconian spring;

HELL.....22

002.00A.036 Schoolemen, new tenements in hell must make:
 004.00A.003 A Purgatorie, such as fear'd hell is
 004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance
 006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell
 008.00B.022 When in that hell they'are burnt and tyed in chains:
 010.00A.035 Which, if in hell no other paines there were,
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 011.00A.008 His Soule out of one hell, into a new,
 014.NY3.024 In a calme heauen, here in a swaggering hell.
 021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 021.00G.006 And that great Hell to boot are shadows to it.
 108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
 109.00A.066 Hell somewhat lightsome, and the' Bermuda calme.
 110.00A.050 Under the poles may begge cold, heat in hell.

112.00A.048 Inne any where, continuance maketh hell.
 115.00A.008 Both of the place and paines of hell, are ended;
 115.00A.009 And 'tis decreed our hell is but privation
 152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 164.00A.012 To where they'are bred, and would presse me, to hell.
 170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
 174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;
 182.00A.006 On the earths face, as thou, enlightned hell,

HELLISH.....1

008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;

HELP.....2

012.00A.024 Her wedded channels bosome, and then chide
012.00A.025 And bend her browes, and swell if any bough
012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne
012.00A.028 The traiterous banks to gape, and let her in,
012.00A.030 Her from her native, and her long-kept course,
012.00A.030 Her from her native, and her long-kept course,
012.00A.030 Her from her native, and her long-kept course,
014.NY3.009 France in her Lunatique giddines did hate
014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.
016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.
017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,
017.00A.023 She's faire as any, if all be like her,
017.00A.026 Account her wonderfull, why not lovely too?
017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit
017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
017.00A.051 Whom, if shee accuse her selfe, I credit lesse

020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
 020.00G.026 From her to hers, is more adulterous,
 020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every sphear
 020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
 020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 020.00G.058 The Rhemora her cleaving tongue doth dwell.
 020.00G.059 These, and (the glorious Promontory) her Chin
 020.00G.061 The %1Sestos%2 and %1Abydos%2 of her breasts,
 020.00G.065 And Sailing towards her %1India%2, in that way
 020.00G.066 Shall at her fair Atlantick Naval stay;
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;
 021.00G.076 Waters suggest her clear, and the earth sure;
 021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.
 024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.
 033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,

 035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
 036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
 036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,
 037.00A.002 Her whom abundance melts, and her whom want betraies,
 037.00A.002 Her whom abundance melts, and her whom want betraies,
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 037.00A.004 Her whom the country form'd, & whom the town,
 037.00A.005 Her who beleeves, and her who tries,
 037.00A.005 Her who beleeves, and her who tries,
 037.00A.006 Her who still weepes with spungie eyes,
 037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 039.00A.020 Call her one, mee another flye,
 043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
 044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?
 050.00A.007 Were her first yeares the %1Golden%2 %1Age%2; That's true,
 050.00A.009 That was her torrid and inflaming time,

 064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
 064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
 064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
 064.00a.025 A deeper plague, to make her love mee too,
 066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,
 066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,
 066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
 066.00A.044 Who thinkes her friendship a fit portion
 066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
 067.00A.008 And keepe these limbes, her Provinces, from dissolution.
 068.00A.013 And hop'st her stiffenesse by long siege to bow:
 068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
 068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
 069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;
 072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
 073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 082.00A.042 Since shee enjoys her long nights festivall,
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call
 082.00A.044 This houre her Vigill, and her eve, since this
 082.00A.044 This houre her Vigill, and her eve, since this
 106.00A.019 Conceitedly dresse her, and be assign'd,
 106.00A.021 Make her for love fit fewell
 106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings
 106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings
 106.00A.090 The priest comes on his knees t'embowell her;
 106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
 106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
 107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.
 107.00A.077 Should vanish from her cloathes, into her bed,
 107.00A.077 Should vanish from her cloathes, into her bed,
 107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,
 107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 108.00A.061 The earth doth in her inner bowels hold
 108.00A.119 As hers, and her heart loves as well as his?
 108.00A.136 To shew to her, who doth the like impart,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraine grave

109.00A.013 From out her pregnant intrailles sigh'd a winde
 113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,
 113.00A.002 Her selfe a Nunne, tyed to retirednesse,
 118.NY3.010 Vpon her tender Elegiaque string?
 120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 126.00A.016 Embrace her ever, ever multiply,
 126.00A.018 To tempt thee and procure her widdowhood,
 126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,
 130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,
 130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
 130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone
 130.00A.014 Her appetite, and her digestion mend,
 130.00A.014 Her appetite, and her digestion mend,
 130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
 131.00B.048 Man ignorantly walk'd by her he lov'd;
 131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 131.00B.117 There is an equall distance from her eye,
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is
 133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.
 133.00A.022 Her early child mispeake halfe uttered words,
 133.00A.027 For, speech of ill, and her thou must abstaine,
 133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
 133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
 133.00A.030 And wit, and vertue,'and honour her attend,
 133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.
 133.00A.034 Perchance her Cabinet may harbour thee,
 133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
 133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,
 133.00A.050 Nor to make my selfe her familiar;
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 135.B13.027 that keepes vntoucht her first virginite.
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 137.00A.017 Widow'd and reclus'd else, her sweets she'enshrines
 137.00A.045 What walls of tender christall her enfold,

137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
 138.00A.074 Neither beleeve her good, nor others ill,
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
 141.00A.032 T'adhere in these names, her and you to show,
 145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
 148.00A.012 And wee your rich Tombe in her face had seene;
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 148.00A.028 Her flesh rests in the earth, as in the bed;
 148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper spheare,
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,
 149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.
 149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines
 149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
 149.00A.039 Grace was in her extremely diligent,
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 149.00A.056 How good in all her titles, and how meet,
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.
 150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,
 150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,
 150.00A.049 Because in her, her vertues did outgoe
 150.00A.049 Because in her, her vertues did outgoe
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost
 150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.
 150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 151.00A.026 Th'hast lost thy end, for in her perish all;

151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 151.00A.035 Her soule was Paradise; the Cherubin
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 152.12a.086 In her long %1ourney%2 of %1Considering%2 G%9OD%0)
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 153.00A.176 Which doth extend her utmost gates to them;
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 155.00a.009 Where, loth to make the Saints attend her long,
 155.00a.017 But goodnes, to see her, whom all would see,
 155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than
 155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.072 Reflects from her, on them which vnderstood
 155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
 155.00a.074 The twi-light of her memory doth stay;
 155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.
 155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
 155.00a.181 Out of her thoughts, and deeds; and purifie
 155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,
 155.00a.197 And turn'd her braines, and tooke a generall maime
 155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:
 155.00a.236 As Suburbs, or the Microcosme of her,
 155.00a.285 But keeps the earth her round proportion still?
 155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,
 155.00a.315 And did from her into our bodies go,
 155.00a.320 A type of her in this, that contrary
 155.00a.322 In her, who caus'd all Ciuill warre to cease.
 155.00a.368 And liueliest stones but drowsie, and pale to her,)
 155.00a.378 Then that her influence the heau'n forbears,
 155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.

155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
 155.00a.408 To sing her funerall prayse, and vanish than.
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
 155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
 155.00a.457 From her example, and her vertue, if you
 155.00a.457 From her example, and her vertue, if you
 155.00a.458 In reuerence to her, doe thinke it due,
 155.00a.459 That no one should her prayses thus rehearse,
 155.00a.470 Me, from thus trying to emprison her.
 156.00a.002 Or to confine her in a Marble chest.
 156.00a.007 And so is all to her materials,
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
 156.00a.021 For her death wounded it. The world containes
 156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
 156.00a.035 Death cannot giue her such another blow,
 156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
 156.00a.046 Her, greater, purer, firmer, then before?
 156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,
 156.00a.062 Or exhalation breath'd out from her soule.
 156.00a.075 Cloath'd in her Virgin white integrity;
 156.00a.083 He which not knowing her sad History,
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 156.00a.093 Her destiny to her selfe; which liberty
 156.00a.093 Her destiny to her selfe; which liberty
 156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee
 156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 156.00a.099 Euery such person is her delegate,
 156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.
 156.00a.102 Of fate and her, for filling vp their blanks.
 156.00a.104 Which from the gift of her example rise.
 156.00a.106 To see how well, the good play her, on earth.
 157.00b.012 His soule be saild, to her eternall bed,
 157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.
 157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.
 157.00b.029 Forgetting her, the maine Reserue of all,
 157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,
 157.00b.065 Looke vpward; that's towards her, whose happy state
 157.00b.068 Where all sat harkning how her youthfull age
 157.00b.124 That which of her Ingredients should inuade
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare
 157.00b.197 Venus retards her not, to'enquire, how shee

157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enioyes this her third birth,
 157.00b.215 (Creation gaue her one, a second, grace,)
 157.00b.216 Heauen is as neare, and present to her face,
 157.00b.223 An Age in her; shee whose rich beauty lent
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euery limme;
 157.00b.242 Her body was th'Electrum, and did hold
 157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood
 157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood
 157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood
 157.00b.245 Spoke in her cheekes, and so distinckly wrought,
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.304 At home, in her owne thoughts, And practised
 157.00b.310 Of her some one thought, or one action:
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,
 157.00b.319 And cald vs after her, in that shee tooke,
 157.00b.344 Then for her interest, of mother-hood.
 157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:
 157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:
 157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue
 157.00b.371 Shee gaue protections; the thoughts of her brest
 157.00b.374 Made her a soueraigne state, religion
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
 157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,
 158.00A.087 (Whom and her race, only forbiddings drive)
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw
 158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw
 158.00A.130 There through th'earths-pores, and in a Plant hous'd her a new.
 158.00A.164 Her sinne had now brought in infirmities,
 158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes
 158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her child's blood;
 158.00A.176 Thoughtlesse of change, when her firme destiny
 158.00A.177 Confin'd, and enjayld her, that seem'd so free,
 158.00A.180 Till her uncloth'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.
 158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 158.00A.222 The Soule from her too active organs fled
 158.00A.229 Her scales seem'd yet of parchment, and as yet

158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,
 158.00A.244 She left her house the fish, and vapour'd forth;
 158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire
 158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire
 158.00A.252 And journeyes with her, towards the glassie deepe,
 158.00A.261 Here by her smallnesse shee two deaths orepast,
 158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is
 158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
 158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,
 158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,
 158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,
 158.00A.334 And like a Prince she sends her faculties
 158.00A.335 To all her limbes, distant as Provinces.
 158.00A.374 So great a castle. And having for her house
 158.00A.410 That the wolfe, (hopelesse else) to corrupt her, intends.
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,
 158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;
 158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 158.00A.458 Doth gaze on her, and, where she passeth, passe,
 158.00A.459 Gathers her fruits, and tumbles on the grasse,
 158.00A.468 Her anger on himselfe. Sinnes against kinde
 158.00A.477 He gazeth on her face with teare-shot eyes,
 158.00A.479 Her kidskinne apron without feare or awe
 158.00A.483 Succeeds an itchie warmth, that melts her quite,
 158.00A.488 Her brother, entred, and a great stone threw
 158.00A.494 Like Chimiques equall fires, her temperate wombe
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 159.52a.001 Her of your name, whose fair inheritance
 161.00A.010 Doth with her sister, your invention, hold,
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,
 178.NY3.001 Since She whome I lovd, hath payd her last debt
 178.NY3.003 And her Soule early into heauen rauished,
 178.NY3.005 Here the admyring her my Mind did whett
 183.00A.009 Her Maker put to making, and the head
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 183.00A.016 Gabriell gives Christ to her, He her to John;
 183.00A.016 Gabriell gives Christ to her, He her to John;
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;
 184.00A.043 Our zealous thankes wee poure. As her deeds were

184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.
 184.00A.157 To'ungratious us, staid'st at her full of grace,
 184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall
 187.00A.006 Downe by her cheekes along, and none of all
 187.00A.007 Her lovers comfort her; Perfidiously
 187.00A.007 Her lovers comfort her; Perfidiously
 187.00A.008 Her friends have dealt, and now are enemie.
 187.00A.012 In streights shee meets her Persecutors sword.
 187.00A.013 4 Emptie are the gates of Sion, and her waies
 187.00A.014 Mournne, because none come to her solemne dayes.
 187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,
 187.00A.015 Her Priests doe groane, her maides are comfortlesse,
 187.00A.016 And shee's unto her selfe a bitterness.
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.018 Because when her transgressions did increase,
 187.00A.019 The Lord strooke her with sadnesse: Th'enemie
 187.00A.020 Doth drive her children to captivitie.
 187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.
 187.00A.031 Who honor'd, scorne her, for her foulnesse they
 187.00A.031 Who honor'd, scorne her, for her foulnesse they
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.033 9 Her foulnesse in her skirts was seene, yet she 187.00A.033 9 Her foulnesse in her skirts was seene, yet she
 187.00A.034 Remembred not her end; Miraculously
 187.00A.037 10 Upon all things where her delight hath beene,
 187.00A.040 Into her holy Sanctuary goe.
 187.00A.041 11 And all her people groane, and seeke for bread;
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though %1Sion%2 do stretch out her hand
 187.00A.066 To comfort her, it is the Lords command
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.293 7 But heretofore purer her Nazarite
 187.00A.308 To eate, and her foundations to devour.
 187.00A.342 Thou which inhabitst her, for unto thee

001.00A.004 In prison, and here be coffin'd, when I dye;

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here

001.00A.005 Here are Gods conduits; grave Divines, and here

001.00A.009 Here gathering Chroniclers, and by them stand

001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?

003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey

003.00A.055 Graius staves still at home here, and because

004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,

005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be

006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke

008.00B.025 I think possesseth, they come here to us,

008.00B.095 Here fetter'd, manacled, and hang'd in chains,

014.NY3.024 In a calme heauen, here in a swaggering hell.

014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.

014.NY3.036 There we are allwayes vnder, here above.

014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.

014.NY3.039 There lyes are wrongs; here safe vprightly ly;

017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit

018.00B.011 Here I unswear, and overswear them thus,

018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee

018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee

019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;

021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,

021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.

024.00A.027 Here lovers sweare in their Idolatrie,

030.00B.004 Walking here; Two shadowes went

035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:

036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.

036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.

036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;

042.00A.010 And yet is here to day,

048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we're Kings, and none but wee

049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.

050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,

050.00A.006 Affections here take Reverences name.

050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit

050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,
 050.00A.020 In Progresse, yet his standing house is here.
 050.00A.021 Here, where still Evening is; not noone, nor night;
 051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
 052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
 068.00A.011 And think'st by hovering here to get a part
 068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:
 068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:
 068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 077.00A.020 Love-slaine, loe, here I dye.
 082.00A.036 As shadow, a light, and body must be here.
 084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.
 106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
 107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?
 107.00A.085 Here lyes a shee Sunne, and a hee Moone here,
 107.00A.085 Here lyes a shee Sunne, and a hee Moone here,
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 108.00A.129 Let me here contemplate thee,
 108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 108.00A.217 May these love-lamps we here enshrine,
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I
 111.00A.003 That vice doth here habitually dwell.
 111.00A.007 For here no one is from the'extremitie
 121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene
 121.NY3.018 And then at Winter retaile it here abroad.
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 126.00A.007 Here toughly chew, and sturdily digest
 127.00A.006 Here rages chafes and threatens pestilence;
 129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;
 130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.
 130.00A.048 You came with mee to Micham, and are here.
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
 131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:
 133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne
 134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here

134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 137.00A.028 Whilst here to you, wee sacrificers runne;
 138.00A.014 Here Peter loves, there Paul have Dian's Fane.
 142.00A.001 Here where by All All Saints invoked are,
 142.00A.055 I should write here, as in short Galleries
 146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 147.00B.018 Here bodies with lesse miracle enjoy
 147.00B.019 Such priviledges, enabled here to scale
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 151.00A.049 And did prefigure here, in devout tast,
 153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;
 153.00A.039 Deeds of good men, for by their living here,
 153.00A.116 How here, how there, the Sunne affected is,
 153.00A.153 Disordered, stay here, as a generall
 153.00A.181 Let me here use that freedome, and expresse
 153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,
 154.00A.018 Gangred all Orders here; all lost a limbe.
 154.00A.029 For, as in his fame, now, his soule is here,
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 155.00a.328 That here is nothing to enamor thee:
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.443 Here therefore be the end: And, blessed maid,
 156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?
 157.00b.312 Here vpon Earth, to such perfection,
 157.00b.388 Here vpon earth? what permanent effect
 157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
 157.00b.461 Who by a faithfull confidence, was here
 157.00b.469 A heauen, and here, became vnto vs all,
 157.00b.511 Here in a place, where mis-deuotion frames
 157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.
 158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
 158.00A.059 Sailes hoised there, stroke here, and anchors laid
 158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 158.00A.092 And one by one we're here slaine o'er againe
 158.00A.094 The daughters here corrupts us,
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.261 Here by her smallnesse shee two deaths orepast,
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 178.NY3.005 Here the admyring her my Mind did whett
 179.NY3.004 Laments & mournes in Germany & here?
 180.NY3.013 Like a fantastique Ague: Save that here
 182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.

184.00A.119 That Church in triumph, this in warfare here,
 185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus 187.00A.305 11 Iehova here fully accomplish'd hath
 189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
 191.00B.013 That worke againe, and shed it, here, upon
 192.00B.004 I tune the Instrument here at the dore,
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.

HERE'S.....2

050.00A.039 Whose Eyes seeke light within, for all here's shade;
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well

HEREAFTER.....1

157.00b.032 To bee hereafter prais'd, for praying thee,

HEREBY.....1

072.00A.006 And those things whereof I consist, hereby

HEREIN.....1

049.00A.001 My name engrav'd herein,

HERESIE.....4

137.00A.062 Serves heresie to funder or repress)
 142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.
 149.00A.057 To have reform'd this forward heresie,
 184.00A.196 When Heresie, thy second deluge, gaines;

HERESIES.....1

158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.

HERETIQUE.....1

134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique

HERETIQUES.....2

037.00A.024 Poore Heretiques in love there bee,
 158.00A.118 Arguing is heretiques game, and Exercise

HERETOFORE.....5

001.00A.080 Then the wise politique horse would heretofore,
 066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore
 175.00B.011 Of lust and envie burnt it heretofore,
 187.00A.293 7 But heretofore purer her Nazarite
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

HERITAGE.....1

184.00A.013 The other could thine heritage invade;

HERMAPHRODITE.....1

189.00B.054 And make thee now a blest Hermaphrodite.

HERMAPHRODITS.....1

106.00A.030 Of study and play made strange Hermaphrodits,

HERMITAGE.....1

039.00A.038 Made one anothers hermitage;

HERMITS.....1

108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know

HEROES.....1

006.00D.051 The bravest Heroes for publike good,

HERS.....10

020.00G.026 From her to hers, is more adulterous,
 050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 072.00A.005 My body then doth hers involve,
 072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flowen before
 107.00A.110 That opens first a curtaine, hers or his;
 108.00A.119 As hers, and her heart loves as well as his?
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 178.NY3.002 To Nature, and to hers, & my good is dead
 178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:

HERSELF.....1

082.00A.002 Lucies, who scarce seaven houres herself unmaskes,

HERSELFE.....5

130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,
 155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
 157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.
 157.00b.359 Shee, who beeing to herselfe a state, enjoyd
 158.00A.380 Be slain, to gallant mischiefe doth herselfe addresse.

HERTOFORE.....1

002.00A.103 Where are those spred woods which cloth'd hertofore

HESPER.....1

157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,

HETHER.....2

046.00A.005 Love which in spight of darknesse brought us hether,
 127.00A.005 And hether by kinde nature drawne from thence,

HEWN.....1

187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.

HEYRES.....1

155.00a.043 But as in states doubtfull of future heyres,

HIBER.....1

128.LR1.HE1 I. D. H: W: in Hiber: belligeranti.

HIC.....3

195.010.003 HIC IACES, SI PROBVS ES, IPSE;195.010.004 IPSA ETENIM HIC IACET PROBITAS,200.021.014 HIC LICET IN OCCIDVO CINERE

HID.....11

018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,063.00A.004 Which is, to keepe that hid.063.00A.028 Which is, to keepe that hid.131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,157.00b.070 Some Figure of the Golden times, was hid.158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betrayed181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,187.00A.189 10 And like a Lion hid in secrecie,

HIDDEN.....2

059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net

HIDE.....5

048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,049.00A.054 May my name step in, and hide his.063.00A.022 From prophane men you hide,087.00A.004 That had a towne for tombe, his bones to hide.139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you,'and shew you good,

HIDEOUS.....2

018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,109.00A.052 With hideous gazing to feare away feare.

HIDES.....1

158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,

HIDING.....1

158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is

HIERARCHIE.....1

150.00A.020 A tenth ranke in the heavenly hierarchie.

HIGH.....28

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:
 001.00A.070 Sells for a little state high libertie,
 003.00A.016 This feare great courage, and high valour is;
 004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men
 081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mistery
 130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
 134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,
 138.00A.042 The quick high Moone: so doth the body, Soules.
 139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
 150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come
 151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;
 152.12a.059 And could Grief gett so high as Heav'n, that Quire
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 156.00a.085 How faire and chast, humble and high shee'ad beene,
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.365 Shee did high iustice; for shee crucified
 158.00A.275 Spied through this traiterous spectacle, from high,
 158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;
 158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
 158.00A.497 Like a free conduit, on a high hils brow,
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,
 175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high
 184.00A.101 Which, as thy mother, their high Abbesse, sent
 184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse

HIGH'ST.....2

030.00B.012 That love hath not attain'd the high'st degree,
 131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break

HIGH-.....1

010.00A.031 The grim- eight- foot- high- iron- bound serving- man,

HIGHER.....4

074.00A.003 Seldome to them, which soare no higher
 108.00A.067 From higher powers; From God religion springs,
 137.00A.068 To higher Courts, senses decree is true,
 155.00a.286 Doth not a Tenarif, or higher Hill

HIGHEST.....3

001.00A.077 And as fiders stop lowest, at highest sound,
 160.00A.089 Behold the Highest, parting hence away,
 191.00B.011 The highest matter in the noblest forme;)

HIGHTS.....2

131.00B.011 But, as from extreme hights who downward looks,
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,

HIGNESSE.....1

079.00B.012 His hignesse sitting in a golden Chaire,

HILL.....8

003.00A.079 To sleepe, or runne wrong, is: on a huge hill,
 050.00A.048 My love descend, and journey downe the hill,
 069.00A.001 Vpon this Primrose hill,
 106.00A.058 But gallop lively downe the Westerne hill;
 131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.
 155.00a.281 Loth to goe vp the hill, or labor thus
 155.00a.286 Doth not a Tenarif, or higher Hill
 179.NY3.008 On one, on Seauen, or on no hill appeare?

HILLARY.....1

002.00A.053 Proceed, spare mee; In Hillary terme I went,

HILLS.....2

003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;

HILS.....1

158.00A.497 Like a free conduit, on a high hils brow,

HIM.....138

001.00A.023 Wilt thou grin or fawne on him, or prepare
 001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,
 001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truely I doe;
 001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;
 001.00A.095 Saying, him whom I last left, s'all repute
 001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 002.00A.012 Yet prompts him which stands next, and cannot reade,
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 003.00A.060 Tender to him, being tender, as Wards still
 003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee
 004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch
 004.00A.093 And askes, what newes? I tell him of new playes.

004.00A.133 To sucke me in, for hearing him. I found
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.216 Pursevant would have ravish'd him away
 004.00A.224 To him; he rusheth in, as if arme, arme,
 008.00B.067 Receive from him that doome ungrudgingly,
 010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.
 011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
 011.00A.015 O give him many thanks, he'is courteous,
 016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
 018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,
 019.00A.017 That which in him was faire and delicate,
 020.00G.003 To sea for nothing but to make him sick:
 022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
 028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke
 029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,
 052.00A.043 Forsake him who on them relies
 059.00A.009 If by the way to him befall
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 065.00A.007 Above one sigh a day I'allow'd him not,
 065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see
 065.00A.014 With scorne or shame, that him it nourish'd not;
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,
 066.00A.037 To him for whom the passing bell next tolls,
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 108.00A.083 To them, in him, because his favours bend
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
 115.00A.010 Of him, at least in this earths habitation:
 122.00A.021 Him the rich land, but bar'd his entry in,
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 130.00A.040 And promis'd him, at morning prayer before.
 131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
 131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.

133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 140.00A.037 On him; for Man into himselfe can draw
 145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.
 146.00A.013 As wee for him dead: though no familie
 146.00A.016 Venture their states, with him in joy to share
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 146.00A.024 Pictures of him dead, senselesse, cold as he,
 146.00A.026 He, and about him, his, are turn'd to stone.
 149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
 151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 152.12a.061 (With grief to see him) %1Hee%2 had staid belowe,
 152.12a.084 Too-narrow, to think HIM, as Hee is HEE
 152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him %1thus%2;
 153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.082 Our quick thought cannot keepe him company,
 153.00A.151 And daily hadst from him, who gave it thee,
 153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 154.00A.017 Blest %1order%2 that hath him, the losse of him
 154.00A.017 Blest %1order%2 that hath him, the losse of him
 155.00a.140 That met him, would not hastily assaile
 155.00a.141 A thing so equall to him: now alas,
 155.00a.208 Can well direct him, where to looke for it.
 155.00a.266 And fright him backe, who els to eyther Pole,
 155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
 157.00b.239 And to each seuerall man, to him, and him,
 157.00b.239 And to each seuerall man, to him, and him,
 157.00b.346 Expecting Christ, then they'haue enjoy'd him yet.
 157.00b.405 Honor on him; not that he needed it,
 157.00b.416 Thinke him a foole for hauing tane that course?
 157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.
 157.00b.452 (Hearing, and speaking to him) as to know
 158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,
 158.00A.154 And as that ground by him were conquered
 158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
 158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
 158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
 158.00A.316 Swimme in him swallowed Dolphins, without feare,
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.346 Conspir'd against him, and it might undoe
 158.00A.353 The Thresher backs him, and to beate begins;

158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,
 158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)
 158.00A.396 With him the murthurer dies whom envy sent
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 160.00A.034 Yet lay him in this stall, and from the Orient,
 160.00A.038 Which fills all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
 160.00A.041 Kisse him, and with him into Egypt goe,
 160.00A.041 Kisse him, and with him into Egypt goe,
 160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,
 160.00A.060 In both affections many to him ran,
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
 168.00A.008 Crucifie him daily, being now glorified;
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, nearest to him, wee know,
 183.00A.035 Or 'twas in him the same humility,
 184.00A.001 Father of Heaven, and him, by whom
 184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,
 184.00A.191 Of him which speakes, diminishes the Word,
 187.00A.067 That %1Iacobs%2 foes girt him. %1Ierusalem%2
 187.00A.156 Made glad above thee, and advanc'd him so.
 187.00A.212 And therefore in him will I hope alone.
 187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,
 187.00A.214 And to the Soule that seeks him earnestly.
 187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.
 187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is
 187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.
 189.00B.042 'Tis preachers to convey him, for they doe

HIMSELF.....1

158.00A.210 Ill steward of himself, himselfe in three yeares ends.

HIMSELFE.....38

002.00A.014 (Starving himselfe) to live by his labor'd sceanes.
 003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.
 004.00A.198 From hat, to shooe, himselfe at doore refine,
 008.00B.064 He leaves himselfe no roome to enter in.
 052.00A.040 Transferr'd from Love himselfe, to womankinde.
 056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
 061.00A.016 Himselfe incestuously an heire begot:
 103.00A.002 Except himselfe alone his tricks would use,
 136.00A.003 And creaturelesse at first, himselfe had none;
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 140.00A.011 Empail'd himselfe to keepe them out, not in;
 140.00A.014 And is not Asse himselfe to all the rest.

140.00A.037 On him; for Man into himselfe can draw
 142.00A.063 He that beleeves himselfe, doth never lie.
 145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,
 155.00a.352 Himselfe his various Rainbow did allow.
 158.00A.210 Ill steward of himself, himselfe in three yeares ends.
 158.00A.220 To live, and to encrease, himselfe outweares.

 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 157.00b.012 His soule be saild, to her eternall bed,
 157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,
 157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,
 157.00b.014 As though he beckned, and cal'd backe his Soul,
 157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
 157.00b.015 He graspes his hands, and he puls vp his feet,
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 157.00b.150 Title to Heauen, and plead it by his Faith,
 157.00b.171 Bedded and Bath'd in all his Ordures, dwels
 157.00b.182 In peeces, and the bullet is his owne,
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.203 Who finds in Mars his Campe, no corps of Guard;
 157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;
 157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,
 157.00b.426 Of all Gods Benefits, and all his Rods,
 157.00b.453 His face, in any naturall Stone, or Tree,
 157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;
 157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subiects to call thee
 157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,
 157.00b.523 Since his will is, that to posteritee,

157.00b.526 The purpose, and th'Autority is his;
158.00A.005 And the great world to his aged evening;
158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may have.
158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,
158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,
158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest
158.00A.144 And as a slumberer stretching on his bed;
158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;
158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,
158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.
158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.
158.00A.152 And to his shoulders dangle subtile haire;
158.00A.155 A leafie garland weares he on his head
158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threds,
158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threds,
158.00A.187 As his late house, and the first houre speaks plaine,
158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
158.00A.194 In field and tent oreflutters his next hen,
158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
158.00A.197 Nor doth she pule for his inconstancie
158.00A.205 The body so free of his kindnesses,
158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends
158.00A.214 With faind calls, his nets, or enwrapping snare
158.00A.235 And with his arched necke this poore fish catch'd.
158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe
158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe
158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,
158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing
158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,
158.00A.357 And gores him with his beake; his staffe-like finnes,
158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,
158.00A.360 And (his owne dole) feeds with himselfe all companies.
158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call
158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?
158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie

158.00A.390 His sinewy Proboscis did remisly lie.
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 158.00A.404 Abel, as white, and milde as his sheepe were,
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 158.00A.408 And yet his bitch, his sentinell attends
 158.00A.408 And yet his bitch, his sentinell attends
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;
 158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 158.00A.444 He, as his dam, from sheepe drove wolves away,
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
 158.00A.446 Five yeares he liv'd, and cosened with his trade,
 158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betrayd
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,
 158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
 158.00A.466 With hoiting gambolls, his owne bones to breake
 158.00A.467 To make his mistresse merry; or to wreake
 158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,
 158.00A.478 And up lifts subtly with his russet pawe
 158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
 160.00A.030 Now leaves his welbelov'd imprisonment,
 160.00A.031 There he hath made himselfe to his intent
 160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,
 160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,
 160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,
 160.00A.054 With the Sunne to beginne his businesse,
 160.00A.055 He in his ages morning thus began
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by
 166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 170.00A.004 Whether his countenance can thee affright,
 170.00A.005 Teares in his eyes quench the amasing light,
 170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell
 170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell
 170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgivenessse for his foes fierce spight?
 172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
 172.00A.010 His stolne stufte sold, must lose or buy't againe:
 173.00A.001 Father, part of his double interest
 173.00A.003 His joynture in the knottie Trinitie,
 173.00A.004 Hee keepes, and gives to me his deaths conquest.
 173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,

174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art
 180.NY3.011 To morrow I quake with true feare of his rod.
 181.00A.002 His image, th'image of his Crosse deny?
 181.00A.002 His image, th'image of his Crosse deny?
 181.00A.007 Who from the picture would avert his eye,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
 181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
 182.00A.016 Of power to make even finfull flesh like his.
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, neerest to him, wee know,
 183.00A.031 His Spirit, as his fiery Pillar doth
 183.00A.031 His Spirit, as his fiery Pillar doth
 183.00A.032 Leade, and his Church, as cloud; to one end both:
 183.00A.039 His imitating Spouse would joyne in one
 183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,
 185.00A.019 It made his owne Lieutenant Nature shrinke,
 185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.
 185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
 185.00A.028 By God, for his apparell, rag'd, and torne?
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 187.00A.038 The foe hath stretch'd his hand, for shee hath seene
 187.00A.048 Done to mee in the day of his fierce wrath?
 187.00A.053 14 His hand hath of my sinnes framed a yoake
 187.00A.060 Trod upon Juda's daughter in his wrath.
 187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;
 187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.
 187.00A.092 Forgot his foot-stoole in the day of wrath?
 187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,
 187.00A.101 4 Like to an enemie he bent his bow,
 187.00A.102 His right hand was in posture of a foe,
 187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
 187.00A.106 Devouring %1Israel%2, and his Palaces,
 187.00A.110 The place where was his congregation,
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.113 7 The Lord forsakes his Altar, and detests
 187.00A.114 His Sanctuary, and in the foes hands rests
 187.00A.115 His Palace, and the walls, in which their cries
 187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturue
 187.00A.154 Fulfill'd his word of old determined;
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.193 13 Hee made the children of his quiver passe
 187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;
 187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;
 187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes
 187.00A.221 30 He gives his cheekes to whosoever will
 187.00A.225 Compassion, as his mercy'is infinite;

187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allowes not this:
 187.00A.233 38 Both good and evill from his mouth proceeds;
 187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?
 187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.
 187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.
 187.00A.306 His indignation, and powr'd forth his wrath,
 187.00A.306 His indignation, and powr'd forth his wrath,
 187.00A.338 Of whom we said, under his shadow, wee
 189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,
 192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

HOLD.....16

009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.
 039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.
 106.00A.038 And these two in thy sacred bosome hold,
 108.00A.061 The earth doth in her inner bowels hold
 109.00A.054 Shak'd with this ague, and the Hold and Wast
 130.00A.037 However, keepe the lively tast you hold
 137.00A.038 Esteeme religions, and hold fast the best,
 150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold

HOLY.....21

024.00A.001 VVhere is that holy fire, which Verse is said

146.00A.011 Or fell'd, and burnt for holy sacrifice,

153.00A.174 There are the holy suburbs, and from thence

157.00b.354 They made ioyntenants with the Holy Ghost,

158.00A.010 And (holy writs excepted) made to yeeld to none.

158.00A.021 Nor holy Ianus in whose soveraigne boate

160.00A.0HE HOLY SONNETS.

160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,

161.00A.0HE To E. of D. with six holy Sonnets.

163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,

176.00B.003 That I might in this holy discontent

178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.

184.00A.019 O Holy Ghost, whose temple I

184.00A.HE7 The Holy Ghost.

187.00A.040 Into her holy Sanctuary goe.

187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;

189.00B.002 To put thy hand unto the holy Plough,

191.00B.017 Two that make one Iohn Baptists holy voyce,

191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse

191.00B.033 And Davids Successors, in holy zeale,

192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,

HOM-BORNE.....1

155.00a.080 These Creatures, from hom-borne intrinsique harme,

HOME.....30

003.00A.055 Graius stayes still at home here, and because

004.00A.155 At home in wholesome solitarinesse

014.NY3.045 To make at home; And shall not I do then

020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,

025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,

025.00A.009 Send home my harmlesse heart againe,

031.00A.032 And growes erect, as that comes home.

041.00A.030 It stayes at home, and thou with losing savest it:

051.00A.021 And try your mistresse Teares at home,

099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.

099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.

108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home

112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;

112.00A.050 Carrying his owne house still, still is at home.

112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,

113.00A.029 Giddily and bee every where, but at home,

130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;

131.00B.016 Who are at home but wits mere Atomi.

131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,

134.00A.035 Make your returne home gracious; and bestow

155.00a.162 All faculties, all graces are at home;

155.00a.454 And as a mid-wife death directs it home.

157.00b.304 At home, in her owne thoughts, And practised

158.00A.057 I launch at paradise, and I saile towards home;

181.00A.050 And move; To th'other th'objects must come home.

183.00A.012 Reclus'd at home, Publique at Golgotha.

189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind

018.00B.011 Here I unswear, and overswear them thus,
018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,
018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,
019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;
019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,
019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,
019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon
020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon
020.00G.015 But if I love it, 'tis because 'tis made
020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud
020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
021.00G.002 Environ me with darkness, whilst I write:
021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,
021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
021.00G.026 I saw the golden fruit, 'tis wrapt away.
021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,
021.00G.028 And I left wealthy only in a dream.
021.00G.064 I have accus'd, should such a mischief doe.
021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,
021.00G.093 That I may grow enamoured on your mind,

 026.00A.004 When I looke lower I espie,
 026.00A.004 When I looke lower I espie,
 026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 026.00A.011 That I can be endamag'd by that art;
 027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
 027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.
 028.00A.001 When by thy scorne, O murdresse, I am dead,
 028.00A.013 A veryer ghost then I;
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 029.00A.005 Who will beleeve mee, if I sweare
 029.00A.006 That I have had the plague a yeare?
 029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
 029.00A.008 I saw a flaske of %1powder%2 %1burne%2 %1a%2 %1day%2?
 029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
 029.00A.019 I brought a heart into the roome,
 029.00A.020 But from the roome, I carried none with mee;
 029.00A.021 If it had gone to thee, I know
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee
 030.00B.021 And I to thee mine actions shall disguise.
 031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
 031.00A.036 And makes me end, where I begunne.
 032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
 032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
 032.00A.006 If ever any beauty I did see,
 032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.
 032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
 033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
 033.00A.027 False, ere I come, to two, or three.
 034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could
 034.00A.015 Dispute, and conquer, if I would,
 034.00A.016 Which I abstaine to doe,
 034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.
 035.00A.001 Image of her whom I love, more then she,

035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;
035.00A.017 After a such fruition I shall wake,
035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
036.00A.013 I could eclipse and cloud them with a winke,
036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
036.00A.021 She is all States, and all Princes, I,
037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
037.00A.017 Must I, who came to travaile throw you,
037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
038.00A.002 I will allow,
038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee
038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,
039.00A.018 Though she and I do love.
040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,
040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,
040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
040.00A.009 Through Rimes vexation, I should them allay,
040.00A.012 But when I have done so,
040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
041.00A.002 Deare, I shall never have it all,
041.00A.003 I cannot breath one other sigh, to move;
041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,
042.00A.005 But since that I
042.00A.014 But beleeve that I shall make
042.00A.015 Speedier journeyes, since I take
043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye
043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye
043.00A.002 As often as from thee I goe,
043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,

043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
 043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,
 044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
 044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
 044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
 044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
 044.00A.027 For I had rather owner bee
 045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,
 045.00A.002 Before I knew thy face or name;
 045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
 045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,
 045.00A.012 I bid Love aske, and now
 045.00A.013 That it assume thy body, I allow,
 045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,
 045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,
 046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
 046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 047.00A.002 At least remember, I forbade it thee;
 047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast
 047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.
 047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
 047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
 048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:
 049.00A.HE2 I.
 049.00A.008 As all confessing, and through-shine as I,
 049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.
 049.00A.027 I understand, and grow and see,)
 049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,
 049.00A.042 Since I die daily, daily mourne.
 049.00A.064 And this I murmure in my sleepe;
 049.00A.065 Impute this idle talke, to that I goe,
 050.00A.002 As I have seen in one Autumnall face,
 050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay
 050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay
 050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
 051.00A.002 Hither I come to seeke the spring,
 051.00A.005 But O, selfe traytor, I do bring
 051.00A.009 True Paradise, I have the serpent brought.
 051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace

051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
 052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
 054.00A.001 I scarce beleeeve my love to be so pure
 054.00A.002 As I had thought it was,
 054.00A.005 Me thinkes I lyed all winter, when I swore,
 054.00A.005 Me thinkes I lyed all winter, when I swore,
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 055.00A.008 I aske no dispensation now
 055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
 055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
 055.00A.027 I may not article for grace,
 055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
 057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,
 057.00A.013 Yet I thought thee
 057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
 057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, whe%T thou knew'st whe%T
 057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
 057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
 058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,
 059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
 059.00A.003 I have lov'd, and got, and told,
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;
 059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
 060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
 063.00A.001 I have done one braver thing
 063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
 063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe
 064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,
 064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
 064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
 064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
 064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
 064.00a.022 Rebell and Atheist too, why murmure I,
 064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?
 064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
 065.00A.003 But that I did, to make it lesse,
 065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see
 065.00A.013 If he wroung from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
 065.00A.022 I said, if any title bee
 065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 065.00A.026 At what, and when, and how, and where I chuse;

065.00A.027 Now negligent of sports I lye,
065.00A.029 I spring a mistresse, sweare, write, sigh and weepe:
066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
066.00A.010 My constancie I to the planets give,
066.00A.019 My faith I give to Roman Catholiques;
066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;
066.00A.028 I give my reputation to those
066.00A.030 To Schoolemen I bequeath my doubtfulnessse;
066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles
066.00A.039 Of Morall counsels, I to Bedlam give;
067.00A.014 Can better do'it; Except she meant that I
067.00A.018 For since I am
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
068.00A.002 Whom I have watch'd sixe or seaven dayes,
068.00A.007 That it will freeze anon, and that I shall
068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:
068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
068.00A.038 I will give you
069.00A.008 I walke to finde a true Love; and I see
069.00A.008 I walke to finde a true Love; and I see
069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower
069.00A.012 I wish; a sixe, or foure;
069.00A.019 Falshood in woman, I could more abide,
070.00A.017 Thou shalt be a Mary Magdalen, and I
070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
071.00A.017 For I could muster up as well as you
071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,
072.00A.006 And those things whereof I consist, hereby
072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so
072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,
074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.

074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.
 076.00A.002 I scarce beleev'd, thou could'st be gone away,
 076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,
 076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other
 077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
 077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
 077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 077.00A.020 Love-slaine, loe, here I dye.
 078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
 079.00B.003 So did I reverence, and gave
 079.00B.006 As ignorantly did I crave:
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
 080.00E.022 Whom I may freely prove?
 080.00E.023 I will vent that humour then
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare
 081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.025 & in exchange I gaue the such a harte
 081.HH5.036 & drinck in earth my selfe O I appeale
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.012 For I am every dead thing,
 082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot
 082.00A.021 I, by loves limbecke, am the grave
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,
 082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,
 082.00A.032 If I were any beast,
 082.00A.035 If I an ordinary nothing were,
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 085.00A.001 By childrens births, and death, I am become
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,

096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
 096.00A.003 Like %1Esops%2 selfe, which nothing; I confesse
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminat, for I love womens ioyes
 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 103.00A.001 Why this man gelded %1Martiall%2 I muse,
 107.00A.szn I.
 108.00A.039a %1Idios%2. No, I am there
 108.00A.055 I am not then from the Court.
 108.00A.091b I knew
 108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew
 108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 108.00A.098 Full of the common joy; I utter'd some,
 108.00A.101 But since I'am dead, and buried, I could frame
 108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
 108.00A.104a I.
 108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 108.00A.228a No S%5r%6. This paper I have justly got,
 108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon
 109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
 109.00A.033 %1lonas%2, I pittie thee, and curse those men,
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot
 109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
 110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 111.00A.026 Therefore I end; and bid farewell a while,
 112.00A.004 I could ideate nothing, which could please,
 112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
 112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
 112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I'have wonne
 112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,

114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
 114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.
 115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
 115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 117.00A.001 At once, from hence, my lines and I depart,
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 117.00A.003 I to the Nurse, they to the child of Art;
 117.00A.007 So, though I languish, prest with Malancholy,
 117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.
 117.00A.010 Therefore I envie them, and doe repent,
 119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 120.00A.005 And let the love I beare to both sustaine
 120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
 121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene
 122.00A.009 So thy retyrings I love, yea envie,
 122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 123.NY3.001 Kindly I envy thy Songs perfection
 123.NY3.008 In skorne of all: for now I admyre thee.
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 123.NY3.014 I recreated even by thy Creature live.
 124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I
 124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I

 124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
 126.00A.012 And I, as Giddy Travellers, must doe,
 126.00A.019 My nurse, (for I had one,) because I'am cold,
 126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
 127.00A.HE1 To M. I. P.
 127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
 127.00A.007 Yet I, as long as shee from hence doth staie,
 128.LR1.HE1 I. D. H: W: in Hiber: belligeranti.
 128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I

128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
 128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare
 129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
 129.00A.024 Then I have done your honour wanting it.
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,
 129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires
 130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
 130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
 131.00B.023 I come not to call pittie from your heart,
 131.00B.027 I cannot feele the tempest of a frowne,
 131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.
 131.00B.075 The honesties of love with ease I doe,
 131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 133.00A.007 That's much, emboldens, pulls, thrusts I confesse,
 133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 134.00A.007 So would I, not to encrease, but to expresse
 134.00A.008 My faith, as I beleeve, so understand.
 134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,
 134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,
 135.B13.0HE A letter written by Sr. H: G: and I: D. alternis vicibus.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see
 137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 137.00A.034 But that I may survay the edifice.
 137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold
 137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.
 137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.
 138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,
 138.00A.006 In that, I seem'd to shunne beholdingnesse.
 138.00A.007 But 'tis not soe, %1nothing%2, as I am, may,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts

 139.00A.006 I summe the yeares, and mee, and finde mee not
 139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thankses I have forgot,
 139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
 139.00A.011 In recompence I would show future times
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
 139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe

 141.00A.057 And if I flatter any, 'tis not you
 141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
 141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
 142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,
 142.00A.011 I thought it some Apostleship in mee
 142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.
 142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
 142.00A.054 And revelation of you both I see,
 142.00A.055 I should write here, as in short Galleries
 142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say

 190.00A.008 I sacrifice this Iland unto thee,
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,

190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.
 190.00A.018 Art jealous, Lord, so I am jealous now,
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 190.00A.027 To see God only, I goe out of sight:
 190.00A.028 And to scape stormy dayes, I chuse An Everlasting night.
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 191.00B.037 When I behold that these Psalmes are become
 191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come
 192.00B.004 I tune the Instrument here at the dore,
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.
 192.00B.007 Cosmographers, and I their Mapp, who lie
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,
 192.00B.028 And as to others soules I preach'd thy word,
 193.00A.HE2 I.
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?
 193.00A.006 For, I have more.
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne
 193.00A.012 For I have more.
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne
 193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;
 193.00A.018 I feare no more.

 041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:
 042.00A.018 That if good fortune fall,
 042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
 044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
 046.00A.008 If it could speake as well as spie,
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.
 047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 049.00A.019 Or if too hard and deepe
 049.00A.055 And if this treason goe
 050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,
 050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing
 050.00A.035 If transitory things, which soone decay,

052.00A.049 If to consider what'tis, one proceed,
053.00A.007 If then at first wise Nature had,
053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make'it more.
054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee
055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,
055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
055.00A.038 To future Rebels; If th'unborne
056.00A.004 If on womankind he might his anger wreake,
056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?
057.00A.026 If mixture it of Feare, Shame, Honor have;
059.00A.009 If by the way to him befall
059.00A.016 Can be as happy'as I can; If he can
061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not
061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
062.00A.021 If any, so by love refin'd,
062.00A.073 And if some lover, such as wee,
063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe
063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
063.00A.024 Or, if they doe, deride:
064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
065.00A.009 And if sometimes by stealth he got
065.00A.013 If he wroug from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so
065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
065.00A.022 I said, if any title bee
066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,
066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall
067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
069.00A.002 Where, if Heav'n would distill
069.00A.025 Ten is the farthest number, if halfe ten
069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
070.00A.012 If this fall in a time, or land,
071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
074.00A.010 If that be simply perfectest
074.00A.014 If any who deciphers best,
075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,

 093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament
 108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
 108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
 108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe
 109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
 109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our saylers; and if they
 110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath

 125.00A.008 If from the'embrace of a lov'd wife you rise,
 126.00A.015 If thou unto thy Muse be married,
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)
 130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
 130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
 130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 133.00A.043 Marke, if shee doe the same that they protest,
 133.00A.044 Marke, if shee marke whether her woman came.
 133.00A.045 Marke, if slight things be'objected, and o'r blowne,

133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 136.00A.049 If either ever wrought in you alone
 137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.
 141.00A.017 If the worlds age, and death be argued well
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
 141.00A.057 And if I flatter any, 'tis not you
 142.00A.008 As not to tell it; if this be too bold,
 142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
 142.00A.053 Of whom, if what in this my Extasie
 145.00A.035 If in this sacrifice of mine, be showne
 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,
 146.00A.010 If to a paradise that transplanted bee,
 146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew
 148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,
 149.00A.030 If carnall Death (the yonger brother) doe
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 152.12a.021 If then, least Mouings of the Centre make
 152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 152.12a.065 For, if our Reason be our Connexion
 152.12a.067 For, as, if all the Substances were spent,
 152.12a.071 If Faith haue such a chaine, whose divers Links
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 152.12a.095 By all the Soules you sigh't; that if you see
 153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,
 153.00A.047 And, as if on a streame I fixe mine eye,
 153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
 153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
 154.00A.006 Bee so? if every severall Angell bee
 154.00A.031 And if, faire soule, not with first Innocents
 155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
 155.00a.163 And if in other Creatures they appeare,
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:

155.00a.295 If vnder all, a Vault infernall be,
 155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truly said
 155.00a.332 Endanger vs: but that if euery thing
 155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:
 155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
 155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell
 155.00a.457 From her example, and her vertue, if you
 156.00a.049 What is't to vs, alas, if there haue beene
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
 157.00b.141 To whose proportions if we would compare
 157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
 157.00b.226 Shee, in whose body (if wee dare prefer
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.252 If, as we were in this our liuing Tombe
 157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.
 157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subjects to call thee
 158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.072 If (as devout and sharpe men fitly guesse)
 158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
 158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 158.00A.236 It mov'd with state, as if to looke upon
 158.00A.303 To such vastnesse, as if unmanacled
 158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
 158.00A.319 Hee spouted rivers up, as if he ment
 158.00A.350 If wreches can on them the common anger wreake?
 158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
 158.00A.423 If to the flocke he come, and Abell there,
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of
 160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
 160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
 163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
 165.00A.010 For, if above all these, my sinnes abound,
 165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.
 166.00A.001 If poysonous mineralls, and if that tree,
 166.00A.001 If poysonous mineralls, and if that tree,
 166.00A.003 If lecherous goats, if serpents envious
 166.00A.003 If lecherous goats, if serpents envious
 166.00A.014 I thinke it mercy, if thou wilt forget,
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:

177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 181.00A.045 For if the'eye seeke good objects, and will take
 182.00A.022 If, not of any man, yet of the whole.
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;
 184.00A.231 Which well, if we starve, dine,
 185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
 187.00A.046 O see, and marke if any sorrow bee
 189.00B.025 But if thy gainings doe surmount expression,
 189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent
 189.00B.045 If then th'Astronomers, whereas they spie
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.

 004.00A.086 Your only wearing is your Grogaram;
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,
 004.00A.231 Goe through the great chamber (why is it hung
 005.00A.007 Charity and liberty give me. What is hee
 005.00A.013 Then man is a world; in which, Officers,
 005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they
 005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;

005.00A.038 Injustice is sold deerer farre; allow
 005.00A.040 The mony which you sweat, and sweare for, is gon
 005.00A.070 To warrant thefts: she is established
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
 006.00D.071 As %1Sibyls%2 was, your booke is mysticall,
 006.00D.072 For every peece is as much worth as all.
 008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
 008.00B.068 Because he is the mouth of destiny.
 008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:
 008.00B.112 Gold is Restorative, restore it then:
 009.00A.019 Thy %1head%2 is like a rough-hewne statue of jeat,
 009.00A.024 Or Joes best fortunes urne, is her faire brest.
 009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.
 009.00A.042 Where round about the grasse is burnt away.
 009.00A.047 Is not your last act harsh, and violent,
 009.00A.051 And nice in searching wounds the Surgeon is
 010.00A.003 And as a thiefe at barre, is question'd there
 011.00A.025 Now I see many dangers; for it is
 012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,
 012.00A.033 She flouts the channell, who thenceforth is drie;
 012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
 014.NY3.013 Sick Ireland is with a strange warr possest
 014.NY3.021 To mew me in a Ship, is to enthrall
 014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.
 015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 015.00G.031 To enter in these bonds, is to be free;
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 015.00G.046 There is no pennance due to innocence:
 016.00A.029 To live in one land, is captivitie,
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.
 017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 018.00B.044 England is onely a worthy Gallerie,
 018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
 019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 020.00G.004 Love is a bear-whelp born, if we o're lick
 020.00G.009 Perfection is in vnitie: preferr
 020.00G.024 Make love to woman; virtue is not she:
 020.00G.026 From her to hers, is more adulterous,
 020.00G.028 And firmament, our %1Cupid%2 is not there:

020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
020.00G.041 The hair a Forest is of Ambushes,
020.00G.075 Which thou dost seek, and is thy Map for that
020.00G.077 Least subject to disguise and change it is;
020.00G.079 It is the Emblem that hath figured
020.00G.082 Which at the face began, transplanted is,
020.00G.095 He which doth not, his error is as great,
021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
021.00G.011 Such is already my self-want of sight
021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,
022.00A.005 Is it your beauties marke, or of your youth,
022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
022.00A.067 But being got it is a treasure sweet,
022.00A.068 Which to defend is harder then to get:
024.00A.001 VVhere is that holy fire, which %1Verse%2 is said
024.00A.001 VVhere is that holy fire, which %1Verse%2 is said
024.00A.002 To have, is that inchanting force decai'd?
024.00A.010 But that is waxe, and fires environ it.
024.00A.035 Thy body is a naturall %1Paradise%2,
027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.
028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
029.00A.001 He is starke mad, who ever sayes,
029.00A.009 Ah, what a trifle is a heart,
029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.
030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just aboue our head,
030.00B.013 Which is still diligent lest others see.
030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;
030.00B.026 And his short minute, after noone, is night.
031.00A.012 Though greater farre, is innocent.
031.00A.014 (Whose soule is sense) cannot admit
031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,
032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
035.00A.010 Then %1Fantasie%2 is Queene and Soule, and all;
035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;
035.00A.024 For even at first lifes %1Taper%2 is a snuffe.
036.00A.022 Nothing else is.
036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.
037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;
039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
042.00A.010 And yet is here to day,
042.00A.017 O how feeble is mans power,
044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,

044.00A.019 For much corruption needfull is
 044.00A.022 Whose matter in thee is soone spent.
 045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,
 045.00A.009 More subtile then the parent is,
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 045.00A.027 As is twixt Aire and Angells puritie,
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 048.00A.004 Is elder by a yeare, now, then it was
 048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
 048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.
 050.00A.010 This is her tolerable %1Tropique%2 %1clyme%2.
 050.00A.014 They were %1Loves%2 %1graves%2; for else he is no where.
 050.00A.020 In %1Progresse%2, yet his standing house is here.
 050.00A.021 Here, where still %1Evening%2 is; not %1noone%2, nor %1night%2;
 050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;
 050.00A.028 And appetite to other things, is past;
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, %1Age%2 is a thing
 050.00A.041 Whose every tooth to a severall place is gone,
 050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still

 052.00A.008 And her, through whose helpe %1Lucan%2 is not lame,
 052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,
 053.00A.002 For ill is ill, and good good still,
 053.00A.014 Good is as visible as greene,
 054.00A.016 Love by the spring is growne;
 055.00A.018 Is love, or, that love childish is.
 055.00A.018 Is love, or, that love childish is.
 055.00A.026 Such in loves warfare is my case,
 055.00A.036 For, this love is enrag'd with mee,
 055.00A.041 Torture against thine owne end is,
 056.00A.019 Good is not good, unlesse
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.
 060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
 060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
 060.00A.013 Our mariage bed, and mariage temple is;
 061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;
 062.00A.072 But yet the body is his booke.
 063.00A.004 Which is, to keepe that hid.
 063.00A.011 Such stuffe to worke upon, there is,)
 063.00A.028 Which is, to keepe that hid.
 064.00a.018 All is the purluwe of the God of Love.
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,

068.00A.028 Is to a woman, but a kinde of Ghost;
069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,
069.00A.025 Ten is the farthest number, if halfe ten
070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe
074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
074.00A.012 But %1Negatives%2, my love is so.
074.00A.017 As yet my ease, and comfort is,
077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
077.00A.014 When the lifes light is set,
079.00B.013 Is not lesse cared for after three dayes
080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,
080.00E.012 For his Judgement then is nought:
080.00E.018 For she is thrall'd therefore:
080.00E.021 Is there then no kinde of men
082.00A.001 Tis the yeares midnight, and it is the dayes,
082.00A.003 The Sunne is spent, and now his flasks
082.00A.005 The worlds whole sap is sunke:
082.00A.007 Whither, as to the beds-feet life is shrunke,
082.00A.011 At the next world, that is, at the next Spring:
082.00A.039 At this time to the Goat is runne
082.00A.045 Both the yeares, and the dayes deep midnight is.
096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, %1Phryne%2, is like thee,
100.00A.001 Compassion in the world againe is bred:
100.00A.002 %1Ralphius%2 is sick, the broker keeps his bed.
106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
106.00A.061 The amorous evening starre is rose,
106.00A.079 This bed is onely to virginities
107.00A.001 Haile Bishop Valentine, whose day this is,
107.00A.002 All the Aire is thy Diocis,
107.00A.011 The husband cocke lookes out, and straight is sped,
107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?
107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,
107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
107.00A.080 Yet there are more delays, For, where is he?
107.00A.087 Or each is both, and all, and so
107.00A.100 Nature againe restored is,
107.00A.109 And win by'observing, then, whose hand it is
108.00A.015 At Court the spring already advanced is,
108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.
108.00A.023 The Princes favour is defus'd o'r all,
108.00A.032 And all is warmth, and light, and good desire;
108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,

108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 108.00A.051 Is an epitome of Gods great booke
 108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,
 108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
 108.00A.078 And where it is no levity to trust.
 108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall
 108.00A.088 And is no more in his minority,
 108.00A.089 Hee is admitted now into that brest
 108.00A.118 When his eye as inflaming is
 108.00A.121 The bridegroome is a maid, and not a man,
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
 108.00A.229 For, in burnt incense, the perfume is not
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 109.00A.004 By %1Hilliard%2 drawne, is worth an history,
 109.00A.035 Sleepe is paines easiest salue, and doth fullfill
 109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,
 110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,
 110.00A.003 The fable is inverted, and farre more
 110.00A.009 The sea is now. And, as the lles which wee
 110.00A.016 And all the tackling is a frippery.
 110.00A.046 Is paid with life, or pray, or doing dyes.
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 111.00A.007 For here no one is from the'extremitie
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 112.00A.007 Life is a voyage, and in our lifes wayes
 112.00A.020 (O knottie riddle) each is worst equally.
 112.00A.025 The Country is a desert, where no good,
 112.00A.026 Gain'd, as habits, not borne, is understood.
 112.00A.034 Falshood is denizon'd. Virtue is barbarous.
 112.00A.034 Falshood is denizon'd. Virtue is barbarous.
 112.00A.050 Carrying his owne house still, still is at home.
 112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 115.00A.009 And 'tis decreed our hell is but privation
 115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 118.NY3.006 Or is thy Mind trauaild with discontent?
 118.NY3.009 Or is thy devout Muse retyrd to sing
 118.NY3.012 for myne is barren thus deuorc'd from thyne.
 119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:

120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 121.NY3.009 As lancke & thin is euery street & way
 121.NY3.019 Blesse vs w%5t%6 Suffolks Sweets; & as y%5t%6 is
 122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,
 122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it
 122.00A.007 It is my deed of gift of mee to thee,
 122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
 122.00A.018 Guyanaes harvest is nip'd in the spring,
 122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;
 122.00A.028 Is not Almightye Vertue'an India?
 122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire
 123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire
 123.NY3.005 In it is cherishing fyer which dryes in mee
 125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
 126.00A.001 Is not thy sacred hunger of science
 126.00A.002 Yet satisfy'd? Is not thy braines rich hive
 126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
 127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;
 127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,
 128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
 128.LR1.011 Ere sicknesses attach yong death is best
 129.00A.001 After those reverend papers, whose soule is
 129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
 130.00A.030 Into this world, corruptions sinke, is sent,
 130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 131.00B.055 So passion is to womans love, about,
 131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 131.00B.064 Is sport for every girle to practise on.
 131.00B.066 Is lost, and seekes his shadow to outgoe;
 131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
 131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 131.00B.097 The soule with body, is a heaven combin'd
 131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,
 131.00B.117 There is an equall distance from her eye,
 131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
 131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
 131.00B.128 Is [fain'd], [which] [only] [tempts] [mans] [appetite].
 131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.

131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.
 133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is
 133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?
 133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
 133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 136.00A.001 Honour is so sublime perfection,
 136.00A.011 From grosse, by Stilling, this is better done
 136.00A.032 %1Beeing%2 and %1seeming%2 is your equall care,
 136.00A.033 And %1vertues%2 whole %1summe%2 is but %1know%2 and %1dare%2.
 136.00A.040 Discretion is a wisemans Soule, and so
 136.00A.041 Religion is a Christians, and you know
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
 137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
 137.00A.068 To higher Courts, senses decree is true,
 137.00A.070 The story of beauty', in Twicknam is, and you.
 138.00A.028 Is knowne to any other, not to you.
 138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.
 139.00A.002 Some embleme is of mee, or I of this,
 139.00A.004 Whose %1what%2, and %1where%2, in disputation is,
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 140.00A.004 Is sport to others, and a Theater,
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 140.00A.014 And is not Asse himselfe to all the rest.
 140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,
 140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be'his pleasure, is his rod,
 140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.
 140.00A.033 Since then our businesse is, to rectifie
 140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all
 140.00A.044 And is to others jcy %1Opium%2.
 140.00A.045 As brave as true, is that profession than
 141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
 141.00A.010 A seldome comet is, but active good
 141.00A.050 For then your judgement is below my praise,
 142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,
 142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament
 142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament

142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
 142.00A.022 Soe is the Blood sometimes; who ever ran
 142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;
 142.00A.036 True vertue is %1Soule%2, Alwaies in all deeds %1All%2.
 142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
 142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
 145.00A.004 Growne stale, is to so low a value runne,
 145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,
 145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 145.00A.048 As, that another is worthiest, and, that you:
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 149.00A.001 Man is the World, and death th'Ocean,
 149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.
 149.00A.031 Usurpe the body,'our soule, which subject is
 149.00A.032 To th'elder death, by sinne, is freed by this;
 149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,
 150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
 150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
 150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 151.00A.032 Mirth and prosperity is oppression;
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 152.12a.003 Of %1Waight%2, one %1Centre%2; one, of %1Greatness%2 is:
 152.12a.004 And R%9eason%0 is That %1Centre%2; F%9aith%0 is This.
 152.12a.004 And R%9eason%0 is That %1Centre%2; F%9aith%0 is This.
 152.12a.011 As is G%9od's%0 %1Essence%2, %1Place%2, and %1Prouidence%2,
 152.12a.043 But %1now%2 This %1Faith%2 is %1Heresie%2: wee must
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is G%9od%0 prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.063 Is th'other %1Centre%2, R%9eason%0, faster, then?
 152.12a.082 W'haue double Excuse; %1Hee%2 is not %1dead%2, Wee are.
 152.12a.084 Too-narrow, to think H%9IM%0, as %1Hee%2 is H%9EE%0
 153.00A.006 Thou finde that any way is pervious,
 153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is
 153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see

153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
 153.00A.048 That drop, which I looked on, is presently
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
 153.00A.116 How here, how there, the Sunne affected is,
 153.00A.141 So, youth is easiest to destruction,
 153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.
 153.00A.166 Good companie, his entry is a grave.
 153.00A.173 There is the best concourse, and confluence,
 153.00A.211 (Which is thy soule and body) as intire
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 153.00A.226 Of ev'ry exemplar man, the whole world is,
 154.00A.013 Faire mirth is dampt, and conversation black,
 154.00A.029 For, as in his fame, now, his soule is here,
 154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.003 (For who is sure he hath a soule, vnlesse
 155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.042 Offers to tell vs who it is that's gone.
 155.00a.046 The Prince doth languish, or the Prince is dead:
 155.00a.065 The worlds infirmities, since there is none
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
 155.00a.133 So short is life, that euery peasant striues,
 155.00a.135 And as in lasting, so in length is man
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!
 155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
 155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame
 155.00a.206 The Element of fire is quite put out;
 155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
 155.00a.212 Is crumbled out againe to his Atomis.
 155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
 155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now
 155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:
 155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.
 155.00a.249 For the worlds beauty is decayd, or gone,
 155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
 155.00a.272 Steales by that point, and so is Serpentine:
 155.00a.296 (Which sure is spacious, except that we

155.00a.302 The worlds proportion disfigured is,
 155.00a.306 That beauties best, proportion, is dead,
 155.00a.308 Is left vs, is without proportion.
 155.00a.308 Is left vs, is without proportion.
 155.00a.324 Is discord, and rude incongruitee,
 155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.326 Thou knowst how vgly a monster this world is:
 155.00a.328 That here is nothing to enamor thee:
 155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
 155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,
 155.00a.353 Sight is the noblest sense of any one,
 155.00a.355 And color is decayd: summers robe growes
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 155.00a.380 The father, or the mother barren is.
 155.00a.396 The art is lost, and correspondence too.
 155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.428 Thou knowest how drie a Cinder this world is.
 155.00a.432 Is worth our trauaile, grieffe, or perishing,
 155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than
 156.00a.007 And so is all to her materials,
 156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.
 156.00a.038 That as a sundred Clocke is peece-meale laid,
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.099 Euery such person is her delegate,
 157.00b.003 Then to consider, that a yeare is runne,
 157.00b.021 So struggles this dead world, now shee is gone;
 157.00b.022 For there is motion in corruption.
 157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.055 The World is but a Carkas; thou art fed
 157.00b.063 To be thus stupid is Alacrity;
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubbidge this world is
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.134 And say this is a line, or this a point,
 157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen
 157.00b.182 In peeces, and the bullet is his owne,
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;

157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;
 157.00b.206 At once is at, and through the Firmament.
 157.00b.216 Heauen is as neare, and present to her face,
 157.00b.233 Twenty such parts, whose plenty and riches is
 157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:
 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,
 157.00b.317 Another, did but Ballast her) is gone,
 157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,
 157.00b.390 Beauty? (And Beauty worthyest is to moue)
 157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,
 157.00b.442 For it is both the obiect, and the wit.
 157.00b.443 This is essentiall ioye, where neither hee
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 157.00b.462 Betrothed to God, and now is married there,
 157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,
 157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;
 157.00b.500 There where the stuffe is not such as the rest)
 157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,
 157.00b.523 Since his will is, that to posteritee,
 157.00b.526 The purpose, and th'Authority is his;
 158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
 158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.112 Reckoning their vanities, lesse is their gaine
 158.00A.118 Arguing is heretiques game, and Exercise
 158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threds,
 158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kindes may freely chuse.
 158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; is
 158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.
 158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is
 158.00A.281 Is any kinde subject to rape like fish?
 158.00A.289 To kill them is an occupation,
 158.00A.301 Into an embrion fish, our Soule is throwne
 158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-proofe,
 158.00A.329 Consist? and is it of necessity
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 158.00A.436 Sonne to himselfe, and father too, hee is
 158.00A.509 To be a woman. %1Themeh%2 she is now,
 158.00A.520 The onely measure is, and judge, opinion.
 158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,

160.00A.063 Whose creature Fate is, now prescribe a Fate,
 160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.
 163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 170.00A.011 Beauty, of pittie, foulnesse onely is
 171.00A.008 But is captiv'd, and proves weake or untrue,
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 176.00B.012 Of comming ill. To (poore) me is allow'd
 178.NY3.002 To Nature, and to hers, & my good is dead
 178.NY3.004 Wholy in heavenly things my Mind is sett.
 179.NY3.002 What is it She, which on the other Shore
 179.NY3.006 Is She selfe truth & errs? now new, now' outwore?
 179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then
 179.NY3.014 When She' is embrac'd & open to most Men.
 180.NY3.005 As humorous is my contritione
 181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
 181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
 181.00A.023 All the Globes frame, and speares, is nothing else
 181.00A.040 Soe is pride, issued from humility,
 182.00A.015 Leaden and iron wills to good, but is
 183.00A.004 That of them both a circle embleme is,
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 183.00A.021 (As in plaine Maps, the furthest West is East)
 183.00A.027 Which showes where the'other is, and which we say
 183.00A.034 Death and conception in mankinde is one.
 183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
 184.00A.005 My heart is by dejection, clay,
 184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,
 184.00A.090 Not to be martyrs, is a martyrdom.
 184.00A.099 Is to himselfe a Dioclesian.
 184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)
 184.00A.131 Is only for our prison fram'd,
 184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,
 184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,
 184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prays,
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 185.00A.002 The intelligence that moves, devotion is,
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is 185.00A.025 Humbled below us? or that blood which is
 187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?
 187.00A.010 Juda is captive led; Those nations
 187.00A.021 6 From Sions daughter is all beauty gone,
 187.00A.029 8 Jerusalem hath sinn'd, therefore is shee
 187.00A.049 13 That fire, which by himselfe is governed

187.00A.063 To comfort mee, is now departed farre,
 187.00A.066 To comfort her, it is the Lords command
 187.00A.068 Is as an uncleane woman amongst them.
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.088 Are very many, and my heart is sad.
 187.00A.100 But is towards %1Iacob%2, All-devouring fire.
 187.00A.105 5 For like an enemie %1Iehova%2 is,
 187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
 187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
 187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee
 187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.
 187.00A.205 20 My Soule is humbled in remembring this;
 187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.
 187.00A.210 For great, O Lord, is thy fidelity.
 187.00A.211 24 The Lord is, saith my Soule, my portion,

 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;
 149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see
 150.00A.044 As sinne insinuates 'twixt just men and grace,
 150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:
 153.00A.093 Just as a perfect reader doth not dwell,
 153.00A.242 'Gainst natures lawes, which just impugners bee
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?

158.00A.121 Just in that instant when the serpents gripe,
 158.00A.136 Just as in our streets, when the people stay
 158.00A.384 But to be just, and thankfull, loth to offend,
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
 160.00A.087 Yee whose just teares, or tribulation
 160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
 184.00A.214 Awaken us to our just offices,
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allows not this:
 187.00A.314 Blood in the streets, and the just murdered;

JUSTICE.....6

001.00A.021 Nor come a velvet Justice with a long
 004.00A.028 One, to whom, the examining Justice sure would cry,
 005.00A.037 The iron Age that was, when justice was sold, now
 008.00B.036 Nature, as these doe justice, from her course.
 021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,
 184.00A.174 All waies, which rage, or Justice knowes,

JUSTIFIE.....1

034.00A.011 Or, your owne end to Justifie,

JUSTLES.....1

158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.

JUSTLY.....7

006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,
 017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 024.00A.019 For, if we justly call each silly man
 059.00A.021 Would sweare as justly, that he heares,
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 108.00A.228a No S^r. This paper I have justly got,
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,

K

KEEP.....7

006.00D.058 For friends to passe time, and keep company.
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
 033.00A.006 Or to keep off envies stinging,
 052.00A.018 To make, to keep, to use, to be these his Records.
 108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?
 157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuer keep the name)
 184.00A.106 Should keep, as they, our first integrity;

KEEP'ST.....1

024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.

KEEPE.....29

001.00A.112 And constantly a while must keepe his bed. [CW: Satyre]
 003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 024.00A.014 Which, both to keepe, and lose, grieves equally.
 025.00A.016 Keepe it, for then 'tis none of mine.
 038.00A.011 Keepe midnights promise; mistake by the way
 042.00A.039 They who one another keepe
 046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.
 049.00A.021 It, as a given deaths head keepe,
 049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;
 063.00A.004 Which is, to keepe that hid.
 063.00A.028 Which is, to keepe that hid.
 065.00A.004 And keepe it in proportion,
 067.00A.008 And keepe these limbes, her Provinces, from dissolu-tion.
 130.00A.037 However, keepe the lively tast you hold
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
 134.00A.022 A Balsamum to keepe it fresh, and new,
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 140.00A.011 Empail'd himselfe to keepe them out, not in;
 150.00A.014 Where harmesse fish monastique silence keepe.
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 153.00A.082 Our quick thought cannot keepe him company,
 155.00a.264 The free-borne Sunne, and keepe twelue signes awake
 155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
 158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,
 158.00A.299 The fish I follow, and keepe no calender
 187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
 189.00B.040 Than Kings give dignities; to keepe heavens doore?

KEEPES.....13

004.00A.075 Said I, The man that keepes the Abbey tombes,
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 048.00A.010 But truly keepes his first, last, everlasting day.
 102.SN3.001 Faustus keepes his sister and a whore,
 102.SN3.002 Faustus keepes his sister and no more,
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 134.00A.028 Keepes off, or cures what can be done or said.
 135.B13.027 that keepes vntoucht her first virginite.
 155.00a.285 But keepes the earth her round proportion still?
 155.00a.473 Verse hath a middle nature: heauen keepes soules,
 157.00b.508 Peeces a Circle, and still keepes it so,
 158.00A.263 The net through-swome, she keepes the liquid path,
 173.00A.004 Hee keepes, and gives to me his deaths conquest.

KEEPING.....2

158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,
 158.00A.506 And now they joy'n'd: keeping some quality

KEEPS.....2

100.00A.002 Ralphius is sick, the broker keeps his bed.
 155.00a.474 The graue keeps bodies, verse the same enroules.

KEPT.....11

002.00A.084 (Reliquely kept) perchance buyes wedding geare;
 008.00B.102 Which negligently kept, thy ruine bring.
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
 022.00A.070 For though 'tis got by chance, 'tis kept by art.
 139.00A.020 Kept hot with strong extracts, no bodies last:
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 155.00a.033 For as a child kept from the Font, vntill
 157.00b.455 Who kept, by diligent deuotion,
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can

KERNELL.....1

053.00A.023 And when hee hath the kernell eate,

KEY.....1

004.00A.092 He to another key, his stile doth addresse.

KEYES.....1

139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,

KICKT.....1

158.00A.180 Till her uncloth'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.

KIDSKINNE.....1

158.00A.479 Her kidskinne apron without feare or awe

KIL'D.....2

075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?

KILL.....29

002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,
 003.00A.091 Sign'd Kings blanck-charters to kill whom they hate,
 006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
 010.00B.008 As though he came to kill a Cocatrice,
 014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'll make one by & by.

026.00A.006 By pictures made and mard, to kill?
 043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,
 055.00A.040 Kill, and dissect me, Love; for this
 060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,
 071.00A.011 First kill th'enormous Gyant, your Disdaine ,
 071.00A.016 And without such advantage kill me then.
 071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 109.00A.036 All offices of death, except to kill.
 150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost
 155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.
 155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.
 156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
 158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.
 158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,
 158.00A.289 To kill them is an occupation,
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.397 To kill, not scape, for, only hee that ment
 158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,
 158.00A.403 To issue. It could kill, as soone as goe,
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 173.00A.012 Revive againe what law and letter kill,
 184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
 187.00A.103 To kill what Sions daughter did desire,

KILL'D.....6

043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
 065.00A.030 And the game kill'd, or lost, goe talke, and sleepe.
 077.00A.006 Hee was kill'd yesterday.
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 158.00A.163 And she (with other purpose) kill'd it quite;
 168.00A.007 They kill'd once an inglorious man, but I

KILL'ST.....2

150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,

KILLING.....2

060.00A.018 And sacrilege, three sinnes in killing three.
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.

KILLS.....4

051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.
 055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
 077.00A.008 Death kills with too much cold;
 140.00A.028 As kills we know not how; his fiercest wrath

KIN.....1

004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:

KIND.....5

010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,155.00a.067 For there's a kind of world remaining still,157.00b.495 This kind of ioy doth euery day admit179.NY3.011 Betray kind husband thy Spouse to our Sights,184.00A.156 Of midle kind; and thou being sent

KINDE.....21

Sinnes against kinde169.00A.008 Whose whole kinde, you might swallow & feed upon?

KINDES.....4

002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kinde may freely chuse.158.00A.200 Where store is of both kinde, both kindes may freely chuse.158.00A.443 For the field, being of two kindes made,

KINDLE.....1

057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I

KINDLED.....2

091.NY3.002 To the new world your kindled valors bend187.00A.307 Kindled a fire in Sion, which hath power

KINDLES.....3

107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 140.00A.043 For, knowledge kindles Calentures in some,

KINDLY.....2

011.00A.016 That in suspecting kindly warneth us.
 123.NY3.001 Kindly I envy thy Songs perfection

KINDLY'AS.....1

122.00A.013 As kindly'as any enamored Patient

KINDNESSES.....1

158.00A.205 The body so free of his kindnesses,

KINDRED.....1

141.00A.042 And in the vaile of kindred others see;

KINDREDS.....1

011.00A.009 Made deafe with his poore kindreds howling cries,

KINDS.....1

158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,

KING.....22

001.00B.082 When any names the King of Spaine to you.
 002.00B.070 Like a Kings favorite, or like a King.
 004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:
 004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:
 004.00A.181 The fields they sold to buy them; For a King
 008.00B.030 That are become as Catholique as their King,
 010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
 018.00B.046 Our greatest King call thee to his presence.
 036.00A.007 Goe tell Court-huntsmen, that the King will ride,
 070.00A.015 Us, to the Bishop, and the King,
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall
 108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thanks, you, to give,
 117.00A.006 Lyes safe, how e'r his king be in danger:
 145.00A.060 In a low constable, and in the King
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 150.00A.041 As houses fall not, though the King remove,
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee
 191.00B.021 They shew us Ilanders our joy, our King,
 191.00B.043 And shall our Church, unto our Spouse and King
 191.00B.052 (Learn'd the first hower, that we see the King,

KINGDOM'S.....1

015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.

KINGDOME.....5

153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:
 173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
 173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,
 187.00A.096 The Princes of the Kingdome, and the land.

KINGDOMES.....2

158.00A.405 (Who in that trade of Church, and kingdomes, there
 189.00B.039 To open life, to give kingdomes to more

KINGS.....36

002.00B.070 Like a Kings favorite, or like a King.
 002.00B.074 Bastardy abounds not in Kings titles, nor
 003.00A.091 Sign'd Kings blanck-charters to kill whom they hate,
 004.00A.074 'Tis sweet to talke of Kings. At Westminster,
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 004.00A.080 Kings only; The way to it, is Kingstreet.
 005.00A.063 Scarce to Kings; so'tis, would it not anger
 008.00B.027 And howsoe'r French Kings most Christian be,
 020.00G.085 If Kings think that the nearer way, and do
 022.00A.052 To the Kings dogges; then any other beast;
 035.00A.004 As Kings do coynes, to which their stamps impart
 036.00A.019 Aske for those Kings whom thou saw'st yesterday,
 039.00A.007 Or the Kings reall, or his stamped face
 048.00A.001 All Kings, and all their favorites,
 048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we're Kings, and none but wee
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 072.00A.016 Now as those Active Kings
 108.00A.044 Kings (as their patterne, God) are liberall
 108.00A.068 Wisdome, and honour from the use of Kings.
 108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
 108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
 108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 108.00A.090 Where the Kings Counsells and his secrets rest.
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
 158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so
 158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
 167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
 168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.
 184.00A.161 By accepting Kings gifts in the Epiphanie,

184.00A.223 From hearing bold wits jeast at Kings excesse,
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 189.00B.015 And as new crowned Kings alter the face,
 189.00B.040 Than Kings give dignities; to keepe heavens doore?

KINGSTREET.....1

004.00A.080 Kings only; The way to it, is Kingstreet.

KISS.....1

020.00G.081 Civilitie we see refin'd: the kiss

KISSE.....14

009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice
 009.00A.052 As wee, when wee embrace, or touch, or kisse.
 010.00A.038 Could never witnesse any touch or kisse;
 011.00A.024 Nor kisse and play in his house, as before.
 012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:
 016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
 016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,
 024.00A.053 My selfe I embrace, and mine owne hands I kisse,
 024.00A.056 When I would kisse, teares dimme mine eyes, and glasse.
 070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales
 075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 157.00b.364 That beauty and chastity together kisse:
 160.00A.041 Kisse him, and with him into Egypt goe,

KISSES.....6

009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,
 012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd
 012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne
 021.00G.048 Of meetings, conference, embracements, kisses?
 022.00A.017 And the divine impression of stolne kisses,
 112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;

KISSING.....1

010.00A.019 And kissing notes the colour of thy face,

KIST.....3

008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,
 010.00A.029 And kist, and ingled on thy fathers knee,
 109.00A.019 Mildly it kist our sailes, and, fresh, and sweet,

KITCHING-STUFFE.....1

002.00A.081 For as a thrifty wench scrapes kitching-stuffe,

KNEADED.....1

140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,

KNEE.....2

010.00A.029 And kist, and ingled on thy fathers knee,

020.00G.083 Since to the hand, since to the imperial knee,

KNEES.....2

106.00A.090 The priest comes on his knees t'embowell her;

158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)

KNELL.....2

157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.

157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,

KNEW.....26

004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,

008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:

045.00A.002 Before I knew thy face or name;

070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,

070.00A.025 Difference of sex no more wee knew,

108.00A.091b I knew

109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.

131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)

131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.

131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.

146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:

146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;

151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,

151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;

152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake

152.12a.096 These Lines, you wish I knew Your Historie:

153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose

155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,

157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,

158.00A.109 That Adam cropt, or knew the apple; yet

158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;

158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;

158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;

158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,

158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,

158.00A.507 Of every past shape, she knew treachery,

KNEW'ST.....4

057.00A.016 And knew'st my thoughts, beyond an Angels art,

057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when

057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when

151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,

KNIGHTS.....1

179.NY3.009 Dwells She with vs, or like adventuring knights

KNIT.....5

008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:

062.00A.063 Because such fingers need to knit

078.00D.006 To knit our loves in the fantastick straine

136.00A.043 Nor may we hope to sodder still and knit

189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,

KNOCKE.....1

171.00A.002 As yet but knocke, breathe, shine, and seeke to mend;

KNOT.....6

062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:

107.00A.056 Besides this Bishops knot, O Bishop Valentine.

150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,

158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow

158.00A.207 And slackneth so the soules, and bodies knot,

171.00A.011 Divorce mee,'untie, or breake that knot againe,

KNOTTIE.....2

112.00A.020 (O knottie riddle) each is worst equally.

173.00A.003 His joynture in the knottie Trinitie,

KNOW.....114

001.00A.075 As prentises, or schoole-boyes which doe know

003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou

003.00A.045 Seekes her at Rome, there, because hee doth know

003.00A.100 That thou mayest rightly obey power, her bounds know;

004.00A.188 The Ladies come; As Pirats, which doe know

004.00A.234 Charing Crosse for a barre, men that doe know

005.00A.028 Greatest and fairest Empresse, know you this?

005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know

005.00A.034 To know and weed out this enormous sinne.

014.NY3.007 Only we know, that which all Ideots say

015.00G.022 Ill spirits walk in white; we easily know,

015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;

018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!

025.00A.018 That I may know, and see thy lyes,

029.00A.021 If it had gone to thee, I know

031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,

033.00A.019 If thou findest one, let mee know,

037.00A.015 Let mee, and doe you, twenty know.

040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,

044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,

052.00A.004 And how posterity shall know it too;
055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,
062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
067.00A.015 By this should know my pain,
068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,
068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
068.00A.030 Know thee for one?
068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower
071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,
092.NY3.004 In that late lland; for he well did know
108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know
108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,
108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe
109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
111.00A.018 Tender to know, tough to acknowledge wrongs.
112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.
133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
136.00A.041 Religion is a Christians, and you know
137.00A.066 As strange attire aliens the men wee know.
138.00A.024 But whither, only knowing you, I know;
138.00A.029 And you can never know it; To admit
138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
140.00A.028 As kills we know not how; his fiercest wrath
140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.

148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
 151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 152.12a.051 So God, in our desire to dye, dooth know
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 153.00A.100 As Angells goe, and know, and as men read.
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 157.00b.131 And as, though all doe know, that quantities
 157.00b.191 Shee carries no desire to know, nor sense,
 157.00b.193 For th'Element of fire, shee doth not know,
 157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
 157.00b.260 By what way thou art made immortal, know.
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.278 Of Nailles and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
 157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
 157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
 157.00b.284 To know but Catechismes and Alphabets
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
 157.00b.452 (Hearing, and speaking to him) as to know
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
 160.00A.050 A shallow seeming child, should deeply know?
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, neerest to him, wee know,
 184.00A.036 Of power, to love, to know, you unnumbered three.
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought
 184.00A.204 We know not what to say.
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
 188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nere know cares,
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,
 188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 188.00E.008 Nor thy word, ever mild, know quarrelling.
 188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,
 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.

KNOW'ST.....5

060.00A.005 Thou know'st that this cannot be said
 112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,

KNOWE.....1

152.12a.024 That Wee see not what to beleuee or knowe?

KNOWES.....23

004.00A.098 Of triviall houshold trash; He knowes; He knowes
 004.00A.098 Of triviall houshold trash; He knowes; He knowes
 004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what
 004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,
 055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
 061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:
 153.00A.056 Because God knowes where every Atome lyes;
 153.00A.087 And as this Angell in an instant, knowes,
 155.00a.398 And man least knowes their trade, and purposes.
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 177.00B.013 O pensive soule, to God, for he knowes best
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.174 All waies, which rage, or Justice knowes,

KNOWEST.....5

155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
 155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.
 155.00a.428 Thou knowest how drie a Cinder this world is.
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;

KNOWETH.....1

004.00A.036 And only knoweth what to all States belongs,

KNOWING.....4

003.00A.064 Knowing some women whores, dares marry none.
 138.00A.024 But whither, only knowing you, I know;
 156.00a.083 He which not knowing her sad History,
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was grown

KNOWLEDGE.....13

003.00A.086 Hard deeds, the bodies paines; hard knowledge to
 008.00B.072 Wisdome and knowledge; but, 'tis turn'd to ill:
 013.00A.026 I planted knowledge and lifes tree in thee,
 044.00A.015 Unto this knowledge to aspire,
 124.00A.003 Of knowledge, hast with courage and advise
 138.00A.030 No knowledge of your worth, it some of it.
 140.00A.043 For, knowledge kindles Calentures in some,
 141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood
 153.00A.008 Come to your knowledge, and affections too,
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 157.00b.316 (For so much knowledge, as would ouer-fraite
 184.00A.033 By power, love, knowledge bee,

KNOWNE.....10

001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne
 002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 004.00A.242 With Macchabees modestie, the knowne merit
 079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
 131.00B.063 A weather-beaten Lover but once knowne,
 131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne
 138.00A.028 Is knowne to any other, not to you.
 138.00A.090 With cordiall vertue, your knowne nourishment.
 143.00A.013 Your treasure, for since I had never knowne
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth

KNOWST.....14

153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
 155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.
 155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.326 Thou knowst how vgly a monster this world is:
 155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 157.00b.257 Thou neither knowst, how thou at first camest in,
 157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
 157.00b.269 Knowst thou but how the stone doth enter in
 157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;
 157.00b.274 Knowst thou how thy lungs haue attracted it?
 157.00b.276 (For ought thou knowst) piercing of substances.

153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.

156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?

157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,

163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;

LACKS.....2

133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,
 154.00A.016 Story, a theame; and Musicke lacks a song;

LACKT.....1

145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,

LADIE.....1

004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus

LADIES.....5

004.00A.188 The Ladies come; As Pirats, which doe know
 004.00A.217 For saying of our Ladies psalter; But 'tis fit
 107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 145.00A.006 Serve but for Ladies Periwigs and Tyres

LADY.....5

002.00A.049 A motion, Lady, Speake Cocus; I have beene
 004.00A.210 To preach, he enters, and a Lady which owes
 038.00A.012 The maid, and tell the Lady of that delay;
 159.52a.HE1 To the Lady Magdalen Herbert, of St. Mary Magdalen.
 159.52a.009 Increase their number, Lady, and their fame:

LAESA.....1

201.20a.002 2 Post, Actio laesa;

LAID.....14

004.00A.196 She feares her drugs ill laid, her haire loose set;
 010.00A.002 All thy suppos'd escapes are laid on mee;
 010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid
 017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,
 020.00G.092 Two purses, and their mouths aversely laid:
 049.00A.051 His letter at thy pillow'hath laid,
 107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
 108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes brest
 108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
 155.00a.035 The Ceremonies, thou vnam'd hadst laid,
 155.00a.138 Or shipwrack'd in the Sea, one would haue laid
 156.00a.038 That as a sundred Clocke is peece-meale laid,
 157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
 158.00A.059 Sailes hoised there, stroke here, and anchors laid

LAIES.....1

157.00b.120 Laies thee to sleepe but a saint Lucies night.

LAKE.....1

006.00D.003 Venice vast lake thou hadst seen, & would seek than,

LAMBE.....5

106.00A.089 Like an appointed lambe, when tenderly

154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,

160.00A.094 Mild lambe which with thy blood, hast mark'd the path;

173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,

184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne

LAMBIT.....1

186.00E.013 Qua sapiens, Dos est; Qua terram lambit et ambit,

LAME.....14

008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.

052.00A.008 And her, through whose helpe Lucan is not lame,

106.00A.023 So may shee faire and rich, in nothing lame,

115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure

121.NY3.001 Euen as lame things thirst their perfection, so

123.NY3.012 Which as a lame Eccho of thyne doth rebound.

153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe

154.00A.012 Of Subject and of Prince, in one are lame;

155.00a.192 Quite out of ioynt, almost created lame:

155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.

155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.

155.00a.416 But, by Receiuers impotencies, lame,

157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?

189.00B.044 And blesse the poore beneath, the lame, the weake.

LAMELY.....1

079.00B.019 And that so lamely, as it leaves behinde

LAMENT.....5

108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament

151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,

155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.

155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:

157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.

LAMENTABLE.....1

009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.

LAMENTATIONS.....1

187.00A.108 To Iuda's daughters lamentations.

LAMENTED.....1

155.00a.401 Shee, for whose losse we haue lamented thus,

LAMENTING.....1

075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,

LAMENTS.....1

179.NY3.004 Laments & mournes in Germany & here?

LAMPE.....2

108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,

156.00a.073 But like a Lampe of Balsamum, desir'd

LAMPS.....1

157.00b.352 Oyle to th'Apostles lamps, dew to their seed.

LANCH'D.....1

158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.

LANCKE.....1

121.NY3.009 As lancke & thin is euery street & way

LAND.....17

001.00A.010 Giddie fantastique Poets of each land.

002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;

002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaires

004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg

016.00A.029 To live in one land, is captivitie,

017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.

018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page

049.00A.045 To looke on one, whose wit or land,

055.00A.030 And change the Idolatrie of any land,

061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not

070.00A.012 If this fall in a time, or land,

122.00A.021 Him the rich land, but bar'd his entry in,

149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;

150.00A.016 Might sponge that element, and make it land.

158.00A.017 And see at night thy Westernne land of Myne,

175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,

187.00A.096 The Princes of the Kingdome, and the land.

LAND-WINDE.....1

158.00A.291 A sudden stiffe land-winde in that self houre

LANDLORDS.....1

002.00A.105 Where's th'old landlords troops, & almes, great hals?

LANDS.....8

001.00A.034 What lands hee hath in hope, or of his owne,

002.00A.085 Peecemeale he gets lands, and spends as much time
 002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.
 005.00A.041 Into other hands: So controverted lands
 006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.
 018.00B.018 My soule from other lands to thee shall soare,
 056.00A.016 And not to seeke new lands, or not to deale withall?
 158.00A.056 For though through many streights, & lands I roame,

LANES.....1

040.00A.006 Then as th'earths inward narrow crooked lanes

LANGUAGE.....8

002.00A.048 And wooes in language of the Pleas, and Bench:
 004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,
 013.00A.004 The mystique language of the eye nor hand:
 021.00G.050 Varied our language through all dialects,
 062.00A.022 That he soules language understood,
 070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
 081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand
 151.00A.001 Language thou art too narrow, and too weake

LANGUISH.....9

025.00A.021 And dost languish
 110.00A.006 In calmes, Heaven laughs to see us languish thus.
 110.00A.035 Languish our ships. Now, as a Miriade
 117.00A.007 So, though I languish, prest with Malancholy,
 119.NY3.010 Allthough our bodyes wither & minds Languish.
 155.00a.046 The Prince doth languish, or the Prince is dead:
 182.00A.007 And made the darke fires languish in that vale,
 187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this

LANGUISHED.....1

155.00a.011 This world, in that great earth-quake languished;

LANGUISHES.....1

153.00A.135 Expires, or languishes, whose pulse, the flye,

LANGUISHMENT.....1

155.00a.102 For mans reliefe, cause of his languishment.

LANGUISHT.....1

158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,

LANKE.....1

050.00A.038 Lanke, as an unthrifts purse; but a soules sacke;

LANTHORNE.....1

184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)

LANTHORNES.....1

110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay

LARD.....1

127.00A.014 As suddenly as Lard, fat thy leane beasts;

LARGE.....9

002.00A.038 In which Commandements large receit they dwell.

002.00A.087 In parchment then, large as his fields, hee drawes

050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,

131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.

142.00A.056 The Master at the end large glasses ties,

153.00A.109 In the most large extent, through every path,

155.00a.123 So spacious and large, that euery soule

155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:

157.00b.231 And when w'haue made this large Discoueree,

LARGELY.....1

157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:

LARGENESSE.....1

145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:

LARGER.....1

130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone

LARGEST.....1

108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.

LARKE.....1

107.00A.006 The Lirique Larke, and the grave whispering Dove,

LARKES.....1

107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,

LASCIVIOUS.....1

158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it

LAST.....82

001.00A.095 Saying, him whom I last left, s'all repute

001.00A.106 At last his Love he in a window spies,

003.00A.039 Dost love a withered and worne strumpet; last,

003.00A.095 At the last day? Will it then boot thee

003.00A.107 Through mills, & rockes, & woods, and at last, almost

004.00A.069 To teach by painting drunkards, doth not last
 004.00A.125 As the last day; And that great officers,
 004.00A.139 To the last farthing; Therefore to my power
 008.00B.109 Afflict thee, and at thy lives last moment,
 009.00A.047 Is not your last act harsh, and violent,
 011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,
 033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,
 038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet
 042.00A.006 Must dye at last, 'tis best,
 043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye
 043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
 048.00A.010 But truly keepes his first, last, everlasting day.
 048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,
 053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
 055.00A.028 Having put love at last to shew this face.
 061.00A.024 And at the last be circumcis'd for bread:
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 070.00A.010 To make their soules, at the last busie day,
 075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 107.00A.103 Rest now at last, and wee
 109.00A.048 At the last day, some forth their cabbins peepe:
 126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw
 129.00A.030 In their last Furnace, in activity;
 131.00B.120 From the first Rayes, to his last opposite:
 136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
 136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.
 139.00A.020 Kept hot with strong extracts, no bodies last:
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 145.00A.056 The power and praise of both them, on the last;
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 147.00B.004 Admit to that place this last funerall Scrowle.
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stufte, as God, when his last fire
 150.00A.010 Eating the best first, well preserv'd to last.
 151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;
 153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,
 153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is
 153.00A.046 Those Spirits, humors, blood I did last yeare,
 153.00A.055 Yet at the last two perfect bodies rise,
 153.00A.138 Or idle,'as men, which to their last houres come,
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read

155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
 155.00a.456 And haue your last, and best concoction
 155.00a.462 A last, and lastingst peece, a song. He spake
 156.00a.056 Fearing the last fires hastning to subdue
 156.00a.074 Rather t'adorne, then last, shee soone expir'd;
 157.00b.060 That carkasses last resurrectione.
 157.00b.394 Next day repaires, (but ill) last daies decay.
 157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
 157.00b.491 loy that their last great Consummation
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)
 158.00A.192 Things ripened sooner, and did longer last;
 158.00A.294 Fat gluttonies best orator: at last
 158.00A.426 At last a trap, of which some every where
 160.00A.011 The first last end, now zealously possest,
 160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 164.00A.002 My pilgrimages last mile; and my race
 164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,
 164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 173.00A.013 Thy lawes abridgement, and thy last command
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 178.NY3.001 Since She whome I lovd, hath payd her last debt
 182.00A.002 As yet, the wound thou took'st on friday last;
 183.00A.005 Whose first and last concurre; this doubtfull day
 183.00A.038 With the last judgement, but one period,
 184.00A.197 In th'houre of death, the'Eve of last judgement day,
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 192.00B.025 May the last Adams blood my soule embrace.
 193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;

LAST-SICKE.....1

147.00B.024 A last-sicke houre to syllables allow.

LASTED.....1

109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.

LASTING.....3

004.00A.124 Perpetuities of them, lasting as farre
 108.00A.218 In warmth, light, lasting, equall the divine;
 155.00a.135 And as in lasting, so in length is man

LASTINGST.....1

155.00a.462 A last, and lastingst peece, a song. He spake

LATE.....23

002.00A.043 Hath made a Lawyer; which was alas of late

009.00A.030 Of men late scurg'd for madnes, or for sinne,
 014.NY3.010 Euer our men, yea and our God of late.
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 036.00A.006 Late schoole boyes, and sowre prentices,
 036.00A.016 Looke, and to morrow late, tell mee,
 070.00A.030 Which nature, injur'd by late law, sets free,
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 079.00B.011 But, from late faire
 092.NY3.004 In that late lland; for he well did know
 107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,
 114.00A.008 Or earely and late twilights to mid-day.
 114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
 126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
 136.00A.023 Or tooke Soules stufte such as shall late decay,
 136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,
 155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,
 157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
 158.00A.068 And mend the wracks of th'Empire, and late Rome,
 158.00A.187 As his late house, and the first houre speaks plaine,
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 165.00A.011 'Tis late to aske abundance of thy grace,
 187.00A.001 1 How sits this citie, late most populous,

LATE-PRAIS'D.....1

145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,

LATELY.....3

124.00A.004 Lately launch'd into the vast Sea of Arts,
 138.00A.068 Two new starres lately to the firmament;
 160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe

LATEST.....3

050.00A.036 Age must be loveliest at the latest day.
 158.00A.026 Us, and our latest nephewes did install
 164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,

LATITUDE.....2

052.00A.059 To take a latitude
 139.00A.042 One latitude in cloysters, and in Court,

LATTER.....1

072.00A.024 A latter bullet may o'rtake, the poudre being more.

LATTICES.....1

157.00b.296 Thou shalt not peepe through lattices of eies,

LAUGH.....12

003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 004.00A.197 Would not Heraclitus laugh to see Macrine,
 005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
 006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.
 025.00A.019 And may laugh and joy, when thou
 029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
 051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;
 068.00A.005 And now dost laugh and triumph on this bough,
 082.00A.008 Dead and enterr'd; yet all these seeme to laugh,
 121.NY3.011 Nothing wherat to laugh my spleene espyes
 158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.

LAUGHS.....1

110.00A.006 In calmes, Heaven laughs to see us languish thus.

LAUNCH.....2

158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.057 I launch at paradise, and I saile towards home;

LAUNCH'D.....1

124.00A.004 Lately launch'd into the vast Sea of Arts,

LAVACRO.....1

186.00E.005 Hinc mihi Crux primo quae fronte impressa lavacro,

LAW.....31

002.00A.063 Law practise for meere gaine; bold soule repute
 004.00A.041 Mountebankes drugtongue, nor the termes of law
 004.00A.228 Jeasts like a licenc'd foole, commands like law.
 005.00A.043 If Law be in the Judges heart, and hee
 005.00A.076 Of men; so in law, nailles are extremities,
 005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 009.00A.009 Or like the skumme, which, by needs lawlesse law
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 024.00A.003 Verse that drawes Natures workes, from Natures law,
 055.00A.011 A non obstante on natures law,
 055.00A.025 Enforce them, by warres law condition not.
 056.00A.005 And thence a law did grow,
 056.00A.008 Are Sunne, Moone, or Starres by law forbidden,
 070.00A.030 Which nature, injur'd by late law, sets free,
 121.NY3.012 But bearbaitings or law exercise.
 126.00A.008 Th'immense vast volumes of our common law;
 153.00A.183 By law, to Triumphs none admitted bee,
 155.00a.048 A strong example gone equall to law,
 155.00a.465 The Law, the Prophets, and the History,
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law

158.00A.082 Fenc'd with the law, and ripe as soone as borne
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can 158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better prooffe the law
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,
 173.00A.012 Revive againe what law and letter kill,
 181.00A.009 From mee, no Pulpit, nor misgrounded law,
 184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,
 184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;
 184.00A.226 That living law, the Magistrate,
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there

LAWE.....1

005.00A.026 Adulterate lawe, and you prepare their way

LAWES.....16

002.00A.088 Assurances, bigge, as gloss'd civill lawes,
 002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,
 002.00A.112 Within the vast reach of th'huge statute lawes.
 003.00A.056 Some Preachers, vile ambitious bauds, and lawes
 003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,
 005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie
 141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.
 151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow
 153.00A.242 'Gainst natures lawes, which just impugners bee
 157.00b.514 And where, what lawes of poetry admit,
 157.00b.515 Lawes of religion, haue at least the same,
 158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.
 173.00A.013 Thy lawes abridgement, and thy last command
 189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,

LAWFULL.....1

153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd

LAWLESSE.....1

009.00A.009 Or like the skumme, which, by needs lawlesse law

LAWS.....2

158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet

LAWYER.....1

002.00A.043 Hath made a Lawyer; which was alas of late

LAWYERS.....3

039.00A.016 Soldiers finde warres, and Lawyers finde out still
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 156.00a.023 Lawyers for tongues, Diuines for hearts, and more,

LAY.....28

003.00A.017 Dar'st thou ayd mutinous Dutch, and dar'st thou lay
 005.00A.002 Whom any pittie warmes; He which did lay
 008.00B.081 The Mother in the hungry grave doth lay,
 011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,
 013.00A.001 Natures lay Ideot, I taught thee to love,
 020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay
 062.00A.018 Wee like sepulchrall statues lay,
 107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,
 110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay
 110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay
 119.NY3.007 But as a Lay Mans Genius doth controule
 137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 153.00A.096 And lay together every A, and B;
 157.00b.268 Another thinkes, and ty's an euen lay.
 158.00A.276 The seely fish where it disputing lay,
 158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay
 160.00A.034 Yet lay him in this stall, and from the Orient,
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 184.00A.193 To us, as we judge, lay or ghostly sword,
 187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:
 187.00A.074 Deceiv'd mee, and my Priests, and Elders lay
 187.00A.135 And in the street like wounded persons lay
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,

LAY'IT.....1

108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon

LAY-MEN.....1

015.00G.040 For lay-men are all women thus arrayed.

LAY-SCORNINGS.....1

189.00B.003 Making Lay-scornings of the Ministry,

LAYD.....1

156.00a.058 Wisely bestow'd, and layd it all on one.

LAYES.....1

187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes

LAYETIE.....1

031.00A.008 To tell the layetie our love

LAYING.....1

149.00A.047 Making omissions, acts; laying the touch

LAZARE.....1

201.20a.042 iam Lazare lectum;

LAZILY.....1

184.00A.240 By dwelling lazily

LEACHERS.....1

004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound

LEAD.....2

110.00A.012 As lead, when a fir'd Church becomes one spout.

112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as

LEADE.....1

183.00A.032 Leade, and his Church, as cloud; to one end both:

LEADEN.....1

182.00A.015 Leaden and iron wills to good, but is

LEADERS.....1

003.00A.019 To leaders rage, to stormes, to shot, to dearth?

LEADES.....1

157.00b.208 Strunge on one string, speed vndistinguish'd leades

LEAFE.....5

005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they

006.00D.057 Provide whole books; each leafe enough will be

130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,

133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this

156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,

LEAFES.....2

108.00A.010 Of leafes, to furnish roddes enough to whip

156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.

LEAFIE.....1

158.00A.155 A leafie garland weares he on his head

LEAGUES.....2

156.00a.044 For many leagues,) farre greater then it was,
 158.00A.296 That leagues o'er-past at sea, now tir'd hee lyes,

LEANE.....6

008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.
 008.00B.056 Well-pleas'd with one leane thred-bare groat, for hire,
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?
 082.00A.016 From dull privations, and leane emptinesse
 106.00A.040 Then may thy leane and hunger-starved wombe
 127.00A.014 As suddenly as Lard, fat thy leane beasts;

LEANES.....1

031.00A.031 It leanes, and hearkens after it,

LEAP'D.....1

086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came

LEAPE.....1

158.00A.264 And whether she leape up sometimes to breath

LEAPS.....1

001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see

LEARN'D.....6

025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
 063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
 070.00A.003 (For graves have learn'd that woman-head
 112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 145.00A.084 And though I burne my librarie, be learn'd.
 191.00B.052 (Learn'd the first hower, that we see the King,

LEARN'ST.....1

155.00a.185 And learn'st thus much by our Anatomee,

LEARNE.....10

052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.
 055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:
 060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;
 133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
 136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
 138.00A.060 Which learne it there, and come in innocent.
 145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
 157.00b.297 Nor heare through Laberinth of eares, nor learne
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 191.00B.028 (For, Angels learne by what the Church does heare)

LEARNED.....5

006.00D.002 Thy learned spirit, Sesqui-superlative?
 129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand
 157.00b.302 Perchance, as learned, and as full, as shee,
 158.00A.078 Where first grew the forbidden learned tree,
 191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way

LEARNING.....4

049.00A.020 This learning be, for a scratch'd name to teach,
 052.00A.026 Learning were safe; in this our Universe
 134.00A.025 But, you of learning and religion,
 184.00A.235 That learning, thine Ambassador,

LEARNST.....4

155.00a.239 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.327 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.371 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.429 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,

LEASE.....1

022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take

LEAST.....21

010.00A.020 And fearing least thou'art swolne, doth thee embrace;
 020.00G.077 Least subject to disguise and change it is;
 021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaim,
 022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pittie;
 024.00A.029 And yet I grieve the lesse, least Griefe remove
 047.00A.002 At least remember, I forbade it thee;
 047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
 047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
 055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
 106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
 115.00A.010 Of him, at least in this earths habitation:
 152.12a.021 If then, least Mouings of the Centre make
 155.00a.172 Helpe, or at least some time to wast, allow
 155.00a.398 And man least knowes their trade, and purposes.
 157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,
 157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
 157.00b.515 Lawes of religion, haue at least the same,
 178.NY3.011 And dost not only feare least I allow
 178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.
 183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that have least light:

LEATHER.....1

017.00A.034 But, in long journeyes, cloth, and leather use.

LEAUE.....7

007.006.003 Es sat a My l'honneur estre hic inteso; Car I Leaue
 014.NY3.002 And when I haue peace, can I leaue thee then?
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 121.NY3.013 Therefore Ile leaue it, and in the Cuntry strive
 157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,
 157.00b.379 Shee, shee doth leaue it, and by Death, suruiue

LEAV'ST.....2

034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.

LEAVE.....41

001.00A.002 Leave mee, and in this standing wooden chest,
 001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,
 001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,
 001.00A.025 For better or worse take mee, or leave mee:
 001.00A.026 To take, and leave mee is adultery.
 002.00A.101 As controverters, in vouch'd Texts, leave out
 003.00A.032 And for forbidden warres, leave th'appointed field?
 004.00A.067 You would leave lonelinesse; I said, not alone
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 005.00A.032 By having leave to serve, am most richly
 009.00A.053 Leave her, and I will leave comparing thus,
 009.00A.053 Leave her, and I will leave comparing thus,
 018.00B.015 I'll goe, and, by thy kinde leave, leave behinde
 018.00B.015 I'll goe, and, by thy kinde leave, leave behinde
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,
 024.00A.042 Then fishes leave in streames, or Birds in aire.
 027.00A.015 And if my self have leave to see,
 044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,
 048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?
 064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie
 067.00A.007 Will leave this to controule,
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 106.00A.002 Leave, leave, faire Bride, your solitary bed,
 106.00A.002 Leave, leave, faire Bride, your solitary bed,
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
 131.00B.112 And leave his nature to converse with fire:
 137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
 138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.

139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,
 153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
 158.00A.217 Askt not of rootes, nor of cock-sparrows, leave:
 164.00A.014 For thus I leave the world, the flesh the devill.
 174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
 185.00A.038 Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave.
 187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?

LEAVEN.....1

008.00B.010 No leaven of vile soder did admit;

LEAVES.....18

001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;
 002.00A.098 His writings, and (unwatch'd) leaves out, ses heires
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
 006.00D.037 Voluminous barrels; if thy leaves do then
 006.00D.041 Thy leaves a better method do provide,
 006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,
 006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,
 008.00B.064 He leaves himselfe no roome to enter in.
 020.00G.049 It leaves a Cheek, a rosie Hemisphere
 053.00A.021 And he that leaves all, doth as well,
 077.00A.016 Leaves behinde, two houres after.
 079.00B.019 And that so lamely, as it leaves behinde
 130.00A.006 Leaves growing, and stands such, or else decayes,
 149.00A.019 And leaves embroderd workes upon the sand,
 150.00A.034 Reserve but few, and leaves the most to thee.
 158.00A.150 His apples kinde, his leaves, force of conception kill.
 160.00A.030 Now leaves his welbelov'd imprisonment,

LEAVING.....4

016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,

LECHER.....1

176.00B.010 The itchy Lecher, and selfe tickling proud

LECHEROUS.....2

003.00A.053 Lecherous humors, there is one that judges
 166.00A.003 If lecherous goats, if serpents envious

LECTISSIMAE.....1

197.F01.006 Faeminae Lectissimae, dilectissimaeque;

LECTURE.....1

030.00B.002 A Lecture, Love, in loves philosophy.

LED.....7

119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:

131.00B.039 And severall desires led parts away,

140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry

141.00A.013 As such a starre, which Magi led to view

158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led

187.00A.010 Juda is captive led; Those nations

187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,

LEESE.....2

005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,

109.00A.017 How in the port, our fleet deare time did leese,

LEFT.....21

001.00A.095 Saying, him whom I last left, s'all repute

002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,

003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given

008.00B.033 Which negligently left unrounded, looke

021.00G.019 Or have we left undone some mutual Right,

021.00G.028 And I left wealthy only in a dream.

107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,

133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?

150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,

151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,

153.00A.221 Left safe from present warre, and likely doubt

153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee

154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,

155.00a.308 Is left vs, is without proportion.

157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee

158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest

158.00A.175 Had found, and left the Mandrakes tenant, runnes

158.00A.244 She left her house the fish, and vapour'd forth;

158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.

158.00A.262 Once innocence scap'd, and left the oppressor fast;

LEFTHANDEDNESSE.....1

134.00A.005 But as, although a squint lefthandednesse

LEFTST.....1

036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.

LEGACIE.....5

- 043.00A.008 Mine owne executor and Legacie.
 122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
 147.00B.006 Dying, of you doe beg a Legacie.
 173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie
 183.00A.018 At once receiver and the legacie;

LEGACIES.....5

- 011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,
 066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
 147.00B.005 Others by Wills give Legacies, but I
 156.00a.103 For future vertuous deeds are Legacies,
 157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;

LEGATIONES.....1

- 196.015.013 QVAM AD LEGATIONES PERAGENDAS

LEGATS.....1

- 155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,

LEGEND.....1

- 158.00A.043 Except my legend be free from the letts

LEGENDS.....2

- 039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
 137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.

LEGES.....2

- 104.C07.001 Emendare cupis Joseph qui tempora; Leges
 198.LL1.011 Qui huc, in prima iuuentute, ad perdiscendas leges, missus

LEGGE.....2

- 004.00A.206 Of his neck to his legge, and wast to thighes.
 158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;

LEGGES.....2

- 027.00A.018 And cut their legges, which shells and weeds,
 155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,

LEND.....3

- 021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
 056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall

LENGTH.....7

- 002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes
 042.00A.023 And wee teach it art and length,

079.00B.025 Diminisheth the length of life a day)
 129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.
 142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say
 155.00a.135 And as in lasting, so in length is man
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne

LENGTHEN.....1

022.00A.056 And in that pleasure lengthen the short dayes

LENT.....5

002.00A.054 You said, If I Returne next size in Lent,
 108.00A.014 With just solemnity, do it in Lent;
 143.00A.011 First I confesse I have to others lent
 157.00b.223 An Age in her; shee whose rich beauty lent
 184.00A.103 As thou hadst lent them, cleane and innocent,

LENTE.....1

201.20a.009 10 Lente & Serpenti sata-

LENTO.....1

201.20a.031 17 Nunc lento sonitu dicunt,

LENTS.....1

158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.

LEPROUS.....1

010.00A.060 By drawing in a leprous harlots breath,

LESS.....2

021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 021.00G.104 As I will never look for less in you.

LESSE.....50

002.00A.090 Are Fathers of the Church for writing lesse.
 006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 008.00B.088 Yea death, ere he would make your number lesse.
 017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.
 017.00A.051 Whom, if shee accuse her selfe, I credit lesse
 018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 024.00A.029 And yet I grieve the lesse, least Griefe remove
 029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;
 031.00A.020 Care lesse, eyes, lips, hands to misse.
 035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 057.00A.001 Deare love, for nothing lesse then thee
 065.00A.003 But that I did, to make it lesse,

069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
 073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough
 073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough
 079.00B.013 Is not lesse cared for after three dayes
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take
 138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse
 138.00A.079 And ignorance of vice, makes vertue lesse,
 139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,
 139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.
 142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 143.00A.024 May in lesse lessons finde enough to doe,
 145.00A.020 To make abridgments, and to draw to lesse,
 145.00A.026 So much as to accuse, much lesse mend it,
 147.00B.018 Here bodies with lesse miracle enjoy
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
 151.00A.055 For from lesse vertue, and lesse beautiousnesse,
 151.00A.055 For from lesse vertue, and lesse beautiousnesse,
 153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
 154.00A.024 Not to lesse houses, but, to heapes of stone;
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.149 Their siluer; or dispos'd into lesse glas,
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,
 157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.112 Reckoning their vanities, lesse is their gaine
 158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 189.00B.012 Of noble goods, and with lesse time and paine?

LESSEN.....3

004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
 153.00A.244 Lessen our losse, to magnifie thy gaine

LESSENS.....2

130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,
 151.00A.004 Griefe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.

LESSER.....7

029.00A.030 A hundred lesser faces, so
 056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 082.00A.038 You lovers, for whose sake, the lesser Sunne
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 158.00A.143 Into ten lesser strings, these fingers were:
 191.00B.042 A lesser gift than some one man hath sent?

LESSON.....2

136.00A.037 Natures first lesson, so, discretion,
 145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;

LESSONS.....2

112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 143.00A.024 May in lesse lessons finde enough to doe,

LEST.....15

006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
 030.00B.013 Which is still diligent lest others see.
 047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,
 133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.
 139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,
 140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
 187.00A.098 Hath cleane cut off, and lest the enemie
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,
 187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more

LET.....127

001.00A.003 Consorted with these few bookes, let me lye
 001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,
 001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 008.00B.002 For Armelets of that thou maist let me weare:
 008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjurer,
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 012.00A.028 The traiterous banks to gape, and let her in,
 012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitterness beget
 014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.

014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly
 014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly
 014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.
 015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,
 016.00A.007 If I have caught a bird, and let him flie,
 016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through
 021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear
 021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;
 022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
 022.00A.051 And let his carrion coarse be a longer feast
 022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;
 027.00A.017 Let others freeze with angling reeds,
 027.00A.021 Let coarse bold hands, from slimy nest
 031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,
 032.00A.012 Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
 032.00A.013 Let Maps to other, worlds on worlds have showne,
 032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 033.00A.019 If thou findest one, let mee know,
 037.00A.015 Let mee, and doe you, twenty know.
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivalls letter mine,
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 038.00A.015 Or cities quelque choses, let report
 039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,
 039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
 042.00A.033 Let not thy divining heart
 047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
 048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,
 048.00A.028 Let us love nobly, and live, and adde againe
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
 055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
 056.00A.018 Only to lock up, or else to let them fall?
 058.00A.001 Let me powre forth
 058.00A.023 Let not the winde
 060.00A.017 Let not to that, selfe murder added bee,
 062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
 065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 066.00A.024 My patience let gamesters share.
 071.00A.012 And let th'enchantresse Honor, next be slaine,

071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call
 093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall
 107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.129 Let me here contemplate thee,
 108.00A.130 First, cheerfull Bridegroom, and first let mee see,
 108.00A.155 Let every Jewell be a glorious starre,
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 111.00A.022 Then let us at these mimicke antiques jeast,
 112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall
 112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
 120.00A.005 And let the love I beare to both sustaine
 130.00A.041 Let falshood like a discord anger you,
 131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight
 138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
 148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.181 Let me here use that freedome, and expresse
 154.00A.040 Got thither by repentance, Let it bee
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.256 As now, with curious greedinesse to let
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,
 179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove

181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,
 181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 184.00A.025 Which let devout sad teares intend; and let 184.00A.025 Which let devout sad teares intend; and let
 184.00A.035 Of these let all mee elemented bee,
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.055 And let thy Patriarches Desire
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou' hast let mee know
 184.00A.087 In thine, let their blood come
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
 184.00A.250 O let it not returne to us againe,
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,
 187.00A.158 Therefore, O walls of Sion, let teares fall
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,

LET'S.....1

057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.

LET'US.....1

070.00A.007 Will he not let'us alone,

LETANIE.....1

002.00A.033 To out-drinke the sea, to out-sweare the Letanie

LETARGEE.....1

155.00a.024 Well, when alas, thou'rt in a Letargee.

LETARGIES.....1

128.LR1.009 to Letargies. Lett shotts & boggs, & skeines

LETHARGIE.....1

049.00A.063 Neere death inflicts this lethargie,

LETHARGIQUE.....1

157.00b.064 Men thus lethargique haue best Memory.

LETHE.....1

157.00b.027 Yet a new Deluge, and of Lethe flood,

LETHE'.....1

125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,

LETHEAN.....1

166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,

LETS.....6

001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,

004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,

008.00B.032 That (more than Canon shot) availles or lets;

064.00a.006 And that vice-nature, custome, lets it be;

067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall

150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.

LETT.....2

128.LR1.009 to Letargies. Lett shotts & boggs, & skeines

128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld

LETT'S.....1

152.12a.048 And will not lett's enjoy our Curse, to Dye?

LETTER.....10

005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,

033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,

038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivalls letter mine,

049.00A.051 His letter at thy pillow'hath laid,

122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it

135.B13.0HE A letter written by Sr. H: G: and I: D. alternis vicibus.

135.B13.036 our letter should as you, bee infinite.

138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe

142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say

173.00A.012 Revive againe what law and letter kill,

LETTER'IS.....1

116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,

LETTERS.....11

002.00A.056 In th'interim my letters should take place

017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,

021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,

041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,

041.00A.017 In sighs, in oathes, and letters outbid mee,

052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,

065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,

112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;

116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;

128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare

128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare

LIBERALL.....8

041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,

107.00A.096 No such occasion to be liberall.

108.00A.044 Kings (as their patterne, God) are liberall

108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall

120.00A.010 Heavens liberall and earths thrice-faire Sunne,

157.00b.367 And shee gaue pardons, and was liberall,

158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.

160.00A.069 And at thy death giving such liberall dole,

LIBERALLY.....1

015.00G.044 As liberally, as to thy Midwife shew

LIBERTEE.....1

LIE.....20

004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,
 008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.
 015.00G.002 Until I labour, I in labour lie.
 017.00A.049 And though in childbeds labour she did lie,

036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
 046.00A.004 Did we lie downe, because 'twas night?
 056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?
 056.00A.015 Who e'r rigg'd faire ship to lie in harbors,
 059.00A.002 Say, where his centrique happinesse doth lie:
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.
 131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,

LIFE.....58

002.00A.013 And saves his life) gives ideot actors meanes
 003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare
 004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,
 006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 016.00A.036 Of musicke, joy, life, and eternity.
 022.00A.012 (Both hot and cold) at once make life and death?
 042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
 043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
 047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
 060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 079.00B.025 Diminisheth the length of life a day)
 082.00A.007 Whither, as to the beds-feet life is shrunke,
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,

106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
 107.00A.007 The Sparrow that neglects his life for love,
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 110.00A.046 Is paid with life, or pray, or doing dyes.
 112.00A.003 The tediousnesse of my life: But for these
 112.00A.007 Life is a voyage, and in our lifes wayes
 122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 130.00A.004 And makes his life, but like a paire of beads.
 131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 142.00A.026 All contributions to this life forbear,
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 150.00A.027 Our births and life, vices, and vertues, bee
 152.12a.053 Therefore Wee liue: though such a Life wee haue
 152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee
 155.00a.133 So short is life, that euery peasant striues,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.524 Thou shouldest for life, and death, a patterne bee,
 158.00A.124 Life, and growth to this apple, fled away
 158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life cords there; Like a whole towne
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.075 And life, by this death abled, shall controule
 169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
 173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,
 183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;
 183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;
 183.00A.046 And in my life retaile it every day.
 184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,
 184.00A.089 Of death, or of worse life: for Oh, to some 184.00A.111 Both bookes of life to us (for love
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.
 187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,
 187.00A.365 9 With danger of our life our bread wee gat;
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.
 189.00B.039 To open life, to give kingdomes to more

LIFES.....9

013.00A.026 I planted knowledge and lifes tree in thee,
 022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take
 035.00A.024 For even at first lifes Taper is a snuffe.

042.00A.028 My lifes blood doth decay.
 077.00A.014 When the lifes light is set,
 112.00A.007 Life is a voyage, and in our lifes wayes
 146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,
 158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.
 158.00A.500 Whose busie furnaces lifes spirits do impart.

LIFT.....2

004.00A.199 As if the Presence were a Moschite, and lift
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,

LIFTED.....2

160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,

LIFTS.....1

158.00A.478 And up lifts subtly with his russet pawe

LIGHT.....61

001.00A.107 And like light dew exhal'd, he flings from mee
 003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
 030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;
 046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?
 046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 050.00A.039 Whose Eyes seeke light within, for all here's shade;
 056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?
 057.00A.011 As lightning, or a Tapers light,
 057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 077.00A.014 When the lifes light is set,
 082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;
 082.00A.036 As shadow, a light, and body must be here.
 106.00A.091 Now sleep or watch with more joy; and O light
 107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?
 107.00A.086 She gives the best light to his Spheare,
 108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare
 108.00A.028 In light and power, the all-ey'd firmament;
 108.00A.032 And all is warmth, and light, and good desire;
 108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 108.00A.218 In warmth, light, lasting, equall the divine;
 109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
 109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.

113.00A.010 For though to us it seeme,'and be light and thinne,
 122.00A.025 Eclipse the light which Guyana would give,
 126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.
 131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.
 131.00B.089 Each good in you's a light; so many a shade
 131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,
 134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,
 135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each brest
 136.00A.021 But one,'tis best light to contemplate you.
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 142.00A.047 Grow capable of this so great a light,
 145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:
 145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 153.00A.029 And I discern by favour of this light,
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
 157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.
 158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,
 160.00A.027 Thou'hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,
 170.00A.005 Teares in his eyes quench the amasing light,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
 184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,
 184.00A.128 Dead clods of sadnesse, or light squibs of mirth,
 184.00A.142 From light affecting, in religion, newes,
 187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that have least light:

LIGHTED.....1

158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid

LIGHTENS.....1

160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,

LIGHTETH.....1

015.00G.037 That when a fools eye lighteth on a Jem,

LIGHTNESSE.....2

112.00A.065 Whom, free from German schismes, and lightnesse

138.00A.035 Lightnesse depresseth us, emptinesse fills,

LIGHTNING.....3

057.00A.011 As lightning, or a Tapers light,
 109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,

LIGHTS.....3

021.00G.086 Yet Phaebus equally lights all the Sphere.
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 109.00A.067 Darknesse, lights eldest brother, his birth-right

LIGHTSOME.....1

109.00A.066 Hell somewhat lightsome, and the' Bermuda calme.

LII.....1

158.00A.H56 LII.

LIK'D.....3

010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,
 022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes

LIKE.....197

001.00A.030 Dost search, and like a needy broker prize
 001.00A.049 But since thou like a contrite penitent,
 001.00A.107 And like light dew exhal'd, he flings from mee
 002.00A.007 Though like the Pestilence and old fashion'd love,
 002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:
 002.00A.011 One, (like a wretch, which at Barre judg'd as dead,
 002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?
 002.00A.046 Like nets, or lime-twigs, wheresoever he goes,
 002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke
 002.00A.067 Idly, like prisoners, which whole months will sweare
 002.00B.070 Like a Kings favorite, or like a King.
 002.00B.070 Like a Kings favorite, or like a King.
 002.00A.071 Like a wedge in a blocke, wring to the barre,
 002.00A.072 Bearing like Asses, and more shamelesse farre
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 003.00A.023 Colder then Salamanders? like divine
 003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazling, yet plaine to all eyes;
 004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 004.00A.110 Looke pale, and sickly, like a Patient; Yet
 004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,
 004.00A.119 He like a priviledg'd spie, whom nothing can
 004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance
 004.00A.228 Jeasts like a licenc'd foole, commands like law.
 004.00A.228 Jeasts like a licenc'd foole, commands like law.

004.00A.237 I shooke like a spyed Spie; Preachers which are
 005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;
 005.00A.042 Scape, like Angelica, the strivers hands.
 005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
 008.00B.034 Like many angled figures, in the booke
 008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,
 008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;
 009.00A.008 Like spermatique issue of ripe menstruous boiles.
 009.00A.009 Or like the skumme, which, by needs lawlesse law
 009.00A.013 And like vile stones lying in saffron tinne,
 009.00A.016 Like to the fatall Ball which fell on Ide,
 009.00A.019 Thy head is like a rough-hewne statue of jeat,
 009.00A.021 Like the first Chaos, or flat seeming face
 009.00A.023 Like Proserpines white beauty-keeping chest,
 009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunkes, cloth'd in seals skin,
 009.00A.027 And like that slender stalke, at whose end stands
 009.00A.029 Like rough bark'd elmboughes, or the russet skin
 009.00A.031 Like Sun-parch'd quarters on the citie gate,
 009.00A.033 And like a bunch of ragged carrets stand
 009.00A.035 Then like the Chymicks masculine equall fire,
 009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,
 009.00A.040 Or like hot liquid metalls newly runne
 009.00A.041 Into clay moulds, or like to that Aetna
 010.00A.027 Thy little brethren, which like Faiery Sprights
 010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
 014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;
 014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.
 015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,
 015.00G.021 A heaven like Mahomets Paradice, and though
 015.00G.036 Are like Atlanta's ball: cast in mens views,
 015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,
 015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,
 016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,
 016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?
 017.00A.023 She's faire as any, if all be like her,
 017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 017.00A.031 Like to good Angels, nothing can impaire:
 017.00A.045 Shee, whose face, like clouds, turnes the day to night,
 017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,
 019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
 020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?
 020.00G.047 The Nose (like to the sweet Meridian) runs
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
 021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear

021.00G.087 And what we cannot in like Portion pay,
 022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take
 022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they'are like to thee.
 024.00A.024 Are like thy other hand, and cheek, and eye.
 029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,
 031.00A.024 Like gold to ayery thinnesse beate.
 031.00A.034 Like th'other foot, obliquely runne.
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 050.00A.016 Vow'd to this trench, like an Anachorit.
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 052.00A.030 Whether abstract spirituall love they like,
 054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,
 062.00A.001 Where, like a pillow on a bed,
 062.00A.018 Wee like sepulchrall statues lay,
 062.00A.062 Spirits, as like soules as it can,
 071.00A.013 And like a Goth and Vandall rize,
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 077.00A.015 Or like the heat, which, fire in solid matter
 078.00D.014 And most desired, 'cause 'tis like thee best;
 081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 095.NY3.003 Like Nabuchadnezar perchance with gras & flowres
 096.00A.001 Like Esops fellow-slaves, O Mercury,
 096.00A.003 Like Esops selfe, which nothing; I confesse
 096.00A.007 To beleeeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 096.00A.008 Mercury in stealing, but lvest like a Greeke.
 097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, Phryne, is like thee,
 106.00A.005 Like to a grave, the yielding downe doth dint;
 106.00A.078 Like vertue'and truth, art best in nakednesse;
 106.00A.085 Even like a faithfull man content,
 106.00A.089 Like an appointed lambe, when tenderly
 107.00A.068 Like Fairies, till the Cock crow them away.
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
 108.00A.035 Or but like Stoves, for lust and envy get
 108.00A.136 To shew to her, who doth the like impart,
 108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
 109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.
 109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;
 109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
 109.00A.056 Snapping, like too-high-stretched treble strings.
 110.00A.014 Like courts removing, or like ended playes.
 110.00A.014 Like courts removing, or like ended playes.
 110.00A.032 Like parboyl'd wretches, on the coales to burne.

110.00A.033 Like BajaZet encag'd, the sheepheards scoffe,
 110.00A.034 Or like slacke sinew'd Sampson, his haire off,
 111.00A.015 Like Indians 'gainst Spanish hosts they bee.
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then
 112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe
 112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as
 113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,
 114.00A.007 Like infancie or age to mans firme stay,
 114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pittie mee,
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 118.NY3.004 Like fyer, are made; thy body, mind, & Muse.
 121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it
 124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I
 130.00A.004 And makes his life, but like a paire of beads.
 130.00A.041 Let falshood like a discord anger you,
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part
 131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 155.00a.204 Like sonnes of women after fifty bee.
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.348 Swadling the new-borne earth, God seemd to like,
 155.00a.356 Duskie, and like an oft dyed garment showes.
 156.00a.073 But like a Lampe of Balsamum, desir'd
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,
 157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,
 157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,
 158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes
 158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,
 158.00A.266 Or working parts like mills, or limbecks hath
 158.00A.281 Is any kinde subject to rape like fish?
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.334 And like a Prince she sends her faculties
 158.00A.389 Blacke dreames, like an unbent bow, carelesly
 158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life cords there; Like a whole towne
 158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,

158.00A.494 Like Chimiques equall fires, her temperate wombe
 158.00A.497 Like a free conduit, on a high hills brow,
 158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,
 163.00A.003 Thou art like a pilgrim, which abroad hath done
 163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,
 171.00A.005 I, like an usurpt towne, to'another due,
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,
 174.00B.014 And thou like Adamant draw mine iron heart.
 179.NY3.009 Dwells She with vs, or like adventuring knights
 180.NY3.013 Like a fantastique Ague: Save that here
 182.00A.016 Of power to make even finfull flesh like his.
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 184.00A.224 To'admit the like of majestie divine,
 187.00A.002 Thus solitary, and like a widdow thus?
 187.00A.022 Like Harts, which seeke for Pasture, and find none,
 187.00A.047 Like to my sorrow, which Jehova hath
 187.00A.101 4 Like to an enemie he bent his bow,
 187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
 187.00A.105 5 For like an enemie lehova is,
 187.00A.109 6 Like to a garden hedge he hath cast downe
 187.00A.135 And in the street like wounded persons lay
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
 187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;
 187.00A.189 10 And like a Lion hid in secrecie,
 187.00A.251 Like a bird chac'd me. 53 In a dungeon
 187.00A.300 And withered, is like to dry wood growne.
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,

LIKELIER.....1

158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,

LIKELIHOOD.....1

139.00A.022 Reason and likelihood, the firmest Base,

LIKELY.....1

153.00A.221 Left safe from present warre, and likely doubt

LIKENESSE.....3

016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,
 024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 024.00A.051 Likenesse begets such strange selfe flatterie,

LIMBE.....2

004.00A.205 Of his each limbe, and with strings the odds tries
 154.00A.018 Gangred all Orders here; all lost a limbe.

LIMBECKE.....2

082.00A.021 I, by loves limbecke, am the grave
 149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines

LIMBECKS.....2

003.00A.025 Whose countries limbecks to our bodies bee,
 158.00A.266 Or working parts like mills, or limbecks hath

LIMBES.....4

067.00A.008 And keepe these limbes, her Provinces, from dissolu-tion.
 158.00A.335 To all her limbes, distant as Provinces.
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,

LIMBS.....1

006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.

LIME-TWIGS.....1

002.00A.046 Like nets, or lime-twigs, wheresoever he goes,

LIMETWIGS.....1

004.00A.195 He call'd her beauty limetwigs, her haire net.

LIMITED.....1

006.00D.012 Nor poorely limited with head or foot.

LIMME.....1

157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euey limme;

LIMMES.....1

045.00A.008 Takes limmes of flesh, and else could nothing doe,

LINCOLN.....1

198.LL1.001 In Bibliotheca Hospitj Lincoln: London:

LINE.....9

003.00A.024 Children in th'oven, fires of Spaine, and the line,
 109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
 112.00A.011 If in the furnace of the raging line,
 112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as
 131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,
 155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
 155.00a.292 And men, to sound depths, so much line vntie,
 157.00b.134 And say this is a line, or this a point,

187.00A.117 8 The Lord hath cast a line, so to confound

LINES.....16

027.00A.004 With silken lines, and silver hookes.
 049.00A.061 But glasse, and lines must bee,
 078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
 109.00A.007 My lines are such. 'Tis the preheminance
 117.00A.001 At once, from hence, my lines and I depart,
 117.00A.013 Accept these lines, and if in them there be
 122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
 136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
 141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
 155.00a.256 Such diuers downe-right lines, such ouerthwarts,
 155.00a.309 Shee by whose lines proportion should bee
 155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,
 157.00b.132 Are made of lines, and lines from Points arise,
 157.00b.132 Are made of lines, and lines from Points arise,
 157.00b.133 None can these lines or quantities vnioynt,
 157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,

LINGUIST.....1

004.00A.053 For the best linguist? And I seelily

LINGUISTS.....2

004.00A.059 Good pretty linguists, and so Panirge was;
 007.006.001 Qvot, dos haec, Linguists perfetti, Disticha fairont,

LINGVARVM.....1

195.010.016 NEC OB LINGVARVM PERITIAM, MINVS TACITVRNA,

 024.00A.049 Hand to strange hand, lippe to lippe none denies;

LIPS.....6

020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 031.00A.020 Care lesse, eyes, lips, hands to misse.
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,

LIQUID.....4

009.00A.040 Or like hot liquid metalls newly runne
 081.HH5.007 thy hart seemd soft & pure as liquid gold
 108.00A.112 And open wide their easie liquid jawe
 158.00A.263 The net through-swome, she keepes the liquid path,

LIRIQUE.....1

107.00A.006 The Lirique Larke, and the grave whispering Dove,

LITTLE.....1

123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire

LITTLE.....36

001.00A.070 Sells for a little state high libertie,
 003.00A.073 Neare twins, yet truth a little elder is;
 006.00D.069 Pilfer alas a little wit from you;
 010.00A.027 Thy little brethren, which like Faiery Sprights
 032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.

060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
 068.00A.001 Little think'st thou, poore flower,
 068.00A.006 Little think'st thou
 068.00A.009 Little think'st thou poore heart
 068.00A.014 Little think'st thou,
 070.00A.011 Meet at this grave, and make a little stay?
 108.00A.058 A little spice, or Amber in thy taste?
 108.00A.087 Our little Cupid hath sued Livery,
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
 133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
 138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse
 140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,
 145.00A.015 And narrow man being fill'd with little shares,
 149.00A.042 How little poyson cracks a christall glasse?
 149.00A.046 That, extreme truth lack'd little of a lye,
 153.00A.024 Doth practice dying by a little sleepe,
 155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,
 157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
 157.00b.212 Strings fast the little bones of necke, and backe;
 157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.422 Was far to little, to haue beene the Base;
 158.00A.156 Enchas'd with little fruits, so red and bright
 158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,
 158.00A.372 Hath yet a little indignation
 160.00A.027 Thou'hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,
 160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
 175.00B.001 I am a little world made cunningly
 187.00A.283 And when for bread the little children crye,

 155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie
 155.00a.410 Except it be from the liue Serpent shot,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
 156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?

156.00a.098 Any shall liue, which dare true good prefer,
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
 157.00b.356 Vp, vp, for in that squadron there doth liue
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute

LIUELIEST.....1

 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 130.00A.012 Are sparkes, and short liv'd, claimes another right.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is'not understood
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.446 Five yeares he liv'd, and cosened with his trade,

002.00A.014 (Starving himselfe) to live by his labor'd sceanes.
 016.00A.029 To live in one land, is captivitie,
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
 039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,
 047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
 048.00A.028 Let us love nobly, and live, and adde againe
 066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
 066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live
 069.00A.021 Live Primrose then, and thrive
 072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so
 078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
 107.00A.026 Yong Phoenixes, and yet the old shall live.
 108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,

108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 110.00A.027 Who live, that miracle do multiply
 110.00A.044 A desperate may live, and a coward die.
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.
 123.NY3.014 I recreated even by thy Creature live.
 140.00A.003 The foole, in whom these beasts do live at jarre,
 145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
 148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;
 150.00A.029 For, wee to live, our bellowes weare, and breath,
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.122 Both how to live well young, and how to die,
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.220 To live, and to encrease, himselfe outweares.
 187.00A.017 5 Her foes are growne her head, and live at Peace,
 187.00A.278 Sucke to their young; my peoples daughters live
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live

LIVEDST.....1

153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,

LIVELY.....4

106.00A.058 But gallop lively downe the Westerne hill;
 130.00A.037 However, keepe the lively tast you hold
 158.00A.054 And shall in sad love wayes, a lively spright
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.

LIVER.....2

158.00A.496 A spungie liver, that did richly allow,
 187.00A.130 Are faint with weeping: and my liver lies

LIVERY.....1

108.00A.087 Our little Cupid hath sued Livery,

LIVES.....9

002.00B.075 Symonie and Sodomy in Churchmens lives,
 008.00B.109 Afflict thee, and at thy lives last moment,
 033.00A.018 Lives a woman true, and faire.
 060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,
 119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,
 158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
 158.00A.432 But in the lives of Emperours you shall not
 158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,

LIVING.....9

004.00A.236 Living barrells of beefe, flaggons of wine.
 050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
 060.00A.015 And cloysterd in these living walls of Jet.
 143.00A.002 (Living in you,) Court enough in my grave,
 150.00A.015 Who (were Death dead) by Roes of living sand,
 153.00A.039 Deeds of good men, for by their living here,
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.
 158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.
 184.00A.226 That living law, the Magistrate,

LO-VING.....2

108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.

LOAD.....2

121.NY3.017 As Russian Marchants, thy selfes whole vessell load,
 129.00A.025 But 'tis an easier load (though both oppresse)

LOADSTONE.....1

189.00B.008 Toucht with a Loadstone, dost new motions feele?

LOATH.....5

003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;
 008.00B.113 But if from it thou beest loath to depart,
 017.00G.054 Would be as loath to touch as Joseph was.
 027.00A.013 If thou, to be so seene, beest loath,
 138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,

LOATH'D.....1

187.00A.288 Sit and embrace the dunghills which they loath'd.

LOATHED.....1

004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,

LOATHES.....1

063.00A.014 Hath found, all outward loathes,

LOATHING.....1

004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,

LOATHSOME.....2

010.00A.067 You're loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 011.00A.007 Ready with loathsome vomiting to spue

LOCK.....3

035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
 056.00A.018 Only to lock up, or else to let them fall?
 184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.

LOCKE.....3

112.00A.006 To'a botle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.
 112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
 184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.

LOCKS.....2

035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
 139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,

LOCO.....3

196.015.022 HOC LOCO CVRAVIT
 197.F01.016 Nouo matrimonio (annuat Deus) hoc loco sociandos
 198.LL1.016 Munere suo, frequenter et strenue hoc loco concionandi

LODGE.....1

155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)

LOE.....6

001.00A.051 These vanities, and giddinesses, loe
 077.00A.020 Love-slaine, loe, here I dye.
 106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,
 160.00A.019 Loe, faithfull Virgin, yeelds himselfe to lye
 160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
 160.00A.065 Nay to an inch, loe, where condemned hee

LONDON.....10

001.00A.058 The infant of London, Heire to an India,
 004.00A.171 With us, at London, flouts our Presence, for
 068.00A.033 Meet mee at London, then,
 106.00A.013 Daughters of London, you which bee
 121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene
 121.NY3.006 By staing in London too much overseene.
 121.NY3.014 Pleasure, now fled from London, to retriue.
 198.LL1.001 In Bibliotheca Hospitj Lincoln: London:
 198.LL1.020 Ad Decanatum Ecclesiae Cathedr: S: Pauli, London:
 199.C11.008 Paulinis, suisque, London: offert spondetque

LONDONS.....1

011.00A.034 Do Londons Major, or Germans, the Popes pride.

LONE.....1

158.00A.158 So, of a lone unhaunted place possest,

LONELINESSE.....3

004.00A.067 You would leave loneliness; I said, not alone

004.00A.068 My loneliness is, but Spartanes fashion,

062.00A.044 Defects of loneliness controules.

LONENESSE.....1

037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,

LONG.....76

001.00A.021 Nor come a velvet Justice with a long

001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me

004.00A.148 With his long complementall thankes vexes me.

005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,

010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.

014.NY3.025 Long Voyages are long consumptions

014.NY3.025 Long Voyages are long consumptions

017.00A.034 But, in long journeyes, cloth, and leather use.

018.00B.003 By our long starving hopes, by that remorse

018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,

025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,

025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,

036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:

037.00A.022 She went, examin'd, and return'd ere long,

044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,

044.00A.020 To fuell such a feaver long.

050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing

052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;

059.00A.011 So, lovers dreame a rich and long delight,

061.00A.014 In early and long scarcenesse may he rot,

061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,

062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre

064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,

068.00A.013 And hop'st her stiffenesse by long siege to bow:

072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so

076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I

082.00A.042 Since shee enjoyes her long nights festivall,

106.00A.041 Long time expect their bodies and their tombe,

106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;

106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;

106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;

107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,

108.00A.139 To thinke thou wert in Bed so long,

108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,

109.00A.073 So violent, yet long these furies bee,

119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part

127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time

127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,

127.00A.007 Yet I, as long as shee from hence doth staie,
 128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
 133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
 136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 152.12a.086 In her long journey of Considering GOD)
 153.00A.080 As all the long breath'd Chronicles can touch;
 155.00a.009 Where, loth to make the Saints attend her long,
 155.00a.034 A Prince, expected long, come to fulfill
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie
 156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
 156.00a.082 Shee'ath yeilded to too long an Extasie.
 157.00b.043 These Hymns thy issue, may encrease so long,
 157.00b.153 Yea though he plead a long possession too,
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.064 Whose story, with long patience you will long;
 158.00A.064 Whose story, with long patience you will long;
 158.00A.169 Unvirtuous weeds might long unweaved have stood;
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have lived; man did not know
 158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowered, and hath flowered so fast
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement griefe hath beene
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,
 187.00A.195 All the day long, a song and mockery.
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?

LONG'D.....1

157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,

LONG'ST.....1

006.00D.007 From Heydelberg, thou long'st to see: and thou

LONG-KEPT.....1

012.00A.030 Her from her native, and her long-kept course,

LONG-LIU'D.....1

155.00a.115 When Stag, and Rauen, and the long-liu'd tree,

LONG-LIV'D.....2

052.00A.019 This Booke, as long-liv'd as the elements,
150.00A.021 O strong and long-liv'd death, how cam'st thou in?

LONG-SHORT.....1

157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;

LONGER.....12

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.
021.00G.085 The cold and darkness longer hang somewhere,
022.00A.051 And let his carrion coarse be a longer feast
030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
107.00A.058 Longer to day, then other daies?
108.00A.016 The Sunne stayes longer up; and yet not his
153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,
156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.
157.00b.345 Vp to those Patriarckes, which did longer sit
158.00A.192 Things ripened sooner, and did longer last;
158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,

LONGING.....1

157.00b.509 Long'd for, and longing for'it, to heauen is gone,

LONGITUDES.....1

052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,

LOOK.....5

021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,
021.00G.104 As I will never look for less in you.
152.12a.001 Look to Me, Faith; and look to my Faith, GOD:
152.12a.001 Look to Me, Faith; and look to my Faith, GOD:
152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?

LOOK'D.....5

107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,
131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.
151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,
153.00A.043 For fluid vertue cannot be look'd on,
157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.

LOOK'ST.....2

157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,

185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,

LOOKE.....30

004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.
 004.00A.110 Looke pale, and sickly, like a Patient; Yet
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 008.00B.033 Which negligently left unrounded, looke
 016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,
 026.00A.004 When I looke lower I espie,
 036.00A.016 Looke, and to morrow late, tell mee,
 049.00A.045 To looke on one, whose wit or land,
 062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;
 071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 108.00A.052 Of creatures, and man need no farther looke;
 108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
 108.00A.208 And as friends may looke strange,
 112.00A.044 Durst looke in themselves, and themselves retrieve,
 131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
 138.00A.048 And looke not back, to looke up doth allow.
 152.12a.069 So is't to looke for Reason, HEE being gone,
 155.00a.208 Can well direct him, where to looke for it.
 157.00b.065 Looke vpward; that's towards her, whose happy state
 157.00b.190 To looke what Meteors there themselues prepare;
 158.00A.036 Ne'r smiles nor frownes, O vouch-safe thou to looke
 158.00A.236 It mov'd with state, as if to looke upon
 174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
 181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
 187.00A.248 50 Untill the Lord looke downe from heaven to see.
 192.00B.023 Looke Lord, and finde both Adams met in me;

LOOKED.....1

153.00A.048 That drop, which I looked on, is presently

LOOKERS.....1

155.00a.334 To satisfie wise, and good lookers on,

LOOKES.....6

004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r lookes
 011.00A.020 With words, nor touch, scarce lookes adulterate.
 012.00A.003 Poorely enrich't with great mens words or lookes;
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 107.00A.011 The husband cocke lookes out, and straight is sped,
 156.00a.067 But as when Heau'n lookes on vs with new eyes,

LOOKING.....2

153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,
155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,

LOOKS.....6

006.00D.068 And so one may, which on another looks,
020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
021.00G.051 Of becks, winks, looks, and often under-boards
081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but shows
131.00B.011 But, as from extreme hights who downward looks,
185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,

LOOSE.....8

004.00A.196 She feares her drugs ill laid, her haire loose set;
109.00A.060 Strive to breake loose, and scape away from thence.
128.LR1.005 Would loose your loue for Ireland: better cheap
155.00a.015 Whether the world did loose or gaine in this,
157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
158.00A.305 Earthquake unrooted, loose Morea swome,
158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.

LOOSE-REIN'D.....1

158.00A.015 And wilt anon in thy loose-rein'd careere

LOOSING.....1

157.00b.496 Degrees of growth, but none of loosing it.

LORD.....50

006.00D.055 So will thy booke in peeces; for a Lord
157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,
165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
175.00B.013 And burne me o Lord, with a fiery zeale
184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
184.00A.125 Heare this prayer Lord, O Lord deliver us
184.00A.125 Heare this prayer Lord, O Lord deliver us
184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
184.00A.144 Our mutuall duties, Lord deliver us.
184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
184.00A.189 Only to vent wit, Lord deliver us.
184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
187.00A.019 The Lord strooke her with sadnesse: Th'enemie

187.00A.036 O Lord my affliction, for the Foe growes bold.
 187.00A.044 How cheape I'am growne, O Lord, behold and weigh.
 187.00A.055 My strength. The Lord unto those enemies
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.093 2 The Lord unsparingly hath swallowed
 187.00A.113 7 The Lord forsakes his Altar, and detests
 187.00A.117 8 The Lord hath cast a line, so to confound
 187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.
 187.00A.153 17 The Lord hath done that which he purposed,
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 187.00A.165 20 Behold O Lord, consider unto whom
 187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.
 187.00A.210 For great, O Lord, is thy fidelity.
 187.00A.211 24 The Lord is, saith my Soule, my portion,
 187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,
 187.00A.223 31 For, not for ever doth the Lord forsake,
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allows not this:
 187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?
 187.00A.248 50 Untill the Lord looke downe from heaven to see.
 187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
 187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,
 187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit
 187.00A.337 20 The annointed Lord, breath of our nostrils, hee
 187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.
 187.00A.349 1 Remember, O Lord, what is fallen on us
 187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 187.00A.389 21 For oughtest thou, O Lord, despise us thus
 190.00A.018 Art jealous, Lord, so I am jealous now,
 192.00B.023 Looke Lord, and finde both Adams met in me;
 192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

LORDS.....3

002.00A.021 And they who write to Lords, rewards to get,
 187.00A.066 To comfort her, it is the Lords command
 187.00A.216 (The Lords salvation) unto the end:

LOSE.....17

008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
 024.00A.014 Which, both to keepe, and lose, grieves equally.
 036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
 047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,
 056.00A.012 Beasts doe no joyntures lose
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I

112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaine now
 155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,
 156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad
 158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
 158.00A.491 And whether by this change she lose or win,
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.
 172.00A.010 His stolne stufte sold, must lose or buy'it againe:
 184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.
 185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,

LOSETH.....2

131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,
 149.00A.029 They say, the sea, when it gaine, loseth too;

LOSING.....1

041.00A.030 It staves at home, and thou with losing savest it:

LOSSE.....14

004.00A.114 The Spaniards came, to the losse of Amyens.
 060.00A.006 A sinne, nor shame nor losse of maidenhead,
 072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,
 150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost
 153.00A.244 Lessen our losse, to magnifie thy gaine
 154.00A.010 But, by his losse grow all our orderslesse;
 154.00A.017 Blest order that hath him, the losse of him
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 155.00a.401 Shee, for whose losse we haue lamented thus,
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
 181.00A.011 It shall not, for it cannot; for, the losse
 181.00A.042 Your joy in crosses, else, 'tis double losse,

LOSSES.....1

043.00A.022 It seem'd, and therefore for our losses sad,

LOST.....36

001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;
 003.00A.108 Consum'd in going, in the sea are lost:
 008.00B.007 Mourne I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;
 021.00G.082 But count it a lost season, so shall shee.
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 042.00A.020 Nor a lost hour recall?
 065.00A.030 And the game kill'd, or lost, goe talke, and sleepe.
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,

096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,
 108.00A.012 Have taken cold, and their sweet murmures lost;
 108.00A.091 What hast thou lost, O ignorant man?
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound
 126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
 128.LR1.001 Went you to conquer? and haue so much lost
 131.00B.066 Is lost, and seekes his shadow to outgoe;
 139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,
 150.00A.052 Of beauty, 'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?
 150.00A.068 Thy selfe, and to triumph, thine army lost.
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
 151.00A.026 Th'hast lost thy end, for in her perish all;
 154.00A.018 Gangred all Orders here; all lost a limbe.
 154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
 155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
 155.00a.064 'Tis labour lost to haue discovered
 155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
 155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
 155.00a.396 The art is lost, and correspondence too.
 156.00a.001 Tis lost, to trust a Tombe with such a ghest,
 156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
 157.00b.430 To such small copper coynes, they lost the old,
 157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
 184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.

LOTH.....13

004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,
 052.00A.032 Or loth so to amuze,
 064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;
 107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 155.00a.009 Where, loth to make the Saints attend her long,
 155.00a.045 The present Prince, they're loth it should be said,
 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did woove, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.281 Loth to goe vp the hill, or labor thus
 158.00A.384 But to be just, and thankfull, loth to offend,
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.

LOTESLEY.....1

197.F01.003 Roberti Lothesley Soror:

LOTHLY.....1

137.00A.023 This shoves that you from nature lothly stray,

LOTHSOME.....1

155.00a.336 They're lothsome too, by this Deformitee.

LOTT.....1

081.HH5.033 & must it now be an Iniurious lott

LOU'D.....1

157.00b.403 Without this Honour, and then lou'd it so,

LOUD.....3

010.00A.041 A loud perfume, which at my entrance cryed

146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,

157.00b.485 All casual ioye doth loud and plainly say,

LOUE.....7

128.LR1.005 Would loose your loue for Ireland: better cheap

135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.

155.00a.071 A faint weake loue of vertue and of good

156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee

157.00b.389 Of transitory causes? Dost thou loue

157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.

157.00b.401 Honour may haue pretence vnto our loue,

LOUING.....1

157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow

LOV'D.....32

003.00A.037 So the worlds selfe, thy other lov'd foe, is

008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:

009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.

010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,

018.00B.023 Faire Orithea, whom he swore he lov'd.

019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,

021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,

021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:

032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?

034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,

046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,

050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,

059.00A.003 I have lov'd, and got, and told,

064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,

070.00A.023 First, we lov'd well and faithfully,

070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,

077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say

077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,

110.00A.036 Of Ants, durst th'Emperours lov'd snake invade,
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
 125.00A.008 If from the'embrace of a lov'd wife you rise,
 127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 131.00B.048 Man ignorantly walk'd by her he lov'd;
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you'are lov'd by all,
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;
 171.00A.009 Yet dearely'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;

LOV'ST.....7

001.00A.014 (If thou which lov'st all, canst love any best)
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,
 068.00A.017 But thou which lov'st to bee
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.

LOVD.....1

178.NY3.001 Since She whome I lovd, hath payd her last debt

LOVE.....337

001.00A.013 First sweare by thy best love in earnest
 001.00A.014 (If thou which lov'st all, canst love any best)
 001.00A.038 But in ranke itchie lust, desire, and love
 001.00A.106 At last his Love he in a window spies,
 002.00A.007 Though like the Pestilence and old fashion'd love,
 002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms
 002.00A.050 In love, ever since tricesimo of the Queene,
 003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow
 003.00A.039 Dost love a withered and worne strumpet; last,
 004.00A.006 Poyson'd with love to see, or to bee seene,
 004.00A.052 I love your judgement; Whom doe you prefer,
 006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive
 008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:
 008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 008.00B.108 The plagues of travellers; love; marriage
 010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,
 010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move
 010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.

010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joy'n'd, and hate each one?
 012.00A.037 My minde to scorne; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall
 012.00A.042 As nations do from Rome, from thy love fall.
 013.00A.001 Natures lay Ideot, I taught thee to love,
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 014.NY3.035 Those warrs the'ignorant, these th' experienc'd love
 016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,
 016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?
 016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
 017.00A.001 Marry, and love thy Flavia, for, shee
 017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,
 018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
 018.00B.013 Temper, o faire Love, loves impetuous rage,
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
 018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to'have had thy love.
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes
 020.00G.004 Love is a bear-whelp born, if we o're lick
 020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
 020.00G.015 But if I love it, 'tis because 'tis made
 020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we
 020.00G.024 Make love to woman; virtue is not she:
 020.00G.034 Above the earth, the earth we Till and love:
 020.00G.036 And virtues; but we love the Centrique part.
 020.00G.038 For love, then this, as infinit as it.
 021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
 021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
 021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 021.00G.040 To paths in love so dark and dangerous:
 021.00G.063 For Love it cannot be, whom hitherto
 021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,
 021.00G.072 And thoughts and dreams; Love never wanteth shifts,
 021.00G.078 How fresh our love was in the beginning;
 021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
 021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,
 022.00A.025 My dearest Love, though froward jealousy,

022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 022.00A.066 Love was as subtilly catch'd, as a disease;
 024.00A.030 My beauty, and make me'unworthy of thy love.
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
 029.00A.002 That he hath beene in love an houre,
 029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,
 029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,
 029.00A.023 More pittie unto mee: but Love, alas
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 030.00B.002 A Lecture, Love, in loves philosophy.
 030.00B.012 That love hath not attain'd the high'st degree,
 030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
 030.00B.025 Love is a growing, or full constant light;
 031.00A.008 To tell the layetie our love
 031.00A.013 Dull sublunary lovers love
 031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,
 032.00A.010 For love, all love of other sights controules,
 032.00A.010 For love, all love of other sights controules,
 032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
 034.00A.007 Of Love, and his wrath, any may forswear?
 035.00A.001 Image of her whom I love, more then she,
 035.00A.003 Makes mee her Medall, and makes her love mee,
 035.00A.019 And shall to love more thankfull Sonnets make,
 035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
 036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,
 037.00A.001 I can love both faire and browne,
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
 037.00A.024 Poore Heretiques in love there bee,
 038.00A.003 Usurious God of Love, twenty to thee,
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,
 038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,
 039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,
 039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
 039.00A.010 Alas, alas, who's injur'd by my love?
 039.00A.018 Though she and I do love.
 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 039.00A.027 Mysterious by this love.
 039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,
 039.00A.036 Us Canoniz'd for Love.
 039.00A.037 And thus invoke us; You whom reverend love

039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
 039.00A.045 A patterne of our love.
 040.00A.017 To Love, and Griefe tribute of Verse belongs,
 041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
 041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,
 041.00A.015 New love created bee, by other men,
 041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
 041.00A.019 For, this love was not vowed by thee,
 041.00A.025 And since my love doth every day admit
 042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,
 042.00A.004 A fitter Love for mee,
 045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.012 I bid Love aske, and now
 045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 045.00A.019 Ev'ry thy haire for love to worke upon
 045.00A.022 Extreme, and scattrring bright, can love inherre;
 045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
 045.00A.028 'Twixt womens love, and mens will ever bee.
 046.00A.005 Love which in spight of darknesse brought us hether,
 046.00A.014 Oh, that's the worst disease of love,
 046.00A.015 The poore, the foule, the false, love can
 046.00A.017 He which hath businesse, and makes love, doth doe
 047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 047.00A.017 Yet, love and hate mee too,
 047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
 048.00A.007 Only our love hath no decay;
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 048.00A.019 This, or a love increased there above,
 048.00A.028 Let us love nobly, and live, and adde againe
 049.00A.038 When love and grieve their exaltation had,
 049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;
 050.00A.003 Yong Beauties force our love, and that's a Rape,
 050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,
 050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.029 Xerxes strange Lydian love, the Platane tree,
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing
 050.00A.048 My love descend, and journey downe the hill,
 051.00A.006 The spider love, which transubstantiates all,
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
 052.00A.017 That sees, how Love this grace to us affords,
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 052.00A.030 Whether abstract spirituall love they like,

052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
052.00A.040 Transferr'd from Love himselfe, to womankinde.
052.00A.048 Love and their art alike it deadly wounds,
052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,
052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;
053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,
053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
054.00A.001 I scarce beleeve my love to be so pure
054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make't more.
054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
054.00A.016 Love by the spring is growne;
054.00A.019 Gentle love deeds, as blossomes on a bough,
054.00A.022 Produc'd by one, love such additions take,
054.00A.025 And though each spring doe adde to love new heate,
055.00A.001 Love, any devill else but you,
055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
055.00A.018 Is love, or, that love childish is.
055.00A.018 Is love, or, that love childish is.
055.00A.028 Having put love at last to shew this face.
055.00A.036 For, this love is enrag'd with mee,
055.00A.040 Kill, and dissect me, Love; for this
056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
057.00A.001 Deare love, for nothing lesse then thee
057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
059.00A.015 Ends love in this, that my man,
061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
062.00A.021 If any, so by love refin'd,
062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
062.00A.035 Love, these mixt soules, doth mixe againe,
062.00A.041 When love, with one another so
062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;
063.00A.012 Would love but as before:
063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
064.00a.018 All is the purluwe of the God of Love.
064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?
064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie

064.00a.025 A deeper plague, to make her love mee too,
 064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
 064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
 065.00A.002 And burdenous corpulence my love had growne,
 065.00A.006 That which love worst endures, discretion.
 065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
 066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore
 066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,
 066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,
 066.00A.034 Thou love, by making mee adore
 066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one
 066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.
 066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
 068.00A.021 You goe to friends, whose love and meanes present
 069.00A.008 I walke to finde a true Love; and I see
 069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;
 071.00A.005 You thinke a sodaine dampe of love
 074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
 074.00A.012 But Negatives, my love is so.
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
 080.00E.001 He that cannot chuse but love,
 080.00E.024 In mine own selfe love.
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 082.00A.013 In whom love wrought new Alchimie.
 082.00A.034 And love, all, all some properties invest,
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminat, for I love womens ioyes
 106.00A.021 Make her for love fit fewell
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;

106.00A.093 This Sun will love so dearely
 107.00A.007 The Sparrow that neglects his life for love,
 107.00A.027 Whose love and courage never shall decline,
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I have wonne
 113.00A.007 Though to use, and love Poetrie, to mee,
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
 117.00A.014 Merit of love bestow that love on mee.
 117.00A.014 Merit of love bestow that love on mee.
 120.00A.005 And let the love I beare to both sustaine
 120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart
 122.00A.009 So thy retyrings I love, yea envie,
 122.00A.014 His Picture to his absent Love hath sent.
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;
 129.00A.021 To sweare much love, not to be chang'd before
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,
 131.00B.055 So passion is to womans love, about,
 131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;
 131.00B.058 Love either conquers, or but meets a friend.
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 131.00B.070 Shall freeze my Love to Christall in a night.
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 131.00B.075 The honesties of love with ease I doe,
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,
 131.00B.110 In that pure region of a worthy love:
 131.00B.121 So able man, blest with a vertuous Love,
 131.00B.127 Love that imparts in every thing delight,
 131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 145.00A.019 All trying by a love of littlenesse

147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 153.00A.190 All jealousies 'twixt Prince and subjects love,
 153.00A.248 That testimonie of love, unto the dead,
 158.00A.054 And shall in sad love wayes, a lively spright
 158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.
 158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.
 158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
 158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own
 158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
 158.00A.417 Embracements of love; to loves worke he goes,
 158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
 158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 171.00A.009 Yet dearely'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,
 172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 178.NY3.012 My Love to Saints and Angels things diuine
 179.NY3.010 first trauaile we to seeke & then make Love?
 180.NY3.006 As my prophane love, & as soone forgott:
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 184.00A.033 By power, love, knowledge bee,
 184.00A.036 Of power, to love, to know, you unnumbered three.
 184.00A.111 Both bookes of life to us (for love
 184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
 184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,
 189.00B.022 Art thou new feather'd with coelestiall love?
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;
 192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne

LOVE'S.....1

054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use

LOVE-LAMPS.....1

108.00A.217 May these love-lamps we here enshrine,

LOVE-SLAINE.....1

077.00A.020 Love-slaine, loe, here I dye.

LOVE-SONG.....1

113.00A.005 How love-song weeds, and Satyrique thornes are growne

LOVED.....1

045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,

LOVELINESSE.....1

063.00A.013 But he who lovelinesse within

LOVELY.....4

017.00A.026 Account her wonderfull, why not lovely too?

020.00G.076 Lovely enough to stop, but not stay at:

045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,

137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both

LOVELYEST.....1

050.00A.036 Age must be loveliest at the latest day.

LOVER.....6

062.00A.073 And if some lover, such as wee,

077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other

077.00A.002 Can judge a perfect Lover;

108.00A.086 An earnest lover, wise then, and before.

131.00B.063 A weather-beaten Lover but once knowne,

158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.

LOVER'S.....1

049.00A.050 Corrupted by thy Lover's gold, and page,

LOVERS.....22

018.00B.026 That absent Lovers one in th'other be.

020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)

020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.

024.00A.027 Here lovers sweare in their Idolatrie,

031.00A.013 Dull sublunary lovers love

034.00A.009 So lovers contracts, images of those,

036.00A.004 Must to thy motions lovers seasons run?

043.00A.004 And Lovers houres be full eternity,

049.00A.022 Lovers mortalitie to preach,

051.00A.019 Hither with christall vials, lovers come,

056.00A.013 Though they new lovers choose,

059.00A.011 So, lovers dreame a rich and long delight,

062.00A.065 So must pure lovers soules descend

064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,

066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.

070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmesesse lovers wrought.

079.00B.014 By children, then the thing which lovers so

082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee

082.00A.038 You lovers, for whose sake, the lesser Sunne
 145.00A.007 In lovers Sonnets: you come to repaire
 177.00B.009 They see idolatrous lovers weepe and mourne,
 187.00A.007 Her lovers comfort her; Perfidiously

LOVES.....70

003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey
 003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be intrall'd,
 003.00A.050 But loves her onely, who at Geneva is call'd
 003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinks that so
 004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.
 005.00A.031 You Sir, whose righteousnes she loves, whom I
 015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.
 018.00B.013 Temper, o faire Love, loves impetuous rage,
 018.00B.035 Loves fuellers, and the rightest company
 018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 019.00A.018 Was but the milke, which in loves childish state
 020.00G.001 Who ever loves, if he do not propose
 020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)
 029.00A.010 If once into loves hands it come?
 030.00B.002 A Lecture, Love, in loves philosophy.
 030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
 030.00B.014 Except our loves at this noone stay,
 030.00B.019 If our loves faint, and westwardly decline;
 030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
 032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 037.00A.020 And by Loves sweetest Part, Variety, she swore,
 038.00A.024 One that loves mee.
 041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
 045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,
 045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
 049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,
 050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;
 050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still
 051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,
 052.00A.013 To all whom loves subliming fire invades,
 052.00A.022 Wee for loves clergie only'are instruments,
 052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity
 053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
 054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.
 055.00A.026 Such in loves warfare is my case,
 059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
 062.00A.071 Loves mysteries in soules doe grow,
 063.00A.015 For he who colour loves, and skinne,
 063.00A.016 Loves but their oldest clothes.

064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
 064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
 064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
 064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;
 067.00A.019 Loves martyr, it might breed idolatrie,
 072.00A.012 But ne'r worne out by loves securitie,
 073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 077.00A.004 That any loves but hee:
 078.00D.006 To knit our loves in the fantastick straine
 078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.
 080.00E.004 For he loves against his will;
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand
 081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mistery
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 082.00A.021 I, by loves limbecke, am the grave
 106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
 107.00A.015 Till now, Thou warmd'st with multiplying loves
 108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires
 108.00A.119 As hers, and her heart loves as well as his?
 108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,
 134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,
 158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 158.00A.417 Embracements of love; to loves worke he goes,
 190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee

LOVEST.....3

003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 057.00A.014 (For thou lovest truth) an Angell, at first sight,
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd

LOVING.....19

003.00A.038 In her decrepit wayne, and thou loving this,
 012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
 024.00A.057 O cure this loving madnesse, and restore
 040.00A.002 For loving, and for saying so
 047.00A.001 Take heed of loving mee,
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 049.00A.040 As much more loving, as more sad,
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 059.00A.018 That loving wretch that sweares,
 064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie
 070.00A.008 And thinke that there a loving couple lies,

108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 110.00A.041 Of being below'd, and loving, or the thirst
 129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free

LOW.....29

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:
 004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare
 064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
 074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
 136.00A.007 So from low persons doth all honour flow;
 136.00A.013 Care not then, Madame, 'how low your praises lye;
 136.00A.018 As fires from th'earths low vaults in Sicil Isle.
 138.00A.041 As dead low earth eclipses and controules
 139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,
 141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
 141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
 141.00A.038 Of the most starres, take low names, Crab, and Bull,
 142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,
 143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
 145.00A.004 Grown stale, is to so low a value runne,
 145.00A.010 All Vertues ebb'd out to a dead low tyde,
 145.00A.060 In a low constable, and in the King
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
 160.00A.002 Weav'd in my low devout melancholie,
 187.00A.127 In sackcloth have they girt themselves, and low
 187.00A.275 Low rated now, as earthen Pitchers, stand,
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;

LOWD.....1

008.00B.055 And be content that some lowd squeaking Cryer

LOWE.....1

157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,

LOWER.....7

006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares
 020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe
 026.00A.004 When I looke lower I espie,
 055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.
 150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.
 157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,

LOWEST.....2

001.00A.077 And as fidlers stop lowest, at highest sound,
 152.12a.049 As, for the Earth throw'n lowest downe of all,

LOWLY.....3

055.00A.007 But am, alas, by being lowly, lower.
 158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,

LOWNESSE.....1

137.00A.008 (Where a transcendent height, (as, lownesse mee)

LUCIES.....2

082.00A.HE1 A nocturnall upon S.Lucies Day,
 157.00b.120 Laies thee to sleepe but a saint Lucies night.

LUCK.....1

008.00B.008 Nor for the luck sake; but the bitter cost.

LUMP.....2

020.00G.006 We erre, and of a lump a monster make.
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.

LUMPE.....1

140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,

LUMPS.....1

153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme

LUNATIQUE.....3

006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 014.NY3.009 France in her Lunatique giddines did hate
 034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could

LUNGS.....2

110.00A.019 Earths hollownesses, which the worlds lungs are,
 157.00b.274 Knowst thou how thy lungs haue attracted it?

LUST.....14

001.00A.038 But in ranke itchie lust, desire, and love
 005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust
 018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,
 064.00a.017 To rage, to lust, to write to, to commend,
 082.00A.040 To fetch new lust, and give it you,
 108.00A.035 Or but like Stoves, for lust and envy get
 112.00A.031 So pride, lust, covetize, being severall
 153.00A.128 As well, as lust and ignorance of youth;
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 158.00A.433 Reade of a lust the which may equall this;
 158.00A.437 A ridling lust, for which Schoolemen would misse
 158.00A.508 Rapine, deceit, and lust, and ills enow
 175.00B.011 Of lust and envie burnt it heretofore,
 184.00A.022 Halfe wasted with youths fires, of pride and lust,

LUST-BRED.....1

008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee

LUSTER.....1

131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.

LUSTERS.....1

108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lustres rise,

LUSTFULL.....2

004.00A.014 full, as proud, as lustfull, and as much in debt,
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,

LUSTIER.....1

130.00A.013 The noble Soule by age growes lustier,

LUSTINESSE.....1

010.00A.024 The sinnes of her owne youths ranke lustinesse;

LUSTRE.....4

009.00A.005 And on her necke her skin such lustre sets,
 155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.
 155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
 157.00b.005 The Lustre, and the vigor of this All,

LUSTRES.....1

158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,

LUSTS.....1

003.00A.009 Lusts, as earths honour was to them? Alas,

LUSTY.....2

008.00B.052 Much of my able youth, and lusty head
 161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme

LUTE.....2

004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 157.00b.019 Or as a Lute, which in moist weather, rings

LUTHER.....1

002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire

LUXURIE.....1

002.00A.079 And spying heires melting with luxurie,

 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 039.00A.038 Made one anothers hermitage;
 039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
 041.00A.008 Then at the bargaine made was ment,
 043.00A.021 As good as could be made by art
 050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made
 052.00A.021 In cypher writ, or new made Idiome;
 052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,
 053.00A.008 Made women either good or bad,
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 062.00A.046 Of what we are compos'd, and made,
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 065.00A.005 Give it a diet, made it feed upon
 065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,
 072.00A.004 And made of one another.
 079.00B.029 And onely for a minute made to be
 082.00A.027 Withdrew our soules, and made us carcasses.
 106.00A.030 Of study and play made strange Hermaphrodits,
 107.00A.054 And that you're one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,

 118.NY3.004 Like fyer, are made; thy body, mind, & Muse.
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
 131.00B.105 'Till slow accesse hath made it wholly pure,
 133.00A.018 A miracle; and made such to worke more,
 134.00A.026 And vertue,'and such ingredients, have made
 136.00A.022 You, for whose body God made better clay,
 137.00A.025 In this you've made the Court the Antipodes,
 139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,
 140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
 141.00A.001 Man to Gods image, Eve, to mans was made,
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue,'is faine
 142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 151.00A.008 But extreme sense hath made them desperate;
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.101 Euen Gods purpose; and made woman, sent
 155.00a.128 Fit to be made Methusalem his page?
 155.00a.130 Whether a new made clocke runne right, or lie.
 155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,
 155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.318 That th'Arke to mans proportions was made,
 155.00a.390 Th'Egyptian Mages to haue made more such.
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than 155.00a.467 Such an opinion (in due measure) made
 156.00a.043 (Hauing first made a naturall bridge, to passe
 156.00a.050 An Angell made a Throne, or Cherubin?
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.079 Star-light inough, t'haue made the South controll,
 157.00b.123 Shee whose Complexion was so euen made,
 157.00b.132 Are made of lines, and lines from Points arise,
 157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;
 157.00b.231 And when w'haue made this large Discoueree,
 157.00b.260 By what way thou art made immortall, know.
 157.00b.354 They made ioyntenants with the Holy Ghost,
 157.00b.361 For shee made wars, and triumph'd, reson still
 157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,
 157.00b.374 Made her a soueraigne state, religion
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.

157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
 157.00b.425 But as the Heathen made them seuerall gods,
 157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion
 157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.010 And (holy writs excepted) made to yeeld to none.
 158.00A.080 This Soule, made by the Makers will from pulling free.
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 158.00A.443 For the field, being of two kindes made,
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
 160.00A.031 There he hath made himselfe to his intent
 160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
 172.00A.012 Us whom he'had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie
 174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
 175.00B.001 I am a little world made cunningly
 175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,
 182.00A.007 And made the darke fires languish in that vale,
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.037 Or as creation he hath made, as God,
 184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
 184.00A.039 Which unlock'd Paradise, and made
 184.00A.066 That harmony, which made of two
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 184.00A.238 For physicke made, from poyson be exempt,
 185.00A.019 It made his owne Lieutenant Nature shrinke,
 185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
 187.00A.156 Made glad above thee, and advanc'd him so.
 187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
 187.00A.193 13 Hee made the children of his quiver passe
 187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 191.00B.015 A Brother and a Sister, made by thee
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come

 137.00A.042 And make it wit, to thinke the wiser fooles:
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 139.00A.035 To make it good, for, such a prayer prayes.
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
 139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
 139.00A.062 Or make a rebaptizing of one teare;
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.
 143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.
 145.00A.020 To make abridgments, and to draw to lesse,
 147.00B.001 That I might make your Cabinet my tombe,
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,
 147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie
 148.00A.008 As divers starres one Constellation make,
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 149.00A.028 Make and name then, th'Elixar of this All.
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 150.00A.016 Might sponge that element, and make it land.
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 152.12a.021 If then, least Mouings of the Centre make
 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that Hee would make
 153.00A.013 And so can make by this soft extasie,
 153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?
 153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.

154.00A.002 Fill any former ranke or make a new,
 155.00a.009 Where, loth to make the Saints attend her long,
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.120 And then make vp his obseruation plaine;
 155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.
 155.00a.351 And then, as though she could not make inow,
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make
 156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thanks
 157.00b.001 Nothing could make mee sooner to confesse
 157.00b.089 For such approaches doth Heauen make in death.
 157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare
 157.00b.234 Inough to make twenty such worlds as this;
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.483 What should the Nature change? Or make the same
 157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.
 158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.
 158.00A.103 Would God (disputes the curious Rebell) make
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 158.00A.213 How to make bird-lime, nor how to deceive
 158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.
 158.00A.267 To make the wether thinne, and airelike faith
 158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
 158.00A.287 To spoile the nests industruous birds do make;
 158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.
 158.00A.312 More circles in the broken sea they make
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.467 To make his mistresse merry; or to wreake
 158.00A.016 Antiquitie, besides that I make account that I pay it to posterity,
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,
 166.00A.006 Make sinnes, else equall, in mee, more heinous?
 166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,
 167.00A.011 And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
 171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
 172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
 179.NY3.010 first trauaile we to seeke & then make Love?
 181.00A.020 The Mast and yard make one, where seas do tosse.
 181.00A.033 As perchance, Carvers do not faces make:
 181.00A.048 Make them indifferent; call nothing best.
 182.00A.016 Of power to make even finfull flesh like his.
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 184.00A.162 Deliver, and make us, to both waies free.
 184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
 187.00A.358 They make us travaile, and not intermit,
 189.00B.054 And make thee now a blest Hermaphrodite.

191.00B.017 Two that make one Iohn Baptists holy voyce,
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;

MAKE'IT.....1

054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make'it more.

MAKER.....3

024.00A.008 But I, their maker; want their libertie.
 160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,
 183.00A.009 Her Maker put to making, and the head

MAKERON.....1

004.00A.117 To heare this Makeron talke in vaine: For yet,

MAKERS.....3

156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
 158.00A.080 This Soule, made by the Makers will from pulling free.
 160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,

MAKES.....36

002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 017.00A.046 Who, mightier then the sea, makes Moores seem white,
 020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud
 031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
 031.00A.035 Thy firmnes makes my circle just,
 031.00A.036 And makes me end, where I begunne.
 032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.
 035.00A.003 Makes mee her Medall, and makes her love mee,
 035.00A.003 Makes mee her Medall, and makes her love mee,
 046.00A.017 He which hath businesse, and makes love, doth doe
 048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,
 052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,
 062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
 062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:
 068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
 108.00A.094 Words to expresse it, makes a man a grave
 108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
 129.00A.004 And (how he may) makes you almost the same,
 130.00A.001 Who makes the Past, a patterne for next yeare,
 130.00A.004 And makes his life, but like a paire of beads.
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 138.00A.079 And ignorance of vice, makes vertue lesse,
 140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;
 140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon
 141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.

152.12a.016 Almost meetes Faith, and makes both Centres one:
 155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,
 157.00b.210 Whose quicke succession makes it still one thing:
 157.00b.434 No loye enjoyes that man, that many makes.
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 183.00A.020 Th'Abridgement of Christs story, which makes one
 184.00A.186 Makes us Idolatrous,
 187.00A.192 12 And hee makes mee the marke he shooteth at.

MAKETH.....1

112.00A.048 Inne any where, continuance maketh hell.

MAKING.....14

004.00A.201 Making them confesse not only mortall
 066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,
 066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.034 Thou love, by making mee adore
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one
 066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 149.00A.047 Making omissions, acts; laying the touch
 153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
 157.00b.507 Shee, who by making full perfection grow,
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 183.00A.009 Her Maker put to making, and the head
 189.00B.003 Making Lay-scornings of the Ministry,

MALADIE.....1

013.00A.007 Nor by the'eyes water call a maladie

MALADIES.....1

003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?

MALANCHOLY.....1

117.00A.007 So, though I languish, prest with Malancholy,

MALE.....1

158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,

MALEFACTORS.....1

006.00D.053 Worst malefactors, to whom men are prize,

MALES.....1

158.00A.224 With the males jelly, newly lev'ned was,

MALICE.....1

026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.

MALUM.....1

201.20a.019 13 Atque Malum Genium,

MAN.....158

001.00A.028 Of refin'd manners, yet ceremoniall man,
 001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more
 004.00A.075 Said I, The man that keepes the Abbey tombes,
 004.00A.120 Discredit, Libells now 'gainst each great man.
 004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine
 004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 005.00A.013 Then man is a world; in which, Officers,
 005.00A.017 Prove the world a man, in which, officers
 006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can
 006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can
 006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.
 006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 008.00B.111 But, I forgive; repent thee honest man:
 010.00A.031 The grim- eight- foot- high- iron- bound serving- man,
 015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.
 015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
 016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
 016.00A.015 They're our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.
 019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,
 020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?
 020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man
 024.00A.038 Admit the tillage of a harsh rough man?
 040.00A.013 Some man, his art and voice to show,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 046.00A.016 Admit, but not the busied man.
 046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth woce.
 056.00A.001 Some man unworthy to be possessor
 056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
 059.00A.015 Ends love in this, that my man,
 061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
 062.00A.057 On man heavens influence workes not so,
 062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:
 071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try
 071.00A.024 In that you'have odds enough of any man.
 079.00B.026 This; as shee would man should despise
 079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and hairees may no man equall call,
 092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.

103.00A.001 Why this man gelded Martiall I muse,
 106.00A.085 Even like a faithfull man content,
 108.00A.001 Vnseasonable man, statue of ice,
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 108.00A.052 Of creatures, and man need no farther looke;
 108.00A.091 What hast thou lost, O ignorant man?
 108.00A.094 Words to expresse it, makes a man a grave
 108.00A.121 The bridegroome is a maid, and not a man,
 108.00A.124 Becomes a man. Should chance or envies Art
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 112.00A.018 A Scorpion, or Torpedo cure a man?
 112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall
 112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
 131.00B.048 Man ignorantly walk'd by her he lov'd;
 131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnesse that struck man dumbe,
 131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.
 131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move
 131.00B.121 So able man, blest with a vertuous Love,
 138.00A.064 That stonnes, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:
 138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,
 140.00A.018 For man can adde weight to heavens heaviest curse.
 140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be his pleasure, is his rod,
 140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,
 140.00A.037 On him; for Man into himselfe can draw
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 141.00A.001 Man to Gods image, Eve, to mans was made,
 142.00A.024 No better then a sanguine Vertuous man.
 145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,
 145.00A.015 And narrow man being fill'd with little shares,
 145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.039 For had God made man first, and man had seene
 145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
 149.00A.001 Man is the World, and death th'Ocean,
 149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.
 149.00A.013 Nothing but man of all invenom'd things
 152.12a.072 Industrious Man discerneth, as he thinks,
 152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:
 153.00A.021 To morrow, sleeps, when the condemned man,

153.00A.052 Yet still remains that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 153.00A.110 Which the whole world, or man, the abridgment hath.
 153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
 153.00A.226 Of ev'ry exemplar man, the whole world is,
 155.00a.026 Thou mightst haue better spar'd the Sunne, or Man;
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.113 When as the Sunne, and man, did seeme to striue,
 155.00a.116 Compar'd with man, dy'de in minoritee.
 155.00a.135 And as in lasting, so in length is man
 155.00a.137 For had a man at first, in Forrests stray'd,
 155.00a.161 Thus man, this worlds Vice-Emperor, in whom
 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did wooe, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:
 155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.199 The noblest part, man, felt it first; and than
 155.00a.200 Both beasts and plants, curst in the curse of man.
 155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 155.00a.398 And man least knowes their trade, and purposes.
 155.00a.435 But as in cutting vp a man that's dead,
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than
 155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,
 157.00b.009 Or as sometimes in a beheaded man,
 157.00b.041 For thus, Man may extend thy progeny,
 157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.
 157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
 157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
 157.00b.239 And to each seuerall man, to him, and him,
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.413 Hath euer any man to'himselfe assigned
 157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
 157.00b.434 No loye enioyes that man, that many makes.
 157.00b.476 By being a greater, growen to be lesse Man,
 158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may haue.
 158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive
 158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,
 158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.
 158.00A.211 Else might he long haue liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.216 Man to beget, and woman to conceive

158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
 158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 168.00A.007 They kill'd once an inglorious man, but I
 172.00A.009 And as a robb'd man, which by search doth finde
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 173.00A.010 Whether a man those statutes can fulfill;
 181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 182.00A.022 If, not of any man, yet of the whole.
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
 184.00A.098 Tentations martyr us alive; A man
 187.00A.177 1 I am the man which have affliction seene,
 187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?
 189.00B.048 Bring man to heaven, and heaven againe to man?
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,
 191.00B.030 Who hath tun'd God and Man, the Organ we:
 191.00B.042 A lesser gift than some one man hath sent?

MAN'D.....1

015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.

MAN'S.....1

131.00B.059 Man's better part consists of purer fire,

MANACLED.....2

008.00B.095 Here fetter'd, manacled, and hang'd in chains,
 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they're con-dem'nd to die.

MANACLES.....1

020.00G.042 Of springs, snares, fetters and manacles:

MANDRAKE.....3

033.00A.002 Get with child a mandrake roote,
 051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.

MANDRAKES.....2

158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;
 158.00A.175 Had found, and left the Mandrakes tenant, runnes

MANGER-CRADLED.....1

141.00A.014 The manger-cradled infant, God below.

MANGLED.....1

008.00B.042 And mangled seventeen-headed Belgia:

MANHOOD.....1

160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,

MANHOODS.....1

183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:

MANIE.....1

152.12a.054 As but so manie Mandrakes on his Grave.

MANKIND.....6

155.00a.047 So mankind feeling now a generall thaw,
 155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
 155.00a.143 As credible; mankind decayes so soone,
 157.00b.144 To bring mankind, all Fortunes it enioies,
 157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.

MANKINDE.....7

152.12a.019 For, All that Faith could credit Mankinde could,
 155.00a.100 Vpon mankinde? It labour'd to frustrate
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame
 158.00A.024 Of all mankinde, that cage and vivarie
 158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,
 183.00A.034 Death and conception in mankinde is one.

MANLY.....3

101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
 158.00A.006 From infant morne, through manly noone I draw.

MANLYER.....1

130.00A.017 Provide you manlyer dyet, you have seene

MANNA.....2

051.00A.007 And can convert Manna to gall,
 069.00A.004 To his owne primrose, and grow Manna so;

MANNERS.....1

001.00A.028 Of refin'd manners, yet ceremoniall man,

MANS.....27

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne
 003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 010.00A.061 By thee, the greatest staine to mans estate
 042.00A.017 O how feeble is mans power,
 114.00A.007 Like infancie or age to mans firme stay,
 119.NY3.007 But as a Lay Mans Genius doth controule
 129.00A.016 To heaven in troupes at'a good mans passing bell:
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 131.00B.098 With earth, and for mans ease, but nearer joyn'd.
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 141.00A.001 Man to Gods image, Eve, to mans was made,
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe
 153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 155.00a.102 For mans reliefe, cause of his languishment.
 155.00a.122 Mans growth confess'd, and recompenc'd the meat:
 155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,
 155.00a.166 Them to Ciuility, and to mans vse.
 155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
 155.00a.318 That th'Arke to mans proportions was made,
 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
 168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so
 169.00A.007 Dissemble weaknesse, and by'one mans stroke die,
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 187.00A.228 35 That a mans right the Judge himselfe doth see

MANY.....42

001.00A.054 Worne by as many severall men in sinne,
 001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;

004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,
 008.00B.034 Like many angled figures, in the booke
 011.00A.015 O give him many thanks, he'is courteous,
 011.00A.025 Now I see many dangers; for it is
 012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill
 013.00A.020 Thou art not by so many duties his,
 020.00G.070 Where many Shipwrack, and no further get.
 021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
 021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
 026.00A.007 How many wayes mightst thou performe thy will?
 040.00A.015 And, by delighting many, frees againe
 054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,

 052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?
 060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
 060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
 062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
 133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show
 133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,
 133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
 133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
 133.00A.045 Marke, if slight things be'objected, and o'r blowne,
 133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,

MARTIN.....1

003.00A.097 A Harry, or a Martin taught thee this?

MARTYR.....4

005.00A.064 A Stoicke, a coward, yea a Martyr,
 067.00A.019 Loves martyr, it might breed idolatrie,
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 184.00A.098 Tentations martyr us alive; A man

MARTYRDOME.....1

184.00A.090 Not to be martyrs, is a martyrdome.

MARTYRS.....4

008.00B.082 Vnto the fire these Martyrs I betray.
 021.00G.016 Thy Martyrs must no more each other see?
 157.00b.351 Vp to those Martyrs, who did calmyly bleed
 184.00A.090 Not to be martyrs, is a martyrdome.

MARY.....1

070.00A.017 Thou shalt be a Mary Magdalen, and I

184.00A.H11 The Virgin Mary.

MARYAGES.....1

034.00A.008 Or, as true deaths, true maryages untie,

MARYED.....2

046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth wooe.

060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.

MASCULINE.....3

009.00A.035 Then like the Chymicks masculine equall fire,

018.00B.004 Which my words masculine perswasive force

161.00A.001 See Sir, how as the Suns hot Masculine flame

MASKE.....1

190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,

MASKES.....2

022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes

037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,

MASKS.....1

108.00A.191 The masks and banquets will not yet impart

MASQUERS.....1

107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,

MASS.....1

021.00G.088 The world enjoyes in Mass, and so we may.

MASSACRE.....2

004.00A.024 In the Danes Massacre had sure beene slaine,

071.00A.008 Your murder, to the name of Massacre.

MASSE.....2

004.00A.009 To Masse in jest, catch'd, was faine to disburse

158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse

MAST.....2

109.00A.053 Then note they the ships sicknesses, the Mast

181.00A.020 The Mast and yard make one, where seas do tosse.

MASTER.....1

142.00A.056 The Master at the end large glasses ties,

MASTER-PEECE.....1

158.00A.381 Natures great master-peece, an Elephant,

MASTERPEECE.....1

134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so

MATCH.....2

108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,

148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;

MATE.....1

056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?

MATER.....1

196.015.024 NEC INFAECVNDA NEC MATER TAMEN

MATERIALL.....1

181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,

MATERIALLS.....1

072.00A.011 Which my materials bee,

MATERIALS.....4

142.00A.015 They're your materials, not your ornament.

156.00a.007 And so is all to her materials,

157.00b.420 Nor furnish forth Materials enow;

189.00B.013 Thou art the same materials, as before,

MATRIMONIO.....1

197.F01.016 Nouo matrimonio (annuat Deus) hoc loco sociandos

MATRJ.....1

197.F01.008 Matrj Piissimae, Indulgentissimaeque;

MATTER.....12

006.00D.048 That they all kinde of matter comprehend.

022.00A.009 Are vowes so cheape with women, or the matter

044.00A.022 Whose matter in thee is soone spent.

077.00A.015 Or like the heat, which, fire in solid matter

126.00A.024 Mother, want matter, an%ld they only have

129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:

135.B13.008 on better matter then beames from aboue,

142.00A.050 Where it findes sympathie and matter too,

155.00a.077 Produc'd: The matter and the stuffe of this,

155.00a.460 As matter fit for Chronicle, not verse,

156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow

191.00B.011 The highest matter in the noblest forme;)

MATTERS.....1

157.00b.285 Of vnconcerning things, matters of fact;

MATURITY.....1

155.00a.413 But she, in whom, to such maturity,

MAW.....1

MAX.....1

199.C11.005 Annuat Deus Opt: Max: ut apud omnes, hanc inueniat

MAY.....221

001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene

001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away

001.00A.059 And sooner may a gulling weather-Spie

001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truly I doe;

003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare

003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way

004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne

004.00A.060 Yet a poore gentleman; All these may passe

004.00A.100 A subtle States-man may gather of that;

005.00A.004 May make good Courtiers, but who Courtiers good?)

005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more

005.00A.068 And lack a fee for comming; Oh, ne'r may

006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,

006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,

006.00D.068 And so one may, which on another looks,

008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.

008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:

008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe

008.00B.105 May all the evils that gold ever wrought;

008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.

014.NY3.033 Other men war that they ther rest may gayne

014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.

014.NY3.042 In those warrs, as they may which from vs two

015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.

015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:

015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;

016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,

019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,

020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon

020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we

020.00G.064 Some Island moles may scattered there descry;

020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.

020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man

021.00G.031 And, where one sad truth may expiate

021.00G.060 Freeze us together, that we may stick here,
021.00G.088 The world enjoys in Mass, and so we may.
021.00G.093 That I may grow enamoured on your mind,
022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsell, and wee both may rue,
022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,
022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;
024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,
024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move
025.00A.018 That I may know, and see thy lyes,
025.00A.019 And may laugh and joy, when thou
027.00A.008 Begging themselves they may betray.
034.00A.007 Of Love, and his wrath, any may forswear?
034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.
035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown
041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
042.00A.035 Destiny may take thy part,
042.00A.036 And may thy feares fulfill,
045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
049.00A.017 You this intirenesse better may fulfill,
049.00A.046 New battry to thy heart may frame,
049.00A.054 May my name step in, and hide his.
050.00A.024 You may at Revels, you at counsaile, sit.
050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still
051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace
051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
052.00A.005 How thine may out-endure
052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
052.00A.034 Something which they may see and use;
052.00A.036 Beauty a convenient type may be to figure it.
052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
052.00A.047 May of their occupation finde the grounds,
053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
055.00A.027 I may not article for grace,
058.00A.022 To teach the sea, what it may doe too soone,
061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,
061.00A.009 Madnesse his sorrow, gout his cramp, may hee
061.00A.011 And may he feele no touch
061.00A.014 In early and long scarcenesse may he rot,
061.00A.017 May he dreame Treason, and beleeve, that hee
061.00A.020 His sonnes, which none of his may bee,

061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,
 062.00A.059 For soule into the soule may flow,
 062.00A.067 Which sense may reach and apprehend,
 062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;
 064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie
 068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 072.00A.024 A latter bullet may o'rtake, the poudre being more.
 074.00A.005 For sense, and understanding may
 074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,
 078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
 078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;
 078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 080.00E.022 Whom I may freely prove?
 081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and haire may no man equall call,
 106.00A.023 So may shee faire and rich, in nothing lame,
 106.00A.040 Then may thy leane and hunger-starved wombe
 106.00A.046 Alwaies, all th'other may each one possesse;
 107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
 108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;
 108.00A.171 Blest payre of Swans, Oh may you interbring
 108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 108.00A.180 May never age, or error overthwart
 108.00A.208 And as friends may looke strange,
 108.00A.217 May these love-lamps we here enshrine,
 108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 110.00A.044 A desperate may live, and a coward die.
 110.00A.050 Under the poles may begge cold, heat in hell.
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,
 113.00A.014 May cloth them with faith, and deare honestie,
 113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.
 113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,
 127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare
 127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
 127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;
 127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;
 129.00A.004 And (how he may) makes you almost the same,
 129.00A.011 From which rich treasury you may command

131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 133.00A.034 Perchance her Cabinet may harbour thee,
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.
 136.00A.043 Nor may we hope to sodder still and knit
 137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
 137.00A.034 But that I may survey the edifice.
 138.00A.007 But 'tis not soe, nothing, as I am, may,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 138.00A.083 Statesmen purge vice with vice, and may corrode
 139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
 139.00A.047 With pleasure, and delight may not ingresse,
 139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
 140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
 141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.
 141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.
 142.00A.061 May therefore this be enough to testifie
 143.00A.024 May in lesse lessons finde enough to doe,
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
 149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
 149.00A.054 To speake, that death his vaine hast may repent.
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee .
 152.12a.089 Oh! May I (since I liue) but see or hear
 153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,
 153.00A.179 That at the Triumph day, the people may,
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)
 155.00a.060 What we may gaine by thy Anatomy.
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.142 The Fayries, and the Pigmies well may passe
 155.00a.393 So as the influence of those starres may bee
 156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
 156.00a.034 Thus braue and confident may Nature bee,
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 157.00b.037 These Hymes may worke on future wits, and so
 157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.
 157.00b.041 For thus, Man may extend thy progeny,
 157.00b.043 These Hymns thy issue, may encrease so long,
 157.00b.151 And though he may pretend a conquest, since
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.401 Honour may haue pretence vnto our loue,

157.00b.478 A ioyfull casuall violence may breake
 157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.
 157.00b.482 What eie was casuall, may euer bee.
 158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
 158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may have.
 158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kindes may freely chuse.
 158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
 158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.
 158.00A.433 Reade of a lust the which may equall this;
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 160.00A.083 That wak't from both, I againe risen may
 160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 171.00A.003 That I may rise, and stand, o'erthrow mee, and bend
 174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art
 181.00A.038 So may a selfe-dispising, get selfe-love.
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
 184.00A.009 I may rise up from death, before I'am dead.
 184.00A.060 May use our new helps right,)
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.115 Or mis-said, wee to that may not adhere,
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
 184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
 184.00A.208 That wee may change to evennesse
 184.00A.211 And Apoplexies of fast sin, may die;
 184.00A.213 Not threats in Thunder may
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.217 That our eares sicknesse wee may cure,
 184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
 184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
 184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
 187.00A.137 13 Daughter Ierusalem, Oh what may bee
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nere know cares,
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 191.00B.053 Who hath translated those translators) may
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part
 192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne
 192.00B.025 May the last Adams blood my soule embrace.
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

MAY'ST.....1

185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.

MAY'T.....2

156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said

156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore

MAYD.....1

157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse

MAYDENHEAD.....1

017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.

MAYEST.....1

003.00A.100 That thou mayest rightly obey power, her bounds know;

MAYST.....2

008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;

081.HH5.039 That thou from change still mayst neuer pause

ME.....160

001.00A.003 Consorted with these few bookes, let me lye

001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see

001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me

004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me

004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne

004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.

004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content

004.00A.051 This fellow chuseth me? He saith, Sir,

004.00A.072 Better pictures of vice, teach me vertue;

004.00A.109 He with home-meats tries me; I belch, spue, spit,

004.00A.133 To sucke me in, for hearing him. I found

004.00A.142 Me to pay a fine to scape his torturing,

004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;

004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I

004.00A.148 With his long complementall thanks vexe me.

004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well

005.00A.007 Charity and liberty give me. What is hee

006.00D.075 Thy Gyant-wit'orethrowes me, I am gone;

008.00B.002 For Armelets of that thou maist let me weare:

008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;

008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,

008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.

014.NY3.021 To mew me in a Ship, is to enthrall

014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.

014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly

014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.
 014.NY3.031 Thy armes imprison me, and myne armes thee,
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 018.00B.006 Of hurts, which spies and rivals threatned me,
 018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 018.00B.055 Augure me better chance, except dread love
 018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to'have had thy love.
 019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
 021.00G.002 Environ me with darkness, whilst I write:
 021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,
 021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,
 021.00G.097 The Poles shall move to teach me ere I start;
 022.00A.036 That made me cast you guilty, and you me,
 022.00A.036 That made me cast you guilty, and you me,
 024.00A.013 Dwells with me still mine irksome Memory,
 024.00A.028 That I am such; but Griefe discolors me.
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 024.00A.058 Me to mee; shee, my halfe, my all, my more.
 024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.
 025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,
 030.00B.020 To me thou, falsly, thine,
 031.00A.036 And makes me end, where I begunne.
 033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
 033.00A.005 Teach me to heare Mermaides singing,
 034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 037.00A.019 Venus heard me sigh this song,
 039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,
 039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
 041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
 042.00A.034 Forethinke me any ill,
 043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 046.00A.002 O wilt thou therefore rise from me?
 047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
 051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
 052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
 054.00A.005 Me thinks I lyed all winter, when I swore,
 055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
 055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
 055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.
 055.00A.040 Kill, and dissect me, Love; for this

057.00A.005 Therefore thou wakd'st me wisely; yet
 057.00A.018 Excesse of joy would wake me, and cam'st then,
 057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 058.00A.001 Let me powre forth
 058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,
 058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbear
 058.00A.025 To doe me more harme, then it purposeth,
 060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
 060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
 064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie
 065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee
 066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
 067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
 067.00A.017 What ere shee meant by'it, bury it by me,
 071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,
 071.00A.016 And without such advantage kill me then.
 072.00A.007 In me abundant grow, and burdenous,
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
 078.00D.003 Send me some honey to make sweet my hive,
 078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
 079.00B.034 To pursue things which had indammag'd me.
 080.00E.014 Will make me his jest or slave
 081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 081.HH5.013 soe after conquest thou doest me neglect
 081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminat, for I love womens ioyes
 108.00A.129 Let me here contemplate thee,
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.
 115.NY3.005 Plead for me, and so by thyne & my labor,
 122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
 122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinks) Fate deales so
 123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quenched by it
 123.NY3.007 Are Satirique fyres which vrg'd me to have writt
 126.00A.017 Be far from me that strange Adulterie
 126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 138.00A.016 In me you've hallowed a Pagan Muse,
 145.00A.068 Enabled me to profit, and take forth

147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now
 152.12a.001 Look to Me, Faith; and look to my Faith, GOD:
 153.00A.181 Let me here use that freedome, and expresse
 155.00a.468 Me this great Office boldly to inuade.
 155.00a.470 Me, from thus trying to emprison her.
 157.00b.522 That gaue thee power to do, me to say this.
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.
 164.00A.012 To where they'are bred, and would presse me, to hell.
 164.00A.013 Impute me righteous, thus purg'd of evill,
 171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
 173.00A.004 Hee keepes, and gives to me his deaths conquest.
 174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art
 175.00B.013 And burne me o Lord, with a fiery zeale
 176.00B.012 Of comming ills. To (poore) me is allow'd
 179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.
 180.NY3.001 Oh, to vex me, contraries meete in one:
 187.00A.052 And made me languish all the day alone.
 187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more
 187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
 187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst
 187.00A.251 Like a bird chac'd me. 53 In a dungeon
 187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,
 189.00B.023 Deare, tell me where thy purchase lies, and shew
 192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East
 192.00B.023 Looke Lord, and finde both Adams met in me;
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

ME'AWAY.....1

073.00A.008 I'am cheap, & nought but fashion, fling me'away.

ME'HOW.....1

024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,

ME'UNWORTHY.....1

024.00A.030 My beauty, and make me'unworthy of thy love.

MEADES.....1

005.00A.030 Whose meades her armes drowne, or whose corne o'rflow.

MEADS.....1

015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.

MEALES.....1

070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales

MEAN'ST.....1

108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?

MEANE.....3

107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though

155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.

184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.

MEANER.....1

035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;

MEANES.....15

002.00A.013 And saves his life) gives ideot actors meanes

002.00A.107 Equally I hate, meanes blesse; in rich mens homes

003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse

005.00A.059 By meanes of Angels; When supplications

010.00A.005 So am I, (by this traiterous meanes surpriz'd)

016.00A.008 Another fouler using these meanes, as I,

062.00A.010 Was all the meanes to make us one,

068.00A.021 You goe to friends, whose love and meanes present

129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,

145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,

148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;

155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.

157.00b.424 To erect true ioye, were all the meanes in one.

158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,

160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.

MEANING.....1

006.00D.031 Meaning to see't no more upon the presse.

MEANS.....3

006.00D.049 Thus thou, by means which th'Ancients never took,

049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;

082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,

MEANT.....14

004.00A.225 He meant to crie; And though his face be as ill
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 031.00A.010 Men reckon what it did and meant,
 043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,
 061.00A.018 Meant to performe it, and confesse, and die,
 062.00A.026 Because both meant, both spake the same)
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 065.00A.012 'Twas neither very sound, nor meant to mee;
 067.00A.014 Can better do'it; Except she meant that I
 067.00A.017 What ere shee meant by'it, bury it by me,
 108.00A.145 Are meant for, Phoebus, would'st be Phaeton,
 140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
 153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,
 155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,

MEASURE.....8

070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
 115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure
 139.00A.030 And not an inch, measure infinity.
 145.00A.059 The subject chang'd, and measure; the same thing
 153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,
 155.00a.310 Examin'd, measure of all Symmetree,
 155.00a.467 Such an opinion (in due measure) made
 158.00A.520 The onely measure is, and judge, opinion.

MEASURES.....2

006.00D.060 Measures; and fill out for the half-pint wit:
 155.00a.040 Measures of times are all determined)

MEASURING.....3

156.00a.087 And measuring future things, by things before,
 160.00A.064 Measuring selfe-lives infinity to span,
 184.00A.147 From measuring ill by vitious,

MEAT.....16

002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?
 004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,
 004.00A.127 Who wasts in meat, in clothes, in horse, he notes;
 005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
 020.00G.096 As who by glister gives the Stomack meat.
 053.00A.022 Chang'd loves are but chang'd forts of meat,
 065.00A.017 His drinke was counterfeit, as was his meat;
 107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
 116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,
 140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
 155.00a.122 Mans grouth confess'd, and recompenc'd the meat:

157.00b.147 Shee, shee embrac'd a sicknesse, gaue it meat,
 158.00A.188 And chirps alowd for meat. Meat fit for men
 158.00A.188 And chirps alowd for meat. Meat fit for men
 187.00A.075 Dead in the citie; for they sought for meat
 187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.

MEATE.....4

002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 002.00A.030 The meate was mine, th'excrement is his owne:
 109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
 158.00A.089 So perished the eaters, and the meate:

MEATES.....2

010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.
 181.00A.039 And then as worst surfets, of best meates bee,

MEATS.....2

004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,
 106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,

MECHANIQUE.....1

004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,

MEDALS.....1

066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live

MEDICAMINA.....1

201.20a.008 9 Medicamina scribunt;

MEDICI.....1

201.20a.037 Terra; vident, iustis, Medici,

MEDICINA.....1

186.00E.014 Pestis; At in nostra fit Medicina Cruce,

MEDICINALL.....3

006.00D.040 Of medicinall and Aromaticque twigs,
 059.00A.010 Some odoriferous thing, or medicinall,
 155.00a.404 But they, yea Ashes too, are medicinall,

MEDICINE.....2

054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
 181.00A.027 These for extracted chimique medicine serve,

MEDICINES.....1

153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,

MEDICUSQUE.....1

201.20a.004 4 Medicusque vocatur;

MEDITATE.....2

138.00A.032 Stop others ills, to meditate with mee.

158.00A.113 Then hazard still, to meditate on ill,

MEDITATION.....2

157.00b.322 And meditation of what thou shalt bee,

172.00A.002 My Soule, this wholsome meditation,

MEDITATIONS.....1

153.00A.011 And, by these meditations refin'd,

MEE.....277

001.00A.002 Leave mee, and in this standing wooden chest,

001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,

001.00A.025 For better or worse take mee, or leave mee:

001.00A.025 For better or worse take mee, or leave mee:

001.00A.026 To take, and leave mee is adultery.

001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show

001.00A.069 And so imprisoned, and hem'd in by mee

001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side

001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;

001.00A.107 And like light dew exhal'd, he flings from mee

001.00A.111 Directly came to mee hanging the head,

002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use

002.00A.053 Proceed, spare mee; In Hillary terme I went,

003.00A.074 Be busie to seeke her, beleeve mee this,

004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!

004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!

004.00A.058 He stopt mee, and said; Nay, your Apostles were

004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.

004.00A.091 Crossing hurt mee; To fit my sullennesse,

004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,

004.00A.131 Becomming Traytor, and mee thought I saw

004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,

004.00A.179 In the Presence, and I, (God pardon mee.)

004.00A.239 Drowne the sinnes of this place, for, for mee

008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjurer,

010.00A.002 All thy suppos'd escapes are laid on mee;

010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:

010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee

010.00A.040 That, which betray'd mee to my enemie:

010.00A.054 Next mee, mee traiterously hast betraid,

010.00A.054 Next mee, mee traiterously hast betraid,

010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.

012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 012.00A.036 Carelesse despaire in mee, for that will whet
 012.00A.046 What hurts it mee to be'excommunicate?
 014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee
 019.00A.014 Doe his hurts reach mee? doth my worth decay?
 022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;
 024.00A.058 Me to mee; shee, my halfe, my all, my more .
 025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,
 026.00A.012 Though thou retaine of mee
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 028.00A.003 From all sollicitation from mee,
 029.00A.005 Who will beleeeve mee, if I swaere
 029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
 029.00A.020 But from the roome, I carried none with mee;
 029.00A.023 More pittty unto mee: but Love, alas
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee
 033.00A.019 If thou findest one, let mee know,
 035.00A.003 Makes mee her Medall, and makes her love mee,
 035.00A.003 Makes mee her Medall, and makes her love mee,
 036.00A.016 Looke, and to morrow late, tell mee,
 036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
 037.00A.015 Let mee, and doe you, twenty know.
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
 038.00A.006 Mee travell, sojourne, snatch, plot, have, forget,
 038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivalls letter mine,
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 038.00A.024 One that loves mee.
 039.00A.020 Call her one, mee another flye,
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
 041.00A.012 Or if then thou gavest mee all,
 041.00A.017 In sighs, in oathes, and letters outbid mee,
 042.00A.004 A fitter Love for mee,
 042.00A.013 Then feare not mee,
 042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,
 042.00A.032 Thou art the best of mee.
 043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
 043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
 043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,
 043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,

043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
 047.00A.001 Take heed of loving mee,
 047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
 047.00A.009 Take heed of hating mee,
 047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.
 047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.
 047.00A.017 Yet, love and hate mee too,
 047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
 049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.
 049.00A.016 So shall all times finde mee the same;
 049.00A.060 And unaware to mee shalt write.
 050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
 051.00A.010 'Twere wholsomer for mee, that winter did
 051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.
 052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
 055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,
 055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,
 055.00A.036 For, this love is enrag'd with mee,
 057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
 057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,
 060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,
 060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
 060.00A.026 Just so much honor, when thou yeeld'st to mee,
 061.00A.030 Be annex'd in schedules unto this by mee,
 061.00A.032 Nature before hand hath out-cursed mee.
 062.00A.016 Were gone out,) hung 'twixt her, and mee.
 064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
 064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
 064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
 064.00a.025 A deeper plague, to make her love mee too,
 064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
 065.00A.012 'Twas neither very sound, nor meant to mee;
 066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore
 066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,
 066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee
 066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.034 Thou love, by making mee adore
 066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one

066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
 067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
 068.00A.016 Must with this Sunne, and mee a journey take.
 068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
 068.00A.033 Meet mee at London, then,
 068.00A.035 Mee fresher, and more fat, by being with men,
 071.00A.007 And worke on them as mee, and so preferre
 071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.
 075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 082.00A.009 Compar'd with mee, who am their Epitaph.
 082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call
 082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call
 108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,
 108.00A.130 First, cheerfull Bridegroome, and first let mee see,
 110.00A.040 Or, to disuse mee from the queasie paine
 110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,
 111.00A.019 Beleeve mee Sir, in my youths giddiest dayes,
 112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
 113.00A.007 Though to use, and love Poetrie, to mee,
 114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pittie mee,
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
 117.00A.011 That from unhappy mee, things happy'are sent;
 117.00A.014 Merit of love bestow that love on mee.
 118.NY3.007 Or art thou parted from the world & mee
 122.00A.007 It is my deed of gift of mee to thee,
 122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 123.NY3.005 In it is cherishing fyre which dryes in mee
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;
 130.00A.048 You came with mee to Micham, and are here.
 133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.
 133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee, I would not misse you there
 137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthyest things
 137.00A.008 (Where a transcendent height, (as, lownesse mee)

138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee
 138.00A.032 Stop others ills, to meditate with mee.
 139.00A.002 Some embleme is of mee, or I of this,
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 139.00A.006 I summe the yeares, and mee, and finde mee not
 139.00A.006 I summe the yeares, and mee, and finde mee not
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 141.00A.044 And as a vertuous Prince farre off, to mee.
 142.00A.011 I thought it some Apostleship in mee
 143.00A.004 So many resurrections waken mee.
 143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
 143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 145.00A.061 I reverence; His power to worke on mee;
 150.00A.001 DEath I recant, and say, unsaid by mee
 153.00A.009 See, and with joy, mee to that good degree
 153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;
 153.00A.025 Thou at this midnight seest mee, and as soone
 153.00A.026 As that Sunne rises to mee, midnight's noone,
 153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
 157.00b.001 Nothing could make mee sooner to confesse
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
 157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.
 158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine
 158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,
 160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
 160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,
 162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 165.00A.013 Teach mee how to repent; for that's as good
 166.00A.005 Why should intent or reason, borne in mee,
 166.00A.006 Make sinnes, else equall, in mee, more heinous?
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;

168.00A.002 Buffet, and scoffe, scourge, and crucifie mee,
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 171.00A.003 That I may rise, and stand, o'erthrow mee, and bend
 171.00A.007 Reason your viceroy in mee, mee should defend,
 171.00A.007 Reason your viceroy in mee, mee should defend,
 171.00A.011 Divorce mee, 'untie, or breake that knot againe,
 171.00A.012 Take mee to you, imprison mee, for I
 171.00A.012 Take mee to you, imprison mee, for I
 171.00A.013 Except you'enthrall mee, never shall be free,
 171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.
 173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
 178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.
 181.00A.009 From mee, no Pulpit, nor misgrounded law,
 181.00A.012 Of this Crosse, were to mee another Crosse.
 181.00A.016 Of God, dew'd on mee in the Sacrament?
 181.00A.017 Who can deny mee power, and liberty
 184.00A.004 And re-create mee, now growne ruinous:
 184.00A.034 Give mee a such selfe different instinct
 184.00A.035 Of these let all mee elemented bee,
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.061 Be sanctified, and fructifie in mee;
 184.00A.070 In rythmique feet, in common pray for mee,
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.
 185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,
 185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,
 185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
 187.00A.048 Done to mee in the day of his fierce wrath?
 187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,
 187.00A.056 Hath given mee, from whence I cannot rise.
 187.00A.063 To comfort mee, is now departed farre,
 187.00A.074 Deceiv'd mee, and my Priests, and Elders lay
 187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,
 187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,
 187.00A.180 3 And against mee all day, his hand doth fight.
 187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in
 187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in 187.00A.183 With hemlocke, and with labour; 6. and set mee
 187.00A.190 Or Beare which lyes in wait, he was to mee,
 187.00A.192 12 And hee makes mee the marke he shooteth at.

187.00A.196 15 Hee hath fill'd mee with bitternesse, and he
 187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 190.00A.003 What sea soever swallow mee, that flood
 190.00A.004 Shall be to mee an embleme of thy blood;
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,

MEE'A.....1

065.00A.013 If he wroung from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so

MEE'HAD.....1

109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot

MEERE.....2

002.00A.063 Law practise for meere gaine; bold soule repute
 071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try

MEET.....20

001.00A.016 Though some more spruce companion thou dost meet,
 001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 008.00B.058 And gall the finders conscience; if hee meet.
 017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
 033.00A.022 Though at next doore wee might meet,
 068.00A.033 Meet mee at London, then,
 070.00A.011 Meet at this grave, and make a little stay?
 078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.
 106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
 106.00A.009 There it must meet another,
 107.00A.045 So meet thy Fredericke, and so
 109.00A.026 Asunder, meet against a third to warre,
 110.00A.024 Deare friends, which meet dead in great fishes jawes:
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 149.00A.056 How good in all her titles, and how meet,
 156.00a.026 By which remote and distant Countries meet.
 157.00b.016 And seemes to reach, and to step forth to meet
 158.00A.269 Where fresh, with salt waves meet, and what to doe
 189.00B.050 In whom must meet Gods graces, mens offences,

MEET'ST.....1

001.00A.029 That when thou meet'st one, with enquiring eyes

MEETE.....7

003.00A.012 Meete blinde Philosophers in heaven, whose merit
 022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 109.00A.020 As, to a stomack sterv'd, whose insides meete,
 115.00A.012 Infections follow, overtake, and meete:
 155.00a.337 For good, and well, must in our actions meete:
 157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
 180.NY3.001 Oh, to vex me, contraries meete in one:

MEETES.....1

152.12a.016 Almost meetes Faith, and makes both Centres one:

MEETING.....1

107.00A.044 Meeting Another, growes the same,

MEETINGS.....1

021.00G.048 Of meetings, conference, embracements, kisses?

MEETS.....4

107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.

131.00B.058 Love either conquers, or but meets a friend.

174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,

187.00A.012 In streights shee meets her Persecutors sword.

MELANCHOLIE.....1

160.00A.002 Weav'd in my low devout melancholie,

MELANCHOLY.....1

122.00A.010 Bred in thee by a wise melancholy,

MELLOW.....1

147.00B.012 To ripe and mellow there, w'are stubborne clay,

MELLOWED.....1

160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,

MELODEE.....1

119.NY3.012 Cur'd by thy charming soveraigne melodee.

MELODIE.....1

136.00A.015 God findes, then in Te Deums melodie.

MELODIOUS.....1

012.00A.022 Doth with doubtfull melodious murmuring,

MELON.....1

158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet

MELT.....3

031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,
 055.00A.033 And melt both Poles at once, and store
 120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.

MELTED.....2

049.00A.049 And when thy melted maid,
 158.00A.243 Till melted with the Swans digestive fire,

MELTING.....1

002.00A.079 And spying heires melting with luxurie,

MELTS.....4

037.00A.002 Her whom abundance melts, and her whom want betraies,
 081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne
 158.00A.483 Succeeds an itchie warmth, that melts her quite,
 178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.

MEMORIALS.....1

156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue

MEMORIE.....1

166.00A.012 And drowne in it my sinnes blacke memorie,

MEMORY.....7

018.00B.005 Begot in thee, and by the memory
 155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
 155.00a.074 The twi-light of her memory doth stay;
 155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
 157.00b.064 Men thus lethargique haue best Memory.
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 185.00A.034 They'are present yet unto my memory,

MEN.....157

001.00A.054 Worne by as many severall men in sinne,
 001.00A.105 More men of sort, of parts, and qualities;
 002.00A.008 Ridlingly it catch men; and doth remove
 002.00A.062 Thou wast, and mad, I hop'd; but men which chuse
 002.00A.086 Wringing each Acre, as men pulling prime.
 002.00A.089 So huge, that men (in our times forwardnesse)
 003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 004.00A.046 Make men speake treason, cosen subtlest whores,
 004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,
 004.00A.056 Some Jesuites, and two reverend men
 004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,
 004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men
 004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,

004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,
 004.00A.230 As men from gaoles to 'execution goe,
 004.00A.233 Those Askaparts, men big enough to throw
 004.00A.234 Charing Crosse for a barre, men that doe know
 005.00A.019 The excrements, which they voyd; all men are dust,
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 005.00A.076 Of men; so in law, nailes are extremities,
 005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?
 006.00D.038 Convey these wares in parcels unto men;
 006.00D.053 Worst malefactors, to whom men are prize,
 009.00A.010 Enforc'd, Sanserra's starved men did draw
 009.00A.030 Of men late scurg'd for madnes, or for sinne,
 010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
 011.00A.027 But if, as envious men, which would revile
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 014.NY3.001 Till I haue peace with thee, warr other Men;
 014.NY3.006 Whether the Maister pres or men rebell?
 014.NY3.010 Euer our men, yea and our God of late.
 014.NY3.023 Or in a Cloyster; save that ther men dwell
 014.NY3.033 Other men war that they ther rest may gayne
 014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'll make one by & by.
 014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'll make one by & by.
 014.NY3.046 More glorious service staying to make men?
 015.00G.020 Reveal'd to men: thou Angel bringst with thee
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 016.00A.014 Idly make them apter to'endure then men?
 018.00B.033 Men of France, changeable Camelions,
 020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
 020.00G.031 Men to such Gods, their sacrificing Coles
 020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.
 021.00G.102 That, oft suspected which men most perswade;
 024.00A.017 Are grac'd thereby; And to make blinde men see,
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin shows,
 031.00A.001 As virtuous men passe mildly away,
 031.00A.010 Men reckon what it did and meant,
 037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?
 039.00A.017 Litigious men, which quarrels move,
 041.00A.015 New love created bee, by other men,
 044.00A.012 But corrupt wormes, the worthyest men.
 049.00A.066 For dying men talke often so.
 055.00A.032 Can call vow'd men from cloisters, dead from tombes,
 057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,
 062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;
 063.00A.022 From prophane men you hide,
 068.00A.035 Mee fresher, and more fat, by being with men,
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;

071.00A.015 Of your owne arts and triumphs over men,
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
 079.00B.036 As men doe when the summers Sunne
 080.00E.021 Is there then no kinde of men
 086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came
 087.00A.003 Whose brave misfortune, happiest men envi'd,
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
 108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,
 108.00A.046 Enlarging narrow men, to feele and see,
 108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;
 108.00A.161 As men which through a Cipres see
 109.00A.033 Jonas, I pittie thee, and curse those men,
 109.00A.061 Pumping hath tir'd our men, and what's the gaine?
 112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play
 112.00A.027 There men become beasts, and prone to more evils;
 112.00A.037 Men are sponges, which to poure out, receive,
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
 113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
 122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
 122.00A.031 All the worlds riches: And in good men, this
 131.00B.012 Sees men at childrens shapes, Rivers at brookes,
 131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.
 135.B13.010 As in deuotions men loyne both there hands
 137.00A.066 As strange attire aliens the men wee know.
 138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 140.00A.024 Hemlocke, and wee as men, his hemlocke taste.
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men
 141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,
 142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmelessenes we see,
 142.00A.025 So cloysterall men, who, in pretence of feare
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 149.00A.021 As men of China, 'after an ages stay
 149.00A.052 To clyme by teares, the common staires of men.
 150.00A.006 Plants, cattell, men, dishes for Death to eate.
 150.00A.044 As sinne insinuates 'twixt just men and grace,
 151.00A.006 (So guiltiest men stand mutest at the barre)
 152.12a.008 Shut-in for Men in one Circumference:
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 153.00A.039 Deeds of good men, for by their living here,
 153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is 'not understood
 153.00A.100 As Angells goe, and know, and as men read.

153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 153.00A.138 Or idle,'as men, which to their last houres come,
 153.00A.205 Before men triumph, the dominion
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)
 155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
 155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,
 155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euery sort of men
 155.00a.255 Men to finde out so many Eccentrique parts,
 155.00a.292 And men, to sound depths, so much line vntie,
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.437 On euery part, and therefore men direct
 156.00a.010 In workes of hands, or of the wits of men?
 156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 157.00b.064 Men thus lethargique haue best Memory.
 157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
 157.00b.277 And of those many opinions which men raise
 157.00b.329 Drinke and sucke in th'Instructions of Great men,
 157.00b.342 loy in not being that, which men haue said.
 158.00A.072 If (as devout and sharpe men fitly guesse)
 158.00A.188 And chirps alowd for meat. Meat fit for men
 158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,
 158.00A.412 Great men have often taken, to espie
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
 167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
 167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 179.NY3.014 When She' is embrac'd & open to most Men.
 184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
 184.00A.230 That Satan, and invenom'd men
 187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)
 187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite
 187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath
 187.00A.072 My maides, my young men in captivitie.
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 187.00A.319 15 Would cry aloud, depart defiled men,
 187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,

187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell
 187.00A.373 13 Unto the mill our yong men carried are,
 189.00B.031 Alas poore joyes, but poorer men, whose trust

MIGHT.....92

002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 004.00B.135 By giving others their soares, I might grow
 006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell
 008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
 013.00A.011 And bound up, might with speechlesse secrecie
 017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,
 020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon
 022.00A.026 With circumstance might urge thy'inconstancie,
 033.00A.022 Though at next doore wee might meet,
 044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.
 053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
 056.00A.004 If on womankind he might his anger wreake,
 056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
 062.00A.027 Might thence a new concoction take,
 064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie
 067.00A.019 Loves martyr, it might breed idolatrie,
 069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe
 070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
 070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales
 072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 106.00A.045 Which might these two dissever,

107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
 108.00A.102 No Epitaph, which might advance my fame
 108.00A.212 Therefore at first shee modestly might start,
 110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.
 131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.
 131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.
 140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be'his pleasure, is his rod,
 140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 142.00A.048 As to partake your vertues, and their might,
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
 147.00B.001 That I might make your Cabinet my tombe,
 150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.
 150.00A.016 Might sponge that element, and make it land.
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion
 150.00A.058 Might once have stray'd to superstition.
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.108 In heav'n, the other might securely, 'have pac'd
 153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,
 153.00A.188 That there thy counsailes might get victorie,
 153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
 155.00a.118 From the obseruers marking, he might stay
 155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.359 Perchance the world might haue recouered,
 155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 157.00b.137 Whose euen constitution might haue wonne
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.418 Might haue considerd, that for that effect,
 157.00b.505 Where eies might read vpon the outward skin,
 157.00b.516 Immortall Maid, I might inuoque thy name.

158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;
 158.00A.169 Unvirtuous weeds might long unvex'd have stood;
 158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.328 O might not states of more equality
 158.00A.346 Conspir'd against him, and it might undoe
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 158.00A.452 Gamesome it was, that it might freely goe
 163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;
 163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 169.00A.008 Whose whole kinde, you might swallow & feed upon?
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might
 176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe
 176.00B.003 That I might in this holy discontent
 182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow
 182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discern and see
 184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.150 Which might be scandalous,
 187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee
 187.00A.267 65 Sorrow of heart, thy curse. 66 And with thy might

MIGHT'ST.....3

108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost

 062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
 068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 074.00A.004 Then vertue or the minde to'admire,
 079.00B.020 A kinde of sorrowing dulnesse to the minde.
 079.00B.031 Since so, my minde
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandring doe but yet decline
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 140.00A.010 To'his beasts, and disaforested his minde?
 153.00A.012 Can unapparell and enlarge my minde,
 155.00a.154 In minde and body both bedwarfed vs.
 155.00a.178 That for Allay vnto so pure a minde
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make

156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,
 157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,
 158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes
 158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
 170.00A.014 This beauteous forme assumes a pitious minde.
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light

MINDES.....10

003.00A.087 The mindes indeavours reach, and mysteries
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 059.00A.019 'Tis not the bodies marry, but the mindes,
 135.B13.026 your mindes vnmingled, & as cleare as shee
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes devest
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 157.00b.506 As strong Records for God, as mindes within,
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?

MINDS.....4

118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne
 119.NY3.010 Allthough our bodyes wither & minds Languish.
 138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
 143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.

MINE.....70

002.00A.030 The meate was mine, th'excrement is his owne:
 004.00A.138 I must pay mine, and my forefathers sinne
 006.00D.073 Therefore mine impotency I confesse,
 008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
 013.00A.023 As mine: who have with amorous delicacies
 021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
 021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,
 024.00A.013 Dwells with me still mine irksome Memory,
 024.00A.053 My selfe I embrace, and mine owne hands I kisse,
 024.00A.056 When I would kisse, teares dimme mine eyes, and glasse.
 025.00A.016 Keepe it, for then 'tis none of mine.
 026.00A.001 I fixe mine eye on thine, and there
 029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show
 030.00B.021 And I to thee mine actions shall disguise.
 032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivalls letter mine,
 041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
 043.00A.008 Mine owne executor and Legacie.

043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,
 047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 051.00A.003 And at mine eyes, and at mine eares,
 051.00A.003 And at mine eyes, and at mine eares,
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.
 058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow
 066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,
 066.00A.003 Mine eyes to Argus, if mine eyes can see,
 066.00A.005 My tongue to Fame; to'Embassadours mine eares;
 066.00A.012 Mine ingenuity and opennesse,
 066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;
 066.00A.042 All forrainers, mine English tongue.
 077.00A.018 Mine Epitaph and Tombe.
 080.00E.024 In mine own selfe love.
 081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,
 134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
 137.00A.069 The Mine, the Magazine, the Commonweale,
 139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 143.00A.016 (So as I have) in any other Mine;
 145.00A.035 If in this sacrifice of mine, be showne
 153.00A.047 And, as if on a streame I fixe mine eye,
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
 158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 174.00B.014 And thou like Adamant draw mine iron heart.
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might
 176.00B.005 In mine Idolatry what showres of raine
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes
 187.00A.176 Brought up, did perish by mine enemie.
 187.00A.245 48 With water rivers doth mine eye oreflow
 187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,
 187.00A.249 51 And for my city daughters sake, mine eye

187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,
 187.00A.250 Doth breake mine heart. 52 Causles mine enemy,
 188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.
 192.00B.029 Be this my Text, my Sermon to mine owne,

MINERALL.....2

008.00B.044 Almighty Chymiques from each minerall,
 182.00A.012 For these three daies become a minerall;

MINERALLS.....1

166.00A.001 If poysonous mineralls, and if that tree,

MINES.....4

066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 106.00A.014 Our Golden Mines, and furnish'd Treasure,
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,
 149.00A.024 The Diamonds, Rubies, Saphires, Pearles, & Mines,

MINGLE.....2

112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;
 155.00a.350 To mingle, and vary colours euery day.

MINGLED.....3

060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
 112.00A.033 And mingled thus, their issue incestuous.
 158.00A.493 Adam and Eve had mingled bloods, and now

MINION.....1

055.00A.014 Except that hee Loves minion were.

MINISTERIALL.....1

141.00A.067 A ministeriall notary, for 'tis

MINISTERS.....2

002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throwes
 155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,

MINISTRY.....1

189.00B.003 Making Lay-scornings of the Ministry,

MINORITEE.....1

155.00a.116 Compar'd with man, dy'de in minoritee.

MINORITY.....1

108.00A.088 And is no more in his minority,

MINSTRALSEY.....1

059.00A.022 In that dayes rude hoarse minstralsey, the speares.

MINTAGE.....2

058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
157.00b.224 Mintage to others beauties, for they went

MINUTE.....4

030.00B.026 And his short minute, after noone, is night.
079.00B.029 And onely for a minute made to be
154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
157.00b.188 Dispatches in a minute all the way,

MINUTES.....2

153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,

MINVS.....2

195.010.015 NEC OB CORPORIS, FORTVNAEVE DOTES, MINVS IN ANIMO DOTATA,
195.010.016 NEC OB LINGVARVM PERITIAM, MINVS TACITVRNA,

MIRACLE.....9

070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
110.00A.027 Who live, that miracle do multiply
133.00A.018 A miracle; and made such to worke more,
139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,
141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
141.00A.011 A miracle, which reason scapes, and sense;
147.00B.018 Here bodies with lesse miracle enjoy
152.12a.073 When Miracle dooth ioine; and to steal-in 153.00A.157 To this, not miracle, but Prodigie,

MIRACLES.....3

070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,
070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmesse lovers wrought.
070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,

MIRACULOUS.....1

155.00a.365 Whose composition was miraculous,

MIRACULOUSLY.....2

147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.
187.00A.034 Remembered not her end; Miraculously

MIRIADE.....1

110.00A.035 Languish our ships. Now, as a Miriade

MIRREUS.....1

003.00A.043 Seeke true religion. O where? Mirreus

MIRRORS.....2

039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
153.00A.034 All, in these mirrors of thy wayes, and end;

MIRTH.....4

151.00A.032 Mirth and prosperity is oppression;
154.00A.013 Faire mirth is damp, and conversation black,
156.00a.105 And 'tis in heau'n part of spirituall mirth,
184.00A.128 Dead clods of sadnesse, or light squibs of mirth,

MIS-APPLY.....1

184.00A.192 When Magistrates doe mis-apply

MIS-DEUOTION.....1

157.00b.511 Here in a place, where mis-deuotion frames

MIS-DEVOTION.....1

070.00A.013 Where mis-devotion doth command,

MIS-SAID.....1

184.00A.115 Or mis-said, wee to that may not adhere,

MIS-SAYES.....1

139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,

MIS-THINKING.....1

150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.

MISCHIEF.....1

021.00G.064 I have accus'd, should such a mischief doe.

MISCHIEFE.....2

008.00B.106 All mischiefe that all devils ever thought;
158.00A.380 Be slain, to gallant mischiefe doth herselfe addresse.

MISDEEDS.....1

187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?

MISDONE.....1

184.00A.114 That what they have misdone

MISERABLE.....1

185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,

MISERIE.....5

110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 160.00A.077 Feare of first or last death, bring miserie,
 187.00A.131 Pour'd out upon the ground, for miserie

MISERIES.....1

187.00A.327 17 And wee as yet, for all these miseris

MISERRIMUM.....1

197.F01.014 Maritus (miserrimum dictu) olim charae charus

MISERY.....7

005.00A.008 Who Officers rage, and Suiters misery
 005.00A.047 Thee, if they sucke thee in, to misery,
 022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;
 109.00A.012 Honour and misery have one face and way.)
 117.00A.008 My verse, the strict Map of my misery,
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?

MISFORTUNE.....1

087.00A.003 Whose brave misfortune, happiest men envi'd,

MISGROUNDED.....1

181.00A.009 From mee, no Pulpit, nor misgrounded law,

MISLED.....1

158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,

MISMOTION.....1

153.00A.132 Doth each mismotion and distemper feele,

MISPEAKE.....1

133.00A.022 Her early child mispeake halfe uttered words,

MISPENT.....1

020.00G.072 Mispent by thy beginning at the face.

MISSE.....7

031.00A.020 Care lesse, eyes, lips, hands to misse.
 074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,
 074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee,'I would not misse you there
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 152.12a.018 As Contemplation of the Prince wee misse.

158.00A.437 A ridling lust, for which Schoolemen would misse

MISSING.....1

061.00A.008 With feare of missing, shame of getting torne;

MISSUS.....1

198.LL1.011 Qui huc, in prima iuuentute, ad perdiscendas leges, missus

MIST.....4

008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:

131.00B.015 Must either mist, or nothing seeme to be,

149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.

150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.

MISTAK'ST.....1

155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee

MISTAKE.....2

005.00A.067 His Plate, Challices; and mistake them away,

038.00A.011 Keepe midnights promise; mistake by the way

MISTAKES.....1

157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;

MISTAUGHT.....1

138.00A.017 And denizend a stranger, who mistaught

MISTERY.....1

081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mystery

MISTIQUE.....2

001.00A.008 The sinewes of a cities mistique bodie;

118.NY3.002 Enquiring of that mistique trinitee

MISTOOKE.....1

156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,

MISTRESSE.....10

003.00A.005 Is not our Mistresse faire Religion,

003.00A.027 Which cryes not, Goddess, to thy Mistresse, draw,

004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee

051.00A.021 And try your mistresse Teares at home,

054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,

065.00A.010 A she sigh from my mistresse heart,

065.00A.029 I spring a mistresse, sweare, write, sigh and weepe:

080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,

110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,

158.00A.467 To make his mistresse merry; or to wreake

MISTRESSE'S.....1

009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,

MISTRESSES.....3

052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,

170.00A.010 I said to all my profane mistresses,

190.00A.025 On Fame, Wit, Hopes (false mistresses) to thee.

MISTRESSING.....1

189.00B.030 In dressing, Mistressing and complement;

MISTRIS.....4

009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.

018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;

061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;

089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:

MITHRIDATE.....1

157.00b.127 But as in Mithridate, or iust perfumes,

MITTO.....1

186.00E.019 Mitto, nec exigua, exigua sub imagine, dona,

MIXE.....1

062.00A.035 Love, these mixt soules, doth mixe againe,

MIXT.....6

021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,

032.00A.019 What ever dyes, was not mixt equally;

054.00A.009 But mixt of all stuffes, paining soule, or sense,

058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow

062.00A.035 Love, these mixt soules, doth mixe againe,

138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,

MIXTURE.....2

057.00A.026 If mixture it of Feare, Shame, Honor have;

062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,

MOABA.....1

158.00A.439 In Abels tent, and with soft Moaba,

MOCK.....1

049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock

MOCKE.....1

051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;

MOCKERY.....1

187.00A.195 All the day long, a song and mockery.

MODERNE.....1

064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend

MODESTIE.....2

004.00A.242 With Macchabees modestie, the knowne merit

006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,

MODESTLY.....1

108.00A.212 Therefore at first shee modestly might start,

MODESTY.....3

066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;

114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty

156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee

MOIST.....3

008.00B.100 Poyson, whose nimble fume rot thy moist braine;

157.00b.019 Or as a Lute, which in moist weather, rings

158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes

MOISTURE.....1

158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,

MOLES.....1

020.00G.064 Some Island moles may scattered there descry;

MOLLIFIE.....1

155.00a.430 That 'tis in vaine to dew, or mollifie

MOMENT.....1

008.00B.109 Afflict thee, and at thy lives last moment,

MONARCHIES.....2

150.00A.024 All the foure Monarchies, and Antichrist.

158.00A.022 The Church, and all the Monarchies did floate;

MONARCHY.....1

151.00A.010 Tyrant, in the fift and greatest Monarchy,

MONASTIQUE.....1

150.00A.014 Where harmeslesse fish monastique silence keepe.

MONE.....1

155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,

MONETH.....1

158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.

MONETHS.....2

036.00A.010 Nor heures, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,

MONEY.....1

155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:

MONI-.....1

200.021.006 ET IMPVLSV SPIR: SC`TI MONI-

MONIES.....1

189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace

MORE.....254

001.00A.016 Though some more spruce companion thou dost meet,
001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more
001.00A.105 More men of sort, of parts, and qualities;
001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;
002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Slavonians scolding, more
002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Slavonians scolding, more
002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Slavonians scolding, more
002.00A.072 Bearing like Asses, and more shamelesse farre
003.00A.109 So perish Soules, which more chuse mens unjust
004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne
004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
004.00A.097 More then ten Hollensheads, or Halls, or Stowes,
004.00A.111 He thrusts on more; And as if he 'undertooke
004.00A.129 I more amas'd then Circes prisoners, when
004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
004.00A.154 Who feares more actions, doth hast from prison;
004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare
005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know
005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper
005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
006.00D.031 Meaning to see't no more upon the presse.
008.00B.032 That (more than Canon shot) availles or lets;
009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,
011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,
014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.
014.NY3.046 More glorious service staying to make men?
015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,
016.00A.018 And yet allows his ground more corne should beare;
016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee
016.00A.032 And in the vast sea are more putrifi'd:
019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
020.00G.026 From her to hers, is more adulterous,
020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
021.00G.016 Thy Martyrs must no more each other see?
021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;
022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;

024.00A.041 But of our dalliance no more signes there are,
 024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 026.00A.009 And though thou poure more I'll depart;
 026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
 027.00A.006 Warm'd by thy eyes, more then the Sunne.
 028.00A.009 Thou call'st for more,
 029.00A.023 More pittie unto mee: but Love, alas
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 035.00A.001 Image of her whom I love, more then she,
 035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 035.00A.012 Convenient, and more proportionall.
 035.00A.019 And shall to love more thankfull Sonnets make,
 035.00A.020 Then if more honour, teares, and paines were spent.
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 039.00A.015 Adde one more, to the plaguie Bill?
 039.00A.023 The Phoenix ridle hath more wit
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,
 042.00A.016 More wings and spurres then hee.
 045.00A.009 More subtile then the parent is,
 045.00A.016 And so more steddily to have gone,
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 049.00A.009 'Tis more, that it shewes thee to thee,
 049.00A.040 As much more loving, as more sad,
 049.00A.040 As much more loving, as more sad,
 050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make't more.
 054.00A.008 With more, not onely bee no quintessence,
 054.00A.015 And yet no greater, but more eminent,
 054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 055.00A.034 Deserts with cities, and make more
 058.00A.007 Fruits of much grieffe they are, emblemes of more,
 058.00A.019 O more then Moone,
 058.00A.025 To doe me more harme, then it purposeth,
 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
 060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
 063.00A.010 Others (because no more
 066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,
 066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undoe
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 068.00A.035 Mee fresher, and more fat, by being with men,
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.

069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
 069.00A.019 Falshood in woman, I could more abide,
 070.00A.004 To be to more then one a Bed)
 070.00A.025 Difference of sex no more wee knew,
 072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:
 072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:
 072.00A.022 And so my soule more earnestly releas'd,
 072.00A.024 A latter bullet may o'rtake, the powder being more.
 073.00A.004 Nothing more endlesse, nothing sooner broke?
 074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
 076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,
 076.00A.008 Or in a thousand more, forgot that too.
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 079.00B.033 I'll no more dote and runne
 080.00E.020 Within shee's worth no more.
 081.HH5.015 nay more abhorr an amorous respect
 081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 102.SN3.002 Faustus keepes his sister and no more,
 106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 106.00A.070 Are other labours, and more dainty feasts;
 106.00A.083 No more be said, I may bee, but, I am,
 106.00A.091 Now sleep or watch with more joy; and O light
 107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delayes, For, where is he?
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.088 And is no more in his minority,
 108.00A.167 And now the Militant doth strive no more,
 109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
 109.00A.072 Another Fiat, shall have no more day.
 110.00A.003 The fable is inverted, and farre more
 110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.
 110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,
 110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;
 112.00A.027 There men become beasts, and prone to more evils;

113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
 131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move
 133.00A.018 A miracle; and made such to worke more,
 133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke
 136.00A.014 In labourers balads oft more piety
 138.00A.009 Such borrow in their payments, and owe more
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 145.00A.057 No more doe I wrong any; I adore
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 146.00A.015 With whom more Venturers more boldly dare
 146.00A.015 With whom more Venturers more boldly dare
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
 150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 152.12a.046 Of Plagues on vs? and only now, when more
 153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,
 153.00A.145 An error doth more harme, being generall,
 153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
 153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
 153.00A.224 His territory was no more then Hee?
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 154.00A.004 Or be a name it selfe, and order more
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 155.00a.053 In that confession; therefore spoke no more
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
 155.00a.305 And, Oh, it can no more be questioned,
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 155.00a.377 Nor in ought more this worlds decay appeares,
 155.00a.390 Th'Egyptian Mages to haue made more such.
 155.00a.402 Would worke more fully'and pow'rfully on vs.
 155.00a.412 That vnto vs; she working more then it.
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;

155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 156.00a.023 Lawyers for tongues, Diuines for hearts, and more,
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,
 156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worme, consider more,
 157.00b.097 Anger thine Ague more, by calling it
 157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.343 Where shee'is exalted more for being good,
 157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.
 157.00b.378 More Antidote, then all the world was ill,)
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
 157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,
 157.00b.423 No more affoords this world, foundatione
 157.00b.447 To fill the place of one of them, or more,
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 157.00b.466 Both where more grace, and more capacitee
 157.00b.466 Both where more grace, and more capacitee
 157.00b.493 When earthly bodies more celestially
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,
 158.00A.245 Fate not affording bodies of more worth
 158.00A.312 More circles in the broken sea they make
 158.00A.328 O might not states of more equality
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,
 158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
 166.00A.006 Make sinnes, else equall, in mee, more heinous?
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 181.00A.063 The Crosses pictures much, and with more care
 184.00A.057 More in the cloud, then wee in fire,
 184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,

184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
 184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,
 184.00A.141 Some sinne more burdenous,
 184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prayes,
 187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more
 187.00A.289 6 The daughters of my people have sinned more,
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine
 189.00B.014 Onely the stampe is changed; but no more.
 189.00B.039 To open life, to give kingdomes to more
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 191.00B.044 More hoarse, more harsh than any other, sing?
 191.00B.044 More hoarse, more harsh than any other, sing?
 193.00A.006 For, I have more.
 193.00A.012 For I have more.
 193.00A.018 I feare no more.

034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?

034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.

036.00A.016 Looke, and to morrow late, tell mee,

048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,

068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.

068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,

106.00A.092 Of heaven, to morrow rise thou hot, and early;

107.00A.111 This will be tryed to morrow after nine,

153.00A.021 To morrow, sleeps, when the condemned man,

155.00a.132 And for our children we reserue to morrow.

155.00a.290 Perchance to morrow, scarce at middle way

180.NY3.011 To morrow I quake with true feare of his rod.

MOST.....53

001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh'st the ground.

004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,

005.00A.032 By having leave to serve, am most richly

005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most

005.00A.051 Heavy and most faint; and in these labours they,

008.00B.024 For, most of these, their Countreys naturall rot

008.00B.027 And howsoe'r French Kings most Christian be,

008.00B.028 Their Crownes are circumcis'd most lewishly;

008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:

010.00A.071 All my perfumes, I give most willingly
014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.
021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;
021.00G.102 That, oft suspected which men most perswade;
022.00A.023 O I prophane, though most of women be
038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.
058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.
064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;
078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
078.00D.014 And most desired, 'cause 'tis like thee best;
078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
141.00A.038 Of the most starres, take low names, Crab, and Bull,
150.00A.034 Reserve but few, and leaves the most to thee.
151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
153.00A.109 In the most large extent, through every path,
153.00A.172 The most repaire, that are in goodnesse rich.
153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,
155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,
155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;
157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,
157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
157.00b.464 Who dreamt deuoutlier, then most vse to pray;
158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law
158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,
160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,

184.00A.031 Most slipperinesse, yet most entanglings hath,
184.00A.031 Most slipperinesse, yet most entanglings hath,
184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
187.00A.001 1 How sits this citie, late most populous,
187.00A.027 Remembers what of old, shee esteemed most,

MOTHER.....16

006.00D.020 To be far greater than the mother nose?

008.00B.081 The Mother in the hungry grave doth lay,
 010.00A.013 Though thy immortall mother which doth lye
 010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.
 126.00A.024 Mother, want matter, an%ld they only have
 133.00A.021 Then as a mother which delights to heare
 155.00a.380 The father, or the mother barren is.
 157.00b.034 The name of Mother, be vnto my Muse,
 157.00b.178 Of sicknesses, or their true mother, Age.
 158.00A.093 By them. The mother poisoned the well-head,
 160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,
 183.00A.011 She sees at once the virgin mother stay
 183.00A.017 Not fully a mother, Shee's in Orbitie,
 184.00A.101 Which, as thy mother, their high Abbesse, sent
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare

MOTHER-HOOD.....1

 184.00A.037 For that faire blessed Mother-maid,

MOTHERLY.....1

155.00a.383 Th' Ayre doth not motherly sit on the earth,

MOTHERS.....7

037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 106.00A.087 So, shee a mothers rich stile doth preferre,
 141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,
 155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,
 187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where
 187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.
 187.00A.353 3 Our mothers are become as widowes, wee

MOTION.....10

002.00A.049 A motion, Lady, Speake Coscus; I have beene
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still
 107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
 141.00A.007 Whose motion with the firmament agrees,
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 157.00b.022 For there is motion in corruption.
 157.00b.366 Euey first motion of rebellious pride:
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;
 185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,

MOTIONS.....7

- 036.00A.004 Must to thy motions lovers seasons run?
 055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
 116.00A.005 Watch motions of the givers hand or eye,
 131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
 148.00A.031 As perfect motions are all circular,
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 189.00B.008 Toucht with a Loadstone, dost new motions feele?

MOTLEY.....2

- 001.00A.001 Away thou fondling motley humorist,
 004.00A.040 But Pedants motley tongue, souldiers bumbast,

MOUE.....3

- 088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee lies.
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 157.00b.390 Beauty? (And Beauty worthyest is to moue)

MOUINGS.....1

- 152.12a.021 If then, least Mouings of the Centre make

MOULD.....1

- 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,

MOULDS.....1

- 009.00A.041 Into clay moulds, or like to that Aetna

MOUNT.....3

- 002.00A.078 From Scots, to Wight; from Mount, to Dover strand.
 006.00D.023 Mount now to Gallo-belgicus; appear
 187.00A.381 17 Because mount Sion desolate doth lye,

MOUNTAINE.....1

- 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye

MOUNTEBANKES.....1

- 004.00A.041 Mountebankes drugtongue, nor the termes of law

MOURN.....1

- 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night

MOURN'D.....1

- 176.00B.004 Mourne with some fruit, as I have mourn'd in vaine;

MOURND.....1

- 155.00a.020 And so the world had fits; it ioy'd, it mournd.

MOURNE.....9

004.00A.157 Of suiters at court to mourne, and a trance
 008.00B.007 Mourne I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;
 049.00A.042 Since I die daily, daily mourne.
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 176.00B.004 Mourne with some fruit, as I have mourn'd in vaine;
 177.00B.009 They see idolatrous lovers weepe and mourne,
 187.00A.014 Mourne, because none come to her solemne dayes.
 187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
 187.00A.120 The wall, and Rampart, which together mourne.

MOURNES.....1

179.NY3.004 Laments & mournes in Germany & here?

MOURNING.....1

163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,

MOURNINGS.....2

187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.

MOUSE.....2

158.00A.375 Got the streight cloyster of a wreched mouse
 158.00A.391 In which as in a gallery this mouse

MOUTH.....10

008.00B.068 Because he is the mouth of destiny.
 009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 141.00A.066 Or mouth, or Speaker of the universe,
 158.00A.151 A mouth, but dumbe, he hath; blinde eyes, deafe eares,
 158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
 177.00B.004 That valiantly I hels wide mouth o'rstride:
 187.00A.219 Because he hath borne it. 29 And his mouth he layes
 187.00A.233 38 Both good and evill from his mouth proceeds;

MOUTHS.....1

020.00G.092 Two purses, and their mouths aversely laid:

MOV'D.....7

108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
 113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,
 131.00B.047 What pretty innocence in those dayes mov'd?
 152.12a.090 That Shee-Intelligence which mov'd This Sphear,
 153.00A.237 Mov'd with a reverentiall anger, thus,
 158.00A.236 It mov'd with state, as if to looke upon

184.00A.188 When wee are mov'd to seeme religious

MOVD.....1

123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound

MOVE.....33

001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more

002.00A.016 And bellows pant below, which them do move.

002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms

010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move

018.00B.019 Thy (else Almighty) beautie cannot move

020.00G.033 Although we see Celestial bodies move

020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can

021.00G.097 The Poles shall move to teach me ere I start;

024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move

031.00A.006 No teare-floods, nor sigh-tempests move,

031.00A.028 To move, but doth, if the'other doe.

039.00A.017 Litigious men, which quarrels move,

041.00A.003 I cannot breath one other sigh, to move;

062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:

069.00A.016 All thought of sexe, and thinke to move

071.00A.006 Will through all their senses move,

077.00A.011 For though hee seeme to move, and stirre a while,

080.00E.003 Never shall my fancy move,

108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move

110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.

110.00A.022 But meteorlike, save that wee move not, hover.

131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,

131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:

131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.

131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move

131.00B.122 Remote or neare, or howsoe'r they move;

131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move

158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is

158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,

158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet

174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,

181.00A.050 And move; To th'other th'objects must come home.

189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,

MOVED.....1

158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.

MOVER.....1

185.00A.008 For their first mover, and are whirld by it.

MOVES.....3

158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 158.00A.063 Which as the Moone the sea, moves us, to heare
 185.00A.002 The intelligence that moves, devotion is,

MOVING.....3

031.00A.009 Moving of th'earth brings harmes and feares,
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 158.00A.181 Outcrept a sparrow, this soules moving Inne,

MUCH.....124

002.00A.085 Peecemeale he gets lands, and spends as much time
 003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou
 004.00A.014 full, as proud, as lustfull, and as much in debt,
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne
 005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust
 005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie
 005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
 006.00D.064 So much, at once their hunger to asswage:
 006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.
 006.00D.072 For every peece is as much worth as all.
 008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.
 008.00B.051 Much hope which they should nourish will be dead.
 008.00B.052 Much of my able youth, and lusty head
 008.00B.060 That with phantastique scenes fils full much paper;
 010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 020.00G.040 How much they erre; that set out at the face?
 021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
 031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,
 035.00A.026 Mad with much heart, then ideott with none.
 044.00A.019 For much corruption needfull is
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 047.00A.010 Or too much triumph in the Victorie.
 049.00A.007 'Tis much that Glasse should bee
 049.00A.040 As much more loving, as more sad,
 057.00A.004 For reason, much too strong for phantasie,

058.00A.007 Fruits of much griefe they are, emblemes of more,
 060.00A.026 Just so much honor, when thou yeeld'st to mee,
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 067.00A.002 Nor question much
 077.00A.008 Death kills with too much cold;
 093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care
 106.00A.049 Winter dayes bring much delight,
 106.00A.066 As much wearinesse as perfection brings;
 107.00A.040 Ends of much wonder; And be Thou those ends,
 108.00A.103 So much as this poore song, which testifies
 108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
 108.00A.206 So doth the Bridegroome hast as much,
 113.00A.012 Mens workes, vanity weighs as much as sinne.
 113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 113.00A.033 Much, much deare treasure for the great rent day.
 113.00A.033 Much, much deare treasure for the great rent day.
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart

 128.LR1.001 Went you to conquer? and haue so much lost
 129.00A.003 By which to you he derives much of his,
 129.00A.021 To sweare much love, not to be chang'd before
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
 130.00A.044 And Tables, or fruit-trenchers teach as much;
 131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move
 133.00A.007 That's much, emboldens, pulls, thrusts I confesse,
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 137.00A.035 In all Religions as much care hath bin
 138.00A.077 Too many vertues, or too much of one
 138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
 139.00A.014 Preserve fraile transitory fame, as much
 139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.
 142.00A.002 'Twere too much schisme to be singular,
 143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
 145.00A.026 So much as to accuse, much lesse mend it,
 145.00A.026 So much as to accuse, much lesse mend it,
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 152.12a.075 At a much deader Fault must Reason bee,
 152.12a.097 So, much as You Two mutual Heauens were here,
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 153.00A.068 Are much entirer then a million.
 153.00A.079 So to exhibit in few yeares as much,
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?

155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
 155.00a.185 And learn'st thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.239 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.292 And men, to sound depths, so much line vntie,
 155.00a.327 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
 155.00a.371 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.429 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,
 156.00a.080 Tooke so much death, as seru'd for opium.
 156.00a.086 Much promis'd, much perform'd, at not fiftene,
 156.00a.086 Much promis'd, much perform'd, at not fiftene,
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
 157.00b.084 He honors it too much that thinks it nought.
 157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amisse,
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.316 (For so much knowledge, as would ouer-fraite
 157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;
 157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
 157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;
 157.00b.472 Heauens accidentall ioyes would passe them much.
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
 158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there
 158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so
 158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
 158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
 158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 181.00A.028 And cure much better, and as well preserve;
 181.00A.063 The Crosses pictures much, and with more care
 184.00A.138 From trusting so much to thy blood,
 185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.
 185.00A.041 Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace,
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast
 189.00B.009 Or, as a Ship after much paine and care,

MUST.....153

001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?
 001.00A.112 And constantly a while must keepe his bed. [CW: Satyre]
 002.00A.036 Schoolemen, new tenements in hell must make:
 002.00A.042 And plodding on, must make a calfe an oxe)
 002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke
 002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke

003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 003.00A.026 Canst thou for gaine beare? and must every hee
 003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 003.00A.081 Reach her, about must, and about must goe;
 003.00A.081 Reach her, about must, and about must goe;
 004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content
 004.00A.138 I must pay mine, and my forefathers sinne
 005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:
 008.00B.074 Necessities; but now must nurse thy pride,
 010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:
 011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,
 011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,
 013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas
 014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
 015.00G.034 As souls unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,
 015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;
 016.00A.019 Though Danuby into the sea must flow,
 016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?
 017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
 017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businesse, absent oft must bee,
 020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud
 020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
 021.00G.016 Thy Martyrs must no more each other see?
 021.00G.056 Must sad divorce make us the vulgar story?
 021.00G.083 And dearest Friend, since we must part, drown night
 022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?
 022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
 022.00A.021 And finde the truth out the wrong way? or must
 031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 036.00A.004 Must to thy motions lovers seasons run?
 037.00A.017 Must I, who came to travaile thorow you,
 042.00A.006 Must dye at last, 'tis best,
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 046.00A.013 Must businesse thee from hence remove?
 048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,
 048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,
 049.00A.061 But glasse, and lines must bee,
 050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 050.00A.036 Age must be loveliest at the latest day.
 053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,

053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,
 055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
 055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:
 057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
 057.00A.027 Perchance as torches which must ready bee,
 062.00A.065 So must pure lovers soules descend
 064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
 067.00A.004 The mystery, the signe you must not touch,
 068.00A.016 Must with this Sunne, and mee a journey take.
 068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside
 081.HH5.033 & must it now be an Iniurious lott
 082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,
 082.00A.036 As shadow, a light, and body must be here.
 106.00A.009 There it must meet another,
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
 108.00A.176 It must serve your ambition, to die;
 108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
 108.00A.197 And you must entertaine
 108.00A.213 But must forthwith surrender every part,
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 122.00A.027 But if (as All th'All must) hopes smoake away,
 126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
 126.00A.012 And I, as Giddy Travellers, must doe,
 126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.
 129.00A.008 Must in another Sphere his vertue streame:
 129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
 129.00A.028 In this, wee must for others vices care;
 130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her
 131.00B.015 Must either mist, or nothing seeme to be,
 131.00B.019 And now must pittie them; for, as they doe
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 131.00B.067 It must bee sicknesse after one disdain,
 131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.
 133.00A.027 For, speech of ill, and her thou must abstaine,
 136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 137.00A.011 For, as darke texts need notes: there some must bee
 137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
 138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe
 142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
 142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,

143.00A.008 Must both to growth and to confession bring
 145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
 151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
 152.12a.023 What must This doo; Centres distracted so,
 152.12a.043 But now This Faith is Heresie: wee must
 152.12a.075 At a much deader Fault must Reason bee,
 153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 153.00A.206 Must be enlarg'd, and not preserv'd alone;
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 155.00a.018 All must endeuour to be good as shee,)
 155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
 155.00a.297 Inuent another torment, that there must
 155.00a.337 For good, and well, must in our actions meete:
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needes decrepit bee.
 156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
 156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpone
 157.00b.156 Yet Death must vs her, and vnlocke the doore.
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.306 Shee whose example they must all implore,
 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.
 157.00b.386 A triall, must the principall be tride.
 157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
 157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same
 160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 172.00A.010 His stolne stufte sold, must lose or buy't againe:
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 176.00B.008 'Cause I did suffer I must suffer paine.
 181.00A.044 Must perish soone, and to destruction bowe.
 181.00A.050 And move; To th'other th'objects must come home.
 184.00A.023 Must with new stormes be weatherbeat;

185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 189.00B.050 In whom must meet Gods graces, mens offences,
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.

MUSTER.....1

071.00A.017 For I could muster up as well as you

MUTE.....2

158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;
 180.NY3.008 As praying, as mute; as infinite, as none.

MUTELY.....2

013.00A.012 Deliver arrands mutely, and mutually.
 081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me

MUTEST.....1

MY.....543

001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,
 001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence
 001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.
 001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;

002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 002.00A.040 Of Coscus onely breeds my just offence,
 002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not
 002.00A.056 In th'interim my letters should take place
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 003.00A.001 Kinde pittie chokes my spleene; brave scorn forbids
 003.00A.002 Those teares to issue which swell my eye-lids,
 004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne
 004.00A.005 My minde, neither with prides itch, nor yet hath been
 004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie
 004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me
 004.00A.039 Art can deceive, or hunger force my tast,
 004.00A.068 My lonelinesse is, but Spartanes fashion,
 004.00A.091 Crossing hurt mee; To fit my sullennesse,
 004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staies
 004.00A.118 Either my humour, or his owne to fit,
 004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 004.00A.138 I must pay mine, and my forefathers sinne
 004.00A.139 To the last farthing; Therefore to my power
 004.00A.150 And the prerogative of my Crowne: Scant
 004.00A.156 My precious soule began, the wretchednesse
 004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee
 004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 004.00A.244 I hope, esteeme my writs Canonically.
 006.00D.074 The healths which my braine bears must be far lesse:
 007.006.003 Es sat a My l'honneur estre hic inteso; Car I Leau
 008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;
 008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.
 008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 008.00B.050 I lose my guard, my ease, my food, my all?
 008.00B.052 Much of my able youth, and lusty head
 008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:
 009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.
 010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.
 010.00A.040 That, which betray'd mee to myemie:
 010.00A.041 A loud perfume, which at my entrance cryed
 010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbear,
 010.00A.052 Even my opprest shoes, dumbe and speechlesse were,
 010.00A.071 All my perfumes, I give most willingly
 012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
 012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,
 012.00A.013 Into my Purgatory, faithlesse thee,

012.00A.037 My minde to scorne; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly
 013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 014.NY3.020 To dust and ashes turnd before my time.
 015.00G.001 Come, Madam, come, all rest my powers defie,
 015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,
 015.00G.027 O my America! my new-found-land,
 015.00G.027 O my America! my new-found-land,
 015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.
 015.00G.029 My Myne of precious stones: My Emperie,
 015.00G.029 My Myne of precious stones: My Emperie,
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 018.00B.004 Which my words masculine perswasive force
 018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;
 018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;
 018.00B.016 Thee, onely worthy to nurse in my minde,
 018.00B.018 My soule from other lands to thee shall soare,
 018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe
 019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,
 019.00A.007 My face and brest of hairecloth, and my head
 019.00A.007 My face and brest of hairecloth, and my head
 019.00A.009 My body'a sack of bones, broken within,
 019.00A.010 And powders blew staines scatter'd on my skinne;
 019.00A.014 Doe his hurts reach mee? doth my worth decay?
 020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud
 020.00G.073 Rather set out below; practice my Art,
 021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 021.00G.011 Such is already my self-want of sight
 021.00G.030 To vex my Dove-like friend for my amiss:
 021.00G.030 To vex my Dove-like friend for my amiss:
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaime,
 021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
 021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.
 021.00G.095 And this to th'comfort of my Dear I vow,
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
 021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
 021.00G.099 Nay, if I wax but cold in my desire,
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?

022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;
 022.00A.025 My dearest Love, though froward jealousy,
 022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poetique fire;
 024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poetique fire;
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 024.00A.009 Onely thine image, in my heart, doth sit,
 024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
 024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 024.00A.030 My beauty, and make me'unworthy of thy love.
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 024.00A.052 That touching my selfe, all seemes done to thee.
 024.00A.053 My selfe I embrace, and mine owne hands I kisse,
 024.00A.054 And amorously thanke my selfe for this.
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 024.00A.058 Me to mee; shee, my halfe, my all, my more .
 024.00A.058 Me to mee; shee, my halfe, my all, my more .
 024.00A.058 Me to mee; shee, my halfe, my all, my more .
 025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,
 025.00A.009 Send home my harmlesse heart againe,
 025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,
 026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
 026.00A.003 My picture drown'd in a transparent teare,
 026.00A.010 My picture vanish'd, vanish feares,
 027.00A.001 Come live with mee, and bee my love,
 027.00A.015 And if my self have leave to see,
 028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
 028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
 028.00A.017 Then by my threatnings rest still innocent.
 029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,
 031.00A.035 Thy firmnes makes my circle just,
 032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
 032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 035.00A.002 Whose faire impression in my faithfull heart,
 035.00A.005 The value: goe, and take my heart from hence,
 038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;
 038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet
 038.00A.016 My minde transport.
 038.00A.019 If thine owne honour, or my shame, or paine,
 039.00A.002 Or chide my palsie, or my gout,
 039.00A.002 Or chide my palsie, or my gout,
 039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,

039.00A.010 Alas, alas, who's injur'd by my love?
039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?
039.00A.013 When did my colds a forward spring remove?
039.00A.014 When did the heats which my veines fill
040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
040.00A.014 Doth Set and sing my paine,
041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,
041.00A.025 And since my love doth every day admit
042.00A.007 To use my selfe in jest
042.00A.026 But sigh'st my soule away,
042.00A.028 My lifes blood doth decay.
042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
044.00A.025 Yet t'was of my minde, seising thee,
045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,
045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,
047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,
049.00A.001 My name engrav'd herein,
049.00A.002 Doth contribute my firmnesse to this glasse,
049.00A.024 My ruinous Anatomie.
049.00A.025 Then, as all my soules bee,
049.00A.028 The rafters of my body, bone
049.00A.031 Till my returne, repaire
049.00A.032 And recompact my scattered body so.
049.00A.044 Flings ope this casement, with my trembling name,
049.00A.048 In it offendst my Genius.
049.00A.054 May my name step in, and hide his.
049.00A.064 And this I murmure in my sleepe;
050.00A.048 My love descend, and journey downe the hill,
051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;
051.00A.018 Or a stone fountaine weeping out my yeare.
051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,
054.00A.001 I scarce beleieve my love to be so pure
054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make'it more.
055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
055.00A.026 Such in loves warfare is my case,
055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:
057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,
057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.
057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
057.00A.016 And knew'st my thoughts, beyond an Angels art,

058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
 059.00A.015 Ends love in this, that my man,
 061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;
 065.00A.002 And burdenous corpulence my love had growne,
 065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
 065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
 065.00A.010 A she sigh from my mistresse heart,
 065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
 065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 066.00A.005 My tongue to Fame; to'Embassadours mine eares;
 066.00A.006 To women or the sea, my teares;
 066.00A.010 My constancie I to the planets give,
 066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
 066.00A.013 To Jesuites; to Buffones my pensivenesse;
 066.00A.014 My silence to'any, who abroad hath beene;
 066.00A.015 My mony to a Capuchin.
 066.00A.019 My faith I give to Roman Catholiques;
 066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismatics
 066.00A.021 Of Amsterdam; my best civility
 066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;
 066.00A.024 My patience let gamesters share.
 066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,
 066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.
 066.00A.028 I give my reputation to those
 066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;
 066.00A.030 To Schoolemen I bequeath my doubtfulnessse;
 066.00A.031 My sicknesse to Physitians, or excesse;
 066.00A.033 And to my company my wit;
 066.00A.033 And to my company my wit;
 066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles
 066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles
 066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live
 066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.
 067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;
 067.00A.005 For'tis my outward Soule,
 067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall
 067.00A.015 By this should know my pain,
 068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:
 068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 068.00A.040 As glad to have my body, as my minde.
 069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
 069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;
 070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe

071.00A.002 And my friends curiositie
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 071.00A.018 My Gyants, and my Witches too,
 071.00A.018 My Gyants, and my Witches too,
 072.00A.005 My body then doth hers involve,
 072.00A.009 My fire of Passion, sighes of ayre,
 072.00A.011 Which my materialls bee,
 072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 072.00A.020 This death, hath with my store
 072.00A.021 My use encrease'd.
 072.00A.022 And so my soule more earnestly releas'd,
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
 074.00A.012 But Negatives, my love is so.
 074.00A.017 As yet my ease, and comfort is,
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
 078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;
 078.00D.003 Send me some honey to make sweet my hive,
 078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
 079.00B.031 Since so, my minde
 080.00E.003 Never shall my fancy move,
 081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
 081.HH5.002 betrothd nor by my sighes breathd into thee
 081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 081.HH5.031 to cleare my selfe of any foule intent
 081.HH5.036 & drinck in earth my selfe O I appeale
 081.HH5.038 to change my happiest wishes to this curse
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 108.00A.102 No Epitaph, which might advance my fame
 109.00A.007 My lines are such. 'Tis the preheminance
 110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I
 111.00A.019 Beleeve mee Sir, in my youths giddiest dayes,
 112.00A.003 The tediousnesse of my life: But for these
 112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I'have wonne
 112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
 113.00A.003 So'affects my muse now, a chast fallownesse.
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 115.NY3.005 Plead for me, and so by thyne & my labor,
 115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.

115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
 115.00A.014 And you're my pawnes, or else my Testament.
 115.00A.014 And you're my pawnes, or else my Testament.
 116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;
 116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,
 117.00A.001 At once, from hence, my lines and I depart,
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 117.00A.008 My verse, the strict Map of my misery,
 117.00A.008 My verse, the strict Map of my misery,
 118.NY3.001 Zealously my Muse doth salute all thee.
 119.NY3.002 for by thy Mind, my Mind's distempered.
 119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart
 121.NY3.011 Nothing wherat to laugh my spleene espyes
 122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 122.00A.007 It is my deed of gift of mee to thee,
 122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
 122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,
 126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
 126.00A.019 My nurse, (for I had one,) because I'am cold,
 126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.
 127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke's our Clime;
 127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
 131.00B.070 Shall freeze my Love to Christall in a night.
 133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,
 133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
 133.00A.050 Nor to make my selfe her familiar;
 134.00A.008 My faith, as I beleeve, so understand.
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,
 138.00A.015 So whether my hymnes you admit or chuse,
 139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thanks I have forgot,
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
 139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,

141.00A.050 For then your judgement is below my praise,
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
 142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.
 142.00A.053 Of whom, if what in this my Extasie
 142.00A.062 My true devotion, free from flattery;
 143.00A.002 (Living in you,) Court enough in my grave,
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,
 143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
 143.00A.017 Next I confesse this my confession,
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thankes, that they
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 145.00A.084 And though I burne my librarie, be learn'd.
 147.00B.001 That I might make your Cabinet my tombe,
 147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 147.00B.003 Next to my soule provide the happiest roome,
 147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,
 147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,
 147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,
 152.12a.001 Look to Me, Faith; and look to my Faith, GOD:
 152.12a.002 For, both my Centres feel This Period.
 152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee
 153.00A.012 Can unapparell and enlarge my minde,
 153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.030 My selfe, the hardest object of the sight.
 153.00A.042 My thoughts on his deeds? which shall I call best?
 153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,
 153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
 153.00A.256 That in thy grave I doe interre my Muse,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my grieffe, great as thy worth, being cast
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.034 The name of Mother, be vnto my Muse,
 157.00b.045 Thirst for that time, O my insatiate soule,
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.162 My second soule of sence, and first of growth.
 157.00b.166 My body, could, beyond escape, or helpe,
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.321 Returne not, my soule, from this extasee,
 157.00b.339 Vp vp, my drowsie soule, where thy new eare
 157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall
 157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,

157.00b.520 To take this, for my second yeeres true Rent,
 158.00A.037 And shew my story, in thy eternall booke.
 158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.
 158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,
 158.00A.043 Except my legend be free from the letts
 158.00A.049 Th'expense of braine and spirit; that my grave
 158.00A.051 But if my dayes be long, and good enough,
 158.00A.055 Make my darke heavy Poem light, and light.
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
 160.00A.002 Weav'd in my low devout melancholie,
 160.00A.006 Reward my muses white sincerity,
 160.00A.012 With a strong sober thirst, my soule attends.
 160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he
 160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
 160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
 163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 164.00A.002 My pilgrimages last mile; and my race
 164.00A.002 My pilgrimages last mile; and my race
 164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,
 164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 164.00A.008 Whose feare already shakes my every joynt:
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 165.00A.010 For, if above all these, my sinnes abound,
 165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.
 166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,
 166.00A.012 And drowne in it my sinnes blacke memorie,
 168.00A.001 Spit in my face you Jewes, and pierce my side,
 168.00A.001 Spit in my face you Jewes, and pierce my side,
 168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
 168.00A.006 My sinnes, which passe the Jewes impiety:
 170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,
 170.00A.009 No, no; but as in my idolatrie
 170.00A.010 I said to all my profane mistresses,
 171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you

172.00A.002 My Soule, this wholesome meditation,
 174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,
 174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,
 174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste
 174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 175.00B.008 Drowne my world with my weeping earnestly,
 175.00B.008 Drowne my world with my weeping earnestly,
 176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,
 177.00B.002 As Angels, then my fathers soule doth see,
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 177.00B.014 Thy grieffe, for he put it into my breast.
 178.NY3.002 To Nature, and to hers, & my good is dead
 178.NY3.004 Wholy in heavenly things my Mind is sett.
 178.NY3.005 Here the admyring her my Mind did whett
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
 178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:
 178.NY3.012 My Love to Saints and Angels things diuine
 180.NY3.005 As humorous is my contritione
 180.NY3.006 As my prophane love, & as soone forgott:
 180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 183.00A.002 My soule eates twice, Christ hither and away.
 183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,
 183.00A.046 And in my life retaile it every day.
 184.00A.005 My heart is by dejection, clay,
 184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,
 184.00A.024 Double in my heart thy flame,
 184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
 184.00A.071 That I by them excuse not my excesse
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.
 185.00A.034 They're present yet unto my memory,
 185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive
 185.00A.040 Burne off my rusts, and my deformity,
 185.00A.040 Burne off my rusts, and my deformity,
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 186.00E.HE1 To M^r George Herbert, with one of my Seal, of the Anchor and Christ.
 187.00A.036 O Lord my affliction, for the Foe growes bold.
 187.00A.047 Like to my sorrow, which Jehova hath
 187.00A.050 He hath cast from heaven on my bones, and spred
 187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,
 187.00A.053 14 His hand hath of my sinnes framed a yoake
 187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke
 187.00A.055 My strength. The Lord unto those enemies

187.00A.057 15 He underfoot hath troden in my sight
187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite
187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath
187.00A.064 The foe prevailes, forlorne my children are.
187.00A.071 O heare all people, and my sorrow see,
187.00A.072 My maides, my young men in captivitie.
187.00A.072 My maides, my young men in captivitie.
187.00A.073 19 I called for my lovers then, but they
187.00A.074 Deceiv'd mee, and my Priests, and Elders lay
187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,
187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,
187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had
187.00A.088 Are very many, and my heart is sad.
187.00A.129 11 My bowells are growne muddy, and mine eyes
187.00A.130 Are faint with weeping: and my liver lies
187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;
187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,
187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,
187.00A.186 To my steele fetters, heavier then before,
187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath
187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.
187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.
187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
187.00A.194 Into my reines, 14 I with my people was 187.00A.194 Into my reines, 14 I with my people was
187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;
187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,
187.00A.200 And my prosperity I did forget.
187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)
187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)
187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)
187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
187.00A.204 My wormwood, hemlocke, and affliction,
187.00A.205 20 My Soule is humbled in remembring this;
187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.
187.00A.211 24 The Lord is, saith my Soule, my portion,
187.00A.211 24 The Lord is, saith my Soule, my portion,
187.00A.246 For ruine of my peoples daughters so;
187.00A.249 51 And for my city daughters sake, mine eye
187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.
187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;
187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.
187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,

187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
 187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.
 187.00A.278 Sucke to their young; my peoples daughters live
 187.00A.289 6 The daughters of my people have sinned more,
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;
 190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.
 190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:
 190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,
 192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne
 192.00B.009 That this is my South-west discoverie
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;
 192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East
 192.00B.016 Is the Pacifique Sea my home? Or are
 192.00B.024 As the first Adams sweat surrounds my face,
 192.00B.025 May the last Adams blood my soule embrace.

NAIL'D.....1

184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,

NAILE.....1

060.00A.020 Purpled thy naile, in blood of innocence?

NAILES.....6

005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 005.00A.076 Of men; so in law, nailes are extremities,
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 157.00b.278 Of Nailes and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
 157.00b.337 In Nailes, and Haires, yea excrements, will show;
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieve, where nailes did tye

NAKED.....6

001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:
 001.00A.042 At birth, and death, our bodies naked are;
 001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne
 015.00G.047 To teach thee I am naked first, why than
 068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
 131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there

NAKEDNESS.....1

015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,

NAKEDNESSE.....4

001.00A.039 The nakednesse and barrennesse to enjoy,
 008.00B.087 One that would suffer hunger, nakednesse,
 106.00A.078 Like vertue'and truth, art best in nakednesse;
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.

NAM'D.....4

141.00A.039 When single planets by the Gods are nam'd,
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 157.00b.023 As some Daies are, at the Creation nam'd,

NAME.....67

001.00A.056 Name her child's right true father, 'mongst all those:
 003.00A.101 Those past, her nature, & name is chang'd to be,
 004.00A.020 A thing, which would have pos'd Adam to name,
 005.00A.036 Call it some worse name, if ought equall it;
 005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,
 010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.
 012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
 013.00A.015 Since, household charmes, thy husbands name to teach,
 021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.

045.00A.002 Before I knew thy face or name;
 049.00A.001 My name engrav'd herein,
 049.00A.014 Which are but accessories to this name,
 049.00A.020 This learning be, for a scratch'd name to teach,
 049.00A.023 Or thinke this ragged bony name to bee
 049.00A.037 So since this name was cut
 049.00A.044 Flings ope this casement, with my trembling name,
 049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
 049.00A.054 May my name step in, and hide his.
 049.00A.057 In superscribing, this name flow
 050.00A.006 Affections here take Reverences name.
 050.00A.037 But name not Winter-faces, whose skin's slacke;
 050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
 052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) Homer did finde, and name.
 065.00A.024 To be the fortieth name in an entaile?
 071.00A.008 Your murder, to the name of Massacre.
 073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 079.00B.005 Call, what they cannot name, an unknowne power,
 096.00A.007 To beleeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 109.00A.032 Hath now a stormes, anon a tempests name.
 109.00A.042 Could none by his right name, but thunder call:
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
 139.00A.064 Your name; and when with active joy we heare
 141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 145.00A.054 Were swallowed into it, and have no name.
 149.00A.028 Make and name then, th'Elixar of this All.
 150.00A.064 To sociableness, a name profane.
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 154.00A.004 Or be a name it selfe, and order more
 154.00A.011 The name of Father, Master, Friend, the name
 154.00A.011 The name of Father, Master, Friend, the name
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 155.00a.038 And thou forgetst to celebrate thy name.
 155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,
 155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 157.00b.034 The name of Mother, be vnto my Muse,
 157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuer keep the name)

157.00b.516 Immortall Maid, I might inuoque thy name.
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
 177.00B.011 On Iesus name, and Pharisicall
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,

NAMED.....1

004.00A.057 Of our two Academies, I named; There

NAMES.....16

001.00B.082 When any names the King of Spaine to you.
 004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!
 004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 049.00A.039 No doore'gainst this names influence shut,
 108.00A.024 From which all Fortunes, Names, and Natures fall;
 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 141.00A.032 T'adhere in these names, her and you to show,
 141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
 141.00A.038 Of the most starres, take low names, Crab, and Bull,
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;
 153.00A.059 His vertues into names, and ranks; but I
 157.00b.498 Shee, in whose goodnesse, he that names degree,
 157.00b.512 A thousand praiers to saints, whose very names

NANCISCOR.....1

186.00E.004 Stemmate, nanciscor stemmata jure nova.

NARROW.....5

040.00A.006 Then as th'earths inward narrow crooked lanes
 108.00A.046 Enlarging narrow men, to feele and see,
 145.00A.015 And narrow man being fill'd with little shares,
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 157.00b.261 Thou art to narrow, wretch, to comprehend

NARROWLY.....1

116.00A.004 As in our streets sly beggers narrowly

NATALITIIS.....1

 156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.

NEEDED.....2
 155.00a.226 And needed a new compasse for their way;
 157.00b.405 Honor on him; not that he needed it,

NEEDES.....1

156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needes decrepit bee.

NEEDFULL.....1

044.00A.019 For much corruption needfull is

NEEDING.....1

184.00A.136 From needing danger, to bee good,

NEEDS.....11

004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will

009.00A.009 Or like the skumme, which, by needs lawlesse law

017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit

022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?

024.00A.037 Nor needs perfection; why shouldst thou than

082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,

107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,

136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.

146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,

158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so

181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,

NEEDST.....3

015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.

027.00A.025 For thee, thou needst no such deceit,

127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue

NEEDY.....3

001.00A.030 Dost search, and like a needy broker prize

004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,

158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own

NEER.....1

152.12a.017 And nothing euer came so neer to This,

NEERE.....10

014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.

024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.

049.00A.063 Neere death inflicts this lethargie,

086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;

129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;

155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.

156.00a.057 Your force and vigor, ere it were neere gone,

157.00b.489 loy of a soules arriuell neere decaies;

158.00A.409 The flocke so neere, so well warnes and defends,

187.00A.332 To goe: our end is now approached neere,

NEEREST.....1

183.00A.029 So God by his Church, nearest to him, wee know,

NEGLECT.....3

066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,

081.HH5.013 soe after conquest thou doest me neglect

189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pittie their neglect.

NEGLECTED.....2

021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.

028.00A.011 And then poore Aspen wretch, neglected thou

NEGLECTING.....2

184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus

184.00A.148 Neglecting to choake sins spawn, Vanitie,

NEGLECTS.....1

107.00A.007 The Sparrow that neglects his life for love,

NEGLIGENCE.....2

021.00G.049 Shadow'd with negligence our best respects?

128.LR1.016 it self vnto the Irish negligence submit.

NEGLIGENT.....1

065.00A.027 Now negligent of sports I lye,

NEGLIGENTLY.....2

008.00B.033 Which negligently left unrounded, looke

008.00B.102 Which negligently kept, thy ruine bring.

NEGOTIA.....1

198.LL1.012 Ad alia, tam studia, quam negotia, et peregrinationes deflectens,

NEGOTIATE.....1

062.00A.017 And whil'st our soules negotiate there,

NEIGHBOUR.....2

006.00D.036 To neighbour wares, when Merchants do unhoop

152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake

NEITHER.....23

004.00A.005 My minde, neither with prides itch, nor yet hath been

013.00A.022 Inlaid thee, neither to be seene, nor see,

053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,

053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,

065.00A.012 'Twas neither very sound, nor meant to mee;

076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 080.00E.016 He can neither [want] [nor] [craue]
 107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,
 107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
 136.00A.054 Neither can reach you, great and innocent.
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.
 138.00A.074 Neither beleeeve her good, nor others ill,
 141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,
 141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,
 152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:
 157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.
 157.00b.257 Thou neither knowst, how thou at first camest in,
 157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.
 157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
 157.00b.443 This is essentiall ioye, where neither hee
 158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
 158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright

NEPHEWES.....1

158.00A.026 Us, and our latest nephewes did install

NEPT.....1

197.F01.004 Willelmj Equit: Nept:

NERE.....7

014.NY3.012 Which nerre returne; No more then they which fell.
 137.00A.005 Two ills can nerre perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;
 153.00A.040 Vertues, indeed remote, seeme to be nerre;
 157.00b.372 Satans rude Officers could nerre arrest.
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nerre
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nerre
 188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nerre know cares,

NESSE.....1

003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou

NEST.....2

027.00A.021 Let coarse bold hands, from slimy nest
 133.00A.036 A nest almost as full of Good as shee.

NESTLE.....1

068.00A.010 That labours yet to nestle thee,

NESTRE.....1

007.006.004 L'honra, de personne nestre creduto, tibi.

NESTS.....2

107.00A.024 Are unto one another mutuall neests, 158.00A.287 To spoile the neests industruous birds do make;

NET.....8

004.00A.195 He call'd her beauty limetwigs, her haire net.
 027.00A.020 With strangling snare, or windowie net:
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net
 158.00A.263 The net through-swome, she keeps the liquid path,
 158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
 187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,

NETS.....4

002.00A.046 Like nets, or lime-twigs, wheresoever he goes,
 158.00A.046 Distracting businesse, and from beauties nets,
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,
 158.00A.214 With faind calls, his nets, or enwrapping snare

NEUER.....7

081.HH5.039 That thou from changinge still mayst neuer pause
 152.12a.094 By th'Oathes which only you Two neuer broke,
 155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
 155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 157.00b.270 The bladders Caue, and neuer breake the skin?
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;

NEUTRALITEE.....1

155.00a.092 At best, enioy, but a neutralitee.

NEUTRALL.....1

039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.

NEVER.....51

002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state
 006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.
 006.00D.049 Thus thou, by means which th'Ancients never took,
 010.00A.038 Could never witsse any touch or kisse;
 015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.
 016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,
 017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;
 020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.
 021.00G.072 And thoughts and dreams; Love never wanteth shifts,
 021.00G.104 As I will never look for less in you.
 022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;

024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 029.00A.014 Hee swallows us, and never chawes:
 037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;
 038.00A.008 We'had never met.
 041.00A.002 Deare, I shall never have it all,
 041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
 041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:
 048.00A.009 Running it never runs from us away,
 055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
 074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
 080.00E.003 Never shall my fancy move,
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 107.00A.020 What the sunne never saw, and what the Arke
 107.00A.027 Whose love and courage never shall decline,
 108.00A.063 But never shall, except it chance to lye,
 108.00A.172 Daily new joyes, and never sing,
 108.00A.180 May never age, or error overthwart
 108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
 122.00A.003 Never did Morpheus nor his brother weare
 126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
 130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,
 133.00A.023 Or, because majesty doth never feare
 138.00A.029 And you can never know it; To admit
 142.00A.063 He that beleeves himselfe, doth never lie.
 143.00A.013 Your treasure, for since I had never knowne
 150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.
 153.00A.152 Instructions, such as it could never be
 153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,
 171.00A.013 Except you'enthrall mee, never shall be free,
 183.00A.025 As by the selfe-fix'd Pole wee never doe
 183.00A.028 (Because it strays not farre) doth never stray;
 184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.236 From thine allegiance wee never tempt,
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.

NEW.....115

002.00A.036 Schoolemen, new tenements in hell must make:
 002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throwes
 003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,
 004.00A.093 And askes, what newes? I tell him of new playes.

008.00B.015 To gaine new friends, t'appease great enemies;
011.00A.008 His Soule out of one hell, into a new,
012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee, 'and spie
020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
020.00G.016 By our new nature (Use) the soul of trade.
027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
030.00B.015 We shall new shadowes make the other way.
032.00A.012 Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
034.00A.003 Wilt thou then Antedate some new made vow?
041.00A.015 New love created bee, by other men,
041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
049.00A.046 New battry to thy heart may frame,
050.00A.008 But now they're gold oft tried, and ever new.
052.00A.021 In cypher writ, or new made Idioime;
054.00A.025 And though each spring doe adde to love new heate,
054.00A.027 New taxes, and remit them not in peace,
055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.
056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
056.00A.013 Though they new lovers choose,
056.00A.016 And not to seeke new lands, or not to deale withall?
062.00A.027 Might thence a new concoction take,
062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
082.00A.013 In whom love wrought new Alchimie.
082.00A.040 To fetch new lust, and give it you,
091.NY3.002 To the new world your kindled valors bend
091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still beginne a new.
106.00A.044 All yeelding to new loves bee far for ever,
107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?
108.00A.117 In this new couple, dost thou prize,
108.00A.172 Daily new joyes, and never sing,
108.00A.175 That, new great heights to trie,
108.00A.186 And were the doctrine new
108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
108.00A.209 By a new fashion, or apparrells change,
119.NY3.006 We take new harts for it to feede vpon.
123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,
130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.
130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
134.00A.022 A Balsamum to keepe it fresh, and new,
137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,

137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new reckonings goe.
 137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new reckonings goe.
 137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 138.00A.037 As new Philosophy arrests the Sunne,
 138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 138.00A.068 Two new starres lately to the firmament;
 139.00A.018 New spirit: for, strong agents with the same
 139.00A.065 This private Ghospell, then 'tis our new yeare,
 140.00A.008 Yet couple'in anger, and new monsters breed;
 140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they'are rare; But a new starre
 141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
 141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.
 145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;
 148.00A.041 Seeke not in seeking new, to seeme to doubt,
 152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire
 152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:
 153.00A.175 Begins Gods City, New Jerusalem,
 154.00A.002 Fill any former ranke or make a new,
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.130 Whether a new made clocke runne right, or lie.
 155.00a.159 With new diseases on our selues we warre,
 155.00a.160 And with new phisicke, a worse Engin farre.
 155.00a.205 And new Philosophy cals all in doubt,
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.226 And needed a new compasse for their way;
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.262 When new Townes rise, and olde demolish'd are.
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 156.00a.067 But as when Heau'n lookes on vs with new eyes,
 156.00a.068 Those new starres eu'ry Artist exercise,
 157.00b.027 Yet a new Deluge, and of Lethe flood,
 157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
 157.00b.266 And now they thinke of new ingredients.
 157.00b.309 Are but a new, and worse edition,
 157.00b.339 Vp vp, my drowsie soule, where thy new eare
 157.00b.357 Shee, who hath carried thether, new degrees
 158.00A.130 There through th'earths-pores, and in a Plant hous'd her a new.
 158.00A.174 Whom foure new comming, and foure parting Suns
 158.00A.185 All downy a new mantle overspreads,
 158.00A.247 T'another fish, to any new desire
 158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
 158.00A.442 And Abell (the dam dead) would use this new

158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possesst a new.
 158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,
 171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
 175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,
 175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might

 184.00A.008 All vicious tinctures, that new fashioned
 184.00A.023 Must with new stormes be weatherbeat;
 184.00A.060 May use our new helpes right,)
 189.00B.007 New thoughts and stirrings in thee? and as Steele
 189.00B.008 Toucht with a Loadstone, dost new motions feele?
 189.00B.015 And as new crowned Kings alter the face,
 189.00B.018 To Chists new stampe, at this thy Coronation;
 189.00B.022 Art thou new feather'd with coelestiall love?
 191.00B.002 Seeke new expressions, doe the Circle square,

NEXT.....36

001.00A.061 What fashioned hats, or ruffes, or suits next yeare
 002.00A.012 Yet prompts him which stands next, and cannot reade,
 002.00A.054 You said, If I Returne next size in Lent,
 004.00A.026 When next the Prentises 'gainst Strangers rise.

004.00A.183 Them next weeke to the Theatre to sell;
 006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 010.00A.054 Next mee, mee traiterously hast betrayd,
 016.00A.034 Never looke backe, but the next banke doe kisse,
 033.00A.022 Though at next doore wee might meet,
 038.00A.010 And at next nine
 066.00A.037 To him for whom the passing bell next tolls,
 071.00A.012 And let th'enchantresse Honor, next be slaine,
 082.00A.011 At the next world, that is, at the next Spring:
 082.00A.011 At the next world, that is, at the next Spring:
 106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 130.00A.001 Who makes the Past, a patterne for next yeare,
 130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
 131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
 139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
 143.00A.017 Next I confesse this my confession,
 143.00A.021 Next I confesse my'impenitence, for I
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 147.00B.003 Next to my soule provide the happiest roome,
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 155.00a.312 Of Harmony, he would at next haue said
 157.00b.394 Next day repaires, (but ill) last daies decay.
 158.00A.194 In field and tent oreflutters his next hen,
 158.00A.199 The next that calls; both liberty doe use;
 158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,
 158.00A.451 It quickned next a toyfull Ape, and so
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,

NEYTHER.....1

071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,

NICE.....4

009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice
 009.00A.051 And nice in searching wounds the Surgeon is 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity

NIGHTS.....5

010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,

017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,

033.00A.012 Ride ten thousand daies and nights,

082.00A.042 Since shee enjoyes her long nights festivall,

108.00A.020 The first doth governe dayes, the other nights.

NILES.....2

004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne

161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles dirty slime,

NO.....302

001.00A.079 But to a grave man, he doth move no more

001.00A.101 Why, he hath travailed long? no, but to me

001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;

002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use

002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes

002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,

003.00A.054 No wenches wholsome, but course country drudges:

004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,

004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few

004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene

004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene
 004.00A.172 Just such gay painted things, which no sappe, nor
 004.00A.223 He cares not, His ill words doe no harme
 004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine
 005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know
 005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
 006.00D.031 Meaning to see't no more upon the presse.
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 008.00B.010 No leaven of vile soder did admit;
 008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:
 008.00B.064 He leaves himselfe no roome to enter in.
 008.00B.104 Itching desire, and no abilitie.
 009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets
 010.00A.035 Which, if in hell no other paines there were,
 012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
 012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
 012.00A.010 Favorite in Ordinary, or no favorite bee.
 014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.
 015.00G.046 There is no pennance due to innocence:
 017.00A.028 Chuse this face, chang'd by no deformities;
 017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit
 018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!
 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strayes thus:
 020.00G.070 Where many Shipwrack, and no further get.
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 021.00G.016 Thy Martyrs must no more each other see?
 021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,
 021.00G.021 No, no. The falt is mine, impute it to me,
 021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 024.00A.041 But of our dallyance no more signes there are,
 024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
 025.00A.010 Which no unworthy thought could staine,
 027.00A.025 For thee, thou needst no such deceit,
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.
 031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,
 031.00A.006 No teare-floods, nor sigh-tempests move,
 031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
 033.00A.017 No where
 034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?

036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,
 037.00A.010 Will no other vice content you?
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 039.00A.031 And if no peece of Chronicle wee prove,
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
 042.00A.011 He hath no desire nor sense,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 046.00A.007 Light hath no tongue, but is all eye;
 048.00A.007 Only our love hath no decay;
 048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 049.00A.013 As no one point, nor dash,
 049.00A.039 No doore'gainst this names influence shut,
 049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;
 050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,
 050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,
 050.00A.014 They were Loves graves; for else he is no where.
 050.00A.022 Where no voluptuousnesse., yet all delight.
 052.00A.016 No schismaticque will dare to wound,
 054.00A.008 With more, not onely bee no quintessence,
 054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,
 054.00A.015 And yet no greater, but more eminent,
 054.00A.028 No winter shall abate the springs encrease.
 055.00A.008 I aske no dispensation now
 056.00A.012 Beasts doe no joyntures lose
 059.00A.007 And as no chymique yet th'Elixar got,
 061.00A.011 And may he feele no touch
 061.00A.019 And no record tell why:
 062.00A.048 Are soules, whom no change can invade.
 063.00A.010 Others (because no more
 063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undoe
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
 070.00A.025 Difference of sex no more wee knew,
 074.00A.003 Seldome to them, which soare no higher
 074.00A.011 Which can by no way be exprest
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other
 078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,
 078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.

079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 079.00B.033 I'll no more dote and runne
 080.00E.020 Within shee's worth no more.
 080.00E.021 Is there then no kinde of men
 082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;
 086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and haire may no man equall call,
 092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingfield no man dares to go.
 102.SN3.002 Faustus keepes his sister and no more,
 106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 106.00A.083 No more be said, I may bee, but, I am,
 106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maime,
 107.00A.094 Take no acquittance, but pay again;
 107.00A.096 No such occasion to be liberall.
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 108.00A.039a Idios. No, I am there
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.052 Of creatures, and man need no farther looke;
 108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
 108.00A.078 And where it is no levity to trust.
 108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.088 And is no more in his minority,
 108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,
 108.00A.102 No Epitaph, which might advance my fame
 108.00A.167 And now the Militant doth strive no more,
 108.00A.228a No S^r. This paper I have justly got,
 109.00A.072 Another Fiat, shall have no more day.
 110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay
 110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.
 110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 111.00A.007 For here no one is from the'extremitie
 112.00A.022 Are carcasses, as if no such they were.
 112.00A.025 The Country is a desert, where no good,
 112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
 112.00A.059 Onely'in this one thing, be no Galenist. To make
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,
 114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found

120.00A.006 No blott nor maime by this division,
124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
127.NY3.012 No ioyes addition, helpe thy frind to saue.
130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,
130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
131.00B.076 But am no porter for a tedious woe.
131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move
131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.
138.00A.030 No knowledge of your worth, it some of it.
138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,
138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.
138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
139.00A.020 Kept hot with strong extracts, no bodies last:
139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
140.00A.027 For, God no such specifque poyson hath
140.00A.029 Hath no antipathy, but may be good
140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
142.00A.024 No better then a sanguine Vertuous man.
142.00A.029 Religions find faults, and forgive no fall,
142.00A.038 To your soule, found there no infirmitie,
142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
145.00A.054 Were swallowed into it, and have no name.
145.00A.057 No more doe I wrong any; I adore
146.00A.013 As wee for him dead: though no familie
146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste
148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.
149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,
149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
150.00A.045 Both worke a separation, no divorce.
150.00A.074 Because the chaine is broke, but no linke lost.
151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee

152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him thus;
153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
153.00A.066 Which says, they have no parts, but simple bee;
153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,
153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
153.00A.224 His territory was no more then Hee?
153.00A.225 No, we were all his charge, the Diocis
153.00A.251 And though in no degree I can expresse,
155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
155.00a.053 In that confession; therefore spoke no more
155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,
155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
155.00a.271 He comes no more, but with a cousening line,
155.00a.299 Then solidnes, and roundnes haue no place.
155.00a.305 And, Oh, it can no more be questioned,
155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Bloud: no thing
155.00a.459 That no one should her prayses thus reherse,
156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.
156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,
156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
157.00b.146 No Accident could threaten any linke,
157.00b.169 Thinke that no stubborne sullen Anchorit,
157.00b.191 Shee carries no desire to know, nor sense,
157.00b.194 Whether shee past by such a place or no;
157.00b.203 Who finds in Mars his Campe, no corps of Guard;
157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,
157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
157.00b.340 Shall in the Angels songs no discord heare;
157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,

157.00b.423 No more affoord this world, foundatione
 157.00b.434 No loye enjoyes that man, that many makes.
 157.00b.450 As no chance could distract, much lesse destroy;
 157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,
 157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,
 158.00A.132 A place, where no place was; by natures course
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 158.00A.299 The fish I follow, and keepe no calender
 158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
 158.00A.339 Nearest; There's no pause at perfection.
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)
 158.00A.387 And foe to none, suspects no enemies,
 158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can 158.00A.025 no unreadnesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 170.00A.009 No, no; but as in my idolatrie
 170.00A.009 No, no; but as in my idolatrie
 171.00A.006 Labour to'admit you, but Oh, to no end,
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement grieffe hath beene
 179.NY3.008 On one, on Seauen, or on no hill appeare?
 181.00A.009 From mee, no Pulpit, nor misgrounded law,
 181.00A.013 Better were worse, for, no affliction
 181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse
 181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,
 184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 187.00A.011 With whom shee dwells, no place of rest afford,
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Usest no clemencie;

187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexen them againe.
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace
 189.00B.014 Onely the stampe is changed; but no more.
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,
 193.00A.018 I feare no more.

NO'ADULTERIE.....1

113.00A.008 Betroth'd to no'one Art, be no'adulterie;

NO'ONE.....1

113.00A.008 Betroth'd to no'one Art, be no'adulterie;

NOAHS.....1

 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,
 142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
 152.12a.092 Which hast the noble Conscience, Thou art Shee.
 189.00B.012 Of noble goods, and with lesse time and paine?
 189.00B.037 What function is so noble, as to bee

NOBLEST.....4

131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 155.00a.199 The noblest part, man, felt it first; and than
 155.00a.353 Sight is the noblest sense of any one,
 191.00B.011 The highest matter in the noblest forme;)

NOBLY.....1

048.00A.028 Let us love nobly, and live, and adde againe

NOD.....1

001.00A.020 Deigne with a nod, thy courtesie to answer.

NOE.....5

081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare
 081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke

NOISE.....3

031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,
 057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
 158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,

184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,

NONE.....112

001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne
 001.00A.102 Which understand none, he doth seeme to be
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 003.00A.064 Knowing some women whores, dares marry none.
 003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.
 003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,
 006.00D.010 That none can study it to any end.
 006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.
 008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,
 017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.
 017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,
 017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,
 018.00B.041 As Lots faire guests were vext. But none of these

024.00A.049 Hand to strange hand, lippe to lippe none denies;
 025.00A.016 Keepe it, for then 'tis none of mine.
 025.00A.023 That will none,
 029.00A.020 But from the roome, I carried none with mee;
 032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
 032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
 035.00A.026 Mad with much heart, then ideott with none.
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 043.00A.020 It was intire to none, and few had part.
 044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
 048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we'are Kings, and none but wee
 048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
 050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,
 051.00A.026 O perverse sexe, where none is true but shee,
 052.00A.052 Whose weaknesse none doth, or dares tell;
 055.00A.013 In thee and thine; none should forswear
 061.00A.020 His sonnes, which none of his may bee,
 063.00A.008 To cut it can finde none.
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
 068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 081.HH5.027 none could haue challenged the smallest parte
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 109.00A.011 (For, Fates, or Fortunes drifts none can Southsay,
 109.00A.042 Could none by his right name, but thunder call:
 109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
 136.00A.003 And creaturelesse at first, himselfe had none;
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,
 141.00A.046 And 'tis not none, to dare contemplate you,
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit

145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
148.00A.038 Expans'd in infinite, none will impaire;
149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
152.12a.066 With Causes, now to vs there can be none.
153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
153.00A.183 By law, to Triumphs none admitted bee,
153.00A.202 For which to Triumph, none admitted are;
154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
155.00a.065 The worlds infirmities, since there is none
155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
155.00a.246 The worlds infection, to be none of it.
155.00a.276 In Circle still, none ends where he begunne.
155.00a.387 Th'Ayre shoves such Meteors, as none can see,
157.00b.133 None can these lines or quantities vnioynt,
157.00b.289 Are mysteries which none haue reach'd vnto.
157.00b.496 Degrees of growth, but none of loosing it.
158.00A.010 And (holy writs excepted) made to yeeld to none.
158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
158.00A.233 Compare all whitenesse, but himselfe to none,
158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
158.00A.387 And foe to none, suspects no enemies,
158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,
158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
160.00A.038 Which fills all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,
180.NY3.008 As praying, as mute; as infinite, as none.
181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
181.00A.059 Be covetous of Crosses, let none fall.
184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
187.00A.006 Downe by her cheekes along, and none of all
187.00A.014 Mourne, because none come to her solemne dayes.
187.00A.022 Like Harts, which seeke for Pasture, and find none,
187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)
187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold
187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.
192.00B.012 For, though those currants yeeld returne to none,

192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are ways to them,

NONES.....1

004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men

NOONE.....8

004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,

030.00B.014 Except our loves at this noone stay,

030.00B.026 And his short minute, after noone, is night.

106.00A.056 Yet shadowes turne; Noone point he hath attain'd,

130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,

153.00A.026 As that Sunne rises to mee, midnight's noone,

155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.

158.00A.006 From infant morne, through manly noone I draw.

NOONE-RAY.....1

131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,

NOR.....246

001.00A.021 Nor come a velvet Justice with a long

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use

002.00B.074 Bastardy abounds not in Kings titles, nor

002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.

003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,

003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.

003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.

004.00A.005 My minde, neither with prides itch, nor yet hath been

004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,

004.00A.041 Mountbankes drugtongue, nor the termes of law

004.00A.172 Just such gay painted things, which no sappe, nor

005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they

006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.

006.00D.012 Nor poorely limited with head or foot.

006.00D.065 Nor shall wit-pirats hope to finde thee lye

008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,

008.00B.005 Nor for that silly old moralitie,

008.00B.008 Nor for the luck sake; but the bitter cost.

008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone

011.00A.019 Nor at his boord together being satt,

011.00A.020 With words, nor touch, scarce lookes adulterate.

011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare

011.00A.024 Nor kisse and play in his house, as before.

012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes

012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd

012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd

012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdain'd.
 013.00A.004 The mystique language of the eye nor hand:
 013.00A.005 Nor couldst thou judge the difference of the aire
 013.00A.007 Nor by the eyes water call a maladie
 013.00A.022 Inlaid thee, neither to be seene, nor see,
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
 017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade
 018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change
 018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
 018.00B.042 Nor spungy hydroptique Dutch shall thee displease,
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strays thus:
 020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
 024.00A.037 Nor needs perfection; why shouldst thou than 029.00A.026 Nor any place be empty quite,
 031.00A.006 No teare-floods, nor sigh-tempests move,
 036.00A.009 Love, all alike, no season knowes, nor clyme,
 036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
 041.00A.004 Nor can intreat one other teare to fall.
 042.00A.003 Nor in hope the world can show
 042.00A.011 He hath no desire nor sense,
 042.00A.012 Nor halfe so short a way:
 042.00A.020 Nor a lost hour recall?
 044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,
 045.00A.021 For, nor in nothing, nor in things
 045.00A.021 For, nor in nothing, nor in things
 048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 049.00A.013 As no one point, nor dash,
 050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,
 050.00A.021 Here, where still Evening is; not noone, nor night;
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
 053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
 053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.
 053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.
 060.00A.006 A sinne, nor shame nor losse of maidenhead,
 060.00A.006 A sinne, nor shame nor losse of maidenhead,

060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
 062.00A.056 Nor are drosse to us, but allay.
 064.00a.009 Nor he, in his young godhead practis'd it.
 065.00A.012 'Twas neither very sound, nor meant to mee;
 067.00A.002 Nor question much
 070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,
 071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 078.00D.007 Of new-toucht youth; nor Ring to shew the stands
 078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,
 078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
 078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
 078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
 080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 080.00E.011 Nor he that can for foul ones care,
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 080.00E.015 Nor a fool for when others,
 080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 081.HH5.002 betrothd nor by my sighes breathd into thee
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 081.HH5.042 of ill to thine; nor can falshood whett
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,
 107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,
 107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 112.00A.054 Upon the waters face; nor in the deepe
 112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
 114.00A.022 Worthy thy quill, nor any quill resound
 120.00A.006 No blott nor maime by this division,
 122.00A.003 Never did Morpheus nor his brother weare
 124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,
 127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
 128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
 128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.

129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her
131.00B.022 A sighing Ode, nor crosse-arm'd Elegie.
133.00A.050 Nor to make my selfe her familiar;
134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.
136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
136.00A.036 They fly not from that, nor seeke presidence.
136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
136.00A.039 Not banish it selfe, nor religion.
136.00A.043 Nor may we hope to sodder still and knit
136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.
138.00A.074 Neither beleeve her good, nor others ill,
139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
139.00A.007 Debtor to th'old, nor Creditor to th'new,
139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.
142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,
145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I
148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste
149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.
152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:
152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
153.00A.044 Nor can endure a contemplation;
153.00A.094 On every syllable, nor stay to spell,
155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
155.00a.096 That children come not right, nor orderly,
155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
155.00a.377 Nor in ought more this worlds decay appeares,
155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell
155.00a.469 Nor could incomprehensiblenesse deterre
156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
156.00a.081 For though she could not, nor could chuse to die,
157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;
157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.
157.00b.191 Shee carries no desire to know, nor sense,
157.00b.195 Shee baits not at the Moone, nor cares to trie,

157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;
 157.00b.204 Nor is by loue, nor by his father bard;
 157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
 157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.
 157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
 157.00b.297 Nor heare through Laberinth of eares, nor learne
 157.00b.297 Nor heare through Laberinth of eares, nor learne
 157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
 157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
 157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuier keep the name)
 157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow
 157.00b.420 Nor furnish forth Materials enow;
 157.00b.444 Can suffer Diminution, nor wee;
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 158.00A.021 Nor holy lanus in whose soveraigne boate
 158.00A.036 Ne'r smiles nor frownes, O vouch-safe thou to looke
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
 158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
 158.00A.197 Nor doth she pule for his inconstancie
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 158.00A.213 How to make bird-lime, nor how to deceive
 158.00A.217 Askt not of rootes, nor of cock-sparrows, leave:
 158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.
 158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
 158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,
 158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
 158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;
 158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake
 158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not throughly arm'd
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.377 Nor enjoy ought, doe farre more hate the great
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,
 158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so
 158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright
 158.00A.518 Ther's nothing simply good, nor ill alone,
 158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare

160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,
 160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
 160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.
 160.00A.091 Nor doth hee by ascending, show alone,
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,
 169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,
 171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.
 181.00A.009 From mee, no Pulpit, nor misgrounded law,
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.
 184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,
 184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there
 187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.
 187.00A.372 Nor honours gave they to the Elders face.
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,
 188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 188.00E.008 Nor thy word, ever mild, know quarrelling.
 188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,
 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;
 190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,
 190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,

NORTH.....5

003.00A.022 Of frozen North discoueries, and thrise
 032.00A.018 Without sharpe North, without declining West?
 108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.
 127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
 127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,

NORTHERN.....1

157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,

NORTHERNE.....2

108.00A.114 Ether unto the Northerne Pole impart
 131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde

NOSE.....4

006.00D.020 To be far greater than the mother nose?

009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;

010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.

020.00G.047 The Nose (like to the sweet Meridian) runs

NOSE-BORNE.....1

006.00D.019 A prosperous nose-borne wenne, which sometimes growes

NOSTRA.....1

NOSTRAE.....1

186.00E.002 Signare, (haec nostrae symbola parva Domus)

NOSTRILS.....1

187.00A.337 20 The annoited Lord, breath of our nostrils, hee

NOT.....721

001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,

001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way

001.00A.019 Not though a briske perfum'd piert Courtier

001.00A.037 Why should'st thou that dost not onely approve,

001.00A.076 Of some gay sport abroad, yet dare not goe.

001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truely I doe;

001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side

001.00A.104 So is the Poxe; He answered not, but spy'd

002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?

002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not

002.00B.074 Bastardy abounds not in Kings titles, nor

002.00A.080 Satan will not joy at their sinnes, as hee.

002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.

003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,

003.00A.005 Is not our Mistresse faire Religion,

003.00A.008 Are not heavens joyes as valiant to asswage

003.00A.027 Which cries not, Goddess, to thy Mistresse, draw,

003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow

003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be inthrall'd,

003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.

003.00A.078 To stand inquiring right, is not to stray;

003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand

003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed

003.00A.098 Is not this excuse for mere contraries,

004.00A.067 You would leave lonelinesse; I said, not alone

004.00A.069 To teach by painting drunkards, doth not last

004.00A.083 Are not your Frenchmen neate? Fine, as you see,

004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
 004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch
 004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 004.00A.161 Becomes the guiltie, not the accuser; Then,
 004.00A.186 (For themselves dare not goe) o'r Cheapside books,
 004.00A.197 Would not Heraclitus laugh to see Macrine,
 004.00A.201 Making them confesse not only mortall
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.223 He cares not, His ill words doe no harme
 005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 005.00A.063 Scarce to Kings; so'tis, would it not anger
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
 008.00B.020 And punisht for offences not their owne?
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.023 Were they but Crownes of France, I cared not,
 008.00B.047 I would not spit to quench the fire they'are in,
 009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,
 009.00A.045 Doth not thy fearefull hand in feeling quake,
 009.00A.047 Is not your last act harsh, and violent,
 010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,
 010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly,'and frolicke bee,
 011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitterness beget
 013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand
 013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet
 013.00A.020 Thou art not by so many duties his,
 014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
 014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 014.NY3.043 Shall spring. Thousands we see which trauaile not
 014.NY3.045 To make at home; And shall not I do then
 015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:
 016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.
 016.00A.015 They'are our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 016.00A.027 And soe not teach, but force my'opinion
 016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
 017.00A.014 Be muske and amber in it, but not where.
 017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,

017.00A.026 Account her wonderfull, why not lovely too?
018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;
018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change
018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
020.00G.001 Who ever loves, if he do not propose
020.00G.007 Were not a Calf a monster that were grown
020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
020.00G.024 Make love to woman; virtue is not she:
020.00G.028 And firmament, our Cupid is not there:
020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:
020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;
020.00G.052 Not faint Canaries, but Ambrosiall.
020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)
020.00G.076 Lovely enough to stop, but not stay at:
020.00G.095 He which doth not, his error is as great,
021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
021.00G.039 Was't not enough, that thou didst hazard us
021.00G.044 Yet went we not still on in Constancie?
021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaime,
021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide
021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,
021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
021.00G.081 The Winter I'll not think on to spite thee,
022.00A.006 Or your perfection, not to study truth?
022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pittie;
022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;
022.00A.058 Delight, not in made worke, but whiles they make;
022.00A.069 And ought not be prophan'd on either part,
024.00A.006 Why quench'd they not as well, that of desire?
024.00A.021 Thou art not soft, and cleare, and strait, and faire,
024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?
027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,
029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
029.00A.017 If 'twere not so, what did become
029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.
030.00B.012 That love hath not attain'd the high'st degree,
031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,
031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;

032.00A.019 What ever dyes, was not mixt equally;
 033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
 033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
 034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
 036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
 036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,
 037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
 037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,
 040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
 040.00A.005 If she would not deny?
 040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,
 041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
 041.00A.019 For, this love was not vowed by thee,
 041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
 041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
 042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,
 042.00A.013 Then feare not mee,
 042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
 042.00A.033 Let not thy divining heart
 043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
 043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,
 043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,
 044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
 044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
 044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 046.00A.016 Admit, but not the busied man.
 047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast
 047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
 047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
 050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,
 050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.018 He doth not digge a Grave, but build a Tombe.
 050.00A.021 Here, where still Evening is; not noone, nor night;
 050.00A.037 But name not Winter-faces, whose skin's slacke;
 050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
 050.00A.044 For these, not Ancient, but Antique be;
 050.00A.049 Not panting after growing beauties, so,

051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace
051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
052.00A.008 And her, through whose helpe Lucan is not lame,
052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,
053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
053.00A.024 Who doth not fling away the shell?
054.00A.008 With more, not onely bee no quintessence,
054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use
054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,
054.00A.027 New taxes, and remit them not in peace,
055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
055.00A.025 Enforce them, by warres law condition not.
055.00A.027 I may not article for grace,
055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
056.00A.016 And not to seeke new lands, or not to deale withall?
056.00A.016 And not to seeke new lands, or not to deale withall?
056.00A.019 Good is not good, unlesse
057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,
057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.
057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
057.00A.019 I must confesse, it could not chuse but bee
057.00A.023 Thou art not thou.
057.00A.025 'Tis not all spirit, pure, and brave,
058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,
058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbear
058.00A.023 Let not the winde
059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;
059.00A.019 'Tis not the bodies marry, but the mindes,
059.00A.023 Hope not for minde in women; at their best,
060.00A.017 Let not to that, selfe murder added bee,
060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not
062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
062.00A.031 Wee see by this, it was not sexe
062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:
062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,
062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
062.00A.057 On man heavens influence workes not so,
064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
064.00a.020 To ungod this child againe, it could not bee
064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
065.00A.007 Above one sigh a day I'allow'd him not,

065.00A.014 With scorne or shame, that him it nourish'd not;
 065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
 065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
 067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
 067.00A.004 The mystery, the signe you must not touch,
 068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,
 069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower
 069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;
 069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
 070.00A.007 Will he not let'us alone,
 070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,
 070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales
 071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
 072.00A.008 And nourish not, but smother.
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 073.00A.005 Marriage rings are not of this stuffe;
 074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
 074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
 079.00B.013 Is not lesse cared for after three dayes
 079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
 081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause
 081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine
 082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no grieffe nor shame,
 106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;
 106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
 106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
 106.00A.077 T'adorne the day, not thee; for thou, alone,
 107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
 107.00A.048 Falls not on such things as are infinite,
 107.00A.069 Alas, did not Antiquity assigne
 107.00A.078 As Soules from bodies steale, and are not spy'd.
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 108.00A.016 The Sunne staves longer up; and yet not his

108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.045 Not onely in fulnesse, but capacitie,
 108.00A.055 I am not then from the Court.
 108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
 108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
 108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
 108.00A.121 The bridegroome is a maid, and not a man,
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.
 108.00A.191 The masks and banquets will not yet impart
 108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
 108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 108.00A.229 For, in burnt incense, the perfume is not
 109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
 109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.
 110.00A.022 But meteorlike, save that wee move not, hover.
 110.00A.028 Where walkers in hot Ovens, doe not dye.
 110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 112.00A.026 Gain'd, as habits, not borne, is understood.
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee
 112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe
 112.00A.060 Courts hot ambitions wholesome, do not take
 112.00A.061 A dramme of Countries dulnesse; do not adde
 112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
 113.00A.018 Want, which want not Vice-covering discretion.
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne
 119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:
 119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.
 121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee
 122.00A.028 Is not Almightye Vertue'an India?
 124.00A.005 Disdaine not in thy constant travailing
 124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 125.00A.007 You doe not duties of Societies,
 126.00A.001 Is not thy sacred hunger of science
 126.00A.002 Yet satisfy'd? Is not thy braines rich hive

126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.
128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld
128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare
129.00A.021 To swaere much love, not to be chang'd before
130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her
130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.
130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch
131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)
131.00B.007 As yet the newes could not arrived bee
131.00B.023 I come not to call pittie from your heart,
131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.
131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;
131.00B.062 And journeys not till it finde summer-way.
131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.
131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.
131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne
133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne
133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.
133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,
133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
134.00A.007 So would I, not to encrease, but to expresse
134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.
134.00A.023 If'twere not injur'd by extrinsique blowes;
134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee, 'I would not misse you there
136.00A.009 And but direct our honour, not bestow.
136.00A.013 Care not then, Madame, 'how low your prayes lye;
136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
136.00A.036 They fly not from that, nor seeke presidence.
136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,

136.00A.039 Not banish it selfe, nor religion.
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 137.00A.003 Rarenesse, or use, not nature value brings;
 137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime
 137.00A.024 That suffer not an artificiall day.
 137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 137.00A.033 These are Petitions, and not Hymnes; they sue
 137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
 137.00A.044 You as you're vertues temple, not as shee,
 137.00A.049 Yet not as consecrate, but merely'as faire;
 137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse
 138.00A.007 But 'tis not soe, nothing, as I am, may,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 138.00A.013 Temples were not demolish'd, though prophane:
 138.00A.028 Is knowne to any other, not to you.
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 138.00A.055 These not ingrav'd, but inborne dignities
 138.00A.058 Soules but preserv'd, not naturally free;
 138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity
 138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
 139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
 139.00A.006 I summe the yeares, and mee, and finde mee not
 139.00A.030 And not an inch, measure infinity.
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,
 139.00A.047 With pleasure, and delight may not ingresse,
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 139.00A.050 By using others, not vice, but weakenesse.
 139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
 139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
 139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
 139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule
 140.00A.011 Empail'd himselfe to keepe them out, not in;
 140.00A.014 And is not Asse himselfe to all the rest.
 140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,
 140.00A.028 As kills we know not how; his fiercest wrath
 140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all
 141.00A.003 Canons will not Church functions you invade,
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men
 141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.

141.00A.030 'Tis not as woman, for all are not soe,
 141.00A.030 'Tis not as woman, for all are not soe,
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 141.00A.046 And 'tis not none, to dare contemplate you,
 141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood
 141.00A.057 And if I flatter any, 'tis not you
 141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 142.00A.008 As not to tell it; If this be too bold,
 142.00A.015 They're your materials, not your ornament.
 142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
 142.00A.021 'Tis but his flegme that's Vertuous, and not Hee:
 142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,
 142.00A.060 From either, but by the other not to stray.
 143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
 143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 143.00A.025 By studying copies, not Originals,
 145.00A.038 Of others; call not that Idolatrie.
 145.00A.046 And not be chid for praising yesterday:
 145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
 145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
 145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
 145.00A.078 Not those, by which Angels are seene and see;
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;
 148.00A.019 For, such a friendship who would not adore
 148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,
 148.00A.041 Seeke not in seeking new, to seeme to doubt,
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 149.00A.059 How Morall, how Divine shall not be told,
 150.00A.011 Now wantonly he spoiles, and eates us not,
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.
 150.00A.041 As houses fall not, though the King remove,
 150.00A.065 Or sinne, by tempting, or, not daring that,
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
 151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
 151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
 151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
 151.00A.015 Was't not enough to have that palace wonne,
 151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;

151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 151.00A.046 Religion, did not consume, but'inspire
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 152.12a.024 That Wee see not what to beleuee or knowe?
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that Hee ,
 152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake
 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that Hee would make
 152.12a.048 And will not lett's enioy our Curse , to Dye ?
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 152.12a.082 W'haue double Excuse; Hee is not dead , Wee are.
 152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.045 As bodies change, and as I do not weare
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 153.00A.093 Just as a perfect reader doth not dwell,
 153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 153.00A.136 Either beates not, or beates unevenly,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 153.00A.140 Or be not set, or set at every will;
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.157 To this, not miracle, but Prodigie,
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
 153.00A.206 Must be enlarg'd, and not preserv'd alone;
 153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
 153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 154.00A.024 Not to lesse houses, but, to heapes of stone;
 154.00A.031 And if, faire soule, not with first Innocents
 155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
 155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.096 That children come not right, nor orderly,
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.140 That met him, would not hastily assaile
 155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;
 155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;
 155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,
 155.00a.187 And that except thou feed (not banquet) on

155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sicknesse doth not lie
155.00a.244 Of the whole substance, not to be contrould.
155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
155.00a.286 Doth not a Tenarif, or higher Hill
155.00a.329 And that, not onely faults in inward parts,
155.00a.333 Be not done fitly'nd in proportion,
155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,
155.00a.351 And then, as though she could not make inow,
155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
155.00a.379 Or that the Elements doe not feele this,
155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre
155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre
155.00a.383 Th'Ayre doth not motherly sit on the earth,
155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,
155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:
155.00a.409 But as some Serpents poison hurteth not,
155.00a.417 Who, though she could not transubstantiate
155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read
155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
155.00a.460 As matter fit for Chronicle, not verse,
155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.
156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie
156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
156.00a.039 Not to be lost, but by the makers hand
156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
156.00a.076 For mariage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.
156.00a.081 For though she could not, nor could chuse to die,
156.00a.083 He which not knowing her sad History,
156.00a.086 Much promis'd, much perform'd, at not fiteene,
156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee
157.00b.039 And so, though not Reuiue, embalme, and spice
157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.
157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;
157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;
157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.

157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 157.00b.112 Which they from God, and Angels couer not.
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,
 157.00b.193 For th'Element of fire, shee doth not know,
 157.00b.195 Shee baits not at the Moone, nor cares to trie,
 157.00b.197 Venus retards her not, to'enquire, how shee
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
 157.00b.296 Thou shalt not peepe through lattices of eies,
 157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.
 157.00b.315 Shee, shee, not satisfied with all this waite,
 157.00b.321 Returne not, my soule, from this extasee,
 157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spungy slack Diuine
 157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
 157.00b.342 loy in not being that, which men haue said.
 157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.405 Honor on him; not that he needed it,
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,
 157.00b.440 All will not serue; Onely who haue enioyd
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 157.00b.500 There where the stufte is not such as the rest)
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can
 158.00A.107 Who sinn'd? t'was not forbidden to the snake
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.119 As wrastlers, perfects them; Not liberties
 158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.

158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not
158.00A.211 Else might he long have liv'd; man did not know
158.00A.217 Askt not of rootes, nor of cock-sparrows, leave:
158.00A.245 Fate not affording bodies of more worth
158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought
158.00A.268 Cares not, but safe the Place she's come unto
158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two 158.00A.274 For game and not for hunger a sea Pie
158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,
158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake
158.00A.293 The fish; he cares not, for with ease he flies,
158.00A.321 He hunts not fish, but as an officer,
158.00A.328 O might not states of more equality
158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not throughly arm'd
158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,
158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie
158.00A.397 To kill, not scape, for, only hee that ment
158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.
158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,
158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,
158.00A.425 Her faith is quite, but not her love forgot.
158.00A.432 But in the lives of Emperours you shall not
158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,
158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;
158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,
158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry
158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same
158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
160.00A.005 But doe not, with a vile crowne of fraile bayes,
160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,
160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,

160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
167.00A.002 Mighty and dreadful, for, thou art not soe,
167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
168.00A.005 But by my death can not be satisfied
169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,
174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,
174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
177.00B.007 Apparent in us not immediately,
178.NY3.011 And dost not only feare least I allow
180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not
180.NY3.009 I durst not view heauen yesterday; & to day
181.00A.011 It shall not, for it cannot; for, the losse
181.00A.033 As perchance, Carvers do not faces make:
181.00A.036 And be his image, or not his, but hee.
182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell
182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose
182.00A.022 If, not of any man, yet of the whole.
183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;
183.00A.017 Not fully a mother, Shee's in Orbitie,
183.00A.028 (Because it straves not farre) doth never stray;
184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
184.00A.062 Let not my minde be blinder by more light
184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;
184.00A.071 That I by them excuse not my excesse
184.00A.075 From whom whosoever do not take
184.00A.090 Not to be martyrs, is a martyrdom.
184.00A.093 Whose bloods betroth'd, not marryed were;
184.00A.094 Tender'd not taken by those Ravishers:
184.00A.104 Though they have not obtain'd of thee,
184.00A.115 Or mis-said, wee to that may not adhere,
184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.
184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,
184.00A.204 We know not what to say.
184.00A.213 Not threats in Thunder may
184.00A.219 That wee by harkning, not procure
184.00A.221 That wee get not a slipperinesse,
184.00A.241 On Natures nothing, be not nothing too,
184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
184.00A.249 Which could not stick to thee,
184.00A.250 O let it not returne to us againe,
185.00A.015 Yet dare I almost be glad, I do not see

185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
 187.00A.034 Remembred not her end; Miraculously
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
 187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.119 He drawes not back his hand; which doth oreturne
 187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,
 187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe
 187.00A.179 2 He hath led mee to darknesse, not to light,
 187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we're not utterly
 187.00A.208 Consum'd, for his compassions do not die;
 187.00A.223 31 For, not for ever doth the Lord forsake,
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allowes not this:
 187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Usest no clemencie;
 187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;
 187.00A.320 Depart, depart, and touch us not, and then
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they
 187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.
 187.00A.358 They make us travaile, and not intermit,
 189.00B.004 Not an impediment, but victory;
 189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,

NOTAGAINST.....1

NOTHING.....66

004.00A.119 He like a priviledg'd spie, whom nothing can
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,
 017.00A.031 Like to good Angels, nothing can impaire:
 018.00B.027 Dissemble nothing, not a boy, nor change
 020.00G.003 To sea for nothing but to make him sick:
 029.00A.025 Yet nothing can to nothing fall,
 029.00A.025 Yet nothing can to nothing fall,
 035.00A.018 And, but the waking, nothing shall repent;
 036.00A.022 Nothing else is.
 045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,
 045.00A.008 Takes limmes of flesh, and else could nothing doe,
 045.00A.021 For, nor in nothing, nor in things
 047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,
 057.00A.001 Deare love, for nothing lesse then thee
 058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
 058.00A.013 And quickly make that, which was nothing, All,
 061.00A.021 Inherite nothing but his infamie:
 062.00A.020 And wee said nothing, all the day.
 073.00A.004 Nothing more endlesse, nothing sooner broke?
 073.00A.004 Nothing more endlesse, nothing sooner broke?
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 082.00A.022 Of all, that's nothing. Oft a flood
 082.00A.029 Of the first nothing, the Elixer grown;
 082.00A.035 If I an ordinary nothing were,
 096.00A.003 Like Esops selfe, which nothing; I confesse
 106.00A.023 So may shee faire and rich, in nothing lame,
 107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
 107.00A.088 They unto one another nothing owe,
 108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;
 108.00A.179 Nature and grace doe all, and nothing Art,
 109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
 110.00A.002 A stupid calme, but nothing it, doth swage.
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;
 112.00A.004 I could ideate nothing, which could please,
 121.NY3.011 Nothing wherat to laugh my spleene espyes

129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 131.00B.015 Must either mist, or nothing seeme to be,
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 131.00B.044 An unripe willingnesse which nothing did,
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 149.00A.013 Nothing but man of all invenom'd things
 150.00A.025 How could I thinke thee nothing, that see now
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 152.12a.017 And nothing euer came so neer to This,
 155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
 155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,
 155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:
 155.00a.328 That here is nothing to enamor thee:
 156.00a.032 He can finde nothing, after her, to kill,
 157.00b.001 Nothing could make mee sooner to confesse
 158.00A.518 Ther's nothing simply good, nor ill alone,
 181.00A.023 All the Globes frame, and speares, is nothing else
 181.00A.048 Make them indifferent; call nothing best.
 183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;
 184.00A.241 On Natures nothing, be not nothing too,
 184.00A.241 On Natures nothing, be not nothing too,
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.

NOTHINGNESSE.....1

082.00A.015 A quintessence even from nothingnesse,

001.00A.047 And in this course attire, which I now weare
 001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all
 001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see
 002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.
 002.00A.019 Rammes, and slings now are seely battery,
 002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke
 002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke
 002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 003.00A.085 To will, implies delay, therefore now doe
 004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 004.00A.070 Now; Aretines pictures have made few chast;
 004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg
 004.00A.120 Discredit, Libells now 'gainst each great man.
 004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring
 004.00A.177 Had all the morning held, now the second
 004.00A.187 Shall finde their wardrops Inventory; Now,
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 005.00A.015 Springs; now full, now shallow, now drye; which, to
 005.00A.015 Springs; now full, now shallow, now drye; which, to
 005.00A.015 Springs; now full, now shallow, now drye; which, to
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 005.00A.033 For service paid, authorized, now beginne
 005.00A.037 The iron Age that was, when justice was sold, now
 005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.
 006.00D.023 Mount now to Gallo-belgicus; appear

008.00B.074 Necessities; but now must nurse thy pride,
 011.00A.025 Now I see many dangers; for it is
 014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;
 014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 015.00G.017 Now off with those shooes, and then softly tread
 019.00A.003 'Tis like me now, but I dead, 'twill be more
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 020.00G.084 Now at the Papal foot delights to be:
 021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
 021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?
 022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;
 025.00A.024 Or prove as false as thou art now.
 026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 029.00A.029 And now as broken glasses show
 030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just about our head,
 030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.
 031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.
 032.00A.008 And now good morrow to our waking soules,
 034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
 034.00A.004 Or say that now
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
 039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
 045.00A.012 I bid Love aske, and now
 048.00A.004 Is elder by a yeare, now, then it was
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 050.00A.008 But now they're gold oft tried, and ever new.
 052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
 054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.
 055.00A.008 I aske no dispensation now
 057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
 060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
 063.00A.005 It were but madnes now t'impart
 063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
 064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend
 065.00A.027 Now negligent of sports I lye,
 065.00A.028 And now as other Fawknars use,
 068.00A.005 And now dost laugh and triumph on this bough,
 070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,

072.00A.016 Now as those Active Kings
 077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
 081.HH5.033 & must it now be an Iniurious lott
 082.00A.003 The Sunne is spent, and now his flasks
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
 106.00A.073 Thy virgins girdle now untie,
 106.00A.075 A pleasing sacrifice; now dispossesse
 106.00A.081 Till now thou wast but able
 106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
 106.00A.091 Now sleep or watch with more joy; and O light
 107.00A.015 Till now, Thou warmd'st with multiplying loves
 107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
 107.00A.103 Rest now at last, and wee
 108.00A.089 Hee is admitted now into that brest
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,
 108.00A.167 And now the Militant doth strive no more,
 108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,
 109.00A.032 Hath now a stormes, anon a tempests name.
 109.00A.040 If'the world had lasted, now it had beene day.
 110.00A.004 A blocke afflicts, now, then a storke before.
 110.00A.009 The sea is now. And, as the lles which wee
 110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out
 110.00A.015 The fighting place now seamens ragges supply;
 110.00A.035 Languish our ships. Now, as a Miriade
 110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 111.00A.025 But now 'tis incongruity to smile,
 113.00A.003 So'affects my muse now, a chast fallownesse.
 114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 121.NY3.007 Now pleasures dirth our City doth posses
 121.NY3.014 Pleasure, now fled from London, to retrieve.
 123.NY3.008 In skorne of all: for now I admyre thee.
 126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
 129.00A.015 Which thicken on you now, as prayers ascend
 129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 130.00A.038 Of God, love him as now, but feare him more,
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 131.00B.019 And now must pittie them; for, as they doe
 131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
 133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
 135.B13.001 Since eu'ry Tree beginns to blossome now
 137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see

137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe
 139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,
 140.00A.007 And now his beasts on one another feed,
 140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,
 141.00A.024 But now amass'd, contracted in a few.
 141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
 141.00A.070 And now your Chaplaine, God in you to praise.
 145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
 145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 145.00A.058 The same things now, which I ador'd before,
 145.00A.063 Of faire, great, good, but more, now I am come
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,
 147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now
 149.00A.035 So, unobnoxious now, she'hath buried both;
 150.00A.007 In a rude hunger now hee millions drawes
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
 150.00A.011 Now wantonly he spoiles, and eates us not,
 150.00A.025 How could I thinke thee nothing, that see now
 150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne
 151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;
 151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,
 151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 151.00A.044 Wee'had had a Saint, have now a holiday;
 151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that Hee ,
 152.12a.039 For, to confirm this iust Belief, that Now
 152.12a.046 Of Plagues on vs? and only now, when more
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 152.12a.066 With Causes , now to vs there can be none.
 152.12a.077 But, now, for vs with busie Proofs to come
 153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare
 153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;
 153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:

153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
154.00A.029 For, as in his fame, now, his soule is here,
154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,
155.00a.010 Shee's now a part both of the Quire, and Song,
155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
155.00a.047 So mankind feeling now a generall thaw,
155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,
155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.
155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
155.00a.141 A thing so equall to him: now alas,
155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:
155.00a.203 And now the Springs and Sommers which we see,
155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now
155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now
155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.
155.00a.280 Vpon the Heauens, and now they are his owne.
155.00a.307 Since euen grieffe it selfe, which now alone
155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.
155.00a.374 Tis now but wicked vanity to thinke,
155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
155.00a.434 Of which shee's now partaker, and a part.
156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpon
156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
157.00b.021 So strugles this dead world, now shee is gone;
157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.
157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.
157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
157.00b.180 Thou hast thy'expansion now and libertee;
157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
157.00b.266 And now they thinke of new ingredients.
157.00b.347 Vp to those Prophets, which now gladly see
157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.
157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
157.00b.462 Betrothed to God, and now is married there,
158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,

158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 158.00A.084 Till the then climbing serpent, that now creeps
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 158.00A.164 Her sinne had now brought in infirmitie,
 158.00A.182 On whose raw armes stiffe feathers now begin,
 158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not
 158.00A.206 That selfe preserving it hath now forgot,
 158.00A.241 Now swome a prison in a prison put,
 158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
 158.00A.256 As now, with curious greedinesse to let
 158.00A.296 That leagues o'er-past at sea, now tir'd hee lyes,
 158.00A.331 Now drinks he up seas, and he eates up flocks,
 158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,
 158.00A.338 'Tis greatest now, and to destruction
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,
 158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show
 158.00A.371 This Soule, now free from prison, and passion,
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,
 158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
 158.00A.487 Now cries, and now repents; when Tethelemite
 158.00A.487 Now cries, and now repents; when Tethelemite
 158.00A.493 Adam and Eve had mingled bloods, and now
 158.00A.506 And now they joyn'd: keeping some quality
 158.00A.509 To be a woman. Themech she is now,
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 160.00A.011 The first last end, now zealously possest,
 160.00A.025 Whom thou conceiv'st, conceiv'd; yea thou art now
 160.00A.030 Now leaves his welbelov'd imprisonment,
 160.00A.032 Weake enough, now into our world to come;
 160.00A.063 Whose creature Fate is, now prescribe a Fate,
 160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,
 160.00A.072 Shall (though she now be in extreme degree
 163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned
 168.00A.008 Crucifie him daily, being now glorified;
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,
 179.NY3.006 Is She selfe truth & errs? now new, now' outwore?
 182.00A.009 Whose body having walk'd on earth, and now
 184.00A.004 And re-create mee, now growne ruinous:
 184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee
 184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?
 187.00A.008 Her friends have dealt, and now are enemie.

187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.025 7 Now in their daies of Teares, Jerusalem
 187.00A.063 To comfort mee, is now departed farre,
 187.00A.152 Expected, and which now we finde, and see.
 187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
 187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,
 187.00A.275 Low rated now, as earthen Pitchers, stand,
 187.00A.286 Now in the streets forlorne have perished,
 187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
 187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,
 187.00A.332 To goe: our end is now approached neere,
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe
 189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now
 189.00B.054 And make thee now a blest Hermaphrodite.
 190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,
 190.00A.018 Art jealous, Lord, so I am jealous now,
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

O'RTHROWNE.....1

187.00A.051 A net before my feet, and mee o'rthrowne,

OARES.....2

019.00A.006 Perhaps with rude oares torne, or Sun beams tann'd,
 158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,

OATH.....1

025.00A.015 Word and oath,

OATHES.....10

010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd
 018.00B.009 I conjure thee, and all the oathes which I

022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
 034.00A.006 Or, that oathes made in reverentiall feare
 041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
 041.00A.017 In sighs, in oathes, and letters outbid mee,
 048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still

OBEY.....3

003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey
 003.00A.100 That thou mayest rightly obey power, her bounds know;
 185.00A.006 Scarce in a yeare their naturall forme obey:

OBEYES.....1

138.00A.049 Good seed degenerates, and oft obeyses

OBIECT.....1

157.00b.442 For it is both the obiect, and the wit.

OBIECTS.....2

155.00a.316 As to our eyes, the formes from obiects flow:
 157.00b.217 As colours are, and obiects, in a roome

OBJECT.....1

153.00A.030 My selfe, the hardest object of the sight.

OBJECTS.....4

035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;
 181.00A.045 For if the'eye seeke good objects, and will take
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;

OBLIQUELY.....1

031.00A.034 Like th'other foot, obliquely runne.

OBNOXIOUS.....1

157.00b.163 Thinke but how poore thou wast, how obnoxious,

OBSCURE.....1

052.00A.006 Sybills glory, and obscure

OBSCURENESS.....1

021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,

OBSEQUIES.....1

158.00A.365 That they revenge, and obsequies forget,

OBSERU'D.....2

155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euery sort of men

155.00a.254 Obseru'd in diuers ages doth enforce

OBSERUATION.....1

OFF.....17

015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,

015.00G.011 Off with that happy busk, which I envie,

015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,

015.00G.015 Off with that wyerie Coronet and shew

015.00G.017 Now off with those shooes, and then softly tread

033.00A.006 Or to keep off envies stinging,

052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;

075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,

110.00A.034 Or like slacke sinew'd Sampson, his haire off,

131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.

131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.

134.00A.028 Keepest off, or cures what can be done or said.

141.00A.044 And as a vertuous Prince farre off, to mee.

150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.

185.00A.040 Burne off my rusts, and my deformity,

187.00A.098 Hath cleane cut off, and lest theemie

187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,

OFF-SCOURING.....1

187.00A.242 As refuse, and off-scouring to them all.

OFFENCE.....4

001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence

002.00A.040 Of Coscus onely breeds my just offence,

139.00A.058 And though to scape, then to revenge offence
 158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,

OFFENCES.....2

008.00B.020 And punisht for offences not their owne?
 189.00B.050 In whom must meet Gods graces, mens offences,

OFFEND.....1

158.00A.384 But to be just, and thankfull, loth to offend,

OFFENDST.....1

OFFICE.....8

004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 047.00A.018 So, these extreames shall ne'r their office doe;
 064.00a.011 His office was indulgently to fit
 075.00A.010 And a just office on a murderer doe.
 138.00A.044 As hands of double office: For, the ground
 138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.
 141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.
 155.00a.468 Me this great Office boldly to inuade.

OFFICER.....4

005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee
 047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
 158.00A.321 He hunts not fish, but as an officer,

OFFICERS.....7

004.00A.125 As the last day; And that great officers,
 005.00A.008 Who Officers rage, and Suiters misery
 005.00A.013 Then man is a world; in which, Officers,
 005.00A.017 Prove the world a man, in which, officers

005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 156.00a.025 The Officers for hands, Merchants for feet
 157.00b.372 Satans rude Officers could nere arrest.

OFFICES.....7

004.00A.102 Hast to an Offices reversion;
 004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are
 036.00A.008 Call countrey ants to harvest offices,
 109.00A.036 All offices of death, except to kill.
 137.00A.027 To doe profane autumnall offices,
 157.00b.238 To Functions, Offices, and Dignities,
 184.00A.214 Awaken us to our just offices,

OFFICIO.....1

196.015.032 OFFICIO, ERGA DEFVNCTVM PIE, PIE FVNCTA,

OFFICIOUS.....1

022.00A.064 Of being officious, be impertinent;

OFFRING.....1

178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offring all thine:

OFT.....29

008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,
 008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,
 010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
 017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say
 017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businesse, absent oft must bee,
 021.00G.102 That, oft suspected which men most perswade;
 045.00A.004 Angells affect us oft, and worship'd bee,
 048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;
 050.00A.008 But now they're gold oft tried, and ever new.
 082.00A.022 Of all, that's nothing. Oft a flood
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 136.00A.014 In labourers balads oft more piety
 137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,
 138.00A.049 Good seed degenerates, and oft obeyes
 139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,
 141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,

155.00a.356 Duskie, and like an oft dyed garment showes.
 155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net
 181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchimists doe coyners prove,

OFT-TIMES.....1

015.00G.003 The foe oft-times having the foe in sight,

OFTEN.....13

004.00A.215 And whisperd by Jesu, so often, that A
 012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne
 021.00G.051 Of becks, winks, looks, and often under-boards
 022.00A.063 Aske how you did, and often with intent
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 043.00A.002 As often as from thee I goe,
 049.00A.066 For dying men talke often so.
 081.HH5.030 As Angells are how often to that end
 082.00A.026 Care to ought else; and often absences
 108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know
 158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so
 158.00A.412 Great men have often taken, to espie
 184.00A.228 Our vices often aggravate,

OH.....67

001.00A.027 Oh monstrous, superstitious puritan,
 001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]
 001.00A.085 That dances so divinely; Oh, said I,
 001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 005.00A.068 And lack a fee for comming; Oh, ne'r may
 006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive
 010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 012.00A.037 My minde to scorne; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 013.00A.002 And in that sophistrie, Oh, thou dost prove
 013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee
 018.00B.051 With midnights startings, crying out, oh, oh
 018.00B.051 With midnights startings, crying out, oh, oh
 019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,
 021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
 021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaime,
 024.00A.026 As thou, wast, art, and, oh, maist be ever.
 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet

024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
 030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
 046.00A.014 Oh, that's the worst disease of love,
 059.00A.006 Oh, 'tis imposture all:
 060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,
 064.00a.019 Oh were wee wak'ned by this Tyrannie
 073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough
 073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare
 107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
 108.00A.171 Blest payre of Swans, Oh may you interbring
 112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
 114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,
 146.00A.023 His children are his pictures, Oh they bee
 150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.089 Oh! May I (since I liue) but see or hear
 155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!
 155.00a.305 And, Oh, it can no more be questioned,
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
 162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
 163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned
 163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,
 166.00A.010 O God, Oh! of thine onely worthy blood,
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 171.00A.006 Labour to'admit you, but Oh, to no end,
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 175.00B.010 But oh it must be burnt, alas the fire
 180.NY3.001 Oh, to vex me, contraries meete in one:
 184.00A.089 Of death, or of worse life: for Oh, to some
 187.00A.137 13 Daughter Ierusalem, Oh what may bee
 187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.

002.00A.007 Though like the Pestilence and old fashion'd love,
 002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.
 002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 004.00A.104 A licence, old iron, bootes, shooes, and egge-
 004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still
 008.00B.005 Nor for that silly old moralitie,
 021.00G.018 And view old Chaos in the Pains we feel?
 024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poétique fire;
 036.00A.001 Busie old foole, unruly Sunne,
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee
 056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 091.NY3.001 If you from spoyle of th' old worlds fardest end
 092.NY3.001 Beyond th' old Pillers many' haue trauailed
 093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
 107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
 107.00A.026 Yong Phoenixes, and yet the old shall live.
 108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
 108.00A.109 Then thy old Soule, the Sunne,
 112.00A.046 Utopian youth, growne old Italian.
 126.00A.006 From Cambridge thy old nurse, and, as the rest,
 127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;
 135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunn serues all the rest,
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 150.00A.056 Shortly ambitious, covetous, when old,
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 155.00a.075 Which, from the carcasse of the old world, free,
 155.00a.088 The dangers and diseases of the old:
 155.00a.131 Old Grandsires talke of yesterday with sorrow,
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.062 As of old cloaths, cast of a yeare agoe.
 157.00b.430 To such small copper coynes, they lost the old,
 158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
 187.00A.027 Remembers what of old, shee esteemed most,
 187.00A.154 Fulfill'd his word of old determined;
 187.00A.169 21 On ground in streets, the yong and old do lye,
 187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,
 187.00A.388 Returne, and as of old, renew our day.

004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.

006.00D.064 So much, at once their hunger to assuage:

010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,

010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,

010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.

012.00A.002 Whom honours smoakes at once fatten and sterve;

022.00A.012 (Both hot and cold) at once make life and death?

029.00A.010 If once into loves hands it come?

047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,

055.00A.033 And melt both Poles at once, and store

077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,

077.00A.017 Once I love and dyed; and am now become
 081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
 117.00A.001 At once, from hence, my lines and I depart,
 131.00B.063 A weather-beaten Lover but once knowne,
 150.00A.058 Might once have stray'd to superstition.
 153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.
 157.00b.206 At once is at, and through the Firmament.
 157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch

 158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net
 158.00A.262 Once innocence scap'd, and left the oppressor fast;
 161.00A.007 Seaven to be borne at once, I send as yet
 168.00A.007 They kill'd once an inglorious man, but I
 183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;
 183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;
 183.00A.011 She sees at once the virgin mother stay
 183.00A.013 Sad and rejoyc'd shee's seen at once, and seen
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 183.00A.018 At once receiver and the legacie;
 185.00A.022 And tune all speares at once peirc'd with those holes?

001.00A.029 That when thou meet'st one, with enquiring eyes
 001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away
 001.00A.087 Hee droopt, wee went, till one (which did excell
 002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state
 002.00A.011 One, (like a wretch, which at Barre judg'd as dead,
 002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms
 002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 003.00A.053 Lecherous humors, there is one that judges
 003.00A.063 All, because all cannot be good, as one
 003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinkes that so
 003.00A.067 In divers habits, yet are still one kinde;
 003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 003.00A.070 Of force must one, and forc'd but one allow;
 004.00A.023 Stranger then strangers; One, who for a Dane,
 004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,
 004.00A.028 One, to whom, the examining Justice sure would cry,
 004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,
 004.00A.084 I have but one frenchman, looke, hee followes mee.
 004.00A.132 One of our Giant Statutes ope his jaw
 004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
 004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
 006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell

006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,
006.00D.066 All in one bottome, in one Librarie.
006.00D.066 All in one bottome, in one Librarie.
006.00D.068 And so one may, which on another looks,
008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:
008.00B.056 Well-pleas'd with one leane thred-bare groat, for hire,
008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
008.00B.087 One that would suffer hunger, nakednesse,
009.00A.046 As one which gath'ring flowers, still feares a snake?
010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joyn'd, and hate each one?
011.00A.008 His Soule out of one hell, into a new,
013.00A.018 One answer in thee, and that ill arraid
014.NY3.005 To any one: In Flanders, who tan tell
014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'll make one by & by.
015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.
016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
016.00A.028 To love not any one, nor every one.
016.00A.029 To live in one land, is captivitie,
016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,
016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,
017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,
017.00A.055 One like none, and lik'd of none, fittest were,
018.00B.026 That absent Lovers one in th'other be.
020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes
020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,
021.00G.031 And, where one sad truth may expiate
022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,
024.00A.046 But so, as thine from one another doe;
025.00A.022 For some one
026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.
029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;
032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.
032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.

032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
 033.00A.019 If thou findest one, let mee know,
 034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 038.00A.024 One that loves mee.
 039.00A.015 Adde one more, to the plaguie Bill?
 039.00A.020 Call her one, mee another flye,
 039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.
 039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.
 039.00A.038 Made one anothers hermitage;
 041.00A.003 I cannot breath one other sigh, to move;
 041.00A.004 Nor can intreat one other teare to fall.
 041.00A.033 Be one, and one anothers All.
 041.00A.033 Be one, and one anothers All.
 042.00A.039 They who one another keepe
 044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
 044.00A.028 Of thee one houre, then all else ever.
 048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 048.00A.014 (Who Prince enough in one another bee,)
 048.00A.026 Treason to us, except one of us two.
 049.00A.013 As no one point, nor dash,
 049.00A.045 To looke on one, whose wit or land,
 050.00A.002 As I have seen in one Autumnall face,
 052.00A.049 If to consider what'tis, one proceed,
 053.00A.005 But one, and then another prove,
 054.00A.022 Produc'd by one, love such additions take,
 054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,
 056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
 056.00A.006 One might but one man know;
 058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,
 060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,
 060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,
 061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,
 062.00A.004 Sat we two, one anothers best;
 062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,
 062.00A.010 Was all the meanes to make us one,
 062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
 062.00A.041 When love, with one another so
 062.00A.074 Have heard this dialogue of one,
 063.00A.001 I have done one braver thing
 064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
 065.00A.007 Above one sigh a day I'llow'd him not,
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one
 066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.

067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 068.00A.030 Know thee for one?
 070.00A.004 To be to more then one a Bed)
 072.00A.004 And made of one another.
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drown'd.
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drown'd.
 091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still begin a new.
 106.00A.029 Yee of those fellowships whereof hee's one,
 106.00A.039 Till, mystically joyn'd, but one they bee;
 106.00A.046 Alwaies, all th'other may each one possesse;
 107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 107.00A.024 Are unto one another mutuall nests,
 107.00A.043 Come forth, come forth, and as one glorious flame
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 107.00A.050 You're twice inseparable, great, and one;
 107.00A.052 To make you one, his way, which divers waies
 107.00A.054 And that you're one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
 107.00A.088 They unto one another nothing owe,
 107.00A.102 Ther's but one Phenix still, as was before.
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
 108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.
 108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.
 108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 109.00A.012 Honour and misery have one face and way.)
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 109.00A.058 As from one hang'd in chaines, a yeare agoe.
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
 110.00A.012 As lead, when a fir'd Church becomes one spout.
 110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay
 110.00A.026 Each one, his owne Priest, and owne Sacrifice.
 111.00A.007 For here no one is from the'extremitie
 112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.
 112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.
 112.00A.059 Onely'in this one thing, be no Galenist. To make
 113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,

120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
 126.00A.019 My nurse, (for I had one,) because I'am cold,
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 131.00B.067 It must bee sicknesse after one disdaine,
 131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunn serues all the rest,
 135.B13.011 wee make our's doe one Act, to seale the bands,
 136.00A.021 But one, 'tis best light to contemplate you.
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 138.00A.026 It ransomes one sex, and one Court preserves;
 138.00A.026 It ransomes one sex, and one Court preserves;
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 138.00A.077 Too many vertues, or too much of one
 139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,
 139.00A.028 One corne of one low anthills dust, and lesse,
 139.00A.042 One latitude in cloysters, and in Court,
 139.00A.062 Or make a rebaptizing of one teare;
 140.00A.007 And now his beasts on one another feed,
 140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,
 141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,
 142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;
 148.00A.008 As divers starres one Constellation make,
 148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
 148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 148.00A.026 Shall recollect, and in one All unite:
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;
 152.12a.003 Of Waight, one Centre; one, of Greatness is:
 152.12a.003 Of Waight, one Centre; one, of Greatness is:
 152.12a.008 Shut-in for Men in one Circumference:
 152.12a.016 Almost meetes Faith, and makes both Centres one:
 153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.062 Vertue, which did in one intirenesse grow.

153.00A.067 So is't of vertue; for a point and one
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.218 Of one another in possession were;
 153.00A.228 With Tutelar Angels, sent to every one.
 154.00A.009 One of your orders growes by his accesse;
 154.00A.012 Of Subject and of Prince, in one are lame;
 154.00A.023 So fell our Monasteries, in one instant growne
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.
 155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.
 155.00a.138 Or shipwrack'd in the Sea, one would haue laid
 155.00a.222 To draw, and fasten sundred parts in one;
 155.00a.241 In any humour, or one certaine part;
 155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
 155.00a.270 One inche direct; but where he rose to day
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.294 At end thereof, one of th'Antipodies:
 155.00a.353 Sight is the noblest sense of any one,
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell
 155.00a.459 That no one should her prayes thus reherse,
 156.00a.006 loyne the two Indies in one Tombe, 'tis glas;
 156.00a.058 Wisely bestow'd, and layd it all on one.
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 156.00a.078 Woman, shee went away, before sh'was one.
 157.00b.011 One from the Trunke, another from the Head,
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,
 157.00b.208 Strunge on one string, speed vndistinguish'd leades
 157.00b.210 Whose quicke succession makes it still one thing:
 157.00b.215 (Creation gaue her one, a second, grace,)
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.236 The Tutelar Angels, and assigned one, both
 157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euey limme;
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.267 And one soule thinkes one, and another way
 157.00b.267 And one soule thinkes one, and another way
 157.00b.272 Doth from one ventricle to th'other go?
 157.00b.283 And yet one watches, starues, freeses, and sweats,

157.00b.310 Of her some one thought, or one action:
 157.00b.310 Of her some one thought, or one action:
 157.00b.373 As these prerogatiues being met in one,
 157.00b.424 To erect true ioye, were all the meanes in one.
 157.00b.447 To fill the place of one of them, or more,
 158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;
 158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
 158.00A.034 Our wayes and ends seest at one instant; Thou
 158.00A.092 And one by one we'are here slaine o'er againe
 158.00A.092 And one by one we'are here slaine o'er againe
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?
 158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
 158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
 158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,
 158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave
 158.00A.504 Are ravel'd out, and fast there by one end,
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 167.00A.013 One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,
 174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
 179.NY3.005 Sleeper She a thousand, then peepes vp one yeare?
 179.NY3.008 On one, on Seauen, or on no hill appeare?
 180.NY3.001 Oh, to vex me, contraries meete in one:
 181.00A.020 The Mast and yard make one, where seas do tosse.
 182.00A.017 Had one of those, whose credulous pietie
 182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discern and see
 183.00A.020 Th'Abridgement of Christs story, which makes one
 183.00A.032 Leade, and his Church, as cloud; to one end both:
 183.00A.034 Death and conception in mankinde is one.
 183.00A.038 With the last judgement, but one period,
 183.00A.039 His imitating Spouse would joyne in one
 183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,
 184.00A.012 By bearing one, tryed'st with what stings
 184.00A.040 One claime for innocence, and disseiz'd sinne,
 184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;
 184.00A.120 Warm'd with one all-partaking fire
 186.00E.HE1 To M^r George Herbert, with one of my Seal, of the Anchor and Christ.
 187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayes therefore on this one,
 191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;
 191.00B.017 Two that make one Iohn Baptists holy voyce,

191.00B.042 A lesser gift than some one man hath sent?
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,
 192.00B.014 In all flatt Maps (and I am one) are one,
 192.00B.022 Christs Crosse, & Adams tree, stood in one place;

001.00A.037 Why should'st thou that dost not onely approve,
 002.00A.040 Of Coscus onely breeds my just offence,
 002.00A.068 That onely suretiship hath brought them there,
 003.00A.050 But loves her onely, who at Geneva is call'd
 003.00A.058 Which dwels with us, is onely perfect, hee
 008.00B.080 Yet with such anguish, as her onely sonne
 010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 010.00A.048 Where cattell onely, 'and diverse dogs are bred,
 010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid
 018.00B.016 Thee, onely worthy to nurse in my minde,
 018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face
 018.00B.044 England is onely a worthy Gallerie,
 024.00A.009 Onely thine image, in my heart, doth sit,
 038.00A.013 Onely let mee love none, no, not the sport
 053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
 054.00A.008 With more, not onely bee no quintessence,
 055.00A.006 Onely I have nothing which gave more,
 066.00A.018 Onely to give to such as have an incapacie.
 066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.
 079.00B.029 And onely for a minute made to be
 097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
 106.00A.079 This bed is onely to virginities
 107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.045 Not onely in fulnesse, but capacitie,
 108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew
 109.00A.008 Of friendship onely to'impute excellence.
 109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
 110.00A.023 Onely the Calenture together drawes
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee
 129.00A.027 In that, our owne and onely businesse,
 131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.
 138.00A.040 Onely the bodie's busie, and pretends;
 140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
 155.00a.329 And that, not onely faults in inward parts,
 155.00a.354 Yet sight hath onely color to feed on,
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.

157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
 157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:
 157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
 157.00b.440 All will not serue; Onely who haue enioyd
 157.00b.486 Onely by comming, that it can away.
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;
 157.00b.502 Onely in Heauen could learne, how it can bee
 158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.
 158.00A.382 The onely harmlesse great thing; the giant

 048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 050.00A.028 And appetite to other things, is past;
 052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,
 056.00A.007 But are other creatures so?
 065.00A.028 And now as other Fawknrs use,
 068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
 077.00A.001 No Lover saith, I love, nor any other
 079.00B.028 Because that other curse of being short,
 081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
 106.00A.052 Other disports then dancing jollities,
 106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;
 106.00A.070 Are other labours, and more dainty feasts;
 107.00A.004 And other birds are thy Parishioners,
 107.00A.058 Longer to day, then other daies?
 108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.
 108.00A.017 The glory is, farre other, other fires.

108.00A.020 The first doth governe dayes, the other nights.
 108.00A.029 First her eyes kindles other Ladies eyes,
 108.00A.033 Most other Courts, alas, are like to hell,
 111.00A.008 Of vice, by any other reason free,
 124.00A.006 To doe as other Voyagers, and make
 131.00B.041 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd,
 138.00A.028 Is knowne to any other, not to you.
 142.00A.005 To other Sainct then you directed bee,
 142.00A.060 From either, but by the other not to stray.
 143.00A.016 (So as I have) in any other Mine;
 148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 153.00A.108 In heav'n, the other might securely, 'have pac'd
 155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
 155.00a.163 And if in other Creatures they appeare,
 155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart
 155.00a.339 But beauties other second Element,
 157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
 157.00b.265 Of Ayre, and Fire, and other Elements?
 157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
 157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,
 158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;
 158.00A.163 And she (with other purpose) kill'd it quite;
 158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
 158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,
 158.00A.030 attaine dignitie. How ever the bodies have dull'd her other faculties,
 160.00A.081 Nor can by other meanes be glorified.
 179.NY3.002 What is it She, which on the other Shore
 181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
 184.00A.013 The other could thine heritage invade;
 184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there
 185.00A.003 And as the other Spheares, by being growne
 191.00B.044 More hoarse, more harsh than any other, sing?
 191.00B.048 (Though some have other Authors) Davids all:
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

OTHERS.....56

002.00A.026 Others wits fruits, and in his ravenous maw
 004.00B.135 By giving others their soares, I might grow
 013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force
 017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautious bee,
 017.00A.020 A perfect song, others will undertake,
 027.00A.017 Let others freeze with angling reeds,
 030.00B.013 Which is still diligent lest others see.
 030.00B.017 Others; these which come behinde
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,

053.00A.017 Bad doth it selfe, and others wast,
055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.
061.00A.007 Forswear to others, what to her he'hath sworne,
063.00A.010 Others (because no more
067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
080.00E.015 Nor a fool for when others,
081.HH5.034 to chafe & heate waxe for an others seale
081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare
082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
106.00A.027 Ye painted courtiers, barrels of others wits,
107.00A.064 And be to others spectacle, and talke?
107.00A.107 Others neare you shall whispering speake,
129.00A.028 In this, wee must for others vices care;
131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight
131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.
131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.
133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,
135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,
138.00A.032 Stop others ills, to meditate with mee.
138.00A.074 Neither beleeve her good, nor others ill,
139.00A.050 By using others, not vice, but weakenesse.
139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
140.00A.004 Is sport to others, and a Theater,
140.00A.044 And is to others jcy Opium .
141.00A.042 And in the vaile of kindred others see;
142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
142.00A.044 As Others, with prophane and sensuall Darts,
143.00A.011 First I confesse I have to others lent
145.00A.038 Of others; call not that Idolatrie.
145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
147.00B.005 Others by Wills give Legacies, but I
152.12a.031 And Others studies, how Hee would be bent,
153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
157.00b.224 Mintage to others beauties, for they went
157.00b.286 How others on our stage their parts did Act;
158.00A.047 And all that calls from this, and to others whets,
158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,
158.00A.001 Others at the Porches and entries of their Buildings set their
158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,
185.00A.005 And being by others hurried every day,
192.00B.028 And as to others soules I preach'd thy word,
193.00A.008 Others to sinne? and, made my sinne their doore?

 004.00A.132 One of our Giant Statutes ope his jaw
 004.00A.168 Such as swells the bladder of our court? I
 004.00A.171 With us, at London, flouts our Presence, for
 004.00A.217 For saying of our Ladies psalter; But 'tis fit
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares
 008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:
 010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,
 010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we have beene.
 010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,
 010.00A.047 But as wee in our Ile emprisoned,
 014.NY3.010 Euer our men, yea and our God of late.
 014.NY3.010 Euer our men, yea and our God of late.
 014.NY3.011 Yet She relyes vpon our Angels well
 014.NY3.017 And Midas ioyes our Spanish iourneys giue,
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 016.00A.015 They're our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 018.00B.001 BY our first strange and fatall interview
 018.00B.003 By our long starving hopes, by that remorse
 018.00B.046 Our greatest King call thee to his presence.
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
 020.00G.016 By our new nature (Use) the soul of trade.
 020.00G.028 And firmament, our Cupid is not there:
 020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,
 021.00G.036 Inro our blouds, inflaming our desires,
 021.00G.036 Inro our blouds, inflaming our desires,
 021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?
 021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
 021.00G.049 Shadow'd with negligence our best respects?
 021.00G.050 Varied our language through all dialects,
 021.00G.052 Spok dialogues with our feet far from our words?
 021.00G.052 Spok dialogues with our feet far from our words?
 021.00G.053 Have we prov'd all the secrets of our Art,
 021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through
 021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear
 021.00G.059 Let our armes clasp like Ivy, and our fear
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
 021.00G.078 How fresh our love was in the beginning;
 021.00G.080 And Autumn, what our golden harvests were.

022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
022.00A.016 Sprinkled among, (all sweeter by our feares
022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsells, and wee both may rue,
022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;
024.00A.041 But of our dalliance no more signes there are,
029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.
030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;
030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just about our head,
030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.
030.00B.014 Except our loves at this noone stay,
030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.
030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.
030.00B.019 If our loves faint, and westwardly decline;
031.00A.007 T'were prophanation of our joyes
031.00A.008 To tell the layetie our love
031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,
031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
032.00A.008 And now good morrow to our waking soules,
032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
035.00A.007 Honours oppresse weake spirits, and our sense,
035.00A.014 For, all our joyes are but fantasticall.
039.00A.021 We're Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,
039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
039.00A.045 A patterne of our love.
042.00A.022 And wee joyne to't our strength,
043.00A.022 It seem'd, and therefore for our losses sad,
047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
048.00A.007 Only our love hath no decay;
048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.
049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;
050.00A.003 Yong Beauties force our love, and that's a Rape,
050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
052.00A.010 Study our manuscripts, those Myriades
052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
052.00A.026 Learning were safe; in this our Universe
053.00A.006 As wee shall finde our fancy bent.
059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,
060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
060.00A.013 Our mariage bed, and mariage temple is;
062.00A.005 Our hands were firmly cimented
062.00A.007 Our eye-beames twisted, and did thred
062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,

062.00A.009 So to'entergraft our hands, as yet
062.00A.011 And pictures in our eyes to get
062.00A.012 Was all our propagation.
062.00A.015 Our soules, (which to advance their state,
062.00A.017 And whil'st our soules negotiate there,
062.00A.019 All day, the same our postures were,
062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbear?
062.00A.061 As our blood labours to beget
070.00A.026 Then our Guardian Angells doe,
070.00A.029 Our hands ne'r toucht the seales,
073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,
075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,
078.00D.006 To knit our loves in the fantastick straine
078.00D.008 Of our affection, that as that's round and plaine,
078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.
078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.
079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so
082.00A.027 Withdrew our soules, and made us carcasses.
092.NY3.003 A fitter Piller our Earle did bestow
106.00A.014 Our Golden Mines, and furnish'd Treasure,
106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;
106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
108.00A.038 And make our Court an everlasting East.
108.00A.087 Our little Cupid hath sued Livery,
108.00A.113 To all our ships, could a Promethean art
108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part
108.00A.149 Thus thou descend'st to our infirmitie,
108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;
109.00A.003 Part of our passage; And, a hand, or eye
109.00A.017 How in the port, our fleet deare time did leese,
109.00A.019 Mildly it kist our sailes, and, fresh, and sweet,
109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
109.00A.023 But 'twas, but so kinde, as our countrimen,
109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;
109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all
109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
109.00A.055 With a salt dropsie clog'd, and all our tacklings
109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,
109.00A.059 Even our Ordinance plac'd for our defence,
109.00A.059 Even our Ordinance plac'd for our defence,
109.00A.061 Pumping hath tir'd our men, and what's the gaine?
109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our saylers; and if they
110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,
110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.

110.00A.013 And all our beauty, and our trimme, decayes,
 110.00A.013 And all our beauty, and our trimme, decayes,
 110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,
 110.00A.035 Languish our ships. Now, as a Miriade
 110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.
 110.00A.054 Chance, or our selves still disproportion it.
 112.00A.007 Life is a voyage, and in our lifes wayes
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as
 113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne
 113.00A.024 The straw, which doth about our hearts sojourne.
 113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay
 115.00A.009 And 'tis decreed our hell is but privation
 116.00A.004 As in our streets sly beggers narrowly
 118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne
 119.NY3.009 Of Poets, that methinks should ease our anguish,
 119.NY3.010 Allthoug our bodyes wither & minds Languish.
 120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 121.NY3.002 The slimy rimes bred in our vale below,
 121.NY3.007 Now pleasures dirth our City doth posses
 121.NY3.008 Our Theaters are filld with emptines.
 122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;
 122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;
 122.00A.026 Our discontinued hopes we shall retrive:
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 123.NY3.002 Built of all th'elements as our bodyes are:
 126.00A.008 Th'immense vast volumes of our common law;
 127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;
 128.LR1.007 yet gleanes hee many of our frends away)
 129.00A.002 Our good and great Kings lov'd hand and fear'd name,
 129.00A.027 In that, our owne and onely businesse,
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,
 131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
 131.00B.094 In you, but our dimme actions faintly shew.
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,
 135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.
 135.B13.012 by which w' enthrall our selues to your Commands.
 135.B13.016 Admit our Magique then by which wee doe
 135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke

135.B13.036 our letter should as you, bee infinite.
 136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 136.00A.009 And but direct our honour, not bestow.
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.
 136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,
 136.00A.034 But as our Soules of growth and Soules of sense
 136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
 138.00A.080 Quenching compassion of our wrechednesse.
 139.00A.065 This private Ghospell, then 'tis our new yeare,
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 140.00A.022 Our apprehension contributes the sting.
 140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.
 140.00A.033 Since then our businesse is, to rectifie
 141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
 142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;
 142.00A.057 So to present the roome twice to our eyes,
 145.00A.051 How faire a prooffe of this, in our soule growes?
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 147.00B.016 Our soules become worme-eaten Carkasses.
 147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.
 149.00A.006 And breaks our banke, when ere it takes a friend.
 149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;
 149.00A.008 Our waters, then, above our firmament.
 149.00A.008 Our waters, then, above our firmament.
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.
 150.00A.027 Our births and life, vices, and vertues, bee
 150.00A.029 For, wee to live, our bellowes weare, and breath,
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 152.12a.005 For, into our Reason flowe, and there doe end,
 152.12a.044 Still stay, and vexe our Great-Grand-Mother, DVST.
 152.12a.048 And will not lett's enjoy our Curse, to Dye?
 152.12a.051 So God, in our desire to dye, dooth know
 152.12a.052 Our Plot for Ease, in being Wretched so.
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 152.12a.062 To rectifie Our Errors They foreknowe.
 152.12a.065 For, if our Reason be our Connexion

152.12a.065 For, if our Reason be our Connexion
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 152.12a.085 (Our Soule's best Bayting and Mid-period
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.082 Our quick thought cannot keepe him company,
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,
 153.00A.171 And Church-yards are our cities, unto which
 153.00A.244 Lessen our losse, to magnifie thy gaine
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
 154.00A.010 But, by his losse grow all our orderslesse;
 154.00A.023 So fell our Monasteries, in one instant growne
 155.00a.052 Or that our weakenes was discouered
 155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.
 155.00a.105 For that first mariage was our funerall:
 155.00a.108 We doe delightfully our selues allow
 155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.
 155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.
 155.00a.132 And for our children we reserue to morrow.
 155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we
 155.00a.159 With new diseases on our selues we warre,
 155.00a.185 And learn't thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.239 And learnt thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.
 155.00a.315 And did from her into our bodies go,
 155.00a.316 As to our eyes, the formes from objects flow:
 155.00a.327 And learnt thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.330 Corruptions in our braines, or in our harts,
 155.00a.330 Corruptions in our braines, or in our harts,
 155.00a.331 Poysoning the fountaines, whence our actions spring,
 155.00a.337 For good, and well, must in our actions meete:
 155.00a.357 Our blushing redde, which vs'd in cheekes to spred,
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 155.00a.371 And learnt thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 155.00a.429 And learnt thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.432 Is worth our trauaile, grieffe, or perishing,
 155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,
 157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.
 157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enjoyes this her third birth,

157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.
 157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,
 157.00b.252 If, as we were in this our liuing Tombe
 157.00b.264 For many ages, that our body'is wrought
 157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
 157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
 157.00b.286 How others on our stage their parts did Act;
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,
 157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.
 157.00b.370 To all our actions all the worth they haue:
 157.00b.401 Honour may haue pretence vnto our loue,
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 157.00b.470 loye, (as our ioyes admit) essentiall.
 157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?
 158.00A.026 Us, and our latest nephewes did install
 158.00A.034 Our wayes and ends seest at one instant; Thou
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieffe, where nailes did tye
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.136 Just as in our streets, when the people stay
 158.00A.301 Into an embrion fish, our Soule is throwne
 158.00A.320 To joyne our seas, with seas above the firmament.
 158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,
 158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 160.00A.010 For, at our end begins our endlesse rest,
 160.00A.010 For, at our end begins our endlesse rest,
 160.00A.032 Weake enough, now into our world to come;
 167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
 168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 179.NY3.011 Betray kind husband thy Spouse to our Sights,
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
 182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.
 183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,
 184.00A.043 Our zealous thanks wee poure. As her deeds were 184.00A.044 Our helps, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,
 184.00A.060 May use our new helps right,
 184.00A.106 Should keep, as they, our first integrity;
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)
 184.00A.131 Is only for our prison fram'd,
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,

184.00A.144 Our mutuall duties, Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.146 By our connivence, or slack companie,
 184.00A.214 Awaken us to our just offices,
 184.00A.217 That our eares sicknesse wee may cure,
 184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,
 184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
 184.00A.228 Our vices often aggravate,
 184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
 184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
 184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe
 184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne
 185.00A.007 Pleasure or businesse, so, our Soules admit
 185.00A.024 Zenith to us, and our Antipodes,
 185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.
 187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath
 187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare
 187.00A.328 Desiring our vaine helpe, consume our eyes:
 187.00A.328 Desiring our vaine helpe, consume our eyes:
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare
 187.00A.332 To goe: our end is now approached neere,
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 187.00A.337 20 The annoited Lord, breath of our nostrils, hee
 187.00A.351 2 For unto strangers our possession
 187.00A.352 Is turn'd, our houses unto Aliens gone,
 187.00A.353 3 Our mothers are become as widowes, wee
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,
 187.00A.357 5 Our persecutors on our necks do sit,
 187.00A.357 5 Our persecutors on our necks do sit,
 187.00A.359 6 We stretch our hands unto th' Egyptians
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 187.00A.365 9 With danger of our life our bread wee gat;
 187.00A.365 9 With danger of our life our bread wee gat;
 187.00A.368 Black as an Ocean colour'd had our skinne:
 187.00A.373 13 Unto the mill our yong men carried are,
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this 187.00A.380 Over our eyes a cloudy dimnesse is.
 187.00A.388 Returne, and as of old, renew our day.
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayses therefore on this one,
 191.00B.021 They shew us llanders our joy, our King,

191.00B.021 They shew us llanders our joy, our King,
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,
 191.00B.043 And shall our Church, unto our Spouse and King
 191.00B.043 And shall our Church, unto our Spouse and King
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part

OUR'S.....1

135.B13.011 wee make our's doe one Act, to seale the bands,

OURS.....8

004.00A.173 Tast have in them, ours are, And naturall
 052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,
 053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
 053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.

OUT.....94

001.00A.110 Hee quarrell'd, fought, bled; and turn'd out of dore
 002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state
 002.00A.098 His writings, and (unwatch'd) leaves out, ses heires
 002.00A.101 As controverters, in vouch'd Texts, leave out
 002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,
 005.00A.034 To know and weed out this enormous sinne.
 006.00D.060 Measures; and fill out for the half-pint wit:
 010.00A.015 Takes this advantage to sleepe out day-light,
 011.00A.008 His Soule out of one hell, into a new,
 018.00B.051 With midnights startings, crying out, oh, oh
 020.00G.040 How much they erre; that set out at the face?
 020.00G.073 Rather set out below; practice my Art,
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 022.00A.021 And finde the truth out the wrong way? or must
 022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
 032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;
 035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 039.00A.016 Soldiers finde warres, and Lawyers finde out still
 050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made
 050.00A.046 With Tombs, then Cradles, to weare out a day.
 050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
 051.00A.018 Or a stone fountaine weeping out my yeare.
 052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.
 054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.
 057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,

062.00A.016 Were gone out,) hung 'twixt her, and mee.
 072.00A.012 But ne'r worne out by loves securitie,
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,
 086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way
 095.NY3.001 Thou in the fields walkst out thy supping howres
 107.00A.011 The husband cocke looks out, and straight is sped,
 107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take
 107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
 109.00A.013 From out her pregnant intrailles sigh'd a winde
 110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;
 110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out
 110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,
 112.00A.037 Men are sponges, which to poure out, receive,
 124.00A.001 O thou which to search out the secret parts
 127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;
 128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
 131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke
 137.00A.019 Out from your chariot, morning breaks at night,
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 140.00A.011 Empail'd himsele to keepe them out, not in;
 145.00A.010 All Vertues ebb'd out to a dead low tyde,
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?
 153.00A.222 Of imminent commotions to breake out.
 155.00a.013 Which drew the strongest vitall spirits out:
 155.00a.181 Out of her thoughts, and deeds; and purifie
 155.00a.192 Quite out of ioynt, almost created lame:
 155.00a.206 The Element of fire is quite put out;
 155.00a.212 Is crumbled out againe to his Atomis.
 155.00a.255 Men to finde out so many Eccentrique parts,
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read
 156.00a.062 Or exhalation breath'd out from her soule.
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
 156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.
 157.00b.326 Canst thou choose out, free from infection,
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.032 That hast mark'd out a path and period
 158.00A.048 O let me not launch out, but let mee save
 158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
 158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,

158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 158.00A.504 Are ravel'd out, and fast there by one end,
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,
 178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.
 181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
 184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.
 187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
 187.00A.131 Pour'd out upon the ground, for miserie
 187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,
 187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath
 187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;
 188.00E.HE1 Translated out of Gazaeus, Vota Amico
 189.00B.043 As Angels out of clouds, from Pulpits speake;
 190.00A.027 To see God only, I goe out of sight:

OUT-CURSED.....1

061.00A.032 Nature before hand hath out-cursed mee.

OUT-DOE.....1

002.00A.032 To out-doe Dildoes; and out-usure Jewes;

OUT-DRINKE.....1

002.00A.033 To out-drinke the sea, to out-sweare the Letanie

OUT-ENDURE.....1

052.00A.005 How thine may out-endure

OUT-FLATTER.....1

004.00A.047 Out-flatter favorites, or outlie either

OUT-PULL'D.....1

008.00B.045 Having by subtle fire a soule out-pull'd;

OUT-SPUE.....1

002.00A.027 Rankly digested, doth those things out-spue,

OUT-SWEARE.....1

002.00A.033 To out-drinke the sea, to out-sweare the Letanie

OUT-USURE.....1

002.00A.032 To out-doe Dildoes; and out-usure Jewes;

OUT-WREST.....1

027.00A.022 The bedded fish in banks out-wrest,

OUTBID.....1

041.00A.017 In sighs, in oathes, and letters outbid mee,

OUTBURNE.....1

113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne

OUTCREPT.....1

158.00A.181 Outcrept a sparrow, this soules moving Inne,

OUTGOE.....2

131.00B.066 Is lost, and seekes his shadow to outgoe;

150.00A.049 Because in her, her virtues did outgoe

OUTGROW.....2

012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly

141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty, 'and birth outgrow.

OUTLANDISH.....1

130.00A.022 A while from hence. Perchance outlandish ground

OUTLIE.....1

004.00A.047 Out-flatter favorites, or outlie either

OUTRIGHT.....1

158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright

OUTRUNNE.....1

108.00A.132 And his red foming horses dost outrunne,

OUTSHINE.....1

188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;

OUTSTREAT.....1

158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,

OUTSTRIP.....1

072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flowen before

OUTWARD.....7

063.00A.014 Hath found, all outward loathes,

067.00A.005 For'tis my outward Soule,

113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,

155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,
 157.00b.086 Which brings a Taper to the outward romme,
 157.00b.505 Where eies might read vpon the outward skin,
 158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.

OUTWASH.....1

049.00A.015 The showers and tempests can outwash,

OUTWEARE.....1

024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,

OUTWEARES.....2

047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
 158.00A.220 To live, and to encrease, himselfe outweares.

OUTWORE.....2

158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,
 179.NY3.006 Is She selfe truth & errs? now new, now' outwore?

OVENS.....1

110.00A.028 Where walkers in hot Ovens, doe not dye.

OVER.....5

021.00G.042 And over all thy husbands towring eyes
 071.00A.015 Of your owne arts and triumphs over men,
 143.00A.012 Your stock, and over prodigally spent
 187.00A.089 1 How over Sions daughter hath God hung
 187.00A.380 Over our eyes a cloudy dimnesse is.

OVER-BLEST.....1

108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day

OVERBLOWING.....1

158.00A.221 This cole with overblowing quench'd and dead,

OVERFLOW.....1

058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow

OVERFLOW'D.....1

039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?

OVERFRAUGHT.....1

045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,

OVERSEENE.....1

121.NY3.006 By staing in London too much overseene.

OVERSET.....1

158.00A.309 A great ship overset, or without saile

OVERSPREADS.....1

158.00A.185 All downy a new mantle overspreads,

OVERSWEAR.....1

018.00B.011 Here I unsweare, and overswear them thus,

OVERT.....1

049.00A.056 To an overt act, and that thou write againe;

OVERTAKE.....1

115.00A.012 Infections follow, overtake, and meete:

OVERTAKES.....1

001.00A.094 He followes, overtakes, goes on the way,

OVERTHROW.....2

134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,

OVERTHROWNE.....1

150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne

OVERTHWART.....1

108.00A.180 May never age, or error overthwart

OWE.....10

020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe062.00A.053 We owe them thanks, because they thus,075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe107.00A.088 They unto one another nothing owe,138.00A.009 Such borrow in their payments, and owe more141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thanks, that they151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;153.00A.054 Part of his body to another owe,158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,

OWES.....1

004.00A.210 To preach, he enters, and a Lady which owes

OWEST.....1

184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe

OWING.....1

184.00A.137 From owing thee yesterdaies teares to day,

OWLELIKE.....1

002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke

OWLES.....1

187.00A.280 As do the Owles in the vast Wildernesse.

OWN.....11

020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?

021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.

021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.

080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,

080.00E.024 In mine own selfe love.

150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.

157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:

158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own

181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,

188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,

188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.

OWNE.....70

001.00A.034 What lands hee hath in hope, or of his owne,

002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne,'tis true,

002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne, 'tis true,

002.00A.030 The meate was mine, th'excrement is his owne:

004.00A.118 Either my humour, or his owne to fit,

005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;

008.00B.020 And punisht for offences not their owne?

010.00A.024 The sinnes of her owne youths ranke lustinesse;

010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.

010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.

011.00A.014 Swallow his owne death, hearts-bane jealousy.

011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,

012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,

016.00A.015 They're our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee

024.00A.053 My selfe I embrace, and mine owne hands I kisse,

026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.

027.00A.026 For thou thy selfe art thine owne bait,

034.00A.011 Or, your owne end to Justifie,

038.00A.019 If thine owne honour, or my shame, or paine,

039.00A.021 We're Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,

043.00A.008 Mine owne executor and Legacie.

047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,

055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;

055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.

055.00A.041 Torture against thine owne end is,

069.00A.004 To his owne primrose, and grow Manna so;
 071.00A.015 Of your owne arts and triumphs over men,
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
 081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;
 108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
 110.00A.026 Each one, his owne Priest, and owne Sacrifice.
 110.00A.026 Each one, his owne Priest, and owne Sacrifice.
 112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
 112.00A.050 Carrying his owne house still, still is at home.
 112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 129.00A.027 In that, our owne and onely businesse,
 131.00B.034 That it destroyes it selfe with its owne shade.
 133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,
 139.00A.056 For your owne conscience, he gives innocence,
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
 153.00A.078 For lack of time, his owne epitome.
 153.00A.194 But with thine owne affections, with the heate
 155.00a.280 Vpon the Heauens, and now they are his owne.
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.182 In peeces, and the bullet is his owne,
 157.00b.304 At home, in her owne thoughts, And practised
 158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
 158.00A.360 And (his owne dole) feeds with himselfe all companies.
 158.00A.422 Who not her owne, none others secrets hides,
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
 158.00A.466 With hoiting gambolls, his owne bones to breake
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by
 160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
 160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
 162.00A.011 Except thou rise and for thine owne worke fight,
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?
 185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,
 185.00A.019 It made his owne Lieutenant Nature shrinke,
 187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,
 192.00B.029 Be this my Text, my Sermon to mine owne,

OWNER.....1

044.00A.027 For I had rather owner bee

OXE.....1

P.....1

127.00A.HE1 To M. I. P.

PAC'D.....4

107.00A.062 So slowly pac'd in this procession?

112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,

153.00A.108 In heav'n, the other might securely, 'have pac'd

158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:

PACE.....4

153.00A.099 For, they all vertues paths in that pace tread,

155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.

158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,

164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,

PACETH.....1

106.00A.033 The sober virgin paceth;

PACIFIQUE.....1

192.00B.016 Is the Pacifique Sea my home? Or are

PACK'D.....1

PACKE.....1

157.00b.094 And thinke that but vnbinding of a packe,

PAGAN.....1

138.00A.016 In me you'have hallowed a Pagan Muse,

PAGE.....4

018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;

018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page

049.00A.050 Corrupted by thy Lover's gold, and page,

155.00a.128 Fit to be made Methusalem his page?

PAID.....4

004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will

 110.00A.046 Is paid with life, or pray, or doing dyes.

PAIN.....2

067.00A.015 By this should know my pain,
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure

PAIN.....19

012.00A.037 My minde to scorne; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;
 035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;
 038.00A.019 If thine owne honour, or my shame, or paine,
 040.00A.014 Doth Set and sing my paine,
 056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
 110.00A.040 Or, to disuse mee from the queasie paine
 120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;
 127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
 131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.
 153.00A.169 For children, house, Provision, taking paine,
 153.00A.243 Of early triumphs; And I (though with paine)
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.183 As childrens teeth through gummes, to breake with paine,
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by 176.00B.008 'Cause I did suffer I must suffer paine.
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 189.00B.009 Or, as a Ship after much paine and care,
 189.00B.012 Of noble goods, and with lesse time and paine?

PAINES.....13

003.00A.086 Hard deeds, the bodies paines; hard knowledge to 008.00B.021 They save not me, they do not ease my paines,
 008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;
 010.00A.035 Which, if in hell no other paines there were,
 018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,
 040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
 055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
 109.00A.035 Sleepe is paines easiest salve, and doth fulfill
 115.00A.008 Both of the place and paines of hell, are ended;
 162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,
 184.00A.110 Of Doctors, whose paines have unclasp'd, and taught

PAINFULL.....1

158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.

PAINFULLY.....1

PALE.....7

004.00A.110 Looke pale, and sickly, like a Patient; Yet

008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.

010.00A.044 Smelt gunpowder, the pale wretch shivered;

021.00G.054 Yea, thy pale inwards, and thy panting heart?

155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,

155.00a.368 And liueliest stones but drowsie, and pale to her,)

182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.

PALENESSE.....1

010.00A.022 And notes thy paleness, blushing, sighs, and sweats;

PALPITATION.....1

181.00A.052 Pants downewards, and hath palpitation.

PALSIE.....1

039.00A.002 Or chide my palsie, or my gout,

PALSIES.....1

153.00A.133 Whose hands get shaking palsies, and whose string

PAMPER.....1

130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her

PAMPER'D.....2

011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare

060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,

PAMPERED.....1

147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,

PANDECT.....1

006.00D.050 A Pandect mak'st, and universall book.

PANE.....1

049.00A.058 Into thy fancy, from the pane.

PANEGYRIQUE.....1

184.00A.202 In Panegyrique Allelujaes,

PANES.....1

001.00A.097 To judge of lace, pinke, panes, print, cut, and plight,

PANIRGE.....1

004.00A.059 Good pretty linguists, and so Panirge was;

PANT.....2

002.00A.016 And bellows pant below, which them do move.

021.00G.037 And made'st us sigh and blow, and pant, and burn,

PANTING.....2

021.00G.054 Yea, thy pale inwards, and thy panting heart?

050.00A.049 Not panting after growing beauties, so,

PANTS.....1

181.00A.052 Pants downwards, and hath palpitation.

PAPAL.....1

020.00G.084 Now at the Papal foot delights to be:

PAPER.....10

005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper

008.00B.060 That with phantastique scenes fills full much paper;

070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught

081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse

108.00A.228a No S^r. This paper I have justly got,

129.00A.017 Admit this honest paper, and allow

133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne

135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke

156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue

156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie

PAPERS.....5

128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare

129.00A.001 After those reverend papers, whose soule is

129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand

129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send

133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show

PAPISTS.....1

002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:

PAPPE.....1

130.00A.016 With womens milke, and pappe unto the end.

PARADICE.....2

015.00G.021 A heaven like Mahomets Paradice, and though
 020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradice, where we would have

PARADISE.....14

013.00A.024 Refin'd thee'into a blis-full paradise.
 051.00A.009 True Paradise, I have the serpent brought.
 124.00A.002 Of the India, or rather Paradise
 127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue
 131.00B.006 From Paradise so great a distance were,
 137.00A.072 In Paradise, would seeke the Cherubin.
 138.00A.075 Even in your vertues best paradise,
 146.00A.010 If to a paradise that transplanted bee,
 151.00A.035 Her soule was Paradise; the Cherubin
 155.00a.363 As in an vnuext Paradise; from whom
 157.00b.077 Shee to whose person Paradise adhear'd,
 158.00A.057 I launch at paradise, and I saile towards home;
 158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.
 184.00A.039 Which unlock'd Paradise, and made

PARADISES.....2

155.00a.082 So many weedlesse Paradises bee,
 184.00A.237 That beauty, paradises flower

PARADISVM.....1

195.010.011 (PARADISVM SINE SERPENTE,)

PARALLELS.....2

155.00a.278 For of Meridians, and Parallels,
 181.00A.024 But the Meridians crossing Parallels.

PARASITES.....1

061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,

PARATIS.....1

198.LL1.019 & ultimis fere paratis,

PARBOILD.....1

009.00A.011 From parboild shooes, and bootes, and all the rest

PARBOYL'D.....1

110.00A.032 Like parboyl'd wretches, on the coales to burne.

PARCEL.....1

142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne

PARCELL.....1

001.00A.018 Bright parcell gilt, with forty dead mens pay,

PARCELS.....1

006.00D.038 Convey these wares in parcels unto men;

PARCH'D.....2

112.00A.015 Parch'd in the Court, and in the country frozen?

157.00b.096 Thinke thy selfe parch'd with feuers violence,

PARCHED.....1

158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.

PARCHING.....1

014.NY3.019 And I should be in that hott parching clime

PARCHMENT.....2

002.00A.087 In parchment then, large as his fields, hee drawes

158.00A.229 Her scales seem'd yet of parchment, and as yet

PARDON.....8

004.00A.179 In the Presence, and I, (God pardon mee.)

081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee

128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap

133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.

152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee

158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him

165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.

168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.

PARDON'D.....1

001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence

PARDON'ST.....1

187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Usest no clemencie;

PARDOND.....1

157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:

PARDONS.....2

142.00A.009 Pardons are in this market cheaply sold.

157.00b.367 And shee gaue pardons, and was liberall,

PARENT.....2

045.00A.009 More subtile then the parent is,

137.00A.057 The Elements, the Parent, and the Growth

PARENTS.....4

060.00A.014 Though parents grudge, and you, w'are met,

106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;
 147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:

PARENTVM.....1

195.010.022 VNICA FILIA, ITAQUE ET IPSO PARENTVM NOMINE SPOLIATI,

PARISHIONERS.....1

107.00A.004 And other birds are thy Parishioners,

PARK.....1

107.00A.021 (Which was of foules, and beasts, the cage, and park,)

PARKE.....1

158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,

PARLE.....1

014.NY3.030 Here let me parle, batter, bleede, & dy.

PARNASSUS.....1

121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.

PART.....67

005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,
 009.00A.037 Into th'earths worthlesse part a soule of gold,
 009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.
 014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.
 020.00G.036 And virtues; but we love the Centrique part.
 020.00G.074 Some Symetry the foot hath with that part
 020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.
 021.00G.083 And dearest Friend, since we must part, drown night
 022.00A.069 And ought not be prophan'd on either part,
 029.00A.011 All other griefes allow a part
 037.00A.020 And by Loves sweetest Part, Variety, she swore,
 042.00A.035 Destiny may take thy part,
 043.00A.020 It was intire to none, and few had part.
 062.00A.028 And part farre purer then he came.
 065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
 067.00A.010 Through every part,
 068.00A.011 And think'st by hovering here to get a part
 068.00A.023 To your eyes, eares, and tast, and every part.
 068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
 071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,
 108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
 108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
 108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part

108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,
 108.00A.188 For every part to dance and revell goes.
 108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
 108.00A.213 But must forthwith surrender every part,
 109.00A.003 Part of our passage; And, a hand, or eye
 118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne
 119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part
 131.00B.059 Man's better part consists of purer fire,
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you
 148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:
 153.00A.054 Part of his body to another owe,
 155.00a.010 Shee's now a part both of the Quire, and Song,
 155.00a.062 Corrupt and mortall in thy purest part.
 155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.
 155.00a.199 The noblest part, man, felt it first; and than
 155.00a.241 In any humour, or one certaine part;
 155.00a.434 Of which shee's now partaker, and a part.
 155.00a.437 On euery part, and therefore men direct
 156.00a.105 And 'tis in heau'n part of spirituall mirth,
 157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.495 Had stew'd and form'd it: and part did become
 158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,
 158.00A.499 Part hardned it selfe to a thicker heart,
 158.00A.501 Another part became the well of sense,
 164.00A.007 But my'ever-waking part shall see that face,
 173.00A.001 Father, part of his double interest
 184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
 184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part

PARTAKE.....2

133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 142.00A.048 As to partake your vertues, and their might,

PARTAKER.....1

155.00a.434 Of which shee's now partaker, and a part.

PARTE.....2

081.HH5.027 none could haue challenged the smallest parte

196.015.017 BONORVM BONA PARTE PAVPERIBVS

PARTED.....2

042.00A.040 Alive, ne'r parted bee.

118.NY3.007 Or art thou parted from the world & mee

PARTIALL.....1

041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,

PARTING.....4

021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?

084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.

158.00A.174 Whom foure new comming, and foure parting Suns

160.00A.089 Behold the Highest, parting hence away,

PARTNER.....1

185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus

PARTRIOQUE.....1

186.00E.003 Adscitus domui Domini, partrioque relicto

PARTS.....30

001.00A.105 More men of sort, of parts, and qualities;

003.00A.036 The worlds all parts wither away and passe,

017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,

024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?

044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,

067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;

108.00A.224 Make of so noble individuall parts

114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts

124.00A.001 O thou which to search out the secret parts

127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time

131.00B.039 And severall desires led parts away,

148.00A.023 As of this all, though many parts decay,

149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.

149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;

153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,

153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;

155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,

155.00a.222 To draw, and fasten sundred parts in one;

155.00a.247 For the worlds subtilst immateriall parts

155.00a.255 Men to finde out so many Eccentrique parts,
 155.00a.329 And that, not onely faults in inward parts,
 155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.
 155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;
 157.00b.233 Twenty such parts, whose plenty and riches is
 157.00b.286 How others on our stage their parts did Act;
 157.00b.336 Chiefly the cheefest parts, but some effect
 158.00A.147 Grew on his middle parts, the first day, haire,
 158.00A.266 Or working parts like mills, or limbecks hath
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.

PARTUM.....1

197.F01.010 vii post xii^m Partum (quorum vii superstant) dies

PARTURIUNT.....1

PASSAGE.....3

108.00A.111 The passage of the West or East would thaw,
 109.00A.003 Part of our passage; And, a hand, or eye
 158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,

PASSAGES.....3

021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when

PASSE.....34

003.00A.036 The worlds all parts wither away and passe,
 004.00A.060 Yet a poore gentleman; All these may passe
 006.00D.058 For friends to passe time, and keep company.
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.078 Passe Vertues, Powers, and Principalities.
 018.00B.038 Th'indifferent Italian, as we passe
 031.00A.001 As virtuous men passe mildly away,
 035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,
 066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among
 070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
 112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
 114.00A.028 If thou forget the rime as thou dost passe,

134.00A.014 Grow infinite, and so passe reasons reach,
 153.00A.051 Bee'insisted on, vertues, as rivers, passe,
 155.00a.142 The Fayries, and the Pigmies well may passe
 156.00a.043 (Hauing first made a naturall bridge, to passe
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.472 Heauens accidentall ioyes would passe them much.
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
 158.00A.225 For they intertouched as they did passe,
 158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.
 158.00A.458 Doth gaze on her, and, where she passeth, passe,
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 168.00A.006 My sinnes, which passe the Jewes impiety:
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
 187.00A.193 13 Hee made the children of his quiver passe
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,
 187.00A.343 This cup shall passe, and thou with drunkennesse
 189.00B.027 Whose ioyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit

PASSED.....1

021.00G.055 And, after all this passed Purgatory,

PASSENGERS.....1

187.00A.145 15 The passengers doe clap their hands, and hisse

PASSES.....1

107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Spheare after Spheare.

PASSETH.....2

158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,
 158.00A.458 Doth gaze on her, and, where she passeth, passe,

PASSING.....2

066.00A.037 To him for whom the passing bell next tolls,
 129.00A.016 To heaven in troupes at'a good mans passing bell:

PASSION.....6

072.00A.009 My fire of Passion, sighes of ayre,
 131.00B.055 So passion is to womans love, about,
 131.00B.126 To stile his wandring rage of passion, Love.
 149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;
 158.00A.371 This Soule, now free from prison, and passion,
 184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.

PASSIONS.....5

025.00A.005 And false passions,

078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but shows
 149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
 155.00a.321 Both Elements, and Passions liu'd at peace

PASSIVE.....2

071.00A.023 Your passive valor, and you shall finde than,
 138.00A.038 And bids the passive earth about it runne,

PASSIVES.....1

PAST.....19

003.00A.101 Those past, her nature, & name is chang'd to be,
 004.00A.175 'Tis ten a clock and past; All whom the Mues,
 017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!
 020.00G.060 Being past the Straits of Hellespont between
 033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
 050.00A.028 And appetite to other things, is past;
 052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
 076.00A.003 For forty more, I fed on favours past,
 107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
 110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,
 125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
 130.00A.001 Who makes the Past, a patterne for next yeare,
 137.00A.051 Of past and future stories, which are rare,
 139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 157.00b.194 Whether shee past by such a place or no;
 158.00A.507 Of every past shape, she knew treachery,
 167.00A.013 One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,

008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall

047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.

117.00A.005 Perish, doth stand: as an Embassadour

131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.

149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;

151.00A.014 As in a deluge perish th'innocent?

151.00A.026 Th'hast lost thy end, for in her perish all;

181.00A.044 Must perish soone, and to destruction bowe.

187.00A.176 Brought up, did perish by mine enemie.

193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;

PERISH'D.....2

087.00A.002 A too-bold Captaine perish'd by the fall,

155.00a.186 The heart being perish'd, no part can be free.

PERISHED.....5

148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,

158.00A.089 So perished the eaters, and the meate:

158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.

187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.

187.00A.286 Now in the streets forlorne have perished,

PHYSICIAN.....1

157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,

PHYSICK.....1

066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles

PHYSICKE.....8

134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
140.00A.030 At lest for physicke, if not for our food.
155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
157.00b.098 Thy Physicke; chide the slacknesse of the fit.
181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,
181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
184.00A.238 For physicke made, from poyson be exempt,

PHYSITIANS.....4

066.00A.031 My sicknesse to Physitians, or excesse;
113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne

PICTURE.....14

019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;
026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
026.00A.003 My picture drown'd in a transparent teare,

026.00A.010 My picture vanish'd, vanish feares,
 026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, Phryne, is like thee,
 108.00A.158 Still in that Picture thou intirely art,
 117.00A.012 Yet as a Picture, or bare Sacrament,
 122.00A.014 His Picture to his absent Love hath sent.
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and
 170.00A.003 The picture of Christ crucified, and tell
 181.00A.007 Who from the picture would avert his eye,

PICTURES.....11

004.00A.070 Now; Aretines pictures have made few chast;
 004.00A.072 Better pictures of vice, teach me vertue;
 015.00G.039 Like pictures or like books gay coverings made,
 026.00A.006 By pictures made and mard, to kill?
 062.00A.011 And pictures in our eyes to get
 081.HH5.006 thy hart as pictures through a Christall glasse
 131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
 146.00A.023 His children are his pictures, Oh they bee
 146.00A.024 Pictures of him dead, senselesse, cold as he,
 167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
 181.00A.063 The Crosses pictures much, and with more care

PIKE.....2

029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.

158.00A.258 As, in this trap a ravenous pike was tane,

PIKES.....1

014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.

PILFER.....1

006.00D.069 Pilfer alas a little wit from you;

PILGRIM.....1

163.00A.003 Thou art like a pilgrim, which abroad hath done

PILGRIMAGE.....2

033.00A.020 Such a Pilgrimage were sweet,

137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold

PILGRIMAGES.....1

164.00A.002 My pilgrimages last mile; and my race

PILGRIME.....1

157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow

PILL.....1

140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,

PILLAR.....2

157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit

183.00A.031 His Spirit, as his fiery Pillar doth

PILLARS.....2

158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe

PILLER.....1

092.NY3.003 A fitter Piller our Earle did bestow

PILLERS.....1

092.NY3.001 Beyond th' old Pillers many' haue traualled

PILLOW.....1

062.00A.001 Where, like a pillow on a bed,

PILLOW'HATH.....1

049.00A.051 His letter at thy pillow'hath laid,

PILOT.....1

020.00G.067 Though there the Current be the Pilot made,

PILS.....1

006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,

PIN'D.....1

131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.

PINCH.....1

028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke

PINDAR.....1

052.00A.007 Her who from Pindar could allure,

PINE.....2

112.00A.012 Or under th'adverse icy pole thou pine,

151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;

PINKE.....1

001.00A.097 To judge of lace, pinke, panes, print, cut, and plight,

PINNACE.....1

045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnacle overfraught,

PIOUS.....1

184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,

PIRATES.....1

004.00A.126 Doe with the Pirates share, and Dunkirkers.

PIRATS.....1

004.00A.188 The Ladies come; As Pirats, which doe know

PISTOLETS.....2

002.00A.020 Pistolets are the best Artillerie.

008.00B.031 Those unlickt beare-whelps, unfil'd pistolets

PIT.....2

187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;

187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell

PITCH.....4

004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch

110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out

112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.

157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;

PITCHERS.....1

187.00A.275 Low rated now, as earthen Pitchers, stand,

PITH.....2

157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,

158.00A.209 He blood, and spirit, pith, and marrow spends,

PITHAGORIAN.....1

158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry

PITIFULL.....1

187.00A.303 10 Women by nature pitifull, have eate

PITIOUS.....1

170.00A.014 This beauteous forme assumes a pitious minde.

PITS.....2

020.00G.032 Did not on Altars lay, but pits and holes:

184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,

PITTIE.....1

131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,

PITTIED.....2

114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,

160.00A.040 That would have need to be pittied by thee?

PITTY.....15

002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pitty towards the rest;

003.00A.001 Kinde pitty chokes my spleene; brave scorn forbids

005.00A.002 Whom any pitty warmes; He which did lay
 008.00B.077 Pitty these Angels yet; their dignities
 008.00B.092 So, that I almost pitty thy estate:
 022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pitty;
 026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
 029.00A.023 More pitty unto mee: but Love, alas
 081.HH5.050 pitty thy selfe in yet beinge true & free
 109.00A.033 lonas, I pitty thee, and curse those men,
 114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pitty mee,
 131.00B.019 And now must pitty them; for, as they doe
 131.00B.023 I come not to call pitty from your heart,
 170.00A.011 Beauty, of pitty, foulnesse onely is 189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pitty their neglect.

PITTY'IS.....1

139.00A.044 Some pitty'is not good there, some vaine disport,

PITY.....1

160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,

PLAC'D.....8

108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 109.00A.059 Even our Ordinance plac'd for our defence,
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'mploy their time,
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law
 158.00A.427 Abell had plac'd, ends all his losse, and feare,
 187.00A.125 10 There Sions Elders on the ground are plac'd,

PLACE.....50

002.00A.056 In th'interim my letters should take place
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 004.00A.239 Drowne the sinnes of this place, for, for mee
 016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,
 017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,
 020.00G.039 But in attaining this desired place
 029.00A.026 Nor any place be empty quite,
 039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,
 050.00A.041 Whose every tooth to a severall place is gone,
 051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
 051.00A.011 Benight the glory of this place,
 051.00A.016 Some senslesse peece of this place bee;
 079.00B.039 Each place can afford shadowes. If all faile,
 106.00A.020 By you, fit place for every flower and jewell,
 108.00A.205 And findes a gellie in the place,
 110.00A.015 The fighting place now seamens ragges supply;

110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay
 111.00A.016 Suspitious boldnesse to this place belongs,
 115.00A.008 Both of the place and paines of hell, are ended;
 131.00B.054 Findes but the place, after, the nearest way:
 133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 137.00A.013 So in the country'is beauty; to this place
 139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
 139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
 140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 147.00B.004 Admit to that place this last funerall Scrowle.
 150.00A.043 Death gets 'twixt soules and bodies such a place
 153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.075 And to be sure betimes to get a place,
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 155.00a.299 Then solidnes, and roundnes haue no place.
 156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
 157.00b.155 Though he had right, and power, and Place before,
 157.00b.194 Whether shee past by such a place or no;
 157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place
 157.00b.447 To fill the place of one of them, or more,
 157.00b.511 Here in a place, where mis-deuotion frames
 158.00A.132 A place, where no place was; by natures course
 158.00A.132 A place, where no place was; by natures course
 158.00A.135 His spungie confines gave him place to grow,
 158.00A.158 So, of a lone unhaunted place possest,
 158.00A.268 Cares not, but safe the Place she's come unto
 158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
 160.00A.038 Which fills all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
 184.00A.155 Into the Virgin, whose wombe was a place
 187.00A.011 With whom shee dwells, no place of rest afford,
 187.00A.110 The place where was his congregation,
 192.00B.022 Christs Crosse, & Adams tree, stood in one place;

PLACE.....1

202b.9a.002 *Brought to the bridge, where through a narrow place

PLACED.....2

063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
 189.00B.032 Seemes richly placed in sublimed dust;

PLACES.....4

108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.

PLAGUE.....7

- 004.00A.218 That they each other plague, they merit it.
 004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,
 021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.
 029.00A.006 That I have had the plague a yeare?
 064.00a.025 A deeper plague, to make her love mee too,
 068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,
 184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,

PLAGUES.....2

- 008.00B.108 The plagues of travellers; love; marriage
 152.12a.046 Of Plagues on vs? and only now, when more

PLAGUIE.....1

- 039.00A.015 Adde one more, to the plaguie Bill?

PLAGUING.....1

- 022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;

PLAGUY.....1

- 150.00A.008 Into his bloody, or plaguy, or sterv'd jawes.

PLAIES.....2

- 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,

PLAIN.....1

- 020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,

PLAINE.....9

- 003.00A.051 Religion, plaine, simple, sullen, yong,
 003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazzling, yet plaine to all eyes;
 004.00A.034 See it plaine Rashe awhile, then nought at all.
 032.00A.016 And true plaine hearts doe in the faces rest,
 078.00D.008 Of our affection, that as that's round and plaine,
 155.00a.120 And then make vp his obseruation plaine;
 158.00A.187 As his late house, and the first houre speaks plaine,
 158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and 183.00A.021 (As in plaine Maps, the furthest West is East)

PLAINLY.....1

- 157.00b.485 All casuall ioye doth loud and plainly say,

PLAISTER.....1

- 017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee

PLANETS.....3

066.00A.010 My constancie I to the planets give,
 141.00A.039 When single planets by the Gods are nam'd,
 155.00a.210 When in the Planets, and the Firmament

PLANT.....5

151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 158.00A.130 There through th'earths-pores, and in a Plant hous'd her a new.
 158.00A.131 The plant thus abled, to it selfe did force
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,
 183.00A.008 Shee sees a Cedar plant it selfe, and fall,

PLANTED.....1

013.00A.026 I planted knowledge and lifes tree in thee,

PLANTS.....5

061.00A.027 What Plants, Myne, Beasts, Foule, Fish,
 082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,
 150.00A.006 Plants, cattell, men, dishes for Death to eate.
 155.00a.200 Both beasts and plants, curst in the curse of man.
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same

PLATE.....2

005.00A.067 His Plate, Challices; and mistake them away,
 013.00A.028 Frame and enamell Plate, and drinke in glasse?

PLAY.....13

004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play
 011.00A.024 Nor kisse and play in his house, as before.
 036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,
 055.00A.004 Give th'art of Riming, Huntsmanship, or play,
 059.00A.017 Endure the short scorne of a Bridegroomes play?
 106.00A.030 Of study and play made strange Hermaphrodits,
 112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play
 112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
 125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
 155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
 156.00a.106 To see how well, the good play her, on earth.
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 158.00A.453 From tent to tent, and with the children play,

PLAY'IN.....1

011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?

PLAYERS.....2

004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r looks
 018.00B.036 Of Players, which upon the worlds stage be,

PLAYES.....7

004.00A.093 And askes, what newes? I tell him of new playes.
 022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes
 110.00A.014 Like courts removing, or like ended playes.
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint

PLEAD.....3

115.NY3.005 Plead for me, and so by thyne & my labor,
 157.00b.150 Title to Heauen, and plead it by his Faith,
 157.00b.153 Yea though he plead a long possession too,

PLEADING.....1

157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;

PLEAS.....1

002.00A.048 And wooes in language of the Pleas, and Bench:

PLEAS'D.....5

004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe

PLEASANTLY.....1

158.00A.219 Pleasantly three, then streightned twenty yeares

PLEASE.....5

003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow
 016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
 112.00A.004 I could ideate nothing, which could please,
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.

PLEASES.....1

040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,

PLEASING.....3

106.00A.065 With these your pleasing labours, for great use
 106.00A.075 A pleasing sacrifice; now dispossesse
 179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then

PLEASURE.....13

022.00A.056 And in that pleasure lengthen the short dayes
 024.00A.036 In whose selfe, unmanur'd, all pleasure lies,
 027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
 071.00A.010 And pleasure in your conquest have,
 080.00E.006 And cannot pleasure chuse,
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 121.NY3.014 Pleasure, now fled from London, to retrive.
 139.00A.047 With pleasure, and delight may not ingresse,
 140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be his pleasure, is his rod,
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 185.00A.007 Pleasure or businesse, so, our Soules admit
 187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:

PLEASURES.....6

032.00A.003 But suck'd on countrey pleasures, childishly?
 032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
 079.00B.023 After such pleasures, unlesse wise
 121.NY3.007 Now pleasures dirth our City doth posses
 129.00A.010 Hath stor'd with notes of use and pleasures too,
 174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,

PLEITS.....1

188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.

PLENTEOUSLY.....1

121.NY3.016 Thy thighs with hony, but as plenteously

PLENTY.....5

008.00B.107 Want after plenty; poore and gouty age;
 108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
 138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnessse, plenty, bid it goe,
 157.00b.233 Twenty such parts, whose plenty and riches is 184.00A.185 When plenty, Gods image, and seale

PLIGHT.....1

 189.00B.002 To put thy hand unto the holy Plough,

PLOW.....1

158.00A.510 Sister and wife to Caine, Caine that first did plow.

PLOW-LAND.....1

016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed come there,

PLOWING.....1

158.00A.514 Why plowing, building, ruling and the rest,

PLUMP.....1

188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.

PLUMPE.....1

001.00A.040 Of thy plumpe muddy whore, or prostitute boy

PLURA.....1

186.00E.021 Plura tibi accumulet, sanctus cognominis, Ille

PLYANT.....1

158.00A.215 The free inhabitants of the Plyant aire.

PLYES.....1

158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,

001.00A.104 So is the Poxe; He answered not, but spy'd
 002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,

POYSON.....10

004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 008.00B.100 Poyson, whose nimble fume rot thy moist braine;
 011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,
 140.00A.027 For, God no such specifique poyson hath
 149.00A.042 How little poyson cracks a christall glasse?
 157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.
 157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 167.00A.010 And doth with poyson, warre, and sicknesse dwell.
 184.00A.238 For physicke made, from poyson be exempt,

POYSON'D.....2

004.00A.006 Poyson'd with love to see, or to bee seene,
 141.00A.054 But I remaine a poyson'd fountaine still;

POYSON'IS.....1

157.00b.335 The poyson'is gone through all, poysons affect

POYSONING.....1

155.00a.331 Poysoning the fountaines, whence our actions spring,

POYSONOUS.....5

003.00A.028 Or eate thy poysonous words, courage of straw!

140.00A.020 The poysonous tincture of Originall sinne,

140.00A.042 Poysonous, or purgative, or cordiall,

155.00a.180 The poysonous tincture, and the stayne of Eue,

PRACTICE.....2

020.00G.073 Rather set out below; practice my Art,

153.00A.024 Doth practice dying by a little sleepe,

PRACTIS'D.....1

064.00a.009 Nor he, in his young godhead practis'd it.

PRACTISE.....8

002.00A.063 Law practise for meere gaine; bold soule repute

066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.

068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,

130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,

131.00B.064 Is sport for every girle to practise on.

142.00A.003 And 'gainst a practise generall to warre.

146.00A.019 If hee could have foes, in whose practise grew

155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.

PRACTISED.....1

157.00b.512 A thousand praiers to saints, whose very names

PRAIS'D.....2

131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,

157.00b.032 To bee hereafter prais'd, for praying thee,

PRAISE.....24

004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 018.00B.049 Nor praise, nor dispraise me, nor blesse nor curse
 022.00A.055 I could beginne againe to court and praise,
 053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.
 106.00A.017 Help with your presence, and devise to praise
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,
 107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 114.00A.024 A Poem in thy praise, and writ by thee.
 116.00A.011 And praise thee for'it, and zealously imbrace
 130.00A.034 And make you'asham'd, to make your hawks praise, yours,
 133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
 137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,
 141.00A.050 For then your judgement is below my praise,
 141.00A.070 And now your Chaplaine, God in you to praise.
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
 145.00A.056 The power and praise of both them, on the last;
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
 157.00b.278 Of Nailles and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
 184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,

PRAISED.....1

004.00A.062 His tongue, he praised it, and such words told

PRAISES.....4

138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
 157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.
 184.00A.201 Then spheares, or Angels praises bee,

PRAISING.....1

145.00A.046 And not be chid for praising yesterday:

PRAY.....14

110.00A.046 Is paid with life, or pray, or doing dyes.
 110.00A.048 A scourge, 'gainst which wee all forget to pray,
 128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
 151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
 157.00b.464 Who dreamt deuoutlier, then most vse to pray;
 184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee

184.00A.070 In rythmique feet, in common pray for mee,
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there
 184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)
 184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,

PRAY'D.....1

170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgivenessse for his foes fierce spight?

PRAYER.....8

138.00A.046 Who prayer-lesse labours, or, without this, prayes,

PRAYERS.....8

111.00A.014 With wishing prayers, and neat integritie,
 129.00A.015 Which thicken on you now, as prayers ascend
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 180.NY3.010 In prayers, & flattering Speaches I court God:
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know
 184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;

PRAYES.....5

110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well
 138.00A.046 Who prayer-lesse labours, or, without this, prayes,
 139.00A.035 To make it good, for, such a prayer prayes.
 184.00A.122 Prayes ceaslesly,'and thou hearken too
 184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prayes,

PRAYING.....1

180.NY3.008 As praying, as mute; as infinite, as none.

PRAYS.....1

080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,

PRAYSE.....1

155.00a.408 To sing her funerall prayse, and vanish than.

PRAYSES.....3

136.00A.013 Care not then, Madame,'how low your prayses lye;

155.00a.459 That no one should her prayses thus reherse,

191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayses therefore on this one,

PRAYSING.....1

157.00b.032 To bee hereafter prais'd, for praying thee,

PREACH.....2

004.00A.210 To preach, he enters, and a Lady which owes

PRECIOUS.....7

004.00A.156 My precious soule began, the wretchednesse

015.00G.029 My Myne of precious stones: My Emperie,

073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough

081.HH5.035 to enamell & to guild a precious pott

157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.

157.00b.429 And as by changing that whole precious Gold

187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:

PRECIPITATION.....1

155.00a.098 An ominous precipitation.

PRECONTRACT.....1

157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;

PREFER.....3

004.00A.052 I love your judgement; Whom doe you prefer,

133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.

141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.

PREFIGURE.....1

151.00A.049 And did prefigure here, in devout tast,

PREGNANT.....5

058.00A.006 Pregnant of thee,

059.00A.008 But glorifies his pregnant pot,

062.00A.002 A Pregnant banke swel'd up, to rest

109.00A.013 From out her pregnant intrailles sigh'd a winde

116.00A.001 Pregnant again with th'old twins Hope, and Feare,

PREHEMINENCE.....1

109.00A.007 My lines are such. 'Tis the preheminece

PREHEMINENCES.....1

189.00B.049 These are thy titles and prehemineces,

PREIST.....1

108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,

PRENTICES.....1

036.00A.006 Late schoole boyes, and sowre prentices,

PREVENT'ST.....1

108.00A.131 How thou prevent'st the Sunne,

PREVENTED.....1

158.00A.489 After the Ape, who, thus prevented, flew,

PREY.....13

003.00A.018 Thee in ships woodden Sepulchers, a prey
 074.00A.002 Which on an eye, cheeke, lip, can prey,
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 146.00A.002 Is, Oh, heire of it, our All is his prey.
 149.00A.062 Of such a prey, and to his tryumph adde.
 150.00A.031 And though thou beest, O mighty bird of prey,
 158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none

158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
 158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.

PREYES.....1

005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,

PRICE.....5

004.00A.076 And for his price doth with who ever comes,
 004.00A.121 He names a price for every office paid;
 022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;
 049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,

PRIDE.....9

008.00B.074 Necessities; but now must nurse thy pride,
 011.00A.034 Do Londons Major, or Germans, the Popes pride.
 021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,
 109.00A.005 By a worse painter made; and (without pride)
 112.00A.031 So pride, lust, covetize, being severall
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.366 Euey first motion of rebellious pride:

PRIMROSE.....3

069.00A.001 Vpon this Primrose hill,

069.00A.004 To his owne primrose, and grow Manna so;

069.00A.021 Live Primrose then, and thrive

PRINCE.....22

003.00A.048 The statecloth where the Prince sate yesterday.

011.00A.028 Their Prince, or coyne his gold, themselves exile

048.00A.014 (Who Prince enough in one another bee,)

062.00A.068 Else a great Prince in prison lies.

108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires

133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,

141.00A.044 And as a vertuous Prince farre off, to mee.

148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;

152.12a.018 As Contemplation of the Prince wee misse.

152.12a.020 Reason still seconded that This Prince would.

153.00A.190 All jealousies 'twixt Prince and subjects love,

155.00a.034 A Prince, expected long, come to fulfill

155.00a.045 The present Prince, they're loth it should be said,

155.00a.046 The Prince doth languish, or the Prince is dead:

155.00a.046 The Prince doth languish, or the Prince is dead:

155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,

157.00b.117 Thinke the a Prince, who of themselues create

157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subjects to call thee

158.00A.081 Prince of the orchard, faire as dawning morne,

158.00A.137 To see the Prince, and so fill'd the way

158.00A.334 And like a Prince she sends her faculties

158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.

PRINCES.....19

004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
 010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,
 012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill
 036.00A.021 She is all States, and all Princes, I,
 036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,
 048.00A.013 Alas, as well as other Princes, wee,
 054.00A.026 As princes doe in times of action get
 081.HH5.009 But as ill Princes before they have obtaind
 108.00A.023 The Princes favour is defus'd o'r all,
 108.00A.041 So are those Courts, whose Princes animate,
 112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.
 155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;
 156.00a.022 Princes for armes, and Counsailors for braines,
 157.00b.078 As Courts to Princes; shee whose eies enspheard
 157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show
 187.00A.023 Her Princes are, and now before the foe
 187.00A.096 The Princes of the Kingdome, and the land.
 187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee
 187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace

PRINCIPALL.....2

155.00a.104 But accessory, and principall in ill.
 157.00b.386 A triall, must the principall be tride.

PRINCIPALLY.....1

136.00A.050 Or principally, then religion

PRINT.....4

001.00A.097 To judge of lace, pinke, panes, print, cut, and plight,
 106.00A.004 It nourseth sadnesse, and your bodies print,
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 157.00b.314 (In a far fairer print;) but read the same:

PRISON.....13

001.00A.004 In prison, and here be coffin'd, when I dye;
 004.00A.154 Who feares more actions, doth hast from prison;
 014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.
 062.00A.068 Else a great Prince in prison lies.
 157.00b.173 Thinke in how poore a prison thou didst lie
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,

157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 158.00A.241 Now swome a prison in a prison put,
 158.00A.241 Now swome a prison in a prison put,
 158.00A.371 This Soule, now free from prison, and passion,
 160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there
 163.00A.006 Wisheth himselfe delivered from prison;
 184.00A.131 Is only for our prison fram'd,

PRISONERS.....6

002.00A.067 Idly, like prisoners, which whole months will sweare
 004.00A.129 I more amas'd then Circes prisoners, when 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manaced, when they'are con-dem'nd to die.
 109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,
 158.00A.098 Were prisoners Judges, t'would seeme rigorous,
 187.00A.227 34 That underfoot the prisoners stamped bee,

PRISONS.....3

138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,

052.00A.049 If to consider what'tis, one proceed,

156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,

PROCEEDS.....1

187.00A.233 38 Both good and evill from his mouth proceeds;

PROCESSION.....1

107.00A.062 So slowly pac'd in this procession?

PROCLAIME.....1

189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,

PROCLAMATION.....1

157.00b.527 Thou art the Proclamation; and I ame

PROCURE.....2

126.00A.018 To tempt thee and procure her widdowhood,

184.00A.219 That wee by harkning, not procure

PRODIGALL.....2

152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store

169.00A.002 Why doe the prodigall elements supply

PRODIGALLY.....1

143.00A.012 Your stock, and over prodigally spent

PRODIGIE.....1

153.00A.157 To this, not miracle, but Prodigie,

PRODUC'D.....4

030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;

054.00A.022 Produc'd by one, love such additions take,

064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,

155.00a.077 Produc'd: The matter and the stuffe of this,

PRODUCE.....3

136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,
 138.00A.063 Mans body can produce, hence hath it beene
 155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,

PRODUCEST.....1

006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.

PROFANE.....3

137.00A.027 To doe profane autumnall offices,
 150.00A.064 To sociableness, a name profane.
 170.00A.010 I said to all my profane mistresses,

PROFANES.....1

131.00B.125 He much profanes whom valiant heats doe move

PROFESS.....2

197.F01.018 Sacr: Theolog: Profess:

 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:

PROFIT.....3

138.00A.023 Profit, ease, fitnessse, plenty, bid it goe,
 145.00A.068 Enabled me to profit, and take forth
 181.00A.003 Would I have profit by the sacrifice,

PROFITE.....1

155.00a.421 The common profite; and some people haue

PROFUSELY.....1

155.00a.109 To that consumption; and profusely blinde,

PROGENY.....1

157.00b.041 For thus, Man may extend thy progeny,

PROGRESSE.....6

006.00D.028 Vpon the progresse of thy glorious booke,
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 157.00b.HE2 Of The Progresse of the Soule.
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 158.00A.HE2 PROGRESSE
 158.00A.001 I sing the progresse of a deathlesse soule,

PROHPAN'D.....1

187.00A.095 To ground the strengths of Iuda, and prohpan'd

PROJECTS.....2

111.00A.023 Whose deepest projects, and egregious gests
 158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,

PROMETHEAN.....1

108.00A.113 To all our ships, could a Promethean art

PROMIS'D.....4

130.00A.040 And promis'd him, at morning prayer before.
 156.00a.086 Much promis'd, much perform'd, at not fiftene,
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day

PROMISE.....2

038.00A.011 Keepe midnights promise; mistake by the way
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,

PROMISES.....1

184.00A.212 That musique of thy promises,

PROMISING.....1

012.00A.032 In flattering eddies promising retorne,

PROMONTORIES.....1

158.00A.307 And torne the hopefull Promontories head,

PROMONTORY.....1

020.00G.059 These, and (the glorious Promontory) her Chin

PROMPTS.....1

002.00A.012 Yet prompts him which stands next, and cannot reade,

PRONE.....2

004.00A.013 As prone to all ill, and of good as forget-

PRONOUNCE.....1

141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,

PROOFE.....3

145.00A.051 How faire a proofe of this, in our soule growes?

150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her proofe 'gainst sins of youth?

158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better proofe the law

PROOFES.....1

137.00A.065 Oft from new proofes, and new phrase, new doubts grow,

PROPAGATE.....1

155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.

PROPAGATION.....1

062.00A.012 Was all our propagation.

PROPER.....2

148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper spheare,

158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay

PROPERTIES.....2

073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke

082.00A.034 And love, all, all some properties invest,

PROPHAN'D.....1

022.00A.069 And ought not be prophan'd on either part,

PROPHANATION.....1

031.00A.007 T'were prophanation of our joyes

PROPHANE.....7

022.00A.023 O I prophane, though most of women be

057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.

063.00A.022 From prophane men you hide,

126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad

138.00A.013 Temples were not demolish'd, though prophane:

142.00A.044 As Others, with prophane and sensuall Darts,

180.NY3.006 As my prophane love, & as soone forgott:

PROPHECIE.....1

137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.

PROPHECIES.....1

157.00b.348 Their Prophecies growen to be Historee.

PROPHESIE.....1

155.00a.175 She, of whom th'Auncients seem'd to prophesie,

PROPHESIES.....2

184.00A.064 Thy Eagle-sighted Prophets too,

187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.

187.00A.141 14 For, the vaine foolish things thy Prophets sought,

187.00A.313 13 For the Priests sins, and Prophets, which have shed

PROPORTION.....13

065.00A.004 And keepe it in proportion,

122.00A.030 Some thing to answere in some proportion

153.00A.038 Things, in proportion fit by perspective,

155.00a.250 Beauty, that's colour, and proportion.

155.00a.252 Their round proportion embracing all.

155.00a.285 But keeps the earth her round proportion still?

155.00a.302 The worlds proportion disfigured is,

155.00a.306 That beauties best, proportion, is dead,

155.00a.308 Is left vs, is without proportion.

155.00a.309 Shee by whose lines proportion should bee

155.00a.333 Be not done fitly'nd in proportion,

155.00a.341 And had the world his iust proportion,

157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion

PROPORTION'S.....1

155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.

PROPORTIONALL.....1

035.00A.012 Convenient, and more proportionall.

PROPORTIONS.....2

155.00a.318 That th'Arke to mans proportions was made,

003.00A.076 To adore, or scorne an image, or protest,

133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,

PROTESTINGS.....1

025.00A.013 Of protestings,

PROTESTS.....3

004.00A.212 And unto her protests protests protests

004.00A.212 And unto her protests protests protests

004.00A.212 And unto her protests protests protests

PROUD.....7

001.00A.068 Improvidently proud, creepes to the wall,

004.00A.014 full, as proud, as lustfull, and as much in debt,
 008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 150.00A.060 Abundant virtue'have bred a proud delight.
 167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 176.00B.010 The itchy Lecher, and selfe tickling proud

PROUE.....1

152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:

PROUINCE.....1

157.00b.176 A Prouince Pack'd vp in two yards of skinne.

PROUOKE.....1

157.00b.517 Could any Saint prouoke that appetite,

PROV'D.....4

018.00B.024 Fall ill or good, 'tis madnesse to have prov'd
 021.00G.053 Have we prov'd all the secrets of our Art,
 150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,

PROVE.....14

005.00A.017 Prove the world a man, in which, officers
 013.00A.002 And in that sophistrie, Oh, thou dost prove
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?
 022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?
 025.00A.024 Or prove as false as thou art now.
 027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
 039.00A.026 Wee dye and rise the same, and prove
 039.00A.031 And if no peece of Chronicle wee prove,
 048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 053.00A.005 But one, and then another prove,
 079.00B.001 Whilst yet to prove,
 080.00E.022 Whom I may freely prove?
 091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew
 181.00A.037 But, as oft, Alchimists doe coyners prove,

PROVERBS.....1

013.00A.019 In broken proverbs, and torne sentences.

PROVES.....1

171.00A.008 But is captiv'd, and proves weake or untrue,

PROVIDE.....7

PUNISH.....2

002.00A.039 But these punish themselves; the insolence
185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,

PUNISHMENT.....4

122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;
155.00a.304 Reward and punishment are bent awrie.
168.00A.010 Kings pardon, but he bore our punishment.
176.00B.014 Th'effect and cause, the punishment and sinne.

PUNISHMENTS.....1

140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,

PUNISHT.....1

008.00B.020 And punisht for offences not their owne?

PUPPITS.....1

PURCHASE.....2

041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,
189.00B.023 Deare, tell me where thy purchase lies, and shew

PURE.....28

021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;
045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,
045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,
054.00A.001 I scarce beleeeve my love to be so pure
054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use
057.00A.025 'Tis not all spirit, pure, and brave,
062.00A.065 So must pure lovers soules descend
081.HH5.007 thy hart seemd soft & pure as liquid gold
081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mistery
081.HH5.029 They had bene pure they had bene innocent
108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
131.00B.105 'Till slow accesse hath made it wholly pure,
131.00B.110 In that pure region of a worthy love:
136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne
137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,
148.00A.024 The pure which elemented them shall stay;
149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complaines! Alas,
151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,
155.00a.178 That for Allay vnto so pure a minde
155.00a.257 As disproportion that pure forme. It teares
156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood
169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
187.00A.295 As carbuncles did their pure bodies shine,
188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.

PURELY.....1

160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;

PURER.....5

062.00A.028 And part farre purier then he came.
131.00B.059 Man's better part consists of purier fire,
150.00A.048 Bodies are purier, then best Soules are here.
156.00a.046 Her, greater, purier, firmer, then before?
187.00A.293 7 But heretofore purier her Nazarite

PUREST.....8

016.00A.035 Then are they purest; Change'is the nursery
 022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,
 131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 155.00a.062 Corrupt and mortall in thy purest part.
 157.00b.148 The purest Blood, and Breath, that ere it eat.
 187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?
 187.00A.274 Valued at purest gold, how do wee see

PURG'D.....3

014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.
 164.00A.013 Impute me righteous, thus purg'd of evill,
 181.00A.030 When Still'd, or purg'd by tribulation.

PURGATIVE.....1

140.00A.042 Poysonous, or purgative, or cordiall,

PURGATORIE.....1

004.00A.003 A Purgatorie, such as fear'd hell is

PURGATORY.....2

012.00A.013 Into my Purgatory, faithlesse thee,
 021.00G.055 And, after all this passed Purgatory,

PURGE.....6

040.00A.007 Do purge sea waters fretfull salt away,
 112.00A.062 Correctives, but as chymiques, purge the bad.
 137.00A.053 Purge but the booke of Fate, that it admit
 138.00A.083 Statesmen purge vice with vice, and may corrode
 138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
 184.00A.007 From this red earth, O Father, purge away

PURIFIE.....2

155.00a.181 Out of her thoughts, and deeds; and purifie
 161.00A.011 As fire these drossie Rymes to purifie,

PURIFY'D.....1

131.00B.042 Themselves unprison'd were and purify'd:

PURITAN.....1

001.00A.027 Oh monstrous, superstitious puritan,

PURITIE.....2

045.00A.027 As is twixt Aire and Angells puritie,
 113.00A.015 Which God imputes, as native puritie,

PURLEWE.....1

064.00a.018 All is the purlewe of the God of Love.

PURPLE.....1

192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,

PURPLED.....1

060.00A.020 Purpled thy naile, in blood of innocence?

PURPOS'D.....1

034.00A.012 For having purpos'd change, and falsehood; you

PURPOSE.....5

155.00a.101 Euen Gods purpose; and made woman, sent

155.00a.420 Some Counsaylors some purpose to aduance

157.00b.526 The purpose, and th'Autority is his;

158.00A.163 And she (with other purpose) kill'd it quite;

158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into

PURPOSED.....1

187.00A.153 17 The Lord hath done that which he purposed,

PURPOSES.....1

155.00a.398 And man least knowes their trade, and purposes.

PURPOSETH.....1

058.00A.025 To doe me more harme, then it purposeth,

PURSE.....3

050.00A.038 Lanke, as an unthrifts purse; but a soules sacke;

061.00A.003 His only, and only his purse

188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.

PURSES.....1

020.00G.092 Two purses, and their mouths aversely laid:

PURSEVANT.....1

004.00A.216 Pursevant would have ravish'd him away

PURSIVANT.....1

005.00A.065 To see a Pursivant come in, and call

PURSU'D.....1

120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;

PURSUE.....2

079.00B.034 To pursue things which had indammag'd me.

158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake

PURSUES.....1

187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.

PURSUEST.....1

187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,

PURSUETH.....1

150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.

PUSHES.....1

158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright

PUSHT.....2

110.00A.042 Of honour, or faire death, out pusht mee first,153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,

136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,

RADIENT.....1

108.00A.142 Poudier thy Radiant haire,

RAFTERS.....1

049.00A.028 The rafters of my body, bone

RAG'D.....2

109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;

185.00A.028 By God, for his apparell, rag'd, and torne?

RAGE.....15

003.00A.019 To leaders rage, to stormes, to shot, to dearth?

003.00A.106 To the streames tyrannous rage, alas are driven

005.00A.008 Who Officers rage, and Suiters misery

018.00B.013 Temper, o faire Love, loves impetuous rage,

018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,

018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,

039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
 049.00A.052 Disputed it, and tam'd thy rage,
 064.00a.017 To rage, to lust, to write to, to commend,
 110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,
 131.00B.126 To stile his wandring rage of passion, Love.
 137.00A.063 Tast of Poetique rage, or flattery,
 140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
 157.00b.177 And that vsurped, or threatned with the rage
 184.00A.174 All waies, which rage, or Justice knowes,

RAGES.....1

127.00A.006 Here rages chafes and threatens pestilence;

RAGGED.....3

008.00B.040 Gorgeous France, ruin'd: ragged and decay'd
 009.00A.033 And like a bunch of ragged carrets stand
 049.00A.023 Or thinke this ragged bony name to bee

RAGGES.....5

003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey
 029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,
 109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,
 110.00A.015 The fighting place now seamens ragges supply;
 156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue

RAGING.....2

014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;
 112.00A.011 If in the furnace of the raging line,

RAGS.....2

036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
 133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.

RAIGNE.....2

038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.

RAIGNES.....1

184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,

RAILING.....1

003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?

RAIN'D.....1

109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more

RAINBOW.....1

155.00a.352 Himselfe his various Rainbow did allow.

RAINE.....5

069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe
 081.HH5.046 then inck dropt on mudd or raine on grasse
 155.00a.283 We spur, we raine the stars, and in their race
 155.00a.381 The clouds conceiue not raine, or doe not powre
 176.00B.005 In mine Idolatry what showres of raine

RAIS'D.....6

004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men
 131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.
 136.00A.016 And, ordinance rais'd on Towers so many mile
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men
 158.00A.280 It's rais'd, to be the Raisers instrument and food.
 181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;

RAISE.....12

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 079.00B.030 Eager, desires to raise posterity.
 108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 130.00A.008 Strives to urge upward, and his fortune raise;
 138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
 141.00A.052 As Counsels, and as farre th'endeavour raise.
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 157.00b.277 And of those many opinions which men raise
 157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place
 160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

RAISERS.....1

158.00A.280 It's rais'd, to be the Raisers instrument and food.

RAMME.....1

160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,

RAMMES.....1

002.00A.019 Rammes, and slings now are seely battery,

RAMPART.....1

187.00A.120 The wall, and Rampart, which together mourne.

RAN.....4

004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
 142.00A.022 Soe is the Blood sometimes; who ever ran
 157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,

160.00A.060 In both affections many to him ran,

RANKE.....6

001.00A.038 But in ranke itchie lust, desire, and love

009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,

010.00A.024 The sinnes of her owne youths ranke lustinesse;

150.00A.020 A tenth ranke in the heavenly hierarchie.

153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,

154.00A.002 Fill any former ranke or make a new,

RANKES.....1

029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,

RANKLY.....1

002.00A.027 Rankly digested, doth those things out-spue,

RANKS.....1

153.00A.059 His vertues into names, and ranks; but I

RANSOM'D.....1

185.00A.032 Halfe of that Sacrifice, which ransom'd us?

RANSOME.....2

004.00A.145 Gave it, as Ransome; But as fidlers, still,

014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.

RANSOMES.....1

138.00A.026 It ransomes one sex, and one Court preserves;

RAPE.....1

158.00A.281 Is any kinde subject to rape like fish?

RAPINE.....1

158.00A.508 Rapine, deceit, and lust, and ills enow

RARE.....3

010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.

137.00A.051 Of past and future stories, which are rare,

141.00A.006 Wonders, because they're rare; But a new starre

RARENESSE.....1

137.00A.003 Rarenesse, or use, not nature value brings;

RAREST.....1

137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;

RARIFIE.....1

149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,

RARIFY'D.....1

141.00A.034 As, water being into ayre rarify'd,

RARITIES.....1

004.00A.022 Then Africks Monsters, Guianaes rarities,

RASH.....1

019.00A.008 With cares rash sodaine stormes, being o'rspread,

RASHE.....1

004.00A.034 See it plaine Rashe awhile, then nought at all.

RATE.....1

001.00A.031 The silke, and gold he weares, and to that rate

RATED.....1

187.00A.275 Low rated now, as earthen Pitchers, stand,

RATHER.....17

006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.

016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee

020.00G.073 Rather set out below; practice my Art,

021.00G.022 Or rather to conspiring destinie,

028.00A.016 I'had rather thou shouldst painfully repent,

035.00A.025 Fill'd with her love, may I be rather grown

044.00A.027 For I had rather owner bee

050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made

050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay

112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.

112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe

124.00A.002 Of the India, or rather Paradise

141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,

156.00a.074 Rather t'adorne, then last, shee soone expir'd;

157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare

157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,

191.00B.026 Their harmony is rather danc'd than sung;

RATTLE.....1

153.00A.137 Whose voice, the Bell, doth rattle, or grow dumbe,

RAUEN.....1

155.00a.115 When Stag, and Rauen, and the long-liu'd tree,

RAUISHED.....1

178.NY3.003 And her Soule early into heauen rauished,

RAVELD.....1

158.00A.504 Are raveld out, and fast there by one end,

RAVEN.....1

022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,

RAVENOUS.....4

002.00A.026 Others wits fruits, and in his ravenous maw

052.00A.024 Should againe the ravenous

151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,

158.00A.258 As, in this trap a ravenous pike was tane,

RAVISH.....2

162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?

171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.

RAVISH'D.....2

001.00A.108 Violently ravish'd to his liberty;

004.00A.216 Pursevant would have ravish'd him away

RAVISHERS.....1

184.00A.094 Tender'd not taken by those Ravishers:

RAVISHING.....2

005.00A.014 Are the vast ravishing seas; and Suiters,

009.00A.018 As, for the ravishing thereof we die.

RAW.....2

131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,

158.00A.182 On whose raw armes stiffe feathers now begin,

RAYES.....2

082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;

131.00B.120 From the first Rayes, to his last opposite:

RAZE.....1

151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?

RE-BEGOT.....1

082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot

RE-CREATE.....1

184.00A.004 And re-create mee, now growne ruinous:

RE-REVEALE.....1

191.00B.034 In formes of joy and art doe re-reveale

REACH.....16

002.00A.112 Within the vast reach of th'huge statute lawes.
 003.00A.081 Reach her, about must, and about must goe;
 003.00A.087 The mindes indeavours reach, and mysteries
 004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 019.00A.014 Doe his hurts reach mee? doth my worth decay?
 019.00A.015 Or doe they reach his judging minde, that hee
 062.00A.067 Which sense may reach and apprehend,
 122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
 134.00A.014 Grow infinite, and so passe reasons reach,
 136.00A.054 Neither can reach you, great and innocent.
 152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him thus;
 157.00b.016 And seemes to reach, and to step forth to meet

REACH'D.....2

157.00b.289 Are mysteries which none haue reach'd vnto.
 158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way

REACHING.....2

141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,

READ.....15

006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.
 030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee
 040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
 145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I
 153.00A.100 As Angells goe, and know, and as men read.
 155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read
 156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,
 157.00b.314 (In a far fairer print,) but read the same:
 157.00b.505 Where eies might read vpon the outward skin,
 163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,

READ'ST.....2

122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
 158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,

READE.....10

002.00A.012 Yet prompts him which stands next, and cannot reade,

006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.

018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade

022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,

052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade.)

108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made

134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devize.

156.00a.084 Should come to reade the booke of destiny,

156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,

158.00A.433 Reade of a lust the which may equall this;

READER.....1

153.00A.093 Just as a perfect reader doth not dwell,

READERS.....1

158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can

READIE.....1

004.00A.116 Readie to travaile: So I sigh, and sweat

READING.....1

145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.

READS.....1

130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,

READY.....3

004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found

011.00A.007 Ready with loathsome vomiting to spue

057.00A.027 Perchance as torches which must ready bee,

REALL.....1

039.00A.007 Or the Kings reall, or his stamped face

REALME.....3

003.00A.035 Thee faine, his whole Realme to be quit; and as

011.00A.026 His realme, his castle, and his diocesse.

155.00a.124 Did a faire Kingdome, and large Realme controule:

REALMES.....1

012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill

REAP.....1

128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap

REAPE.....1

151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;

REASON.....17

006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.
 057.00A.004 For reason, much too strong for phantasie,
 111.00A.008 Of vice, by any other reason free,
 114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pittie mee,
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
 139.00A.022 Reason and likelihood, the firmest Base,
 140.00A.038 All, All his faith can swallow,'or reason chaw.
 141.00A.011 A miracle, which reason scapes, and sense;
 152.12a.004 And Reason is That Centre; Faith is This.
 152.12a.063 Is th'other Centre, Reason, faster, then?
 152.12a.070 The only Subiect Reason wrought vpon.
 166.00A.005 Why should intent or reason, borne in mee,
 171.00A.007 Reason your viceroy in mee, mee should defend,
 184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.
 187.00A.279 By reason of the foes great cruelnesse,

REASONING.....1

115.00A.004 Feete and a reasoning soule and tongue to speake.

REASONS.....6

005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you're lov'd by all,
 134.00A.014 Grow infinite, and so passe reasons reach,
 136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence
 156.00a.092 To yeares of Reasons vse, and then infer
 158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes

REBAPTIZING.....1

139.00A.062 Or make a rebaptizing of one teare;

REBELL.....4

014.NY3.006 Whether the Maister pres or men rebell?
 064.00a.022 Rebell and Atheist too, why murmure I,
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 158.00A.103 Would God (disputes the curious Rebell) make

REBELL'D.....3

187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast
 187.00A.237 42 Wee have rebell'd, and falne away from thee,

REBELLIONS.....1

155.00a.165 To worke on their rebellions, and reduce

REBELLIOUS.....2

157.00b.366 Euey first motion of rebellious pride:

158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my

REBELLS.....1

055.00A.038 To future Rebells; If th'unborne

REBOUND.....1

123.NY3.012 Which as a lame Eccho of thyne doth rebound.

RECALL.....1

042.00A.020 Nor a lost hour recall?

RECAANT.....2

150.00A.001 DEath I recant, and say, unsaid by mee

157.00b.281 We see in Authors, too stiffe to recant,

RECEIT.....1

002.00A.038 In which Commandements large receit they dwell.

RECEIUERS.....1

155.00a.416 But, by Receiuers impotencies, lame,

RECEIUES.....1

157.00b.510 Where shee receiues, and giues addition.

RECEIV'D.....1

066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,

RECEIVE.....8

004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne

008.00B.067 Receive from him that doome ungrudgingly,

017.00A.048 A Nunnery durst receive, and thinke a maid,

051.00A.004 Receive such balmes, as else cure every thing,

072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:

112.00A.037 Men are sponges, which to poure out, receive,

185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive

192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,

RECEIVER.....1

183.00A.018 At once receiver and the legacie;

RECEIVES.....1

016.00A.020 The sea receives the Rhene, Volga, and Po.

RECEPERUNT.....1

199.C11.001 In propria venit, nec sui eum receperunt. Jo: i. ii.

RECKNINGS.....1

137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new recknings goe.

RECKON.....1

031.00A.010 Men reckon what it did and meant,

RECKONING.....1

158.00A.112 Reckoning their vanities, lesse is their gaine

RECLAIM'D.....1

150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay

RECLINING.....1

062.00A.003 The violets reclining head,

RECLUS'D.....3

108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know

137.00A.017 Widow'd and reclus'd else, her sweets she'enshrines

183.00A.012 Reclus'd at home, Publique at Golgotha.

RECOLLECT.....1

148.00A.026 Shall recollect, and in one All unite:

RECOMPACT.....1

049.00A.032 And recompact my scattered body so.

RECOMPENC'D.....1

155.00a.122 Mans grouth confess'd, and recompenc'd the meat:

RECOMPENCE.....2

139.00A.011 In recompence I would show future times

149.00A.027 Annuls this world, to recompence it, shall,

RECORD.....2

061.00A.019 And no record tell why:

137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.

RECORDER.....3

005.00A.071 Recorder to Destiny, on earth, and shee

108.00A.168 Then, reverend Priest, who Gods Recorder art,

141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,

RECORDS.....4

052.00A.018 To make, to keep, to use, to be these his Records.
 071.00A.014 Deface Records, and Histories
 107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
 157.00b.506 As strong Records for God, as mindes within,

RECOUER.....1

118.NY3.005 Dost thou recouer sicknes, or preuent?

RECOUERED.....1

155.00a.359 Perchance the world might haue recouered,

RECOVER.....1

110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,

RECREATED.....1

123.NY3.014 I recreated even by thy Creature live.

RECREATION.....1

004.00A.004 A recreation, and scant map of this.

RECTIFIE.....4

140.00A.033 Since then our businesse is, to rectifie
 152.12a.062 To rectifie Our Errors They foreknowe.
 157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:
 184.00A.218 And rectifie those Labyrinths aright,

RECUSANT.....1

012.00A.045 Am the Recusant, in that resolute state,

RED.....15

017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
 017.00A.011 If red and white and each good quality
 024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,
 107.00A.008 The household Bird, with the red stomacher,
 108.00A.132 And his red foming horses dost outrunne,
 157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,
 157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,
 157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had throughly red
 158.00A.156 Enchas'd with little fruits, so red and bright
 158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes
 163.00A.012 And red with blushing, as thou art with sinne;
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 184.00A.006 And by selfe-murder, red.
 184.00A.007 From this red earth, O Father, purge away

REDDE.....3

155.00a.357 Our blushing redde, which vs'd in cheekes to spred,
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue

REDDENDVM.....1

196.015.020 ANIMAE POSTLIMINIO REDDENDVM

REDDERE.....1

195.010.012 DEO REDDERE VOLVIT,

REDDI.....1

196.015.021 TERRAE POSTLIMINIO REDDI

REDDITO.....1

144.00B.HE3 stratim lacerato, & post reddito

REDEEM'D.....2

065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 184.00A.038 Whose flesh redeem'd us; That she-Cherubin,

REDEEME.....2

130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.

REDEEMED.....1

138.00A.057 For, bodies shall from death redeemed bee,

REDEEMING.....1

133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is

REDOUBLES.....1

062.00A.040 Redoubles still, and multiplies.

REDRESSE.....1

157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,

REDS.....1

004.00A.194 And women buy all reds which scarlets die.

REDUC'D.....1

030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.

REDUCE.....1

155.00a.165 To worke on their rebellions, and reduce

REEDS.....1

027.00A.017 Let others freeze with angling reeds,

REELING.....1

155.00a.273 And seeming weary with his reeling thus,

REFER.....1

155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,

REFERENCE.....1

153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have

REFIN'D.....9

001.00A.028 Of refin'd manners, yet ceremoniall man,

013.00A.024 Refin'd thee'into a blis-full paradise.

020.00G.081 Civilitie we see refin'd: the kiss

031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,

062.00A.021 If any, so by love refin'd,

137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthyest things

149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.

153.00A.011 And, by these meditations refin'd,

155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,

REFINDE.....1

136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone

REFINE.....1

004.00A.198 From hat, to shooe, himselfe at doore refine,

REFINES.....2

149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines

155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,

REFLECTS.....3

049.00A.010 And cleare reflects thee to thine eye.

131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.

155.00a.072 Reflects from her, on them which vnderstood

REFORM'D.....3

149.00A.057 To have reform'd this forward heresie,

191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill

191.00B.041 This be reform'd; Would a whole State present

REFRAINE.....1

048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,

REFRESH.....1

187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.

REFRESHING.....1

110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,

REFUGE.....1

112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne

REFUSE.....6

080.00E.008 And when he list refuse.

153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,

157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse

157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.

158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse

187.00A.242 As refuse, and off-scouring to them all.

REGARD.....1

187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace

REGARDETH.....1

187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.

REGE.....2

198.LL1.014 Post multos annos, Agente spiritu S^o, suadente Rege

REGION.....2

131.00B.110 In that pure region of a worthy love:

157.00b.192 Whether th'Ayrs middle Region be intense,

REGIONS.....1

112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,

REGIS.....1

200.021.007 -TV ET HORTATV REGIS IAC-

REHERSE.....1

155.00a.459 That no one should her prayes thus reherse,

REINES.....1

187.00A.194 Into my reines, 14 I with my people was

REINUEST.....1

157.00b.114 They reinuest thee in white innocence.

REINVEST.....1

108.00A.134 All businesses, from thence to reinvest

REIOYCE.....1

156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you

REJOYC'D.....1

183.00A.013 Sad and rejoyc'd shee's seen at once, and seen

REJOYCE.....3

122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,

187.00A.341 21 Rejoyce O Edoms daughter, joyfull bee

191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe

RELABI.....1

201.20a.044 Cura; 23 Metusque Relabi.

RELATION.....2

155.00a.214 All iust supply, and all Relation:

158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when

RELEAS'D.....1

072.00A.022 And so my soule more earnestly releas'd,

RELEASE.....1

106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings

RELICT.....1

038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet

RELICTO.....1

186.00E.003 Adscitus domui Domini, partrioque relicto

RELIE.....3

153.00A.148 Of children, servants, or the State relie.

155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,

187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,

RELIEFE.....2

155.00a.102 For mans reliefe, cause of his languishment.

176.00B.011 Have the remembrance of past joyes, for reliefe

RELIES.....2

052.00A.043 Forsake him who on them relies

158.00A.386 Himselfe he up-props, on himselfe relies

RELIGION.....18

003.00A.005 Is not our Mistresse faire Religion,
 003.00A.043 Seeke true religion. O where? Mirreus
 003.00A.051 Religion, plaine, simple, sullen, yong,
 003.00A.068 So doth, so is Religion; and this blind-
 108.00A.067 From higher powers; From God religion springs,
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 134.00A.025 But, you of learning and religion,
 136.00A.039 Not banish it selfe, nor religion.
 136.00A.041 Religion is a Christians, and you know
 136.00A.045 Be colleague to religion, but be it.
 136.00A.050 Or principally, then religion
 137.00A.040 With that which doth religion but invest,
 151.00A.046 Religion, did not consume, but'inspire
 155.00a.188 The supernaturall food, Religion,
 157.00b.374 Made her a soueraigne state, religion
 157.00b.515 Lawes of religion, haue at least the same,
 184.00A.142 From light affecting, in religion, newes,
 190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,

RELIGIONS.....4

136.00A.047 Religions tipes, the peeclesse centers flow,
 137.00A.035 In all Religions as much care hath bin
 137.00A.038 Esteeme religions, and hold fast the best,
 142.00A.029 Religions find faults, and forgive no fall,

RELIGIOSA.....1

104.C07.002 praemia, Supplicium, Religiosa cohors

RELIGIOUS.....3

155.00a.182 All, by a true religious Alchimy;
 157.00b.076 By vertue, and vertue by religious fires,
 184.00A.188 When wee are mov'd to seeme religious

RELIQUELY.....1

002.00A.084 (Reliquely kept) perchance buyes wedding geare;

RELIQUES.....2

067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
 070.00A.016 To make us Reliques; then

RELIQVIT.....1

196.015.036 POSTERIS RELIQVIT.

RELYES.....1

014.NY3.011 Yet She relyes vpon our Angels well

REMAINE.....5

008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,
 131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,
 141.00A.054 But I remaine a poyson'd fountaine still;
 187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine

REMAINES.....2

153.00A.052 Yet still remaines that vertuous man there was;
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee

REMAINING.....1

155.00a.067 For there's a kind of world remaining still,

REMEDY.....1

155.00a.044 When sickenes without remedy, empayres

REMEMB'REST.....1

154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde

REMEMBER.....11

013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
 043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
 044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
 047.00A.002 At least remember, I forbade it thee;
 157.00b.122 Drowsie or slacke, remember then that shee,
 157.00b.220 To'advance these thoughts, remember then, that shee
 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,
 187.00A.349 1 Remember, O Lord, what is fallen on us

REMEMBERS.....1

187.00A.027 Remembers what of old, shee esteemed most,

REMEMBRANCE.....1

176.00B.011 Have the remembrance of past joyes, for reliefe

REMEMBRED.....1

187.00A.034 Remembred not her end; Miraculously

REMEMBREST.....1

049.00A.059 So, in forgetting thou remembrest right,

REMEMBRING.....1

187.00A.205 20 My Soule is humbled in remembering this;

REMIS.....1

195.010.018 SINE REMIS, SINE REMORIS,

REMISLY.....1

158.00A.390 His sinewy Proboscis did remisly lie.

REMIT.....1

054.00A.027 New taxes, and remit them not in peace,

REMITTER.....1

002.00A.055 I should be in remitter of your grace;

REMORAES.....1

112.00A.008 Countries, Courts, Towns are Rockes, or Remoraes;

REMORIS.....1

195.010.018 SINE REMIS, SINE REMORIS,

REMORSE.....2

018.00B.003 By our long starving hopes, by that remorse

022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,

REMOTE.....4

131.00B.122 Remote or neare, or howsoe'r they move;

143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,

153.00A.040 Vertues, indeed remote, seeme to be nere;

156.00a.026 By which remote and distant Countries meet.

REMOU'D.....1

157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.

REMOV'D.....2

131.00B.072 And cannot be remov'd, unlesse she will.

187.00A.030 Remov'd, as women in uncleannesse bee;

REMOVE.....11

002.00A.008 Ridlingly it catch men; and doth remove

010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove

010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move

024.00A.029 And yet I grieve the lesse, least Griefe remove

031.00A.015 Absence, because it doth remove

039.00A.013 When did my colds a forward spring remove?

046.00A.013 Must businesse thee from hence remove?

048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.

138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,

150.00A.041 As houses fall not, though the King remove,
 153.00A.189 And so in that capacitie remove

REMOVED.....1

131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde

REMOVES.....1

052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;

REMOVING.....1

110.00A.014 Like courts removing, or like ended playes.

REND.....1

021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide

RENEW.....3

022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw

082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.

187.00A.388 Returne, and as of old, renew our day.

RENEW'D.....1

155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,

RENEWED.....1

187.00A.209 23 For every morning they renewed bee,

RENOUNCE.....1

012.00A.044 I will renounce thy dalliance: and when I

RENT.....5

009.00A.048 As where a Plough a stony ground doth rent?

113.00A.033 Much, much deare treasure for the great rent day.

155.00a.447 Accept this tribute, and his first yeares rent,

157.00b.520 To take this, for my second yeeres true Rent,

176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?

RENTS.....1

008.00B.062 And with whores, theeves, and murderers stuf his rents

REPAID.....1

162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,

REPAIRE.....8

047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast

049.00A.031 Till my returne, repaire

062.00A.060 Though it to body first repaire.

072.00A.013 Shee, to my losse, doth by her death repaire,

145.00A.007 In lovers Sonnets: you come to repaire
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.172 The most repaire, that are in goodnesse rich.
 174.00B.002 Repaire me now, for now mine end doth haste,

REPAIRES.....1

157.00b.394 Next day repaires, (but ill) last daies decay.

REPARATION.....1

157.00b.456 Gods Image, in such reparation,

REPAST.....1

182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast

REPENT.....13

001.00A.050 Charitably warn'd of thy sinnes, dost repent
 008.00B.111 But, I forgive; repent thee honest man:
 028.00A.016 I had rather thou shouldst painfully repent,
 035.00A.018 And, but the waking, nothing shall repent;
 117.00A.010 Therefore I envie them, and doe repent,
 125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 149.00A.054 To speake, that death his vaine hast may repent.
 163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
 165.00A.013 Teach mee how to repent; for that's as good
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,

REPENTANCE.....1

154.00A.040 Got thither by repentance, Let it bee

REPENTS.....1

158.00A.487 Now cries, and now repents; when Tethelemite

REPLYED.....1

001.00A.103 Perfect French, and Italian; I replyed,

REPOLISH'D.....1

156.00a.040 Repolish'd, without error then to stand,

REPOS'D.....1

158.00A.378 Then they, who good repos'd estates possesse)

REPREHENDER.....1

158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him

REPRESENT.....1

069.00A.023 And women, whom this flower doth represent,

REPRESENTS.....1

005.00A.012 Each thing, each thing employes or represents,

REPRESSE.....2

137.00A.062 Serves heresie to funder or represse)

139.00A.059 Be better, he shoves both, and to represse

REPRIV'D.....1

108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,

REPROACH.....1

184.00A.151 And cast reproach on Christianitie,

REPROACH'D.....1

187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,

REPROACHED.....1

187.00A.350 See, and marke how we are reproached thus,

REPROCHED.....1

187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.

REPUTATION.....1

066.00A.028 I give my reputation to those

REPUTE.....2

001.00A.095 Saying, him whom I last left, s'all repute

002.00A.063 Law practise for meere gaine; bold soule repute

REQUIRE.....1

153.00A.212 As he, who takes endeavours, doth require,

REQUIRES.....1

158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew

RES.....1

196.015.014 AVT RES CIVILES PERTRACTANDAS,

RESCU'D.....1

108.00A.108 Yet thou art rescu'd by a mightier fire,

RESCUED.....1

086.00A.002 But drowning, could be rescued from the flame,

RESCUEST.....1

187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,

RESERUE.....2

155.00a.132 And for our children we reserue to morrow.

157.00b.029 Forgetting her, the maine Reserue of all,

RESERV'D.....1

133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,

RESERVE.....1

RESIDE.....1

069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside

RESIGNE.....1

162.00A.001 As due by many titles I resigne

RESIST.....2

005.00A.044 Have no heart to resist letter, or fee,

158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so

RESISTANCE.....2

109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw

158.00A.249 Resistance make, nor complaint, sure is gone.

RESISTS.....2

003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;

020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man

RESOLU'D.....1

155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,

RESOLUTE.....2

008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;

012.00A.045 Am the Recusant, in that resolute state,

RESOLVE.....1

072.00A.002 To their first Elements resolve;

RESON.....1

157.00b.361 For shee made wars, and triumph'd, reson still

RESOUND.....1

114.00A.022 Worthy thy quill, nor any quill resound

RESPECT.....2

081.HH5.015 nay more abhorr an amorous respect

081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine

RESPECTIUE.....1

128.LR1.003 Respectiue frendship should so quickly dye?

RESPECTS.....1

021.00G.049 Shadow'd with negligence our best respects?

REST.....44

002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pittie towards the rest;

003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,

009.00A.011 From parboild shooes, and bootes, and all the rest

014.NY3.014 Like to an Ague; Now raging, now at rest;

014.NY3.033 Other men war that they ther rest may gayne

014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.

015.00G.001 Come, Madam, come, all rest my powers defie,

022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?

028.00A.017 Then by my threatnings rest still innocent.

032.00A.016 And true plaine hearts doe in the faces rest,

048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.

057.00A.010 Not to dreame all my dreame, let's act the rest.

062.00A.002 A Pregnant banke swel'd up, to rest

078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;

078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.

106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;

106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;

107.00A.103 Rest now at last, and wee

108.00A.090 Where the Kings Counsells and his secrets rest.

111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,

126.00A.006 From Cambridge thy old nurse, and, as the rest,

133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,

134.00A.016 And rest on what the Catholique faith doth teach;

135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunn serues all the rest,

140.00A.014 And is not Asse himselfe to all the rest.

150.00A.042 Bodies of Saints rest for their soules above.

151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;

153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;

153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,

155.00a.193 For, before God had made vp all the rest,

 157.00b.229 Europe, and Afrique, and the vnknown rest
 157.00b.480 And whilst thou ioyest in this, the dangerous rest,
 157.00b.500 There where the stuffe is not such as the rest)
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.
 158.00A.514 Why plowing, building, ruling and the rest,
 160.00A.010 For, at our end begins our endlesse rest,
 167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
 167.00A.008 Rest of their bones, and soules deliverie
 172.00A.008 Coheire to'his glory,'and Sabbaths endlesse rest;
 181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
 187.00A.011 With whom shee dwells, no place of rest afford,
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.

RESTAT.....1

RESTRAINE.....2

040.00A.016 Griefe, which verse did restraine.

131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,

RESTRAINTS.....1

134.00A.011 Then in your deeds, accesses, and restraints,

RESTREYNES.....1

128.LR1.010 with bodies deale, as fate bids or restreynes

RESTS.....3

053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.

148.00A.028 Her flesh rests in the earth, as in the bed;

187.00A.114 His Sanctuary, and in the foes hands rests

RESULTANCES.....1

155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,

RESUME.....1

038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet

RESURRECTION.....4

154.00A.028 Anticipate a Resurrection;

157.00b.492 Approches in the resurrection;

159.52a.005 The Resurrection; so much good there is

192.00B.015 So death doth touch the Resurrection.

RESURRECTIONE.....1

157.00b.060 That carkasses last resurrectione.

RESURRECTIONS.....1

143.00A.004 So many resurrections waken mee.

RESVRRECTION.....1

160.00A.0HE Resvrrection.

RETAILE.....2

121.NY3.018 And then at Winter retaille it here abroad.

183.00A.046 And in my life retaille it every day.

RETAINE.....3

026.00A.012 Though thou retaine of mee

131.00B.109 No more can impure man retaine and move

141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,

RETALIATE.....1

047.00A.012 And hate with hate againe retaliate;

RETARDED.....1

158.00A.253 But oft retarded, once with a hidden net

RETARDING.....1

107.00A.072 Formalities retarding thee.

RETARDS.....1

157.00b.197 Venus retards her not, to'enquire, how shee

RETIR'D.....1

155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;

RETIRE.....3

158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire

175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,

187.00A.099 Be hindred, his right hand he doth retire,

RETIREDNESSE.....2

113.00A.002 Her selfe a Nunne, tyed to retirednesse,

113.00A.028 So workes retirednesse in us; to rome

RETORN'ST.....1

033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee

RETORNE.....1

012.00A.032 In flattering eddies promising retorne,

RETRIVE.....3

112.00A.044 Durst looke in themselves, and themselves retrive,

121.NY3.014 Pleasure, now fled from London, to retrive.

122.00A.026 Our discontinued hopes we shall retrive:

RETURN'D.....2

037.00A.022 She went, examin'd, and return'd ere long,

187.00A.078 My heart return'd, my bowells muddy bee,

RETURNE.....13

002.00A.054 You said, If I Returne next size in Lent,

014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.

049.00A.031 Till my returne, repaire

049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,

106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,

133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.

134.00A.035 Make your returne home gracious; and bestow

148.00A.030 Returne to dwell with you, of whom they were;

157.00b.321 Returne not, my soule, from this extasee,

176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe

184.00A.250 O let it not returne to us againe,

187.00A.388 Returne, and as of old, renew our day.

192.00B.012 For, though those currants yeeld returne to none,

RETURNS.....2

010.00A.016 And watch thy entries, and returns all night,

130.00A.032 That she returns home, wiser then she went;

RETYRD.....1

118.NY3.009 Or is thy devout Muse retyrd to sing

RETYRINGS.....1

122.00A.009 So thy retyrings I love, yea envie,

REUERENCE.....1

155.00a.458 In reuerence to her, doe thinke it due,

REUIUE.....1

157.00b.039 And so, though not Reuiue, embalme, and spice

REUNION.....1

155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,

REVEAL'D.....3

015.00G.020 Reveal'd to men: thou Angel bringst with thee062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;141.00A.043 To some ye are reveal'd, as in a friend,

REVEALE.....2

081.HH5.023 & did reveale pure loves high mistery184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,

REVEALED.....1

015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;

REVEALS.....1

015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,

REVELATION.....1

142.00A.054 And revelation of you both I see,

REVELL.....1

108.00A.188 For every part to dance and revell goes.

REVELS.....1

017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,

REVENGE.....4

081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue139.00A.058 And though to scape, then to revenge offence158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call158.00A.365 That they revenge, and obsequies forget,

REVERENCE.....4

079.00B.003 So did I reverence, and gave

145.00A.061 I reverence; His power to worke on mee;
 145.00A.062 So did I humbly reverence each degree
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;

REVEREND.....6

008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.

020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.

039.00A.026 Wee dye and rise the same, and prove

046.00A.002 O wilt thou therefore rise from me?

046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?

106.00A.092 Of heaven, to morrow rise thou hot, and early;

108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lusters rise,

108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.
 125.00A.008 If from the'embrace of a lov'd wife you rise,
 131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
 152.12a.042 In Peace-full times, Rumors of Warrs should rise.
 153.00A.055 Yet at the last two perfect bodies rise,
 155.00a.262 When new Townes rise, and olde demolish'd are.
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 156.00a.104 Which from the gift of her example rise.
 157.00b.411 Is built, as rise, and fall, to more and lesse,
 157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.
 162.00A.011 Except thou rise and for thine owne worke fight,
 171.00A.003 That I may rise, and stand, o'erthrow mee,'and bend
 174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
 184.00A.009 I may rise up from death, before I'am dead.
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 187.00A.056 Hath given mee, from whence I cannot rise.
 187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,

RISEN.....2

116.00A.008 The body risen againe, the which was dead,
 160.00A.083 That wak't from both, I againe risen may

RISES.....1

153.00A.026 As that Sunne risen to mee, midnight's noone,

RISING.....4

057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 108.00A.141 Thou in first rising should'st allow for it,
 108.00A.162 The rising sun, doe thinke it two,
 185.00A.011 There I should see a Sunne, by rising set,

RITE.....1

157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite

RITES.....3

106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.
 137.00A.036 Of Temples frames, and beauty,'as Rites within.

RITHMES.....1

002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms

RIUER.....1

157.00b.395 Nor are, (Although the riuer keep the name)

RIVALL.....1

019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,

RIVALLS.....1

038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivals letter mine,

RIVALS.....2

002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not018.00B.006 Of hurts, which spies and rivals threatned me,

RIVER.....2

027.00A.005 There will the river whispering runne187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee

RIVERS.....5

022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames131.00B.012 Sees men at childrens shapes, Rivers at brookes,153.00A.051 Bee'insisted on, vertues, as rivers, passe,158.00A.319 Hee spouted rivers up, as if he ment187.00A.245 48 With water rivers doth mine eye oreflow

RIVITED.....1

RIZE.....1

071.00A.013 And like a Goth and Vandall rize,

ROAME.....1

158.00A.056 For though through many streights, & lands I roame,

ROARE.....1

008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;

ROAVING.....1

015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,

ROB.....3

024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.037.00A.016 Rob mee, but binde me not, and let me goe.195.010.021 ROB: DRVRI EQ: AVR: ET ANNA VXOR,

ROB'D.....4

010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,024.00A.012 And I am rob'd of Picture, Heart, and Sense.083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,179.NY3.003 Goes richly painted? Or which rob'd & tore

ROBB'D.....1

172.00A.009 And as a robb'd man, which by search doth finde

ROCK.....1

049.00A.006 The diamonds of either rock.

ROCKE.....1

155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke

ROCKES.....4

003.00A.107 Through mills, & rockes, & woods, and at last, almost112.00A.008 Countries, Courts, Towns are Rockes, or Remoraes;134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.

ROD.....4

004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be his pleasure, is his rod,180.NY3.011 To morrow I quake with true feare of his rod.187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,

RODDES.....1

108.00A.010 Of leafes, to furnish roddes enough to whip

RODS.....1

157.00b.426 Of all Gods Benefits, and all his Rods,

ROE.....2

ROES.....1

150.00A.015 Who (were Death dead) by Roes of living sand,

ROGUERY.....1

016.00A.030 To runne all countries, a wild roguery;

ROLL.....2

125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart

157.00b.013 His eies will twinkle, and his tongue will roll,

ROLS.....1

157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,

ROMAN.....2

066.00A.019 My faith I give to Roman Catholiques;

158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;

ROME.....9

003.00A.045 Seekes her at Rome, there, because hee doth know

004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne

012.00A.042 As nations do from Rome, from thy love fall.

031.00A.030 Yet when the other far doth rome,

112.00A.049 And seeing the snaile, which every where doth rome,

113.00A.028 So workes retirednesse in us; to rome

137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby

158.00A.068 And mend the wracks of th'Empire, and late Rome,

181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,

ROMME.....1

157.00b.086 Which brings a Taper to the outward romme,

ROOFE.....1

158.00A.314 His ribs are pillars, and his high arch'd roofe

ROOME.....19

008.00B.064 He leaves himselfe no roome to enter in.

029.00A.019 I brought a heart into the roome,

029.00A.020 But from the roome, I carried none with mee;

032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.

109.00A.014 Which at th'ayres middle marble roome did finde

142.00A.057 So to present the roome twice to our eyes,

147.00B.003 Next to my soule provide the happiest roome,

148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,

150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.

155.00a.298 Millions into a strait hote roome be thrust)

157.00b.217 As colours are, and obiects, in a roome

157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,

158.00A.070 Had first in paradise, a low, but fatall roome.

158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,

158.00A.077 Stood in the selfe same roome in Calvarie,

158.00A.398 To die, did ever kill a man of better roome,

160.00A.027 Thou' hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,
 160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,

ROOMEFULL.....1

158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,

ROOMES.....2

039.00A.032 We'll build in sonnets pretty roomes;
 158.00A.392 Walk'd, and surveid the roomes of this vast house,

ROOT.....6

054.00A.020 From loves awakened root do bud out now.
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so
 190.00A.012 As the trees sap doth seeke the root below
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.

ROOTE.....2

006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
 033.00A.002 Get with child a mandrake roote,

ROOTED.....2

110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
 134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,

ROOTES.....1

158.00A.217 Askt not of rootes, nor of cock-sparrows, leave:

ROOTS.....2

003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given
 155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,

RORE.....2

002.00A.060 Then when winds in our ruin'd Abbeyes rore;
 149.00A.005 Yet doth it rore, and gnaw, and still pretend,

RORES.....1

012.00A.031 And rores, and braves it, and in gallant scorne,

ROSE.....7

106.00A.061 The amorous evening starre is rose,
 108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.
 131.00B.041 Fire rose, and each from other but unty'd,
 155.00a.270 One inche direct; but where he rose to day
 182.00A.004 A better Sun rose before thee to day,

182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,

ROSES.....1

009.00A.001 As the sweet sweat of Roses in a Still,

ROSIE.....1

020.00G.049 It leaves a Cheek, a rosie Hemisphere

ROT.....6

008.00B.024 For, most of these, their Countreys naturall rot
 008.00B.100 Poyson, whose nimble fume rot thy moist braine;
 008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee
 061.00A.014 In early and long scarcenesse may he rot,
 143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
 150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.

ROTS.....2

002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,
 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,

ROTTEN.....4

110.00A.039 Whether a rotten state, and hope of gaine,
 123.NY3.010 Of rotten walls; so it myne emptines.
 155.00a.242 But, as thou sawest it rotten at the hart,
 157.00b.049 Forget this rotten world; And vnto thee,

ROUGH.....5

003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 004.00A.221 Call a rough carelesnesse, good fashion;
 009.00A.029 Like rough bark'd elmboughes, or the russet skin
 017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 024.00A.038 Admit the tillage of a harsh rough man?

ROUGH-HEWNE.....1

009.00A.019 Thy head is like a rough-hewne statue of jeat,

ROUGHLY.....1

018.00B.022 How roughly hee in peeces shivered

ROUND.....15

009.00A.015 Round as the world's her head, on every side,
 009.00A.042 Where round about the grasse is burnt away.
 017.00A.041 When Belgiaes citties, the round countries drowne,
 021.00G.041 And those so ambush'd round with household spies,
 058.00A.010 On a round ball
 078.00D.008 Of our affection, that as that's round and plaine,

136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 155.00a.252 Their round proportion embracing all.
 155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
 155.00a.285 But keeps the earth her round proportion still?
 157.00b.102 Thinke Satans Sergeants round about thee bee,
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
 165.00A.001 At the round earths imagin'd corners, blow

ROUNDNES.....1

155.00a.299 Then solidnes, and roundnes haue no place.

ROUNDNESSE.....1

153.00A.113 All the same roundnesse, evennesse, and all

ROUNDS.....1

150.00A.017 He rounds the aire, and breakes the hymnique notes

ROWLE.....1

065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.

ROWLES.....1

066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles

ROWLING.....1

109.00A.028 Waves like a rowing trench before them threw.

ROYALTIES.....1

157.00b.360 All royalties which any state emploid,

RUBBIDGE.....1

157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubidge this world is

RUBIES.....3

107.00A.035 Thy Rubies, Pearles, and Diamonds forth, and make
 149.00A.024 The Diamonds, Rubies, Saphires, Pearles, & Mines,
 156.00a.005 Or with those Pearles, and Rubies which shee was?

RUDE.....5

019.00A.006 Perhaps with rude oares torne, or Sun beams tann'd,
 059.00A.022 In that dayes rude hoarse ministralsey, the spheares.
 150.00A.007 In a rude hunger now hee millions drawes
 155.00a.324 Is discord, and rude incongruitee,
 157.00b.372 Satans rude Officers could nere arrest.

RUE.....1

022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsell, and wee both may rue,

RUFFES.....1

001.00A.061 What fashioned hats, or ruffes, or suits next yeare

RUGGED.....1

111.00A.010 In this worlds warfare, they whom rugged Fate,

RUIN'D.....4

002.00A.060 Then when winds in our ruin'd Abbeyes rore;

008.00B.040 Gorgeous France, ruin'd: ragged and decay'd

039.00A.003 My five gray haire, or ruin'd fortune flout,

082.00A.017 He ruin'd mee, and I am re-begot

RUINE.....6

005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;

008.00B.102 Which negligently kept, thy ruine bring.

021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,

155.00a.099 How witty's ruine? how importunate

187.00A.244 With ruine, and with waste, upon us are.

187.00A.246 For ruine of my peoples daughters so;

RUINOUS.....4

008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.

049.00A.024 My ruinous Anatomie.

155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,

184.00A.004 And re-create mee, now growne ruinous:

RULE.....2

052.00A.014 Rule and example found;

187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,

RULES.....4

004.00A.204 And then by Durers rules survay the state

005.00A.003 Rules to make Courtiers, (hee being understood

049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,

112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have

RULING.....1

158.00A.514 Why plowing, building, ruling and the rest,

RUM.....1

201.20a.030 rum in funere, funus.

RUMORS.....1

152.12a.042 In Peace-full times, Rumors of Warrs should rise.

RUN.....9

005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do
 008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 036.00A.004 Must to thy motions lovers seasons run?
 127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,
 153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?

RUNNE.....25

003.00A.079 To sleepe, or runne wrong, is: on a huge hill,
 004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne
 009.00A.040 Or like hot liquid metalls newly runne
 016.00A.030 To runne all countries, a wild roguery;
 022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames
 027.00A.005 There will the river whispering runne
 031.00A.034 Like th'other foot, obliquely runne.
 079.00B.033 I'll no more dote and runne
 082.00A.039 At this time to the Goat is runne
 108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.
 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,
 137.00A.028 Whilst here to you, wee sacrificers runne;
 138.00A.038 And bids the passive earth about it runne,
 145.00A.004 Growne stale, is to so low a value runne,
 155.00a.130 Whether a new made clocke runne right, or lie.
 155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
 155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 157.00b.003 Then to consider, that a yeare is runne,
 157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.349 Vp to th'Apostles, who did brauely runne,
 164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,
 174.00B.003 I runne to death, and death meets me as fast,
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,

RUNNES.....1

158.00A.175 Had found, and left the Mandrakes tenant, runnes

RUNNING.....1

048.00A.009 Running it never runs from us away,

RUNS.....4

020.00G.047 The Nose (like to the sweet Meridian) runs
 048.00A.009 Running it never runs from us away,

108.00A.204 As he that sees a starre fall, runs apace,
 110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out

RUSHETH.....2

004.00A.224 To him; he rusheth in, as if arme, arme,
 012.00A.029 She rusheth violently, and doth divorce

RUSSET.....2

009.00A.029 Like rough bark'd elmboughes, or the russet skin
 158.00A.478 And up lifts subtly with his russet pawe

RUSSIAN.....1

121.NY3.017 As Russian Marchants, thy selfes whole vessell load,

RUST.....2

020.00G.014 From rust, from soil, from fire ever free:
 148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste

RUSTS.....1

185.00A.040 Burne off my rusts, and my deformity,

RUSTY.....3

005.00A.035 O Age of rusty iron! Some better wit
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen

RYDE.....1

125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,

RYME.....2

066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
 161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme

RYMES.....2

126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had

SAVEST.....1

041.00A.030 It stayes at home, and thou with losing savest it:

SAVIOUR.....1

185.00A.036 O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree;

SAW.....28

004.00A.131 Becomming Traytor, and mee thought I saw

004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance

004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,

004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare

018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe

018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,

021.00G.026 I saw the golden fruit, 'tis wrapt away.

022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw

029.00A.008 I saw a flaske of powder burne a day?

029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?

045.00A.018 I saw, I had loves pinnace overfraught,

048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:

057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,

062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:

107.00A.020 What the sunne never saw, and what the Arke
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
 138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,
 151.00A.024 Who e'r saw Christall Ordinance but would break?
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow
 155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
 155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 158.00A.007 What the gold Chaldee, or silver Persian saw,
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw

SAW'ST.....1

036.00A.019 Aske for those Kings whom thou saw'st yesterday,

SAWCY.....1

036.00A.005 Sawcy pedantique wretch, goe chide

SAWEST.....2

057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
 155.00a.242 But, as thou sawest it rotten at the hart,

SAXI.....1

SAY.....91

003.00A.096 To say a Philip, or a Gregory,
 003.00A.099 Equally strong cannot both sides say so?
 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 004.00A.112 To say Gallo-Belgicus without booke
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
 013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.
 014.NY3.007 Only we know, that which all Ideots say
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?

017.00A.035 Beauty is barren oft; best husbands say
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
 020.00G.078 Men say the Devil never can change his.
 021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
 021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they're like to thee.
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
 031.00A.003 Whilst some of their sad friends doe say,
 031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.
 034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
 034.00A.004 Or say that now
 043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
 046.00A.009 This were the worst, that it could say,
 052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) Homer did finde, and name.
 054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,
 059.00A.002 Say, where his centrique happinesse doth lie:
 063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
 068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
 077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
 079.00B.024 Nature decreed (since each such Act, they say,
 088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee lies.
 108.00A.096 At a great feast, having no Grace to say,
 109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
 109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
 109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say
 112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall
 112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be
 116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,
 116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,
 129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
 130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 137.00A.012 To usher vertue, and say, This is shee.
 137.00A.030 We found your influence, and your Dictates say.
 139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thanks I have forgot,
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
 142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say

143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
 145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
 145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 149.00A.029 They say, the sea, when it gaines, loseth too;
 150.00A.001 DEath I recant, and say, unsaid by mee
 150.00A.003 Spirituall treason, atheisme 'tis, to say,
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee.
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.180 All that they will, 'gainst the Triumphe say,
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 155.00a.051 Thought it some blasphemy to say sh'was dead;
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.
 157.00b.134 And say this is a line, or this a point,
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.485 All casuall ioye doth loud and plainly say,
 157.00b.522 That gaued thee power to do, me to say this.
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
 158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
 158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;
 161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
 170.00A.012 A signe of rigour: so I say to thee,
 183.00A.027 Which shewes where the'other is, and which we say
 184.00A.204 We know not what to say.
 184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,
 187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
 187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,

SAY'ST.....2

008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,
 042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,

SAYES.....3

029.00A.001 He is starke mad, who ever sayes,
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;

SAYING.....5

001.00A.095 Saying, him whom I last left, s'all repute

002.00A.094 Short Pater nosters, saying as a Fryer
 004.00A.217 For saying of our Ladies psalter; But 'tis fit
 040.00A.002 For loving, and for saying so
 075.00A.006 Any, so cheape a death, as saying, Goe;

SAYLERS.....1

109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our sayers; and if they

SCALDING.....1

120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art

SCALE.....3

147.00B.019 Such priviledges, enabled here to scale
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.127 Infirmities which need the scale of truth,

SCALES.....2

113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in 158.00A.229 Her scales seem'd yet of parchment, and as yet

SCANDALL.....2

131.00B.084 That youngest flatteries doe scandall it.
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,

SCANDALOUS.....1

184.00A.150 Which might be scandalous,

SCANT.....7

004.00A.004 A recreation, and scant map of this.
 004.00A.150 And the prerogative of my Crowne: Scant
 062.00A.039 (All which before was poore, and scant,)
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 139.00A.023 And made of miracle, now faith is scant,
 155.00a.189 Thy better Grouth growes withered, and scant;
 158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.

SCAP'D.....2

108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 158.00A.262 Once innocence scap'd, and left the oppressor fast;

SCAPE.....17

004.00A.142 Me to pay a fine to scape his torturing,
 005.00A.042 Scape, like Angelica, the strivers hands.
 035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;

050.00A.004 This doth but counsaile, yet you cannot scape.
 109.00A.060 Strive to breake loose, and scape away from thence.
 128.LR1.012 who payes before his death doth scape arest.
 139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show
 139.00A.058 And though to scape, then to revenge offence
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 156.00a.077 To scape th'infirmities which waite vpone
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
 158.00A.397 To kill, not scape, for, only hee that ment
 181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.
 187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
 187.00A.185 7 Hee hath hedg'd me lest I scape, and added more
 187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,
 190.00A.028 And to scape stormy dayes, I chuse An Everlasting night.

SCAPES.....4

034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could
 140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
 141.00A.011 A miracle, which reason scapes, and sense;
 158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,

SCAPT.....1

004.00A.011 Before he scapt, So'it pleas'd my destinie

SCARCE.....24

002.00A.044 But scarce a Poet, jollier of this state,
 004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,
 004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
 005.00A.063 Scarce to Kings; so'tis, would it not anger
 009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 011.00A.020 With words, nor touch, scarce lookes adulterate.
 012.00A.020 Scarce visiting them, who are intirely his.
 013.00A.017 And since, an houres discourse could scarce have made
 054.00A.001 I scarce beleeeve my love to be so pure
 069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
 076.00A.002 I scarce beleev'd, thou could'st be gone away,
 082.00A.002 Lucies, who scarce seaven houres herself unmaskes,
 108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
 131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde
 139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
 142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:
 153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
 158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
 183.00A.014 At almost fiftie, and at scarce fifteene.

185.00A.006 Scarce in a yeare their naturall forme obey:
 191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill

SCARCENESSE.....1

061.00A.014 In early and long scarcenesse may he rot,

SCARFE.....1

156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,

SCARLET.....5

004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought

024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,

154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,

154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,

187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,

SCARLETS.....1

004.00A.194 And women buy all reds which scarlets die.

SCARSE.....4

155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie

155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.

155.00a.290 Perchance to morrow, scarce at middle way

157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,

SCATTER'D.....3

019.00A.010 And powders blew staines scatter'd on my skinne;

141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,

184.00A.085 Thou in thy scatter'd mystique body wouldst

SCATTERED.....8

006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.

020.00G.064 Some Island moles may scattered there descry;

049.00A.032 And recompact my scattered body so.

145.00A.005 That his disshevel'd beames and scattered fires

158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered

187.00A.272 Scattered in corners of each street do lye.

187.00A.323 16 For this they are scattered by Jehovahs face

190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee

SCATTRED.....2

155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.

165.00A.004 Of soules, and to your scattred bodies goe,

SCATTRING.....1

045.00A.022 Extreme, and scattring bright, can love inhere;

SCEANES.....2

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly 002.00A.014 (Starving himselfe) to live by his labor'd sceanes.

SCENE.....1

164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint

SCENES.....1

008.00B.060 That with phantastique scenes fils full much paper;

SCHEDULES.....1

061.00A.030 Be annex'd in schedules unto this by mee,

SCHISMATICKS.....1

066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismaticks

SCHISMATIQUE.....1

052.00A.016 No schismatique will dare to wound,

SCHISME.....2

142.00A.002 'Twere too much schisme to be singular,
 142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.

SCHISMES.....1

112.00A.065 Whom, free from German schismes, and lightnesse

SCHOOLE.....4

036.00A.006 Late schoole boyes, and sowre prentices,
 114.00A.015 Before by thy grace got in th' Muses Schoole)
 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity
 157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee

SCHOOLE-BOYES.....1

001.00A.075 As prentises, or schoole-boyes which doe know

SCHOOLEMEN.....3

002.00A.036 Schoolemen, new tenements in hell must make:
 066.00A.030 To Schoolemen I bequeath my doubtfulnessse;
 158.00A.437 A ridling lust, for which Schoolemen would misse

SCHOOLES.....5

044.00A.013 O wrangling schooles, that search what fire
 052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.
 128.LR1.015 In many schooles & courts, which quicken it,)
 129.00A.031 Which fits them (Schooles and Courts and warres o'rpast)
 137.00A.041 And shunne th'entangling laborinths of Schooles,

SCHOOLMEN.....1

146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;

SCHOOLS.....1

130.00A.018 All libraries, which are Schools, Camps, & Courts;

SCIENCE.....1

126.00A.001 Is not thy sacred hunger of science

SCIENCES.....1

052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.

SCISMATIQUES.....1

124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,

SCLAVONIANS.....1

002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Sclavonians scolding, more

SCOFFE.....3

110.00A.033 Like BajaZet encag'd, the sheeheard scoffe,

158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyrant dyes,

168.00A.002 Buffet, and scoffe, scourge, and crucifie mee,

SCOFFING.....1

011.00A.018 In scoffing riddles, his deformitie;

SCOLDING.....1

002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Sclavonians scolding, more

SCORE.....3

078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,

157.00b.106 And trust th'immaculate blood to wash thy score.

193.00A.010 A yeare, or two: but wallowed in, a score?

SCORES.....1

004.00A.045 In which he can win widdowes, and pay scores,

SCORN.....1

003.00A.001 Kinde pittie chokes my spleene; brave scorn forbids

SCORN'D.....2

061.00A.006 May he be scorn'd by one, whom all else scorne,

158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one

SCORNE.....13

003.00A.076 To adore, or scorne an image, or protest,

011.00A.031 There we will scorne his household policies,

012.00A.031 And rores, and braves it, and in gallant scorene,
 012.00A.037 My minde to scorene; and Oh, love dull'd with paine
 028.00A.001 When by thy scorene, O murtheresse, I am dead,
 059.00A.017 Endure the short scorene of a Bridegroomes play?

042.00A.007 To use my selfe in jest
042.00A.024 It selfe o'r us to'advance.
043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
045.00A.014 And fixe it selfe in thy lip, eye, and brow.
048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,
051.00A.005 But O, selfe traytor, I do bring
053.00A.015 And to all eyes it selfe betrayes,
053.00A.017 Bad doth it selfe, and others wast,
060.00A.017 Let not to that, selfe murder added bee,
060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,
080.00E.024 In mine own selfe love.
081.HH5.031 to cleare my selfe of any foule intent
081.HH5.036 & drinck in earth my selfe O I appeale

106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings
107.00A.030 Thy selfe from thine affection
107.00A.036 Thy selfe a constellation, of them All,
108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,
108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw
112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I'have wonne
113.00A.002 Her selfe a Nunne, tyed to retirednesse,
113.00A.034 Manure thy selfe then, to thy selfe be'approv'd,
113.00A.034 Manure thy selfe then, to thy selfe be'approv'd,
114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw
126.00A.020 Divorc'd her selfe, the cause being in me,
129.00A.018 It such an audience as your selfe would aske;
130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.
131.00B.034 That it destroyes it selfe with its owne shade.
131.00B.060 And findes it selfe allow'd, ere it desire.
133.00A.050 Nor to make my selfe her familiar;
134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devize.
136.00A.039 Not banish it selfe, nor religion.
139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,

141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,
 145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
 148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
 148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
 150.00A.068 Thy selfe, and to triumph, thine army lost.
 153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.030 My selfe, the hardest object of the sight.
 153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
 153.00A.208 Thy selfe, from those straits nature put thee in,
 154.00A.004 Or be a name it selfe, and order more
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.086 And strength it selfe by confidence growes weake,
 155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
 155.00a.307 Since euen grieft it selfe, which now alone
 156.00a.033 Except the world it selfe, so great as shee.
 156.00a.042 It selfe into the earth, and after comes,
 156.00a.093 Her destiny to her selfe; which liberty
 157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
 157.00b.096 Thinke thy selfe parch'd with feuers violence,
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
 157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.053 It selfe; for I will through the wave, and fome,
 158.00A.077 Stood in the selfe same roome in Calvarie,
 158.00A.131 The plant thus abled, to it selfe did force
 158.00A.180 Till her uncloth'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.
 158.00A.206 That selfe preserving it hath now forgot,
 158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,
 158.00A.499 Part hardned it selfe to a thicker heart,
 158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
 162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
 163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,
 174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
 176.00B.010 The itchy Lecher, and selfe tickling proud
 179.NY3.006 Is She selfe truth & errs? now new, now' outwore?
 181.00A.001 Since Christ embrac'd the Crosse it selfe, dare I
 181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.
 181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
 183.00A.008 Shee sees a Cedar plant it selfe, and fall,
 184.00A.034 Give mee a such selfe different instinct

184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 184.00A.246 Gaine to thy selfe, or us allow;
 184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 187.00A.016 And shee's unto her selfe a bitternesse.
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)
 187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne

 155.00a.108 We doe delightfully our selues allow
 155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.
 155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we
 155.00a.159 With new diseases on our selues we warre,
 157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee

SELVES.....15

005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.

020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,

030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;

030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.

031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,

074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,

075.00A.004 And let our selves benight our happiest day,

107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,

110.00A.054 Chance, or our selves still disproportion it.

113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as

113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as

113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,

113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,

113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay

147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.

SENCE.....1

157.00b.162 My second soule of sence, and first of growth.

SEND.....18

005.00A.060 We send to God, to Dominations,

006.00D.029 To which both Indies sacrifices send;

025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,

025.00A.009 Send home my harmlesse heart againe,

025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,

043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,

043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,

078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,

078.00D.003 Send me some honey to make sweet my hive,

078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,

082.00A.004 Send forth light squibs, no constant rayes;

120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art

122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,

129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send

129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires

135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.

136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while

005.00A.090 Thou art the swimming dog whom shadows cosened,
 015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.
 021.00G.006 And that great Hell to boot are shadows to it.

SHAK'D.....1

109.00A.054 Shak'd with this ague, and the Hold and Wast

SHAKE.....3

152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 157.00b.291 When wilt thou shake of this Pedanterty,
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.

SHAKES.....2

158.00A.332 He justles llands, and he shakes firme rockes.
 164.00A.008 Whose feare already shakes my every joynt:

SHAKING.....1

153.00A.133 Whose hands get shaking palsies, and whose string

SHALBE.....3

135.B13.015 soe free from impure thoughts they shalbe found.
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;

SHALL.....186

001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,
 001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away
 001.00A.065 But how shall I be pardon'd my offence
 003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse
 003.00A.011 Us in the end, and shall thy fathers spirit
 003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 004.00A.033 Become Tufftaffatie; and our children shall
 004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet
 004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play
 004.00A.106 At span-counter, or blow-point, but shall pay
 004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men
 004.00A.187 Shall finde their wardrops Inventory; Now,
 004.00A.240 Which am but a scarce brooke, it enough shall bee
 004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 005.00A.010 As I thinke, since all, which were, are, and shall

005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,
 006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
 006.00D.065 Nor shall wit-pirats hope to finde thee lye
 008.00B.009 O, shall twelve righteous Angels, which as yet
 008.00B.017 Shall these twelve innocents, by thy severe
 008.00B.019 Shall they be damn'd, and in the furnace throwne,
 008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall
 008.00B.049 But, shall my harmlesse angels perish? Shall
 010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joyn'd, and hate each one?
 012.00A.008 Such services I offer as shall pay
 012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee, 'and spie
 012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall
 012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly
 013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 014.NY3.043 Shall spring. Thousands we see which trauaile not
 014.NY3.045 To make at home; And shall not I do then
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,
 018.00B.018 My soule from other lands to thee shall soare,
 018.00B.042 Nor spungy hydroptique Dutch shall thee displease,
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 020.00G.066 Shall at her fair Atlantick Naval stay;
 021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 021.00G.075 The ayre shall note her soft, the fire most pure;
 021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
 021.00G.082 But count it a lost season, so shall shee.
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 021.00G.097 The Poles shall move to teach me ere I start;
 022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;
 024.00A.020 A litle world, What shall we call thee than?
 024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
 028.00A.005 And thee fain'd vestall in worse armes shall see;
 030.00B.015 We shall new shadowes make the other way.
 030.00B.021 And I to thee mine actions shall disguise.
 035.00A.017 After a such fruition I shall wake,
 035.00A.018 And, but the waking, nothing shall repent;
 035.00A.019 And shall to love more thankfull Sonnets make,
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.
 039.00A.035 And by these hymnes, all shall approve
 041.00A.002 Deare, I shall never have it all,
 041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
 041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
 041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall

041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
042.00A.014 But beleve that I shall make
044.00A.001 Oh doe not die, for I shall hate
044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast
047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
047.00A.018 So, these extreames shall ne'r their office doe;
047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
048.00A.021 And then wee shall be throughly blest,
049.00A.016 So shall all times finde mee the same;
050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
052.00A.004 And how posterity shall know it too;
053.00A.006 As wee shall finde our fancy bent.
054.00A.028 No winter shall abate the springs encrease.
059.00A.014 Shall we, for this vaine Bubles shadow pay?
061.00A.029 Prophets, or Poets spake; And all which shall
062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
068.00A.007 That it will freeze anon, and that I shall
068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
068.00A.039 There, to another friend, whom wee shall finde
070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;
071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
071.00A.023 Your passive valor, and you shall finde than,
073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
080.00E.003 Never shall my fancy move,
082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,
106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
107.00A.026 Yong Phoenixes, and yet the old shall live.
107.00A.027 Whose love and courage never shall decline,
107.00A.107 Others neare you shall whispering speake,
108.00A.063 But never shall, except it chance to lye,
109.00A.072 Another Fiat, shall have no more day.
112.00A.016 Shall cities built of both extremes be chosen?
112.00A.036 Shall locke vice in mee, I'll do none, but know all.
114.00A.002 Then hath or shall enkindle any spirit,
114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.
122.00A.026 Our discontinued hopes we shall retrive:
125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,

129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires
130.00A.010 And shall not better; her next change is night:
131.00B.070 Shall freeze my Love to Christall in a night.
133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
136.00A.023 Or tooke Soules stuffe such as shall late decay,
138.00A.057 For, bodies shall from death redeemed bee,
143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,
146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.
148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
148.00A.024 The pure which elemented them shall stay;
148.00A.026 Shall recollect, and in one All unite:
148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
149.00A.027 Annuls this world, to recompence it, shall,
149.00A.059 How Morall, how Divine shall not be told,
150.00A.047 Which shall be'almost another soule, for there
151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;
151.00A.060 Shall be tooke up spruce, fill'd with diamond;
153.00A.042 My thoughts on his deeds? which shall I call best?
154.00A.027 His soule shall fill up his sepulchrall stone,)
154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am
155.00a.445 Or shall be spoken well by any tongue,
156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
156.00a.066 To which of them, it shall be consecrate.
156.00a.098 Any shall liue, which dare true good prefer,
156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thanks
156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thanks
157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.
157.00b.340 Shall in the Angels songs no discord heare;
158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
158.00A.052 In vaine this sea shall enlarge, or enrough
158.00A.054 And shall in sad love wayes, a lively spright
158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,
158.00A.432 But in the lives of Emperours you shall not
158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
158.00A.034 you shall finde in the end of this booke.
160.00A.072 Shall (though she now be in extreme degree
160.00A.075 And life, by this death abled, shall controule
160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,

164.00A.007 But my'ever-waking part shall see that face,
 164.00A.010 And earth borne body, in the earth shall dwell,
 165.00A.005 All whom the flood did, and fire shall o'erthrow,
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 171.00A.013 Except you'enthrall mee, never shall be free,
 174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 179.NY3.007 Doth She,' and did She, & shall She evermore
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,
 181.00A.011 It shall not, for it cannot; for, the losse
 183.00A.040 Manhoods extremes: He shall come, he is gone:
 184.00A.049 Where we shall be but denizen'd by thee,
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
 187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.167 To eate their children of a spanne? shall thy
 187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,
 187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,
 187.00A.343 This cup shall passe, and thou with drunkennesse
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;
 190.00A.004 Shall be to mee an embleme of thy blood;
 191.00B.043 And shall our Church, unto our Spouse and King
 191.00B.050 We thy Sydnean Psalmes shall celebrate,
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come
 192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East
 193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

SHALLOW.....2

005.00A.015 Springs; now full, now shallow, now drye; which, to 160.00A.050 A shallow seeming child, should deeply know?

SHALT.....25

005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
 005.00A.053 Become great seas, o'r which, when thou shalt bee
 005.00A.054 Forc'd to make golden bridges, thou shalt see
 005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
 006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 020.00G.069 Thou shalt upon another Forest set,
 036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
 038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.
 049.00A.060 And unaware to mee shalt write.

052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
 068.00A.034 Twenty dayes hence, and thou shalt see
 070.00A.017 Thou shalt be a Mary Magdalen, and I
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
 109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
 133.00A.031 And since they're but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,
 157.00b.296 Thou shalt not peepe through lattices of eies,
 157.00b.322 And meditation of what thou shalt bee,
 157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spungy slack Diuine
 157.00b.341 Where thou shalt see the blessed Mother-maid
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.

SHAME.....9

038.00A.019 If thine owne honour, or my shame, or paine,
 055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.
 056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
 060.00A.006 A sinne, nor shame nor losse of maidenhead,
 061.00A.008 With feare of missing, shame of getting torne;
 065.00A.014 With scorne or shame, that him it nourish'd not;
 081.HH5.020 with shame t'haue hopd for womans constancy
 106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no griefe nor shame,
 158.00A.355 And t'hide himselfe from shame and danger, downe

SHAMELESSE.....1

002.00A.072 Bearing like Asses, and more shamelesse farre

SHAPE.....5

114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.
 134.00A.032 That ever did in womans shape appeare.
 158.00A.507 Of every past shape, she knew treachery,

SHAPELESSE.....1

045.00A.003 So in a voice, so in a shapelesse flame,

SHAPES.....7

020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 131.00B.012 Sees men at childrens shapes, Rivers at brookes,
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law
 158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,
 170.00A.013 To wicked spirits are horrid shapes assign'd,

SHARE.....4

004.00A.126 Doe with the Pirates share, and Dunkirkers.
 066.00A.024 My patience let gamesters share.
 128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
 146.00A.016 Venture their states, with him in joy to share

SHARES.....1

145.00A.015 And narrow man being fill'd with little shares,

SHARPE.....2

032.00A.018 Without sharpe North, without declining West?
 158.00A.072 If (as devout and sharpe men fitly guesse)

SHE.....164

003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 004.00A.196 She feares her drugs ill laid, her haire loose set;
 005.00A.031 You Sir, whose righteousnes she loves, whom I
 005.00A.070 To warrant thefts: she is established
 005.00A.075 With which she scracheth Suiters; In bodies
 009.00A.054 She, and comparisons are odious.
 010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
 010.00A.018 Doth search what rings, and armelets she can finde,
 012.00A.029 She rusheth violently, and doth divorce
 012.00A.033 She flouts the channell, who thenceforth is drie;
 014.NY3.011 Yet She relyes vpon our Angels well
 014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.
 017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.
 017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,
 017.00A.049 And though in childbeds labour she did lie,
 020.00G.024 Make love to woman; virtue is not she:
 021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night
 022.00A.004 And must she needs be false because she's faire?
 035.00A.001 Image of her whom I love, more then she,
 035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;
 037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
 037.00A.020 And by Loves sweetest Part, Variety, she swore,
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 037.00A.022 She went, examin'd, and return'd ere long,
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 039.00A.018 Though she and I do love.
 040.00A.005 If she would not deny?
 044.00A.017 And yet she cannot wast by this,
 051.00A.025 Then by her shadow, what she weares.
 052.00A.002 To anger destiny, as she doth us,

052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;
065.00A.010 A she sigh from my mistresse heart,
065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
067.00A.014 Can better do'it; Except she meant that I
069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
069.00A.020 She were by art, then Nature falsify'd.
073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
080.00E.018 For she is thrall'd therefore:
089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though'it be true.
106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
107.00A.086 She gives the best light to his Spheare,
125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;
130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;
130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,
130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
131.00B.072 And cannot be remov'd, unlesse she will.
133.00A.024 Ill or bold speech, she Audience affords.
133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show
133.00A.040 Of favour, she alone, to them doth make.
133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,
133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,
133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
138.00A.073 Vertue hath some perversenesse; For she will
140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry
141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,
141.00A.025 She guilded us: But you are gold, and Shee,
141.00A.026 Us she inform'd, but transubstantiates you,
141.00A.028 Elixarlike, she makes not cleane, but new.
142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
149.00A.038 So hath she this, and that virginity.
149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see
149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content
150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come

150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion
150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
151.00A.021 She was too Saphirine, and cleare to thee;
151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
151.00A.033 For of all morall vertues she was all,
151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
155.00a.175 She, of whom th'Auncients seem'd to prophesie,
155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
155.00a.179 Shee tooke the weaker Sex, she that could driue
155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,
155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,
155.00a.223 She whom wise nature had inuented then
155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euey sort of men
155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
155.00a.351 And then, as though she could not make inow,
155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
155.00a.412 That vnto vs; she working more then it.
155.00a.413 But she, in whom, to such maturity,
155.00a.415 She from whose influence all Impressions came,
155.00a.417 Who, though she could not transubstantiate
155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie
156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
156.00a.081 For though she could not, nor could chuse to die,
156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
157.00b.391 Poore couse'ned cose'nor, that she, and that thou,
158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;
158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
158.00A.110 The worme and she, and he, and wee endure for it.
158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew
158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
158.00A.163 And she (with other purpose) kill'd it quite;
158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;
158.00A.167 Poppie she knew, she knew the mandrakes might;
158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she
158.00A.197 Nor doth she pule for his inconstancie
158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends

158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,
 158.00A.244 She left her house the fish, and vapour'd forth;
 158.00A.263 The net through-swome, she keeps the liquid path,
 158.00A.264 And whether she leape up sometimes to breath
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 158.00A.272 That she showes them in bigger quantities
 158.00A.334 And like a Prince she sends her faculties
 158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.421 Hee hath engag'd her; his, she wholly bides;
 158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,
 158.00A.424 She faines hoarse barkings, but she biteth not,
 158.00A.458 Doth gaze on her, and, where she passeth, passe,
 158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
 158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
 158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
 158.00A.486 She neither puls nor pushes, but outright
 158.00A.491 And whether by this change she lose or win,
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would have gone in,
 158.00A.507 Of every past shape, she knew treachery,
 158.00A.509 To be a woman. %1Themech%2 she is now,
 160.00A.072 Shall (though she now be in extreme degree

005.00A.071 Recorder to Destiny, on earth, and shee

005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,

012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.

016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,

017.00A.001 Marry, and love thy Flavia, for, shee

017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,

017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee

017.00A.045 Shee, whose face, like clouds, turnes the day to night,

033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,

033.00A.025 Yet shee

050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,

051.00A.026 O perverse sexe, where none is true but shee,

053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,

061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;

061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
 061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
 063.00A.020 And forget the Hee and Shee;
 064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
 067.00A.017 What ere shee meant by'it, bury it by me,
 068.00A.029 How shall shee know my heart; or having none,
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,

 141.00A.025 She guilded us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
 142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you
 142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metalls; so
 148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.
 149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 155.00a.018 All must endeuour to be good as shee,)
 155.00a.056 Sicke world, yea dead, yea putrified, since shee

155.00a.068 Though shee which did inanimate and fill
155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,
155.00a.179 Shee tooke the weaker Sex, she that could driue
155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
155.00a.227 Shee that was best, and first originall
155.00a.229 Steward to Fate; shee whose rich eyes, and brest,
155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.309 Shee by whose lines proportion should bee
155.00a.313 That Harmony was shee, and thence infer,
155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truly said
155.00a.323 Shee, after whom, what forme soe're we see,
155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue
155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.401 Shee, for whose losse we haue lamented thus,
155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
156.00a.005 Or with those Pearles, and Rubies which shee was?
156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.
156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee
156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee
156.00a.033 Except the world it selfe, so great as shee.
156.00a.036 Because shee cannot such another show.
156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
156.00a.074 Rather t'adorne, then last, shee soone expir'd;
156.00a.078 Woman, shee went away, before sh'was one.
156.00a.097 Shee did no more but die; if after her
157.00b.021 So struggles this dead world, now shee is gone;
157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
157.00b.069 Should be emloid, because in all, shee did,
157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;
157.00b.075 Shee that first tried indifferent desires
157.00b.077 Shee to whose person Paradise adhear'd,
157.00b.078 As Courts to Princes; shee whose eies enspheard
157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,
157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
157.00b.122 Drowsie or slacke, remember then that shee,
157.00b.123 Shee whose Complexion was so euen made,

157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies
 157.00b.147 Shee, shee embrac'd a sicknesse, gaue it meat,
 157.00b.147 Shee, shee embrac'd a sicknesse, gaue it meat,
 157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,
 157.00b.191 Shee carries no desire to know, nor sense,
 157.00b.193 For th'Element of fire, shee doth not know,
 157.00b.194 Whether shee past by such a place or no;
 157.00b.195 Shee baits not at the Moone, nor cares to trie,
 157.00b.197 Venus retards her not, to'enquire, how shee
 157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 157.00b.220 To'aduanche these thoughts, remember then, that shee
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,
 157.00b.223 An Age in her; shee whose rich beauty lent
 157.00b.226 Shee, in whose body (if wee dare prefer
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:
 157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:
 157.00b.302 Perchance, as learned, and as full, as shee,
 157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had throughly red
 157.00b.306 Shee whose example they must all implore,
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was growen
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.315 Shee, shee, not satisfied with all this waite,
 157.00b.315 Shee, shee, not satisfied with all this waite,
 157.00b.319 And cald vs after her, in that shee tooke,
 157.00b.357 Shee, who hath carried thether, new degrees
 157.00b.359 Shee, who beeing to herselfe a state, enioyd
 157.00b.361 For shee made wars, and triumph'd, reson still
 157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,
 157.00b.365 Shee did high iustice; for shee crucified
 157.00b.365 Shee did high iustice; for shee crucified
 157.00b.367 And shee gaue pardons, and was liberall,
 157.00b.368 For, onely her selfe except, shee pardond all:
 157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue
 157.00b.371 Shee gaue protections; the thoughts of her brest
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.377 To worse, by company; (for shee was still
 157.00b.379 Shee, shee doth leaue it, and by Death, suruiue
 157.00b.379 Shee, shee doth leaue it, and by Death, suruiue
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
 157.00b.467 At once is giuen: shee to Heauen is gone,

157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 157.00b.498 Shee, in whose goodnesse, he that names degree,
 157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee
 157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee
 157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,
 157.00b.507 Shee, who by making full perfection grow,
 157.00b.510 Where shee receiues, and giues addition.
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
 158.00A.261 Here by her smallnesse shee two deaths orepast,
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;
 183.00A.008 Shee sees a Cedar plant it selfe, and fall,
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall
 187.00A.011 With whom shee dwells, no place of rest afford,
 187.00A.012 In streights shee meets her Persecutors sword.
 187.00A.027 Remembers what of old, shee esteemed most,
 187.00A.029 8 Jerusalem hath sinn'd, therefore is shee
 187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold
 187.00A.038 The foe hath stretch'd his hand, for shee hath seene

SHEE'AD.....1

156.00a.085 How faire and chast, humble and high shee'ad beene,

SHEE'ATH.....2

155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 156.00a.082 Shee'ath yeelded to too long an Extasie.

SHEE'IS.....3

072.00A.001 Shee'is dead; And all which die
 157.00b.343 Where shee'is exalted more for being good,
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know

SHEE'S.....13

080.00E.020 Within shee's worth no more.
 155.00a.010 Shee's now a part both of the Quire, and Song,
 155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
 155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.434 Of which shee's now partaker, and a part.
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then

156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
 183.00A.013 Sad and rejoyc'd shee's seen at once, and seen
 183.00A.017 Not fully a mother, Shee's in Orbitie,
 187.00A.016 And shee's unto her selfe a bitternesse.

SHEEL.....1

157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.

SHEEP.....1

001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;

SHEEPE.....4

127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
 158.00A.404 Abel, as white, and milde as his sheepe were,
 158.00A.444 He, as his dam, from sheepe drove wolves away,
 162.00A.007 Thy sheepe, thine Image, and till I betray'd

SHEEPHEARDS.....1

110.00A.033 Like BajaZet encag'd, the sheepheards scoffe,

SHEERES.....1

155.00a.258 The Firmament in eight and fortie sheeres,

SHEET.....1

182.00A.020 And, issuing from the sheet, this body seen,

SHEETES.....1

107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,

SHEETS.....1

106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother

SHELL.....3

053.00A.024 Who doth not fling away the shell?
 157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.
 158.00A.178 Into a small blew shell, the which a poore

SHELLS.....1

027.00A.018 And cut their legges, which shells and weeds,

SHELs.....1

004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play

SHEW.....17

004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,
 004.0A/B136 Guilty, and he free: Therefore I did shew
 015.00G.015 Off with that wyerie Coronet and shew

015.00G.044 As liberally, as to thy Midwife shew
 055.00A.028 Having put love at last to shew this face.
 078.00D.007 Of new-toucht youth; nor Ring to shew the stands
 078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.
 108.00A.136 To shew to her, who doth the like impart,
 131.00B.094 In you, but our dimme actions faintly shew.
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you,'and shew you good,
 158.00A.037 And shew my story, in thy eternall booke.
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
 184.00A.177 Which thou in death did'st shew,
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.
 189.00B.023 Deare, tell me where thy purchase lies, and shew
 191.00B.021 They shew us llanders our joy, our King,

SHEW'D.....2

131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.

SHEWES.....1

049.00A.009 'Tis more, that it shewes thee to thee,

SHIFTS.....1

021.00G.072 And thoughts and dreams; Love never wanteth shifts,

SHIN'ST.....1

160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,

SHINE.....13

036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;
 051.00A.023 Alas, hearts do not in eyes shine,
 106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring
 107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
 107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
 162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
 171.00A.002 As yet but knocke, breathe, shine, and seeke to mend;
 187.00A.295 As carbuncles did their pure bodies shine,
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

SHINES.....3

110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,
 145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
 193.00A.016 Shall shine as he shines now, and heretofore;

SHIP.....12

014.NY3.021 To mew me in a Ship, is to enthrall
 056.00A.015 Who e'r rigg'd faire ship to lie in harbors,
 086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drown'd.
 110.00A.031 But from the sea, into the ship we turne,
 157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
 158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,
 158.00A.309 A great ship overset, or without saile
 189.00B.009 Or, as a Ship after much paine and care,
 190.00A.001 In what torne ship soever I embarke,
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;

SHIPS.....12

003.00A.018 Thee in ships wooden Sepulchers, a prey
 004.00A.189 That there came weak ships fraught with Cutchannel,
 014.NY3.026 And Ships are carts for executions.
 039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
 086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;
 108.00A.113 To all our ships, could a Promethean art
 109.00A.053 Then note they the ships sicknesses, the Mast
 110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
 110.00A.035 Languish our ships. Now, as a Miriade
 110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 122.00A.016 Havens are Heavens, and Ships wing'd Angels be,

SHIPWRACK.....1

020.00G.070 Where many Shipwrack, and no further get.

SHIPWRACK'D.....1

155.00a.138 Or shipwrack'd in the Sea, one would haue laid

SHIPWRACKE.....1

155.00a.288 The floating Moone would shipwracke there, and sink?

SHIPWRACKS.....1

020.00G.044 And when 'tis wrinkled, shipwracks us again.

SHIVER.....1

029.00A.024 At one first blow did shiver it as glasse.

SHIVERED.....2

010.00A.044 Smelt gunpowder, the pale wretch shivered;
 018.00B.022 How roughly hee in peeces shivered

SHOES.....1

010.00A.052 Even my opprest shoes, dumbe and speechlesse were,

SHOOE.....1

004.00A.198 From hat, to shooe, himselfe at doore refine,

SHOOES.....3

004.00A.104 A licence, old iron, bootes, shoes, and egge-009.00A.011 From parboild shoes, and bootes, and all the rest015.00G.017 Now off with those shoes, and then softly tread

SHOOKE.....1

004.00A.237 I shooke like a spyed Spie; Preachers which are

SHOOTETH.....1

187.00A.192 12 And hee makes mee the marke he shooteth at.

SHOPS.....2

018.00B.034 Spittles of diseases, shops of fashions,145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,

SHORE.....3

058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore179.NY3.002 What is it She, which on the other Shore193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;

SHORT.....19

002.00A.094 Short Pater nosters, saying as a Fryer009.00A.034 The short swolne fingers of her gouty hand ;011.00A.005 Drawing his breath, as thick and short, as can022.00A.056 And in that pleasure lengthen the short dayes030.00B.024 But oh, loves day is short, if love decay.030.00B.026 And his short minute, after noone, is night.042.00A.012 Nor halfe so short a way:059.00A.017 Endure the short scorne of a Bridegroomes play?079.00B.028 Because that other curse of being short,125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart130.00A.012 Are sparkes, and short liv'd, claimes another right.139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name142.00A.055 I should write here, as in short Galleries153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is'not understood155.00a.133 So short is life, that euery peasant striues,155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.167.00A.013 One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,

SHORT-LIU'D.....1

156.00a.013 Sickly, alas, short-liu'd, aborted bee

SHORTLY.....3

002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;

004.00A.105 shels to transport; Shortly boyes shall not play

150.00A.056 Shortly ambitious, covetous, when old,

SHOT.....7

003.00A.019 To leaders rage, to stormes, to shot, to dearth?

008.00B.032 That (more than Canon shot) availes or lets;

029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,

055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot

086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;

109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;

155.00a.410 Except it be from the liue Serpent shot,

SHOT-BRUIS'D.....1

087.00A.001 Under an undermin'd, and shot-bruis'd wall

SHOTT.....1

014.NY3.044 To warrs; but stay swords, armes, & shott

SHOTTS.....1

128.LR1.009 to Letargies. Lett shotts & boggs, & skeines

SHOULD.....143

001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee

002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not

002.00A.055 I should be in remitter of your grace;

002.00A.056 In th'interim my letters should take place

005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,

005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be

005.00A.088 O wretch that thy fortunes should moralize

008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:

008.00B.051 Much hope which they should nourish will be dead.

008.00B.073 As these should doe good works; and should provide

008.00B.073 As these should doe good works; and should provide

011.00A.012 As a slave, which to morrow should be free,

011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?

014.NY3.019 And I should be in that hott parching clime

016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,

016.00A.018 And yet allows his ground more corne should beare;

019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?

021.00G.007 Should Cynthia quit thee Venus, and each starre,

021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.

021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
021.00G.064 I have accus'd, should such a mischief doe.
022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?
024.00A.032 A mutuall feeling which should sweeten it.
024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?
024.00A.050 Why should they brest to brest, or thighs to thighs?
029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
040.00A.009 Through Rimes vexation, I should them allay,
041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,
041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?
046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.
049.00A.007 'Tis much that Glasse should bee
052.00A.024 Should againe the ravenous
055.00A.013 In thee and thine; none should forswear
059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;
063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
064.00a.028 If shee whom I love, should love mee.
066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
067.00A.015 By this should know my pain,
069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
070.00A.032 All measure, and all language, I should passe,
070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough
078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.
078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.
079.00B.026 This; as shee would man should despise
082.00A.031 I needs must know, I should preferre,
089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though't be true.
096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
107.00A.077 Should vanish from her cloathes, into her bed,
108.00A.124 Becomes a man. Should chance or envies Art
109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot
110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
119.NY3.009 Of Poets, that methinks should ease our anguish,

126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
 128.LR1.003 Respectiue frendship should so quickly dye?
 128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
 128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare
 128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
 130.00A.005 A Palace, when'tis that, which it should be,
 135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke
 135.B13.036 our letter should as you, bee infinite.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 139.00A.005 If I should call mee any thing, should misse.
 139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
 141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,
 141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
 141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty,'and birth outgrow.
 141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
 142.00A.004 Yet turning to Saints, should my'humility
 142.00A.055 I should write here, as in short Galleries
 142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say
 143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 152.12a.042 In Peace-full times, Rumors of Warrs should rise.
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 153.00A.060 Should injure Nature, Vertue, and Destinie,
 153.00A.061 Should I divide and discontinue so,
 153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 155.00a.045 The present Prince, they're loth it should be said,
 155.00a.114 (loynt tenants of the world) who should suruiue.
 155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,
 155.00a.309 Shee by whose lines proportion should bee
 155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
 155.00a.459 That no one should her praises thus reherse,
 156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
 156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,
 156.00a.084 Should come to reade the booke of destiny,
 156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,
 156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.

157.00b.069 Should be emloid, because in all, shee did,
 157.00b.124 That which of her Ingredients should inuade
 157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.
 157.00b.483 What should the Nature change? Or make the same
 157.00b.525 And that the world should notice haue of this,
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still
 158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show
 158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
 160.00A.050 A shallow seeming child, should deeply know?
 166.00A.004 Cannot be damn'd; Alas; why should I bee?
 166.00A.005 Why should intent or reason, borne in mee,
 171.00A.007 Reason your viceroy in mee, mee should defend,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 181.00A.006 That it should beare the sinne of scorning it?
 184.00A.106 Should keep, as they, our first integrity;
 184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,
 185.00A.011 There I should see a Sunne, by rising set,
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
 187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
 187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.
 187.00A.273 2 The pretious sonnes of Sion, which should bee
 187.00A.312 Into Ierusalem should enter so;
 187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 189.00B.028 That Gentry should joyne families with it?

SHOULD'ST.....10

001.00A.037 Why should'st thou that dost not onely approve,
 005.00A.052 'Gainst whom thou should'st complaine, will in the way
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 108.00A.107 And should'st within five dayes expire
 108.00A.141 Thou in first rising should'st allow for it,
 133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
 150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,
 153.00A.196 But till thou should'st successefully advance
 153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win
 187.00A.385 19 Why should'st thou forget us eternally?

SHOULDERS.....1

158.00A.152 And to his shoulders dangle subtile haire;

SHOULDDEST.....1

157.00b.524 Thou shouldst for life, and death, a patterne bee,

SHOULDST.....8

024.00A.037 Nor needs perfection; why shouldst thou than

028.00A.016 I had rather thou shouldst painfully repent,

036.00A.012 Why shouldst thou thinke?

041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;

049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,

153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more

157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worme, consider more,

157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.

SHOURE.....1

069.00A.003 A shoure of raine, each severall drop might goe

SHOW.....28

001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show

006.00D.022 Munster did Townes and Gesner Authors show;

029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show

029.00A.029 And now as broken glasses show

031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show

040.00A.013 Some man, his art and voice to show,

042.00A.003 Nor in hope the world can show

068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,

081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse

082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show

122.00A.020 As with the Jewes guide God did; he did show

133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show

136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,

137.00A.009 Makes her not be, or not show: all my rime

139.00A.011 In recompence I would show future times

139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show

140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,

141.00A.032 T'adhere in these names, her and you to show,

142.00A.018 But in their humours, and at seasons show.

156.00a.036 Because shee cannot such another show.

157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appeares,

157.00b.337 In Nailles, and Haires, yea excrements, will show;

157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show

158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still

158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show

158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,

160.00A.091 Nor doth hee by ascending, show alone,

179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.

SHOW'D.....1

057.00A.021 Comming and staying show'd thee, thee,

SHOWERS.....1

049.00A.015 The showers and tempests can outwash,

SHOWES.....8

024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,

081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but showes

137.00A.023 This showes that you from nature lothly stray,

139.00A.059 Be better, he showes both, and to repress

155.00a.356 Duskie, and like an oft dyed garment showes.

155.00a.387 Th'Ayre showes such Meteors, as none can see,

158.00A.272 That she showes them in bigger quantities

183.00A.027 Which showes where the'other is, and which we say

SHOWN.....3

136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.

158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.

183.00A.033 This Church, by letting those daies joyne, hath shown

SHOWNE.....7

032.00A.013 Let Maps to other, worlds on worlds have showne,

054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,

113.00A.004 Since shee to few, yet to too many'hath showne

138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,

145.00A.035 If in this sacrifice of mine, be showne

183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,

192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne

SHOWRE.....1

155.00a.382 In the due birth-time, downe the balmy showre.

SHOWRES.....1

176.00B.005 In mine Idolatry what showres of raine

SHREWD.....1

002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:

SHRIFT.....1

004.00A.200 His skirts and hose, and call his clothes to shrift,

SHRINKE.....2

028.00A.010 And in false sleepe will from thee shrinke,

185.00A.019 It made his owne Lieutenant Nature shrinke,

SHRINKING.....1

155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,

SHROUD.....2

067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence

SHRUGS.....1

001.00A.074 And grins, smacks, shrugs, and such an itch endures,

SHRUNKE.....2

082.00A.007 Whither, as to the beds-feet life is shrunke,
145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,

SHUN.....1

079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;

SHUNNE.....5

022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
022.00A.043 Let all eyes shunne him, and hee shunne each eye,
137.00A.041 And shunne th'entangling laborinth of Schooles,
138.00A.006 In that, I seem'd to shunne beholdingnesse.
193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne

SHUT.....7

001.00A.052 I shut my chamber doore, and come, lets goe,
049.00A.039 No doore'gainst this names influence shut,
153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than
155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.

SHUT-IN.....1

152.12a.008 Shut-in for Men in one Circumference :

SHUTS.....1

187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath

SHUTST.....1

160.00A.027 Thou'hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,

SI.....3

SIBIMET.....1

195.010.014 NEC ADEO SIBIMET COENOBIVM FACTA, VT SE SOCIETATI DENEGARET,

SICK.....5

014.NY3.013 Sick Ireland is with a strange warr possest
 020.00G.003 To sea for nothing but to make him sick:
 100.00A.002 Ralphius is sick, the broker keeps his bed.
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.

SICKE.....8

002.00A.061 When sicke with Poetrie, and possest with muse
 010.00A.058 Sense, from distinguishing the sicke from sound;
 028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.056 Sicke world, yea dead, yea putrified, since shee
 155.00a.345 As gold fals sicke being stung with Mercury,
 156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpone
 184.00A.206 O Thou who Satan heard'st in Jobs sicke day,

SICKENES.....1

155.00a.044 When sickenes without remedy, empayres

SICKENESSE.....2

155.00a.093 And can there be worse sickenesse, then to know
 155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sickenesse doth not lie

SICKLY.....2

004.00A.110 Looke pale, and sickly, like a Patient; Yet
 156.00a.013 Sickly, alas, short-liu'd, aborted bee

SICKNES.....1

118.NY3.005 Dost thou recouer sicknes, or preuent?

SICKNESSE.....7

066.00A.031 My sicknesse to Physitians, or excesse;
 131.00B.067 It must bee sicknesse after one disdaine,
 157.00b.147 Shee, shee embrac'd a sicknesse, gae it meat,
 158.00A.045 Spirit-quenching sicknesse, dull captivitie,
 163.00A.002 By sicknesse, deaths herald, and champion;
 167.00A.010 And doth with poyson, warre, and sicknesse dwell.
 184.00A.217 That our eares sicknesse wee may cure,

SICKNESSES.....3

109.00A.053 Then note they the ships sicknesses, the Mast
 128.LR1.011 Ere sicknesses attach yong death is best
 157.00b.178 Of sicknesses, or their true mother, Age.

SIDE.....8

001.00A.091 He heares not mee, but, on the other side

009.00A.015 Round as the world's her head, on every side,
 011.00A.033 As the inhabitants of Thames right side
 020.00G.050 On either side, and then directs us where
 107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,
 131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime
 139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
 168.00A.001 Spit in my face you Jewes, and pierce my side,

SIDES.....4

003.00A.099 Equally strong cannot both sides say so?
 157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,
 158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
 158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.

SIEGE.....1

068.00A.013 And hop'st her stiffenesse by long siege to bow:

SIGH.....14

004.00A.116 Readie to travaile: So I sigh, and sweat
 021.00G.037 And made'st us sigh and blow, and pant, and burn,
 037.00A.019 Venus heard me sigh this song,
 041.00A.003 I cannot breath one other sigh, to move;
 055.00A.009 To falsifie a teare, or sigh, or vow,
 058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,
 065.00A.007 Above one sigh a day I'llow'd him not,
 065.00A.010 A she sigh from my mistresse heart,
 065.00A.029 I spring a mistresse, sweare, write, sigh and weepe:
 066.00A.001 Before I sigh my last gaspe, let me breath,
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,
 187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.

SIGH'D.....2

109.00A.013 From out her pregnant intrailles sigh'd a winde
 131.00B.049 Both sigh'd and enterchang'd a speaking eye,

SIGH'ST.....3

042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
 042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
 042.00A.026 But sigh'st my soule away,

SIGH-TEMPESTS.....1

031.00A.006 No teare-floods, nor sigh-tempests move,

SIGHES.....9

013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.

047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,
 058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.
 072.00A.009 My fire of Passion, sighes of ayre,
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,
 081.HH5.002 betrothd nor by my sighes breathd into thee
 120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art
 176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.

SIGHING.....1

131.00B.022 A sighing Ode, nor crosse-arm'd Elegie.

SIGHS.....7

010.00A.022 And notes thy palenesse, blushing, sighs, and sweats;
 022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
 041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
 041.00A.017 In sighs, in oathes, and letters outbid mee,
 051.00A.001 Blasted with sighs, and surrounded with teares,
 187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had

SIGHT.....21

004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,
 015.00G.003 The foe oft-times having the foe in sight,
 021.00G.011 Such is already my self-want of sight
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
 036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
 057.00A.014 (For thou lovest truth) an Angell, at first sight,
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
 142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
 153.00A.030 My selfe, the hardest object of the sight.
 153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,
 155.00a.353 Sight is the noblest sense of any one,
 155.00a.354 Yet sight hath onely color to feed on,
 157.00b.088 And after brings it nearer to thy sight:
 157.00b.244 Her by her sight, her pure and eloquent blood
 157.00b.441 The sight of God, in fulnesse, can thinke it;
 158.00A.198 If in her sight he change, nor doth refuse
 184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.
 184.00A.063 Nor Faith by Reason added, lose her sight.
 187.00A.057 15 He underfoot hath troden in my sight
 190.00A.027 To see God only, I goe out of sight:

SIGHTS.....3

032.00A.010 For love, all love of other sights controules,
 033.00A.010 If thou beest borne to strange sights,

179.NY3.011 Betray kind husband thy Spouse to our Sights,

SIGNARE.....1

186.00E.002 Signare, (haec nostrae symbola parva Domus)

SIGNE.....3

022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forfeit? signe to breake?

067.00A.004 The mystery, the signe you must not touch,

170.00A.012 A signe of rigour: so I say to thee,

SIGNES.....5

004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,

024.00A.041 But of our dalliance no more signes there are,

155.00a.264 The free-borne Sunne, and keepe twelue signes awake

158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;

177.00B.006 By circumstances, and by signes that be

150.00A.014 Where harmelesse fish monastique silence keepe.

158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.

158.00A.250 Weaknesse invites, but silence feasts oppression.

187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,

SILKE.....3

001.00A.031 The silke, and gold he weares, and to that rate

017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,

108.00A.151 Soe dost thou, when in silke and gold,

SILKEN.....2

001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,

027.00A.004 With silken lines, and silver hookes.

SILKES.....1

010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbear,

SILLY.....4

008.00B.005 Nor for that silly old moralitie,

024.00A.019 For, if we justly call each silly man

074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,

158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,

SILUER.....1

155.00a.149 Their siluer; or dispos'd into lesse glas,

SILVER.....2

027.00A.004 With silken lines, and silver hookes.

158.00A.007 What the gold Chaldee, or silver Persian saw,

SIMONY.....1

138.00A.002 Worst of spirituall vices, Simony,

SIMPLE.....4

003.00A.051 Religion, plaine, simple, sullen, yong,

022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word

153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;

169.00A.004 Simple, and further from corruption?

SIMPLES.....1

113.00A.026 Into any'oyle, the Soules of Simples, use

SIMPLICITY.....1

078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.

SIMPLY.....4

010.00A.067 You're loathsome all, being taken simply alone,

017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;

074.00A.010 If that be simply perfectest

158.00A.518 Ther's nothing simply good, nor ill alone,

SIN.....9

004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me

008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.

024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,

149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.

149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.

157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.

169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,

184.00A.211 And Apoplexies of fast sin, may die;

193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?

SIN-BURD'NED.....1

109.00A.047 And as sin-burd'ned soules from grave will creepe,

SINCE.....122

001.00A.049 But since thou like a contrue penitent,

002.00A.050 In love, ever since tricesimo of the Queene,

004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since

004.00A.137 All signes of loathing; But since I am in,

004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene

005.00A.010 As I thinke, since all, which were, are, and shall

013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee

013.00A.015 Since, houshold charmes, thy husbands name to teach,

013.00A.017 And since, an houres discourse could scarce have made

015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;

020.00G.083 Since to the hand, since to the imperial knee,

020.00G.083 Since to the hand, since to the imperial knee,

021.00G.001 Since she must go, and I must mourn, come night

021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,

021.00G.083 And dearest Friend, since we must part, drown night

025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,

028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,

036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee

037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,

041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,

041.00A.025 And since my love doth every day admit

042.00A.005 But since that I

042.00A.015 Speedier journeyes, since I take

045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,

049.00A.003 Which, ever since that charme, hath beene

049.00A.037 So since this name was cut

049.00A.042 Since I die daily, daily mourne.

050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still

052.00A.028 Here Loves Divines, (since all Divinity

053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,

057.00A.009 Enter these armes, for since thou thoughtst it best,

058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,

060.00A.019 Cruell and sodaine, hast thou since

064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,

064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;

067.00A.018 For since I am

067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.

069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside

069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all

070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,

073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,

076.00A.001 For the first twenty yeares, since yesterday,
 079.00B.024 Nature decreed (since each such Act, they say,
 079.00B.031 Since so, my minde
 082.00A.042 Since shee enjoyes her long nights festivall,
 082.00A.044 This houre her Vigill, and her eve, since this
 107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
 107.00A.047 Since separation
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 108.00A.101 But since I'am dead, and buried, I could frame
 108.00A.126 Since both have th'enflaming eye, and both the loving heart.
 108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
 108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 109.00A.070 Since all formes, uniforme deformity
 113.00A.004 Since shee to few, yet to too many'hath showne
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,
 127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue
 128.LR1.014 And since & thorough crooked lymbecks, stild
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 134.00A.031 The first good Angell, since the worlds frame stood,
 134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 135.B13.001 Since eu'ry Tree beginns to blossome now
 135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunn serues all the rest,
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,
 138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 140.00A.033 Since then our businesse is, to rectifie
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 143.00A.013 Your treasure, for since I had never knowne
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,
 145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,
 145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 146.00A.025 Here needs no marble Tombe, since hee is gone,
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures

153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow 155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
 155.00a.056 Sicke world, yea dead, yea putrified, since shee
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.065 The worlds infirmities, since there is none
 155.00a.307 Since euen grieffe it selfe, which now alone
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 155.00a.403 Since herbes, and roots by dying, lose not all,
 156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,
 157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,
 157.00b.035 A Father since her chast Ambition is,
 157.00b.151 And though he may pretend a conquest, since
 157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 157.00b.407 But since all honors from inferiors flow,
 157.00b.523 Since his will is, that to posteritee,
 158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.
 158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor slept since it saw light,
 158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.
 158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,
 158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to 158.00A.024 soule in an Emperour, in a Post-horse, and in a Mucheron, since
 178.NY3.001 Since She whome I lovd, hath payd her last debt
 181.00A.001 Since Christ embrac'd the Crosse it selfe, dare I
 184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,
 184.00A.082 And since thou so desirously
 184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,
 184.00A.086 In Abel dye, and ever since
 184.00A.123 (Since to be gracious
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 189.00B.006 Affected since the vintage? Dost thou finde
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,

SINCERE.....1

143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.

SINCERELY.....1

191.00B.035 To us so sweetly and sincerely too,

SINCERITY.....1

160.00A.006 Reward my muses white sincerity,

SINE.....4

195.010.009 VT SINE SEXV DEGERET;

195.010.011 (PARADISVM SINE SERPENTE,)

195.010.018 SINE REMIS, SINE REMORIS,
195.010.018 SINE REMIS, SINE REMORIS,

SINEW.....1
049.00A.029 Being still with you, the Muscle, Sinew, and Veine,

SINEW'D.....1
110.00A.034 Or like slacke sinew'd Sampson, his haire off,

SINEWES.....2
001.00A.008 The sinewes of a cities mistique bodie;
153.00A.134 (His sinewes) slackens, and whose Soule, the spring,

SINEWIE.....1
067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall

SINEWY.....1
158.00A.390 His sinewy Proboscis did remisly lie.

SINFULL.....1
002.00A.035 As Confessors; and for whose sinfull sake

SING.....11
040.00A.014 Doth Set and sing my paine,
108.00A.172 Daily new joyes, and never sing,
118.NY3.009 Or is thy devout Muse retyrd to sing
124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I
155.00a.408 To sing her funerall prayse, and vanish than.
158.00A.001 I sing the progresse of a deathlesse soule,
158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.
191.00B.022 They tell us why, and teach us how to sing.
191.00B.044 More hoarse, more harsh than any other, sing?
191.00B.051 And, till we come th'Extemporall song to sing,
191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part

SINGE.....1
135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe

SINGERS.....1
002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?

SINGING.....1
033.00A.005 Teach me to heare Mermaides singing,

SINGLE.....4
062.00A.037 A single violet transplant,
108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,

141.00A.039 When single planets by the Gods are nam'd,
155.00a.234 Is but as single money, coyn'd from her:

SINGLY.....1

155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.

SINGULAR.....2

017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.

142.00A.002 'Twere too much schisme to be singular,

SINISTER.....1

184.00A.198 Deliver us from the sinister way.

SINK.....1

155.00a.288 The floating Moone would shipwracke there, and sink?

SINKE.....6

045.00A.017 With wares which would sinke admiration,

112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as

130.00A.030 Into this world, corruptions sinke, is sent,

155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,

157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;

158.00A.356 Begins to sinke; the Swordfish upward spins,

SINKES.....1

150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe

SINKS.....1

155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.

SINN'D.....10

001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.

004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,

112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.

149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see

158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus

158.00A.107 Who sinn'd? t'was not forbidden to the snake

168.00A.003 For I have sinn'd, and sinn'd, and onely hee,

168.00A.003 For I have sinn'd, and sinn'd, and onely hee,

169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,

187.00A.029 8 Jerusalem hath sinn'd, therefore is shee

SINNE.....63

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne

001.00A.054 Worne by as many severall men in sinne,

002.00A.005 Though Poetry indeed be such a sinne

004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne

004.00A.138 I must pay mine, and my forefathers sinne
 005.00A.034 To know and weed out this enormous sinne.
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 009.00A.030 Of men late scurg'd for madnes, or for sinne,
 060.00A.006 A sinne, nor shame nor losse of maidenhead,
 061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
 096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,
 112.00A.039 For in best understandings, sinne beganne,
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee
 113.00A.012 Mens workes, vanity weighs as much as sinne.
 122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;
 131.00B.010 And wanting the reward, yet beare the sinne.
 131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight
 137.00A.005 Two ills can nere perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;
 139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
 140.00A.020 The poysonous tincture of Originall sinne,
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 149.00A.032 To th'elder death, by sinne, is freed by this;
 149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
 150.00A.044 As sinne insinuates 'twixt just men and grace,
 150.00A.054 Oh, every age a diverse sinne pursueth.
 150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
 150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
 150.00A.065 Or sinne, by tempting, or, not daring that,
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,
 157.00b.167 Infect thee with originall sinne, and thou
 157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.164 Her sinne had now brought in infirmities,
 160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 163.00A.012 And red with blushing, as thou art with sinne;
 174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;
 175.00B.003 But black sinne hath betraid to endlesse night
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,
 176.00B.014 Th'effect and cause, the punishment and sinne.
 181.00A.006 That it should beare the sinne of scorning it?
 184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
 184.00A.040 One claime for innocence, and disseiz'd sinne,
 184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.141 Some sinne more burdenous,
 184.00A.182 Wee arme against thee, and they fight for sinne,

184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,
 184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne
 184.00A.252 As sinne is nothing, let it no where be.
 185.00A.014 Sinne had eternally benighted all.
 187.00A.290 Then did the towne of Sodome sinne before;
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.008 Others to sinne? and, made my sinne their doore?
 193.00A.008 Others to sinne? and, made my sinne their doore?
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne

SINNED.....2

187.00A.289 6 The daughters of my people have sinned more,
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we've sinned so.

SINNER.....1

184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prayes,

SINNERS.....2

149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 154.00A.039 And seest such sinners as they are, with thee

SINNES.....33

001.00A.050 Charitably warn'd of thy sinnes, dost repent
 002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee
 002.00A.037 Whose strange sinnes, Canonists could hardly tell
 002.00A.080 Satan will not joy at their sinnes, as hee.
 003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 004.00A.232 With the seaven deadly sinnes being among
 004.00A.239 Drowne the sinnes of this place, for, for mee
 008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.
 010.00A.024 The sinnes of her owne youths ranke lustinesse;
 017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!
 060.00A.018 And sacrilege, three sinnes in killing three.
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and haire may no man equall call,
 090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haire doe fall.
 149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.468 Her anger on himselfe. Sinnes against kinde
 160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 165.00A.010 For, if above all these, my sinnes abound,
 166.00A.006 Make sinnes, else equall, in mee, more heinous?

166.00A.012 And drowne in it my sinnes blacke memorie,
 168.00A.006 My sinnes, which passe the Jewes impiety:
 181.00A.005 It bore all other sinnes, but is it fit
 187.00A.053 14 His hand hath of my sinnes framed a yoake
 187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had
 187.00A.161 19 Arise, cry in the night, poure, for thy sinnes,
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 187.00A.347 Thy sinnes O Edoms daughter, hee will see,
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.

SINOWIE.....1

158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,

SINS.....6

008.00B.018 Sentence (dread judge) my sins great burden beare?
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
 154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
 184.00A.148 Neglecting to choake sins spawne, Vanitie,
 187.00A.313 13 For the Priests sins, and Prophets, which have shed

SINT.....1

186.00E.017 Omnia cum Crux sint, Crux Anchora fixa, sigillum

SION.....3

187.00A.013 4 Emptie are the gates of Sion, and her waies
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.273 2 The pretious sonnes of Sion, which should bee

SIONS.....2

187.00A.021 6 From Sions daughter is all beauty gone,
 187.00A.089 1 How over Sions daughter hath God hung

SIR.....16

002.00A.001 Sir; though (I thanke God for it) I do hate
 004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.
 004.00A.051 This fellow chuseth me? He saith, Sir,
 004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,
 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
 004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;
 004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I
 005.00A.031 You Sir, whose righteousnes she loves, whom I
 111.00A.019 Beleeve mee Sir, in my youths giddiest dayes,

112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;
 112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
 129.00A.HE1 To Sir H.W. at his going Ambassa-
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
 161.00A.001 See Sir, how as the Suns hot Masculine flame

SIRE.....1

158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.

SIREN.....1

124.00A.009 I sing not, Siren like, to tempt; for I

SISE.....2

079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:

SISTER.....8

102.SN3.001 Faustus keeps his sister and a whore,
 102.SN3.002 Faustus keeps his sister and no more,
 142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
 158.00A.196 Nor if his sister, or his neece shee be,
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 158.00A.510 Sister and wife to Caine, Caine that first did plow.
 161.00A.010 Doth with her sister, your invention, hold,
 191.00B.015 A Brother and a Sister, made by thee

SISTERS.....2

158.00A.202 Their daughters, and their sisters did ingresse,
 158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,

SIT.....15

024.00A.009 Onely thine image, in my heart, doth sit,
 031.00A.029 And though it in the center sit,
 050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.024 You may at Revels, you at counsaile, sit.
 052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
 108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?
 155.00a.383 Th'Ayre doth not motherly sit on the earth,
 157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit
 157.00b.345 Vp to those Patriarckes, which did longer sit
 160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,
 186.00E.015 Serpens; fixa Cruci si sit Natura; Crucique
 187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,
 187.00A.288 Sit and embrace the dunghills which they loath'd.
 187.00A.357 5 Our persecutors on our necks do sit,
 194.00Z.001 Corporis haec Animae sit Syndon, Syndon Iesu

SITS.....3

011.00A.022 Sits downe, and snorts, cag'd in his basket chaire,
 187.00A.001 1 How sits this citie, late most populous,
 187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,

SITTING.....2

079.00B.012 His hignesse sitting in a golden Chaire,
 109.00A.051 Some sitting on the hatches, would seeme there,

SIX.....3

108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
 161.00A.0HE To E. of D. with six holy Sonnets.
 161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;

SIXE.....3

068.00A.002 Whom I have watch'd sixe or seaven dayes,
 069.00A.012 I wish; a sixe, or foure;
 158.00A.041 To my sixe lustres almost now outwore,

SIZE.....2

002.00A.054 You said, If I Returne next size in Lent,
 062.00A.038 The strength, the colour, and the size,

SKEINES.....1

128.LR1.009 to Letargies. Lett shotts & boggs, & skeines

SKIE.....1

069.00A.007 As the small starres doe in the skie:

SKILL.....2

026.00A.005 Hadst thou the wicked skill
 063.00A.006 The skill of specular stone,

SKIN.....7

001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 009.00A.005 And on her necke her skin such lustre sets,
 009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunkes, cloth'd in seals skin,
 009.00A.029 Like rough bark'd elboughes, or the russet skin
 157.00b.270 The bladders Caue, and neuer breake the skin?
 157.00b.505 Where eies might read vpon the outward skin,
 187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,

SKIN'S.....1

050.00A.037 But name not Winter-faces, whose skin's slacke;

SKINNE.....7

009.00A.014 Or warts, or wheales, it hangs upon her skinne.

017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 019.00A.010 And powders blew staines scatter'd on my skinne;
 063.00A.015 For he who colour loves, and skinne,
 157.00b.176 A Prouince Pack'd vp in two yards of skinne.
 187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,
 187.00A.368 Black as an Ocean colour'd had our skinne:

SKINS.....1

009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.

SKIP.....2

001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,

SKIPT.....1

010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,

SKIRTS.....3

004.00A.200 His skirts and hose, and call his clothes to shrift,
 158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,
 187.00A.033 9 Her foulness in her skirts was seene, yet she

SKORN.....1

118.NY3.008 In a good skorn of the worlds vanitee?

SKORNE.....1

123.NY3.008 In skorne of all: for now I admyre thee.

SKUMME.....1

009.00A.009 Or like the skumme, which, by needs lawlesse law

SLACK.....3

154.00A.014 The household widdow'd, and the garter slack;
 157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spongy slack Diuine
 184.00A.146 By our connivence, or slack companie,

SLACK'D.....1

155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,

SLACKE.....5

050.00A.037 But name not Winter-faces, whose skin's slacke;
 110.00A.034 Or like slacke sinew'd Sampson, his haire off,
 157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
 157.00b.122 Drowsie or slacke, remember then that shee,
 157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,

SLACKEN.....1

032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.

SLACKENS.....1

153.00A.134 (His sinewes) slackens, and whose Soule, the spring,

SLACKNESSE.....1

157.00b.098 Thy Physicke; chide the slacknesse of the fit.

SLACKNETH.....1

158.00A.207 And slackneth so the soules, and bodies knot,

SLAIN.....3

150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost

158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine have slain

158.00A.380 Be slain, to gallant mischiefe doth herselfe addresse.

SLAINE.....17

004.00A.024 In the Danes Massacre had sure beene slaine,

018.00B.052 Nurse, o my love is slaine, I saw him goe

022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,

071.00A.012 And let th'enchantresse Honor, next be slaine,

084.00A.002 Slaine, cruell friends, by parting have joyn'd here.

158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,

158.00A.092 And one by one we'are here slaine o'er againe

158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so

158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,

165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,

172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,

173.00A.006 Was from the worlds beginning slaine, and he

184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.

184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;

187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)

187.00A.168 Prophet and Priest be slaine in Sanctuary?

187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,

SLAVE.....4

004.00A.162 Shall I, nones slave, of high borne, or rais'd men

011.00A.012 As a slave, which to morrow should be free,

080.00E.014 Will make me his jest or slave

167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,

SLAVES.....1

112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.

SLEAVESICKE.....1

027.00A.023 Or curious traitors, sleavesicke flies

SLEEP.....8

034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?
 078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;
 106.00A.091 Now sleep or watch with more joy; and O light
 108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?
 160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast

SLEEPE.....19

003.00A.079 To sleepe, or runne wrong, is: on a huge hill,
 010.00A.015 Takes this advantage to sleepe out day-light,
 028.00A.010 And in false sleepe will from thee shrinke,
 035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
 042.00A.038 Are but turn'd aside to sleepe;
 049.00A.064 And this I murmure in my sleepe;
 065.00A.030 And the game kill'd, or lost, goe talke, and sleepe.
 109.00A.035 Sleepe is paines easiest salue, and doth fullfill
 112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe
 126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
 153.00A.024 Doth practice dying by a little sleepe,
 155.00a.274 He meanes to sleepe, being now falne nearer vs.
 157.00b.120 Laies thee to sleepe but a saint Lucies night.
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
 167.00A.011 And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
 167.00A.013 One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,

SLEEPERS.....1

032.00A.004 Or snorted we in the seaven sleepers den?

SLEEPES.....1

179.NY3.005 Sleepes She a thousand, then peepes vp one yeare?

SLEEPIE.....1

158.00A.044 Of steepe ambition, sleepie povertie,

SLEEPING.....1

158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie

SLEEPS.....1

153.00A.021 To morrow, sleeps, when the condemned man,

SLEEPT.....1

158.00A.166 Had never shut, nor sleept since it saw light,

SLEEVELESSE.....1

004.00A.031 Sleevelesse his jerkin was, and it had beene

SLEIGHT.....1

131.00B.069 Let others sinne, and grieve; one cunning sleight

SLENDER.....1

009.00A.027 And like that slender stalke, at whose end stands

SLEPT.....1

158.00A.415 On whose skirts the bitch slept; ere she could barke,

SLIGHT.....2

133.00A.045 Marke, if slight things be'objected, and o'r blowne,

158.00A.122 Broke the slight veines, and tender conduit-pipe,

SLILY.....2

002.00A.099 As slily as any Commenter goes by,

008.00B.039 Visit all Countries, and have slily made

SLIME.....2

004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne

161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles durty slime,

SLIMIE.....1

149.00A.018 But as the tide doth wash the slimie beach,

SLIMY.....2

027.00A.021 Let coarse bold hands, from slimy nest

121.NY3.002 The slimy rimes bred in our vale below,

SLINGS.....1

002.00A.019 Rammes, and slings now are seely battery,

SLIP'D.....1

150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.

SLIPPERIE.....1

131.00B.025 Else from his slipperie soule with a faint groane,

SLIPPERINESSE.....2

184.00A.031 Most slipperinesse, yet most entanglings hath,

184.00A.221 That wee get not a slipperinesse,

SLOW.....2

131.00B.105 'Till slow accesse hath made it wholly pure,
158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:

SLOW-PAC'D.....4

153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe
155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
157.00b.248 And chides vs slow-pac'd snailes, who crawle vpon

SLOWLY.....1

107.00A.062 So slowly pac'd in this procession?

SLOWNES.....1

122.00A.022 Our slownes is our punishment and sinne;

SLUE.....1

160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee

SLUGGARD.....1

158.00A.354 The sluggard Whale yeelds to oppression,

SLUMBER.....2

012.00A.023 Or in a speechlesse slumber, calmely ride
122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,

SLUMBERER.....1

158.00A.144 And as a slumberer stretching on his bed;

SLY.....1

116.00A.004 As in our streets sly beggers narrowly

SMACK.....1

012.00A.016 The curled whirlpooles suck, smack, and embrace,

SMACK'D.....1

004.00A.081 He smack'd, and cry'd, He's base, Mechanique, coarse,

SMACKS.....1

001.00A.074 And grins, smacks, shrugs, and such an itch endures,

SMALL.....19

017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot
062.00A.076 Small change, when we're to bodies gone.
069.00A.007 As the small starres doe in the skie:
108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,
136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.

145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
 149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complaines! Alas,
 153.00A.112 (Yea and those small ones which the Poles engrave,)
 153.00A.131 Though as small pocket-clocks, whose every wheele
 153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.
 157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,
 157.00b.430 To such small copper coynes, they lost the old,
 157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 158.00A.178 Into a small blew shell, the which a poore
 158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,
 158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;

SMALL-WARES.....1

145.00A.016 Court, Citie, Church, are all shops of small-wares,

SMALLEST.....1

081.HH5.027 none could haue challenged the smallest parte

SMALLNESSE.....1

158.00A.261 Here by her smallnesse shee two deaths orepast,

SMALNESS.....1

158.00A.095 No smallness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,

SMALS.....1

158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?

SMART.....1

004.00A.089 Scratch'd into smart, and as blunt iron grown'd

SMELL.....5

001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truely I doe;
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,

SMELS.....1

155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell

SMELT.....1

010.00A.044 Smelt gunpowder, the pale wretch shivered;

SMIL'D.....2

004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what

131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.

SMILE.....3

022.00A.008 Or those it hath, smile at your perjuries?

056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?

111.00A.025 But now 'tis incongruity to smile,

SMILES.....2

001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,

158.00A.036 Ne'r smiles nor frownes, O vouch-safe thou to looke

SMITE.....1

187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,

SMOAKE.....2

122.00A.027 But if (as All th'All must) hopes smoake away,

130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.

SMOAKES.....1

012.00A.002 Whom honours smoakes at once fatten and sterve;

SMOOTH.....3

020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,

020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradise, where we would have

110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,

SMOOTHNES.....1

135.B13.025 In Auchos calme face wee your smoothnes see,

SMOTHER.....2

072.00A.008 And nourish not, but smother.

106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother

SNAILE.....2

112.00A.049 And seeing the snaile, which every where doth rome,

112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,

SNAILES.....1

157.00b.248 And chides vs slow-pac'd snailes, who crawle vpon

SNAKE.....4

009.00A.046 As one which gath'ring flowers, still feares a snake?

110.00A.036 Of Ants, durst th'Emperours lov'd snake invade,

158.00A.107 Who sinn'd? t'was not forbidden to the snake

181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.

SNAKES.....1

138.00A.064 That stones, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:

SNAPPING.....1

109.00A.056 Snapping, like too-high-stretched treble strings.

SNARE.....3

027.00A.020 With strangling snare, or windowie net:

158.00A.214 With faind calls, his nets, or enwrapping snare

187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare

SNARES.....1

020.00G.042 Of springs, snares, fetters and manacles:

SNATCH.....2

038.00A.006 Mee travell, sojourne, snatch, plot, have, forget,

158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine

SNATCHING.....1

184.00A.210 That snatching cramps of wickednesse

SNORTED.....1

032.00A.004 Or snorted we in the seaven sleepers den?

SNORTS.....1

011.00A.022 Sits downe, and snorts, cag'd in his basket chaire,

SNOW.....2

033.00A.013 Till age snow white haire on thee,

187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;

SNOWIE.....1

184.00A.100 The cold white snowie Nunnery,

SNOWS.....1

024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.

SNUFFE.....2

002.00A.082 And barrelling the droppings, and the snuffe,

035.00A.024 For even at first lifes Taper is a snuffe.

SO.....581

001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:

001.00A.069 And so imprisoned, and hem'd in by mee

001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh't the ground.

001.00A.085 That dances so divinely; Oh, said I,

001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?

001.00A.104 So is the Poxe; He answered not, but spy'd

002.00A.003 In all ill things so excellently best,
 002.00A.089 So huge, that men (in our times forwardnesse)
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare
 003.00A.037 So the worlds selfe, thy other lov'd foe, is
 003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey
 003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinkes that so
 003.00A.068 So doth, so is Religion; and this blind-
 003.00A.068 So doth, so is Religion; and this blind-
 003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;
 003.00A.083 Yet strive so, that before age, deaths twilight,
 003.00A.090 In so ill case, that God hath with his hand
 003.00A.099 Equally strong cannot both sides say so?
 003.00A.109 So perish Soules, which more chuse mens unjust
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 004.00A.059 Good pretty linguists, and so Panirge was;
 004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.
 004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
 004.00A.090 Into an edge, hurts worse: So, I foole found,
 004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,
 004.00A.116 Readie to travaile: So I sigh, and sweat
 004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
 004.00A.207 So in immaculate clothes, and Symetrie
 004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,
 004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne
 004.00A.215 And whisperd by Jesu, so often, that A
 004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 005.00A.041 Into other hands: So controverted lands
 005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
 005.00A.076 Of men; so in law, nailes are extremities,
 005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 006.00D.009 Infinite worke, which doth so far extend,
 006.00D.055 So will thy booke in peeces; for a Lord
 006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,
 006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
 006.00D.064 So much, at once their hunger to asswage:
 006.00D.068 And so one may, which on another looks,
 008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:
 008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.
 008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.
 008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.
 008.00B.026 So pale, so lame, so leane, so ruinous.
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.071 So in the first falne angels, resteth still
 008.00B.092 So, that I almost pittie thy estate:
 009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice
 009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice

010.00A.005 So am I, (by this traitorous meanes surpriz'd)
 010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
 012.00A.015 So, carelesse flowers strow'd on the waters face,
 012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye
 012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdaine.
 013.00A.020 Thou art not by so many duties his,
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
 016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,
 017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
 017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
 018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
 019.00A.012 So foule, and course, as, Oh, I may seeme than,
 020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we
 020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
 020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.
 020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man
 021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,
 021.00G.040 To paths in love so dark and dangerous:
 021.00G.041 And those so ambush'd round with houshold spies,
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.082 But count it a lost season, so shall shee.
 021.00G.088 The world enjoyes in Mass, and so we may.
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,
 022.00A.009 Are vowes so cheape with women, or the matter
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
 022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
 024.00A.046 But so, as thine from one another doe;
 024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,
 024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move
 024.00A.063 And so be change, and sicknesse, farre from thee,
 027.00A.013 If thou, to be so seene, beest loath,
 029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,
 029.00A.017 If 'twere not so, what did become 029.00A.030 A hundred lesser faces, so
 030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
 030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.
 031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,
 031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so

032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
034.00A.009 So lovers contracts, images of those,
034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.
035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;
036.00A.011 Thy beames, so reverend, and strong
036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.
037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.
039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
040.00A.002 For loving, and for saying so
040.00A.010 Griefe brought to numbers cannot be so fierce,
040.00A.012 But when I have done so,
040.00A.020 For both their triumphs so are published,
040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
042.00A.012 Nor halfe so short a way:
044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
045.00A.003 So in a voice, so in a shapelesse flame,
045.00A.003 So in a voice, so in a shapelesse flame,
045.00A.016 And so more steddily to have gone,
045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,
047.00A.006 But, so great Joy, our life at once outweares,
047.00A.018 So, these extreames shall ne'r their office doe;
047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
049.00A.016 So shall all times finde mee the same;
049.00A.032 And recompact my scattered body so.
049.00A.037 So since this name was cut
049.00A.059 So, in forgetting thou remembrest right,
049.00A.066 For dying men talke often so.
050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,
050.00A.049 Not panting after growing beauties, so,
051.00A.017 Make me a mandrake, so I may grow here,
052.00A.032 Or loth so to amuze,
053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,
053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.
054.00A.001 I scarce beleeve my love to be so pure
054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use
054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,
055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
056.00A.007 But are other creatures so?

057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
 057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,
 058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
 058.00A.014 So doth each teare,
 058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
 059.00A.011 So, lovers dreame a rich and long delight,
 060.00A.026 Just so much honor, when thou yeeld'st to mee,
 061.00A.022 Or may he so long Parasites have fed,
 062.00A.009 So to'entergraft our hands, as yet
 062.00A.021 If any, so by love refin'd,
 062.00A.041 When love, with one another so
 062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre
 062.00A.049 But O alas, so long, so farre
 062.00A.057 On man heavens influence workes not so,
 062.00A.065 So must pure lovers soules descend
 062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
 063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
 063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
 063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
 064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorene.
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 065.00A.013 If he wroung from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so
 067.00A.023 So, 'tis some bravery,
 068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
 069.00A.004 To his owne primrose, and grow Manna so;
 071.00A.007 And worke on them as mee, and so preferre
 072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so
 072.00A.022 And so my soule more earnestly releas'd,
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
 074.00A.012 But Negatives, my love is so.
 075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,
 075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,
 075.00A.006 Any, so cheape a death, as saying, Goe;
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 078.00D.009 So should our loves meet in simplicity.
 079.00B.003 So did I reverence, and gave
 079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so
 079.00B.014 By children, then the thing which lovers so
 079.00B.019 And that so lamely, as it leaves behinde
 079.00B.031 Since so, my minde
 082.00A.023 Have wee two wept, and so
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care

099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come
 106.00A.023 So may shee faire and rich, in nothing lame,
 106.00A.087 So, shee a mothers rich stile doth preferre,
 106.00A.093 This Sun will love so dearely
 107.00A.045 So meet thy Fredericke, and so
 107.00A.045 So meet thy Fredericke, and so
 107.00A.062 So slowly pac'd in this procession?
 107.00A.075 So nicely about the Bride;
 107.00A.087 Or each is both, and all, and so
 107.00A.090 So just and rich in that coyne which they pay,
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall
 108.00A.041 So are those Courts, whose Princes animate,
 108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know
 108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,
 108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;
 108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move
 108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
 108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 108.00A.103 So much as this poore song, which testifies
 108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
 108.00A.139 To thinke thou wert in Bed so long,
 108.00A.147 Of joy, a Teare; so quencht, thou maist impart,
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisedome grow so stale,
 108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
 108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.
 108.00A.206 So doth the Bridegroome hast as much,
 108.00A.224 Make of so noble individuall parts
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 109.00A.016 Downward againe; and so when it did view
 109.00A.022 So joyd, as Sara 'her swelling joy'd to see.
 109.00A.023 But 'twas, but so kinde, as our countrimen,
 109.00A.049 And tremblingly'aske what newes, and doe heare so,
 109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,
 109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say
 109.00A.073 So violent, yet long these furies bee,
 111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,
 111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so throughly hate,
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 112.00A.031 So pride, lust, covetize, being severall
 112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 113.00A.028 So workes retirednesse in us; to rome
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 115.NY3.005 Plead for me, and so by thyne & my labor,
 117.00A.007 So, though I languish, prest with Malancholy,

119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 121.NY3.001 Euen as lame things thirst their perfection, so
 121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee
 122.00A.009 So thy retyrings I love, yea envie,
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 123.NY3.010 Of rotten walls; so it myne emptines.
 127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,
 127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,
 127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare
 127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
 127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
 127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;
 128.LR1.001 Went you to conquer? and haue so much lost
 128.LR1.003 Respectiue frendship should so quickly dye?
 129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,
 129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
 131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
 131.00B.006 From Paradise so great a distance were,
 131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,
 131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
 131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,
 131.00B.055 So passion is to womans love, about,
 131.00B.083 You are a perfectnesse, so curious hit,
 131.00B.089 Each good in you's a light; so many a shade
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 131.00B.121 So able man, blest with a vertuous Love,
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 134.00A.007 So would I, not to encrease, but to expresse
 134.00A.008 My faith, as I beleeve, so understand.
 134.00A.014 Grow infinite, and so passe reasons reach,
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee, I would not misse you there
 136.00A.001 Honour is so sublime perfection,
 136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
 136.00A.007 So from low persons doth all honour flow;
 136.00A.016 And, ordinance rais'd on Towers so many mile
 136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 136.00A.037 Natures first lesson, so, discretion,
 136.00A.040 Discretion is a wisemans Soule, and so
 136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;

137.00A.013 So in the country's beauty; to this place
137.00A.020 And falsifies both computations so;
137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold
138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.
138.00A.015 So whether my hymnes you admit or chuse,
138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
138.00A.042 The quick high Moone: so doth the body, Soules.
138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
139.00A.040 And so increase your appetite and food;
139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,
141.00A.009 In woman so perchance milde innocence
141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,
141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,
142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
142.00A.025 So cloysterall men, who, in pretence of feare
142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
142.00A.047 Grow capable of this so great a light,
142.00A.057 So to present the roome twice to our eyes,
142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say
143.00A.004 So many resurrections waken mee.
143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;
143.00A.016 (So as I have) in any other Mine;
145.00A.004 Growne stale, is to so low a value runne,
145.00A.025 Since in an age so ill, as none is fit
145.00A.026 So much as to accuse, much lesse mend it,
145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
145.00A.062 So did I humbly reverence each degree
145.00A.067 So am I debtor unto them, whose worth,
145.00A.073 For as your fellow Angells, so you doe
145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.

148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;
 148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metallis; so
 148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
 149.00A.020 So is her flesh refin'd by deaths cold hand.
 149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines
 149.00A.035 So, unobnoxious now, she'hath buried both;
 149.00A.038 So hath she this, and that virginity.
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 151.00A.006 (So guiltiest men stand mutest at the barre)
 151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,
 152.12a.010 So disproportion'd and so angulare,
 152.12a.010 So disproportion'd and so angulare,
 152.12a.017 And nothing euer came so neer to This,
 152.12a.023 What must This doo; Centres distracted so,
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 152.12a.051 So God, in our desire to dye, dooth know
 152.12a.052 Our Plot for Ease, in beeing Wretched so.
 152.12a.054 As but so manie Mandrakes on his Grave.
 152.12a.059 And could Grief gett so high as Heav'n, that Quire
 152.12a.069 So is't to looke for Reason, HEE being gone,
 152.12a.079 So would iust Lamentations: Therefore Wee
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 152.12a.097 So, much as You Two mutual Heauens were here,
 153.00A.003 But did'st continue so; and now dost beare
 153.00A.013 And so can make by this soft extasie,
 153.00A.033 So, yet unglorified, I comprehend
 153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
 153.00A.053 And as if man feeds on mans flesh, and so
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.061 Should I divide and discontinue so,
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 153.00A.067 So is't of vertue; for a point and one
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.077 So was it in this person, forc'd to bee
 153.00A.079 So to exhibit in few yeares as much,
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;

153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is'not understood
 153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?
 153.00A.105 O Soule, O circle, why so quickly bee
 153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
 153.00A.141 So, youth is easiest to destruction,
 153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye
 153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?
 153.00A.189 And so in that capacitie remove
 153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
 153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
 153.00A.238 That thou so earely wouldst abandon us;
 154.00A.006 Bee so? if every severall Angell bee
 154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 154.00A.023 So fell our Monasteries, in one instant growne
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 154.00A.030 So, in the forme thereof his bodie's there;
 155.00a.020 And so the world had fits; it ioy'd, it mournd.
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.047 So mankind feeling now a generall thaw,
 155.00a.082 So many weedlesse Paradises bee,
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.123 So spacious and large, that euey soule
 155.00a.133 So short is life, that euey peasant striues,
 155.00a.135 And as in lasting, so in length is man
 155.00a.141 A thing so equall to him: now alas,
 155.00a.143 As credible; mankind decayes so soone,
 155.00a.151 But 'tis not so: w'are not retir'd, but damp't;
 155.00a.152 And as our bodies, so our mindes are cramp't:
 155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
 155.00a.178 That for Allay vnto so pure a minde
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame
 155.00a.201 So did the world from the first houre decay,
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
 155.00a.255 Men to finde out so many Eccentrique parts,
 155.00a.272 Steales by that point, and so is Serpentine:
 155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,
 155.00a.292 And men, to sound depths, so much line vntie,
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 155.00a.393 So as the influence of those starres may bee
 155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that

155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;
 155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
 155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 156.00a.007 And so is all to her materials,
 156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
 156.00a.033 Except the world it selfe, so great as shee.
 156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpone
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
 156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,
 156.00a.080 Tooke so much death, as seru'd for opium.
 156.00a.091 But 'tis not so: Fate did but vsher her
 157.00b.021 So struggles this dead world, now shee is gone;
 157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appeares,
 157.00b.037 These Hymes may worke on future wits, and so
 157.00b.039 And so, though not Reuiue, embalme, and spice
 157.00b.043 These Hymns thy issue, may encrease so long,
 157.00b.048 T'is th'onely Health, to be Hydropique so.
 157.00b.052 Do not so much, as not beleeeue a man.
 157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,
 157.00b.101 So this, to the Triumphant Church, cals thee.
 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.123 Shee whose Complexion was so euen made,
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.135 So though the Elements and Humors were
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.
 157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.245 Spoke in her cheekes, and so distinckly wrought,
 157.00b.253 Oppress'd with ignorance, we still were so,
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.316 (For so much knowledge, as would ouer-fraite
 157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,
 157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
 157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
 157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboute
 157.00b.403 Without this Honour, and then lou'd it so,
 157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honord) and that this 157.00b.428 Gods vnto them, so Agues bee, and war)

157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;
157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
157.00b.451 Who with Gods presence was acquainted so,
157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.
157.00b.508 Peeeces a Circle, and still keepees it so,
158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,
158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,
158.00A.089 So perished the eaters, and the meate:
158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
158.00A.116 Stretch to so nice a thinnes through a quill
158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better prooffe the law
158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so
158.00A.137 To see the Prince, and so fill'd the way
158.00A.156 Enchas'd with little fruits, so red and bright
158.00A.158 So, of a lone unhaunted place possest,
158.00A.165 And so her cradled child, the moist red eyes
158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her childs blood;
158.00A.177 Confin'd, and enjayld her, that seem'd so free,
158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is
158.00A.205 The body so free of his kindnesses,
158.00A.207 And slackneth so the soules, and bodies knot,
158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,
158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.
158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is
158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast
158.00A.295 So long hee hath flowen, and hath flowen so fast
158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,
158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,
158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so
158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own
158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
158.00A.374 So great a castle. And having for her house
158.00A.409 The flocke so neere, so well warnes and defends,
158.00A.409 The flocke so neere, so well warnes and defends,
158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so
158.00A.451 It quickned next a toyfull Ape, and so
158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,
158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
158.00A.002 Armes; I, my picture; if any colours can deliver a minde so plaine, and
158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to

158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
 158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so
 169.00A.006 Why dost thou bull, and bore so seelily
 170.00A.012 A signe of rigour: so I say to thee,
 174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
 179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.
 180.NY3.012 So my deuout fitts come and go away
 181.00A.014 No Crosse is so extreme, as to have none;
 181.00A.038 So may a selfe-dispising, get selfe-love.
 181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,
 181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, nearest to him, wee know,
 183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,
 184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.082 And since thou so desirously
 184.00A.138 From trusting so much to thy blood,
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 184.00A.179 Deliver us from death, by dying so,
 184.00A.220 Our praise, nor others dispraise so invite,
 185.00A.007 Pleasure or businesse, so, our Soules admit
 185.00A.041 Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace,
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.079 Because I have rebell'd so much, as fast
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
 187.00A.117 8 The Lord hath cast a line, so to confound
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.156 Made glad above thee, and advanc'd him so.
 187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.
 187.00A.246 For ruine of my peoples daughters so;
 187.00A.269 1 How Is the gold become so dimme? How is
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;
 187.00A.312 Into Ierusalem should enter so;
 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they
 187.00A.370 By force, and so women in Sions us'd.
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we've sinned so.
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 189.00B.037 What function is so noble, as to bee
 189.00B.041 Maries prerogative was to beare Christ, so

189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
 190.00A.018 Art jealous, Lord, so I am jealous now,
 191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe
 191.00B.035 To us so sweetly and sincerely too,
 191.00B.038 So well attyr'd abroad, so ill at home,
 191.00B.038 So well attyr'd abroad, so ill at home,
 191.00B.039 So well in Chambers, in thy Church so ill,
 191.00B.039 So well in Chambers, in thy Church so ill,
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 192.00B.015 So death doth touch the Resurrection.
 192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,

001.00A.076 Of some gay sport abroad, yet dare not goe.

002.00A.015 As in some Organ, Puppits dance above

002.00A.108 I bid kill some beasts, but no Hecatombs,

003.00A.056 Some Preachers, vile ambitious bauds, and lawes

003.00A.064 Knowing some women whores, dares marry none.

004.00A.056 Some Jesuites, and two reverend men

004.00A.107 Toll to some Courtier; And wiser then all us,

004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.

004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,

005.00A.035 O Age of rusty iron! Some better wit
005.00A.036 Call it some worse name, if ought equall it;
006.00D.004 Some vaster thing, and found'st a Curtizan.
006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,
006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,
008.00B.035 Of some great Conjurer that would enforce
008.00B.055 And be content that some lowd squeaking Cryer
008.00B.059 Or let mee creepe to some dread Conjurer,
008.00B.101 Or libels, or some interdicted thing,
010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
017.00A.019 When by the Gamut some Musitions make
018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
020.00G.064 Some Island moles may scattered there descry;
020.00G.074 Some Symetry the foot hath with that part
021.00G.019 Or have we left undone some mutual Right,
022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,
024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
024.00A.034 Doth threaten, and some daily change possesse.
025.00A.022 For some one
027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
029.00A.012 To other griefes, and aske themselves but some,
031.00A.003 Whilst some of their sad friends doe say,
031.00A.004 The breath goes now, and some say, no.
034.00A.003 Wilt thou then Antedate some new made vow?
037.00A.023 And said, alas, Some two or three
040.00A.013 Some man, his art and voice to show,
041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
045.00A.006 Some lovely glorious nothing I did see,
045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
051.00A.016 Some senslesse peece of this place bee;
052.00A.054 As in the Bible some can finde out Alchimy.
053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
056.00A.001 Some man unworthy to be possessor
059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
059.00A.010 Some odoriferous thing, or medicinall,
061.00A.004 May some dull heart to love dispose,
062.00A.073 And if some lover, such as wee,
064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,
066.00A.002 Great love, some Legacies; Here I bequeath
067.00A.023 So, 'tis some bravery,
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
068.00A.031 Practise may make her know some other part,
070.00A.002 Some second ghest to entertaine,
070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way

070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;
078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
078.00D.003 Send me some honey to make sweet my hive,
079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,
082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,
082.00A.034 And love, all, all some properties invest,
086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came
106.00A.026 Some of these Senators wealths deep oceans,
106.00A.064 Musicians, and dancers take some truce
108.00A.098 Full of the common joy; I utter'd some,
108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
109.00A.045 Some coffin'd in their cabbins lye,'equally
109.00A.048 At the last day, some forth their cabbins peepe:
109.00A.051 Some sitting on the hatches, would seeme there,
112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play
112.00A.024 Princes, some slaves, all to one end, and of one clay.
116.00A.006 And evermore conceive some hope thereby.
122.00A.030 Some thing to answer in some proportion
122.00A.030 Some thing to answer in some proportion
124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take
125.00A.012 Some houres on us your frends, and some bestow
125.00A.012 Some houres on us your frends, and some bestow
131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part
135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.
135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
137.00A.011 For, as darke texts need notes: there some must bee
138.00A.030 No knowledge of your worth, it some of it.
138.00A.073 Vertue hath some perversenesse; For she will
138.00A.076 Vertue hath some, but wise degrees of vice.
138.00A.081 But these are riddles; Some aspersion
138.00A.082 Of vice becomes well some complexion.
139.00A.002 Some embleme is of mee, or I of this,
139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,
139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,
140.00A.043 For, knowledge kindles Calentures in some,
141.00A.043 To some ye are reveal'd, as in a friend,
141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
142.00A.011 I thought it some Apostleship in mee
142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmelessenes we see,
143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,
145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,
148.00A.043 But let some faithfull booke in her roome be,
150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.

150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
155.00a.039 Some moneths she hath beene dead (but being dead,
155.00a.051 Thought it some blasphemy to say sh'was dead;
155.00a.084 Except some forraine Serpent bring it in)
155.00a.172 Helpe, or at least some time to wast, allow
155.00a.409 But as some Serpents poison hurteth not,
155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;
155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;
155.00a.420 Some Counsaylors some purpose to aduance
155.00a.420 Some Counsaylors some purpose to aduance
155.00a.421 The common profite; and some people haue
155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
155.00a.423 Some women haue some taciturnity;
155.00a.423 Some women haue some taciturnity;
155.00a.424 Some Nunneries, some graines of chastity.
155.00a.424 Some Nunneries, some graines of chastity.
156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.
157.00b.023 As some Daies are, at the Creation nam'd,
157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appears,
157.00b.070 Some Figure of the Golden times, was hid.
157.00b.159 Thinke that it argued some infermitee,
157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
157.00b.310 Of her some one thought, or one action:
157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
157.00b.336 Chiefly the cheefest parts, but some effect
157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion
158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
158.00A.304 From Greece, Morea were, and that by some
158.00A.318 Some Inland sea, and ever as hee went
158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
158.00A.426 At last a trap, of which some every where
158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
158.00A.506 And now they joyn'd: keeping some quality
158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
160.00A.058 Hee faith in some, envie in some begat,
160.00A.058 Hee faith in some, envie in some begat,
161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,
167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
176.00B.004 Mourn with some fruit, as I have mourn'd in vaine;
183.00A.024 Deales, in some times, and seldome joyning these;
184.00A.089 Of death, or of worse life: for Oh, to some

184.00A.141 Some sinne more burdenous,
 191.00B.042 A lesser gift than some one man hath sent?
 191.00B.048 (Though some have other Authors) Davids all:
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,

SOMETHING.....8

043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 043.00A.006 Something did say, and something did bestow;
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 052.00A.034 Something which they may see and use;
 052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
 055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.
 058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
 070.00A.018 A something else thereby;

SOMETIMES.....11

006.00D.019 A prosperous nose-borne wenne, which sometimes growes
 054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
 054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
 065.00A.009 And if sometimes by stealth he got
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 142.00A.022 Soe is the Blood sometimes; who ever ran
 149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
 155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
 157.00b.009 Or as sometimes in a beheaded man,
 158.00A.264 And whether she leape up sometimes to breath
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.

SOMEWHAT.....1

109.00A.066 Hell somewhat lightsome, and the' Bermuda calme.

SOMEWHERE.....1

021.00G.085 The cold and darkness longer hang somewhere,

SOMMER.....1

127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.

SOMMERS.....1

155.00a.203 And now the Springs and Sommers which we see,

SONG.....19

017.00A.020 A perfect song, others will undertake,
 037.00A.019 Venus heard me sigh this song,
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 108.00A.103 So much as this poore song, which testifies

108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
 114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 154.00A.016 Story, a theame; and Musicke lacks a song;
 155.00a.010 Shee's now a part both of the Quire, and Song,
 155.00a.446 Whose name refines course lines, & makes prose song,
 155.00a.462 A last, and lastingst peece, a song. He spake
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
 157.00b.044 As till Gods great Venite change the song.
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)
 187.00A.195 All the day long, a song and mockery.
 187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,
 191.00B.024 The first, Heaven, hath a song, but no man heares,
 191.00B.051 And, till we come th'Extemporall song to sing,

SONGS.....7

020.00G.055 For they seem all: there Syrens songs, and there
 040.00A.019 Both are increased by such songs:
 123.NY3.001 Kindly I envy thy Songs perfection
 157.00b.340 Shall in the Angels songs no discord heare;
 161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;
 187.00A.375 14 Elders, the gates; youth did their songs forbear,
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse

SONITU.....1

201.20a.031 17 Nunc lento sonitu dicunt,

SONNE.....16

001.00A.024 A speech to Court his beautious sonne and heire?
 008.00B.080 Yet with such anguish, as her onely sonne
 127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;
 155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,
 158.00A.436 Sonne to himselfe, and father too, hee is
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
 160.00A.086 Joy at the uprising of this Sunne, and Sonne,
 162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
 172.00A.005 The Father having begot a Sonne most blest,
 172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,
 173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
 183.00A.015 At once a Sonne is promis'd her, and gone,
 184.00A.010 O Sonne of God, who seeing two things,
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 184.00A.HE5 The Sonne.
 193.00A.015 But swear by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne

SONNES.....7

061.00A.020 His sonnes, which none of his may bee,
 109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraine grave
 133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,
 155.00a.204 Like sonnes of women after fifty bee.
 158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;
 173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,
 187.00A.273 2 The pretious sonnes of Sion, which should bee

SONNETS.....5

035.00A.019 And shall to love more thankfull Sonnets make,
 039.00A.032 We'll build in sonnets pretty roomes;
 145.00A.007 In lovers Sonnets: you come to repaire
 160.00A.0HE HOLY SONNETS.
 161.00A.0HE To E. of D. with six holy Sonnets.

SOON.....2

073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
 106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;

SOONE.....28

010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;
 016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,
 017.00A.027 Love built on beauty, soone as beauty, dies,
 018.00B.031 Richly cloath'd Apes, are call'd Apes, and as soone
 029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,
 044.00A.022 Whose matter in thee is soone spent.
 050.00A.035 If transitory things, which soone decay,
 058.00A.022 To teach the sea, what it may doe too soone,
 107.00A.009 Thou mak'st the black bird speed as soone,
 108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you're lov'd by all,
 139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
 153.00A.025 Thou at this midnight seest mee, and as soone
 155.00a.143 As credible; mankind decayes so soone,
 155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
 156.00a.074 Rather t'adorne, then last, shee soone expir'd;
 158.00A.082 Fenc'd with the law, and ripe as soone as borne
 158.00A.127 'Tis so soone gone, (and better proove the law
 158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
 158.00A.403 To issue. It could kill, as soone as goe,
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
 180.NY3.006 As my prophane love, & as soone forgott:
 181.00A.044 Must perish soone, and to destruction bowe.

184.00A.160 And yet soone after riches didst allow,

SOONER.....11

001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene

001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away

001.00A.059 And sooner may a gulling weather-Spie

021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,

022.00A.027 Sooner I'll thinke the Sunne will cease to cheare

022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames

073.00A.004 Nothing more endlesse, nothing sooner broke?

109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,

122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;

157.00b.001 Nothing could make mee sooner to confesse

158.00A.192 Things ripened sooner, and did longer last;

SOONEST.....2

072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:

167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,

SOPHISTRIE.....1

013.00A.002 And in that sophistrie, Oh, thou dost prove

SORCERIES.....1

010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move

SORE.....1

009.00A.044 As a worme sucking an invenom'd sore?

SOROR.....1

197.F01.003 Roberti Lothesley Soror:

SORROW.....10

054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow

061.00A.009 Madnesse his sorrow, gout his cramp, may hee

146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:

151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;

151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;

155.00a.131 Old Grandsires talke of yesterday with sorrow,

187.00A.046 O see, and marke if any sorrow bee

187.00A.047 Like to my sorrow, which Jehova hath

187.00A.071 O heare all people, and my sorrow see,

187.00A.267 65 Sorrow of heart, thy curse. 66 And with thy might

SORROWING.....1

079.00B.020 A kinde of sorrowing dulnesse to the minde.

SORT.....2

001.00A.105 More men of sort, of parts, and qualities;
 155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euery sort of men

SORTS.....1

158.00A.323 All suitors of all sorts themselves enthrall;

SOUERAIGNE.....1

157.00b.374 Made her a soueraigne state, religion

SOUGHT.....10

045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing
 070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,
 080.00E.010 For such by all are sought;
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 138.00A.018 By blamers of the times they mard, hath sought
 157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,
 158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
 187.00A.075 Dead in the citie; for they sought for meat
 187.00A.141 14 For, the vaine foolish things thy Prophets sought,

SOUL.....5

015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:
 020.00G.016 By our new nature (Use) the soul of trade.
 020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
 157.00b.014 As though he beckned, and cal'd backe his Soul,
 188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nere know cares,

SOULDIERS.....3

004.00A.040 But Pedants motley tongue, souldiers bumbast,
 066.00A.023 My modesty I give to souldiers bare;
 184.00A.181 When senses, which thy souldiers are,

SOULE.....177

002.00A.063 Law practise for meere gaine; bold soule repute
 003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 004.00A.156 My precious soule began, the wretchednesse
 008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.
 008.00B.037 Which, as the soule quickens head, feet and heart,
 008.00B.045 Having by subtle fire a soule out-pull'd;
 009.00A.037 Into th'earths worthlesse part a soule of gold,
 011.00A.008 His Soule out of one hell, into a new,
 012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,
 018.00B.018 My soule from other lands to thee shall soare,
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.

031.00A.014 (Whose soule is sense) cannot admit
 031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
 035.00A.010 Then Fantasie is Queene and Soule, and all;
 039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove
 042.00A.026 But sigh'st my soule away,
 044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
 045.00A.007 But since, my soule, whose child love is,
 054.00A.009 But mixt of all stuffes, paining soule, or sense,
 055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 062.00A.043 That abler soule, which thence doth flow,
 062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
 062.00A.059 For soule into the soule may flow,
 062.00A.059 For soule into the soule may flow,
 067.00A.005 For'tis my outward Soule,
 067.00A.022 To afford to it all that a Soule can doe,
 072.00A.022 And so my soule more earnestly releas'd,
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 108.00A.109 Then thy old Soule, the Sunne,
 115.00A.004 Feete and a reasoning soule and tongue to speake.
 116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,
 119.NY3.008 body & mind; the Muse beeing the Soules Soule
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld
 129.00A.001 After those reverend papers, whose soule is
 130.00A.013 The noble Soule by age growes lustier,
 130.00A.029 Our soule, whose country'is heaven, & God her father,
 131.00B.025 Else from his slipperie soule with a faint groane,
 131.00B.097 The soule with body, is a heaven combin'd
 131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 131.00B.104 But soule we finde too earthly to ascend,
 136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we
 136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence
 136.00A.040 Discretion is a wisemans Soule, and so
 137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 139.00A.061 From need of teares he will defend your soule,
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 142.00A.038 To your soule, found there no infirmitie,
 142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
 142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 145.00A.051 How faire a prooffe of this, in our soule growes?
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 145.00A.066 For my last soule did fit and mould my clay,
 146.00A.014 Ere rigg'd a soule for heavens discoverie

147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 147.00B.003 Next to my soule provide the happiest roome,
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 148.00A.027 So madame, as her Soule to heaven is fled,
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
 149.00A.031 Usurpe the body,'our soule, which subject is
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,
 150.00A.047 Which shall be'almost another soule, for there
 151.00A.035 Her soule was Paradise; the Cherubin
 152.12a.034 This soule of Peace through Christianitie?
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.105 O Soule, O circle, why so quickly bee
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.177 At that gate then Triumphant soule, dost thou
 153.00A.211 (Which is thy soule and body) as intire
 153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
 153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,
 154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
 154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse
 154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
 154.00A.027 His soule shall fill up his sepulchrall stone,)
 154.00A.029 For, as in his fame, now, his soule is here,
 154.00A.031 And if, faire soule, not with first Innocents
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.003 (For who is sure he hath a soule, vnlesse
 155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 155.00a.123 So spacious and large, that euey soule
 155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.
 156.00a.062 Or exhalation breath'd out from her soule.
 157.00b.012 His soule be saild, to her eternall bed,
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 157.00b.045 Thirst for that time, O my insatiate soule,
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.162 My second soule of sence, and first of growth.
 157.00b.183 And freely flies: This to thy soule allow,
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,

157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enioyes this her third birth,
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
 157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
 157.00b.267 And one soule thinkes one, and another way
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 157.00b.321 Returne not, my soule, from this extasee,
 157.00b.339 Vp vp, my drowsie soule, where thy new eare
 157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall
 157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;
 157.00b.490 For that soule euer ioyes, and euer staies.
 158.00A.HE3 OF THE SOULE.
 158.00A.001 I sing the progresse of a deathlesse soule,
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 158.00A.066 This soule to whom Luther, and Mahomet were
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.080 This Soule, made by the Makers will from pulling free.
 158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
 158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she
 158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is
 158.00A.222 The Soule from her too active organs fled
 158.00A.227 This soule inform'd, and abled it to roe
 158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
 158.00A.301 Into an embrion fish, our Soule is throwne
 158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,
 158.00A.371 This Soule, now free from prison, and passion,
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possest a new.
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,
 158.00A.022 one soule from man to man, nor man to beast, but indifferently
 158.00A.024 soule in an Emperour, in a Post-horse, and in a Mucheron, since 158.00A.025 no unreadinesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 160.00A.012 With a strong sober thirst, my soule attends.
 160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he
 160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,
 163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,

170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,
 172.00A.002 My Soule, this wholsome meditation,
 177.00B.002 As Angels, then my fathers soule doth see,
 177.00B.013 O pensive soule, to God, for he knowes best
 178.NY3.003 And her Soule early into heauen rauished,
 178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:
 179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove
 182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discerne and see
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 183.00A.002 My soule eates twice, Christ hither and away.
 183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,
 184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus
 184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,
 187.00A.205 20 My Soule is humbled in remembring this;
 187.00A.211 24 The Lord is, saith my Soule, my portion,
 187.00A.214 And to the Soule that seeks him earnestly.
 189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now
 190.00A.016 The amorousnesse of an harmonious Soule,
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:
 192.00B.025 May the last Adams blood my soule embrace.

SOULES.....86

001.00A.043 And till our Soules be unapparrelled
 003.00A.006 As worthy of all our Soules devotion,
 003.00A.109 So perish Soules, which more chuse mens unjust
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we've beene.
 022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;
 031.00A.002 And whisper to their soules, to goe,
 031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
 032.00A.008 And now good morrow to our waking soules,
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 049.00A.025 Then, as all my soules bee,
 050.00A.038 Lanke, as an unthrifts purse; but a soules sacke;
 050.00A.042 To vex their soules at Resurrection;
 052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,
 062.00A.015 Our soules, (which to advance their state,
 062.00A.017 And whil'st our soules negotiate there,
 062.00A.022 That he soules language understood,
 062.00A.033 But as all severall soules containe
 062.00A.035 Love, these mixt soules, doth mixe againe,
 062.00A.042 Interanimates two soules,
 062.00A.048 Are soules, whom no change can invade.

062.00A.062 Spirits, as like soules as it can,
 062.00A.065 So must pure lovers soules descend
 062.00A.071 Loves mysteries in soules doe grow,
 070.00A.010 To make their soules, at the last busie day,
 075.00A.002 Which sucks two soules, and vapors Both away,
 082.00A.027 Withdrew our soules, and made us carcasses.
 107.00A.078 As Soules from bodies steale, and are not spy'd.
 108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
 109.00A.047 And as sin-burd'ned soules from grave will creepe,
 112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 113.00A.026 Into any'oyle, the Soules of Simples, use
 119.NY3.008 body & mind; the Muse beeing the Soules Soule
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 134.00A.001 Reason is our Soules left hand, Faith her right,
 135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.
 136.00A.023 Or tooke Soules stufte such as shall late decay,
 136.00A.034 But as our Soules of growth and Soules of sense
 136.00A.034 But as our Soules of growth and Soules of sense
 138.00A.042 The quick high Moone: so doth the body, Soules.
 138.00A.056 Caskets of soules; Temples, and Palaces:
 138.00A.058 Soules but preserv'd, not naturally free;
 138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.
 142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
 145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thanks, that they
 147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 147.00B.016 Our soules become worme-eaten Carkasses.
 150.00A.042 Bodies of Saints rest for their soules above.
 150.00A.043 Death gets 'twixt soules and bodies such a place
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 155.00a.473 Verse hath a middle nature: heauen keepes soules,
 157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
 157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.489 loy of a soules arriuall neere decaies;
 157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,

158.00A.159 Did this soules second Inne, built by the guest
 158.00A.171 To an unfetterd soules quick nimble hast
 158.00A.181 Outcrept a sparrow, this soules moving Inne,
 158.00A.207 And slackneth so the soules, and bodies knot,
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 158.00A.393 And to the braine, the soules bedchamber, went,
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 165.00A.004 Of soules, and to your scattred bodies goe,
 167.00A.008 Rest of their bones, and soules deliverie
 177.00B.001 If faithfull soules be alike glorifi'd
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 185.00A.007 Pleasure or businesse, so, our Soules admit
 185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.
 185.00A.026 The seat of all our Soules, if not of his,
 187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
 192.00B.028 And as to others soules I preach'd thy word,

SOULS.....2

015.00G.034 As souls unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,

SOUND.....9

001.00A.077 And as fiders stop lowest, at highest sound,
 004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound
 010.00A.058 Sense, from distinguishing the sicke from sound;
 065.00A.012 'Twas neither very sound, nor meant to mee;
 112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
 123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound
 145.00A.018 And drawne their sound gold-ingot into wyre;
 155.00a.292 And men, to sound depths, so much line vntie,
 184.00A.065 Which were thy Churches Organs, and did sound

SOUNDS.....1

013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.

SOUTH.....3

109.00A.027 The South and West winds joyn'd, and, as they blew,
 127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
 157.00b.079 Star-light inough, t'haue made the South controll,

SOUTH-WEST.....1

192.00B.009 That this is my South-west discoverie

SOUTHSAY.....1

109.00A.011 (For, Fates, or Fortunes drifts none can Southsay,

SOVERAIGNE.....4

009.00A.012 Which were with any soveraigne fatnes blest,
 017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee
 119.NY3.012 Cur'd by thy charming soveraigne melodee.
 158.00A.021 Nor holy lanus in whose soveraigne boate

SOVERAIGNES.....1

108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes brest

SOVERAIGNTIE.....1

153.00A.240 With that great soveraigntie, whose absolute

SOVERAIGNTY.....1

081.HH5.010 free soveraignty doe guild their words & deeds

SOW.....2

081.HH5.012 full sway dare boldly then sow vicious seedes
 140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;

SOWES.....1

108.00A.027 And sowes the Court with starres, and doth prevent

SOWN.....1

113.00A.006 Where seeds of better Arts, were early sown.

SOWNE.....1

123.NY3.004 Delicious garden where all Sweetes are sowne.

SOWRE.....2

036.00A.006 Late schoole boyes, and sowre prentices,
 181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,

SOYLES.....1

138.00A.050 The soyles disease, and into cockle strayes.

SPACE.....5

029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;
 139.00A.043 Indifferent there the greatest space hath got,
 153.00A.076 When they would exercise, lacke time, and space.
 164.00A.006 My body, and my soule, and I shall sleepe a space,
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,

SPACIOUS.....2

155.00a.123 So spacious and large, that euery soule
 155.00a.296 (Which sure is spacious, except that we

SPAINE.....2

001.00B.082 When any names the King of Spaine to you.
 003.00A.024 Children in th'oven, fires of Spaine, and the line,

SPAKE.....5

022.00A.038 Wee spake, unto the cunning of a third;
 061.00A.029 Prophets, or Poets spake; And all which shall
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 062.00A.026 Because both meant, both spake the same)
 155.00a.462 A last, and lastingst peece, a song. He spake

SPAN.....3

155.00a.136 Contracted to an inch, who was a span.
 160.00A.064 Measuring selfe-lifes infinity to span,
 185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,

SPAN-COUNTER.....1

004.00A.106 At span-counter, or blow-point, but shall pay

SPAND.....1

158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.

SPANGLED.....1

015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,

SPANIARDS.....2

002.00A.006 As I thinke that brings dearth, and Spaniards in,
 004.00A.114 The Spaniards came, to the losse of Amyens.

SPANISH.....5

008.00B.029 Or were they Spanish Stamps, still travelling,
 014.NY3.017 And Midas ioyes our Spanish iourneys giue,
 095.NY3.004 A sallet, worse then Spanish dyeting.
 111.00A.015 Like Indians 'gainst Spanish hosts they bee.
 122.00A.023 Perchance, these Spanish businesse being done,

SPANNE.....1

187.00A.167 To eate their children of a spanne? shall thy

SPANS.....1

164.00A.004 My spans last inch, my minutes latest point,

SPAR'D.....3

107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 155.00a.026 Thou mightst haue better spar'd the Sunne, or Man;
 187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe

SPARE.....9

002.00A.053 Proceed, spare mee; In Hillary terme I went,
 004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;
 004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I
 038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,
 107.00A.092 Neither desires to be spar'd, nor to spare,
 130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,

SPARES.....1

002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes

SPARK.....1

161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.

SPARKE.....2

145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
 158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.

SPARKES.....4

113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne
 124.00A.012 But seing in you bright sparkes of Poetry,
 130.00A.012 Are sparkes, and short liv'd, claimes another right.
 145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,

SPARKS.....1

160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,

SPARROW.....2

107.00A.007 The Sparrow that neglects his life for love,
 158.00A.181 Outcrept a sparrow, this soules moving Inne,

SPARROWES.....1

107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,

SPARROWS.....1

107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.

SPARTANES.....1

004.00A.068 My lonelinesse is, but Spartanes fashion,

SPATIVM.....1

196.015.033 HOC QVOD RESTAT, SAXI SPATIVM

SPAWNE.....1

184.00A.148 Neglecting to choake sins spawne, Vanitie,

SPEACHES.....1

180.NY3.010 In prayers, & flattering Speaches I court God:

SPEAK.....2

131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,

SPEAKE.....22

002.00A.049 A motion, Lady, Speake Cocus; I have beene
004.00A.046 Make men speake treason, cosen subtlest whores,
022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
046.00A.008 If it could speake as well as spie,
072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
107.00A.107 Others neare you shall whispering speake,
112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
115.00A.004 Feete and a reasoning soule and tongue to speake.
139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.
149.00A.054 To speake, that death his vaine hast may repent.
151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;
151.00A.034 The Ethicks speake of vertues Cardinall;
157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,
158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
158.00A.463 Love by mute signes, and had no power to speake;
158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
189.00B.043 As Angels out of clouds, from Pulpits speake;

SPEAKER.....1

141.00A.066 Or mouth, or Speaker of the universe,

SPEAKES.....6

004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meats displease,
004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since
005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
160.00A.048 It sodenly speakes wonders, whence comes it,
184.00A.191 Of him which speakes, diminishes the Word,

SPEAKING.....3

131.00B.049 Both sigh'd and enterchang'd a speaking eye,
146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,
157.00b.452 (Hearing, and speaking to him) as to know

SPEAKS.....1

158.00A.187 As his late house, and the first houre speaks plaine,

SPECIFIQUE.....1

140.00A.027 For, God no such specifique poyson hath

SPECTACLE.....3

107.00A.064 And be to others spectacle, and talke?

158.00A.275 Spied through this traiterous spectacle, from high,

185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.

SPECTACLES.....2

149.00A.015 Teares are false Spectacles, we cannot see

157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,

SPECULAR.....2

063.00A.006 The skill of specular stone,

136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,

SPECULATION.....1

187.00A.330 We in desire and speculation have:

SPED.....1

107.00A.011 The husband cocke looks out, and straight is sped,

SPEECH.....7

001.00A.024 A speech to Court his beautious sonne and heire?

133.00A.024 Ill or bold speech, she Audience affords.

133.00A.027 For, speech of ill, and her thou must abstaine,

155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;

158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.

187.00A.218 28 He sits alone, and doth all speech forbear,

189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit

SPEECHES.....1

004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,

SPEECHLESSE.....5

010.00A.052 Even my opprest shoes, dumbe and speechlesse were,

012.00A.023 Or in a speechlesse slumber, calmely ride

013.00A.011 And bound up, might with speechlesse secrecie

133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,

155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.

SPEED.....4

074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.

107.00A.009 Thou mak'st the black bird speed as soone,
 149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:
 157.00b.208 Strunge on one string, speed vndistinguish'd leades

SPEEDIER.....1

042.00A.015 Speedier journeyes, since I take

SPELL.....1

153.00A.094 On every syllable, nor stay to spell,

SPEND.....3

006.00D.030 The West sent gold, which thou didst freely spend,
 072.00A.018 Receive more, and spend more, and soonest breake:
 148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste

SPENDS.....2

002.00A.085 Peecemeale he gets lands, and spends as much time
 158.00A.209 He blood, and spirit, pith, and marrow spends,

SPENT.....24

008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
 028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
 030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,
 035.00A.020 Then if more honour, teares, and paines were spent.
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
 044.00A.022 Whose matter in thee is soone spent.
 082.00A.003 The Sunne is spent, and now his flasks
 106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
 125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
 142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
 143.00A.012 Your stock, and over prodigally spent
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store
 152.12a.067 For, as, if all the Substances were spent,
 155.00a.022 And th'Ague being spent, giue ouer care,
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,
 155.00a.340 Colour, and lustre now, is as neere spent.
 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needes decrepit bee.
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;
 158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,
 176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent

SPERMATIQUE.....1

009.00A.008 Like spermatique issue of ripe menstruous boiles.

SPHEAR.....1

020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every sphear

SPHEARE.....11

036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.

045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;

058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,

106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;

107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Spheare after Spheare.

107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Spheare after Spheare.

107.00A.086 She gives the best light to his Spheare,

148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper spheare,

153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:

154.00A.026 Unto the spheare of formes, and doth (before

185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,

SPHEARES.....13

031.00A.011 But trepidation of the spheares,

052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.

054.00A.023 Those like so many spheares, but one heaven make,

059.00A.022 In that dayes rude hoarse ministralsey, the spheares.

062.00A.052 The intelligences, they the spheares.

108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.

157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,

160.00A.023 Ere by the spheares time was created, thou

181.00A.023 All the Globes frame, and spheares, is nothing else

184.00A.201 Then spheares, or Angels praises bee,

185.00A.003 And as the other Spheares, by being growne

185.00A.022 And tune all spheares at once peirc'd with those holes?

191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,

SPHEARS.....2

175.00B.006 Have found new sphears, and of new land can write,

191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;

SPHERE.....2

021.00G.086 Yet Phaebus equally lights all the Sphere.

129.00A.008 Must in another Sphere his vertue streame:

SPHERES.....1

020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can

SPHERICALL.....1

155.00a.251 We thinke the heauens enjoy their Sphericall

SPICE.....5

036.00A.017 Whether both the 'India's of spice and Myne
 108.00A.058 A little spice, or Amber in thy taste?
 139.00A.015 As spice doth bodies from corrupt aires touch.
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
 157.00b.039 And so, though not Reuiue, embalme, and spice

SPICEREE.....1

157.00b.228 The Westerne treasure, Esterne spiceree,

SPICES.....3

137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metall; so
 158.00A.014 Suck'st early balme, and lland spices there,

SPIDE.....1

001.00A.092 A many-coloured Peacock having spide,

SPIDER.....3

051.00A.006 The spider love, which transubstantiates all,
 138.00A.084 The bad with bad, a spider with a toad:
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,

SPIE.....11

004.00A.119 He like a priviledg'd spie, whom nothing can
 004.00A.237 I shooke like a spyed Spie; Preachers which are
 012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee, 'and spie
 018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
 046.00A.008 If it could speake as well as spie,
 133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
 139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,
 158.00A.450 And, like a spie to both sides false, he perished.
 189.00B.045 If then th'Astronomers, whereas they spie

SPIED.....2

010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.
 158.00A.275 Spied through this traiterous spectacle, from high,

SPIES.....11

001.00A.106 At last his Love he in a windowe spies,
 011.00A.032 His seely plots, and pensionary spies,
 017.00A.039 Here needs no spies, nor eunuches; her commit
 018.00B.006 Of hurts, which spies and rivals threatned me,
 021.00G.041 And those so ambush'd round with household spies,
 039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
 070.00A.005 And he that digs it, spies

129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,
 139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show
 184.00A.152 From being spies, or to spies pervious,
 184.00A.152 From being spies, or to spies pervious,

SPIEST.....2

157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;

SPIGHT.....3

021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?
 046.00A.005 Love which in spight of darknesse brought us hether,
 170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgiveness for his foes fierce spight?

SPILL.....1

158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,

SPINS.....1

003.00A.011 Us in the end, and shall thy fathers spirit
 006.00D.002 Thy learned spirit, Sesqui-superlative?
 057.00A.025 'Tis not all spirit, pure, and brave,
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 114.00A.002 Then hath or shall enkindle any spirit,
 139.00A.018 New spirit: for, strong agents with the same
 152.12a.033 And activ'st spirit to conuey and tye
 157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare
 158.00A.049 Th'expense of braine and spirit; that my grave
 158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine
 158.00A.209 He blood, and spirit, pith, and marrow spends,
 160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
 162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
 172.00A.003 How God the Spirit, by Angels waited on
 173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,
 183.00A.031 His Spirit, as his fiery Pillar doth
 191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon
 191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe
 191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;

SPIRIT-QUENCHING.....1

158.00A.045 Spirit-quenching sicknesse, dull captivitie,

SPIRITS.....16

015.00G.022 Ill spirits walk in white; we easly know,
 035.00A.007 Honours oppresse weake spirits, and our sense,
 062.00A.062 Spirits, as like soules as it can,
 126.00A.004 From the Arts spirits and their Quintessence?
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 135.B13.014 as safe as spirits are from any wound,
 143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
 153.00A.046 Those Spirits, humors, blood I did last yeare,
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.065 Honours not spirits halfe so much, as hee
 155.00a.013 Which drew the strongest vitall spirits out:
 155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.
 156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set
 158.00A.500 Whose busie furnaces lifes spirits do impart.
 160.00A.059 For, what weake spirits admire, ambitious, hate;
 170.00A.013 To wicked spirits are horrid shapes assign'd,

110.00A.045 Stagge, dogge, and all which from, or towards flies,

STAID.....9

010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,152.12a.061 (With grief to see him) Hee had staid belowe,157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,

STAID'ST.....1

184.00A.157 To'ungratious us, staid'st at her full of grace,

STAIE.....1

127.00A.007 Yet I, as long as shee from hence doth staie,

STAIES.....6

004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staies

107.00A.051 Goe then to where the Bishop staies,

107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,

107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?

157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,

157.00b.490 For that soule euer ioyes, and euer staies.

STAIN'D.....1

113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee

STAINE.....5

010.00A.061 By thee, the greatest staine to mans estate

025.00A.010 Which no unworthy thought could staine,

112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.

131.00B.107 Who dare aspire this journey with a staine,

156.00a.076 For marriage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.

STAINES.....3

004.00A.202 Great staines and holes in them; but veniall

004.00A.241 To wash the staines away; though I yet

019.00A.010 And powders blew staines scatter'd on my skinne;

STAING.....1

121.NY3.006 By staing in London too much overseene.

STAIRES.....2

129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires

149.00A.052 To clyme by teares, the common staires of men.

STALE.....2

108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisedome grow so stale,

145.00A.004 Growne stale, is to so low a value runne,

STALKE.....1

009.00A.027 And like that slender stalke, at whose end stands

STALL.....1

160.00A.034 Yet lay him in this stall, and from the Orient,

STALLS.....1

006.00D.045 If omni-pregnant there, upon warme stalls,

STAMPE.....4

058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,

157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,

189.00B.014 Onely the stampe is changed; but no more.

189.00B.018 To Chists new stampe, at this thy Coronation;

STAMPED.....2

039.00A.007 Or the Kings reall, or his stamped face

187.00A.227 34 That underfoot the prisoners stamped bee,

STAMPS.....2

008.00B.029 Or were they Spanish Stamps, still travelling,

035.00A.004 As Kings do coyne, to which their stamps impart

STAND.....22

001.00A.009 Here gathering Chroniclers, and by them stand

001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?

003.00A.030 To thy foes and his (who made thee to stand

003.00A.078 To stand inquiring right, is not to stray;

003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand

004.00A.170 Transported it from Italy to stand

009.00A.033 And like a bunch of ragged carrets stand

015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.

030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee

055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot

088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee lies.

111.00A.013 If they stand arm'd with seely honesty,

117.00A.005 Perish, doth stand: as an Embassadour

135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,

138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.

145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,

151.00A.006 (So guiltiest men stand mutest at the barre)

156.00a.040 Repolish'd, without error then to stand,

171.00A.003 That I may rise, and stand, o'erthrow mee,'and bend

173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!

183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;

187.00A.275 Low rated now, as earthen Pitchers, stand,

STANDING.....4

001.00A.002 Leave mee, and in this standing wooden chest,

015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.

050.00A.020 In Progresse, yet his standing house is here.

155.00a.008 And, as t'her standing house, to heauen did clymbe,

STANDS.....7

002.00A.012 Yet prompts him which stands next, and cannot reade,
 003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will
 009.00A.027 And like that slender stalke, at whose end stands
 078.00D.007 Of new-toucht youth; nor Ring to shew the stands
 106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
 130.00A.006 Leaves growing, and stands such, or else decayes,
 158.00A.153 A young Colossus there hee stands upright,

STAR.....1

157.00b.198 Can, (being one Star) Hesper, and Vesper bee,

STAR-LIGHT.....1

157.00b.079 Star-light inough, t'haue made the South controll,

STARES.....1

155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne

STARFULL.....1

157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,

STARKE.....1

029.00A.001 He is starke mad, who ever sayes,

STARRE.....13

021.00G.007 Should Cinthia quit thee Venus, and each starre,
 033.00A.001 Goe, and catche a falling starre,
 106.00A.061 The amorous evening starre is rose,
 106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
 107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
 108.00A.155 Let every Jewell be a glorious starre,
 108.00A.204 As he that sees a starre fall, runs apace,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they'are rare; But a new starre
 141.00A.013 As such a starre, which Magi led to view
 155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
 183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,
 189.00B.046 A new-found Starre, their Opticks magnifie,

STARRES.....20

049.00A.034 Fix'd in the starres, are said to flow,
 049.00A.036 When these starres have supremacie:
 052.00A.060 Sun, or starres, are fitliest view'd
 054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,
 056.00A.008 Are Sunne, Moone, or Starres by law forbidden,
 069.00A.007 As the small starres doe in the skie:
 107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take

108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,
 108.00A.027 And sowes the Court with starres, and doth prevent
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 138.00A.068 Two new starres lately to the firmament;
 141.00A.038 Of the most starres, take low names, Crab, and Bull,
 148.00A.008 As divers starres one Constellation make,
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.393 So as the influence of those starres may bee
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 156.00a.068 Those new starres eu'ry Artist exercise,
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
 160.00A.035 Starres, and wisemen will travell to prevent

STARS.....5

145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,
 155.00a.283 We spur, we raine the stars, and in their race
 157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:
 184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.

START.....2

021.00G.097 The Poles shall move to teach me ere I start;
 108.00A.212 Therefore at first shee modestly might start,

STARTINGS.....1

018.00B.051 With midnights startings, crying out, oh, oh

STARU'D.....1

156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpon

STARUES.....1

157.00b.283 And yet one watches, starues, freeses, and sweats,

STARV'D.....1

160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,

STARVE.....2

002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 184.00A.231 Which well, if we starve, dine,

STARVED.....1

009.00A.010 Enforc'd, Sanserra's starved men did draw

STARVELING.....1

116.00A.009 And thy poore starveling bountifully fed.

STARVING.....2

002.00A.014 (Starving himselfe) to live by his labor'd sceanes.

018.00B.003 By our long starving hopes, by that remorse

STATE.....34

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne

001.00A.070 Sells for a little state high libertie,

002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state

002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state

002.00A.044 But scarce a Poet, jollier of this state,

004.00A.204 And then by Durers rules survay the state

008.00B.012 From the first state of their Creation;

008.00B.041 Scotland, which knew no State, proud in one day:

009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.

012.00A.045 Am the Recusant, in that resolute state,

015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,

019.00A.018 Was but the milke, which in loves childish state

039.00A.004 With wealth your state, your minde with Arts improve

062.00A.015 Our soules, (which to advance their state,

106.00A.080 A grave, but, to a better state, a cradle;

108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires

108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,

110.00A.039 Whether a rotten state, and hope of gaine,

111.00A.012 As in'the Courts Squadron to marshall their state

131.00B.009 Depriv'd of that free state which they were in,

133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.

139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.

153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;

153.00A.148 Of children, servants, or the State relie.

153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,

153.00A.209 And to deliver up to God that state,

155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet guided euery state,

157.00b.065 Looke vpward; that's towards her, whose happy state

157.00b.118 Wormes which insensibly deuoure their state.

157.00b.359 Shee, who beeing to herselfe a state, enioyd

157.00b.360 All royalties which any state emloid,

157.00b.374 Made her a soueraigne state, religion

158.00A.236 It mov'd with state, as if to looke upon

191.00B.041 This be reform'd; Would a whole State present

STATE'S.....1

112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,

STATECLOTH.....1

003.00A.048 The statecloth where the Prince sate yesterday.

STATES.....10

004.00A.036 And only knoweth what to all States belongs,
 004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since
 004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 036.00A.021 She'is all States, and all Princes, I,
 052.00A.039 And how prerogative these states devours,
 146.00A.016 Venture their states, with him in joy to share
 152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake
 155.00a.043 But as in states doubtfull of future heyres,
 155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet gilded euey state,
 158.00A.328 O might not states of more equality

STATES-MAN.....1

004.00A.100 A subtle States-man may gather of that;

STATESMAN.....1

006.00D.024 As deep a Statesman as a Garretteir.

STATESMEN.....3

001.00A.007 And jolly Statesmen, which teach how to tie
 052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
 138.00A.083 Statesmen purge vice with vice, and may corrode

STATION.....3

154.00A.032 Thy station be, but with the Paenitents,
 157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station
 158.00A.340 Greatnesse a period hath, but hath no station.

STATIONES.....1

201.20a.HE1 Stationes, sive Periodi in Morbo, ad quas referuntur Meditationes sequentes.

STATIONS.....1

182.00A.011 Himselfe unto all stations, and fill all,

STATUE.....2

009.00A.019 Thy head is like a rough-hewne statue of jeat,
 108.00A.001 Vnseasonable man, statue of ice,

STATUES.....1

062.00A.018 Wee like sepulchrall statues lay,

STATURE.....2

155.00a.125 And when the very stature thus erect,
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.

STATUTE.....1

002.00A.112 Within the vast reach of th'huge statute lawes.

STATUTES.....3

004.00A.010 The hundred markes, which is the Statutes curse;

004.00A.132 One of our Giant Statutes ope his jaw

173.00A.010 Whether a man those statutes can fulfill;

STAY.....50

001.00A.093 Leaves him and mee; I for my lost sheep stay;

002.00A.052 To stay my rivals suit, that hee should not

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.

014.NY3.044 To warrs; but stay swords, armes, & shott

018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee

018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee

020.00G.046 Immortal stay, but wrinckled 'tis a grave.

020.00G.066 Shall at her fair Atlantick Naval stay;

020.00G.076 Lovely enough to stop, but not stay at:

020.00G.090 Then if at beauties enemies he stay.

027.00A.007 And there th'inamor'd fish will stay,

030.00B.014 Except our loves at this noone stay,

035.00A.021 But dearest heart, and dearer image stay;

035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:

044.00A.010 It stay, tis but thy carkasse then,

046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,

047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;

050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay

052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus

058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,

060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,

068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:

068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,

070.00A.011 Meet at this grave, and make a little stay?

073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,

107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,

107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,

107.00A.104 As Satyres watch the Sunnes uprise, will stay

108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay

108.00A.183 Injures; it causeth time to stay;

114.00A.007 Like infancie or age to mans firme stay,

122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,

131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,

131.00B.040 Water declin'd with earth, the ayre did stay,

133.00A.001 Mad paper stay, and grudge not here to burne

148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay

148.00A.024 The pure which elemented them shall stay;

149.00A.021 As men of China,'after an ages stay

151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay

152.12a.044 Still stay, and vexe our Great-Grand-Mother, DVST.

153.00A.094 On every syllable, nor stay to spell,

153.00A.153 Disordered, stay here, as a generall
 153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 155.00a.074 The twi-light of her memory doth stay;
 155.00a.118 From the obseruers marking, he might stay
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
 158.00A.136 Just as in our streets, when the people stay
 158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
 183.00A.011 She sees at once the virgin mother stay

STAY'D.....1

150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,

STAYED.....1

068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;

STAYES.....5

003.00A.055 Graius stayes still at home here, and because
 041.00A.030 It stayes at home, and thou with losing savest it:
 108.00A.016 The Sunne stayes longer up; and yet not his
 158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
 187.00A.220 Deepe in the dust, yet then in hope he stayes.

STAYING.....3

014.NY3.046 More glorious service staying to make men?
 057.00A.021 Comming and staying show'd thee, thee,
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;

STAYNE.....2

135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
 155.00a.180 The poysonous tincture, and the stayne of Eue,

STEAD.....1

043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,

STEADY'AS.....1

110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,

STEAL-IN.....1

152.12a.073 When Miracle dooth ioine; and to steal-in

STEALE.....3

081.HH5.004 did mutely begg & steale my harte from me
 107.00A.078 As Soules from bodies steale, and are not spy'd.
 162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?

STEALES.....3

015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.

155.00a.272 Steales by that point, and so is Serpentine:

158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then

STEALETH.....1

158.00A.414 To Abels tent he stealeth in the darke,

STEALING.....1

096.00A.008 Mercury in stealing, but lyst like a Greeke .

STEALTH.....1

065.00A.009 And if sometimes by stealth he got

STEDDILY.....1

045.00A.016 And so more steddily to have gone,

STEEDS.....1

106.00A.057 His steeds will bee restrain'd,

STEEL-BEAK'D.....1

158.00A.351 The flaile-find Thresher, and steel-beak'd Sword-fish

STEELE.....6

005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest

012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.

081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne

158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-prooffe,

187.00A.186 To my steele fetters, heavier then before,

189.00B.007 New thoughts and stirrings in thee? and as Steele

STEEP.....1

003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will

STEEPE.....1

158.00A.044 Of steepe ambition, sleepe povertie,

STEEPLES.....1

153.00A.143 Yet, as in great clocks, which in steeples chime,

STEMMATA.....1

186.00E.004 Stemmate, nanciscor stemmata jure nova.

STEMMATE.....1

186.00E.004 Stemmate, nanciscor stemmata jure nova.

STEP.....2

049.00A.054 May my name step in, and hide his.

157.00b.016 And seemes to reach, and to step forth to meet

STEPDAMES.....1

061.00A.025 The venom of all stepdames, gamsters gall,

STEPS.....3

129.00A.014 With glad griefe, to your Sea-ward steps, farewell,

155.00a.265 To watch his steps; the Goat and Crabbe controule,

187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare

STERNE.....3

120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,

122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;

166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?

STERV'D.....3

002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state

109.00A.020 As, to a stomack sterv'd, whose insides meete,

150.00A.008 Into his bloody, or plaguy, or sterv'd jawes.

STERVE.....3

012.00A.002 Whom honours smoakes at once fatten and sterve;

109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.

130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her

STEW'D.....1

158.00A.495 Had stew'd and form'd it: and part did become

STEWARD.....2

155.00a.229 Steward to Fate; shee whose rich eyes, and brest,

158.00A.210 Ill steward of himself, himselfe in three yeares ends.

STEWARDSHIP.....1

158.00A.028 Did'st thou in that great stewardship embarke

STEWES.....2

004.00A.176 Baloune, Tennis, Dyet, or the stewes,

103.00A.003 As Katherine, for the Courts sake, put downe Stewes.

STEWS.....1

017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,

STICK.....2

021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,

184.00A.249 Which could not stick to thee,

STICKE.....2

134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,
 158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;

STICKES.....1

181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,

STIFFE.....5

031.00A.026 As stiffe twin compasses are two,
 055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot
 157.00b.281 We see in Authors, too stiffe to recant,
 158.00A.182 On whose raw armes stiffe feathers now begin,
 158.00A.291 A sudden stiffe land-winde in that self houre

STIFFENESSE.....1

068.00A.013 And hop'st her stiffenesse by long siege to bow:

STIGMATE.....1

201.20a.020 numeroso stigmat, fassus,

STIL.....1

136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,

STILD.....1

128.LR1.014 And since & thorough crooked lymbecks, stild

STILE.....6

004.00A.092 He to another key, his stile doth addresse.
 047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,
 106.00A.087 So, shee a mothers rich stile doth preferre,
 111.00A.027 At Court, though from Court, were the better stile.
 131.00B.126 To stile his wandring rage of passion, Love.
 177.00B.010 And stile blasphemous Conjurers to call

STILES.....1

012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill

STILL.....114

001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke
 003.00A.055 Graius stayes still at home here, and because
 003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 003.00A.060 Tender to him, being tender, as Wards still
 003.00A.067 In divers habits, yet are still one kinde;
 004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staies
 004.00A.145 Gave it, as Ransome; But as fidders, still,
 004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still

008.00B.029 Or were they Spanish Stamps, still travelling,
008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,
008.00B.071 So in the first falne angels, resteth still
008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
009.00A.001 As the sweet sweat of Roses in a Still,
009.00A.046 As one which gath'ring flowers, still feares a snake?
010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,
012.00A.005 As those Idolatrous flatterers, which still
015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;
021.00G.044 Yet went we not still on in Constance?
021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,
021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
024.00A.013 Dwells with me still mine irksome Memory,
025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.
028.00A.017 Then by my threatnings rest still innocent.
029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee
030.00B.013 Which is still diligent lest others see.
037.00A.006 Her who still weepes with spungie eyes,
039.00A.016 Soldiers finde warres, and Lawyers finde out still
043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
049.00A.018 Who have the patterne with you still.
049.00A.029 Being still with you, the Muscle, Sinew, and Veine,
050.00A.021 Here, where still Evening is; not noone, nor night;
050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still
053.00A.002 For ill is ill, and good good still,
062.00A.040 Redoubles still, and multiplies.
062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
080.00E.002 And strives against it still,
080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,
081.HH5.039 That thou from changinge still mayst neuer pause
089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still beginne a new.
094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;
106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,
107.00A.102 Ther's but one Phenix still, as was before.
108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
108.00A.071 Are still in heav'n, so is hee still at home
108.00A.158 Still in that Picture thou intirely art,
109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
110.00A.054 Chance, or our selves still disproportion it.

111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 112.00A.050 Carrying his owne house still, still is at home.
 112.00A.050 Carrying his owne house still, still is at home.
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,
 130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
 131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;
 133.00A.046 Marke, if her oathes against him be not still
 136.00A.043 Nor may we hope to sodder still and knit
 137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 141.00A.054 But I remaine a poyson'd fountaine still;
 149.00A.005 Yet doth it rore, and gnaw, and still pretend,
 152.12a.020 Reason still seconded that This Prince would.
 152.12a.044 Still stay, and vexe our Great-Grand-Mother, DVST.
 153.00A.052 Yet still remaines that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 155.00a.067 For there's a kind of world remaining still,
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
 155.00a.276 In Circle still, none ends where he begunne.
 155.00a.285 But keeps the earth her round proportion still?
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
 156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,
 157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;
 157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;
 157.00b.210 Whose quicke succession makes it still one thing:
 157.00b.253 Oppress'd with ignorance, we still were so,
 157.00b.361 For shee made wars, and triumph'd, reson still 157.00b.377 To worse, by company; (for shee was still
 157.00b.385 Still before Accessories doe abide
 157.00b.460 Still heard God pleading his safe precontract;
 157.00b.508 Peeeces a Circle, and still keeps it so,
 158.00A.113 Then hazard still, to meditate on ill,
 158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still
 158.00A.179 Warme bird orespread, and sat still evermore,
 158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie
 158.00A.406 Was the first type) was still infested soe,
 158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
 162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,
 163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 172.00A.006 And still begetting, (for he ne'r begonne)

184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall
 187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?

STILL'D.....1

181.00A.030 When Still'd, or purg'd by tribulation.

STILLING.....1

136.00A.011 From grosse, by Stilling, this is better done

STINCKE.....1

016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,

STING.....2

005.00A.005 Frees from the sting of jests all who in extreme
 140.00A.022 Our apprehension contributes the sting.

STINGE.....1

135.B13.024 and saue vs from the feare of Autumns stinge.

STINGING.....1

033.00A.006 Or to keep off envies stinging,

STINGS.....2

149.00A.014 Doth worke upon itselfe, with inborne stings.
 184.00A.012 By bearing one, tryed'st with what stings

STINKE.....1

009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.

STINKING.....1

181.00A.047 So with harsh, hard, sowre, stinking, crosse the rest,

STIR'D.....1

054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee

STIRPI.....1

196.015.027 CVI VNICE, HOC DEDIT DEVS STIRPI,

STIRRE.....3

028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke
 077.00A.011 For though hee seeme to move, and stirre a while,
 130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,

STIRRINGS.....1

189.00B.007 New thoughts and stirrings in thee? and as Steele

STOCK.....2

139.00A.037 His stock of beauty, learning, favour, blood,
 143.00A.012 Your stock, and over prodigally spent

STOCKE.....2

113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance

STOCKS.....2

004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.
 041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,

STOICKE.....1

005.00A.064 A Stoicke, a coward, yea a Martyr,

STOICKS.....1

151.00A.062 Of grieffe, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.

STOLN.....1

021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses

STOLNE.....4

022.00A.017 And the divine impression of stolne kisses,
 155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
 172.00A.010 His stolne stuffe sold, must lose or buy't againe:
 172.00A.012 Us whom he'had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.

STOMACHER.....1

107.00A.008 The household Bird, with the red stomacher,

STOMACHS.....2

111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,
 156.00a.024 The Rich for stomachs, and for backes the Pore;

STOMACK.....2

020.00G.096 As who by glister gives the Stomack meat.
 109.00A.020 As, to a stomack sterv'd, whose insides meete,

STOMACKE.....1

005.00A.018 Are the devouring stomacke, and Suiters

STONE.....15

051.00A.018 Or a stone fountaine weeping out my yeare.
 063.00A.006 The skill of specular stone,
 136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,
 138.00A.012 May not I yeeld (not gold) but coale or stone?
 146.00A.026 He, and about him, his, are turn'd to stone.
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 154.00A.024 Not to lesse houses, but, to heapes of stone;
 154.00A.027 His soule shall fill up his sepulchrall stone,)
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 157.00b.269 Knowst thou but how the stone doth enter in
 157.00b.453 His face, in any naturall Stone, or Tree,
 158.00A.009 A worke t'outweare Seths pillars, bricke and stone,
 158.00A.488 Her brother, entred, and a great stone threw
 187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.
 187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.

STONES.....9

009.00A.013 And like vile stones lying in saffron'd tinne,
 015.00G.029 My Myne of precious stones: My Emperie,
 082.00A.033 Some ends, some means; Yea plants, yea stones detest,
 138.00A.064 That stones, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,
 155.00a.368 And liueliest stones but drowsie, and pale to her,)
 187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;
 187.00A.271 The stones which were stones of the Sanctuary,
 187.00A.271 The stones which were stones of the Sanctuary,

STONY.....2

009.00A.048 As where a Plough a stony ground doth rent?
 160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee

STOOD.....10

004.00A.065 To Babells bricklayers, sure the Tower had stood.
 021.00G.046 Had correspondence whilst the foe stood by?
 062.00A.024 Within convenient distance stood,
 134.00A.031 The first good Angell, since the worlds frame stood,
 157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.
 158.00A.077 Stood in the selfe same roome in Calvarie,
 158.00A.169 Unvirtuous weeds might long unvex'd have stood;
 158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
 158.00A.388 Still sleeping stood; vex't not his fantasie
 192.00B.022 Christs Crosse, & Adams tree, stood in one place;

STOOP.....1

012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:

STOOP'D.....2

074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
 141.00A.021 But she's not stoop'd, but rais'd; exil'd by men

STOOP'ST.....2

001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?
 008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe

STOOPE.....4

006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
 006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares
 108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,
 156.00a.016 Being such a Tabernacle, stoope to bee

STOOPT.....1

001.00A.078 So to the most brave, stoopt hee nigh'st the ground.

STOP.....6

001.00A.077 And as fiders stop lowest, at highest sound,
 006.00D.062 Some shall stop muskets, and so kill a foe.
 020.00G.076 Lovely enough to stop, but not stay at:
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 138.00A.032 Stop others ills, to meditate with mee.
 187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.

STOP'D.....1

187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.

STOPS.....1

187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,

STOPT.....2

004.00A.058 He stopt mee, and said; Nay, your Apostles were
 015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.

STOR'D.....1

129.00A.010 Hath stor'd with notes of use and pleasures too,

STORE.....8

041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
 055.00A.033 And melt both Poles at once, and store
 072.00A.020 This death, hath with my store
 106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,
 107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?
 146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
 152.12a.045 Oh! Is God prodigall? Hath He spent his store

158.00A.200 Where store is of both kindes, both kindes may freely chuse.

STORIES.....2

137.00A.051 Of past and future stories, which are rare,

150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come

STORKE.....1

110.00A.004 A blocke afflicts, now, then a storke before.

STORM.....1

109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;

STORME.....2

109.00A.0HE THE STORME.

110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,

STORMES.....8

003.00A.019 To leaders rage, to stormes, to shot, to dearth?

019.00A.008 With cares rash sodaine stormes, being o'rspread,

109.00A.032 Hath now a stormes, anon a tempests name.

109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,

110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;

110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out

155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,

184.00A.023 Must with new stormes be weatherbeat;

STORMS.....1

110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,

STORMY.....1

190.00A.028 And to scape stormy dayes, I chuse An Everlasting night.

STORY.....6

021.00G.056 Must sad divorce make us the vulgar story?

137.00A.070 The story of beauty', in Twicknam is, and you.

157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.

158.00A.037 And shew my story, in thy eternall booke.

158.00A.064 Whose story, with long patience you will long;

183.00A.020 Th'Abridgement of Christs story, which makes one

STOVES.....1

108.00A.035 Or but like Stoves, for lust and envy get

STOWES.....1

004.00A.097 More then ten Hollensheads, or Halls, or Stowes,

STRAID.....1

008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone

STRAIGHT.....5

021.00G.074 But straight her beauty to my sense shall run;
 107.00A.011 The husband cocke lookes out, and straight is sped,
 131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,
 157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,
 157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.

STRAIN.....1

021.00G.062 Strain his eyes open, and yet make them bleed.

STRAINE.....2

078.00D.006 To knit our loves in the fantastick straine
 158.00A.065 (For 'tis the crowne, and last straine of my song)

STRAIT.....3

024.00A.021 Thou art not soft, and cleare, and strait, and faire,
 155.00a.298 Millions into a strait hote roome be thrust)
 191.00B.003 And thrust into strait corners of poore wit

STRAITS.....3

020.00G.060 Being past the Straits of Hellespont between 153.00A.208 Thy selfe, from those straits nature put thee in,
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;

STRAND.....1

002.00A.078 From Scots, to Wight; from Mount, to Dover strand.

STRANGE.....31

002.00A.037 Whose strange sinnes, Canonists could hardly tell
 003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne
 004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;
 004.00A.038 He speakes one language; If strange meates displease,
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.
 010.00A.049 The pretious Vnicornes, strange monsters, call,
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 014.NY3.013 Sick Ireland is with a strange warr possest
 018.00B.001 BY our first strange and fatall interview
 018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
 021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?
 024.00A.049 Hand to strange hand, lippe to lippe none denies;
 024.00A.051 Likenesse begets such strange selfe flatterie,
 033.00A.010 If thou beest borne to strange sights,
 033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,

050.00A.029 Xerxes strange Lydian love, the Platane tree,
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though't be true.
 093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
 106.00A.030 Of study and play made strange Hermaphrodits,
 108.00A.208 And as friends may looke strange,
 126.00A.017 Be far from me that strange Adulterie
 137.00A.066 As strange attire aliens the men wee know.
 146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us
 146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us
 146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 161.00A.002 Begets strange creatures on Niles durty slime,
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 184.00A.041 Whose wombe was a strange heav'n, for there

STRANGER.....4

004.00A.021 Stranger then seaven Antiquaries studies,
 004.00A.023 Stranger then strangers; One, who for a Dane,
 130.00A.025 To be a stranger hath that benefit,
 138.00A.017 And denizend a stranger, who mistaught

STRANGERS.....5

004.00A.023 Stranger then strangers; One, who for a Dane,
 004.00A.026 When next the Prentises 'gainst Strangers rise.
 013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then 187.00A.351 2 For unto strangers our possession

STRANGLE.....1

157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.

STRANGLING.....1

027.00A.020 With strangling snare, or windowie net:

STRATIM.....1

144.00B.HE3 stratim lacerato, & post reddito

STRAW.....3

003.00A.028 Or eate thy poysonous words, courage of straw!
 113.00A.024 The straw, which doth about our hearts sojourne.
 153.00A.170 They're all but Ants, carrying eggs, straw, and grain;

STRAW'D.....1

106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,

STRAY.....7

003.00A.078 To stand inquiring right, is not to stray;

126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
 137.00A.023 This shoves that you from nature lothly stray,
 142.00A.060 From either, but by the other not to stray.
 155.00a.225 Did in their voyage in this worlds Sea stray,
 183.00A.028 (Because it straves not farre) doth never stray;
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray

STRAY'D.....2

150.00A.058 Might once have stray'd to superstition.
 155.00a.137 For had a man at first, in Forrests stray'd,

STRAYD.....1

187.00A.321 They fled, and strayd, and with the Gentiles were,

STRAYED.....1

025.00A.001 Send home my long strayed eyes to mee,

STRAYES.....3

020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that straves thus:
 138.00A.050 The soyles disease, and into cockle straves.
 183.00A.028 (Because it straves not farre) doth never stray;

STREAM.....2

005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most
 021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,

STREAME.....5

012.00A.021 When I behold a streame, which, from the spring,
 129.00A.008 Must in another Sphere his vertue streame:
 153.00A.047 And, as if on a streame I fixe mine eye,
 156.00a.041 Or as the Affrique Niger streame enwombs
 158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,

STREAMES.....8

003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell
 003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 003.00A.106 To the streames tyrannous rage, alas are driven
 008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,
 022.00A.030 With ribs of Ice in June would bind his streames;
 024.00A.042 Then fishes leave in streames, or Birds in aire.
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,

STREET.....8

001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,
 001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all
 008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;

115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
 121.NY3.009 As lancke & thin is euey street & way
 187.00A.135 And in the street like wounded persons lay
 187.00A.272 Scattered in corners of each street do lye.
 187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,

STREETS.....9

116.00A.004 As in our streets sly beggers narrowly
 158.00A.136 Just as in our streets, when the people stay
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.164 Which, faint for hunger, in the streets doe lye.
 187.00A.169 21 On ground in streets, the yong and old do lye,
 187.00A.286 Now in the streets forlorne have perished,
 187.00A.314 Blood in the streets, and the just murdered;
 187.00A.316 Thorough the streets, defiled by the way
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare

STREIGHT.....2

158.00A.375 Got the streight cloyster of a wreched mouse
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,

STREIGHTEN.....1

158.00A.419 Nor much resist, nor needs hee streighten so

STREIGHTENS.....1

158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends

STREIGHTNED.....1

158.00A.219 Pleasantly three, then streightned twenty yeares

STREIGHTS.....6

158.00A.056 For though through many streights, & lands I roame,
 187.00A.012 In streights shee meets her Persecutors sword.
 187.00A.077 20 Because I am in streights, lehova see
 192.00B.010 Per fretum febris, by these streights to die,
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,

STRENGTH.....10

022.00A.031 Or Nature, by whose strength the world endures,
 042.00A.022 And wee joyne to'it our strength,
 062.00A.038 The strength, the colour, and the size,
 067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.
 155.00a.086 And strength it selfe by confidence growes weake,
 157.00b.487 Onely in Heauen ioies strength is neuer spent;
 187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.

187.00A.055 My strength. The Lord unto those enemies
 187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)

STRENGTHEN.....1

001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?

STRENGTHS.....1

187.00A.095 To ground the strengths of Iuda, and prohpan'd

STRENUE.....1

198.LL1.016 Munere suo, frequenter et strenue hoc loco concionandi

STRENVE.....1

195.010.008 ANGELOS AEMVLATA STRENVE FVERAT, ID ET IN HOC PRAESTARE NISA E

STRETCH.....5

005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 158.00A.116 Stretch to so nice a thinnes through a quill
 181.00A.018 To stretch mine armes, and mine owne Crosse to be?
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
 187.00A.359 6 We stretch our hands unto th' Egyptians

STRETCH'D.....2

125.00A.009 View your fat Beasts, stretch'd Barnes, and labour'd fields,
 187.00A.038 The foe hath stretch'd his hand, for shee hath seene

STRETCHING.....1

158.00A.144 And as a slumberer stretching on his bed;

STRETCHT.....2

004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far

STRICT.....3

003.00A.013 Of strict life may be imputed faith, and heare
 117.00A.008 My verse, the strict Map of my misery,
 155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,

STRIDE.....1

010.00A.034 As the great Rhodian Colossus stride,

STRIKE.....3

021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 152.12a.013 These Things (Eccentrique else) on Faith do strike;
 187.00A.222 Strike him, and so he is reproched still.

STRING.....6

004.00A.073 He, like to a high stretcht lute string squeakt, O Sir,
 062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,
 118.NY3.010 Vpon her tender Elegiaque string?
 157.00b.208 Strunge on one string, speed vndistinguish'd leades
 157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,
 157.00b.213 So by the soule doth death string Heauen and Earth,

STRINGS.....8

004.00A.205 Of his each limbe, and with strings the odds tries
 006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,
 106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings
 109.00A.056 Snapping, like too-high-stretched treble strings.
 157.00b.020 Her knell alone, by cracking of her strings.
 157.00b.212 Strings fast the little bones of necke, and backe;
 158.00A.143 Into ten lesser strings, these fingers were:
 158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,

STRIP.....1

108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip

STRIUE.....4

155.00a.113 When as the Sunne, and man, did seeme to striue,
 155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,
 157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue

STRIUES.....1

155.00a.133 So short is life, that euery peasant striues,

STRIVE.....6

003.00A.083 Yet strive so, that before age, deaths twilight,
 108.00A.167 And now the Militant doth strive no more,
 109.00A.060 Strive to breake loose, and scape away from thence.
 121.NY3.013 Therefore Ile leaue it, and in the Cuntry strive
 158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,

STRIVERS.....1

005.00A.042 Scape, like Angelica, the strivers hands.

STRIVES.....4

004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 080.00E.002 And strives against it still,
 130.00A.008 Strives to urge upward, and his fortune raise;
 131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.

STRIVEST.....1

003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow

STROAKE.....3

158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
 167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?
 181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,

STROKE.....2

158.00A.059 Sailes hoised there, stroke here, and anchors laid
 169.00A.007 Dissemble weaknesse, and by'one mans stroke die,

STROKES.....1

021.00G.068 Though notagainst thy strokes, against thy harme%ls.

STRONG.....25

001.00A.022 Great traine of blew coats, twelve, or fourteen strong,
 003.00A.099 Equally strong cannot both sides say so?
 004.00A.042 Are strong enough preparatives, to draw
 019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?
 035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 036.00A.011 Thy beames, so reverend, and strong
 057.00A.004 For reason, much too strong for phantasie,
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
 109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
 120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;
 139.00A.018 New spirit: for, strong agents with the same
 139.00A.020 Kept hot with strong extracts, no bodies last:
 150.00A.021 O strong and long-liv'd death, how cam'st thou in?
 155.00a.048 A strong example gone equall to law,
 157.00b.506 As strong Records for God, as mindes within,
 158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,
 160.00A.012 With a strong sober thirst, my soule attends.
 160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,
 161.00A.006 Bee strong enough, and nature doe admit
 187.00A.058 My strong men; He did company invite

STRONGEST.....2

155.00a.013 Which drew the strongest vitall spirits out:
 155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,

STROOKE.....3

155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,

157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
187.00A.019 The Lord strooke her with sadnesse: Th'enemie

STROUE.....1

157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,

STROW'D.....1

012.00A.015 So, carelesse flowers strow'd on the waters face,

STRUCK.....1

131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnesse that struck man dumbe,

STRUCKE.....1

187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath strucke with sadnes, hee doth take

STRUGLES.....1

157.00b.021 So strugles this dead world, now shee is gone;

STRUMPET.....1

003.00A.039 Dost love a withered and worne strumpet; last,

STRUMPETED.....1

005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,

STRUMPETS.....1

002.00A.064 Worse then imbrothel'd strumpets prostitute.

STRUNGE.....1

157.00b.208 Strunge on one string, speed vndistinguish'd leades

STUBBORNE.....2

147.00B.012 To ripe and mellow there, w'are stubborne clay,

157.00b.169 Thinke that no stubborne sullen Anchorit,

STUBBORNLY.....1

004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre

STUDIE.....3

052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,

093.00A.001 If in his Studie he hath so much care

153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,

STUDIED.....1

156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,

STUDIES.....2

004.00A.021 Stranger then seaven Antiquaries studies,

152.12a.031 And Others studies, how Hee would be bent,

STUDY.....14

006.00D.010 That none can study it to any end.

022.00A.006 Or your perfection, not to study truth?

052.00A.010 Study our manuscripts, those Myriades

069.00A.017 My heart to study her, and not to love;

082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee

098.00A.001 Philo, with twelve yeares study, hath beene griev'd,

106.00A.030 Of study and play made strange Hermaphrodits,

134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,

145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;

145.00A.074 Illustrate them who come to study you.

155.00a.066 Aliue to study this dissectione;

157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;

157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall

157.00b.500 There where the stuffe is not such as the rest)

172.00A.010 His stolne stuffe sold, must lose or buy't againe:

STUFFES.....1

054.00A.009 But mixt of all stuffes, paining soule, or sense,

STUFT.....1

008.00B.062 And with whores, theeves, and murderers stuft his rents

STUNG.....1

155.00a.345 As gold fals sicke being stung with Mercury,

STUPEFIED.....1

152.12a.030 Mett a Torpedo, and were stupefied:

STUPID.....2

110.00A.002 A stupid calme, but nothing it, doth swage.

157.00b.063 To be thus stupid is Alacrity;

STURDILY.....1

SUB-DIVIDE.....1

006.00D.042 Divide to pounds, and ounces sub-divide;

SUBDUE.....3

136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,

156.00a.056 Fearing the last fires hastning to subdue

169.00A.012 Created nature doth these things subdue,

SUBJECT.....2

155.00a.215 Prince, Subject, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,

157.00b.140 That he to disuniting subject were.

SUBJECTS.....1

157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subjects to call thee

SUBJECT.....11

020.00G.077 Least subject to disguise and change it is;

037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?

038.00A.021 Doe thy will then, then subject and degree,

064.00a.013 Only his subject was; It cannot bee

114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found

141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe
 145.00A.059 The subject chang'd, and measure; the same thing
 149.00A.031 Usurpe the body, 'our soule, which subject is
 153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
 158.00A.281 Is any kinde subject to rape like fish?
 185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,

SUBJECTION.....1

169.00A.005 Why brook'st thou, ignorant horse, subjection?

SUBJECTS.....4

048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 061.00A.026 What Tyrans, and their subjects interwish,
 153.00A.190 All jealousies 'twixt Prince and subjects love,
 158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own

SUBLIME.....1

136.00A.001 Honour is so sublime perfection,

SUBLIMED.....2

189.00B.032 Seemes richly placed in sublimed dust;
 189.00B.034 Are, at the best, but of sublimed clay)

SUBLIMING.....1

052.00A.013 To all whom loves subliming fire invades,

SUBLUNARY.....1

031.00A.013 Dull sublunary lovers love

SUBMIT.....2

038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,
 128.LR1.016 it self vnto the Irish negligence submit.

SUBMITTING.....1

184.00A.172 Through thy submitting all, to blowes

SUBSIDIES.....1

052.00A.042 They exact great subsidies,

SUBSTANCE.....4

131.00B.111 Then earthly substance can unforc'd aspire,
 142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
 155.00a.244 Of the whole substance, not to be contrould.
 189.00B.016 But not the monies substance; so hath grace

SUBSTANCES.....1

157.00b.276 (For ought thou knowst) piercing of substances.

SUBSTANTIAL.....2

010.00A.064 There, things that seeme, exceed substantiall.

049.00A.062 No means our firme substantiall love to keepe;

SUBTILE.....8

001.00A.062 Our subtile wittied antique youths will weare;

013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand

045.00A.009 More subtile then the parent is,

062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:

067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;

068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,

146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;

158.00A.152 And to his shoulders dangle subtile haire;

SUBTILLY.....1

022.00A.066 Love was as subtily catch'd, as a disease;

SUBTILST.....1

155.00a.247 For the worlds subtilst immateriall parts

SUBTLE.....3

004.00A.100 A subtle States-man may gather of that;

008.00B.045 Having by subtle fire a soule out-pull'd;

174.00B.011 But our old subtle foe so tempteth me,

SUBTLEST.....1

004.00A.046 Make men speake treason, cosen subtlest whores,

SUBTLY.....2

110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay

158.00A.478 And up lifts subtly with his russet pawe

SUBURBS.....2

153.00A.174 There are the holy suburbs, and from thence

155.00a.236 As Suburbs, or the Microcosme of her,

SUBVERTED.....1

187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is

SUCCEEDS.....2

020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye

158.00A.483 Succeeds an itchie warmth, that melts her quite,

SUCCESFULLY.....1

158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,

SUCSESSE.....1

153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,

SUCSESSEFULLY.....1

153.00A.196 But till thou should'st succesfully advance

SUCCESSION.....1

157.00b.210 Whose quicke succession makes it still one thing:

SUCCESSIVELY.....1

153.00A.090 Which he successively to order brings;

SUCCESSORS.....1

191.00B.033 And Davids Successors, in holy zeale,

SUCCIS.....1

201.20a.013 Succis, & Gemmis; &

SUCCOUR.....1

155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,

SUCCOUR'D.....1

155.00a.014 But succour'd then with a perplexed doubt,

SUCCOURING.....1

187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)

SUCH.....177

001.00A.074 And grins, smacks, shrugs, and such an itch endures,

002.00A.005 Though Poetry indeed be such a sinne

003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be inthrall'd,

003.00A.061 Take such wives as their Guardians offer, or

004.00A.003 A Purgatorie, such as fear'd hell is

004.00A.062 His tongue, he praised it, and such words told

004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one

004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,

004.00A.168 Such as swells the bladder of our court? I

004.00A.172 Just such gay painted things, which no sappe, nor

004.00A.208 Perfect as circles, with such nicetie

006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,

008.00B.043 Or were it such gold as that wherewithall

008.00B.080 Yet with such anguish, as her onely sonne

008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,

009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.

009.00A.005 And on her necke her skin such lustre sets,

009.00A.017 Or that whereof God had such jealousye,

009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.

009.00A.038 Such cherishing heat her best lov'd part doth hold.
 012.00A.008 Such services I offer as shall pay
 012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,
 015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,
 015.00G.019 In such white robes, heaven's Angels us'd to be
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,
 020.00G.031 Men to such Gods, their sacrificing Coles
 021.00G.011 Such is already my self-want of sight
 021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?
 021.00G.064 I have accus'd, should such a mischief doe.
 022.00A.065 All which were such soft pastimes, as in these
 024.00A.025 Such was my Phao awhile, but shall be never,
 024.00A.028 That I am such; but Griefe discolors me.
 024.00A.047 And, oh, no more; the likenesse being such,
 024.00A.051 Likenesse begets such strange selfe flatterie,
 025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
 025.00A.004 Such forc'd fashions,
 027.00A.025 For thee, thou needst no such deceit,
 029.00A.032 But after one such love, can love no more.
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 033.00A.020 Such a Pilgrimage were sweet,
 035.00A.017 After a such fruition I shall wake,
 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
 039.00A.042 So made such mirrors, and such spies,
 040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,
 040.00A.019 Both are increased by such songs:
 044.00A.020 To fuell such a feaver long.
 045.00A.026 Just such disparitie
 046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth wooe.
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 048.00A.024 Can be such Kings, nor of such subjects bee;
 049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undoe,
 049.00A.035 Into such characters, as graved bee
 050.00A.001 No Spring, nor Summer Beauty hath such grace,
 050.00A.047 Since such loves motion natural is, may still
 051.00A.004 Receive such balmes, as else cure every thing,
 052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
 054.00A.022 Produc'd by one, love such additions take,
 055.00A.026 Such in loves warfare is my case,
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 062.00A.063 Because such fingers need to knit
 062.00A.073 And if some lover, such as wee,
 063.00A.011 Such stuffe to worke upon, there is,
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 066.00A.018 Onely to give to such as have an incapacie.

070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,
 071.00A.016 And without such advantage kill me then.
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 079.00B.015 Blindly admire, and with such worship wooe;
 079.00B.023 After such pleasures, unlesse wise
 079.00B.024 Nature decreed (since each such Act, they say,
 080.00E.010 For such by all are sought;
 081.HH5.025 & in exchange I gaue the such a harte
 107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
 107.00A.048 Falls not on such things as are infinite,
 107.00A.060 And finding here such store, is loth to set?
 107.00A.096 No such occasion to be liberall.
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
 108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
 108.00A.235 Such Alters, as prize your devotion.
 109.00A.007 My lines are such. 'Tis the preheminance
 109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 112.00A.022 Are carcases, as if no such they were.
 113.00A.030 Such freedome doth a banishment become.
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,
 128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
 128.LR1.020 Nor such as from the brayne come, but the hart.
 129.00A.018 It such an audience as your selfe would aske;
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)
 130.00A.006 Leaves growing, and stands such, or else decayes,
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 131.00B.113 Such may have eye, and hand; may sigh, may speak;
 133.00A.018 A miracle; and made such to worke more,
 134.00A.026 And vertue,'and such ingredients, have made
 136.00A.023 Or tooke Soules stufte such as shall late decay,
 136.00A.024 Or such as needs small change at the last day.
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 137.00A.004 And such, as they are circumstanc'd, they bee.
 138.00A.009 Such borrow in their payments, and owe more
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
 139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,
 139.00A.035 To make it good, for, such a prayer prayes.
 140.00A.027 For, God no such specifique poyson hath
 140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 141.00A.013 As such a starre, which Magi led to view
 142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
 147.00B.019 Such priviledges, enabled here to scale

148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 148.00A.019 For, such a friendship who would not adore
 148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stuffe, as God, when his last fire
 149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
 149.00A.062 Of such a prey, and to his tryumph adde.
 150.00A.043 Death gets 'twixt soules and bodies such a place
 150.00A.057 She might have prov'd: and such devotion
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,
 152.12a.053 Therefore Wee liue: though such a Life wee haue
 152.12a.071 If Faith haue such a chaine, whose divers Links
 152.12a.076 Death hauing broke-off such a Link as Hee.
 153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.152 Instructions, such as it could never be
 154.00A.019 Never made body such hast to confesse
 154.00A.039 And seest such sinners as they are, with thee
 155.00a.256 Such diuers downe-right lines, such ouerthwarts,
 155.00a.256 Such diuers downe-right lines, such ouerthwarts,
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.
 155.00a.387 Th'Ayre showes such Meteors, as none can see,
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 155.00a.390 Th'Egyptian Mages to haue made more such.
 155.00a.413 But she, in whom, to such maturity,
 155.00a.467 Such an opinion (in due measure) made
 156.00a.001 Tis lost, to trust a Tombe with such a ghest,
 156.00a.016 Being such a Tabernacle, stoope to bee
 156.00a.018 In such a house, dwell in an Elegie?
 156.00a.035 Death cannot giue her such another blow,
 156.00a.036 Because shee cannot such another show.
 156.00a.099 Euey such person is her delegate,
 157.00b.036 Yearely to bring forth such a child as this.
 157.00b.089 For such approaches doth Heauen make in death.
 157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies
 157.00b.194 Whether shee past by such a place or no;
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,
 157.00b.233 Twenty such parts, whose plenty and riches is 157.00b.234 Inough to make twenty such worlds as this;
 157.00b.312 Here vpon Earth, to such perfection,
 157.00b.410 On such opinions, and capacities
 157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place
 157.00b.430 To such small copper coyne, they lost the old,
 157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,
 157.00b.438 Twice the circumference; and be thou such.

157.00b.445 Tis such a full, and such a filling good;
 157.00b.445 Tis such a full, and such a filling good;
 157.00b.456 Gods Image, in such reparation,
 157.00b.500 There where the stuffe is not such as the rest)
 157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee
 158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there
 158.00A.303 To such vastnesse, as if unmanacled
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can
 160.00A.069 And at thy death giving such liberall dole,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste
 184.00A.034 Give mee a such selfe different instinct
 184.00A.045 In vaine, who hath such titles unto you.
 187.00A.329 And such a nation as cannot save,
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,

SUCK.....4

012.00A.016 The curled whirlpooles suck, smack, and embrace,
 109.00A.062 Seas into seas throwne, we suck in againe;
 158.00A.265 And suck in aire, or finde it underneath,
 158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,

SUCK'D.....4

032.00A.003 But suck'd on countrey pleasures, childishly?
 060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
 065.00A.015 If he suck'd hers, I let him know
 112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,

SUCK'ST.....1

158.00A.014 Suck'st early balme, and lland spices there,

SUCKE.....5

004.00A.133 To sucke me in, for hearing him. I found
 005.00A.047 Thee, if they sucke thee in, to misery,
 157.00b.174 After, enabled but to sucke, and crie.
 157.00b.329 Drinke and sucke in th'Instructions of Great men,
 187.00A.278 Sucke to their young; my peoples daughters live

SUCKING.....3

009.00A.044 As a worme sucking an invenom'd sore?
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,

SUCKS.....4

010.00A.059 By thee the seely Amorous sucks his death

060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
 075.00A.002 Which sucks two soules, and vapors Both away,
 158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing

SUCT.....1

060.00A.022 Except in that drop which it suckt from thee?

SUDDEN.....1

SUDDENNES.....1

003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;

SUE.....3

055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
 137.00A.033 These are Petitions, and not Hymnes; they sue
 184.00A.044 Our helpes, so are her prayers; nor can she sue

SUED.....1

108.00A.087 Our little Cupid hath sued Livery,

SUETH.....1

131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;

SUFFER.....11

008.00B.087 One that would suffer hunger, nakednesse,
 021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
 021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
 137.00A.024 That suffer not an artificiall day.
 157.00b.152 Heauen was content to suffer violence,
 157.00b.444 Can suffer Diminution, nor wee;
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 176.00B.008 'Cause I did suffer I must suffer paine.
 176.00B.008 'Cause I did suffer I must suffer paine.
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.

SUFFERANCE.....1

176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,

SUFFERED.....2

004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered

SUFFERING.....1

156.00a.095 Her modesty not suffering her to bee

SUFFERS.....1

004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,

SUITERS.....6

004.00A.157 Of suiters at court to mourne, and a trance

005.00A.008 Who Officers rage, and Suiters misery

005.00A.014 Are the vast ravishing seas; and Suiters,

005.00A.018 Are the devouring stomacke, and Suiters

005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust

005.00A.075 With which she scracheth Suiters; In bodies

SUITOR.....2

002.00B.069 And to every suitor lye in every thing,

013.00A.014 To every suitor; I, if my friends agree.

SUITORS.....1

158.00A.323 All suitors of all sorts themselves enthrall;

SUITS.....1

001.00A.061 What fashioned hats, or ruffes, or suits next yeare

SULLEN.....3

003.00A.051 Religion, plaine, simple, sullen, yong,

SUMMER-WAY.....1

131.00B.062 And journeys not till it finde summer-way.

SUMMERS.....3

059.00A.012 But get a winter-seeming summers night.

079.00B.036 As men doe when the summers Sunne

155.00a.355 And color is decayd: summers robe growes

SUMMONED.....1

163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned

SUMMONS.....1

150.00A.004 That any can thy Summons disobey.

SUN.....19

019.00A.006 Perhaps with rude oares torne, or Sun beams tann'd,

021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,

048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,

052.00A.060 Sun, or starres, are fitliest view'd

066.00A.051 Then a Sun dyall in a grave,

106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;

106.00A.093 This Sun will love so dearely

108.00A.150 Who can the Sun in water see.

108.00A.162 The rising sun, doe thinke it two,

108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe

122.00A.024 Which as the Earth betweene the Moone and Sun

127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;

127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,

127.00A.010 There sacrifice it to that beauteous Sun:
 129.00A.007 Of the same warme, and dazeling Sun, though it
 130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone
 145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
 182.00A.004 A better Sun rose before thee to day,

SUN-BEAMES.....1

106.00A.001 The Sun-beames in the East are spred,

SUN-DYALL.....1

153.00A.154 And great Sun-dyall, to have set us All?

SUN-PARCH'D.....1

009.00A.031 Like Sun-parch'd quarters on the citie gate,

SUNDER.....1

021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide

SUNDRED.....2

155.00a.222 To draw, and fasten sundred parts in one;
 156.00a.038 That as a sundred Clocke is peece-meale laid,

SUNG.....2

191.00B.010 (For 'twas a double power by which he sung
 191.00B.026 Their harmony is rather danc'd than sung;

SUNKE.....5

064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
 082.00A.005 The worlds whole sap is sunke:
 153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.
 155.00a.358 Is inward sunke, and onely our soules are redde:
 187.00A.121 9 Their gates are sunke into the ground, and hee

SUNN.....1

135.B13.004 For since one old poore sunne serues all the rest,

SUNNE.....59

003.00A.088 Are like the Sunne, dazling, yet plaine to all eyes;
 004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne
 004.00A.167 O Sunne, in all thy journey, Vanitie,
 022.00A.027 Sooner I'll thinke the Sunne will cease to cheare
 027.00A.006 Warm'd by thy eyes, more then the Sunne.
 027.00A.014 By Sunne, or Moone, thou darknest both,
 030.00B.006 But, now the Sunne is just aboue our head,
 036.00A.001 Busie old foole, unruly Sunne,
 036.00A.025 Thou sunne art halfe as happy'as wee,

042.00A.009 Yesternight the Sunne went hence,
054.00A.010 And of the Sunne his working vigour borrow,
054.00A.018 Starres by the Sunne are not inlarg'd, but showne,
056.00A.008 Are Sunne, Moone, or Starres by law forbidden,
068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,
068.00A.016 Must with this Sunne, and mee a journey take.
079.00B.036 As men doe when the summers Sunne
082.00A.003 The Sunne is spent, and now his flasks
082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
082.00A.038 You lovers, for whose sake, the lesser Sunne
107.00A.020 What the sunne never saw, and what the Arke
107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,
107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
107.00A.085 Here lyes a shee Sunne, and a hee Moone here,
108.00A.016 The Sunne stayes longer up; and yet not his 108.00A.022 Before the Sunne and Moone created were;
108.00A.109 Then thy old Soule, the Sunne,
108.00A.131 How thou prevent'st the Sunne,
108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee had forgot
109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
113.00A.020 Men force the Sunne with much more force to passe,
120.00A.010 Heavens liberall and earths thrice-faire Sunne,
136.00A.012 By despis'd dung, then by the fire or Sunne.
137.00A.018 As China, when the Sunne at Brasill dines.
137.00A.026 And will'd your Delegate, the vulgar Sunne,
138.00A.037 As new Philosophy arrests the Sunne,
145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
153.00A.026 As that Sunne rises to mee, midnight's noone,
153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.
153.00A.116 How here, how there, the Sunne affected is,
153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,
155.00a.026 Thou mightst haue better spar'd the Sunne, or Man;
155.00a.113 When as the Sunne, and man, did seeme to striue,
155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
155.00a.264 The free-borne Sunne, and keepe twelue signes awake
155.00a.268 For his course is not round; nor can the Sunne
157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,
157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,
157.00b.138 Any disease to venter on the Sunne,
157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.
158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate
160.00A.054 With the Sunne to beginne his businesse,
160.00A.086 Joy at the uprising of this Sunne, and Sonne,
184.00A.050 As th'earth conceiving by the Sunne,

184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.

185.00A.011 There I should see a Sunne, by rising set,

185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.

SUNNE-BEAMES.....1

131.00B.119 But as ayre takes the Sunne-beames equall bright

SUNNES.....6

107.00A.104 As Satyres watch the Sunnes uprise, will stay

131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.

141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,

157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,

157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appeares,

157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.

SUNNS.....1

135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each brest

SUNS.....4

020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;

092.NY3.002 Towards the Suns cradle, & his throne, & bed.

005.00A.040 The mony which you sweat, and swear for, is gon

009.00A.001 As the sweet sweat of Roses in a Still,

009.00A.004 Such are the sweat drops of my Mistris breast.

009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets

021.00G.043 Inflam'd with th'ouglic sweat of jealousye,

028.00A.012 Bath'd in a cold quicksilver sweat wilt lye

065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.

138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;

155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Bloud: no thing

158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.

192.00B.024 As the first Adams sweat surrounds my face,

SWEATES.....1

106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;

SWEATS.....2

010.00A.022 And notes thy palenesse, blushing, sighs, and sweats;

157.00b.283 And yet one watches, starues, freeses, and sweats,

SWEATY.....1

009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,

SWEET.....23

004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,
 004.00A.074 'Tis sweet to talke of Kings. At Westminster,
 004.00A.180 As fresh, and sweet their Apparrells be, as bee
 009.00A.001 As the sweet sweat of Roses in a Still,
 010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,
 010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid
 020.00G.047 The Nose (like to the sweet Meridian) runs
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 022.00A.067 But being got it is a treasure sweet,
 026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 033.00A.020 Such a Pilgrimage were sweet,
 048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;
 078.00D.003 Send me some honey to make sweet my hive,
 108.00A.012 Have taken cold, and their sweet murmures lost;
 108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,
 109.00A.019 Mildly it kist our sailes, and, fresh, and sweet,
 114.00A.001 All haile sweet Poet, more full of more strong fire,
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,
 149.00A.055 How fit for us, how even and how sweet,
 157.00b.199 Hee that charm'd Argus eies, sweet Mercury,
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,
 191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way

SWEETEN.....3

021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
 024.00A.032 A mutuall feeling which should sweeten it.
 111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,

SWEETER.....1

022.00A.016 Sprinkled among, (all sweeter by our feares

SWEETES.....1

123.NY3.004 Delicious garden where all Sweetes are sowne.

SWEETEST.....2

037.00A.020 And by Loves sweetest Part, Variety, she swore,
 042.00A.001 Sweetest love, I do not goe,

SWEETLY.....1

191.00B.035 To us so sweetly and sincerely too,

SWEETNESSE.....2

024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;
 059.00A.024 Sweetnesse, and wit they'are, but, Mummy, possesst.

SWEETS.....3

106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
 121.NY3.019 Blesse vs w^t Suffolks Sweets; & as y^t is 137.00A.017 Widow'd and reclus'd else, her sweets she'enshrines

SWEL'D.....1

062.00A.002 A Pregnant banke swel'd up, to rest

SWELL.....4

003.00A.002 Those teares to issue which swell my eye-lids,
 012.00A.025 And bend her browes, and swell if any bough
 020.00G.057 Then in a Creek where chosen pearls do swell
 157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,

SWELL'ST.....1

167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?

SWELLING.....2

020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 109.00A.022 So joyd, as Sara 'her swelling joy'd to see.

SWELLS.....3

004.00A.168 Such as swells the bladder of our court? I
 060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,
 139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.

SWELS.....1

155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.

SWIFT.....2

158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they

SWIFTLY.....1

158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew

SWIMME.....5

027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
 027.00A.011 Will amorously to thee swimme,
 110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath
 158.00A.316 Swimme in him swallowed Dolphins, without feare,
 181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,

SWIMMING.....2

005.00A.090 Thou art the swimming dog whom shadows cosened,
 158.00A.023 That swimming Colledge, and free Hospitall

SWINE.....2

022.00A.049 Swine eate his bowels, and his falser tongue

140.00A.015 Else, man not onely is the heard of swine,

SWOLE.....1

109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee

SWOLN.....1

131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break

SWOLNE.....6

008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.

009.00A.034 The short swolne fingers of her gouty hand ;

010.00A.020 And fearing least thou'art swolne, doth thee embrace;

011.00A.003 If swolne with poyson, hee lay in'his last bed,

011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare

119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.

SWOME.....2

158.00A.241 Now swome a prison in a prison put,

158.00A.305 Earthquake unrooted, loose Morea swome,

SWORD.....8

158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,

184.00A.193 To us, as we judge, lay or ghostly sword,

187.00A.012 In streights shee meets her Persecutors sword.

187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.

187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;

187.00A.301 9 Better by sword then famine 'tis to dye;

187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.

187.00A.366 For in the wildernesse, the sword did wait.

SWORD-FISH.....1

158.00A.351 The flaile-find Thresher, and steel-beak'd Sword-fish

SWORDFISH.....1

158.00A.356 Begins to sinke; the Swordfish upward spins,

SWORDS.....1

014.NY3.044 To warrs; but stay swords, armes, & shott

SWORE.....3

018.00B.023 Faire Orithea, whom he swore he lov'd.

037.00A.020 And by Loves sweetest Part, Variety, she swore,

054.00A.005 Me thinks I lyed all winter, when I swore,

SWORNE.....5

010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove

018.00B.010 And thou have sworne to seale joynt constancy,

061.00A.007 Forswear to others, what to her he'hath sworne,

099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come

099.00A.001 Klockius so deeply hath sworne, ne'r more to come

SYBILLS.....1

052.00A.006 Sybills glory, and obscure

SYDNEAN.....1

191.00B.050 We thy Sydnean Psalmes shall celebrate,

SYDNEY.....1

191.00B.HE2 lip Sydney, and the Countesse of Pembroke

SYLLABLE.....1

153.00A.094 On every syllable, nor stay to spell,

SYLLABLES.....1

147.00B.024 A last-sicke houre to syllables allow.

SYMBOLA.....1

186.00E.002 Signare, (haec nostrae symbola parva Domus)

008.00B.015 To gaine new friends, t'appease great enemies;

T'ATTEND.....1

155.00a.167 This man, whom God did wooe, and loth t'attend

T'EMBOWELL.....1

106.00A.090 The priest comes on his knees t'embowell her;

T'END.....1

158.00A.277 And t'end her doubts and her, beares her away,

T'ENIOY.....1

157.00b.318 As well t'enioy, as get perfectione.

T'ENLARGE.....1

153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,

T'ENROULE.....1

156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,

T'HAD.....1

153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?

T'HAUE.....2

081.HH5.020 with shame t'haue hopd for womans constancy

157.00b.079 Star-light inough, t'haue made the South controll,

T'HAVE.....2

138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee

138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse

T'HER.....4

152.12a.015 For, Reason, put t'her best Extension,

155.00a.008 And, as t'her standing house, to heauen did clymbe,

158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive

158.00A.088 He gave it, she, t'her husband, both did eate;

T'HIDE.....1

158.00A.355 And t'hide himselfe from shame and danger, downe

T'HIS.....1

155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart

T'IMPART.....1

063.00A.005 It were but madnes now t'impart

T'INCREASE.....2

078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,

138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.

T'IS.....2

014.NY3.028 Into an other World, as t'is to dy?

157.00b.048 T'is th'onely Health, to be Hydropique so.

T'OBEY.....1

155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.

T'OUR.....1

155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne

T'OUTWEARE.....1

158.00A.009 A worke t'outweare Seths pillars, bricke and stone,

T'VNDERSTAND.....1

081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand

T'VNDOE.....1

155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;

T'WARDS.....1

174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;

T'WAS.....11

032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.

032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.

044.00A.025 Yet t'was of my minde, seising thee,

155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,

156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,

157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,

157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,

157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,

158.00A.107 Who sinn'd? t'was not forbidden to the snake

158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:

158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not

T'WERE.....6

031.00A.007 T'were prophanation of our joyes

050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,

050.00A.005 If t'were a shame to love, here t'were no shame,

135.B13.034 For t'were in vs ambition to write

157.00b.006 Did set; t'were Blasphemy, to say, did fall.

157.00b.251 But t'were but little to haue chang'd our roome,

T'WOULD.....1

158.00A.098 Were prisoners Judges, t'would seeme rigorous,

TABELLAS.....1

186.00E.001 Qvi prius assuetus Serpentum fasce Tabellas

TABERNACLE.....1

156.00a.016 Being such a Tabernacle, stoope to bee

TABLE.....1

150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set

TABLES.....2

108.00A.184 The tables groane, as though this feast

130.00A.044 And Tables, or fruit-trenchers teach as much;

TACITURNITY.....1

155.00a.423 Some women haue some taciturnity;

TACITVRNA.....1

195.010.016 NEC OB LINGVARVM PERITIAM, MINVS TACITVRNA,

TACKLING.....1

110.00A.016 And all the tackling is a frippery.

TACKLINGS.....1

109.00A.055 With a salt dropsie clog'd, and all our tacklings

TACTVS.....1

196.015.011 SATIS, (IPSA INVIDIA, QVA SAEPE TACTVS, FRACTVS NVMQVAM, TESTE) IN

TAGUS.....1

158.00A.016 At Tagus, Po, Sene, Thames, and Danon dine.

TAILE.....1

079.00B.040 'Tis but applying worme-seed to the Taile.

TAINTS.....1

158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.

TAK'ST.....1

021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,

TAKE.....63

001.00A.025 For better or worse take mee, or leave mee:

001.00A.026 To take, and leave mee is adultery.

002.00A.056 In th'interim my letters should take place

003.00A.061 Take such wives as their Guardians offer, or

014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.

019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;

020.00G.005 Our love, and force it new strong shapes to take,

021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,

022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take

035.00A.005 The value: goe, and take my heart from hence,

039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,

042.00A.015 Speedier journeyes, since I take

042.00A.035 Destiny may take thy part,

045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,

047.00A.001 Take heed of loving mee,

047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.

047.00A.009 Take heed of hating mee,

047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.

050.00A.006 Affections here take Reverences name.

051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,

052.00A.059 To take a latitude
 054.00A.022 Produc'd by one, love such additions take,
 062.00A.027 Might thence a new concoction take,
 068.00A.016 Must with this Sunne, and mee a journey take.
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 106.00A.064 Musicians, and dancers take some truce
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take
 107.00A.074 They were to take a clock in peeces,) goe
 107.00A.094 Take no acquittance, but pay again;
 108.00A.031 And from their jewels torches do take fire,
 108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thanks, you, to give,
 112.00A.060 Courts hot ambitions wholesome, do not take
 119.NY3.006 We take new harts for it to feede vpon.
 124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take
 125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
 126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
 138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 141.00A.038 Of the most starres, take low names, Crab, and Bull,
 145.00A.068 Enabled me to profit, and take forth
 148.00A.007 Twinnes, though their birth Cusco, and Musco take,
 148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
 149.00A.010 Take all a brackish tast, and Funerall.
 149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 152.12a.028 Till Hee discoverd what wayes Hee would take:
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.520 To take this, for my second yeeres true Rent,
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?
 158.00A.311 At every stroake his brazen finnes do take
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 171.00A.012 Take mee to you, imprison mee, for I
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,
 181.00A.045 For if the'eye seeke good objects, and will take
 184.00A.075 From whom whosoever do not take
 187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath stricke with sadnes, hee doth take

TAKEN.....8

010.00A.067 You'are loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 018.00B.054 Assail'd, fight, taken, stabb'd, bleed, fall, and die.

108.00A.012 Have taken cold, and their sweet murmures lost;
 150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,
 158.00A.412 Great men have often taken, to espie
 160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,
 184.00A.094 Tender'd not taken by those Ravishers:

TAKES.....14

004.00A.094 He takes my hand, and as a Still, which staies
 010.00A.015 Takes this advantage to sleepe out day-light,
 010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
 010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.
 045.00A.008 Takes limmes of flesh, and else could nothing doe,
 052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 131.00B.119 But as ayre takes the Sunne-beames equall bright
 149.00A.006 And breaks our banke, when ere it takes a friend.
 153.00A.212 As he, who takes endeavours, doth require,
 155.00a.397 For heauen giues little, and the earth takes lesse,
 157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:

TAKEST.....1

107.00A.031 Takest warmth enough, and from thine eye

TAKING.....3

153.00A.169 For children, house, Provision, taking paine,
 157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.
 184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe

TAKINGE.....1

081.HH5.018 which takinge heate from every amorous Eye

TALE.....1

111.00A.002 Tell you Calis, or S^t Michaels tale for newes, as tell

TALES.....1

005.00A.089 Esops fables, and make tales, prophesies.

TALK'D.....1

001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,

TALKE.....12

002.00A.066 His hand still at a bill, now he must talke
 004.00A.074 'Tis sweet to talke of Kings. At Westminster,
 004.00A.077 Of all our Harries, and our Edwards talke,

004.00A.117 To heare this Makeron talke in vaine: For yet,
 006.00D.026 Talke of Will. Conquerour, and Prester lack.
 049.00A.065 Impute this idle talke, to that I goe,
 049.00A.066 For dying men talke often so.
 064.00a.001 I long to talke with some old lovers ghost,
 065.00A.030 And the game kill'd, or lost, goe talke, and sleepe.
 107.00A.064 And be to others spectacle, and talke?
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 155.00a.131 Old Grandsires talke of yesterday with sorrow,

TAM.....3

186.00E.018 Non tam dicendum hoc, quam Catechismus erit.
 196.015.012 TAM AD EXERCITVS DVCENDOS
 198.LL1.012 Ad alia, tam studia, quam negotia, et peregrinationes deflectens,

TAM'D.....1

049.00A.052 Disputed it, and tam'd thy rage,

TAME.....4

018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade
 138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
 155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than 184.00A.183 When want, sent but to tame, doth warre

TAMELY.....1

183.00A.001 Tamely fraile body'abstaine to day; to day

TAMEN.....3

186.00E.009 Hoc tamen ut fiat, Christo vegetatur ab ipso

 105.H10.001 Non eget Hookerus tanto tutamine; Tanto

TAPER.....4

028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,
 107.00A.019 Thou mak'st a Taper see
 129.00A.005 A Taper of his Torch, a copie writ
 157.00b.086 Which brings a Taper to the outward romme,

TAPERS.....5

012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye
 039.00A.021 We're Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,
 057.00A.011 As lightning, or a Tapers light,
 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.

TASKE.....3

129.00A.020 And hath for nature, what you have for taske.
 160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
 184.00A.124 Our taske is treble, to pray, beare, and doe)

TAST.....11

004.00A.039 Art can deceive, or hunger force my tast,
 004.00A.173 Tast have in them, ours are, And naturall
 050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 068.00A.023 To your eyes, eares, and tast, and every part.
 130.00A.037 However, keepe the lively tast you hold
 137.00A.063 Tast of Poetique rage, or flattery,
 149.00A.010 Take all a brackish tast, and Funerall.
 151.00A.049 And did prefigure here, in devout tast,
 158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,

TASTE.....6

003.00A.040 Flesh (it selfe death) and joyes which flesh can taste,
 003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;
 013.00A.027 Which Oh, shall strangers taste? Must I alas
 015.00G.035 To taste whole joyes. Jems which you women use
 108.00A.058 A little spice, or Amber in thy taste?
 140.00A.024 Hemlocke, and wee as men, his hemlocke taste.

TASTING.....1

131.00B.008 Of Adams tasting the forbidden tree;

TASTLESSE.....2

142.00A.019 For when through tastlesse flat humilitie

156.00a.052 Being tastlesse growne, to ioy in ioyes they had,

TASTS.....2

019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tasts seemes tough.

053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,

TAUGHT.....22

003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare

003.00A.097 A Harry, or a Martin taught thee this?

010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbear,

012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall

013.00A.001 Natures lay Ideot, I taught thee to love,

013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet

017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!

025.00A.011 Which if it be taught by thine

029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show

066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore

070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught

081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand

131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdaine.

141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,

155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art

157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath

157.00b.292 Of being taught by sense, and Fantasy?

158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught

158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse

184.00A.110 Of Doctors, whose paines have unclasp'd, and taught

187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,

191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.

TAUGHT'ST.....1

066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee

TAUGHTST.....3

066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee

066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.

066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee

TAXE.....2

019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,

158.00A.004 and sticke, and doe not say quickly, good. I censure much and taxe;

TAXES.....1

054.00A.027 New taxes, and remit them not in peace,

TAXETH.....1

089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:

TAXING.....1

184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,

TE.....1

104.C07.004 Si per te non sunt deteriora sat est.

TEACH.....25

001.00A.007 And jolly Statesmen, which teach how to tie
 004.00A.069 To teach by painting drunkards, doth not last
 004.00A.072 Better pictures of vice, teach me vertue;
 013.00A.015 Since, household charmes, thy husbands name to teach,
 015.00G.047 To teach thee I am naked first, why than
 016.00A.027 And soe not teach, but force my'opinion
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 021.00G.097 The Poles shall move to teach me ere I start;
 033.00A.005 Teach me to heare Mermaides singing,
 042.00A.023 And wee teach it art and length,
 049.00A.020 This learning be, for a scratch'd name to teach,
 058.00A.022 To teach the sea, what it may doe too soone,
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot
 130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
 130.00A.044 And Tables, or fruit-trenchers teach as much;
 134.00A.016 And rest on what the Catholique faith doth teach;
 136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
 139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry
 165.00A.013 Teach mee how to repent; for that's as good
 184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
 191.00B.022 They tell us why, and teach us how to sing.

TEACHING.....1

145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.

TEARE.....14

002.00A.057 Of affidavits: words, words, which would teare
 004.00A.222 Whose cloak his spurres teare; whom he spits on
 022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
 026.00A.003 My picture drown'd in a transparent teare,
 041.00A.004 Nor can intreat one other teare to fall.

055.00A.009 To falsifie a teare, or sigh, or vow,
 058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
 058.00A.014 So doth each teare,
 065.00A.013 If he wroung from mee'a teare, I brin'd it so
 065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
 108.00A.147 Of joy, a Teare; so quencht, thou maist impart,
 139.00A.062 Or make a rebaptizing of one teare;
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.313 Then cannons voices, when the aire they teare:

TEARE-FLOODS.....1

031.00A.006 No teare-floods, nor sigh-tempests move,

TEARE-SHOT.....1

158.00A.477 He gazeth on her face with teare-shot eyes,

TEARES.....46

003.00A.002 Those teares to issue which swell my eye-lids,
 011.00A.010 Begging with few feign'd teares, great legacies,
 022.00A.015 As from our hearts, so many oathes, and teares
 024.00A.005 Have my teares quench'd my old Poétique fire;
 024.00A.056 When I would kisse, teares dimme mine eyes, and glasse.
 026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
 039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?
 041.00A.006 Sighs, teares and oathes, and letters I have spent,
 041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,
 047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,
 048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;
 051.00A.001 Blasted with sighs, and surrounded with teares,
 051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,
 051.00A.021 And try your mistresse Teares at home,
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow
 066.00A.006 To women or the sea, my teares;
 072.00A.010 Water of teares, and earthly sad despaire,
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,
 081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but showes
 139.00A.061 From need of teares he will defend your soule,
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 149.00A.015 Teares are false Spectacles, we cannot see
 149.00A.052 To clyme by teares, the common staires of men.
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,

151.00A.041 And when wee teares, hee mercy shed in this,
 155.00a.012 For in a common Bath of teares it bled,
 155.00a.257 As disproportion that pure forme. It teares
 155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Bloud: no thing
 160.00A.087 Yee whose just teares, or tribulation
 166.00A.011 And my teares, make a heavenly Lethean flood,
 170.00A.005 Teares in his eyes quench the amasing light,
 176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe
 184.00A.025 Which let devout sad teares intend; and let
 184.00A.137 From owing thee yesterdaies teares to day,
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall
 187.00A.025 7 Now in their daies of Teares, Jerusalem
 187.00A.158 Therefore, O walls of Sion, let teares fall
 187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
 187.00A.247 49 Mine eye doth drop downe teares incessantly,

TEARS.....1

151.00A.004 Griefe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.

TEDIOUS.....1

131.00B.076 But am no porter for a tedious woe.

TEDIOUSNESSE.....1

112.00A.003 The tediousnesse of my life: But for these

TEEMING.....1

022.00A.028 The teeming earth, and that forget to beare,

TEETH.....4

017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 158.00A.183 As childrens teeth through gummes, to breake with paine,
 187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,
 187.00A.198 My teeth with stones, and covered mee with dust;

TELL.....35

001.00A.060 By drawing forth heavens Sceanes tell certainly 002.00A.037 Whose strange sinnes, Canonists could hardly tell
 004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.
 004.00A.093 And askes, what newes? I tell him of new playes.
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 014.NY3.005 To any one: In Flanders, who tan tell
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 031.00A.008 To tell the layetie our love
 033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
 033.00A.014 Thou, when thou return'st, wilt tell mee
 036.00A.007 Goe tell Court-huntsmen, that the King will ride,

036.00A.016 Looke, and to morrow late, tell mee,
 038.00A.012 The maid, and tell the Lady of that delay;
 043.00A.009 I heard mee say, Tell her anon,
 052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
 052.00A.052 Whose weaknesse none doth, or dares tell;
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 061.00A.019 And no record tell why:
 062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
 070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
 111.00A.002 Tell you Calis, or S^t Michaels tale for newes, as tell
 111.00A.002 Tell you Calis, or S^t Michaels tale for newes, as tell
 115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
 139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
 142.00A.008 As not to tell it; If this be too bold,
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 153.00A.130 And by thy doing tell us what to doe?
 155.00a.042 Offers to tell vs who it is that's gone.
 155.00a.343 As a compassionate Turcoyse which doth tell
 155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to 170.00A.003 The picture of Christ crucified, and tell
 189.00B.023 Deare, tell me where thy purchase lies, and shew
 191.00B.022 They tell us why, and teach us how to sing.

TELLS.....5

004.00A.096 As loth to enrich mee, so tells many a lie,
 005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
 184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought

TELST.....1

127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.

TEMPER.....2

018.00B.013 Temper, o faire Love, loves impetuous rage,
 155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,

TEMPERANCE.....2

155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;
 158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends

TEMPERATE.....3

112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:
 158.00A.494 Like Chimiques equall fires, her temperate wombe

TEMPEST.....2

131.00B.027 I cannot feele the tempest of a frowne,
153.00A.102 Sent hither, the worlds tempest to becalme,

TEMPESTS.....3

049.00A.015 The showers and tempests can outwash,
109.00A.032 Hath now a stormes, anon a tempests name.
187.00A.367 10 The tempests of this famine wee liv'd in,

TEMPESTUOUS.....1

184.00A.097 Hourly tempestuous persecutions grow,

TEMPLE.....10

015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.
060.00A.013 Our mariage bed, and mariage temple is;
106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring
106.00A.037 Thy two-leav'd gates faire Temple unfold,
137.00A.044 You as you're vertues temple, not as shee,
157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.
160.00A.0HE Temple.
162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
184.00A.019 O Holy Ghost, whose temple I

TEMPLE'S.....1

156.00a.065 As when a Temple's built, Saints emulate

TEMPLES.....4

136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
137.00A.036 Of Temples frames, and beauty, 'as Rites within.

003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell

004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.

004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,

004.00A.054 Said, that I thought Calepines Dictionarie;

004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,

004.00A.075 Said I, The man that keepes the Abbey tombes,

004.00A.100 A subtile States-man may gather of that;

004.00A.113 Speakes of all States, and deeds, that hath been since

004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are

004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are

004.00A.125 As the last day; And that great officers,

004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound

004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found

004.00A.189 That there came weak ships fraught with Cutchannel,

004.00A.215 And whisperd by Jesu, so often, that A

004.00A.218 That they each other plague, they merit it.

004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,

004.00A.234 Charing Crosse for a barre, men that doe know

005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do

005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;

005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
 005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
 005.00A.088 O wretch that thy fortunes should moralize
 006.00D.005 That in-land Sea, having discovered well,
 006.00D.010 That none can study it to any end.
 006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.
 006.00D.048 That they all kinde of matter comprehend.
 008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
 008.00B.002 For Armelets of that thou maist let me weare:
 008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,
 008.00B.004 For so it had that good, which oft I mist:
 008.00B.005 Nor for that silly old moralitie,
 008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:
 008.00B.007 Mourn I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;
 008.00B.022 When in that hell they'are burnt and tyed in chains:
 008.00B.030 That are become as Catholique as their King,
 008.00B.032 That (more than Canon shot) availes or lets;
 008.00B.035 Of some great Conjuror that would enforce
 008.00B.043 Or were it such gold as that wherewithall
 008.00B.055 And be content that some lowd squeaking Cryer
 008.00B.060 That with phantastique scenes fills full much paper;
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.067 Receive from him that doome ungrudgingly,
 008.00B.087 One that would suffer hunger, nakednesse,
 008.00B.092 So, that I almost pittie thy estate:
 008.00B.105 May all the evils that gold ever wrought;
 008.00B.106 All mischief that all devils ever thought;
 009.00A.002 As that which from chaf'd muskats pores doth trill,
 009.00A.017 Or that whereof God had such jealousy,
 009.00A.027 And like that slender stalke, at whose end stands
 009.00A.041 Into clay moulds, or like to that Aetna
 010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
 010.00A.004 By all the men, that have beene rob'd that yeare,
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.032 That oft names God in oathes, and onely than,
 010.00A.033 He that to barre the first gate, doth as wide
 010.00A.040 That, which betray'd mee to myemie:
 010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
 010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 010.00A.064 There, things that seeme, exceed substantiall.
 010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.
 011.00A.016 That in suspecting kindly warneth us.

012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
 012.00A.036 Carelesse despaire in mee, for that will whet
 012.00A.045 Am the Recusant, in that resolute state,
 013.00A.002 And in that sophistrie, Oh, thou dost prove
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 013.00A.018 One answer in thee, and that ill arraid
 013.00A.021 That from the worlds Common having sever'd thee,
 014.NY3.007 Only we know, that which all Ideots say
 014.NY3.019 And I should be in that hott parching clime
 014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.
 014.NY3.023 Or in a Cloyster; save that ther men dwell
 014.NY3.033 Other men war that they ther rest may gayne
 014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.
 015.00G.005 Off with that girdle, like heavens Zone glittering,
 015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,
 015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.
 015.00G.009 Unlace your self, for that harmonious chyme,
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 015.00G.011 Off with that happy busk, which I envie,
 015.00G.012 That still can be, and still can stand so nigh.
 015.00G.015 Off with that wyerie Coronet and shew
 015.00G.037 That when a fools eye lighteth on a Jem,
 015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:
 015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;
 016.00A.003 Yea though thou fall backe, that apostasie
 016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,
 017.00A.010 Meet in one, that one must, as perfect, please.
 017.00A.042 That durty foulnesse guards, and armes the towne:
 018.00B.003 By our long starving hopes, by that remorse
 018.00B.026 That absent Lovers one in th'other be.
 019.00A.015 Or doe they reach his judging minde, that hee
 019.00A.017 That which in him was faire and delicate,
 019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tasts seemes tough.
 020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes
 020.00G.007 Were not a Calf a monster that were grown
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strayes thus:
 020.00G.040 How much they erre; that set out at the face?
 020.00G.065 And Sailing towards her %1India%2, in that way
 020.00G.074 Some Symetry the foot hath with that part
 020.00G.075 Which thou dost seek, and is thy Map for that
 020.00G.079 It is the Emblem that hath figured
 020.00G.080 Firmness; 'tis the the first part that comes to bed.
 020.00G.085 If Kings think that the nearer way, and do
 020.00G.088 Birds, whom the air resists, so may that man
 020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
 020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:

021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 021.00G.006 And that great Hell to boot are shadows to it.
 021.00G.013 Oh Love, that fire and darkness should be mixt,
 021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee
 021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?
 021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
 021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
 021.00G.039 Was't not enough, that thou didst hazard us
 021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,
 021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,
 021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 021.00G.093 That I may grow enamoured on your mind,
 021.00G.102 That, oft suspected which men most perswade;
 022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 022.00A.018 That seal'd the rest) should now prove empty blisses?
 022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames
 022.00A.033 But O that treacherous breast to whom weake you
 022.00A.036 That made me %1cast%2 you guilty, and you me,
 022.00A.039 Curst may hee be, that so our love hath slaine,
 022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,
 022.00A.056 And in that pleasure lengthen the short dayes
 022.00A.057 Of my lifes lease; like Painters that do take
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 024.00A.001 VWhere is that holy fire, which %1Verse%2 is said
 024.00A.002 To have, is that inchanting force decai'd?
 024.00A.003 %1Verse%2 that drawes %1Natures%2 workes, from %1Natures%2 law,
 024.00A.006 Why quench'd they not as well, that of %1desire%2?
 024.00A.010 But that is waxe, and fires environ it.
 024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
 024.00A.028 That I am such; but %1Griefe%2 discolors me.
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,
 024.00A.044 All, all that %1Nature%2 yields, or %1Art%2 can adde.
 024.00A.052 That touching my selfe, all seemes done to thee.
 025.00A.006 That they be
 025.00A.018 That I may know, and see thy lyes,
 025.00A.023 That will none,
 026.00A.011 That I can be endamag'd by that art;
 026.00A.011 That I can be endamag'd by that art;
 026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
 027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
 027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
 027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
 028.00A.002 And that thou thinkst thee free
 028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,
 029.00A.002 That he hath beene in love an houre,
 029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,

029.00A.004 But that it can tenne in lesse space devour;
029.00A.006 That I have had the plague a yeare?
030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,
030.00B.012 That love hath not attain'd the high'st degree,
031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,
031.00A.032 And growes erect, as that comes home.
032.00A.021 Love so alike, that none doe slacken, none can die.
033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,
034.00A.004 Or say that now
034.00A.006 Or, that oathes made in reverentiall feare
036.00A.007 Goe tell Court-huntsmen, that the King will ride,
036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
036.00A.026 In that the world's contracted thus.
037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?
037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet
038.00A.012 The maid, and tell the Lady of that delay;
038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.
038.00A.024 One that loves mee.
039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
039.00A.043 That they did all to you epitomize,
040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
040.00A.011 For, he tames it, that fetters it in verse.
041.00A.010 That some to mee, some should to others fall,
041.00A.024 Hee that hath all can have no more,
041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
042.00A.005 But since that I
042.00A.014 But beleeve that I shall make
042.00A.018 That if good fortune fall,
042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,
042.00A.037 But thinke that wee
043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
044.00A.013 O wrangling schooles, that search what fire
044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?
045.00A.013 That it assume thy body, I allow,
046.00A.009 This were the worst, that it could say,
046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
046.00A.011 And that I lov'd my heart and honor so,
046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast
047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;

047.00A.011 Not that I shall be mine owne officer,
 047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
 049.00A.003 Which, ever since that charme, hath beene
 049.00A.004 As hard, as that which grav'd it, was,
 049.00A.007 'Tis much that Glasse should bee
 049.00A.009 'Tis more, that it shewes thee to thee,
 049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
 049.00A.056 To an overt act, and that thou write againe;
 049.00A.065 Impute this idle talke, to that I goe,
 050.00A.009 That was her torrid and inflaming time,
 051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
 051.00A.010 'Twere wholsomer for mee, that winter did
 051.00A.012 And that a grave frost did forbid
 051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace
 051.00A.022 For all are false, that tast not just like mine;
 052.00A.017 That sees, how Love this grace to us affords,
 052.00A.056 As he removes farre off, that great heights takes;
 053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
 053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,
 053.00A.020 He that but tasts, he that devours,
 053.00A.021 And he that leaves all, doth as well,
 055.00A.014 Except that hee %1Loves%2 minion were.
 055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
 055.00A.018 Is love, or, that love childish is.
 055.00A.019 Let me not know that others know
 055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
 055.00A.020 That she knowes my paines, least that so
 057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
 057.00A.022 But rising make me doubt, that now,
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.
 058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
 058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay
 058.00A.013 And quickly make that, which was nothing, %1All%2,
 058.00A.016 A globe, yea world by that impression grow,
 059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
 059.00A.005 I should not finde that hidden mysterie;
 059.00A.015 Ends love in this, that my man,
 059.00A.018 That loving wretch that sweares,
 059.00A.018 That loving wretch that sweares,
 059.00A.021 Would sweare as justly, that he heares,
 059.00A.022 In that dayes rude hoarse minstralsey, the spheares.
 060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
 060.00A.005 Thou know'st that this cannot be said
 060.00A.017 Let not to that, selfe murder added bee,
 060.00A.022 Except in that drop which it suckt from thee?
 060.00A.023 Yet thou triumph'st, and saist that thou

061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;
061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
061.00A.013 Anguish'd, not that 'twas sinne, but that 'twas shee:
061.00A.017 May he dreame Treason, and beleeve, that hee
061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
061.00A.031 Fall on that man; For if it be a shee
062.00A.022 That he soules language understood,
062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
062.00A.043 That abler soule, which thence doth flow,
062.00A.058 But that it first imprints the ayre,
062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:
062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
063.00A.004 Which is, to keepe that hid.
063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
063.00A.028 Which is, to keepe that hid.
064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
064.00a.006 And that vice-nature, custome, lets it be;
064.00a.007 I must love her, that loves not mee.
064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?
064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
065.00A.003 But that I did, to make it lesse,
065.00A.006 That which love worst endures, %1discretion%2.
065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see
065.00A.014 With scorne or shame, that him it nourish'd not;
065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,
065.00A.021 And that that favour made him fat,
066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
066.00A.026 Love her that holds my love disparity,
066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.
066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;
067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
067.00A.014 Can better do'it; Except she meant that I
067.00A.022 To afford to it all that a Soule can doe,
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
068.00A.007 That it will freeze anon, and that I shall
068.00A.007 That it will freeze anon, and that I shall
068.00A.010 That labours yet to nestle thee,
068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,
068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,
068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,
069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,
070.00A.003 (For graves have learn'd that woman-head

070.00A.005 And he that digs it, spies
 070.00A.008 And thinke that there a loving couple lies,
 070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
 070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring
 070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
 071.00A.024 In that you'have odds enough of any man.
 072.00A.015 But that my fire doth with my fuell grow.
 072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
 074.00A.010 If that be simply perfectest
 074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 076.00A.008 Or in a thousand more, forgot that too.
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 077.00A.004 That any loves but hee:
 077.00A.010 Hee that saith twice, doth lye:
 078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,
 078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;
 078.00D.004 That in my passions I may hope the best.
 078.00D.008 Of our affection, that as that's round and plaine,
 078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
 079.00B.019 And that so lamely, as it leaves behinde
 079.00B.028 Because that other curse of being short,
 080.00E.001 He that cannot chuse but love,
 080.00E.009 Nor he that loves none but faire,
 080.00E.011 Nor he that can for foul ones care,
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 080.00E.017 Nor he that still his Mistresse prays,
 080.00E.019 Nor he that payes, not, for he sayes
 080.00E.023 I will vent that humour then
 081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
 081.HH5.022 that taught the first loves language t'vnderstand
 081.HH5.030 As Angells are how often to that end
 081.HH5.039 That thou from changinge still mayst neuer pause
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 081.HH5.053 but looke that I have all for deare let me
 082.00A.011 At the next world, that is, at the next Spring:
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 085.00A.002 So dry, that I am now mine owne sad tombe.
 087.00A.004 That had a towne for tombe, his bones to hide.
 089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though'it be true.

091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still begin a new.
092.NY3.004 In that late lland; for he well did know
097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
099.00A.002 In bawdie house, that hee dares not goe home.
106.00A.007 Put forth, put forth that warme balme-breathing thigh,
106.00A.054 But that the Sun still in our halfe Spheare sweates;
106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
107.00A.007 The Sparrow that neglects his life for love,
107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
107.00A.038 That a Great Princess falls, but doth not die;
107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
107.00A.054 And that you'are one, by hearts and hands made fast,
107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
107.00A.090 So just and rich in that coyne which they pay,
107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,
107.00A.110 That opens first a curtaine, hers or his;
108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,
108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare
108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;
108.00A.070 That Angels, though on earth employd they bee,
108.00A.072 That doth, abroad, to honest actions come.
108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall
108.00A.089 Hee is admitted now into that brest
108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
108.00A.158 Still in that Picture thou intirely art,
108.00A.164 But that vaile being gone,
108.00A.175 That, new great heights to trie,
108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe
108.00A.204 As he that sees a starre fall, runs apace,
108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
108.00A.230 His only that presents it, but of all,
109.00A.010 Sad that her sonnes did seeke a forraine grave
109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw
109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say

109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.
110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,
110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
110.00A.022 But meteorlike, save that wee move not, hover.
110.00A.027 Who live, that miracle do multiply
110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath
110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well
111.00A.003 That vice doth here habitually dwell.
111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
112.00A.006 To'a botle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.
112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,
113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be
114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
114.00A.017 Oh how I grieve, that late borne modesty
114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.
117.00A.011 That from unhappy mee, things happy'are sent;
117.00A.014 Merit of love bestow that love on mee.
118.NY3.002 Enquiring of that mistique trinitee
119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:
119.NY3.009 Of Poets, that methinks should ease our anguish,
119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
120.00A.008 And strong that love pursu'd with amorous paine;
120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.
122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire
125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart
125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
126.00A.017 Be far from me that strange Adulterie
126.00A.021 That I can take no new in Bigamy,
126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
127.00A.010 There sacrifice it to that beauteous Sun:
128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
128.LR1.004 In publique gaine my share is not such, that I
128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
129.00A.027 In that, our owne and onely businesse,
129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,

129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 130.00A.005 A Palace, when'tis that, which it should be,
 130.00A.025 To be a stranger hath that benefit,
 130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;
 130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
 131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime
 131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like %1Adams%2 time
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.009 Depriv'd of that free state which they were in,
 131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,
 131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part
 131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.
 131.00B.034 That it destroyes it selfe with its owne shade.
 131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdain.
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
 131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnesse that struck man dumbe,
 131.00B.051 That naturall fearefulnesse that struck man dumbe,
 131.00B.057 It is not love that sueth, or doth contend;
 131.00B.084 That youngest flatteries doe scandall it.
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.
 131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,
 131.00B.102 That gives to all, and yet hath infinite.
 131.00B.110 In that pure region of a worthy love:
 131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 131.00B.127 Love that imparts in every thing delight,
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
 133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye
 133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,
 133.00A.047 Reserv'd, and that shee grieves she's not her owne,
 133.00A.048 And chides the doctrine that denies Freewill.
 133.00A.051 But so much I doe love her choyce, that I
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,
 134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
 134.00A.032 That ever did in womans shape appeare.
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each brest
 135.B13.006 Doe by that influence all your thoughts digest.
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 135.B13.027 that keepes vntoucht her first virginite.
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,

136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we
136.00A.036 They fly not from that, nor seeke presidence.
137.00A.023 This shoves that you from nature lothly stray,
137.00A.024 That suffer not an artificiall day.
137.00A.031 Yet to that Deity which dwels in you,
137.00A.034 But that I may survay the edifice.
137.00A.040 With that which doth religion but invest,
137.00A.053 Purge but the booke of Fate, that it admit
137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
138.00A.006 In that, I seem'd to shunne beholdingnesse.
138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts
138.00A.064 That stonnes, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:
138.00A.066 That, pearle, or gold, or corne in man did grow.
139.00A.008 That cannot say, My thanks I have forgot,
139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be'his pleasure, is his rod,
140.00A.032 And is his devill, that might be his God.
140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
140.00A.045 As brave as true, is that profession than
140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
141.00A.061 Now that my prophesies are all fulfill'd,
141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.
142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament
142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you
142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,
142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
142.00A.063 He that beleeves himselfe, doth never lie.
143.00A.005 That thankfullnesse your favours have begot
143.00A.006 In mee, embalmes mee; that I doe not rot;
145.00A.005 That his disshevel'd beames and scattered fires
145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,

145.00A.038 Of others; call not that Idolatrie.
145.00A.041 He might have said the best that he could say
145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
145.00A.045 Hee might have said the best that he could say,
145.00A.048 As, that another is worthiest, and, that you:
145.00A.048 As, that another is worthiest, and, that you:
145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thanks, that they
145.00A.083 I shall by that, all goodnesse have discern'd,
146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
146.00A.010 If to a paradise that transplanted bee,
146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
147.00B.001 That I might make your Cabinet my tombe,
147.00B.004 Admit to that place this last funerall Scrowle.
147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now
148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
149.00A.036 For, none to death sinnes, that to sinne is loth.
149.00A.038 So hath she this, and that virginity.
149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
149.00A.046 That, extreme truth lack'd little of a lye,
149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
149.00A.054 To speake, that death his vaine hast may repent.
149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.
150.00A.004 That any can thy Summons disobey.
150.00A.016 Might sponge that element, and make it land.
150.00A.025 How could I thinke thee nothing, that see now
150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
150.00A.065 Or sinne, by tempting, or, not daring that,
150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
150.00A.073 Some teares, that knot of friends, her death must cost,
151.00A.004 Grieffe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.
151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;
151.00A.011 Was't, that she did possesse all hearts before,
151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
151.00A.015 Was't not enough to have that palace wonne,
151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,

151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 151.00A.040 Her, like that plant, him and his lawes above,
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
 151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
 151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,
 151.00A.059 That wraps that christall in a wooden Tombe,
 151.00A.059 That wraps that christall in a wooden Tombe,
 152.12a.004 And Reason is That Centre; Faith is This.
 152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;
 152.12a.019 For, All that Faith could credit Mankinde could,
 152.12a.020 Reason still seconded that This Prince would.
 152.12a.024 That Wee see not what to beleuee or knowe?
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that Hee,
 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that Hee would make
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 152.12a.039 For, to confirm this iust Belief, that Now
 152.12a.041 That but from His aspect and Exercise,
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 152.12a.059 And could Grief gett so high as Heav'n, that Quire
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee.
 152.12a.090 That Shee-Intelligence which mov'd This Sphear,
 152.12a.095 By all the Soules you sight; that if you see
 153.00A.006 Thou finde that any way is pervious,
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe
 153.00A.009 See, and with joy, mee to that good degree
 153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,
 153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,
 153.00A.026 As that Sunne rises to mee, midnight's noone,
 153.00A.048 That drop, which I looked on, is presently
 153.00A.052 Yet still remains that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.064 Of all the purest parts that can be nam'd,
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 153.00A.099 For, they all vertues paths in that pace tread,
 153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
 153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
 153.00A.172 The most repaire, that are in goodnesse rich.
 153.00A.177 At that gate then Triumphant soule, dost thou

153.00A.179 That at the Triumph day, the people may,
 153.00A.180 All that they will,'gainst the Triumpher say,
 153.00A.181 Let me here use that freedome, and expresse
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.188 That there thy counsailes might get victorie,
 153.00A.189 And so in that capacitie remove
 153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet
 153.00A.209 And to deliver up to God that state,
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
 153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have
 153.00A.234 At that authoritie, by which he got
 153.00A.238 That thou so earely wouldst abandon us;
 153.00A.240 With that great soveraigntie, whose absolute
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 153.00A.248 That testimonie of love, unto the dead,
 153.00A.256 That in thy grave I doe interre my Muse,
 154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
 154.00A.017 Blest %1order%2 that hath him, the losse of him
 154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 154.00A.034 Dy'd scarlet in the blood of that pure Lambe,
 154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 155.00a.011 This world, in that great earth-quake languished;
 155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.052 Or that our weakenes was discovered
 155.00a.053 In that confession; therefore spoke no more
 155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art
 155.00a.070 Her Ghost doth walke; that is, a glimmering light,
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.096 That children come not right, nor orderly,
 155.00a.105 For that first mariage was our funerall:
 155.00a.109 To that consumption; and profusely blinde,
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.123 So spacious and large, that euery soule
 155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
 155.00a.133 So short is life, that euery peasant striues,
 155.00a.139 A wager that an Elephant, or Whale
 155.00a.140 That met him, would not hastily assaile
 155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,

155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.178 That for Allay vnto so pure a minde
 155.00a.179 Shee tooke the weaker Sex, she that could driue
 155.00a.187 And that except thou feed (not banquet) on
 155.00a.202 That euening was beginning of the day,
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.217 To be a Phoenix, and that there can bee
 155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
 155.00a.220 She that should all parts to reunion bow,
 155.00a.221 She that had all Magnetique force alone,
 155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euery sort of men
 155.00a.227 Shee that was best, and first originall
 155.00a.233 And that rich Indie which doth gold interre,
 155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sicknesse doth not lie
 155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
 155.00a.257 As disproportion that pure forme. It teares
 155.00a.272 Steales by that point, and so is Serpentine:
 155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.296 (Which sure is spacious, except that we
 155.00a.297 Inuent another torment, that there must
 155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,
 155.00a.306 That beauties best, proportion, is dead,
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.313 That Harmony was shee, and thence infer,
 155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,
 155.00a.318 That th'Arke to mans proportions was made,
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.320 A type of her in this, that contrary
 155.00a.328 That here is nothing to enamor thee:
 155.00a.329 And that, not onely faults in inward parts,
 155.00a.332 Endanger vs: but that if euery thing
 155.00a.349 That she should sport herselfe sometimes, and play,
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 155.00a.378 Then that her influence the heau'n forbear,es,
 155.00a.379 Or that the Elements doe not feele this,
 155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
 155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
 155.00a.412 That vnto vs; she working more then it.
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 155.00a.419 So that some Princes haue some temperance;

155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 155.00a.430 That 'tis in vaine to dew, or mollifie
 155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 155.00a.459 That no one should her prayes thus reherse,
 155.00a.461 Vouchsafe to call to minde, that God did make
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 156.00a.038 That as a sundred Clocke is peece-meale laid,
 156.00a.045 May't not be said, that her graue shall restore
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you
 156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,
 156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.
 156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.
 156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thankes
 157.00b.002 That this world had an euerlastingnesse,
 157.00b.003 Then to consider, that a yeare is runne,
 157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,
 157.00b.045 Thirst for that time, O my insatiate soule,
 157.00b.056 By it, but as a worme, that carcas bred;
 157.00b.060 That carkasses last resurrectione.
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
 157.00b.075 Shee that first tried indifferent desires
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
 157.00b.084 He honors it too much that thinks it nought.
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.094 And thinke that but vnbinding of a packe,
 157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
 157.00b.100 But that, as Bels cal'd thee to Church before,
 157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amisse,
 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
 157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
 157.00b.122 Drowsie or slacke, remember then that shee,
 157.00b.124 That which of her Ingredients should inuade
 157.00b.131 And as, though all doe know, that quantities
 157.00b.140 That he to disuniting subiect were.
 157.00b.148 The purest Blood, and Breath, that ere it eat.

157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
157.00b.159 Thinke that it argued some infermitee,
157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
157.00b.169 Thinke that no stubborne sullen Anchorit,
157.00b.177 And that vsurped, or threatned with the rage
157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen
157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
157.00b.199 Hee that charm'd Argus eies, sweet Mercury,
157.00b.220 To'aduance these thoughts, remember then, that shee
157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
157.00b.243 Many degrees of that; we vnderstood
157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
157.00b.264 For many ages, that our body'is wrought
157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
157.00b.308 That aie the vertuous Actions they expresse,
157.00b.313 That shee hath, euer since to Heauen shee came,
157.00b.319 And cals vs after her, in that shee tooke,
157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
157.00b.333 That wits and tongues of Libellars are weake,
157.00b.342 loy in not being that, which men haue said.
157.00b.353 Vp to those Virgins, who thought that almost
157.00b.356 Vp, vp, for in that squadron there doth liue
157.00b.364 That beauty and chastity together kisse:
157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue
157.00b.382 That accidentall ioyes in Heauen doe grow.
157.00b.391 Poore couse'ned cose'nor, that she, and that thou,
157.00b.391 Poore couse'ned cose'nor, that she, and that thou,
157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow
157.00b.402 Because that God did liue so long aboue
157.00b.404 That he at last made Creatures to bestow
157.00b.405 Honor on him; not that he needed it,
157.00b.406 But that, to his hands, man might grow more fit.
157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honord) and that this
157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,
157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
157.00b.416 Thinke him a foole for hauing tane that course?
157.00b.418 Might haue considerd, that for that effect,
157.00b.418 Might haue considerd, that for that effect,
157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place
157.00b.429 And as by changing that whole precious Gold
157.00b.434 No loye enjoyes that man, that many makes.
157.00b.434 No loye enjoyes that man, that many makes.
157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch
157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,

157.00b.486 Onely by comming, that it can away.
157.00b.490 For that soule euer ioyes, and euer staies.
157.00b.491 Ioy that their last great Consummation
157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
157.00b.498 Shee, in whose goodnesse, he that names degree,
157.00b.517 Could any Saint prouoke that appetite,
157.00b.522 That gaued thee power to do, me to say this.
157.00b.523 Since his will is, that to posteritee,
157.00b.525 And that the world should notice haue of this,
158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
158.00A.023 That swimming Colledge, and free Hospitall
158.00A.024 Of all mankinde, that cage and vivarie
158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
158.00A.028 Did'st thou in that great stewardship embarke
158.00A.029 So diverse shapes into that floating parke,
158.00A.032 That hast mark'd out a path and period
158.00A.038 That (if my prayer be fit) I may 'understand
158.00A.047 And all that calls from this, and to others whets,
158.00A.049 Th'expense of braine and spirit; that my grave
158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieffe, where nailes did tye
158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
158.00A.079 For on that tree hung in security
158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
158.00A.084 Till the then climbing serpent, that now creeps
158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,
158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
158.00A.109 That Adam cropt, or knew the apple; yet
158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
158.00A.121 Just in that instant when the serpents gripe,
158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
158.00A.148 To show, that in loves businesse hee should still
158.00A.154 And as that ground by him were conquered
158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
158.00A.170 But hee's short liv'd, that with his death can doe most good.
158.00A.177 Confin'd, and enjayld her, that seem'd so free,
158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
158.00A.199 The next that calls; both liberty doe use;
158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is
158.00A.206 That selfe preserving it hath now forgot,
158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
158.00A.248 Made a new prey; For, he that can to none
158.00A.272 That she shows them in bigger quantities
158.00A.291 A sudden stiffe land-winde in that selfe houre

158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour
 158.00A.296 That leagues o'er-past at sea, now tir'd hee lyes,
 158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
 158.00A.304 From Greece, Morea were, and that by some
 158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-proofe,
 158.00A.326 That passeth neare. Fish chaseth fish, and all,
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
 158.00A.347 The plot of all, that the plotters were two,
 158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,
 158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?
 158.00A.365 That they revenge, and obsequies forget,
 158.00A.368 Love in that act. Some kings by vice being growne
 158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own
 158.00A.373 That so small hammers should so soone downe beat
 158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 158.00A.397 To kill, not scape, for, only hee that ment
 158.00A.405 (Who in that trade of Church, and kingdomes, there
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 158.00A.410 That the wolfe, (hopelesse else) to corrupt her, intends.
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 158.00A.429 That a quicke soule should give life to that masse
 158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betrayd
 158.00A.452 Gamesome it was, that it might freely goe
 158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,
 158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.
 158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
 158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave
 158.00A.464 First that could make love faces, or could doe
 158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
 158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,
 158.00A.483 Succeeds an itchie warmth, that melts her quite,
 158.00A.496 A spungie liver, that did richly allow,
 158.00A.510 Sister and wife to %1Caine%2, %1Caine%2 that first did plow.
 158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,
 158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,
 158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
 158.00A.016 Antiquitie, besides that I make account that I pay it to posterity,
 158.00A.016 Antiquitie, besides that I make account that I pay it to posterity,
 158.00A.018 and to thanke not him onely that hath digg'd out treasure for mee, but
 158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
 158.00A.021 teach) is, that the Pithagorian doctrine doth not onely carry
 158.00A.033 shee was that aples which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,

160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,
 160.00A.040 That would have need to be pittied by thee?
 160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
 160.00A.074 Freed by that drop, from being starv'd, hard, or foule,
 160.00A.079 Flesh in that long sleep is not putrified,
 160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
 160.00A.083 That wak't from both, I againe risen may
 160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,
 161.00A.013 You are that Alchymist which alwaies had
 162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt not chuse me.
 163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;
 163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 164.00A.007 But my'ever-waking part shall see that face,
 164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
 166.00A.001 If poysonous mineralls, and if that tree,
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
 166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,
 168.00A.013 God cloth'd himselfe in vile mans flesh, that so
 170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
 171.00A.003 That I may rise, and stand, o'erthrow mee,'and bend
 171.00A.011 Divorce mee,'untie, or breake that knot againe,
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,
 172.00A.014 But, that God should be made like man, much more.
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 174.00B.012 That not one houre my selfe I can sustaine,
 175.00B.005 You which beyond that heave%T which was most high
 175.00B.007 Powre new seas in mine eyes, that so I might
 176.00B.003 That I might in this holy discontent
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,
 177.00B.004 That valiantly I hels wide mouth o'rstride:
 177.00B.006 By circumstances, and by signes that be
 180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not
 180.NY3.013 Like a fantastique Ague: Save that here
 181.00A.006 That it should beare the sinne of scorning it?
 181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 181.00A.049 But most the eye needs crossing, that can rome,
 181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone
 181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
 182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell
 182.00A.007 And made the darke fires languish in that vale,
 182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow
 182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discerne and see
 183.00A.004 That of them both a circle embleme is,
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:

184.00A.008 All vicious tinctures, that new fashioned
 184.00A.037 For that faire blessed Mother-maid,
 184.00A.038 Whose flesh redeem'd us; That she-Cherubin,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.053 So let mee study, that mine actions bee
 184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee
 184.00A.066 That harmony, which made of two
 184.00A.071 That I by them excuse not my excesse
 184.00A.078 That their bookes are divine;
 184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.105 That or thy Church, or I,
 184.00A.114 That what they have misdome
 184.00A.115 Or mis-said, wee to that may not adhere,
 184.00A.119 That Church in triumph, this in warfare here,
 184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
 184.00A.129 From thinking, that great courts immure
 184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth
 184.00A.132 Or that thou art covetous
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,
 184.00A.163 And though that bitter agonie,
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
 184.00A.208 That wee may change to evennesse
 184.00A.210 That snatching cramps of wickednesse
 184.00A.212 That musique of thy promises,
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.217 That our eares sicknesse wee may cure,
 184.00A.219 That wee by harkning, not procure
 184.00A.221 That wee get not a slipperinesse,
 184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
 184.00A.226 That living law, the Magistrate,
 184.00A.229 That Preachers taxing sinne, before her growth,
 184.00A.230 That Satan, and invenom'd men
 184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
 184.00A.235 That learning, thine Ambassador,
 184.00A.237 That beauty, paradises flower
 184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
 185.00A.002 The intelligence that moves, devotion is,
 185.00A.009 Hence is't, that I am carryed towards the West
 185.00A.012 And by that setting endlesse day beget;
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.

185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is 185.00A.025 Humbled below us? or that blood which is
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 185.00A.032 Halfe of that Sacrifice, which ransom'd us?
 185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.049 13 That fire, which by himselfe is governed
 187.00A.067 That %1Iacobs%2 foes girt him. %1Ierusalem%2
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
 187.00A.132 That sucking children in the streets doe die.
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.153 17 The Lord hath done that which he purposed,
 187.00A.214 And to the Soule that seeks him earnestly.
 187.00A.226 33 Nor is it with his heart, that he doth smite,
 187.00A.227 34 That underfoot the prisoners stamped bee,
 187.00A.228 35 That a mans right the Judge himselfe doth see
 187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?
 187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 187.00A.311 That any adversary, any foe
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 189.00B.026 Why doth the foolish world scorne that profession,
 189.00B.028 That Gentry should joyne families with it?
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;
 190.00A.003 What sea soever swallow mee, that flood
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 190.00A.026 Churches are best for Prayer, that have least light:
 191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon
 191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe
 191.00B.013 That worke againe, and shed it, here, upon
 191.00B.017 Two that make one %1Iohn%2 %1Baptists%2 holy voyce,
 191.00B.018 And who that Psalme, %1Now%2 %1let%2 %1the%2 %1Iles%2 %1rejoyce%2,
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 191.00B.037 When I behold that these Psalmes are become
 191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill
 191.00B.052 (Learn'd the first hower, that we see the King,
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 192.00B.001 Since I am comming to that Holy roome,
 192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne
 192.00B.009 That this is my South-west discoverie
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;

192.00B.021 We thinke that %1Paradise%2 and %1Calvarie%2,
 192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne
 193.00A.017 And, having done that, Thou haste done,

THAT'.....1

123.NY3.003 That litle of earth that' is in it, is a faire

THAT'S.....24

009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.
 036.00A.028 To warme the world, that's done in warming us.
 043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
 046.00A.014 Oh, that's the worst disease of love,
 050.00A.003 Yong Beauties force our love, and that's a Rape ,
 050.00A.007 Were her first yeares the Golden Age ; That's true,
 078.00D.008 Of our affection, that as that's round and plaine,
 082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
 082.00A.022 Of all, that's nothing. Oft a flood
 131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
 133.00A.007 That's much, emboldens, pulls, thrusts I confesse,
 134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
 138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
 139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule
 141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 142.00A.021 'Tis but his flegme that's Vertuous , and not Hee:
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 155.00a.042 Offers to tell vs who it is that's gone.
 155.00a.250 Beauty, that's colour, and proportion.
 155.00a.435 But as in cutting vp a man that's dead,
 157.00b.065 Looke vpward; that's towards her, whose happy state
 162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?
 165.00A.013 Teach mee how to repent; for that's as good

THATS.....1

145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.

THAW.....5

003.00A.021 Hast thou couragious fire to thaw the ice
 049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,
 108.00A.111 The passage of the West or East would thaw ,
 155.00a.047 So mankind feeling now a generall thaw ,

157.00b.018 Are but as Ice, which crackles at a thaw:

THAY.....1

157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay

THEE.....321

001.00A.012 And follow headlong, wild uncertaine thee?

001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee

001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?

003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare

003.00A.018 Thee in ships woodden Sepulchers, a prey

003.00A.030 To thy foes and his (who made thee to stand

003.00A.035 Thee faine, his whole Realme to be quit; and as

003.00A.095 At the last day? Will it then boot thee

003.00A.097 A Harry, or a Martin taught thee this?

004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee

005.00A.047 Thee, if they sucke thee in, to misery,

005.00A.047 Thee, if they sucke thee in, to misery,

005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest

005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?

006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,

006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit

006.00D.065 Nor shall wit-pirats hope to finde thee lye

008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:

008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee

008.00B.103 Lust-bred diseases rot thee; and dwell with thee

008.00B.109 Afflict thee, and at thy lives last moment,

008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.

008.00B.111 But, I forgive; repent thee honest man:

010.00A.011 Hope of his goods, if I with thee were seene,

010.00A.020 And fearing least thou'art swolne, doth thee embrace;

010.00A.023 And politiquely will to thee confesse

010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.

010.00A.059 By thee the seely Amorous sucks his death

010.00A.061 By thee, the greatest staine to mans estate

012.00A.013 Into my Purgatory, faithlesse thee,

012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee, 'and spie

013.00A.001 Natures lay Ideot, I taught thee to love,

013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet

013.00A.018 One answer in thee, and that ill arraid

013.00A.021 That from the worlds Common having sever'd thee,

013.00A.022 Inlaid thee, neither to be seene, nor see,
 013.00A.026 I planted knowledge and lifes tree in thee,
 014.NY3.001 Till I haue peace with thee, warr other Men;
 014.NY3.002 And when I haue peace, can I leaue thee then?
 014.NY3.031 Thy armes imprison me, and myne armes thee,
 015.00G.020 Reveal'd to men: thou Angel bringst with thee
 015.00G.030 How am I blest in thus discovering thee?
 015.00G.033 Full nakedness! All joyes are due to thee,
 015.00G.047 To teach thee I am naked first, why than
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!
 017.00A.043 So doth her face guard her; and so, for thee,
 018.00B.005 Begot in thee, and by the memory
 018.00B.009 I conjure thee, and all the oathes which I
 018.00B.016 Thee, onely worthy to nurse in my minde,
 018.00B.018 My soule from other lands to thee shall soare,
 018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!
 018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page
 018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,
 018.00B.042 Nor spungy hydroptique Dutch shall thee displease,
 018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee
 018.00B.046 Our greatest King call thee to his presence.
 019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,
 021.00G.007 Should Cynthia quit thee Venus, and each starre,
 021.00G.081 The Winter I'll not think on to spite thee,
 022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;
 024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 024.00A.016 As, gods, when gods to thee I doe compare,
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they'are like to thee.
 024.00A.020 A little world, What shall we call thee than?
 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
 024.00A.052 That touching my selfe, all seemes done to thee.
 024.00A.055 Me, in my glasse, I call thee; But alas,
 024.00A.063 And so be change, and sicknesse, farre from thee,
 025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
 025.00A.007 Made by thee
 027.00A.011 Will amorously to thee swimme,
 027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
 027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
 027.00A.025 For thee, thou needst no such deceit,
 028.00A.002 And that thou thinkst thee free
 028.00A.005 And thee fain'd vestall in worse armes shall see;
 028.00A.010 And in false sleepe will from thee shrinke,
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
 029.00A.021 If it had gone to thee, I know

030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee
030.00B.021 And I to thee mine actions shall disguise.
032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.
033.00A.013 Till age snow white haire on thee,
033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,
038.00A.003 Usurious God of Love, twenty to thee,
038.00A.018 Inflam'd by thee,
038.00A.022 And fruit of love, Love I submit to thee,
041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,
041.00A.011 Deare, I shall never have Thee All.
041.00A.019 For, this love was not vowed by thee,
042.00A.002 For wearinesse of thee,
043.00A.002 As often as from thee I goe,
044.00A.003 That thee I shall not celebrate,
044.00A.022 Whose matter in thee is soone spent.
044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,
044.00A.025 Yet t'was of my minde, seising thee,
044.00A.026 Though it in thee cannot persever.
044.00A.028 Of thee one houre, then all else ever.
045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,
046.00A.013 Must businesse thee from hence remove?
047.00A.002 At least remember, I forbade it thee;
047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
049.00A.009 'Tis more, that it shewes thee to thee,
049.00A.009 'Tis more, that it shewes thee to thee,
049.00A.010 And cleare reflects thee to thine eye.
049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,
052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,
054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,
055.00A.010 I do not sue from thee to draw
055.00A.013 In thee and thine; none should forswear
057.00A.001 Deare love, for nothing lesse then thee
057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
057.00A.013 Yet I thought thee
057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.
057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.
057.00A.021 Comming and staying show'd thee, thee,
057.00A.021 Comming and staying show'd thee, thee,
058.00A.006 Pregnant of thee,
058.00A.015 Which thee doth weare,
058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
060.00A.003 It suck'd me first, and now sucks thee,
060.00A.022 Except in that drop which it suckt from thee?
060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;

066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 068.00A.008 To morrow finde thee falne, or not at all.
 068.00A.010 That labours yet to nestle thee,
 068.00A.030 Know thee for one?
 068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 078.00D.014 And most desired, 'cause 'tis like thee best;
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 081.HH5.002 betrothd nor by my sighes breathd into thee
 081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, Phryne, is like thee,
 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;
 106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
 106.00A.076 Thee of these chaines and robes which were put on
 106.00A.077 T'adorne the day, not thee; for thou, alone,
 106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
 107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,
 107.00A.070 A night, as well as day, to thee, O Valentine?
 107.00A.072 Formalities retarding thee.
 108.00A.003 Thee, in this yeares cold and decrepit time?
 108.00A.011 Thy madnesse from thee; and all springs by frost
 108.00A.129 Let me here contemplate thee,
 108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,
 109.00A.033 Jonas, I pittie thee, and curse those men,
 109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
 109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.
 114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
 114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
 114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:
 114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:
 114.00A.024 A Poem in thy praise, and writ by thee.
 115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 116.00A.011 And praise thee for'it, and zealously imbrace
 118.NY3.001 Zealously my Muse doth salute all thee.
 120.00A.001 Thy friend, whom thy deserts to thee enchaine,
 120.00A.003 Thee and the Saint of his affection
 122.00A.007 It is my deed of gift of mee to thee,
 122.00A.010 Bred in thee by a wise melancholy,

122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 123.NY3.008 In skorne of all: for now I admyre thee.
 126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,
 126.00A.018 To tempt thee and procure her widdowhood,
 126.00A.028 Except confirm'd and Bishoped by thee.
 127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,
 127.00A.016 A greene, and when thee list a golden haire;
 133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this
 133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?
 133.00A.034 Perchance her Cabinet may harbour thee,
 133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 147.00B.022 By making me being dead, doe good for thee,
 150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.
 150.00A.025 How could I thinke thee nothing, that see now
 150.00A.028 Wastfull consumptions, and degrees of thee.
 150.00A.034 Reserve but few, and leaves the most to thee.
 151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,
 151.00A.018 All had ador'd thee that now from thee flies,
 151.00A.021 She was too Saphirine, and cleare to thee;
 152.12a.093 I coniure Thee by all the Charmes Hee spoke,
 153.00A.010 Of goodnesse growne, that I can studie thee,
 153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;
 153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,
 153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?
 153.00A.151 And daily hadst from him, who gave it thee,
 153.00A.164 Death, else a desert, growne a Court by thee.
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,
 153.00A.208 Thy selfe, from those straits nature put thee in,
 153.00A.210 Of which he gave thee the vicariate,
 153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?
 153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,
 153.00A.241 Prerogative hath thus dispens'd with thee,
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 154.00A.039 And seest such sinners as they are, with thee
 155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than
 155.00a.036 Had not her comming, thee her Palace made:
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 155.00a.037 Her name defin'd thee, gaue thee forme and frame,
 155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,
 155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
 155.00a.328 That here is nothing to enamor thee:
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 157.00b.032 To bee hereafter prais'd, for praying thee,

157.00b.049 Forget this rotten world; And vnto thee,
157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
157.00b.100 But that, as Bels cal'd thee to Church before,
157.00b.101 So this, to the Triumphant Church, cals thee.
157.00b.102 Thinke Satans Sergeants round about thee bee,
157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence
157.00b.114 They reinuest thee in white innocence.
157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
157.00b.120 Laies thee to sleepe but a saint Lucies night.
157.00b.161 Thou fedst vpon, And drewst into thee, both
157.00b.167 Infect thee with originall sinne, and thou
157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
157.00b.323 To earthly thoughts, till it to thee appeare,
157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subiects to call thee
157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,
157.00b.481 The bag may rise vp, and so strangle thee.
157.00b.522 That gaue thee power to do, me to say this.
158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
158.00A.019 That before thee, one day beganne to bee,
158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
160.00A.033 But Oh, for thee, for him, hath th'Inne no roome?
160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,
160.00A.040 That would have need to be pittied by thee?
160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,
162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
162.00A.003 By thee, and for thee, and when I was decay'd
162.00A.003 By thee, and for thee, and when I was decay'd
163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
167.00A.007 And soonest our best men with thee doe goe,
170.00A.004 Whether his countenance can thee affright,
170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
170.00A.012 A signe of rigour: so I say to thee,
172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
172.00A.007 Hath deign'd to chuse thee by adoption,
174.00B.009 Onely thou art above, and when towards thee
175.00B.014 Of thee and thy house, which doth in eating heale.
178.NY3.006 To seeke thee God; so streames do shew the head,
178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.
179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then

181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,
 182.00A.004 A better Sun rose before thee to day,
 184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
 184.00A.049 Where we shall be but denizen'd by thee,
 184.00A.091 Therefore with thee triumpheth there
 184.00A.102 Their bodies backe againe to thee,
 184.00A.104 Though they have not obtain'd of thee,
 184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,
 184.00A.137 From owing thee yesterdaies teares to day,
 184.00A.140 From bribing thee with Almes, to excuse
 184.00A.165 Disputing what distorted thee,
 184.00A.182 Wee arme against thee, and they fight for sinne,
 184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
 184.00A.233 Us, to amendment, heare them; thee decline;
 184.00A.249 Which could not stick to thee,
 185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive
 185.00A.038 Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave.
 187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,
 187.00A.138 A witnesse, or comparison for thee?
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,
 187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee
 187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
 187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
 187.00A.156 Made glad above thee, and advanc'd him so.
 187.00A.159 Downe like a river, day and night; take thee
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.
 187.00A.237 42 Wee have rebell'd, and falne away from thee,
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere
 187.00A.342 Thou which inhabitst her, for unto thee
 187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.
 187.00A.348 And for them, pay thee with captivitie.
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.
 189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now
 189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind
 189.00B.007 New thoughts and stirrings in thee? and as Steele
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,
 189.00B.054 And make thee now a blest Hermaphrodite.
 190.00A.008 I sacrifice this lland unto thee,
 190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.

190.00A.025 On Fame, Wit, Hopes (false mistresses) to thee.

191.00B.004 Thee, who art cornerlesse and infinite)

191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;

191.00B.015 A Brother and a Sister, made by thee

THEE'.....1

028.00A.015 Lest that preserve thee'; and since my love is spent,

THEE'AND.....1

113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.

THEE'INTO.....1

013.00A.024 Refin'd thee'into a blis-full paradise.

THEEVES.....2

008.00B.062 And with whores, theeves, and murderers stuff his rents

024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.

THEIR.....260

002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

002.00A.018 Bring not now their old feares, nor their old harmes.

002.00A.080 Satan will not joy at their sinnes, as hee.

003.00A.061 Take such wives as their Guardians offer, or

003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given

004.00A.078 From King to King and all their kin can walke:

004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.

004.00B.135 By giving others their soares, I might grow

004.00A.174 Some of the stocks are, their fruits, bastard all.

004.00A.180 As fresh, and sweet their Apparrells be, as bee

004.00A.187 Shall finde their wardrops Inventory; Now,

004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.

005.00A.026 Adulterate lawe, and you prepare their way

005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more

006.00D.052 Scattered in divers Lands their limbs and blood.

006.00D.064 So much, at once their hunger to asswage:

008.00B.012 From the first state of their Creation;

008.00B.020 And punisht for offences not their owne?

008.00B.024 For, most of these, their Countreys naturall rot

008.00B.028 Their Crownes are circumcis'd most lewishly;

008.00B.030 That are become as Catholique as their King,

008.00B.076 For, forme gives being: and their forme is gone:

008.00B.077 Pitty these Angels yet; their dignities

010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbear,

011.00A.028 Their Prince, or coyne his gold, themselves exile
 012.00A.006 Their Princes stiles, which many Realmes fulfill
 015.00G.042 (Whom their imputed grace will dignifie)
 016.00A.015 They're our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 020.00G.031 Men to such Gods, their sacrificing Coles
 020.00G.092 Two purses, and their mouths aversely laid:
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 022.00A.011 And blowne away with winde? Or doth their breath
 024.00A.008 But I, their maker; want their libertie.
 024.00A.008 But I, their maker; want their libertie.
 024.00A.027 Here lovers sweare in their Idolatrie,
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,
 024.00A.060 And their white, whitenesse of the Galaxy,
 027.00A.016 I need not their light, having thee.
 027.00A.018 And cut their legges, which shells and weeds,
 031.00A.002 And whisper to their soules, to goe,
 031.00A.003 Whilst some of their sad friends doe say,
 035.00A.004 As Kings do coyne, to which their stamps impart
 040.00A.020 For both their triumphs so are published,
 041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,
 047.00A.018 So, these extreames shall ne'r their office doe;
 048.00A.001 All Kings, and all their favorites,
 048.00A.006 All other things, to their destruction draw,
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
 049.00A.038 When love and grieffe their exaltation had,
 050.00A.042 To vexe their soules at Resurrection;
 052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 052.00A.045 Chimeraes, vaine as they, or their prerogative.
 052.00A.047 May of their occupation finde the grounds,
 052.00A.048 Love and their art alike it deadly wounds,
 052.00A.061 At their brightest, but to conclude
 054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,
 055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;
 056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?
 056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?
 059.00A.023 Hope not for minde in women; at their best,
 061.00A.026 What Tyrans, and their subjects interwish,
 062.00A.015 Our soules, (which to advance their state,
 062.00A.055 Yeelded their senses force to us,
 063.00A.016 Loves but their oldest clothes.
 069.00A.005 And where their forme, and their infinitie
 069.00A.005 And where their forme, and their infinitie
 069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all

070.00A.010 To make their soules, at the last busie day,
 071.00A.006 Will through all their senses move,
 072.00A.002 To their first Elements resolve;
 074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
 077.00A.019 Here dead men speake their last, and so do I;
 079.00B.004 Worship, as Atheists at their dying houre
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 081.HH5.010 free soveraignty doe guild their words & deeds
 081.HH5.019 melts with their flames as I consume & burne
 082.00A.009 Compar'd with mee, who am their Epitaph.
 086.00A.004 Neere the foes ships, did by their shot decay;
 106.00A.041 Long time expect their bodies and their tombe,
 106.00A.041 Long time expect their bodies and their tombe,
 106.00A.042 Long after their owne parents fatten thee;
 106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;
 106.00A.069 But in their beds commenced
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take
 107.00A.037 And by their blazing, signifie,
 107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
 107.00A.093 They quickly pay their debt, and then
 108.00A.006 In numerous fleets, saile through their Sea, the aire.
 108.00A.012 Have taken cold, and their sweet murmures lost;
 108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lusters rise,
 108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lusters rise,
 108.00A.031 And from their jewels torches do take fire,
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.042 Not onely all their house, but all their State,
 108.00A.044 Kings (as their patterne, God) are liberall
 108.00A.054 As their one common soule, give life to both,
 108.00A.112 And open wide their easie liquid jawe
 108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their sphaeres are.
 108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
 108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
 109.00A.045 Some coffin'd in their cabbins lye, 'equally
 109.00A.048 At the last day, some forth their cabbins peepe:
 111.00A.012 As in'the Courts Squadron to marshall their state
 112.00A.033 And mingled thus, their issue incestuous.
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,
 121.NY3.001 Euen as lame things thirst their perfection, so
 124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
 125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,
 126.00A.004 From the Arts spirits and their Quintessence?

126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,
129.00A.030 In their last Furnace, in activity;
131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.
134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,
134.00A.004 Grew from their reason, mine from faire faith grew.
135.B13.029 to honor Polesworth with their Cloystr'd traine
136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while
137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
138.00A.009 Such borrow in their payments, and owe more
140.00A.005 Nor scapes hee so, but is himselfe their prey;
142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
142.00A.018 But in their humours, and at seasons show.
142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
142.00A.048 As to partake your vertues, and their might,
145.00A.017 All having blowne to sparkes their noble fire,
145.00A.018 And drawne their sound gold-ingot into wyre;
145.00A.064 From having found their walkes, to finde their home.
145.00A.064 From having found their walkes, to finde their home.
146.00A.016 Venture their states, with him in joy to share
148.00A.007 Twinnes, though their birth Cusco, and Musco take,
148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper speare,
148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
150.00A.042 Bodies of Saints rest for their soules above.
151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire
153.00A.018 Such rest in bed, that their last Church-yard grave,
153.00A.039 Deeds of good men, for by their living here,
153.00A.138 Or idle,'as men, which to their last houres come,
153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'mploy their time,
153.00A.204 In a defensive war, their power expresse.
153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,
153.00A.254 Their walls and bullwarks which became them best:
155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
155.00a.149 Their siluer; or dispos'd into lesse glas,
155.00a.165 To worke on their rebellions, and reduce
155.00a.225 Did in their voyage in this worlds Sea stray,
155.00a.226 And needed a new compasse for their way;
155.00a.251 We thinke the heauens enioy their Sphericall
155.00a.252 Their round proportion embracing all.
155.00a.253 But yet their various and perplexed course,
155.00a.277 All their proportion's lame, it sinks, it swels.
155.00a.283 We spur, we raine the stars, and in their race
155.00a.291 Of their wish'd iourneys end, the bottom, dye.

155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
155.00a.398 And man least knowes their trade, and purposes.
155.00a.438 Their speech to parts, that are of most effect;
155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
155.00a.466 But keepe the song still in their memory.
156.00a.102 Of fate and her, for filling vp their blanks.
157.00b.118 Wormes which insensibly deuoure their state.
157.00b.172 So fowly as our soules, in their firstbuilt Cels.
157.00b.178 Of sicknesses, or their true mother, Age.
157.00b.286 How others on our stage their parts did Act;
157.00b.348 Their Prophecies growen to be Historee.
157.00b.352 Oyle to th'Apostles lamps, dew to their seed.
157.00b.358 (As to their number) to their dignitees.
157.00b.358 (As to their number) to their dignitees.
157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
157.00b.491 loy that their last great Consummation
158.00A.095 No smalness scapes, no greatnesse breaks their nets,
158.00A.112 Reckoning their vanities, lesse is their gaine
158.00A.112 Reckoning their vanities, lesse is their gaine
158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes
158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
158.00A.202 Their daughters, and their sisters did ingresse,
158.00A.202 Their daughters, and their sisters did ingresse,
158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;
158.00A.290 And lawes make fasts, & lents for their destruction.
158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not throughly arm'd
158.00A.369 So needy of subjects love, that of their own
158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,
158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
158.00A.001 Others at the Porches and entries of their Buildings set their 158.00A.001 Others at the Porches and entries of their Buildings set their
161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;
164.00A.011 So, fall my sinnes, that all may have their right,
167.00A.008 Rest of their bones, and soules deliverie
169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,
175.00B.012 And made it fouler, Let their flames retire,
184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.
184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,
184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know
184.00A.078 That their bookes are divine;
184.00A.087 In thine, let their blood come
184.00A.101 Which, as thy mother, their high Abbesse, sent
184.00A.102 Their bodies backe againe to thee,
184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
185.00A.004 Subject to forraigne motion, lose their owne,

185.00A.006 Scarce in a yeare their naturall forme obey:
185.00A.008 For their first mover, and are whirld by it.
187.00A.025 7 Now in their daies of Teares, Jerusalem
187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:
187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,
187.00A.115 His Palace, and the walls, in which their cries
187.00A.121 9 Their gates are sunke into the ground, and hee
187.00A.122 Hath broke the barre; their King and Princes bee
187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.
187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.
187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where
187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.
187.00A.145 15 The passengers doe clap their hands, and hisse
187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,
187.00A.157 18 But now, their hearts against the Lord do call,
187.00A.167 To eate their children of a spanne? shall thy
187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,
187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,
187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit
187.00A.277 3 Even the Sea-calfes draw their brests, and give
187.00A.278 Sucke to their young; my peoples daughters live
187.00A.295 As carbuncles did their pure bodies shine,
187.00A.296 And all their polish'dnesse was Seraphine.
187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,
187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,
187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.
187.00A.304 Their children drest with their owne hand for meat.
187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,
187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,
187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace
187.00A.375 14 Elders, the gates; youth did their songs forbeare,
189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent
189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pittie their neglect.
189.00B.046 A new-found Starre, their Opticks magnifie,
189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can
191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;
191.00B.026 Their harmony is rather danc'd than sung;
191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way
192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne
192.00B.007 Cosmographers, and I their Mapp, who lie
193.00A.008 Others to sinne? and, made my sinne their doore?

THEIRS.....4

004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still
 061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
 157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
 158.00A.454 His organs now so like theirs hee doth finde,

THEM.....173

001.00A.009 Here gathering Chroniclers, and by them stand
 002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pitty towards the rest;
 002.00A.016 And bellows pant below, which them do move.
 002.00A.068 That onely suretiship hath brought them there,
 002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 003.00A.009 Lusts, as earths honour was to them? Alas,
 003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse
 004.00A.124 Perpetuities of them, lasting as farre
 004.00A.173 Tast have in them, ours are, And naturall
 004.00A.181 The fields they sold to buy them; For a King
 004.00A.183 Them next weeke to the Theatre to sell;
 004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 004.00A.201 Making them confesse not only mortall
 004.00A.202 Great staines and holes in them; but veniall
 004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,
 005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do
 005.00A.024 The winde which drives them; and a wastfull warre
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
 005.00A.058 Meant not that men should be forc'd to them to goe,
 005.00A.067 His Plate, Challices; and mistake them away,
 008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beemie eye
 012.00A.020 Scarce visiting them, who are intirely his.
 015.00G.025 Licence my roaving hands, and let them go,
 015.00G.038 His earthly soul may court that, not them:
 016.00A.014 Idly make them apter to'endure then men?
 018.00B.011 Here I unswear, and overswear them thus,
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 021.00G.009 I could lend them obscureness now, and say,
 021.00G.034 Strike them, their house, their friends, their favourites all.
 021.00G.047 Stoln (more to sweeten them) our many blisses
 021.00G.062 Strain his eyes open, and yet make them bleed.
 024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,
 024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.
 025.00A.008 Fit for no good sight, keep them still.

034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?
 036.00A.013 I could eclipse and cloud them with a winke,
 036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
 037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.
 040.00A.009 Through Rimes vexation, I should them allay,
 041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
 046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
 050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
 052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
 052.00A.043 Forsake him who on them relies
 052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
 053.00A.010 But since shee did them so create,
 054.00A.027 New taxes, and remit them not in peace,
 055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;
 055.00A.025 Enforce them, by warres law condition not.
 056.00A.018 Only to lock up, or else to let them fall?
 058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,
 062.00A.053 We owe them thankes, because they thus,
 066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
 066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live
 066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among
 071.00A.007 And worke on them as mee, and so preferre
 074.00A.003 Seldome to them, which soare no higher
 079.00B.009 Our desires give them fashion, and so
 079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
 107.00A.036 Thy selfe a constellation, of them All,
 107.00A.068 Like Fairies, till the Cock crow them away.
 108.00A.083 To them, in him, because his favours bend
 108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.
 113.00A.014 May cloth them with faith, and deare honestie,
 117.00A.010 Therefore I envie them, and doe repent,
 117.00A.013 Accept these lines, and if in them there be
 121.NY3.003 Bearing with them much of my love & hart
 127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,
 129.00A.031 Which fits them (Schooles and Courts and warres o'rpast)
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 131.00B.019 And now must pittie them; for, as they doe
 131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
 131.00B.130 Is, that love is them all contracted one.
 133.00A.040 Of favour, she alone, to them doth make.
 133.00A.041 Marke, if to get them, she o'r skip the rest,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 135.B13.021 and as true Types of your, them humbly greet.

136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
137.00A.016 Exhale them, and a thick close bud display.
138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
139.00A.017 Creates in them, but dissipates as fast,
139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
140.00A.011 Empail'd himselfe to keepe them out, not in;
140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,
141.00A.012 For, Art and Nature this in them withstood.
145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
145.00A.056 The power and praise of both them, on the last;
145.00A.067 So am I debtor unto them, whose worth,
145.00A.074 Illustrate them who come to study you.
147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.
148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;
148.00A.024 The pure which elemented them shall stay;
151.00A.008 But extreme sense hath made them desperate;
151.00A.056 The Gentiles fram'd them Gods and Goddesses.
153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than
153.00A.176 Which doth extend her utmost gates to them;
153.00A.249 To die with them, and in their graves be hid,
153.00A.254 Their walls and bullwarks which became them best:
154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;
155.00a.072 Reflects from her, on them which vnderstood
155.00a.166 Them to Ciuility, and to mans vse.
155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
156.00a.066 To which of them, it shall be consecrate.
156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
157.00b.330 And for the word of God, vent them agen?
157.00b.425 But as the Heathen made them seuerall gods,
157.00b.428 Gods vnto them, so Agues bee, and war)
157.00b.447 To fill the place of one of them, or more,
157.00b.472 Heauens accidentall ioyes would passe them much.
158.00A.093 By them. The mother poisoned the well-head,
158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.
158.00A.119 As wrastlers, perfects them; Not liberties
158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought
158.00A.272 That she shoves them in bigger quantities

158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,
 158.00A.289 To kill them is an occupation,
 158.00A.350 If wrech can on them the common anger wreake?
 158.00A.445 And as his Sire, he made them his owne prey.
 158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,
 161.00A.012 Or as Elixar, to change them to gold;
 165.00A.009 But let them sleepe, Lord, and mee mourne a space,
 166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 181.00A.048 Make them indifferent; call nothing best.
 183.00A.004 That of them both a circle embleme is,
 184.00A.071 That I by them excuse not my excesse
 184.00A.103 As thou hadst lent them, cleane and innocent,
 184.00A.117 Meane waies, and call them stars, but not the Sunne.
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 184.00A.233 Us, to amendment, heare them; thee decline;
 185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,
 187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.
 187.00A.026 (Her men slaine by the foe, none succouring them)
 187.00A.068 Is as an uncleane woman amongst them.
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.172 Nothing did thee from killing them containe.
 187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,
 187.00A.242 As refuse, and off-scouring to them all.
 187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit
 187.00A.268 Follow, and from under heaven destroy them quite.
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexe them againe.
 187.00A.292 No hands amongst them, to vexe them againe.
 187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.
 187.00A.348 And for them, pay thee with captivitie.
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part
 192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,

THEMSELUES.....3

155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,
 157.00b.117 Thinke the a Prince, who of themselues create
 157.00b.190 To looke what Meteors there themselues prepare;

THEMSELVES.....27

002.00A.039 But these punish themselves; the insolence
 003.00A.105 But having left their roots, and themselves given
 004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 004.00A.186 (For themselves dare not goe) o'r Cheapside books,
 008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.
 011.00A.028 Their Prince, or coyne his gold, themselves exile
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 015.00G.041 Themselves are only mystick books, which we,
 027.00A.008 Begging themselves they may betray.
 029.00A.012 To other griefes, and aske themselves but some,
 047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;
 110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;
 112.00A.044 Durst looke in themselves, and themselves retriue,
 112.00A.044 Durst looke in themselves, and themselves retriue,
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then
 114.00A.019 That men may not themselves, their owne good parts
 131.00B.042 Themselves unprison'd were and purify'd:
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?
 158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
 158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
 158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest
 158.00A.323 All suitors of all sorts themselves enthrall;
 158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
 187.00A.127 In sackcloth have they girt themselves, and low

THEN.....456

001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show
 001.00A.073 He then to him with amorous smiles allures,
 001.00A.080 Then the wise politique horse would heretofore,
 002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throwes
 002.00A.059 More, more, then ten Slavonians scolding, more
 002.00A.060 Then when winds in our ruin'd Abbeyes rore;
 002.00A.064 Worse then imbrothel'd strumpets prostitute.
 002.00A.073 Then carted whores, lye, to the grave Judge; for
 002.00A.087 In parchment then, large as his fields, hee drawes
 003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?
 003.00A.023 Colder then Salamanders? like divine
 003.00A.095 At the last day? Will it then boot thee
 003.00A.102 Then humble to her is idolatrie;
 003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.
 004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne
 004.00A.021 Stranger then seaven Antiquaries studies,
 004.00A.022 Then Africks Monsters, Guanaes rarities,
 004.00A.023 Stranger then strangers; One, who for a Dane,

004.00A.025 If he had liv'd then; And without helpe dies,
 004.00A.034 See it plaine Rashe awhile, then nought at all.
 004.00A.055 Nay, but of men, most sweet Sir. Beza then,
 004.00A.061 By travaile. Then, as if he would have sold
 004.00A.097 More then ten Hollensheads, or Halls, or Stowes,
 004.00A.107 Toll to some Courtier; And wiser then all us,
 004.00A.129 I more amas'd then Circes prisoners, when
 004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
 004.00A.161 Becomes the guiltie, not the accuser; Then,
 004.00A.204 And then by Durers rules survay the state
 004.00A.238 Seas of Wits and Arts, you can, then dare,
 005.00A.013 Then man is a world; in which, Officers,
 005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
 005.00A.029 Alas, no more then Thames calme head doth know
 005.00A.077 So Officers stretch to more then Law can doe,
 005.00A.087 Then Haman, when he sold his Antiquities.
 006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.
 006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
 006.00D.037 Voluminous barrels; if thy leaves do then
 006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,
 006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.
 008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;
 008.00B.112 Gold is Restorative, restore it then:
 009.00A.035 Then like the Chymicks masculine equall fire,
 009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,
 012.00A.009 Themselves, I hate dead names: Oh then let mee
 012.00A.024 Her wedded channels bosome, and then chide
 012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
 012.00A.039 Then with new eyes I shall survay thee, 'and spie
 013.00A.009 I had not taught thee then, the Alphabet
 014.NY3.002 And when I haue peace, can I leaue thee then?
 014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.
 014.NY3.045 To make at home; And shall not I do then
 015.00G.017 Now off with those shooes, and then softly tread
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 015.00G.043 Must see revealed. Then since that I may know;
 015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
 016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,
 016.00A.013 Be bound to one man, and did Nature then
 016.00A.014 Idly make them apter to'endure then men?
 016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate'it, rather let mee
 016.00A.026 Allow her change, then change as oft as shee,
 016.00A.035 Then are they purest; Change'is the nursery
 017.00A.024 And if none bee, then she is singular.
 017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.

017.00A.046 Who, mightier then the sea, makes Moores seem white,
 017.00A.052 Then witches, which impossibles confesse.
 019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
 020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?
 020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
 020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
 020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every speare
 020.00G.038 For love, then this, as infinit as it.
 020.00G.050 On either side, and then directs us where
 020.00G.057 Then in a Creek where chosen pearls do swell
 020.00G.087 For as free Spheres move faster far then can
 020.00G.090 Then if at beauties enemies he stay.
 020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe
 021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
 021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?
 021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 022.00A.052 To the Kings dogges; then any other beast;
 022.00A.068 Which to defend is harder then to get:
 024.00A.042 Then fishes leave in streames, or Birds in aire.
 025.00A.016 Keepe it, for then 'tis none of mine.
 027.00A.006 Warm'd by thy eyes, more then the Sunne.
 027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
 027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.
 028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
 028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,
 028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,
 028.00A.011 And then poore Aspen wretch, neglected thou
 028.00A.013 A veryer ghost then I;
 028.00A.017 Then by my threatnings rest still innocent.
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 034.00A.003 Wilt thou then Antedate some new made vow?
 035.00A.001 Image of her whom I love, more then she,
 035.00A.010 Then Fantasie is Queene and Soule, and all;
 035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;
 035.00A.020 Then if more honour, teares, and paines were spent.
 035.00A.026 Mad with much heart, then ideott with none.
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.021 Doe thy will then, then subject and degree,
 038.00A.021 Doe thy will then, then subject and degree,
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 040.00A.006 Then as th'earths inward narrow crooked lanes
 041.00A.008 Then at the bargaine made was ment,
 041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,
 041.00A.012 Or if then thou gavest mee all,
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,

041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:
 041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
 042.00A.013 Then feare not mee,
 042.00A.016 More wings and spurres then hee.
 044.00A.010 It stay, tis but thy carkasse then,
 044.00A.028 Of thee one houre, then all else ever.
 045.00A.009 More subtile then the parent is,
 045.00A.023 Then as an Angell, face, and wings
 047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;
 047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
 047.00A.015 Then, least my being nothing lessen thee,
 048.00A.004 Is elder by a yeare, now, then it was
 048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 048.00A.021 And then wee shall be throughly blest,
 048.00A.022 But now no more, then all the rest.
 049.00A.025 Then, as all my soules bee,
 049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
 050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
 050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
 050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made
 050.00A.046 With Tombs, then Cradles, to weare out a day.
 051.00A.025 Then by her shadow, what she weares.
 052.00A.037 Here more then in their bookes may Lawyers finde,
 053.00A.005 But one, and then another prove,
 053.00A.007 If then at first wise Nature had,
 053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
 055.00A.035 Mynes in the earth, then Quarries were before.
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 057.00A.001 Deare love, for nothing lesse then thee
 057.00A.018 Excesse of joy would wake me, and cam'st then,
 057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I
 058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
 058.00A.019 O more then Moone,
 058.00A.025 To doe me more harme, then it purposeth,
 059.00A.001 Some that have deeper digg'd loves Myne then I,
 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
 060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
 060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;
 061.00A.005 And shee yeeld then to all that are his foes;
 062.00A.028 And part farre purer then he came.
 062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
 062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
 063.00A.002 Then all the worthies did,
 063.00A.025 Then you have done a braver thing
 063.00A.026 Then all the Worthies did.
 064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,

066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 066.00A.051 Then a Sun dyall in a grave,
 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they'are con-dem'nd to die.
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,
 068.00A.033 Meet mee at London, then,
 068.00A.036 Then if I had staid still with her and thee.
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
 069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
 069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
 069.00A.020 She were by art, then Nature falsify'd.
 069.00A.021 Live Primrose then, and thrive
 069.00A.026 Belongs unto each woman, then
 070.00A.004 To be to more then one a Bed)
 070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring
 070.00A.016 To make us Reliques; then
 070.00A.026 Then our Guardian Angells doe,
 071.00A.016 And without such advantage kill me then.
 072.00A.005 My body then doth hers involve,
 074.00A.004 Then vertue or the minde to'admire,
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 079.00B.014 By children, then the thing which lovers so
 080.00E.012 For his Judgement then is nought:
 080.00E.021 Is there then no kinde of men
 080.00E.023 I will vent that humour then
 081.HH5.012 full sway dare boldly then sow vicious seedes
 081.HH5.046 then inck dropt on mudd or raine on grasse
 081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine
 082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
 091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew
 092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.
 095.NY3.004 A sallet, worse then Spanish dyeting.
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 106.00A.040 Then may thy leane and hunger-starved wombe
 106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
 106.00A.052 Other disports then dancing jollities,
 106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;
 106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose
 106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
 107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
 107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,
 107.00A.051 Goe then to where the Bishop staies,
 107.00A.058 Longer to day, then other daies?
 107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,

107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 107.00A.093 They quickly pay their debt, and then
 107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.
 107.00A.109 And win by'observing, then, whose hand it is
 108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires
 108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare
 108.00A.030 Then from their beames their jewels lusters rise,
 108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.
 108.00A.055 I am not then from the Court.
 108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,
 108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
 108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
 108.00A.086 An earnest lover, wise then, and before.
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 108.00A.109 Then thy old Soule, the Sunne,
 108.00A.123 Which scornes unjust opinion; then the bride
 108.00A.168 Then, reverend Priest, who Gods Recorder art,
 108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
 109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
 109.00A.044 Then if the Sunne had drunke the sea before;
 109.00A.053 Then note they the ships sicknesses, the Mast
 110.00A.004 A blocke afflicts, now, then a storke before.
 110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.
 110.00A.030 No more refreshing, then our brimstone Bath,
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 111.00A.022 Then let us at these mimicke antiques jeast,
 112.00A.001 Sir, more then kisses, letters mingle Soules;
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
 112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.
 112.00A.040 Angels sinn'd first, then Devills, and then man.
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then
 113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as
 113.00A.034 Manure thy selfe then, to thy selfe be'approv'd,
 114.00A.002 Then hath or shall enkindle any spirit,
 114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne

119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 121.NY3.018 And then at Winter retaile it here abroad.
 122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 125.00A.011 And then againe to your embracements goe:
 126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw
 126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.
 128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
 129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
 129.00A.024 Then I have done your honour wanting it.
 129.00A.026 To want, then governe greatnesse, for wee are
 130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;
 130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
 131.00B.095 Then finde I, if mans noblest part be love,
 131.00B.111 Then earthly substance can unforc'd aspire,
 133.00A.016 And, having little now, have then no sense.
 133.00A.020 Her creature; glorify'd more then before.
 133.00A.021 Then as a mother which delights to heare
 133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,
 134.00A.011 Then in your deeds, accesses, and restraints,
 134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,
 134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 135.B13.008 on better matter then beames from aboue,
 135.B13.016 Admit our Magique then by which wee doe
 136.00A.012 By despis'd dung, then by the fire or Sunne.
 136.00A.013 Care not then, Madame, 'how low your prayeses lye;
 136.00A.015 God findes, then in Te Deums melodie.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 136.00A.050 Or principally, then religion
 137.00A.067 Leaving then busie praise, and all appeale,
 138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee
 138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse
 138.00A.004 Then worst of civill vices, thanklessnesse.
 138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.
 138.00A.089 Take then no vitious purge, but be content
 139.00A.058 And though to scape, then to revenge offence
 139.00A.065 This private Ghospell, then 'tis our new yeare,
 140.00A.033 Since then our businesse is, to rectifie
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,
 141.00A.050 For then your judgement is below my praise,
 141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
 141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
 142.00A.005 To other Sainct then you directed bee,
 142.00A.024 No better then a sanguine Vertuous man.

142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
 145.00A.044 Of Sun, Moone, Stars, fairer then late-prais'd earth,
 149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;
 149.00A.008 Our waters, then, above our firmament.
 149.00A.028 Make and name then, th'Elixar of this All.
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 150.00A.048 Bodies are purer, then best Soules are here.
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 152.12a.021 If then, least Mouings of the Centre make
 152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 152.12a.063 Is th'other Centre, Reason, faster, then?
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee.
 153.00A.002 Then when thou wast infused, harmony,
 153.00A.068 Are much entirer then a million.
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 153.00A.118 Onely great circles, then, can be our scale:
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,
 153.00A.160 Should so much faster ebb out, then flow in?
 153.00A.177 At that gate then Triumphant soule, dost thou
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,
 153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win
 153.00A.216 Hath got, by getting thee, then t'had before?
 153.00A.224 His territory was no more then Hee?
 153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am
 154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,
 155.00a.014 But succour'd then with a perplexed doubt,
 155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 155.00a.089 For with due temper men do then forgoe,
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.120 And then make vp his obseruation plaine;
 155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame

155.00a.195 It seis'd the Angels: and then first of all
 155.00a.223 She whom wise nature had inuented then
 155.00a.299 Then solidnes, and roundnes haue no place.
 155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
 155.00a.351 And then, as though she could not make inow,
 155.00a.372 That it should more affright, then pleasure thee.
 155.00a.373 And that, since all faire color then did sinke,
 155.00a.378 Then that her influence the heau'n forbear,es,
 155.00a.412 That vnto vs; she working more then it.
 155.00a.422 Some stay, no more then Kings should giue, to craue;
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
 156.00a.040 Repolish'd, without error then to stand,
 156.00a.044 For many leagues,) farre greater then it was,
 156.00a.046 Her, greater, purer, firmer, then before?
 156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you
 156.00a.074 Rather t'adorne, then last, shee soone expir'd;
 156.00a.092 To yeares of Reasons vse, and then infer
 157.00b.003 Then to consider, that a yeare is runne,
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.059 Then those thy fellow-wormes doe thinke vpon
 157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.122 Drowsie or slacke, remember then that shee,
 157.00b.139 Rather then her: and make a spirit feare
 157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
 157.00b.168 Couldst neither then refuse, nor leaue it now.
 157.00b.220 To'aduance these thoughts, remember then, that shee
 157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.
 157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.344 Then for her interest, of mother-hood.
 157.00b.346 Expecting Christ, then they'haue enioy'd him yet.
 157.00b.350 All the Sunnes course, with more light then the Sunne.
 157.00b.378 More Antidote, then all the world was ill,)
 157.00b.403 Without this Honour, and then lou'd it so,
 157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;
 157.00b.454 Better then when in Images they bee:
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 157.00b.464 Who dreamt deuoutlier, then most vse to pray;
 157.00b.473 How poore and lame, must then our casuall bee?
 157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;
 157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.084 Till the then climing serpent, that now creeps
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ

158.00A.113 Then hazard still, to meditate on ill,
 158.00A.128 Of sense, then faith requires) swiftly she flew
 158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she
 158.00A.189 His father steales for him, and so feeds then
 158.00A.219 Pleasantly three, then streightned twenty yeares
 158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
 158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
 158.00A.313 Then cannons voices, when the aire they teare:
 158.00A.378 Then they, who good repos'd estates possesse)
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,
 158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betrayed
 158.00A.462 One then another; first that ere did crave
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 160.00A.082 May then sinnes sleep, and death soone from me passe,
 162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?
 164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,
 167.00A.006 Much pleasure, then from thee, much more must flow,
 167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?
 167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?
 168.00A.009 Oh let mee then, his strange love still admire:
 169.00A.003 Life and food to mee, being more pure then I,
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
 177.00B.002 As Angels, then my fathers soule doth see,
 177.00B.012 Dissemblers feigne devotion. Then turne
 179.NY3.005 Sleepes She a thousand, then peepes vp one yeare?
 179.NY3.010 first trauaile we to seeke & then make Love?
 179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then
 181.00A.025 Materiall Crosses then, good physicke bee,
 181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
 181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.
 181.00A.039 And then as worst surfets, of best meates bee,
 181.00A.061 Then doth the Crosse of Christ worke faithfully
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
 183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,
 184.00A.057 More in the cloud, then wee in fire,
 184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,
 184.00A.168 Though thereby they were then
 184.00A.201 Then spheares, or Angels praises bee,
 184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?
 187.00A.073 19 I called for my lovers then, but they
 187.00A.186 To my steele fetters, heavier then before,
 187.00A.220 Deepe in the dust, yet then in hope he staves.

187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?
 187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere
 187.00A.290 Then did the towne of Sodome sinne before;
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;
 187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
 187.00A.301 9 Better by sword then famine 'tis to dye;
 187.00A.302 And better through pierc'd, then by penury,
 187.00A.320 Depart, depart, and touch us not, and then
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,
 189.00B.045 If then th'Astronomers, whereas they spie
 190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.

THENCE.....25

004.00A.153 Ran from thence with such or more hast, then one
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 018.00B.045 To walke in expectation, till from thence
 052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
 056.00A.005 And thence a law did grow,
 062.00A.006 With a fast balme, which thence did spring,
 062.00A.027 Might thence a new concoction take,
 062.00A.043 That abler soule, which thence doth flow,
 063.00A.003 And yet a braver thence doth spring,
 063.00A.027 And a braver thence will spring
 079.00B.017 And thence,
 106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
 108.00A.039 And can'st thou be from thence?
 108.00A.134 All businesses, from thence to reinvest
 109.00A.060 Strive to breake loose, and scape away from thence.
 127.00A.005 And hether by kinde nature drawne from thence,
 153.00A.174 There are the holy suburbs, and from thence
 155.00a.313 That Harmony was shee, and thence infer,
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence
 158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
 158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.
 158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
 160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
 183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,

THENCEFORTH.....2

012.00A.033 She flouts the channell, who thenceforth is drie;
 108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.

001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;002.00A.068 That onely suretiship hath brought them there,003.00A.045 Seekes her at Rome, there, because hee doth know003.00A.046 That shee was there a thousand yeares agoe,003.00A.053 Lecherous humors, there is one that judges004.00A.007 I had no suit there, nor new suite to shew,004.00A.057 Of our two Academies, I named; There004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few004.00A.123 That offices are entail'd, and that there are004.00A.159 It selfe on mee, Such men as he saw there,004.00A.189 That there came weak ships fraught with Cutchannel,006.00D.045 If omni-pregnant there, upon warme stalls,006.00D.067 Some Leaves may paste strings there in other books,010.00A.003 And as a thiefe at barre, is question'd there010.00A.035 Which, if in hell no other paines there were,010.00A.036 Makes mee feare hell, because he must be there:010.00A.064 There, things that seeme, exceed substantiall.011.00A.029 Into another countrie,'and doe it there,011.00A.031 There we will scorne his houshold policies,014.NY3.036 There we are allwayes vnder, here above.014.NY3.037 There Engines farr of breed a iust trew feare,014.NY3.039 There lyes are wrongs; here safe vprightly ly;014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'll make one by & by.015.00G.008 That th' eyes of busie fooles may be stopt there.015.00G.046 There is no pennance due to innocence:016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed corne there,

017.00A.013 In buying things perfum'd, we aske; if there
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 020.00G.028 And firmament, our Cupid is not there:
 020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,
 020.00G.055 For they seem all: there Syrens songs, and there
 020.00G.055 For they seem all: there Syrens songs, and there
 020.00G.064 Some Island moles may scattered there descry;
 020.00G.067 Though there the Current be the Pilot made,
 020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
 021.00G.010 Out of my self, There should be no more Day.
 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
 024.00A.041 But of our dallyance no more signes there are,
 025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
 026.00A.001 I fixe mine eye on thine, and there
 027.00A.005 There will the river whispering runne
 027.00A.007 And there th'inamor'd fish will stay,
 037.00A.024 Poore Heretiques in love there bee,
 041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
 041.00A.022 Grow there, deare, I should have it all.
 043.00A.013 But I alas could there finde none,
 048.00A.019 This, or a love increased there above,
 050.00A.026 There he, as wine in lune, enrages blood,
 052.00A.015 There, the faith of any ground
 052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
 062.00A.017 And whil'st our soules negotiate there,
 063.00A.011 Such stuffe to worke upon, there is,)
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 068.00A.039 There, to another friend, whom wee shall finde
 069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside
 070.00A.008 And thinke that there a loving couple lies,
 079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
 080.00E.021 Is there then no kinde of men
 106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
 106.00A.009 There it must meet another,
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delays, For, where is he?
 108.00A.039a Idios. No, I am there
 108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 109.00A.051 Some sitting on the hatches, would seeme there,
 110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,
 112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
 112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there
 112.00A.027 There men become beasts, and prone to more evils;
 112.00A.035 Let no man say there, Virtues flintie wall
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 117.00A.013 Accept these lines, and if in them there be
 121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene

122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
 127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
 127.00A.010 There sacrifice it to that beauteous Sun:
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)
 130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
 130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.
 130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
 131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
 131.00B.093 So that no fountaine good there is, doth grow
 131.00B.117 There is an equall distance from her eye,
 131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 131.00B.124 There is no Emptinesse, but all is loy.
 133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 134.00A.021 In every thing there naturally growes
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee, 'I would not misse you there
 135.B13.010 As in deuotions men loyne both there hands
 137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;
 137.00A.011 For, as darke texts need notes: there some must bee
 138.00A.014 Here Peter loves, there Paul have Dian's Fane.
 138.00A.060 Which learne it there, and come in innocent.
 139.00A.043 Indifferent there the greatest space hath got,
 139.00A.044 Some pittie's not good there, some vaine disport,
 141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 142.00A.027 Have Vertue in Melancholy, and only there.
 142.00A.038 To your soule, found there no infirmitie,
 142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,
 145.00A.033 That there may be degrees of faire, great, good,
 147.00B.012 To ripe and mellow there, w'are stubborne clay,
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 150.00A.047 Which shall be almost another soule, for there
 150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,
 152.12a.005 For, into our Reason flowe, and there doe end,
 152.12a.066 With Causes, now to vs there can be none.
 153.00A.052 Yet still remaines that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.116 How here, how there, the Sunne affected is,
 153.00A.173 There is the best concourse, and confluence,
 153.00A.174 There are the holy suburbs, and from thence
 153.00A.188 That there thy counsailes might get victorie,
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 154.00A.030 So, in the forme thereof his bodie's there;
 154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;

155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
 155.00a.065 The worlds infirmities, since there is none
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,
 155.00a.217 To be a Phoenix, and that there can bee
 155.00a.259 And in those constellations there arise
 155.00a.288 The floating Moone would shipwracke there, and sink?
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.297 Inuent another torment, that there must
 156.00a.049 What is't to vs, alas, if there haue beene
 157.00b.022 For there is motion in corruption.
 157.00b.080 (Had shee beene there) the Starfull Northern Pole,
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.190 To looke what Meteors there themselues prepare;
 157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is 157.00b.275 There are no passages so that there is
 157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.
 157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
 157.00b.356 Vp, vp, for in that squadron there doth liue
 157.00b.381 The more, because shee'is there, he doth not know
 157.00b.462 Betrothed to God, and now is married there,
 157.00b.500 There where the stuffe is not such as the rest)
 158.00A.014 Suck'st early balme, and lland spices there,
 158.00A.058 The course I there began, shall here be staid,
 158.00A.059 Sailes hoised there, stroke here, and anchors laid
 158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,
 158.00A.130 There through th'earths-pores, and in a Plant hous'd her a new.
 158.00A.153 A young Colossus there hee stands upright,
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there
 158.00A.322 Stayes in his court, at his owne net, and there
 158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life cords there; Like a whole towne
 158.00A.405 (Who in that trade of Church, and kingdomes, there
 158.00A.423 If to the flocke he come, and Abell there,
 158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
 158.00A.504 Are ravel'd out, and fast there by one end,
 160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there
 160.00A.031 There he hath made himselfe to his intent
 160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
 184.00A.041 Whose wombe was a strange heav'n, for there

184.00A.091 Therefore with thee triumpheth there
 184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there
 185.00A.011 There I should see a Sunne, by rising set,
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there
 187.00A.125 10 There Sions Elders on the ground are plac'd,
 187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there
 187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.
 187.00A.284 There is no man that doth them satisfie.
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.382 And foxes there do goe at libertie:
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;

THERE'S.....7

002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state
 109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 155.00a.067 For there's a kind of world remaining still,
 158.00A.339 Nearest; There's no pause at perfection.
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand

THEREBY.....7

024.00A.017 Are grac'd thereby; And to make blinde men see,
 027.00A.027 That fish, that is not catch'd thereby,
 070.00A.018 A something else thereby;
 116.00A.006 And evermore conceive some hope thereby.
 137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
 143.00A.022 Can scarce repent my first fault, since thereby
 184.00A.168 Though thereby they were then

THEREFORE.....42

002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes
 003.00A.085 To will, implies delay, therefore now doe
 004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne
 004.0A/B136 Guilty, and he free: Therefore I did shew
 004.00A.139 To the last farthing; Therefore to my power
 006.00D.013 If man be therefore man, because he can
 006.00D.073 Therefore mine impotency I confesse,
 021.00G.025 And therefore sooner now then I can say,
 021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
 046.00A.002 O wilt thou therefore rise from me?
 051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.
 057.00A.005 Therefore thou wakd'st me wisely; yet
 066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undoe

080.00E.018 For she is thrall'd therefore:
 108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew
 108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
 108.00A.201 Therefore thou maist, faire Bride, to bed depart,
 108.00A.212 Therefore at first shee modestly might start,
 111.00A.026 Therefore I end; and bid farewell a while,
 114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,
 117.00A.010 Therefore I envie them, and doe repent,
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,
 137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
 142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you
 142.00A.061 May therefore this be enough to testifie
 155.00a.053 In that confession; therefore spoke no more
 155.00a.437 On euery part, and therefore men direct
 155.00a.443 Here therefore be the end: And, blessed maid,
 158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 181.00A.041 For, 'tis no child, but monster; therefore Crosse
 184.00A.091 Therefore with thee triumpheth there
 187.00A.029 8 Jerusalem hath sinn'd, therefore is shee
 187.00A.035 Therefore shee fell, none comforting: Behold
 187.00A.158 Therefore, O walls of Sion, let teares fall
 187.00A.206 21 My heart considers, therefore, hope there is.
 187.00A.212 And therefore in him will I hope alone.
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayes therefore on this one,

THEREIN.....1

108.00A.082 Finde that the King therein is liberall

THEREOF.....5

009.00A.018 As, for the ravishing thereof we die.
 018.00B.002 By all desires which thereof did ensue,
 108.00A.232 Is common, since the joy thereof is so.
 154.00A.030 So, in the forme thereof his bodie's there;
 155.00a.294 At end thereof, one of th'Antipodies:

THERETO.....1

183.00A.026 Direct our course, but the next starre thereto,

THEREFORE.....6

043.00A.022 It seem'd, and therfore for our losses sad,
 045.00A.011 And therfore what thou wert, and who
 121.NY3.013 Therefore Ile leaue it, and in the Cuntry strive
 152.12a.053 Therefore Wee liue: though such a Life wee haue
 152.12a.079 So would iust Lamentations: Therefore Wee

192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

THESE.....187

001.00A.003 Consorted with these few bookes, let me lye
 001.00A.051 These vanities, and giddinesses, loe
 002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use
 002.00A.039 But these punish themselves; the insolence
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,
 002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,
 003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?
 004.00A.037 Made of th'Accents, and best phrase of all these,
 004.00A.060 Yet a poore gentleman; All these may passe
 004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,
 005.00A.006 Are wreched or wicked: of these two a theame
 005.00A.016 That which drownes them, run: These selfe reasons do
 005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw
 005.00A.051 Heavy and most faint; and in these labours they,
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 006.00D.038 Convey these wares in parcels unto men;
 008.00B.006 That as these linkes were knit, our love should bee:
 008.00B.017 Shall these twelve innocents, by thy severe
 008.00B.024 For, most of these, their Countreys naturall rot
 008.00B.036 Nature, as these doe justice, from her course.
 008.00B.073 As these should doe good works; and should provide
 008.00B.077 Pitty these Angels yet; their dignities
 008.00B.082 Vnto the fire these Martyrs I betray.
 010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move
 014.NY3.029 Here let me warr; in these armes let me ly
 014.NY3.035 Those warrs the'ignorant, these th' experienc'd love
 015.00G.023 By this these Angels from an evil sprite,
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 015.00G.031 To enter in these bonds, is to be free;
 016.00A.008 Another fouler using these meanes, as I,
 016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,
 016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,
 017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these
 017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these
 018.00B.041 As Lots faire guests were vext. But none of these
 020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon
 020.00G.059 These, and (the glorious Promontory) her Chin
 022.00A.065 All which were such soft pastimes, as in these
 030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,
 030.00B.017 Others; these which come behinde
 030.00B.023 But these grow longer all the day,
 034.00A.014 Vaine lunatique, against these scapes I could

036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.
039.00A.035 And by these hymnes, all shall approve
044.00A.021 These burning fits but meteors bee,
047.00A.018 So, these extreames shall ne'r their office doe;
047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
048.00A.015 Must leave at last in death, these eyes, and eares,
049.00A.036 When these starres have supremacie:
050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,
050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
050.00A.044 For these, not Ancient, but Antique be;
051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;
052.00A.018 To make, to keep, to use, to be these his Records.
052.00A.039 And how prerogative these states devours,
053.00A.003 But these are things indifferent,
055.00A.012 These are prerogatives, they inhere
057.00A.009 Enter these armes, for since thou thoughtst it best,
060.00A.015 And cloysterd in these living walls of Jet.
062.00A.035 Love, these mixt soules, doth mixe againe,
067.00A.008 And keepe these limbbs, her Provinces, from dissolu-tion.
067.00A.020 If into others hands these Reliques came;
069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside
070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,
071.00A.020 But these I neyther looke for, nor professe,
082.00A.008 Dead and enterr'd; yet all these seeme to laugh,
106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
106.00A.026 Some of these Senators wealths deep oceans,
106.00A.038 And these two in thy sacred bosome hold,
106.00A.045 Which might these two dissever,
106.00A.051 Other sweets wait thee then these diverse meats,
106.00A.065 With these your pleasing labours, for great use
106.00A.076 Thee of these chaines and robes which were put on
107.00A.059 Staies he new light from these to get?
107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though
107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
107.00A.099 And by this act of these two Phenixes
107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
108.00A.169 Doe, from his Dictates, to these two impart
108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.
108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.
108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
108.00A.217 May these love-lamps we here enshrine,
108.00A.221 But ends in ashes, which these cannot doe,
108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.

109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
 109.00A.065 Compar'd to these stormes, death is but a qualme,
 109.00A.073 So violent, yet long these furies bee,
 110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath
 111.00A.022 Then let us at these mimicke antiques jeast,
 112.00A.003 The tediousnesse of my life: But for these
 112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
 117.00A.013 Accept these lines, and if in them there be
 122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
 122.00A.023 Perchance, these Spanish businesse being done,
 124.00A.014 With these Articulate blasts to blow the fire.
 126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
 130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,
 131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,
 131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
 134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
 135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.
 136.00A.004 But as of the elements, these which wee tread,
 136.00A.042 How these are one, her yea, is not her no.
 136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 137.00A.033 These are Petitions, and not Hymnes; they sue
 137.00A.050 On these I cast a lay and country eye.
 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity
 138.00A.055 These not ingrav'd, but inborne dignities
 138.00A.081 But these are riddles; Some aspersion
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 140.00A.003 The foole, in whom these beasts do live at jarre,
 141.00A.032 T'adhere in these names, her and you to show,
 141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
 141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,
 143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;
 143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;
 145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,
 145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
 145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 152.12a.013 These Things (Eccentrique else) on Faith do strike;
 153.00A.011 And, by these meditations refin'd,
 153.00A.034 All, in these mirrors of thy wayes, and end;
 153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme
 153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,

153.00A.199 (For, both these engines equally defeate,
 155.00a.080 These Creatures, from hom-borne intrinsique harme,
 155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:
 155.00a.300 Are these but warts, and pock-holes in the face
 156.00a.011 Can these memorials, ragges of paper, giue
 156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 157.00b.037 These Hymes may worke on future wits, and so
 157.00b.043 These Hymns thy issue, may encrease so long,
 157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
 157.00b.133 None can these lines or quantities vnioynt,
 157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades
 157.00b.220 To'aduance these thoughts, remember then, that shee
 157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
 157.00b.373 As these prerogatiues being met in one,
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 158.00A.143 Into ten lesser strings, these fingers were:
 158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
 158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought
 158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,
 158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
 158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,
 161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;
 161.00A.011 As fire these drossie Rymes to purifie,
 165.00A.010 For, if above all these, my sinnes abound,
 169.00A.012 Created nature doth these things subdue,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 177.00B.005 But if our mindes to these soules be descry'd
 181.00A.027 These for extracted chimique medicine serve,
 182.00A.012 For these three daies become a minerall;
 183.00A.024 Deales, in some times, and seldome joyning these;
 184.00A.035 Of these let all mee elemented bee,
 185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
 185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
 187.00A.327 17 And wee as yet, for all these miseries
 187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell
 187.00A.361 7 Our Fathers did these sinnes, and are no more,
 189.00B.049 These are thy titles and preheminences,
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,
 191.00B.009 These Psalmes first Author in a cloven tongue;
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse
 191.00B.037 When I beheld that these Psalmes are become
 191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way
 192.00B.010 Per fretum febris, by these streights to die,

192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;
 192.00B.027 By these his thornes give me his other Crowne;

THETHER.....1

157.00b.357 Shee, who hath carried thether, new degrees

THEY.....393

001.00A.044 Of bodies, they from blisse are banished.
 001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,
 002.00A.021 And they who write to Lords, rewards to get,
 002.00A.022 Are they not like singers at doores for meat?
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne, 'tis true,
 002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use
 002.00A.038 In which Commandements large receipt they dwell.
 003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse
 003.00A.091 Sign'd Kings blanck-charters to kill whom they hate,
 003.00A.092 Nor are they Vicars, but hangmen to Fate.
 004.00A.015 As vaine, as witlesse, and as false as they
 004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,
 004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.181 The fields they sold to buy them; For a King
 004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
 004.00A.203 Feathers and dust, wherewith they fornicate.
 004.00A.218 That they each other plague, they merit it.
 004.00A.218 That they each other plague, they merit it.
 005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
 005.00A.019 The excrements, which they voyd; all men are dust,
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
 005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they
 005.00A.047 Thee, if they sucke thee in, to misery,
 005.00A.051 Heavy and most faint; and in these labours they,
 006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
 006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares
 006.00D.046 They hatch all wares for which the buyer calls;
 006.00D.048 That they all kinde of matter comprehend.
 008.00B.019 Shall they be damn'd, and in the furnace throwne,
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.021 They save not me, they doe not ease my paines,
 008.00B.023 Were they but Crownes of France, I cared not,
 008.00B.025 I think possesseth, they come here to us,
 008.00B.029 Or were they Spanish Stamps, still travelling,
 008.00B.048 For, they are guilty of much hainous Sin.

008.00B.051 Much hope which they should nourish will be dead.
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 008.00B.075 And they are still bad angels; Mine are none;
 009.00A.006 They seeme no sweat drops, but pearle coronets
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,
 012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
 013.00A.010 Of flowers, how they devisefully being set
 014.NY3.008 They beare most blows which come to part the fray.
 014.NY3.012 Which nere returne; No more then they which fell.
 014.NY3.027 Yea they are Deaths; ist not all one to fly
 014.NY3.033 Other men war that they ther rest may gayne
 014.NY3.042 In those warrs, as they may which from vs two
 016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
 016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,
 016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
 016.00A.035 Then are they purest; Change'is the nursery
 017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 019.00A.015 Or doe they reach his judging minde, that hee
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 020.00G.040 How much they erre; that set out at the face?
 020.00G.055 For they seem all: there Syrens songs, and there
 020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 022.00A.058 Delight, not in made worke, but whiles they make;
 024.00A.006 Why quench'd they not as well, that of %1desire%2?
 024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?
 024.00A.050 Why should they brest to brest, or thighs to thighs?
 025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
 025.00A.006 That they be
 027.00A.008 Begging themselves they may betray.
 029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,
 029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 039.00A.043 That they did all to you epitomize,
 042.00A.039 They who one another keepe
 048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,
 050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, %1graves%2; If %1graves%2 they were,
 050.00A.014 They were %1Loves%2 %1graves%2; for else he is no where.
 052.00A.009 And her, whose booke (they say) %1Homer%2 did finde, and name.
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 052.00A.030 Whether abstract spirituall love they like,
 052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,

052.00A.033 Faiths infirmitie, they chuse
 052.00A.034 Something which they may see and use;
 052.00A.042 They exact great subsidies,
 052.00A.045 Chimeraes, vaine as they, or their prerogative.
 052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
 052.00A.050 In both they doe excell
 053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
 053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
 053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
 053.00A.018 So, they deserve nor blame, nor praise.
 053.00A.019 But they are ours as fruits are ours,
 054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use
 054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,
 055.00A.012 These are prerogatives, they inhere
 056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?
 056.00A.010 Are birds divorc'd, or are they chidden
 056.00A.011 If they leave their mate, or lie abroad a night?
 056.00A.013 Though they new lovers choose,
 058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,
 058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
 058.00A.005 For thus they bee
 058.00A.007 Fruits of much grieffe they are, emblemes of more,
 062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are 062.00A.052 The intelligences, they the speares.
 062.00A.053 We owe them thanks, because they thus,
 063.00A.024 Or, if they doe, deride:
 064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
 066.00A.004 If they be blinde, then Love, I give them thee;
 069.00A.029 Numbers are odde, or even, and they fall
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 074.00A.001 I never stoop'd so low, as they
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 079.00B.005 Call, what they cannot name, an unknowne power,
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 079.00B.024 Nature decreed (since each such Act, they say,
 081.HH5.009 But as ill Princes before they have obtaind
 081.HH5.011 with piety & right when they haue gaind
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.029 They had bene pure they had bene innocent
 081.HH5.029 They had bene pure they had bene innocent
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 086.00A.003 Some men leap'd forth, and ever as they came
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drown'd.
 086.00A.006 They in the sea being burnt, they in the burnt ship drown'd.
 106.00A.039 Till, mystically joyn'd, but one they bee;

106.00A.050 Not for themselves, but for they soon bring night;
 107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
 107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
 107.00A.074 They were to take a clock in peeces,) goe
 107.00A.088 They unto one another nothing owe,
 107.00A.089 And yet they doe, but are
 107.00A.090 So just and rich in that coyne which they pay,
 107.00A.093 They quickly pay their debt, and then
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall
 107.00A.095 They pay, they give, they lend, and so let fall
 108.00A.047 And comprehend the blessings they bestow.
 108.00A.070 That Angels, though on earth employd they bee,
 108.00A.084 To vertue, to the which they all pretend.
 108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
 108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.
 108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.
 108.00A.200 Rise in one point, they doe not set so to.
 108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
 109.00A.006 When by thy judgment they are dignifi'd,
 109.00A.027 The South and West winds joyn'd, and, as they blew,
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
 109.00A.053 Then note they the ships sicknesses, the Mast
 109.00A.063 Hearing hath deaf'd our saylers; and if they
 111.00A.010 In this worlds warfare, they whom rugged Fate,
 111.00A.013 If they stand arm'd with seely honesty,
 111.00A.015 Like Indians 'gainst Spanish hosts they bee.
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there
 112.00A.022 Are carcasses, as if no such they were.
 112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
 113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.
 114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be
 116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
 116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
 117.00A.002 I to my soft still walks, they to my Heart;
 117.00A.003 I to the Nurse, they to the child of Art;
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 125.00A.003 Whether in the English Provinces they be,
 126.00A.024 Mother, want matter, an%ld they only have
 126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad
 130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.

131.00B.004 (Knew they not it, and fear'd beasts companie)
131.00B.009 Depriv'd of that free state which they were in,
131.00B.019 And now must pittie them; for, as they doe
131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
131.00B.122 Remote or neare, or howsoe'r they move;
133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.
133.00A.043 Marke, if she doe the same that they protest,
135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.
135.B13.015 soe free from impure thoughts they shalbe found.
136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,
136.00A.036 They fly not from that, nor seeke presidence.
137.00A.004 And such, as they are circumstanc'd, they bee.
137.00A.004 And such, as they are circumstanc'd, they bee.
137.00A.033 These are %1Petitions%2, and not %1Hymnes%2; they sue
138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
138.00A.018 By blamers of the times they mard, hath sought
138.00A.052 Into the body,'and bastardly they grow.
138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill
139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust come, where they have bin;
140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,
141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne
143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
145.00A.065 And as I owe my first soules thankes, that they
146.00A.023 His children are his pictures, Oh they bee
148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
148.00A.030 Returne to dwell with you, of whom they were;
148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;
149.00A.029 They say, the sea, when it gaines, loseth too;
149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;
149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;
149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.
151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
151.00A.005 Sad hearts, the lesse they seeme the more they are,
151.00A.007 Not that they know not, feele not their estate,
151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,

151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 151.00A.054 Shee could not die, except they saw her dead;
 152.12a.029 For %1Whom%2 what %1Princes%2 angled (when they tried) 152.12a.038 As to touch Those of which they %1Emblems%2 are?
 152.12a.062 To rectifie Our %1Errors%2 They foreknowe.
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;
 153.00A.076 When they would exercise, lacke time, and space.
 153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe
 153.00A.099 For, they all vertues paths in that pace tread,
 153.00A.103 Before by deeds they are diffus'd and spread,
 153.00A.180 All that they will, 'gainst the Triumpher say,
 153.00A.184 Till they as Magistrates get victorie,
 153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
 153.00A.233 Men might at Pompey jeast, but they might not
 154.00A.039 And seest such sinners as they are, with thee
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
 155.00a.097 Except they headlong come, and fall vpon
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.107 And singly, one by one, they kill vs now.
 155.00a.163 And if in other Creatures they appeare,
 155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.263 They haue empayld within a Zodiake
 155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
 155.00a.280 Vpon the Heauens, and now they are his owne.
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
 155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
 155.00a.404 But they, yea Ashes too, are medicinall,
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
 156.00a.052 Being tastlesse growne, to ioy in ioyes they had,
 156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
 156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
 156.00a.101 They shall make vp that booke, and shall haue thanks
 157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amisse,
 157.00b.112 Which they from God, and Angels couer not.
 157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence

157.00b.114 They reinuest thee in white innocence.
157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
157.00b.224 Mintage to others beauties, for they went
157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euey limme;
157.00b.266 And now they thinke of new ingredients.
157.00b.306 Shee whose example they must all implore,
157.00b.308 That aie the vertuous Actions they expresse,
157.00b.334 Because they doe more ill, then these can speake?
157.00b.354 They made ioyntenants with the Holy Ghost,
157.00b.355 If they to any should his Temple giue.
157.00b.370 To all our actions all the worth they haue:
157.00b.408 (For they doe giue it; Princes doe but show
157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honor) and that this
157.00b.417 They who did labour Babels tower t' erect,
157.00b.430 To such small copper coyne, they lost the old,
157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch
157.00b.446 Had th'Angels once look'd on him, they had stood.
157.00b.454 Better then when in Images they bee:
157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;
158.00A.117 That they themselves breake, doe themselves spill,
158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,
158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
158.00A.225 For they intertouched as they did passe,
158.00A.225 For they intertouched as they did passe,
158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought
158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
158.00A.283 Fishers they kill not, nor with noise awake,
158.00A.284 They doe not hunt, nor strive to make a prey
158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake
158.00A.312 More circles in the broken sea they make
158.00A.313 Then cannons voices, when the aire they teare:
158.00A.343 With hope that they could kill him, nor could doe
158.00A.344 Good to themselves by his death: they did not eate
158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
158.00A.364 Transported with the joy of what they get,
158.00A.365 That they revenge, and obsequies forget,
158.00A.367 Because h'is now dead, to whom they should show
158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
158.00A.378 Then they, who good repos'd estates possesse)
158.00A.469 They easily doe, that can let feed their minde
158.00A.470 With outward beauty, beauty they in boyes and beasts do find.
158.00A.506 And now they joyn'd: keeping some quality
158.00A.009 they must pardon mee my bitings. I forbid no reprehender, but him

160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came
161.00A.008 But six, they say, the seaventh hath still some maime;
168.00A.007 They kill'd once an inglorious man, but I
177.00B.009 They see idolatrous lovers weepe and mourne,
181.00A.043 And crosse thy senses, else, both they, and thou
184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.
184.00A.079 May they pray still, and be heard, that I goe
184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
184.00A.104 Though they have not obtain'd of thee,
184.00A.106 Should keep, as they, our first integrity;
184.00A.114 That what they have misdome
184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd
184.00A.168 Though thereby they were then
184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
184.00A.182 Wee arme against thee, and they fight for sinne,
184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.
187.00A.031 Who honor'd, scorne her, for her foulnesse they
187.00A.042 And they have given, only to be fed,
187.00A.073 19 I called for my %1lovers%2 then, but they
187.00A.075 Dead in the citie; for they sought for meat
187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
187.00A.082 My foes have heard my grieffe, and glad they be,
187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
187.00A.126 And silence keepe; Dust on their heads they cast,
187.00A.127 In sackcloth have they girt themselves, and low
187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where
187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there
187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.
187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,
187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.
187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
187.00A.184 In darke, as they who dead for ever bee.
187.00A.209 23 For every morning they renewed bee,
187.00A.252 They have shut my life, and cast me on a stone.
187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,
187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,
187.00A.265 63 I am their song, whether they rise or sit,
187.00A.285 5 They which before were delicately fed,
187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,
187.00A.288 Sit and embrace the dunghills which they loath'd.
187.00A.297 8 They are darker now then blacknes, none can know
187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,
187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,

187.00A.321 They fled, and strayd, and with the %1Gentiles%2 were,
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.323 16 For this they are scattered by Jehovahs face
 187.00A.326 Nor, that they are Priests, redeeme them from the sword.
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare
 187.00A.334 Eagles of heaven are not so swift as they
 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,
 187.00A.358 They make us travaile, and not intermit,
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.369 11 In %1Iudaes%2 cities they the maids abus'd
 187.00A.371 12 The Princes with their hands they hung; no grace
 187.00A.372 Nor honours gave they to the Elders face.
 187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.
 189.00B.020 They beare Gods message, and proclaime his lawes,
 189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit
 189.00B.042 'Tis preachers to convey him, for they doe
 189.00B.045 If then th'Astronomers, whereas they spie
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.
 191.00B.021 They shew us llanders our joy, our King,
 191.00B.022 They tell us %1why%2, and teach us %1how%2 to sing.
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,

THEY'ARE.....14

008.00B.022 When in that hell they'are burnt and tyed in chains:
 008.00B.047 I would not spit to quench the fire they'are in,
 016.00A.015 They'are our clogges, not their owne; if a man bee
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they'are like to thee.
 050.00A.008 But now they'are gold oft tried, and ever new.
 059.00A.024 Sweetnesse, and wit they'are, but, Mummy, possest.
 067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they'are con-dem'nd to die.
 133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they'are rare; But a new starre
 142.00A.015 They'are your materials, not your ornament.
 153.00A.170 They'are all but Ants, carrying eggs, straw, and grain;
 157.00b.154 (For they'are in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 164.00A.012 To where they'are bred, and would presse me, to hell.
 185.00A.034 They'are present yet unto my memory,

THEY'HAUE.....1

157.00b.346 Expecting Christ, then they'haue enioy'd him yet.

THEY'RE.....6

020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 155.00a.045 The present Prince, they're loth it should be said,

155.00a.164 They're but mans ministers, and Legats there,
 155.00a.284 They're diuersly content t'obey our pace.
 155.00a.336 They're lothsome too, by this Deformitee.
 155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.

THICK.....3

006.00D.044 Home-manufactures to thick popular Faies,
 011.00A.005 Drawing his breath, as thick and short, as can
 137.00A.016 Exhale them, and a thick close bud display.

THICKE.....2

155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.

THICKEN.....1

129.00A.015 Which thicken on you now, as prayers ascend

THICKER.....2

158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so
 158.00A.499 Part hardned it selfe to a thicker heart,

THIEFE.....3

010.00A.003 And as a thiefe at barre, is question'd there
 163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,
 176.00B.009 Th'hydroptique drunkard, & night-scouting thiefe,

THIGH.....1

106.00A.007 Put forth, put forth that warme balme-breathing thigh,

THIGHES.....1

004.00A.206 Of his neck to his legge, and wast to thighes.

THIGHS.....4

024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 024.00A.050 Why should they brest to brest, or thighs to thighs?
 024.00A.050 Why should they brest to brest, or thighs to thighs?
 121.NY3.016 Thy thighs with hony, but as plenteously

THIN.....2

121.NY3.009 As lancke & thin is euery street & way
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,

THINE.....78

010.00A.026 Thee to gull thine owne mother for my love.
 012.00A.040 Death in thy cheekes, and darknesse in thine eye;
 012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly
 017.00A.008 Give her thine, and she hath a maydenhead.

019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye
 024.00A.009 Onely thine image, in my heart, doth sit,
 024.00A.011 My fires have driven, thine have drawne it hence;
 024.00A.046 But so, as thine from one another doe;
 025.00A.011 Which if it be taught by thine
 026.00A.001 I fixe mine eye on thine, and there
 026.00A.002 Pitty my picture burning in thine eye,
 026.00A.014 Being in thine owne heart, from all malice free.
 027.00A.026 For thou thy selfe art thine owne bait,
 029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show
 030.00B.020 To me thou, falsly, thine,
 032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 032.00A.015 My face in thine eye, thine in mine appeares,
 036.00A.015 If her eyes have not blinded thine,
 036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee
 038.00A.019 If thine owne honour, or my shame, or paine,
 042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
 043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.
 048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,
 049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock
 049.00A.010 And cleare reflects thee to thine eye.
 052.00A.005 How thine may out-endure
 055.00A.013 In thee and thine; none should forswear
 055.00A.016 Both wayes, as thou and thine, in eies and minde;
 055.00A.041 Torture against thine owne end is,
 057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
 058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbear
 078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 081.HH5.026 as had it bene example vnto thine
 081.HH5.042 of ill to thine; nor can falshood whett
 081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 081.HH5.049 Then for thine owne respect if not for mine
 081.HH5.054 eyther thine only love or noe love be
 107.00A.030 Thy selfe from thine affection
 107.00A.031 Takest warmth enough, and from thine eye
 107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
 108.00A.146 For our ease, give thine eyes, th'unusuall part
 109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.
 112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
 112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;
 114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.
 150.00A.068 Thy selfe, and to triumph, thine army lost.
 153.00A.194 But with thine owne affections, with the heate

153.00A.197 Thine armes'gainst forraine enemies, which are
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.097 Anger thine Ague more, by calling it
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?
 157.00b.397 So flowes her face, and thine eies, neither now
 162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
 162.00A.007 Thy sheepe, thine Image, and till I betray'd
 162.00A.011 Except thou rise and for thine owne worke fight,
 166.00A.010 O God, Oh! of thine onely worthy blood,
 178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:
 184.00A.013 The other could thine heritage invade;
 184.00A.047 And wee in Wardship to thine Angels be,
 184.00A.087 In thine, let their blood come
 184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.
 184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
 184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
 184.00A.235 That learning, thine Ambassador,
 184.00A.236 From thine allegiance wee never tempt,
 185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,
 185.00A.041 Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace,
 187.00A.142 Thee, thine iniquities they have not taught,
 187.00A.160 No rest, but let thine eye incessant be.
 187.00A.256 Oh from my sigh, and crye, stop not thine eare.
 188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,
 188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.

THINE'S.....2

009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunkes, cloth'd in seals skin,
 009.00A.039 Thine's like the dread mouth of a fired gunne,

THING.....49

002.00B.069 And to every suitor lye in every thing,
 004.00A.018 A thing more strange, then on Niles slime, the Sunne
 004.00A.020 A thing, which would have pos'd Adam to name,
 004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
 005.00A.012 Each thing, each thing employes or represents,
 005.00A.012 Each thing, each thing employes or represents,
 006.00D.004 Some vaster thing, and found'st a Curtizan.
 006.00D.011 'Tis no one thing, it is not fruit nor roote.
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe
 008.00B.101 Or libels, or some interdicted thing,
 020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
 039.00A.025 So, to one neutrall thing both sexes fit.
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing

051.00A.004 Receive such balmes, as else cure every thing,
 057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.
 059.00A.010 Some odoriferous thing, or medicinall,
 063.00A.001 I have done one braver thing
 063.00A.025 Then you have done a braver thing
 069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
 079.00B.014 By children, then the thing which lovers so
 082.00A.012 For I am every dead thing,
 106.00A.034 Except my sight faile, 'tis no other thing;
 112.00A.059 Onely'in this one thing, be no Galenist. To make 122.00A.030 Some thing to answeere in some proportion
 129.00A.033 For mee, (if there be such a thing as I)
 129.00A.034 Fortune (if there be such a thing as shee)
 131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.
 131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,
 131.00B.127 Love that imparts in every thing delight,
 134.00A.021 In every thing there naturally growes
 136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
 139.00A.029 Should name know or expresse a thing so high,
 145.00A.059 The subject chang'd, and measure; the same thing
 155.00a.141 A thing so equall to him: now alas,
 155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:
 155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.
 155.00a.332 Endanger vs: but that if euery thing
 155.00a.392 Heauen hither, or constellate any thing,
 155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Bloud: no thing
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.210 Whose quicke succession makes it still one thing:
 158.00A.033 For every thing, who, where wee of-spring tooke,
 158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing
 158.00A.382 The onely harmlesse great thing; the giant
 158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,

THINGS.....103

002.00A.003 In all ill things so excellently best,
 002.00A.027 Rankly digested, doth those things out-spue,
 002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne, 'tis true,
 002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.
 004.00A.152 All the court fill'd with more strange things then hee)
 004.00A.172 Just such gay painted things, which no sappe, nor
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
 008.00B.014 All things to me, and be my faithfull guide;
 010.00A.064 There, things that seeme, exceed substantiall.

010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joyn'd, and hate each one?
016.00A.009 May catch the same bird; and, as these things bee,
017.00A.002 Hath all things, whereby others beautious bee,
017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these
017.00A.013 In buying things perfum'd, we aske; if there
017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;
017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.
024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they're like to thee.
030.00B.008 And to brave clearnesse all things are reduc'd.
031.00A.016 Those things which elemented it.
033.00A.011 Things invisible to see,
045.00A.021 For, nor in nothing, nor in things
048.00A.006 All other things, to their destruction draw,
050.00A.028 And appetite to other things, is past;
050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing
050.00A.035 If transitory things, which soone decay,
053.00A.003 But these are things indifferent,
062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,
072.00A.006 And those things whereof I consist, hereby
079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
079.00B.034 To pursue things which had indammag'd me.
082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.
082.00A.019 All others, from all things, draw all that's good,
091.NY3.004 That one things end doth still beginne a new.
093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
107.00A.048 Falls not on such things as are infinite,
107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
108.00A.065 As, for divine things, faith comes from above,
109.00A.069 All things are one, and that one none can be,
113.00A.035 And with vaine outward things be no more mov'd,
117.00A.011 That from unhappy mee, things happy'are sent;
121.NY3.001 Euen as lame things thirst their perfection, so
127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,
130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,
130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
130.00A.003 Seene things, he sees againe, heard things doth heare,
130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
133.00A.045 Marke, if slight things be'objected, and o'r blowne,
136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,
136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthyest things
137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
141.00A.008 Is miracle; for, there no new things are;
141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,

141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.
145.00A.037 And if things like these, have been said by mee
145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
145.00A.058 The same things now, which I ador'd before,
149.00A.013 Nothing but man of all invenom'd things
149.00A.048 Of sinne, on things that sometimes may be such.
152.12a.007 Quotidian things, and Equi-distant hence,
153.00A.036 All, since the beeing of all things is hee,
153.00A.038 Things, in proportion fit by perspective,
153.00A.089 By quick amassing severall formes of things,
155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
155.00a.215 Prince, Subiect, Father, Sonne, are things forgot,
155.00a.364 Did all things verdure, and their lustre come,
155.00a.384 To hatch her seasons, and giue all things birth.
156.00a.087 And measuring future things, by things before,
156.00a.087 And measuring future things, by things before,
157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
157.00b.128 Where all good things being met, no one presumes
157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
157.00b.285 Of vnconcerning things, matters of fact;
157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,
157.00b.295 And see all things despoild of fallacies:
157.00b.331 Are there not some Courts, (And then, no things bee
157.00b.488 And accidentall things are permanent.
158.00A.192 Things ripened sooner, and did longer last;
158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
169.00A.012 Created nature doth these things subdue,
178.NY3.004 Wholy in heavenly things my Mind is sett.
178.NY3.012 My Love to Saints and Angels things diuine
181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
184.00A.010 O Sonne of God, who seeing two things,
185.00A.029 If on these things I durst not looke, durst I
185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
187.00A.037 10 Upon all things where her delight hath beene,
187.00A.043 All precious things, wherein their pleasure lay:
187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye
187.00A.141 14 For, the vaine foolish things thy Prophets sought,
188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;
189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare

THINK.....11

006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.
 008.00B.025 I think possesseth, they come here to us,
 020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon
 020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon
 020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,
 020.00G.085 If Kings think that the nearer way, and do
 021.00G.081 The Winter I'll not think on to spite thee,
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 152.12a.084 Too-narrow, to think HIM, as Hee is HEE
 155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
 189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit

THINK'ST.....7

068.00A.001 Little think'st thou, poore flower,
 068.00A.006 Little think'st thou
 068.00A.009 Little think'st thou poore heart
 068.00A.011 And think'st by hovering here to get a part
 068.00A.014 Little think'st thou,
 108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
 167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,

THINKE.....112

002.00A.006 As I thinke that brings dearth, and Spaniards in,
 003.00A.057 Still new like fashions, bids him thinke that shee
 004.00A.012 (Guilty of my sin of going,) to thinke me
 004.00A.169 Thinke he which made your waxen garden, and
 004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 005.00A.010 As I thinke, since all, which were, are, and shall
 017.00A.048 A Nunnery durst receive, and thinke a maid,
 018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page
 018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to'have had thy love.
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 022.00A.027 Sooner I'll thinke the Sunne will cease to cheare
 028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke
 029.00A.027 Therefore I thinke my breast hath all
 034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.
 036.00A.012 Why shouldst thou thinke?
 037.00A.025 Which thinke to stablish dangerous constancie.
 038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet
 038.00A.009 Let mee thinke any rivalls letter mine,
 042.00A.037 But thinke that wee
 049.00A.023 Or thinke this ragged bony name to bee
 049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
 057.00A.020 Prophane, to thinke thee any thing but thee.
 064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
 069.00A.016 All thought of sexe, and thinke to move

070.00A.008 And thinke that there a loving couple lies,
 071.00A.005 You thinke a sodaine dampe of love
 076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,
 108.00A.043 Let no man thinke, because he is full, he hath all,
 108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
 108.00A.139 To thinke thou wert in Bed so long,
 108.00A.162 The rising sun, doe thinke it two,
 108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 122.00A.015 All newes I thinke sooner reach thee then mee;
 127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
 127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
 130.00A.039 And in your afternoones thinke what you told
 131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
 131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.
 135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.
 137.00A.042 And make it wit, to thinke the wiser fooles:
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
 143.00A.003 As oft as there I thinke my selfe to bee,
 143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 150.00A.025 How could I thinke thee nothing, that see now
 153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
 153.00A.092 So fast as hee, thinke that he doth not so;
 155.00a.021 And, as men thinke, that Agues physicke are,
 155.00a.251 We thinke the heauens enjoy their Sphericall
 155.00a.287 Rise so high like a Rocke, that one might thinke
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 155.00a.335 (Since most men be such as most thinke they bee)
 155.00a.374 Tis now but wicked vanity to thinke,
 155.00a.458 In reuerence to her, doe thinke it due,
 156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,
 157.00b.059 Then those thy fellow-wormes doe thinke vpone
 157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,
 157.00b.085 Thinke then, My soule, that death is but a Groome,
 157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
 157.00b.091 And thinke those broken and soft Notes to bee
 157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
 157.00b.094 And thinke that but vnbinding of a packe,
 157.00b.096 Thinke thy selfe parch'd with feuers violence,

157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
 157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
 157.00b.102 Thinke Satans Sergeants round about thee bee,
 157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence 157.00b.113 Thinke that they shroud thee vp, and thinke from thence 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.117 Thinke the a Prince, who of themselues create
 157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
 157.00b.119 Thinke that they bury thee, and thinke that rite
 157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.159 Thinke that it argued some infermitee,
 157.00b.163 Thinke but how poore thou wast, how obnoxious,
 157.00b.169 Thinke that no stubborne sullen Anchorit,
 157.00b.173 Thinke in how poore a prison thou didst lie
 157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,
 157.00b.179 But thinke that Death hath now enfranchis'd thee,
 157.00b.181 Thinke that a rusty Peece, discharg'd, is flowen
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
 157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 157.00b.266 And now they thinke of new ingredients.
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 157.00b.416 Thinke him a foole for hauing tane that course?
 157.00b.441 The sight of God, in fulnesse, can thinke it;
 158.00A.238 Could thinke he sought it, he had swallowed cleare
 158.00A.370 They thinke they lose, if love be to the dead Prince shown.
 166.00A.014 I thinke it mercy, if thou wilt forget,
 185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,
 187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.
 192.00B.021 We thinke that Paradise and Calvarie,

THINKES.....9

003.00A.065 Graccus loves all as one, and thinks that so
 054.00A.005 Me thinks I lyed all winter, when I swore,
 066.00A.044 Who thinks her friendship a fit portion
 077.00A.003 Hee thinks that else none can or will agree,

122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 153.00A.167 Mee thinkes all Cities, now, but Anthills bee,
 155.00a.216 For euery man alone thinkes he hath got
 157.00b.267 And one soule thinkes one, and another way
 157.00b.268 Another thinkes, and ty's an euen lay.

THINKING.....6

003.00A.044 Thinking her unhous'd her, and fled from us,
 061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
 068.00A.027 A naked thinking heart, that makes no show,
 142.00A.037 This Vertue thinking to give dignitie
 184.00A.129 From thinking, that great courts immure
 184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus

THINKS.....5

061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes
 129.00A.036 That she thinks nothing else so fit for mee;
 145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,
 152.12a.072 Industrious Man discerneth, as he thinks,
 157.00b.084 He honors it too much that thinks it nought.

THINKST.....2

028.00A.002 And that thou thinkst thee free
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.

THINLY.....1

141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,

THINNE.....3

113.00A.010 For though to us it seeme,'and be light and thinne,
 137.00A.061 But these (as nice thinne Schoole divinity
 158.00A.267 To make the wether thinne, and airelike faith

THINNER.....1

158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she

THINNES.....1

158.00A.116 Stretch to so nice a thinnes through a quill

THINNESSE.....1

031.00A.024 Like gold to ayery thinnesse beate.

THIRD.....7

022.00A.038 Wee spake, unto the cunning of a third;
 109.00A.026 Asunder, meet against a third to warre,
 113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,
 145.00A.040 The third daies fruits, and flowers, and various greene

148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enjoyes this her third birth,
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,

THIRST.....10

018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,
 110.00A.041 Of being belov'd, and loving, or the thirst
 121.NY3.001 Euen as lame things thirst their perfection, so
 131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
 157.00b.045 Thirst for that time, O my insatiate soule,
 157.00b.046 And serue thy thirst, with Gods safe-sealing Bowle.
 160.00A.012 With a strong sober thirst, my soule attends.
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
 184.00A.153 From thirst, or scorne of flame, deliver us.
 187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.

THIRSTY.....2

157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;
 178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.

THIRTY.....2

002.00A.083 Of wasting candles, which in thirty yeare
 157.00b.187 Twenty, perchance, or thirty mile a day,

THIS.....592

001.00A.002 Leave mee, and in this standing wooden chest,
 001.00A.011 Shall I leave all this constant company,
 001.00A.047 And in this course attire, which I now weare
 002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state
 002.00A.044 But scarce a Poet, jollier of this state,
 003.00A.015 To follow, damn'd? O if thou dar'st, feare this.
 003.00A.016 This feare great courage, and high valour is;
 003.00A.038 In her decrepit wayne, and thou loving this,
 003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;
 003.00A.068 So doth, so is Religion; and this blind-
 003.00A.074 Be busie to seeke her, beleeve mee this,
 003.00A.097 A Harry, or a Martin taught thee this?
 003.00A.098 Is not this excuse for mere contraries,
 004.00A.004 A recreation, and scant map of this.
 004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne
 004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
 004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content
 004.00A.051 This fellow chuseth me? He saith, Sir,
 004.00A.085 Certes they are neatly cloth'd. I, of this minde am,
 004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch
 004.00A.117 To heare this Makeron talke in vaine: For yet,
 004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre

004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,
004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
004.00A.239 Drowne the sinnes of this place, for, for mee
005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
005.00A.028 Greatest and fairest Empresse, know you this?
005.00A.034 To know and weed out this enormous sinne.
006.00D.008 This booke, greater then all, producest now.
006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.
010.00A.005 So am I, (by this traiterous meanes surpriz'd)
010.00A.015 Takes this advantage to sleepe out day-light,
010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
012.00A.034 Then say I; that is shee, and this am I.
013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.
013.00A.006 Of sighes, and say, this lies, this sounds despaire.
015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.
015.00G.018 In this loves hallow'd temple, this soft bed.
015.00G.023 By this these Angels from an evil sprite,
015.00G.045 Thy self: cast all, yea, this white linnen hence
016.00A.021 By nature, which gave it, this liberty
016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
017.00A.028 Chuse this face, chang'd by no deformities;
018.00B.025 Dangers unurg'd; Feed on this flattery,
019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
020.00G.038 For love, then this, as infinit as it.
020.00G.039 But in attaining this desired place
020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
020.00G.089 Which goes this empty and Aetherial way,
021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
021.00G.055 And, after all this passed Purgatory,
021.00G.095 And this to th'comfort of my Dear I vow,
021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,
022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;
024.00A.054 And amorously thanke my selfe for this.
024.00A.057 O cure this loving madnesse, and restore
030.00B.014 Except our loves at this noone stay,
032.00A.005 T'was so; But this, all pleasures fancies bee.
036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,
036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy sphaere.
037.00A.019 %1Venus%2 heard me sigh this song,
037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee
039.00A.027 Mysterious by this love.
041.00A.018 This new love may beget new feares,
041.00A.019 For, this love was not vowed by thee,
043.00A.023 I meant to send this heart in stead of mine,

044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,
044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
044.00A.015 Unto this knowledge to aspire,
044.00A.016 That this her feaver might be it?
044.00A.017 And yet she cannot wast by this,
044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,
046.00A.009 This were the worst, that it could say,
048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,
048.00A.019 This, or a love increased there above,
048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.
049.00A.002 Doth contribute my firmnesse to this glasse,
049.00A.014 Which are but accessories to this name,
049.00A.017 You this intirenesse better may fulfill,
049.00A.020 This learning be, for a scratch'd name to teach,
049.00A.023 Or thinke this ragged bony name to bee
049.00A.030 Which tile this house, will come againe.
049.00A.037 So since this name was cut
049.00A.039 No doore'gainst this names influence shut,
049.00A.044 Flings ope this casement, with my trembling name,
049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,
049.00A.055 And if this treason goe
049.00A.057 In superscribing, this name flow
049.00A.063 Neere death inflicts this lethargie,
049.00A.064 And this I murmure in my sleepe;
049.00A.065 Impute this idle talke, to that I goe,
050.00A.004 This doth but %1counsaile%2, yet you cannot scape.
050.00A.010 This is her tolerable %1Tropique%2 %1clyme%2.
050.00A.016 Vow'd to this trench, like an %1Anachorit%2.
050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;
051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
051.00A.011 Benight the glory of this place,
051.00A.014 But that I may not this disgrace
051.00A.016 Some senselesse peece of this place bee;
052.00A.017 That sees, how Love this grace to us affords,
052.00A.019 This Booke, as long-liv'd as the elements,
052.00A.020 Or as the worlds forme, this all-graved tome
052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,
052.00A.026 Learning were safe; in this our Universe
052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;
053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
055.00A.017 Love, let me never know that this
055.00A.028 Having put love at last to shew this face.
055.00A.029 This face, by which he could command

055.00A.031 This face, which wheresoe'r it comes,
055.00A.036 For, this love is enrag'd with mee,
055.00A.040 Kill, and dissect me, Love; for this
057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,
058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
059.00A.014 Shall we, for this vaine Bubles shadow pay?
059.00A.015 Ends love in this, that my man,
060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
060.00A.001 Marke but this flea, and marke in this,
060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
060.00A.005 Thou know'st that this cannot be said
060.00A.007 Yet this enjoyes before it wooe,
060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
060.00A.021 Wherein could this flea guilty bee,
060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;
061.00A.030 Be annex'd in schedules unto this by mee,
062.00A.029 This Extasie doth unperplex
062.00A.031 Wee see by this, it was not sexe
062.00A.036 And makes both one, each this and that.
062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
062.00A.074 Have heard this dialogue of one,
063.00A.009 So, if I now should utter this,
063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,
064.00a.005 But since this god produc'd a destinie,
064.00a.019 Oh were wee wak'ned by this Tyrannie
064.00a.020 To ungod this child againe, it could not bee
065.00A.023 Convey'd by this, Ah, what doth it availe,
066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.
067.00A.007 Will leave this to controule,
067.00A.015 By this should know my pain,
068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
068.00A.005 And now dost laugh and triumph on this bough,
068.00A.016 Must with this Sunne, and mee a journey take.
069.00A.001 Vpon this Primrose hill,
069.00A.023 And women, whom this flower doth represent,
069.00A.024 With this mysterious number be content;
069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
070.00A.011 Meet at this grave, and make a little stay?
070.00A.012 If this fall in a time, or land,

070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
072.00A.020 This death, hath with my store
073.00A.005 Marriage rings are not of this stuffe;
073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
074.00A.016 Let him teach mee that nothing; This
075.00A.001 So, so, breake off this last lamenting kisse,
075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
078.00D.017 Send me nor this, nor that, t'increase my score,
079.00B.026 This; as shee would man should despise
081.HH5.038 to change my happiest wishes to this curse
082.00A.039 At this time to the Goat is runne
082.00A.044 This houre her Vigill, and her eve, since this
082.00A.044 This houre her Vigill, and her eve, since this
096.00A.006 In this case, as thou wouldst be done unto,
097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
103.00A.001 Why this man gelded %1Martiall%2 I muse,
106.00A.031 Here shine; This Bridegroom to the Temple bring
106.00A.079 This bed is onely to virginities
106.00A.086 That this life for a better should be spent;
106.00A.093 This Sun will love so dearely
107.00A.001 Haile Bishop Valentine, whose day this is,
107.00A.013 This day more cheerfully then ever shine.
107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
107.00A.018 For thou this day couplest two Phoenixes,
107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
107.00A.056 Besides this Bishops knot, O Bishop Valentine.
107.00A.062 So slowly pac'd in this procession?
107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
107.00A.083 Let not this day, then, but this night be thine,
107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.
107.00A.099 And by this act of these two Phenixes
107.00A.111 This will be tryed to morrow after nine,
108.00A.003 Thee, in this yeares cold and decrepit time?
108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew
108.00A.093 To know and feele all this, and not to have
108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
108.00A.103 So much as this poore song, which testifies
108.00A.115 The fire of these inflaming eyes, or of this loving heart.
108.00A.117 In this new couple, dost thou prize,
108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,
108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thanks, you, to give,
108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.

108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
108.00A.184 The tables groane, as though this feast
108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.
108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?
108.00A.198 And doe all this daies dances o'r againe.
108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,
108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
108.00A.226a As I have brought this song, that I may doe
108.00A.228a No S%5r%6. This paper I have justly got,
108.00A.231 What ever celebrates this Festivall
109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
109.00A.054 Shak'd with this ague, and the Hold and Wast
109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.
110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.
111.00A.010 In this worlds warfare, they whom rugged Fate,
111.00A.016 Suspitious boldnesse to this place belongs,
112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
112.00A.051 Follow (for he is easie pac'd) this snaile,
112.00A.059 Onely'in this one thing, be no Galenist. To make
114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as
115.00A.010 Of him, at least in this earths habitation:
116.00A.010 After this banquet my Soule doth say grace,
116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
120.00A.002 Urg'd by this unexcusable occasion,
120.00A.006 No blott nor maime by this division,
120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
121.NY3.020 Thy garden, make thy hive & warehouse this.
122.00A.005 As this my letter is like me, for it
122.00A.031 All the worlds riches: And in good men, this
123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound
127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,
127.00A.008 Thinke this no South, no Sommer, nor no day.
129.00A.017 Admit this honest paper, and allow
129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
129.00A.028 In this, wee must for others vices care;
130.00A.030 Into this world, corruptions sinke, is sent,
131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
131.00B.038 Vntill this raw disordered heape did breake,
131.00B.107 Who dare aspire this journey with a staine,
133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this
133.00A.049 I bid thee not doe this to be my spie;
134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
136.00A.011 From grosse, by Stilling, this is better done

136.00A.025 This, as an Amber drop enwraps a Bee,
137.00A.013 So in the country's beauty; to this place
137.00A.023 This shows that you from nature lothly stray,
137.00A.025 In this you've made the Court the Antipodes,
137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold
137.00A.047 And after this survey, oppose to all
138.00A.005 In this, my doubt I seem'd loath to confesse,
138.00A.046 Who prayer-lesse labours, or, without this, prayes,
138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe
139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
139.00A.002 Some embleme is of mee, or I of this,
139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
139.00A.045 On this side, sinne; with that place may comport.
139.00A.065 This private Ghospell, then 'tis our new yeare,
140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon
141.00A.012 For, Art and Nature this in them withstood.
141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
142.00A.008 As not to tell it; If this be too bold,
142.00A.009 Pardons are in this market cheaply sold.
142.00A.026 All contributions to this life forbear,
142.00A.037 This Vertue thinking to give dignitie
142.00A.047 Grow capable of this so great a light,
142.00A.053 Of whom, if what in this my Extasie
142.00A.058 So I should give this letter length, and say
142.00A.061 May therefore this be enough to testifie
143.00A.007 This season as 'tis Easter, as 'tis spring,
143.00A.017 Next I confesse this my confession,
145.00A.035 If in this sacrifice of mine, be showne
145.00A.051 How faire a prooffe of this, in our soule growes?
145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;
145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I
146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:
146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us
146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
147.00B.004 Admit to that place this last funerall Scrowle.
147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,
147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
148.00A.021 Not all, as if some perished by this,
148.00A.023 As of this all, though many parts decay,
149.00A.003 This Sea invirons all, and though as yet
149.00A.017 In her this sea of death hath made no breach,
149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines
149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
149.00A.027 Annuls this world, to recompence it, shall,

149.00A.028 Make and name then, th'Elixar of this All.
 149.00A.032 To th'elder death, by sinne, is freed by this;
 149.00A.038 So hath she this, and that virginity.
 149.00A.057 To have reform'd this forward heresie,
 150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 151.00A.041 And when wee teares, hee mercy shed in this,
 152.12a.002 For, both my %1Centres%2 feel This %1Period%2.
 152.12a.004 And R%9eason%0 is That %1Centre%2; F%9aith%0 is This.
 152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;
 152.12a.017 And nothing euer came so neer to This,
 152.12a.020 %1Reason%2 still seconded that This P%9rince%0 %1would%2.
 152.12a.023 What must This doo; %1Centres%2 distracted so,
 152.12a.034 This soule of %1Peace%2 through C%9hristianitie%0?
 152.12a.036 This %1general%2 %1Peace%2 th'eternall ouertake?
 152.12a.039 For, to confirm this iust Belief, that Now
 152.12a.043 But %1now%2 This %1Faith%2 is %1Heresie%2: wee must
 152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire
 152.12a.090 That %1Shee-Intelligence%2 which mov'd This %1Sphear%2,
 153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:
 153.00A.013 And so can make by this soft extasie,
 153.00A.014 This place a map of heav'n, my selfe of thee.
 153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
 153.00A.025 Thou at this midnight seest mee, and as soone
 153.00A.029 And I discerne by favour of this light,
 153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.077 So was it in this person, forc'd to bee
 153.00A.087 And as this Angell in an instant, knowes,
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 153.00A.156 To this unnaturall course, or why consent
 153.00A.157 To this, not miracle, but Prodigie,
 153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,
 153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,
 153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,
 153.00A.229 But though this freedome to upbraid, and chide
 153.00A.231 With this, that it might never reference have
 153.00A.232 Unto the Senate, who this triumph gave;
 153.00A.255 Doe not, faire soule, this sacrifice refuse,
 154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,
 155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
 155.00a.011 This world, in that great earth-quake languished;
 155.00a.015 Whether the world did loose or gaine in this,
 155.00a.019 This great consumption to a feuer turn'd,
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.066 Aliue to study this dissectione;
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,

155.00a.077 Produc'd: The matter and the stuffe of this,
 155.00a.081 (For all assum'd vnto this Dignitee,
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.161 Thus man, this worlds Vice-Emperor, in whom
 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did woee, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.169 This man, so great, that all that is, is his,
 155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,
 155.00a.211 They seeke so many new; they see that this
 155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now
 155.00a.225 Did in their voyage in this worlds Sea stray,
 155.00a.231 Whose hauing breath'd in this world, did bestow
 155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
 155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.
 155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sicknesse doth not lie
 155.00a.248 Feele this consuming wound, and ages darts.
 155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 155.00a.320 A type of her in this, that contrary
 155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.326 Thou knowst how vgly a monster this world is:
 155.00a.336 They're lothsome too, by this Deformitee.
 155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 155.00a.377 Nor in ought more this worlds decay appeares,
 155.00a.379 Or that the Elements doe not feele this,
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 155.00a.400 Embarr'd, and all this trafique quite forgot,
 155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.428 Thou knowest how drie a Cinder this world is.
 155.00a.440 Were punctuall in this Anatomy.
 155.00a.447 Accept this tribute, and his first yeares rent,
 155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,
 155.00a.468 Me this great Office boldly to inuade.
 156.00a.028 This Organ, are those peeces which beget
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you
 156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,
 157.00b.002 That this world had an euerlastingnesse,
 157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,
 157.00b.005 The Lustre, and the vigor of this All,
 157.00b.021 So strugles this dead world, now shee is gone;

157.00b.025 So after this sunnes set, some show appears,
 157.00b.030 Yet in this Deluge, grosse and generall,
 157.00b.036 Yearely to bring forth such a child as this.
 157.00b.049 Forget this rotten world; And vnto thee,
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
 157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubbidge this world is
 157.00b.101 So this, to the Triumphant Church, cals thee.
 157.00b.109 Thinke that they close thine eyes, and thinke in this,
 157.00b.134 And say this is a line, or this a point,
 157.00b.134 And say this is a line, or this a point,
 157.00b.136 In her, one could not say, this gouernes there.
 157.00b.165 This curded milke, this poore vn timered whelpe
 157.00b.165 This curded milke, this poore vn timered whelpe
 157.00b.183 And freely flies: This to thy soule allow,
 157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enioyes this her third birth,
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.231 And when w'haue made this large Discoueree,
 157.00b.234 Inough to make twenty such worlds as this;
 157.00b.252 If, as we were in this our liuing Tombe
 157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 157.00b.291 When wilt thou shake of this Pedanterie,
 157.00b.315 Shee, shee, not satisfied with all this waite,
 157.00b.321 Returne not, my soule, from this extasee,
 157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,
 157.00b.363 And shee made peace, for no peace is like this,
 157.00b.369 Shee coynd, in this, that her impressions gaue
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.403 Without this Honour, and then lou'd it so,
 157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honored) and that this
 157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.421 And that this Center, to raise such a place
 157.00b.423 No more affords this world, foundatione
 157.00b.443 This is essentiall ioye, where neither hee
 157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,

157.00b.480 And whilst thou ioyest in this, the dangerous rest,
 157.00b.495 This kind of ioy doth euery day admit
 157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 157.00b.520 To take this, for my second yeeres true Rent,
 157.00b.521 Did this Coine beare any other stampe, then his,
 157.00b.522 That gaue thee power to do, me to say this.
 157.00b.525 And that the world should notice haue of this,
 158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.
 158.00A.008 Greeke brasse, or Roman iron, is in this one;
 158.00A.011 Thee, eye of heaven, this great Soule envies not,
 158.00A.027 (From thence are all deriv'd, that fill this All)
 158.00A.030 As have beene moved, and inform'd by this heavenly sparke.
 158.00A.040 How scant, or liberall this my lifes race is spand.
 158.00A.047 And all that calls from this, and to others whets,
 158.00A.052 In vaine this sea shall enlarge, or enrough
 158.00A.066 This soule to whom %1Luther%2, and %1Mahomet%2 were
 158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
 158.00A.080 This Soule, made by the Makers will from pulling free.
 158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
 158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.
 158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
 158.00A.111 But snatch mee heavenly Spirit from this vaine
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 158.00A.124 Life, and growth to this apple, fled away
 158.00A.125 This loose soule, old, one and another day,
 158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so
 158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
 158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
 158.00A.159 Did this soules second Inne, built by the guest
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.
 158.00A.160 This living buried man, this quiet mandrake, rest.
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,
 158.00A.173 Thinner then burnt aire flies this soule, and she
 158.00A.181 Outcrept a sparrow, this soules moving Inne,
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 158.00A.193 Already this hot cocke in bush and tree
 158.00A.204 So jolly, that it can move this soule; Is
 158.00A.221 This cole with overblowing quench'd and dead,
 158.00A.227 This soule inform'd, and abled it to roe
 158.00A.235 And with his arched necke this poore fish catch'd.
 158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there
 158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
 158.00A.251 Pace with the native streame, this fish doth keepe,
 158.00A.258 As, in this trap a ravenous pike was tane,
 158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.
 158.00A.275 Spied through this traiterous spectacle, from high,
 158.00A.292 To sea-ward forc'd this bird, that did devour

158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,
 158.00A.327 Flyer and follower, in this whirlpoole fall;
 158.00A.333 Now in a roomefull house this Soule doth float,
 158.00A.337 Parched, since first lanch'd forth this living boate.
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,
 158.00A.371 This Soule, now free from prison, and passion,
 158.00A.379 This Soule, late taught that great things might by lesse
 158.00A.391 In which as in a gallery this mouse
 158.00A.392 Walk'd, and surveid the roomes of this vast house,
 158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.
 158.00A.433 Reade of a lust the which may equall this;
 158.00A.434 This wolfe begot himselfe, and finished
 158.00A.442 And Abell (the dam dead) would use this new
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
 158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,
 158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,
 158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possest a new.
 158.00A.491 And whether by this change she lose or win,
 158.00A.505 Did this Soule limbes, these limbes a soule attend,
 158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,
 158.00A.005 And this liberty costs mee more then others, by how much my owne things
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into 158.00A.025 no unreadinesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.033 shee was that apple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 158.00A.034 you shall finde in the end of this booke.
 160.00A.034 Yet lay him in this stall, and from the Orient,
 160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,
 160.00A.075 And life, by this death abled, shall controule
 160.00A.086 Joy at the uprising of this Sunne, and Sonne,
 163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
 164.00A.001 This is my playes last scene, here heavens appoint
 164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 170.00A.014 This beauteous forme assumes a pitious minde.
 172.00A.002 My Soule, this wholsome meditation,
 173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 176.00B.003 That I might in this holy discontent
 177.00B.003 And adds this even to full felicitie,
 181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,

181.00A.012 Of this Crosse, were to mee another Crosse.
 182.00A.019 Goe from a body, 'at this sepulcher been,
 182.00A.020 And, issuing from the sheet, this body seen,
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 183.00A.003 She sees him man, so like God made in this,
 183.00A.005 Whose first and last concur; this doubtfull day
 183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,
 183.00A.019 All this, and all betweene, this day hath showne,
 183.00A.033 This Church, by letting those daies joyne, hath shown
 183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;
 183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,
 184.00A.007 From this red earth, O Father, purge away
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)
 184.00A.046 And since this life our nonage is,
 184.00A.074 Of twelve Apostles, which ingirt this All,
 184.00A.118 And whil'st this universall Quire,
 184.00A.119 That Church in triumph, this in warfare here,
 184.00A.125 Heare this prayer Lord, O Lord deliver us
 184.00A.130 All, or no happinesse, or that this earth
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 184.00A.209 This intermitting aguish Pietie,
 185.00A.001 Let mans Soule be a Spheare, and then, in this,
 185.00A.010 This day, whe%T my Soules forme bends toward the East.
 185.00A.013 But that Christ on this Crosse, did rise and fall,
 187.00A.001 1 How sits this citie, late most populous,
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
 187.00A.146 And wag their head at thee, and say, Is this
 187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,
 187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.205 20 My Soule is humbled in remembring this;
 187.00A.230 In his just cause; the Lord allowes not this:
 187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?
 187.00A.323 16 For this they are scattered by Jehovahs face
 187.00A.333 Our dayes accomplish'd are, this the last day,
 187.00A.343 This cup shall passe, and thou with drunkennesse
 187.00A.367 10 The tempests of this famine wee liv'd in,
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this
 187.00A.379 16 For this our hearts do languish, and for this
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?
 189.00B.018 To Chists new stampe, at this thy Coronation;
 190.00A.008 I sacrifice this lland unto thee,
 190.00A.022 Seale then this bill of my Divorce to All,
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayes therefore on this one,
 191.00B.023 Make all this All, 3 Quires, heaven, earth, & sphears;

191.00B.029 This Quire hath all. The Organist is hee
 191.00B.041 This be reform'd; Would a whole State present
 191.00B.046 Which, by thy %1Moses%2 and this %1Miriam%2, is
 192.00B.008 Flat on this bed, that by them may be showne
 192.00B.009 That this is my South-west discoverie
 192.00B.029 Be this my Text, my Sermon to mine owne,

THITHER.....4

131.00B.103 Whose heat doth force us thither to intend,
 136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
 154.00A.040 Got thither by repentance, Let it bee
 158.00A.430 Of blood in Abels bitch, and thither this did passe.

THOSE.....138

001.00A.056 Name her child's right true father, 'mongst all those:
 002.00A.027 Rankly digested, doth those things out-spue,
 002.00A.092 Therefore spares no length; as in those first dayes
 002.00A.095 Each day his beads, but having left those lawes,
 002.00A.103 Where are those spread woods which cloth'd hertofore
 002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.
 003.00A.002 Those teares to issue which swell my eye-lids,
 003.00A.101 Those past, her nature, & name is chang'd to be,
 003.00A.103 As streames are, Power is, those blest flowers that dwell

004.00A.182 Those hose are, cry the flatterers; And bring
 004.00A.233 Those Askaparts, men big enough to throw
 005.00A.080 Got those goods, for which men bared to thee?
 008.00B.031 Those unlickt beare-whelps, unfill'd pistols
 010.00A.028 Oft skipt into our chamber, those sweet nights,
 012.00A.001 Oh, let mee not serve so, as those men serve
 012.00A.005 As those Idolatrous flatterers, which still
 014.NY3.035 Those warrs the'ignorant, these th' experienc'd love
 014.NY3.042 In those warrs, as they may which from vs two
 015.00G.017 Now off with those shooes, and then softly tread
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 021.00G.041 And those so ambush'd round with household spies,
 022.00A.008 Or those it hath, smile at your perjuries?
 022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw
 029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
 030.00B.007 We doe those shadowes tread;
 031.00A.016 Those things which elemented it.
 034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
 034.00A.009 So lovers contracts, images of those,
 036.00A.019 Aske for those Kings whom thou saw'st yesterday,
 052.00A.010 Study our manuscripts, those Myriades
 054.00A.023 Those like so many speares, but one heaven make,
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 066.00A.027 Onely to give to those that count my gifts indignity.
 066.00A.028 I give my reputation to those
 067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 070.00A.028 Perchance might kisse, but not between those meales
 072.00A.006 And those things whereof I consist, hereby
 072.00A.016 Now as those Active Kings
 106.00A.029 Yee of those fellowships whereof hee's one,
 107.00A.040 Ends of much wonder; And be Thou those ends,
 108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,
 108.00A.041 So are those Courts, whose Princes animate,
 109.00A.033 Ionas, I pittie thee, and curse those men,
 112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,
 129.00A.001 After those reverend papers, whose soule is
 129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand
 129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send
 130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 131.00B.047 What pretty innocence in those dayes mov'd?
 131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.

133.00A.002 With all those sonnes whom my braine did create,
 134.00A.010 Those friends, whom your election glorifies,
 135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.
 136.00A.006 And, those are barren both above our head:
 136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so
 138.00A.070 T'increase with ours, those faire soules company.
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you,'and shew you good,
 140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
 140.00A.049 Actions are authors, and of those in you
 145.00A.027 (For who can judge, or witness of those times
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 145.00A.078 Not those, by which Angels are seene and see;
 145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne
 152.12a.038 As to touch Those of which they Emblems are?
 153.00A.046 Those Spirits, humors, blood I did last yeare,
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.112 (Yea and those small ones which the Poles engrave,)
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
 153.00A.208 Thy selfe, from those straits nature put thee in,
 154.00A.038 Amongst those many friends now left behinde,
 155.00a.232 Spice on those Isles, and bad them still smell so,
 155.00a.259 And in those constellations there arise
 155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,
 155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truely said
 155.00a.393 So as the influence of those starres may bee
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
 156.00a.005 Or with those Pearles, and Rubies which shee was?
 156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.
 156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set
 156.00a.028 This Organ, are those peeces which beget
 156.00a.068 Those new starres eu'ry Artist exercise,
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
 157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,
 157.00b.059 Then those thy fellow-wormes doe thinke vpon
 157.00b.091 And thinke those broken and soft Notes to bee
 157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
 157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
 157.00b.209 Her through those speares, as through the beades, a string,
 157.00b.277 And of those many opinions which men raise
 157.00b.345 Vp to those Patriarckes, which did longer sit
 157.00b.347 Vp to those Prophets, which now gladly see

157.00b.351 Vp to those Martyrs, who did calmly bleed
 157.00b.353 Vp to those Virgins, who thought that almost
 158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes
 158.00A.226 And one of those small bodies, fitted so,
 158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
 158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,
 158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,
 158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,
 160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,
 167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
 173.00A.010 Whether a man those statutes can fulfill;
 176.00B.001 O might those sighes and teares returne againe
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 181.00A.053 Crosse those dejections, when it downward tends,
 182.00A.017 Had one of those, whose credulous pietie
 183.00A.033 This Church, by letting those daies joyne, hath shown
 184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw
 184.00A.068 Those heavenly Poets which did see
 184.00A.094 Tender'd not taken by those Ravishers:
 184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.
 184.00A.218 And rectifie those Labyrinths aright,
 185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,
 185.00A.022 And tune all speares at once peirc'd with those holes?
 187.00A.010 Juda is captive led; Those nations
 187.00A.055 My strength. The Lord unto those enemies
 187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 190.00A.023 On whom those fainter beames of love did fall;
 190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee
 191.00B.047 Already done; and as those Psalmes we call
 191.00B.053 Who hath translated those translators) may
 192.00B.012 For, though those currants yeeld returne to none,

THOTHER.....1

148.00A.014 Not a live friend; but thother halfe of clay;

THOU.....598

001.00A.001 Away thou fondling motley humorist,
 001.00A.014 (If thou which lov'st all, canst love any best)
 001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,
 001.00A.016 Though some more spruce companion thou dost meet,
 001.00A.023 Wilt thou grin or fawne on him, or prepare
 001.00A.029 That when thou meet'st one, with enquiring eyes
 001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne

001.00A.037 Why should'st thou that dost not onely approve,
 001.00A.049 But since thou like a contrue penitent,
 001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show
 001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show
 001.00A.064 Whither, why, when, or with whom thou wouldst go.
 001.00B.081 Or thou ô Elephant, or Ape wilt doe,
 001.00A.100 But Oh, God strengthen thee, why stoop'st thou so?
 002.00A.062 Thou wast, and mad, I hop'd; but men which chuse
 003.00A.015 To follow, damn'd? O if thou dar'st, feare this.
 003.00A.017 Dar'st thou ayd mutinous Dutch, and dar'st thou lay
 003.00A.017 Dar'st thou ayd mutinous Dutch, and dar'st thou lay
 003.00A.020 Dar'st thou dive seas, and dungeons of the earth?
 003.00A.021 Hast thou couragious fire to thaw the ice
 003.00A.026 Canst thou for gaine beare? and must every hee
 003.00A.029 O desperate coward, wilt thou seeme bold, and
 003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou
 003.00A.038 In her decrepit wayne, and thou loving this,
 003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 003.00A.042 Give this flesh power to taste joy, thou dost loath;
 003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou
 003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 003.00A.100 That thou mayest rightly obey power, her bounds know;
 004.00A.165 No, no, Thou which since yesterday hast beene
 004.00A.166 Almost about the whole world, hast thou seene,
 005.00A.001 Thou shalt not laugh in this leafe, Muse, nor they
 005.00A.045 Where wilt thou appeale? powre of the Courts below
 005.00A.049 Steele thee to dare complaine; Alas, thou goest
 005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most
 005.00A.052 'Gainst whom thou should'st complaine, will in the way
 005.00A.053 Become great seas, o'r which, when thou shalt bee
 005.00A.054 Forc'd to make golden bridges, thou shalt see
 005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee
 005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie
 005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper
 005.00A.086 Sell that, and by that thou much more shalt leese,
 005.00A.090 Thou art the swimming dog whom shadows cosened,
 006.00D.003 Venice vast lake thou hadst seen, & would seek than,
 006.00D.007 From Heydelberg, thou long'st to see: and thou
 006.00D.007 From Heydelberg, thou long'st to see: and thou
 006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.
 006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
 006.00D.025 Homely and familiarly, when thou com'st back,

006.00D.027 Go bashfull man, lest here thou blush to looke
 006.00D.030 The West sent gold, which thou didst freely spend,
 006.00D.049 Thus thou, by means which th'Ancients never took,
 006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit
 006.00D.063 Thou shalt not ease the Criticks of next age
 008.00B.002 For Armelets of that thou maist let me weare:
 008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 008.00B.069 Thou say'st (alas) the gold doth still remaine,
 008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;
 008.00B.091 But o thou wretched finder whom I hate
 008.00B.096 First mayst thou bee; then chaine to hellish paines;
 008.00B.099 May the next thing thou stoop'st to reach, containe
 008.00B.113 But if from it thou beest loath to depart,
 010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.
 010.00A.053 Onely, thou bitter sweet, whom I had laid
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly, 'and frolicke bee,
 011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
 011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
 013.00A.002 And in that sophistrie, Oh, thou dost prove
 013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand
 013.00A.005 Nor couldst thou judge the difference of the aire
 013.00A.020 Thou art not by so many duties his,
 014.NY3.003 All other warrs are scrupulous; Only thou
 014.NY3.041 Thou nothing; I not halfe so much shall do
 015.00G.020 Reveal'd to men: thou Angel bringst with thee
 015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
 016.00A.003 Yea though thou fall backe, that apostasie
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 016.00A.022 Thou lov'st, but Oh! canst thou love it and mee?
 016.00A.023 Likenesse glues love: and if that thou so doe,
 018.00B.010 And thou have sworne to seale joynt constancy,
 018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
 018.00B.017 Thirst to come backe; o if thou die before,
 018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade
 018.00B.043 If thou stay here. O stay here, for, for thee
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 020.00G.069 Thou shalt upon another Forest set,
 020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
 020.00G.075 Which thou dost seek, and is thy Map for that
 021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee
 021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,
 021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?
 021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
 021.00G.039 Was't not enough, that thou didst hazard us

021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.
021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide
024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
024.00A.015 That tells me'how faire thou art: Thou art so faire,
024.00A.021 Thou art not soft, and cleare, and strait, and faire,
024.00A.026 As thou, wast, art, and, oh, maist be ever.
024.00A.037 Nor needs perfection; why shouldst thou than
024.00A.064 As thou by comming neere, keep'st them from me.
025.00A.019 And may laugh and joy, when thou
025.00A.024 Or prove as false as thou art now.
026.00A.005 Hadst thou the wicked skill
026.00A.007 How many wayes mightst thou performe thy will?
026.00A.009 And though thou poure more I'll depart;
026.00A.012 Though thou retaine of mee
027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
027.00A.012 Gladder to catch thee, then thou him.
027.00A.013 If thou, to be so seene, beest loath,
027.00A.014 By Sunne, or Moone, thou darknest both,
027.00A.025 For thee, thou needst no such deceit,
027.00A.026 For thou thy selfe art thine owne bait,
028.00A.002 And that thou thinkst thee free
028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,
028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke
028.00A.009 Thou call'st for more,
028.00A.011 And then poore Aspen wretch, neglected thou
028.00A.016 I'had rather thou shouldst painfully repent,
030.00B.020 To me thou, falsly, thine,
031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
033.00A.010 If thou beest borne to strange sights,
033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee
033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee
033.00A.019 If thou findest one, let mee know,
034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,
034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
034.00A.003 Wilt thou then Antedate some new made vow?
036.00A.002 Why dost thou thus,
036.00A.012 Why shouldst thou thinke?
036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
036.00A.019 Aske for those Kings whom thou saw'st yesterday,
036.00A.020 And thou shalt heare, All here in one bed lay.
036.00A.025 Thou sunne art halfe as happy'as wee,
036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;
038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.

038.00A.020 Thou covet most, at that age thou shalt gaine.
041.00A.012 Or if then thou gavest mee all,
041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
041.00A.026 New growth, thou shouldst have new rewards in store;
041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:
041.00A.028 If thou canst give it, then thou never gavest it:
041.00A.030 It stayes at home, and thou with losing savest it:
042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
042.00A.027 When thou weep'st, unkindly kinde,
042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,
042.00A.030 That thou lov'st mee, as thou say'st,
042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
042.00A.032 Thou art the best of mee.
044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
045.00A.011 And therefore what thou wert, and who
046.00A.002 O wilt thou therefore rise from me?
047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;
047.00A.008 If thou love mee, take heed of loving mee.
047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,
047.00A.016 If thou hate mee, take heed of hating mee.
047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:
049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,
049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,
049.00A.056 To an overt act, and that thou write againe;
049.00A.059 So, in forgetting thou remembrest right,
052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
055.00A.016 Both wayes, as thou and thine, in eies and minde;
055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,
057.00A.005 Therefore thou wakd'st me wisely; yet
057.00A.006 My Dreame thou brok'st not, but continued'st it,
057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
057.00A.009 Enter these armes, for since thou thoughtst it best,
057.00A.014 (For thou lovest truth) an Angell, at first sight,
057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when
057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when 057.00A.023 Thou art not thou.
057.00A.023 Thou art not thou.

057.00A.028 Men light and put out, so thou deal'st with mee,
 057.00A.029 Thou cam'st to kindle, goest to come; Then I
 058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
 058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
 058.00A.026 Since thou and I sigh one anothers breath,
 060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
 060.00A.005 Thou know'st that this cannot be said
 060.00A.019 Cruell and sodaine, hast thou since
 060.00A.023 Yet thou triumph'st, and saist that thou
 060.00A.023 Yet thou triumph'st, and saist that thou
 060.00A.026 Just so much honor, when thou yeeld'st to mee,
 066.00A.007 Thou, Love, hast taught mee heretofore
 066.00A.016 Thou Love taught'st me, by appointing mee
 066.00A.025 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 066.00A.034 Thou love, by making mee adore
 066.00A.043 Thou, Love, by making mee love one
 066.00A.052 Thou Love taughtst mee, by making mee
 068.00A.001 Little think'st thou, poore flower,
 068.00A.006 Little think'st thou
 068.00A.009 Little think'st thou poore heart
 068.00A.014 Little think'st thou,
 068.00A.015 That thou to morrow, ere that Sunne doth wake,
 068.00A.017 But thou which lov'st to bee
 068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;
 068.00A.034 Twenty dayes hence, and thou shalt see
 070.00A.017 Thou shalt be a Mary Magdalen, and I
 073.00A.001 Thou art not so black, as my heart,
 073.00A.002 Nor halfe so brittle, as her heart, thou art;
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,
 073.00A.011 Be justly proud, and gladly safe, that thou dost dwellwith me,
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 076.00A.002 I scarce beleev'd, thou could'st be gone away,
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 078.00D.016 Within the Writings which thou hast adress.
 078.00D.018 But swear thou thinkst I love thee, and no more.
 081.HH5.013 soe after conquest thou doest me neglect
 081.HH5.039 That thou from changinge still mayst neuer pause
 094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
 095.NY3.001 Thou in the fields walkst out thy supping howres
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 096.00A.004 I should have had more faith, if thou hadst lesse;
 096.00A.006 In this case, as thou wouldst be done unto,
 096.00A.007 To beleeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminat, for I love womens ioyes

101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
106.00A.077 T'adorne the day, not thee; for thou, alone,
106.00A.081 Till now thou wast but able
106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
106.00A.092 Of heaven, to morrow rise thou hot, and early;
107.00A.005 Thou marryest every yeare
107.00A.009 Thou mak'st the black bird speed as soone,
107.00A.015 Till now, Thou warmd'st with multiplying loves
107.00A.018 For thou this day couplest two Phoenixes,
107.00A.019 Thou mak'st a Taper see
107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
107.00A.040 Ends of much wonder; And be Thou those ends,
107.00A.041 Since thou dost this day in new glory shine,
108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament
108.00A.039 And can'st thou be from thence?
108.00A.055b Dreamer, thou art,
108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
108.00A.056 Think'st thou fantastique that thou hast a part
108.00A.057 In the Indian fleet, because thou hast
108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
108.00A.059 Because thou art not frozen, art thou warme?
108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
108.00A.060 Seest thou all good because thou seest no harme?
108.00A.075 Hast thou a history, which doth present
108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
108.00A.091 What hast thou lost, O ignorant man?
108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
108.00A.105 Thou art repriv'd old yeare, thou shalt not die,
108.00A.106 Though thou upon thy death bed lye,
108.00A.108 Yet thou art rescu'd by a mightier fire,
108.00A.117 In this new couple, dost thou prize,
108.00A.131 How thou prevent'st the Sunne,
108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
108.00A.139 To thinke thou wert in Bed so long,
108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lyst downe first, tis fit
108.00A.141 Thou in first rising should'st allow for it,
108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
108.00A.147 Of joy, a Teare; so quencht, thou maist impart,
108.00A.149 Thus thou descend'st to our infirmitie,
108.00A.151 Soe dost thou, when in silke and gold,
108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,
108.00A.158 Still in that Picture thou intirely art,
108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?
108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?

108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
108.00A.201 Therefore thou maist, faire Bride, to bed depart,
108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
112.00A.012 Or under th'adverse icy pole thou pine,
112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,
112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
112.00A.058 Let men dispute, whether thou breath, or no:
114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pittie mee,
114.00A.028 If thou forget the rime as thou dost passe,
114.00A.028 If thou forget the rime as thou dost passe,
115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.
116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;
118.NY3.005 Dost thou recouer sicknes, or preuent?
118.NY3.007 Or art thou parted from the world & mee
121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.
121.NY3.005 There thou oreseest London: Here I haue beene
121.NY3.015 Do thou so to: and fill not like a Bee
122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
124.00A.001 O thou which to search out the secret parts
126.00A.003 Fulfil'd with hony which thou dost derive
126.00A.015 If thou unto thy Muse be marryed,
127.NY3.011 And since thou art in Paradise & needst craue
127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,
127.00A.022 As thou telst her and none but her my paine.
133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.
133.00A.005 What though thou have enough unworthinesse
133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
133.00A.009 And, that thou canst not learne, or not of mee;
133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye
133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this
133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,
133.00A.027 For, speech of ill, and her thou must abstaine,
133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
133.00A.031 And since they'are but her cloathes, thou shalt not erre
133.00A.032 If thou her shape and beauty'and grace commend.

133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,
 147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
 150.00A.021 O strong and long-liv'd death, how cam'st thou in?
 150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,
 150.00A.023 Thou hast, and shalt see dead, before thou dyest,
 150.00A.026 In all this All, nothing else is, but thou.
 150.00A.031 And though thou beest, O mighty bird of prey,
 150.00A.032 So much reclaim'd by God, that thou must lay
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 150.00A.035 And of those few, now thou hast overthrowne
 150.00A.040 But thou hast both of Captaine mist and fort.
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
 150.00A.055 Thou should'st have stay'd, and taken better hold,
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
 151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
 151.00A.017 Had'st thou staid there, and look'd out at her eyes,
 152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee
 152.12a.092 Which hast the noble Conscience, Thou art Shee.
 153.00A.002 Then when thou wast infused, harmony,
 153.00A.006 Thou finde that any way is pervious,
 153.00A.015 Thou seest mee here at midnight, now all rest;
 153.00A.025 Thou at this midnight seest mee, and as soone
 153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see
 153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see
 153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
 153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.155 O why wouldst thou be any instrument
 153.00A.177 At that gate then Triumphant soule, dost thou
 153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,
 153.00A.192 Thou didst intrude on death, usurp'st a grave.
 153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet
 153.00A.196 But till thou should'st successefully advance
 153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win
 153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
 153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
 153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,
 153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,
 153.00A.238 That thou so earely wouldst abandon us;

153.00A.246 That all men should lacke thee, then thou lack it.
154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
155.00a.026 Thou mightst haue better spar'd the Sunne, or Man;
155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
155.00a.032 Nothing but she, and her thou hast o'repast.
155.00a.035 The Ceremonies, thou vnnam'd hadst laid,
155.00a.038 And thou forgetst to celebrate thy name.
155.00a.058 Can neuer be renew'd, thou neuer liue,
155.00a.061 Her death hath taught vs dearely, that thou art
155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.
155.00a.187 And that except thou feed (not banquet) on
155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.
155.00a.242 But, as thou sawest it rotten at the hart,
155.00a.243 Thou seest a Hectique feuer hath got hold
155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
155.00a.326 Thou knowst how vgly a monster this world is:
155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
155.00a.428 Thou knowest how drie a Cinder this world is.
157.00b.031 Thou seest mee striue for life; my life shalbe,
157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse
157.00b.055 The World is but a Carkas; thou art fed
157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worme, consider more,
157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
157.00b.121 Thinke these things cheerefully: and if thou bee
157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;
157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
157.00b.161 Thou fedst vpon, And drewst into thee, both
157.00b.163 Thinke but how poore thou wast, how obnoxious,
157.00b.167 Infect thee with originall sinne, and thou
157.00b.173 Thinke in how poore a prison thou didst lie
157.00b.180 Thou hast thy'expansion now and libertee;
157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,

157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
157.00b.257 Thou neither knowst, how thou at first camest in,
157.00b.257 Thou neither knowst, how thou at first camest in,
157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.
157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
157.00b.260 By what way thou art made immortall, know.
157.00b.261 Thou art to narrow, wretch, to comprehend
157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
157.00b.269 Knowst thou but how the stone doth enter in
157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;
157.00b.273 And for the putrid stuffe, which thou dost spit,
157.00b.274 Knowst thou how thy lungs haue attracted it?
157.00b.276 (For ought thou knowst) piercing of substances.
157.00b.278 Of Nailles and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
157.00b.291 When wilt thou shake of this Pedanterie,
157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,
157.00b.296 Thou shalt not peepe through lattices of eies,
157.00b.299 In Heauen thou straight know'st all, concerning it,
157.00b.301 There thou (but in no other schoole) maist bee
157.00b.322 And meditation of what thou shalt bee,
157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station
157.00b.326 Canst thou choose out, free from infection,
157.00b.328 Shalt thou not finde a spungy slack Diuine
157.00b.341 Where thou shalt see the blessed Mother-maid
157.00b.383 But pause, My soule, and study ere thou fall
157.00b.387 And what essentiall ioy canst thou expect
157.00b.389 Of transitory causes? Dost thou loue
157.00b.391 Poore couse'ned cose'nor, that she, and that thou,
157.00b.438 Twice the circumference; and be thou such.
157.00b.475 My Lord, and this doe swell thee, thou art than,
157.00b.480 And whilst thou ioyest in this, the dangerous rest,
157.00b.518 Thou here shouldst make mee a french conuertite.
157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
157.00b.524 Thou shouldest for life, and death, a patterne bee,
157.00b.527 Thou art the Proclamation; and I ame
158.00A.013 In the first East, thou now begins to shine,
158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
158.00A.028 Did'st thou in that great stewardship embarke
158.00A.034 Our wayes and ends seest at one instant; Thou
158.00A.035 Knot of all causes, thou whose changelesse brow
158.00A.036 Ne'r smiles nor frownes, O vouch-safe thou to looke

158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,
 158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
 160.00A.003 Thou which of good, hast, yea art treasury,
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 160.00A.023 Ere by the spheares time was created, thou
 160.00A.025 Whom thou conceiv'st, conceiv'd; yea thou art now
 160.00A.025 Whom thou conceiv'st, conceiv'd; yea thou art now
 160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he
 160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,
 160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
 162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,
 162.00A.011 Except thou rise and for thine owne worke fight,
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt not chuse me.
 163.00A.001 Oh my blacke Soule! now thou art summoned
 163.00A.003 Thou art like a pilgrim, which abroad hath done
 163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
 163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
 163.00A.012 And red with blushing, as thou art with sinne;
 166.00A.013 That thou remember them, some claime as debt,
 166.00A.014 I thinke it mercy, if thou wilt forget,
 167.00A.002 Mighty and dreadfull, for, thou art not soe,
 167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
 167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 167.00A.009 Thou art slave to Fate, chance, kings, and desperate men,
 167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?
 167.00A.014 And death shall be no more, death thou shalt die.
 169.00A.005 Why brook'st thou, ignorant horse, subjection?
 169.00A.006 Why dost thou bull, and bore so seelily
 170.00A.002 Marke in my heart, O Soule, where thou dost dwell,
 172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
 174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
 174.00B.009 Onely thou art above, and when towards thee
 174.00B.014 And thou like Adamant draw mine iron heart.
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, & thou my thirst hast fed,
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,
 181.00A.021 Looke downe, thou spiest out Crosses in small things;
 181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;
 181.00A.043 And crosse thy senses, else, both they, and thou
 181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,
 182.00A.001 Sleep sleep old Sun, thou canst not have repast
 182.00A.002 As yet, the wound thou took'st on friday last;
 182.00A.006 On the earths face, as thou, enlightned hell,
 184.00A.003 Thou madest, and govern'st ever, come
 184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,

184.00A.082 And since thou so desirously
 184.00A.083 Did'st long to die, that long before thou could'st,
 184.00A.084 And long since thou no more couldst dye,
 184.00A.085 Thou in thy scatter'd mystique body wouldst
 184.00A.103 As thou hadst lent them, cleane and innocent,
 184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,
 184.00A.122 Prayes ceaslesly, 'and thou hearken too
 184.00A.132 Or that thou art covetous
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd
 184.00A.156 Of midle kind; and thou being sent
 184.00A.158 And through thy poore birth, where first thou
 184.00A.169 Made blind, so that thou might'st from them have gone,
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
 184.00A.177 Which thou in death did'st shew,
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 184.00A.206 O Thou who Satan heard'st in Jobs sicke day,
 184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,
 184.00A.243 Heare us, weake ecchoes, O thou eare, and cry.
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,
 185.00A.036 O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree;
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,
 187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Usest no clemencie;
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall
 187.00A.255 Out of the pit. 56 And thou my voice didst heare;
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
 187.00A.259 58 Thou Lord my Soules cause handled hast, and thou
 187.00A.260 Rescuest my life. 59 O Lord do thou judge now,
 187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;
 187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,
 187.00A.342 Thou which inhabitst her, for unto thee
 187.00A.343 This cup shall passe, and thou with drunkennesse
 187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne
 187.00A.385 19 Why should'st thou forget us eternally?
 187.00A.389 21 For oughtest thou, O Lord, despise us thus
 188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;
 189.00B.001 Thou, whose diviner soule hath caus'd thee now
 189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind

189.00B.006 Affected since the vintage? Dost thou finde
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine
 189.00B.013 Thou art the same materials, as before,
 189.00B.021 Since thou must doe the like, and so must move,
 189.00B.022 Art thou new feather'd with coelestiall love?
 189.00B.036 But goe thou on, and pittie their neglect.
 190.00A.005 Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise
 190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.
 190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 190.00A.021 O, if thou car'st not whom I love Alas, thou lov'st not mee.
 191.00B.006 (And thy gifts are as infinite as thou.)
 191.00B.012 So thou hast cleft that spirit, to performe
 191.00B.016 The Organ, where thou art the Harmony.
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.017 And, having done that, Thou haste done,

THOU'AND.....1

118.NY3.003 Whereof thou'and all to whom heuens do infuse

THOU'ART.....2

010.00A.020 And fearing least thou'art swolne, doth thee embrace;
 055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,

THOU'HADST.....1

165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.

THOU'HAST.....3

150.00A.038 To her Soule, thou'hast offer'd at her lower roome.
 160.00A.027 Thou'hast light in darke; and shutst in little roome,
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know

THOU'HAVE.....1

150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost

THOU'RT.....4

021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclaime,
 155.00a.024 Well, when alas, thou'rt in a Letargee.
 155.00a.190 Be more then man, or thou'rt lesse then an Ant.

THOUGH.....214

001.00A.016 Though some more spruce companion thou dost meet,
 001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way
 001.00A.019 Not though a briske perfum'd piert Courtier
 001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee
 001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:
 001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 002.00A.001 Sir; though (I thanke God for it) I do hate
 002.00A.005 Though Poetry indeed be such a sinne
 002.00A.007 Though like the Pestilence and old fashion'd love,
 002.00A.029 For if one eate my meate, though it be knowne
 003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee
 004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;
 004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;
 004.00A.071 No more can Princes courts, though there be few
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.225 He meant to crie; And though his face be as ill
 004.00A.241 To wash the staines away; though I yet
 008.00B.063 So full, that though hee passe them all in sinne,
 008.00B.070 Though it be chang'd, and put into a chaine,
 010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,
 010.00B.008 As though he came to kill a Cocatrice,
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.013 Though thy immortall mother which doth lye
 010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
 010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,
 012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall
 015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.
 015.00G.021 A heaven like Mahomets Paradise, and though
 016.00A.003 Yea though thou fall backe, that apostasie
 016.00A.019 Though Danuby into the sea must flow,
 017.00A.003 For, though her eyes be small, her mouth is great,
 017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 017.00A.006 And though her harsh haire fall, her skinne is rough;
 017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
 017.00A.015 Though all her parts be not in th'usuall place,
 017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,
 017.00A.049 And though in childbeds labour she did lie,
 019.00A.001 Here take my Picture, though I bid farewell;
 020.00G.008 Face'd like a man, though better then his own?
 020.00G.067 Though there the Current be the Pilot made,

021.00G.068 Though not against thy strokes, against thy harme%ls.
 022.00A.023 O I prophane, though most of women be
 022.00A.025 My dearest Love, though froward jealousie,
 022.00A.070 For though 'tis got by chance, 'tis kept by art.
 026.00A.009 And though thou poure more I'll depart;
 026.00A.012 Though thou retainde of mee
 029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;
 031.00A.012 Though greater farre, is innocent.
 031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
 031.00A.029 And though it in the center sit,
 033.00A.022 Though at next doore wee might meet,
 033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,
 035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 039.00A.018 Though she and I do love.
 041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
 043.00A.003 Though it be but an houre agoe,
 043.00A.007 Though I be dead, which sent mee, I should be
 044.00A.026 Though it in thee cannot persever.
 046.00A.001 'Tis true, 'tis day, what though it be?
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,
 052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
 052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
 052.00A.041 Who though from heart, and eyes,
 054.00A.025 And though each spring doe adde to love new heate,
 056.00A.013 Though they new lovers choose,
 060.00A.014 Though parents grudge, and you, w'are met,
 060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,
 062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 062.00A.060 Though it to body first repaire.
 063.00A.021 And if this love, though placed so,
 064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?
 066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
 074.00A.007 My love, though silly, is more brave,
 074.00A.018 Though I speed not, I cannot misse.
 077.00A.011 For though hee seeme to move, and stirre a while,
 078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 079.00B.038 Though I admire their greatnesse, shun their heat;
 101.NY3.002 I call not thee manly, though thou follow boyes.
 107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though
 107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
 108.00A.070 That Angels, though on earth employd they bee,
 108.00A.106 Though thou upon thy death bed lye,
 108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
 108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,
 108.00A.184 The tables groane, as though this feast

108.00A.190 Though six houres since, the Sunne to bed did part,
108.00A.210 Their soules, though long acquainted they had beene,
109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterue me, 'I wish not thee.
111.00A.027 At Court, though from Court, were the better stile.
112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
113.00A.007 Though to use, and love Poetrie, to mee,
113.00A.010 For though to us it seeme, 'and be light and thinne,
114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
117.00A.004 Yet as a firme house, though the Carpenter
117.00A.007 So, though I languish, prest with Malancholy,
120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
124.00A.013 I, though I brought no fuell, had desire
128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
129.00A.007 Of the same warme, and dazeling Sun, though it
129.00A.025 But 'tis an easier load (though both oppresse)
120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
131.00B.005 So naked at this day, as though man there
131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
131.00B.068 Though he be call'd aloud, to looke againe.
131.00B.086 And though beyond, is downe the hill againe.
131.00B.115 Though far removed Northerne fleets scarce finde
133.00A.005 What though thou have enough unworthinesse
133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke
136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
138.00A.013 Temples were not demolish'd, though prophane:
138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,
138.00A.071 But I must end this letter, though it doe
139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,
139.00A.058 And though to scape, then to revenge offence
141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,
143.00A.001 Though I be dead, and buried, yet I have
145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
145.00A.071 Nor lacke I light to read this booke, though I
145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
145.00A.084 And though I burne my librarie, be learn'd.
146.00A.013 As wee for him dead: though no familie
147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
148.00A.007 Twinnes, though their birth Cusco, and Musco take,
148.00A.023 As of this all, though many parts decay,
148.00A.025 And though diffus'd, and spread in infinite,
148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,
149.00A.003 This Sea invirons all, and though as yet

150.00A.031 And though thou beest, O mighty bird of prey,
150.00A.041 As houses fall not, though the King remove,
150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.
150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
152.12a.053 Therefore Wee liue: though such a Life wee haue
152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have
153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
153.00A.131 Though as small pocket-clocks, whose every wheele
153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet
153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
153.00A.229 But though this freedome to upbraid, and chide
153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
153.00A.243 Of early triumphs; And I (though with paine)
153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
153.00A.251 And though in no degree I can expresse,
155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,
155.00a.068 Though shee which did inanimate and fill
155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
155.00a.079 And though to be thus Elemented, arme
155.00a.261 As though heau'n suffred earth-quakes, peace or war,
155.00a.351 And then, as though she could not make inow,
155.00a.417 Who, though she could not transubstantiate
155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
156.00a.008 Though euery inche were ten escurials.
156.00a.076 For mariage, though it doe not staine, doth dye.
156.00a.081 For though she could not, nor could chuse to die,
157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,
157.00b.014 As though he beckned, and cal'd backe his Soul,
157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse
157.00b.039 And so, though not Reuiue, embalme, and spice
157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,
157.00b.131 And as, though all doe know, that quantities
157.00b.135 So though the Elements and Humors were
157.00b.149 And hath taught vs that though a good man hath
157.00b.151 And though he may pretend a conquest, since
157.00b.153 Yea though he plead a long possession too,
157.00b.155 Though he had right, and power, and Place before,
157.00b.259 Nor dost thou, (though thou knowst, that thou art so)
157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
158.00A.056 For though through many streights, & lands I roame,

158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toys
 158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
 158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught
 158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine have slain
 158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,
 158.00A.480 Of nature; nature hath no gaole, though shee hath law.
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
 160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there
 160.00A.072 Shall (though she now be in extreme degree
 161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came
 167.00A.001 Death be not proud, though some have called thee
 178.NY3.007 But though I haue found thee, '& thou my thirst hast fed,
 183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,
 183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,
 184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
 184.00A.026 (Though this glasse lanthorne, flesh, do suffer maime)
 184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.
 184.00A.104 Though they have not obtain'd of thee,
 184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.
 184.00A.163 And though that bitter agonie,
 184.00A.168 Though thereby they were then
 185.00A.033 Though these things, as I ride, be from mine eye,
 187.00A.065 17 There's none, though Sion do stretch out her hand
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,
 190.00A.005 Though thou with clouds of anger do disguise
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.
 191.00B.048 (Though some have other Authors) Davids all:
 191.00B.049 So though some have, some may some Psalmes translate,
 192.00B.012 For, though those currants yeeld returne to none,
 193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?
 193.00A.004 And do run still: though still I do deplore?

THOUGH'IT.....1

089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though'it be true.

THOUGHT.....43

004.00A.054 Said, that I thought Calepines Dictionarie;
 004.00A.131 Becomming Traytor, and mee thought I saw
 004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought
 008.00B.106 All mischief that all devils ever thought;
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 010.00A.050 So thought he good, strange, that had none at all.
 021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
 022.00A.003 Thought I, but one had breathed purest aire,
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 022.00A.024 This kinde of beast, my thought shall except thee;

025.00A.010 Which no unworthy thought could staine,
 040.00A.008 I thought, if I could draw my paines,
 045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 051.00A.008 And that this place may thoroughly be thought
 054.00A.002 As I had thought it was,
 056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
 057.00A.013 Yet I thought thee
 065.00A.011 And thought to feast on that, I let him see
 069.00A.016 All thought of sexe, and thinke to move
 070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
 076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
 079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
 081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 114.00A.031 I shall be thought, if mine like thine I shape,
 142.00A.011 I thought it some Apostleship in mee
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 153.00A.082 Our quick thought cannot keepe him company,
 155.00a.051 Thought it some blasphemy to say sh'was dead;
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
 157.00b.246 That one might almost say, her bodie thought,
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.310 Of her some one thought, or one action:
 157.00b.353 Vp to those Virgins, who thought that almost
 158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 182.00A.018 Thought, that a Soule one might discern and see
 182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
 187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,

THOUGHTS.....34

021.00G.072 And thoughts and dreams; Love never wanteth shifts,
 021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.
 024.00A.007 Thoughts, my mindes creatures, often are with thee,
 048.00A.018 (All other thoughts being inmates) then shall prove
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,
 057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
 057.00A.016 And knew'st my thoughts, beyond an Angels art,
 078.00D.002 Or that my easelesse thoughts may sleep & rest;

078.00D.012 To shew our thoughts should rest in the same hold.
 108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
 110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
 130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,
 131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 135.B13.006 Doe by that influence all your thoughts digest.
 135.B13.015 soe free from impure thoughts they shalbe found.
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.
 138.00A.051 Let the minds thoughts be but transplanted so,
 142.00A.045 But as an influence, vertuous thoughts imparts.
 143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
 153.00A.042 My thoughts on his deeds? which shall I call best?
 153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe
 155.00a.181 Out of her thoughts, and deeds; and purifie
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.220 To'advance these thoughts, remember then, that shee
 157.00b.304 At home, in her owne thoughts, And practised
 157.00b.323 To earthly thoughts, till it to thee appeare,
 157.00b.371 Shee gaue protections; the thoughts of her brest
 157.00b.439 Double on Heauen, thy thoughts on Earth emloid;
 158.00A.172 Are falling stars, and hearts thoughts, but slow pac'd:
 158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.
 189.00B.007 New thoughts and stirrings in thee? and as Steele

THOUGHTST.....1

057.00A.009 Enter these armes, for since thou thoughtst it best,

THOUSAND.....8

003.00A.046 That shee was there a thousand yeares agoe,
 033.00A.012 Ride ten thousand daies and nights,
 056.00A.020 A thousand it possesse,
 076.00A.006 A thousand, I did neither thinke, nor doe.
 076.00A.008 Or in a thousand more, forgot that too.
 157.00b.512 A thousand praiers to saints, whose very names
 158.00A.330 That thousand guiltlesse smals, to make one great, must die?
 179.NY3.005 Sleepes She a thousand, then peepes vp one yeare?

THOUSANDS.....3

014.NY3.043 Shall spring. Thousands we see which trauaile not
 106.00A.016 Thousands of Angels on your mariage daies,
 109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all

THRALL'D.....1

080.00E.018 For she is thrall'd therefore:

THRALLS.....1

138.00A.085 For so, ill thralls not them, but they tame ill

THREAD.....1

067.00A.009 For if the sinewie thread my braine lets fall

THREATEN.....2

024.00A.034 Doth threaten, and some daily change possesse.

157.00b.146 No Accident could threaten any linke,

THREATENS.....2

127.00A.006 Here rages chafes and threatens pestilence;

166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?

THREATNED.....2

018.00B.006 Of hurts, which spies and rivals threatned me,

157.00b.177 And that vsurped, or threatned with the rage

THREATNINGS.....2

028.00A.017 Then by my threatnings rest still innocent.

122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;

THREATS.....1

184.00A.213 Not threats in Thunder may

THRED.....2

062.00A.007 Our eye-beames twisted, and did thred

193.00A.014 My last thred, I shall perish on the shore;

THRED-BARE.....1

008.00B.056 Well-pleas'd with one leane thred-bare goat, for hire,

THREDS.....1

158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threads,

THREE.....21

030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,

033.00A.027 False, ere I come, to two, or three.

037.00A.023 And said, alas, Some two or three

040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;

060.00A.010 Oh stay, three lives in one flea spare,

060.00A.018 And sacrilege, three sinnes in killing three.

060.00A.018 And sacrilege, three sinnes in killing three.

066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.

079.00B.013 Is not lesse cared for after three dayes

112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three

112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three

112.00A.030 Each elements qualities were in the'other three;
 112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
 155.00a.119 Two or three hundred yeares to see't againe,
 155.00a.134 In a torne house, or field, to haue three liues.
 157.00b.125 The other three, no Feare, no Art could guesse:
 158.00A.210 Ill steward of himself, himselfe in three yeares ends.
 158.00A.219 Pleasantly three, then streightned twenty yeares
 171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you
 182.00A.012 For these three daies become a minerall;
 184.00A.036 Of power, to love, to know, you unnumbered three.

THREESCORE.....1

048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.

THRESHER.....2

158.00A.351 The flaile-find Thresher, and steel-beak'd Sword-fish
 158.00A.353 The Thresher backs him, and to beate begins;

THREW.....5

109.00A.015 Such strong resistance, that it selfe it threw
 109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.
 158.00A.129 To a darke and foggie Plot; Her, her fates threw
 158.00A.488 Her brother, entred, and a great stone threw
 166.00A.002 Whose fruit threw death on else immortall us,

THRICE.....3

005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly
 022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,
 045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,

THRICE-FAIRE.....1

120.00A.010 Heavens liberall and earths thrice-faire Sunne,

THRIFT.....1

059.00A.013 Our ease, our thrift, our honor, and our day,

THRIFTY.....1

002.00A.081 For as a thrifty wench scrapes kitching-stuffe,

THRISE.....1

003.00A.022 Of frozen North discoueries, and thrise

THRIVE.....4

003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 004.00A.122 He saith, our warres thrive ill, because delai'd;
 069.00A.021 Live Primrose then, and thrive
 113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay

THRIVES.....1

002.00A.076 As these things do in him; by these he thrives.

THROAT.....1

158.00A.325 And in his gulfe-like throat, sucks every thing

THROATS.....1

150.00A.018 In birds, Heavens choristers, organique throats,

THRONE.....3

092.NY3.002 Towards the Suns cradle, & his throne, & bed.

156.00a.050 An Angell made a Throne, or Cherubin?

187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne

THRONES.....1

139.00A.013 Verse embalms vertue;'and Tombs, or Thrones of rimes,

THRONG.....1

158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,

THRONGED.....1

158.00A.134 From thicker bodies, by this root thronged so

THROUGH.....60

003.00A.107 Through mills, & rockes, & woods, and at last, almost

004.00A.231 Goe through the great chamber (why is it hung

008.00B.038 As streames like veines, run through th'earth's every part,

008.00B.057 May like a devill roare through every street;

015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.

021.00G.050 Varied our language through all dialects,

021.00G.057 Frst let our eyes be rivited quite through

036.00A.003 Through windowes, and through curtaines call on us?

036.00A.003 Through windowes, and through curtaines call on us?

040.00A.009 Through Rimes vexation, I should them allay,

052.00A.008 And her, through whose helpe Lucan is not lame,

067.00A.010 Through every part,

071.00A.006 Will through all their senses move,

081.HH5.005 Through thine Eyes mee thought I could behold

081.HH5.006 thy hart as pictures through a Christall glasse

107.00A.022 Did not containe, one bed containes, through Thee,

107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.

107.00A.081 He comes, and passes through Spheare after Spheare.

108.00A.006 In numerous fleets, saile through their Sea, the aire.

108.00A.161 As men which through a Cipres see

131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.

135.B13.023 who soe doe make the whole yeare through a springe,

136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
 142.00A.019 For when through tastelesse flat humilitie
 142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
 145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:
 149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
 152.12a.034 This soule of Peace through Christianitie?
 153.00A.028 Through all, both Church and State, in seeing thee;
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
 153.00A.084 Now through the Moon, now he through th'aire doth run,
 153.00A.109 In the most large extent, through every path,
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.206 At once is at, and through the Firmament.
 157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,
 157.00b.209 Her through those spheares, as through the beades, a string,
 157.00b.293 Thou look'st through spectacles; small things seeme great,
 157.00b.296 Thou shalt not peepe through lattices of eies,
 157.00b.297 Nor heare through Laberinth of eares, nor learne
 157.00b.335 The poyson'is gone through all, poysons affect
 158.00A.006 From infant morne, through manly noone I draw.
 158.00A.053 It selfe; for I will through the wave, and fome,
 158.00A.056 For though through many streights, & lands I roame,
 158.00A.116 Stretch to so nice a thinnes through a quill
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 158.00A.130 There through th'earths-pores, and in a Plant hous'd her a new.
 158.00A.183 As childrens teeth through gummes, to breake with paine,
 158.00A.275 Spied through this traiterous spectacle, from high,
 158.00A.003 flat, and through light as mine. Naturally at a new Author, I doubt,
 181.00A.055 And as the braine through bony walls doth vent
 184.00A.077 As through their prayers, thou'hast let mee know
 184.00A.158 And through thy poore birth, where first thou
 184.00A.167 And through thy free confession
 184.00A.172 Through thy submitting all, to blowes
 184.00A.176 And through thy gallant humblenesse
 187.00A.298 Them by the face, as through the street they goe,
 187.00A.302 And better through pierc'd, then by penury,
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,

THROUGH-LIGHT.....1

156.00a.061 T'was but a through-light scarfe, her minde t'enroule,

THROUGH-SHINE.....2

049.00A.008 As all confessing, and through-shine as I,
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.

THROUGH-SWOME.....1

158.00A.263 The net through-swome, she keeps the liquid path,

THROUGH-VAINE.....1

158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,

THROUGHLY.....5

048.00A.021 And then wee shall be thoroughly blest,

111.00A.011 (Gods Commissary,) doth so thoroughly hate,

112.00A.069 I thoroughly love. But if my selfe, I have wonne

157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had thoroughly red

158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not thoroughly arm'd

THROW.....4

004.00A.233 Those Askaparts, men big enough to throw

005.00A.046 Flow from the first maine head, and these can throw

184.00A.076 Their light, to darke deep pits, throw downe, and fall,

187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.

THROW'N.....1

152.12a.049 As, for the Earth throw'n lowest downe of all,

THROWES.....2

002.00A.045 Then are new benefic'd ministers, he throws

113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throws in

THROWNE.....8

004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne

008.00B.019 Shall they be damn'd, and in the furnace throwne,

109.00A.062 Seas into seas throwne, we suck in againe;

131.00B.028 I may be rais'd by love, but not throwne down.

155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne

158.00A.301 Into an embrion fish, our Soule is throwne

158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne

187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe

THROWS.....1

192.00B.030 Therefore that he may raise the Lord throws down.

THRUST.....7

004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee

153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,

155.00a.298 Millions into a strait hote roome be thrust)

157.00b.103 And thinke that but for Legacies they thrust;

157.00b.432 Be sought alone, and not in such a thrust,

158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,

191.00B.003 And thrust into strait corners of poore wit

THRUSTS.....4

004.00A.111 He thrusts on more; And as if he 'undertooke
 014.NY3.038 Neere thrusts, pikes, stabs, yea bullets hurt not here.
 133.00A.007 That's much, emboldens, pulls, thrusts I confesse,
 158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led

THUMMIM.....1

005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie

THUNDER.....2

109.00A.042 Could none by his right name, but thunder call:
 184.00A.213 Not threats in Thunder may

THUNDER-PROOFE.....1

158.00A.315 Of barke that blunts best steele, is thunder-proofe,

THUS.....91

001.00A.066 That thus have sinn'd against my conscience.
 003.00A.031 Sentinell in his worlds garrison) thus yeeld,
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,
 006.00D.049 Thus thou, by means which th'Ancients never took,
 009.00A.053 Leave her, and I will leave comparing thus,
 012.00A.041 Though hope bred faith and love; thus taught, I shall
 015.00G.030 How am I blest in thus discovering thee?
 015.00G.040 For lay-men are all women thus arrayed.
 018.00B.011 Here I unsweare, and overswear them thus,
 020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strays thus:
 021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?
 036.00A.002 Why dost thou thus,
 036.00A.026 In that the world's contracted thus.
 039.00A.037 And thus invoke us; You whom reverend love
 042.00A.008 Thus by fain'd deaths to dye;
 045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 049.00A.047 Then thinke this name alive, and that thou thus
 052.00A.003 How I shall stay, though she Esloygne me thus
 052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,
 052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,
 058.00A.005 For thus they bee
 062.00A.053 We owe them thanks, because they thus,
 065.00A.025 Thus I redeem'd my buzard love, to flye
 066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.
 079.00B.007 Thus when
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though't be true.
 108.00A.149 Thus thou descend'st to our infirmitie,
 110.00A.006 In calmes, Heaven laughs to see us languish thus.
 110.00A.056 I should not then thus feele this miserie.

112.00A.002 For, thus friends absent speake. This ease controules
 112.00A.033 And mingled thus, their issue incestuous.
 118.NY3.012 for myne is barren thus deuorc'd from thyne.
 122.00A.012 Though I stay here, I can thus send my heart,
 130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
 135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.
 140.00A.031 Thus man, that might be'his pleasure, is his rod,
 142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne
 143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,
 145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
 150.00A.067 Thus might'st thou'have slain more soules, had'st thou not crost
 153.00A.237 Mov'd with a reverentiall anger, thus,
 153.00A.241 Prerogative hath thus dispens'd with thee,
 155.00a.079 And though to be thus Elemented, arme
 155.00a.125 And when the very stature thus erect,
 155.00a.153 'Tis shrinking, not close-weauing, that hath thus,
 155.00a.161 Thus man, this worlds Vice-Emperor, in whom
 155.00a.185 And learn'st thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.239 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.273 And seeming weary with his reeling thus,
 155.00a.281 Loth to goe vp the hill, or labor thus
 155.00a.327 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.371 And learnst thus much by our Anatomee,
 155.00a.401 Shee, for whose losse we haue lamented thus,
 155.00a.425 She that did thus much, and much more could doe,
 155.00a.429 And learnst thus much by our Anatomy,
 155.00a.459 That no one should her prayses thus rehearse,
 155.00a.470 Me, from thus trying to emprison her.
 156.00a.034 Thus braue and confident may Nature bee,
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 157.00b.041 For thus, Man may extend thy progeny,
 157.00b.063 To be thus stupid is Alacrity;
 157.00b.064 Men thus lethargique haue best Memory.
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.
 157.00b.247 Shee, shee, thus richly, and largely hous'd, is gone:
 158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
 158.00A.131 The plant thus abled, to it selfe did force
 158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
 158.00A.399 And thus he made his foe, his prey, and tombe:
 158.00A.489 After the Ape, who, thus prevented, flew,
 158.00A.490 This house thus batter'd downe, the Soule possest a new.
 160.00A.055 He in his ages morning thus began
 164.00A.013 Impute me righteous, thus purg'd of evill,
 164.00A.014 For thus I leave the world, the flesh the devill.

184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,
 184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus
 185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus
 187.00A.002 Thus solitary, and like a widdow thus?
 187.00A.002 Thus solitary, and like a widdow thus?
 187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?
 187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,
 187.00A.270 Purest and finest gold thus chang'd to this?
 187.00A.350 See, and marke how we are reproached thus,
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?
 187.00A.389 21 For oughtest thou, O Lord, despise us thus
 189.00B.011 Hast thou thus traffiqu'd, but with farre more gaine

THY.....553

001.00A.013 First sweare by thy best love in earnest
 001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way
 001.00A.020 Deigne with a nod, thy courtesie to answer.
 001.00A.032 So high or low, dost raise thy formall hat:
 001.00A.035 As though all thy companions should make thee
 001.00A.036 Jointures, and marry thy deare company.
 001.00A.040 Of thy plumpe muddy whore, or prostitute boy
 001.00A.050 Charitably warn'd of thy sinnes, dost repent
 003.00A.011 Us in the end, and shall thy fathers spirit
 003.00A.027 Which cryes not, Goddess, to thy Mistresse, draw,
 003.00A.028 Or eate thy poysonous words, courage of straw!
 003.00A.030 To thy foes and his (who made thee to stand
 003.00A.033 Know thy foe, the foule devill h'is, whom thou
 003.00A.037 So the worlds selfe, thy other lov'd foe, is
 003.00A.041 Thou lovest; and thy faire goodly soule, which doth
 003.00A.071 And the right; aske thy father which is shee,
 003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,
 004.00A.167 O Sunne, in all thy journey, Vanitie,
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 005.00A.088 O wretch that thy fortunes should moralize
 006.00D.002 Thy learned spirit, Sesqui-superlative?
 006.00D.014 Reason and laugh, thy booke doth halfe make man.
 006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,
 006.00D.028 Vpon the progresse of thy glorious booke,
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 006.00D.035 This magnifies thy leaves; but if they stoope
 006.00D.037 Voluminous barrels; if thy leaves do then
 006.00D.041 Thy leaves a better method do provide,
 006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,

006.00D.055 So will thy booke in peeces; for a Lord
006.00D.075 Thy Gyant-wit'orethrowes me, I am gone;
008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
008.00B.003 Nor that thy hand it oft embrac'd and kist,
008.00B.007 Mourn I that I thy seavenfold chaine have lost;
008.00B.017 Shall these twelve innocents, by thy severe
008.00B.074 Necessities; but now must nurse thy pride,
008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;
008.00B.092 So, that I almost pittie thy estate:
008.00B.098 Thy Countrey, and faile both of it and thy pay.
008.00B.098 Thy Countrey, and faile both of it and thy pay.
008.00B.100 Poyson, whose nimble fume rot thy moist braine;
008.00B.102 Which negligently kept, thy ruine bring.
008.00B.109 Afflict thee, and at thy lives last moment,
008.00B.110 May thy swolne sinnes themselves to thee present.
008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordiall, would twere at thy heart.
009.00A.007 Ranke sweaty froth thy Mistresse's brow defiles,
009.00A.019 Thy head is like a rough-hewne statue of jeat,
009.00A.032 Such is thy tann'd skins lamentable state.
009.00A.045 Doth not thy fearefull hand in feeling quake,
010.00A.001 Once, and but once found in thy company,
010.00A.002 All thy suppos'd escapes are laid on mee;
010.00A.006 By thy Hydroptique father catechiz'd.
010.00A.010 Thy beauties beautie, and food of our love,
010.00A.013 Though thy immortall mother which doth lye
010.00A.016 And watch thy entries, and returns all night,
010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
010.00A.019 And kissing notes the colour of thy face,
010.00A.022 And notes thy palenesse, blushing, sighs, and sweats;
010.00A.027 Thy little brethren, which like Faiery Sprights
010.00A.029 And kist, and ingled on thy fathers knee,
010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.
010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,
012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.
012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.
012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitterness beget
012.00A.040 Death in thy cheekes, and darknesse in thine eye;
012.00A.042 As nations do from Rome, from thy love fall.
012.00A.044 I will renounce thy dalliance: and when I
013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
013.00A.015 Since, houshold charmes, thy husbands name to teach,
013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
014.NY3.004 O fayr free Citty, maist thy selfe allow

014.NY3.031 Thy armes imprison me, and myne armes thee,
 014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.
 014.NY3.032 Thy hart thy ransome is, take myne for mee.
 015.00G.044 As liberally, as to thy Midwife shew
 015.00G.045 Thy self: cast all, yea, this white lynnene hence
 016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,
 016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 016.00A.025 More then thy hate, I hate it, rather let mee
 017.00A.001 Marry, and love thy Flavia, for, shee
 017.00A.012 Be in thy wench, ne'r aske where it doth lye.
 017.00A.038 If thy past sinnes have taught thee jealousie!
 017.00A.040 Safe to thy foes; yea, to a Marmoset.
 018.00B.007 I calmly beg. But by thy fathers wrath,
 018.00B.015 I'll goe, and, by thy kinde leave, leave behinde
 018.00B.019 Thy (else Almighty) beautie cannot move
 018.00B.020 Rage from the Seas, nor thy love teach them love,
 018.00B.028 Thy bodies habite, nor minde, bee not strange
 018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face
 018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face
 018.00B.048 Nor let thy lookes our long hid love confesse,
 018.00B.050 Openly loves force, nor in bed fright thy Nurse
 018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to have had thy love.
 020.00G.072 Mispent by thy beginning at the face.
 020.00G.075 Which thou dost seek, and is thy Map for that
 021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?
 021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee
 021.00G.016 Thy Martyrs must no more each other see?
 021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,
 021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 021.00G.035 Was't not enough that thou didst dart thy fires
 021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?
 021.00G.042 And over all thy husbands trowing eyes
 021.00G.054 Yea, thy pale inwards, and thy panting heart?
 021.00G.054 Yea, thy pale inwards, and thy panting heart?
 021.00G.066 And plague enough thou hast in thy own name.
 021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
 021.00G.068 Though not against thy strokes, against thy harme%ls.
 021.00G.068 Though not against thy strokes, against thy harme%ls.
 024.00A.023 But thy right hand, and cheek, and eye, only
 024.00A.024 Are like thy other hand, and cheek, and eye.
 024.00A.030 My beauty, and make me unworthy of thy love.
 024.00A.035 Thy body is a naturall Paradise,
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 024.00A.059 So may thy cheekes red outweare scarlet dye,
 024.00A.061 So may thy mighty amazing beauty move

025.00A.018 That I may know, and see thy lyes,
026.00A.007 How many wayes mightst thou performe thy will?
026.00A.008 But now I have drunke thy sweet salt teares,
027.00A.006 Warm'd by thy eyes, more then the Sunne.
027.00A.026 For thou thy selfe art thine owne bait,
028.00A.001 When by thy scorne, O murdresse, I am dead,
028.00A.004 Then shall my ghost come to thy bed,
028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,
031.00A.027 Thy soule the fixt foot, makes no show
031.00A.035 Thy firmnes makes my circle just,
036.00A.004 Must to thy motions lovers seasons run?
036.00A.011 Thy beames, so reverend, and strong
036.00A.027 Thine age askes ease, and since thy duties bee
036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.
036.00A.030 This bed thy center is, these walls, thy spheare.
038.00A.021 Doe thy will then, then subject and degree,
041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,
041.00A.014 But if in thy heart, since, there be or shall,
041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
041.00A.027 Thou canst not every day give me thy heart,
041.00A.029 Loves riddles are, that though thy heart depart,
042.00A.033 Let not thy divining heart
042.00A.035 Destiny may take thy part,
042.00A.036 And may thy feares fulfill,
044.00A.008 The whole world vapours with thy breath.
044.00A.010 It stay, tis but thy carkasse then,
044.00A.011 The fairest woman, but thy ghost,
044.00A.023 Thy beauty, 'and all parts, which are thee,
045.00A.002 Before I knew thy face or name;
045.00A.013 That it assume thy body, I allow,
045.00A.014 And fixe it selfe in thy lip, eye, and brow.
045.00A.019 Ev'ry thy haire for love to worke upon
045.00A.025 So thy love may be my loves spheare;
047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,
047.00A.007 Then, least thy love, by my death, frustrate bee,
047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.
047.00A.014 If I, thy conquest, perish by thy hate.
047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;
047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undoe
049.00A.043 When thy inconsiderate hand
049.00A.046 New battry to thy heart may frame,
049.00A.049 And when thy melted maid,
049.00A.050 Corrupted by thy Lover's gold, and page,
049.00A.051 His letter at thy pillow'hath laid,

049.00A.052 Disputed it, and tam'd thy rage,
 049.00A.058 Into thy fancy, from the pane.
 052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
 052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,
 055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,
 055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
 057.00A.012 Thine eyes, and not thy noise wak'd mee;
 058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,
 058.00A.003 For thy face coines them, and thy stampe they beare,
 058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow
 058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,
 060.00A.020 Purpled thy naile, in blood of innocence?
 060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
 068.00A.003 And seene thy birth, and seene what every houre
 068.00A.004 Gave to thy growth, thee to this height to raise,
 068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,
 068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;
 069.00A.022 With thy true number five;
 073.00A.007 Figure our loves? Except in thy name thou have bid it say
 078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,
 078.00D.013 No, nor thy picture, though most gracious,
 081.HH5.006 thy hart as pictures through a Christall glasse
 081.HH5.007 thy hart seemd soft & pure as liquid gold
 081.HH5.008 thy faith seemd bright & durable as brasse
 081.HH5.014 Could not thy once pure heart else now forbear
 081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.024 & had thy harte deliuered by thy hand
 081.HH5.024 & had thy harte deliuered by thy hand
 081.HH5.028 of it or thy love they had all bene mine
 081.HH5.037 Vnto thy soule whether I have not cause
 081.HH5.047 but in thy harte framd soe white & cleare
 081.HH5.050 pittie thy selfe in yet beinge true & free
 081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandring doe but yet decline
 090.00A.001 Thy sinnes and haire may no man equall call,
 090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haire doe fall.
 090.00A.002 For, as thy sinnes increase, thy haire doe fall.
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 095.NY3.001 Thou in the fields walkst out thy supping howres
 096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
 096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,
 096.00A.005 Thy credit lost thy credit: 'Tis sinne to doe,
 096.00A.007 To beleeeve all: Change thy name: thou art like
 097.00A.001 Thy flattering picture, Phryne, is like thee,
 106.00A.037 Thy two-leav'd gates faire Temple unfold,
 106.00A.038 And these two in thy sacred bosome hold,

106.00A.040 Then may thy leane and hunger-starved wombe
106.00A.073 Thy virgins girdle now untie,
106.00A.074 And in thy nuptiall bed [loves alter] lye
107.00A.002 All the Aire is thy Diocis,
107.00A.004 And other birds are thy Parishioners,
107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.
107.00A.030 Thy selfe from thine affection
107.00A.034 Thy starres, from out their severall boxes, take
107.00A.035 Thy Rubies, Pearles, and Diamonds forth, and make
107.00A.036 Thy selfe a constellation, of them All,
107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.
107.00A.045 So meet thy Fredericke, and so
107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.
107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.
107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.
108.00A.011 Thy madnesse from thee; and all springs by frost
108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament
108.00A.058 A little spice, or Amber in thy taste?
108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,
108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
108.00A.074 Might'st have read more then all thy books bewray;
108.00A.106 Though thou upon thy death bed lye,
108.00A.109 Then thy old Soule, the Sunne,
108.00A.133 How, having laid downe in thy Soveraignes brest
108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
108.00A.137 The fire of thy inflaming eyes, and of thy loving heart.
108.00A.142 Poudre thy Radiant haire,
108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
108.00A.196 Thy selfe must to him a new banquet grow,
108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.
109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
109.00A.006 When by thy judgment they are dignifi'd,
110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,
112.00A.047 Be thou thine owne home, and in thy selfe dwell;
112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;
112.00A.057 Nor making sound; so, closely thy course goe,
113.00A.034 Manure thy selfe then, to thy selfe be'approv'd,
113.00A.034 Manure thy selfe then, to thy selfe be'approv'd,
114.00A.015 Before by thy grace got in th' Muses Schoole)
114.00A.021 For, but thy selfe, no subject can be found
114.00A.022 Worthy thy quill, nor any quill resound
114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see

114.00A.024 A Poem in thy praise, and writ by thee.
 114.00A.030 Thy debter, thy'eccho, thy foyle, thy zanee.
 114.00A.030 Thy debter, thy'eccho, thy foyle, thy zanee.
 114.00A.030 Thy debter, thy'eccho, thy foyle, thy zanee.
 114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
 115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure
 115.NY3.006 I ame thy Creator, thou my Sauior.
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 116.00A.007 And now thy Almes is given, thy letter'is read,
 116.00A.009 And thy poore starveling bountifully fed.
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 116.00A.012 Thy love, though I thinke thy love in this case
 118.NY3.004 Like fyer, are made; thy body, mind, & Muse.
 118.NY3.006 Or is thy Mind trauaild with discontent?
 118.NY3.009 Or is thy devout Muse retyrd to sing
 118.NY3.011 Our Minds part not, ioyne then thy Muse with myne
 119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:
 119.NY3.001 Muse not that by thy Mind thy body is led:
 119.NY3.002 for by thy Mind, my Mind's distempered.
 119.NY3.003 So thy Care Lives Long, for I bearing part
 119.NY3.012 Cur'd by thy charming soveraigne melodee.
 120.00A.001 Thy friend, whom thy deserts to thee enchaine,
 120.00A.001 Thy friend, whom thy deserts to thee enchaine,
 120.00A.009 But though besides thy selfe I leave behind
 121.NY3.016 Thy thighs with hony, but as plenteously
 121.NY3.017 As Russian Marchants, thy selves whole vessell load,
 121.NY3.020 Thy garden, make thy hive & warehouse this.
 121.NY3.020 Thy garden, make thy hive & warehouse this.
 122.00A.001 If, as mine is, thy life a slumber be,
 122.00A.009 So thy retyrings I love, yea envie,
 123.NY3.001 Kindly I envy thy Songs perfection
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 123.NY3.014 I recreated even by thy Creature live.
 124.00A.005 Disdaine not in thy constant travailing
 125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,
 126.00A.001 Is not thy sacred hunger of science
 126.00A.002 Yet satisfy'd? Is not thy braines rich hive
 126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw
 126.00A.006 From Cambridge thy old nurse, and, as the rest,
 126.00A.015 If thou unto thy Muse be married,
 127.NY3.012 No ioyes addition, helpe thy frind to saue.
 127.00A.013 So may thy pastures with their flowery feasts,
 127.00A.014 As suddenly as Lard, fat thy leane beasts;
 127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare
 127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so
 127.00A.018 In chace and race may thy horse all out goe;
 127.00A.019 So may thy love and courage ne'r be cold;

127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;
 127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;
 133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 147.00B.021 Heare this, & mend thy selfe, and thou mendst me,
 150.00A.004 That any can thy Summons disobey.
 150.00A.005 Th'earths face is but thy Table; there are set
 150.00A.036 One whom thy blow, makes, not ours, nor thine own.
 150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost
 150.00A.068 Thy selfe, and to triumph, thine army lost.
 151.00A.012 Thou hast kil'd her, to make thy Empire more?
 151.00A.022 Clay, flint, and jeat now thy fit dwellings be;
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 151.00A.026 Th'hast lost thy end, for in her perish all;
 153.00A.034 All, in these mirrors of thy wayes, and end;
 153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?
 153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
 153.00A.119 So, though thy circle to thy selfe expresse
 153.00A.120 All, tending to thy endlesse happinesse,
 153.00A.130 And by thy doing tell us what to doe?
 153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow
 153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,
 153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,
 153.00A.188 That there thy counsailes might get victorie,
 153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,
 153.00A.208 Thy selfe, from those straits nature put thee in,
 153.00A.211 (Which is thy soule and body) as intire
 153.00A.244 Lessen our losse, to magnifie thy gaine
 153.00A.256 That in thy grave I doe interre my Muse,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my grieffe, great as thy worth, being cast
 154.00A.032 Thy station be, but with the Paenitents ,
 154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.028 That thou hast lost thy sense and memory.
 155.00a.029 T'was heauy then to heare thy voyce of mone,
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.038 And thou forgetst to celebrate thy name.
 155.00a.057 Thy'ntrinsique Balme, and thy preseruative,
 155.00a.060 What we may gaine by thy Anatomy.
 155.00a.062 Corrupt and mortall in thy purest part.
 155.00a.189 Thy better Grouth growes withered, and scant;

155.00a.431 It with thy Teares, or Sweat, or Bloud: no thing
 155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,
 155.00a.450 Will yearely celebrate thy second birth,
 155.00a.451 That is, thy death. For though the soule of man
 157.00b.038 May great Grand-children of thy praises grow.
 157.00b.041 For thus, Man may extend thy progeny,
 157.00b.043 These Hymns thy issue, may encrease so long,
 157.00b.046 And serue thy thirst, with Gods safe-sealing Bowle.
 157.00b.059 Then those thy fellow-wormes doe thinke vpone
 157.00b.088 And after brings it nearer to thy sight:
 157.00b.090 Thinke thy selfe laboring now with broken breath,
 157.00b.092 Diuision, and thy happiest Harmonee.
 157.00b.093 Thinke thee laid on thy death bed, loose and slacke;
 157.00b.095 To take one precious thing, thy soule, from thence.
 157.00b.096 Thinke thy selfe parch'd with feuers violence,
 157.00b.098 Thy Physicke; chide the slacknesse of the fit.
 157.00b.099 Thinke that thou hearst thy knell, and thinke no more,
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 157.00b.106 And trust th'immaculate blood to wash thy score.
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.115 Thinke that thy body rots, and (if so lowe,
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.116 Thy soule exalted so, thy thoughts can goe,)
 157.00b.157 Thinke further on thy selfe, my soule, and thinke
 157.00b.183 And freely flies: This to thy soule allow,
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.184 Thinke thy sheel broke, thinke thy Soule hatch'd but now.
 157.00b.219 This must, my soule, thy long-short Progresse bee;
 157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
 157.00b.255 Thou know'st thy selfe so little, as thou know'st not,
 157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
 157.00b.263 To know thy body. Haue not all soules thought
 157.00b.274 Knowst thou how thy lungs haue attracted it?
 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.
 157.00b.339 Vp vp, my drowsie soule, where thy new eare
 157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;
 157.00b.439 Double on Heauen, thy thoughts on Earth employd;
 157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subiects to call thee
 157.00b.479 A dangerous Apostem in thy brest;
 157.00b.516 Immortall Maid, I might inuoeque thy name.
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee have, begot,
 158.00A.015 And wilt anon in thy loose-rein'd careere
 158.00A.017 And see at night thy Westerne land of Myne,
 158.00A.020 And thy fraile light being quenched, shall long, long out live thee.
 158.00A.037 And shew my story, in thy eternall booke.

158.00A.042 Except thy booke owe mee so many more,
158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there
160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,
160.00A.026 Thy Makers maker, and thy Fathers mother,
160.00A.037 Seest thou, my Soule, with thy faiths eyes, how he
160.00A.069 And at thy death giving such liberall dole,
160.00A.076 Death, whom thy death slue; nor shall to mee
160.00A.078 If in thy little booke my name thou enroule,
160.00A.094 Mild lambe which with thy blood, hast mark'd the path;
160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
160.00A.097 And if thy holy Spirit, my Muse did raise,
162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
162.00A.005 I am thy sonne, made with thy selfe to shine,
162.00A.006 Thy servant, whose paines thou hast still repaid,
162.00A.007 Thy sheepe, thine Image, and till I betray'd
162.00A.008 My selfe, a temple of thy Spirit divine;
162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?
163.00A.011 Oh make thy selfe with holy mourning blacke,
165.00A.011 'Tis late to aske abundance of thy grace,
165.00A.014 As if thou'hadst seal'd my pardon, with thy blood.
167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?
172.00A.004 In heaven, doth make his Temple in thy brest,
173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,
173.00A.008 Of his and thy kingdome, doe thy Sonnes invest,
173.00A.011 None doth, but thy all-healing grace and Spirit,
173.00A.013 Thy lawes abridgement, and thy last command
173.00A.013 Thy lawes abridgement, and thy last command
174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,
174.00B.010 By thy leave I can looke, I rise againe;
174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art
175.00B.014 Of thee and thy house, which doth in eating heale.
177.00B.014 Thy grieffe, for he put it into my breast.
178.NY3.013 But in thy tender iealosity dost doubt
179.NY3.001 Show me deare Christ, thy Spouse, so bright & cleare.
179.NY3.011 Betray kind husband thy Spouse to our Sights,
179.NY3.012 And let myne amorous Soule court thy mild Dove
181.00A.019 Swimme, and at every stroake, thou art thy Crosse,
181.00A.043 And crosse thy senses, else, both they, and thou
181.00A.051 And crosse thy heart: for that in man alone

181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,
181.00A.060 Crosse no man else, but crosse thy selfe in all.
182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
182.00A.008 As, at thy presence here, our fires grow pale.
184.00A.017 But let it be by applying so thy paine,
184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.
184.00A.018 Drown'd in thy blood, and in thy passion slaine.
184.00A.024 Double in my heart thy flame,
184.00A.055 And let thy Patriarches Desire
184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw
184.00A.064 Thy Eagle-sighted Prophets too,
184.00A.065 Which were thy Churches Organs, and did sound
184.00A.069 Thy will, and it expresse
184.00A.073 And thy illustrious Zodiacke
184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
184.00A.085 Thou in thy scatter'd mystique body wouldst
184.00A.101 Which, as thy mother, their high Abbesse, sent
184.00A.105 That or thy Church, or I,
184.00A.109 Thy sacred Academie above
184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought
184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there
184.00A.138 From trusting so much to thy blood,
184.00A.154 Deliver us for thy descent
184.00A.158 And through thy poore birth, where first thou
184.00A.167 And through thy free confession
184.00A.172 Through thy submitting all, to blowes
184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,
184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,
184.00A.173 Thy face, thy clothes to spoile; thy fame to scorne,
184.00A.176 And through thy gallant humblenesse
184.00A.178 Dying before thy soule they could expresse,
184.00A.181 When senses, which thy souldiers are,
184.00A.195 Or wars, thy Champions, swaie,
184.00A.196 When Heresie, thy second deluge, gaines;
184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
184.00A.212 That musique of thy promises,
184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,
184.00A.246 Gaine to thy selfe, or us allow;
184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
185.00A.038 Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave.
185.00A.041 Restore thine Image, so much, by thy grace,
187.00A.083 That thou hast done it; But thy promis'd day
187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
187.00A.141 14 For, the vaine foolish things thy Prophets sought,
187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee
187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
187.00A.155 He hath throwne downe, and not spar'd, and thy foe

187.00A.161 19 Arise, cry in the night, poure, for thy sinnes,
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;
 187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,
 187.00A.167 To eate their children of a spanne? shall thy
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.210 For great, O Lord, is thy fidelity.
 187.00A.240 44 Cover'st thy selfe with clouds, that our prayer hath
 187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name
 187.00A.267 65 Sorrow of heart, thy curse. 66 And with thy might 187.00A.267 65 Sorrow of heart, thy curse. 66 And with thy might
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.
 187.00A.344 Shalt fill thy selfe, and shew thy nakednesse.
 187.00A.345 22 And then thy sinnes O Sion, shall be spent,
 187.00A.347 Thy sinnes O Edoms daughter, hee will see,
 187.00A.383 18 But thou O Lord art ever, and thy throne
 188.00E.003 May thy soul, ever chearfull, nere know cares,
 188.00E.004 Nor thy life, ever lively, know gray haire.
 188.00E.005 Nor thy hand, ever open, know base holds,
 188.00E.006 Nor thy purse, ever plump, know pleits, or folds.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 188.00E.008 Nor thy word, ever mild, know quarrelling.
 188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,
 188.00E.010 Nor thy fame, ever pure, know contumelies.
 188.00E.011 Nor thy prayers, know low objects, still Divine;
 189.00B.002 To put thy hand unto the holy Plough,
 189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind
 189.00B.018 To Chists new stampe, at this thy Coronation;
 189.00B.023 Deare, tell me where thy purchase lies, and shew
 189.00B.024 What thy advantage is above, below.
 189.00B.025 But if thy gainings doe surmount expression,
 189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,
 189.00B.049 These are thy titles and preheminences,
 189.00B.053 Both these in thee, are in thy Calling knit,
 190.00A.002 That ship shall be my embleme of thy Arke;
 190.00A.004 Shall be to mee an embleme of thy blood;
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,
 190.00A.011 Put thou thy seas betwixt my sinnes and thee.
 190.00A.015 Nor thou nor thy religion dost controule,
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.006 (And thy gifts are as infinite as thou:)
 191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon
 191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;
 191.00B.039 So well in Chambers, in thy Church so ill,
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,
 191.00B.046 Which, by thy Moses and this Miriam, is
 191.00B.050 We thy Sydnean Psalmes shall celebrate,

192.00B.002 Where, with thy Quire of Saints for evermore,
 192.00B.003 I shall be made thy Musique; As I come
 192.00B.028 And as to others soules I preach'd thy word,
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne
 193.00A.015 But sweare by thy selfe, that at my death thy sonne

THY'ECCHO.....1

114.00A.030 Thy debter, thy'eccho, thy foyle, thy zanee.

THY'EXPANSION.....1

157.00b.180 Thou hast thy'expansion now and libertee;

THY'INCONSTANCIE.....1

022.00A.026 With circumstance might urge thy'inconstancie,

THY'NTRINSIQUE.....1

155.00a.057 Thy'ntrinsique Balme, and thy preseruatiue,

THYNE.....5

115.NY3.005 Plead for me, and so by thyne & my labor,
 118.NY3.012 for myne is barren thus deuorc'd from thyne.
 119.NY3.004 It eates not only thyne, but my swolne hart.
 119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
 123.NY3.012 Which as a lame Eccho of thyne doth rebound.

TIBI.....1

186.00E.021 Plura tibi accumulet, sanctus cognominis, Ille

TICKLING.....1

 002.00A.009 Never, till it be sterv'd out; yet their state
 005.00A.082 Beg'st right; But that dole comes not till these dye.
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 014.NY3.001 Till I haue peace with thee, warr other Men;
 018.00B.045 To walke in expectation, till from thence
 020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
 020.00G.034 Above the earth, the earth we Till and love:
 021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,
 022.00A.044 Till hee be noysome as his infamie;
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 033.00A.013 Till age snow white haire on thee,
 033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,
 034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?
 037.00A.021 She heard not this till now; and that it should be so no more.
 038.00A.005 Till then, Love, let my body raigne, and let
 038.00A.023 Spare mee till then, I'll beare it, though she bee
 048.00A.029 Yeares and yeares unto yeares, till we attaine
 049.00A.031 Till my returne, repaire
 049.00A.041 'Twill make thee; and thou shouldst, till I returne,
 050.00A.017 And here, till hers, which must be his death, come,
 055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot
 058.00A.017 Till thy teares mixt with mine doe overflow
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 064.00a.014 Love, till I love her, that loves mee.
 106.00A.039 Till, mystically joyn'd, but one they bee;
 106.00A.081 Till now thou wast but able
 107.00A.015 Till now, Thou warmd'st with multiplying loves
 107.00A.068 Like Fairies, till the Cock crow them away.
 107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.
 108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,
 108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisdome grow so stale,
 108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisdome grow so stale,
 108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?
 109.00A.030 Like shot, not fear'd, till felt, our sailes assaile;
 130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.
 131.00B.062 And journeys not till it finde summer-way.
 133.00A.003 At lest lye hid with mee, till thou returne.
 137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face
 138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
 141.00A.035 Neither appeare, till in one cloud they bee,
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that Hee ,

 153.00A.184 Till they as Magistrates get victorie,
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.196 But till thou should'st successefully advance
 153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
 155.00a.168 Till man came vp, did downe to man descend,
 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 156.00a.070 Argue, and agree not, till those starres go out:
 156.00a.072 Till she can be no bodies else, nor shee:
 157.00b.044 As till Gods great Venite change the song.
 157.00b.202 Goes through, not staying till his course be runne;
 157.00b.323 To earthly thoughts, till it to thee appeare,
 158.00A.084 Till the then climbing serpent, that now creeps
 158.00A.180 Till her uncloth'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.
 158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not
 158.00A.243 Till melted with the Swans digestive fire,
 158.00A.297 And with his prey, that till then languisht, dies,
 158.00A.402 Till the best midwife, Nature, gave it helpe,
 162.00A.007 Thy sheepe, thine Image, and till I betray'd
 163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 185.00A.038 Corrections, till thy mercies bid thee leave.
 187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.
 190.00A.019 Thou lov'st not, till from loving more, thou free
 191.00B.051 And, till we come th'Extemporall song to sing,

TILLAGE.....1

024.00A.038 Admit the tillage of a harsh rough man?

TILLTHOU.....1

157.00b.047 Bee thirsty still, and drinke still tillthou goe;

TILMAN.....1

189.00B.HE1 To M^r Tilman after he had taken orders.

TIMBER.....1

050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;

TIME.....40

002.00A.041 Whom time (which rots all, and makes botches poxe,
 002.00A.085 Pecemeeale he gets lands, and spends as much time
 004.00A.064 Time enough to have beene Interpreter
 004.00A.178 Time made ready, that day, in flocks, are found
 004.00A.209 As a young Preacher at his first time goes

006.00D.058 For friends to passe time, and keep company.
 008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
 014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
 014.NY3.020 To dust and ashes turnd before my time.
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 021.00G.077 Time shall not lose our passages; the spring
 036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
 050.00A.009 That was her torrid and inflaming time,
 070.00A.012 If this fall in a time, or land,
 070.00A.020 And since at such time, miracles are sought,
 082.00A.039 At this time to the Goat is runne
 106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
 106.00A.041 Long time expect their bodies and their tombe,
 108.00A.003 Thee, in this yeares cold and decrepit time?
 108.00A.183 Injures; it causeth time to stay;
 109.00A.017 How in the port, our fleet deare time did leese,
 127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 153.00A.076 When they would exercise, lacke time, and space.
 153.00A.078 For lack of time, his owne epitome.
 153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'mploy their time,
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.247 Though then in our time, be not suffered
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 155.00a.172 Helpe, or at least some time to wast, allow
 157.00b.045 Thirst for that time, O my insatiate soule,
 158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
 158.00A.302 And in due time throwne out againe, and growne
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.013 'Tis time that heart and voice be lifted high,
 160.00A.023 Ere by the speares time was created, thou
 160.00A.052 Nor had time mellowed him to this ripenesse,
 189.00B.012 Of noble goods, and with lesse time and paine?

TIMES.....21

002.00A.089 So huge, that men (in our times forwardnesse)
 022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw
 048.00A.003 The Sun it selfe, which makes times, as they passe,
 049.00A.016 So shall all times finde mee the same;
 054.00A.026 As princes doe in times of action get
 108.00A.048 So, reclus'd hermits often times do know
 131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.
 136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,
 138.00A.018 By blamers of the times they mard, hath sought
 139.00A.011 In recompence I would show future times

145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,
 145.00A.027 (For who can judge, or witnessse of those times
 152.12a.037 And that His Times might haue stretcht out so far
 152.12a.042 In Peace-full times, Rumors of Warrs should rise.
 153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes deuest
 155.00a.040 Measures of times are all determined)
 157.00b.050 Let thine owne times as an old story be.
 157.00b.070 Some Figure of the Golden times, was hid.
 158.00A.003 Plac'd in most shapes; all times before the law
 158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate
 183.00A.024 Deales, in some times, and seldome joyning these;

TIMOROUS.....1

169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,

TINCTURE.....4

139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 140.00A.020 The poysonous tincture of Originall sinne,
 155.00a.180 The poysonous tincture, and the stayne of Eue,
 182.00A.014 All tincture, and doth not alone dispose

TINCTURES.....2

108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move
 184.00A.008 All vicious tinctures, that new fashioned

TINNE.....1

009.00A.013 And like vile stones lying in saffron'd tinne,

TIPES.....1

136.00A.047 Religions tipes, the peecclesse centers flow,

TIR'D.....4

015.00G.004 Is tir'd with standing though he never fight.
 109.00A.061 Pumping hath tir'd our men, and what's the gaine?
 126.00A.014 Light and strength, darke and tir'd must then ride post.
 158.00A.296 That leagues o'er-past at sea, now tir'd hee lyes,

TIS.....11

044.00A.010 It stay, tis but thy carkasse then,
 082.00A.001 Tis the yeares midnight, and it is the dayes,
 108.00A.140 Since Soone thou lvest downe first, tis fit
 146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,
 155.00a.006 May lodge an In-mate soule, but tis not his.)
 155.00a.374 Tis now but wicked vanity to thinke,
 156.00a.001 Tis lost, to trust a Tombe with such a ghest,
 157.00b.412 Alas, tis but a casuall happinesse.
 157.00b.445 Tis such a full, and such a filling good;

157.00b.497 In this fresh ioy, tis no small part, that shee,
 157.00b.499 Doth iniure her; (Tis losse to be cald best,

TITLE.....5

002.00A.047 His title of Barrister, on every wench,
 065.00A.022 I said, if any title bee
 094.00A.002 Gave to the poore; Thou hast good title still.
 153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,
 157.00b.150 Title to Heauen, and plead it by his Faith,

TITLES.....6

002.00B.074 Bastardy abounds not in Kings titles, nor
 052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,
 149.00A.056 How good in all her titles, and how meet,
 162.00A.001 As due by many titles I resigne
 184.00A.045 In vaine, who hath such titles unto you.
 189.00B.049 These are thy titles and preheminenes,

TO'A.....3

112.00A.006 To'a botle'of Hay, that am a locke of Grasse.
 157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,

TO'ADMIRE.....1

074.00A.004 Then vertue or the minde to'admire,

TO'ADMIT.....2

171.00A.006 Labour to'admit you, but Oh, to no end,
 184.00A.224 To'admit the like of majestie divine,

TO'ADUANCE.....1

157.00b.220 To'aduance these thoughts, remember then, that shee

TO'ADVANCE.....1

042.00A.024 It selfe o'r us to'advance.

TO'ALL.....1

016.00A.006 Open to'all searchers, unpriz'd, if unknowne.

TO'ANNIHILATE.....1

066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.

TO'ANOTHER.....2

157.00b.104 Giue one thy Pride, to'another giue thy Lust:
 171.00A.005 I, like an usurpt towne, to'another due,

TO'ANY.....1

066.00A.014 My silence to'any, who abroad hath beene;

TO'APPEARE.....1

108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,

TO'ARREST.....1

157.00b.414 This or that happinesse, to'arrest his minde,

TO'BE.....1

098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be beleev'd.

TO'EMBALME.....1

010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?

TO'EMBASSADOURS.....1

066.00A.005 My tongue to Fame; to'Embassadours mine eares;

TO'ENDURE.....1

016.00A.014 Idly make them apter to'endure then men?

TO'ENLIGHTEN.....1

182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell

TO'ENQUIRE.....1

157.00b.197 Venus retards her not, to'enquire, how shee

TO'ENTERGRAFT.....1

062.00A.009 So to'entergraft our hands, as yet

TO'ENTWINE.....1

107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,

TO'EXCUSE.....1

137.00A.005 Two ills can nere perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;

TO'GET.....1

111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,

TO'HANG.....1

093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.

TO'HAVE.....4

017.00A.032 'Tis lesse grieffe to be foule, then to'have beene faire.

018.00B.056 Thinke it enough for me to'have had thy love.

019.00A.011 If rivall fooles taxe thee to'have lov'd a man,

111.00A.017 And to'have as many eares as all have tongues;

TO'HEAVEN.....1

164.00A.009 Then, as my soule, to'heaven her first seate, takes flight,

TO'HIM.....1

111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.

TO'HIMSELFE.....1

157.00b.413 Hath euer any man to'himselfe assigned

TO'HIS.....2

140.00A.010 To'his beasts, and disaforested his minde?

172.00A.008 Coheire to'his glory, 'and Sabbaths endlesse rest;

TO'IMPLICITE.....1

134.00A.015 Then backe againe to'implicite faith I fall,

TO'IMPLOY.....1

153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'employ their time,

TO'IMPUTE.....1

109.00A.008 Of friendship onely to'impute excellence.

TO'INVENT.....1

066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.

TO'IT.....1

042.00A.022 And wee joyne to'it our strength,

TO'OBEY.....1

108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,

TO'OUR.....3

062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so

138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,

184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.

TO'UNGRATIOUS.....1

184.00A.157 To'ungratious us, staid'st at her full of grace,

TO'URGE.....1

139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,

TO'WHOM.....1

130.00A.011 But her faire larger guest, to'whom Sun and Moone

TOAD.....1

138.00A.084 The bad with bad, a spider with a toad:

TOBACCO.....1

001.00A.088 Th'Indians, in drinking his Tobacco well)

TOES.....1

158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;

TOGETHER.....11

004.00A.048 Jovius, or Surlus, or both together.

011.00A.019 Nor at his boord together being satt,

021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,

046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.

078.00D.011 Lac'd up together in congruity,

108.00A.199 Know that if Sun and Moone together doe

110.00A.023 Onely the Calenture together drawes

145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,

153.00A.096 And lay together every A, and B;

157.00b.364 That beauty and chastity together kisse:

187.00A.120 The wall, and Rampart, which together mourne.

TOKEN.....1

004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine

TOKENS.....1

078.00D.001 Send me some Tokens, that my hope may live,

TOLD.....13

004.00A.062 His tongue, he praised it, and such words told

037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,

059.00A.003 I have lov'd, and got, and told,

108.00A.207 Being told this starre is falne, and findes her such,

130.00A.039 And in your afternoones thinke what you told

138.00A.021 I have beene told, that vertue'in Courtiers hearts

149.00A.059 How Morall, how Divine shall not be told,

150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.

151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;

153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,

155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told

187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;

191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.

TOLERABLE.....1

050.00A.010 This is her tolerable Tropique clyme.

TOLERATA.....1

155.00a.445 Or shall be spoken well by any tongue,
 157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,
 158.00A.062 Doth dwell, and moves that hand, and tongue, & brow,
 170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 191.00B.009 These Psalmes first Author in a cloven tongue;
 191.00B.025 The Spheares have Musick, but they have no tongue,

TONGUES.....7

004.00A.035 This thing hath travail'd, and saith, speakes all tongues
 111.00A.017 And to'have as many eares as all have tongues;
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 155.00a.054 Then tongues, the soule being gone, the losse deplore.
 156.00a.023 Lawyers for tongues, Diuines for hearts, and more,
 157.00b.333 That wits and tongues of Libellars are weake,
 158.00A.120 Of speech, but silence; hands, not tongues, end heresies.

TONS.....1

006.00D.039 If for vast Tons of Currans, and of Figs,

TOO.....102

003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou
 010.00A.039 But Oh, too common ill, I brought with mee
 013.00A.003 Too subtil: Foole, thou didst not understand
 016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,
 016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?
 017.00A.026 Account her wonderfull, why not lovely too?
 020.00G.086 Rise from the foot, Lovers may do so too.
 022.00A.035 Having his falshood found too late, 'twas hee
 025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
 034.00A.017 For by to morrow, I may thinke so too.
 035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
 035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 039.00A.021 We're Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,
 045.00A.010 Love must not be, but take a body too,
 045.00A.020 Is much too much, some fitter must be sought;
 047.00A.010 Or too much triumph in the Victorie.
 047.00A.017 Yet, love and hate mee too,
 047.00A.020 Hate mee, because thy love is too great for mee;
 049.00A.019 Or if too hard and deepe
 052.00A.004 And how posterity shall know it too;
 054.00A.013 But as all else, being elemented too,
 055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.
 057.00A.004 For reason, much too strong for phantasie,
 058.00A.022 To teach the sea, what it may doe too soone,
 063.00A.019 And dare love that, and say so too,
 064.00a.022 Rebell and Atheist too, why murmure I,

064.00a.025 A deeper plague, to make her love mee too,
 066.00A.009 That I should give to none, but such, as had too much before.
 066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.
 068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
 071.00A.018 My Gyants, and my Witches too,
 075.00A.008 Ease mee with death, by bidding mee goe too.
 075.00A.011 Except it be too late, to kill me so,
 076.00A.008 Or in a thousand more, forgot that too.
 077.00A.008 Death kills with too much cold;
 107.00A.066 Is eaten, and too long their meat they praise,
 107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,
 108.00A.222 For none of these is fuell, but fire too.
 108.00A.227 A perfect sacrifice, I'll burne it too.
 113.00A.004 Since shee to few, yet to too many'hath showne
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 121.NY3.006 By staing in London too much overseene.
 126.00A.009 And begin soone, lest my grieffe grieve thee too,
 126.00A.026 They are prophane, imperfect, oh, too bad
 129.00A.010 Hath stor'd with notes of use and pleasures too,
 130.00A.020 In harvests, too indulgent to your sports.
 131.00B.104 But soule we finde too earthly to ascend,
 131.00B.116 The Sunnes comfort: others thinke him too kinde.
 131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.
 131.00B.118 Men perish too farre off, and burne too nigh.
 133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
 138.00A.077 Too many vertues, or too much of one
 138.00A.077 Too many vertues, or too much of one
 139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.
 140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
 141.00A.062 Rather then God should not be honour'd too,
 142.00A.002 'Twere too much schisme to be singular,
 142.00A.008 As not to tell it; If this be too bold,
 142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,
 142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
 142.00A.050 Where it findes sympathie and matter too,
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
 146.00A.006 And give praise too, our cold tongues could not serve:
 149.00A.029 They say, the sea, when it gaines, loseth too;
 149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
 151.00A.021 She was too Saphirine, and cleare to thee;
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 151.00A.058 Earth too, will be a Lemnia; and the tree
 153.00A.008 Come to your knowledge, and affections too,

153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,
 153.00A.213 But didst not stay, t'enlarge his kingdome too,
 155.00a.055 But though it be too late to succour thee,
 155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,
 155.00a.336 They're lothsome too, by this Deformitee.
 155.00a.396 The art is lost, and correspondence too.
 155.00a.404 But they, yea Ashes too, are medicinall,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 156.00a.082 Shee'ath yeilded to too long an Extasie.
 157.00b.084 He honors it too much that thinks it nought.
 157.00b.153 Yea though he plead a long possession too,
 157.00b.281 We see in Authors, too stiffe to recant,
 158.00A.222 The Soule from her too active organs fled
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were 158.00A.436 Sonne to himselfe, and father too, hee is
 158.00A.441 Hee soone for her too harsh, and churlish grew,
 158.00A.471 By this misled, too low things men have prov'd,
 158.00A.472 And too high, beasts and angels have beene lov'd;
 158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
 160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee
 160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee
 184.00A.064 Thy Eagle-sighted Prophets too,
 184.00A.122 Prayes ceaslesly,'and thou hearken too
 184.00A.241 On Natures nothing, be not nothing too,
 185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.
 191.00B.019 Have both translated, and apply'd it too,
 191.00B.035 To us so sweetly and sincerely too,

TOO'HARSH.....1

114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as

TOO-BOLD.....1

087.00A.002 A too-bold Captaine perish'd by the fall,

TOO-HIGH-STRETCHED.....1

109.00A.056 Snapping, like too-high-stretched treble strings.

TOO-NARROW.....1

152.12a.084 Too-narrow, to think HIM, as Hee is HEE

TOOK.....2

006.00D.049 Thus thou, by means which th'Ancients never took,

020.00G.027 Then if he took her maid. Search every speare

TOOK'ST.....3

157.00b.258 Nor how thou took'st the poyson of mans sin.
 182.00A.002 As yet, the wound thou took'st on friday last;
 184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne

TOOKE.....14

060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
 136.00A.023 Or tooke Soules stuffe such as shall late decay,
 151.00A.019 For they let out more light, then they tooke in,
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 151.00A.060 Shall be tooke up spruce, fill'd with diamond;
 155.00a.179 Shee tooke the weaker Sex, she that could driue
 155.00a.197 And turn'd her braines, and tooke a generall maime
 156.00a.080 Tooke so much death, as seru'd for opium.
 156.00a.094 She tooke but for thus much, thus much to die.
 157.00b.319 And cal's vs after her, in that shee tooke,
 158.00A.033 For every thing, who, where wee of-spring tooke,
 158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive
 158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
 158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,

TOOMBES.....1

155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;

TOOTH.....2

050.00A.041 Whose every tooth to a severall place is gone,
 158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth

TOP.....1

073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.

TOP'D.....1

134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,

TOPS.....1

187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye

TOR-MENT.....1

037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?

TORCH.....2

129.00A.005 A Taper of his Torch, a copie writ
 160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,

TORCHES.....2

057.00A.027 Perchance as torches which must ready bee,
 108.00A.031 And from their jewels torches do take fire,

TORE.....2

158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her child's blood;
 179.NY3.003 Goes richly painted? Or which rob'd & tore

TORMENT.....2

022.00A.047 And after all selfe torment, when hee dyes,
 155.00a.297 Inuent another torment, that there must

TORMENTS.....1

021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?

TORNE.....9

013.00A.019 In broken proverbs, and torne sentences.
 019.00A.006 Perhaps with rude oares torne, or Sun beams tann'd,
 055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:
 061.00A.008 With feare of missing, shame of getting torne;
 155.00a.134 In a torne house, or field, to haue three liues.
 156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.
 158.00A.307 And torne the hopefull Promontories head,
 185.00A.028 By God, for his apparell, rag'd, and torne?
 190.00A.001 In what torne ship soever I embarke,

TORPEDO.....1

112.00A.018 A Scorpion, or Torpedo cure a man?

TORRID.....2

050.00A.009 That was her torrid and inflaming time,
 153.00A.124 His Torrid Zone at Court, and calentures

TORTURE.....1

055.00A.041 Torture against thine owne end is,

TORTURING.....2

004.00A.142 Me to pay a fine to scape his torturing,
 044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,

TOSSE.....1

181.00A.020 The Mast and yard make one, where seas do tosse.

TOTA.....1

186.00E.016 A fixo, nobis, Gratia tota fluat.

TOTTERD.....1

109.00A.057 And from our totterd sailes, ragges drop downe so,

TOUCH.....26

006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.

009.00A.052 As wee, when wee embrace, or touch, or kisse.
 010.00A.038 Could never wisse any touch or kisse;
 011.00A.020 With words, nor touch, scarce lookes adulterate.
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.
 017.00G.054 Would be as loath to touch as Joseph was.
 024.00A.048 Why should they not alike in all parts touch?
 061.00A.011 And may he feele no touch
 064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
 067.00A.004 The mystery, the signe you must not touch,
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 129.00A.032 To touch and test in any best degree.
 130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch
 133.00A.019 Doth touch thee (saples leafe) thou grow'st by this
 139.00A.015 As spice doth bodies from corrupt aires touch.
 140.00A.019 As Soules (they say) by our first touch, take in
 143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,
 149.00A.047 Making omissions, acts; laying the touch
 152.12a.038 As to touch Those of which they Emblems are?
 153.00A.080 As all the long breath'd Chronicles can touch;
 155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
 157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch
 157.00b.437 For once that they the center touch, do touch
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 187.00A.320 Depart, depart, and touch us not, and then
 192.00B.015 So death doth touch the Resurrection.

TOUCHES.....1

158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,

TOUCHING.....2

024.00A.052 That touching my selfe, all seemes done to thee.
 187.00A.318 Their garments should scape touching, as they passe,

TOUCHT.....2

070.00A.029 Our hands ne'r toucht the seales,
 189.00B.008 Toucht with a Loadstone, dost new motions feele?

TOUGH.....3

019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tastes seemes tough.
 073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough
 111.00A.018 Tender to know, tough to acknowledge wrongs.

TOUGHLY.....3

004.00A.140 Toughly and stubbornly I beare this crosse; But the 'houre
 114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
 126.00A.007 Here toughly chew, and sturdily digest

TOUNGE.....1

187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.

TOURES.....1

130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.

TOWARD.....2

002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pitty towards the rest;

185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.

TOWARDS.....24

002.00A.004 That hate, toward them, breeds pitty towards the rest;

004.00A.017 Therefore I suffered this; Towards me did runne

020.00G.065 And Sailing towards her India, in that way

049.00A.053 And thou begin'st to thaw towards him, for this,

065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.

081.HH5.016 to any other? Oh towards me I feare

082.00A.043 Let mee prepare towards her, and let mee call

092.NY3.002 Towards the Suns cradle, & his throne, & bed.

110.00A.045 Stagge, dogge, and all which from, or towards flies,

139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,

141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,

145.00A.024 Towards him, thats infinite, must first be great.

155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.

157.00b.065 Looke v'ward; that's towards her, whose happy state

158.00A.057 I launch at paradise, and I saile towards home;

158.00A.141 His right arme he thrust out towards the East,

158.00A.252 And journeyes with her, towards the glassie deepe,

160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,

174.00B.009 Onely thou art above, and when towards thee

185.00A.009 Hence is't, that I am carryed towards the West

185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,

185.00A.035 For that looks towards them; & thou look'st towards mee,

187.00A.100 But is towards Iacob, All-devouring fire.

187.00A.128 The Virgins towards ground, their heads do throw.

TOWER.....2

004.00A.065 To Babels bricklayers, sure the Tower had stood.

157.00b.417 They who did labour Babels tower t' erect,

TOWERS.....1

136.00A.016 And, ordinance rais'd on Towers so many mile

TOWN.....1

037.00A.004 Her whom the country form'd, & whom the town,

TOWNE.....7

002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state
 017.00A.042 That durty foulnesse guards, and armes the towne:
 087.00A.004 That had a towne for tombe, his bones to hide.
 111.00A.006 If, but to loth both, I haunt Court, or Towne.
 158.00A.394 And gnaw'd the life cords there; Like a whole towne
 171.00A.005 I, like an usurpt towne, to'another due,
 187.00A.290 Then did the towne of Sodome sinne before;

TOWNES.....5

006.00D.022 Munster did Townes and Gesner Authors show;
 039.00A.044 Countries, Townes, Courts: Beg frow above
 055.00A.024 Small townes which stand stiffe, till great shot
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 155.00a.262 When new Townes rise, and olde demolish'd are.

TOWNS.....2

112.00A.008 Countries, Courts, Towns are Rockes, or Remoraes;
 153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'employ their time,

TOWRING.....1

021.00G.042 And over all thy husbands towring eyes

TOYES.....2

158.00A.114 Though with good minde, their reasons like those toyes
 158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,

TOYFULL.....1

158.00A.451 It quickned next a toyfull Ape, and so

TOYL'D.....1

106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts

TOYLE.....1

111.00A.005 And toyle to sweeten rest, so, may God frowne,

TOYLES.....1

106.00A.068 Rest duly; at night all their toyles are dispensed;

TRAC'D.....1

024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.

TRADE.....4

TREE.....17

013.00A.026 I planted knowledge and lifes tree in thee,

050.00A.029 Xerxes strange Lydian love, the Platane tree,

068.00A.012 In a forbidden or forbidding tree,
 131.00B.008 Of Adams tasting the forbidden tree;
 135.B13.001 Since eu'ry Tree begins to blossome now
 146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,
 151.00A.038 All reape consumption from one fruitfull tree;
 151.00A.058 Earth too, will be a Lemnia; and the tree
 155.00a.115 When Stag, and Rauen, and the long-liu'd tree,
 155.00a.394 Imprisond in an Herbe, or Charme, or Tree,
 157.00b.453 His face, in any naturall Stone, or Tree,
 158.00A.078 Where first grew the forbidden learned tree,
 158.00A.079 For on that tree hung in security
 158.00A.193 Already this hot cocke in bush and tree
 166.00A.001 If poysonous mineralls, and if that tree,
 185.00A.036 O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree;
 192.00B.022 Christs Crosse, & Adams tree, stood in one place;

TREES.....6

051.00A.013 These trees to laugh and mocke mee to my face;
 056.00A.017 Or built faire houses, set trees, and arbors,
 108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
 190.00A.012 As the trees sap doth seeke the root below

TREMBLED.....1

131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.

TREMBLING.....1

049.00A.044 Flings ope this casement, with my trembling name,

TREMBLINGLY'ASKE.....1

109.00A.049 And tremblingly'aske what newes, and doe heare so,

TREMELIUS.....1

187.00A.HE2 to Tremelius.

TRENCH.....2

050.00A.016 Vow'd to this trench, like an Anachorit.
 109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.

TRENT.....2

125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
 158.00A.010 that like the Trent Councell forbids not bookes, but Authors,

TREPIDATION.....1

031.00A.011 But trepidation of the spheares,

TREW.....3

014.NY3.037 There Engines farr of breed a iust trew feare,

091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew

179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then

TRIAL.....1

157.00b.386 A triall, must the principall be tride.

TRIBULATION.....2

160.00A.087 Yee whose just teares, or tribulation

181.00A.030 When Still'd, or purg'd by tribulation.

TRIBUTARY.....1

187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?

TRIBUTE.....5

012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.

020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe

040.00A.017 To Love, and Griefe tribute of Verse belongs,

141.00A.048 Some tribute for that, so these lines are due,

155.00a.447 Accept this tribute, and his first yeares rent,

TRICKES.....1

013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;

TRICKS.....3

103.00A.002 Except himselfe alone his tricks would use,

106.00A.053 Other love tricks then glancing with the eyes;

158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought

TRIDE.....1

157.00b.386 A trial, must the principall be tride.

TRIE.....8

005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie

010.00A.021 To trie if thou long, doth name strange meates.

064.00a.024 Love may make me leave loving, or might trie

108.00A.175 That, new great heights to trie,

155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,

155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie

157.00b.195 Shee baits not at the Moone, nor cares to trie,

160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.

TRIED.....2

050.00A.008 But now they're gold oft tried, and ever new.

157.00b.075 Shee that first tried indifferent desires

TRIES.....5

004.00A.109 He with home-meats tries me; I belch, spue, spit,

004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring

004.00A.205 Of his each limbe, and with strings the odds tries

037.00A.005 Her who beleeves, and her who tries,

158.00A.476 His toyes prevaile not, likelier meanes he tries,

TRIFLE.....2

029.00A.009 Ah, what a trifle is a heart,

155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!

TRIFLING.....1

155.00a.184 Thou knowest how poore a trifling thing man is.

TRILL.....1

009.00A.002 As that which from chaf'd muskats pores doth trill,

TRIM.....1

158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,

TRIMME.....1

110.00A.013 And all our beauty, and our trimme, decayes,

TRINITEE.....1

118.NY3.002 Enquiring of that mistique trinitee

TRINITIE.....1

173.00A.003 His joynture in the knottie Trinitie,

TRINITY.....1

184.00A.028 O Blessed glorious Trinity,

184.00A.HE9 The Trinity.

TRIUMPH.....18

047.00A.010 Or too much triumph in the Victorie.

047.00A.022 So shall I live thy stay, not triumph bee;

068.00A.005 And now dost laugh and triumph on this bough,

150.00A.068 Thy selfe, and to triumph, thine army lost.

153.00A.178 Begin thy Triumph; But since lawes allow

153.00A.179 That at the Triumph day, the people may,

153.00A.182 My grieffe, though not to make thy Triumph lesse.

153.00A.191 Thou could'st no title, to this triumph have,

153.00A.202 For which to Triumph, none admitted are;

153.00A.205 Before men triumph, the dominion

153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more

153.00A.219 But this from Triumph most disables thee,

153.00A.232 Unto the Senate, who this triumph gave;

153.00A.235 Leave to Triumph, before, by age, he might;
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,
 157.00b.129 To gouerne, or to triumph on the rest,
 184.00A.119 That Church in triumph, this in warfare here,

TRIUMPH'D.....2

153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd
 157.00b.361 For shee made wars, and triumph'd, reson still

TRIUMPH'ST.....1

060.00A.023 Yet thou triumph'st, and saist that thou

TRIUMPHANT.....4

108.00A.166 The Church Triumphant made this match before,
 153.00A.177 At that gate then Triumphant soule, dost thou
 153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
 157.00b.101 So this, to the Triumphant Church, cals thee.

TRIUMPHER.....1

153.00A.180 All that they will, 'gainst the Triumpher say,

TRIUMPHETH.....1

184.00A.091 Therefore with thee triumpheth there

TRIUMPHS.....6

021.00G.014 Or to thy Triumphs such strange torments fixt?
 040.00A.020 For both their triumphs so are published,
 071.00A.015 Of your owne arts and triumphs over men,
 108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
 153.00A.183 By law, to Triumphs none admitted bee,
 153.00A.243 Of early triumphs; And I (though with paine)

TRIVIALL.....1

004.00A.098 Of triviall houshold trash; He knowes; He knowes

TROOPS.....1

002.00A.105 Where's th'old landlords troops, & almes, great hals?

TROPHIES.....1

149.00A.034 For, graves our trophies are, and both, deaths dust.

TROPIQUE.....1

153.00A.111 Thou knowst, that though the tropique circles have

TROPIQUES.....1

155.00a.267 (Did not these Tropiques fetter him) might runne:

TROTH.....1

032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I

TROUBLED.....1

155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,

TROUPES.....1

TRUCE.....1

106.00A.064 Musicians, and dancers take some truce

TRUE.....65

001.00A.056 Name her child's right true father, 'mongst all those:

002.00A.028 As his owne things; and they are his owne, 'tis true,

003.00A.043 Seeke true religion. O where? Mirreus

006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.

018.00B.014 Be my true Mistris still, not my faign'd Page;

020.00G.002 The right true end of love, he's one that goes

021.00G.103 Take therefore all in this: I love so true,

022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,

032.00A.016 And true plaine hearts doe in the faces rest,

033.00A.018 Lives a woman true, and faire.

033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,

034.00A.008 Or, as true deaths, true maryages untie,

034.00A.008 Or, as true deaths, true maryages untie,

034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?

035.00A.015 And so I scape the paine, for paine is true;

035.00A.022 Alas, true joyes at best are dreame enough;

037.00A.009 I can love any, so she be not true.

037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?

037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?

037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,

037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.

043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,

046.00A.001 'Tis true, 'tis day, what though it be?

048.00A.016 Oft fed with true oathes, and with sweet salt teares;

048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,

050.00A.007 Were her first yeares the Golden Age; That's true,

051.00A.009 True Paradise, I have the serpent brought.

051.00A.026 O perverse sexe, where none is true but shee,
 051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.
 060.00A.025 'Tis true, then learne how false, feares bee;
 069.00A.008 I walke to finde a true Love; and I see
 069.00A.022 With thy true number five;
 081.HH5.050 pittie thy selfe in yet beinge true & free
 088.00A.002 To stand, or moue; if he say true, hee lies.
 089.00A.002 'Tis strange that she should thus confesse it, though't be true.
 108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
 135.B13.021 and as true Types of your, them humbly greet.
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 137.00A.068 To higher Courts, senses decree is true,
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.
 139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 140.00A.045 As brave as true, is that profession than
 141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe
 141.00A.059 Pronounce, that all these praises should be true,
 142.00A.036 True vertue is Soule, Alwaies in all deeds All.
 142.00A.062 My true devotion, free from flattery;
 145.00A.047 So though some things are not together true,
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.150 A clock so true, as might the Sunne controule,
 155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
 155.00a.182 All, by a true religious Alchimy;
 156.00a.098 Any shall liue, which dare true good prefer,
 157.00b.178 Of sicknesses, or their true mother, Age.
 157.00b.424 To erect true ioye, were all the meanes in one.
 157.00b.433 So much mankind true happinesse mistakes;
 157.00b.520 To take this, for my second yeeres true Rent,
 158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.
 180.NY3.011 To morrow I quake with true feare of his rod.
 187.00A.116 Are heard, as in the true solemnities.
 188.00E.007 Nor thy tongue, ever true, know a false thing,
 190.00A.014 Where none but thee, th'Eternall root Of true Love I may know.

TRUE-LOVE.....1

069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,

TRUELY.....2

001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truely I doe;
 155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truely said

TRULIEST.....1

139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,

TRULY.....2

048.00A.010 But truly keeps his first, last, everlasting day.

114.00A.009 Men say, and truly, that they better be

TRUMPET.....1

157.00b.528 The Trumpet, at whose voice the people came.

TRUMPETS.....2

147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.

165.00A.002 Your trumpets, Angells, and arise, arise

TRUNKE.....1

157.00b.011 One from the Trunke, another from the Head,

TRUNKES.....2

009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunkes, cloth'd in seals skin,

153.00A.037 Yet are the trunkes which doe to us derive

TRUST.....11

003.00A.110 Power from God claym'd, then God himselfe to trust.

022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsell, and wee both may rue,

055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;

108.00A.078 And where it is no levity to trust.

139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,

140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;

156.00a.001 Tis lost, to trust a Tombe with such a ghest,

157.00b.106 And trust th'immaculate blood to wash thy score.

157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,

187.00A.215 26 It is both good to trust, and to attend

189.00B.031 Alas poore joyes, but poorer men, whose trust

TRUSTED.....1

022.00A.046 And not be trusted more on his Soules price;

TRUSTING.....2

184.00A.126 From trusting in those prayers, though powr'd out thus.

184.00A.138 From trusting so much to thy blood,

TRUTH.....23

003.00A.072 Let him aske his; though truth and falshood bee

003.00A.073 Neare twins, yet truth a little elder is;

003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will

003.00A.089 Keepe the truth which thou hast found; men do not stand

004.00A.163 Feare frownes? And, my Mistresse Truth, betray thee

021.00G.031 And, where one sad truth may expiate

022.00A.006 Or your perfection, not to study truth?
 022.00A.021 And finde the truth out the wrong way? or must
 051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.
 057.00A.007 Thou art so truth, that thoughts of thee suffice,
 057.00A.014 (For thou lovest truth) an Angell, at first sight,
 066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
 106.00A.078 Like vertue'and truth, art best in nakednesse;
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 133.00A.012 Truth, whom they dare not pardon, dares preferre.
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 139.00A.026 When all (as truth commands assent) confesse
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
 139.00A.032 But leave, lest truth b'endanger'd by my praise,
 149.00A.046 That, extreme truth lack'd little of a lye,
 153.00A.127 Infirmities which need the scale of truth,
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 179.NY3.006 Is She selfe truth & errs? now new, now' outwore?

TRUTHS.....4

057.00A.008 To make dreames truths; and fables histories;
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.
 139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
 157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,

TRY.....3

051.00A.021 And try your mistresse Teares at home,
 071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try
 157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,

TRY'D.....1

177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?

TRYALL.....1

052.00A.057 How great love is, presence best tryall makes,

TRYE.....1

153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,

TRYED.....5

003.00A.094 To mans lawes, by which she shall not be tryed
 107.00A.111 This will be tryed to morrow after nine,
 108.00A.120 Be tryed by beauty, and than
 108.00A.122 If by that manly courage they be tryed,
 152.12a.029 For Whom what Princes angled (when they tryed)

TRYED'ST.....1

184.00A.012 By bearing one, tryed'st with what stings

TRYES.....1

052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;

TRYING.....3

145.00A.019 All trying by a love of littlenesse

155.00a.470 Me, from thus trying to emprison her.

187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;

TRYUMPH.....1

149.00A.062 Of such a prey, and to his tryumph adde.

TUFFTAFFATIE.....1

004.00A.033 Become Tufftaffatie; and our children shall

TULLIAS.....1

108.00A.215 Now, as in Tullias tombe, one lampe burnt cleare,

TUMBLED.....1

158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,

TUMBLES.....1

158.00A.459 Gathers her fruits, and tumbles on the grasse,

TUN'D.....1

191.00B.030 Who hath tun'd God and Man, the Organ we:

TUNE.....3

156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set

185.00A.022 And tune all speares at once peirc'd with those holes?

192.00B.004 I tune the Instrument here at the dore,

TUNING.....1

191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part

TURCOYSE.....1

155.00a.343 As a compassionate Turcoyse which doth tell

TURN.....3

021.00G.038 And then thy self into our flames did'st turn?

037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?

158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.

TURN'D.....9

001.00A.110 Hee quarrell'd, fought, bled; and turn'd out of dore

008.00B.072 Wisdome and knowledge; but, 'tis turn'd to ill:

042.00A.038 Are but turn'd aside to sleepe;

146.00A.026 He, and about him, his, are turn'd to stone.
 151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
 155.00a.019 This great consumption to a feuer turn'd,
 155.00a.197 And turn'd her braines, and tooke a generall maime
 187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.
 187.00A.352 Is turn'd, our houses unto Aliens gone,

TURND.....1

014.NY3.020 To dust and ashes turnd before my time.

TURNE.....21

004.00A.130 They felt themselves turne beasts, felt my selfe then
 062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
 069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
 081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
 106.00A.056 Yet shadowes turne; Noone point he hath attain'd,
 106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
 110.00A.031 But from the sea, into the ship we turne,
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
 156.00a.088 Should turne the leafe to reade, and read no more,
 160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,
 163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 177.00B.012 Dissemblers feigne devotion. Then turne
 185.00A.037 I turne my backe to thee, but to receive
 185.00A.042 That thou may'st know mee, and I'll turne my face.
 187.00A.032 Have seene, her selfe doth groane, and turne away.
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.

TURNES.....4

017.00A.045 Shee, whose face, like clouds, turnes the day to night,
 108.00A.220 And makes all like it selfe, turnes all to fire,
 124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take
 130.00A.002 Turnes no new leafe, but still the same things reads,

TURNING.....3

021.00G.058 Our turning brains, and both our lips grow to:
 142.00A.004 Yet turning to Saints, should my'humility
 158.00A.097 Astray, from turning, to whence we are fled.

TURTLES.....2

009.00A.049 So kisse good Turtles, so devoutly nice
 107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.

TUTAMINE.....1

105.H10.001 Non eget Hookerus tanto tutamine; Tanto

TUTELAR.....2

153.00A.228 With Tutelar Angels, sent to every one.157.00b.236 The Tutelar Angels, and assigned one, both

TUTUS.....1

105.H10.002 Tutus qui impugnat sed foret Auxilio

TVAS.....1

195.010.002 AD GADES OMNIVM VENISTI; ETIAM ET AD TVAS:

TWAS.....1

043.00A.024 But oh, no man could hold it, for twas thine.

TWELUE.....1

155.00a.264 The free-borne Sunne, and keepe twelue signes awake

TWELVE.....5

001.00A.022 Great traine of blew coats, twelve, or fourteen strong,008.00B.009 O, shall twelve righteous Angels, which as yet008.00B.017 Shall these twelve innocents, by thy severe098.00A.001 Philo, with twelve yeares study, hath beene griev'd,184.00A.074 Of twelve Apostles, which ingirt this All,

TWENTY.....10

037.00A.015 Let mee, and doe you, twenty know.038.00A.003 Usurious God of Love, twenty to thee,066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,068.00A.034 Twenty dayes hence, and thou shalt see076.00A.001 For the first twenty yeares, since yesterday,157.00b.187 Twenty, perchance, or thirty mile a day,157.00b.233 Twenty such parts, whose plenty and riches is157.00b.234 Inough to make twenty such worlds as this;158.00A.219 Pleasantly three, then streightned twenty yeares158.00A.336 The Sunne hath twenty times both crab and goate

TWERE.....1

008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordiall, would twere at thy heart.

TWI-LIGHT.....1

155.00a.074 The twi-light of her memory doth stay;

TWICE.....10

005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly

045.00A.001 Twice or thrice had I loved thee,
 077.00A.010 Hee that saith twice, doth lye:
 107.00A.050 You're twice inseparable, great, and one;
 131.00B.029 Though I can pittie those sigh twice a day,
 133.00A.042 Marke, if shee read them twice, or kisse the name;
 142.00A.057 So to present the roome twice to our eyes,
 157.00b.438 Twice the circumference; and be thou such.
 183.00A.002 My soule eates twice, Christ hither and away.
 183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;

TWICKNAM.....1

137.00A.070 The story of beauty', in Twicknam is, and you.

TWIGS.....1

006.00D.040 Of medicinall and Aromatique twigs,

TWILIGHT.....2

003.00A.083 Yet strive so, that before age, deaths twilight,
 139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,

TWILIGHTS.....2

114.00A.008 Or earely and late twilights to mid-day.
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,

TWILL.....1

081.HH5.048 twill show like blotts in paper scratches in glasse

TWIN.....1

031.00A.026 As stiffe twin compasses are two,

TWIN'D.....1

135.B13.009 Thus our twin'd soules send forth these buds of loue.

TWINCKLE.....1

157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,

TWINKLING.....1

012.00A.018 Amorously twinkling, beckens the giddie flie,

TWINNES.....1

148.00A.007 Twinnes, though their birth Cusco, and Musco take,

TWINS.....3

003.00A.073 Neare twins, yet truth a little elder is;
 116.00A.001 Pregnant again with th'old twins Hope, and Feare,
 127.00A.017 So may all thy sheepe bring forth Twins; and so

TWISTED.....1

062.00A.007 Our eye-beames twisted, and did thred

TWIXT.....8

045.00A.027 As is twixt Aire and Angells puritie,
 052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
 149.00A.004 God hath set markes, and bounds, twixt us and it,
 153.00A.007 Twixt heav'n and earth, and that mans actions doe
 153.00A.086 To all twixt Heav'n and Earth, Sunne, Moon, and Aire.
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 157.00b.189 Twixt Heauen, and Earth: shee staies not in the Ayre,
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,

TWO.....97

004.00A.056 Some Jesuites, and two reverend men
 004.00A.057 Of our two Academies, I named; There
 005.00A.006 Are wreched or wicked: of these two a theame
 014.NY3.042 In those warrs, as they may which from vs two
 020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;
 020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)
 020.00G.062 (Not of two Lovers, but two loves the neasts)
 020.00G.092 Two purses, and their mouths aversely laid:
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 024.00A.045 My two lips, eyes, thighs, differ from thy two,
 030.00B.004 Walking here; Two shadowes went
 031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 031.00A.025 If they be two, they are two so
 031.00A.026 As stiffe twin compasses are two,
 032.00A.017 Where can we finde two better hemispheares
 032.00A.020 If our two loves be one, or, thou and I
 033.00A.027 False, ere I come, to two, or three.
 037.00A.023 And said, alas, Some two or three
 039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.
 040.00A.001 I am two fooles, I know,
 040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
 047.00A.021 Or let these two, themselves, not me decay;
 048.00A.011 Two graves must hide thine and my coarse,
 048.00A.026 Treason to us, except one of us two.
 060.00A.004 And in this flea, our two bloods mingled bee;
 060.00A.008 And pamper'd swells with one blood made of two,
 062.00A.004 Sat we two, one anothers best;
 062.00A.013 As 'twixt two equall Armies, Fate
 062.00A.042 Interanimates two soules,
 064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
 075.00A.002 Which sucks two soules, and vapors Both away,
 076.00A.005 Teares drown'd one hundred, and sighes blew out two,

077.00A.016 Leaves behinde, two houres after.
 082.00A.023 Have wee two wept, and so
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show
 084.00A.001 Two, by themselves, each other, love and feare
 106.00A.038 And these two in thy sacred bosome hold,
 106.00A.045 Which might these two dissever,
 107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,
 107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,
 107.00A.016 Two larkes, two sparrowes, or two Doves,
 107.00A.018 For thou this day couplest two Phoenixes,
 107.00A.023 Two Phoenixes, whose joynd breasts
 107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
 107.00A.061 And why doe you two walke,
 107.00A.097 More truth, more courage in these two do shine,
 107.00A.099 And by this act of these two Phenixes
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 107.00A.101 For since these two are two no more,
 108.00A.019 Burne in one brest, and like heavens two great lights,
 108.00A.125 Divide these two, whom nature scarce did part?
 108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
 108.00A.162 The rising sun, doe thinke it two,
 108.00A.169 Doe, from his Dictates, to these two impart
 108.00A.225 One fire of foure inflaming eyes, and of two loving hearts.
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 112.00A.013 Thou know'st two temperate Regions girded in,
 134.00A.036 Thy life on that; so make one life of two.
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,
 136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 137.00A.005 Two illls can nere perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;
 137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
 137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
 138.00A.025 Your, or you vertue, two vast uses serves,
 138.00A.068 Two new starres lately to the firmament;
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.
 139.00A.001 This twilight of two yeares, not past nor next,
 148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;
 148.00A.005 So two, that but themselves no third can fit,
 148.00A.009 Pair'd like two eyes, have equall motion, so
 148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 153.00A.055 Yet at the last two perfect bodies rise,
 155.00a.119 Two or three hundred yeares to see't againe,
 155.00a.303 That those two legges whereon it doth relie,
 156.00a.006 loyne the two Indies in one Tombe, 'tis glas;
 157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,

157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
 157.00b.176 A Prouince Pack'd vp in two yards of skinne.
 157.00b.375 Made her a Church; and these two made her all.
 157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,
 158.00A.261 Here by her smallnesse shee two deaths orepast,
 158.00A.270 She knowes not, but betweene both makes a boord or two
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 158.00A.341 Two little fishes whom hee never harm'd,
 158.00A.342 Nor fed on their kinde, two not throughly arm'd
 158.00A.347 The plot of all, that the plotters were two,
 158.00A.443 For the field, being of two kindes made,
 173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie
 184.00A.010 O Sonne of God, who seeing two things,
 184.00A.066 That harmony, which made of two
 191.00B.014 Two, by their bloods, and by thy Spirit one;
 191.00B.017 Two that make one Iohn Baptists holy voyce,
 193.00A.010 A yeare, or two: but wallowed in, a score?

TWO-LEAV'D.....1

106.00A.037 Thy two-leav'd gates faire Temple unfold,

TWOE.....1

135.B13.018 supplying all the Muses in you twoe.

TY'D.....2

021.00G.070 Our bodies so, but that our souls are ty'd,
 153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd

TY'S.....1

157.00b.268 Another thinkes, and ty's an euen lay.

TYDE.....1

145.00A.010 All Vertues ebb'd out to a dead low tyde,

TYE.....3

067.00A.011 Can tye those parts, and make mee one of all;
 152.12a.033 And activ'st spirit to conuey and tye
 158.00A.073 That Crosse, our joy, and grieffe, where nailes did tye

TYED.....4

003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 008.00B.022 When in that hell they're burnt and tyed in chains:
 113.00A.002 Her selfe a Nunne, tyed to retirednesse,
 169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,

TYMPANIE.....1

017.00A.050 Midwives would sweare, 'twere but a tympanie,

TYPE.....5

052.00A.036 Beauty a convenient type may be to figure it.
 153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
 155.00a.319 Had beene a type for that, as that might be
 155.00a.320 A type of her in this, that contrary
 158.00A.406 Was the first type) was still infested soe,

TYPES.....2

135.B13.021 and as true Types of your, them humbly greet.
 136.00A.046 In those poore types of God (round circles) so

TYR'D.....2

004.00A.229 Tyr'd, now I leave this place, and but pleas'd so
 028.00A.007 And he, whose thou art then, being tyr'd before,

TYRAN.....4

010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
 029.00A.016 He is the tyran Pike, our hearts the Frye.
 158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,
 158.00A.359 That now a scoffe, and prey, this tyran dyes,

TYRANNIE.....1

064.00a.019 Oh were wee wak'ned by this Tyrannie

TYRANNIES.....1

165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,

TYRANNOUS.....2

003.00A.106 To the streames tyrannous rage, alas are driven
 110.00A.001 Our storme is past, and that storms tyrannous rage,

TYRANNY.....1

129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,

TYRANS.....2

061.00A.026 What Tyrans, and their subjects interwish,
 138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,

TYRANT.....1

151.00A.010 Tyrant, in the fift and greatest Monarchy,

TYRES.....1

145.00A.006 Serve but for Ladies Periwigs and Tyres

U

UESTRA.....1

199.C11.004 Omnia enim uestra sunt. 1.Cor:3.22.

ULTIMIS.....1

198.LL1.019 & ultimis fere paratis,

UNABLE.....1

088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,

UNAPPARELL.....1

153.00A.012 Can unapparell and enlarge my minde,

UNAPPARRELLED.....1

001.00A.043 And till our Soules be unapparrelled

UNAWARE.....1

049.00A.060 And unaware to mee shalt write.

UNBEGUILE.....1

108.00A.069 Then unbeguile thy selfe, and know with mee,

UNBENT.....1

158.00A.389 Blacke dreames, like an unbent bow, carelesly

UNBINDE.....1

172.00A.012 Us whom he had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.

UNBLAM'D.....1

158.00A.239 This, and much such, and unblam'd devour'd there

UNBODIED.....1

015.00G.034 As souls unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,

UNBORNE.....1

158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,

UNCERTAINE.....2

001.00A.012 And follow headlong, wild uncertaine thee?

062.00A.014 Suspends uncertaine victorie,

UNCHANG'D.....2

108.00A.216 Unchang'd for fiftene hundred yeare,

160.00A.004 All changing unchang'd Antient of dayes,

UNCHANGEABLE.....1

044.00A.024 Are unchangeable firmament.

UNCLASP'D.....1

184.00A.110 Of Doctors, whose paines have unclasp'd, and taught

UNCLEANE.....1

187.00A.068 Is as an uncleane woman amongst them.

UNCLEANESSE.....1

187.00A.030 Remov'd, as women in uncleanesse bee;

UNCLOATH'D.....1

158.00A.180 Till her uncloath'd child kickt, and pick'd it selfe a dore.

UNCLOTH'D.....1

015.00G.034 As souls unbodied, bodies uncloth'd must be,

UNDER.....10

004.00A.087 Not so Sir, I have more. Under this pitch

020.00G.029 He's an infernal god and under ground,

087.00A.001 Under an undermin'd, and shot-bruis'd wall

110.00A.050 Under the poles may begge cold, heat in hell.

112.00A.012 Or under th'adverse icy pole thou pine,

187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,

187.00A.268 Follow, and from under heaven destroy them quite.

187.00A.338 Of whom we said, under his shadow, wee

187.00A.339 Shall with more ease under the Heathen dwell,

187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.

UNDER-BOARDS.....1

021.00G.051 Of becks, winks, looks, and often under-boards

UNDER-WOOD.....1

050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;

UNDERFOOT.....2

187.00A.057 15 He underfoot hath troden in my sight

187.00A.227 34 That underfoot the prisoners stamped bee,

UNDERMIN'D.....2

087.00A.001 Under an undermin'd, and shot-bruis'd wall

158.00A.395 Cleane undermin'd, the slaine beast tumbled downe,

UNDERMINE.....1

134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.

UNDERNEATH.....1

158.00A.265 And suck in aire, or finde it underneath,

UNDERSTAND.....5

001.00A.102 Which understand none, he doth seeme to be

013.00A.003 Too subtile: Foole, thou didst not understand

049.00A.027 I understand, and grow and see,)

131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 134.00A.008 My faith, as I beleeve, so understand.

UNDERSTANDING.....1

074.00A.005 For sense, and understanding may

UNDERSTANDINGS.....1

112.00A.039 For in best understandings, sinne beganne,

UNDERSTOOD.....6

005.00A.003 Rules to make Courtiers, (hee being understood

062.00A.022 That he soules language understood,

098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be belev'd.

112.00A.026 Gain'd, as habits, not borne, is understood.

145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:

153.00A.097 So, in short liv'd good men, is'not understood

UNDERTAKE.....2

017.00A.020 A perfect song, others will undertake,

158.00A.286 Foules they pursue not, nor do undertake

UNDISCERNING.....1

108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,

UNDISTINCT.....1

184.00A.032 As you distinguish'd undistinct

UNDOE.....5

016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undo,

047.00A.023 Lest thou thy love and hate and mee undo

049.00A.011 But all such rules, loves magique can undo,

066.00A.046 Therefore I'll give no more; But I'll undo

158.00A.346 Conspir'd against him, and it might undo

UNDONE.....2

021.00G.019 Or have we left undone some mutual Right,

151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?

UNEVENLY.....1

153.00A.136 Either beates not, or beates unevenly,

UNEVENNESSE.....1

024.00A.033 His chinne, a thorny hairy unevennesse

UNEXCUSABLE.....1

120.00A.002 Urg'd by this unexcusable occasion,

UNFETTERD.....1

158.00A.171 To an unfetterd soules quick nimble hast

UNFIL'D.....1

008.00B.031 Those unlickt beare-whelps, unfil'd pistols

UNFIT.....3

017.00A.022 Things simply good, can never be unfit;

039.00A.029 And if unfit for tombes and hearse

189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit

UNFOLD.....1

106.00A.037 Thy two-leav'd gates faire Temple unfold,

UNFORC'D.....1

131.00B.111 Then earthly substance can unforc'd aspire,

UNGLORIFIED.....1

153.00A.033 So, yet unglorified, I comprehend

UNGOD.....1

064.00a.020 To ungod this child againe, it could not bee

UNGRUDG'D.....1

181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,

UNGRUDGINGLY.....1

008.00B.067 Receive from him that doome ungrudgingly,

UNHANSOME.....1

003.00A.052 Contemptuous, yet unhansome. As among

UNHAPPY.....1

117.00A.011 That from unhappy mee, things happy'are sent;

UNHAUNTED.....1

158.00A.158 So, of a lone unhaunted place possest,

UNHOOPE.....1

006.00D.036 To neighbour wares, when Merchants do unhoope

UNHOUS'D.....1

003.00A.044 Thinking her unhous'd her, and fled from us,

UNIFORME.....1

109.00A.070 Since all formes, uniforme deformity

UNIMPORTUN'D.....1

142.00A.023 To danger unimportun'd, he was than

UNION.....1

107.00A.046 To an unseparable union goe,

UNITE.....3

029.00A.028 Those peeces still, though they be not unite;

148.00A.026 Shall recollect, and in one All unite:

184.00A.067 One law, and did unite, but not confound;

UNIVERSALL.....2

006.00D.050 A Pandect mak'st, and universall book.

184.00A.118 And whil'st this universall Quire,

UNIVERSE.....2

052.00A.026 Learning were safe; in this our Universe

141.00A.066 Or mouth, or Speaker of the universe,

UNIVERSITIE.....1

066.00A.022 And Courtship, to an Universitie;

UNJOYNT.....1

164.00A.005 And gluttonous death, will instantly unjoynt

UNJUST.....5

003.00A.109 So perish Soules, which more chuse mens unjust

108.00A.123 Which scornes unjust opinion; then the bride

138.00A.078 Begets in you unjust suspition.

158.00A.007 selfe, as not to doe it, since I love it; nor so unjust to others, to

184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.

UNKINDE.....2

127.00A.009 With thee my kinde and unkinde heart is run,

158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,

UNKINDLY.....1

042.00A.027 When thou weep'st, unkindly kinde,

UNKNOWNE.....3

016.00A.006 Open to'all searchers, unpriz'd, if unknowne.

079.00B.005 Call, what they cannot name, an unknowne power,

136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne

UNLACE.....1

015.00G.009 Unlace your self, for that harmonious chyme,

UNLAWFULL.....1

158.00A.203 Till now unlawfull, therefore ill; t'was not

UNLESSE.....3

056.00A.019 Good is not good, unlesse

079.00B.023 After such pleasures, unlesse wise

131.00B.072 And cannot be remov'd, unlesse she will.

UNLICKT.....1

008.00B.031 Those unlickt beare-whelps, unfill'd pistols

UNLOCK'D.....1

184.00A.039 Which unlock'd Paradise, and made

UNLOOSE.....1

034.00A.010 Binde but till sleep, deaths image, them unloose?

UNMANACLED.....1

158.00A.303 To such vastnesse, as if unmanacled

UNMANUR'D.....1

024.00A.036 In whose selfe, unmanur'd, all pleasure lies,

UNMASKES.....1

082.00A.002 Lucies, who scarce seaven houres herself unmaskes,

UNMOVED.....1

003.00A.069 nesse too much light breeds; but unmoved thou

UNNATURALL.....1

153.00A.156 To this unnaturall course, or why consent

UNNUMBRED.....1

184.00A.036 Of power, to love, to know, you unnumbered three.

UNOBNOXIOUS.....1

149.00A.035 So, unobnoxious now, she'hath buried both;

UNPERPLEX.....1

062.00A.029 This Extasie doth unperplex

UNPIN.....1

015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,

UNPRISON'D.....1

131.00B.042 Themselves unprison'd were and purify'd:

UNPRIZ'D.....1

016.00A.006 Open to'all searchers, unpriz'd, if unknowne.

UNREADINESSE.....1

158.00A.025 no unreadinesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And

UNRIPE.....2

131.00B.001 That unripe side of earth, that heavy clime

131.00B.044 An unripe willingnesse which nothing did,

UNROOTED.....1

158.00A.305 Earthquake unrooted, loose Morea swome,

UNROUNDED.....1

008.00B.033 Which negligently left unrounded, looke

UNRULY.....1

036.00A.001 Busie old foole, unruly Sunne,

UNSAID.....1

150.00A.001 DEath I recant, and say, unsaide by mee

UNSEPARABLE.....1

107.00A.046 To an unseparable union goe,

UNSPARINGLY.....1

187.00A.093 2 The Lord unsparingly hath swallowed

UNSURE.....1

131.00B.073 It is her fault if I unsure remaine,

UNSUSPECTED.....1

010.00A.055 And unsuspected hast invisibly

UNSWEARE.....1

018.00B.011 Here I unswear, and overswear them thus,

UNTHRIFTS.....1

050.00A.038 Lanke, as an unthrifts purse; but a soules sacke;

UNTIE.....3

034.00A.008 Or, as true deaths, true maryages untie,

106.00A.073 Thy virgins girdle now untie,

131.00B.074 Shee onely can untie, I binde againe.

UNTIL.....1

015.00G.002 Until I labour, I in labour lie.

UNTILL.....3

001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne

187.00A.248 50 Untill the Lord looke downe from heaven to see.

191.00B.040 As I can scarce call that reform'd, untill

UNTO.....73

004.00A.212 And unto her protests protests protests

006.00D.038 Convey these wares in parcels unto men;

010.00A.056 At once fled unto him, and staid with mee.

016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,
 020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 022.00A.038 Wee spake, unto the cunning of a third;
 029.00A.023 More pittie unto mee: but Love, alas
 044.00A.015 Unto this knowledge to aspire,
 048.00A.029 Yeares and yeares unto yeares, till we attaine
 050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
 050.00A.043 Name not these living Deaths-heads unto mee,
 054.00A.024 For, they are all concentrique unto thee,
 061.00A.030 Be annex'd in schedules unto this by mee,
 066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismaticks
 066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live
 067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
 069.00A.026 Belongs unto each woman, then
 096.00A.006 In this case, as thou wouldst be done unto,
 106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 107.00A.017 All that is nothing unto this,
 107.00A.024 Are unto one another mutuall nests,
 107.00A.088 They unto one another nothing owe,
 108.00A.077 Unto the Kings, and that, that Kings are just?
 108.00A.104 I did unto that day some sacrifice.
 108.00A.114 Ether unto the Northerne Pole impart
 122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
 126.00A.015 If thou unto thy Muse be marryed,
 130.00A.016 With womens milke, and pappe unto the end.
 133.00A.006 To come unto great place as others doe,
 143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
 145.00A.067 So am I debtor unto them, whose worth,
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;
 153.00A.171 And Church-yards are our cities, unto which
 153.00A.232 Unto the Senate, who this triumph gave;
 153.00A.248 That testimonie of love, unto the dead,
 154.00A.026 Unto the speare of formes, and doth (before
 158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
 158.00A.268 Cares not, but safe the Place she's come unto
 158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:
 158.00A.498 Life keeping moisture unto every part,
 160.00A.062 Alas, and do, unto the immaculate,
 170.00A.007 And can that tongue adjudge thee unto hell,
 171.00A.010 But am betroth'd unto your enemie,
 173.00A.002 Unto thy kingdome, thy Sonne gives to mee,
 181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,
 182.00A.011 Himselfe unto all stations, and fill all,
 184.00A.014 O be thou nail'd unto my heart,
 184.00A.045 In vaine, who hath such titles unto you.
 185.00A.034 They're present yet unto my memory,
 187.00A.009 3 Unto great bondage, and afflictions
 187.00A.016 And shee's unto her selfe a bitterness.

187.00A.055 My strength. The Lord unto those enemies
 187.00A.086 Doe unto them, as thou hast done to mee,
 187.00A.118 And levell Sions walls unto the ground,
 187.00A.124 Unto their Prophets doth the Lord appeare.
 187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where 187.00A.165 20 Behold O Lord, consider unto whom
 187.00A.201 18 My strength, my hope (unto my selfe I said)
 187.00A.216 (The Lords salvation) unto the end:
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.258 Unto mee, and said'st unto mee, do not feare.
 187.00A.299 For now their skin doth cleave unto their bone,
 187.00A.325 Unto their old men shall the foe afford,
 187.00A.342 Thou which inhabitst her, for unto thee
 187.00A.351 2 For unto strangers our possession
 187.00A.352 Is turn'd, our houses unto Aliens gone,
 187.00A.359 6 We stretch our hands unto th' Egyptians
 187.00A.373 13 Unto the mill our yong men carried are,
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we've sinned so.
 189.00B.002 To put thy hand unto the holy Plough,
 190.00A.008 I sacrifice this Iland unto thee,

056.00A.001 Some man unworthy to be possessor

UP.....43

006.00D.059 Can all carouse up thee? no, thou must fit

013.00A.011 And bound up, might with speechlesse secrecie

035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.

055.00A.039 Must learne, by my being cut up, and torne:

056.00A.018 Only to lock up, or else to let them fall?

058.00A.020 Draw not up seas to drowne me in thy spheare,

062.00A.002 A Pregnant banke swel'd up, to rest

070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe

070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring

071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,

071.00A.017 For I could muster up as well as you

078.00D.011 Lac'd up together in congruity,

107.00A.029 Up then faire Phoenix Bride, frustrate the Sunne,

107.00A.033 Up, up, faire Bride, and call,

107.00A.033 Up, up, faire Bride, and call,

108.00A.016 The Sunne stayes longer up; and yet not his

108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?

111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,

131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time

138.00A.048 And looke not back, to looke up doth allow.

146.00A.009 Oh, if a sweet briar, climbe up by'a tree,

149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;

150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,

151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,

151.00A.060 Shall be tooke up spruce, fill'd with diamond;

153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,

153.00A.106 Thy ends, thy birth and death clos'd up in thee?

153.00A.209 And to deliver up to God that state,

154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you

154.00A.027 His soule shall fill up his sepulchrall stone,)

158.00A.139 They throng and cleave up, and a passage cleare,

158.00A.168 And tore up both, and so coold her childs blood;

158.00A.264 And whether she leape up sometimes to breath

158.00A.319 Hee spouted rivers up, as if he ment

158.00A.331 Now drinkes he up seas, and he eates up flocks,

158.00A.331 Now drinkes he up seas, and he eates up flocks,

158.00A.478 And up lifts subtly with his russet pawe

160.00A.068 Now thou art lifted up, draw mee to thee,

181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;

184.00A.009 I may rise up from death, before I'am dead.

187.00A.163 Lift up thy hands to God, lest children dye,

187.00A.176 Brought up, did perish by mine enemie.

187.00A.182 5 Built up against mee; and hath girt mee in

UP-PROPS.....1

158.00A.386 Himselfe he up-props, on himselfe relies

UPBEARE.....1

158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;

UPBRAID.....1

153.00A.229 But though this freedome to upbraid, and chide

UPLAY.....2

113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay

183.00A.045 This treasure then, in grosse, my Soule uplay,

UPMOST.....1

012.00A.026 Do but stoop downe, or kisse her upmost brow:

UPON.....48

004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee

006.00D.031 Meaning to see't no more upon the presse.

006.00D.045 If omni-pregnant there, upon warme stalls,

008.00B.094 May my most heavy curse upon thee fall:

009.00A.014 Or warts, or wheales, it hangs upon her skinne.

018.00B.036 Of Players, which upon the worlds stage be,

020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon

020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon

020.00G.051 Upon the Islands fortunate we fall,

020.00G.069 Thou shalt upon another Forest set,

021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,

030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.

045.00A.019 Ev'ry thy haire for love to worke upon

047.00A.004 Of Breath and Blood, upon thy sighes, and teares,

048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we're Kings, and none but wee

062.00A.008 Our eyes, upon one double string,

063.00A.011 Such stufte to worke upon, there is,)

065.00A.005 Give it a diet, made it feed upon

107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,

108.00A.106 Though thou upon thy death bed lye,

108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,

108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon

112.00A.054 Upon the waters face; nor in the deepe

125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,

140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon

142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you

143.00A.018 For, 'tis some fault thus much to touch upon,

149.00A.014 Doth worke upon itselife, with inborne stings.

149.00A.019 And leaves embroderd workes upon the sand,

158.00A.236 It mov'd with state, as if to looke upon

158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,

158.00A.008 do it sine talione. As long as I give them as good hold upon mee,

160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,
 169.00A.008 Whose whole kinde, you might swallow & feed upon?
 185.00A.030 Upon his miserable mother cast mine eye,
 185.00A.036 O Saviour, as thou hang'st upon the tree;
 187.00A.037 10 Upon all things where her delight hath beene,
 187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke
 187.00A.060 Trod upon Juda's daughter in his wrath.
 187.00A.131 Pour'd out upon the ground, for miserie
 187.00A.149 16 Thy foes doe gape upon thee, and they hisse,
 187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 187.00A.244 With ruine, and with waste, upon us are.
 187.00A.254 Destroy'd; 55 I called Lord, upon thy name
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere
 187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,
 191.00B.008 That, as thy blessed Spirit fell upon
 191.00B.013 That worke againe, and shed it, here, upon

UPPER.....2

110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.
 187.00A.282 His tounge for thirst cleaves to his upper jaw.

UPRAISE.....1

187.00A.236 41 To him in heaven, our hands with hearts upraise.

UPRIGHT.....3

001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see
 015.00G.024 Those set our hairs, but these our flesh upright.
 158.00A.153 A young Colossus there hee stands upright,

UPRISE.....1

107.00A.104 As Satyres watch the Sunnes uprise, will stay

UPRISING.....1

160.00A.086 Joy at the uprising of this Sunne, and Sonne,

UPWARD.....4

067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 108.00A.064 So upward, that heaven gild it with his eye;
 130.00A.008 Strives to urge upward, and his fortune raise;
 158.00A.356 Begins to sinke; the Swordfish upward spins,

UPWARDS.....1

005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most

URG'D.....1

120.00A.002 Urg'd by this unexcusable occasion,

URGE.....2

022.00A.026 With circumstance might urge thy'inconstancie,

130.00A.008 Strives to urge upward, and his fortune raise;

URIM.....1

005.00A.083 Thou had'st much, & lawes Urim and Thummim trie

URNE.....2

009.00A.024 Or Joues best fortunes urne, is her faire brest.

039.00A.033 As well a well wrought urne becomes

US.....209

001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,

001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,

003.00A.011 Us in the end, and shall thy fathers spirit

003.00A.044 Thinking her unhous'd her, and fled from us,

003.00A.058 Which dwels with us, is onely perfect, hee

004.00A.107 Toll to some Courtier; And wiser then all us,

004.00A.171 With us, at London, flouts our Presence, for

008.00B.025 I think possesseth, they come here to us,

010.00A.062 Falls on us, to be call'd effeminate;

011.00A.016 That in suspecting kindly warneth us.

016.00A.024 To make us like and love, must I change too?

020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,

020.00G.044 And when 'tis wrinckled, shipwracks us again.

020.00G.050 On either side, and then directs us where

021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,

021.00G.020 That thus with parting thou seek'st us to spight?

021.00G.037 And made'st us sigh and blow, and pant, and burn,

021.00G.039 Was't not enough, that thou didst hazard us

021.00G.056 Must sad divorce make us the vulgar story?

021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,

021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,

021.00G.069 Rend us in sunder, thou canst not divide

022.00A.053 Now have I curst, let us our love revive;

024.00A.043 And betweene us all sweetnesse may be had;

029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,

029.00A.013 They come to us, but us Love draws,

029.00A.014 Hee swallows us, and never chawes:

030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;

030.00B.011 From us, and our cares; but, now 'tis not so.

031.00A.005 So let us melt, and make no noise,

032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.

036.00A.003 Through windowes, and through curtaines call on us?

036.00A.023 Princes doe but play us, compar'd to this,

036.00A.028 To warme the world, that's done in warming us.

036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;

039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;

039.00A.022 And wee in us finde the'Eagle and the dove,

039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.

039.00A.036 Us Canoniz'd for Love.

039.00A.037 And thus invoke us; You whom reverend love
 042.00A.024 It selfe o'r us to'advance.
 045.00A.004 Angells affect us oft, and worship'd bee,
 046.00A.005 Love which in spight of darknesse brought us hether,
 046.00A.006 Should in despight of light keepe us together.
 048.00A.009 Running it never runs from us away,
 048.00A.026 Treason to us, except one of us two.
 048.00A.026 Treason to us, except one of us two.
 048.00A.027 True and false feares let us refraine,
 048.00A.028 Let us love nobly, and live, and adde againe
 052.00A.002 To anger destiny, as she doth us,
 052.00A.017 That sees, how Love this grace to us affords,
 052.00A.025 Vandals and the Goths invade us,
 062.00A.010 Was all the meanes to make us one,
 062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
 062.00A.054 Did us, to us, at first conway,
 062.00A.054 Did us, to us, at first conway,
 062.00A.055 Yeelded their senses force to us,
 062.00A.056 Nor are drosse to us, but allay.
 062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:
 062.00A.075 Let him still marke us, he shall see
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring
 070.00A.015 Us, to the Bishop, and the King,
 070.00A.016 To make us Reliques; then
 070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;
 072.00A.003 And wee were mutuall Elements to us,
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 082.00A.027 Withdrew our soules, and made us carcasses.
 107.00A.039 Bee thou a new starre, that to us portends
 108.00A.148 To us that come, thy inflaming eyes, to him, thy loving heart.
 108.00A.157 And though thou stoope, to'appeare to us, in part,
 110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;
 110.00A.006 In calmes, Heaven laughs to see us languish thus.
 110.00A.047 Fate grudges us all, and doth subtly lay
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;
 111.00A.022 Then let us at these mimicke antiques jeast,
 113.00A.010 For though to us it seeme,'and be light and thinne,
 113.00A.028 So workes retirednesse in us; to rome
 122.00A.019 I feare; And with us (me thinkes) Fate deales so
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
 125.00A.012 Some houres on us your frends, and some bestow
 127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,
 120.00A.037 But though she part us, to heare my oft prayers
 130.00A.028 New faults, till they prescribe in us, are smoake.
 131.00B.002 That gives us man up now, like Adams time
 131.00B.103 Whose heat doth force us thither to intend,

136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,
 137.00A.005 Two ills can nere perplexe us, sinne to'excuse;
 138.00A.035 Lightnesse depresseth us, emptinesse fills,
 138.00A.043 In none but us, are such mixt engines found,
 138.00A.059 As men to'our prisons, new soules to us are sent,
 138.00A.061 First seeds of every creature are in us,
 138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity
 139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
 140.00A.023 To us, as to his chickins, he doth cast
 140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,
 141.00A.025 She guilded us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 141.00A.026 Us she inform'd, but transubstantiates you,
 146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 147.00B.013 Parents make us earth, and soules dignifie
 149.00A.004 God hath set markes, and bounds, twixt us and it,
 149.00A.043 She sinn'd, but just enough to let us see
 149.00A.055 How fit for us, how even and how sweet,
 150.00A.011 Now wantonly he spoiles, and eates us not,
 150.00A.012 But breakes off friends, and lets us peecemeale rot.
 151.00A.002 To ease us now; great sorrow cannot speake;
 151.00A.039 God tooke her hence, lest some of us should love
 151.00A.053 Her body left with us, lest some had said,
 153.00A.005 If looking up to God; or downe to us,
 153.00A.037 Yet are the trunkes which doe to us derive
 153.00A.104 And so make us alive, themselves be dead?
 153.00A.130 And by thy doing tell us what to doe?
 153.00A.154 And great Sun-dyall, to have set us All?
 153.00A.223 And hath he left us so? or can it bee
 153.00A.238 That thou so earely wouldst abandon us;
 158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.
 158.00A.026 Us, and our latest nephewes did install
 158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
 158.00A.063 Which as the Moone the sea, moves us, to heare
 158.00A.094 The daughters here corrups us,
 158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
 158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.
 158.00A.101 So fast in us doth this corruption grow,
 158.00A.517 And blest Seth vext us with Astronomie,
 166.00A.002 Whose fruit threw death on else immortall us,
 167.00A.011 And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
 169.00A.011 But wonder at a greater wonder, for to us
 169.00A.014 For us, his Creatures, and his foes, hath dyed.
 172.00A.012 Us whom he'had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.
 177.00B.007 Apparent in us not immediately,
 184.00A.002 It, and us for it, and all else, for us
 184.00A.002 It, and us for it, and all else, for us
 184.00A.038 Whose flesh redeem'd us; That she-Cherubin,
 184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,

184.00A.088 To begge for us, a discreet patience
 184.00A.098 Tentations martyr us alive; A man
 184.00A.107 Divorce thou sinne in us, or bid it die,
 184.00A.111 Both bookes of life to us (for love
 184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought
 184.00A.113 In thy other booke) pray for us there
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 184.00A.125 Heare this prayer Lord, O Lord deliver us
 184.00A.135 With all their might, Good Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.143 From thinking us all soule, neglecting thus
 184.00A.144 Our mutuall duties, Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.145 From tempting Satan to tempt us,
 184.00A.153 From thirst, or scorne of flame, deliver us.
 184.00A.154 Deliver us for thy descent
 184.00A.157 To'ungratious us, staid'st at her full of grace,
 184.00A.162 Deliver, and make us, to both waies free.
 184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
 184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
 184.00A.179 Deliver us from death, by dying so,
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 184.00A.186 Makes us Idolatrous,
 184.00A.189 Only to vent wit, Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.193 To us, as we judge, lay or ghostly sword,
 184.00A.198 Deliver us from the sinister way.
 184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
 184.00A.199 Heare us, O heare us Lord; to thee
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 184.00A.203 Heare us, for till thou heare us, Lord
 184.00A.207 Heare thy selfe now, for thou in us dost pray.
 184.00A.214 Awaken us to our just offices,
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
 184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
 184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
 184.00A.233 Us, to amendment, heare them; thee decline;
 184.00A.242 That our affections kill us not, nor dye,
 184.00A.243 Heare us, weake ecchoes, O thou eare, and cry.
 184.00A.244 Sonne of God heare us, and since thou
 184.00A.245 By taking our blood, owest it us againe
 184.00A.246 Gaine to thy selfe, or us allow;
 184.00A.247 And let not both us and thy selfe be slaine;
 184.00A.250 O let it not returne to us againe,
 185.00A.024 Zenith to us, and our Antipodes,
 185.00A.025 Humbled below us? or that blood which is
 185.00A.032 Halfe of that Sacrifice, which ransom'd us?
 187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,
 187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,
 187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,
 187.00A.241 No power to passe. 45 And thou hast made us fall

187.00A.243 46 All our foes gape at us. 47, Feare and a snare
 187.00A.244 With ruine, and with waste, upon us are.
 187.00A.320 Depart, depart, and touch us not, and then
 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye
 187.00A.336 At us, and for us in the desart lye.
 187.00A.336 At us, and for us in the desart lye.
 187.00A.349 1 Remember, O Lord, what is fallen on us
 187.00A.358 They make us travaile, and not intermit,
 187.00A.360 To get us bread; and to the Assyrians.
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we've sinned so.
 187.00A.385 19 Why should'st thou forget us eternally?
 187.00A.386 Or leave us thus long in this misery?
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may
 187.00A.389 21 For oughtest thou, O Lord, despise us thus
 187.00A.390 22 And to be utterly enrag'd at us?
 191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.
 191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.
 191.00B.021 They shew us llanders our joy, our King,
 191.00B.022 They tell us why, and teach us how to sing.
 191.00B.022 They tell us why, and teach us how to sing.
 191.00B.035 To us so sweetly and sincerely too,

US'D.....7

011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,
 013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
 015.00G.019 In such white robes, heaven's Angels us'd to be
 158.00A.149 A dealer bee, and be us'd well, or ill:
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 158.00A.465 The valters sombersalts, or us'd to wooe
 187.00A.370 By force, and so women in Sions us'd.

USE.....33

002.00A.031 But these do mee no harme, nor they which use
 015.00G.035 To taste whole joyes. Jems which you women use
 017.00A.034 But, in long journeyes, cloth, and leather use.
 020.00G.016 By our new nature (Use) the soul of trade.
 042.00A.007 To use my selfe in jest
 052.00A.018 To make, to keep, to use, to be these his Records.
 052.00A.034 Something which they may see and use;
 053.00A.012 Onely this rests, All, all may use.
 054.00A.011 Love's not so pure, and abstract, as they use
 060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,
 065.00A.028 And now as other Fawknars use,
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 072.00A.021 My use encrease'd.
 103.00A.002 Except himselfe alone his tricks would use,
 106.00A.065 With these your pleasing labours, for great use

108.00A.066 So, for best civill use, all tinctures move
 108.00A.068 Wisdome, and honour from the use of Kings.
 110.00A.017 No use of lanthornes; and in one place lay
 113.00A.007 Though to use, and love Poetrie, to mee,
 113.00A.026 Into any'oyle, the Soules of Simples, use
 129.00A.010 Hath stor'd with notes of use and pleasures too,
 136.00A.029 To our late times, the use of specular stone,
 137.00A.003 Rarenesse, or use, not nature value brings;
 140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 151.00A.047 Such piety, so chast use of Gods day,
 153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,
 153.00A.181 Let me here use that freedome, and expresse
 158.00A.199 The next that calls; both liberty doe use;
 158.00A.257 None scape, but few, and fit for use to get,
 158.00A.442 And Abell (the dam dead) would use this new
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of 184.00A.060 May use our new helpes right,)

USED.....1

158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to

USES.....1

138.00A.025 Your, or you vertue, two vast uses serves,

USEST.....1

187.00A.238 Thou pardon'st not. 43 Ucest no clemencie;

UETH.....1

139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,

USHER.....2

137.00A.012 To usher vertue, and say, This is shee .

150.00A.046 Her Soule is gone to usher up her corse,

USING.....2

016.00A.008 Another fouler using these meanes, as I,

139.00A.050 By using others, not vice, but weakenesse.

USURIOUS.....1

038.00A.003 Usurious God of Love, twenty to thee,

USURP'ST.....1

153.00A.192 Thou didst intrude on death, usurp'st a grave.

USURPE.....3

011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,

149.00A.031 Usurpe the body,'our soule, which subject is

162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?

USURPT.....1

181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,

UTTER'D.....2

022.00A.050 That utter'd all, be to some Raven flung,

108.00A.098 Full of the common joy; I utter'd some,

UTTERED.....2

133.00A.022 Her early child mispeake halfe uttered words,

187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,

UTTERLY.....3

012.00A.043 My hate shall outgrow thine, and utterly

187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we're not utterly

187.00A.390 22 And to be utterly enrag'd at us?

107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.

107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.

107.00A.042 May all men date Records, from this thy Valentine.

107.00A.056 Besides this Bishops knot, O Bishop Valentine.

107.00A.070 A night, as well as day, to thee, O Valentine?

107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.

107.00A.098 Then all thy turtles have, and sparrows, Valentine.

107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.

VALENTINES.....1

VANDALS.....1

052.00A.025 Vandals and the Goths invade us,

VANISH.....7

008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,
 026.00A.010 My picture vanish'd, vanish feares,
 107.00A.077 Should vanish from her cloathes, into her bed,
 139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
 155.00a.260 New starres, and old do vanish from our eyes:
 155.00a.408 To sing her funerall prayse, and vanish than.
 157.00b.042 Vntill man doe but vanish, and not die.

004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)

017.00G.053 Whom Dildoes, Bedstaves, or a velvet Glass

VENEMOUS.....1

155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,

VENGEANCE.....2

158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?

187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;

VENIALL.....1

004.00A.202 Great staines and holes in them; but veniall

VENICE.....2

006.00D.003 Venice vast lake thou hadst seen, & would seek than,

129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,

VENICES.....1

110.00A.038 Might brave our venices, now bed-ridde ships.

VENISTI.....1

195.010.002 AD GADES OMNIVM VENISTI; ETIAM ET AD TVAS:

VENOME.....1

004.00B.134 That as burnt venome Leachers doe grow sound

VENT.....7

006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares

052.00A.055 Thus vent thy thoughts; abroad I'll studie thee,

080.00E.023 I will vent that humour then

149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;

157.00b.330 And for the word of God, vent them agen?

181.00A.055 And as the braine through bony walls doth vent

VERSE.....16

039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;

040.00A.011 For, he tames it, that fetters it in verse.

040.00A.016 Griefe, which verse did restraine.

040.00A.017 To Love, and Griefe tribute of Verse belongs,

052.00A.027 Schooles might learne Sciences, Spheares Musick, Angels Verse.

114.00A.027 'Twill be good prose, although the verse be evill.

115.00A.001 Hast thee harsh verse as fast as thy lame measure

117.00A.008 My verse, the strict Map of my misery,

139.00A.013 Verse embalmes vertue;'and Tombs, or Thrones of rimes,

139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want

141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;

155.00a.460 As matter fit for Chronicle, not verse,

155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.
 155.00a.473 Verse hath a middle nature: heauen keeps soules,
 155.00a.474 The graue keeps bodies, verse the same enroules.
 156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.

VERSES.....2

143.00A.010 These verses bud, so these confessions grow;
 156.00a.014 Those Carkas verses, whose soule is not shee.

VERTUE.....56

001.00A.041 Hate vertue, though shee be naked, and bare:
 003.00A.007 As vertue was in the first blinded age?
 004.00A.072 Better pictures of vice, teach me vertue;
 074.00A.004 Then vertue or the minde to'admire,
 108.00A.084 To vertue, to the which they all pretend.
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 113.00A.016 There is no Vertue, but Religion,
 113.00A.023 Blowing our sparkes of vertue, may outburne
 122.00A.032 Vertue, our formes forme and our soules soule is.
 129.00A.008 Must in another Sphere his vertue streame:
 131.00B.123 There vertue breakes all clouds that might annoy,
 133.00A.030 And wit, and vertue, 'and honour her attend,
 134.00A.026 And vertue, 'and such ingredients, have made
 137.00A.002 Vertue, Art, Beauty, Fortune, now I see
 137.00A.012 To usher vertue, and say, This is shee.
 138.00A.025 Your, or you vertue, two vast uses serves,
 138.00A.073 Vertue hath some perversenesse; For she will 138.00A.076 Vertue hath some, but wise degrees of vice.
 138.00A.079 And ignorance of vice, makes vertue lesse,
 138.00A.090 With cordiall vertue, your knowne nourishment.
 139.00A.013 Verse embalms vertue; 'and Tombs, or Thrones of rimes,
 141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood
 141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty, 'and birth outgrow.
 142.00A.027 Have Vertue in Melancholy, and only there.
 142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
 142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;
 142.00A.036 True vertue is Soule, Alwaies in all deeds All.
 142.00A.037 This Vertue thinking to give dignitie
 142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
 142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
 142.00A.051 Vertue, and beauty of the same stuffe, as you?
 143.00A.014 Vertue or beautie, but as they are growne
 145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:

151.00A.055 For from lesse vertue, and lesse beautiousnesse,
 153.00A.043 For fluid vertue cannot be look'd on,
 153.00A.060 Should injure Nature, Vertue, and Destinie,
 153.00A.062 Vertue, which did in one intirenesse grow.
 153.00A.067 So is't of vertue; for a point and one
 153.00A.071 So then, that vertue in season, and then this,
 153.00A.098 Each severall vertue, but the compound good.
 153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,
 155.00a.071 A faint weake loue of vertue and of good
 155.00a.078 Her vertue, and the forme our practise is.
 155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.
 155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
 155.00a.405 Death could not quench her vertue so, but that
 155.00a.411 So doth her vertue need her here, to fit
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 155.00a.457 From her example, and her vertue, if you
 157.00b.076 By vertue, and vertue by religious fires,
 157.00b.076 By vertue, and vertue by religious fires,
 158.00A.482 That vertue, by his touches, chaft and spent,

VERTUES.....32

008.00B.078 Passe Vertues, Powers, and Principalities.
 131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
 137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;
 137.00A.044 You as you'are vertues temple, not as shee,
 138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe
 138.00A.075 Even in your vertues best paradise,
 138.00A.077 Too many vertues, or too much of one
 141.00A.015 By vertues beames by fame deriv'd from you,
 141.00A.045 To whom, because from you all vertues flow,

142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 142.00A.048 As to partake your vertues, and their might,
 145.00A.010 All Vertues ebb'd out to a dead low tyde,
 146.00A.020 All vertues, whose names subtile Schoolmen knew;
 148.00A.029 Her vertues do, as to their proper speare,
 149.00A.060 Lest they that heare her vertues, thinke her old.
 150.00A.027 Our births and life, vices, and vertues, bee
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 151.00A.033 For of all morall vertues she was all,
 151.00A.034 The Ethicks speake of vertues Cardinall;
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 153.00A.040 Vertues, indeed remote, seeme to be nere;
 153.00A.050 So in this sea of vertues, can no one
 153.00A.051 Bee'insisted on, vertues, as rivers, passe,
 153.00A.059 His vertues into names, and ranks; but I
 153.00A.069 And had Fate meant to have his vertues told,
 153.00A.074 In good short lives, vertues are faine to thrust,
 153.00A.099 For, they all vertues paths in that pace tread,
 155.00a.050 And glue all vertues, now resolu'd, and slack'd,
 155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,

VERTUOUS.....10

049.00A.033 As all the vertuous powers which are
 131.00B.121 So able man, blest with a vertuous Love,
 137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 141.00A.044 And as a vertuous Prince farre off, to mee.
 142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
 142.00A.024 No better then a sanguine Vertuous man.
 142.00A.045 But as an influence, vertuous thoughts imparts.
 153.00A.052 Yet still remains that vertuous man there was;
 156.00a.103 For future vertuous deeds are Legacies,
 157.00b.308 That aie the vertuous Actions they expresse,

081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandering doe but yet decline

131.00B.126 To stile his wandring rage of passion, Love.

WANT.....17

001.00A.099 Our dull Comedians want him, let him goe;
 004.00A.149 But he is gone, thanks to his needy want,
 008.00B.107 Want after plenty; poore and gouty age;
 018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,
 024.00A.008 But I, their maker; want their libertie.
 037.00A.002 Her whom abundance melts, and her whom want betraies,
 066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among
 106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
 113.00A.018 Want, which want not Vice-covering discretion.
 113.00A.018 Want, which want not Vice-covering discretion.
 117.00A.009 Shall live to see that, for whose want I dye.
 126.00A.024 Mother, want matter, an%ld they only have 129.00A.026 To want, then governe greatnesse, for wee are
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
 134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 184.00A.183 When want, sent but to tame, doth warre

WANTETH.....1

021.00G.072 And thoughts and dreams; Love never wanteth shifts,

WANTING.....2

129.00A.024 Then I have done your honour wanting it.
 131.00B.010 And wanting the reward, yet beare the sinne.

WANTONING.....1

158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,

WANTONLY.....1

150.00A.011 Now wantonly he spoiles, and eates us not,

WANTS.....5

004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
 120.00A.004 Leaving behinde, doth of both wants complaine;
 154.00A.015 The Chappell wants an eare, Councell a tongue;
 155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart

WAR.....6

WAS.....231

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne
 001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 002.00A.030 The meate was mine, th'excrement is his owne:
 002.00A.043 Hath made a Lawyer; which was alas of late
 002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire
 003.00A.007 As vertue was in the first blinded age?
 003.00A.009 Lusts, as earths honour was to them? Alas,
 003.00A.046 That shee was there a thousand yeares agoe,
 004.00A.009 To Masse in jest, catch'd, was faine to disburse
 004.00A.031 Sleevelesse his jerkin was, and it had beene
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 004.00A.032 Velvet, but't was now (so much ground was seene)
 004.00A.059 Good pretty linguists, and so Panirge was;
 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 004.00A.141 Of mercy now was come; He tries to bring
 005.00A.037 The iron Age %1that%2 was, when justice was sold, now
 005.00A.037 The iron Age %1that%2 was, when justice was sold, now
 005.00A.055 That all thy gold was drown'd in them before;
 006.00D.015 One halfe being made, thy modestie was such,

006.00D.071 As %1Sibyls%2 was, your booke is mysticall,
 008.00B.001 Not that in colour it was like thy haire,
 012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,
 012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdain'd.
 017.00G.054 Would be as loath to touch as Joseph was.
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 019.00A.017 That which in him was faire and delicate,
 019.00A.018 Was but the milke, which in loves childish state
 021.00G.078 How fresh our love was in the beginning;
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?
 022.00A.054 In mee the flame was never more alive;
 022.00A.066 Love was as subtilly catch'd, as a disease;
 024.00A.025 Such was my %1Phao%2 awhile, but shall be never,
 032.00A.019 What ever dyes, was not mixt equally;
 039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
 040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
 041.00A.008 Then at the bargaine made was ment,
 041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
 041.00A.019 For, this love was not vowed by thee,
 041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
 043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
 043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
 043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,
 043.00A.019 It was not good, it was not bad,
 043.00A.020 It was intire to none, and few had part.
 048.00A.004 Is elder by a yeare, now, then it was
 049.00A.004 As hard, as that which grav'd it, was,
 049.00A.037 So since this name was cut
 050.00A.009 That was her torrid and inflaming time,
 050.00A.030 Was lov'd for age, none being so large as shee,
 054.00A.002 As I had thought it was,
 054.00A.006 My love was infinite, if spring make't more.
 057.00A.003 It was a theame
 058.00A.013 And quickly make that, which was nothing, %1All%2,
 062.00A.010 Was all the meanes to make us one,
 062.00A.012 Was all our propagation.
 062.00A.031 Wee see by this, it was not sexe
 062.00A.039 (All which before was poore, and scant,)
 064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
 064.00a.011 His office was indulgently to fit
 064.00a.013 Only his subject was; It cannot bee
 065.00A.017 His drinke was counterfeit, as was his meat;
 065.00A.017 His drinke was counterfeit, as was his meat;
 070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
 077.00A.006 Hee was kill'd yesterday.
 079.00B.002 I thought there was some Deitie in love
 081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes

081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 107.00A.021 (Which was of foules, and beasts, the cage, and park,)
 107.00A.084 Thy day was but the eve to this, O Valentine.
 107.00A.102 Ther's but one Phenix still, as was before.
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 109.00A.031 And what at first was call'd a gust, the same
 109.00A.043 Lightning was all our light, and it rain'd more
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 110.00A.052 Is man now, then before he was? he was
 111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
 114.00A.013 But care not for mee, I, that ever was
 116.00A.008 The body risen againe, the which was dead,
 123.NY3.013 Oh I was dead: but since thy song new life did give
 127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
 128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
 131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdain.
 131.00B.043 So was love, first in vast confusion hid,
 136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
 140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
 140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry
 141.00A.001 Man to Gods image, %1Eve%2, to mans was made,
 141.00A.023 She was in all men, thinly scatter'd then,
 141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
 142.00A.023 To danger unimportun'd, he was than
 142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
 145.00A.076 To have profest all Arts, was one borne blind:
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 148.00A.003 Shee was the other part, for so they doe
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metalls; so
 148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
 149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
 149.00A.039 Grace was in her extremely diligent,
 149.00A.053 How fit she was for God, I am content
 150.00A.037 She was more stories high: hopelesse to come
 150.00A.039 Her Soule and body was a King and Court:
 151.00A.016 But thou must raze it too, that was undone?
 151.00A.021 She was too Saphirine, and cleare to thee;
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 151.00A.033 For of all morall vertues she was all,
 151.00A.035 Her soule was Paradise; the Cherubin
 151.00A.036 Set to keepe it was grace, that kept out sinne;
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that %1Hee%2,

152.12a.026 Whose %1Reputation%2 was an %1Extasie%2

 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that %1Hee%2 would make
 153.00A.052 Yet still remains that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.077 So was it in this person, forc'd to bee
 153.00A.107 Since one foot of thy compasse still was plac'd
 153.00A.161 Though her flood was blowne in, by thy first breath,
 153.00A.201 Till then thy War was but a civill War,
 153.00A.224 His territory was no more then Hee?
 153.00A.227 And he was joynd in commission
 153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 154.00A.005 Then was in heaven till now; (for may not hee
 154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse
 154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 155.00a.052 Or that our weakenes was discovered
 155.00a.105 For that first mariage was our funerall:
 155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.136 Contracted to an inch, who was a span.
 155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.
 155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
 155.00a.202 That euening was beginning of the day,
 155.00a.227 Shee that was best, and first originall
 155.00a.313 That Harmony was shee, and thence infer,
 155.00a.318 That th'Arke to mans proportions was made,
 155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,
 155.00a.365 Whose composition was miraculous,
 155.00a.414 Vertue was growne, past growth, that it must die,
 155.00a.426 But that our age was Iron, and rusty too,
 156.00a.005 Or with those Pearles, and Rubies which shee was?
 156.00a.044 For many leagues,) farre greater then it was,
 156.00a.059 One, whose cleare body was so pure, and thin,
 157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.070 Some Figure of the Golden times, was hid.
 157.00b.072 Because shee was the forme, that made it liue;
 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
 157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;
 157.00b.123 Shee whose Complexion was so euen made,
 157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.
 157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies
 157.00b.152 Heauen was content to suffer violence,
 157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.
 157.00b.221 Shee, whose faire body no such prison was,

157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
 157.00b.242 Her body was th'Electrum, and did hold
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was growen
 157.00b.367 And shee gaue pardons, and was liberall,
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.377 To worse, by company; (for shee was still 157.00b.378 More Antidote, then all the world was ill,)
 157.00b.422 Was far to little, to haue beene the Base;
 157.00b.451 Who with Gods presence was acquainted so,
 157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,
 157.00b.458 Was her first Parents fault, and not her own:
 157.00b.461 Who by a faithfull confidence, was here
 157.00b.482 What eie was casuall, may euer bee.
 157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
 157.00b.503 Made better; for shee rather was two soules,
 158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
 158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ
 158.00A.132 A place, where no place was; by natures course
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.224 With the males jelly, newly lev'ned was,
 158.00A.242 And now this Soule in double walls was shut,
 158.00A.258 As, in this trap a ravenous pike was tane,
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.406 Was the first type) was still infested soe,
 158.00A.406 Was the first type) was still infested soe,
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
 158.00A.452 Gamesome it was, that it might freely goe
 158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.
 158.00A.461 He was the first that more desir'd to have
 158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,
 158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
 158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
 158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.023 Ere by the spheares time was created, thou
 160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,
 160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
 160.00A.051 His Godhead was not soule to his manhood,
 162.00A.002 My selfe to thee, O God, first I was made
 162.00A.003 By thee, and for thee, and when I was decay'd
 162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
 172.00A.011 The Sonne of glory came downe, and was slaine,
 172.00A.013 'Twas much, that man was made like God before,

173.00A.006 Was from the worlds beginning slaine, and he
 175.00B.005 You which beyond that heave%T which was most high
 176.00B.007 That sufferance was my sinne I now repent,
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 184.00A.041 Whose wombe was a strange heav'n, for there
 184.00A.155 Into the Virgin, whose wombe was a place
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus
 187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?
 187.00A.033 9 Her foulnesse in her skirts was seene, yet she
 187.00A.102 His right hand was in posture of a foe,
 187.00A.110 The place where was his congregation,
 187.00A.190 Or Beare which lyes in wait, he was to mee,
 187.00A.194 Into my reines, 14 I with my people was
 187.00A.199 17 And thus my Soule farre off from peace was set,
 187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?
 187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;
 187.00A.296 And all their polish'dnesse was Seraphine.
 187.00A.317 With blood, the which impossible it was
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.
 189.00B.041 %1Maries%2 prerogative was to beare Christ, so
 193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?

WASH.....7

004.00A.241 To wash the staines away; though I yet
 134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 149.00A.018 But as the tide doth wash the slimie beach,
 157.00b.106 And trust th'immaculate blood to wash thy score.
 163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
 175.00B.009 Or wash it if it must be drown'd no more:

WASHT.....1

160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;

WAST.....24

002.00A.062 Thou wast, and mad, I hop'd; but men which chuse
 004.00A.206 Of his neck to his legge, and wast to thighes.
 024.00A.026 As thou, wast, art, and, oh, maist be ever.

044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
 044.00A.017 And yet she cannot wast by this,
 047.00A.003 Not that I shall repaire my'unthrifty wast
 047.00A.005 By being to mee then that which thou wast;
 053.00A.017 Bad doth it selfe, and others wast,
 056.00A.021 But doth wast with greedinesse.
 060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
 106.00A.081 Till now thou wast but able
 109.00A.054 Shak'd with this ague, and the Hold and Wast
 139.00A.019 Force that doth warme and cherish, us doe wast;
 150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.002 Then when thou wast infused, harmony,
 155.00a.031 Thou hast forgot thy name, thou hadst; thou wast
 155.00a.172 Helpe, or at least some time to wast, allow
 157.00b.158 How thou at first wast made but in a sinke;
 157.00b.163 Thinke but how poore thou wast, how obnoxious,
 157.00b.256 How thou did'st die, nor how thou wast begot.
 160.00A.024 Wast in his minde, who is thy Sonne, and Brother,
 184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
 187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.

WASTE.....7

042.00A.031 If in thine my life thou waste,
 148.00A.035 And as no fire, nor rust can spend or waste
 151.00A.062 Of griefe, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.
 158.00A.015 waste, perchance increase in use; if I doe borrow any thing of
 174.00B.007 Such terrour, and my feeble flesh doth waste
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 187.00A.244 With ruine, and with waste, upon us are.

WASTED.....1

184.00A.022 Halfe wasted with youths fires, of pride and lust,

WASTFULL.....2

005.00A.024 The winde which drives them; and a wastfull warre
 150.00A.028 Wastfull consumptions, and degrees of thee.

WASTING.....1

002.00A.083 Of wasting candles, which in thirty yeare

WASTS.....1

004.00A.127 Who wasts in meat, in clothes, in horse, he notes;

WATCH.....9

004.00A.027 One, whom the watch at noone lets scarce goe by,
 010.00A.016 And watch thy entries, and returns all night,

032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;
 106.00A.091 Now sleep or watch with more joy; and O light
 107.00A.104 As Satyres watch the Sunnes uprise, will stay
 116.00A.005 Watch motions of the givers hand or eye,
 153.00A.023 Againe by death,) although sad watch hee keepe,
 155.00a.265 To watch his steps; the Goat and Crabbe controule,
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;

WATCH'D.....2

068.00A.002 Whom I have watch'd sixe or seaven dayes,
 158.00A.234 Glided along, and as he glided watch'd,

WATCH-TOWRE.....1

157.00b.294 Below; But vp vnto the watch-towre get,

WATCHES.....1

157.00b.283 And yet one watches, starues, freeses, and sweats,

WATCHFULL.....1

108.00A.203 Thou leav'st in him thy watchfull eyes, in him thy lo-ving heart.

WATCHMAN.....1

002.00A.065 Now like an owlelike watchman, hee must walke

WATCHT.....1

021.00G.027 Or as I had watcht one drop in the vast stream,

WATER.....18

013.00A.007 Nor by the'eyes water call a maladie
 022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 054.00A.021 If, as in water stir'd more circles bee
 072.00A.010 Water of teares, and earthly sad despaire,
 083.00A.002 Both whom one fire had burnt, one water drownd.
 108.00A.150 Who can the Sun in water see.
 110.00A.011 As water did in stormes, now pitch runs out
 124.00A.008 Fresh water at the Heliconian spring;
 131.00B.040 Water declin'd with earth, the ayre did stay,
 141.00A.034 As, water being into ayre rarify'd,
 148.00A.037 Though it bee forc'd in water, earth, salt, aire,
 153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes deuest
 158.00A.133 As aire from water, water fleets away
 158.00A.133 As aire from water, water fleets away
 158.00A.271 So farre from hiding her guests, water is
 187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;
 187.00A.245 48 With water rivers doth mine eye oreflow

WATERS.....12

012.00A.015 So, carelesse flowers strow'd on the waters face,
 016.00A.031 Waters stincke soone, if in one place they bide,
 021.00G.076 Waters suggest her clear, and the earth sure;
 040.00A.007 Do purge sea waters fretfull salt away,
 058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
 112.00A.054 Upon the waters face; nor in the deepe
 149.00A.007 Then our land waters (teares of passion) vent;
 149.00A.008 Our waters, then, above our firmament.
 153.00A.049 Pusht with more waters from my sight, and gone,
 157.00b.396 Yesterdaies waters, and to daies the same.
 187.00A.253 54 Waters flow'd o'r my head, then thought I, I am
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,

WAVE.....1

158.00A.053 It selfe; for I will through the wave, and fome,

WAVES.....3

109.00A.028 Waves like a rowling trench before them threw.
 134.00A.020 Waves wash, not undermine, nor overthrow.
 158.00A.269 Where fresh, with salt waves meet, and what to doe

WAX.....1

021.00G.099 Nay, if I wax but cold in my desire,

WAXE.....6

012.00A.014 Thy heart seem'd waxe, and steele thy constancie.
 013.00A.029 Chafe waxe for others seales? breake a colts force
 024.00A.010 But that is waxe, and fires environ it.
 079.00B.010 As they waxe lesser, fall, as they sise, grow.
 081.HH5.017 thy harte to steele that faith to waxe doth turne
 081.HH5.034 to chafe & heate waxe for an others seale

WAXEN.....2

004.00A.169 Thinke he which made your waxen garden, and
 114.00A.018 Hath got such root in easie waxen hearts,

WAY.....64

001.00A.017 Not though a Captaine do come in thy way
 001.00A.094 He followes, overtakes, goes on the way,
 003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 004.00A.016 Which dwell in Court, for once going that way.
 004.00A.080 Kings only; The way to it, is Kingstreet.
 005.00A.026 Adulterate lawe, and you prepare their way
 005.00A.052 'Gainst whom thou should'st complaine, will in the way
 008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone
 017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,

017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
020.00G.065 And Sailing towards her India, in that way
020.00G.085 If Kings think that the nearer way, and do
020.00G.089 Which goes this empty and Aethereal way,
020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
022.00A.021 And finde the truth out the wrong way? or must
030.00B.015 We shall new shadowes make the other way.
034.00A.013 Can have no way but falsehood to be true?
038.00A.011 Keepe midnights promise; mistake by the way
041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,
042.00A.012 Nor halfe so short a way:
047.00A.019 Love mee, that I may die the gentler way;
052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,
059.00A.009 If by the way to him befall
066.00A.054 To'invent, and practise this one way, to'annihilate all three.
070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
074.00A.011 Which can by no way be exprest
075.00A.003 Turne thou ghost that way, and let mee turne this,
086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way
107.00A.052 To make you one, his way, which divers waies
107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
109.00A.012 Honour and misery have one face and way.)
109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
121.NY3.009 As lancke & thin is euery street & way
131.00B.054 Finde but the place, after, the nearest way:
131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:
148.00A.010 Both but one meanes to see, one way to goe;
153.00A.006 Thou finde that any way is pervious,
155.00a.016 (Because since now no other way there is
155.00a.126 Did that soule a good way towards Heauen direct.
155.00a.226 And needed a new compasse for their way;
155.00a.245 And that thou hast but one way, not t'admit
155.00a.269 Perfit a Circle, or maintaine his way
155.00a.290 Perchance to morrow, scarce at middle way
157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
157.00b.188 Dispatches in a minute all the way,
157.00b.260 By what way thou art made immortall, know.
157.00b.267 And one soule thinkes one, and another way
158.00A.137 To see the Prince, and so fill'd the way
158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
158.00A.145 This way he this, and that way scattered
158.00A.273 Then they are. Thus doubtfull of her way,
158.00A.474 He reach'd at things too high, but open way
160.00A.092 But first hee, and hee first enters the way,

160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,
 174.00B.005 I dare not move my dimme eyes any way,
 184.00A.080 Th'old broad way in applying; O decline
 184.00A.198 Deliver us from the sinister way.
 187.00A.188 Stop'd with hewn stone my way, & turn'd my path.
 187.00A.191 11 He stops my way, teares me, made desolate,
 187.00A.316 Thorough the streets, defiled by the way
 191.00B.054 These their sweet learned labours, all the way

WAYES.....15

003.00A.014 Thee, whom hee taught so easie wayes and neare
 018.00B.012 Thou shalt not love by wayes so dangerous.
 022.00A.062 Commend the selfe same Actors, the same wayes;
 026.00A.007 How many wayes mightst thou performe thy will?
 055.00A.016 Both wayes, as thou and thine, in eies and minde;
 112.00A.007 Life is a voyage, and in our lifes wayes
 136.00A.051 Wrought your ends, and your wayes discretion.
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 152.12a.028 Till Hee discoverd what wayes Hee would take:
 153.00A.034 All, in these mirrors of thy wayes, and end;
 158.00A.034 Our wayes and ends seest at one instant; Thou
 158.00A.054 And shall in sad love wayes, a lively spright
 158.00A.298 The soules no longer foes, two wayes did erre,
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 192.00B.019 All streights, and none but streights are wayes to them,

WAYNE.....1

003.00A.038 In her decrepit wayne, and thou loving this,

WE.....220

001.00A.067 Now we are in the street; He first of all
 001.00A.072 Every fine silken painted foole we meet,
 002.00A.109 None starve, none surfet so; But (Oh) we allow,
 005.00A.060 We send to God, to Dominations,
 006.00D.047 Then thus thy leaves we justly may commend,
 009.00A.018 As, for the ravishing thereof we die.
 011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?
 011.00A.031 There we will scorne his houshold policies,
 014.NY3.007 Only we know, that which all Ideots say
 014.NY3.018 We touch all gold, but find no food to liue.
 014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.
 014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.
 014.NY3.036 There we are allwayes vnder, here above.
 014.NY3.043 Shall spring. Thousands we see which trauaile not
 015.00G.022 Ill spirits walk in white; we easly know,
 015.00G.041 Themselves are only mystick books, which we,
 017.00A.013 In buying things perfum'd, we aske; if there

017.00A.017 If we might put the letters but one way,
 017.00A.033 For one nights revels, silke and gold we chuse,
 018.00B.032 Ecclips'd as bright we call the Moone the Moone.
 018.00B.038 Th'indifferent Italian, as we passe
 020.00G.004 Love is a bear-whelp born, if we o're lick
 020.00G.006 We erre, and of a lump a monster make.
 020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon
 020.00G.023 May barren Angels love so. But if we
 020.00G.033 Although we see Celestial bodies move
 020.00G.034 Above the earth, the earth we Till and love:
 020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
 020.00G.036 And virtues; but we love the Centrique part.
 020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradice, where we would have
 020.00G.051 Upon the Islands fortunate we fall,
 020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
 020.00G.054 We anchor there, and think our selves at home,
 020.00G.081 Civilitie we see refin'd: the kiss
 021.00G.018 And view old Chaos in the Pains we feel?
 021.00G.019 Or have we left undone some mutual Right,
 021.00G.044 Yet went we not still on in Constancie?
 021.00G.045 Have we for this kept guards, like spie on spie?
 021.00G.053 Have we prov'd all the secrets of our Art,
 021.00G.060 Freese us together, that we may stick here,
 021.00G.071 And we can love by letters still and gifts,
 021.00G.083 And dearest Friend, since we must part, drown night
 021.00G.087 And what we cannot in like Portion pay,
 021.00G.088 The world enjoyes in Mass, and so we may.
 022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
 024.00A.019 For, if we justly call each silly man
 024.00A.020 A little world, What shall we call thee than?
 030.00B.003 These three houres that we have spent,
 030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;
 030.00B.007 We doe those shadowes tread;
 030.00B.015 We shall new shadowes make the other way.
 031.00A.017 But we by a love, so much refin'd,
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 032.00A.004 Or snorted we in the seaven sleepers den?
 032.00A.017 Where can we finde two better hemispheares
 034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
 034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 039.00A.024 By us, we two being one, are it.
 046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?
 046.00A.004 Did we lie downe, because 'twas night?
 048.00A.029 Yeares and yeares unto yeares, till we attaine
 050.00A.033 If we love things long sought, Age is a thing

050.00A.034 Which we are fifty yeares in compassing.
 053.00A.011 That we may neither love, nor hate,
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 059.00A.014 Shall we, for this vaine Bubles shadow pay?
 062.00A.004 Sat we two, one anothers best;
 062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
 062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
 062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:
 062.00A.046 Of what we are compos'd, and made,
 062.00A.047 For, th'Atomies of which we grow,
 062.00A.053 We owe them thanks, because they thus,
 070.00A.023 First, we lov'd well and faithfully,
 074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show
 083.00A.001 Both rob'd of aire, we both lye in one ground,
 106.00A.094 Her rest, that long, long we shall want her sight;
 108.00A.217 May these love-lamps we here enshrine,
 109.00A.009 England to whom we'owe, what we be, and have,
 109.00A.062 Seas into seas throwne, we suck in againe;
 110.00A.021 We can nor lost friends, nor sought foes recover,
 110.00A.031 But from the sea, into the ship we turne,
 111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,
 113.00A.032 If we can stocke our selves, and thrive, uplay
 119.NY3.006 We take new harts for it to feede vpon.
 122.00A.026 Our discontinued hopes we shall retriue:
 131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,
 131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
 131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
 131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
 131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:
 131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 131.00B.100 We guesse not their large natures, but command.
 131.00B.104 But soule we finde too earthly to ascend,
 134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,
 136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we
 136.00A.043 Nor may we hope to sodder still and knit
 137.00A.006 But of two good things, we may leave and chuse.
 137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new recknings goe.
 137.00A.030 We found your influence, and your Dictates say.
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
 139.00A.064 Your name; and when with active joy we heare

140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
 140.00A.028 As kills we know not how; his fiercest wrath
 140.00A.036 Greater then due, no forme we can bestow
 141.00A.019 Then we might feare that vertue, since she fell
 142.00A.020 In dow bak'd men some harmelesenes we see,
 145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
 145.00A.023 And that we learne by it, that man to get
 145.00A.075 The first whom we in Histories doe finde
 146.00A.008 That to fit this deep ill, we might have store.
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,
 147.00B.014 Vs to be glasse, here to grow gold we lie;
 147.00B.017 So we our selves miraculously destroy.
 149.00A.012 We, after Gods Noe, drowne the world againe.
 149.00A.015 Teares are false Spectacles, we cannot see
 149.00A.061 And lest we take Deaths part, and make him glad
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 150.00A.072 Our teares are due, because we are not such.
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,
 151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;
 151.00A.009 Sorrow, to whom we owe all that we bee;
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 151.00A.027 Or if we live, we live but to rebell,
 151.00A.029 If we should vapour out, and pine, and die;
 151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
 151.00A.061 And we her sad glad friends all beare a part
 152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.072 We might have seene, and said, that now he is
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 153.00A.225 No, we were all his charge, the Diocis
 155.00a.060 What we may gaine by thy Anatomy.
 155.00a.091 There is no health; Physitians say that we
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.095 We are borne ruinous: poore mothers crie,
 155.00a.108 We doe delightfully our selues allow
 155.00a.110 We kill our selues, to propagate our kinde.
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.129 Alas, we scarce liue long enough to trie
 155.00a.132 And for our children we reserue to morrow.
 155.00a.145 Onely death addes t'our length: nor are we growne
 155.00a.146 In stature to be men, till we are none.
 155.00a.148 All the old Text; or had we chang'd to gold
 155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;
 155.00a.156 Of nothing he made vs, and we striue too,

155.00a.157 To bring our selues to nothing backe; and we
155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
155.00a.159 With new diseases on our selues we warre,
155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
155.00a.203 And now the Springs and Sommers which we see,
155.00a.251 We thinke the heauens enioy their Sphericall
155.00a.282 To goe to heauen, we make heauen come to vs.
155.00a.283 We spur, we raine the stars, and in their race
155.00a.283 We spur, we raine the stars, and in their race
155.00a.296 (Which sure is spacious, except that we
155.00a.323 Shee, after whom, what forme soe're we see,
155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
155.00a.401 Shee, for whose losse we haue lamented thus,
156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
156.00a.037 But must we say shee's dead? May't not be said
156.00a.051 We lose by't: And as aged men are glad
156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
157.00b.066 We now lament not, but congratulate.
157.00b.141 To whose proportions if we would compare
157.00b.241 Shee, of whose soule, if we may say, t'was Gold,
157.00b.243 Many degrees of that; we vnderstood
157.00b.250 Longer, then whilst we beare our brittle shell.
157.00b.252 If, as we were in this our liuing Tombe
157.00b.253 Oppress'd with ignorance, we still were so,
157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
157.00b.281 We see in Authors, too stiffe to recant,
157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
158.00A.096 She thrusts us out, and by them we are led
158.00A.097 Astray, from turning, to whence we are fled.
158.00A.099 Shee sinn'd, we here, part of our paine is, thus
179.NY3.010 first trauaile we to seeke & then make Love?
183.00A.027 Which shoves where the'other is, and which we say
184.00A.049 Where we shall be but denizen'd by thee,
184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought
184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
184.00A.193 To us, as we judge, lay or ghostly sword,
184.00A.204 We know not what to say.
184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
184.00A.225 That we may locke our eares, Lord open thine.
184.00A.231 Which well, if we starve, dine,
184.00A.234 That we may open our eares, Lord lock thine.
187.00A.134 Shall we have bread, and drinke? they fainted there
187.00A.152 Expected, and which now we finde, and see.
187.00A.330 We in desire and speculation haue:
187.00A.338 Of whom we said, under his shadow, wee

187.00A.350 See, and marke how we are reproached thus,
 187.00A.359 6 We stretch our hands unto th' Egyptians
 187.00A.387 20 Restore us Lord to thee, that so we may 189.00B.019 Or, as we paint Angels with wings, because
 191.00B.007 Fixe we our prayes therefore on this one,
 191.00B.030 Who hath tun'd God and Man, the Organ we:
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,
 191.00B.045 For that we pray, we praise thy name for this,
 191.00B.047 Already done; and as those Psalmes we call
 191.00B.050 We thy Sydnean Psalmes shall celebrate,
 191.00B.051 And, till we come th'Extemporall song to sing,
 191.00B.052 (Learn'd the first hower, that we see the King,
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 191.00B.056 We may fall in with them, and sing our part
 192.00B.021 We thinke that Paradise and Calvarie,

WE'ARE.....7

039.00A.021 We'are Tapers too, and at our owne cost die,
 048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we'are Kings, and none but wee
 062.00A.076 Small change, when we'are to bodies gone.
 142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne
 142.00A.031 We'are thus but parcel guilt; to Gold we'are growne
 158.00A.092 And one by one we'are here slaine o'er againe
 187.00A.207 22 'Tis Gods great mercy we'are not utterly

WE'HAD.....1

038.00A.008 We'had never met.

WE'HAVE.....3

010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we'have beene.
 138.00A.067 We'have added to the world Virginia, and sent
 187.00A.378 Be unto us, because we'have sinned so.

WE'LL.....1

039.00A.032 We'll build in sonnets pretty roomes;

WE'OWE.....1

109.00A.009 England to whom we'owe, what we be, and have,

WE'RE.....1

155.00a.144 We're scarce our Fathers shadowes cast at noone.

WE'WILL.....1

014.NY3.040 There men kill men, we'will make one by & by.

WEAK.....1

004.00A.189 That there came weak ships fraught with Cutchannel,

WEAKE.....18

022.00A.033 But O that treacherous breast to whom weake you
 035.00A.007 Honours oppresse weake spirits, and our sense,
 056.00A.002 Of old or new love, himselfe being false or weake,
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 062.00A.070 Weake men on love reveal'd may looke;
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 151.00A.001 LAnguage thou art too narrow, and too weake
 151.00A.023 Alas, shee was too pure, but not too weake;
 155.00a.071 A faint weake loue of vertue and of good
 155.00a.086 And strength it selfe by confidence growes weake,
 157.00b.333 That wits and tongues of Libellars are weake,
 160.00A.032 Weake enough, now into our world to come;
 160.00A.059 For, what weake spirits admire, ambitious, hate;
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 171.00A.008 But is captiv'd, and proves weake or untrue,
 184.00A.243 Heare us, weake ecchoes, O thou eare, and cry.
 189.00B.044 And blesse the poore beneath, the lame, the weake.

WEAKENES.....1

155.00a.052 Or that our weakenes was discovered

WEAKENESSE.....1

139.00A.050 By using others, not vice, but weakenesse.

WEAKER.....3

060.00A.024 Find'st not thy selfe, nor mee the weaker now;
 155.00a.179 Shee tooke the weaker Sex, she that could driue
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,

WEAKNESSE.....5

052.00A.052 Whose weaknesse none doth, or dares tell;
 055.00A.015 Give mee thy weaknesse, make mee blinde,
 131.00B.033 'Tis love, but, with such fatall weaknesse made,
 158.00A.250 Weaknesse invites, but silence feasts oppression.
 169.00A.007 Dissemble weaknesse, and by'one mans stroke die,

WEALTH.....3

020.00G.025 As beauties no nor wealth: He that strays thus:
 036.00A.024 All honor's mimique; All wealth alchimie;
 039.00A.004 With wealth your state, your minde with Arts improve

WEALTHS.....1

106.00A.026 Some of these Senators wealths deep oceans,

WEALTHY.....1

021.00G.028 And I left wealthy only in a dream.

WEAN'D.....1

032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?

WEANE.....1

126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw

WEAR.....1

015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,

WEARE.....20

001.00A.047 And in this course attire, which I now weare

001.00A.062 Our subtile wittied antique youths will weare;

004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought

008.00B.002 For Armelets of that thou maist let me weare:

014.NY3.016 If she weare purg'd, and her head vayne let blood.

014.NY3.022 Me in a prison, that weare like to fall.

017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.

030.00B.022 The morning shadowes weare away,

045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,

050.00A.046 With Tombs, then Cradles, to weare out a day.

058.00A.015 Which thee doth weare,

108.00A.008 Whil'st Flora'herselfe doth a freeze jerkin weare?

108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,

110.00A.005 Stormes chafe, and soone weare out themselves, or us;

122.00A.003 Never did Morpheus nor his brother weare

127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare

128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare

150.00A.029 For, wee to live, our bellows weare, and breath,

153.00A.045 As bodies change, and as I do not weare

160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare

WEARER.....2

153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.

155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,

WEARES.....4

001.00A.031 The silke, and gold he weares, and to that rate

051.00A.025 Then by her shadow, what she weares.

151.00A.004 Griefe weares, and lessens, that tears breath affords.

158.00A.155 A leafie garland weares he on his head

WEARINESSE.....2

042.00A.002 For wearinesse of thee,

106.00A.066 As much wearinesse as perfection brings;

WEARING.....1

004.00A.086 Your only wearing is your Grogaram;

WEARY.....2

108.00A.192 A sunset to these weary eyes, A Center to this heart.155.00a.273 And seeming weary with his reeling thus,

WEATHER.....1

157.00b.019 Or as a Lute, which in moist weather, rings

WEATHER-BEATEN.....2

019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,131.00B.063 A weather-beaten Lover but once knowne,

WEATHER-SPIE.....1

001.00A.059 And sooner may a gulling weather-Spie

WEATHERBEAT.....1

184.00A.023 Must with new stormes be weatherbeat;

WEAU'D.....1

155.00a.279 Man hath weau'd out a net, and this net throwne

WEAV'D.....1

160.00A.002 Weav'd in my low devout melancholie,

WEDDED.....1

012.00A.024 Her wedded channels bosome, and then chide

WEDDING.....1

002.00A.084 (Reliquely kept) perchance buyes wedding geare;

WEDGE.....1

002.00A.071 Like a wedge in a blocke, wring to the barre,

WEE.....200

001.00A.087 Hee droopt, wee went, till one (which did excell003.00A.010 As wee do them in meanes, shall they surpasse003.00A.047 He loves the ragges so, as wee here obey005.00A.061 Powers, Cherubins, and all heavens Court, if wee009.00A.052 As wee, when wee embrace, or touch, or kisse.009.00A.052 As wee, when wee embrace, or touch, or kisse.010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.010.00A.047 But as wee in our Ile imprisoned,010.00A.068 Shall wee love ill things joyn'd, and hate each one?011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,

011.00A.017 Wee must not, as wee us'd, flout openly,
 011.00A.023 Must wee usurpe his owne bed any more,
 011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?
 017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
 021.00G.015 Is't because thou thy self art blind, that wee
 022.00A.034 Did trust our Counsell, and wee both may rue,
 022.00A.038 Wee spake, unto the cunning of a third;
 027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
 033.00A.022 Though at next doore wee might meet,
 035.00A.008 Strong objects dull, the more, the lesse wee see.
 036.00A.025 Thou sunne art halfe as happy'as wee,
 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 039.00A.022 And wee in us finde the'Eagle and the dove,
 039.00A.026 Wee dye and rise the same, and prove
 039.00A.028 Wee can dye by it, if not live by love,
 039.00A.031 And if no peece of Chronicle wee prove,
 041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberall,
 041.00A.032 Then changing hearts, to joyne them, so wee shall
 042.00A.022 And wee joyne to'it our strength,
 042.00A.023 And wee teach it art and length,
 042.00A.037 But thinke that wee
 048.00A.013 Alas, as well as other Princes, wee,
 048.00A.021 And then wee shall be throughly blest,
 048.00A.023 Here upon earth, we'are Kings, and none but wee
 048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
 052.00A.022 Wee for loves clergie only'are instruments,
 052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,
 053.00A.001 Good wee must love, and must hate ill,
 053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
 053.00A.006 As wee shall finde our fancy bent.
 053.00A.009 Then some wee might hate, and some chuse,
 060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
 060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
 062.00A.018 Wee like sepulchral statues lay,
 062.00A.020 And wee said nothing, all the day.
 062.00A.031 Wee see by this, it was not sexe
 062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:
 062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
 062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbear?
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 062.00A.051 They are ours, though not wee, Wee are
 062.00A.069 To'our bodies turne wee then, that so
 062.00A.073 And if some lover, such as wee,
 064.00a.019 Oh were wee wak'ned by this Tyrannie
 068.00A.039 There, to another friend, whom wee shall finde

070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmelesse lovers wrought.
 070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,
 070.00A.025 Difference of sex no more wee knew,
 070.00A.027 Comming and going, wee,
 070.00A.031 These miracles wee did; but now alas,
 072.00A.003 And wee were mutuall Elements to us,
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
 079.00B.021 Ah cannot wee,
 082.00A.023 Have wee two wept, and so
 107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
 107.00A.103 Rest now at last, and wee
 107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;
 107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.
 108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
 108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,
 109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
 109.00A.071 Doth cover, so that wee, except God say
 110.00A.009 The sea is now. And, as the lles which wee
 110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
 110.00A.022 But meteorlike, save that wee move not, hover.
 110.00A.029 If in despite of these, wee swimme, that hath
 110.00A.048 A scourge, 'gainst which wee all forget to pray,
 110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
 110.00A.053 Nothing; for us, wee are for nothing fit;
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 113.00A.019 Seeke wee then our selves in our selves; for as
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,
 129.00A.026 To want, then governe greatnesse, for wee are
 129.00A.028 In this, wee must for others vices care;
 130.00A.015 Wee must not sterve, nor hope to pamper her
 130.00A.026 Wee can beginnings, but not habits choke.
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
 135.B13.011 wee make our's doe one Act, to seale the bands,
 135.B13.016 Admit our Magique then by which wee doe
 135.B13.019 wee doe consider noe flower that is sweet,
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe
 135.B13.025 In Auchos calme face wee your smoothnes see,
 135.B13.031 or should wee more bleed out our thoughts in Inke

135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,
 136.00A.004 But as of the elements, these which wee tread,
 136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
 137.00A.028 Whilst here to you, wee sacrificers runne;
 137.00A.066 As strange attire aliens the men wee know.
 138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
 138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 138.00A.039 So wee have dull'd our minde, it hath no ends;
 138.00A.045 We till with them; and them to heav'n wee raise;
 138.00A.054 Wee but no forraigne tyrans could remove,
 138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity
 140.00A.024 Hemlocke, and wee as men, his hemlocke taste.
 141.00A.002 Nor finde wee that God breath'd a soule in her,
 141.00A.033 Else, being alike pure, wee should neither see,
 142.00A.016 Others whom wee call vertuous, are not so
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.052 Wee first have soules of growth, and sense, and those,
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 146.00A.013 As wee for him dead: though no familie
 146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
 146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 148.00A.012 And wee your rich Tombe in her face had seene;
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;
 148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
 150.00A.029 For, wee to live, our bellowes weare, and breath,
 150.00A.030 Nor are wee mortall, dying, dead, but death.
 151.00A.025 And if wee be thy conquest, by her fall
 151.00A.037 Shee had no more then let in death, for wee
 151.00A.041 And when wee teares, hee mercy shed in this,
 152.12a.018 As Contemplation of the Prince wee misse.
 152.12a.024 That Wee see not what to beleue or knowe?
 152.12a.040 The last Dayes came; wee saw Heauen did allow 152.12a.043 But now This Faith is Heresie: wee must
 152.12a.053 Therefore Wee liue: though such a Life wee haue
 152.12a.056 When what wee are, his putrefaction
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 152.12a.079 So would iust Lamentations: Therefore Wee
 152.12a.080 May safelier say, that Wee are dead, then Hee .
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 152.12a.082 W'haue double Excuse; Hee is not dead, Wee are.
 153.00A.083 Wee cannot thinke, now hee is at the Sunne,
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 153.00A.121 And wee, by our good use of it may trye,
 153.00A.142 If then wee follow all, or follow none;

154.00A.008 Greater by him in heaven, wee doe not so;
 156.00a.047 Heauen may say this, and ioy in't; but can wee
 157.00b.226 Shee, in whose body (if wee dare prefer
 157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
 157.00b.444 Can suffer Diminution, nor wee;
 158.00A.012 By thy male force, is all wee haue, begot,
 158.00A.033 For every thing, who, where wee of-spring tooke,
 158.00A.090 And wee (for treason taints the blood) thence die and sweat.
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.
 158.00A.110 The worme and she, and he, and wee endure for it.
 158.00A.363 The heires of slaine kings, wee see are often so
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 167.00A.013 One short sleepe past, wee wake eternally,
 169.00A.001 Why are wee by all creatures waited on?
 181.00A.046 No crosse from bad, wee cannot scape a snake.
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 183.00A.025 As by the selfe-fix'd Pole wee never doe
 183.00A.029 So God by his Church, neerest to him, wee know,
 183.00A.030 And stand firme, if wee by her motion goe;
 184.00A.043 Our zealous thankes wee poure. As her deeds were 184.00A.047 And wee in Wardship to thine Angels be,
 184.00A.057 More in the cloud, then wee in fire,
 184.00A.059 And now in Heaven still pray, that wee
 184.00A.095 They know, and pray, that wee may know,
 184.00A.115 Or mis-said, wee to that may not adhere,
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,
 184.00A.171 Wee may not, and we may blinde unjust men.
 184.00A.182 Wee arme against thee, and they fight for sinne,
 184.00A.188 When wee are mov'd to seeme religious
 184.00A.208 That wee may change to evennesse
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.217 That our eares sicknesse wee may cure,
 184.00A.219 That wee by harkning, not procure
 184.00A.221 That wee get not a slipperinesse,
 184.00A.236 From thine alleageance wee never tempt,
 187.00A.150 And gnash their teeth, and say, Devoure wee this,
 187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee
 187.00A.235 40 Turne wee to God, by trying out our wayes;
 187.00A.237 42 Wee have rebell'd, and falne away from thee,
 187.00A.274 Valued at purest gold, how do wee see
 187.00A.327 17 And wee as yet, for all these miseries
 187.00A.331 18 They hunt our steps, that in the streets wee feare
 187.00A.338 Of whom we said, under his shadow, wee
 187.00A.353 3 Our mothers are become as widowes, wee
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,
 187.00A.362 But wee do beare the sinnes they did before.

187.00A.365 9 With danger of our life our bread wee gat;
 187.00A.367 10 The tempests of this famine wee liv'd in,

WEE'ARE.....2

136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,
 140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry

WEE'HAD.....1

151.00A.044 Wee'had had a Saint, have now a holiday;

WEE'MONGST.....1

109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all

WEE'OBEY.....1

137.00A.029 And whether Priests, or Organs, you wee'obey,

WEED.....1

005.00A.034 To know and weed out this enormous sinne.

WEEDLESSE.....1

155.00a.082 So many weedlesse Paradises bee,

WEEDS.....3

027.00A.018 And cut their legges, which shells and weeds,
 113.00A.005 How love-song weeds, and Satyrique thornes are growne
 158.00A.169 Unvirtuous weeds might long unvex'd have stood;

WEEKE.....2

004.00A.183 Them next weeke to the Theatre to sell;
 155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,

WEEP.....1

106.00A.035 Weep not nor blush, here is no grieffe nor shame,

WEEP'ST.....2

011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
 042.00A.027 When thou weep'st, unkindly kinde,

WEEPE.....11

003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly, 'and frolicke bee,
 058.00A.021 Weepe me not dead, in thine armes, but forbear
 065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
 065.00A.029 I spring a mistresse, sweare, write, sigh and weepe:
 146.00A.004 'Nothing can be so strange, as to weepe thus;
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,

157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 177.00B.009 They see idolatrous lovers weepe and mourne,
 187.00A.061 16 For these things doe I weepe, mine eye, mine eye

WEEPES.....3

037.00A.006 Her who still weepes with spungie eyes,
 158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,
 187.00A.005 2 Still in the night shee weepes, and her teares fall

WEEPING.....4

051.00A.018 Or a stone fountaine weeping out my yeare.
 157.00b.107 Thinke thy frinds weeping round, and thinke that thay
 175.00B.008 Drowne my world with my weeping earnestly,
 187.00A.130 Are faint with weeping: and my liver lies

WEESELS.....1

158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere

WEIGH.....2

174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;
 187.00A.044 How cheape I'am growne, O Lord, behold and weigh.

WEIGHS.....1

113.00A.012 Mens workes, vanity weighs as much as sinne.

WEIGHT.....2

140.00A.018 For man can adde weight to heavens heaviest curse.
 185.00A.016 That spectacle of too much weight for mee.

WEL.....1

155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.

WELBELOV'D.....1

160.00A.030 Now leaves his welbelov'd imprisonment,

WELL.....76

001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]
 001.00A.088 Th'Indians, in drinking his Tobacco well)
 003.00A.104 At the rough streames calme head, thrive and do well,
 004.00A.001 Well; I may now receive, and die; My sinne
 004.00A.184 Wants reach all states; Me seemes they doe as well
 004.00A.190 The men board them; and praise, as they thinke, well,
 006.00D.005 That in-land Sea, having discovered well,
 010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
 012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdaine.
 014.NY3.011 Yet She relyes vpon our Angels well
 018.00B.039 His warme land, well content to thinke thee Page

021.00G.084 With hope of Day, burthens well born are light.
 024.00A.006 Why quench'd they not as well, that of desire?
 039.00A.033 As well a well wrought urne becomes
 039.00A.033 As well a well wrought urne becomes
 046.00A.008 If it could speake as well as spie,
 046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
 048.00A.013 Alas, as well as other Princes, wee,
 052.00A.051 Who the present governe well,
 053.00A.021 And he that leaves all, doth as well,
 068.00A.025 Well then, stay here; but know,
 070.00A.023 First, we lov'd well and faithfully,
 071.00A.017 For I could muster up as well as you
 079.00B.022 As well as Cocks and Lyons jocund be,
 092.NY3.004 In that late Iland; for he well did know
 107.00A.070 A night, as well as day, to thee, O Valentine?
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 108.00A.119 As hers, and her heart loves as well as his?
 110.00A.043 I lose my end: for here as well as I
 110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well
 111.00A.001 Here's no more newes, then vertue, 'I may as well
 129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
 129.00A.035 Spies that I beare so well her tyranny,
 130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
 131.00B.052 Might well (those times considered) man become.
 135.B13.003 Hartes should as well as they, some fruits allow.
 138.00A.082 Of vice becomes well some complexion.
 141.00A.017 If the worlds age, and death be argued well
 145.00A.077 He lackt those eyes beasts have as well as wee,
 146.00A.005 'Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,
 146.00A.007 'Tis well, hee kept teares from our eyes before,
 147.00B.023 And thinke me well compos'd, that I could now
 150.00A.010 Eating the best first, well preserv'd to last.
 151.00A.028 They know her better now, that knew her well;
 152.12a.025 Was it not well believ'd, till now; that Hee,
 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that Hee would make
 152.12a.081 So, if our Griefs wee doo not well declare,
 153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
 153.00A.122 Both how to live well young, and how to die,
 153.00A.128 As well, as lust and ignorance of youth;
 155.00a.024 Well, when alas, thou'rt in a Letargee.
 155.00a.094 That we are neuer well, nor can be so?
 155.00a.142 The Fayries, and the Pigmies well may passe
 155.00a.208 Can well direct him, where to looke for it.
 155.00a.337 For good, and well, must in our actions meete:
 155.00a.344 By looking pale, the wearer is not well,
 155.00a.441 Nor smels it well to hearers, if one tell
 155.00a.445 Or shall be spoken well by any tongue,

156.00a.019 But 'tis no matter; we may well allow
 156.00a.106 To see how well, the good play her, on earth.
 157.00b.222 But that a soule might well be pleas'd to passe
 157.00b.249 Our prisons prison, earth, nor thinke vs well
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse
 157.00b.318 As well t'enioy, as get perfectione.
 158.00A.149 A dealer bee, and be us'd well, or ill:
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
 158.00A.409 The flocke so neere, so well warnes and defends,
 158.00A.501 Another part became the well of sense,
 158.00A.502 The tender well arm'd feeling braine, from whence,
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.
 167.00A.011 And poppie, or charmes can make us sleepe as well,
 181.00A.028 And cure much better, and as well preserve;
 183.00A.023 How well the Church, Gods Court of faculties
 184.00A.231 Which well, if we starve, dine,
 191.00B.038 So well attyr'd abroad, so ill at home,
 191.00B.039 So well in Chambers, in thy Church so ill,

WELL-HEAD.....1

 130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;
 136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,

151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 156.00a.078 Woman, shee went away, before sh'was one.
 157.00b.186 To'a body, and went but by the bodies leaue,
 157.00b.205 But ere shee can consider how shee went,
 157.00b.224 Mintage to others beauties, for they went
 158.00A.318 Some Inland sea, and ever as hee went
 158.00A.393 And to the braine, the soules bedchamber, went,
 183.00A.006 Of feast or fast, Christ came, and went away;
 187.00A.136 Till 'twixt their mothers breasts they went away.

WEPT.....1

082.00A.023 Have wee two wept, and so

WERE.....169

001.00A.109 Many were there, he could command no more;
 004.00A.030 His cloths were strange, though coarse; & black, though bare;
 004.00A.058 He stopt mee, and said; Nay, your Apostles were
 004.00A.151 His thanks were ended, when I, (which did see

 008.00B.029 Or were they Spanish Stamps, still travelling,
 008.00B.043 Or were it such gold as that wherewithall
 009.00A.012 Which were with any soveraigne fatnes blest,
 010.00A.011 Hope of his goods, if I with thee were seene,
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 010.00A.035 Which, if in hell no other paines there were,
 010.00A.037 Though by thy father he were hir'd to this,
 010.00A.042 Even at thy fathers nose, so were wee spied.
 010.00A.052 Even my opprest shoes, dumbe and speechlesse were,
 010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
 010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;

 021.00G.080 And Autumn, what our golden harvests were.
 022.00A.065 All which were such soft pastimes, as in these
 030.00B.016 As the first were made to blinde
 032.00A.002 Did, till we lov'd, were we not wean'd till then?
 033.00A.020 Such a Pilgrimage were sweet,
 033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,
 034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
 035.00A.020 Then if more honour, teares, and paines were spent.
 041.00A.009 If then thy gift of love were partiall,

046.00A.009 This were the worst, that it could say,
 048.00A.012 If one might, death were no divorce,
 050.00A.007 Were her first yeares the Golden Age; That's true,
 050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,
 050.00A.014 They were Loves graves; for else he is no where.
 052.00A.026 Learning were safe; in this our Universe
 053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
 053.00A.016 If they were bad, they could not last,
 055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;
 055.00A.014 Except that hee Loves minion were.
 055.00A.035 Mynes in the earth, then Quarries were before.
 059.00A.004 But should I love, get, tell, till I were old,
 062.00A.005 Our hands were firmly cimented
 062.00A.016 Were gone out,) hung 'twixt her, and mee.
 062.00A.019 All day, the same our postures were,
 062.00A.023 And by good love were growen all minde,
 063.00A.005 It were but madnes now t'impart
 064.00a.019 Oh were wee wak'ned by this Tyrannie
 066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;
 069.00A.014 She were scarce any thing; and then, should she
 069.00A.018 Both these were monsters; Since there must reside
 069.00A.020 She were by art, then Nature falsify'd.
 072.00A.003 And wee were mutuall Elements to us,
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 082.00A.030 Were I a man, that I were one,
 082.00A.032 If I were any beast,
 082.00A.035 If I an ordinary nothing were,
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 106.00A.076 Thee of these chaines and robes which were put on 107.00A.074 They were to take a clock in peeces,) goe
 108.00A.022 Before the Sunne and Moone created were;
 108.00A.186 And were the doctrine new
 109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all
 110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,
 111.00A.021 Playes were not so like Courts, as Courts'are like playes.
 111.00A.027 At Court, though from Court, were the better stile.
 112.00A.022 Are carcases, as if no such they were.
 112.00A.030 Each elements qualities were in the'other three;
 113.00A.006 Where seeds of better Arts, were early sown.
 114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see
 116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;
 131.00B.006 From Paradise so great a distance were,
 131.00B.009 Depriv'd of that free state which they were in,
 131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.
 131.00B.037 As all things were one nothing, dull and weake,
 131.00B.042 Themselves unprison'd were and purify'd:

131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.
 133.00A.038 Were sav'd before, and did that heaven partake,
 136.00A.019 Should I say I liv'd darker then were true,
 136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 137.00A.055 If good and lovely were not one, of both
 137.00A.056 You were the transcript, and original,
 138.00A.013 Temples were not demolish'd, though prophane:
 139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
 141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,
 141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
 142.00A.006 That were to make my schisme, heresie.
 145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
 145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 145.00A.054 Were swallowed into it, and have no name.
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.030 Returne to dwell with you, of whom they were;
 150.00A.015 Who (were Death dead) by Roes of living sand,
 151.00A.030 Since, shee first went, that were not miserie;
 152.12a.030 Mett a Torpedo, and were stupefied:
 152.12a.067 For, as, if all the Substances were spent,
 152.12a.097 So, much as You Two mutual Heauens were here,
 152.12a.098 I were an Angel singing what You were.
 152.12a.098 I were an Angel singing what You were.
 153.00A.057 So, if one knowledge were made of all those,
 153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win
 153.00A.218 Of one another in possession were;
 153.00A.225 No, we were all his charge, the Diocis
 153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd
 154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)
 155.00a.103 They were to good ends, and they are so still,
 155.00a.147 But this were light, did our lesse volume hold
 155.00a.171 If man were any thing, he's nothing now:
 155.00a.314 That soules were but Resultances from her,
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 155.00a.367 (For Ayre, and Fire but thicke grosse bodies were,
 155.00a.385 Spring-times were common cradles, but are toombes;
 155.00a.399 If this commerce twixt heauen and earth were not
 155.00a.440 Were punctuall in this Anatomy.
 156.00a.008 Though euey inche were ten escurials.
 156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee
 156.00a.057 Your force and vigor, ere it were neere gone,
 156.00a.090 Or that some leafes were torne out of the booke.
 157.00b.126 So far were all remou'd from more or lesse.
 157.00b.130 Onely because all were, no part was best.

157.00b.135 So though the Elements and Humors were
 157.00b.140 That he to disuniting subiect were.
 157.00b.207 And as these stars were but so many beades
 157.00b.225 But for so much, as they were like to her;
 157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
 157.00b.252 If, as we were in this our liuing Tombe
 157.00b.253 Oppress'd with ignorance, we still were so,
 157.00b.424 To erect true ioye, were all the meanes in one.
 157.00b.463 Whose twilights were more cleare, then our mid day,
 157.00b.494 Shalbe, then Angels were, for they could fall;
 158.00A.060 In Thames, which were at Tigrys, and Euphrates waide.
 158.00A.066 This soule to whom Luther, and Mahomet were
 158.00A.098 Were prisoners Judges, t'would seeme rigorous,
 158.00A.140 As if, for that time, their round bodies flatned were.
 158.00A.143 Into ten lesser strings, these fingers were:
 158.00A.154 And as that ground by him were conquered
 158.00A.240 All, but who too swift, too great, or well arm'd were
 158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought
 158.00A.304 From Greece, Morea were, and that by some
 158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were
 158.00A.347 The plot of all, that the plotters were two,
 158.00A.348 But that they fishes were, and could not speake.
 158.00A.358 So were the one, his sword the other plyes,
 158.00A.404 Abel, as white, and milde as his sheepe were,
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.447 Then hopelesse that his faults were hid, betraid
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 181.00A.012 Of this Crosse, were to mee another Crosse.
 181.00A.013 Better were worse, for, no affliction
 184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
 184.00A.043 Our zealous thankes wee poure. As her deeds were
 184.00A.065 Which were thy Churches Organs, and did sound
 184.00A.093 Whose bloods betroth'd, not married were;
 184.00A.168 Though thereby they were then
 185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?
 187.00A.271 The stones which were stones of the Sanctuary,
 187.00A.285 5 They which before were delicately fed,
 187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,
 187.00A.321 They fled, and strayd, and with the Gentiles were,
 187.00A.376 Gone was our joy; our dancings, mournings were.
 189.00B.029 As if their day were onely to be spent
 193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?

WERT.....4

045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
 045.00A.011 And therefore what thou wert, and who
 108.00A.139 To thinke thou wert in Bed so long,

116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;

WEST.....13

006.00D.030 The West sent gold, which thou didst freely spend,
 020.00G.048 Not 'twixt an East and West, but 'twixt two suns;
 032.00A.018 Without sharpe North, without declining West?
 108.00A.111 The passage of the West or East would thaw,
 108.00A.181 With any West, these radiant eyes, with any North, this heart.
 109.00A.027 The South and West winds joyn'd, and, as they blew,
 109.00A.039 East, West, day, night, and I could onely say,
 155.00a.230 Guilt the West Indies, and perfum'd the East;
 183.00A.021 (As in plaine Maps, the furthest West is East)
 185.00A.009 Hence is't, that I am carryed towards the West
 192.00B.011 I joy, that in these straits, I see my West;
 192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East
 192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East

WEST-WARD.....1

158.00A.142 West-ward his left; th'ends did themselves digest

WESTERNE.....3

106.00A.058 But gallop lively downe the Westerne hill;
 157.00b.228 The Westerne treasure, Esterne spiceree,
 158.00A.017 And see at night thy Westerne land of Myne,

WESTMINSTER.....1

004.00A.074 'Tis sweet to talke of Kings. At Westminster,

WESTWARDLY.....1

030.00B.019 If our loves faint, and westwardly decline;

WETHER.....1

158.00A.267 To make the wether thinne, and airelike faith

WHALE.....4

155.00a.139 A wager that an Elephant, or Whale
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.324 So on his backe lyes this whale wantoning,
 158.00A.354 The sluggard Whale yeelds to oppression,

WHALES.....1

155.00a.289 Seas are so deepe, that Whales being strooke to day,

WHAN.....1

157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;

WHAT.....236

001.00A.034 What lands hee hath in hope, or of his owne,
 001.00A.061 What fashioned hats, or ruffes, or suits next yeare
 003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;
 004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.
 004.00A.036 And only knoweth what to all States belongs,
 004.00A.093 And asks, what newes? I tell him of new playes.
 004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what
 004.00A.108 He knowes what Ladie is not painted; Thus
 005.00A.007 Charity and liberty give me. What is hee
 005.00A.078 As our nailes reach what no else part comes to.
 005.00A.091 And div'st, neare drowning, for what vanished.
 006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive
 006.00D.033 And thy leaves must imbrace what comes from thence,
 010.00A.018 Doth search what rings, and armelets she can finde,
 010.00A.030 Were brib'd next day, to tell what they did see.
 010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
 011.00A.030 Wee play'in another house, what should we feare?
 012.00A.046 What hurts it mee to be'excommunicate?
 015.00G.048 What needst thou have more covering then a man.
 017.00A.007 What though her cheeks be yellow, her haire's red,
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?
 017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee
 019.00A.013 This shall say what I was: and thou shalt say,
 019.00A.016 Should now love lesse, what hee did love to see?
 020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
 021.00G.080 And Autumn, what our golden harvests were.
 021.00G.087 And what we cannot in like Portion pay,
 021.00G.096 My Deeds shall still be what my deeds are now;
 022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
 022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes
 024.00A.018 What things gods are, I say they'are like to thee.
 024.00A.020 A little world, What shall we call thee than?
 028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
 029.00A.009 Ah, what a trifle is a heart,
 029.00A.017 If 'twere not so, what did become
 031.00A.010 Men reckon what it did and meant,
 031.00A.018 That our selves know not what it is,
 032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
 032.00A.019 What ever dyes, was not mixt equally;
 033.00A.008 What winde
 034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
 039.00A.008 Contemplate, what you will, approve,
 039.00A.011 What merchants ships have my sighs drown'd?
 039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
 041.00A.021 The ground, thy heart is mine, what ever shall
 044.00A.013 O wrangling schooles, that search what fire
 045.00A.011 And therefore what thou wert, and who

046.00A.001 'Tis true, 'tis day, what though it be?
051.00A.025 Then by her shadow, what she weares.
052.00A.001 Ill tell thee now (deare Love) what thou shalt doe
052.00A.031 Their Soules exhal'd with what they do not see,
052.00A.038 Both by what titles, Mistresses are ours,
052.00A.062 Of longitudes, what other way have wee,
057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when
058.00A.022 To teach the sea, what it may doe too soone,
061.00A.007 Forsweare to others, what to her he'hath sworne,
061.00A.026 What Tyrans, and their subjects interwish,
061.00A.027 What Plants, Myne, Beasts, Foule, Fish,
062.00A.030 (We said) and tell us what we love,
062.00A.032 Wee see, we saw not what did move:
062.00A.034 Mixture of things, they know not what,
062.00A.046 Of what we are compos'd, and made,
065.00A.001 To what a combersome unwieldinesse
065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
065.00A.023 Convey'd by this, Ah, what doth it availe,
065.00A.026 At what, and when, and how, and where I chuse;
067.00A.017 What ere shee meant by'it, bury it by me,
068.00A.003 And seene thy birth, and seene what every houre
068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmelesse lovers wrought.
070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,
070.00A.033 Should I tell what a miracle shee was.
073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
074.00A.006 Know, what gives fuell to their fire:
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
074.00A.015 What we know not, our selves, can know,
079.00B.005 Call, what they cannot name, an unknowne power,
079.00B.018 What before pleas'd them all, takes but one sense,
079.00B.032 Shall not desire what no man else can finde,
081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but shows
091.NY3.003 What brave examples then do prove it trew
106.00A.082 To be what now thou art; then that by thee
107.00A.020 What the sunne never saw, and what the Arke
107.00A.020 What the sunne never saw, and what the Arke
107.00A.057 But oh, what ailes the Sunne, that here he staies,
107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though
107.00A.079 But now she is laid; What though shee bee?
108.00A.002 What could to countries solitude entice
108.00A.007 What delicacie can in fields appeare,
108.00A.091 What hast thou lost, O ignorant man?
108.00A.193 What mean'st thou Bride, this companie to keep?
108.00A.231 What ever celebrates this Festivall
109.00A.009 England to whom we'owe, what we be, and have,
109.00A.031 And what at first was call'd a gust, the same

109.00A.049 And tremblingly'aske what newes, and doe heare so,
109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
109.00A.064 Knew how to heare, there's none knowes what to say.
110.00A.008 Smooth as thy mistresse glasse, or what shines there,
110.00A.051 What are wee then? How little more alas
112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne
114.00A.003 I lov'd what nature gave thee, but this merit
116.00A.003 Thou wert, and what my hopes of letters were;
128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
129.00A.020 And hath for nature, what you have for taske.
129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires
130.00A.039 And in your afternoones thinke what you told
131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
131.00B.047 What pretty innocence in those dayes mov'd?
131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
133.00A.005 What though thou have enough unworthinesse
133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?
133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show
134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devize.
134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devize.
134.00A.016 And rest on what the Catholique faith doth teach;
134.00A.028 Keepest off, or cures what can be done or said.
135.B13.033 those drops) could Conprehend what wee doe thinke.
137.00A.045 What walls of tender christall her enfold,
137.00A.046 What eyes, hands, bosome, her pure Altars bee;
138.00A.033 Oh! to confesse wee know not what we should,
138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
138.00A.053 What hate could hurt our bodies like our love?
138.00A.062 What ere the world hath bad, or pretious,
139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,
139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
140.00A.025 We do infuse to what he meant for meat,
140.00A.034 Nature, to what she was, wee'are led awry
142.00A.049 What must I thinke that influence must doe,
142.00A.053 Of whom, if what in this my Extasie
145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
145.00A.002 What Heaven can doe, and what any Earth can be:
145.00A.008 Gods booke of creatures, teaching what is faire.
146.00A.017 Wee lose what all friends lov'd, him, he gaines now
146.00A.021 What ease, can hope that wee shall see'him, beget,
147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
147.00B.010 In my graves inside see what thou art now,

148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
148.00A.036 One dramme of gold, but what was first shall last,
149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
149.00A.016 Through passions mist, what wee are, or what shee.
149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complaines! Alas,
150.00A.002 What ere hath slip'd, that might diminish thee.
150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.
151.00A.048 That what we turne to feast, she turn'd to pray,
152.12a.023 What must This doo; Centres distracted so,
152.12a.024 That Wee see not what to beleeeue or knowe?
152.12a.028 Till Hee discouerd what wayes Hee would take:
152.12a.029 For Whom what Princes angled (when they tryed)
152.12a.055 What had His growth and generation donne?
152.12a.056 When what wee are, his putrefaction
152.12a.098 I were an Angel singing what You were.
153.00A.130 And by thy doing tell us what to doe?
153.00A.214 By making others, what thou didst, to doe;
154.00A.007 A kind alone;) What ever order grow
154.00A.020 What a soule was; All former comelinesse
154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
155.00a.060 What we may gaine by thy Anatomy.
155.00a.158 Do what we can, to do't so soone as hee.
155.00a.170 Oh what a trifle, and poore thing he is!
155.00a.323 Shee, after whom, what forme soe're we see,
155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
155.00a.388 Not onely what they meane, but what they bee.
155.00a.391 What Artist now dares boast that he can bring
155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,
156.00a.049 What is't to vs, alas, if there haue beene
156.00a.069 What place they should assigne to them they doubt,
157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubbidge this world is
157.00b.190 To looke what Meteors there themselues prepare;
157.00b.230 Were easily found, or what in them was best;
157.00b.254 Poore soule in this thy flesh what do'st thou know.
157.00b.260 By what way thou art made immortall, know.
157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
157.00b.287 What Caesar did, yea, and what Cicero said.
157.00b.287 What Caesar did, yea, and what Cicero said.
157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
157.00b.300 And what concerns it not, shall straight forget.
157.00b.322 And meditation of what thou shalt bee,
157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station
157.00b.387 And what essentiall ioy canst thou expect
157.00b.388 Here vpon earth? what permanent effect
157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was growen,

157.00b.482 What eie was casuall, may euer bee.
 157.00b.483 What should the Nature change? Or make the same
 157.00b.514 And where, what lawes of poetry admit,
 158.00A.007 What the gold Chaldee, or silver Persian saw,
 158.00A.039 So much my selfe, as to know with what hand,
 158.00A.269 Where fresh, with salt waves meet, and what to doe
 158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.
 158.00A.364 Transported with the joy of what they get,
 158.00A.376 (As basest men that have not what to eate,
 158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
 158.00A.481 First she was silly and knew not what he ment,
 158.00A.484 She knew not first, now cares not what he doth,
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 158.00A.027 it may remember, and now tell mee, at what lascivious banquet it
 160.00A.007 But what thy thorny crowne gain'd, that give mee,
 160.00A.059 For, what weake spirits admire, ambitious, hate;
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 173.00A.012 Revive againe what law and letter kill,
 176.00B.005 In mine Idolatry what showres of raine
 176.00B.006 Mine eyes did waste? what griefs my heart did rent?
 179.NY3.002 What is it She, which on the other Shore
 181.00A.035 Let Crosses, soe, take what hid Christ in thee,
 184.00A.012 By bearing one, tryed'st with what stings
 184.00A.114 That what they have misdome
 184.00A.165 Disputing what distorted thee,
 184.00A.204 We know not what to say.
 184.00A.215 What in thy booke, thou dost, or creatures say,
 185.00A.018 What a death were it then to see God dye?
 187.00A.027 Remembers what of old, shee esteemed most,
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.
 187.00A.103 To kill what Sions daughter did desire,
 187.00A.137 13 Daughter Ierusalem, Oh what may bee
 187.00A.139 Sion, to ease thee, what shall I name like thee?
 187.00A.140 Thy breach is like the sea, what help can bee?
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.262 61 How they reproach'd, thou hast heard, and what they thought,
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,
 187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.
 187.00A.349 1 Remember, O Lord, what is fallen on us
 189.00B.005 What bringst thou home with thee? how is thy mind
 189.00B.024 What thy advantage is above, below.
 189.00B.037 What function is so noble, as to bee
 190.00A.001 In what torne ship soever I embarke,
 190.00A.003 What sea soever swallow mee, that flood
 191.00B.020 Both told us what, and taught us how to doe.
 191.00B.028 (For, Angels learne by what the Church does heare)
 192.00B.005 And what I must doe then, thinke here before.

192.00B.013 What shall my West hurt me? As West and East

WHAT'S.....3

068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?

109.00A.061 Pumping hath tir'd our men, and what's the gaine?

156.00a.003 Alas, what's Marble, leat, or Porphyry,

WHAT'TIS.....1

052.00A.049 If to consider what'tis, one proceed,

WHEN.....3

057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when

057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when

185.00A.010 This day, when my Soules forme bends toward the East.

WHEALES.....1

009.00A.014 Or warts, or wheales, it hangs upon her skinne.

WHEEL.....1

021.00G.017 Or tak'st thou pride to break us on thy wheel,

WHEELE.....1

153.00A.131 Though as small pocket-clocks, whose every wheele

WHELP.....2

158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.

158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,

WHELPE.....2

157.00b.165 This curded milke, this poore vnlettered whelpe

158.00A.438 A proper name. The whelpe of both these lay

WHEN.....326

001.00A.004 In prison, and here be coffin'd, when I dye;

001.00A.029 That when thou meet'st one, with enquiring eyes

001.00A.045 Mans first blest state was naked, when by sinne

001.00A.063 Then thou, when thou depart'st from mee, can show

001.00A.064 Whither, why, when, or with whom thou wouldst go.

001.00B.082 When any names the King of Spaine to you.

002.00A.060 Then when winds in our ruin'd Abbeyes rore;

002.00A.061 When sicke with Poetrie, and possest with muse

002.00A.093 When Luther was profest, He did desire

002.00A.097 But when he sells or changes land, he'impaires

004.00A.026 When next the Prentises 'gainst Strangers rise.

004.00A.099 When the Queene frown'd, or smil'd, and he knowes what

004.00A.129 I more amas'd then Circes prisoners, when

004.00A.151 His thanks were ended, when I, (which did see

005.00A.037 The iron Age that was, when justice was sold, now
005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most
005.00A.050 Against the stream, when upwards: when thou art most
005.00A.053 Become great seas, o'r which, when thou shalt bee
005.00A.059 By meanes of Angels; When supplications
005.00A.087 Then Haman, when he sold his Antiquities.
006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
006.00D.021 Go then, and as to thee when thou didst go,
006.00D.025 Homely and familiarly, when thou com'st back,
006.00D.036 To neighbour wares, when Merchants do unhoope
008.00B.016 To comfort my soule, when I lie or rise.
008.00B.022 When in that hell they'are burnt and tyed in chains:
008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
008.00B.065 But if, when all his art and time is spent,
009.00A.022 Of Cynthia, when th'earths shadowes her embrace.
009.00A.052 As wee, when wee embrace, or touch, or kisse.
010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
010.00A.043 When, like a tyran King, that in his bed
010.00A.065 Gods, when yee fum'd on altars, were pleas'd well,
011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
011.00A.021 Nor when he swolne, and pamper'd with great fare
012.00A.011 When my Soule was in her owne body sheath'd,
012.00A.021 When I behold a streame, which, from the spring,
012.00A.044 I will renounce thy dalliance: and when I
014.NY3.002 And when I haue peace, can I leaue thee then?
015.00G.014 As when through flowry meads th'hills shadows steales.
015.00G.028 My Kingdom's safest, when with one man man'd.
015.00G.037 That when a fools eye lighteth on a Jem,
016.00A.011 Foxes and goats; all beasts change when they please,
016.00A.033 But when they kisse one banke, and leaving this
017.00A.019 When by the Gamut some Musitions make
017.00A.041 When Belgiaes citties, the round countries drowne,
018.00B.047 When I am gone, dreame me some happinesse,
019.00A.004 When wee are shadowes both, then 'twas before.
019.00A.005 When weather-beaten I come backe; my hand,
020.00G.011 I when I value gold, may think upon
020.00G.043 The brow becalms us when 'tis smooth and plain,
020.00G.044 And when 'tis wrinckled, shipwracks us again.
020.00G.053 Unto her swelling lips when we are come,
020.00G.071 When thou art there, consider what this chace
021.00G.004 I am to suffer when my Love is gone.
021.00G.024 That I should suffer when I lov'd indeed:
021.00G.033 So blinded Justice doth, when Favorites fall,
021.00G.094 When my own thoughts I here neglected find.
021.00G.098 And when I change my Love, I'll change my heart;
022.00A.047 And after all selfe torment, when hee dyes,
022.00A.059 I could renew those times, when first I saw

024.00A.016 As, gods, when gods to thee I doe compare,
024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.
024.00A.056 When I would kisse, teares dimme mine eyes, and glasse.
025.00A.019 And may laugh and joy, when thou
026.00A.004 When I looke lower I espie,
027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
028.00A.001 When by thy scorne, O murdresse, I am dead,
029.00A.018 Of my heart, when I first saw thee?
031.00A.030 Yet when the other far doth rome,
033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee
033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,
034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
038.00A.004 When with my browne, my gray haire equall bee;
038.00A.017 This bargaine's good; if when I'am old, I bee
039.00A.013 When did my colds a forward spring remove?
039.00A.014 When did the heats which my veines fill
040.00A.012 But when I have done so,
042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,
042.00A.027 When thou weep'st, unkindly kinde,
043.00A.001 When I dyed last, and, Deare, I dye
043.00A.011 Did kill me, and when I felt mee dye,
043.00A.012 I bid mee send my heart, when I was gone,
043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
044.00A.004 When I remember, thou wast one.
044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth wooe.
048.00A.005 When thou and I first one another saw:
048.00A.020 When bodies to their graves, soules from their graves remove.
049.00A.036 When these starres have supremacie:
049.00A.038 When love and grieve their exaltation had,
049.00A.043 When thy inconsiderate hand
049.00A.049 And when thy melted maid,
050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
052.00A.023 When this booke is made thus,
052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?
053.00A.023 And when hee hath the kernell eate,
054.00A.005 Me thinks I lyed all winter, when I swore,
057.00A.015 But when I saw thou sawest my heart,
057.00A.017 When thou knew'st what I dreamt, when thou knew'st when
058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
058.00A.009 So thou and I are nothing then, when on a divers shore
060.00A.026 Just so much honor, when thou yeeld'st to mee,
062.00A.041 When love, with one another so

062.00A.076 Small change, when we're to bodies gone.
063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
064.00a.010 But when an even flame two hearts did touch,
065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
065.00A.026 At what, and when, and how, and where I chuse;
066.00A.036 Taughtst me to make, as though I gave, when I did but restore.
067.00A.016 As prisoners then are manacled, when they're con-dem'nd to die.
068.00A.026 When thou hast stayed and done thy most;
070.00A.001 When my grave is broke up againe
071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,
071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
074.00A.008 For may I misse, when ere I crave,
077.00A.014 When the lifes light is set,
079.00B.007 Thus when
079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
079.00B.036 As men doe when the summers Sunne
080.00E.007 When I am caught he can be gone,
080.00E.008 And when he list refuse.
080.00E.015 Nor a fool for when others,
081.HH5.001 When my harte was mine owne & not by vowes
081.HH5.011 with piety & right when they haue gaind
082.00A.025 To be two Chaosses, when we did show
098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be beleev'd.
106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
106.00A.089 Like an appointed lambe, when tenderly
107.00A.053 Must be effected; and when all is past,
107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,
108.00A.110 When he doth in his largest circle runne.
108.00A.118 When his eye as inflaming is
108.00A.135 Them, when these triumphs cease, thou forward art
108.00A.151 Soe dost thou, when in silke and gold,
108.00A.195 Thou maist not, when thou art laid, doe so.
109.00A.006 When by thy judgment they are dignifi'd,
109.00A.016 Downward againe; and so when it did view
109.00A.021 Meate comes, it came; and swole our sailes, when wee
109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
109.00A.037 But when I wakt, I saw, that I saw not.
110.00A.010 Seeke, when wee can move, our ships rooted bee.
110.00A.012 As lead, when a fir'd Church becomes one spout.
111.00A.020 When to be like the Court, was a playes praise,
113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
119.NY3.005 And when it giues vs intermission
122.00A.002 Seeme, when thou read'st these lines, to dreame of me,
127.00A.016 A greene, and when thee list a golden haire;
130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,

131.00B.056 Nay, farther off, than when we first set out.
 131.00B.114 But like swoln bubbles, when they are high'st they break
 133.00A.013 But when thou com'st to that perplexing eye
 133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 133.00A.037 When thou art there, if any, whom wee know,
 133.00A.039 When she revolves his papers, marke what show
 136.00A.002 And so refinde; that when God was alone
 136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne
 137.00A.018 As China, when the Sunne at Brasill dines.
 138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee
 139.00A.026 When all (as truth commands assent) confesse
 139.00A.034 And useth oft, when such a heart mis-sayes,
 139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.
 139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.
 139.00A.064 Your name; and when with active joy we heare
 141.00A.039 When single planets by the Gods are nam'd,
 142.00A.019 For when through tastlesse flat humilitie
 142.00A.032 When Vertue is our Soules complexion;
 142.00A.034 Vertue'is but aguish, when 'tis severall,
 145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunke, and dri'd,
 145.00A.043 And when next day he had admir'd the birth
 145.00A.050 If when he spoke them, they were both true than.
 145.00A.053 When our last soule, our soule immortall came,
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 147.00B.008 When we are senselesse grown to make stones speak,
 147.00B.020 Heaven, when the Trumpets ayre shall them exhale.
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.016 Lies such a Prince, when but one part is there;
 149.00A.006 And breaks our banke, when ere it takes a friend.
 149.00A.026 Flesh of such stufte, as God, when his last fire
 149.00A.029 They say, the sea, when it gaines, loseth too;
 149.00A.033 They perish both, when they attempt the just;
 150.00A.056 Shortly ambitious, covetous, when old,
 151.00A.020 They told not when, but did the day beginne;
 151.00A.041 And when wee teares, hee mercy shed in this,
 152.12a.029 For Whom what Princes angled (when they tryed)
 152.12a.046 Of Plagues on vs? and only now, when more
 152.12a.056 When what wee are, his putrefaction
 152.12a.073 When Miracle dooth ioine; and to steal-in
 153.00A.002 Then when thou wast infused, harmony,
 153.00A.016 Times dead-low water; when all mindes devest
 153.00A.017 To morrows businesse, when the labourers have
 153.00A.020 Now when the clyent, whose last hearing is
 153.00A.021 To morrow, sleeps, when the condemned man,
 153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than

153.00A.031 God is the glasse; as thou when thou dost see
 153.00A.076 When they would exercise, lacke time, and space.
 153.00A.081 As when an Angell down from heav'n doth flye,
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.091 When they, whose slow-pac'd lame thoughts cannot goe
 153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,
 153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,
 153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,
 153.00A.146 When, small clocks faults, only'on the wearer fall.
 153.00A.158 That when the ebbs, longer then flowings be,
 153.00A.168 Where, when the severall labourers I see,
 153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more
 153.00A.217 For, Heav'n and thou, even when thou livedst here,
 153.00A.245 Of triumph, when I say, It was more fit,
 154.00A.021 Fled, in a minute, when the soule was gone,
 154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am
 154.00A.037 When thou rememb'rest what sins thou didst finde
 155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
 155.00a.007 When that Queene ended here her progresse time,
 155.00a.024 Well, when alas, thou'rt in a Letargee.
 155.00a.044 When sickenes without remedy, empayres
 155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
 155.00a.113 When as the Sunne, and man, did seeme to striue,
 155.00a.115 When Stag, and Rauens, and the long-liu'd tree,
 155.00a.117 When, if a slow-pac'd starre had stolne away
 155.00a.121 When, as the age was long, the sise was great:
 155.00a.125 And when the very stature thus erect,
 155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart
 155.00a.176 When they call'd vertues by the name of shee,
 155.00a.183 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowest this,
 155.00a.210 When in the Planets, and the Firmament
 155.00a.224 When she obseru'd that euery sort of men
 155.00a.237 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.262 When new Townes rise, and olde demolish'd are.
 155.00a.325 Shee, shee is dead, shee's dead; when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.347 When nature was most busie, the first weeke,
 155.00a.369 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.427 Shee, shee is dead; shee's dead: when thou knowst this,
 155.00a.452 Be got when man is made, 'tis borne but than
 155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,
 155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
 156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie
 156.00a.065 As when a Temple's built, Saints emulate
 156.00a.067 But as when Heav'n lookes on vs with new eyes,
 157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.074 To be staid in, then when shee was in it;

157.00b.081 Shee, shee is gone; shee is gone; when thou knowest this,
 157.00b.175 Thinke, when t'was growne to most, t'was a poore Inne,
 157.00b.214 For when our soule enjoyes this her third birth,
 157.00b.218 Where darknesse was before, when Tapers come.
 157.00b.231 And when w'haue made this large Discoueree,
 157.00b.279 What hope haue we to know our selues, when wee
 157.00b.291 When wilt thou shake of this Pedanterie,
 157.00b.454 Better then when in Images they bee:
 157.00b.477 When no Physician of redresse can speake,
 157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
 157.00b.493 When earthly bodies more celestiall
 158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.
 158.00A.069 And liv'd when every great change did come,
 158.00A.121 Just in that instant when the serpents gripe,
 158.00A.136 Just as in our streets, when the people stay
 158.00A.138 That weesels scarce could passe, when she comes nere
 158.00A.176 Thoughtlesse of change, when her firme destiny
 158.00A.195 He asks her not, who did so tast, nor when,
 158.00A.231 When goodly, like a ship in her full trim,
 158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught
 158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
 158.00A.310 Hulling, might (when this was a whelp) be like this whale.
 158.00A.313 Then cannons voices, when the aire they teare:
 158.00A.435 What he began alive, when hee was dead,
 158.00A.487 Now cries, and now repents; when Tethelermite
 158.00A.013 or flie. Now when I beginne this booke, I have no purpose to come into
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.028 was serv'd. And though it could not speake, when it was a spider,
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when
 158.00A.033 shee was that apple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
 160.00A.067 When it beares him, he must beare more and die;
 162.00A.003 By thee, and for thee, and when I was decay'd
 162.00A.012 Oh I shall soone despaire, when I doe see
 165.00A.012 When wee are there; here on this lowly ground,
 174.00B.009 Onely thou art above, and when towards thee
 178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou
 179.NY3.014 When She' is embrac'd & open to most Men.
 180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not
 180.NY3.014 Those are my best dayes, when I shake with feare.
 181.00A.030 When Still'd, or purg'd by tribulation.
 181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,
 181.00A.053 Crosse those dejections, when it downward tends,
 181.00A.054 And when it to forbidden heights pretends.
 181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 182.00A.013 Hee was all gold when he lay downe, but rose
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.

184.00A.170 Good Lord deliver us, and teach us when
 184.00A.181 When senses, which thy souldiers are,
 184.00A.183 When want, sent but to tame, doth warre
 184.00A.185 When plenty, Gods image, and seale
 184.00A.188 When wee are mov'd to seeme religious
 184.00A.190 In Churches, when the'infirmitie
 184.00A.192 When Magistrates doe mis-apply
 184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,
 184.00A.196 When Heresie, thy second deluge, gaines;
 184.00A.200 A sinner is more musique, when he prays,
 184.00A.216 That we may heare, Lord heare us, when wee pray.
 184.00A.232 When they doe most accuse us, may see then
 187.00A.018 Because when her transgressions did increase,
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
 187.00A.133 12 When they had cryed unto their Mothers, where
 187.00A.162 Thy heart, like water, when the watch begins;
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,
 187.00A.187 When I crie out, he out shuts my prayer: 9 And hath
 187.00A.203 19 But when my mournings I do thinke upon,
 187.00A.224 32 But when he'hath strucke with sadnes, hee doth take
 187.00A.257 57 Then when I call'd upon thee, thou drew'st nere
 187.00A.281 4 And when the sucking child doth strive to draw,
 187.00A.283 And when for bread the little children crye,
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 190.00A.010 When I have put our seas twixt them and mee,
 191.00B.037 When I behold that these Psalmes are become
 191.00B.055 Be as our tuning, that, when hence we part
 193.00A.005 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.011 When thou hast done, thou hast not done,
 193.00A.013 I have a sinne of feare, that when I have spunne

WHEN'TIS.....2

040.00A.018 But not of such as pleases when'tis read,
 130.00A.005 A Palace, when'tis that, which it should be,

WHENCE.....13

012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
 082.00A.020 Life, soule, forme, spirit, whence they beeing have,
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 151.00A.052 (For she was of that order whence most fell)
 155.00a.331 Poysoning the fountaines, whence our actions spring,
 157.00b.087 Whence thou spiest first a little glimmering light,
 158.00A.097 Astray, from turning, to whence we are fled.
 158.00A.502 The tender well arm'd feeling braine, from whence,
 158.00A.515 Or most of those arts, whence our lives are blest,
 160.00A.048 It sodenly speakes wonders, whence comes it,
 161.00A.005 But though the ingendring force from whence they came

163.00A.004 Treason, and durst not turne to whence hee is fled,
 187.00A.056 Hath given mee, from whence I cannot rise.

WHER.....2

121.NY3.004 Fly vnto that Parnassus, wher thou art.
 123.NY3.011 Wher lost & movd it did begett this sound

WHERAT.....1

121.NY3.011 Nothing wherat to laugh my spleene espyes

WHERE.....161

002.00A.103 Where are those spred woods which cloth'd hertofore
 003.00A.043 Seeke true religion. O where? Mirreus
 003.00A.048 The statecloth where the Prince sate yesterday.
 005.00A.045 Where wilt thou appeale? powre of the Courts below
 006.00D.006 A Cellar gulfe, where one might saile to hell
 009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 009.00A.042 Where round about the grasse is burnt away.
 009.00A.048 As where a Plough a stony ground doth rent?
 010.00A.048 Where cattell onely, 'and diverse dogs are bred,
 012.00A.007 Whence they no tribute have, and where no sway.
 015.00G.032 Then where my hand is set, my seal shall be,
 017.00A.009 These things are beauties elements, where these
 017.00A.012 Be in thy wench, ne'r aske where it doth lye.
 017.00A.014 Be muske and amber in it, but not where.
 017.00A.036 There is best land, where there is foulest way.
 019.00A.002 Thine, in my heart, where my soule dwels, shall dwell.
 020.00G.030 With Pluto dwells, where gold and fire abound,
 020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradiçe, where we would have 020.00G.050 On either side, and then directs us where
 020.00G.057 Then in a Creek where chosen pearls do swell
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 020.00G.070 Where many Shipwrack, and no further get.
 021.00G.031 And, where one sad truth may expiate
 031.00A.036 And makes me end, where I begunne.
 032.00A.011 And makes one little roome, an every where.
 032.00A.017 Where can we finde two better hemispheares
 033.00A.003 Tell me, where all past yeares are,
 033.00A.017 No where
 036.00A.018 Be where thou leftst them, or lie here with mee.
 036.00A.029 Shine here to us, and thou art every where;
 043.00A.014 When I had ripp'd me, 'and search'd where hearts did lye,
 045.00A.005 Still when, to where thou wert, I came
 048.00A.017 But soules where nothing dwells but love;
 048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
 050.00A.014 They were Loves graves; for else he is no where.
 050.00A.019 Here dwells he, though he sojourne ev'ry where,

050.00A.021 Here, where still Evening is; not noone, nor night;
 050.00A.022 Where no voluptuousnesse., yet all delight.
 051.00A.026 O perverse sexe, where none is true but shee,
 052.00A.035 For, though minde be the heaven, where love doth sit,
 052.00A.063 But to marke when, and where the darke eclipses bee?
 056.00A.009 To smile where they list, or lend away their light?
 057.00A.024 That love is weake, where feare's as strong as hee;
 059.00A.002 Say, where his centrique happinesse doth lie:
 060.00A.011 Where wee almost, yea more then maryed are.
 062.00A.001 Where, like a pillow on a bed,
 065.00A.026 At what, and when, and how, and where I chuse;
 066.00A.017 To love there, where no love receiv'd can be,
 066.00A.049 Then gold in Mines, where none doth draw it forth.
 069.00A.002 Where, if Heav'n would distill
 069.00A.005 And where their forme, and their infinitie
 070.00A.013 Where mis-devotion doth command,
 079.00B.035 And when I come where moving beauties be,
 107.00A.025 Where motion kindles such fires, as shall give
 107.00A.051 Goe then to where the Bishop staies,
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delays, For, where is he?
 107.00A.082 First her sheetes, then her Armes, then any where,
 108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 108.00A.040 As heaven, to men dispos'd, is every where,
 108.00A.053 So is the Country of Courts, where sweet peace doth,
 108.00A.076 A Court, where all affections do assent
 108.00A.078 And where it is no levity to trust.
 108.00A.079 Where there is no ambition, but to'obey,
 108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;
 108.00A.081 Where the Kings favours are so plac'd, that all
 108.00A.090 Where the Kings Counsells and his secrets rest.
 108.00A.189 They tread the ayre, and fal not where they rose.
 108.00A.202 Thou art not gone, being gone, where e'r thou art,
 108.00A.223 This is joyes bonfire, then, where loves strong Arts
 110.00A.028 Where walkers in hot Ovens, doe not dye.
 112.00A.023 And Courts are Theaters, where some men play
 112.00A.025 The Country is a desert, where no good,
 112.00A.048 Inne any where, continuance maketh hell.
 112.00A.049 And seeing the snaile, which every where doth rome,
 112.00A.056 Fishes glide, leaving no print where they passe,
 113.00A.006 Where seeds of better Arts, were early sown.
 113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in
 113.00A.027 Places, where they may lie still warme, to chuse.
 113.00A.029 Giddily and bee every where, but at home,
 115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
 115.00A.011 And 'tis where I am, where in every street
 116.00A.002 Oft have I askt for thee, both how and where
 120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,

122.00A.011 That I rejoyce, that unto where thou art,
 123.NY3.004 Delicious garden where all Sweetes are sowne.
 129.00A.013 After those loving papers, where friends send
 129.00A.040 In length and ease are alike every where.
 131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,
 131.00B.099 Where thoughts the starres of soule we understand,
 137.00A.008 (Where a transcendent height, (as, lownesse mee)
 137.00A.064 And need not, where all hearts one truth professe;
 140.00A.001 Man is a lumpe, where all beasts kneaded bee,
 140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;
 140.00A.012 Can sow, and dares trust corne, where they have bin;
 142.00A.001 Here where by All All Saints invoked are,
 142.00A.010 Where, because Faith is in too low degree,
 142.00A.014 Of virtues, where no one is growne, or spent,
 142.00A.050 Where it findes sympathie and matter too,
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
 145.00A.012 Where every man thinks by himselfe to stand,
 145.00A.028 Where all alike are guiltie of the crimes?)
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 149.00A.022 Do take up Porcelane, where they buried Clay;
 150.00A.014 Where harmelesse fish monastique silence keepe.
 151.00A.042 To raise our mindes to heaven where now she is;
 151.00A.045 Her heart was that strange bush, where, sacred fire,
 152.12a.064 Where should wee look for That, now w'are not Men?
 152.12a.074 A new link Man knowes not where to begin:

 015.00G.041 Themselves are only mystick books, which we,
 016.00A.002 Have seal'd thy love which nothing should undoe,
 016.00A.021 By nature, which gave it, this liberty
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 017.00A.044 Which, forc'd by businesse, absent oft must bee,
 017.00A.052 Then witches, which impossibles confesse.
 018.00B.002 By all desires which thereof did ensue,
 018.00B.004 Which my words masculine perswasive force
 018.00B.006 Of hurts, which spies and rivals threatned me,
 018.00B.008 By all paines, which want and divorcement hath,
 018.00B.009 I conjure thee, and all the oathes which I
 018.00B.036 Of Players, which upon the worlds stage be,
 019.00A.017 That which in him was faire and delicate,
 019.00A.018 Was but the milke, which in loves childish state
 019.00A.020 To feed on that, which to disus'd tastes seemes tough.
 020.00G.020 They love them for that, by which they're not they?
 020.00G.075 Which thou dost seek, and is thy Map for that
 020.00G.082 Which at the face began, transplanted is,
 020.00G.089 Which goes this empty and Aethereal way,
 020.00G.093 They then, which to the lower tribute owe
 020.00G.094 That way which that Exchequer looks, must go:
 020.00G.095 He which doth not, his error is as great,
 021.00G.003 Shadow that hell unto me, which alone
 021.00G.023 Which (since I lov'd) for me before decreed,

021.00G.102 That, oft suspected which men most perswade;
022.00A.065 All which were such soft pastimes, as in these
022.00A.068 Which to defend is harder then to get:
024.00A.001 VVhere is that holy fire, which Verse is said
024.00A.014 Which, both to keepe, and lose, grieves equally.
024.00A.032 A mutuall feeling which should sweeten it.
024.00A.039 Men leave behinde them that which their sin showes,
024.00A.040 And are, as theeves trac'd, which rob when it snows.
025.00A.002 Which (Oh) too long have dwelt on thee,
025.00A.010 Which no unworthy thought could staine,
025.00A.011 Which if it be taught by thine
027.00A.010 Each fish, which every channell hath,
027.00A.018 And cut their legges, which shells and weeds,
030.00B.005 Along with us, which we our selves produc'd;
030.00B.013 Which is still diligent lest others see.
030.00B.017 Others; these which come behinde
031.00A.016 Those things which elemented it.
031.00A.021 Our two soules therefore, which are one,
032.00A.007 Which I desir'd, and got, t'was but a dreame of thee.
032.00A.009 Which watch not one another out of feare;
034.00A.005 We are not just those persons, which we were?
034.00A.016 Which I abstaine to doe,
035.00A.004 As Kings do coynes, to which their stamps impart
035.00A.006 Which now is growne too great and good for me.
035.00A.016 And sleepe which locks up sense, doth lock out all.
036.00A.010 Nor houres, dayes, moneths, which are the rags of time.
037.00A.025 Which thinke to stablish dangerous constancie.
039.00A.014 When did the heats which my veines fill
039.00A.017 Litigious men, which quarrels move,
040.00A.016 Griefe, which verse did restraine.
040.00A.021 And I, which was two fooles, do so grow three;
041.00A.005 And all my treasure, which should purchase thee,
041.00A.013 All was but All, which thou hadst then,
041.00A.016 Which have their stocks intire, and can in teares,

050.00A.027 Which then comes seasonabliest, when our tast
050.00A.034 Which we are fifty yeares in compassing.
050.00A.035 If transitory things, which soone decay,
051.00A.006 The spider love, which transubstantiates all,
051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,
052.00A.011 Of letters, which have past twixt thee and mee,
052.00A.034 Something which they may see and use;
052.00A.046 Here Statesmen, (or of them, they which can reade,)
053.00A.004 Which wee may neither hate, nor love,
054.00A.007 But if this medicine, love, which cures all sorrow
054.00A.012 To say, which have no Mistresse but their Muse,
055.00A.005 For them which were their owne before;

058.00A.008 When a teare falls, that thou falst which it bore,
058.00A.013 And quickly make that, which was nothing, All,
058.00A.015 Which thee doth weare,
059.00A.020 Which he in her Angelique findes,
060.00A.002 How little that which thou deny'st me is;
060.00A.022 Except in that drop which it suckt from thee?
061.00A.015 For land which had been his, if he had not
061.00A.020 His sonnes, which none of his may bee,
061.00A.028 Can contribute, all ill, which all
061.00A.029 Prophets, or Poets spake; And all which shall
062.00A.006 With a fast balme, which thence did spring,
062.00A.015 Our soules, (which to advance their state,
062.00A.025 He (though he knowes not which soule spake,
062.00A.039 (All which before was poore, and scant,)
062.00A.043 That abler soule, which thence doth flow,
062.00A.047 For, th'Atomies of which we grow,
062.00A.064 That subtile knot, which makes us man:
062.00A.067 Which sense may reach and apprehend,
063.00A.004 Which is, to keepe that hid.
063.00A.007 When he which can have learn'd the art,
063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,
063.00A.028 Which is, to keepe that hid.
064.00a.004 Sunke so low, as to love one which did scorne.
064.00a.008 Sure, they which made him god, meant not so much:
064.00a.026 Which since she loves before, I'am loth to see;
065.00A.006 That which love worst endures, discretion.
065.00A.008 Of which my fortune, and my faults had part;
065.00A.016 'Twas not a teare, which hee had got,
065.00A.018 For, eyes which rowle towards all, weepe not, but sweat.
066.00A.029 Which were my friends; Mine industrie to foes;

066.00A.040 My brazen medals, unto them which live
 066.00A.041 In want of bread; To them which passe among
 067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;
 067.00A.006 Viceroy to that, which unto heaven being gone,
 067.00A.012 Those haire which upward grew, and strength and art
 068.00A.017 But thou which lov'st to bee
 069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower
 070.00A.030 Which nature, injur'd by late law, sets free,
 071.00A.019 Which are vast Constancy, and Secretnesse,
 072.00A.001 Shee'is dead; And all which die
 072.00A.011 Which my materialls bee,
 072.00A.019 This (which I am amaz'd that I can speake)
 073.00A.010 Circle this fingers top, which did'st her thombe.
 074.00A.002 Which on an eye, cheeke, lip, can prey,
 074.00A.003 Seldome to them, which soare no higher
 074.00A.011 Which can by no way be exprest
 074.00A.013 To All, which all love, I say no.
 075.00A.002 Which sucks two soules, and vapors Both away,
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 077.00A.015 Or like the heat, which, fire in solid matter
 078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,
 078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
 078.00D.016 Within the Writings which thou hast adress.
 079.00B.014 By children, then the thing which lovers so
 079.00B.034 To pursue things which had indammag'd me.
 080.00E.005 Nor he which is all his own,
 081.HH5.018 which takinge heate from every amorous Eye
 082.00A.018 Of absence, darknesse, death; things which are not.
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 086.00A.001 Out of a fired ship, which, by no way
 086.00A.005 So all were lost, which in the ship were found,
 096.00A.002 Which could do all things, thy faith is; and I
 096.00A.003 Like Esops selfe, which nothing; I confesse
 106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
 106.00A.010 Which never was, but must be, oft, more nigh;
 106.00A.013 Daughters of London, you which bee
 106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
 106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
 106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,
 106.00A.045 Which might these two dissever,
 106.00A.076 Thee of these chaines and robes which were put on
 106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maime,
 107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.
 107.00A.014 This day, which might enflame thy self, Old Valentine.
 107.00A.021 (Which was of foules, and beasts, the cage, and park,)
 107.00A.049 Nor things which are but one, can disunite.
 107.00A.052 To make you one, his way, which divers waies

107.00A.073 What meane these Ladies, which (as though
 107.00A.090 So just and rich in that coyne which they pay,
 107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,
 107.00A.112 Till which houre, wee thy day enlarge, O Valentine.
 108.00A.021 And then that early light, which did appeare
 108.00A.024 From which all Fortunes, Names, and Natures fall;
 108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
 108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
 108.00A.075 Hast thou a history, which doth present
 108.00A.084 To vertue, to the which they all pretend.
 108.00A.099 Reade then this nuptiall song, which was not made
 108.00A.102 No Epitaph, which might advance my fame
 108.00A.103 So much as this poore song, which testifies
 108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,
 108.00A.116 But undiscerning Muse, which heart, which eyes,
 108.00A.123 Which scornes unjust opinion; then the bride
 108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
 108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
 108.00A.144 Thou, which, to all which come to looke upon,
 108.00A.152 Thou cloudst thy selfe; since wee which doe behold,
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 108.00A.161 As men which through a Cipres see
 108.00A.170 All blessings, which are seene, Or thought, by Angels eye or heart.
 108.00A.221 But ends in ashes, which these cannot doe,
 109.00A.001 Thou which art I, ('tis nothing to be soe)
 109.00A.002 Thou which art still thy selfe, by these shalt know
 109.00A.014 Which at th'ayres middle marble roome did finde
 109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,
 109.00A.024 Which bring friends one dayes way, and leave them then.
 109.00A.025 Then like two mighty Kings, which dwelling farre
 109.00A.038 I, and the Sunne, which should teach mee'had forgot
 110.00A.009 The sea is now. And, as the lles which wee
 110.00A.019 Earths hollownesses, which the worlds lungs are,
 110.00A.024 Deare friends, which meet dead in great fishes jawes:
 110.00A.045 Stagge, dogge, and all which from, or towards flies,
 110.00A.048 A scourge, 'gainst which wee all forget to pray,
 112.00A.004 I could ideate nothing, which could please,
 112.00A.037 Men are sponges, which to poure out, receive,
 112.00A.043 I thinke if men, which in these places live
 112.00A.049 And seeing the snaile, which every where doth rome,
 112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
 112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,
 113.00A.015 Which God imputes, as native puritie,
 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 113.00A.018 Want, which want not Vice-covering discretion.
 113.00A.024 The straw, which doth about our hearts sojourne.
 114.00A.010 Which be envyed then pittied: therefore I,

115.00A.007 Tell him, all questions, which men have defended
116.00A.008 The body risen againe, the which was dead,
116.00A.013 To be as gluttons, which say 'midst their meat,
116.00A.014 They love that best of which they most do eat.
119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee
120.00A.007 Strong is this love which ties our hearts in one,
120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
120.00A.013 Doe send forth scalding sighes, which have the Art
120.00A.014 To melt all Ice, but that which walls her heart.
122.00A.017 The which both Gospell, and sterne threatnings bring;
122.00A.024 Which as the Earth betweene the Moone and Sun
122.00A.025 Eclipse the light which Guyana would give,
123.NY3.005 In it is cherishing fyre which dryes in mee
123.NY3.006 Griefe which did drowne me: & halfe quench'd by it
123.NY3.007 Are Satirique fyres which vrg'd me to have writt
123.NY3.012 Which as a lame Eccho of thyne doth rebound.
124.00A.001 O thou which to search out the secret parts
124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
125.00A.002 Which with thy name begins, since their depart,
125.00A.010 Eate, play, ryde, take all joyes which all day yeelds,
126.00A.003 Fulfil'd with hony which thou dost derive
126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
126.00A.010 Which is, that that which I should have begun
126.00A.013 Which stray or sleepe all day, and having lost
126.00A.023 Hence comes it, that these Rymes which never had
126.00A.025 A little forme, the which their Father gave;
127.00A.003 Heavens Sun, which staid so long from us this yeare,
128.LR1.015 In many schooles & courts, which quicken it,)
128.LR1.017 I aske not labored letters which should weare
128.LR1.018 Long papers out: nor letters which should feare
129.00A.003 By which to you he derives much of his,
129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand
129.00A.011 From which rich treasury you may command
129.00A.015 Which thicken on you now, as prayers ascend
129.00A.031 Which fits them (Schooles and Courts and warres o'rpast)
130.00A.005 A Palace, when'tis that, which it should be,
130.00A.007 But hee which dwels there, is not so; for hee
130.00A.018 All libraries, which are Schools, Camps, & Courts;
130.00A.024 Are those diversions there, which here abound.
130.00A.035 Which when herselfe she lessens in the aire,
130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
131.00B.009 Depriv'd of that free state which they were in,
131.00B.044 An unripe willingnesse which nothing did,
131.00B.045 A thirst, an Appetite which had no ease,
133.00A.004 To rags againe, which is thy native state.
133.00A.014 Which equally claimes love and reverence .
133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is

133.00A.021 Then as a mother which delights to heare
133.00A.028 And is there any good which is not shee?
134.00A.019 For, rockes, which high top'd and deep rooted sticke,
134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
135.B13.012 by which w' enthrall our selues to your Commands.
135.B13.016 Admit our Magique then by which wee doe
136.00A.004 But as of the elements, these which wee tread,
136.00A.005 Produce all things with which wee'are joy'd or fed,
136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
136.00A.048 And are in all the lines which alwayes goe.
137.00A.007 Therefore at Court, which is not vertues clime,
137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;
137.00A.031 Yet to that Deity which dwels in you,
137.00A.037 As all which goe to Rome, doe not thereby
137.00A.040 With that which doth religion but invest,
137.00A.051 Of past and future stories, which are rare,
138.00A.019 Vertues in corners, which now bravely doe
138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
138.00A.047 Doth but one halfe, that's none; He which said, Plough
138.00A.060 Which learne it there, and come in innocent.
140.00A.006 All which was man in him, is eate away,
140.00A.009 How happy'is hee, which hath due place assign'd
140.00A.016 But he's those devills too, which did incline
140.00A.021 So, to the punishments which God doth fling,
140.00A.039 All that is fill'd, and all that which doth fill,
140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
141.00A.011 A miracle, which reason scapes, and sense;
141.00A.013 As such a starre, which Magi led to view
141.00A.018 By the Sunnes fall, which now towards earth doth bend,
141.00A.027 Soft dispositions which ductile bee,
141.00A.037 Taught by great constellations, which being fram'd,
141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe
141.00A.063 And all these gifts confess'd, which hee instill'd,
141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
142.00A.012 To speake things which by faith alone I see.
142.00A.028 Spirituall Cholerique Crytiques, which in all
142.00A.041 Which is scarce lesse then soule, as she could do,
142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
145.00A.021 Even that nothing, which at first we were;
145.00A.042 Of those faire creatures, which were made that day:
145.00A.055 Nor doth he injure those soules, which doth cast
145.00A.058 The same things now, which I ador'd before,
145.00A.070 Which none, not reading others, first, could doe.
145.00A.078 Not those, by which Angels are seene and see;
145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,

145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 147.00B.002 And for my fame which I love next my soule,
 148.00A.004 Which build them friendships, become one of two;
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.024 The pure which elemented them shall stay;
 149.00A.002 To which God gives the lower parts of man.
 149.00A.009 (Teares which our Soule doth for her sins let fall)
 149.00A.011 And even those teares, which should wash sin, are sin.
 149.00A.023 So at this grave, her limbecke, which refines
 149.00A.025 Of which, this flesh was, her soule shall inspire
 149.00A.031 Usurpe the body,'our soule, which subject is
 149.00A.037 Nor doe they die, which are not loth to die,
 150.00A.019 Which (if they did not dye) might seeme to bee
 150.00A.047 Which shall be'almost another soule, for there
 150.00A.070 Which is, immoderate grieffe that she is gone.
 151.00A.050 The rest of her high Sabaoth, which shall last;
 152.12a.009 But, for th'enormous Greatnesses, which are
 152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake
 152.12a.038 As to touch Those of which they Emblems are?
 152.12a.057 Sustains in vs, Earth; which Griefs animate:
 152.12a.090 That Shee-Intelligence which mov'd This Sphear,
 152.12a.092 Which hast the noble Conscience, Thou art Shee.
 152.12a.094 By th'Oathes which only you Two neuer broke,
 153.00A.001 Faire soule, which wast, not onely, as all soules bee,
 153.00A.035 Though God be our true glass, through which we see
 153.00A.037 Yet are the trunks which doe to us derive
 153.00A.042 My thoughts on his deeds? which shall I call best?
 153.00A.048 That drop, which I looked on, is presently
 153.00A.062 Vertue, which did in one intirenesse grow.
 153.00A.066 Which sayes, they have no parts, but simple bee;
 153.00A.090 Which he successively to order brings;
 153.00A.110 Which the whole world, or man, the abridgment hath.
 153.00A.112 (Yea and those small ones which the Poles engrave,)
 153.00A.127 Infirmities which need the scale of truth,
 153.00A.138 Or idle,'as men, which to their last houres come,
 153.00A.143 Yet, as in great clocks, which in steeples chime,
 153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 153.00A.171 And Church-yards are our cities, unto which
 153.00A.176 Which doth extend her utmost gates to them;
 153.00A.187 To which thy ranke in this state destin'd thee,
 153.00A.197 Thine armes'gainst forraine enemies, which are
 153.00A.200 Though by a divers Mine, those which are great,)
 153.00A.202 For which to Triumph, none admitted are;

153.00A.210 Of which he gave thee the vicariate,
153.00A.211 (Which is thy soule and body) as intire
153.00A.220 That, that place which is conquered, must bee
153.00A.234 At that authoritie, by which he got
153.00A.242 'Gainst natures lawes, which just impugners bee
153.00A.254 Their walls and bullwarks which became them best:
154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
154.00A.035 Whether that colour, which is scarlet then,
155.00a.001 When that rich soule which to her Heauen is gone,
155.00a.013 Which drew the strongest vitall spirits out:
155.00a.049 The Cyment which did faithfully compact
155.00a.068 Though shee which did inanimate and fill
155.00a.072 Reflects from her, on them which vnderstood
155.00a.075 Which, from the carcasse of the old world, free,
155.00a.083 Which of themselues produce no venemous sinne,
155.00a.112 There is not now that mankinde, which was then
155.00a.150 Spirits of vertue, which then scattred was.
155.00a.203 And now the Springs and Sommers which we see,
155.00a.218 None of that kinde, of which he is, but hee.
155.00a.233 And that rich Indie which doth gold interre,
155.00a.275 So, of the stares which boast that they do runne
155.00a.296 (Which sure is spacious, except that we
155.00a.307 Since euen grieffe it selfe, which now alone
155.00a.343 As a compassionate Turcoyse which doth tell
155.00a.357 Our blushing redde, which vs'd in cheekes to spread,
155.00a.395 And doe by touch, all which those starres could do?
155.00a.433 But those rich ioyes, which did possesse her hart,
155.00a.434 Of which shee's now partaker, and a part.
155.00a.471 Which when I saw that a strict graue could do,
156.00a.005 Or with those Pearles, and Rubies which shee was?
156.00a.012 Life to that name, by which name they must liue?
156.00a.026 By which remote and distant Countries meet.
156.00a.027 But those fine spirits, which doe tune and set
156.00a.028 This Organ, are those peeces which beget
156.00a.066 To which of them, it shall be consecrate.
156.00a.077 To scape th'infirmities which waite vpone
156.00a.083 He which not knowing her sad History,
156.00a.093 Her destiny to her selfe; which liberty
156.00a.098 Any shall liue, which dare true good prefer,
156.00a.100 T'accomplish that which should haue beene her fate.
156.00a.104 Which from the gift of her example rise.
157.00b.007 But as a ship which hath strooke saile, doth runne,
157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,
157.00b.010 Though at those two Red seas, which freely ran,
157.00b.017 His soule; when all these motions which we saw,
157.00b.018 Are but as Ice, which crackles at a thaw:
157.00b.019 Or as a Lute, which in moist weather, rings

157.00b.024 Before the sunne, the which fram'd Daies, was fram'd,
157.00b.040 The world, which else would putrify with vice.
157.00b.086 Which brings a Taper to the outward romme,
157.00b.105 Giue them those sinnes which they gaue thee before,
157.00b.112 Which they from God, and Angels couer not.
157.00b.118 Wormes which insensibly deuoure their state.
157.00b.124 That which of her Ingredients should inuade
157.00b.160 That those two soules, which then thou foundst in mee,
157.00b.170 Which fixt to'a Pillar, or a Graue doth sit
157.00b.185 And thinke this slow-pac'd soule, which late did cleaue,
157.00b.211 As doth the Pith, which, least our Bodies slacke,
157.00b.271 Knowst thou how blood, which to the hart doth flow;
157.00b.273 And for the putrid stuffe, which thou dost spit,
157.00b.277 And of those many opinions which men raise
157.00b.278 Of Nailles and Haires, dost thou know which to praise?
157.00b.280 Know not the least things, which for our vse bee?
157.00b.289 Are mysteries which none haue reach'd vnto.
157.00b.332 So like as Courts) which, in this let vs see,
157.00b.342 loy in not being that, which men haue said.
157.00b.345 Vp to those Patriarckes, which did longer sit
157.00b.347 Vp to those Prophets, which now gladly see
157.00b.360 All royalties which any state emploid,
157.00b.392 Which did begin to loue, are neither now.
157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow
157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
157.00b.436 Know that all lines which circles doe containe,
157.00b.484 Certaine, which was but casuall, when it came?
158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,
158.00A.060 In Thames, which were at Tigrys, and Euphrates waide.
158.00A.061 For the great soule which here amongst us now
158.00A.063 Which as the Moone the sea, moves us, to heare
158.00A.067 Prisons of flesh; this soule which oft did teare,
158.00A.074 That All, which alwayes was all, every where
158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
158.00A.083 That apple grew, which this Soule did
158.00A.085 For that offence, for which all mankinde weepes,
158.00A.115 Of glassie bubbles, which the gamesome boyes
158.00A.123 Through which this soule from the trees root did draw
158.00A.126 As lightning, which one scarce dares say, he saw,
158.00A.146 His other legge, which feet with toes upbeare;
158.00A.178 Into a small blew shell, the which a poore
158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
158.00A.201 Men, till they tooke laws which made freedome lesse,
158.00A.208 Which temperance streightens; freely on his she friends
158.00A.212 Of gummie blood, which doth in holly grow
158.00A.228 It selfe with finnie oares, which she did fit,

158.00A.279 As are by great ones, men which lowly stood.
158.00A.345 His flesh, nor suck those oyles, which thence outstreat,
158.00A.391 In which as in a gallery this mouse
158.00A.411 Hee tooke a course, which since, succesfully,
158.00A.426 At last a trap, of which some every where
158.00A.433 Reade of a lust the which may equall this;
158.00A.437 A ridling lust, for which Schoolemen would misse
158.00A.503 Those sinowie strings which do our bodies tie,
158.00A.512 Which just so much courts thee, as thou dost it,
158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
158.00A.031 her memory hath ever been her owne, which makes me so seriously
158.00A.033 shee was that aple which Eve eate, to this time when shee is hee, whose life
160.00A.003 Thou which of good, hast, yea art treasury,
160.00A.008 A crowne of Glory, which doth flower alwayes;
160.00A.016 That All, which alwayes is All every where,
160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
160.00A.018 Which cannot die, yet cannot chuse but die,
160.00A.022 Taken from thence, flesh, which deaths force may trie.
160.00A.038 Which fils all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
160.00A.046 Which himselfe on the Doctors did bestow;
160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,
160.00A.053 But as for one which hath a long taske, 'Tis good,
160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
160.00A.080 But made that there, of which, and for which 'twas;
160.00A.090 Lightens the darke clouds, which hee treads upon,
160.00A.093 O strong Ramme, which hast batter'd heaven for mee,
160.00A.094 Mild lambe which with thy blood, hast mark'd the path;
160.00A.095 Bright torch, which shin'st, that I the way may see,
161.00A.009 I choose your judgement, which the same degree
161.00A.013 You are that Alchymist which alwaies had
162.00A.004 Thy blood bought that, the which before was thine,
163.00A.003 Thou art like a pilgrim, which abroad hath done
163.00A.005 Or like a thiefe, which till deaths doome be read,
163.00A.013 Or wash thee in Christs blood, which hath this might
167.00A.005 From rest and sleepe, which but thy pictures bee,
168.00A.006 My sinnes, which passe the Jewes impiety:
170.00A.006 Blood fills his frownes, which from his pierc'd head fell
170.00A.008 Which pray'd forgivenessse for his foes fierce spight?
172.00A.009 And as a robb'd man, which by search doth finde
173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie
174.00B.008 By sinne in it, which it t'wards hell doth weigh;
175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high
175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high
175.00B.014 Of thee and thy house, which doth in eating heale.
176.00B.002 Into my breast and eyes, which I have spent,
179.NY3.002 What is it She, which on the other Shore

179.NY3.003 Goes richly painted? Or which rob'd & tore
181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument
181.00A.034 But that away, which hid them there, do take.
181.00A.056 By sutures, which a Crosses forme present,
181.00A.064 That Crosses children, which our Crosses are.
183.00A.020 Th'Abridgement of Christs story, which makes one
183.00A.027 Which shoves where the'other is, and which we say
183.00A.027 Which shoves where the'other is, and which we say
183.00A.041 Or as though one blood drop, which thence did fall,
184.00A.011 Sinne, and death crept in, which were never made,
184.00A.025 Which let devout sad teares intend; and let
184.00A.030 Which, as wise serpents diversly
184.00A.039 Which unlock'd Paradise, and made
184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
184.00A.056 (Those great Grandfathers, of thy Church, which saw
184.00A.065 Which were thy Churches Organs, and did sound
184.00A.066 That harmony, which made of two
184.00A.068 Those heavenly Poets which did see
184.00A.074 Of twelve Apostles, which ingirt this All,
184.00A.101 Which, as thy mother, their high Abbesse, sent
184.00A.121 Of love, that none be lost, which cost thee deare,
184.00A.150 Which might be scandalous,
184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,
184.00A.174 All waies, which rage, or Justice knowes,
184.00A.175 And by which thou could'st shew, that thou wast born,
184.00A.177 Which thou in death did'st shew,
184.00A.181 When senses, which thy souldiers are,
184.00A.191 Of him which speakes, diminishes the Word,
184.00A.194 When plague, which is thine Angell, raignes,
184.00A.227 Which to give us, and make us physicke, doth
184.00A.231 Which well, if we starve, dine,
184.00A.248 O lambe of God, which took'st our sinne
184.00A.249 Which could not stick to thee,
185.00A.021 Could I behold those hands which span the Poles,
185.00A.023 Could I behold that endlesse height which is 185.00A.025 Humbled below us? or that blood which is
185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
185.00A.032 Halfe of that Sacrifice, which ransom'd us?
187.00A.022 Like Harts, which seeke for Pasture, and find none,
187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.
187.00A.047 Like to my sorrow, which Jehova hath
187.00A.049 13 That fire, which by himselfe is governed
187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke
187.00A.062 Casts water out; For he which should be nigh
187.00A.076 Which should refresh their soules, they could not get.
187.00A.081 21 Of all which heare I mourne, none comforts mee,
187.00A.087 For all my sinnes: The sighs which I have had

187.00A.115 His Palace, and the walls, in which their cries
 187.00A.119 He draws not back his hand; which doth oreturnde
 187.00A.120 The wall, and Rampart, which together mourne.
 187.00A.143 Which might disturne thy bondage: but for thee
 187.00A.147 That citie, which so many men did call
 187.00A.151 For this is certainly the day which wee
 187.00A.152 Expected, and which now we finde, and see.
 187.00A.153 17 The Lord hath done that which he purposed,
 187.00A.164 Which, faint for hunger, in the streets doe lye.
 187.00A.175 None did remaine or scape, for those which I
 187.00A.177 1 I am the man which have affliction seene,
 187.00A.190 Or Beare which lyes in wait, he was to mee,
 187.00A.202 Which from the Lord should come, is perished.
 187.00A.232 But that which by the Lord commanded was?
 187.00A.263 62 What their lips uttered, which against me rose,
 187.00A.271 The stones which were stones of the Sanctuary,
 187.00A.273 2 The pretious sonnes of Sion, which should bee
 187.00A.276 Which are the worke of a poore Potters hand.
 187.00A.285 5 They which before were delicately fed,
 187.00A.287 And they which ever were in scarlet cloath'd,
 187.00A.288 Sit and embrace the dunghills which they loath'd.
 187.00A.291 Which being at once destroy'd, there did remaine
 187.00A.307 Kindled a fire in Sion, which hath power
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 187.00A.313 13 For the Priests sins, and Prophets, which have shed
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray
 187.00A.317 With blood, the which impossible it was
 187.00A.335 19 Which follow us, o'r mountaine tops they flye
 187.00A.340 Into the pit which these men digged, fell
 187.00A.342 Thou which inhabitst her, for unto thee
 187.00A.355 4 Waters which are our owne, wee drunke, and pay,
 187.00A.363 8 They are but servants, which do rule us thus,
 189.00B.033 (For, such are cloathes and beauty, which though gay,
 189.00B.051 And so the heavens which beget all things here,
 189.00B.052 And the earth our mother, which these things doth eare
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.
 190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee
 191.00B.010 (For 'twas a double power by which he sung
 191.00B.027 But our third Quire, to which the first gives eare,
 191.00B.031 The songs are these, which heavens high holy Muse
 191.00B.046 Which, by thy Moses and this Miriam, is
 193.00A.002 which was my sin, though it were done before?
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne

WHIL'ST.....7

058.00A.002 My teares before thy face, whil'st I stay here,
 062.00A.017 And whil'st our soules negotiate there,
 108.00A.008 Whil'st Flora'herselfe doth a freeze jerkin weare?
 108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip
 157.00b.250 Longer, then whil'st we beare our brittle shell.
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 184.00A.118 And whil'st this universall Quire,

WHILE.....5

001.00A.112 And constantly a while must keepe his bed. [CW: Satyre]
 077.00A.011 For though hee seeme to move, and stirre a while,
 111.00A.026 Therefore I end; and bid farewell a while,
 130.00A.022 A while from hence. Perchance outlandish ground
 136.00A.017 Send not their voice, nor last so long a while

WHILES.....2

022.00A.058 Delight, not in made worke, but whiles they make;
 187.00A.028 Whiles her foes laugh at her, for what she hath lost.

WHILST.....11

021.00G.002 Environ me with darkness, whilst I write:
 021.00G.046 Had correspondence whilst the foe stood by?
 022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word
 030.00B.009 So whilst our infant loves did grow,
 031.00A.003 Whilst some of their sad friends doe say,
 045.00A.015 Whilst thus to a ballast love, I thought,
 079.00B.001 Whilst yet to prove,
 137.00A.028 Whilst here to you, wee sacrificers runne;
 147.00B.015 Whilst in our soules sinne bred and pampered is,
 157.00b.480 And whilst thou ioyest in this, the dangerous rest,
 192.00B.006 Whilst my Physitians by their love are growne

WHINING.....1

040.00A.003 In whining Poetry;

WHIP.....2

004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still 108.00A.010 Of leafes, to furnish roddes enough to whip

WHIRLD.....1

185.00A.008 For their first mover, and are whird by it.

WHIRLE-POOLE.....1

153.00A.162 All is at once sunke in the whirle-poole death.

WHIRLEPOOLE.....1

158.00A.327 Flyer and follower, in this whirlepoole fall;

WHIRLEPOOLES.....1

012.00A.016 The curled whirlepooles suck, smack, and embrace,

WHISPER.....3

004.00A.049 He names mee, and comes to mee; I whisper, God!

031.00A.002 And whisper to their soules, to goe,

108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;

WHISPER'D.....2

187.00A.264 And what was ever whisper'd by my foes.

191.00B.032 Whisper'd to David, David to the lewes:

WHISPERD.....1

004.00A.215 And whisperd by Jesu, so often, that A

WHISPERED.....1

001.00A.089 Met us, they talk'd; I whispered, let us goe,

WHISPERING.....3

027.00A.005 There will the river whispering runne

107.00A.006 The Lirique Larke, and the grave whispering Dove,

107.00A.107 Others neare you shall whispering speake,

WHISPERS.....1

131.00B.030 I hate that thing whispers it selfe away.

WHISTLING.....1

010.00A.051 I taught my silkes, their whistling to forbear,

WHITE.....27

005.00A.069 Faire lawes white reverend name be strumpeted,

009.00A.023 Like Proserpines white beauty-keeping chest,

015.00G.019 In such white robes, heaven's Angels us'd to be

015.00G.022 Ill spirits walk in white; we easly know,

015.00G.045 Thy self: cast all, yea, this white lynnence hence

017.00A.011 If red and white and each good quality

017.00A.046 Who, mightier then the sea, makes Moores seem white,

018.00B.053 O'r the white Alpes alone; I saw him I,

024.00A.060 And their white, whitenesse of the Galaxy,

033.00A.013 Till age snow white haire on thee,

081.HH5.047 but in thy harte framd soe white & cleare

112.00A.042 Are beasts in all, but white integritie.

113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee

149.00A.041 Of what small spots pure white complaines! Alas,

154.00A.036 Were black or white before in eyes of men?)

155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue

156.00a.075 Cloath'd in her Virgin white integrity;
 157.00b.114 They reinuest thee in white innocence.
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
 158.00A.404 Abel, as white, and milde as his sheepe were,
 160.00A.006 Reward my muses white sincerity,
 163.00A.014 That being red, it dyes red soules to white.
 177.00B.008 How shall my mindes white truth by them be try'd?
 184.00A.092 A Virgin Squadron of white Confessors,
 184.00A.100 The cold white snowie Nunnery,
 187.00A.294 Was then the snow, and milke was not so white;

WHITE-LIVER'D.....1

131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part

WHITENESSE.....2

024.00A.060 And their white, whitenesse of the Galaxy,
 158.00A.233 Compare all whitenesse, but himselfe to none,

WHITHER.....9

001.00A.064 Whither, why, when, or with whom thou wouldst go.
 082.00A.007 Whither, as to the beds-feet life is shrunke,
 130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,
 138.00A.024 But whither, only knowing you, I know;
 154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
 154.00A.003 Whither it take a name nam'd there before,
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 158.00A.400 Who cares not to turn back, may any whither come.

WHITHERED.....1

187.00A.300 And whithered, is like to dry wood growne.

WHO.....257

001.00A.053 But sooner may a cheape whore, who hath beene
 001.00A.057 Sooner may one guesse, who shall beare away
 002.00A.021 And they who write to Lords, rewards to get,
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw
 002.00A.034 Who with sinnes of all kindes as familiar bee
 003.00A.030 To thy foes and his (who made thee to stand
 003.00A.050 But loves her onely, who at Geneva is call'd
 004.00A.023 Stranger then strangers; One, who for a Dane,
 004.00A.076 And for his price doth with who ever comes,
 004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 004.00A.101 He knowes who loves; whom; and who by poyson
 004.00A.103 He knowes who 'hath sold his land, and now doth beg

004.00A.127 Who wasts in meat, in clothes, in horse, he notes;
 004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.
 004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.
 004.00A.128 Who loves Whores, who boyes, and who goats.
 004.00A.154 Who feares more actions, doth hast from prison;
 004.00A.158 Like his, who dreamt he saw hell, did advance
 004.00A.185 At stage, as court; All are players, who e'r looks
 004.00A.220 Who, in the other extreme, only doth
 005.00A.004 May make good Courtiers, but who Courtiers good?)
 005.00A.005 Frees from the sting of jests all who in extreme
 005.00A.008 Who Officers rage, and Suiters misery
 005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust
 005.00A.056 All things follow their like, only, who have, may have more
 005.00A.057 Judges are Gods; he who made and said them so,
 005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 005.00A.073 Rich, who poore, who in chaires, who in jayles:
 005.00A.073 Rich, who poore, who in chaires, who in jayles:
 005.00A.073 Rich, who poore, who in chaires, who in jayles:
 012.00A.020 Scarce visiting them, who are intirely his.
 012.00A.033 She flouts the channell, who thenceforth is drie;
 013.00A.023 As mine: who have with amorous delicacies
 014.NY3.005 To any one: In Flanders, who tan tell
 016.00A.017 Who hath a plow-land, casts all his seed corne there,
 017.00A.046 Who, mightier then the sea, makes Moores seem white,
 017.00A.047 Who, though seaven yeares, she in the Stews had laid,
 019.00A.019 Did nurse it: who now is growne strong enough
 020.00G.001 Who ever loves, if he do not propose
 020.00G.096 As who by glister gives the Stomack meat.
 022.00A.013 Who could have thought so many accents sweet
 029.00A.001 He is starke mad, who ever sayes,
 029.00A.005 Who will beleeve mee, if I sweare
 029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 033.00A.004 Or who cleft the Divels foot,
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 037.00A.003 Her who loves lonenesse best, and her who maskes and plaies,
 037.00A.005 Her who beleeves, and her who tries,
 037.00A.005 Her who beleeves, and her who tries,
 037.00A.006 Her who still weepes with spungie eyes,
 037.00A.007 And her who is dry corke, and never cries;
 037.00A.017 Must I, who came to travaile thorow you,
 039.00A.012 Who saies my teares have overflow'd his ground?
 039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
 042.00A.039 They who one another keepe
 043.00A.015 It kill'd mee againe, that I who still was true,
 045.00A.011 And therefore what thou wert, and who

048.00A.014 (Who Prince enough in one another bee,)
048.00A.025 Who is so safe as wee? where none can doe
049.00A.018 Who have the patterne with you still.
050.00A.011 Faire eyes, who askes more heate then comes from hence,
050.00A.050 I shall ebbe out with them, who home-ward goe.
052.00A.007 Her who from Pindar could allure,
052.00A.041 Who though from heart, and eyes,
052.00A.043 Forsake him who on them relies
052.00A.051 Who the present governe well,
053.00A.024 Who doth not fling away the shell?
056.00A.015 Who e'r rigg'd faire ship to lie in harbors,
058.00A.027 Who e'r sighes most, is cruellest, and hasts the others death.
061.00A.001 Who ever guesses, thinks, or dreames he knowes
061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;
061.00A.010 Make, by but thinking, who hath made him such:
062.00A.045 Wee then, who are this new soule, know,
063.00A.013 But he who lovelinesse within
063.00A.015 For he who colour loves, and skinne,
064.00a.002 Who dyed before the god of Love was borne:
064.00a.003 I cannot thinke that hee, who then lov'd most,
064.00a.021 I should love her, who loves not mee.
066.00A.011 My truth to them, who at the Court doe live;
066.00A.014 My silence to'any, who abroad hath beene;
066.00A.035 Her, who begot this love in mee before,
066.00A.044 Who thinkes her friendship a fit portion
066.00A.053 Love her, who doth neglect both mee and thee,
067.00A.001 Who ever comes to shroud me, do not harme
070.00A.009 Who thought that this device might be some way
074.00A.014 If any who deciphers best,
077.00A.005 I cannot say I lov'd, for who can say
077.00A.009 Wee dye but once, and who lov'd last did die,
082.00A.002 Lucies, who scarce seaven houres herself unmaskes,
082.00A.009 Compar'd with mee, who am their Epitaph.
082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
106.00A.071 She goes a maid, who, least she turne the same,
108.00A.005 Even small birds, who by that courage dare,
108.00A.136 To shew to her, who doth the like impart,
108.00A.150 Who can the Sun in water see.
108.00A.168 Then, reverend Priest, who Gods Recorder art,
109.00A.034 Who when the storm rag'd most, did wake thee then;
110.00A.027 Who live, that miracle do multiply
112.00A.021 Cities are Sepulchers; they who dwell there
112.00A.038 Who know false play, rather then lose, deceive.
114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
128.LR1.006 I pardon death (who though hee do not reap
128.LR1.012 who payes before his death doth scape arest.

130.00A.001 Who makes the Past, a patterne for next yeare,
 131.00B.011 But, as from extreme hights who downward looks,
 131.00B.016 Who are at home but wits mere Atomi.
 131.00B.017 But, I who can behold them move, and stay,
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 131.00B.035 Who first look'd sad, griev'd, pin'd, and shew'd his paine.
 131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.
 131.00B.107 Who dare aspire this journey with a staine,
 133.00A.011 Who lacks but faults to be a Prince, for shee,
 133.00A.033 Who knowes thy destiny? when thou hast done,
 134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,
 135.B13.023 who soe doe make the whole yeare through a springe,
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 138.00A.017 And denizend a stranger, who mistaught
 138.00A.046 Who prayer-lesse labours, or, without this, prayes,
 138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,
 139.00A.003 Who Meteor-like, of stuffe and forme perplext,
 139.00A.033 And turne to God, who knowes I thinke this true,
 140.00A.035 By them, who man to us in little show,
 141.00A.005 Who vagrant transitory Comets sees,
 141.00A.058 But my owne judgement, who did long agoe
 142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament
 142.00A.022 Soe is the Blood sometimes; who ever ran
 142.00A.025 So cloysterall men, who, in pretence of feare
 142.00A.033 Who knowes his Vertues name or place, hath none.
 145.00A.027 (For who can judge, or witsesse of those times
 145.00A.074 Illustrate them who come to study you.
 145.00A.080 Which fortune, who hath none her selfe, doth give,
 146.00A.001 Sorrow, who to this house scarce knew the way:
 148.00A.019 For, such a friendship who would not adore
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 150.00A.015 Who (were Death dead) by Roes of living sand,
 151.00A.024 Who e'r saw Christall Ordinance but would break?
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 151.00A.051 Angels did hand her up, who next God dwell,
 153.00A.022 (Who when hee opes his eyes, must shut them than
 153.00A.032 Him who sees all, seest all concerning thee,
 153.00A.058 Who knew his minutes well, hee might dispose
 153.00A.151 And daily hadst from him, who gave it thee,
 153.00A.203 No more are they, who though with good successe,
 153.00A.212 As he, who takes endeavours, doth require,
 153.00A.230 Him who Triumph'd, were lawfull, it was ty'd
 153.00A.232 Unto the Senate, who this triumph gave;
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 153.00A.257 Who, by my grieffe, great as thy worth, being cast

154.00A.033 (And, who shall dare to aske then when I am
 155.00a.002 Whom all they celebrate, who know they haue one,
 155.00a.003 (For who is sure he hath a soule, vnlesse
 155.00a.005 And by Deedes praise it? He who doth not this,
 155.00a.042 Offers to tell vs who it is that's gone.
 155.00a.114 (loynt tenants of the world) who should suruiue.
 155.00a.127 Where is this mankind now? who liues to age,
 155.00a.136 Contracted to an inch, who was a span.
 155.00a.266 And fright him backe, who els to eyther Pole,
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.317 Shee, who if those great Doctors truely said
 155.00a.322 In her, who caus'd all Ciuill warre to cease.
 155.00a.417 Who, though she could not transubstantiate
 155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
 155.00a.448 Who till his darke short tapers end be spent,
 156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
 156.00a.048 Who liue, and lacke her, here this vantage see?
 156.00a.054 This joy, that we had her, who now is gone.
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 156.00a.064 And whom, who ere had worth enough, desir'd;
 157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse
 157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
 157.00b.111 Who dare not trust a dead mans eye with that,
 157.00b.117 Thinke the a Prince, who of themselues create
 157.00b.143 Shee who was such a Chaine, as Fate emploies
 157.00b.154 (For they're in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 157.00b.201 Who, if shee meete the body of the Sunne,
 157.00b.203 Who finds in Mars his Campe, no corps of Guard;
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.248 And chides vs slow-pac'd snailes, who crawle vpon
 157.00b.303 Shee who all Libraries had throughly red
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse
 157.00b.311 Shee, who in th'Art of knowing Heauen, was growen
 157.00b.349 Vp to th'Apostles, who did brauely runne,
 157.00b.351 Vp to those Martyrs, who did calmyly bleed
 157.00b.353 Vp to those Virgins, who thought that almost
 157.00b.357 Shee, who hath carried thether, new degrees
 157.00b.359 Shee, who beeing to herselfe a state, enjoyd
 157.00b.376 Shee who was all this All, and could not fall
 157.00b.380 All this, in Heauen; whither who doth not striue
 157.00b.417 They who did labour Babels tower t' erect,
 157.00b.431 And lost their onely God, who euer must
 157.00b.440 All will not serue; Onely who haue enjoyd
 157.00b.449 Shee, who had Here so much essentiall ioye,
 157.00b.451 Who with Gods presence was acquainted so,
 157.00b.455 Who kept, by diligent deuotion,

157.00b.459 Who being solicited to any Act,
 157.00b.461 Who by a faithfull confidence, was here
 157.00b.464 Who dreamt deuoutlier, then most vse to pray;
 157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,
 157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion
 157.00b.501 Shee, who left such a body, as euen shee
 157.00b.507 Shee, who by making full perfection grow,

 163.00A.010 But who shall give thee that grace to beginne?
 166.00A.009 But who am I, that dare dispute with thee?
 168.00A.004 Who could do no iniquitie, hath dyed:
 179.NY3.013 Who is most trew, & pleasing to thee, then
 181.00A.007 Who from the picture would avert his eye,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 181.00A.015 Who can blot out the Crosse, which th'instrument
 181.00A.017 Who can deny mee power, and liberty
 182.00A.005 Who, not content to'enlighten all that dwell
 184.00A.010 O Sonne of God, who seeing two things,
 184.00A.045 In vaine, who hath such titles unto you.
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,
 184.00A.206 O Thou who Satan heard'st in Jobs sicke day,
 185.00A.017 Who sees Gods face, that is selfe life, must dye;
 185.00A.031 Who was Gods partner here, and furnish'd thus
 187.00A.004 She was, who now thus tributary is?
 187.00A.031 Who honor'd, scorne her, for her foulnesse they
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,
 187.00A.184 In darke, as they who dead for ever bee.
 187.00A.213 25 The Lord is good to them, who on him relie,
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 188.00E.002 Thou, who dost, best friend, in best things outshine;

189.00B.047 How brave are those, who with their Engine, can
 190.00A.009 And all whom I lov'd there, and who lov'd mee;
 190.00A.020 My soule: Who ever gives, takes libertie:
 191.00B.001 Eternall God, (for whom who ever dare
 191.00B.004 Thee, who art cornerlesse and infinite)
 191.00B.018 And who that Psalme, Now let the Iles rejoyce,
 191.00B.030 Who hath tun'd God and Man, the Organ we:

037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.

WHO'HAD.....1

066.00A.008 By making mee serve her who'had twenty more,

WHO'IN.....1

113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,

WHO'IS.....1

183.00A.007 Shee sees him nothing twice at once, who'is all;

WHO'S.....2

039.00A.010 Alas, alas, who's injur'd by my love?

051.00A.027 Who's therefore true, because her truth kills mee.

WHO-E'R.....1

152.12a.091 I pardon Fate my Life. Who-e'r thou bee

WHOLE.....33

002.00A.067 Idly, like prisoners, which whole months will sweare

003.00A.035 Thee faine, his whole Realme to be quit; and as

004.00A.166 Almost about the whole world, hast thou seene,

006.00D.057 Provide whole books; each leafe enough will be

015.00G.035 To taste whole joyes. Jems which you women use

029.00A.015 By him, as by chain'd shot, whole rankes doe dye,

034.00A.001 Now thou hast lov'd me one whole day,

039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove

044.00A.008 The whole world vapours with thy breath.

082.00A.005 The worlds whole sap is sunke:

082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow

107.00A.028 But make the whole year through, thy day, O Valentine.

121.NY3.017 As Russian Marchants, thy selves whole vessell load,

135.B13.023 who soe doe make the whole yeare through a springe,

136.00A.033 And vertues whole summe is but know and dare .

142.00A.017 In their whole substance, but, their vertues grow

148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;

152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 153.00A.004 A part in Gods great organ, this whole Spheare:
 153.00A.110 Which the whole world, or man, the abridgment hath.
 153.00A.144 Plac'd to informe whole towns, to'mploy their time,
 153.00A.226 Of ev'ry exemplar man, the whole world is,
 153.00A.253 Who at his friends death, made whole townes devest
 155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame
 155.00a.244 Of the whole substance, not to be contrould.
 157.00b.419 All this whole solid Earth could not allow
 157.00b.429 And as by changing that whole precious Gold
 158.00A.050 His right and due, a whole unwasted man may have.

 155.00a.167 This man, whom God did woee, and loth t'attend
 155.00a.174 With her, whom we lament, he lost his hart.
 155.00a.175 She, of whom th'Auncients seem'd to prophesie,
 155.00a.177 She in whom vertue was so much refin'd,
 155.00a.223 She whom wise nature had inuented then
 155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
 155.00a.311 Whom had that Ancient seen, who thought soules made
 155.00a.323 Shee, after whom, what forme soe're we see,
 155.00a.360 If she whom we lament had not beene dead:
 155.00a.361 But shee, in whom all white, and redde, and blue
 155.00a.363 As in an vnnext Paradise; from whom
 155.00a.413 But she, in whom, to such maturity,
 155.00a.444 Of whom is meant what euer hath beene said,
 155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
 156.00a.063 One, whom all men who durst no more, admir'd;
 156.00a.064 And whom, who ere had worth enough, desir'd;
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.164 Whom a small lump of flesh could poison thus.
 157.00b.235 Shee, whom had they knowne, who did first betroth
 157.00b.324 With whom thy conuersation must be there.
 157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station
 157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honor'd) and that this
 157.00b.448 Shee whom we celebrate, is gone before.
 158.00A.002 Whom Fate, which God made, but doth not controule,

 165.00A.006 All whom warre, death, age, agues, tyrannies,
 167.00A.003 For, those, whom thou think'st, thou dost overthrow,
 169.00A.013 But their Creator, whom sin, nor nature tyed,
 172.00A.012 Us whom he'had made, and Satan stolne, to unbinde.
 184.00A.001 Father of Heaven, and him, by whom
 184.00A.058 Whom Nature clear'd more, then us grace and law,
 184.00A.075 From whom whosoever do not take
 184.00A.133 To them whom thou lovest, or that they are maim'd
 184.00A.187 And love it, not him, whom it should reveale,
 187.00A.011 With whom shee dwells, no place of rest afford,
 187.00A.039 Heathen, whom thou command'st, should not doe so,
 187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
 187.00A.165 20 Behold O Lord, consider unto whom
 187.00A.173 22 As to a solemne feast, all whom I fear'd
 187.00A.315 14 Which when those men, whom they made blind, did stray

 036.00A.012 Why shouldst thou thinke?
 046.00A.003 Why should we rise, because 'tis light?
 061.00A.019 And no record tell why:

062.00A.050 Our bodies why doe wee forbear?

064.00a.022 Rebell and Atheist too, why murmure I,

070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,

071.00A.001 When I am dead, and Doctors know not why,

073.00A.006 Oh, why should ought lesse precious, or lesse tough

103.00A.001 Why this man gelded Martiall I muse,

106.00A.062 Why then should not our amorous starre inclose

107.00A.061 And why doe you two walke,

130.00A.042 Else be not froward; But why doe I touch

131.00B.050 Both trembled and were sick, both knew not why.

131.00B.129 Why love among the vertues is not knowne

134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you're lov'd by all,

138.00A.069 Why grudge wee us (not heaven) the dignity

152.12a.027 On Neighbour States; which knew not Why to wake

153.00A.101 O why should then these men, these lumps of Balme

153.00A.105 O Soule, O circle, why so quickly bee

153.00A.129 Why did'st thou not for these give medicines too,

153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,

153.00A.155 O why wouldst thou be any instrument

153.00A.156 To this unnaturall course, or why consent

153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win

153.00A.215 Why shouldst thou Triumph now, when Heav'n no more

155.00a.472 I saw not why verse might not doe so too.

157.00b.051 Be not concern'd: study not why, nor whan;

157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worme, consider more,

157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,

157.00b.288 Why grasse is greene, or why our blood is red,

158.00A.102 That now wee dare aske why wee should be so.

158.00A.455 That why he cannot laugh, and speake his minde,

158.00A.514 Why plowing, building, ruling and the rest,

162.00A.009 Why doth the devill then usurpe on mee?

162.00A.010 Why doth he steale nay ravish that's thy right?

166.00A.004 Cannot be damn'd; Alas; why should I bee?

166.00A.005 Why should intent or reason, borne in mee,

166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?

167.00A.012 And better then thy stroake; why swell'st thou then?

169.00A.001 Why are wee by all creatures waited on?

169.00A.002 Why doe the prodigall elements supply

169.00A.005 Why brook'st thou, ignorant horse, subjection?

169.00A.006 Why dost thou bull, and bore so seelily

178.NY3.009 But why should I begg more Love, when as thou

187.00A.234 39 Why then grieves any man for his misdeeds?

187.00A.385 19 Why should'st thou forget us eternally?

189.00B.026 Why doth the foolish world scorne that profession,

189.00B.027 Whose joyes passe speech? Why do they think unfit

005.00A.006 Are wreched or wicked: of these two a theame
 026.00A.005 Hadst thou the wicked skill
 133.00A.008 But 'tis not all, thou should'st be wicked too.
 155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
 155.00a.374 Tis now but wicked vanity to thinke,
 170.00A.013 To wicked spirits are horrid shapes assign'd,

WICKEDNESSE.....2

184.00A.210 That snatching cramps of wickednesse
 187.00A.085 22 Let all their wickednesse appeare to thee,

WIDDOW.....1

187.00A.002 Thus solitary, and like a widdow thus?

WIDDOW'D.....1

154.00A.014 The household widdow'd, and the garter slack;

WIDDOWES.....1

004.00A.045 In which he can win widdowes, and pay scores,

WIDDOWHOOD.....2

113.00A.001 Like one who'in her third widdowhood doth professe,
 126.00A.018 To tempt thee and procure her widdowhood,

WIDE.....3

010.00A.033 He that to barre the first gate, doth as wide
 108.00A.112 And open wide their easie liquid jawe
 177.00B.004 That valiantly I hels wide mouth o'rstride:

WIDOW'D.....1

137.00A.017 Widow'd and reclus'd else, her sweets she'enshrines

WIDOWED.....1

155.00a.449 As oft as thy feast sees this widowed earth,

WIDOWES.....1

187.00A.353 3 Our mothers are become as widowes, wee

WIDOWHEAD.....1

184.00A.108 And call chast widowhead Virginitie.

WIFE.....6

004.00A.115 Like a bigge wife, at sight of loathed meat,
 093.00A.002 To'hang all old strange things, let his wife beware.
 107.00A.012 And meets his wife, which brings her feather-bed.
 125.00A.008 If from the'embrace of a lov'd wife you rise,
 127.00A.020 Thy Sonne ne'r Ward; Thy lov'd wife ne'r seem old;

158.00A.510 Sister and wife to Caine, Caine that first did plow.

WIFES.....1

141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,

WIGHT.....1

002.00A.078 From Scots, to Wight; from Mount, to Dover strand.

WIL.....3

037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?

106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother

157.00b.327 That wil nor giue thee theirs, nor drinke in thine?

WILD.....3

001.00A.012 And follow headlong, wild uncertaine thee?

016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,

016.00A.030 To runne all countries, a wild roguery;

WILDE.....1

018.00B.021 Nor tame wilde Boreas harshnesse; Thou hast reade

WILDERNESSE.....2

187.00A.280 As do the Owles in the vast Wildernesse.

187.00A.366 For in the wildernesse, the sword did wait.

WILL.....189

001.00A.062 Our subtile wittied antique youths will weare;

002.00A.067 Idly, like prisoners, which whole months will sweare

002.00A.077 Shortly (as the sea) hee will compasse all the land;

002.00A.080 Satan will not joy at their sinnes, as hee.

003.00A.049 Crants to such brave Loves will not be intrall'd,

003.00A.059 Imbraceth her, whom his Godfathers will

003.00A.080 Cragg'd, and steep, Truth stands, and hee that will

003.00A.085 To will, implyes delay, therefore now doe

003.00A.095 At the last day? Will it then boot thee

004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will

004.00A.211 Him not so much as good will, he arrests,

004.00A.219 But here comes Glorius that will plague them both,

005.00A.052 'Gainst whom thou should'st complaine, will in the way

006.00D.001 Oh to what height will love of greatnesse drive

006.00D.055 So will thy booke in peeces; for a Lord

006.00D.057 Provide whole books; each leafe enough will be

008.00B.051 Much hope which they should nourish will be dead.

008.00B.053 Will vanish, if thou love let them alone,

008.00B.079 But, thou art resolute; Thy will be done;

009.00A.053 Leave her, and I will leave comparing thus,

010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,

010.00A.023 And politiquely will to thee confesse
010.00A.072 To'embalme thy fathers corse; What? will hee die?
011.00A.031 There we will scorne his household policies,
012.00A.036 Carelesse despaire in mee, for that will whet
012.00A.044 I will renounce thy dalliance: and when I
014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
014.NY3.034 But we will rest that we may fight agayne.
015.00G.042 (Whom their imputed grace will dignifie)
017.00A.020 A perfect song, others will undertake,
017.00A.037 Oh what a soveraigne Plaister will shee bee
017.00A.056 For, things in fashion every man will weare.
018.00B.029 To thy selfe onely. All will spie in thy face
018.00B.037 Will quickly know thee, and no lesse, alas!
018.00B.040 Will hunt thee with such lust, and hideous rage,
021.00G.073 I will not look upon the quickning Sun,
021.00G.104 As I will never look for less in you.
022.00A.027 Sooner I'll thinke the Sunne will cease to cheare
022.00A.029 Sooner that rivers will runne back, or Thames
025.00A.023 That will none,
026.00A.007 How many wayes mightst thou performe thy will?
026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
027.00A.002 And wee will some new pleasure prove
027.00A.005 There will the river whispering runne
027.00A.007 And there th'inamor'd fish will stay,
027.00A.011 Will amorously to thee swimme,
028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,
028.00A.008 Will, if thou stirre, or pinch to wake him, thinke
028.00A.010 And in false sleepe will from thee shrinke,
028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
028.00A.014 What I will say, I will not tell thee now,
029.00A.005 Who will beleeve mee, if I sweare
030.00B.001 Stand still, and I will read to thee
030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.
033.00A.026 Will bee
036.00A.007 Goe tell Court-huntsmen, that the King will ride,
037.00A.010 Will no other vice content you?
037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
038.00A.002 I will allow,
038.00A.021 Doe thy will then, then subject and degree,
039.00A.008 Contemplate, what you will, approve,
039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
039.00A.030 Our legends bee, it will be fit for verse;
041.00A.031 But wee will have a way more liberal,
043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
045.00A.028 'Twixt womens love, and mens will ever bee.
049.00A.005 Thine eye will give it price enough, to mock

049.00A.030 Which tile this house, will come againe.
 052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
 052.00A.016 No schismaticque will dare to wound,
 052.00A.053 In this thy booke, such will there something see,
 052.00A.058 But absence tryes how long this love will bee;
 057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.
 060.00A.027 Will wast, as this flea's death tooke life from thee.
 063.00A.023 Which will no faith on this bestow,
 063.00A.027 And a braver thence will spring
 064.00a.015 But every moderne god will now extend
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 067.00A.007 Will leave this to controule,
 068.00A.007 That it will freeze anon, and that I shall
 068.00A.020 Here lyes my businesse, and here I will stay:
 068.00A.038 I will give you
 069.00A.028 Or if this will not serve their turne, Since all
 070.00A.007 Will he not let'us alone,
 070.00A.014 Then, he that digges us up, will bring
 071.00A.003 Will have me cut up to survay each part,
 071.00A.006 Will through all their senses move,
 072.00A.023 Will outstrip hers; As bullets flowen before
 075.00A.005 Wee aske none leave to love; nor will we owe
 077.00A.003 Hee thinkes that else none can or will agree,
 080.00E.004 For he loves against his will;
 080.00E.014 Will make me his jest or slave
 080.00E.023 I will vent that humour then
 081.HH5.043 my dull minde to revenge that I will leaue
 081.HH5.044 to thee for thine owne guilt will that begett
 081.HH5.045 falshood in others will noe more appeare
 081.HH5.052 all other loves & I will pardon thee
 082.00A.037 But I am None; nor will my Sunne renew.
 094.00A.001 Thy father all from thee, by his last Will
 098.00A.002 To'be understood, when will hee be beleev'd.
 106.00A.057 His steeds will bee restrain'd,
 106.00A.093 This Sun will love so dearely
 107.00A.032 All lesser birds will take their Jollitie.
 107.00A.067 The masquers come too late, and'I thinke, will stay,
 107.00A.104 As Satyres watch the Sunnes uprise, will stay
 107.00A.108 And wagers lay, at which side day will breake,
 107.00A.111 This will be tryed to morrow after nine,
 108.00A.191 The masks and banquets will not yet impart
 108.00A.234 Backe to the Court, and I will lay'it upon
 109.00A.047 And as sin-burd'ned soules from grave will creepe,
 110.00A.055 Wee have no power, no will, no sense; I lye,
 113.00A.022 So wee, If wee into our selves will turne,
 114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
 115.00A.002 Will give thee leave, to him; My pain, & pleasure

122.00A.008 It is my Will, my selfe the Legacie.
126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.
129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:
129.00A.022 Honour alone will to your fortune fit;
131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
131.00B.072 And cannot be remov'd, unlesse she will.
131.00B.108 Hath waight will force him headlong backe againe.
138.00A.073 Vertue hath some perversenesse; For she will
138.00A.086 And make her do much good against her will,
139.00A.024 Will vanish soone, and so possesse no place,
139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
139.00A.038 He will perplex security with doubt,
139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,
139.00A.054 And scape spies, to good ends, and hee will show
139.00A.061 From need of teares he will defend your soule,
139.00A.063 Hee cannot, (that's, he will not) dis-inroule
141.00A.003 Canons will not Church functions you invade,
141.00A.056 Are more above all flattery, then my will.
147.00B.007 My fortune and my will this custome breake,
148.00A.038 Expans'd in infinite, none will impaire;
150.00A.009 Now hee will seeme to spare, and doth more wast,
150.00A.013 Nor will this earth serve him; he sinkes the deepe
151.00A.058 Earth too, will be a Lemnia; and the tree
152.12a.048 And will not lett's enjoy our Curse, to Dye?
153.00A.019 Subject to change, will scarce be'a type of this,
153.00A.140 Or be not set, or set at every will;
153.00A.180 All that they will, 'gainst the Triumpher say,
155.00a.059 I (since no man can make thee liue) will trie,
155.00a.436 The body will not last out to haue read
155.00a.450 Will yearely celebrate thy second birth,
156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
156.00a.031 For since death will proceed to triumph still,
157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,
157.00b.013 His eies will twinckle, and his tongue will roll,
157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
157.00b.232 Of all in her some one part there will bee
157.00b.337 In Nailles, and Haires, yea excrements, will show;
157.00b.338 So will the poyson of sinne, in the most low.
157.00b.362 Did not ouerthrow, but rectifie her will:
157.00b.440 All will not serue; Onely who haue enjoyd
157.00b.474 If thy Prince will his subjects to call thee
157.00b.523 Since his will is, that to posteritee,

158.00A.053 It selfe; for I will through the wave, and fome,
 158.00A.064 Whose story, with long patience you will long;
 158.00A.080 This Soule, made by the Makers will from pulling free.
 158.00A.105 His creatures will, crosse his? Of every man
 158.00A.106 For one, will God (and be just) vengeance take?
 158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
 158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call
 158.00A.361 Who will revenge his death? or who will call
 158.00A.366 Nor will against such men the people goe,
 158.00A.014 any mans debt, how my stocke will hold out I know not; perchance
 158.00A.019 that hath lighted mee a candle to the place. All which I will bid
 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can 160.00A.035 Starres, and wisemen will travell to prevent
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 164.00A.005 And gluttonous death, will instantly unjoynt
 173.00A.014 Is all but love; Oh let this last Will stand!
 181.00A.045 For if the'eye seeke good objects, and will take
 184.00A.069 Thy will, and it expresse
 187.00A.070 I have rebell'd against his holy will;
 187.00A.084 Will come, when, as I suffer, so shall they.
 187.00A.212 And therefore in him will I hope alone.
 187.00A.221 30 He gives his cheekes to whosoever will
 187.00A.231 37 Who then will say, that ought doth come to passe,
 187.00A.324 Who never will regard them more; No grace
 187.00A.346 The Lord will not leave thee in banishment.
 187.00A.347 Thy sinnes O Edoms daughter, hee will see,
 190.00A.007 Which, though they turne away sometimes, They never will despise.

WILL'D.....1

137.00A.026 And will'd your Delegate, the vulgar Sunne,

WILLELMJ.....1

197.F01.004 Willelmj Equit: Nept:

WILLING.....1

158.00A.485 And willing halfe and more, more then halfe Tooth

WILLINGLY.....2

004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;

010.00A.071 All my perfumes, I give most willingly

WILLINGNESSE.....1

131.00B.044 An unripe willingnesse which nothing did,

WILLS.....3

147.00B.005 Others by Wills give Legacies, but I

173.00A.007 Hath made two Wills, which with the Legacie

182.00A.015 Leaden and iron wills to good, but is

WILT.....33

001.00A.015 Thou wilt not leave mee in the middle street,
 001.00A.023 Wilt thou grin or fawne on him, or prepare
 001.00A.033 That wilt consort none, untill thou have knowne
 001.00B.081 Or thou ô Elephant, or Ape wilt doe,
 003.00A.029 O desperate coward, wilt thou seeme bold, and
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 005.00A.045 Where wilt thou appeale? powre of the Courts below
 006.00D.017 When wilt thou be at full, great Lunatique?
 008.00B.054 For thou wilt love me lesse when they are gone,
 027.00A.009 When thou wilt swimme in that live bath,
 028.00A.012 Bath'd in a cold quicksilver sweat wilt lye
 031.00A.033 Such wilt thou be to mee, who must
 033.00A.014 Thou, when thou retorn'st, wilt tell mee
 034.00A.002 To morrow when thou leav'st, what wilt thou say?
 034.00A.003 Wilt thou then Antedate some new made vow?
 038.00A.001 For every houre that thou wilt spare mee now,
 044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
 046.00A.002 O wilt thou therefore rise from me?
 047.00A.013 But thou wilt lose the stile of conquerour,
 068.00A.018 Subtile to plague thy selfe, wilt say,
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
 133.00A.015 Thou wilt not long dispute it, thou wilt die;
 157.00b.290 In this low forme, poore soule what wilt thou doe?
 157.00b.291 When wilt thou shake of this Pedanterie,
 157.00b.325 With whom wilt thou Conuerse? what station
 158.00A.015 And wilt anon in thy loose-rein'd careere
 166.00A.014 I thinke it mercy, if thou wilt forget,
 172.00A.001 Wilt thou love God, as he thee! then digest,
 193.00A.001 Wilt thou forgive that sinne where I begunne,
 193.00A.003 Wilt thou forgive that sinne; through which I runne,
 193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne
 193.00A.009 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I did shunne

WILT'NOT.....1

162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.

WILY.....1

016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,

WIN.....5

004.00A.045 In which he can win widdowes, and pay scores,
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 107.00A.109 And win by'observing, then, whose hand it is

153.00A.207 Why should'st thou then, whose battailes were to win

158.00A.491 And whether by this change she lose or win,

WINDE.....8

005.00A.024 The winde which drives them; and a wastfull warre

022.00A.011 And blowne away with winde? Or doth their breath

033.00A.008 What winde

042.00A.025 When thou sigh'st, thou sigh'st not winde,

058.00A.023 Let not the winde

109.00A.013 From out her pregnant intrailles sigh'd a winde

110.00A.020 Have no more winde then the upper valt of aire.

110.00A.049 He that at sea prayes for more winde, as well

WINDES.....1

108.00A.009 Whil'st windes do all the trees and hedges strip

WINDOWE.....1

001.00A.106 At last his Love he in a windowe spies,

WINDOWES.....2

036.00A.003 Through windowes, and through curtaines call on us?

158.00A.254 Though with great windowes, for when need first taught

WINDOWIE.....1

027.00A.020 With strangling snare, or windowie net:

WINDS.....2

002.00A.060 Then when winds in our ruin'd Abbeyes rore;

109.00A.027 The South and West winds joyn'd, and, as they blew,

WINE.....4

004.00A.236 Living barrells of beefe, flaggons of wine.

050.00A.026 There he, as wine in lune, enrages blood,

051.00A.020 And take my teares, which are loves wine,

157.00b.427 (For as the Wine, and Corne, and Onions are

WINEPRESSE.....1

187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath

WING.....1

174.00B.013 Thy Grace may wing me to prevent his art

WING'D.....1

122.00A.016 Havens are Heavens, and Ships wing'd Angels be,

WINGED.....1

149.00A.050 Surpasse all speed, by him are winged too:

WINGEF.....1

092.NY3.0HE II Caualliere Gio: Wingef:

WINGEFIELD.....1

092.NY3.005 Farther then Wingefield no man dares to go.

WINGS.....5

012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,042.00A.016 More wings and spurres then hee.045.00A.023 Then as an Angell, face, and wings181.00A.022 Looke up, thou seest birds rais'd on crossed wings;189.00B.019 Or, as we paint Angels with wings, because

WINKE.....3

028.00A.006 Then thy sicke taper will begin to winke,036.00A.013 I could eclipse and cloud them with a winke,185.00A.020 It made his footstoole crack, and the Sunne winke.

WINKS.....1

021.00G.051 Of becks, winks, looks, and often under-boards

WINNE.....4

003.00A.082 And what the hills suddennes resists, winne so;012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne112.00A.014 Dwell there: But Oh, what refuge canst thou winne131.00B.071 I can love first, and (if I winne) love still;

WINTER.....10

021.00G.081 The Winter I'll not think on to spite thee,051.00A.010 'Twere wholsomer for mee, that winter did054.00A.005 Me thinkes I lyed all winter, when I swore,054.00A.028 No winter shall abate the springs encrease.106.00A.049 Winter dayes bring much delight,106.00A.055 Hee flies in winter, but he now stands still,120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,121.NY3.018 And then at Winter retaile it here abroad.190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,190.00A.013 In winter, in my winter now I goe,

WINTER-SEEMING.....1

059.00A.012 But get a winter-seeming summers night.

WISDOME.....3

008.00B.072 Wisdome and knowledge; but, 'tis turn'd to ill:108.00A.068 Wisdome, and honour from the use of Kings.140.00A.002 Wisdome makes him an Arke where all agree;

WISE.....22

001.00A.080 Then the wise politique horse would heretofore,
 003.00A.003 I must not laugh, nor weepe sinnes, and be wise,
 004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 012.00A.038 Was ne'r so wise, nor well arm'd as disdainē.
 020.00G.022 Till I both be, and find one wise and good?
 020.00G.056 Wise Delphick Oracles do fill the ear;
 040.00A.022 Who are a little wise, the best fooles bee.
 053.00A.007 If then at first wise Nature had,
 079.00B.023 After such pleasures, unlesse wise
 108.00A.086 An earnest lover, wise then, and before.
 113.00A.017 Wise, valiant, sober, just, are names, which none
 122.00A.010 Bred in thee by a wise melancholy,
 131.00B.061 Love is wise here, keepes home, gives reason sway,
 138.00A.076 Vertue hath some, but wise degrees of vice.
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:
 155.00a.223 She whom wise nature had inuented then
 155.00a.334 To satisfie wise, and good lookers on,
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 158.00A.349 How shall a Tyran wise strong projects breake,
 158.00A.383 Of beasts; who thought, no more had gone, to make one wise
 158.00A.473 This Ape, though else through-vaine, in this was wise,
 184.00A.030 Which, as wise serpents diversly

WISEDOME.....1

108.00A.174 Till honor, yea till wisedome grow so stale,

WISELY.....6

003.00A.077 May all be bad; doubt wisely, in strange way
 020.00G.091 Rich Nature hath in women wisely made
 057.00A.005 Therefore thou wakd'st me wisely; yet
 124.00A.007 Some turnes into lesse Creekes, and wisely take
 133.00A.026 And wisely; what discourse is left for thee?
 156.00a.058 Wisely bestow'd, and layd it all on one.

WISEMAN.....1

040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,

WISEMANS.....1

136.00A.040 Discretion is a wisemans Soule, and so

WISEMEN.....1

160.00A.035 Starres, and wisemen will travell to prevent

WISER.....4

004.00A.107 Toll to some Courtier; And wiser then all us,

027.00A.028 Alas, is wiser farre then I.

130.00A.032 That she returnes home, wiser then she went;

137.00A.042 And make it wit, to thinke the wiser fooles:

WISEST.....1

158.00A.460 And wisest of that kinde, the first true lover was.

WISH.....17

022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?

029.00A.031 My ragges of heart can like, wish, and adore,

069.00A.012 I wish; a sixe, or foure;

081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue

109.00A.074 That though thine absence sterve me, 'I wish not thee.

110.00A.007 As steady'as I can wish, that my thoughts were,

114.00A.011 Because I wish thee best, doe thee envie:

127.00A.021 But maist thou wish great things, and them attaine,

152.12a.096 These Lines, you wish I knew Your Historie:

154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;

154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;

154.00A.041 Thy wish to wish all there, to wish them cleane;

154.00A.042 Wish him a David, her a Magdalen.

158.00A.282 Ill unto man, they neither doe, nor wish:

158.00A.352 Onely attempt to doe, what all doe wish.

188.00E.001 GoD grant thee thine own wish, and grant thee mine,

188.00E.012 God grant thee thine own wish, & grant thee mine.

WISH'D.....3

106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings

106.00A.088 And at the Bridegroomes wish'd approach doth lye,

155.00a.291 Of their wish'd iourneys end, the bottom, dye.

WISHES.....3

050.00A.012 He in a fever wishes pestilence.

081.HH5.038 to change my happiest wishes to this curse

108.00A.173 Live, till all grounds of wishes faile,

WISHETH.....2

163.00A.006 Wisheth himselfe delivered from prison;

163.00A.008 Wisheth that still he might be imprisoned;

WISHING.....2

111.00A.014 With wishing prayers, and neat integritie,

150.00A.066 By wishing, though they never told her what.

WIT.....25

005.00A.035 O Age of rusty iron! Some better wit

006.00D.060 Measures; and fill out for the half-pint wit:

006.00D.069 Pilfer alas a little wit from you;
 013.00A.016 Were all the love trickes, that thy wit could reach;
 039.00A.023 The Phoenix riddle hath more wit
 044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
 049.00A.045 To looke on one, whose wit or land,
 059.00A.024 Sweetnesse, and wit they'are, but, Mummy, possest.
 066.00A.033 And to my company my wit;
 080.00E.013 Nor he that hath wit, for he
 114.00A.004 Of wit and Art I love not but admire;
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 133.00A.030 And wit, and vertue,'and honour her attend,
 136.00A.044 These two, and dare to breake them; nor must wit
 137.00A.042 And make it wit, to thinke the wiser fooles:
 150.00A.052 Of beauty,'and wit, apt to doe harme, be lost?
 155.00a.207 The Sunne is lost, and th'earth, and no mans wit
 157.00b.442 For it is both the object, and the wit.
 160.00A.045 Blowing, yea blowing out those sparks of wit,
 161.00A.014 Wit, whose one spark could make good things of bad.
 184.00A.189 Only to vent wit, Lord deliver us.
 184.00A.239 That wit, borne apt, high good to doe
 190.00A.025 On Fame, Wit, Hopes (false mistresses) to thee.
 191.00B.003 And thrust into strait corners of poore wit

WIT-PIRATS.....1

006.00D.065 Nor shall wit-pirats hope to finde thee lye

WITCHCHRAFTS.....1

002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms

WITCHES.....2

017.00A.052 Then witches, which impossibles confesse.

071.00A.018 My Gyants, and my Witches too,

WITHALL.....1

056.00A.016 And not to seeke new lands, or not to deale withall?

WITHDRAW.....2

126.00A.005 Then weane thy selfe at last, and thee withdraw

181.00A.010 Nor scandall taken, shall this Crosse withdraw,

WITHDREW.....2

082.00A.027 Withdrew our soules, and made us carcasses.

108.00A.092 All this, and onely therefore I withdrew

WITHER.....5

003.00A.036 The worlds all parts wither away and passe,

061.00A.002 Who is my mistris, wither by this curse;
 112.00A.005 But I should wither in one day, and passe
 119.NY3.010 Allthough our bodyes wither & minds Languish.
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,

WITHERED.....3

003.00A.039 Dost love a withered and worne strumpet; last,
 145.00A.009 Since now, when all is withered, shrunk, and dri'd,
 155.00a.189 Thy better Growth growes withered, and scant;

WITHERING.....1

109.00A.018 Withering like prisoners, which lye but for fees,

WITHHOLD.....1

126.00A.022 Not my will only but power doth withhold.

WITHIN.....21

002.00A.104 Those bought lands? not built, nor burnt within dore.
 002.00A.112 Within the vast reach of th'huge statute lawes.
 009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.
 019.00A.009 My body'a sack of bones, broken within,
 021.00G.012 Did not the fire within me force a light.
 050.00A.039 Whose Eyes seeke light within, for all here's shade;
 062.00A.024 Within convenient distance stood,
 063.00A.013 But he who lovelinesse within
 078.00D.016 Within the Writings which thou hast adress.
 080.00E.020 Within shee's worth no more.
 108.00A.107 And should'st within five dayes expire
 108.00A.159 Which thy inflaming eyes have made within his lo-ving heart.
 136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
 137.00A.036 Of Temples frames, and beauty,'as Rites within.
 155.00a.263 They haue empayld within a Zodiacke
 156.00a.060 Because it neede disguise no thought within.
 157.00b.457 Within her heart, that what decay was grown,
 157.00b.506 As strong Records for God, as mindes within,
 158.00A.190 One, that within a moneth, will beate him from his hen.
 181.00A.062 Within our hearts, when wee love harmlesly
 187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.

WITHOUT.....31

004.00A.025 If he had liv'd then; And without helpe dies,
 004.00A.112 To say Gallo-Belgicus without booke
 009.00A.026 Or grave, that's dust without, and stinke within.
 022.00A.045 May he without remorse deny God thrice,
 032.00A.018 Without sharpe North, without declining West?
 032.00A.018 Without sharpe North, without declining West?
 071.00A.016 And without such advantage kill me then.

108.00A.034 Where in darke places, fire without light doth dwell:
 108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
 109.00A.005 By a worse painter made; and (without pride)
 112.00A.055 Sinke like a lead without a line: but as 114.00A.020 Extoll, without suspect of surquedrie,
 131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,
 131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.
 136.00A.030 Through which all things within without were shown.
 138.00A.046 Who prayer-lesse labours, or, without this, prayes,
 145.00A.079 So, though I'am borne without those eyes to live,
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 150.00A.022 And how without Creation didst begin?
 153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see
 155.00a.044 When sickenes without remedy, empayres
 155.00a.308 Is left vs, is without proportion.
 156.00a.040 Repolish'd, without error then to stand,
 157.00b.403 Without this Honour, and then lou'd it so,
 158.00A.309 A great ship overset, or without saile
 158.00A.316 Swimme in him swallowed Dolphins, without feare,
 158.00A.479 Her kidskinne apron without feare or awe
 187.00A.024 Which still pursues them, without strength they go.
 187.00A.080 The sword without, as death within, doth wast.
 187.00A.123 Amongst the heathen, without law, nor there
 187.00A.354 As Orphans all, and without fathers be;

WITHSTOOD.....1

141.00A.012 For, Art and Nature this in them withstood.

WITLESSE.....1

004.00A.015 As vaine, as witlesse, and as false as they

WITNESSE.....3

010.00A.038 Could never witnesse any touch or kisse;
 145.00A.027 (For who can judge, or witnesse of those times
 187.00A.138 A witnesse, or comparison for thee?

WITS.....15

002.00A.026 Others wits fruits, and in his ravenous maw
 004.00A.191 Their beauties; they the mens wits; Both are bought.
 004.00A.192 Why good wits ne'r weare scarlet gownes, I thought
 004.00A.193 This cause, These men, mens wits for speeches buy,
 004.00A.238 Seas of Wits and Arts, you can, then dare,
 048.00A.002 All glory of honors, beauties, wits,
 106.00A.027 Ye painted courtiers, barrels of others wits,
 124.00A.011 Which draw all wits of good hope to their crew;
 131.00B.016 Who are at home but wits mere Atomi.
 133.00A.035 Whither all noble ambitious wits doe runne,

156.00a.010 In workes of hands, or of the wits of men?
 157.00b.037 These Hymes may worke on future wits, and so
 157.00b.333 That wits and tongues of Libellars are weake,
 184.00A.164 Which is still the agonie of pious wits,
 184.00A.223 From hearing bold wits jeast at Kings excesse,

WITT.....1

181.00A.058 Crosse and correct concupiscence of witt.

WITTALS.....1

005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;

WITTIED.....1

001.00A.062 Our subtile wittied antique youths will weare;

WITTY.....3

022.00A.042 In plaguing him, let misery be witty;
 078.00D.015 Nor witty Lines, which are most copious,
 153.00A.073 Witty, now wise, now temperate, now just:

WITTY'S.....1

155.00a.099 How witty's ruine? how importunate

WIVE.....1

158.00A.086 Tooke it, and t'her whom the first man did wive

WIVES.....3

003.00A.061 Take such wives as their Guardians offer, or
 153.00A.250 As Saxon wives, and French soldarii did;
 158.00A.431 Some have their wives, their sisters some begot,

WOE.....9

021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 055.00A.021 A tender shame make me mine owne new woe.
 131.00B.076 But am no porter for a tedious woe.
 158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 165.00A.008 Shall behold God, and never tast deaths woe,
 168.00A.014 Hee might be weake enough to suffer woe.
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 178.NY3.010 Dost woe my Soule for hers; offering all thine:
 187.00A.377 15 Now is the crowne falne from our head; and woe

WOES.....1

151.00A.057 The ravenous earth that now woes her to be,

WOLFE.....5

140.00A.013 Can use his horse, goate, wolfe, and every beast,

158.00A.407 With this wolfe, that it bred his losse and woe;
 158.00A.410 That the wolfe, (hopelesse else) to corrupt her, intends.
 158.00A.434 This wolfe begot himselfe, and finished
 158.00A.449 From dogges, a wolfe; from wolves, a dogge he fled;

WOLVES.....5

022.00A.048 May Wolves teare out his heart, Vultures his eyes,
 158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,
 158.00A.428 By the Wolves death; and now just time it was
 158.00A.444 He, as his dam, from sheepe drove wolves away,
 158.00A.449 From dogges, a wolfe; from wolves, a dogge he fled;

WOMAN.....31

011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,
 020.00G.010 One woman first, and then one thing in her.
 020.00G.021 Makes virtue woman? must I cool my bloud
 020.00G.024 Make love to woman; virtue is not she:
 033.00A.018 Lives a woman true, and faire.
 044.00A.011 The fairest woman, but thy ghost,
 063.00A.018 Vertue' attir'd in woman see,
 068.00A.028 Is to a woman, but a kinde of Ghost;
 069.00A.009 That 'tis not a mere woman, that is shee,
 069.00A.010 But must, or more, or lesse then woman bee.
 069.00A.013 For should my true-Love lesse then woman bee,
 069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
 069.00A.019 Falshood in woman, I could more abide,
 069.00A.026 Belongs unto each woman, then
 069.00A.027 Each woman may take halfe us men,
 071.00A.021 Kill mee as Woman, let mee die
 121.NY3.010 As a Woman deliuerd yesterday.
 133.00A.044 Marke, if she marke whether her woman came.
 141.00A.009 In woman so perchance milde innocence
 141.00A.020 So low as woman, should be neare her end.
 141.00A.030 'Tis not as woman, for all are not soe,
 141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,
 149.00A.058 That woman can no parts of friendship bee;
 155.00a.101 Euen Gods purpose; and made woman, sent
 155.00a.106 One woman at one blow, then kill'd vs all,
 156.00a.078 Woman, shee went away, before sh'was one.
 158.00A.091 Man all at once was there by woman slaine,
 158.00A.161 No lustfull woman came this plant to grieve,
 158.00A.216 Man to beget, and woman to conceive
 158.00A.509 To be a woman. Themech she is now,
 187.00A.068 Is as an uncleane woman amongst them.

WOMAN'S.....1

022.00A.001 To make the doubt cleare, that no woman's true,

WOMAN-HEAD.....1

070.00A.003 (For graves have learn'd that woman-head

WOMANKIND.....1

056.00A.004 If on womankind he might his anger wreake,

WOMANKINDE.....1

052.00A.040 Transferr'd from Love himselfe, to womankinde.

WOMANLY.....1

018.00B.030 A blushing womanly discovering grace;

WOMANS.....4

081.HH5.020 with shame t'haue hopd for womans constancy

131.00B.055 So passion is to womans love, about,

131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.

134.00A.032 That ever did in womans shape appeare.

WOMBE.....9

009.00A.036 Which in the Lymbecks warme wombe doth inspire

106.00A.040 Then may thy leane and hunger-starved wombe

155.00a.453 When man doth die. Our body's as the wombe,

158.00A.025 Of fowles, and beasts, in whose wombe, Destinie

158.00A.317 And feele no sides, as if his vast wombe were

158.00A.494 Like Chimiques equall fires, her temperate wombe

160.00A.020 In prison, in thy wombe; and though he there

184.00A.041 Whose wombe was a strange heav'n, for there

184.00A.155 Into the Virgin, whose wombe was a place

WOMBES.....1

108.00A.025 When from those wombes of starres, the Brides bright eyes,

WOMBS.....1

155.00a.386 And false-conceptions fill the generall wombs.

WOMEN.....30

003.00A.064 Knowing some women whores, dares marry none.

003.00A.066 As women do in divers countries goe

004.00A.194 And women buy all reds which scarlets die.

015.00G.035 To taste whole joyes. Jems which you women use

015.00G.040 For lay-men are all women thus arrayed.

016.00A.005 Women, are like the Arts, forc'd unto none,

016.00A.010 Women are made for men, not him, nor mee.

016.00A.012 Shall women, more hot, wily, wild then these,

017.00A.029 Women are all like Angels; the faire be

020.00G.017 All these in women we might think upon

020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 020.00G.019 Can men more injure women then to say
 020.00G.091 Rich Nature hath in women wisely made
 022.00A.009 Are vowes so cheape with women, or the matter
 022.00A.023 O I prophane, though most of women be
 044.00A.002 All women so, when thou art gone,
 053.00A.008 Made women either good or bad,
 059.00A.023 Hope not for minde in women; at their best,
 066.00A.006 To women or the sea, my teares;
 069.00A.023 And women, whom this flower doth represent,
 069.00A.030 First into this five, women may take us all.
 070.00A.019 All women shall adore us, and some men;
 131.00B.036 Was he that first taught women, to disdain.
 131.00B.065 Who strives through womans scornes, women to know.
 155.00a.204 Like sonnes of women after fifty bee.
 155.00a.423 Some women haue some taciturnity;
 187.00A.030 Remov'd, as women in uncleannesse bee;
 187.00A.166 Thou hast done this; what, shall the women come
 187.00A.303 10 Women by nature pitifull, have eate
 187.00A.370 By force, and so women in Sions us'd.

WOMENS.....4

045.00A.028 'Twixt womens love, and mens will ever bee.
 051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
 101.NY3.001 Thou call'st me effeminat, for I love womens ioyes
 130.00A.016 With womens milke, and pappe unto the end.

WONDER.....9

017.00A.025 All love is wonder; if wee justly doe
 032.00A.001 I wonder by my troth, what thou, and I
 052.00A.029 Is love or wonder) may finde all they seeke,
 107.00A.040 Ends of much wonder; And be Thou those ends,
 146.00A.003 This strange chance claimes strange wonder, and to us
 156.00a.029 Wonder and loue; And these were shee; and shee
 158.00A.513 Let me arrest thy thoughts, wonder with mee,
 169.00A.011 But wonder at a greater wonder, for to us
 169.00A.011 But wonder at a greater wonder, for to us

WONDERFULL.....1

017.00A.026 Account her wonderfull, why not lovely too?

WONDERS.....5

033.00A.015 All strange wonders that befell thee,
 106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maime,
 141.00A.006 Wonders, because they're rare; But a new starre
 158.00A.456 He wonders. Much with all, most he doth stay
 160.00A.048 It sodenly speakes wonders, whence comes it,

WONDRED.....1

155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:

WONDROUS.....1

160.00A.039 Was not his pity towards thee wondrous high,

WONNE.....7

112.00A.069 I throughly love. But if my selfe, I have wonne

120.00A.011 Going to where sterne winter aye doth wonne,

136.00A.010 For when from herbs the pure part must be wonne

151.00A.015 Was't not enough to have that palace wonne,

157.00b.008 By force of that force which before, it wonne,

157.00b.137 Whose euen constitution might haue wonne

193.00A.007 Wilt thou forgive that sinne which I have wonne

WONT.....1

010.00B.007 Though he had wont to search with glazed eyes,

WOOD.....3

187.00A.300 And withthered, is like to dry wood growne.

187.00A.356 And upon our owne wood a price they lay,

187.00A.374 And children fell under the wood they bare.

WOOD-BINE.....1

009.00A.028 The wood-bine quivering, are her armes and hands,

WOODDEN.....2

001.00A.002 Leave mee, and in this standing woodden chest,

003.00A.018 Thee in ships woodden Sepulchers, a prey

WOODEN.....1

151.00A.059 That wraps that christall in a wooden Tombe,

WOODS.....3

002.00A.103 Where are those spred woods which cloth'd hertofore

003.00A.107 Through mills, & rockes, & woods, and at last, almost

127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare

WOOE.....5

046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth wooe.

060.00A.007 Yet this enjoyes before it wooe,

079.00B.015 Blindly admire, and with such worship wooe;

155.00a.167 This man, whom God did wooe, and loth t'attend

158.00A.465 The valters sombersalts, or us'd to wooe

WOOES.....1

002.00A.048 And wooes in language of the Pleas, and Bench:

WORD.....16

022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word
 025.00A.015 Word and oath,
 068.00A.032 But take my word, shee doth not know a Heart.
 075.00A.007 Goe; and if that word have not quite kil'd thee,
 075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,
 082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)
 149.00B.044 That Gods Word must be true, All sinners be.
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see
 157.00b.330 And for the word of God, vent them agen?
 160.00A.047 The Word but lately could not speake, and loe
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 184.00A.191 Of him which speakes, diminishes the Word,
 184.00A.205 Thine eare to'our sighes, teares, thoughts gives voiceand word.
 187.00A.154 Fulfill'd his word of old determined;
 188.00E.008 Nor thy word, ever mild, know quarrelling.
 192.00B.028 And as to others soules I preach'd thy word,

WORDS.....27

002.00A.057 Of affidavits: words, words, which would teare
 002.00A.057 Of affidavits: words, words, which would teare
 002.00A.100 Hard words, or sense; or in Divinity
 002.00A.102 Shrewd words, which might against them cleare the doubt:
 002.00A.111 Like old rich wardrops; but my words none drawes
 003.00A.028 Or eate thy poysonous words, courage of straw!
 004.00A.062 His tongue, he praised it, and such words told
 004.00A.223 He cares not, His ill words doe no harme
 005.00A.072 Speakes Fates words, and tells who must bee
 011.00A.020 With words, nor touch, scarce lookes adulterate.
 012.00A.003 Poorely enrich't with great mens words or lookes;
 013.00A.013 Remember since all thy words us'd to bee
 013.00A.025 Thy graces and good words my creatures bee,
 017.00A.018 In the leane dearth of words, what could wee say?
 018.00B.004 Which my words masculine perswasive force
 020.00G.035 So we her ayres contemplate, words and heart,
 021.00G.052 Spoak dialogues with our feet far from our words?
 021.00G.101 Much more I could, but many words have made
 022.00A.014 Form'd into words, so many sighs should meete
 050.00A.023 In all her words, unto all hearers fit,
 081.HH5.010 free sovereignty doe guild their words & deeds
 108.00A.094 Words to expresse it, makes a man a grave
 122.00A.006 Hath my name, words, hand, feet, heart, minde and wit;
 133.00A.022 Her early child mispeake halfe uttered words,
 151.00A.003 If we could sigh out accents, and weepe words,
 158.00A.418 Where deeds move more then words; nor doth she show,

183.00A.043 So though the least of his paines, deeds, or words,

WORE.....1

154.00A.025 So sent this body that faire forme it wore,

WORKE.....34

003.00A.084 Thy Soule rest, for none can worke in that night,

004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,

006.00D.009 Infinite worke, which doth so far extend,

022.00A.058 Delight, not in made worke, but whiles they make;

024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.

024.00A.004 Thee, her best worke, to her worke cannot draw.

030.00B.018 Will worke upon our selves, and blind our eyes.

045.00A.019 Ev'ry thy haire for love to worke upon

063.00A.011 Such stuffe to worke upon, there is,)

071.00A.007 And worke on them as mee, and so preferre

075.00A.009 Oh, if it have, let my word worke on mee,

114.00A.023 Thy worke but thine: how good it were to see

133.00A.018 A miracle; and made such to worke more,

138.00A.065 But who ere saw, though nature can worke soe,

138.00A.088 Vice hath no office, or good worke to doe.

141.00A.051 If they were so, oft, flatteries worke as farre,

145.00A.061 I reverence; His power to worke on mee;

149.00A.014 Doth worke upon itselfe, with inborne stings.

150.00A.045 Both worke a separation, no divorce.

153.00A.117 When he doth faintly worke, and when prevaile,

153.00A.147 So worke the faults of age, on which the eye

155.00a.155 We seeme ambitious, Gods whole worke t'vndoe;

155.00a.165 To worke on their rebellions, and reduce

155.00a.402 Would worke more fully'and pow'rfully on vs.

157.00b.037 These Hymes may worke on future wits, and so

157.00b.435 Then, soule, to thy first pitch worke vp againe;

158.00A.009 A worke t'outweare Seths pillars, bricke and stone,

158.00A.417 Embracements of love; to loves worke he goes,

162.00A.011 Except thou rise and for thine owne worke fight,

174.00B.001 Thou hast made me, And shall thy worke decay,

181.00A.061 Then doth the Crosse of Christ worke faithfully

184.00A.184 And worke despaire a breach to enter in,

187.00A.276 Which are the worke of a poore Potters hand.

191.00B.013 That worke againe, and shed it, here, upon

WORKEMAN.....1

058.00A.011 A workeman that hath copies by, can lay

WORKES.....17

002.00A.110 Good workes as good, but out of fashion now,

016.00A.001 Although thy hand and faith, and good workes too,

024.00A.003 Verse that drawes Natures workes, from Natures law,
 062.00A.057 On man heavens influence workes not so,
 113.00A.012 Mens workes, vanity weighs as much as sinne.
 113.00A.028 So workes retirednesse in us; to rome
 114.00A.006 Their workes, though toughly laboured, will bee
 140.00A.041 In all it workes not, but it is in all
 146.00A.005 Tis well his lifes loud speaking workes deserve,
 149.00A.019 And leaves embroderd workes upon the sand,
 155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
 156.00a.010 In workes of hands, or of the wits of men?
 157.00b.154 (For they're in Heauen on Earth, who Heauens workes do,)
 157.00b.200 Workes not on her, who now is growen all Ey;
 158.00A.025 no unreadinesse in the soule, but an indisposition in the organs workes this. And
 160.00A.009 The ends crowne our workes, but thou crown'st our ends,
 181.00A.057 So when thy braine workes, ere thou utter it,

WORKING.....4

054.00A.010 And of the Sunne his working vigour borrow,
 155.00a.412 That vnto vs; she working more then it.
 158.00A.266 Or working parts like mills, or limbecks hath
 187.00A.266 64 Give them rewards Lord, for their working fit

WORKS.....3

008.00B.073 As these should doe good works; and should provide
 066.00A.020 All my good works unto the Schismaticks
 188.00E.009 Nor thy works, ever equall, know disguise,

WORLD.....106

004.00A.166 Almost about the whole world, hast thou seene,
 005.00A.013 Then man is a world; in which, Officers,
 005.00A.017 Prove the world a man, in which, officers
 006.00D.018 Not till thou exceed the world? Canst thou be like
 014.NY3.028 Into an other World, as t'is to dy?
 015.00G.006 But a far fairer world incompassing.
 021.00G.088 The world enjoyes in Mass, and so we may.
 021.00G.100 Think, heaven hath motion lost, and the world, fire:
 022.00A.031 Or Nature, by whose strength the world endures,
 032.00A.014 Let us possesse one world, each hath one, and is one.
 036.00A.028 To warme the world, that's done in warming us.
 042.00A.003 Nor in hope the world can show
 044.00A.006 To leave this world behinde, is death,
 044.00A.007 But when thou from this world wilt goe,
 044.00A.008 The whole world vapours with thy breath.
 044.00A.014 Shall burne this world, had none the wit
 058.00A.016 A globe, yea world by that impression grow,
 058.00A.018 This world, by waters sent from thee, my heaven dis-solved so.
 066.00A.047 The world by dying; because love dies too.

082.00A.011 At the next world, that is, at the next Spring:
 082.00A.024 Drownd the whole world, us two; oft did we grow
 091.NY3.002 To the new world your kindled valors bend
 100.00A.001 Compassion in the world againe is bred:
 108.00A.050 Is man is of the world, the heart of man,
 109.00A.040 If the world had lasted, now it had beene day.
 109.00A.068 Claim'd o'r this world, and to heaven hath chas'd light.
 118.NY3.007 Or art thou parted from the world & mee
 130.00A.030 Into this world, corruptions sinke, is sent,
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 138.00A.062 What ere the world hath bad, or pretious,
 138.00A.067 We've added to the world Virginia,'and sent
 138.00A.087 But in your Commonwealth or world in you
 140.00A.040 All the round world, to man is but a pill,
 149.00A.001 Man is the World, and death th'Ocean,
 149.00A.012 We, after Gods Noe, drowne the world againe.
 149.00A.027 Annuls this world, to recompence it, shall,
 151.00A.031 Shee chang'd our world with hers; now she is gone,
 152.12a.006 All that this naturall World doth comprehend;
 152.12a.022 (More then if whole Hell belcht) the World to shake,
 152.12a.058 Nor hath our World now other soule then That.
 153.00A.027 All the world growes transparent, and I see
 153.00A.110 Which the whole world, or man, the abridgment hath.
 153.00A.226 Of ev'ry exemplar man, the whole world is,
 155.00a.011 This world, in that great earth-quake languished;
 155.00a.015 Whether the world did loose or gaine in this,
 155.00a.020 And so the world had fits; it ioy'd, it mournd.
 155.00a.023 So thou, sicke world, mistak'st thy selfe to bee
 155.00a.056 Sicke world, yea dead, yea putrified, since shee
 155.00a.063 Let no man say, the world it selfe being dead,
 155.00a.067 For there's a kind of world remaining still,
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.075 Which, from the carcasse of the old world, free,
 155.00a.076 Creates a new world; and new creatures be
 155.00a.087 This new world may be safer, being told
 155.00a.114 (loynt tenants of the world) who should suruiue.
 155.00a.196 The world did in her Cradle take a fall,
 155.00a.201 So did the world from the first houre decay,
 155.00a.231 Whose hauing breath'd in this world, did bestow
 155.00a.235 She to whom this world must it selfe refer,
 155.00a.238 Thou knowst how lame a cripple this world is.
 155.00a.326 Thou knowst how vgly a monster this world is:
 155.00a.341 And had the world his iust proportion,
 155.00a.359 Perchance the world might haue recouered,
 155.00a.370 Thou knowst how wan a Ghost this our world is:
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 155.00a.428 Thou knowest how drie a Cinder this world is.

156.00a.020 Verse to liue so long as the world will now.
 156.00a.021 For her death wounded it. The world containes
 156.00a.030 Being spent, the world must needes decrepit bee.
 156.00a.033 Except the world it selfe, so great as shee.
 156.00a.053 So now the sicke staru'd world must feed vpone
 156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you
 156.00a.071 So the world studied whose this peece should be,
 157.00b.002 That this world had an euerlastingnesse,
 157.00b.021 So struggles this dead world, now shee is gone;
 157.00b.040 The world, which else would putrify with vice.
 157.00b.049 Forget this rotten world; And vnto thee,
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.055 The World is but a Carkas; thou art fed
 157.00b.058 When this world will grow better then before,
 157.00b.061 Forget this world, and scarce thinke of it so,
 157.00b.067 Shee, to whom all this world was but a stage,
 157.00b.071 Who could not lacke, what ere this world could giue,
 157.00b.073 Nor could complaine, that this world was vnfit,
 157.00b.082 What fragmentary rubbidge this world is
 157.00b.110 That they confesse much in the world, amisse,
 157.00b.196 Whether in that new world, men liue, and die.
 157.00b.227 This low world, to so high a mark, as shee,)
 157.00b.378 More Antidote, then all the world was ill,)
 157.00b.423 No more affoord this world, foundatione
 157.00b.468 Who made this world in some proportion
 157.00b.471 But could this low world ioyes essentiall touch,
 157.00b.525 And that the world should notice haue of this,
 158.00A.005 And the great world to his aged evening;
 160.00A.032 Weake enough, now into our world to come;
 164.00A.014 For thus I leave the world, the flesh the devill.
 173.00A.005 This Lambe, whose death, with life the world hath blest,
 175.00B.001 I am a little world made cunningly
 175.00B.008 Drowne my world with my weeping earnestly,
 178.NY3.014 Least the World, fleshe, yea Deuill putt thee out.
 182.00A.003 Sleepe then, and rest; The world may beare thy stay,
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 184.00A.180 To this world, ere this world doe bid us goe.
 187.00A.310 In the inhabitable world beleeve,
 189.00B.026 Why doth the foolish world scorne that profession,
 189.00B.035 Let then the world thy calling disrespect,

WORLD'S.....4

009.00A.015 Round as the world's her head, on every side,
 036.00A.026 In that the world's contracted thus.
 112.00A.052 Bee thine owne Palace, or the world's thy goale;
 155.00a.209 And freely men confesse, that this world's spent,

WORLDLING.....1

108.00A.049 More of heavens glory, then a worldling can.

WORLDS.....48

003.00A.031 Sentinell in his worlds garrison) thus yeeld,
 003.00A.036 The worlds all parts wither away and passe,
 003.00A.037 So the worlds selfe, thy other lov'd foe, is
 013.00A.021 That from the worlds Common having sever'd thee,
 018.00B.036 Of Players, which upon the worlds stage be,
 032.00A.012 Let sea-discoverers to new worlds have gone,
 032.00A.013 Let Maps to other, worlds on worlds have showne,
 032.00A.013 Let Maps to other, worlds on worlds have showne,
 039.00A.040 Who did the whole worlds soule contract, & drove
 044.00A.009 Or if, when thou, the worlds soule, goest,
 052.00A.020 Or as the worlds forme, this all-graved tome
 082.00A.005 The worlds whole sap is sunke:
 091.NY3.001 If you from spoyle of th' old worlds fardest end
 106.00A.059 Thou shalt, when he hath come the worlds half frame,
 108.00A.177 Raise heires, and may here, to the worlds end, live
 110.00A.019 Earths hollownesses, which the worlds lungs are,
 111.00A.010 In this worlds warfare, they whom rugged Fate,
 112.00A.053 And in the worlds sea, do not like corke sleepe
 114.00A.032 All the worlds Lyon, though I be thy Ape.
 118.NY3.008 In a good skorn of the worlds vanitee?
 122.00A.029 If men be worlds, there is in every one
 122.00A.031 All the worlds riches: And in good men, this
 134.00A.031 The first good Angell, since the worlds frame stood,
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 141.00A.017 If the worlds age, and death be argued well
 145.00A.011 All the worlds frame being crumbled into sand,
 153.00A.102 Sent hither, the worlds tempest to becalme,
 155.00a.065 The worlds infirmities, since there is none
 155.00a.161 Thus man, this worlds Vice-Emperor, in whom
 155.00a.191 Then, as mankinde, so is the worlds whole frame
 155.00a.219 This is the worlds condition now, and now
 155.00a.225 Did in their voyage in this worlds Sea stray,
 155.00a.240 That this worlds generall sicknesse doth not lie
 155.00a.246 The worlds infection, to be none of it.
 155.00a.247 For the worlds subtilst immateriall parts
 155.00a.249 For the worlds beauty is decayd, or gone,
 155.00a.302 The worlds proportion disfigured is,
 155.00a.346 All the worlds parts of such complexion bee.
 155.00a.377 Nor in ought more this worlds decay appears,
 155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
 156.00a.079 And the worlds busie noyse to ouercome,
 157.00b.004 Since both this lower worlds, and the Sunnes Sunne,
 157.00b.234 Inough to make twenty such worlds as this;

158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 170.00A.001 What if this present were the worlds last night?
 173.00A.006 Was from the worlds beginning slaine, and he
 175.00B.004 My worlds both parts, and (oh) both parts must die.
 184.00A.134 From reaching this worlds sweet, who seek thee thus,

WORME.....5

009.00A.025 Thine's like worme eaten trunkes, cloth'd in seals skin,
 009.00A.044 As a worme sucking an invenom'd sore?
 157.00b.056 By it, but as a worme, that carcas bred;
 157.00b.057 And why shouldst thou, poore worme, consider more,
 158.00A.110 The worme and she, and he, and wee endure for it.

WORME-EATEN.....1

147.00B.016 Our soules become worme-eaten Carkasses.

WORME-SEED.....1

079.00B.040 'Tis but applying worme-seed to the Taile.

WORMES.....8

005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 044.00A.012 But corrupt wormes, the worthyest men.
 108.00A.153 Are dust, and wormes, 'tis just
 108.00A.154 Our objects be the fruits of wormes and dust;
 138.00A.064 That stones, wormes, frogges, and snakes in man are seene:
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 157.00b.118 Wormes which insensibly deuoure their state.

WORMEWOOD.....1

187.00A.197 Hath made me drunke with wormewood. 16 He hath burst

WORMWOOD.....1

187.00A.204 My wormwood, hemlocke, and affliction,

WORNE.....7

001.00A.054 Worne by as many severall men in sinne,
 003.00A.004 Can railing then cure these worne maladies?
 003.00A.039 Dost love a withered and worne strumpet; last,
 050.00A.040 Whose mouthes are holes, rather worne out, then made
 072.00A.012 But ne'r worne out by loves securitie,
 185.00A.027 Made durt of dust, or that flesh which was worne
 187.00A.181 4 Hee hath broke my bones, worne out my flesh and skinne,

WORSE.....30

001.00A.025 For better or worse take mee, or leave mee:
 002.00A.064 Worse then imbrothel'd strumpets prostitute.

004.00A.090 Into an edge, hurts worse: So, I foole found,
 004.00A.160 I saw at court, and worse, and more; Low feare
 004.00A.227 He strives to looke worse, he keepes all in awe;
 005.00A.020 How much worse are Suiters, who to mens lust
 005.00A.021 Are made preyes. O worse then dust, or wormes meat,
 005.00A.036 Call it some worse name, if ought equall it;
 017.00A.030 Like those which fell to worse; but such as shee,
 028.00A.005 And thee fain'd vestall in worse armes shall see;
 056.00A.014 But we are made worse then those.
 064.00a.027 Falshood is worse then hate; and that must bee,
 081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
 081.HH5.040 & every change may be from worse to worse
 095.NY3.004 A sallet, worse then Spanish dyeting.
 109.00A.005 By a worse painter made; and (without pride)
 111.00A.009 But that the next to'him, still, is worse then hee.
 112.00A.010 That though then pitch they staine worse, wee must touch.
 140.00A.017 Them to a headlong rage, and made them worse:
 155.00a.030 But this is worse, that thou art speechlesse growne.
 155.00a.093 And can there be worse sicknesse, then to know
 155.00a.160 And with new phisicke, a worse Engin farre.
 155.00a.338 Wicked is not much worse then indiscreet.
 157.00b.309 Are but a new, and worse edition,
 157.00b.377 To worse, by company; (for shee was still
 157.00b.415 But that another man, which takes a worse,
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 181.00A.013 Better were worse, for, no affliction
 184.00A.089 Of death, or of worse life: for Oh, to some

WORSHIP.....2

079.00B.004 Worship, as Atheists at their dying houre
 079.00B.015 Blindly admire, and with such worship woee;

WORSHIP'D.....2

008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:
 045.00A.004 Angells affect us oft, and worship'd bee,

WORST.....17

002.00A.025 But hee is worst, who (beggarly) doth chaw
 003.00A.075 Hee's not of none, nor worst, that seekes the best.
 006.00D.053 Worst malefactors, to whom men are prize,
 021.00G.067 Do thy great worst, my friend and I have armes,
 046.00A.009 This were the worst, that it could say,
 046.00A.014 Oh, that's the worst disease of love,
 064.00a.023 As though I felt the worst that love could doe?
 065.00A.006 That which love worst endures, discretion.
 112.00A.019 Cities are worst of all three; of all three

112.00A.020 (O knottie riddle) each is worst equally.
 138.00A.002 Worst of spirituall vices, Simony,
 138.00A.004 Then worst of civill vices, thanklessnesse.
 141.00A.016 May apt soules, and the worst may vertue know.
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 157.00b.053 For though to erre, be worst, to try truths forth,
 160.00A.061 But Oh! the worst are most, they will and can,
 181.00A.039 And then as worst surfets, of best meates bee,

WORTH.....23

002.00A.010 Is poore, disarm'd, like Papists, not worth hate:
 004.00A.235 No token of worth, but Queenes man, and fine
 006.00D.072 For every peece is as much worth as all.
 019.00A.014 Doe his hurts reach mee? doth my worth decay?
 021.00G.065 Oh fortune, thou'rt not worth my least exclame,
 058.00A.004 And by this Mintage they are something worth,
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 080.00E.020 Within shee's worth no more.
 109.00A.004 By Hilliard drawne, is worth an history,
 112.00A.067 Having from these suck'd all they had of worth,
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 138.00A.030 No knowledge of your worth, it some of it.
 145.00A.067 So am I debtor unto them, whose worth,
 153.00A.257 Who, by my griefe, great as thy worth, being cast
 155.00a.073 Her worth; And though she haue shut in all day,
 155.00a.090 Or couet things, when they their true worth know.
 155.00a.432 Is worth our trauaile, griefe, or perishing,
 156.00a.064 And whom, who ere had worth enough, desir'd;
 157.00b.054 Is far more busines, then this world is worth.
 157.00b.083 Thou knowest, and that it is not worth a thought;
 157.00b.370 To all our actions all the worth they haue:
 158.00A.245 Fate not affording bodies of more worth
 185.00A.039 O thinke mee worth thine anger, punish mee,

WORTHIE.....1

142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee

WORTHIEST.....2

145.00A.048 As, that another is worthiest, and, that you:
 157.00b.320 (Taking herselfe) our best, and worthiest booke.

WORTHINESSE.....1

155.00a.004 It see, and ludge, and follow worthinesse,

WORTHLESSE.....1

009.00A.037 Into th'earths worthlesse part a soule of gold,

WORTHY.....10

003.00A.006 As worthy of all our Soules devotion,
 018.00B.016 Thee, onely worthy to nurse in my minde,
 018.00B.044 England is onely a worthy Gallerie,
 020.00G.037 Nor is the soul more worthy, or more fit
 106.00A.047 For, the best Bride, best worthy of praise and fame,
 114.00A.022 Worthy thy quill, nor any quill resound
 131.00B.110 In that pure region of a worthy love:
 140.00A.048 All worthy bookes; and now are such an one.
 166.00A.010 O God, Oh! of thine onely worthy blood,
 184.00A.054 Worthy their sight, though blinde in how they see.

WORTHYEST.....3

044.00A.012 But corrupt wormes, the worthiest men.
 137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthiest things
 157.00b.390 Beauty? (And Beauty worthiest is to moue)

WOULD.....184

001.00A.080 Then the wise politique horse would heretofore,
 002.00A.017 One would move Love by rithmes; but witchcrafts charms
 002.00A.057 Of affidavits: words, words, which would teare
 003.00A.034 Strivest to please: for hate, not love, would allow
 004.00A.020 A thing, which would have pos'd Adam to name,
 004.00A.028 One, to whom, the examining Justice sure would cry,
 004.00A.061 By travaile. Then, as if he would have sold
 004.00A.067 You would leave lonelinesse; I said, not alone
 004.00A.088 He would not flie; I chaff'd him; But as Itch
 004.00A.197 Would not Heraclitus laugh to see Macrine,
 004.00A.213 So much as at Rome would serve to have throwne
 004.00A.216 Pursevant would have ravish'd him away
 005.00A.062 Should pay fees as here, Daily bread would be
 005.00A.063 Scarce to Kings; so'tis, would it not anger
 006.00D.003 Venice vast lake thou hadst seen, & would seek than,
 006.00D.076 And rather then read all, I would reade none.
 008.00B.035 Of some great Conjurer that would enforce
 008.00B.047 I would not spit to quench the fire they'are in,
 008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:
 008.00B.087 One that would suffer hunger, nakednesse,
 008.00B.088 Yea death, ere he would make your number lesse.
 008.00B.114 Because 'tis cordiall, would twere at thy heart.
 010.00A.009 Though hee hath oft sworne, that hee would remove
 010.00A.017 And, when she takes thy hand, and would seeme kind,
 010.00A.045 Had it beene some bad smell, he would have thought
 011.00A.027 But if, as envious men, which would revile
 017.00A.050 Midwifes would sweare, 'twere but a tympanie,
 017.00G.054 Would be as loath to touch as Joseph was.
 020.00G.045 Smooth, 'tis a Paradiice, where we would have

021.00G.008 It would not forme one thought dark as mine are.
021.00G.061 Till fortune, that would ruine us with the deed,
022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
022.00A.030 With ribs of Ice in June would bind his streames;
022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
024.00A.056 When I would kisse, teares dimme mine eyes, and glasse.
029.00A.007 Who would not laugh at mee, if I should say,
029.00A.022 Mine would have taught thine heart to show
033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
034.00A.015 Dispute, and conquer, if I would,
036.00A.014 But that I would not lose her sight so long:
037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
040.00A.004 But where's that wiseman, that would not be I,
040.00A.005 If she would not deny?
041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
045.00A.017 With wares which would sinke admiration,
046.00A.010 That being well, I faine would stay,
046.00A.012 That I would not from him, that had them, goe.
053.00A.013 If they were good it would be seene,
054.00A.014 Love sometimes would contemplate, sometimes do
055.00A.002 Would for a given Soule give something too.
055.00A.023 Because I would not thy first motions trust;
056.00A.003 Thought his paine and shame would be lesser,
057.00A.002 Would I have broke this happy dreame,
057.00A.018 Excesse of joy would wake me, and cam'st then,
057.00A.030 Will dreame that hope againe, but else would die.
059.00A.021 Would sweare as justly, that he heares,
060.00A.009 And this, alas, is more then wee would doe.
061.00A.023 That he would faine be theirs, whom he hath bred,
063.00A.012 Would love but as before:
065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
069.00A.002 Where, if Heav'n would distill
069.00A.015 Be more then woman, shee would get above
070.00A.021 I would have that age by this paper taught
073.00A.012 She that, Oh, broke her faith, would soon breake thee.
074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
079.00B.026 This; as shee would man should despise
103.00A.002 Except himselfe alone his tricks would use,
107.00A.091 That neither would, nor needs forbear, nor stay,
108.00A.062 Stuffe well dispos'd, and which would faine be gold,
108.00A.095 Of his owne thoughts; I would not therefore stay
108.00A.111 The passage of the West or East would thaw,
108.00A.185 Would, as the flood, destroy all fowle and beast.
108.00A.187 That the earth mov'd, this day would make it true;
109.00A.050 Like jealous husbands, what they would not know.
109.00A.051 Some sitting on the hatches, would seeme there,

112.00A.045 They would like strangers greet themselves, seeing then
 113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
 113.00A.036 But to know, that I love thee'and would be lov'd.
 122.00A.004 Shapes soe like those Shapes, whom they would ap-peare,
 122.00A.025 Eclipse the light which Guyana would give,
 128.LR1.005 Would loose your loue for Ireland: better cheap
 129.00A.018 It such an audience as your selfe would aske;
 130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.024 Like some white-liver'd dotard that would part
 131.00B.046 That found a want, but knew not what would please.
 133.00A.052 Would faine love him that shall be lov'd of her.
 134.00A.007 So would I, not to encrease, but to expresse
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee,'I would not misse you there
 135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
 135.B13.032 noe paper (though it would bee glad to drinke
 136.00A.008 Kings, whom they would have honoured, to us show,
 136.00A.053 Who so would change, do covet or repent;
 137.00A.043 So in this pilgrimage I would behold
 137.00A.071 Who hath seene one, would both; As, who had bin
 137.00A.072 In Paradise, would seeke the Cherubin.
 138.00A.034 Is halfe excuse, wee know not what we would.
 139.00A.011 In recompence I would show future times
 142.00A.007 Nor would I be a Convertite so cold,
 145.00A.029 Where he that would be good, is thought by all
 146.00A.018 But life by death, which worst foes would allow,
 148.00A.019 For, such a friendship who would not adore
 149.00A.051 So would her soule, already'in heaven, seeme then,
 150.00A.061 Had she persever'd just, there would have bin
 150.00A.062 Some that would sinne, mis-thinking she did sinne.
 150.00A.063 Such as would call her friendship, love, and faine
 151.00A.013 Knew'st thou some would, that knew her not, lament,
 151.00A.024 Who e'r saw Christall Ordinance but would break?
 151.00A.043 Who if her vertues would have let her stay
 151.00A.062 Of grieffe, for all would waste a Stoicks heart.
 152.12a.028 Till Hee discoverd what wayes Hee would take:
 152.12a.031 And Others studies, how Hee would be bent,
 152.12a.035 Was it not well believ'd, that Hee would make
 152.12a.047 Would ease vs much, doth he grudge Miserie,
 152.12a.060 Forgetting This, their new loy would desire
 152.12a.078 That w'haue no Reason, would proue we had some:
 152.12a.079 So would iust Lamentations: Therefore Wee
 152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
 153.00A.063 For as, hee that would say, spirits are fram'd
 153.00A.070 It would have let him live to have beene old,
 153.00A.076 When they would exercise, lacke time, and space.
 153.00A.163 Which word I would not name, but that I see

153.00A.165 Now I grow sure, that if a man would have
 154.00A.022 And, having lost that beauty, would have none,
 155.00a.017 But goodnes, to see her, whom all would see,
 155.00a.138 Or shipwrack'd in the Sea, one would haue laid
 155.00a.140 That met him, would not hastily assaile
 155.00a.288 The floating Moone would shipwracke there, and sink?
 155.00a.293 As one might iustly thinke, that there would rise
 155.00a.312 Of Harmony, he would at next haue said
 155.00a.389 Earth such new wormes, as would haue troubled much,
 155.00a.402 Would worke more fully'and pow'rfully on vs.
 155.00a.406 It would be (if not follow'd) wondred at:
 155.00a.407 And all the world would be one dying Swan,
 155.00a.439 So the worlds carcasse would not last, if I
 155.00a.442 Them their disease, who faine would think they're wel.
 155.00a.464 That song: because he knew they would let fall,
 156.00a.015 And can shee, who no longer would be shee,
 156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie
 156.00a.089 Would thinke that eyther destiny mistooke,
 157.00b.040 The world, which else would putrify with vice.
 157.00b.141 To whose proportions if we would compare
 157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,
 157.00b.240 They would haue giuen her one for euey limme;
 157.00b.305 So much good as would make as many more:
 157.00b.307 Who would or doe, or thinke well, and confesse
 157.00b.316 (For so much knowledge, as would ouer-fraite
 157.00b.409 Whom they would haue so honor) and that this
 157.00b.472 Heauens accidentall ioyes would passe them much.
 158.00A.103 Would God (disputes the curious Rebell) make
 158.00A.104 A law, and would not have it kept? Or can
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 158.00A.186 A mouth he opes, which would as much containe
 158.00A.259 Who, though himselfe distrest, would faine haue slain
 158.00A.308 This fish would seeme these, and, when all hopes faile,
 158.00A.420 His prey, for, were shee loose, she would not barke, nor goe.
 158.00A.437 A ridling lust, for which Schoolemen would misse
 158.00A.442 And Abell (the dam dead) would use this new
 158.00A.475 There was, and he knew not she would say nay;
 158.00A.492 She comes out next, where the Ape would haue gone in,
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my 160.00A.040 That would haue need to be pittied by thee?
 164.00A.012 To where they're bred, and would presse me, to hell.
 171.00A.009 Yet dearely'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,
 180.NY3.003 A constant habit; that when I would not
 181.00A.003 Would I haue profit by the sacrifice,
 181.00A.007 Who from the picture would avert his eye,
 181.00A.008 How would he flye his paines, who there did dye?
 182.00A.010 Hasting to Heaven, would, that he might allow

182.00A.021 He would have justly thought this body a soule,
 183.00A.036 That he would be a man, and leave to be:
 183.00A.039 His imitating Spouse would joyne in one
 183.00A.042 Accepted, would have serv'd, he yet shed all;
 183.00A.044 Would busie a life, she all this day affords;
 184.00A.016 Part not from it, though it from thee would part,
 184.00A.081 Mee, when my comment would make thy word mine.
 187.00A.144 False burthens, and false causes they would see.
 187.00A.309 12 Nor would the Kings of the earth, nor all which live
 187.00A.319 15 Would cry aloud, depart defiled men,
 187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
 191.00B.005 I would but blesse thy Name, not name thee now;
 191.00B.036 That I must not rejoyce as I would doe
 191.00B.041 This be reform'd; Would a whole State present

WOULD'ST.....9

011.00A.001 Fond woman which would'st have thy husband die,
 011.00A.011 Thou would'st not weepe, but jolly,'and frolicke bee,
 073.00A.003 What would'st thou say? shall both our properties by thee bee spoke
 076.00A.004 And forty'on hopes, that thou would'st, they might last.
 108.00A.013 If thou thy faults or fortunes would'st lament
 108.00A.143 Which if without such ashes thou would'st weare,
 108.00A.145 Are meant for, Phoebus, would'st be Phaeton,
 150.00A.050 Her yeares, would'st thou, O emulous death, do so?
 190.00A.017 But thou would'st have that love thy selfe: As thou

WOULDST.....14

001.00A.064 Whither, why, when, or with whom thou wouldst go.
 005.00A.084 Thou wouldst for more; and for all hast paper
 006.00D.016 That thou on th'other half wouldst never touch.
 096.00A.006 In this case, as thou wouldst be done unto,
 108.00A.194 To sit up, till thou faine wouldst sleep?
 114.00A.012 O wouldst thou, by like reason, pittie mee,
 153.00A.149 Why wouldst not thou then, which hadst such a soule,
 153.00A.155 O why wouldst thou be any instrument
 153.00A.238 That thou so earely wouldst abandon us;
 157.00b.033 Immortal Mayd, who though thou wouldst refuse
 157.00b.262 Euen thy selfe: yea though thou wouldst but bend
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 157.00b.519 But thou wouldst not; nor wouldst thou be content,
 184.00A.085 Thou in thy scatter'd mystique body wouldst

WOUND.....9

052.00A.016 No schismaticke will dare to wound,
 135.B13.014 as safe as spirits are from any wound,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,
 153.00A.139 If these clockes be not wound, or be wound still,

155.00a.025 Her death did wound, and tame thee than, and than
 155.00a.027 That wound was deepe, but 'tis more misery,
 155.00a.248 Feele this consuming wound, and ages darts.
 182.00A.002 As yet, the wound thou took'st on friday last;
 184.00A.139 That in that hope, wee wound our soule away,

WOUNDED.....2

156.00a.021 For her death wounded it. The world containes
 187.00A.135 And in the street like wounded persons lay

WOUNDS.....3

009.00A.051 And nice in searching wounds the Surgeon is
 052.00A.048 Love and their art alike it deadly wounds,
 142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,

WRACKS.....1

158.00A.068 And mend the wracks of th'Empire, and late Rome,

WRANGLING.....1

044.00A.013 O wrangling schooles, that search what fire

WRAP.....1

006.00D.061 Some shall wrap pils, and save a friends life so,

WRAP'T.....1

156.00a.017 In paper wrap't; Or, when she would not lie

WRAPP'D.....1

192.00B.026 So, in his purple wrapp'd receive mee Lord,

WRAPS.....1

151.00A.059 That wraps that christall in a wooden Tombe,

WRAPT.....1

021.00G.026 I saw the golden fruit, 'tis wrapt away.

WRASTLERS.....1

158.00A.119 As wrastlers, perfects them; Not liberties

WRATH.....17

018.00B.007 I calmely beg. But by thy fathers wrath,
 021.00G.032 Thy wrath, to make her fortune run my fate.
 034.00A.007 Of Love, and his wrath, any may forswear?
 140.00A.028 As kills we know not how; his fiercest wrath
 160.00A.096 Oh, with thy owne blood quench thy owne just wrath,
 166.00A.008 To God, in his sterne wrath, why threatens hee?
 187.00A.048 Done to mee in the day of his fierce wrath?

187.00A.060 Trod upon Juda's daughter in his wrath.
 187.00A.092 Forgot his foot-stoole in the day of wrath?
 187.00A.097 3 In heat of wrath, the horne of *Israe*l hee
 187.00A.104 'Gainst whom his wrath, he poured forth, like fire.
 187.00A.112 Her King, her Priest, his wrath regardeth not.
 187.00A.171 Them in the day of thy wrath thou hast slaine,
 187.00A.174 Thou call'st about mee; when his wrath appear'd,
 187.00A.178 Under the rod of Gods wrath having beene,
 187.00A.239 Pursuest us, kill'st us, coverest us with wrath,
 187.00A.306 His indignation, and powr'd forth his wrath,

WRATHS.....2

004.00A.050 How have I sinn'd, that thy wraths furious rod,
 187.00A.090 His wraths thicke cloud? and from heaven hath flung.

WREAKE.....3

056.00A.004 If on womankind he might his anger wreake,
 158.00A.350 If wreches can on them the common anger wreake?
 158.00A.467 To make his mistresse merry; or to wreake

WREATH.....1

067.00A.003 That subtile wreath of haire, which crowns my arme;

WREATH'D.....1

187.00A.054 Which wreath'd, and cast upon my neck, hath broke

WRECH.....1

022.00A.037 Whilst he, black wrech, betray'd each simple word

WRECHED.....2

005.00A.006 Are wreched or wicked: of these two a theame
 158.00A.375 Got the streight cloyster of a wreched mouse

WRECHEDNESSE.....1

138.00A.080 Quenching compassion of our wrechednesse.

WRECHES.....1

158.00A.350 If wreches can on them the common anger wreake?

WRETCH.....10

002.00A.011 One, (like a wretch, which at Barre judg'd as dead,
 003.00A.093 Foole and wretch, wilt thou let thy Soule be tyed
 005.00A.088 O wretch that thy fortunes should moralize
 010.00A.044 Smelt gunpowder, the pale wretch shivered;
 028.00A.011 And then poore Aspen wretch, neglected thou
 036.00A.005 Sawcy pedantique wretch, goe chide
 059.00A.018 That loving wretch that sweares,

133.00A.025 And then, cold speechlesse wretch, thou diest againe,
 157.00b.261 Thou art to narrow, wretch, to comprehend
 158.00A.260 This wretch; So hardly are ill habits left again.

WRETCHED.....5

008.00B.091 But o thou wretched finder whom I hate
 022.00A.040 And wander on the earth, wretched as Cain,
 022.00A.041 Wretched as hee, and not deserve least pittie;
 072.00A.014 And I might live long wretched so
 112.00A.041 Onely perchance beasts sinne not; wretched wee

WRETCHEDNESSE.....1

004.00A.156 My precious soule began, the wretchednesse

WRETCHES.....1

110.00A.032 Like parboyl'd wretches, on the coales to burne.

WRIGHT.....1

119.NY3.011 Wright then, that my griefes which thyne got may bee

WRINCKLED.....2

020.00G.044 And when 'tis wrinckled, shipwracks us again.
 020.00G.046 Immortal stay, but wrinckled 'tis a grave.

WRING.....1

002.00A.071 Like a wedge in a blocke, wring to the barre,

WRINGING.....1

002.00A.086 Wringing each Acre, as men pulling prime.

WRINKLES.....1

050.00A.013 Call not these wrinkles, graves; If graves they were,

WRIST.....1

078.00D.010 No, nor the Coralls which thy wrist infold,

WRIT.....12

022.00A.010 Whereof they are made, that they are writ in water,
 052.00A.021 In cypher writ, or new made Idiome;
 065.00A.019 What ever he would dictate, I writ that,
 065.00A.020 But burnt my letters; When she writ to me,
 066.00A.032 To Nature, all that I in Ryme have writ;
 114.00A.024 A Poem in thy praise, and writ by thee.
 125.00A.001 Of that short Roll of friends writ in my heart
 129.00A.005 A Taper of his Torch, a copie writ
 138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee
 158.00A.108 Nor her, who was not then made; nor i'st writ

158.00A.511 Who ere thou beest that read'st this sullen Writ,
 160.00A.049 That all which was, and all which should be writ,

WRITE.....22

002.00A.021 And they who write to Lords, rewards to get,
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 002.00A.023 And they who write, because all write, have still
 005.00A.009 Can write, and jest? If all things be in all,
 012.00A.004 Nor so write my name in thy loving bookes
 021.00G.002 Environ me with darkness, whilst I write:
 033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,
 048.00A.030 To write threescore, this is the second of our raigne.
 049.00A.056 To an overt act, and that thou write againe;
 049.00A.060 And unaware to mee shalt write.
 052.00A.012 Thence write our Annals, and in them will bee
 064.00a.017 To rage, to lust, to write to, to commend,
 065.00A.029 I spring a mistresse, sweare, write, sigh and weepe:
 114.00A.005 Who have before or shall write after thee,
 114.00A.029 Then write, then I may follow, and so bee
 129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:
 135.B13.034 For t'were in vs ambition to write
 138.00A.010 By having leave to write so, then before.
 142.00A.055 I should write here, as in short Galleries
 153.00A.236 So, though triumphant soule, I dare to write,
 158.00A.011 damning what ever such a name hath or shall write. None
 175.00B.006 Have found new spears, and of new land can write,

WRITEN.....1

066.00A.038 I give my physick bookes; my writen rowles

WRITES.....2

002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,
 158.00A.012 writes so ill, that he gives not some thing exemplary, to follow,

WRITING.....3

002.00A.024 That excuse for writing, and for writing ill;
 002.00A.024 That excuse for writing, and for writing ill;
 002.00A.090 Are Fathers of the Church for writing lesse.

WRITINGS.....2

002.00A.098 His writings, and (unwatch'd) leaves out, ses heires
 078.00D.016 Within the Writings which thou hast adress.

WRITS.....2

004.00A.244 I hope, esteeme my writs Canonically.
 158.00A.010 And (holy writs excepted) made to yeeld to none.

WRITT.....1

123.NY3.007 Are Satirique fyres which vrg'd me to have writt

WRITTEN.....5

002.00A.091 These hee writes not; nor for these written payes,

135.B13.0HE A letter written by Sr. H: G: and I: D. alternis vicibus.

138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee

138.00A.003 And not t'have written then, seemes little lesse

157.00b.504 Or like to full, on both sides written Rols,

WRONG.....9

003.00A.079 To sleepe, or runne wrong, is: on a huge hill,

005.00A.081 Foole, twice, thrice, thou hast bought wrong, and now hungerly

022.00A.021 And finde the truth out the wrong way? or must

044.00A.018 Nor long beare this torturing wrong,

046.00A.018 Such wrong, as when a maryed man doth wooe.

108.00A.138 But now, to Thee, faire Bride, it is some wrong,

145.00A.057 No more doe I wrong any; I adore

187.00A.229 To be wrong from him. 36 That he subverted is

187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;

WRONGING.....1

155.00a.198 Wronging each ioynt of th'vniuersall frame.

WRONGS.....3

014.NY3.039 There lyes are wrongs; here safe vprightly ly;

082.00A.028 But I am by her death, (which word wrongs her)

111.00A.018 Tender to know, tough to acknowledge wrongs.

WROUGHT.....19

008.00B.105 May all the evils that gold ever wrought;

010.00A.046 That his owne feet, or breath, that smell had wrought.

039.00A.033 As well a well wrought urne becomes

070.00A.022 What miracles wee harmelesse lovers wrought.

078.00D.005 I beg nor ribbond wrought with thine owne hands,

082.00A.013 In whom love wrought new Alchimie.

106.00A.095 Wonders are wrought, for shee which had no maime,

136.00A.049 If either ever wrought in you alone

136.00A.051 Wrought your ends, and your wayes discretion.

142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you

152.12a.070 The only Subiect Reason wrought vpon.

157.00b.145 So fast, so euen wrought, as one would thinke,

157.00b.245 Spoke in her cheekes, and so distinckly wrought,

157.00b.264 For many ages, that our body'is wrought

158.00A.255 These tricks to catch food, them they were not wrought

158.00A.362 Those to account, that thought, and wrought his fall?

161.00A.004 (For, these songs are their fruits) have wrought the same;

184.00A.112 To know thy Scriptures tells us, we are wrought

187.00A.261 Thou heardst my wrong. 60 Their vengeance all they have wrought;

048.00A.008 This, no to morrow hath, nor yesterday,

076.00A.001 For the first twenty yeares, since yesterday,

077.00A.006 Hee was kill'd yesterday.
 108.00A.073 Chide thy selfe then, O foole, which yesterday
 110.00A.018 Feathers and dust, to day and yesterday.
 121.NY3.010 As a Woman deliuerd yesterday.
 145.00A.046 And not be chid for praising yesterday:
 155.00a.131 Old Grandsires talke of yesterday with sorrow,
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 174.00B.004 And all my pleasures are like yesterday,
 180.NY3.009 I durst not view heauen yesterday; & to day

YESTERNIGHT.....1

042.00A.009 Yesternight the Sunne went hence,

YET.....290

001.00A.028 Of refin'd manners, yet ceremoniall man,
 001.00A.046 Hee lost that, yet hee was cloath'd but in beasts skin,
 001.00A.071 Yet though he cannot skip forth now to greet
 001.00A.076 Of some gay sport abroad, yet dare not goe.
 002.00A.002 Perfectly all this towne, yet there's one state

 004.00A.005 My minde, neither with prides itch, nor yet hath been
 004.00A.008 Yet went to Court; But as Glaze which did goe
 004.00A.043 Me to beare this, yet I must be content
 004.00A.060 Yet a poore gentleman; All these may passe
 004.00A.110 Looke pale, and sickly, like a Patient; Yet
 004.00A.117 To heare this Makeron talke in vaine: For yet,
 004.00A.146 Though they be paid to be gone, yet needs will
 004.00A.226 As theirs which in old hangings whip Christ, yet still
 004.00A.241 To wash the staines away; though I yet
 004.00A.243 Of my worke lessen: yet some wise man shall,
 005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
 005.00A.074 Shee is all faire, but yet hath foule long nailes,
 006.00D.043 If they stoope lower yet, and vent our wares
 006.00D.070 But hardly much; and yet I think this true.
 008.00B.009 O, shall twelve righteous Angels, which as yet
 008.00B.011 Nor yet by any way have straid or gone
 008.00B.066 Hee say 'twill ne'r be found; yet be content;
 008.00B.077 Pitty these Angels yet; their dignities
 008.00B.080 Yet with such anguish, as her onely sonne
 009.00A.020 Where marks for eyes, nose, mouth, are yet scarce set ;
 010.00A.012 Yet close and secret, as our soules, we'have beene.

010.00A.014 Still buried in her bed, yet will not dye,
 010.00A.025 Yet love these Sorceries did remove, and move
 011.00A.002 And yet complain'st of his great jealousie;
 011.00A.013 Yet weep'st thou, when thou seest him hungerly
 012.00A.012 Nor yet by oathes betroth'd, nor kisses breath'd
 012.00A.017 Yet drowne them; so, the tapers beamie eye
 012.00A.019 Yet burnes his wings; and such the devill is,
 012.00A.027 Yet, if her often gnawing kisses winne
 012.00A.035 Yet let not thy deepe bitterness beget
 014.NY3.011 Yet She relyes vpon our Angels well
 014.NY3.015 Which time will cure: Yet it must do her good
 016.00A.004 Confirme thy love; yet much, much I feare thee.
 016.00A.016 Chain'd to a galley, yet the galley'is free;
 016.00A.018 And yet allowes his ground more corne should beare;
 017.00A.004 Though they be Ivory, yet her teeth be jeat,
 017.00A.005 Though they be dimme, yet she is light enough,
 017.00A.016 She'hath yet an Anagram of a good face.
 020.00G.018 (If women had them) and yet love but one.
 020.00G.063 Succeeds a boundless sea, but yet thine eye
 020.00G.068 Yet ere thou be where thou should'st be embay'd,
 021.00G.029 Yet Love, thou'rt blinder then thy self in this,
 021.00G.044 Yet went we not still on in Constancie?
 021.00G.062 Strain his eyes open, and yet make them bleed.
 021.00G.086 Yet Phaebus equally lights all the Sphere.
 024.00A.029 And yet I grieve the lesse, least Griefe remove
 024.00A.031 Plaies some soft boy with thee, oh there wants yet
 025.00A.003 Yet since there they have learn'd such ill,
 025.00A.017 Yet send me back my heart and eyes,
 026.00A.013 One picture more, yet that will bee,
 029.00A.003 Yet not that love so soone decayes,
 029.00A.025 Yet nothing can to nothing fall,
 031.00A.022 Though I must goe, endure not yet
 031.00A.030 Yet when the other far doth rome,
 033.00A.021 Yet doe not, I would not goe,
 033.00A.025 Yet shee
 038.00A.007 Resume my last yeares relict: thinke that yet
 041.00A.001 If yet I have not all thy love,
 041.00A.007 Yet no more can be due to mee,
 041.00A.020 And yet is was, thy gift being generall,
 041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
 041.00A.023 Yet I would not have all yet,
 042.00A.010 And yet is here to day,
 043.00A.005 I can remember yet, that I
 043.00A.017 Yet I found something like a heart,
 044.00A.005 But yet thou canst not die, I know,
 044.00A.017 And yet she cannot wast by this,
 044.00A.025 Yet t'was of my minde, seising thee,

045.00A.024 Of aire, not pure as it, yet pure doth weare,
 047.00A.017 Yet, love and hate mee too,
 050.00A.004 This doth but counsaile, yet you cannot scape.
 050.00A.015 Yet lies not love dead here, but here doth sit
 050.00A.020 In Progresse, yet his standing house is here.
 050.00A.022 Where no voluptuousnesse, yet all delight.
 050.00A.045 I hate extreames; yet I had rather stay
 051.00A.015 Indure, nor yet leave loving, Love let mee
 054.00A.015 And yet no greater, but more eminent,
 055.00A.022 If thou give nothing, yet thou'art just,
 055.00A.037 Yet kills not; if I must example bee
 057.00A.005 Therefore thou wakd'st me wisely; yet
 057.00A.013 Yet I thought thee
 059.00A.007 And as no chymique yet th'Elixar got,
 060.00A.007 Yet this enjoyes before it woove,
 060.00A.023 Yet thou triumph'st, and saist that thou
 062.00A.009 So to'entergraft our hands, as yet
 062.00A.072 But yet the body is his booke.
 063.00A.003 And yet a braver thence doth spring,
 068.00A.010 That labours yet to nestle thee,
 069.00A.011 Yet know I not, which flower
 070.00A.024 Yet knew not what wee lov'd, nor why,
 073.00A.009 Yet stay with mee since thou art come,
 074.00A.009 If I know yet, what I would have.
 074.00A.017 As yet my ease, and comfort is,
 076.00A.009 Yet call not this long life; But thinke that I
 077.00A.013 Such life is like the light which bideth yet
 079.00B.001 Whilst yet to prove,
 079.00B.008 Things not yet knowne are coveted by men,
 081.HH5.003 What looks teares passions & yet all but showes
 081.HH5.021 yet I had thy first oathes & it was I
 081.HH5.041 yet my hart can noe wish nor thought conceaue
 081.HH5.050 pittie thy selfe in yet beinge true & free
 081.HH5.051 thy minde from wandring doe but yet decline
 082.00A.008 Dead and enterr'd; yet all these seeme to laugh,
 095.NY3.002 And yet thou swearst thou hast supd like a king;
 106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
 106.00A.056 Yet shadowes turne; Noone point he hath attain'd,
 107.00A.026 Yong Phoenixes, and yet the old shall live.
 107.00A.071 They did, and night is come; and yet wee see
 107.00A.080 Yet there are more delayes, For, where is he?
 107.00A.089 And yet they doe, but are
 108.00A.016 The Sunne stayes longer up; and yet not his
 108.00A.080 Where men need whisper nothing, and yet may;
 108.00A.085 Thou hast no such; yet here was this, and more,
 108.00A.097 And yet I scap'd not here; for being come
 108.00A.108 Yet thou art rescu'd by a mightier fire,

108.00A.156 Yet starres are not so pure, as their spheares are.
 108.00A.191 The masks and banquets will not yet impart
 108.00A.211 These clothes, their bodies, never yet had seene.
 109.00A.041 Thousands our noyses were, yet wee'mongst all
 109.00A.046 Griev'd that they are not dead, and yet must dye.
 109.00A.073 So violent, yet long these furies bee,
 111.00A.004 Yet, as to'get stomachs, we walke up and downe,
 112.00A.009 They breake or stop all ships, yet our state's such,
 112.00A.032 To these three places, yet all are in all,
 113.00A.004 Since shee to few, yet to too many'hath showne
 113.00A.011 Yet in those faithfull scales, where God throwes in
 113.00A.013 If our Soules have stain'd their first white, yet wee
 113.00A.031 Wee are but termers of our selves, yet may,
 114.00A.025 Now if this song be too'harsh for rime, yet, as
 115.00A.003 I have given thee, and yet thou art too weake,
 117.00A.004 Yet as a firme house, though the Carpenter
 117.00A.012 Yet as a Picture, or bare Sacrament,
 120.00A.012 Yet, loves hot fires, which martyr my sad minde,
 125.00A.005 There's none that sometimes greets us not, and yet
 126.00A.002 Yet satisfy'd? Is not thy braines rich hive
 127.00A.007 Yet I, as long as shee from hence doth staie,
 127.00A.015 So may thy woods oft poll'd, yet ever weare
 128.LR1.007 yet gleanes hee many of our friends away)
 130.00A.023 Beares no more wit, then ours, but yet more scant
 130.00A.031 Yet, so much in her travaile she doth gather,
 131.00B.003 Before he ate; mans shape, that would yet bee
 131.00B.007 As yet the newes could not arrived bee
 131.00B.010 And wanting the reward, yet beare the sinne.
 131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
 131.00B.031 Yet since all love is fever, who to trees
 131.00B.032 Doth talke, doth yet in loves cold ague freeze.
 131.00B.102 That gives to all, and yet hath infinite.
 133.00A.010 Yet thou wilt goe, Goe, since thou goest to her
 133.00A.017 Yet when her warme redeeming hand, which is
 133.00A.029 Yet maist thou praise her servants, though not her,
 134.00A.006 Be'ungracious, yet we cannot want that hand,
 134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
 134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
 136.00A.035 Have birthright of our reasons Soule, yet hence
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 137.00A.031 Yet to that Deity which dwels in you,
 137.00A.049 Yet not as consecrate, but merely'as faire;
 138.00A.008 Pay all they have, and yet have all to pay.
 138.00A.011 Yet since rich mines in barren grounds are showne,
 138.00A.036 We sweat and faint, yet still goe downe the hills;
 139.00A.009 Nor trust I this with hopes, and yet scarce true,
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I

139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 140.00A.008 Yet couple'in anger, and new monsters breed;
 142.00A.004 Yet turning to Saincts, should my'humility
 143.00A.001 Though I be dead, and buried, yet I have
 145.00A.049 Yet, to say so, doth not condemne a man,
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 146.00A.012 Yet, that must wither, which by it did rise,
 146.00A.022 When wee must die first, and cannot dye yet?
 147.00B.009 Though no stone tell thee what I was, yet thou
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 147.00B.011 Yet th'art not yet so good; till us death lay
 148.00A.006 Which were to be so, when they were not yet
 148.00A.044 Yet but of ludith no such booke as shee.
 149.00A.003 This Sea invirons all, and though as yet
 149.00A.005 Yet doth it rore, and gnaw, and still pretend,
 149.00A.040 That kept her from sinne, yet made her repent.
 150.00A.033 All that thou kill'st at his feet, yet doth hee
 150.00A.059 If all her vertues must have growne, yet might
 150.00A.069 Yet though these wayes be lost, thou hast left one,
 150.00A.071 But we may scape that sinne, yet weepe as much,
 152.12a.014 Yet neither All, nor vpon all alike:
 152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
 152.12a.083 Yet would not I dye yet; for though I bee
 152.12a.087 Yet (no Dishonor) I can reach Him thus;
 153.00A.033 So, yet unglorified, I comprehend
 153.00A.037 Yet are the trunkes which doe to us derive
 153.00A.052 Yet still remaines that vertuous man there was;
 153.00A.055 Yet at the last two perfect bodies rise,
 153.00A.085 Yet when he's come, we know he did repaire
 153.00A.088 And yet wee know, this sodaine knowledge growes
 153.00A.095 Yet without doubt, hee doth distinctly see
 153.00A.115 Yet, when we come to measure distances,
 153.00A.123 Yet, since we must be old, and age endures
 153.00A.143 Yet, as in great clocks, which in steeples chime,
 153.00A.186 Yet till fit time had brought thee to that field,
 153.00A.193 That (though victoriously) thou hadst fought as yet
 153.00A.239 Yet I am farre from daring to dispute
 153.00A.258 Behind hand, yet hath spoke, and spoke her last.
 155.00a.041 But long shee'ath beene away, long, long, yet none
 155.00a.069 The world, be gone, yet in this last long night,
 155.00a.085 Yet, because outward stormes the strongest breake,
 155.00a.111 And yet we doe not that; we are not men:
 155.00a.173 T'his other wants, yet when he did depart
 155.00a.253 But yet their various and perplexed course,
 155.00a.301 Of th'earth? Thinke so: But yet confesse, in this
 155.00a.342 Were it a ring still, yet the stone is gone.
 155.00a.354 Yet sight hath onely color to feed on,

155.00a.418 All states to gold, yet guilded euery state,
 156.00a.009 Yet shee's demolish'd: Can we keepe her then
 157.00b.027 Yet a new Deluge, and of Lethe flood,
 157.00b.030 Yet in this Deluge, grosse and generall,
 157.00b.108 Weepe but because they goe not yet thy way.
 157.00b.156 Yet Death must vsher, and vnlocke the doore.
 157.00b.283 And yet one watches, starues, freeses, and sweats,
 157.00b.346 Expecting Christ, then they'haue enioy'd him yet.
 157.00b.465 Who being heare fild with grace, yet stroue to bee,
 157.00b.513 The ancient Church knew not, Heauen knowes not yet,
 158.00A.018 Yet hast thou not more nations seene then shee,
 158.00A.071 Yet no low roome, nor then the greatest, lesse,
 158.00A.075 Which could not sinne, and yet all sinnes did beare;
 158.00A.076 Which could not die, yet could not chuse but die;
 158.00A.109 That Adam cropt, or knew the apple; yet
 158.00A.162 But t'was because there was none yet but Eve:
 158.00A.184 His flesh is jelly yet, and his bones threds,
 158.00A.218 Yet chuseth hee, though none of these he feares,
 158.00A.229 Her scales seem'd yet of parchement, and as yet
 158.00A.229 Her scales seem'd yet of parchement, and as yet
 158.00A.237 Low things it scorn'd, and yet before that one
 158.00A.246 For her as yet, bids her againe retire
 158.00A.288 Yet them all these unkinde kinds feed upon,
 158.00A.300 Of the other; he lives yet in some great officer.
 158.00A.372 Hath yet a little indignation
 158.00A.385 (Yet nature hath given him no knees to bend)
 158.00A.401 Next, hous'd this Soule a Wolves yet unborne whelp,
 158.00A.408 And yet his bitch, his sentinell attends
 158.00A.416 Attach'd her with streight gripes, yet hee call'd those,
 158.00A.006 are worse then others. Yet I would not be so rebellious against my
 158.00A.026 therefore though this soule could not move when it was a Melon, yet
 158.00A.029 yet it can remember, and now tell me, who used it for poyson to
 160.00A.017 Which cannot sinne, and yet all sinnes must beare,
 160.00A.018 Which cannot die, yet cannot chuse but die,
 160.00A.021 Can take no sinne, nor thou give, yet he'll weare
 160.00A.034 Yet lay him in this stall, and from the Orient,
 160.00A.038 Which fils all place, yet none holds him, doth lye?
 160.00A.066 Beares his owne crosse, with paine, yet by and by
 160.00A.073 Too stony hard, and yet too fleshly,) bee
 161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme
 161.00A.007 Seaven to be borne at once, I send as yet
 162.00A.013 That thou lov'st mankind well, yet wilt'not chuse me.
 162.00A.014 And Satan hates mee, yet is loth to lose mee.
 163.00A.009 Yet grace, if thou repent, thou canst not lacke;
 164.00A.003 Idly, yet quickly runne, hath this last pace,
 167.00A.004 Die not, poore death, nor yet canst thou kill mee;
 171.00A.002 As yet but knocke, breathe, shine, and seeke to mend;

171.00A.009 Yet dearly'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 173.00A.009 Yet such are these laws, that men argue yet
 176.00B.013 No ease; for, long, yet vehement grieffe hath beene
 181.00A.026 But yet spirituall have chiefe dignity.
 182.00A.002 As yet, the wound thou took'st on friday last;
 182.00A.022 If, not of any man, yet of the whole.
 183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;
 183.00A.010 Of life, at once, not yet alive, yet dead;
 183.00A.042 Accepted, would have serv'd, he yet shed all;
 184.00A.031 Most slipperinesse, yet most entanglings hath,
 184.00A.052 Yet never knowes which course that light doth run,
 184.00A.160 And yet soone after riches didst allow,
 185.00A.015 Yet dare I'almost be glad, I do not see
 185.00A.034 They'are present yet unto my memory,
 187.00A.033 9 Her foulnesse in her skirts was seene, yet she
 187.00A.069 18 But yet the Lord is just, and righteous still,
 187.00A.220 Deepe in the dust, yet then in hope he stayes.
 187.00A.322 Yet, told their friends, they should not long dwell there;
 187.00A.327 17 And wee as yet, for all these miseries
 187.00A.364 Yet from their hands none would deliver us.
 190.00A.006 Thy face; yet through that maske I know those eyes,

YETT.....1

178.NY3.008 A holy thirsty dropsy melts mee yett.

YIELD.....1

153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,

YIELDING.....1

106.00A.005 Like to a grave, the yielding downe doth dint;

YIELDS.....1

024.00A.044 All, all that Nature yields, or Art can adde.

YOAK'D.....2

158.00A.004 Yoak'd us, and when, and since, in this I sing.

158.00A.100 To love them, whose fault to this painfull love yoak'd us.

YOAKE.....2

187.00A.053 14 His hand hath of my sinnes framed a yoake

187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;

YON.....2

005.00A.079 Why barest thou to yon Officer? Foole, Hath hee

106.00A.032 Loe, in yon path which store of straw'd flowers graceth,

YONDER.....2

001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]
 088.00A.001 I am unable, yonder begger cries,

YONG.....11

003.00A.051 Religion, plaine, simple, sullen, yong,
 050.00A.003 Yong Beauties force our love, and that's a Rape,
 050.00A.031 Or else because, being yong, nature did blesse
 077.00A.007 Love with excesse of heat, more yong then old,
 107.00A.026 Yong Phoenixes, and yet the old shall live.
 128.LR1.011 Ere sicknesses attach yong death is best
 158.00A.285 Of beasts, nor their yong sonnes to beare away;
 158.00A.440 His sister, being yong, it us'd to sport and play.
 187.00A.169 21 On ground in streets, the yong and old do lye,
 187.00A.170 My virgins and yong men by sword do dye;
 187.00A.373 13 Unto the mill our yong men carried are,

YONGER.....3

066.00A.045 For yonger lovers, dost my gifts thus disproportion.
 141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
 149.00A.030 If carnall Death (the yonger brother) doe

YOU.....377

001.00B.082 When any names the King of Spaine to you.
 001.00A.083 Now leaps he upright, Joggs me, & cryes, Do you see
 001.00A.086 Stand still, must you dance here for company?
 001.00A.090 'T may be you smell him not, truely I doe;
 002.00A.054 You said, If I Returne next size in Lent,
 004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.
 004.00A.052 I love your judgement; Whom doe you prefer,
 004.00A.063 That I was faine to say, If you 'had liv'd, Sir,
 004.00A.066 He adds, If of court life you knew the good,
 004.00A.067 You would leave lonelinesse; I said, not alone
 004.00A.083 Are not your Frenchmen neate? Fine, as you see,
 004.00A.143 And saies, Sir, can you spare me; I said, willingly;
 004.00A.144 Nay, Sir, can you spare me a crowne? Thankfully I
 004.00A.147 Thrust one more jigge upon you: so did hee
 004.00A.238 Seas of Wits and Arts, you can, then dare,
 005.00A.022 For they do eate you now, whose selves wormes shall eate.
 005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
 005.00A.023 They are the mills which grinde you, yet you are
 005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they
 005.00A.025 Is fought against you, and you fight it; they
 005.00A.026 Adulterate lawe, and you prepare their way
 005.00A.028 Greatest and fairest Emprise, know you this?
 005.00A.031 You Sir, whose righteousnes she loves, whom I
 005.00A.040 The mony which you sweat, and swears for, is gon

006.00D.069 Pilfer alas a little wit from you;
 008.00B.083 Good soules, (for you give life to every thing)
 008.00B.084 Good Angels, (for good messages you bring)
 008.00B.085 Destin'd you might have beene to such an one,
 008.00B.086 As would have lov'd and worship'd you alone:
 010.00A.063 Though you be much lov'd in the Princes hall,
 010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;
 010.00A.070 And you are rare, that takes the good away.
 015.00G.007 Unpin that spangled breastplate which you wear,
 015.00G.010 Tells me from you, that now it is bed time.
 015.00G.035 To taste whole joyes. Jems which you women use
 021.00G.104 As I will never look for less in you.
 022.00A.002 Was it my fate to prove it strong in you?
 022.00A.007 Or thinke you heaven is deafe, or hath no eyes?
 022.00A.019 Did you draw bonds to forfeit? signe to breake?
 022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
 022.00A.020 Or must we reade you quite from what you speake,
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 022.00A.022 Hee first desire you false, would wish you just?
 022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 022.00A.033 But O that treacherous breast to whom weake you
 022.00A.036 That made me cast you guilty, and you me,
 022.00A.036 That made me cast you guilty, and you me,
 022.00A.061 To like what you lik'd; and at maskes and playes
 022.00A.063 Aske how you did, and often with intent
 033.00A.023 Though shee were true, when you met her,
 033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,
 034.00A.012 For having purpos'd change, and falsehood; you
 035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
 035.00A.009 When you are gone, and Reason gone with you,
 035.00A.011 She can present joyes meaner then you do;
 035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
 035.00A.013 So, if I dreame I have you, I have you,
 035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 035.00A.023 Though you stay here you passe too fast away:
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 037.00A.008 I can love her, and her, and you and you,
 037.00A.010 Will no other vice content you?
 037.00A.012 Or have you all old vices spent, and now would finde out others?
 037.00A.013 Or doth a feare, that men are true, tor-ment you?
 037.00A.014 Oh we are not, be not you so,
 037.00A.015 Let mee, and doe you, twenty know.
 037.00A.017 Must I, who came to travaile thorow you,
 037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?
 037.00A.026 But I have told them, since you will be true,
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.
 037.00A.027 You shall be true to them, who'are false to you.

039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,
039.00A.005 Take you a course, get you a place,
039.00A.008 Contemplate, what you will, approve,
039.00A.009 So you will let me love.
039.00A.019 Call us what you will, wee are made such by love;
039.00A.037 And thus invoke us; You whom reverend love
039.00A.039 You, to whom love was peace, that now is rage,
039.00A.043 That they did all to you epitomize,
043.00A.010 That my selfe, that's you, not I,
043.00A.016 In life, in my last Will should cozen you.
049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.
049.00A.012 Here you see mee, and I am you.
049.00A.017 You this intirenesse better may fulfill,
049.00A.018 Who have the patterne with you still.
049.00A.026 Emparadis'd in you, (in whom alone
049.00A.029 Being still with you, the Muscle, Sinew, and Veine,
050.00A.004 This doth but counsaile, yet you cannot scape.
050.00A.024 You may at Revels, you at counsaile, sit.
050.00A.024 You may at Revels, you at counsaile, sit.
051.00A.024 Nor can you more judge womens thoughts by teares,
055.00A.001 Love, any devill else but you,
060.00A.012 This flea is you and I, and this
060.00A.014 Though parents grudge, and you, w'are met,
060.00A.016 Though use make you apt to kill mee,
063.00A.017 If, as I have, you also doe
063.00A.022 From prophane men you hide,
063.00A.025 Then you have done a braver thing
067.00A.004 The mystery, the signe you must not touch,
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
067.00A.024 That since you would have none of mee, I bury some of you.
068.00A.019 Alas, if you must goe, what's that to mee?
068.00A.021 You goe to friends, whose love and meanes present
068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
068.00A.037 For Gods sake, if you can, be you so too:
068.00A.038 I will give you
071.00A.005 You thinke a sodaine dampe of love
071.00A.009 Poore victories; But if you dare be brave,
071.00A.017 For I could muster up as well as you
071.00A.022 As a meere man; doe you but try
071.00A.023 Your passive valor, and you shall finde than,
076.00A.007 Or not divide, all being one thought of you;
082.00A.010 Study me then, you who shall lovers bee
082.00A.038 You lovers, for whose sake, the lesser Sunne
082.00A.040 To fetch new lust, and give it you,
089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
091.NY3.001 If you from spoyle of th' old worlds fardest end

097.00A.002 Onely in this, that you both painted be.
106.00A.003 No more shall you returne to it alone,
106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
106.00A.008 Which when next time you in these sheets wil smother
106.00A.011 Come glad from thence, goe gladder then you came,
106.00A.013 Daughters of London, you which bee
106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
106.00A.015 You which are Angels, yet still bring with you
106.00A.018 These rites, which also unto you grow due;
106.00A.020 By you, fit place for every flower and jewell,
106.00A.025 And you frolique Patricians
106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
106.00A.067 You, and not only you, but all toyl'd beasts
107.00A.052 To make you one, his way, which divers waies
107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
107.00A.061 And why doe you two walke,
107.00A.107 Others neare you shall whispering speake,
108.00A.127 Though it be some divorce to thinke of you
108.00A.128 Single, so much one are you two,
108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,
108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,
108.00A.163 Soe, as you goe to Church, doe thinke of you,
108.00A.165 By the Church rites you are from thenceforth one.
108.00A.171 Blest payre of Swans, Oh may you interbring
108.00A.178 Heires from this King, to take thankes, you, to give,
108.00A.182 But you are over-blest. Plenty this day
108.00A.197 And you must entertaine
109.00A.029 Sooner then you read this line, did the gale,
111.00A.002 Tell you Calis, or S^t Michaels tale for newes, as tell
112.00A.063 But, Sir, I advise not you, I rather doe
112.00A.064 Say o'er those lessons, which I learn'd of you.
112.00A.068 And brought home that faith, which you carried forth,
112.00A.070 To know my rules, I have, and you have
113.00A.025 You know, Physitians, when they would infuse
115.00A.013 Live I or die, by you my love is sent,
124.00A.010 Am harsh, nor as those Scismatiques with you,
124.00A.012 But seing in you bright sparkes of Poetry,
125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
125.00A.007 You doe not duties of Societies,
125.00A.008 If from the'embrace of a lov'd wife you rise,
125.00A.014 I that my love, she that her guifts on you are spent
127.00A.002 My Sun is with you, cold and darke'is our Clime;
128.LR1.001 Went you to conquer? and haue so much lost
128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most 129.00A.003 By which to you he derives much of his,
129.00A.004 And (how he may) makes you almost the same,

129.00A.011 From which rich treasury you may command
129.00A.012 Fit matter whether you will write or doe:
129.00A.015 Which thicken on you now, as prayers ascend
129.00A.019 What you must say at Venice this meanes now,
129.00A.020 And hath for nature, what you have for taske.
129.00A.039 And to send you what I shall begge, his staires
130.00A.017 Provide you manlyer dyet, you have seene
130.00A.017 Provide you manlyer dyet, you have seene
130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
130.00A.027 Goe, whither? hence; you get, if you forget;
130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
130.00A.033 It payes you well, if it teach you to spare,
130.00A.036 You then first say, that high enough she toures.
130.00A.037 However, keepe the lively tast you hold
130.00A.039 And in your afternoones thinke what you told
130.00A.041 Let falshood like a discord anger you,
130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
130.00A.046 Riding I had you, though you still staid there,
130.00A.047 And in these thoughts, although you never stirre,
130.00A.048 You came with mee to Micham, and are here.
131.00B.018 Have found my selfe to you, just their midway;
131.00B.020 Seeme sick to me, just so must I to you,
131.00B.026 And faithfully, (without you smil'd) were gone.
131.00B.077 But (madame) I now thinke on you; and here
131.00B.078 Where we are at our hights, you but appeare,
131.00B.079 We are but clouds, you rise from our noone-ray,
131.00B.081 You are at first hand all that's faire and right,
131.00B.083 You are a perfectnesse, so curious hit,
131.00B.085 For, what is more doth what you are restraine,
131.00B.087 We have no next way to you, we crosse to it:
131.00B.088 You are the straight line, thing prais'd, attribute,
131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:
131.00B.094 In you, but our dimme actions faintly shew.
131.00B.101 And love in you, that bountie is of light,
134.00A.002 By these wee reach divinity, that's you;
134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,
134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devise.
134.00A.017 That you are good: and not one Heretique
134.00A.018 Denies it: if he did, yet you are so.
134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
134.00A.025 But, you of learning and religion,
134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here
134.00A.030 A dyet fit for you; for you are here

134.00A.033 Since you are then Gods masterpeece, and so
 134.00A.034 His Factor for our loves; do as you doe,
 134.00A.037 For so God helpe mee, 'I would not misse you there
 134.00A.038 For all the good which you can do me here.
 135.B13.005 You seu'rall sunns that warme, & light each brest
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 135.B13.017 Make you appeere to vs, & vs to you,
 135.B13.017 Make you appeere to vs, & vs to you,
 135.B13.018 supplying all the Muses in you twoe.
 135.B13.022 Heere in our Nightingales, wee heere you singe
 135.B13.030 compar'd with you each would confesse some stayne.
 135.B13.035 soe, that because wee two, you two vnite,
 135.B13.036 our letter should as you, bee infinite.
 136.00A.021 But one, 'tis best light to contemplate you.
 136.00A.022 You, for whose body God made better clay,
 136.00A.028 You teach (though wee learne not) a thing unknowne
 136.00A.031 Of such were Temples; so and such you are;
 136.00A.041 Religion is a Christians, and you know
 136.00A.049 If either ever wrought in you alone
 136.00A.052 Goe thither stil, goe the same way you went,
 136.00A.054 Neither can reach you, great and innocent.
 137.00A.001 You have refin'd mee, and to worthyest things
 137.00A.014 You are the season (Madame) you the day,
 137.00A.014 You are the season (Madame) you the day,
 137.00A.023 This shoves that you from nature lothly stray,
 137.00A.028 Whilst here to you, wee sacrificers runne;
 137.00A.029 And whether Priests, or Organs, you wee'obey,
 137.00A.031 Yet to that Deity which dwels in you,
 137.00A.044 You as you'are vertues temple, not as shee,
 137.00A.048 Bablers of Chappels, you th'Escuriall.
 137.00A.052 I finde you all record, and prophecie.
 137.00A.054 No sad nor guilty legends, you are it.
 137.00A.056 You were the transcript, and originall,
 137.00A.058 And every peece of you, is both their All,
 137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
 137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
 137.00A.060 Must do the same things still: you cannot two.
 137.00A.070 The story of beauty', in Twicknam is, and you.
 138.00A.001 T'have written then, when you writ, seem'd to mee
 138.00A.015 So whether my hymnes you admit or chuse,
 138.00A.020 Shine in the worlds best part, or all, in you.
 138.00A.024 But whither, only knowing you, I know;
 138.00A.025 Your, or you vertue, two vast uses serves,
 138.00A.028 Is knowne to any other, not to you.
 138.00A.029 And you can never know it; To admit
 138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 138.00A.072 Stand on two truths, neither is true to you.

138.00A.078 Begets in you unjust suspicion.
 138.00A.087 But in your Commonwealth or world in you
 139.00A.010 This bravery is since these time shew'd mee you.
 139.00A.012 What you were, and teach them to'urge towards such,
 139.00A.025 And you, and it, too much grace might disgrace.
 139.00A.027 All truth of you, yet they will doubt how I
 139.00A.031 I cannot tell them, nor my selfe, nor you,
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 139.00A.036 Hee will best teach you, how you should lay out
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you, and shew you good,
 139.00A.039 And cleare those doubts, hide from you, and shew you good,
 139.00A.041 Hee will teach you, that good and bad have not
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 139.00A.049 Hee will make you, what you did not, possese,
 139.00A.051 He will make you speake truths, and credibly,
 139.00A.052 And make you doubt, that others doe not so:
 139.00A.053 Hee will provide you keyes, and locks, to spie,
 139.00A.055 What you may not acknowledge, what not know.
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 140.00A.046 Which you doe use to make; that you know man.
 140.00A.047 This makes it credible, you have dwelt upon
 140.00A.049 Actions are authors, and of those in you
 141.00A.003 Canons will not Church functions you invade,
 141.00A.004 Nor lawes to civill office you preferre.
 141.00A.015 By vertues beames by fame deriv'd from you,
 141.00A.022 She fled to heaven, that's heavenly things, that's you,
 141.00A.025 She guiled us: But you are gold, and Shee,
 141.00A.026 Us she inform'd, but transubstantiates you,
 141.00A.029 Though you a wifes and mothers name retaine,
 141.00A.031 But vertue having made you vertue, 'is faine
 141.00A.032 T'adhere in these names, her and you to show,
 141.00A.036 So, for our sakes you do low names abide;
 141.00A.040 You covet not great names, of great things full.
 141.00A.041 So you, as woman, one doth comprehend,
 141.00A.045 To whom, because from you all vertues flow,
 141.00A.046 And 'tis not none, to dare contemplate you,
 141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe
 141.00A.049 If you can thinke these flatteries, they are,
 141.00A.053 So my ill reaching you might there grow good,
 141.00A.057 And if I flatter any, 'tis not you
 141.00A.068 Not I, but you and fame, that make this verse;
 141.00A.070 And now your Chaplaine, God in you to praise.
 142.00A.005 To other Sainct then you directed bee,
 142.00A.013 That is, of you, who is a firmament
 142.00A.040 Shee therefore wrought upon that part of you
 142.00A.051 Vertue, and beauty of the same stufte, as you?
 142.00A.054 And revelation of you both I see,

142.00A.059 That which I said of you; there is no way
 143.00A.002 (Living in you;) Court enough in my grave,
 143.00A.015 In you, I should not thinke or say they shine,
 143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
 143.00A.023 Remote low Spirits, which shall ne'r read you,
 145.00A.001 Faire, great, and good, since seeing you, wee see
 145.00A.007 In lovers Sonnets: you come to repaire
 145.00A.031 Since now you durst be good, and that I doe
 145.00A.032 Discerne, by daring to contemplate you,
 145.00A.048 As, that another is worthiest, and, that you:
 145.00A.069 This new great lesson, thus to study you;
 145.00A.073 For as your fellow Angells, so you doe
 145.00A.074 Illustrate them who come to study you.
 145.00A.081 Which are, fit meanes to see bright courts and you,
 145.00A.082 Yet may I see you thus, as now I doe;
 147.00B.006 Dying, of you doe beg a Legacie.
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 148.00A.001 You that are she, and you that's double shee,
 148.00A.011 Had you dy'd first, a carcasse shee had beene;
 148.00A.013 She like the Soule is gone, and you here stay
 148.00A.015 And since you act that part, As men say, here
 148.00A.018 Unto the whole, so wee all reverence you;
 148.00A.020 In you, who are all what both was before,
 148.00A.022 But so, as all in you contracted is;
 148.00A.030 Returne to dwell with you, of whom they were;
 148.00A.032 So they to you, their sea, whence lesse streames are;
 148.00A.033 Shee was all spices, you all metall; so
 148.00A.034 In you two wee did both rich Indies know;
 148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
 148.00A.040 But nothing can you lesse, or changed make.
 148.00A.042 That you can can match her, or not be without;
 152.12a.094 By th'Oathes which only you Two neuer broke,
 152.12a.095 By all the Soules you sigh't; that if you see
 152.12a.095 By all the Soules you sigh't; that if you see
 152.12a.096 These Lines, you wish I knew Your Historie:
 154.00A.001 Whither that soule which now comes up to you
 155.00a.455 And you her creatures, whom she workes vpon
 155.00a.457 From her example, and her vertue, if you
 156.00a.055 Reioyce then nature, and this world, that you
 157.00b.393 You are both fluid, chang'd since yesterday;
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 157.00b.399 Concern'd, remaines; but whil'st you thinke you bee
 158.00A.064 Whose story, with long patience you will long;
 158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
 158.00A.230 Perchance a fish, but by no name you could call it.
 158.00A.232 A swan, so white that you may unto him
 158.00A.432 But in the lives of Emperours you shall not

158.00A.017 with as much and as good: You shall still finde mee to acknowledge it,
 158.00A.020 you remember, (for I will have no such Readers as I can
 158.00A.023 to plants also: and therefore you must not grudge to finde the same
 158.00A.032 deliver you by her relation all her passages from her first making when 158.00A.034 you shall finde in the end of this booke.
 161.00A.013 You are that Alchymist which alwaies had
 165.00A.003 From death, you numberlesse infinities
 165.00A.007 Despaire, law, chance, hath slaine, and you whose eyes,
 168.00A.001 Spit in my face you Jewes, and pierce my side,
 169.00A.008 Whose whole kinde, you might swallow & feed upon?
 169.00A.009 Weaker I am, woe is mee, and worse then you,
 169.00A.010 You have not sinn'd, nor need be timorous,
 171.00A.001 Batter my heart, three person'd God; for, you
 171.00A.006 Labour to'admit you, but Oh, to no end,
 171.00A.012 Take mee to you, imprison mee, for I
 171.00A.014 Nor ever chast, except you ravish mee.
 175.00B.005 You which beyond that heaven which was most high
 181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
 181.00A.031 For when that Crosse ungrudg'd, unto you stickes,
 181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.
 184.00A.032 As you distinguish'd undistinct
 184.00A.036 Of power, to love, to know, you unnumbered three.
 184.00A.045 In vaine, who hath such titles unto you.
 187.00A.045 12 All this concernes not you, who passe by mee,

YOU'.....1

171.00A.009 Yet dearely'I love you',and would be lov'd faine,

YOU'ARE.....7

010.00A.067 You'are loathsome all, being taken simply alone,
 107.00A.050 You'are twice inseparable, great, and one;
 107.00A.054 And that you'are one, by hearts and hands made fast,
 115.00A.014 And you'are my pawnes, or else my Testament.
 134.00A.013 But soone, the reasons why you'are lov'd by all,
 137.00A.044 You as you'are vertues temple, not as shee,
 157.00b.400 Constant, you'are howrely in inconstancee.

YOU'ASHAM'D.....1

130.00A.034 And make you'asham'd, to make your hawks praise, yours,

YOU'ENTHRALL.....1

171.00A.013 Except you'enthrall mee, never shall be free,

YOU'HAVE.....3

071.00A.024 In that you'have odds enough of any man.
 137.00A.025 In this you'have made the Court the Antipodes,
 138.00A.016 In me you'have hallowed a Pagan Muse,

YOU'S.....1

131.00B.089 Each good in you's a light; so many a shade

YOU'WERE.....1

010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,

YOUNG.....8

004.00A.209 As a young Preacher at his first time goes

064.00a.009 Nor he, in his young godhead practis'd it.

150.00A.051 And kill her young to thy losse? must the cost

153.00A.122 Both how to live well young, and how to die,

158.00A.153 A young Colossus there hee stands upright,

187.00A.059 To breake my young men, he the winepresse hath

187.00A.072 My maides, my young men in captivitie.

187.00A.278 Sucke to their young; my peoples daughters live

YOUNGER.....1

131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,

YOUNGEST.....1

131.00B.084 That youngest flatteries doe scandall it.

YOUR.....215

002.00A.055 I should be in remitter of your grace;

004.00A.029 Sir, by your priesthood tell me what you are.

004.00A.052 I love your judgement; Whom doe you prefer,

004.00A.058 He stopt mee, and said; Nay, your Apostles were

004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet

004.00A.079 Your eares shall heare nought, but Kings; your eyes meet

004.00A.082 So are all your Englishmen in their discourse.

004.00A.083 Are not your Frenchmen neate? Fine, as you see,

004.00A.086 Your only wearing is your Grogaram;

004.00A.086 Your only wearing is your Grogaram;

004.00A.169 Thinke he which made your waxen garden, and

005.00A.027 Like wittals, th'issue your owne ruine is;

006.00D.071 As Sibyls was, your booke is mysticall,

008.00B.088 Yea death, ere he would make your number lesse.

008.00B.089 But, I am guilty of your sad decay;

008.00B.090 May your few-fellowes longer with me stay.

009.00A.043 Are not your kisses then as filthy, and more,

009.00A.047 Is not your last act harsh, and violent,

010.00A.066 Because you'were burnt, not that they lik'd your smell,

010.00A.069 If you were good, your good doth soone decay;

015.00G.009 Unlace your self, for that harmonious chyme,

015.00G.013 Your gown going off, such beautious state reveals,

015.00G.016 The haiery Diadem which on your head doth grow:

021.00G.089 Be then ever your self, and let no woe
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 021.00G.091 Declare your self base fortunes Enemy,
 021.00G.092 No less be your contempt then her inconstancy:
 021.00G.093 That I may grow enamoured on your mind,
 022.00A.005 Is it your beauties marke, or of your youth,
 022.00A.005 Is it your beauties marke, or of your youth,
 022.00A.006 Or your perfection, not to study truth?
 022.00A.008 Or those it hath, smile at your perjuries?
 022.00A.060 Love in your eyes, that gave my tongue the law
 033.00A.024 And last, till you write your letter,
 034.00A.011 Or, your owne end to Justifie,
 037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 037.00A.011 Wil it not serve your turn to do, as did your mothers?
 037.00A.018 Grow your fixt subject, because you are true?
 039.00A.001 For Godsake hold your tongue, and let me love,
 039.00A.004 With wealth your state, your minde with Arts improve
 039.00A.004 With wealth your state, your minde with Arts improve
 039.00A.041 Into the glasses of your eyes
 051.00A.021 And try your mistresse Teares at home,
 055.00A.003 At Court your fellowes every day,
 066.00A.048 Then all your beauties will bee no more worth
 066.00A.050 And all your graces no more use shall have
 068.00A.023 To your eyes, eares, and tast, and every part.
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 068.00A.024 If then your body goe, what need your heart?
 071.00A.004 When they shall finde your Picture in my heart,
 071.00A.008 Your murder, to the name of Massacre.
 071.00A.010 And pleasure in your conquest have,
 071.00A.011 First kill th'enormous Gyant, your Disdaine ,
 071.00A.015 Of your owne arts and triumphs over men,
 071.00A.023 Your passive valor, and you shall finde than,
 082.00A.041 Enjoy your summer all,
 089.00A.001 Your mistris, that you follow whores, still taxeth you:
 091.NY3.002 To the new world your kindled valors bend
 106.00A.002 Leave, leave, faire Bride, your solitary bed,
 106.00A.004 It nourseth sadnesse, and your bodies print,
 106.00A.006 You and your other you meet there anon;
 106.00A.016 Thousands of Angels on your mariage daies,
 106.00A.017 Help with your presence, and devise to praise
 106.00A.028 Yee country men, who but your beasts love none,
 106.00A.063 Her selfe in her wish'd bed? Release your strings
 106.00A.065 With these your pleasing labours, for great use
 107.00A.055 You two have one way left, your selves to'entwine,
 107.00A.063 Is all your care but to be look'd upon,

107.00A.105 Waiting, when your eyes opened, let out day.
107.00A.106 Onely desir'd, because your face wee see;
108.00A.160 Now from your Easts you issue forth, and wee,
108.00A.176 It must serve your ambition, to die;
108.00A.233 Nor may your selfe be Preist: But let me goe,
108.00A.235 Such Alters, as prize your devotion.
125.00A.006 Your Trent is Lethe', that past, us you forget,
125.00A.009 View your fat Beasts, stretch'd Barnes, and labour'd fields,
125.00A.011 And then againe to your embracements goe:
125.00A.012 Some houres on us your frends, and some bestow
125.00A.013 Upon your Muse, else both wee shall repent,
127.00A.001 Blest are your North parts, for all this long time
127.00A.004 Staid in your North (I thinke) for she was there,
128.LR1.002 your self, that what in you was best & most
128.LR1.005 Would loose your loue for Ireland: better cheap
128.LR1.008 then that your waking mind should bee a pray
128.LR1.013 Lett not your soule (at first) with graces filld
129.00A.009 After those learned papers which your hand
129.00A.014 With glad griefe, to your Sea-ward steps, farewell,
129.00A.018 It such an audience as your selfe would aske;
129.00A.022 Honour alone will to your fortune fit;
129.00A.023 Nor shall I then honour your fortune, more
129.00A.024 Then I have done your honour wanting it.
129.00A.029 'Tis therefore well your spirits now are plac'd
129.00A.038 For your increase, God is as neere mee here;
130.00A.009 So had your body'her morning, hath her noone,
130.00A.019 But aske your Garners if you have not beene
130.00A.020 In harvests, too indulgent to your sports.
130.00A.021 Would you redeeme it? then your selfe transplant
130.00A.034 And make you'asham'd, to make your hawks praise, yours,
130.00A.039 And in your afternoones thinke what you told
130.00A.043 Things, of which none is in your practise new,
130.00A.045 But thus I make you keepe your promise Sir,
131.00B.013 And loseth younger formes; so, to your eye,
131.00B.014 These (Madame) that without your distance lie,
131.00B.021 Yet neither will I vexe your eyes to see
131.00B.023 I come not to call pittie from your heart,
131.00B.080 But a foule shadow, not your breake of day.
131.00B.082 And others good reflects but backe your light.
131.00B.090 You make, and in them are your motions made.
131.00B.091 These are your pictures to the life. From farre
131.00B.092 We see you move, and here your Zani's are:
131.00B.096 Your purest luster must that shadow move.
134.00A.003 Their loves, who have the blessings of your light,
134.00A.009 Therefore I study you first in your Saints,
134.00A.010 Those friends, whom your election glorifies,
134.00A.011 Then in your deeds, accesses, and restraints,

134.00A.012 And what you reade, and what your selfe devise.
 134.00A.024 Your birth and beauty are this Balme in you.
 134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
 134.00A.029 Yet, this is not your physicke, but your food,
 134.00A.035 Make your returne home gracious; and bestow
 135.B13.006 Doe by that influence all your thoughts digest.
 135.B13.007 And that you two may soe your vertues moue,
 135.B13.012 by which w' enthrall our selues to your Commands.
 135.B13.020 but wee your breath in that exhaling meet,
 135.B13.021 and as true Types of your, them humbly greet.
 135.B13.025 In Auchos calme face wee your smoothnes see,
 135.B13.026 your mindes vnmingled, & as cleare as shee
 136.00A.013 Care not then, Madame, 'how low your prayses lye;
 136.00A.020 Your radiation can all clouds subdue,
 136.00A.026 Covering discovers your quicke Soule; that we
 136.00A.027 May in your through-shine front our hearts thoughts see.
 136.00A.032 Beeing and seeming is your equall care,
 136.00A.051 Wrought your ends, and your wayes discretion.
 136.00A.051 Wrought your ends, and your wayes discretion.
 137.00A.010 Your vertues challenge, which there rarest bee;
 137.00A.015 'Tis but a grave of spices, till your face
 137.00A.019 Out from your chariot, morning breaks at night,
 137.00A.021 Since a new world doth rise here from your light,
 137.00A.022 We your new creatures, by new recknings goe.
 137.00A.026 And will'd your Delegate, the vulgar Sunne,
 137.00A.030 We found your influence, and your Dictates say.
 137.00A.030 We found your influence, and your Dictates say.
 137.00A.032 Your vertuous Soule, I now not sacrifice;
 137.00A.059 So'intire are all your deeds, and you, that you
 138.00A.025 Your, or you vertue, two vast uses serves,
 138.00A.027 There's nothing but your worth, which being true,
 138.00A.030 No knowledge of your worth, it some of it.
 138.00A.031 But since to you, your praises discords bee,
 138.00A.075 Even in your vertues best paradise,
 138.00A.087 But in your Commonwealth or world in you
 138.00A.090 With cordiall vertue, your knowne nourishment.
 139.00A.016 Mine are short liv'd; the tincture of your name
 139.00A.021 So, my verse built of your just praise, might want
 139.00A.040 And so increase your appetite and food;
 139.00A.046 Yet he as hee bounds seas, will fixe your houres,
 139.00A.056 For your owne conscience, he gives innocence,
 139.00A.057 But for your fame, a discreet warinesse,
 139.00A.060 loy, when your state swells, sadnesse when 'tis lesse.
 139.00A.061 From need of teares he will defend your soule,
 139.00A.064 Your name; and when with active joy we heare
 140.00A.050 Your friends finde every day a mart of new.
 141.00A.047 I, which to you as your true subject owe

141.00A.050 For then your judgement is below my praise,
141.00A.055 But not your beauty, vertue, knowledge, blood
141.00A.060 And vertue should your beauty,'and birth outgrow.
141.00A.064 Your selfe were bound to say thar which I doe.
141.00A.065 So I, but your Recorder am in this,
141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
141.00A.069 I was your Prophet in your yonger dayes,
141.00A.070 And now your Chaplaine, God in you to praise.
142.00A.015 They're your materials, not your ornament.
142.00A.015 They're your materials, not your ornament.
142.00A.038 To your soule, found there no infirmitie,
142.00A.039 For, your soule was as good Vertue, as shee;
142.00A.042 And so hath made your beauty, Vertue too.
142.00A.043 Hence comes it, that your Beauty wounds not hearts,
142.00A.046 But if such friends by the honor of your sight
142.00A.048 As to partake your vertues, and their might,
142.00A.052 Which is, your noble worthie sister, shee
143.00A.005 That thankfullnesse your favours have begot
143.00A.009 My thoughts dispos'd unto your influence, so,
143.00A.012 Your stock, and over prodigally spent
143.00A.013 Your treasure, for since I had never knowne
143.00A.019 Your praise to you, where half rights seeme too much,
143.00A.020 And make your minds sincere complexion blush.
145.00A.003 Since now your beauty shines, now when the Sunne
145.00A.022 Since in these times, your greatnesse doth appeare,
145.00A.034 Through your light, largenesse, vertue understood:
145.00A.036 Any small sparke of these, call it your owne.
145.00A.073 For as your fellow Angells, so you doe
147.00B.001 That I might make your Cabinet my tombe,
148.00A.002 In her dead face, halfe of your selfe shall see;
148.00A.012 And wee your rich Tombe in her face had seene;
148.00A.039 So, to your selfe you may additions take,
153.00A.008 Come to your knowledge, and affections too,
154.00A.009 One of your orders growes by his accesse;
155.00a.456 And haue your last, and best concoction
156.00a.057 Your force and vigor, ere it were neere gone,
157.00b.398 That saint, nor Pilgrime, which your louing vow
158.00A.157 That for them you would call your Loves lips white;
160.00A.044 Ioseph turne backe; see where your child doth sit,
160.00A.088 Have purely washt, or burnt your drossie clay;
161.00A.003 In me, your fatherly yet lusty Ryme
161.00A.009 I choose your judgement, which the same degree
161.00A.010 Doth with her sister, your invention, hold,
165.00A.002 Your trumpets, Angells, and arise, arise
165.00A.004 Of soules, and to your scattred bodies goe,
171.00A.004 Your force, to breake, blowe, burn and make me new.
171.00A.007 Reason your viceroy in mee, mee should defend,

171.00A.010 But am betroth'd unto youremie,
 181.00A.029 Then are you your own physicke, or need none,
 181.00A.032 Then are you to your selfe, a Crucifixe.
 181.00A.042 Your joy in crosses, else, 'tis double losse,

YOURS.....3

022.00A.032 Would change her course, before you alter yours;
 130.00A.034 And make you'asham'd, to make your hawks praise, yours,
 139.00A.048 And though what none else lost, be truliest yours,

YOUTH.....16

001.00A.084 Yonder well favoured youth? Which? Oh, 'tis hee [CW: And]
 008.00B.052 Much of my able youth, and lusty head
 021.00G.090 Win on your health, your youth, your beauty: so
 022.00A.005 Is it your beauties marke, or of your youth,
 050.00A.025 This is loves timber, youth his under-wood;
 050.00A.032 Her youth with ages glory, Barrennesse.
 078.00D.007 Of new-toucht youth; nor Ring to shew the stands
 112.00A.046 Utopian youth, growne old Italian.
 150.00A.053 What though thou found'st her prooffe 'gainst sins of youth?
 153.00A.128 As well, as lust and ignorance of youth;
 153.00A.141 So, youth is easiest to destruction,
 153.00A.159 Vertue, whose flood did with thy youth begin,
 158.00A.191 In this worlds youth wise nature did make hast,
 187.00A.217 27 'Tis good for one his yoake in youth to beare;
 187.00A.375 14 Elders, the gates; youth did their songs forbear,
 190.00A.024 Marry those loves, which in youth scattered bee

YOUTHES.....2

126.00A.011 In my youthes morning, now late must be done;
 153.00A.185 Though then to thy force, all youthes foes did yield,

YOUTHFULL.....1

157.00b.068 Where all sat harkning how her youthfull age

YOUTHS.....5

001.00A.062 Our subtile wittied antique youths will weare;
 010.00A.024 The sinnes of her owne youths ranke lustinesse;
 111.00A.019 Beleeeve mee Sir, in my youths giddiest dayes,
 153.00A.195 Of youths desires, and colds of ignorance,
 184.00A.022 Halfe wasted with youths fires, of pride and lust,

Z

ZABETH.....1

107.00A.HE2 zabeth, and Count Palatine being married on

ZANEE.....1

114.00A.030 Thy debter, thy'eccho, thy foyle, thy zanee.

ZEALE.....9

108.00A.018 First, zeale to Prince and State; then loves desires
 108.00A.037 Here zeale and love growne one, all clouds disgest,
 135.B13.013 And each for others faith, & zeale stand bound,
 136.00A.038 Must not grudge zeale a place, nor yet keepe none,
 142.00A.030 Have, through their zeale, Vertue but in their Gall.
 149.00B.045 So much did zeale her conscience rarifie,
 175.00B.013 And burne me o Lord, with a fiery zeale
 184.00A.116 Their zeale may be our sinne. Lord let us runne
 191.00B.033 And Davids Successors, in holy zeale,
